Genesis 1

The Creation of the World

Gen 1:1 In the beginning, when God created the universe,

Gen 1:2 the earth was formless and desolate. The raging ocean that covered everything was engulfed in total darkness, and the Spirit of God was moving over the water.

Gen 1:3 Then God commanded, "Let there be light"—and light appeared.

Gen 1:4 God was pleased with what he saw. Then he separated the light from the darkness,

Gen 1:5 and he named the light "Day" and the darkness "Night." Evening passed and morning came—that was the first day.

Gen 1:6 (6-7) Then God commanded, "Let there be a dome to divide the water and to keep it in two separate places"—and it was done. So God made a dome, and it separated the water under it from the water above it.

Gen 1:8 He named the dome "Sky." Evening passed and morning came —that was the second day.

Gen 1:9 Then God commanded, "Let the water below the sky come together in one place, so that the land will appear"—and it was done.

Gen 1:10 He named the land "Earth," and the water which had come together he named "Sea." And God was pleased with what he saw.

Gen 1:11 Then he commanded, "Let the earth produce all kinds of plants, those that bear grain and those that bear fruit"—and it was done.

Gen 1:12 So the earth produced all kinds of plants, and God was pleased with what he saw.

Gen 1:13 Evening passed and morning came—that was the third day.

Gen 1:14 Then God commanded, "Let lights appear in the sky to separate day from night and to show the time when days, years, and religious festivals begin;

Gen 1:15 they will shine in the sky to give light to the earth"—and it was done.

Gen 1:16 So God made the two larger lights, the sun to rule over the day and the moon to rule over the night; he also made the stars.

Gen 1:17 He placed the lights in the sky to shine on the earth,

Gen 1:18 to rule over the day and the night, and to separate light from darkness. And God was pleased with what he saw.

Gen 1:19 Evening passed and morning came—that was the fourth day.

Gen 1:20 Then God commanded, "Let the water be filled with many kinds of living beings, and let the air be filled with birds."

Gen 1:21 So God created the great sea monsters, all kinds of creatures that live in the water, and all kinds of birds. And God was pleased with what he saw.

Gen 1:22 He blessed them all and told the creatures that live in the water to reproduce and to fill the sea, and he told the birds to increase in number.

Gen 1:23 Evening passed and morning came—that was the fifth day.

Gen 1:24 Then God commanded, "Let the earth produce all kinds of animal life: domestic and wild, large and small"—and it was done.

Gen 1:25 So God made them all, and he was pleased with what he saw.

Gen 1:26 Then God said, "And now we will make human beings; they will be like us and resemble us. They will have power over the fish, the birds, and all animals, domestic and wild, large and small."

Gen 1:27 So God created human beings, making them to be like himself. He created them male and female,

Gen 1:28 blessed them, and said, "Have many children, so that your descendants will live all over the earth and bring it under their control. I am putting you in charge of the fish, the birds, and all the wild animals.

Gen 1:29 I have provided all kinds of grain and all kinds of fruit for you to eat;

Gen 1:30 but for all the wild animals and for all the birds I have provided grass and leafy plants for food"—and it was done.

Gen 1:31 God looked at everything he had made, and he was very pleased. Evening passed and morning came—that was the sixth day.

1In die begin het God die hemel en die aarde geskep. 2Die aarde was heeltemal onbewoonbaar, dit was donker op die diep waters, maar die Gees van God het oor die waters gesweef. 3Toe het God gesê: Laat daar lig wees! En daar was lig. 4God het gesien die lig is goed, en Hy het die lig en die donker van mekaar geskei. 5God het die lig toe dag genoem, en die donker het Hy nag genoem. Dit het aand geword en dit het môre geword. Dit was die eerste dag. 6Toe het God gesê: Laat daar 'n gewelf wees tussen die waters om die waters van mekaar te skei. 7So het dit gebeur. God het die gewelf gemaak en die waters onder die gewelf geskei van die waters bo die gewelf. 8God het die gewelf hemel genoem. Dit het aand geword en dit het môre geword. Dit was die tweede dag. 9Toe het God gesê: Laat die waters onder die hemel op een plek bymekaarkom sodat die droë grond sigbaar word. So het dit gebeur. 10God het die droë grond aarde genoem, en die waters wat bymekaargekom het, het Hy see genoem. En God het gesien dit is goed. 11Toe het God gesê: Laat daar uit die aarde groenigheid voortkom, groen plante wat saad gee en vrugtebome op die aarde, wat elkeen na sy aard vrugte dra en waarvan die saad in sy vrug sit. So het dit gebeur. 12Die aarde het groen plante laat uitspruit wat elkeen na sy aard saad gee, en bome wat vrugte dra met die saad daarin, elkeen na sy aard. En God het gesien dit is goed. 13Dit het aand geword en dit het môre geword. Dit was die derde dag. 14Toe het God gesê: Laat daar ligte wees aan die hemelgewelf om dag en nag van mekaar te skei. Hulle moet ook as tekens dien om seisoene, dae en jare aan te dui. 15Hulle moet ligte wees aan die hemelgewelf om op die aarde lig te gee. So het dit gebeur. 16God het die twee groot ligte gemaak, die grootste om bedags te heers en die kleiner lig om snags te heers, en ook die sterre. 17God het hulle in die hemelgewelf geplaas om op die aarde lig te gee, 18om oor dag en nag te heers en om lig en donker van mekaar te skei. En God het gesien dit is goed. 19Dit het aand geword en dit het môre geword. Dit was die vierde dag. 20Toe het God gesê: Laat die waters krioel van lewende wesens, en laat daar voëls onder die hemelgewelf oor die aarde vlieg. 21God het die groot seediere geskep en al die ander lewende wesens waarvan die waters krioel, almal na hulle aard; ook al die voëls na hulle aard. En God het gesien dit is goed. 22Toe het God hulle geseën: Wees vrugbaar, word baie en bewoon al die waters van die see. En laat die voëls baie word op land. 23Dit het aand geword en dit het môre geword. Dit was die vyfde dag. 24Toe het God gesê: Laat die aarde lewende wesens voortbring, elkeen na sy aard: mak diere, diere wat kruip, wilde diere, elkeen na sy aard. So het dit gebeur. 25God het die wilde diere op die aarde gemaak, elkeen na sy aard; ook die mak diere, elkeen na sy aard; en ook al die diere wat kruip, elkeen na sy aard. En God het gesien dit is goed. [26]Toe het God gesê: Kom Ons maak die mens as ons verteenwoordiger, ons beeld, sodat hy kan heers oor die vis in die see, die voëls in die lug, die mak diere, die wilde diere en al die diere wat op die aarde kruip. [27]God het die mens geskep as sy verteenwoordiger, as beeld van God het Hy die mens geskep, man en vrou het Hy hulle geskep. [28]Toe het God hulle geseën en vir hulle gesê: Wees vrugbaar, word baie, bewoon die aarde en bewerk dit. Heers oor die vis in die see, oor die voëls in die lug, oor al die diere van die aarde, ook oor die diere wat op die aarde kruip. [29]Verder het God gesê: Let op! Ek gee aan julle al die plante wat saad gee op die hele aarde; ook al die bome wat vrugte dra en saad gee. Dit sal julle kos wees. [30]Maar aan die wilde diere op die aarde en aan die voëls in die lug en aan die diere wat op die aarde kruip, aan alles wat leef, gee Ek al die groen plante as kos. So het dit gebeur. [31]Toe het God gekyk na alles wat Hy gemaak het, en dit was baie goed. Dit het aand geword en dit het môre geword. Dit was die sesde dag.

Genesis 2

The Seventh Day, God Rests

Gen 2:1 And so the whole universe was completed.

Gen 2:2 By the seventh day God finished what he had been doing and stopped working.

Gen 2:3 He blessed the seventh day and set it apart as a special day, because by that day he had completed his creation and stopped working.

The Creation of Man and Woman

Gen 2:4 And that is how the universe was created. When the LORD God made the universe,

Gen 2:5 there were no plants on the earth and no seeds had sprouted, because he had not sent any rain, and there was no one to cultivate the land;

Gen 2:6 but water would come up from beneath the surface and water the ground.

Gen 2:7 Then the LORD God took some soil from the ground and formed a man out of it; he breathed life-giving breath into his nostrils and the man began to live.

Gen 2:8 Then the LORD God planted a garden in Eden, in the East, and there he put the man he had formed.

Gen 2:9 He made all kinds of beautiful trees grow there and produce good fruit. In the middle of the garden stood the tree that gives life and the tree that gives knowledge of what is good and what is bad.

Gen 2:10 A stream flowed in Eden and watered the garden; beyond Eden it divided into four rivers.

Gen 2:11 The first river is the Pishon; it flows around the country of Havilah.

Gen 2:12 (Pure gold is found there and also rare perfume and precious stones.)

Gen 2:13 The second river is the Gihon; it flows around the country of Cush.

Gen 2:14 The third river is the Tigris, which flows east of Assyria, and the fourth river is the Euphrates.

Gen 2:15 Then the LORD God placed the man in the Garden of Eden to cultivate it and guard it.

Gen 2:16 He told him, "You may eat the fruit of any tree in the garden, Gen 2:17 except the tree that gives knowledge of what is good and what is bad. You must not eat the fruit of that tree; if you do, you will die the same day."

Gen 2:18 Then the LORD God said, "It is not good for the man to live alone. I will make a suitable companion to help him."

Gen 2:19 So he took some soil from the ground and formed all the animals and all the birds. Then he brought them to the man to see what he would name them; and that is how they all got their names.

Gen 2:20 So the man named all the birds and all the animals; but not one of them was a suitable companion to help him.

Gen 2:21 Then the LORD God made the man fall into a deep sleep, and while he was sleeping, he took out one of the man's ribs and closed up the flesh.

Gen 2:22 He formed a woman out of the rib and brought her to him.

Gen 2:23 Then the man said, "At last, here is one of my own kind—Bone taken from my bone, and flesh from my flesh. 'Woman' is her name because she was taken out of man."

Gen 2:24 That is why a man leaves his father and mother and is united with his wife, and they become one.

Gen 2:25 The man and the woman were both naked, but they were not embarrassed.

GENESIS 2

[1]Die hemel en alles daarin is voltooi en ook die aarde en alles daarop. [2]Op die sewende dag was God reeds klaar met die skeppingswerk en het Hy gerus na al die werk wat Hy gedoen het. [3]Hy het die sewende dag as gereelde rusdag geheilig, want op daardie dag het Hy gerus na al die skeppingswerk wat Hy gedoen het. [4]Dit dan is die geskiedenis van die hemel en die aarde toe hulle geskep is. Toe die Here God die aarde en die hemel gemaak het, [5]was daar nog nie enige struike op die aarde nie en het daar ook nog nie enige groenigheid opgeskiet nie, want die Here God het dit nog nie op die aarde laat reën nie, en daar was nog nie 'n mens om die grond te bewerk nie. [6]Daar het water uit die aarde uit opgekom en al die grond nat gemaak. [7]Die Here God het toe die mens gevorm uit stof van die aarde en lewensasem in sy neus geblaas, sodat die mens 'n lewende wese geword het. [8]Die Here God het toe 'n tuin in Eden in die ooste aangelê en die mens wat Hy gevorm het, daar laat woon. [9]Die Here God het verder allerlei bome, mooi om na te kyk en lekker om van te eet, uit die grond laat uitspruit, ook die boom van die lewe in die middel van die tuin, en die boom van alle kennis. [10]Daar het 'n rivier in Eden ontspring om die tuin nat te maak, en van daar af het dit verdeel en vier riviere geword. [11]Die eerste rivier is die Pison en dit loop rondom die hele Gawila, waar daar goud is. [12]Die goud van daardie land is suiwer. Daar is ook balsem en oniks. [13]Die tweede rivier is die Gihon en dit loop rondom die hele Kus. [14]Die derde is die Tigris wat oos van Assirië verbyloop, en die vierde is die Eufraat. [15]Die Here God het die mens in die tuin laat woon om dit te bewerk en op te pas. [16]Die Here God het die mens beveel: Van al die bome in die tuin mag jy eet soos jy wil, [17]maar van die boom van alle kennis mag jy nie eet nie. Die dag as jy daarvan eet, sterf jy. [18]Verder het die Here God gesê: Dit is nie goed dat die mens alleen is nie. Ek sal vir hom iemand maak wat hom kan help, sy gelyke. [19]Die Here God het toe uit grond al die wilde diere en al die voëls gevorm en na die mens toe gebring om vas te stel hoe hy elkeen sou noem; en wat die mens elke lewende wese sou noem, dit sou sy naam wees. [20]Die mens gee toe name vir al die mak diere, die voëls en die wilde diere, maar vir homself het hy nie 'n helper, 'n gelyke, gekry nie. [21]Toe het die Here God 'n diep slaap oor die mens laat kom, sodat hy vas geslaap het. Die Here God neem toe 'n ribbebeen uit die mens, vul die plek met vleis op, [22]en die ribbebeen wat Hy uit die mens geneem het, bou Hy om tot 'n vrou en bring haar na die mens toe. [23]Toe sê die mens: Hierdie keer is dit een uit myself, een soos ek. Daarom sal sy vrou' genoem word; sy is uit die man geneem. [24]Daarom sal 'n man sy vader en moeder verlaat en saam met sy vrou lewe, en hulle sal een word. [25]Hulle twee, die mens en sy vrou, was kaal, maar hulle was nie skaam nie.

Genesis 3

The Fall

Gen 3:1 Now the snake was the most cunning animal that the LORD God had made. The snake asked the woman, "Did God really tell you not to eat fruit from any tree in the garden?"

Gen 3:2 "We may eat the fruit of any tree in the garden," the woman answered,

Gen 3:3 "except the tree in the middle of it. God told us not to eat the fruit of that tree or even touch it; if we do, we will die."

Gen 3:4 The snake replied, "That's not true; you will not die.

Gen 3:5 God said that because he knows that when you eat it, you will be like God and know what is good and what is bad."

Gen 3:6 The woman saw how beautiful the tree was and how good its fruit would be to eat, and she thought how wonderful it would be to become wise. So she took some of the fruit and ate it. Then she gave some to her husband, and he also ate it.

Gen 3:7 As soon as they had eaten it, they were given understanding and realized that they were naked; so they sewed fig leaves together and covered themselves.

Gen 3:8 That evening they heard the LORD God walking in the garden, and they hid from him among the trees.

Gen 3:9 But the LORD God called out to the man, "Where are you?"

Gen 3:10 He answered, "I heard you in the garden; I was afraid and hid from you, because I was naked."

Gen 3:11 "Who told you that you were naked?" God asked. "Did you eat the fruit that I told you not to eat?"

Gen 3:12 The man answered, "The woman you put here with me gave me the fruit, and I ate it."

Gen 3:13 The LORD God asked the woman, "Why did you do this?" She replied, "The snake tricked me into eating it."

Gen 3:14 Then the LORD God said to the snake, "You will be punished for this; you alone of all the animals must bear this curse: From now on you will crawl on your belly, and you will have to eat dust as long as you live.

Gen 3:15 I will make you and the woman hate each other; her offspring and yours will always be enemies. Her offspring will crush your head, and you will bite her offspring's heel."

Gen 3:16 And he said to the woman, "I will increase your trouble in pregnancy and your pain in giving birth. In spite of this, you will still have desire for your husband, yet you will be subject to him."

Gen 3:17 And he said to the man, "You listened to your wife and ate the fruit which I told you not to eat. Because of what you have done, the ground will be under a curse. You will have to work hard all your life to make it produce enough food for you.

Gen 3:18 It will produce weeds and thorns, and you will have to eat wild plants.

Gen 3:19 You will have to work hard and sweat to make the soil produce anything, until you go back to the soil from which you were formed. You were made from soil, and you will become soil again."

Gen 3:20 Adam named his wife Eve, because she was the mother of all human beings.

Gen 3:21 And the LORD God made clothes out of animal skins for Adam and his wife, and he clothed them.

Gen 3:22 Then the LORD God said, "Now these human beings have become like one of us and have knowledge of what is good and what is bad. They must not be allowed to take fruit from the tree that gives life, eat it, and live forever."

Gen 3:23 So the LORD God sent them out of the Garden of Eden and made them cultivate the soil from which they had been formed.

Gen 3:24 Then at the east side of the garden he put living creatures and a flaming sword which turned in all directions. This was to keep anyone from coming near the tree that gives life.

1Die slang was listiger as al die wilde diere wat deur die Here God gemaak is en het vir die vrou gevra: Het God werklik gesê julle mag van geen boom in die tuin eet nie? 2Die vrou het die slang geantwoord: Ons mag eet van die vrugte van die bome in die tuin. 3God het net gesê ons mag nie eet van die vrugte van die boom in die middel van die tuin nie en ons mag dit nie aanraak nie, want dan sterf ons. 4Toe sê die slang vir die vrou: Julle sal beslis nie sterf nie, 5maar God weet dat julle oë sal oopgaan die dag as julle van daardie boom eet en dan sal julle soos God wees deurdat julle alles kan ken. 6Toe besef die vrou dat die boom se vrugte goed is om te eet en mooi om na te kyk en begeerlik omdat dit kennis kan gee. En sy het van sy vrugte gepluk en geëet. Sy het ook vir haar man by haar gegee, en hy het geëet. 7Hulle altwee se oë gaan toe oop, en hulle besef dat hulle kaal is. Toe werk hulle vyeblare aanmekaar en hang dit om vir klere. 8Hulle het gehoor hoe die Here God in die tuin wandel teen die tyd dat die aandwind opkom, en die mens en sy vrou het vir die Here God weggekruip tussen die bome van die tuin. 9Maar die Here God het na die mens geroep en vir hom gevra: Waar is jy? 10En die mens antwoord: Ek het U hoor wandel in die tuin en ek het bang geword, want ek is kaal. Toe het ek weggekruip. 11Die Here God vra toe: Hoe het jy te wete gekom dat jy kaal is? Het jy tog nie van die boom geëet waarvan Ek jou verbied het om te eet nie? 12Die mens het geantwoord: Die vrou wat U my gegee het om my by te staan, sy het vir my van die boom se vrugte gegee, en ek het geëet. 13Toe vra die Here God vir die vrou: Wat het jy nou gedoen? en sy sê: Die slang het my mislei, en ek het geëet. 14En die Here God sê vir die slang: Omdat jy dit gedoen het, is jy vervloek onder al die diere. Op jou maag sal jy seil en stof sal jy eet, jou lewe lank. 15Ek stel vyandskap tussen jou en die vrou, tussen jou nageslag en haar nageslag. Haar nageslag sal jou kop vermorsel en jy sal hom in die hakskeen byt. 16Vir die vrou het die Here God gesê: Ek sal jou baie swaar laat kry met jou swangerskappe: met pyn sal jy kinders in die wêreld bring. Na jou man sal jy hunker, en hy sal oor jou heers. 17Vir die mens het die Here God gesê: Omdat jy na jou vrou geluister het en geëet het van die boom waarvan Ek jou verbied het om te eet, is die aarde deur jou toedoen vervloek; met swaarkry sal jy daaruit 'n bestaan maak, jou lewe lank; 18die aarde sal vir jou dorings en dissels laat uitspruit, en jy sal veldplante eet; 19net deur harde werk sal jy kan eet, totdat jy terugkeer na die aarde toe, want daaruit is jy geneem. Stof is jy, en jy sal weer stof word. 20Die mens het sy vrou Eva genoem; sy was die moeder van al die mense. 21Daarna het die Here God vir die mens en sy vrou velklere gemaak, en hulle dit aangetrek. [22]Toe het die Here God gesê: Die mens het nou soos een van Ons geword deurdat hy alles kan ken. As hy nou maar net nie sy hand uitsteek en die vrug van die boom van die lewe vat en daarvan eet en altyd bly lewe nie! [23]Daarom het die Here God die mens weggestuur uit die tuin van Eden uit om die aarde te gaan bewerk, die aarde waaruit hy gemaak is. [24]Die Here God het die mens uitgedryf, en om die toegang tot die boom van die lewe te bewaak, het Hy oos van die tuin van Eden gerubs gesit, en ook 'n vlammende swaard wat heen en weer beweeg.

Cain and Abel

Gen 4:1 Then Adam had intercourse with his wife, and she became pregnant. She bore a son and said, "By the LORD's help I have gotten a son." So she named him Cain.

Gen 4:2 Later she gave birth to another son, Abel. Abel became a shepherd, but Cain was a farmer.

Gen 4:3 After some time Cain brought some of his harvest and gave it as an offering to the LORD.

Gen 4:4 Then Abel brought the first lamb born to one of his sheep, killed it, and gave the best parts of it as an offering. The LORD was pleased with Abel and his offering,

Gen 4:5 but he rejected Cain and his offering. Cain became furious, and he scowled in anger.

Gen 4:6 Then the LORD said to Cain, "Why are you angry? Why that scowl on your face?

Gen 4:7 If you had done the right thing, you would be smiling; but because you have done evil, sin is crouching at your door. It wants to rule you, but you must overcome it."

Gen 4:8 Then Cain said to his brother Abel, "Let's go out in the fields." When they were out in the fields, Cain turned on his brother and killed him.

Gen 4:9 The LORD asked Cain, "Where is your brother Abel?" He answered, "I don't know. Am I supposed to take care of my brother?"

Gen 4:10 Then the LORD said, "Why have you done this terrible thing? Your brother's blood is crying out to me from the ground, like a voice calling for revenge.

Gen 4:11 You are placed under a curse and can no longer farm the soil. It has soaked up your brother's blood as if it had opened its mouth to receive it when you killed him.

Gen 4:12 If you try to grow crops, the soil will not produce anything; you will be a homeless wanderer on the earth."

Gen 4:13 And Cain said to the LORD, "This punishment is too hard for me to bear.

Gen 4:14 You are driving me off the land and away from your presence. I will be a homeless wanderer on the earth, and anyone who finds me will kill me."

Gen 4:15 But the LORD answered, "No. If anyone kills you, seven lives will be taken in revenge." So the LORD put a mark on Cain to warn anyone who met him not to kill him.

Gen 4:16 And Cain went away from the LORD's presence and lived in a land called "Wandering," which is east of Eden.

Gen 4:17 Cain and his wife had a son and named him Enoch. Then Cain built a city and named it after his son.

Gen 4:18 Enoch had a son named Irad, who was the father of Mehujael, and Mehujael had a son named Methushael, who was the father of Lamech.

Gen 4:19 Lamech had two wives, Adah and Zillah.

Gen 4:20 Adah gave birth to Jabal, who was the ancestor of those who raise livestock and live in tents.

Gen 4:21 His brother was Jubal, the ancestor of all musicians who play the harp and the flute.

Gen 4:22 Zillah gave birth to Tubal Cain, who made all kinds of tools out of bronze and iron. The sister of Tubal Cain was Naamah.

Gen 4:23 Lamech said to his wives, "Adah and Zillah, listen to me: I have killed a young man because he struck me.

Gen 4:24 If seven lives are taken to pay for killing Cain, Seventy-seven will be taken if anyone kills me."

Gen 4:25 Adam and his wife had another son. She said, "God has given me a son to replace Abel, whom Cain killed." So she named him Seth.

Gen 4:26 Seth had a son whom he named Enosh. It was then that people began using the LORD's holy name in worship.

1Die mens het met sy vrou Eva gemeenskap gehad, en sy het swanger geword. Sy het vir Kain in die wêreld gebring en uitgeroep: Ek het 'n man in die wêreld gebring met die hulp van die Here! 2Sy het weer 'n kind gekry, Abel, 'n broer vir Kain. Abel was 'n veeboer en Kain 'n saaiboer. 3Na verloop van tyd het Kain van die opbrengs van die land 'n offer aan die Here gebring. 4Abel het dit ook gedoen, van die eerstelinge uit sy kudde, van hulle vet. Die Here het vir Abel en sy offer aangeneem, 5maar nie vir Kain en sy offer nie. Kain het baie kwaad geword en hy was bedruk. 6Toe sê die Here vir Kain: Waarom is jy kwaad? Waarom is jy bedruk? 7Wag daar nie vir jou blydskap as jy goed doen nie? As jy nie goed doen nie die sonde wag jou in daarbuite en hy wil jou in sy mag kry. Maar jy moet oor hom heers. 8Kain het met sy broer Abel gepraat, en toe hulle in die veld was, het Kain vir Abel oorweldig en hom doodgemaak. 9Toe vra die Here vir Kain: Waar is jou broer Abel? en Kain antwoord: Ek weet nie. Moet ek dan my broer oppas? 10Maar die Here sê: Wat het jy gedoen? Die bloed van jou broer roep van die aarde af na My. 11Vervloek is jy dan nou, verban van die grond af wat gretig die bloed van jou broer uit jou hand opgeslurp het. 12Wanneer jy die grond bewerk, sal dit nie sy opbrengs vir jou gee nie. Jy sal 'n doellose swerwer op aarde word! 13Toe sê Kain vir die Here: My straf is te swaar om te dra. 14U verdryf my nou van my grond af, en tot U het ek nie meer toegang nie. Ek sal 'n doellose swerwer op aarde wees, en wie my raakloop, sal my vermoor. 15Maar die Here sê vir hom: Nee! Wie vir Kain vermoor, sal sewe maal gestraf word. Toe gee die Here vir Kain 'n teken sodat niemand wat hom raakloop, hom sou doodmaak nie. 16En Kain het van die Here af weggegaan. Hy het gaan woon in Nod , oos van Eden. 17Kain het met sy vrou gemeenskap gehad, en sy het swanger geword en vir Henog in die wêreld gebring. Kain het daarna 'n stad begin bou en hy het die stad na sy seun Henog vernoem. 18Vir Henog is 'n seun Irad gebore, en Irad was die vader van Megujael, en dié was die vader van Metusael, en dié was die vader van Lameg. 19Lameg was met twee vrouens getroud. Die een was Ada en die ander Silla. 20Ada het vir Jabal in die wêreld gebring. Hy was die stamvader van dié wat in tente by hulle kuddes woon. 21Die naam van sy broer was Jubal en hy was die stamvader van dié wat op die lier en die fluit speel. 22Silla weer het vir Tubal-Kain in die wêreld gebring, en hy was 'n smid, 'n vakman in koper en yster. Sy suster was Naäma. 23Lameg het vir sy vrouens gesê: Ada en Silla, luister na my! Vrouens van Lameg, let op my woorde! Ek maak 'n man dood as hy my wond, 'n seun as hy my seermaak. 24Kain sal sewe maal gewreek word, Lameg sewe en sewentig maal! [25]Adam het weer met sy vrou gemeenskap gehad, en sy het 'n seun in die wêreld gebring en hom Set genoem, want, het sy gesê, God het vir my 'n ander kind gegee in die plek van Abel omdat Kain hom vermoor het. [26]Ook vir Set is daar 'n seun gebore, en Set het hom Enos genoem. In daardie tyd het die mense begin om die Naam van die Here aan te roep.

Genesis 5

Adam's Descendants to Noah

Gen 5:1 This is the list of the descendants of Adam. (When God created human beings, he made them like himself.

Gen 5:2 He created them male and female, blessed them, and named them "Human Beings.")

Gen 5:3 When Adam was 130 years old, he had a son who was like him, and he named him Seth.

Gen 5:4 After that, Adam lived another 800 years. He had other children

Gen 5:5 and died at the age of 930.

Gen 5:6 When Seth was 105, he had a son, Enosh,

Gen 5:7 and then lived another 807 years. He had other children

Gen 5:8 and died at the age of 912.

Gen 5:9 When Enosh was 90, he had a son, Kenan,

Gen 5:10 and then lived another 815 years. He had other children

Gen 5:11 and died at the age of 905.

Gen 5:12 When Kenan was 70, he had a son, Mahalalel,

Gen 5:13 and then lived another 840 years. He had other children

Gen 5:14 and died at the age of 910.

Gen 5:15 When Mahalalel was 65, he had a son, Jared,

Gen 5:16 and then lived another 830 years. He had other children

Gen 5:17 and died at the age of 895.

Gen 5:18 When Jared was 162, he had a son, Enoch,

Gen 5:19 and then lived another 800 years. He had other children

Gen 5:20 and died at the age of 962.

Gen 5:21 When Enoch was 65, he had a son, Methuselah.

Gen 5:22 After that, Enoch lived in fellowship with God for 300 years and had other children.

Gen 5:23 He lived to be 365 years old.

Gen 5:24 He spent his life in fellowship with God, and then he disappeared, because God took him away.

Gen 5:25 When Methuselah was 187, he had a son, Lamech,

Gen 5:26 and then lived another 782 years. He had other children

Gen 5:27 and died at the age of 969.

Gen 5:28 When Lamech was 182, he had a son

Gen 5:29 and said, "From the very ground on which the LORD put a curse, this child will bring us relief from all our hard work"; so he named him Noah.

Gen 5:30 Lamech lived another 595 years. He had other children

Gen 5:31 and died at the age of 777.

Gen 5:32 After Noah was 500 years old, he had three sons, Shem, Ham, and Japheth.

GENESIS 5

[1]Hier volg die geslagsregister van Adam. Toe God die mense geskep het, het Hy hulle gemaak as beeld van Homself. [2]Man en vrou het Hy hulle geskep en Hy het hulle geseën en hulle mens genoem toe hulle geskep is. [3]Toe Adam 130 was, het hy die vader geword van 'n seun, sy beeld, een soos hyself. Adam het hom Set genoem. [4]Nadat Set vir hom gebore is, het Adam nog 800 jaar geleef en seuns en dogters gehad. [5]Adam was dus 930 jaar toe hy gesterf het. [6]Toe Set 105 was, het hy die vader geword van Enos. [7]Set het na die geboorte van Enos nog 807 jaar geleef en het seuns en dogters gehad. [8]Set was dus 912 jaar toe hy gesterf het. [9]Toe Enos 90 was, het hy die vader geword van Kenan. [10]Enos het na die geboorte van Kenan nog 815 jaar geleef en het seuns en dogters gehad. [11]Enos was dus 905 jaar toe hy gesterf het. [12]Toe Kenan 70 was, het hy die vader geword van Mahalalel. [13]Kenan het na die geboorte van Mahalalel nog 840 jaar geleef en het seuns en dogters gehad. [14]Kenan was dus 910 jaar toe hy gesterf het. [15]Toe Mahalalel 65 was, het hy die vader geword van Jered. [16]Mahalalel het na die geboorte van Jered nog 830 jaar geleef en het seuns en dogters gehad. [17]Mahalalel was dus 895 jaar toe hy gesterf het. [18]Toe Jered 162 was, het hy die vader geword van Henog. [19]Jered het na die geboorte van Henog nog 800 jaar geleef en het seuns en dogters gehad. [20]Jered was dus 962 jaar toe hy gesterf het. [21]Toe Henog 65 was, het hy die vader geword van Metusalag. [22]Henog het na die geboorte van Metusalag nog 300 jaar naby God geleef en het seuns en dogters gehad. [23]Henog se ouderdom was dus 365 jaar. [24]Hy het naby God geleef en toe was hy nie meer daar nie, want God het hom na Hom toe weggeneem. [25]Toe Metusalag 187 was, het hy die vader geword van Lameg. [26]Metusalag het na die geboorte van Lameg nog 782 jaar geleef en het seuns en dogters gehad. [27]Metusalag was dus 969 jaar toe hy gesterf het. [28]Toe Lameg 182 was, het hy die vader geword van 'n seun. [29]Hy het die seun Noag genoem, want, het hy gesê, hierdie seun sal ons opbeur in die harde werk met ons hande en in ons swaarkry op die grond wat deur die Here vervloek is. [30]Lameg het na die geboorte van Noag nog 595 jaar geleef en hy het seuns en dogters gehad. [31]Lameg was dus 777 jaar toe hy gesterf het. [32]Toe Noag 500 was, het hy die vader geword van Sem, Gam en Jafet.

Genesis 6

Increasing Corruption on Earth

Gen 6:1 When people had spread all over the world, and daughters were being born,

Gen 6:2 some of the heavenly beings saw that these young women were beautiful, so they took the ones they liked.

Gen 6:3 Then the LORD said, "I will not allow people to live forever; they are mortal. From now on they will live no longer than 120 years."

Gen 6:4 In those days, and even later, there were giants on the earth who were descendants of human women and the heavenly beings. They were the great heroes and famous men of long ago.

Gen 6:5 When the LORD saw how wicked everyone on earth was and how evil their thoughts were all the time,

Gen 6:6 he was sorry that he had ever made them and put them on the earth. He was so filled with regret

Gen 6:7 that he said, "I will wipe out these people I have created, and also the animals and the birds, because I am sorry that I made any of them."

Gen 6:8 But the LORD was pleased with Noah.

Noah and the Flood

Gen 6:9 (9-10) This is the story of Noah. He had three sons, Shem, Ham, and Japheth. Noah had no faults and was the only good man of his time. He lived in fellowship with God,

Gen 6:11 but everyone else was evil in God's sight, and violence had spread everywhere.

Gen 6:12 God looked at the world and saw that it was evil, for the people were all living evil lives.

Gen 6:13 God said to Noah, "I have decided to put an end to all people. I will destroy them completely, because the world is full of their violent deeds.

Gen 6:14 Build a boat for yourself out of good timber; make rooms in it and cover it with tar inside and out.

Gen 6:15 Make it 450 feet long, 75 feet wide, and 45 feet high.

Gen 6:16 Make a roof for the boat and leave a space of 18 inches between the roof and the sides. Build it with three decks and put a door in the side.

Gen 6:17 I am going to send a flood on the earth to destroy every living being. Everything on the earth will die,

Gen 6:18 but I will make a covenant with you. Go into the boat with your wife, your sons, and their wives.

Gen 6:19 (19-20) Take into the boat with you a male and a female of every kind of animal and of every kind of bird, in order to keep them alive.

Gen 6:21 Take along all kinds of food for you and for them."

Gen 6:22 Noah did everything that God commanded.

GENESIS 6

[1]Toe die mense baie begin word het op die aarde en daar vir hulle dogters gebore is, [2]het die hemelwesens gesien die dogters van die mense is mooi en het hulle getrou met die dogters van hulle keuse. [3]Toe sê die Here: My Gees sal nie meer so lank in die mens bly nie, want hy is sterflik. Sy lewensduur sal nou honderd en twintig jaar wees. [4]In daardie tyd was daar reuse op die aarde, en ook daarna wanneer die hemelwesens na die dogters van die mense toe gekom en kinders by hulle gehad het. Hulle was die sterk mense van die ou tyd, die manne van naam. [5]Toe die Here sien hoe groot die verdorwenheid van die mens op aarde is en dat hy sy lewe lank net slegte dinge bedink, [6]was die Here bedroef daaroor dat Hy die mens op die aarde gemaak het. Dit het Hom diep gegrief. [7]Die Here het gesê: Ek sal die mens wat Ek geskep het, wegvee van die aarde af; mens en dier, ook dié wat kruip, en die voëls, want Ek is bedroef daaroor dat Ek hulle gemaak het. [8]Maar Noag is deur die Here begenadig. [9]Hier volg die verhaal van Noag. Noag was 'n regverdige man. Onder sy tydgenote was hy onberispelik en hy het naby God geleef. [10]Noag het drie seuns gehad: Sem, Gam en Jafet. [11]Die aarde was korrup in die oë van God, vol geweld; [12]Hy het die aarde gesien: dit was korrup, elke mens op aarde se lewe was verrot. [13]Toe sê God vir Noag: Ek het besluit om 'n einde te maak aan alle mense, want deur hulle toedoen is die aarde vol geweld. Ek gaan hulle saam met die aarde verdelg. [14]Maak vir jou 'n ark van goferhout. Jy moet vertrekke in die ark maak en dit binne en buite met pik dig maak. [15]Jy moet dit soos volg maak: die lengte van die ark moet honderd vyf en dertig meter wees, sy breedte twee en twintig en 'n half meter en sy hoogte dertien en 'n half meter. [16]Jy moet 'n dak vir die ark maak en sy nok moet jy vyf en veertig sentimeter hoog maak. Verder moet jy 'n deur aan die kant van die ark insit en 'n onderste, middelste en boonste verdieping maak. [17]Ek gaan 'n oorstroming oor die aarde laat kom om al wat daarop lewe, te verdelg, elke lewende ding onder die hemel. Alles wat op die aarde is, sal omkom, [18]maar met jou wil Ek 'n verbond sluit. Jy moet in die ark ingaan, jy en jou seuns en jou vrou en jou skoondogters. [19]Van al wat leef, van al die diere, moet jy twee van elk, manlik en vroulik, in die ark laat ingaan om saam met jou aan die lewe te bly. [20]Van elke soort voël en dier, ook van dié wat kruip, van almal sal daar twee na jou toe kom om aan die lewe te bly. [21]Jy moet vir jou kos saamvat, van alles wat geëet kan word, en dit by jou wegpak. Dit sal jou en die diere se kos wees. [22]Noag het alles gedoen presies soos God hom beveel het.

Genesis 7

Gen 7:1 The LORD said to Noah, "Go into the boat with your whole family; I have found that you are the only one in all the world who does what is right.

Gen 7:2 Take with you seven pairs of each kind of ritually clean animal, but only one pair of each kind of unclean animal.

Gen 7:3 Take also seven pairs of each kind of bird. Do this so that every kind of animal and bird will be kept alive to reproduce again on the earth.

Gen 7:4 Seven days from now I am going to send rain that will fall for forty days and nights, in order to destroy all the living beings that I have made."

Gen 7:5 And Noah did everything that the LORD commanded.

Gen 7:6 Noah was six hundred years old when the flood came on the earth.

Gen 7:7 He and his wife, and his sons and their wives, went into the boat to escape the flood.

Gen 7:8 A male and a female of every kind of animal and bird, whether ritually clean or unclean,

Gen 7:9 went into the boat with Noah, as God had commanded.

Gen 7:10 Seven days later the flood came.

Gen 7:11 When Noah was six hundred years old, on the seventeenth day of the second month all the outlets of the vast body of water beneath the earth burst open, all the floodgates of the sky were opened,

Gen 7:12 and rain fell on the earth for forty days and nights.

Gen 7:13 On that same day Noah and his wife went into the boat with their three sons, Shem, Ham, and Japheth, and their wives.

Gen 7:14 With them went every kind of animal, domestic and wild, large and small, and every kind of bird.

Gen 7:15 A male and a female of each kind of living being went into the boat with Noah, Gen 7:16 as God had commanded. Then the LORD shut the door behind Noah.

Gen 7:17 The flood continued for forty days, and the water became deep enough for the boat to float.

Gen 7:18 The water became deeper, and the boat drifted on the surface.

Gen 7:19 It became so deep that it covered the highest mountains;

Gen 7:20 it went on rising until it was about twenty-five feet above the tops of the mountains.

Gen 7:21 Every living being on the earth died—every bird, every animal, and every person.

Gen 7:22 Everything on earth that breathed died.

Gen 7:23 The LORD destroyed all living beings on the earth—human beings, animals, and birds. The only ones left were Noah and those who were with him in the boat.

Gen 7:24 The water did not start going down for a hundred and fifty days.

1Toe sê die Here vir Noag: Jy en jou hele gesin moet in die ark ingaan. Ek het jou gesien en onder hierdie geslag bevind Ek jou regverdig. 2Van al die rein diere moet jy sewe pare, manlik en vroulik, saamvat en van al die onrein diere net een paar, manlik en vroulik. 3Ook uit die voëls moet jy sewe pare, mannetjies en wyfies, saamvat. Dit moet jy doen om al die soorte op die hele aarde aan die lewe te laat bly. 4Oor sewe dae sal Ek dit veertig dae en nagte lank laat reën en alles wat leef, wat Ek gemaak het, wegvee van die aarde af. 5Noag het alles gedoen soos die Here hom beveel het. 6Noag was ses honderd jaar toe die vloedwaters oor die aarde gekom het. 7Noag en sy seuns en sy vrou en sy skoondogters het in die ark ingegaan vir die vloedwaters. 8Die rein en die onrein diere, die voëls, en die diere wat kruip, 9het in pare, manlik en vroulik, na Noag toe in die ark gekom soos God vir Noag gesê het. 10Op die sewende dag het die vloedwaters oor die aarde gekom. 11Presies op die sewentiende dag van die tweede maand van die ses honderdste jaar van Noag het die fonteine van die groot waters oopgebreek. Die vensters van die hemel is oopgemaak, 12sodat daar 'n stortreën op die aarde geval het, veertig dae en veertig nagte lank. 13Dit was die dag waarop Noag en sy seuns, Sem, Gam en Jafet, en sy vrou en sy drie skoondogters almal saam in die ark ingegaan het. 14Hulle, en elke soort wilde dier en mak dier, en al die soorte diere wat kruip, en elke soort voël, alles wat vlieg, het ingegaan. 15Van al wat leef, het daar pare-pare na Noag toe in die ark gekom. 16Hulle het ingekom, manlik en vroulik, soos God vir Noag gesê het. En toe het die Here die ark agter Noag toegesluit. 17Die oorstroming het oor die aarde gekom, veertig dae lank, en die water het al hoe meer geword. Dit het die ark opgelig en die ark het begin opstyg bokant die aarde. 18Maar die waters het nog meer en nog sterker geword op die aarde en die ark het op die waters begin dryf. 19Die waters op die aarde het nog meer en meer geword, sodat hulle al die hoë berge wat daar onder die hemel is, bedek het. 20Die water het amper sewe meter bokant die berge gestyg en dit bedek. 21Al wat op die aarde geleef het, het omgekom: diere wat kruip, voëls, mak diere, wilde diere, ja, alles wat op aarde wemel, ook al die mense; 22alles wat die lewensasem in die neus gehad het, alles wat op land geleef het, is dood. 23So het God alles wat op die aarde geleef het, uitgewis: mens en dier, ook dié wat kruip, en die voëls, hulle almal is weggevee van die aarde af. Net Noag en dié by hom in die ark is gespaar. 24Die water het die aarde honderd en vyftig dae lank oorstroom.

The Flood Subsides

Gen 8:1 God had not forgotten Noah and all the animals with him in the boat; he caused a wind to blow, and the water started going down.

Gen 8:2 The outlets of the water beneath the earth and the floodgates of the sky were closed. The rain stopped,

Gen 8:3 and the water gradually went down for 150 days.

Gen 8:4 On the seventeenth day of the seventh month the boat came to rest on a mountain in the Ararat range.

Gen 8:5 The water kept going down, and on the first day of the tenth month the tops of the mountains appeared.

Gen 8:6 After forty days Noah opened a window

Gen 8:7 and sent out a raven. It did not come back, but kept flying around until the water was completely gone.

Gen 8:8 Meanwhile, Noah sent out a dove to see if the water had gone down,

Gen 8:9 but since the water still covered all the land, the dove did not find a place to light. It flew back to the boat, and Noah reached out and took it in.

Gen 8:10 He waited another seven days and sent out the dove again.

Gen 8:11 It returned to him in the evening with a fresh olive leaf in its beak. So Noah knew that the water had gone down.

Gen 8:12 Then he waited another seven days and sent out the dove once more; this time it did not come back.

Gen 8:13 When Noah was 601 years old, on the first day of the first month, the water was gone. Noah removed the covering of the boat, looked around, and saw that the ground was getting dry.

Gen 8:14 By the twenty-seventh day of the second month the earth was completely dry.

Gen 8:15 God said to Noah,

Gen 8:16 "Go out of the boat with your wife, your sons, and their wives.

Gen 8:17 Take all the birds and animals out with you, so that they may reproduce and spread over all the earth."

Gen 8:18 So Noah went out of the boat with his wife, his sons, and their wives.

Gen 8:19 All the animals and birds went out of the boat in groups of their own kind.

God's Covenant with Noah

Gen 8:20 Noah built an altar to the LORD; he took one of each kind of ritually clean animal and bird, and burned them whole as a sacrifice on the altar.

Gen 8:21 The odor of the sacrifice pleased the LORD, and he said to himself, "Never again will I put the earth under a curse because of what people do; I know that from the time they are young their thoughts are evil. Never again will I destroy all living beings, as I have done this time.

Gen 8:22 As long as the world exists, there will be a time for planting and a time for harvest. There will always be cold and heat, summer and winter, day and night."

GENESIS 8

1Toe het God gedink aan Noag en aan al die wilde diere en die mak diere wat by hom in die ark was, en God het 'n wind oor die aarde laat waai, en die waters het teruggetrek. 2Die fonteine van die groot waters en die vensters van die hemel is toegemaak, en die stortreën uit die hemel het opgehou. 3Die water het al hoe meer weggesak van die aarde af. Na honderd en vyftig dae het die water so gesak 4dat die ark op die sewentiende van die sewende maand op die Araratberge tot rus gekom het. 5Die water het aangehou sak en op die eerste van die tiende maand het die bergtoppe sigbaar geword. 6Veertig dae later het Noag die venster wat hy vir die ark ingesit het, oopgemaak 7en 'n kraai losgelaat, maar dit het heen en weer gevlieg totdat die water op die aarde opgedroog het. 8Noag het toe 'n duif losgelaat om te probeer vasstel of die water al van die aarde af verdwyn het. 9Maar oral op die aarde was daar nog water, en die duif kon nie 'n rusplekkie kry vir die holte van sy voet nie en het na Noag toe in die ark teruggekom. Hy het dit toe met sy hand gevang en in die ark teruggesit. 10Noag het toe nog sewe dae gewag en weer die duif uit die ark uit losgelaat. 11Teen die aand het die duif na hom toe teruggekom, nogal met 'n varsgeplukte olyfblaar in sy bek. Toe het Noag geweet dat die water op die aarde opdroog. 12Hy het nog sewe dae gewag en die duif losgelaat, maar dit het nie weer na hom toe teruggekom nie. 13Op die eerste dag van die eerste maand van die ses honderd en eerste jaar van Noag was die water op die aarde heeltemal weggedroog. Noag het die luik van die ark oopgemaak en uitgekyk. Die hele aarde was droog. 14Op die sewe en twintigste van die tweede maand was die aarde droog, 15en toe sê God vir Noag: 16Gaan uit die ark uit, jy en jou vrou en jou seuns en hulle vrouens, 17en al die lewende wesens wat by jou is, van watter soort hulle ook al is: voëls, diere en alles wat kruip. Hulle moet saam met jou uitgaan. Hulle moet wemel op die aarde en vrugbaar wees en baie word op die aarde. 18Noag en sy seuns en sy vrou en sy skoondogters het uitgegaan, 19en ook al die diere, al die voëls en alles wat kruip, het uit die ark uitgegaan, almal volgens hulle soorte. 20Toe het Noag 'n altaar vir die Here gebou en van al die rein vee en die rein voëls gevat en brandoffers op die altaar gebring. 21Die Here het die offer aanvaar en Hy het by Homself gesê: Ek sal nie weer so 'n ramp oor die aarde laat kom vanweë die mens nie. Van sy jeug af bedink die mens net slegte dinge, maar Ek sal nie weer al wat lewe laat omkom soos Ek gedoen het nie. 22So lank as die aarde bly bestaan, sal saaityd en oestyd nie ophou nie, ook nie koue en hitte, somer en winter, dag en nag nie.

Genesis 9

Gen 9:1 God blessed Noah and his sons and said, "Have many children, so that your descendants will live all over the earth.

Gen 9:2 All the animals, birds, and fish will live in fear of you. They are all placed under your power.

Gen 9:3 Now you can eat them, as well as green plants; I give them all to you for food.

Gen 9:4 The one thing you must not eat is meat with blood still in it; I forbid this because the life is in the blood.

Gen 9:5 If anyone takes human life, he will be punished. I will punish with death any animal that takes a human life.

Gen 9:6 Human beings were made like God, so whoever murders one of them will be killed by someone else.

Gen 9:7 "You must have many children, so that your descendants will live all over the earth."

Gen 9:8 God said to Noah and his sons,

Gen 9:9 "I am now making my covenant with you and with your descendants,

Gen 9:10 and with all living beings—all birds and all animals—everything that came out of the boat with you.

Gen 9:11 With these words I make my covenant with you: I promise that never again will all living beings be destroyed by a flood; never again will a flood destroy the earth.

Gen 9:12 As a sign of this everlasting covenant which I am making with you and with all living beings,

Gen 9:13 I am putting my bow in the clouds. It will be the sign of my covenant with the world.

Gen 9:14 Whenever I cover the sky with clouds and the rainbow appears,

Gen 9:15 I will remember my promise to you and to all the animals that a flood will never again destroy all living beings.

Gen 9:16 When the rainbow appears in the clouds, I will see it and remember the everlasting covenant between me and all living beings on earth.

Gen 9:17 That is the sign of the promise which I am making to all living beings."

Noah's Descendants

Gen 9:18 The sons of Noah who went out of the boat were Shem, Ham, and Japheth. (Ham was the father of Canaan.)

Gen 9:19 These three sons of Noah were the ancestors of all the people on earth.

Gen 9:20 Noah, who was a farmer, was the first man to plant a vineyard.

Gen 9:21 After he drank some of the wine, he became drunk, took off his clothes, and lay naked in his tent.

Gen 9:22 When Ham, the father of Canaan, saw that his father was naked, he went out and told his two brothers.

Gen 9:23 Then Shem and Japheth took a robe and held it behind them on their shoulders. They walked backward into the tent and covered their father, keeping their faces turned away so as not to see him naked.

Gen 9:24 When Noah sobered up and learned what his youngest son had done to him, Gen 9:25 he said, "A curse on Canaan! He will be a slave to his brothers.

Gen 9:26 Give praise to the LORD, the God of Shem! Canaan will be the slave of Shem.

Gen 9:27 May God cause Japheth to increase! May his descendants live with the people of Shem! Canaan will be the slave of Japheth."

Gen 9:28 After the flood Noah lived 350 years

Gen 9:29 and died at the age of 950.

1God het vir Noag en sy seuns geseën en vir hulle gesê: Wees vrugbaar, word baie en bewoon die aarde. 2Al die diere, al die voëls, al die diere wat kruip, en al die vis sal vir julle bang wees en vir julle skrik. Hulle word tot julle beskikking gestel. 3Alles wat roer en lewe, sal kos wees vir julle. Naas die groen plante gee Ek dit alles vir julle. 4Julle mag net nie vleis eet met sy lewe in, dit is met sy bloed in nie. 5Wanneer julle eie bloed vergiet word, sal Ek daaroor rekenskap eis, want dit is julle lewe: van 'n dier sal Ek rekenskap eis oor die lewe van 'n mens, en van 'n mens sal Ek rekenskap eis oor die lewe van sy medemens. 6Wie die bloed van 'n mens vergiet, deur 'n mens sal sy bloed vergiet word. God het die mens gemaak as sy verteenwoordiger. 7Maar júlle moet vrugbaar wees en baie word. Vermeerder op die aarde en word baie! 8Verder het God vir Noag en sy seuns gesê: 9Kyk, Ek sluit 'n verbond met julle en julle nageslag 10en met al die lewende wesens by julle: die voëls, die mak diere en die wilde diere by julle, naamlik met al die wilde diere wat uit die ark uitgekom het. 11Ek sal my verbond met julle hou: mens en dier sal nie weer deur vloedwaters uitgewis word nie. Daar sal nie weer 'n oorstroming wees wat die aarde sal oorweldig nie. 12Toe het God gesê: Dit is die teken van die verbond tussen My en julle en die wilde diere by julle, 'n verbond wat vir alle toekomstige geslagte geld: 13my reënboog het Ek in die wolke geplaas. Dit sal die teken wees van die verbond tussen My en die aarde. 14Wanneer Ek wolke oor die aarde laat saampak, en die reënboog verskyn in hulle, 15sal Ek dink aan my verbond met julle en al die wilde diere volgens hulle soorte. Daar sal nooit weer vloedwaters kom wat alle lewende wesens uitroei nie. 16Die reënboog sal in die wolke wees, en wanneer Ek dit sien, sal Ek dink aan die ewige verbond tussen My en al die lewende wesens op die aarde. 17God het vir Noag gesê: Dit is dan die teken van die verbond wat Ek tot stand gebring het tussen My en al die lewende wesens op die aarde. 18Noag se seuns wat uit die ark gekom het, was Sem, Gam en Jafet. Gam was die pa van Kanaän. 19Dit was Noag se drie seuns en uit hulle is die hele aarde bevolk. 20Noag was 'n boer, die eerste wat 'n wingerd geplant het. 21Hy het wyn gedrink en dronk geword. Toe het hy kaal in sy tent gelê. 22Gam, die pa van Kanaän, het gesien sy pa is kaal en het dit buite vir sy twee broers gaan vertel. 23Sem en Jafet het toe 'n kledingstuk van Noag gevat, dit oor hulle skouers gehou en agteruit geloop en hulle pa toegemaak. Hulle het anderpad gekyk, sodat hulle nie hul pa kaal sou sien nie. 24Toe Noag uit sy roes wakker word en verneem wat Gam, sy jongste, hom aangedoen het, 25sê hy: Vervloek is Kanaän! 'n Nikswerd slaaf sal hy wees, in diens van sy broers. 26Verder het hy gesê: Prys die Here, die God van Sem! Kanaän moet Sem se slaaf wees. 27Mag God aan Jafet 'n ruim woonplek gee, mag hy welkom wees in die tente van Sem. Kanaän moet Jafet se slaaf wees. 28Na die oorstroming het Noag nog drie honderd en vyftig jaar geleef. 29Noag was dus nege honderd en vyftig jaar toe hy gesterf het.

Nations Descended from Noah

Gen 10:1 These are the descendants of Noah's sons, Shem, Ham, and Japheth. These three had sons after the flood.

Gen 10:2 The sons of Japheth—Gomer, Magog, Madai, Javan, Tubal, Meshech, and Tiras—were the ancestors of the peoples who bear their names.

Gen 10:3 The descendants of Gomer were the people of Ashkenaz, Riphath, and Togarmah.

Gen 10:4 The descendants of Javan were the people of Elishah, Spain, Cyprus, and Rhodes;

Gen 10:5 they were the ancestors of the people who live along the coast and on the islands. These are the descendants of Japheth, living in their different tribes and countries, each group speaking its own language.

Gen 10:6 The sons of Ham—Cush, Egypt, Libya, and Canaan—were the ancestors of the peoples who bear their names.

Gen 10:7 The descendants of Cush were the people of Seba, Havilah, Sabtah, Raamah, and Sabteca. The descendants of Raamah were the people of Sheba and Dedan.

Gen 10:8 Cush had a son named Nimrod, who became the world's first great conqueror.

Gen 10:9 By the LORD's help he was a great hunter, and that is why people say, "May the LORD make you as great a hunter as Nimrod!"

Gen 10:10 At first his kingdom included Babylon, Erech, and Accad, all three of them in Babylonia.

Gen 10:11 From that land he went to Assyria and built the cities of Nineveh, Rehoboth Ir, Calah, Gen 10:12 and Resen, which is between Nineveh and the great city of Calah.

Gen 10:13 The descendants of Egypt were the people of Lydia, Anam, Lehab, Naphtuh, Gen 10:14 Pathrus, Casluh, and of Crete, from whom the Philistines are descended.

Gen 10:15 Canaan's sons—Sidon, the oldest, and Heth—were the ancestors of the peoples who bear their names.

Gen 10:16 Canaan was also the ancestor of the Jebusites, the Amorites, the Girgashites,

Gen 10:17 the Hivites, the Arkites, the Sinites,

Gen 10:18 the Arvadites, the Zemarites, and the Hamathites. The different tribes of the Canaanites spread out,

Gen 10:19 until the Canaanite borders reached from Sidon southward to Gerar near Gaza, and eastward to Sodom, Gomorrah, Admah, and Zeboiim near Lasha.

Gen 10:20 These are the descendants of Ham, living in their different tribes and countries, each group speaking its own language.

Gen 10:21 Shem, the older brother of Japheth, was the ancestor of all the Hebrews.

Gen 10:22 Shem's sons—Elam, Asshur, Arpachshad, Lud, and Aram—were the ancestors of the peoples who bear their names.

Gen 10:23 The descendants of Aram were the people of Uz, Hul, Gether, and Meshek.

Gen 10:24 Arpachshad was the father of Shelah, who was the father of Eber.

Gen 10:25 Eber had two sons: one was named Peleg, because during his time the people of the world were divided; and the other was named Joktan.

Gen 10:26 The descendants of Joktan were the people of Almodad, Sheleph, Hazarmaveth, Jerah,

Gen 10:27 Hadoram, Uzal, Diklah,

Gen 10:28 Obal, Abimael, Sheba,

Gen 10:29 Ophir, Havilah, and Jobab. All of them were descended from Joktan.

Gen 10:30 The land in which they lived extended from Mesha to Sephar in the eastern hill country.

Gen 10:31 These are the descendants of Shem, living in their different tribes and countries, each group speaking its own language.

Gen 10:32 All these peoples are the descendants of Noah, nation by nation, according to their different lines of descent. After the flood all the nations of the earth were descended from the sons of Noah.

GENESIS 10

1Hier volg besonderhede oor Noag se seuns, Sem, Gam en Jafet. Na die oorstroming is daar ook vir hulle kinders gebore. 2Die nageslag van Jafet: Gomer, Magog, die Mediërs, die Grieke, Tubal, Mesek en Tiras. 3Die nageslag van Gomer was Askenas, Rifat en Togarma. 4Uit Griekeland het Elisa, Tarsis, die Kittiërs en die Rodaners voortgekom. 5Uit hulle het die mense wat nou die kusstreke bewoon, daarnatoe versprei, volgens hulle stamme en nasies, elkeen met sy eie taal. 6Die nageslag van Gam: Kus, Egipte, Put en Kanaän. 7Die nageslag van Kus was Seba, Gawila, Sabta, Rama en Sabteka. Die nageslag van Rama was Skeba en Dedan. 8Uit Kus het Nimrod gekom, die eerste maghebber op die aarde. 9Hy was 'n dapper jagter, ook in die oë van die Here. Daarom word daar gesê: 'n Dapper jagter in die oë van die Here, soos Nimrod. 10Nimrod se koninkryk het begin by Babel, Erek, Akkad en Kalne, almal in Sinar. 11Van hier af het hy na Assirië toe gegaan en Nineve, Regobot-Ir en Kalag gebou, 12asook Resen tussen Nineve en Kalag. Resen was 'n groot stad. 13Uit Egipte weer het gekom die Ludeërs, Anammers, Lehabeërs, Naftoagiete, 14Patrosane en die Kaslugiete uit wie die Filistyne kom, en die Kaftorane. 15Uit Kanaän het gekom Sidon wat as sy oudste seun geld, en verder Het, 16die Jebusiete, Amoriete, Girgasiete, 17Hewiete, Erekiete, Siniete, 18Arwadters, Semariërs en die mense van Hamat. Met verloop van tyd het die Kanaänitiese stamme versprei 19en het hulle grense gestrek van Sidon af tot by Gasa in die rigting van Gerar en tot by Lesa in die rigting van Sodom, Gomorra, Adma en Sebojim. 20Hulle is almal die nageslag van Gam, met hulle eie stamme en tale in hulle eie lande en onder hulle eie nasies. 21Vir Sem is daar ook kinders gebore. Hy was die voorvader van al die Hebreërs. Sy oudste broer was Jafet. 22Die nageslag van Sem: Elam, Assirië, Arpaksad, Lud en Aram. 23Die nageslag van Aram was Us, Gul, Geter en Mas. 24Uit Arpaksad het Selag gekom, en uit Selag Heber. 25Vir Heber is twee seuns gebore. Die naam van die een was Peleg , want in sy tyd is die land verdeel, en die naam van sy broer was Joktan. 26Uit Joktan het gekom Almodad, Selef, Gasarmawet, Jerag, 27Hadoram, Usal, Dikla, 28Obal, Abimael, Skeba, 29Ofir, Gawila en Jobab. Hulle almal het uit Joktan voortgekom. 30Hulle nedersettings het gestrek van Mesa af in die rigting van Sefar in die oostelike bergwêreld. 31Hulle is almal die nageslag van Sem, met hulle eie stamme en tale, in hulle eie lande en onder hulle eie nasies. 32Dit is die stamme van die seuns van Noag volgens hulle herkoms onder hulle eie nasies. Uit húlle het die nasies oor die aarde versprei ná die oorstroming.

The Tower of Babel

Gen 11:1 At first, the people of the whole world had only one language and used the same words.

Gen 11:2 As they wandered about in the East, they came to a plain in Babylonia and settled there.

Gen 11:3 They said to one another, "Come on! Let's make bricks and bake them hard." So they had bricks to build with and tar to hold them together.

Gen 11:4 They said, "Now let's build a city with a tower that reaches the sky, so that we can make a name for ourselves and not be scattered all over the earth."

Gen 11:5 Then the LORD came down to see the city and the tower which they had built,

Gen 11:6 and he said, "Now then, these are all one people and they speak one language; this is just the beginning of what they are going to do. Soon they will be able to do anything they want!

Gen 11:7 Let us go down and mix up their language so that they will not understand each other."

Gen 11:8 So the LORD scattered them all over the earth, and they stopped building the city.

Gen 11:9 The city was called Babylon, because there the LORD mixed up the language of all the people, and from there he scattered them all over the earth.

Shem's Descendants

Gen 11:10 These are the descendants of Shem. Two years after the flood, when Shem was 100 years old, he had a son, Arpachshad.

Gen 11:11 After that, he lived another 500 years and had other children.

Gen 11:12 When Arpachshad was 35 years old, he had a son, Shelah;

Gen 11:13 after that, he lived another 403 years and had other children.

Gen 11:14 When Shelah was 30 years old, he had a son, Eber;

Gen 11:15 after that, he lived another 403 years and had other children.

Gen 11:16 When Eber was 34 years old, he had a son, Peleg;

Gen 11:17 after that, he lived another 430 years and had other children.

Gen 11:18 When Peleg was 30 years old, he had a son, Reu;

Gen 11:19 after that, he lived another 209 years and had other children.

Gen 11:20 When Reu was 32 years old, he had a son, Serug;

Gen 11:21 after that, he lived another 207 years and had other children.

Gen 11:22 When Serug was 30 years old, he had a son, Nahor;

Gen 11:23 after that, he lived another 200 years and had other children.

Gen 11:24 When Nahor was 29 years old, he had a son, Terah;

Gen 11:25 after that, he lived another 119 years and had other children.

Gen 11:26 After Terah was 70 years old, he became the father of Abram, Nahor, and Haran.

Terah's Descendants

Gen 11:27 These are the descendants of Terah, who was the father of Abram, Nahor, and Haran. Haran was the father of Lot,

Gen 11:28 and Haran died in his hometown of Ur in Babylonia, while his father was still living.

Gen 11:29 Abram married Sarai, and Nahor married Milcah, the daughter of Haran, who was also the father of Iscah.

Gen 11:30 Sarai was not able to have children.

Gen 11:31 Terah took his son Abram, his grandson Lot, who was the son of Haran, and his daughter-in-law Sarai, Abram's wife, and with them he left the city of Ur in Babylonia to go to the land of Canaan. They went as far as Haran and settled there.

Gen 11:32 Terah died there at the age of 205.

GENESIS 11

[1]Die hele wêreld het net een taal gepraat. [2]Toe die mense ooswaarts getrek het, het hulle uitgekom by 'n vlakte in Sinar en daar gaan woon. [3]Hulle het op 'n keer vir mekaar gesê: Kom ons maak stene en ons brand hulle hard. Hulle het toe stene in plaas van klip gebruik en asfalt in plaas van klei. [4]Toe sê hulle: Kom ons bou vir ons 'n stad met 'n toring waarvan die punt tot in die hemel reik en ons maak so vir ons 'n naam. Dan sal ons nie oor die hele aarde versprei nie. [5]Die Here het afgekom om te kyk na die stad en die toring wat die mense vir hulle gebou het, [6]en toe sê Hy: Hier is hulle een volk en almal het een taal. Hulle het nog maar net begin om iets te doen. Hierna sal niks wat hulle beplan vir hulle onmoontlik wees nie. [7]Kom laat Ons afgaan en verwarring bring in hulle taal, sodat die een nie die ander verstaan nie. [8]Die Here het hulle toe van daar af verstrooi oor die hele aarde, en hulle het opgehou met die bou van die stad. [9]Daarom het hulle die stad Babel genoem, want daar het die Here in die taal van die aarde verwarring gebring, en van daar af het Hy die mense oor die hele aarde verstrooi. [10]Hier volg die familieregister van Sem. Toe Sem 100 was, het hy die vader geword van Arpaksad, twee jaar na die oorstroming. [11]Sem het na die geboorte van Arpaksad nog 500 jaar geleef en het seuns en dogters gehad. [12]Toe Arpaksad 35 was, het hy die vader geword van Selag. [13]Arpaksad het na die geboorte van Selag nog 403 jaar geleef en het seuns en dogters gehad. [14]Toe Selag 30 was, het hy die vader geword van Heber. [15]Selag het na die geboorte van Heber nog 403 jaar geleef en het seuns en dogters gehad. [16]Toe Heber 34 was, het hy die vader geword van Peleg. [17]Heber het na die geboorte van Peleg nog 430 jaar geleef en het seuns en dogters gehad. [18]Toe Peleg 30 was, het hy die vader geword van Reü. [19]Peleg het na die geboorte van Reü nog 209 jaar geleef en het seuns en dogters gehad. [20]Toe Reü 32 was, het hy die vader geword van Serug. [21]Reü het na die geboorte van Serug nog 207 jaar geleef en het seuns en dogters gehad. [22]Toe Serug 30 was, het hy die vader geword van Nahor. [23]Serug het na die geboorte van Nahor nog 200 jaar geleef en het seuns en dogters gehad. [24]Toe Nahor 29 was, het hy die vader geword van Tera. [25]Nahor het na die geboorte van Tera nog 119 jaar geleef en het seuns en dogters gehad. [26]Toe Tera 70 was, het hy die vader geword van Abram, Nahor en Haran. [27]Hier volg die familiegeskiedenis van Tera. Tera het die vader geword van Abram, Nahor en Haran, en Haran het die vader geword van Lot. [28]Haran het in Ur van die Galdeërs, sy geboorteland, gesterf toe sy vader Tera nog geleef het. [29]Abram het getrou en Nahor ook: Abram se vrou se naam was Sarai en dié van Nahor se vrou was Milka, 'n dogter van Haran wat nie net die vader van Milka was nie, maar ook van Jiska. [30]Sarai was onvrugbaar; sy het nie kinders gehad nie. [31]Tera het sy seun Abram geneem en ook sy kleinseun Lot seun van Haran, en sy skoondogter Sarai die vrou van sy seun Abram, en saam met hulle uit Ur van die Galdeërs weggetrek om na Kanaän toe te gaan. Maar hulle het net tot by Haran getrek en in dié stad gaan woon. [32]Tera was twee honderd en vyf jaar oud toe hy in Haran gesterf het.

Genesis 12

The Call of Abram

Gen 12:1 The LORD said to Abram, "Leave your country, your relatives, and your father's home, and go to a land that I am going to show you.

Gen 12:2 I will give you many descendants, and they will become a great nation. I will bless you and make your name famous, so that you will be a blessing.

Gen 12:3 I will bless those who bless you, But I will curse those who curse you. And through you I will bless all the nations."

Gen 12:4 When Abram was seventy-five years old, he started out from Haran, as the LORD had told him to do; and Lot went with him.

Gen 12:5 Abram took his wife Sarai, his nephew Lot, and all the wealth and all the slaves they had acquired in Haran, and they started out for the land of Canaan. When they arrived in Canaan,

Gen 12:6 Abram traveled through the land until he came to the sacred tree of Moreh, the holy place at Shechem. (At that time the Canaanites were still living in the land.)

Gen 12:7 The LORD appeared to Abram and said to him, "This is the country that I am going to give to your descendants." Then Abram built an altar there to the LORD, who had appeared to him.

Gen 12:8 After that, he moved on south to the hill country east of the city of Bethel and set up his camp between Bethel on the west and Ai on the east. There also he built an altar and worshiped the LORD.

Gen 12:9 Then he moved on from place to place, going toward the southern part of Canaan.

Abram and Sarai in Egypt

Gen 12:10 But there was a famine in Canaan, and it was so bad that Abram went farther south to Egypt, to live there for a while.

Gen 12:11 When he was about to cross the border into Egypt, he said to his wife Sarai, "You are a beautiful woman.

Gen 12:12 When the Egyptians see you, they will assume that you are my wife, and so they will kill me and let you live.

Gen 12:13 Tell them that you are my sister; then because of you they will let me live and treat me well."

Gen 12:14 When he crossed the border into Egypt, the Egyptians did see that his wife was beautiful.

Gen 12:15 Some of the court officials saw her and told the king how beautiful she was; so she was taken to his palace.

Gen 12:16 Because of her the king treated Abram well and gave him flocks of sheep and goats, cattle, donkeys, slaves, and camels.

Gen 12:17 But because the king had taken Sarai, the LORD sent terrible diseases on him and on the people of his palace.

Gen 12:18 Then the king sent for Abram and asked him, "What have you done to me? Why didn't you tell me that she was your wife?

Gen 12:19 Why did you say that she was your sister, and let me take her as my wife? Here is your wife; take her and get out!"

Gen 12:20 The king gave orders to his men, so they took Abram and put him out of the country, together with his wife and everything he owned.

GENESIS 12

1Die Here het vir Abram gesê: Trek uit jou land uit, weg van jou mense en jou familie af na die land toe wat Ek vir jou sal aanwys. 2Ek sal jou 'n groot nasie maak, Ek sal jou seën en jou 'n man van groot betekenis maak, en jy moet tot 'n seën wees. 3Ek sal seën wie jou seën, en hom vervloek wat jou vervloek. In jou sal al die volke van die aarde geseën wees. 4Abram het toe weggetrek, gehoorsaam aan die woord van die Here, en Lot het saam met hom getrek. Abram was vyf en sewentig toe hy uit Haran weggetrek het. 5Hy het sy vrou Sarai en sy broerskind Lot en al die besittings wat hulle bymekaargemaak het en al die slawe wat hulle in Haran aangeskaf het, saamgevat en hulle het weggetrek na Kanaän toe. Nadat hulle in Kanaän aangekom het, 6het Abram deur die land getrek tot by Sigem se aanbiddingsplek by die groot waarsêersboom. In daardie tyd het die Kanaäniete die land bewoon. 7Toe het die Here aan Abram verskyn en vir hom gesê: Aan jou nageslag gee Ek hierdie land. Abram het daar 'n altaar gebou vir die Here wat aan hom verskyn het. 8Van daar af het Abram verder getrek na die bergwêreld toe, oos van Bet-El, waar hy tent opgeslaan het met Bet-El aan die westekant en Ai aan die oostekant. Daar het hy 'n altaar vir die Here gebou en die Naam van die Here aangeroep. 9Toe het Abram kamp opgebreek en al gaande na die Suidland toe versit. 10Daar was hongersnood in die land, 'n baie swaar hongersnood, en Abram het na Egipte toe getrek om daar 'n heenkome te vind. 11Toe hy op die punt staan om Egipte binne te gaan, sê hy vir sy vrou Sarai: Ek weet jy is 'n mooi vrou. 12Wanneer die Egiptenaars jou sien, sal hulle sê: Dis sy vrou,' en hulle sal my doodmaak, maar vir jou sal hulle laat bly lewe. 13Sê tog maar jy is my suster dat dit met my goed kan gaan oor jou, en my lewe deur jou toedoen gespaar word. 14Toe Abram in Egipte aankom, het die Egiptenaars gesien hoe mooi sy vrou is. 15En toe die farao se amptenare haar sien, het hulle haar by hom aanbeveel, en sy is na die farao se paleis toe gevat. 16Hulle het aan Abram goed gedoen oor haar en vir hom kleinvee en beeste gegee; ook donkies, slawe en slavinne, donkiemerries en kamele. 17Maar die Here het die farao en sy huis met swaar plae getref oor Sarai die vrou van Abram. 18Toe roep die farao vir Abram en vra hom: Wat het jy my aangedoen? Waarom het jy my nie gesê sy is jou vrou nie? 19Waarom het jy gesê sy is jou suster, sodat ek haar as my vrou gevat het? Hier is jou vrou dan. Vat haar en maak dat jy wegkom! 20Toe het die farao aan sy amptenare bevele oor Abram uitgereik, en hulle het hom en sy vrou met al sy besittings uit die land uit gestuur.

Abram and Lot Separate

Gen 13:1 Abram went north out of Egypt to the southern part of Canaan with his wife and everything he owned, and Lot went with him.

Gen 13:2 Abram was a very rich man, with sheep, goats, and cattle, as well as silver and gold.

Gen 13:3 Then he left there and moved from place to place, going toward Bethel. He reached the place between Bethel and Ai where he had camped before

Gen 13:4 and had built an altar. There he worshiped the LORD.

Gen 13:5 Lot also had sheep, goats, and cattle, as well as his own family and servants.

Gen 13:6 And so there was not enough pasture land for the two of them to stay together, because they had too many animals.

Gen 13:7 So quarrels broke out between the men who took care of Abram's animals and those who took care of Lot's animals. (At that time the Canaanites and the Perizzites were still living in the land.)

Gen 13:8 Then Abram said to Lot, "We are relatives, and your men and my men shouldn't be quarreling.

Gen 13:9 So let's separate. Choose any part of the land you want. You go one way, and I'll go the other."

Gen 13:10 Lot looked around and saw that the whole Jordan Valley, all the way to Zoar, had plenty of water, like the Garden of the LORD or like the land of Egypt. (This was before the LORD had destroyed the cities of Sodom and Gomorrah.)

Gen 13:11 So Lot chose the whole Jordan Valley for himself and moved away toward the east. That is how the two men parted.

Gen 13:12 Abram stayed in the land of Canaan, and Lot settled among the cities in the valley and camped near Sodom, Gen 13:13 whose people were wicked and sinned against the LORD.

Gen 13:14 After Lot had left, the LORD said to Abram, "From where you are, look carefully in all directions.

Gen 13:15 I am going to give you and your descendants all the land that you see, and it will be yours forever.

Gen 13:16 I am going to give you so many descendants that no one will be able to count them all; it would be as easy to count all the specks of dust on earth!

Gen 13:17 Now, go and look over the whole land, because I am going to give it all to you."

Gen 13:18 So Abram moved his camp and settled near the sacred trees of Mamre at Hebron, and there he built an altar to the LORD.

GENESIS 13

1Abram het uit Egipte na die Suidland toe getrek, hy en sy vrou met al sy besittings, en Lot saam met hom. 2Abram was baie ryk aan vee en silwer en goud. 3Hy het van plek tot plek uit die Suidland getrek na Bet-El toe, na die plek waar sy tente aan die begin gestaan het, tussen Bet-El en Ai, 4die plek waar hy vroeër 'n altaar gebou het. Daar het Abram die Naam van die Here aangeroep. 5Lot, wat saam met Abram getrek het, het self ook baie kleinvee en beeste en tente vir sy mense gehad. 6Die land kon nie in Abram en Lot saam se behoeftes voorsien sodat hulle bymekaar kon bly nie. Hulle besittings was te veel; hulle kon nie bymekaar bly nie. 7Die Kanaäniete en die Feresiete het ook nog in die gebied gewoon. Daar het toe 'n getwis ontstaan tussen Abram se veewagters en Lot s'n. 8Toe sê Abram vir Lot: Daar behoort nie 'n getwis te wees tussen my en jou en tussen my veewagters en joune nie, want ons is familie. 9Die hele land lê oop voor jou. Gaan jy liewer weg van my af. As jy links gaan, gaan ek regs; en as jy regs gaan, gaan ek links. 10Lot het toe rondgekyk en gesien die hele Jordaanstreek tot by Soar het so volop water soos 'n tuin van die Here, soos Egipte. Dit was naamlik nog voordat die Here Sodom en Gomorra verwoes het. 11Lot het die hele Jordaanstreek vir hom gekies en hy het ooswaarts versit. So het die twee van mekaar geskei: 12Abram het in Kanaän bly woon, en Lot het in die stede van die Jordaanstreek gewoon; tot by Sodom het hy gaan tent opslaan. 13Die inwoners van Sodom was sleg: hulle het baie gesondig teen die Here. 14Nadat Lot van Abram af weg is, het die Here vir Abram gesê: Kyk tog rond, kyk van hier af waar jy is, na die noorde en die suide, na die ooste en die weste. 15Die hele land wat jy sien, gee Ek vir altyd aan jou en jou nageslag. 16Ek sal jou nageslag so baie maak soos die stof van die aarde. As iemand die stof van die aarde kan tel, sal jou nageslag ook getel kan word. 17Trek nou deur die land, deur sy lengte en sy breedte, want Ek gee dit vir jou. 18Abram het sy tente versit en gaan woon by die groot bome van Mamre by Hebron. Daar het hy 'n altaar vir die Here gebou.

Genesis 14

Abram Rescues Lot

Gen 14:1 Four kings, Amraphel of Babylonia, Arioch of Ellasar, Chedorlaomer of Elam, and Tidal of Goiim,

Gen 14:2 went to war against five other kings: Bera of Sodom, Birsha of Gomorrah, Shinab of Admah, Shemeber of Zeboiim, and the king of Bela (or Zoar).

Gen 14:3 These five kings had formed an alliance and joined forces in Siddim Valley, which is now the Dead Sea.

Gen 14:4 They had been under the control of Chedorlaomer for twelve years, but in the thirteenth year they rebelled against him.

Gen 14:5 In the fourteenth year Chedorlaomer and his allies came with their armies and defeated the Rephaim in Ashteroth Karnaim, the Zuzim in Ham, the Emim in the plain of Kiriathaim, Gen 14:6 and the Horites in the mountains of Edom, pursuing them as far as Elparan on the edge of the desert.

Gen 14:7 Then they turned around and came back to Kadesh (then known as Enmishpat). They conquered all the land of the Amalekites and defeated the Amorites who lived in Hazazon Tamar.

Gen 14:8 Then the kings of Sodom, Gomorrah, Admah, Zeboiim, and Bela drew up their armies for battle in Siddim Valley and fought

Gen 14:9 against the kings of Elam, Goiim, Babylonia, and Ellasar, five kings against four.

Gen 14:10 The valley was full of tar pits, and when the kings of Sodom and Gomorrah tried to run away from the battle, they fell into the pits; but the other three kings escaped to the mountains.

Gen 14:11 The four kings took everything in Sodom and Gomorrah, including the food, and went away.

Gen 14:12 Lot, Abram's nephew, was living in Sodom, so they took him and all his possessions.

Gen 14:13 But a man escaped and reported all this to Abram, the Hebrew, who was living near the sacred trees belonging to Mamre the Amorite. Mamre and his brothers Eshcol and Aner were Abram's allies.

Gen 14:14 When Abram heard that his nephew had been captured, he called together all the fighting men in his camp, 318 in all, and pursued the four kings all the way to Dan.

Gen 14:15 There he divided his men into groups, attacked the enemy by night, and defeated them. He chased them as far as Hobah, north of Damascus,

Gen 14:16 and got back all the loot that had been taken. He also brought back his nephew Lot and his possessions, together with the women and the other prisoners.

Abram Blessed by Melchizedek

Gen 14:17 When Abram came back from his victory over Chedorlaomer and the other kings, the king of Sodom went out to meet him in Shaveh Valley (also called King's Valley).

Gen 14:18 And Melchizedek, who was king of Salem and also a priest of the Most High God, brought bread and wine to Abram, Gen 14:19 blessed him, and said, "May the Most High God, who made heaven and earth, bless Abram!

Gen 14:20 May the Most High God, who gave you victory over your enemies, be praised!" And Abram gave Melchizedek a tenth of all the loot he had recovered.

Gen 14:21 The king of Sodom said to Abram, "Keep the loot, but give me back all my people."

Gen 14:22 Abram answered, "I solemnly swear before the LORD, the Most High God, Maker of heaven and earth,

Gen 14:23 that I will not keep anything of yours, not even a thread or a sandal strap. Then you can never say, 'I am the one who made Abram rich.'

Gen 14:24 I will take nothing for myself. I will accept only what my men have used. But let my allies, Aner, Eshcol, and Mamre, take their share."

GENESIS 14

1Dit was in dié tyd dat koning Amrafel van Sinar, koning Arjok van Ellasar, koning Kedorlaomer van Elam en koning Tidal van Gojim 2oorlog gemaak het teen koning Bera van Sodom, koning Birsa van Gomorra, koning Sinab van Adma, koning Semeber van Sebojim, en teen die koning van Bela, dit is Soar, 3en as bondgenote opgetrek het na die Siddimvlakte toe, dit is vandag die Soutsee. 4Twaalf jaar was die gebied onderhorig aan Kedorlaomer, maar in die dertiende jaar het dit gerebelleer. 5In die veertiende jaar het Kedorlaomer en die konings wat saam met hom was, gekom en die Refaïete verslaan in Asterot-Karnajim, die Sussiete in Ham, die Emiete in die Kirjatajimvlakte 6en die Goriete in die Seïrberge tot by El-Paran in die woestyn. 7Kedorlaomer-hulle het toe omgedraai en by En-Mispat gekom, dit is Kades, en daar het hulle die hele gebied van die Amalekiete verower en ook nog die gebied van die Amoriete wat toe in Gaseson-Tamar gewoon het. 8Die konings van Sodom, Gomorra, Adma, Sebojim en Bela, dit is Soar, het toe opgetrek en in die Siddimvlakte teenoor die ander konings stelling ingeneem om te veg, 9teenoor koning Kedorlaomer van Elam, koning Tidal van Gojim, koning Amrafel van Sinar, koning Arjok van Ellasar, vyf konings teen vier. 10In die Siddimvlakte was daar oral asfaltgate, en toe die konings van Sodom en Gomorra gevlug het, het hulle daarin geval. Wie van hulle oorgebly het, het na die berge toe gevlug. 11Die vier konings het al die besittings van Sodom en Gomorra en ook al hulle kos buitgemaak en vertrek. 12Hulle het ook vir Lot, Abram se broerskind, en al sy besittings gevat en vertrek. Hy het daardie tyd in Sodom gewoon. 13Daar het egter iemand ontsnap en dié het alles gaan vertel vir Abram die Hebreër wat gewoon het by die groot bome van die Amoriet Mamre, 'n broer van Eskol en Aner. Hulle drie het 'n verdrag met Abram gesluit. 14Toe Abram hoor dat sy familielid weggevoer is, het hy sy volgelinge, drie honderd en agtien slawe wat by hom gebore is, hulle wapens laat vat en die konings agtervolg tot by Dan. 15Die nag het Abram en sy manne hulle van verskillende kante af aangeval en verslaan. Hy het hulle agtervolg tot by Goba, noord van Damaskus. 16Abram het al die besittings teruggekry. Hy het ook vir Lot, sy familielid, met al sy besittings teruggekry, ook die vrouens en al die ander mense. 17Toe Abram terugkom van sy oorwinning oor Kedorlaomer en die konings by hom, het die koning van Sodom vir Abram tegemoet gegaan in die Sawevlakte, dit is die Koningsvlakte. 18Melgisedek, koning van Salem en priester van God die Allerhoogste, het vir Abram kos en wyn gebring 19en hom geseën: Mag Abram geseën word deur God die Allerhoogste, Skepper van hemel en aarde. [20]Geloof sy God die Allerhoogste! Hy het jou vyand in jou mag oorgegee. Toe het Abram vir Melgisedek 'n tiende van alles gegee. [21]Die koning van Sodom het vir Abram gesê: Gee my net die mense en vat die besittings vir jou. [22]Maar Abram het hom geantwoord: Ek het my hand opgelig en 'n eed afgelê voor die Here, voor God die Allerhoogste, Skepper van hemel en aarde, [23]dat ek niks van jou sal vat nie, nie eers 'n garingdraad of 'n skoenveter nie, sodat jy nie kan sê: Ek het vir Abram ryk gemaak' nie. [24]Afgesien van wat my manskappe geëet het, kan jy my buite rekening laat. Maar die manne wat saam met my gegaan het, Aner, Eskol en Mamre, hulle moet hulle deel kry.

God's Covenant with Abram

Gen 15:1 After this, Abram had a vision and heard the LORD say to him, "Do not be afraid, Abram. I will shield you from danger and give you a great reward."

Gen 15:2 But Abram answered, "Sovereign LORD, what good will your reward do me, since I have no children? My only heir is Eliezer of Damascus.

Gen 15:3 You have given me no children, and one of my slaves will inherit my property."

Gen 15:4 Then he heard the LORD speaking to him again: "This slave Eliezer will not inherit your property; your own son will be your heir."

Gen 15:5 The LORD took him outside and said, "Look at the sky and try to count the stars; you will have as many descendants as that."

Gen 15:6 Abram put his trust in the LORD, and because of this the LORD was pleased with him and accepted him.

Gen 15:7 Then the LORD said to him, "I am the LORD, who led you out of Ur in Babylonia, to give you this land as your own."

Gen 15:8 But Abram asked, "Sovereign LORD, how can I know that it will be mine?"

Gen 15:9 He answered, "Bring me a cow, a goat, and a ram, each of them three years old, and a dove and a pigeon."

Gen 15:10 Abram brought the animals to God, cut them in half, and placed the halves opposite each other in two rows; but he did not cut up the birds.

Gen 15:11 Vultures came down on the bodies, but Abram drove them off.

Gen 15:12 When the sun was going down, Abram fell into a deep sleep, and fear and terror came over him.

Gen 15:13 The LORD said to him, "Your descendants will be strangers in a foreign land; they will be slaves there and will be treated cruelly for four hundred years.

Gen 15:14 But I will punish the nation that enslaves them, and when they leave that foreign land, they will take great wealth with them.

Gen 15:15 You yourself will live to a ripe old age, die in peace, and be buried.

Gen 15:16 It will be four generations before your descendants come back here, because I will not drive out the Amorites until they become so wicked that they must be punished."

Gen 15:17 When the sun had set and it was dark, a smoking fire pot and a flaming torch suddenly appeared and passed between the pieces of the animals.

Gen 15:18 Then and there the LORD made a covenant with Abram. He said, "I promise to give your descendants all this land from the border of Egypt to the Euphrates River,

Gen 15:19 including the lands of the Kenites, the Kenizzites, the Kadmonites,

Gen 15:20 the Hittites, the Perizzites, the Rephaim,

Gen 15:21 the Amorites, the Canaanites, the Girgashites, and the Jebusites."

GENESIS 15

1Hierna het die woord van die Here in 'n gesig tot Abram gekom: Moenie bang wees nie, Abram, Ek beskerm jou! Jou beloning sal baie groot wees. 2Toe sê Abram: Here my God, wat kan U vir my gee? Ek sal kinderloos sterf, en Eliëser die man uit Damaskus sal my besittings kry. 3Abram het verder gesê: U het nie vir my 'n nageslag gegee nie. 'n Slaaf uit my huis sal my erfgenaam wees. 4Maar die woord van die Here het tot Abram gekom: Daardie een sal nie jou erfgenaam wees nie. Een wat jou eie nasaat is, hy sal jou erfgenaam wees. 5Toe het die Here vir Abram buitentoe laat gaan en vir hom gesê: Kyk op na die hemel en tel die sterre as jy kan. Verder sê die Here vir hom: So baie sal jou nageslag wees. 6Abram het toe in die Here geglo, en die Here het dit goedgevind dat Abram so volgens die wil van die Here gehandel het. 7Hy het vir Abram gesê: Ek is die Here wat jou uit Ur van die Galdeërs laat wegtrek het om hierdie land aan jou te gee as jou besitting. 8Maar Abram vra: Hoe sal ek weet dat ek dit sal besit, Here my God? 9Toe beveel die Here hom: Bring vir My 'n vers, 'n bok en 'n skaapram, almal drie jaar oud, en 'n tortelduif en 'n jong duif. 10Abram het dit alles vir die Here gebring en dit middeldeur gesny. Hy het elke helfte teenoor die ander helfte neergesit. Die voëls het hy nie verdeel nie. 11Die roofvoëls het op die karkasse begin toesak, maar Abram het hulle weggejaag. 12Teen sononder het 'n diep slaap Abram oorval; angs, 'n groot donkerte het hom oorweldig. 13Toe sê die Here vir Abram: Weet beslis dat jou nageslag vreemdelinge sal wees in 'n land wat nie aan hulle behoort nie. Daar sal hulle slawe wees en onderdruk word, vier honderd jaar lank. 14Maar Ek sal die nasie straf wat van jou nageslag slawe maak, en dan sal hulle met baie besittings wegtrek. 15Jy sal in vrede sterf en op 'n hoë ouderdom begrawe word. 16Die vierde geslag ná jou sal hiernatoe terugkom. Dan eers sal die ongeregtigheid van die Amoriete sy volle maat bereik het. 17Toe die son ondergegaan het en dit donker was, gaan daar skielik 'n oond wat rook en 'n fakkel wat brand, tussen die stukke vleis deur. 18Op daardie dag het die Here 'n verbond gesluit met Abram en vir hom gesê: Aan jou nageslag gee Ek hierdie land, van Egiptespruit af tot by die Eufraat, die groot rivier; 19die land van die Keniete, die Kenissiete en die Kadmoniete, 20die Hetiete, die Feresiete en die Refaïete, 21die Amoriete, die Kanaäniete, die Girgasiete en die Jebusiete.

Sarai and Hagar

Gen 16:1 Abram's wife Sarai had not borne him any children. But she had an Egyptian slave woman named Hagar,

Gen 16:2 and so she said to Abram, "The LORD has kept me from having children. Why don't you sleep with my slave? Perhaps she can have a child for me." Abram agreed with what Sarai said.

Gen 16:3 So she gave Hagar to him to be his concubine. (This happened after Abram had lived in Canaan for ten years.)

Gen 16:4 Abram had intercourse with Hagar, and she became pregnant. When she found out that she was pregnant, she became proud and despised Sarai.

Gen 16:5 Then Sarai said to Abram, "It's your fault that Hagar despises me. I myself gave her to you, and ever since she found out that she was pregnant, she has despised me. May the LORD judge which of us is right, you or me!"

Gen 16:6 Abram answered, "Very well, she is your slave and under your control; do whatever you want with her." Then Sarai treated Hagar so cruelly that she ran away.

Gen 16:7 The angel of the LORD met Hagar at a spring in the desert on the road to Shur

Gen 16:8 and said, "Hagar, slave of Sarai, where have you come from and where are you going?" She answered, "I am running away from my mistress."

Gen 16:9 He said, "Go back to her and be her slave."

Gen 16:10 Then he said, "I will give you so many descendants that no one will be able to count them.

Gen 16:11 You are going to have a son, and you will name him Ishmael, because the LORD has heard your cry of distress.

Gen 16:12 But your son will live like a wild donkey; he will be against everyone, and everyone will be against him. He will live apart from all his relatives."

Gen 16:13 Hagar asked herself, "Have I really seen God and lived to tell about it?" So she called the LORD, who had spoken to her, "A God Who Sees."

Gen 16:14 That is why people call the well between Kadesh and Bered "The Well of the Living One Who Sees Me."

Gen 16:15 Hagar bore Abram a son, and he named him Ishmael.

Gen 16:16 Abram was eighty-six years old at the time.

GENESIS 16

1Sarai het nog nie vir haar man Abram 'n kind in die wêreld gebring gehad nie. Sy het 'n Egiptiese slavin met die naam Hagar gehad. 2Toe sê Sarai vir Abram: Die Here het my nou eenmaal daarvan weerhou om kinders te kan hê. Gaan slaap by my slavin. Miskien bring sy 'n kind in die wêreld wat my eie kan word. En Abram het saamgestem met sy vrou. 3Abram was al tien jaar in Kanaän toe Sarai, die vrou van Abram, self vir Hagar, haar Egiptiese slavin, gevat en vir haar man Abram as vrou gegee het. 4Hy het by Hagar gaan slaap, en sy het swanger geword. Toe sy agterkom sy is swanger, het sy haar eienares geminag. 5Toe sê Sarai vir Abram: Jy dra die skuld vir hierdie onreg wat ek moet verduur. Ek het my slavin vir jou gegee om met haar gemeenskap te hê, en noudat sy agterkom sy is swanger, minag sy my. Mag die Here hierdie saak tussen my en jou uitwys. 6Maar Abram sê vir Sarai: Jou slavin staan onder jou. Doen met haar soos jy goeddink. Sarai het haar slavin toe sleg behandel, en sy het weggeloop. 7Die Engel van die Here het vir Hagar ontmoet by 'n fontein in die woestyn, die fontein langs die pad na Sur toe, 8en vir haar gevra: Hagar, slavin van Sarai, waar kom jy vandaan en waar gaan jy heen? Toe antwoord sy: Ek loop van my eienares Sarai af weg, 9en die Engel van die Here sê vir haar: Gaan terug na jou eienares toe en onderwerp jou aan haar gesag. 10Verder het die Engel van die Here vir haar gesê: Ek sal jou nageslag so baie maak dat hulle te veel sal wees om te tel. 11En toe sê die Engel van die Here ook nog vir haar: Kyk, jy is swanger; jy sal 'n seun in die wêreld bring. Jy moet hom Ismael noem, want die Here het van jou swaarkry gehoor. 12Jou seun sal 'n man wees so ontembaar soos 'n wildedonkie: hy sal teen almal wees, en almal sal teen hom wees. Hy sal in vyandskap leef met sy bloedverwante. 13Hagar het toe die Naam van die Here wat daar met haar gepraat het, aangeroep en gesê: U is 'n God wat my sien, hier het ek Hom gesien wat my gesien het. 14Daarom word die fontein genoem Lagai-Roï-fontein . Die fontein is tussen Kades en Bered. 15Hagar het vir Abram 'n seun in die wêreld gebring, en Abram het sy seun wat Hagar in die wêreld gebring het, Ismael genoem. 16Abram was ses en tagtig toe Hagar vir Ismael vir hom in die wêreld gebring het.

Genesis 17

Abraham and the Covenant of Circumcision

Gen 17:1 When Abram was ninety-nine years old, the LORD appeared to him and said, "I am the Almighty God. Obey me and always do what is right.

Gen 17:2 I will make my covenant with you and give you many descendants."

Gen 17:3 Abram bowed down with his face touching the ground, and God said,

Gen 17:4 "I make this covenant with you: I promise that you will be the ancestor of many nations.

Gen 17:5 Your name will no longer be Abram, but Abraham, because I am making you the ancestor of many nations.

Gen 17:6 I will give you many descendants, and some of them will be kings. You will have so many descendants that they will become nations.

Gen 17:7 "I will keep my promise to you and to your descendants in future generations as an everlasting covenant. I will be your God and the God of your descendants.

Gen 17:8 I will give to you and to your descendants this land in which you are now a foreigner. The whole land of Canaan will belong to your descendants forever, and I will be their God."

Gen 17:9 God said to Abraham, "You also must agree to keep the covenant with me, both you and your descendants in future generations.

Gen 17:10 You and your descendants must all agree to circumcise every male among you.

Gen 17:11 (11-12) From now on you must circumcise every baby boy when he is eight days old, including slaves born in your homes and slaves bought from foreigners. This will show that there is a covenant between you and me.

Gen 17:13 Each one must be circumcised, and this will be a physical sign to show that my covenant with you is everlasting.

Gen 17:14 Any male who has not been circumcised will no longer be considered one of my people, because he has not kept the covenant with me."

Isaac's Birth Promised

Gen 17:15 God said to Abraham, "You must no longer call your wife Sarai; from now on her name is Sarah.

Gen 17:16 I will bless her, and I will give you a son by her. I will bless her, and she will become the mother of nations, and there will be kings among her descendants."

Gen 17:17 Abraham bowed down with his face touching the ground, but he began to laugh when he thought, "Can a man have a child when he is a hundred years old? Can Sarah have a child at ninety?"

Gen 17:18 He asked God, "Why not let Ishmael be my heir?"

Gen 17:19 But God said, "No. Your wife Sarah will bear you a son and you will name him Isaac. I will keep my covenant with him and with his descendants forever. It is an everlasting covenant.

Gen 17:20 I have heard your request about Ishmael, so I will bless him and give him many children and many descendants. He will be the father of twelve princes, and I will make a great nation of his descendants.

Gen 17:21 But I will keep my covenant with your son Isaac, who will be born to Sarah about this time next year."

Gen 17:22 When God finished speaking to Abraham, he left him.

Gen 17:23 On that same day Abraham obeyed God and circumcised his son Ishmael and all the other males in his household, including the slaves born in his home and those he had bought.

Gen 17:24 Abraham was ninety-nine years old when he was circumcised,

Gen 17:25 and his son Ishmael was thirteen.

Gen 17:26 They were both circumcised on the same day,

Gen 17:27 together with all of Abraham's slaves.

GENESIS 17

1Toe Abram nege en negentig jaar oud was, het die Here aan hom verskyn en vir hom gesê: Ek is God die Almagtige. Lewe naby My en wees opreg! 2Ek sal my verbond met jou sluit en baie, baie mense uit jou laat voortkom. 3Abram het op sy knieë geval, en toe sê God vir hom: 4Dit is my verbond met jou: jy sal die vader wees van 'n menigte nasies; 5jy sal nie meer Abram genoem word nie, jou naam sal Abraham wees, want Ek maak jou die vader van baie nasies. 6Ek sal jou baie vrugbaar maak, Ek sal jou tot nasies maak, en konings sal uit jou voortkom. 7Ek bring 'n verbond tot stand tussen My en jou en jou nageslag en al hulle geslagte. Dit is 'n blywende verbond: Ek sal jou God wees en ook die God van jou nageslag. 8Ek gee aan jou en jou nageslag die land waar jy as vreemdeling woon, die hele Kanaän, as 'n blywende besitting, en Ek sal hulle God wees. 9Verder het God vir Abraham gesê: Jy moet my verbond nakom, jy en jou nageslag en al hulle nageslagte. 10Dit is my verbond wat moet geld vir jou en jou nageslag: elke lid van die manlike geslag onder julle moet besny word. 11Julle moet besny word aan die voorhuid. Dit is die verbondsteken tussen My en julle: 12elke seun onder julle van ag dae oud moet besny word. Dit geld vir elke lid van die manlike geslag onder julle: al julle nageslagte en ook elke slaaf wat as kind in jou besit gebore word, en die slawe wat van 'n vreemde met geld gekoop word, wat nie jou afstammeling is nie. 13'n Slaaf wat as kind in jou besit gebore word, en een wat vir geld gekoop word, moet beslis besny word. So sal my verbondsteken aan julle liggame wees as 'n blywende verbond. 14Elke lid van die manlike geslag wat nie besny is nie, moet van sy volksgenote afgesny word. Hy het my verbond verbreek. 15God het ook nog vir Abraham gesê: Jy moet jou vrou nie meer Sarai noem nie. Haar naam is nou Sara. 16Ek sal haar seën en vir jou 'n seun uit haar gee. Ja, Ek sal haar seën, en nasies en konings van volke sal uit haar voortkom. 17Toe het Abraham op sy knieë geval en hy het gelag en gedink: kan daar vir 'n man van honderd 'n kind gebore word, of kan Sara wat negentig is, 'n kind in die wêreld bring? 18En Abraham het vir God gesê: As Ismael maar net in u teenwoordigheid kan bly lewe! 19Maar God het vir Abraham gesê: Nee, jou vrou Sara sal vir jou 'n seun in die wêreld bring. Jy moet hom Isak noem. Ek sal my verbond met hom hou as 'n blywende verbond, en ook met sy nageslag. 20Ek het gehoor wat jy oor Ismael gesê het. Kyk, Ek seën hom ook. Ek maak hom vrugbaar, en Ek sal sy nakomelinge baie maak. Uit hom sal daar twaalf heersers stam, en Ek sal hom 'n groot nasie laat word. 21Maar dit is met Isak, die seun wat Sara vir jou oor 'n jaar in die wêreld sal bring, dat Ek my verbond sal nakom. 22Nadat God klaar met Abraham gepraat het, het Hy van Abraham af weggegaan. 23Op daardie selfde dag het Abraham sy seun Ismael gevat en al die slawe wat in sy besit gebore is, en ook dié wat hy met geld gekoop het, elke lid van die manlike geslag in sy huis, en hy het hulle besny, soos God vir hom gesê het. 24Abraham was nege en negentig toe hy besny is, 25en sy seun Ismael dertien. 26Abraham en Ismael is op presies dieselfde dag besny. 27Al die mans in Abraham se huis, die slawe wat in sy besit gebore is, en dié wat hy van vreemdes gekoop het, is saam met hom besny.

Gen 18:1 The LORD appeared to Abraham at the sacred trees of Mamre. As Abraham was sitting at the entrance of his tent during the hottest part of the day,

Gen 18:2 he looked up and saw three men standing there. As soon as he saw them, he ran out to meet them. Bowing down with his face touching the ground,

Gen 18:3 he said, "Sirs, please do not pass by my home without stopping; I am here to serve you.

Gen 18:4 Let me bring some water for you to wash your feet; you can rest here beneath this tree.

Gen 18:5 I will also bring a bit of food; it will give you strength to continue your journey. You have honored me by coming to my home, so let me serve you." They replied, "Thank you; we accept."

Gen 18:6 Abraham hurried into the tent and said to Sarah, "Quick, take a sack of your best flour, and bake some bread."

Gen 18:7 Then he ran to the herd and picked out a calf that was tender and fat, and gave it to a servant, who hurried to get it ready.

Gen 18:8 He took some cream, some milk, and the meat, and set the food before the men. There under the tree he served them himself, and they ate.

Gen 18:9 Then they asked him, "Where is your wife Sarah?" "She is there in the tent," he answered.

Gen 18:10 One of them said, "Nine months from now I will come back, and your wife Sarah will have a son." Sarah was behind him, at the door of the tent, listening.

Gen 18:11 Abraham and Sarah were very old, and Sarah had stopped having her monthly periods.

Gen 18:12 So Sarah laughed to herself and said, "Now that I am old and worn out, can I still enjoy sex? And besides, my husband is old too."

Gen 18:13 Then the LORD asked Abraham, "Why did Sarah laugh and say, 'Can I really have a child when I am so old?'

Gen 18:14 Is anything too hard for the LORD? As I said, nine months from now I will return, and Sarah will have a son."

Gen 18:15 Because Sarah was afraid, she denied it. "I didn't laugh," she said. "Yes, you did," he replied. "You laughed."

Gen 18:16 Then the men left and went to a place where they could look down at Sodom, and Abraham went with them to send them on their way.

Gen 18:17 And the LORD said to himself, "I will not hide from Abraham what I am going to do.

Gen 18:18 His descendants will become a great and mighty nation, and through him I will bless all the nations.

Gen 18:19 I have chosen him in order that he may command his sons and his descendants to obey me and to do what is right and just. If they do, I will do everything for him that I have promised."

Gen 18:20 Then the LORD said to Abraham, "There are terrible accusations against Sodom and Gomorrah, and their sin is very great.

Gen 18:21 I must go down to find out whether or not the accusations which I have heard are true."

Abraham Intercedes for Sodom

Gen 18:22 Then the two men left and went on toward Sodom, but the LORD remained with Abraham.

Gen 18:23 Abraham approached the LORD and asked, "Are you really going to destroy the innocent with the guilty?

Gen 18:24 If there are fifty innocent people in the city, will you destroy the whole city? Won't you spare it in order to save the fifty?

Gen 18:25 Surely you won't kill the innocent with the guilty. That's impossible! You can't do that. If you did, the innocent would be punished along with the guilty. That is impossible. The judge of all the earth has to act justly."

Gen 18:26 The LORD answered, "If I find fifty innocent people in Sodom, I will spare the whole city for their sake."

Gen 18:27 Abraham spoke again: "Please forgive my boldness in continuing to speak to you, Lord. I am only a man and have no right to say anything.

Gen 18:28 But perhaps there will be only forty-five innocent people instead of fifty. Will you destroy the whole city because there are five too few?" The LORD answered, "I will not destroy the city if I find forty-five innocent people."

Gen 18:29 Abraham spoke again: "Perhaps there will be only forty." He replied, "I will not destroy it if there are forty."

Gen 18:30 Abraham said, "Please don't be angry, Lord, but I must speak again. What if there are only thirty?" He said, "I will not do it if I find thirty."

Gen 18:31 Abraham said, "Please forgive my boldness in continuing to speak to you, Lord. Suppose that only twenty are found?" He said, "I will not destroy the city if I find twenty."

Gen 18:32 Abraham said, "Please don't be angry, Lord, and I will speak only once more. What if only ten are found?" He said, "I will not destroy it if there are ten."

Gen 18:33 After he had finished speaking with Abraham, the LORD went away, and Abraham returned home.

GENESIS 18

1Die Here het aan Abraham verskyn by die groot bome van Mamre. Terwyl hy op die warmste van die dag by sy tentdeur sit, 2kyk hy op en sien drie mans daar naby staan. Toe hy hulle sien, het hy van sy tentdeur af na hulle toe gedraf en voor hulle gebuig. 3Hy het gesê: Menere, u sal my 'n guns bewys deur nie by my verby te gaan nie. 4Laat ek eers 'n bietjie water laat haal sodat u u voete kan was, en kom rus dan onder die boom. 5U is nou eenmaal op pad hier by my verby, en daarom wil ek 'n stukkie brood vir u gaan haal dat u weer nuwe krag kan kry. Hulle het vir hom gesê: Goed! Maak so! 6Abraham het toe gou na Sara toe in die tent gegaan en vir haar gesê: Vat gou sestien kilogram meel en knie dit en bak roosterkoeke. 7Daarna het hy na die beeste toe gedraf en 'n mooi jong kalf gevat en vir 'n slaaf gegee om dit gou voor te berei. 8Toe het Abraham botter en melk en die kalf wat voorberei is, gevat en voor die mans neergesit, en hulle het daar onder die boom geëet terwyl hy hulle bedien. 9Toe vra hulle hom: Waar is jou vrou Sara? en hy antwoord: Hier in die tent. 10Toe sê die een: Ek sal beslis volgende jaar hierdie tyd na jou toe terugkom, en dan sal jou vrou Sara 'n seun hê. Sara het by die tentopening gestaan en afluister, en die een wat gepraat het, was aan die buitekant. 11Abraham en Sara was albei al baie oud, en Sara was verby die ouderdom van kinders in die wêreld bring, 12en daarom het sy by haarself gelag en gedink: sal ek nog genot kan hê noudat ek afgeleef is? En dit met my man wat oud is? 13Toe vra die Here vir Abraham: Waarom lag Sara? Waarom dink sy: sal ek werklik 'n kind in die wêreld bring noudat ek oud is? 14Is iets te buitengewoon vir die Here? Op die vasgestelde tyd sal Ek terugkom. Volgende jaar hierdie tyd sal Sara 'n seun hê. 15Sara het geskrik en toe 'n leuen vertel. Ek het nie gelag nie, het sy gesê. Maar die Here het gesê: Nee, jy het gelag. 16Toe die mans opstaan om te vertrek, het Abraham 'n entjie saam met hulle gestap. Die mans het afgekyk in die rigting van Sodom, 17en toe dink die Here: sal Ek vir Abraham wegsteek wat Ek wil doen? 18Abraham sal tog 'n groot en sterk nasie word en in hom sal al die nasies van die aarde geseën word. 19Ek het hom gekies dat hy sy kinders en sy nageslag kan beveel om op my pad te bly deur te doen wat goed en reg is, sodat Ek vir Abraham kan doen wat Ek hom beloof het. 20Toe sê die Here: Die geroep teen Sodom en Gomorra is hard. Hulle sonde is baie groot! 21Ek wil gaan kyk sodat Ek kan weet of hulle ooreenkomstig die geroep wat tot by My gekom het, gehandel het of nie. 22Die mans het weggedraai Sodom toe, maar die Here het by Abraham bly staan. 23Abraham het toe nader gekom na die Here toe en gevra: Sal U die regverdiges saam met die goddeloses vernietig?

[24]Miskien is daar vyftig regverdiges in die stad. Sal U die plek werklik vernietig? Sal U dit nie spaar oor vyftig regverdiges daarin nie? [25]U sal tog nie so iets doen en die regverdiges saam met die goddeloses om die lewe bring nie! U sal tog nie die regverdiges soos die goddeloses behandel nie! Sal die regter van die hele aarde dan nie reg laat geskied nie? [26]Toe sê die Here: As Ek vyftig regverdiges in Sodom kry, sal Ek die hele plek spaar oor hulle. [27]Abraham het gesê: Ek is maar net stof en as, en tog het ek gewaag om met die Here te praat. [28]Sê nou die regverdiges is vyf minder as vyftig: sal U die hele stad vir vyf verdelg? Hierop antwoord die Here: Ek sal dit nie verdelg as Ek vyf en veertig daar kry nie. [29]Toe praat Abraham weer met die Here: Miskien sal daar veertig gevind word, en die Here sê: Ook oor veertig sal Ek dit nie doen nie. [30]Abraham sê toe: Moet tog nie kwaad word as ek nog 'n keer praat nie, Here. Miskien sal daar dertig te kry wees, en die Here sê: Ek sal dit nie doen as Ek dertig daar kry nie. [31]Maar Abraham sê: Ek bly waag om met die Here te praat. Miskien word daar twintig gekry, en die Here sê: Oor die twintig sal Ek dit nie verdelg nie. [32]Toe sê Abraham: Moet tog nie kwaad word nie, Here! Ek wil nog net een keer praat; miskien word daar tien gekry. En die Here sê: Ook oor tien sal Ek dit nie verdelg nie. [33]Toe die Here klaar met Abraham gepraat het, het Hy weggegaan, en Abraham het na sy plek toe teruggegaan.

Genesis 19

God Rescues Lot

Gen 19:1 When the two angels came to Sodom that evening, Lot was sitting at the city gate. As soon as he saw them, he got up and went to meet them. He bowed down before them

Gen 19:2 and said, "Sirs, I am here to serve you. Please come to my house. You can wash your feet and spend the night. In the morning you can get up early and go on your way." But they answered, "No, we will spend the night here in the city square."

Gen 19:3 He kept on urging them, and finally they went with him to his house. Lot ordered his servants to bake some bread and prepare a fine meal for the guests. When it was ready, they ate it.

Gen 19:4 Before the guests went to bed, the men of Sodom surrounded the house. All the men of the city, both young and old, were there.

Gen 19:5 They called out to Lot and asked, "Where are the men who came to stay with you tonight? Bring them out to us!" The men of Sodom wanted to have sex with them.

Gen 19:6 Lot went outside and closed the door behind him.

Gen 19:7 He said to them, "Friends, I beg you, don't do such a wicked thing!

Gen 19:8 Look, I have two daughters who are still virgins. Let me bring them out to you, and you can do whatever you want with them. But don't do anything to these men; they are guests in my house, and I must protect them."

Gen 19:9 But they said, "Get out of our way, you foreigner! Who are you to tell us what to do? Out of our way, or we will treat you worse than them." They pushed Lot back and moved up to break down the door.

Gen 19:10 But the two men inside reached out, pulled Lot back into the house, and shut the door.

Gen 19:11 Then they struck all the men outside with blindness, so that they couldn't find the door.

Gen 19:12 The two men said to Lot, "If you have anyone else here—sons, daughters, sons-in-law, or any other relatives living in the city—get them out of here,

Gen 19:13 because we are going to destroy this place. The LORD has heard the terrible accusations against these people and has sent us to destroy Sodom."

Gen 19:14 Then Lot went to the men that his daughters were going to marry, and said, "Hurry up and get out of here; the LORD is going to destroy this place." But they thought he was joking.

Gen 19:15 At dawn the angels tried to make Lot hurry. "Quick!" they said. "Take your wife and your two daughters and get out, so that you will not lose your lives when the city is destroyed."

Gen 19:16 Lot hesitated. The LORD, however, had pity on him; so the men took him, his wife, and his two daughters by the hand and led them out of the city.

Gen 19:17 Then one of the angels said, "Run for your lives! Don't look back and don't stop in the valley. Run to the hills, so that you won't be killed."

Gen 19:18 But Lot answered, "No, please don't make us do that, sir.

Gen 19:19 You have done me a great favor and saved my life. But the hills are too far away; the disaster will overtake me, and I will die before I get there.

Gen 19:20 Do you see that little town? It is near enough. Let me go over there—you can see it is just a small place—and I will be safe."

Gen 19:21 He answered, "All right, I agree. I won't destroy that town.

Gen 19:22 Hurry! Run! I can't do anything until you get there." Because Lot called it small, the town was named Zoar.

God Destroys Sodom

Gen 19:23 The sun was rising when Lot reached Zoar.

Gen 19:24 Suddenly the LORD rained burning sulfur on the cities of Sodom and Gomorrah

Gen 19:25 and destroyed them and the whole valley, along with all the people there and everything that grew on the land.

Gen 19:26 But Lot's wife looked back and was turned into a pillar of salt.

Gen 19:27 Early the next morning Abraham hurried to the place where he had stood in the presence of the LORD.

Gen 19:28 He looked down at Sodom and Gomorrah and the whole valley and saw smoke rising from the land, like smoke from a huge furnace.

Gen 19:29 But when God destroyed the cities of the valley where Lot was living, he kept Abraham in mind and allowed Lot to escape to safety.

Lot and His Daughters

Gen 19:30 Because Lot was afraid to stay in Zoar, he and his two daughters moved up into the hills and lived in a cave.

Gen 19:31 The older daughter said to her sister, "Our father is getting old, and there are no men in the whole world to marry us so that we can have children.

Gen 19:32 Come on, let's get our father drunk, so that we can sleep with him and have children by him."

Gen 19:33 That night they gave him wine to drink, and the older daughter had intercourse with him. But he was so drunk that he didn't know it.

Gen 19:34 The next day the older daughter said to her sister, "I slept with him last night; now let's get him drunk again tonight, and you sleep with him. Then each of us will have a child by our father."

Gen 19:35 So that night they got him drunk, and the younger daughter had intercourse with him. Again he was so drunk that he didn't know it.

Gen 19:36 In this way both of Lot's daughters became pregnant by their own father.

Gen 19:37 The older daughter had a son, whom she named Moab. He was the ancestor of the present-day Moabites.

Gen 19:38 The younger daughter also had a son, whom she named Benammi. He was the ancestor of the present-day Ammonites.

GENESIS 19

1Die twee engele het Sodom teen die aand bereik terwyl Lot juis in die poort van Sodom sit. Toe Lot hulle sien, het hy hulle tegemoet gegaan en diep gebuig 2en gesê: Welkom, Menere! Kom tog na my huis toe en oornag daar. Julle kan ook julle voete was. Dan kan julle môre vroeg julle reis voortsit. Maar hulle sê: Nee, ons sal sommer op die plein oornag. 3Lot het egter so by hulle aangehou dat hulle by hom ingedraai en in sy huis ingegaan het. Hy het vir hulle 'n maaltyd klaargemaak: hy het ongesuurde brood gebak, en hulle het geëet. 4Voor hulle die aand gaan slaap het, het die mans oral uit die stad uit, die mans van Sodom, oud en jonk, die hele klomp, die huis van Lot omsingel. 5Hulle het vir Lot geroep en vir hom gevra: Waar is die mans wat vanaand na jou toe gekom het? Bring hulle uit na ons toe. Ons wil geslagsgemeenskap met hulle hê. 6Toe het Lot na die mans van Sodom toe uitgegaan. Nadat hy die deur agter hom gesluit het, 7het hy gesê: Nee, vriende! Moenie so 'n verkeerde ding doen nie. 8Ek het twee dogters. Hulle het nog nie gemeenskap met 'n man gehad nie. Ek sal hulle vir julle laat uitkom, doen julle dan met hulle wat julle wil. Moet net nie iets doen aan hierdie mans nie, want hulle het onder die beskerming van my dak ingekom. 9Toe roep die mans van Sodom: Gee pad! En hulle sê: Hierdie kêrel het as vreemdeling hierheen gekom, en nou wil hy regter speel. Ons sal hom nog meer kwaad aandoen as vir sy besoekers. Hulle het vir Lot teruggedruk en nader gekom om die deur oop te breek. 10Toe het die mans wat in sy huis was, vir Lot binnetoe getrek na hulle toe en die deur gesluit, 11en die mans buite by die deur, oud en jonk, laat blind word sodat hulle nie die deur kon kry nie. 12Die mans by Lot sê toe vir hom: Wie van jou mense is nog hier? Skoonseuns of seuns of dogters of wie jy ook al in die stad het, vat hulle uit die plek uit! 13Ons gaan hierdie plek verdelg. Daar is 'n groot geroep by die Here oor die plek en sy mense, en Hy het ons gestuur om die plek te verdelg. 14Lot het toe vir sy aanstaande skoonseuns gaan sê: Kom uit hierdie plek uit, want die Here gaan hierdie stad verdelg, maar hulle het gedink Lot maak 'n grap. 15Toe die dag begin breek, het die engele hom aangejaag en gesê: Kom nou! Vat jou vrou en jou twee dogters wat by jou is, anders sterf jy wanneer die stad sy straf kry. 16Toe Lot nog talm, het die twee mans hom en sy vrou en sy twee dogters aan die hand gegryp en hulle uit die stad uit gevat, want die Here het Hom oor Lot ontferm. 17Nadat hulle vir Lot-hulle buite die stad gebring het, sê een van die mans vir hom: Vlug vir jou lewe! Moenie omkyk nie! Moenie êrens in die vlakte vertoef nie, vlug berge toe, anders word jy omgebring. 18Maar hy sê vir hulle: Asseblief tog, Menere, 19u was al so goed vir my en u het my al so 'n groot guns bewys deur my lewe te spaar, maar ek sal nie berge toe kan vlug nie. Die ramp sal my inhaal voor ek daar is en ek sal omkom. 20Kyk, hier naby is 'n dorpie waarheen ek kan vlug. Ek wil daarheen vlug en so my lewe red. Dit is maar 'n ou klein dorpie. 21Toe sê die engel vir hom: Ook wat dit betref, staan ek jou versoek toe. Ek sal nie die dorp waarvan jy praat, verwoes nie. 22Vlug gou daarnatoe, want ek kan niks aan die ander stede doen voordat jy in die dorpie aangekom het nie. Dit is waarom hulle die dorpie Soar noem. 23Net toe die son opkom, het Lot in Soar aangekom. 24Toe het die Here swael en vuur van Hom af, uit die hemel uit, laat reën op Sodom en Gomorra. 25En God het die stede en die hele vlakte verwoes en al hulle inwoners om die lewe gebring; selfs die plante in die omgewing is uitgeroei. 26Lot se vrou het omgekyk en sy het in 'n soutpilaar verander. 27Daardie oggend het Abraham vroeg opgestaan en na die plek toe gegaan waar hy in die teenwoordigheid van die Here gestaan het. 28Toe Abraham in die rigting van Sodom en Gomorra en van die hele vlaktestreek kyk, sien hy oor die hele wêreld trek rook op asof dit 'n steenoond is. 29Toe God die stede in die vlakte verdelg het waar Lot gewoon het, het God aan Abraham gedink en vir Lot laat wegkom uit die plek waar die verwoesting plaasgevind het. 30Lot het toe van Soar af weggegaan en met sy twee dogters in die berge gaan bly. Hy was bang om in Soar te bly en het toe met sy twee dogters in 'n grot gaan woon. 31Die oudste dogter het vir die jongste gesê: Pa is oud. Hier rond sal ons nie op die gebruiklike manier mans kry nie. 32Kom ons maak vir Pa dronk en dan slaap ons by hom sodat ons by hom kinders kan hê. 33Daardie nag het hulle hom dronk gemaak, en die oudste dogter het met hom gemeenskap gehad. Hy het nie besef dat dit sy is wat by hom kom lê en daarna opstaan nie. 34Die volgende dag sê sy toe vir die jongste: Ek het verlede nag by hom geslaap. Kom ons maak hom vannag weer dronk en dan gaan slaap jy by hom sodat ons elkeen 'n kind by hom kan hê. 35Hulle het hom toe daardie nag weer dronk gemaak, en die jongste dogter het met hom gemeenskap gehad. Hy het nie agtergekom dat dit sy is wat by hom kom lê en daarna opstaan nie. 36So het die twee dogters van Lot by hulle pa swanger geword. 37Die oudste het 'n seun in die wêreld gebring en hom Moab genoem. Hy is die voorvader van die Moabiete. 38Die jongste dogter het ook 'n seun in die wêreld gebring en hom Ben-Ammi genoem. Hy is die voorvader van die Ammoniete.

Genesis 20

Abraham and Abimelech

Gen 20:1 Abraham moved from Mamre to the southern part of Canaan and lived between Kadesh and Shur. Later, while he was living in Gerar, Gen 20:2 he said that his wife Sarah was his sister. So King Abimelech of Gerar had Sarah brought to him.

Gen 20:3 One night God appeared to him in a dream and said, "You are going to die, because you have taken this woman; she is already married."

Gen 20:4 But Abimelech had not come near her, and he said, "Lord, I am innocent! Would you destroy me and my people?

Gen 20:5 Abraham himself said that she was his sister, and she said the same thing. I did this with a clear conscience, and I have done no wrong."

Gen 20:6 God replied in the dream, "Yes, I know that you did it with a clear conscience; so I kept you from sinning against me and did not let you touch her.

Gen 20:7 But now, give the woman back to her husband. He is a prophet, and he will pray for you, so that you will not die. But if you do not give her back, I warn you that you are going to die, you and all your people."

Gen 20:8 Early the next morning Abimelech called all his officials and told them what had happened, and they were terrified.

Gen 20:9 Then Abimelech called Abraham and asked, "What have you done to us? What wrong have I done to you to make you bring this disaster on me and my kingdom? No one should ever do what you have done to me.

Gen 20:10 Why did you do it?"

Gen 20:11 Abraham answered, "I thought that there would be no one here who has reverence for God and that they would kill me to get my wife.

Gen 20:12 She really is my sister. She is the daughter of my father, but not of my mother, and I married her.

Gen 20:13 So when God sent me from my father's house into foreign lands, I said to her, 'You can show how loyal you are to me by telling everyone that I am your brother.' "

Gen 20:14 Then Abimelech gave Sarah back to Abraham, and at the same time he gave him sheep, cattle, and slaves.

Gen 20:15 He said to Abraham, "Here is my whole land; live anywhere you like."

Gen 20:16 He said to Sarah, "I am giving your brother a thousand pieces of silver as proof to all who are with you that you are innocent; everyone will know that you have done no wrong."

Gen 20:17 (17-18) Because of what had happened to Sarah, Abraham's wife, the LORD had made it impossible for any woman in Abimelech's palace to have children. So Abraham prayed for Abimelech, and God healed him. He also healed his wife and his slave women, so that they could have children.

GENESIS 20

1Abraham het van Mamre af weggetrek na die Suidland toe en hom tussen Kades en Sur gaan vestig. Toe hy op 'n keer in Gerar gewoon het, 2het hy voorgegee sy vrou Sara is sy suster. Koning Abimelek van Gerar het haar toe laat haal om met haar te trou. 3Een nag het God in 'n droom aan Abimelek verskyn en vir hom gesê: Jy gaan sterf omdat jy met hierdie vrou wil trou. Sy is al getroud. 4Abimelek het nog nie met haar geslagsgemeenskap gehad nie en hy het gesê: Here, sal U selfs 'n onskuldige nasie uitroei? 5Abraham het dan self vir my gesê: Sy is my suster.' En sy het self gesê: Hy is my broer.' Ek het dit onskuldig en sonder slegte bedoelings gedoen. 6Toe het God vir hom in 'n droom gesê: Ja, Ek weet dat jy dit onskuldig gedoen het. Daarom het Ek jou daarvan weerhou om teen My te sondig en het Ek jou nie toegelaat om aan haar te raak nie. 7Gee nou die vrou terug aan haar man. Hy is 'n profeet. Hy sal vir jou bid dat jy kan bly lewe. Maar as jy haar nie teruggee nie, moet jy weet jy sal beslis sterf, jy en almal wat by jou is. 8Die môre vroeg het Abimelek sy amptenare geroep en alles vir hulle openlik vertel, en hulle het baie bang geword. 9Hy het vir Abraham geroep en vir hom gesê: Wat het jy ons aangedoen? Wat het ek aan jou gedoen wat verkeerd is dat jy hierdie groot ellende oor my en my koninkryk gebring het? Wat jy my aangedoen het, is onbehoorlik. 10Verder het Abimelek vir hom gesê: Wat het jou besiel om so iets aan te vang? 11Toe het Abraham gesê: Ek het gedink hier is niemand wat vir God dien nie en die mense sal my doodmaak oor my vrou. 12Sy is regtig my suster: sy is my pa se dogter, maar nie my ma s'n nie. Ek is met haar getroud. 13Toe God my uit my vaderland laat wegtrek het, het ek vir haar gesê: Jy kan wys dat jy my liefhet deur op elke plek waar ons kom, van my te sê: Hy is my broer. 14Abimelek het toe kleinvee en grootvee, slawe en slavinne gevat en vir Abraham gegee en Sara ook aan haar man teruggegee. 15Toe sê Abimelek vir hom: My land lê oop voor jou. Bly net waar jy wil. 16Vir Sara het Abimelek gesê: Ek gee aan jou broer duisend stukke silwer. Dit is om almal wat by jou is, te laat stilbly en om te wys alles is in orde. 17Abraham het toe tot God gebid, en Hy het vir Abimelek gesond gemaak, ook sy vrou en sy slavinne, en toe kon hulle weer kinders hê. 18Dit was nadat die Here elke vrou in die huis van Abimelek daarvan weerhou het om kinders te hê. Die Here het dit gedoen oor wat gebeur het met Sara die vrou van Abraham.

Genesis 21

The Birth of Isaac

Gen 21:1 The LORD blessed Sarah, as he had promised,

Gen 21:2 and she became pregnant and bore a son to Abraham when he was old. The boy was born at the time God had said he would be born.

Gen 21:3 Abraham named him Isaac,

Gen 21:4 and when Isaac was eight days old, Abraham circumcised him, as God had commanded.

Gen 21:5 Abraham was a hundred years old when Isaac was born.

Gen 21:6 Sarah said, "God has brought me joy and laughter. Everyone who hears about it will laugh with me."

Gen 21:7 Then she added, "Who would have said to Abraham that Sarah would nurse children? Yet I have borne him a son in his old age."

God Protects Hagar and Ishmael

Gen 21:8 The child grew, and on the day that he was weaned, Abraham gave a great feast.

Gen 21:9 One day Ishmael, whom Hagar the Egyptian had borne to Abraham, was playing with Sarah's son Isaac.

Gen 21:10 Sarah saw them and said to Abraham, "Send this slave and her son away. The son of this woman must not get any part of your wealth, which my son Isaac should inherit."

Gen 21:11 This troubled Abraham very much, because Ishmael also was his son.

Gen 21:12 But God said to Abraham, "Don't be worried about the boy and your slave Hagar. Do whatever Sarah tells you, because it is through Isaac that you will have the descendants I have promised.

Gen 21:13 I will also give many children to the son of the slave woman, so that they will become a nation. He too is your son."

Gen 21:14 Early the next morning Abraham gave Hagar some food and a leather bag full of water. He put the child on her back and sent her away. She left and wandered about in the wilderness of Beersheba.

Gen 21:15 When the water was all gone, she left the child under a bush

Gen 21:16 and sat down about a hundred yards away. She said to herself, "I can't bear to see my child die." While she was sitting there, she began to cry.

Gen 21:17 God heard the boy crying, and from heaven the angel of God spoke to Hagar, "What are you troubled about, Hagar? Don't be afraid. God has heard the boy crying.

Gen 21:18 Get up, go and pick him up, and comfort him. I will make a great nation out of his descendants."

Gen 21:19 Then God opened her eyes, and she saw a well. She went and filled the leather bag with water and gave some to the boy.

Gen 21:20 God was with the boy as he grew up; he lived in the wilderness of Paran and became a skillful hunter.

Gen 21:21 His mother got an Egyptian wife for him.

A Treaty with Abimelech

Gen 21:22 At that time Abimelech went with Phicol, the commander of his army, and said to Abraham, "God is with you in everything you do.

Gen 21:23 So make a vow here in the presence of God that you will not deceive me, my children, or my descendants. I have been loyal to you, so promise that you will also be loyal to me and to this country in which you are living."

Gen 21:24 Abraham said, "I promise."

Gen 21:25 Abraham complained to Abimelech about a well which the servants of Abimelech had seized.

Gen 21:26 Abimelech said, "I don't know who did this. You didn't tell me about it, and this is the first I have heard of it."

Gen 21:27 Then Abraham gave some sheep and cattle to Abimelech, and the two of them made an agreement.

Gen 21:28 Abraham separated seven lambs from his flock,

Gen 21:29 and Abimelech asked him, "Why did you do that?"

Gen 21:30 Abraham answered, "Accept these seven lambs. By doing this, you admit that I am the one who dug this well."

Gen 21:31 And so the place was called Beersheba, because it was there that the two of them made a vow.

Gen 21:32 After they had made this agreement at Beersheba, Abimelech and Phicol went back to Philistia.

Gen 21:33 Then Abraham planted a tamarisk tree in Beersheba and worshiped the LORD, the Everlasting God.

Gen 21:34 Abraham lived in Philistia for a long time.

[1]Die Here het aan Sara gedink soos Hy beloof het. Hy het sy belofte aan haar nagekom. [2]Sy het swanger geword en in Abraham se ouderdom vir hom 'n seun in die wêreld gebring. Dit het gebeur op die tyd wat God vir Abraham beloof het. [3]Hy het die seun wat vir hom gebore is, die een wat deur Sara in die wêreld gebring is, Isak genoem. [4]Soos God vir Abraham beveel het, het hy vir Isak besny toe hy ag dae oud was. [5]Abraham was honderd jaar oud toe sy seun Isak gebore is. [6]Sara het toe gesê: God het gemaak dat mense vir my lag: elkeen wat van Isak hoor, sal vir my lag. [7]Sy het verder nog gesê: Wie sou vir Abraham kon sê dat Sara seuns aan haar bors sal voed? Ek het in sy ouderdom 'n seun in die wêreld gebring. [8]Die kind het grootgeword en die dag toe hy gespeen is, het Abraham 'n groot fees gehou. [9]Toe Sara die seun wat Hagar die Egiptiese slavin vir Abraham in die wêreld gebring het, sien lag, [10]sê sy vir Abraham: Jaag hierdie slavin en haar seun weg. Die seun van hierdie slavin mag nie saam met my seun Isak erf nie. [11]Abraham het ter wille van sy seun Ismael baie sleg gevoel oor wat sy gesê het, [12]maar God het vir Abraham gesê: Moenie sleg voel oor die kind en oor jou slavin nie. Luister na alles wat Sara vir jou sê, want uit Isak sal jou nageslag gebore word. [13]Tog sal Ek die seun van die slavin 'n nasie laat word, want hy is jou kind. [14]Vroeg die volgende môre het Abraham kos gevat en 'n velsak water en dit vir Hagar gegee. Hy het dit saam met die kind op haar rug gesit en haar weggestuur. Sy is toe weg en het in die Bersebawoestyn rondgeswerf. [15]Toe die water in die velsak opraak, het sy die kind onder 'n doringbos neergesit [16]en 'n entjie daarvandaan gaan sit, omtrent so ver as 'n mens met 'n pyl en boog kan skiet, want sy het gedink: ek wil nie sien as die kind doodgaan nie. Terwyl sy so daar sit, het sy begin huil. [17]God het die kind hoor huil, en die Engel van God het uit die hemel na Hagar geroep en vir haar gesê: Wat is dit, Hagar? Moenie bang wees nie, want God het die kind daar waar hy lê, gehoor. [18]Staan op, tel die kind op en troos hom, want Ek sal hom 'n groot nasie laat word. [19]Toe het God haar oë oopgemaak en sy het 'n put met water gesien. Sy het die velsak vol water gaan maak en vir die kind water gegee. [20]God was by die kind en hy het groot geword. Hy het in die woestyn gewoon en het handig geword met die pyl en boog. [21]Hy het in die Paranwoestyn gewoon, en sy ma het hom met 'n vrou uit Egipte laat trou. [22]Destyds het Abimelek en Pikol, die bevelvoerder van sy leër, na Abraham toe gegaan, en Abimelek het vir hom gesê: God is by jou in alles wat jy aanpak. [23]Beloof my dan nou met 'n eed in die Naam van God dat jy nie vals sal optree teen my of my kinders of my kleinkinders nie, dat jy net so eerbaar sal optree teenoor my en teenoor die land waarin jy nou woon, as wat ek teenoor jou opgetree het. 24Toe het Abraham gesê: Ek beloof dit. 25Abraham het toe by Abimelek beswaar gemaak oor die waterput wat deur Abimelek se slawe afgevat is. 26Toe sê hy vir Abraham: Ek weet nie wie dit gedoen het nie. Jy het my dit ook nie voorheen vertel nie. Ek hoor nou eers daarvan. 27Daarna het Abraham kleinvee en grootvee gevat en vir Abimelek gegee, en hulle twee het 'n ooreenkoms gesluit. 28Abraham het ook nog sewe skaaplammers uit sy trop uitgekeer, 29en Abimelek het vir hom gevra: Wat wil jy maak met die sewe skaaplammers wat jy uitgekeer het? 30Abraham het geantwoord: Jy moet hierdie sewe lammers by my vat en daarmee erken dat ek hierdie put gegrawe het. 31Die plek word Berseba genoem, want daar het hulle twee 'n eed teenoor mekaar afgelê. 32Nadat hulle die ooreenkoms by Berseba gesluit het, het Abimelek en Pikol, die bevelvoerder van sy leër, teruggegaan na die land van die Filistyne toe, 33en Abraham het 'n tamarisk by Berseba geplant en daar die Naam van die Here, die ewige God, aangeroep. 34Abraham het lank in die land van die Filistyne gewoon.

Genesis 22

The Sacrifice of Isaac

Gen 22:1 Some time later God tested Abraham; he called to him, "Abraham!" And Abraham answered, "Yes, here I am!"

Gen 22:2 "Take your son," God said, "your only son, Isaac, whom you love so much, and go to the land of Moriah. There on a mountain that I will show you, offer him as a sacrifice to me."

Gen 22:3 Early the next morning Abraham cut some wood for the sacrifice, loaded his donkey, and took Isaac and two servants with him. They started out for the place that God had told him about.

Gen 22:4 On the third day Abraham saw the place in the distance.

Gen 22:5 Then he said to the servants, "Stay here with the donkey. The boy and I will go over there and worship, and then we will come back to you."

Gen 22:6 Abraham made Isaac carry the wood for the sacrifice, and he himself carried a knife and live coals for starting the fire. As they walked along together,

Gen 22:7 Isaac spoke up, "Father!" He answered, "Yes, my son?" Isaac asked, "I see that you have the coals and the wood, but where is the lamb for the sacrifice?"

Gen 22:8 Abraham answered, "God himself will provide one." And the two of them walked on together.

Gen 22:9 When they came to the place which God had told him about, Abraham built an altar and arranged the wood on it. He tied up his son and placed him on the altar, on top of the wood.

Gen 22:10 Then he picked up the knife to kill him.

Gen 22:11 But the angel of the LORD called to him from heaven, "Abraham, Abraham!" He answered, "Yes, here I am."

Gen 22:12 "Don't hurt the boy or do anything to him," he said. "Now I know that you honor and obey God, because you have not kept back your only son from him."

Gen 22:13 Abraham looked around and saw a ram caught in a bush by its horns. He went and got it and offered it as a burnt offering instead of his son.

Gen 22:14 Abraham named that place "The LORD Provides." And even today people say, "On the LORD's mountain he provides."

Gen 22:15 The angel of the LORD called to Abraham from heaven a second time,

Gen 22:16 "I make a vow by my own name—the LORD is speaking—that I will richly bless you. Because you did this and did not keep back your only son from me,

Gen 22:17 I promise that I will give you as many descendants as there are stars in the sky or grains of sand along the seashore. Your descendants will conquer their enemies.

Gen 22:18 All the nations will ask me to bless them as I have blessed your descendants—all because you obeyed my command."

Gen 22:19 Abraham went back to his servants, and they went together to Beersheba, where Abraham settled.

Gen 22:20 Some time later Abraham learned that Milcah had borne eight children to his brother Nahor:

Gen 22:21 Uz the first-born, Buz his brother, Kemuel the father of Aram,

Gen 22:22 Chesed, Hazo, Pildash, Jidlaph, and Bethuel,

Gen 22:23 Rebecca's father. Milcah bore these eight sons to Nahor, Abraham's brother.

Gen 22:24 Reumah, Nahor's concubine, bore Tebah, Gaham, Tahash, and Maacah.

GENESIS 22

1'n Ruk na die vorige gebeurtenisse het God vir Abraham op die proef gestel en vir hom gesê: Abraham! Hy het geantwoord: Hier is ek! 2God het vir hom gesê: Vat jou seun, jou enigste seun, Isak wat jy liefhet, en gaan na die landstreek Moria toe en offer jou seun as brandoffer daar op een van die berge wat Ek vir jou sal aanwys. 3Vroeg die volgende môre het Abraham 'n donkie opgesaal en hout gekap vir die brandoffer. Hy het twee slawe saamgevat en ook sy seun Isak. Toe het hy vertrek na die plek toe wat God vir hom aangewys het. 4Op die derde dag het Abraham die plek uit die verte gesien. 5Toe sê hy vir sy slawe: Wag hier met die donkie. Ek en die seun gaan daar aanbid, dan kom ons terug na julle toe. 6Abraham het die hout vir die brandoffer op sy seun Isak se rug getel en self vuur en 'n mes saamgevat. Terwyl hulle twee so saamloop, 7sê Isak vir sy pa: Pa? en Abraham antwoord: Ja, my seun? Toe vra Isak: Hier is vuur en hout, maar waar is die lam om te offer? 8Abraham het geantwoord: My seun, God sal sy eie offerlam voorsien. Daarna het hulle twee saam verder gestap. 9Toe hulle aankom by die plek wat God vir Abraham aangewys het, het Abraham daar 'n altaar gebou. Hy het die hout reggesit en sy seun Isak vasgebind en op die altaar neergesit, bo-op die hout. 10Net toe Abraham die mes vat om sy seun te slag, 11roep die Engel van die Here uit die hemel na hom: Abraham, Abraham! Hy het geantwoord: Hier is ek! 12Toe sê God: Los jou seun! Moenie iets aan hom doen nie. Nou weet Ek dat jy My dien: jy het nie geweier om jou seun, jou enigste seun, aan My te offer nie. 13Toe Abraham weer kyk, sien hy agter hom 'n skaapram wat aan sy horings in 'n bos vasgevang is. Hy het die ram gaan vat en hom in die plek van sy seun as brandoffer geoffer. 14Toe noem Abraham die plek: Die Here voorsien. Daar word nou nog gesê: Op die berg van die Here word voorsien. 15Die Engel van die Here het weer uit die hemel na Abraham geroep 16en gesê: Dit is Ek, die Here, wat praat. Ek lê 'n eed af by Myself dat Ek jou baie sal seën oor wat jy gedoen het: jy het nie geweier om jou seun, jou enigste seun, aan My te offer nie. Ek sal jou vrugbaar maak en jou nageslag so baie maak soos die sterre aan die hemel en soos die sand van die see. Jou nageslag sal die stede van sy vyande in besit neem. 17In jou nageslag sal al die nasies van die aarde geseën wees, want jy het My gehoorsaam. 18Daarna is Abraham terug tot by sy slawe, en hulle het almal saam na Berseba toe gegaan. Abraham het daar gewoon. 19'n Rukkie na hierdie gebeurtenis is aan Abraham vertel dat Milka, sy broer Nahor se vrou, kinders vir sy broer in die wêreld gebring het. 20Hulle was: Us die oudste, sy broer Bus, Kemuel die voorvader van die Arameërs, 21en ook nog Kesed, Gaso, Pildas, Jidlaf en Betuel. 22Betuel was die pa van Rebekka. Milka het hierdie ag seuns in die wêreld gebring vir Abraham se broer Nahor. 23Nahor het 'n byvrou gehad. Haar naam was Reüma en sy het ook kinders gehad: Tebag, Gagam, Tagas en Maäka.

Genesis 23

Sarah's Death and Burial

Gen 23:1 Sarah lived to be 127 years old.

Gen 23:2 She died in Hebron in the land of Canaan, and Abraham mourned her death.

Gen 23:3 He left the place where his wife's body was lying, went to the Hittites, and said,

Gen 23:4 "I am a foreigner living here among you; sell me some land, so that I can bury my wife."

Gen 23:5 They answered,

Gen 23:6 "Listen to us, sir. We look upon you as a mighty leader; bury your wife in the best grave that we have. Any of us would be glad to give you a grave, so that you can bury her."

Gen 23:7 Then Abraham bowed before them

Gen 23:8 and said, "If you are willing to let me bury my wife here, please ask Ephron son of Zohar

Gen 23:9 to sell me Machpelah Cave, which is near the edge of his field. Ask him to sell it to me for its full price, here in your presence, so that I can own it as a burial ground."

Gen 23:10 Ephron himself was sitting with the other Hittites at the meeting place at the city gate; he answered in the hearing of everyone there,

Gen 23:11 "Listen, sir; I will give you the whole field and the cave that is in it. Here in the presence of my own people, I will give it to you, so that you can bury your wife."

Gen 23:12 But Abraham bowed before the Hittites

Gen 23:13 and said to Ephron, so that everyone could hear, "May I ask you, please, to listen. I will buy the whole field. Accept my payment, and I will bury my wife there."

Gen 23:14 Ephron answered,

Gen 23:15 "Sir, land worth only four hundred pieces of silver—what is that between us? Bury your wife in it."

Gen 23:16 Abraham agreed and weighed out the amount that Ephron had mentioned in the hearing of the people—four hundred pieces of silver, according to the standard weights used by the merchants.

Gen 23:17 That is how the property which had belonged to Ephron at Machpelah east of Mamre, became Abraham's. It included the field, the cave which was in it, and all the trees in the field up to the edge of the property.

Gen 23:18 It was recognized as Abraham's property by all the Hittites who were there at the meeting.

Gen 23:19 Then Abraham buried his wife Sarah in that cave in the land of Canaan.

Gen 23:20 So the field which had belonged to the Hittites, and the cave in it, became the property of Abraham for a burial ground.

GENESIS 23

1Sara het honderd sewe en twintig jaar oud geword. 2Sy is oorlede in Kirjat-Arba, dit is Hebron, in Kanaän. Abraham het oor haar gaan rou en huil. 3Daarna het hy die lyk daar gelaat en vir die Hetiete gaan sê: 4Ek is 'n vreemdeling, 'n bywoner by julle. Gee vir my 'n vaste besitting as graf hier by julle sodat ek my vrou daarin kan begrawe. 5Die Hetiete het hom geantwoord: 6Luister na ons, Meneer! Ons beskou u as 'n baie belangrike man. Begrawe u vrou in die beste graf hier by ons. Niemand van ons sal weier dat u u vrou in sy graf begrawe nie. 7Daarna het Abraham opgestaan en voor die Hetiete, die volksleiers, gebuig. 8Hy het vir hulle gesê: As julle instem dat ek my vrou hier kan begrawe, luister dan na my en doen voorspraak by Efron seun van Sogar 9dat hy die Makpelagrot aan die kant van sy grond aan my afstaan. Hy moet dit in julle teenwoordigheid teen die volle markprys aan my verkoop dat ek dit as begraafplek kan besit. 10Efron die Hetiet het tussen die Hetiete gesit en daar waar al die Hetiete wat die stadspoort binnekom, dit kon hoor, het hy vir Abraham gesê: 11Nee, Meneer, luister na my. Ek gee die stuk grond vir u, ook die grot wat daarop is. Ek gee dit vir u in die teenwoordigheid van my volksgenote. Begrawe u vrou daar. 12Toe het Abraham weer voor die volksleiers gebuig 13en waar hulle almal dit kon hoor, het hy vir Efron gesê: Nee, luister tog maar na my! Ek betaal die volle prys vir die grond. Vat die geld by my, sodat ek my vrou daar kan begrawe. 14Efron het toe vir Abraham gesê: 15Meneer, luister na my! Moenie dat ons stry oor 'n stukkie grond wat vier en 'n half kilogram silwer werd is nie. En dit om u vrou te begrawe! 16Toe het Abraham ingestem en die silwer vir Efron afgeweeg wat hy in die teenwoordigheid van die Hetiete genoem het: vier en 'n half kilogram silwer soos dit in die handel afgeweeg word. 17So het die stuk grond van Efron in Makpela waarop die grot is en wat oos van Mamre geleë is, Abraham se eiendom geword in die teenwoordigheid van die Hetiete en almal wat by die stadspoort inkom: die grond met die grot daarop en al die bome op die grond, sover as die grense daarvan gestrek het. 18Daarna het Abraham sy vrou Sara begrawe in die Makpelagrot op die stuk grond, oos van Mamre, dit is Hebron in Kanaän. 19So het die stuk grond met die grot daarop uit die hande van die Hetiete oorgegaan na Abraham as begraafplek wat aan hom behoort.

Genesis 24

Isaac and Rebekah

Gen 24:1 Abraham was now very old, and the LORD had blessed him in everything he did.

Gen 24:2 He said to his oldest servant, who was in charge of all that he had, "Place your hand between my thighs and make a vow.

Gen 24:3 I want you to make a vow in the name of the LORD, the God of heaven and earth, that you will not choose a wife for my son from the people here in Canaan.

Gen 24:4 You must go back to the country where I was born and get a wife for my son Isaac from among my relatives."

Gen 24:5 But the servant asked, "What if the young woman will not leave home to come with me to this land? Shall I send your son back to the land you came from?"

Gen 24:6 Abraham answered, "Make sure that you don't send my son back there!

Gen 24:7 The LORD, the God of heaven, brought me from the home of my father and from the land of my relatives, and he solemnly promised me that he would give this land to my descendants. He will send his angel before you, so that you can get a wife there for my son.

Gen 24:8 If the young woman is not willing to come with you, you will be free from this promise. But you must not under any circumstances take my son back there."

Gen 24:9 So the servant put his hand between the thighs of Abraham, his master, and made a vow to do what Abraham had asked.

Gen 24:10 The servant, who was in charge of Abraham's property, took ten of his master's camels and went to the city where Nahor had lived in northern Mesopotamia.

Gen 24:11 When he arrived, he made the camels kneel down at the well outside the city. It was late afternoon, the time when women came out to get water.

Gen 24:12 He prayed, " LORD, God of my master Abraham, give me success today and keep your promise to my master.

Gen 24:13 Here I am at the well where the young women of the city will be coming to get water.

Gen 24:14 I will say to one of them, 'Please, lower your jar and let me have a drink.' If she says, 'Drink, and I will also bring water for your camels,' may she be the one that you have chosen for your servant Isaac. If this happens, I will know that you have kept your promise to my master."

Gen 24:15 Before he had finished praying, Rebecca arrived with a water jar on her shoulder. She was the daughter of Bethuel, who was the son of Abraham's brother Nahor and his wife Milcah.

Gen 24:16 She was a very beautiful young woman and still a virgin. She went down to the well, filled her jar, and came back.

Gen 24:17 The servant ran to meet her and said, "Please give me a drink of water from your jar."

Gen 24:18 She said, "Drink, sir," and quickly lowered her jar from her shoulder and held it while he drank.

Gen 24:19 When he had finished, she said, "I will also bring water for your camels and let them have all they want."

Gen 24:20 She quickly emptied her jar into the animals' drinking trough and ran to the well to get more water, until she had watered all his camels.

Gen 24:21 The man kept watching her in silence, to see if the LORD had given him success.

Gen 24:22 When she had finished, the man took an expensive gold ring and put it in her nose and put two large gold bracelets on her arms.

Gen 24:23 He said, "Please tell me who your father is. Is there room in his house for my men and me to spend the night?"

Gen 24:24 "My father is Bethuel son of Nahor and Milcah," she answered.

Gen 24:25 "There is plenty of straw and fodder at our house, and there is a place for you to stay."

Gen 24:26 Then the man knelt down and worshiped the LORD.

Gen 24:27 He said, "Praise the LORD, the God of my master Abraham, who has faithfully kept his promise to my master. The LORD has led me straight to my master's relatives."

Gen 24:28 The young woman ran to her mother's house and told the whole story.

Gen 24:29 Now Rebecca had a brother named Laban, and he ran outside to go to the well where Abraham's servant was.

Gen 24:30 Laban had seen the nose ring and the bracelets on his sister's arms and had heard her say what the man had told her. He went to Abraham's servant, who was standing by his camels at the well,

Gen 24:31 and said, "Come home with me. You are a man whom the LORD has blessed. Why are you standing out here? I have a room ready for you in my house, and there is a place for your camels."

Gen 24:32 So the man went into the house, and Laban unloaded the camels and gave them straw and fodder. Then he brought water for Abraham's servant and his men to wash their feet.

Gen 24:33 When food was brought, the man said, "I will not eat until I have said what I have to say." Laban said, "Go on and speak."

Gen 24:34 "I am the servant of Abraham," he began.

Gen 24:35 "The LORD has greatly blessed my master and made him a rich man. He has given him flocks of sheep and goats, cattle, silver, gold, male and female slaves, camels, and donkeys.

Gen 24:36 Sarah, my master's wife, bore him a son when she was old, and my master has given everything he owns to him.

Gen 24:37 My master made me promise with a vow to obey his command. He said, 'Do not choose a wife for my son from the young women in the land of Canaan.

Gen 24:38 Instead, go to my father's people, to my relatives, and choose a wife for him.'

Gen 24:39 And I asked my master, 'What if she will not come with me?'

Gen 24:40 He answered, 'The LORD, whom I have always obeyed, will send his angel with you and give you success. You will get for my son a wife from my own people, from my father's family.

Gen 24:41 There is only one way for you to be free from your vow: if you go to my relatives and they refuse you, then you will be free.'

Gen 24:42 "When I came to the well today, I prayed, ' LORD, God of my master Abraham, please give me success in what I am doing.

Gen 24:43 Here I am at the well. When a young woman comes out to get water, I will ask her to give me a drink of water from her jar.

Gen 24:44 If she agrees and also offers to bring water for my camels, may she be the one that you have chosen as the wife for my master's son.'

Gen 24:45 Before I had finished my silent prayer, Rebecca came with a water jar on her shoulder and went down to the well to get water. I said to her, 'Please give me a drink.'

Gen 24:46 She quickly lowered her jar from her shoulder and said,

'Drink, and I will also water your camels.' So I drank, and she watered the camels.

Gen 24:47 I asked her, 'Who is your father?' And she answered, 'My father is Bethuel son of Nahor and Milcah.' Then I put the ring in her nose and the bracelets on her arms.

Gen 24:48 I knelt down and worshiped the LORD. I praised the LORD, the God of my master Abraham, who had led me straight to my master's relative, where I found his daughter for my master's son.

Gen 24:49 Now, if you intend to fulfill your responsibility toward my master and treat him fairly, please tell me; if not, say so, and I will decide what to do."

Gen 24:50 Laban and Bethuel answered, "Since this matter comes from the LORD, it is not for us to make a decision.

Gen 24:51 Here is Rebecca; take her and go. Let her become the wife of your master's son, as the LORD himself has said."

Gen 24:52 When the servant of Abraham heard this, he bowed down and worshiped the LORD.

Gen 24:53 Then he brought out clothing and silver and gold jewelry, and gave them to Rebecca. He also gave expensive gifts to her brother and to her mother.

Gen 24:54 Then Abraham's servant and the men with him ate and drank, and spent the night there. When they got up in the morning, he said, "Let me go back to my master."

Gen 24:55 But Rebecca's brother and her mother said, "Let her stay with us a week or ten days, and then she may go."

Gen 24:56 But he said, "Don't make us stay. The LORD has made my journey a success; let me go back to my master."

Gen 24:57 They answered, "Let's call her and find out what she has to say."

Gen 24:58 So they called Rebecca and asked, "Do you want to go with this man?" "Yes," she answered.

Gen 24:59 So they let Rebecca and her old family servant go with Abraham's servant and his men.

Gen 24:60 And they gave Rebecca their blessing in these words: "May you, sister, become the mother of millions! May your descendants conquer the cities of their enemies!"

Gen 24:61 Then Rebecca and her young women got ready and mounted the camels to go with Abraham's servant, and they all started out.

Gen 24:62 Isaac had come into the wilderness of "The Well of the Living One Who Sees Me" and was staying in the southern part of Canaan.

Gen 24:63 He went out in the early evening to take a walk in the fields and saw camels coming.

Gen 24:64 When Rebecca saw Isaac, she got down from her camel

Gen 24:65 and asked Abraham's servant, "Who is that man walking toward us in the field?" "He is my master," the servant answered. So she took her scarf and covered her face.

Gen 24:66 The servant told Isaac everything he had done.

Gen 24:67 Then Isaac brought Rebecca into the tent that his mother Sarah had lived in, and she became his wife. Isaac loved Rebecca, and so he was comforted for the loss of his mother.

GENESIS 24

[1]Abraham was al baie oud, en die Here het hom in alles geseën. [2]Abraham het vir sy slaaf gesê, vir die vernaamste in sy huis, die een wat in beheer was van sy besittings: Sit jou hand onder my heup [3]dat jy vir my met 'n eed in die Naam van die Here die God van die hemel en die aarde kan beloof dat jy nie my seun sal laat trou met 'n dogter van die Kanaäniete by wie ek nou woon nie; [4]jy moet na my land toe gaan, die land waar ek gebore is, en daar 'n vrou gaan haal vir my seun Isak. [5]Die slaaf het vir Abraham gevra: En as die vrou nie saam met my hierheen wil kom nie? Moet ek dan u seun laat teruggaan na die land toe waar u vandaan kom? [6]Toe sê Abraham vir hom: Sorg dat jy nie my seun daarnatoe laat teruggaan nie. [7]Die Here die God van die hemel het my weggevat uit my familie, uit die wêreld waar ek gebore is, en my met 'n eed beloof: Ek gee hierdie land waar jy nou is, aan jou nageslag.' Die Here sal sy engel voor jou uit stuur sodat jy vir my seun 'n vrou van my land af sal kan bring. [8]As die vrou nie saam met jou hierheen wil kom nie, is jy vrygestel van hierdie verpligting. Maar jy mag nie my seun laat teruggaan nie. [9]Toe het die slaaf sy hand onder die heup van Abraham, sy eienaar, gesit en vir hom met 'n eed beloof om dit alles te doen. [10]Die slaaf het tien van sy eienaar se kamele gevat en ook allerlei mooi geskenke en vertrek na Mesopotamië toe, na die stad toe waar Nahor gewoon het. [11]Daar het hy die kamele by 'n fontein buite die stad laat kniel. Dit was laat middag, teen die tyd dat die vrouens uitkom om water te skep. [12]Hy het gebid: Here, God van Abraham wie se slaaf ek is, laat daar vandag iets met my gebeur; betoon tog u trou aan my eienaar Abraham. [13]Hier staan ek by die fontein waar die jongmeisies van die stad sal kom water skep. [14]As ek vir 'n meisie vra: Hou tog jou waterkruik dat ek kan drink,' en sy antwoord: Drink gerus, en ek sal jou kamele ook water gee,' dan is dit sy wat deur U gekies is vir u dienaar, vir Isak, en dan sal ek weet dat U trou betoon aan my eienaar. [15]Voor hy nog klaar gebid het, kom Rebekka met die waterkruik op haar skouer daar aan. Sy was die dogter van Betuel, seun van Milka die vrou van Nahor, Abraham se broer. [16]Die meisie was baie mooi, 'n jongmeisie met wie 'n man nog nie gemeenskap gehad het nie. Sy het afgegaan tot by die fontein en haar kruik vol gemaak en teruggeklim. [17]Toe hardloop die slaaf haar tegemoet en sê vir haar: Laat my tog 'n bietjie water uit jou kruik drink. [18]En sy sê: Drink gerus, Meneer! Sy laat toe gou haar kruik rus op haar hand, en laat hom water drink. [19]Toe hy klaar gedrink het, sê sy: Ek sal vir die kamele ook gaan water skep dat hulle genoeg kan drink. [20]Sy het gou haar kruik in die krip leeg gemaak en toe fontein toe gehardloop om nog water te skep. Sy het vir al die kamele geskep. 21Die man het haar in stilte aangekyk om vas te stel of die Here hom in sy onderneming laat slaag het of nie. 22Toe die kamele klaar gedrink het, sit hy 'n goue ring van ses gram aan haar neus en twee goue armbande van honderd en vyftien gram aan haar arms, 23en hy vra: Wie se dogter is jy? Sê my tog, is daar in jou pa se huis plek vir ons om te oornag? 24Sy het hom geantwoord: Ek is die dogter van Betuel, die seun wat deur Milka vir Nahor in die wêreld gebring is. 25Verder het sy gesê: Ons het baie strooi en kameelvoer, en daar is plek om te oornag. 26Toe het die man gekniel en tot die Here gebid: 27Aan die Here die God van Abraham wie se slaaf ek is, kom die lof toe! Die Here het nie sy troue liefde van my eienaar weerhou nie en vir my het die Here reguit gelei na die huis van my eienaar se broer toe. 28Die meisie het na haar ma se huis toe gehardloop en alles gaan vertel. 29Rebekka het 'n broer gehad met die naam Laban. Toe hy die neusring sien en die armbande aan sy suster se arms en haar hoor vertel wat die man alles vir haar gesê het, het hy na die man toe gehardloop by die fontein buite die stad. Toe hy by hom kom, het die man nog by die kamele gestaan, langs die fontein. 30Laban het vir hom gesê: Kom saam! Jy is 'n man wat deur die Here geseën is. Waarom bly jy hier buite staan? Ek het vir jou plek reggemaak in my huis, en daar is ook plek vir die kamele. 31Die man is toe saam huis toe, en Laban het die kamele laat afsaal en vir hulle voer gegee en strooi om op te lê. Vir die man het hy water gegee om sy voete te was en ook vir die mense by hom. 32Toe hulle vir die man kos bring om te eet, sê hy: Ek sal nie eet voor ek my opdrag uitgevoer het nie. Laban het gesê: Praat gerus! 33Toe sê die man: Ek is 'n slaaf van Abraham. 34Die Here het my eienaar baie geseën en hy is ryk. Die Here het hom kleinvee en grootvee gegee, silwer en goud, slawe en slavinne, kamele en donkies. 35Sara, die vrou van my eienaar, het op gevorderde leeftyd vir hom 'n seun in die wêreld gebring, en hy is die erfgenaam. 36My eienaar het my 'n eed laat aflê toe hy vir my gesê het: Jy mag nie my seun laat trou met 'n dogter van die Kanaäniete in wie se land ek woon nie. 37Nee, jy moet na my pa se huis toe gaan, na my familie toe, en vir my seun 'n vrou gaan haal.' 38Ek het vir my eienaar gesê: Dalk sal die vrou nie saam met my wil kom nie,' 39en toe sê hy vir my: Ek leef naby die Here. Hy sal sy engel saam met jou stuur en jou in die onderneming laat slaag sodat jy 'n vrou vir my seun sal kan gaan haal by my familie, by my pa se huis. 40Jy sal slegs van jou eed vrygestel wees as jy na my familie toe gaan en hulle nie instem nie. Dan is jy vry.' 41Toe ek vandag by die fontein kom, het ek gebid: Here, God van Abraham wie se slaaf ek is, laat my tog slaag in my onderneming. 42Hier staan ek by die fontein waar 'n jongmeisie van die stad sal kom water skep. Ek sal vir haar vra om my 'n bietjie water uit haar kruik te laat drink, 43en as sy vir my sê: Drink gerus maar, en ek sal vir jou kamele ook water skep,' is sy die vrou wat deur U gekies is vir die seun van my eienaar. 44Voor ek nog klaar was om saggies te bid, kom Rebekka daar aan met 'n waterkruik op haar skouer en sy gaan af tot by die fontein en skep, en toe vra ek vir haar: Gee my tog 'n bietjie water!' 45Sy laat toe gou haar kruik van haar skouer af sak en sê: Drink gerus! Ek sal u kamele ook water gee.' Ek het toe gedrink en sy het die kamele ook water gegee. 46Ek het haar gevra: Wie se dogter is jy?' en sy het geantwoord: Die dogter van Betuel seun van Nahor en Milka.' Toe het ek die ring aan haar neus gesit en die armbande aan haar arms. 47Ek het gekniel en tot die Here gebid. Ek het Hom, die God van Abraham wie se slaaf ek is, geloof omdat Hy my reg gelei het om die dogter van die broer van my eienaar te kry as vrou vir sy seun. 48As u nou u verantwoordelikheid as familie teenoor my eienaar wil nakom, sê my dan. As u weier, sê my dit sodat ek kan omdraai, waarheen ook al. 49Toe antwoord Laban en Betuel: Wat gebeur het, is van die Here. Ons het vir jou daaroor niks te sê nie. 50Rebekka is hier by jou. Vat haar saam en gaan terug. Sy moet die vrou word van die seun van jou eienaar. Dit is wat die Here gesê het. 51Toe Abraham se slaaf hoor wat hulle sê, het hy diep voor die Here gebuig. 52Daarna het die slaaf silwer- en goue goed en klere vir Rebekka gegee, en ook duur geskenke vir haar broer en haar ma. 53Toe het die slaaf en die mense wat by hom was, geëet en daar oornag. Die volgende môre het hulle opgestaan en toe sê hy: Laat my vertrek na my eienaar toe. 54Rebekka se broer en haar ma het egter gesê: Laat die dogter nog 'n dag of tien by ons bly en dan kan sy gaan. 55Maar die slaaf het hulle geantwoord: Moet my nie ophou nie. Die Here het my in my doel laat slaag. Laat my gaan sodat ek na my eienaar toe kan gaan. 56Hulle het geantwoord: Kom ons roep die dogter en vra haar wat sy verkies. 57Hulle het vir Rebekka geroep en vir haar gevra: Wil jy saam met hierdie man gaan? Sy het geantwoord: Ja! 58Hulle het hulle suster Rebekka en die vrou wat haar grootgemaak het, saam met die slaaf van Abraham en sy mense laat gaan. 59Hulle het vir Rebekka met seënwense gegroet en vir haar gesê: Ons suster, mag jou nageslag tienduisende word, mag hulle die stede van hulle vyande verower! 60Toe het Rebekka en haar slavinne op die kamele geklim en agter die man aan gegaan. Hy het haar saamgevat en hy is terug huis toe. 61Isak het van Lagai-Roï-fontein af gekom. Hy het destyds in die Suidland gewoon. 62Hy het teen die aand se kant in die veld gaan stap en toe sien hy meteens kamele aankom. 63Rebekka het vir Isak gesien en van die kameel afgespring 64en vir Abraham se slaaf gevra: Wie is die man wat daar oorkant in die veld na ons toe aankom? Die slaaf het geantwoord: Dis my eienaar. Toe vat sy haar sluier en trek dit oor haar gesig. 65Die slaaf het vir Isak alles vertel wat gebeur het, en 66Isak het vir Rebekka in die tent van Sara, sy ma, laat woon en met Rebekka getrou. Sy was sy vrou en hy het haar liefgehad. So is Isak vertroos ná sy ma se dood.

Genesis 25

Abraham's Death and His Descendants

Gen 25:1 Abraham married another woman, whose name was Keturah.

Gen 25:2 She bore him Zimran, Jokshan, Medan, Midian, Ishbak, and Shuah.

Gen 25:3 Jokshan was the father of Sheba and Dedan, and the descendants of Dedan were the Asshurim, the Letushim, and the Leummim.

Gen 25:4 The sons of Midian were Ephah, Epher, Hanoch, Abida, and Eldaah. All these were Keturah's descendants.

Gen 25:5 Abraham left everything he owned to Isaac;

Gen 25:6 but while he was still alive, he gave presents to the sons his other wives had borne him. Then he sent these sons to the land of the East, away from his son Isaac.

Gen 25:7 (7-8) Abraham died at the ripe old age of 175.

Gen 25:9 His sons Isaac and Ishmael buried him in Machpelah Cave, in the field east of Mamre that had belonged to Ephron son of Zohar the Hittite.

Gen 25:10 It was the field that Abraham had bought from the Hittites; both Abraham and his wife Sarah were buried there.

Gen 25:11 After the death of Abraham, God blessed his son Isaac, who lived near "The Well of the Living One Who Sees Me."

Gen 25:12 Ishmael, whom Hagar, the Egyptian slave of Sarah, bore to Abraham,

Gen 25:13 had the following sons, listed in the order of their birth: Nebaioth, Kedar, Adbeel, Mibsam,

Gen 25:14 Mishma, Dumah, Massa,

Gen 25:15 Hadad, Tema, Jetur, Naphish, and Kedemah.

Gen 25:16 They were the ancestors of twelve tribes, and their names were given to their villages and camping places.

Gen 25:17 Ishmael was 137 years old when he died.

Gen 25:18 The descendants of Ishmael lived in the territory between Havilah and Shur, to the east of Egypt on the way to Assyria. They lived apart from the other descendants of Abraham.

Gen 25:19 This is the story of Abraham's son Isaac.

Gen 25:20 Isaac was forty years old when he married Rebecca, the daughter of Bethuel (an Aramean from Mesopotamia) and sister of Laban.

Gen 25:21 Because Rebecca had no children, Isaac prayed to the LORD for her. The LORD answered his prayer, and Rebecca became pregnant.

Gen 25:22 She was going to have twins, and before they were born, they struggled against each other in her womb. She said, "Why should something like this happen to me?" So she went to ask the LORD for an answer.

Gen 25:23 The LORD said to her, "Two nations are within you; You will give birth to two rival peoples. One will be stronger than the other; The older will serve the younger."

Gen 25:24 The time came for her to give birth, and she had twin sons.

Gen 25:25 The first one was reddish, and his skin was like a hairy robe, so he was named Esau.

Gen 25:26 The second one was born holding on tightly to the heel of Esau, so he was named Jacob. Isaac was sixty years old when they were born.

Gen 25:27 The boys grew up, and Esau became a skilled hunter, a man who loved the outdoors, but Jacob was a quiet man who stayed at home.

Gen 25:28 Isaac preferred Esau, because he enjoyed eating the animals Esau killed, but Rebecca preferred Jacob.

Esau Sells His Birthright

Gen 25:29 One day while Jacob was cooking some bean soup, Esau came in from hunting. He was hungry

Gen 25:30 and said to Jacob, "I'm starving; give me some of that red stuff." (That is why he was named Edom.)

Gen 25:31 Jacob answered, "I will give it to you if you give me your rights as the first-born son."

Gen 25:32 Esau said, "All right! I am about to die; what good will my rights do me?"

Gen 25:33 Jacob answered, "First make a vow that you will give me your rights." Esau made the vow and gave his rights to Jacob.

Gen 25:34 Then Jacob gave him some bread and some of the soup. He ate and drank and then got up and left. That was all Esau cared about his rights as the first-born son.

1Abraham het weer getrou, met Ketura. 2Sy het vir hom in die wêreld gebring: Simran, Joksan, Medan, Midian, Jisbak en Suag. 3Joksan was die vader van Skeba en Dedan. Die mense van Assur, Letus en Leüm was die nasate van Dedan. 4Die seuns van Midian was: Efa, Efer, Ganok, Abida en Eldaä. Al hierdie mense het van Ketura afgestam. 5Abraham het alles wat hy nagelaat het, aan Isak laat toekom, 6maar terwyl Abraham nog geleef het, het hy geskenke aan die seuns van sy byvrouens gegee en die seuns weggestuur na Kedem toe in die ooste, weg van Isak af. 7Abraham het op hoë ouderdom gesterf. Hy het honderd vyf en sewentig jaar oud geword en was 'n grysaard met 'n vol lewe agter die rug toe hy gesterf het. 8Sy seuns Isak en Ismael het hom begrawe in die Makpelagrot oos van Mamre op die stuk grond wat vroeër behoort het aan die Hetiet Efron seun van Sogar. 9Abraham het hierdie stuk grond by die Hetiete gekoop, en hy en sy vrou Sara is albei daar begrawe. 10Na Abraham se dood het die Here Abraham se seun Isak geseën, en Isak het by Lagai-Roï-fontein gaan woon. 11Hier volg besonderhede oor die nageslag van Abraham se seun Ismael wat deur Hagar, die Egiptiese slavin van Sara, vir Abraham in die wêreld gebring is. 12In volgorde van hulle geboorte was Ismael se seuns: Nebajot, Kedar, Adbeël, Mibsam, 13Misma, Duma, Massa, 14Gadad, Tema, Jetur, Nafis en Kedma. 15Die name van hierdie seuns van Ismael is ook gegee aan hulle nedersettings en blyplekke. Hulle was die twaalf leiers van hulle stamme. 16Ismael was honderd sewe en dertig jaar oud toe hy gesterf het en begrawe is. 17Sy nageslag het gewoon in die gebied van Gawila af tot by Sur, oos van Egipte in die rigting van Assur, en hulle het met al Ismael se broerskinders oorlog gemaak. 18Hier volg besonderhede oor Isak seun van Abraham: Abraham was Isak se pa, 19en toe Isak veertig jaar oud was, het hy met Rebekka getrou. Sy was die dogter van Betuel, 'n Arameër uit Paddan-Aram, en 'n suster van Laban die Arameër. 20Isak het tot die Here gebid oor sy vrou, want sy was kinderloos. Die Here het sy gebed verhoor, en sy vrou Rebekka het swanger geword. 21Die kinders het in haar teen mekaar gestamp, en toe sê sy: Waarom gebeur so iets met my? Sy het toe die Here gaan raadpleeg, 22en Hy het vir haar gesê: Daar is twee nasies in jou, twee volke uit jou sal van mekaar geskei word. Een sal sterker wees as die ander, die oudste sal die jongste dien. 23Toe Rebekka haar kinders in die wêreld bring, was dit tweelingseuntjies. 24Die eerste is gebore: rooi, vol hare soos 'n veljas, en hy is Esau genoem. 25Sy broer is na hom gebore en dié se hand het aan Esau se hakskeen vasgehou. Hy is Jakob genoem. Isak was sestig jaar oud toe hulle gebore is. 26Die seuns het grootgeword.

Esau was 'n ervare jagter, 'n man van die veld; Jakob was 'n rustige mens, hy het tuis gebly. 27Isak het vir Esau voorgetrek, want Isak het van wildsvleis gehou. Rebekka weer het vir Jakob voorgetrek. 28Op 'n dag terwyl Jakob lensiesop aan die kook was, kom Esau doodmoeg uit die veld daar aan 29en sê vir Jakob: Laat my gou van die rooi goed wegsluk, van daardie rooi goed. Ek is doodmoeg! Daarom is hy Edom genoem. 30Toe sê Jakob vir hom: Verkoop eers jou reg as eersgeborene aan my. 31Esau het geantwoord: Ek gaan tog sterf. Wat baat dit my om die eersgeborene te wees? 32Jakob sê toe vir hom: Beloof my nou met 'n eed dat jy jou reg as eersgeborene aan my oormaak. Esau het dit gedoen en so sy reg as eersgeborene aan Jakob verkoop. 33Daarna het hy vir Esau brood en lensiesop gegee, en hy het geëet. Toe hy klaar was, het hy uitgestap. Dit is hoe min Esau gedink het van sy reg as eersgeborene.

Genesis 26

God's Promise to Isaac

Gen 26:1 There was another famine in the land besides the earlier one during the time of Abraham. Isaac went to Abimelech, king of the Philistines, at Gerar.

Gen 26:2 The LORD had appeared to Isaac and had said, "Do not go to Egypt; stay in this land, where I tell you to stay.

Gen 26:3 Live here, and I will be with you and bless you. I am going to give all this territory to you and to your descendants. I will keep the promise I made to your father Abraham.

Gen 26:4 I will give you as many descendants as there are stars in the sky, and I will give them all this territory. All the nations will ask me to bless them as I have blessed your descendants.

Gen 26:5 I will bless you, because Abraham obeyed me and kept all my laws and commands."

Isaac and Abimelech

Gen 26:6 So Isaac lived at Gerar.

Gen 26:7 When the men there asked about his wife, he said that she was his sister. He would not admit that she was his wife, because he was afraid that the men there would kill him to get Rebecca, who was very beautiful.

Gen 26:8 When Isaac had been there for some time, King Abimelech looked down from his window and saw Isaac and Rebecca making love.

Gen 26:9 Abimelech sent for Isaac and said, "So she is your wife! Why did you say she was your sister?" He answered, "I thought I would be killed if I said she was my wife."

Gen 26:10 "What have you done to us?" Abimelech said. "One of my men might easily have slept with your wife, and you would have been responsible for our guilt."

Gen 26:11 Abimelech warned all the people: "Anyone who mistreats this man or his wife will be put to death."

Gen 26:12 Isaac sowed crops in that land, and that year he harvested a hundred times as much as he had sown, because the LORD blessed him.

Gen 26:13 He continued to prosper and became a very rich man.

Gen 26:14 Because he had many herds of sheep and cattle and many servants, the Philistines were jealous of him.

Gen 26:15 So they filled in all the wells which the servants of his father Abraham had dug while Abraham was alive.

Gen 26:16 Then Abimelech said to Isaac, "Leave our country. You have become more powerful than we are."

Gen 26:17 So Isaac left and set up his camp in Gerar Valley, where he stayed for some time.

Gen 26:18 He dug once again the wells which had been dug during the time of Abraham and which the Philistines had stopped up after Abraham's death. Isaac gave the wells the same names that his father had given them.

Gen 26:19 Isaac's servants dug a well in the valley and found water.

Gen 26:20 The shepherds of Gerar quarreled with Isaac's shepherds and said, "This water belongs to us." So Isaac named the well "Quarrel."

Gen 26:21 Isaac's servants dug another well, and there was a quarrel about that one also, so he named it "Enmity."

Gen 26:22 He moved away from there and dug another well. There was no dispute about this one, so he named it "Freedom." He said, "Now the LORD has given us freedom to live in the land, and we will be prosperous here."

Gen 26:23 Isaac left and went to Beersheba.

Gen 26:24 That night the LORD appeared to him and said, "I am the God of your father Abraham. Do not be afraid; I am with you. I will bless you and give you many descendants because of my promise to my servant Abraham."

Gen 26:25 Isaac built an altar there and worshiped the LORD. Then he set up his camp there, and his servants dug another well.

Gen 26:26 Abimelech came from Gerar with Ahuzzath his adviser and Phicol the commander of his army to see Isaac.

Gen 26:27 So Isaac asked, "Why have you now come to see me, when you were so unfriendly to me before and made me leave your country?"

Gen 26:28 They answered, "Now we know that the LORD is with you, and we think that there should be a solemn agreement between us. We want you to promise

Gen 26:29 that you will not harm us, just as we did not harm you. We were kind to you and let you go peacefully. Now it is clear that the LORD has blessed you."

Gen 26:30 Isaac prepared a feast for them, and they ate and drank.

Gen 26:31 Early next morning each man made his promise and sealed it with a vow. Isaac said good-bye to them, and they parted as friends.

Gen 26:32 On that day Isaac's servants came and told him about the well which they had dug. They said, "We have found water."

Gen 26:33 He named the well "Vow." That is how the city of Beersheba got its name.

Gen 26:34 When Esau was forty years old, he married two Hittites, Judith the daughter of Beeri, and Basemath the daughter of Elon.

Gen 26:35 They made life miserable for Isaac and Rebecca.

GENESIS 26

1Na die eerste hongersnood vroeër in Abraham se tyd was daar weer 'n hongersnood in die land. Isak het toe na Gerar toe getrek, na koning Abimelek van die Filistyne toe. 2Die Here het aan Isak verskyn en vir hom gesê: Moenie Egipte toe trek nie. Bly waar Ek jou sê: in hierdie land. 3Bly 'n tyd lank hier, en Ek sal by jou wees en jou voorspoedig maak. Ek gee hierdie hele wêreld aan jou en jou nageslag. Ek sal die belofte nakom wat Ek met 'n eed teenoor jou vader Abraham afgelê het. 4Ek sal jou nageslag so baie maak soos die sterre aan die hemel. Ek sal hierdie hele wêreld aan jou nageslag gee, en al die nasies van die aarde sal in jou nageslag geseën wees, 5want Abraham het na My geluister en hy was gehoorsaam aan my bevel: my gebooie, my voorskrifte en my wette. 6Isak het toe in Gerar gebly. 7Die mense daar het oor sy vrou begin uitvra, en hy het gesê: Dit is my suster. Hy was bang om te sê dis sy vrou, want dan sou hulle hom dalk doodmaak oor Rebekka wat 'n baie mooi vrou was. 8Toe hy 'n lang ruk daar gebly het, het koning Abimelek van die Filistyne op 'n keer deur die venster gesien hoe Isak sy vrou Rebekka liefkoos. 9Abimelek het hom laat kom en vir hom gesê: Maar sy is dan jou vrou! Hoekom het jy gesê sy is jou suster? Isak het geantwoord: Ek het gedink ek kan dalk doodgemaak word oor haar. 10Daarop sê Abimelek: Wat het jy ons aangedoen! Hoe maklik kon een van die mans met jou vrou gemeenskap gehad het, en dan was jy die oorsaak dat ons sonde gedoen het. 11Abimelek het toe al sy mense gewaarsku: Wie hierdie man of sy vrou molesteer, sal doodgemaak word. 12Isak het in daardie gebied gesaai, en daardie jaar het die saad honderdvoudig geskiet. Die Here het hom voorspoedig gemaak, 13en hy het 'n ryk man geword, hy het vooruitgegaan sodat hy later baie ryk was. 14Hy het troppe kleinvee en grootvee gehad en baie slawe. Toe het die Filistyne uit afguns 15al die putte wat die slawe van sy pa Abraham nog in dié se tyd gegrawe het, toegegooi en opgevul. 16Toe sê Abimelek vir Isak: Trek weg van ons af. Jy het vir ons te sterk geword. 17Hy is toe daar weg en hy het by Gerarspruit kamp opgeslaan en daar gebly. 18Isak het toe die putte oopgegrawe wat in sy pa Abraham se tyd gegrawe is en wat na Abraham se dood deur die Filistyne toegegooi is. Isak het die name wat sy pa aan die putte gegee het, weer aan hulle gegee. 19Isak se slawe het 'n put gegrawe in die spruit en sterk water gekry. 20Toe stry die skaapwagters van Gerar met dié van Isak en sê: Dié water behoort aan ons. Isak het toe die put Rusie genoem, omdat hulle daar met hom rusie gemaak het. 21Sy slawe het 'n ander put gegrawe, en ook daaroor het die Filistyne klagtes gehad, en toe noem Isak dit Klagte. 22Van daar af het hy versit en 'n ander put gegrawe, en hulle het nie daaroor gestry nie. Toe noem hy die put Ruimte, want, het hy gesê, nou het die Here vir ons ruimte gemaak en in dié land sal ons voorspoedig wees. 23Van daar af het Isak na Berseba toe getrek, 24en die nag toe hy daar kom, het die Here aan hom verskyn en vir hom gesê: Ek is die God van jou vader Abraham. Moenie bang wees nie, want Ek is by jou. Ek sal jou seën en jou 'n groot nageslag gee ter wille van my dienaar Abraham. 25Isak het daar 'n altaar gebou en die Naam van die Here aangeroep. Isak het sy tente daar opgeslaan, en sy slawe het 'n put gegrawe. 26Toe kom Abimelek uit Gerar saam met Agussat sy vertroueling en Pikol die bevelvoerder van sy leër na Isak toe, 27en Isak sê vir hulle: Waarom kom julle na my toe? En dit nogal nadat julle my onvriendelik behandel het en my van julle af weggestuur het! 28Hulle het geantwoord: Ons het baie duidelik gesien die Here is by jou. Ons wil onder eed 'n ooreenkoms met jou aangaan. Ons wil 'n verdrag met jou sluit 29dat jy ons nie sleg sal behandel nie, net soos ons jou nie benadeel het nie. Ons het net goed aan jou gedoen en jou sonder enige skade van ons af laat weggaan. Dit is so: jy word deur die Here geseën. 30Isak het toe vir hulle 'n maaltyd klaargemaak en hulle het geëet. 31Die volgende môre het hulle vroeg klaargemaak en hulle en Isak het aan mekaar 'n belofte onder eed gemaak. Toe het Isak hulle laat gaan en is hulle in vrede van hom af weg. 32Daardie dag het Isak se slawe gekom en hom vertel van die put wat hulle gegrawe het. Hulle het vir hom gesê: Ons het water gekry. 33Toe noem hy dit Seba en daarom is die naam van die stad nou nog Berseba . 34Toe Esau veertig was, het hy getrou met Jehudit dogter van Beëri, 'n Hetiet, en met Basemat dogter van Elon, 'n Hetiet. 35Hulle het baie kommer in Isak en Rebekka se lewe gebring.

Isaac Blesses Jacob

Gen 27:1 Isaac was now old and had become blind. He sent for his older son Esau and said to him, "Son!" "Yes," he answered.

Gen 27:2 Isaac said, "You see that I am old and may die soon.

Gen 27:3 Take your bow and arrows, go out into the country, and kill an animal for me.

Gen 27:4 Cook me some of that tasty food that I like, and bring it to me. After I have eaten it, I will give you my final blessing before I die."

Gen 27:5 While Isaac was talking to Esau, Rebecca was listening. So when Esau went out to hunt,

Gen 27:6 she said to Jacob, "I have just heard your father say to Esau,

Gen 27:7 'Bring me an animal and cook it for me. After I have eaten it, I will give you my blessing in the presence of the LORD before I die.'

Gen 27:8 Now, son," Rebecca continued, "listen to me and do what I say.

Gen 27:9 Go to the flock and pick out two fat young goats, so that I can cook them and make some of that food your father likes so much.

Gen 27:10 You can take it to him to eat, and he will give you his blessing before he dies."

Gen 27:11 But Jacob said to his mother, "You know that Esau is a hairy man, but I have smooth skin.

Gen 27:12 Perhaps my father will touch me and find out that I am deceiving him; in this way, I will bring a curse on myself instead of a blessing."

Gen 27:13 His mother answered, "Let any curse against you fall on me, my son; just do as I say, and go and get the goats for me."

Gen 27:14 So he went to get them and brought them to her, and she cooked the kind of food that his father liked.

Gen 27:15 Then she took Esau's best clothes, which she kept in the house, and put them on Jacob.

Gen 27:16 She put the skins of the goats on his arms and on the hairless part of his neck.

Gen 27:17 She handed him the tasty food, along with the bread she had baked.

Gen 27:18 Then Jacob went to his father and said, "Father!" "Yes," he answered. "Which of my sons are you?"

Gen 27:19 Jacob answered, "I am your older son Esau; I have done as you told me. Please sit up and eat some of the meat that I have brought you, so that you can give me your blessing."

Gen 27:20 Isaac said, "How did you find it so quickly, son?" Jacob answered, "The LORD your God helped me find it."

Gen 27:21 Isaac said to Jacob, "Please come closer so that I can touch you. Are you really Esau?"

Gen 27:22 Jacob moved closer to his father, who felt him and said, "Your voice sounds like Jacob's voice, but your arms feel like Esau's arms."

Gen 27:23 He did not recognize Jacob, because his arms were hairy like Esau's. He was about to give him his blessing,

Gen 27:24 but asked again, "Are you really Esau?" "I am," he answered.

Gen 27:25 Isaac said, "Bring me some of the meat. After I eat it, I will give you my blessing." Jacob brought it to him, and he also brought him some wine to drink.

Gen 27:26 Then his father said to him, "Come closer and kiss me, son."

Gen 27:27 As he came up to kiss him, Isaac smelled his clothes—so he gave him his blessing. He said, "The pleasant smell of my son is like the smell of a field which the LORD has blessed.

Gen 27:28 May God give you dew from heaven and make your fields fertile! May he give you plenty of grain and wine!

Gen 27:29 May nations be your servants, and may peoples bow down before you. May you rule over all your relatives, and may your mother's descendants bow down before you. May those who curse you be cursed, and may those who bless you be blessed."

Gen 27:30 Isaac finished giving his blessing, and as soon as Jacob left, his brother Esau came in from hunting.

Gen 27:31 He also cooked some tasty food and took it to his father. He said, "Please, father, sit up and eat some of the meat that I have brought you, so that you can give me your blessing."

Gen 27:32 "Who are you?" Isaac asked. "Your older son Esau," he answered.

Gen 27:33 Isaac began to tremble and shake all over, and he asked, "Who was it, then, who killed an animal and brought it to me? I ate it just before you came. I gave him my final blessing, and so it is his forever."

Gen 27:34 When Esau heard this, he cried out loudly and bitterly and said, "Give me your blessing also, father!"

Gen 27:35 Isaac answered, "Your brother came and deceived me. He has taken away your blessing."

Gen 27:36 Esau said, "This is the second time that he has cheated me. No wonder his name is Jacob. He took my rights as the first-born son, and now he has taken away my blessing. Haven't you saved a blessing for me?"

Gen 27:37 Isaac answered, "I have already made him master over you, and I have made all his relatives his slaves. I have given him grain and wine. Now there is nothing that I can do for you, son!"

Gen 27:38 Esau continued to plead with his father: "Do you have only one blessing, father? Bless me too, father!" He began to cry.

Gen 27:39 Then Isaac said to him, "No dew from heaven for you, No fertile fields for you.

Gen 27:40 You will live by your sword, But be your brother's slave. Yet when you rebel, You will break away from his control."

Gen 27:41 Esau hated Jacob, because his father had given Jacob the blessing. He thought, "The time to mourn my father's death is near; then I will kill Jacob."

Gen 27:42 But when Rebecca heard about Esau's plan, she sent for Jacob and said, "Listen, your brother Esau is planning to get even with you and kill you.

Gen 27:43 Now, son, do what I say. Go at once to my brother Laban in Haran,

Gen 27:44 and stay with him for a while, until your brother's anger cools down

Gen 27:45 and he forgets what you have done to him. Then I will send someone to bring you back. Why should I lose both of my sons on the same day?"

Gen 27:46 Rebecca said to Isaac, "I am sick and tired of Esau's foreign wives. If Jacob also marries one of these Hittites, I might as well die."

GENESIS 27

[1]Toe Isak baie oud en al blind was, het hy sy oudste seun, Esau, geroep en vir hom gesê: My seun! en Esau het geantwoord: Hier is ek! [2]Isak het vir hom gesê: Kyk, ek is al oud en ek weet nie wanneer ek gaan sterf nie. [3]Vat nou jou skietgoed, jou pyl en boog, en gaan veld toe en skiet vir my 'n stukkie wild. [4]Kom maak dit dan vir my lekker gaar soos ek daarvan hou en bring dit vir my dat ek dit kan eet en jou kan seën voor ek sterf. [5]Rebekka het gehoor wat Isak met sy seun Esau praat en toe Esau veld toe is om te gaan jag, [6]het sy met haar seun Jakob gepraat en vir hom gesê: Luister, ek het gehoor jou pa praat met jou broer Esau. Hy het vir hom gesê: [7]Gaan haal vir my 'n stukkie wild en maak dit vir my lekker gaar dat ek dit kan eet en ek jou dan in die teenwoordigheid van die Here kan seën voor ek sterf.' [8]Nou moet jy na my luister, my seun, en doen wat ek jou sê. [9]Gaan na die kleinvee toe en bring vir my twee vet bokkies. Dan sal ek hulle lekker gaarmaak soos jou pa daarvan hou. [10]Jy moet dit dan vir hom vat dat hy dit kan eet en jou kan seën voor hy sterf. [11]Toe sê Jakob vir sy ma Rebekka: Maar my broer Esau is harig en ek is glad. [12]Miskien sal Pa aan my voel en dan dink ek skeer die gek met hom, en so sal ek 'n vervloeking oor my bring en nie 'n seën nie. [13]Sy ma het vir hom gesê: As daar 'n vervloeking is, sal dit oor my kom, my seun. Luister jy net na my en loop vang die bokkies vir my. [14]Hy het die bokkies gaan vang en vir sy ma gebring, en sy het hulle lekker voorberei soos sy pa daarvan hou. [15]Toe vat Rebekka haar oudste seun Esau se beste klere wat sy by haar in die huis gehad het en trek dit vir haar jongste seun Jakob aan. [16]Sy het die bokvelletjies om sy hande en om sy kaal nek vasgemaak [17]en die lekkerny en die kos wat sy voorberei het, vir Jakob gegee. [18]Hy het toe na sy pa toe ingegaan en gesê: Pa! Toe sê hy: Ja, watter seun is jy? [19]Jakob het sy pa geantwoord: Ek is Esau, Pa se oudste seun. Ek het gedoen wat Pa gesê het. Kom sit nou regop en eet van my wildsvleis sodat Pa my dan kan seën. [20]Maar Isak het vir hom gevra: Hoe het jy dan die wild so gou gekry, my seun? en Jakob het geantwoord: Die Here u God het my dit laat raakloop. [21]Toe sê Isak vir Jakob: Kom nader dat ek aan jou kan voel, my seun, of jy my seun Esau is of nie. [22]Jakob het nader gegaan na sy pa Isak toe, en toe hy aan hom voel, sê hy: Die stem, dis Jakob se stem, maar die hande, dis Esau se hande. [23]Isak het nie vir Jakob herken nie, want sy hande was harig soos sy broer Esau s'n. Isak het toe vir Jakob geseën. [24]Isak het vir hom gesê: Jy is tog my seun Esau! en Jakob het gesê: Ek is. [25]Toe sê Isak: Gee die wild aan dat ek daarvan kan eet, my seun, en jou dan kan seën. Hy het dit vir hom aangegee en Isak het geëet, en Jakob het vir hom wyn gebring, en hy het dit gedrink. 26Isak het vir hom gesê: Kom nader en soen my, my seun! 27Hy het nader gekom en hom gesoen, en toe hy die reuk kry van die klere wat Jakob aanhet, het Isak hom geseën en gesê: Kyk, die reuk van my seun is soos die veld se reuk, die veld wat deur die Here geseën is. 28God gee aan jou dou uit die hemel, die rykdom van die aarde: koring en wyn in oorvloed. 29Volke sal jou dien, nasies sal voor jou buig; oor jou familie sal jy heers, jou broers sal voor jou buig. Wie 'n vervloeking oor jou uitspreek, sal self vervloek wees, wie jou seën, sal geseën wees. 30Toe Isak vir Jakob klaar geseën het, en hy nog skaars by sy pa Isak uit was, kom sy broer Esau terug van die jag af. 31Ook hý het 'n lekker ete voorberei en dit vir sy pa gevat. Esau het vir sy pa gesê: Sit regop, Pa, en eet van Pa se seun se wildsvleis sodat Pa my dan kan seën. 32Toe vra sy pa Isak: Wie is jy? en hy antwoord: Pa se seun Esau, Pa se oudste. 33Isak was toe baie ontsteld en hy vra: Maar wie het dan die wild geskiet en vir my gebring? Ek het daarvan geëet net voor jy gekom het. Ek het hóm geseën, en hy sal geseën bly. 34Toe Esau hoor wat sy pa sê, het hy hard en bitter begin skree en by sy pa gepleit: Pa, seën my tog ook! 35Maar Isak sê vir hom: Jou broer het my kom bedrieg en toe het hy jou seën gevat. 36Esau het geantwoord: Hy word tereg Jakob genoem. Hy het my nou al twee keer bedrieg : hy het my reg as eersgeborene gevat en nou het hy my seën gevat. Toe vra Esau: Het Pa nie nog 'n seën vir my ook nie? 37Isak het vir hom gesê: Ek het hom alreeds aangestel om oor jou te heers en ek het sy hele familie vir hom as onderdane gegee. Ek het hom van koring en wyn voorsien. Daar is niks wat ek vir jou kan doen nie, my seun. 38Esau het toe vir sy pa gesê: Pa, het Pa dan net een seën? Seën my tog ook, Pa! Toe Esau daarna begin huil, 39sê sy pa Isak vir hom: Jou woonplek sal ver van die aarde se rykdom af wees, en ook ver van die dou uit die hemel af. 40Jy sal van oorlog leef en jy sal jou broer dien, maar as jy jou kans afwag, sal jy sy juk van jou nek afgooi. 41Esau het vir Jakob gehaat oor die seën wat sy pa aan hom gegee het, en Esau het by homself gesê: My pa se dood is nie meer ver nie, dan maak ek my broer Jakob dood. 42Daar is aan Rebekka vertel wat haar oudste seun gesê het. Sy het toe haar jongste seun Jakob laat roep en vir hom gesê: Pas op! Jou broer Esau is op wraak uit. Hy wil jou vermoor. 43Luister, my seun! Vlug Haran toe, na my broer Laban toe, 44en bly 'n ruk by hom tot jou broer se woede oor is. 45As sy bui oor jou gesak het en hy vergeet het wat jy hom aangedoen het, sal ek stuur en jou daarvandaan laat haal. Waarom moet ek julle altwee op een dag verloor? 46Rebekka het vir Isak gesê: Ek is nou siek en sat van hierdie Hetitiese vrouens van Esau. As Jakob ook met Hetitiese meisies trou, met meisies soos hulle uit hierdie land, kan ek net sowel sterf.

Jacob Sent to Laban

Gen 28:1 Isaac called Jacob, greeted him, and told him, "Don't marry a Canaanite.

Gen 28:2 Go instead to Mesopotamia, to the home of your grandfather Bethuel, and marry one of the young women there, one of your uncle Laban's daughters.

Gen 28:3 May Almighty God bless your marriage and give you many children, so that you will become the father of many nations!

Gen 28:4 May he bless you and your descendants as he blessed Abraham, and may you take possession of this land, in which you have lived and which God gave to Abraham!"

Gen 28:5 Isaac sent Jacob away to Mesopotamia, to Laban, who was the son of Bethuel the Aramean and the brother of Rebecca, the mother of Jacob and Esau.

Esau Marries an Ishmaelite

Gen 28:6 Esau learned that Isaac had blessed Jacob and sent him away to Mesopotamia to find a wife. He also learned that when Isaac blessed him, he commanded him not to marry a Canaanite woman.

Gen 28:7 He found out that Jacob had obeyed his father and mother and had gone to Mesopotamia.

Gen 28:8 Esau then understood that his father Isaac did not approve of Canaanite women.

Gen 28:9 So he went to Ishmael son of Abraham and married his daughter Mahalath, who was the sister of Nebaioth.

Jacob's Dream

Gen 28:10 Jacob left Beersheba and started toward Haran.

Gen 28:11 At sunset he came to a holy place and camped there. He lay down to sleep, resting his head on a stone.

Gen 28:12 He dreamed that he saw a stairway reaching from earth to heaven, with angels going up and coming down on it.

Gen 28:13 And there was the LORD standing beside him. "I am the LORD, the God of Abraham and Isaac," he said. "I will give to you and to your descendants this land on which you are lying.

Gen 28:14 They will be as numerous as the specks of dust on the earth. They will extend their territory in all directions, and through you and your descendants I will bless all the nations.

Gen 28:15 Remember, I will be with you and protect you wherever you go, and I will bring you back to this land. I will not leave you until I have done all that I have promised you."

Gen 28:16 Jacob woke up and said, "The LORD is here! He is in this place, and I didn't know it!"

Gen 28:17 He was afraid and said, "What a terrifying place this is! It must be the house of God; it must be the gate that opens into heaven."

Gen 28:18 Jacob got up early next morning, took the stone that was under his head, and set it up as a memorial. Then he poured olive oil on it to dedicate it to God.

Gen 28:19 He named the place Bethel. (The town there was once known as Luz.)

Gen 28:20 Then Jacob made a vow to the LORD: "If you will be with me and protect me on the journey I am making and give me food and clothing,

Gen 28:21 and if I return safely to my father's home, then you will be my God.

Gen 28:22 This memorial stone which I have set up will be the place where you are worshiped, and I will give you a tenth of everything you give me."

GENESIS 28

1Toe roep Isak vir Jakob en neem van hom afskeid en sê vir hom: Jy mag nie met 'n Kanaänitiese meisie trou nie. 2Gaan na Paddan-Aram toe, na die huis van jou ma se pa Betuel toe, en trou daar met 'n dogter van jou oom Laban. 3God die Almagtige sal jou seën: Hy sal jou vrugbaar maak en jou 'n groot nageslag gee. Jy sal 'n baie groot volk word. 4Hy sal jou die seën laat toekom wat Hy aan Abraham gegee het: jy en jou nageslag sal die land waarin jy woon, as besitting ontvang, die land wat God aan Abraham gegee het. 5So het Isak toe vir Jakob weggestuur, en hy is na Paddan-Aram toe, tot by die Arameër Betuel se seun Laban, broer van Rebekka die ma van Jakob en Esau. 6Esau het te wete gekom dat Isak afskeid geneem het van Jakob en dat Isak hom na Paddan-Aram toe gestuur het om daar te gaan trou, want toe Isak vir Jakob gegroet het, het hy vir hom gesê: Jy mag nie met 'n Kanaänitiese meisie trou nie. 7Toe Esau verneem dat Jakob na sy pa en ma geluister het en na Paddan-Aram toe is, 8het Esau geweet dat sy pa Isak nie van die Kanaänitiese meisies gehou het nie. 9Daarom het Esau na Ismael toe gegaan, en by die vrouens wat hy gehad het, nog 'n vrou gevat: Magalat dogter van Ismael, Abraham se seun. Sy was die suster van Nebajot. 10Jakob is van Berseba af weg na Haran toe. 11Teen sononder het hy by 'n plek gekom waar hy kon oornag. Hy het daar 'n klip vir 'n kopkussing gebruik en gaan lê en slaap. 12Hy het gedroom: 'n leer staan op die aarde en die punt van die leer raak aan die hemel, en engele van God klim op en af met die leer. 13Toe kom staan die Here by Jakob en sê: Ek is die Here die God van jou voorvader Abraham, die God van Isak. Ek sal die grond waarop jy lê, vir jou en jou nageslag gee. 14Hulle sal so baie wees soos die stof van die aarde, en jy sal jou gebied na alle kante toe uitbrei, en in jou en jou nageslag sal al die volke van die aarde geseën wees. 15Ek is by jou en Ek sal jou beskerm waar jy ook al gaan. Ek sal jou na hierdie land toe terugbring. Ek sal jou nie in die steek laat nie. Ek sal doen wat Ek jou beloof het. 16Jakob het wakker geskrik en gesê: Die Here is op hierdie plek, en ek het dit nie besef nie. 17Jakob het bang geword en gesê: Hoe skrikwekkend is hierdie plek! Dit is niks anders nie as die huis van God; dit is die poort van die hemel. 18Die volgende môre het Jakob opgestaan en hy het die klip wat sy kopkussing was, gevat en dit regop gesit. Toe giet hy olie op die bopunt daarvan uit. 19Hy het die plek Bet-El genoem. Die stad was voorheen bekend as Lus. 20Jakob het toe 'n gelofte afgelê en gesê: As U, o God, by my is en my beskerm op my reis en vir my kos en klere gee, 21sodat ek behoue terugkom by my ouerhuis, sal U, Here, my God wees. 22Hierdie klippilaar wat ek regop gesit het, sal 'n tempel wees, en van alles wat U my gee, sal ek vir U 'n tiende gee.

Genesis 29

Jacob Marries Leah and Rachel

Gen 29:1 Jacob continued on his way and went toward the land of the East.

Gen 29:2 Suddenly he came upon a well out in the fields with three flocks of sheep lying around it. The flocks were watered from this well, which had a large stone over the opening.

Gen 29:3 Whenever all the flocks came together there, the shepherds would roll the stone back and water them. Then they would put the stone back in place.

Gen 29:4 Jacob asked the shepherds, "My friends, where are you from?" "From Haran," they answered.

Gen 29:5 He asked, "Do you know Laban, grandson of Nahor?" "Yes, we do," they answered.

Gen 29:6 "Is he well?" he asked. "He is well," they answered. "Look, here comes his daughter Rachel with his flock."

Gen 29:7 Jacob said, "Since it is still broad daylight and not yet time to bring the flocks in, why don't you water them and take them back to pasture?"

Gen 29:8 They answered, "We can't do that until all the flocks are here and the stone has been rolled back; then we will water the flocks."

Gen 29:9 While Jacob was still talking with them, Rachel arrived with the flock.

Gen 29:10 When Jacob saw Rachel with his uncle Laban's flock, he went to the well, rolled the stone back, and watered the sheep.

Gen 29:11 Then he kissed her and began to cry for joy.

Gen 29:12 He told her, "I am your father's relative, the son of Rebecca." She ran to tell her father;

Gen 29:13 and when he heard the news about his nephew Jacob, he ran to meet him, hugged him and kissed him, and brought him into the house. When Jacob told Laban everything that had happened,

Gen 29:14 Laban said, "Yes, indeed, you are my own flesh and blood." Jacob stayed there a whole month.

Gen 29:15 Laban said to Jacob, "You shouldn't work for me for nothing just because you are my relative. How much pay do you want?"

Gen 29:16 Laban had two daughters; the older was named Leah, and the younger Rachel.

Gen 29:17 Leah had lovely eyes, but Rachel was shapely and beautiful.

Gen 29:18 Jacob was in love with Rachel, so he said, "I will work seven years for you, if you will let me marry Rachel."

Gen 29:19 Laban answered, "I would rather give her to you than to anyone else; stay here with me."

Gen 29:20 Jacob worked seven years so that he could have Rachel, and the time seemed like only a few days to him, because he loved her.

Gen 29:21 Then Jacob said to Laban, "The time is up; let me marry your daughter."

Gen 29:22 So Laban gave a wedding feast and invited everyone.

Gen 29:23 But that night, instead of Rachel, he took Leah to Jacob, and Jacob had intercourse with her.

Gen 29:24 (Laban gave his slave woman Zilpah to his daughter Leah as her maid.)

Gen 29:25 Not until the next morning did Jacob discover that it was Leah. He went to Laban and said, "Why did you do this to me? I worked to get Rachel. Why have you tricked me?"

Gen 29:26 Laban answered, "It is not the custom here to give the younger daughter in marriage before the older.

Gen 29:27 Wait until the week's marriage celebrations are over, and I will give you Rachel, if you will work for me another seven years."

Gen 29:28 Jacob agreed, and when the week of marriage celebrations was over, Laban gave him his daughter Rachel as his wife.

Gen 29:29 (Laban gave his slave woman Bilhah to his daughter Rachel as her maid.)

Gen 29:30 Jacob had intercourse with Rachel also, and he loved her more than Leah. Then he worked for Laban another seven years.

Jacob's Children

Gen 29:31 When the LORD saw that Leah was loved less than Rachel, he made it possible for her to have children, but Rachel remained childless.

Gen 29:32 Leah became pregnant and gave birth to a son. She said, "The LORD has seen my trouble, and now my husband will love me"; so she named him Reuben.

Gen 29:33 She became pregnant again and gave birth to another son. She said, "The LORD has given me this son also, because he heard that I was not loved"; so she named him Simeon.

Gen 29:34 Once again she became pregnant and gave birth to another son. She said, "Now my husband will be bound more tightly to me, because I have borne him three sons"; so she named him Levi.

Gen 29:35 Then she became pregnant again and gave birth to another son. She said, "This time I will praise the LORD"; so she named him Judah. Then she stopped having children.

1Jakob het sy reis voortgesit na die land van die mense in die ooste toe. 2Hy het onverwags uitgekom by 'n put in die veld waar drie troppe kleinvee lê. Die wagters het die kleinvee by hierdie put laat suip. Daar was 'n groot klip op die bek van die put, 3en wanneer al die veetroppe daar bymekaar is, rol die wagters die klip weg en dan gee hulle vir die vee water. Daarna sit hulle weer die klip terug op sy plek op die bek van die put. 4Jakob het hulle gevra: Van waar is julle, my vriende? Hulle het geantwoord: Ons is van Haran. 5Toe vra hy vir hulle: Ken julle vir Laban uit die geslag van Nahor? en hulle antwoord: Ons ken hom. 6Hy vra hulle toe: Hoe gaan dit met hom? en hulle antwoord: Goed, hier kom sy dogter Ragel nou net aan met die kleinvee. 7Toe sê Jakob: Die son sit nog hoog en dis nog nie tyd om die kleinvee in die kraal te jaag nie. Laat hulle suip en vat hulle om te wei. 8Maar die wagters antwoord: Ons kan hulle nie laat suip voor al die troppe hier bymekaar is nie. Dan word die klip van die bek van die put afgerol en laat ons die vee suip. 9Terwyl hy nog met hulle staan en praat, kom Ragel daar aan met haar pa se kleinvee. Sy het hulle opgepas. 10Toe Jakob vir Ragel, die dogter van sy ma se broer Laban, sien met haar pa se kleinvee, het Jakob nader gekom en die klip van die put af weggerol en Laban se kleinvee laat suip. 11Daarna het Jakob vir Ragel gesoen en toe het hy begin huil. 12Nadat hy vir haar gesê het hy is familie, Rebekka se seun, het sy gehardloop en dit vir haar pa gaan vertel. 13Toe hy hoor dat Jakob sy susterskind is, het hy na hom toe gehardloop, hom omhels en gesoen. Laban het hom na sy huis toe gevat, en toe vertel Jakob hom alles. 14Laban het geantwoord: Dis reg. Jy is bloedfamilie! Nadat Jakob 'n maand lank by hom gebly het, 15het Laban vir Jakob gesê: Jy is familie, maar dit beteken nie dat jy vir my verniet moet werk nie. Sê vir my wat moet ek jou betaal. 16Laban het twee dogters gehad. Die oudste was Lea en die jongste Ragel. 17Lea het sagte oë gehad, maar Ragel was mooi gebou. Sy was beeldskoon. 18Jakob het haar liefgehad en hy het vir Laban gesê: Ek sal sewe jaar vir u werk vir u jongste dogter Ragel. 19Toe sê Laban: Goed! Ek sal haar liewer met jou laat trou as met enige ander man. Bly hier by my. 20Jakob het toe sewe jaar gewerk vir Ragel, en dit was vir hom soos 'n paar dae, want hy het haar liefgehad. 21Daarna het hy vir Laban gesê: Gee my nou my vrou. Die tyd is verby. Ek wil nou met haar trou. 22Laban het al die mense van die omgewing bruilof toe genooi, 23maar die aand van die troue het hy sy dogter Lea gevat en haar na Jakob toe gebring, en hy het met haar gemeenskap gehad. 24Laban het sy slavin Silpa vir sy dogter Lea as persoonlike slavin saamgegee. 25Die môre sien Jakob toe dis al die tyd Lea. Toe vra hy vir Laban: Wat het u my aangedoen? Het ek nie by u gewerk vir Ragel nie? Waarom het u my bedrieg? 26Laban het geantwoord: By ons is dit nie die gebruik dat 'n mens jou jongste dogter voor die oudste laat trou nie. 27Wag net hierdie week, dan gee ek die jongste ook vir jou as jy nog sewe jaar by my sal werk. 28Jakob het ingestem en daardie week gewag. Toe gee Laban sy dogter Ragel vir hom as vrou. 29Laban het sy slavin Bilha vir sy dogter Ragel as persoonlike slavin saamgegee. 30Jakob het ook met Ragel gemeenskap gehad. Hy het vir Ragel baie liewer gehad as vir Lea en nog sewe jaar by Laban gewerk. 31Toe die Here sien dat Jakob nie vir Lea liefhet nie, het die Here vir haar kinders gegee, terwyl Ragel kinderloos gebly het. 32Lea het swanger geword en 'n seun in die wêreld gebring en hom Ruben genoem, want, het sy gesê, die Here het my smart raakgesien. Nou sal my man my liefhê. 33Lea het weer swanger geword en 'n seun in die wêreld gebring en sy het gesê: Die Here het gehoor dat ek nie liefde ontvang nie. Daarom het Hy my hierdie seun gegee. Sy het hom Simeon genoem. 34Sy het weer swanger geword en 'n seun in die wêreld gebring. Toe sê sy: Na hierdie keer sal my man aan my gebind wees, want ek het nou al drie seuns vir hom in die wêreld gebring. Daarom het sy die seun Levi genoem. 35Sy het nog 'n keer swanger geword en 'n seun in die wêreld gebring. Sy het gesê: Hierdie keer prys ek die Here. Daarom het sy die seun Juda genoem. Daarna het sy vir eers nie weer kinders gehad nie.

Gen 30:1 But Rachel had not borne Jacob any children, and so she became jealous of her sister and said to Jacob, "Give me children, or I will die."

Gen 30:2 Jacob became angry with Rachel and said, "I can't take the place of God. He is the one who keeps you from having children."

Gen 30:3 She said, "Here is my slave Bilhah; sleep with her, so that she can have a child for me. In this way I can become a mother through her."

Gen 30:4 So she gave Bilhah to her husband, and he had intercourse with her.

Gen 30:5 Bilhah became pregnant and bore Jacob a son.

Gen 30:6 Rachel said, "God has judged in my favor. He has heard my prayer and has given me a son"; so she named him Dan.

Gen 30:7 Bilhah became pregnant again and bore Jacob a second son.

Gen 30:8 Rachel said, "I have fought a hard fight with my sister, but I have won"; so she named him Naphtali.

Gen 30:9 When Leah realized that she had stopped having children, she gave her slave Zilpah to Jacob as his wife.

Gen 30:10 Then Zilpah bore Jacob a son.

Gen 30:11 Leah said, "I have been lucky"; so she named him Gad.

Gen 30:12 Zilpah bore Jacob another son,

Gen 30:13 and Leah said, "How happy I am! Now women will call me happy"; so she named him Asher.

Gen 30:14 During the wheat harvest Reuben went into the fields and found mandrakes, which he brought to his mother Leah. Rachel said to Leah, "Please give me some of your son's mandrakes."

Gen 30:15 Leah answered, "Isn't it enough that you have taken away my husband? Now you are even trying to take away my son's mandrakes." Rachel said, "If you will give me your son's mandrakes, you can sleep with Jacob tonight."

Gen 30:16 When Jacob came in from the fields in the evening, Leah went out to meet him and said, "You are going to sleep with me tonight, because I have paid for you with my son's mandrakes." So he had intercourse with her that night.

Gen 30:17 God answered Leah's prayer, and she became pregnant and bore Jacob a fifth son.

Gen 30:18 Leah said, "God has given me my reward, because I gave my slave to my husband"; so she named her son Issachar.

Gen 30:19 Leah became pregnant again and bore Jacob a sixth son.

Gen 30:20 She said, "God has given me a fine gift. Now my husband will accept me, because I have borne him six sons"; so she named him Zebulun.

Gen 30:21 Later she bore a daughter, whom she named Dinah.

Gen 30:22 Then God remembered Rachel; he answered her prayer and made it possible for her to have children.

Gen 30:23 She became pregnant and gave birth to a son. She said, "God has taken away my disgrace by giving me a son.

Gen 30:24 May the LORD give me another son"; so she named him Joseph.

Jacob's Prosperity

Gen 30:25 After the birth of Joseph, Jacob said to Laban, "Let me go, so that I can return home.

Gen 30:26 Give me my wives and children that I have earned by working for you, and I will leave. You know how well I have served you."

Gen 30:27 Laban said to him, "Let me say this: I have learned by divination that the LORD has blessed me because of you.

Gen 30:28 Name your wages, and I will pay them."

Gen 30:29 Jacob answered, "You know how I have worked for you and how your flocks have prospered under my care.

Gen 30:30 The little you had before I came has grown enormously, and the LORD has blessed you wherever I went. Now it is time for me to look out for my own interests."

Gen 30:31 "What shall I pay you?" Laban asked. Jacob answered, "I don't want any wages. I will continue to take care of your flocks if you agree to this suggestion:

Gen 30:32 Let me go through all your flocks today and take every black lamb and every spotted or speckled young goat. That is all the wages I want.

Gen 30:33 In the future you can easily find out if I have been honest. When you come to check up on my wages, if I have any goat that isn't speckled or spotted or any sheep that isn't black, you will know that it has been stolen."

Gen 30:34 Laban answered, "Agreed. We will do as you suggest."

Gen 30:35 But that day Laban removed the male goats that had stripes or spots and all the females that were speckled and spotted or which had white on them; he also removed all the black sheep. He put his sons in charge of them,

Gen 30:36 and then went away from Jacob with this flock as far as he could travel in three days. Jacob took care of the rest of Laban's flocks.

Gen 30:37 Jacob got green branches of poplar, almond, and plane trees and stripped off some of the bark so that the branches had white stripes on them.

Gen 30:38 He placed these branches in front of the flocks at their drinking troughs. He put them there, because the animals mated when they came to drink.

Gen 30:39 So when the goats bred in front of the branches, they produced young that were streaked, speckled, and spotted.

Gen 30:40 Jacob kept the sheep separate from the goats and made them face in the direction of the streaked and black animals of Laban's flock. In this way he built up his own flock and kept it apart from Laban's.

Gen 30:41 When the healthy animals were mating, Jacob put the branches in front of them at the drinking troughs, so that they would breed among the branches.

Gen 30:42 But he did not put the branches in front of the weak animals. Soon Laban had all the weak animals, and Jacob all the healthy ones.

Gen 30:43 In this way Jacob became very wealthy. He had many flocks, slaves, camels, and donkeys.

GENESIS 30

1Toe Ragel merk dat sy nie vir Jakob kinders in die wêreld bring nie, het sy jaloers geword op haar suster Ragel het vir Jakob gesê: Gee vir my seuns, anders sterf ek. 2Jakob het hom vererg vir Ragel en vir haar gevra: Kan ek God se werk oorneem? Dit is Hy wat sorg dat jy nie swanger word nie. 3Ragel het vir hom gesê: Hier is my slavin Bilha. Hou gemeenskap met haar sodat sy haar kind op my knieë in die wêreld kan bring en ek deur haar 'n kind kan hê. 4Ragel het vir Bilha aan Jakob gegee as vrou en hy het met haar gemeenskap gehad. 5Sy het swanger geword en vir Jakob 'n seun in die wêreld gebring. 6Toe sê Ragel: God het in my guns uitspraak gelewer, Hy het my gebed verhoor en vir my 'n seun gegee. Daarom het sy hom Dan genoem. 7Bilha die slavin van Ragel het weer swanger geword en 'n tweede seun vir Jakob in die wêreld gebring. 8Ragel het toe gesê: Ek was in 'n bitter swaar stryd gewikkel met my suster, maar ek het gewen. Toe noem sy die seun Naftali . 9Toe Lea besef sy bring nie meer kinders in die wêreld nie, het sy haar slavin Silpa gevat en vir Jakob gegee as vrou. 10Sy het vir hom 'n seun in die wêreld gebring, 11en Lea het gesê: Nou is ek gelukkig! Sy het die seun Gad genoem. 12Daarna het Lea se slavin Silpa 'n tweede seun vir Jakob in die wêreld gebring, 13en Lea het gesê: Hoe gelukkig is ek. Die vrouens sal my Die Gelukkige noem! Toe noem sy die seun Aser . 14Op 'n keer het Ruben in die oestyd veld toe gegaan en liefdesappels gepluk. Hy het dit vir sy ma Lea gebring. Ragel het vir haar gesê: Gee vir my van die liefdesappels wat jou seun gebring het. 15Toe vra Lea vir haar: Is jy nie daarmee tevrede dat jy my man gevat het nie? Wil jy nou nog ook die liefdesappels vat wat my seun gebring het? Daarop het Ragel geantwoord: In ruil daarvoor mag Jakob vannag by jou slaap. 16Toe Jakob die aand van die veld af kom, gaan Lea hom tegemoet en sê vir hom: Jy moet na my toe kom, want om jou te kry, het ek die volle prys betaal met die liefdesappels wat my seun gebring het. Daardie nag het Jakob toe by haar geslaap. 17God het Lea se gebed verhoor, en sy het swanger geword en 'n vyfde seun vir Jakob in die wêreld gebring. 18Sy het gesê: God het my 'n loon gegee omdat ek my slavin aan my man gegee het. Toe noem sy die seun Issaskar . 19Lea het weer swanger geword en 'n sesde seun vir Jakob in die wêreld gebring. 20Toe sê sy: God het hierdie keer 'n mooi geskenk aan my gegee. Nou sal my man by my bly, want ek het ses seuns vir hom in die wêreld gebring. Toe noem sy die seun Sebulon . 21Daarna het sy 'n dogter in die wêreld gebring en haar Dina genoem. 22God het op Ragel ag geslaan en haar gebed verhoor. Hy het haar nie langer kinderloos gelaat nie. 23Sy het swanger geword en 'n seun in die wêreld gebring en toe sê sy: God het my skande weggeneem. 24Toe noem sy die seun Josef , want, het sy gesê, die Here sal my nog 'n seun gee. 25Nadat Ragel vir Josef in die wêreld gebring het, het Jakob vir Laban gesê: Laat my trek. Ek wil na my geboorteland toe gaan. 26Gee my nou my vrouens en kinders vir wie ek by u gewerk het, want ek wil weggaan. U weet hoe goed ek vir u gewerk het. 27Maar Laban het vir hom gesê: Dink tog aan wat jy vir my beteken. Ek het die tekens gelees en agtergekom dat die Here my seën om jou ontwil. 28Verder het Laban vir Jakob gesê: Stel self jou loon vas, en ek betaal jou dit om vir my te werk. 29Daarop sê Jakob vir hom: U weet hoe ek vir u gewerk het, en hoe dit met u kudde gegaan het terwyl hulle by my was. 30Die bietjie wat u gehad het voor ek gekom het, het baie geword, want die Here het u geseën vandat ek by u gekom het. Wanneer sal ek vir my huis kan begin werk? 31Toe vra Laban: Wat moet ek jou betaal? en Jakob antwoord: U hoef my niks te betaal nie. Ek sal weer u kleinvee oppas as u my dit wil laat doen. 32Ek sal vandag al u kleinvee deurgaan om al die gestreepte en bont skaaplammers en al die swart skape en die bont en gestreepte bokke af te keer. Dit sal my betaling wees. 33Wanneer u dan eendag kom kyk na wat ek by u verdien het, sal dit duidelik wees of ek eerlik was of nie: alles onder my bokke wat nie gestreep of bont is nie, en al die skape wat nie swart is nie, sal vee wees wat ek gesteel het. 34Laban het geantwoord: Goed! Laat dit wees soos jy gesê het. 35Maar dieselfde dag nog het Laban al die gevlekte en bont bokramme en al die gestreepte en bont bokooie afgekeer en ook alles waaraan iets wits was en al die swart skape, en dit alles onder die sorg geplaas van sy seuns. 36Hy het hierdie trop van hom op 'n afstand van drie dae se trek van Jakob af laat oppas. Jakob self het Laban se ander vee opgepas. 37Jakob het toe jong lote van populiere, amandels en plataanbome gevat en stroke daarvan afgeskil, sodat daar wit strepe op die lote was. 38Hy het die lote wat hy so afgeskil het, in die waterkrippe gesit, reg voor die kleinvee waar hulle kom suip het. Wanneer die ooie dan op hitte kom en kom suip, 39is hulle by die lote gedek en het hulle gevlekte en gestreepte en bont lammers gekry. 40Jakob het die skape uitgekeer en hulle laat kyk in die rigting van die gevlekte en swart vee van Laban. So het Jakob vir hom sy eie kuddes opgebou en hy het hulle nie by Laban se kleinvee laat kom nie. 41Wanneer die sterk diere gedek moes word, het Jakob die lote voor hulle in die krippe gesit sodat hulle by die lote gedek kon word. 42Maar hy het nie die lote by die swak diere gesit nie. So het dit gekom dat Laban die swakkes gekry het en Jakob die sterkes. 43Die man het al hoe ryker geword. Hy het baie kleinvee, slavinne, slawe, kamele en donkies gehad.

Genesis 31

Jacob Flees from Laban

Gen 31:1 Jacob heard that Laban's sons were saying, "Jacob has taken everything that belonged to our father. He got all his wealth from what our father owned."

Gen 31:2 He also saw that Laban was no longer as friendly as he had been earlier.

Gen 31:3 Then the LORD said to him, "Go back to the land of your fathers and to your relatives. I will be with you."

Gen 31:4 So Jacob sent word to Rachel and Leah to meet him in the field where his flocks were.

Gen 31:5 He said to them, "I have noticed that your father is not as friendly toward me as he used to be; but my father's God has been with me.

Gen 31:6 You both know that I have worked for your father with all my strength.

Gen 31:7 Yet he has cheated me and changed my wages ten times. But God did not let him harm me.

Gen 31:8 Whenever Laban said, 'The speckled goats shall be your wages,' all the flocks produced speckled young. When he said, 'The striped goats shall be your wages,' all the flocks produced striped young.

Gen 31:9 God has taken flocks away from your father and given them to me.

Gen 31:10 "During the breeding season I had a dream, and I saw that the male goats that were mating were striped, spotted, and speckled.

Gen 31:11 The angel of God spoke to me in the dream and said, 'Jacob!' 'Yes,' I answered.

Gen 31:12 'Look,' he continued, 'all the male goats that are mating are striped, spotted, and speckled. I am making this happen because I have seen all that Laban is doing to you.

Gen 31:13 I am the God who appeared to you at Bethel, where you dedicated a stone as a memorial by pouring olive oil on it and where you made a vow to me. Now get ready and go back to the land where you were born.' "

Gen 31:14 Rachel and Leah answered Jacob, "There is nothing left for us to inherit from our father.

Gen 31:15 He treats us like foreigners. He sold us, and now he has spent all the money he was paid for us.

Gen 31:16 All this wealth which God has taken from our father belongs to us and to our children. Do whatever God has told you."

Gen 31:17 (17-18) So Jacob got ready to go back to his father in the land of Canaan. He put his children and his wives on the camels, and drove all his flocks ahead of him, with everything that he had gotten in Mesopotamia.

Gen 31:19 Laban had gone to shear his sheep, and during his absence Rachel stole the household gods that belonged to her father.

Gen 31:20 Jacob deceived Laban by not letting him know that he was leaving.

Gen 31:21 He took everything he owned and left in a hurry. He crossed the Euphrates River and started for the hill country of Gilead.

Gen 31:22 Three days later Laban was told that Jacob had fled.

Gen 31:23 He took his men with him and pursued Jacob for seven days until he caught up with him in the hill country of Gilead.

Gen 31:24 In a dream that night God came to Laban and said to him, "Be careful not to threaten Jacob in any way."

Gen 31:25 Jacob had set up his camp on a mountain, and Laban set up his camp with his relatives in the hill country of Gilead.

Gen 31:26 Laban said to Jacob, "Why did you deceive me and carry off my daughters like women captured in war?

Gen 31:27 Why did you deceive me and slip away without telling me? If you had told me, I would have sent you on your way with rejoicing and singing to the music of tambourines and harps.

Gen 31:28 You did not even let me kiss my grandchildren and my daughters good-bye. That was a foolish thing to do!

Gen 31:29 I have the power to do you harm, but last night the God of your father warned me not to threaten you in any way.

Gen 31:30 I know that you left because you were so anxious to get back home, but why did you steal my household gods?"

Gen 31:31 Jacob answered, "I was afraid, because I thought that you might take your daughters away from me.

Gen 31:32 But if you find that anyone here has your gods, he will be put to death. Here, with our men as witnesses, look for anything that belongs to you and take what is yours." Jacob did not know that Rachel had stolen Laban's gods.

Gen 31:33 Laban went and searched Jacob's tent; then he went into Leah's tent, and the tent of the two slave women, but he did not find his gods. Then he went into Rachel's tent.

Gen 31:34 Rachel had taken the household gods and put them in a camel's saddlebag and was sitting on them. Laban searched through the whole tent, but did not find them.

Gen 31:35 Rachel said to her father, "Do not be angry with me, sir, but I am not able to stand up in your presence; I am having my monthly period." Laban searched but did not find his household gods.

Gen 31:36 Then Jacob lost his temper. "What crime have I committed?" he asked angrily. "What law have I broken that gives you the right to hunt me down?

Gen 31:37 Now that you have searched through all my belongings, what household article have you found that belongs to you? Put it out here where your men and mine can see it, and let them decide which one of us is right.

Gen 31:38 I have been with you now for twenty years; your sheep and your goats have not failed to reproduce, and I have not eaten any rams from your flocks.

Gen 31:39 Whenever a sheep was killed by wild animals, I always bore the loss myself. I didn't take it to you to show that it was not my fault. You demanded that I make good anything that was stolen during the day or during the night.

Gen 31:40 Many times I suffered from the heat during the day and from the cold at night. I was not able to sleep.

Gen 31:41 It was like that for the whole twenty years I was with you. For fourteen years I worked to win your two daughters—and six years for your flocks. And even then, you changed my wages ten times.

Gen 31:42 If the God of my fathers, the God of Abraham and Isaac, had not been with me, you would have already sent me away empty-handed. But God has seen my trouble and the work I have done, and last night he gave his judgment."

Gen 31:43 Laban answered Jacob, "These young women are my daughters; their children belong to me, and these flocks are mine. In fact, everything you see here belongs to me. But since I can do nothing to keep my daughters and their children, Gen 31:44 I am ready to make an agreement with you. Let us make a pile of stones to remind us of our agreement."

Gen 31:45 So Jacob got a stone and set it up as a memorial.

Gen 31:46 He told his men to gather some rocks and pile them up. Then they ate a meal beside the pile of rocks.

Gen 31:47 Laban named it Jegar Sahadutha, while Jacob named it Galeed.

Gen 31:48 Laban said to Jacob, "This pile of rocks will be a reminder for both of us." That is why that place was named Galeed.

Gen 31:49 Laban also said, "May the LORD keep an eye on us while we are separated from each other." So the place was also named Mizpah.

Gen 31:50 Laban went on, "If you mistreat my daughters or if you marry other women, even though I don't know about it, remember that God is watching us.

Gen 31:51 Here are the rocks that I have piled up between us, and here is the memorial stone.

Gen 31:52 Both this pile and this memorial stone are reminders. I will never go beyond this pile to attack you, and you must never go beyond it or beyond this memorial stone to attack me.

Gen 31:53 The God of Abraham and the God of Nahor will judge between us." Then, in the name of the God whom his father Isaac worshiped, Jacob solemnly vowed to keep this promise.

Gen 31:54 He killed an animal, which he offered as a sacrifice on the mountain, and he invited his men to the meal. After they had eaten, they spent the night on the mountain.

Gen 31:55 Early the next morning Laban kissed his grandchildren and his daughters good-bye, and left to go back home.

1Jakob het die seuns van Laban hoor sê: Jakob het alles gevat wat aan Pa behoort. Hy het hierdie hele rykdom verkry uit wat aan Pa behoort. 2Jakob het ook aan Laban gemerk dat hy nie meer soos voorheen oor hom voel nie. 3Toe sê die Here vir Jakob: Gaan terug na jou vaderland, na jou familie toe. Ek sal by jou wees. 4Toe laat Jakob vir Ragel en Lea veld toe roep, na sy kleinvee toe. 5Hy het vir hulle gesê: Ek merk aan julle pa dat hy nie meer soos voorheen oor my voel nie. Maar die God van my vader was by my. 6Julle weet dat ek baie hard gewerk het vir julle pa. 7Tog het hy my bedrieg en my loon kort-kort verander. Maar God het hom nie toegelaat om my te benadeel nie. 8Wanneer julle pa sê: Die gestreepte kleinvee is jou loon' kry die hele trop gestreepte lammers, en wanneer hy sê: Die gevlektes is jou loon,' kry die hele trop gevlekte lammers. 9So het God die besitting van julle pa gevat en vir my gegee. 10In die paartyd van die kleinvee het ek in 'n droom gesien dat die ramme waardeur die ooie gedek word, gevlek, gestreep en gespikkel is. 11Die Engel van God het my in die droom geroep: Jakob!' en ek het geantwoord: Hier is ek!' 12Toe sê Hy vir my: Kyk mooi: al die bokramme waardeur die ooie gedek word, is gevlek, gestreep en gespikkel. Ek het alles gesien wat Laban jou aangedoen het. 13Ek is die God van Bet-El waar jy olie op 'n klippilaar uitgegiet en 'n gelofte teenoor My afgelê het. Maak klaar en trek weg uit hierdie land Gaan terug na jou geboorteland toe. 14Daarop het Ragel en Lea vir Jakob gesê: Ons het nie meer enige aandeel aan ons vaderhuis nie. 15Ons word deur Pa as vreemdelinge beskou. Hy het ons verkoop en die geld opgebruik. 16Al die besittings wat God van hom afgevat het, is ons en ons kinders s'n. Doen dus gerus maar alles wat God vir jou gesê het. 17Jakob het toe klaargemaak en sy vrouens en kinders op kamele laat klim, 18en hy het al sy vee saamgevat en ook al sy besittings wat hy in Paddan-Aram bymekaargemaak het, en na sy pa, na Isak toe vertrek in Kanaän. 19Laban was weg om sy skape te gaan skeer. Toe steel Ragel haar pa se afgodsbeeldjies. 20Jakob het ook vir Laban die Arameër bedrieg deur hom nie te vertel van sy vlug nie. 21Jakob het gevlug met alles by hom. Hy het deur die Eufraatrivier getrek en koers gekies Gileadberg toe. 22Drie dae later is aan Laban vertel dat Jakob gevlug het. 23Laban het die mans in sy familie saamgevat en vir Jakob agternagesit. Na sewe dae het Laban hom ingehaal by Gileadberg. 24Dié nag het God in 'n droom na Laban die Arameër toe gekom en vir hom gesê: Wees versigtig met wat jy vir Jakob sê! 25Toe Laban by Jakob kom, was sy kamp opgeslaan by Gileadberg, en Laban-hulle het ook daar kamp opgeslaan. 26Hy het vir Jakob gesê: Wat het jy gedoen? Jy het my bedrieg en my dogters weggevat asof hulle krygsgevangenes is. [27]Waarom het jy in die geheim gevlug? Jy het my bedrieg en my niks vertel nie. Ek sou jou laat vertrek het met 'n fees en met liedere, met tamboeryne en met liere. [28]Jy het my nie eens toegelaat om my kleinkinders en my dogters te groet nie. Jy het 'n ongehoorde ding gedoen. [29]Ek het die mag om julle kwaad aan te doen, maar die God van jou voorvaders het verlede nag vir my gesê: Wees versigtig met wat jy vir Jakob sê.' [30]Maar nou, as jy weggetrek het net omdat jy so baie verlang na jou familie, waarom het jy dan my gode gesteel? [31]Toe sê Jakob vir Laban: Ek het gevlug, want ek was bang, ek het gedink u sal u dogters van my af wegvat. [32]Maar die een by wie u u gode kry, moet sterf. Kyk hier waar ons familie bystaan wat daar van u by my is en vat dit saam terug. Jakob het nie geweet dat Ragel die gode gesteel het nie. [33]Laban het niks in Jakob se tent gekry nie, ook nie in dié van Lea en in dié van die twee persoonlike slavinne nie. Laban is toe uit Lea se tent uit na Ragel s'n toe. [34]Ragel het die afgodsbeeldjies gevat en onder die kameelsaal gesit en daarop gaan sit Laban het haar hele tent behoorlik gefynkam maar niks gekry nie. [35]Toe sê Ragel vir hom: Pa moet tog nie vir my kwaad word nie, want ek kan nie vir Pa opstaan nie: ek is siek, soos dit maar elke maand met 'n vrou gaan. Laban het toe verder rondgesoek, maar nie die afgodsbeeldjies gekry nie. [36]Toe word Jakob kwaad en hy verwyt vir Laban: Wat het ek verkeerd gedoen? Waar het ek oortree dat u my agternagesit het? [37]U het my besittings gefynkam. Wat het u gekry wat uit u huis kom? Sit dit hier voor ons familie neer sodat hulle as regters tussen ons twee kan optree. [38]Dis nou twintig jaar dat ek by u was U skaapooie en u bokooie het gereeld gelam, en ek het nie u skaapramme geslag nie. [39]Wat deur wilde diere verskeur is, het ek nie na u toe gebring nie, ek moes dit vervang. Wat oordag of in die nag gesteel is, het u van my geëis. [40]Bedags het die hitte my verrinneweer en snags die koue, ek kon nie slaap nie. [41]Dis nou twintig jaar dat ek in u huis is: veertien jaar het ek vir u gewerk vir u twee dogters en ses vir kleinvee uit u trop, en u het my betaling kort-kort verander. [42]As die God van my voorvaders, die God van Abraham, die Beskermer van Isak, nie by my was nie, sou u my met leë hande weggestuur het. Maar God het gesien hoe swaar ek gekry het en hoe hard ek gewerk het en Hy het verlede nag in my guns uitspraak gelewer. [43]Laban het vir Jakob geantwoord: Dit is my dogters en my kinders en my kleinvee: alles wat jy hier sien, is myne. Waarom sou ek vandag my dogters of die kinders wat deur hulle in die wêreld gebring is, iets aandoen? [44]Kom ons maak liewer 'n ooreenkoms. Laat daar 'n getuienis wees om ons daaraan te herinner. [45]Toe vat Jakob 'n klip en sit dit regop neer as herinneringsklip. [46]Hy het vir die mense by hom gesê: Maak nog klippe bymekaar. Hulle het dit gedoen en 'n kliphoop gepak. Toe het hulle daar by die kliphoop geëet. 47Laban het die kliphoop genoem: Jegar-Sahaduta , en Jakob het dit genoem: Galed . 48Laban het toe gesê: Hierdie kliphoop word vandag vir ons 'n getuienis, en hy het dit Galed genoem. 49Laban het ook nog gesê: Dit is Mispa , want die Here hou 'n oog oor ons wanneer ons mekaar nie meer kan sien nie. 50Dan sal jy nie my dogters mishandel nie en ook nie vir jou nog vrouens vat nie. Wanneer daar niemand anders by ons is nie, sal God getuie wees in die saak tussen ons. 51Verder het Laban vir Jakob gesê: Kyk na hierdie kliphoop en kyk na die klippilaar wat ek regop gesit het. Dit staan tussen ons. 52Hierdie kliphoop is 'n teken en die klippilaar is 'n teken: ek sal nie hier verby gaan na jou toe om jou aan te val nie, en jy sal nie hier verby kom om my aan te val nie. 53Die God van Abraham, die God van Nahor, die God van hulle twee se vader sal as regter optree. Toe het Jakob 'n eed afgelê in die Naam van die Beskermer van Isak. 54Jakob het daar op die berg geoffer en toe het hy die mense by hom genooi om te eet. Nadat hulle klaar geëet het, het hulle daar by die berg oornag. 55Vroeg die volgende môre het Laban sy kleinseuns en sy dogters met seënwense gegroet. Hy het toe vertrek, terug huis toe.

Genesis 32

Jacob Fears Esau

Gen 32:1 As Jacob went on his way, some angels met him.

Gen 32:2 When he saw them, he said, "This is God's camp"; so he named the place Mahanaim.

Gen 32:3 Jacob sent messengers ahead of him to his brother Esau in the country of Edom.

Gen 32:4 He instructed them to say: "I, Jacob, your obedient servant, report to my master Esau that I have been staying with Laban and that I have delayed my return until now.

Gen 32:5 I own cattle, donkeys, sheep, goats, and slaves. I am sending you word, sir, in the hope of gaining your favor."

Gen 32:6 When the messengers came back to Jacob, they said, "We went to your brother Esau, and he is already on his way to meet you. He has four hundred men with him."

Gen 32:7 Jacob was frightened and worried. He divided into two groups the people who were with him, and also his sheep, goats, cattle, and camels.

Gen 32:8 He thought, "If Esau comes and attacks the first group, the other may be able to escape."

Gen 32:9 Then Jacob prayed, "God of my grandfather Abraham and God of my father Isaac, hear me! You told me, LORD, to go back to my land and to my relatives, and you would make everything go well for me.

Gen 32:10 I am not worth all the kindness and faithfulness that you have shown me, your servant. I crossed the Jordan with nothing but a walking stick, and now I have come back with these two groups.

Gen 32:11 Save me, I pray, from my brother Esau. I am afraid—afraid that he is coming to attack us and destroy us all, even the women and children.

Gen 32:12 Remember that you promised to make everything go well for me and to give me more descendants than anyone could count, as many as the grains of sand along the seashore."

Gen 32:13 (13-15) After spending the night there, Jacob chose from his livestock as a present for his brother Esau: 200 female goats and 20 males, 200 female sheep and 20 males, 30 milk camels with their young, 40 cows and 10 bulls, 20 female donkeys and 10 males.

Gen 32:16 He divided them into herds and put one of his servants in charge of each herd. He said to them, "Go ahead of me, and leave a space between each herd and the one behind it."

Gen 32:17 He ordered the first servant, "When my brother Esau meets you and asks, 'Who is your master? Where are you going? Who owns these animals in front of you?'

Gen 32:18 you must answer, 'They belong to your servant Jacob. He sends them as a present to his master Esau. Jacob himself is right behind us.' "

Gen 32:19 He gave the same order to the second, the third, and to all the others who were in charge of the herds: "This is what you must say to Esau when you meet him.

Gen 32:20 You must say, 'Yes, your servant Jacob is right behind us.' " Jacob was thinking, "I will win him over with the gifts, and when I meet him, perhaps he will forgive me."

Gen 32:21 He sent the gifts on ahead of him and spent that night in camp.

Jacob Wrestles with God

Gen 32:22 That same night Jacob got up, took his two wives, his two concubines, and his eleven children, and crossed the Jabbok River.

Gen 32:23 After he had sent them across, he also sent across all that he owned,

Gen 32:24 but he stayed behind, alone. Then a man came and wrestled with him until just before daybreak.

Gen 32:25 When the man saw that he was not winning the struggle, he hit Jacob on the hip, and it was thrown out of joint.

Gen 32:26 The man said, "Let me go; daylight is coming." "I won't, unless you bless me," Jacob answered.

Gen 32:27 "What is your name?" the man asked. "Jacob," he answered.

Gen 32:28 The man said, "Your name will no longer be Jacob. You have struggled with God and with men, and you have won; so your name will be Israel."

Gen 32:29 Jacob said, "Now tell me your name." But he answered, "Why do you want to know my name?" Then he blessed Jacob.

Gen 32:30 Jacob said, "I have seen God face-to-face, and I am still alive"; so he named the place Peniel.

Gen 32:31 The sun rose as Jacob was leaving Peniel, and he was limping because of his hip.

Gen 32:32 Even today the descendants of Israel do not eat the muscle which is on the hip joint, because it was on this muscle that Jacob was hit.

GENESIS 32

1Jakob het sy koers gegaan, en engele van God het hom teëgekom. 2Toe Jakob hulle sien, sê hy: Dit is 'n leër van God, en Jakob het die plek Maganajim genoem. 3Daarna het Jakob boodskappers vooruitgestuur na sy broer Esau toe, na die Seïrstreek toe, die gebied van Edom. 4Jakob het vir hulle gesê: So moet julle vir my geagte broer, vir Esau sê: So sê Jakob wat aan u onderdanig wil wees: Ek het tot nou toe by Laban gebly. 5Ek besit beeste, donkies, kleinvee, slawe en slavinne. Ek laat u dit weet om te verneem of ek by u welkom sal wees. 6Die boodskappers het na Jakob toe teruggekom en kom sê: Ons het by u broer Esau aangekom, maar toe was hy al op pad na u toe met vier honderd man by hom. 7Jakob het baie bang geword, angs het hom oorval. Toe deel hy die mense by hom, en die kleinvee, die beeste en die kamele in twee groepe, 8want hy het gedink: as Esau by die eerste groep kom en dit uitwis, kan die ander groep dalk wegkom. 9Daarna het Jakob gebid: Here, God van my voorvader Abraham, God van my vader Isak, U wat vir my gesê het om terug te gaan na my land en my familie toe en U sal goed doen aan my, 10ek is al u gunsbewyse nie werd nie, ook nie die trou waarmee U my versorg het nie. Toe ek destyds deur die Jordaan is, het ek net my kierie gehad, en nou het ek hierdie twee groot groepe. 11Red my tog uit die mag van my broer Esau, ek is bang vir hom. Hy kan dalk kom en my doodmaak, en ook die moeders en kinders. 12U het my tog beloof: Ek sal beslis goed doen aan jou, Ek sal jou nageslag so baie maak soos die sand van die see, wat nie getel kan word nie. 13Jakob het daar oornag en die volgende môre vat hy toe uit sy besitting 'n geskenk vir sy broer Esau: 14twee honderd bokooie en twintig bokramme, twee honderd skaapooie en twintig ramme, 15dertig kameelkoeie met kalwers, veertig koeie en tien bulle, twintig donkiemerries en tien hingste. 16Hy het elke trop aan 'n slaaf gegee en gesê: Trek vorentoe, maar hou 'n afstand tussen die troppe. 17Hy het die voorste slaaf beveel: Wanneer my broer Esau jou kry en jou vra: Wie is jy? Waarvandaan kom jy en aan wie behoort al hierdie goed voor jou?' 18moet jy sê: Dit behoort aan Jakob wat aan u onderdanig wil wees. Dit word as geskenk aan Meneer gestuur, en hy kom self ook agter ons aan. 19Jakob het dieselfde opdrag aan die tweede slaaf gegee, en ook aan die derde en aan elkeen wat agter 'n trop was Jakob het vir hulle gesê: Wat ek vir die voorste gesê het, moet julle almal vir Esau sê as julle by hom kom. 20Verder moet julle ook nog sê: Jakob kom agter ons aan. Hy wil aan u onderdanig wees. Jakob het naamlik gedink: met die geskenk wat voor my uit gaan, sal ek probeer om hom in 'n goeie bui te kry. Dan sal ek na hom toe gaan en miskien ontvang hy my dan vriendelik. 21So is die geskenk voor Jakob uit gestuur, maar hy het die aand in die kamp oorgebly. 22Die nag het hy opgestaan en sy twee vrouens en sy twee persoonlike slavinne en sy elf kinders gevat en deur Jabbokdrif gegaan. 23Nadat hy hulle deur die rivier gevat het, het hy ook alles wat hy besit, laat deurgaan. 24Jakob het alleen daar agtergebly, en 'n man het tot dagbreek met hom gestoei. 25Toe die man agterkom dat hy nie vir Jakob kan wen nie, het die man, terwyl hy met hom stoei, vir Jakob teen die heup geslaan sodat dit uit die potjie gespring het. 26Die man het vir Jakob gesê: Los my, want die dag breek. Jakob het geantwoord: Ek sal jou net los as jy my seën. 27Toe vra die man: Wat is jou naam? en hy antwoord: Jakob. 28Die man het gesê: Jy sal nie meer Jakob genoem word nie, maar Israel , want jy het teen God en teen mense 'n stryd gevoer en jy het dit end-uit volgehou. 29Toe sê Jakob: Sê my tog jou naam, en die man vra: Waarom vra jy my naam? Hy het vir Jakob net daar geseën, 30en Jakob het die plek Pniël genoem, want, het hy gesê, ek het God van aangesig tot aangesig gesien en tog het ek nie omgekom nie. 31Net toe Jakob by Pniël verbygaan, het die son opgekom. Jakob het mank gebly aan sy heup, 32en daarom eet die Israeliete tot nou toe nie die senuweebondel wat aan die heup vaskom nie, want die man het vir Jakob teen sy heup geslaan, op die heupsenuwee.

Jacob Meets Esau

Gen 33:1 Jacob saw Esau coming with his four hundred men, so he divided the children among Leah, Rachel, and the two concubines.

Gen 33:2 He put the concubines and their children first, then Leah and her children, and finally Rachel and Joseph at the rear.

Gen 33:3 Jacob went ahead of them and bowed down to the ground seven times as he approached his brother.

Gen 33:4 But Esau ran to meet him, threw his arms around him, and kissed him. They were both crying.

Gen 33:5 When Esau looked around and saw the women and the children, he asked, "Who are these people with you?" "These, sir, are the children whom God has been good enough to give me," Jacob answered.

Gen 33:6 Then the concubines came up with their children and bowed down;

Gen 33:7 then Leah and her children came, and last of all Joseph and Rachel came and bowed down.

Gen 33:8 Esau asked, "What about that other group I met? What did that mean?" Jacob answered, "It was to gain your favor."

Gen 33:9 But Esau said, "I have enough, my brother; keep what you have."

Gen 33:10 Jacob said, "No, please, if I have gained your favor, accept my gift. To see your face is for me like seeing the face of God, now that you have been so friendly to me.

Gen 33:11 Please accept this gift which I have brought for you; God has been kind to me and given me everything I need." Jacob kept on urging him until he accepted.

Gen 33:12 Esau said, "Let's get ready and leave. I will go ahead of you."

Gen 33:13 Jacob answered, "You know that the children are weak, and I must think of the sheep and livestock with their young. If they are driven hard for even one day, the whole herd will die.

Gen 33:14 Please go on ahead of me, and I will follow slowly, going as fast as I can with the livestock and the children until I catch up with you in Edom."

Gen 33:15 Esau said, "Then let me leave some of my men with you."

But Jacob answered, "There is no need for that for I only want to gain your favor."

Gen 33:16 So that day Esau started on his way back to Edom.

Gen 33:17 But Jacob went to Sukkoth, where he built a house for himself and shelters for his livestock. That is why the place was named Sukkoth.

Gen 33:18 On his return from Mesopotamia Jacob arrived safely at the city of Shechem in the land of Canaan and set up his camp in a field near the city.

Gen 33:19 He bought that part of the field from the descendants of Hamor father of Shechem for a hundred pieces of silver.

Gen 33:20 He put up an altar there and named it for El, the God of Israel.

GENESIS 33

[1]Toe Jakob deur die spruit was, het hy vir Esau in die verte sien aankom met vier honderd man by hom. Jakob het die kinders onder Lea en Ragel en die twee persoonlike slavinne verdeel [2]en die slavinne met hulle kinders op die voorpunt gesit. Lea met haar kinders was agter hulle en Ragel en Josef heel agter. [3]Hy self het verbygegaan tot heel voor en toe hy nader na sy broer toe kom, het hy sewe keer diep gebuig. [4]Esau het hom tegemoet gehardloop en hom omhels Esau het sy arms om Jakob se nek gesit en hom gesoen, en hulle het gehuil. [5]Esau het opgekyk en die vrouens en kinders gesien en toe sê hy: Wie is al hierdie mense by jou? Jakob het geantwoord: Dit is die kinders wat God in sy liefde aan my gegee het. [6]Die persoonlike slavinne het met hulle kinders nader gekom en gebuig [7]en toe het ook Lea met haar kinders nader gekom en gebuig. Josef en Ragel was heel agter en ook hulle het nader gekom en gebuig. [8]Toe vra Esau: En wat is jou bedoeling met al daardie goed wat ek gekry het? en Jakob antwoord: Dit is om u vriendskap te wen. [9]Maar Esau sê vir hom: Broer, ek besit self baie. Wat joune is, moet joune bly. [10]Toe sê Jakob: Nee, as u my goedgesind is, moet u my geskenk aanvaar. Ek het na u toe gekom om u goedgesindheid te wen net soos wanneer 'n mens in die teenwoordigheid van God verskyn. En u het my vriendelik ontvang. [11]Aanvaar tog my geskenk wat vir u gebring is, want God was goed vir my en ek het oorgenoeg. Jakob het by Esau daarop aangedring, en toe aanvaar hy die geskenk. [12]Hy het vir Jakob gesê: Breek kamp op dat ons verder kan trek. Ek sal vooruit trek om jou te beskerm. [13]Maar Jakob het hom geantwoord: U sien tog self die ou kindertjies is maar klein en die lammertjies en die kalwers by my is nog swak. As 'n mens hulle net een dag te hard aandryf, is die hele klomp dood. [14]Trek u maar vooruit voor my en dan kom ek op my gemak agterna. Ek sal volgens die pas van die vee en van die kinders na u toe kom in Seïr. [15]Toe sê Esau: Dan los ek 'n paar van my manne by jou, maar Jakob vra: Waarom wil u dit doen? U is my tog goedgesind? [16]Esau is daardie dag nog terug op sy pad Seïr toe. [17]Jakob het gaan tent opslaan by Sukkot en daar het hy vir hom 'n huis gebou. Hy het ook takkrale vir sy vee gemaak, en daarom word die plek Sukkot genoem. [18]Nadat Jakob uit Paddan-Aram weg is, het hy veilig by Sigem in Kanaän aangekom. Hy het net buite die stad kamp opgeslaan. [19]Toe koop hy die stuk grond waar sy tent staan, vir honderd geldstukke by die seuns van Gamor, die pa van Sigem. [20]Jakob het daar 'n altaar gebou en dit genoem: Die God van Israel is God.

Genesis 34

The Defiling of Dinah

Gen 34:1 One day Dinah, the daughter of Jacob and Leah, went to visit some of the Canaanite women.

Gen 34:2 When Shechem son of Hamor the Hivite, who was chief of that region, saw her, he took her and raped her.

Gen 34:3 But he found the young woman so attractive that he fell in love with her and tried to win her affection.

Gen 34:4 He told his father, "I want you to get Dinah for me as my wife."

Gen 34:5 Jacob learned that his daughter had been disgraced, but because his sons were out in the fields with his livestock, he did nothing until they came back.

Gen 34:6 Shechem's father Hamor went out to talk with Jacob,

Gen 34:7 just as Jacob's sons were coming in from the fields. When they heard about it, they were shocked and furious that Shechem had done such a thing and had insulted the people of Israel by raping Jacob's daughter.

Gen 34:8 Hamor said to him, "My son Shechem has fallen in love with your daughter; please let him marry her.

Gen 34:9 Let us make an agreement that there will be intermarriage between our people and yours.

Gen 34:10 Then you may stay here in our country with us; you may live anywhere you wish, trade freely, and own property."

Gen 34:11 Then Shechem said to Dinah's father and brothers, "Do me this favor, and I will give you whatever you want.

Gen 34:12 Tell me what presents you want, and set the payment for the bride as high as you wish; I will give you whatever you ask, if you will only let me marry her."

Gen 34:13 Because Shechem had disgraced their sister Dinah, Jacob's sons answered Shechem and his father Hamor in a deceitful way.

Gen 34:14 They said to him, "We cannot let our sister marry a man who is not circumcised; that would be a disgrace for us.

Gen 34:15 We can agree only on the condition that you become like us by circumcising all your males.

Gen 34:16 Then we will agree to intermarriage. We will settle among you and become one people with you.

Gen 34:17 But if you will not accept our terms and be circumcised, we will take her and leave."

Gen 34:18 These terms seemed fair to Hamor and his son Shechem,

Gen 34:19 and the young man lost no time in doing what was suggested, because he was in love with Jacob's daughter. He was the most important member of his family.

Gen 34:20 Hamor and his son Shechem went to the meeting place at the city gate and spoke to the people of the town:

Gen 34:21 "These men are friendly; let them live in the land with us and travel freely. The land is large enough for them also. Let us marry their daughters and give them ours in marriage.

Gen 34:22 But these men will agree to live among us and be one people with us only on the condition that we circumcise all our males, as they are circumcised.

Gen 34:23 Won't all their livestock and everything else they own be ours? So let us agree that they can live among us."

Gen 34:24 All the citizens of the city agreed with what Hamor and Shechem proposed, and all the males were circumcised.

Gen 34:25 Three days later, when the men were still sore from their circumcision, two of Jacob's sons, Simeon and Levi, the brothers of Dinah, took their swords, went into the city without arousing suspicion, and killed all the men,

Gen 34:26 including Hamor and his son Shechem. Then they took Dinah from Shechem's house and left.

Gen 34:27 After the slaughter Jacob's other sons looted the town to take revenge for their sister's disgrace.

Gen 34:28 They took the flocks, the cattle, the donkeys, and everything else in the city and in the fields.

Gen 34:29 They took everything of value, captured all the women and children, and carried off everything in the houses.

Gen 34:30 Jacob said to Simeon and Levi, "You have gotten me into trouble; now the Canaanites, the Perizzites, and everybody else in the land will hate me. I do not have many men; if they all band together against me and attack me, our whole family will be destroyed."

Gen 34:31 But they answered, "We cannot let our sister be treated like a common whore."

1Dina, die dogter wat deur Lea vir Jakob in die wêreld gebring is, het op 'n keer gaan kuier by die dogters van die omgewing. 2Toe Sigem seun van die Hewiet Gamor, 'n volksleier, haar sien, het hy haar gegryp en met haar gemeenskap gehad. Hy het haar verkrag. 3Daarna het hy al hoe meer begin hou van Dina dogter van Jakob. Hy het die meisie lief gekry en haar hart probeer wen. 4Hy het vir sy pa, vir Gamor gesê: Kry vir my daardie meisie as vrou. 5Jakob het verneem dat sy dogter Dina deur Sigem onteer is, maar omdat Jakob se seuns met die vee in die veld was, het hy niks gedoen voor hulle terug was nie. 6Toe Gamor, Sigem se pa, na Jakob toe gaan om met hom te praat oor Dina, 7kom Jakob se seuns juis van die veld af by die huis aan en toe hulle hoor wat gebeur het, was die manne ontsteld. Hulle was baie kwaad, want Sigem het 'n gruwelike ding aangevang toe hy met die dogter van Jakob, 'n Israelitiese meisie, gemeenskap gehad het. So iets doen 'n mens nie. 8Gamor het vir hulle gesê: My seun Sigem hou baie van die dogter uit julle huis. Laat haar tog met hom trou. 9Kom ons word familie van mekaar. Dan kan julle dogters met ons trou en ons dogters met julle. 10Dan bly julle hier by ons. Ons land is tot julle beskikking. Bly net hier of trek rond en kry julle eie grond hier by ons. 11Toe sê Sigem vir Dina se pa en haar broers: As julle instem, sal ek betaal wat julle ook al van my vra. 12Julle kan maar die vergoeding wat ek moet gee, net so groot maak soos julle wil. Ek sal ook nog enige ander geskenk gee wat julle vra. Gee net asseblief die meisie vir my dat ek met haar kan trou. 13Jakob se seuns het egter nie vir Sigem en sy pa Gamor 'n reguit antwoord gegee nie, want die broers se suster Dina was onteer. 14Hulle het toe gesê: Ons kan nie ons suster sommer so laat trou met 'n man wat nie besny is nie. Dit is vir ons 'n ongehoorde ding. 15Ons kan net instem as julle soos ons word: besny al julle mans. 16Dan kan ons ons dogters met julle laat trou en kan ons met julle dogters trou. Dan sal ons by julle bly en ons sal een volk word. 17Maar as julle nie na ons luister nie en julle nie laat besny nie, sal ons ons suster vat en wegtrek. 18Gamor en sy seun Sigem het hiertoe ingestem. 19Die jongman Sigem wou nie die saak laat sloer nie, want hy was lief vir Jakob se dogter. Omdat Gamor en Sigem die meeste gesag onder hulle mense gehad het, 20het hulle na die stadspoort toe gegaan en daar vir die mans van die stad gesê: 21Hierdie vreemde mense het met goeie bedoelings na ons toe gekom. Hulle wil hier kom bly en met hulle kuddes in ons land rond trek: die land is groot en lê oop voor hulle. Dan kan ons met hulle dogters trou en hulle met ons s'n. 22Hierdie mense sal egter net by ons kom bly en saam met ons een volk word as al ons mansmense besny word soos dit by hulle is. 23Hulle kuddes, al hulle vee, hulle besittings, word ons eiendom as ons instem, en dan sal hulle by ons bly. 24Al die mans van die stad het na Gamor en sy seun Sigem geluister, en hulle almal is besny. 25Drie dae later toe hulle baie pyn gehad het, het Jakob se twee seuns Simeon en Levi, die broers van Dina, elkeen sy swaard gevat en sonder om agterdog te wek, die stad ingegaan en al die mans doodgemaak, 26ook vir Gamor en sy seun Sigem. Hulle het vir Dina uit Sigem se huis uit weggevat en uit die stad uit gegaan. 27Jakob se seuns het toe op die slagoffers toegesak en die stad geplunder omdat hulle suster daar onteer is: 28kleinvee, beeste, donkies, alles in die stad en alles in die veld het hulle vir hulle gevat. 29Ja, hulle het alles geplunder wat daar in die stad was, hulle het alles wat in die huise was, buitgemaak; ook die kinders en vrouens is as gevangenes saamgevat. 30Toe sê Jakob vir Simeon en Levi: Julle het my in die moeilikheid gebring, want julle het my naam sleg gemaak by die mense van hierdie land, die Kanaäniete en die Feresiete. Ek het maar 'n klein klompie mans by my. As die mense van die land almal saamstaan teen my, sal hulle my en my mense verslaan en ons om die lewe bring. 31Toe antwoord hulle: Hy moes nie ons suster soos 'n hoer behandel het nie!

Genesis 35

God Blesses and Renames Jacob

Gen 35:1 God said to Jacob, "Go to Bethel at once, and live there. Build an altar there to me, the God who appeared to you when you were running away from your brother Esau."

Gen 35:2 So Jacob said to his family and to all who were with him, "Get rid of the foreign gods that you have; purify yourselves and put on clean clothes.

Gen 35:3 We are going to leave here and go to Bethel, where I will build an altar to the God who helped me in the time of my trouble and who has been with me everywhere I have gone."

Gen 35:4 So they gave Jacob all the foreign gods that they had and also the earrings that they were wearing. He buried them beneath the oak tree near Shechem.

Gen 35:5 When Jacob and his sons started to leave, great fear fell on the people of the nearby towns, and they did not pursue them.

Gen 35:6 Jacob came with all his people to Luz, which is now known as Bethel, in the land of Canaan.

Gen 35:7 He built an altar there and named the place for the God of Bethel, because God had revealed himself to him there when he was running away from his brother.

Gen 35:8 Rebecca's nurse Deborah died and was buried beneath the oak south of Bethel. So it was named "Oak of Weeping."

Gen 35:9 When Jacob returned from Mesopotamia, God appeared to him again and blessed him.

Gen 35:10 God said to him, "Your name is Jacob, but from now on it will be Israel." So God named him Israel.

Gen 35:11 And God said to him, "I am Almighty God. Have many children. Nations will be descended from you, and you will be the ancestor of kings.

Gen 35:12 I will give you the land which I gave to Abraham and to Isaac, and I will also give it to your descendants after you."

Gen 35:13 Then God left him.

Gen 35:14 There, where God had spoken to him, Jacob set up a memorial stone and consecrated it by pouring wine and olive oil on it.

Gen 35:15 He named the place Bethel.

The Deaths of Rachel and Isaac

Gen 35:16 Jacob and his family left Bethel, and when they were still some distance from Ephrath, the time came for Rachel to have her baby, and she was having difficult labor.

Gen 35:17 When her labor pains were at their worst, the midwife said to her, "Don't be afraid, Rachel; it's another boy."

Gen 35:18 But she was dying, and as she breathed her last, she named her son Benoni, but his father named him Benjamin.

Gen 35:19 When Rachel died, she was buried beside the road to Ephrath, now known as Bethlehem.

Gen 35:20 Jacob set up a memorial stone there, and it still marks Rachel's grave to this day.

Gen 35:21 Jacob moved on and set up his camp on the other side of the tower of Eder.

Gen 35:22 While Jacob was living in that land, Reuben had sexual intercourse with Bilhah, one of his father's concubines; Jacob heard about it and was furious. Jacob had twelve sons.

Gen 35:23 The sons of Leah were Reuben (Jacob's oldest son), Simeon, Levi, Judah, Issachar, and Zebulun.

Gen 35:24 The sons of Rachel were Joseph and Benjamin.

Gen 35:25 The sons of Rachel's slave Bilhah were Dan and Naphtali.

Gen 35:26 The sons of Leah's slave Zilpah were Gad and Asher. These sons were born in Mesopotamia.

Gen 35:27 Jacob went to his father Isaac at Mamre, near Hebron, where Abraham and Isaac had lived.

Gen 35:28 Isaac lived to be a hundred and eighty years old

Gen 35:29 and died at a ripe old age; and his sons Esau and Jacob buried him.

1God het vir Jakob gesê: Maak jou klaar en gaan na Bet-El toe en bly daar. Bou vir My daar 'n altaar. Ek is die God wat daar aan jou verskyn het toe jy vir jou broer Esau gevlug het. 2Toe sê Jakob vir sy hele huis en vir almal by hom: Haal uit al die afgodsbeelde wat by julle is. Reinig julle en trek ander klere aan. 3Ons moet klaarmaak en Bet-El toe gaan. Daar moet ek 'n altaar gaan bou vir die God wat my gebed verhoor het toe ek in die moeilikheid was en wat by my was waar ek ook al gegaan het. 4Hulle het toe al die afgodsbeelde in hulle besit vir Jakob gegee en ook hulle oorringe. Hy het dit onder die groot boom by Sigem begrawe. 5Toe Jakob-hulle wegtrek, het God die mense van die stede in daardie omgewing so bang gemaak vir Jakob en sy seuns dat hulle nie agtervolg is nie. 6Jakob en al die mense by hom het by Lus aangekom. Dit is die Lus wat in Kanaän geleë is, nou bekend as Bet-El. 7Hy het daar 'n altaar gebou en die plek El-Bet-El genoem, want God het daar aan hom verskyn toe hy vir sy broer gevlug het. 8Debora, die vrou aan wie Rebekka as kind gedrink het, het daar gesterf en hulle het haar begrawe onder die groot boom naby Bet-El, en hulle het dit Huilboom genoem. 9Nadat Jakob uit Paddan-Aram terug was, het God weer aan hom verskyn en hom geseën. 10God het vir hom gesê: Jy is Jakob, maar jy sal nie langer Jakob genoem word nie. Jou naam sal Israel wees. God het hom toe Israel genoem. 11God het verder vir hom gesê: Ek is God die Almagtige. Wees vrugbaar en word 'n groot nasie. Baie nasies sal van jou afstam. Jy sal die voorvader wees van konings. 12Hierdie land wat Ek aan Abraham en aan Isak gegee het, sal Ek aan jou gee en ná jou gee Ek dit aan jou nageslag. 13Toe het God van Jakob af weggegaan, en op die plek waar God met hom gepraat het, 14het Jakob 'n klip regop gesit, presies op die plek waar die Here met hom gepraat het. Hy het 'n drankoffer daarop uitgegiet en ook olie. 15Hy het die plek waar God met hom gepraat het, Bet-El genoem. 16Jakob-hulle het van Bet-El af getrek na Efrata toe. Hulle was nog 'n ent daarvandaan toe bring Ragel 'n kind in die wêreld. Dit was 'n moeilike geboorte. 17Met dié dat Ragel so swaar ly by die bevalling, sê die vroedvrou vir haar: Moenie bekommerd wees nie. Ook hierdie keer het jy 'n seun! 18Maar Ragel was aan die sterf en terwyl sy haar laaste asem uitblaas, noem sy die seuntjie Ben-Oni . Sy pa het hom egter Benjamin genoem. 19Ragel het gesterf, en sy is begrawe langs die pad na Efrata toe, dit is Betlehem. 20Jakob het 'n groot klip op haar graf gesit. Dit is die klip wat nou nog op haar graf is. 21Israel het verder weggetrek en kamp opgeslaan anderkant Migdal-Eder. 22Terwyl Israel in daardie landstreek gebly het, het Ruben gemeenskap gehad met Bilha, sy pa se slavinvrou. Israel het dit te hore gekom. Jakob het twaalf seuns gehad. 23Die seuns van Lea was Ruben, die oudste, Simeon, Levi, Juda, Issaskar en Sebulon. 24Die seuns van Ragel was Josef en Benjamin. 25Die seuns van Ragel se persoonlike slavin Bilha was: Dan en Naftali. 26Die seuns van Lea se persoonlike slavin Silpa was: Gad en Aser. Dit is Jakob se seuns wat in Paddan-Aram gebore is. 27Jakob is na sy pa Isak toe in Mamre by Kirjat-Arba, dit is Hebron, waar Isak gebly het, en vroeër ook Abraham. 28Isak het honderd en tagtig jaar oud geword 29en toe is hy dood. Hy het gesterf nadat hy oud geword en 'n vol lewe gehad het. Sy twee seuns Esau en Jakob het hom begrawe.

Gen 36:7 He left because the land where he and Jacob were living was not able to support them; they had too much livestock and could no longer stay together.

Gen 36:8 So Esau lived in the hill country of Edom.

Gen 36:9 These are the descendants of Esau, the ancestor of the Edomites.

Gen 36:10 (10-13) Esau's wife Adah bore him one son, Eliphaz, and Eliphaz had five sons: Teman, Omar, Zepho, Gatam, and Kenaz. And by another wife, Timna, he had one more son, Amalek. Esau's wife Basemath bore him one son, Reuel, and Reuel had four sons: Nahath, Zerah, Shammah, and Mizzah.

Gen 36:18 The following tribes were descended from Esau by his wife

Oholibamah, the daughter of Anah: Jeush, Jalam, and Korah.

Gen 36:19 All these tribes were descended from Esau.

Gen 36:20 (20-21) The original inhabitants of the land of Edom were divided into tribes which traced their ancestry to the following descendants of Seir, a Horite: Lotan, Shobal, Zibeon, Anah, Dishon, Ezer, and Dishan.

Gen 36:22 Lotan was the ancestor of the clans of Hori and Heman. (Lotan had a sister named Timna.)

Gen 36:23 Shobal was the ancestor of the clans of Alvan, Manahath, Ebal, Shepho, and Onam.

Gen 36:24 Zibeon had two sons, Aiah and Anah. (This is the Anah who found the hot springs in the wilderness when he was taking care of his father's donkeys.)

Gen 36:25 (25-26) Anah was the father of Dishon, who was the ancestor of the clans of Hemdan, Eshban, Ithran, and Cheran. Anah also had a daughter named Oholibamah.

Gen 36:27 Ezer was the ancestor of the clans of Bilhan, Zaavan, and Akan.

Gen 36:28 Dishan was the ancestor of the clans of Uz and Aran.

Gen 36:29 (29-30) These are the Horite tribes in the land of Edom: Lotan, Shobal, Zibeon, Anah, Dishon, Ezer, and Dishan.

Gen 36:31 (31-39) Before there were any kings in Israel, the following kings ruled the land of Edom in succession: Bela son of Beor from Dinhabah Jobab son of Zerah from Bozrah Husham from the region of Teman Hadad son of Bedad from Avith (he defeated the Midianites in a battle in the country of Moab) Samlah from Masrekah Shaul from Rehoboth-on-the-River Baal Hanan son of Achbor Hadad from Pau (his wife was Mehetabel, the daughter of Matred and granddaughter of Mezahab)

Gen 36:40 (40-43) Esau was the ancestor of the following Edomite tribes: Timna, Alvah, Jetheth, Oholibamah, Elah, Pinon, Kenaz, Teman, Mibzar, Magdiel, and Iram. The area where each of these tribes lived was known by the name of the tribe.

Genesis 37

Joseph's Dreams

Gen 37:1 Jacob continued to live in the land of Canaan, where his father had lived,

Gen 37:2 and this is the story of Jacob's family. Joseph, a young man of seventeen, took care of the sheep and goats with his brothers, the sons of Bilhah and Zilpah, his father's concubines. He brought bad reports to his father about what his brothers were doing.

Gen 37:3 Jacob loved Joseph more than all his other sons, because he had been born to him when he was old. He made a long robe with full sleeves for him.

Gen 37:4 When his brothers saw that their father loved Joseph more than he loved them, they hated their brother so much that they would not speak to him in a friendly manner.

Gen 37:5 One time Joseph had a dream, and when he told his brothers about it, they hated him even more.

Gen 37:6 He said, "Listen to the dream I had.

Gen 37:7 We were all in the field tying up sheaves of wheat, when my sheaf got up and stood up straight. Yours formed a circle around mine and bowed down to it."

Gen 37:8 "Do you think you are going to be a king and rule over us?" his brothers asked. So they hated him even more because of his dreams and because of what he said about them.

Gen 37:9 Then Joseph had another dream and told his brothers, "I had another dream, in which I saw the sun, the moon, and eleven stars bowing down to me."

Gen 37:10 He also told the dream to his father, and his father scolded him: "What kind of a dream is that? Do you think that your mother, your brothers, and I are going to come and bow down to you?"

Gen 37:11 Joseph's brothers were jealous of him, but his father kept thinking about the whole matter.

Joseph Sold by His Brothers

Gen 37:12 One day when Joseph's brothers had gone to Shechem to take care of their father's flock,

Gen 37:13 Jacob said to Joseph, "I want you to go to Shechem, where your brothers are taking care of the flock." Joseph answered, "I am ready."

Gen 37:14 His father told him, "Go and see if your brothers are safe and if the flock is all right; then come back and tell me." So his father sent him on his way from Hebron Valley. Joseph arrived at Shechem

Gen 37:15 and was wandering around in the country when a man saw him and asked him, "What are you looking for?"

Gen 37:16 "I am looking for my brothers, who are taking care of their flock," he answered. "Can you tell me where they are?"

Gen 37:17 The man said, "They have already left. I heard them say that they were going to Dothan." So Joseph went after his brothers and found them at Dothan.

Gen 37:18 They saw him in the distance, and before he reached them, they plotted against him and decided to kill him.

Gen 37:19 They said to one another, "Here comes that dreamer.

Gen 37:20 Come on now, let's kill him and throw his body into one of the dry wells. We can say that a wild animal killed him. Then we will see what becomes of his dreams."

Gen 37:21 Reuben heard them and tried to save Joseph. "Let's not kill him," he said.

Gen 37:22 "Just throw him into this well in the wilderness, but don't hurt him." He said this, planning to save him from them and send him back to his father.

Gen 37:23 When Joseph came up to his brothers, they ripped off his long robe with full sleeves.

Gen 37:24 Then they took him and threw him into the well, which was dry.

Gen 37:25 While they were eating, they suddenly saw a group of Ishmaelites traveling from Gilead to Egypt. Their camels were loaded with spices and resins.

Gen 37:26 Judah said to his brothers, "What will we gain by killing our brother and covering up the murder?

Gen 37:27 Let's sell him to these Ishmaelites. Then we won't have to hurt him; after all, he is our brother, our own flesh and blood." His brothers agreed,

Gen 37:28 and when some Midianite traders came by, the brothers pulled Joseph out of the well and sold him for twenty pieces of silver to the Ishmaelites, who took him to Egypt.

Gen 37:29 When Reuben came back to the well and found that Joseph was not there, he tore his clothes in sorrow.

Gen 37:30 He returned to his brothers and said, "The boy is not there! What am I going to do?"

Gen 37:31 Then they killed a goat and dipped Joseph's robe in its blood.

Gen 37:32 They took the robe to their father and said, "We found this. Does it belong to your son?"

Gen 37:33 He recognized it and said, "Yes, it is his! Some wild animal has killed him. My son Joseph has been torn to pieces!"

Gen 37:34 Jacob tore his clothes in sorrow and put on sackcloth. He mourned for his son a long time.

Gen 37:35 All his sons and daughters came to comfort him, but he refused to be comforted and said, "I will go down to the world of the dead still mourning for my son." So he continued to mourn for his son Joseph.

Gen 37:36 Meanwhile, in Egypt the Midianites had sold Joseph to Potiphar, one of the king's officers, who was the captain of the palace guard.

1Jakob het in Kanaän gebly, die land waar sy voorvaders ook as vreemdelinge gebly het. 2Hier volg die familiegeskiedenis van Jakob. Josef was nog jonk, sewentien, toe hy kleinvee opgepas het saam met sy broers, die seuns van Bilha en Silpa, sy pa se vrouens. Josef het slegte stories oor sy broers by hulle pa aangedra. 3Van al sy seuns was Israel die liefste vir Josef, die seun wat in sy ouderdom gebore is, en daarom het hy vir Josef lang klere met moue gemaak. 4Toe sy broers sien dat hulle pa vir Josef liewer het as vir enige van hulle, het hulle 'n afkeer van Josef gekry en het hulle niks goeds oor hom gesê nie. 5Op 'n keer het Josef gedroom en dit vir sy broers vertel. Daarna was hulle afkeer van hom nog groter. 6Hy het vir hulle gesê: Luister na die droom wat ek gehad het. Ons was op die land besig om gerwe te bind 7en skielik gaan staan my gerf regop en julle gerwe gaan staan daar rondom en hulle buig voor myne. 8Toe sê sy broers vir hom: Jy verbeel jou jy sal oor ons koning word. Dink jy dalk jy sal oor ons regeer? Oor sy drome en sy praatjies het hulle 'n nog groter afkeer van hom gekry. 9Hy het ook nog 'n ander droom gehad en hy het dit vir sy broers vertel. Hy het gesê: Ek het weer gedroom. Die son en die maan en elf sterre het voor my kom buig. 10Toe hy dit vir sy pa en sy broers vertel, het sy pa hom berispe en vir hom gesê: Wat vir 'n soort droom is dit wat jy gehad het? Verbeel jy jou ek en jou ma en jou broers moet voor jou kom buig? 11Sy broers was afgunstig op hom, en sy pa het aan die droom bly dink. 12Josef se broers het hulle pa se kleinvee gaan oppas in Sigem. 13Toe sê Israel vir Josef: Kyk, jou broers pas die kleinvee op in Sigem. Ek wil jou na hulle toe stuur. Josef het geantwoord: Goed, Pa! 14Toe sê Israel vir hom: Gaan kyk of alles nog reg is by jou broers en met die kleinvee en kom vertel my alles. Israel het hom van die laagte by Hebron af gestuur na Sigem toe. 15Hy het daar in die veld rondgesoek, en toe kom 'n man by hom en dié vra vir hom: Wat soek jy? 16Josef antwoord hom: Ek soek my broers. Kan jy my dalk sê waar hulle die kleinvee oppas? 17Toe sê die man: Hulle het van hier af versit. Ek het gehoor hulle sê hulle wil na Dotan toe gaan. Josef is toe agter sy broers aan en hy het hulle by Dotan gekry. 18Hulle het hom al van ver af gesien en voor hy by hulle gekom het, het hulle ooreengekom om hom dood te maak. 19Hulle het naamlik vir mekaar gesê: Kyk, daar kom die ou dromer aan. 20Kom ons maak hom dood en gooi hom in 'n put. Ons kan sê 'n roofdier het hom opgevreet. Dan sal ons sien wat word van sy drome. 21Ruben het hulle hoor praat en omdat hy vir Josef wou red, het Ruben gesê: Nee, ons moet hom nie doodmaak nie. 22Moenie moord pleeg nie. Gooi hom liewer in hierdie put hier in die veld. Moenie sy lewe neem nie.

Ruben het dit gesê sodat hy vir Josef kon red en hom na sy pa toe kon terugstuur. 23Josef het skaars by sy broers aangekom of hulle trek sy klere uit, die lang klere met moue wat hy aangehad het, 24en vat hom en gooi hom in die put. Dit was 'n droë put, sonder water. 25Daarna het hulle gaan sit en eet, en toe hulle weer sien, kom daar 'n klomp Ismaelitiese handelaars uit Gilead aan. Hulle was op pad na Egipte toe en op hulle kamele was daar gom, balsem en hars gelaai. 26Toe sê Juda vir sy broers: Watter nut het dit vir ons om ons broer dood te maak en dit dig te hou? 27Kom ons verkoop hom aan die Ismaeliete. Ons moenie sy lewe neem nie, hy is ons broer, hy is bloedfamilie. Juda se broers het na hom geluister, 28en toe daar van die Midianitiese handelaars verbykom, het die broers vir Josef uit die put uit opgetrek en vir twintig stukke silwer aan die Ismaeliete verkoop en dié het hom Egipte toe gevat. 29Toe Ruben terugkom by die put, was Josef nie daar nie. Ruben het sy klere geskeur 30en teruggegaan na sy broers toe en vir hulle gesê: Die kind is weg! Wat moet ek nou doen? 31Maar sy broers het 'n boklam geslag en die klere van Josef gevat en in die bloed gedoop. 32Toe stuur hulle Josef se klere met 'n boodskap vir hulle pa: Ons het dit opgetel. Kyk of dit dalk u seun se klere is. 33Israel het dit herken en gesê: Dit is my seun se klere. 'n Roofdier het hom opgevreet. Josef is opgevreet! 34Jakob het sy klere geskeur en rouklere aangetrek. Hy het lank oor sy seun getreur. 35Al sy kinders het vir Jakob probeer troos, maar hy wou hom nie laat troos nie. Hy het gesê: Ek sal bly treur oor my seun tot ek by hom in die dood is. So het Josef se pa bly treur oor hom. 36Die Midianiete het vir Josef in Egipte verkoop aan Potifar. Hy was aan die farao se paleis verbonde as hoof van die lyfwag.

Judah and Tamar

Gen 38:1 About that time Judah left his brothers and went to stay with a man named Hirah, who was from the town of Adullam.

Gen 38:2 There Judah met a young Canaanite woman whose father was named Shua. He married her,

Gen 38:3 and she bore him a son, whom he named Er.

Gen 38:4 She became pregnant again and bore another son and named him Onan.

Gen 38:5 Again she had a son and named him Shelah. Judah was at Achzib when the boy was born.

Gen 38:6 For his first son Er, Judah got a wife whose name was Tamar.

Gen 38:7 Er's conduct was evil, and it displeased the LORD, so the LORD killed him.

Gen 38:8 Then Judah said to Er's brother Onan, "Go and sleep with your brother's widow. Fulfill your obligation to her as her husband's brother, so that your brother may have descendants."

Gen 38:9 But Onan knew that the children would not belong to him, so when he had intercourse with his brother's widow, he let the semen spill on the ground, so that there would be no children for his brother.

Gen 38:10 What he did displeased the LORD, and the LORD killed him also.

Gen 38:11 Then Judah said to his daughter-in-law Tamar, "Return to your father's house and remain a widow until my son Shelah grows up." He said this because he was afraid that Shelah would be killed, as his brothers had been. So Tamar went back home.

Gen 38:12 After some time Judah's wife died. When he had finished the time of mourning, he and his friend Hirah of Adullam went to Timnah, where his sheep were being sheared.

Gen 38:13 Someone told Tamar that her father-in-law was going to Timnah to shear his sheep.

Gen 38:14 So she changed from the widow's clothes she had been wearing, covered her face with a veil, and sat down at the entrance to Enaim, a town on the road to Timnah. As she well knew, Judah's youngest son Shelah was now grown up, and yet she had not been given to him in marriage.

Gen 38:15 When Judah saw her, he thought that she was a prostitute, because she had her face covered.

Gen 38:16 He went over to her at the side of the road and said, "All right, how much do you charge?" (He did not know that she was his daughter-in-law.) She said, "What will you give me?"

Gen 38:17 He answered, "I will send you a young goat from my flock." She said, "All right, if you will give me something to keep as a pledge until you send the goat."

Gen 38:18 "What shall I give you as a pledge?" he asked. She answered, "Your seal with its cord and the walking stick you are carrying." He gave them to her. Then they had intercourse, and she became pregnant.

Gen 38:19 Tamar went home, took off her veil, and put her widow's clothes back on.

Gen 38:20 Judah sent his friend Hirah to take the goat and get back from the woman the articles he had pledged, but Hirah could not find her.

Gen 38:21 He asked some men at Enaim, "Where is the prostitute who was here by the road?" "There has never been a prostitute here," they answered.

Gen 38:22 He returned to Judah and said, "I couldn't find her. The men of the place said that there had never been a prostitute there."

Gen 38:23 Judah said, "Let her keep the things. We don't want people to laugh at us. I did try to pay her, but you couldn't find her."

Gen 38:24 About three months later someone told Judah, "Your daughter-in-law Tamar has been acting like a whore, and now she is pregnant." Judah ordered, "Take her out and burn her to death."

Gen 38:25 As she was being taken out, she sent word to her father-in-law: "I am pregnant by the man who owns these things. Look at them and see whose they are—this seal with its cord and this walking stick."

Gen 38:26 Judah recognized them and said, "She is in the right. I have failed in my obligation to her—I should have given her to my son Shelah in marriage." And Judah never had intercourse with her again.

Gen 38:27 When the time came for her to give birth, it was discovered that she was going to have twins.

Gen 38:28 While she was in labor, one of them put out an arm; the midwife caught it, tied a red thread around it, and said, "This one was born first."

Gen 38:29 But he pulled his arm back, and his brother was born first. Then the midwife said, "So this is how you break your way out!" So he was named Perez.

Gen 38:30 Then his brother was born with the red thread on his arm, and he was named Zerah.

GENESIS 38

1Destyds het Juda weggetrek van sy broers af, in die rigting van Adullam waar hy by 'n man met die naam Gira uitgekom het. 2Daar het Juda vir Bat-Sua, 'n Kanaänitiese meisie, raakgeloop en met haar getrou. Hy het met haar gemeenskap gehad, 3en sy het swanger geword en 'n seun in die wêreld gebring. Juda het hom Er genoem. 4Sy het weer swanger geword en nog 'n seun in die wêreld gebring en hom Onan genoem. 5Toe Juda in Kesib was, het sy weer 'n seun in die wêreld gebring en hom Sela genoem. 6Juda het sy oudste seun Er laat trou met Tamar. 7Maar Er, Juda se oudste, was in die oë van die Here 'n slegte man, en die Here het hom laat sterf. 8Toe sê Juda vir Onan: Gaan na jou broer se weduwee toe, jou skoonsuster, en trou met haar, en sorg dat daar kinders gebore word vir jou broer. 9Onan het geweet dat die kinders wat gebore sou word, nie as syne beskou sou word nie, en daarom het hy elke keer as hy met die weduwee van sy broer gemeenskap gehad het, gesorg dat sy saad op die grond kom. Hy wou nie dat daar kinders vir sy broer gebore word nie. 10Maar wat Onan gedoen het, was verkeerd in die oë van die Here, en Hy het ook vir hom laat sterf. 11Toe sê Juda vir sy skoondogter Tamar: Gaan terug na jou pa se huis toe en bly daar 'n weduwee totdat my seun Sela groot is. Maar Juda het eintlik gedink: netnou sterf hý ook soos sy broers. Tamar is toe weg en sy het in haar pa se huis gebly. 12'n Lang ruk hierna het Juda se vrou Bat-Sua gesterf. Nadat hy oor haar gerou het, is hy na Timna toe om sy kleinvee te laat skeer. Sy vriend Gira van Adullam is saam. 13Daar is aan Tamar vertel dat haar skoonpa na Timna toe gaan om sy kleinvee te laat skeer. 14Ondertussen het sy gemerk dat Sela al groot is, maar dat sy nog nie vir hom as vrou gegee is nie. Sy het toe haar rouklere tuis gelaat, haar gesig met 'n sluier toegemaak, haar vermom en by die poort van Enajim langs die Timnapad gaan sit. 15Juda het haar gesien en gedink sy is 'n prostituut. Haar gesig was mos toegemaak. 16Hy het na haar toe uitgedraai en vir haar gesê: Kom! Ek wil met jou gemeenskap hê! Hy het nie besef dat dit sy skoondogter is nie. Toe vra sy vir hom: Wat sal jy my daarvoor betaal? 17Hy het geantwoord: Ek sal vir jou 'n boklam uit my kudde stuur, maar sy sê: Dan moet jy my solank 'n pand gee. 18Toe vra hy: Wat se pand kan ek jou gee? Sy het geantwoord: Jou seëlring met die ketting en jou kierie. Hy het dit vir haar gegee en met haar gemeenskap gehad en sy het swanger geword. 19Sy is toe terug huis toe waar sy haar sluier afgehaal en weer haar rouklere aangetrek het. 20Juda het sy vriend, Gira van Adullam, gestuur met die boklam om die pand by haar te gaan haal, maar hy kon haar nie opspoor nie. 21Hy het navraag gedoen by die mense van die plek waar sy gesit het.

Hy het gevra: Waar is daardie tempelprostituut wat by Enajim langs die pad was? Hulle het hom geantwoord: Hier by ons is nie 'n tempelprostituut nie. 22Hy is toe terug en het vir Juda gesê: Ek kon haar nie kry nie. En die mense van daardie plek sê self ook daar is nie 'n tempelprostituut by hulle nie. 23Toe sê Juda: Laat sy die goed hou. Netnou maak ek nog 'n gek van my. Ek sou die boklam stuur, maar jy kon die vrou nie kry nie. 24Drie maande later is aan Juda vertel: Jou skoondogter Tamar het haar soos 'n prostituut gedra en is swanger. Toe sê hy: Bring haar uit dat sy kan verbrand word. 25Maar toe hulle haar wou gaan haal, stuur sy 'n boodskap na haar skoonpa toe: Die man aan wie hierdie goed behoort ek het by hom swanger geword. Stel vas aan wie hierdie seëlring met die ketting en die kierie behoort. 26Juda het dit herken en gesê: Sy is onskuldig, ek nie! Ek moes my seun Sela aan haar as man gegee het. Juda het nooit weer met haar gemeenskap gehad nie. 27Toe die tyd van haar bevalling aanbreek, het dit geblyk dat sy 'n tweeling verwag. 28Toe die geboorte begin, het een van die twee sy hand uitgesteek en die vroedvrou het dit gegryp en 'n stukkie rooi garing daarom gebind. Sy het gesê: Hierdie een is eerste. 29Maar toe trek hy sy hand terug en sy broertjie kom. Toe sê sy: Jy het met krag vorentoe gekom. Hy is toe Peres genoem. 30Daarna het die broertjie gekom om wie se hand die rooi garing was, en hy is Serag genoem.

Joseph and Potiphar's Wife

Gen 39:1 Now the Ishmaelites had taken Joseph to Egypt and sold him to Potiphar, one of the king's officers, who was the captain of the palace guard.

Gen 39:2 The LORD was with Joseph and made him successful. He lived in the house of his Egyptian master,

Gen 39:3 who saw that the LORD was with Joseph and had made him successful in everything he did.

Gen 39:4 Potiphar was pleased with him and made him his personal servant; so he put him in charge of his house and everything he owned.

Gen 39:5 From then on, because of Joseph the LORD blessed the household of the Egyptian and everything that he had in his house and in his fields.

Gen 39:6 Potiphar turned over everything he had to the care of Joseph and did not concern himself with anything except the food he ate. Joseph was well-built and good-looking,

Gen 39:7 and after a while his master's wife began to desire Joseph and asked him to go to bed with her.

Gen 39:8 He refused and said to her, "Look, my master does not have to concern himself with anything in the house, because I am here. He has put me in charge of everything he has.

Gen 39:9 I have as much authority in this house as he has, and he has not kept back anything from me except you. How then could I do such an immoral thing and sin against God?"

Gen 39:10 Although she asked Joseph day after day, he would not go to bed with her.

Gen 39:11 But one day when Joseph went into the house to do his work, none of the house servants was there.

Gen 39:12 She caught him by his robe and said, "Come to bed with me." But he escaped and ran outside, leaving his robe in her hand.

Gen 39:13 When she saw that he had left his robe and had run out of the house,

Gen 39:14 she called to her house servants and said, "Look at this! This Hebrew that my husband brought to the house is insulting us. He came into my room and tried to rape me, but I screamed as loud as I could.

Gen 39:15 When he heard me scream, he ran outside, leaving his robe beside me."

Gen 39:16 She kept his robe with her until Joseph's master came home.

Gen 39:17 Then she told him the same story: "That Hebrew slave that you brought here came into my room and insulted me.

Gen 39:18 But when I screamed, he ran outside, leaving his robe beside me."

Gen 39:19 Joseph's master was furious

Gen 39:20 and had Joseph arrested and put in the prison where the king's prisoners were kept, and there he stayed.

Gen 39:21 But the LORD was with Joseph and blessed him, so that the jailer was pleased with him.

Gen 39:22 He put Joseph in charge of all the other prisoners and made him responsible for everything that was done in the prison.

Gen 39:23 The jailer did not have to look after anything for which Joseph was responsible, because the LORD was with Joseph and made him succeed in everything he did.

GENESIS 39

1Josef is na Egipte toe gebring. Potifar, 'n amptenaar van die farao en hoof van die lyfwag, 'n Egiptenaar van geboorte, het vir Josef by die Ismaeliete gekoop wat hom Egipte toe gevat het. 2Die Here was by Josef en dit het baie goed gegaan met hom. Hy het in die huis van sy eienaar, die Egiptenaar, gebly. 3Toe Potifar, Josef se eienaar, sien dat die Here by Josef is en dat die Here alles wat Josef aanpak, laat slaag, 4was Potifar hom goedgesind. Hy het Potifar se persoonlike slaaf geword en Potifar het hom aangestel oor sy hele huishouding, en al sy besittings is onder Josef se sorg geplaas. 5Van toe af het die Here die huis van die Egiptenaar geseën. Dit was oor Josef dat die Here dit gedoen het. Die seën van die Here het gerus op al Potifar se besittings, dié in sy huis en dié in die veld. 6Hy het alles aan Josef oorgelaat en hom aan niks gesteur nie, behalwe aan sy kos. Josef was fris gebou en mooi. 7Na sy bevordering in sy eienaar se huis het dié se vrou na Josef gekyk en vir hom gesê: Kom slaap by my. 8Maar hy wou nie en hy het vir sy eienaar se vrou gesê: Meneer steur hom aan niks vandat ek hier is nie. Wat hy besit, het hy onder my sorg geplaas. 9Daar is niemand wat in hierdie huis meer gesag het as ek nie. Meneer het niks van my teruggehou nie, behalwe vir u, want u is sy vrou. Hoe kan ek so 'n verkeerde ding doen? Ek sal mos teen God sondig! 10Sy het dag vir dag by Josef aangehou, maar hy het bly weier om by haar te gaan slaap. 11Op 'n dag toe Josef in die huis ingaan om sy werk te doen, was daar niemand van die ander slawe in die huis nie. 12Toe gryp Potifar se vrou hom aan sy klere en sê: Kom lê by my. Maar Josef het buitentoe gevlug, terwyl sy 'n stuk van sy klere in haar hand bly hou. 13Toe sy sien dat hy buitentoe gevlug het terwyl sy 'n stuk van sy klere in haar hand bly hou, 14roep sy die ander slawe van haar huis en sê vir hulle: Kyk, Meneer het hierdie Hebreër na ons toe gebring om ons te kom verneder. Hy wou by my kom slaap, maar toe ek hard begin skree 15en hy hoor hoe hard ek aanhou roep, het hy buitentoe gevlug en hierdie stuk klere by my gelos. 16Sy het die stuk klere by haar gehou tot Josef se eienaar huis toe gekom het. 17Sy het alles vir hom vertel en vir hom gesê: Die Hebreeuse slaaf wat jy hier by ons ingebring het, het by my kom aanlê, 18maar toe ek hard aanhou roep, het hy buitentoe gevlug en hierdie stuk klere by my gelos. 19Toe Josef se eienaar by sy vrou hoor wat sy slaaf alles aan haar gedoen het, was hy kwaad, 20en het hy vir Josef gevat en in die tronk gegooi waarin die mense was wat deur die koning gevange gehou is. Terwyl Josef daar in die tronk was, 21was die Here by hom, en Hy het Josef sy troue liefde laat ondervind, sodat die tronkbewaarder hom goedgesind geword het. 22Hy het vir Josef in beheer geplaas van al die gevangenes in die tronk en van wat hulle moes doen. Josef was vir alles verantwoordelik, [23]en die tronkbewaarder het nie meer na iets omgesien nie; alles was in Josef se hande, want die Here was by hom. Wat Josef ook al aangepak het, die Here het dit laat slaag.

Genesis 40

Joseph Interprets Two Prisoners' Dreams

Gen 40:1 Some time later the king of Egypt's wine steward and his chief baker offended the king.

Gen 40:2 He was angry with these two officials

Gen 40:3 and put them in prison in the house of the captain of the guard, in the same place where Joseph was being kept.

Gen 40:4 They spent a long time in prison, and the captain assigned Joseph as their servant.

Gen 40:5 One night there in prison the wine steward and the chief baker each had a dream, and the dreams had different meanings.

Gen 40:6 When Joseph came to them in the morning, he saw that they were upset.

Gen 40:7 He asked them, "Why do you look so worried today?"

Gen 40:8 They answered, "Each of us had a dream, and there is no one here to explain what the dreams mean." "It is God who gives the ability to interpret dreams," Joseph said. "Tell me your dreams."

Gen 40:9 So the wine steward said, "In my dream there was a grapevine in front of me

Gen 40:10 with three branches on it. As soon as the leaves came out, the blossoms appeared, and the grapes ripened.

Gen 40:11 I was holding the king's cup; so I took the grapes and squeezed them into the cup and gave it to him."

Gen 40:12 Joseph said, "This is what it means: the three branches are three days.

Gen 40:13 In three days the king will release you, pardon you, and restore you to your position. You will give him his cup as you did before when you were his wine steward.

Gen 40:14 But please remember me when everything is going well for you, and please be kind enough to mention me to the king and help me get out of this prison.

Gen 40:15 After all, I was kidnapped from the land of the Hebrews, and even here in Egypt I didn't do anything to deserve being put in prison."

Gen 40:16 When the chief baker saw that the interpretation of the wine steward's dream was favorable, he said to Joseph, "I had a dream too; I was carrying three breadbaskets on my head.

Gen 40:17 In the top basket there were all kinds of baked goods for the king, and the birds were eating them."

Gen 40:18 Joseph answered, "This is what it means: the three baskets are three days.

Gen 40:19 In three days the king will release you—and have your head cut off! Then he will hang your body on a pole, and the birds will eat your flesh."

Gen 40:20 On his birthday three days later the king gave a banquet for all his officials; he released his wine steward and his chief baker and brought them before his officials.

Gen 40:21 He restored the wine steward to his former position,

Gen 40:22 but he executed the chief baker. It all happened just as Joseph had said.

Gen 40:23 But the wine steward never gave Joseph another thought —he forgot all about him.

GENESIS 40

1'n Ruk nadat Josef in die tronk gesit is, het 'n skinker en 'n bakker van Egipte se koning verkeerd opgetree teenoor hulle koning. 2Die farao het kwaad geword vir sy twee amptenare, die hoof van die skinkers en die hoof van die bakkers. 3Hy het hulle in dieselfde tronk laat sit waarin Josef opgesluit was, in die gebou van die koninklike lyfwag. 4Die hoof van die lyfwag het Josef vir hulle beskikbaar gestel: hy moes hulle bedien. Toe hulle al lank in die tronk was, 5het die twee een nag gedroom. Die skinker en die bakker van die koning van Egipte het daar waar hulle in die tronk opgesluit was, elkeen sy eie droom gehad met sy eie uitleg. 6Josef het die volgende môre by hulle gekom en opgemerk dat hulle bedruk was. 7Hy het vir die twee wat saam met hom in die tronk was, die amptenare van die farao, gevra: Waarom lyk julle vandag so bedruk? 8Hulle het hom geantwoord: Ons het elkeen 'n droom gehad en ons weet nie wat dit beteken nie. Toe sê Josef vir hulle: God ken julle drome se uitleg. Vertel die drome vir my. 9Die hoof van die skinkers het sy droom vir Josef vertel. Die skinker het gesê: In my droom het ek 'n wingerdstok voor my gesien, 10en aan die wingerdstok was daar drie lote. Dit het kwalik gebot of daar was al blomme, en toe is die trosse druiwe ryp. 11Ek het die farao se beker in my hand gehad en ek het die druiwe gepluk en daarin uitgedruk. Toe gee ek die beker vir die farao. 12Josef het vir die skinker gesê: Dit is die uitleg: die drie lote is drie dae. 13Oor drie dae sal die farao aan jou aandag gee en jou in jou amp herstel. Jy sal weer vir die farao sy beker aangee soos vroeër toe jy sy skinker was. 14Maar wanneer dit goed gaan met jou, moet jy aan my dink en moet jy my 'n guns bewys. Jy moet my saak vir hom stel en sorg dat ek uit hierdie plek uitkom. 15Ek is uit die land van die Hebreërs gesteel en ook hier het ek niks gedoen waaroor hulle my in hierdie gat kon gooi nie. 16Toe die hoof van die bakkers die gunstige uitleg hoor wat Josef gegee het, sê hy vir hom: En nou ek! In my droom was daar drie mandjies met brood op my kop. 17In die boonste mandjie was daar 'n geurige baksel vir die farao. Maar die voëls het dit so uit die mandjie uit op my kop kom opvreet. 18Josef het vir die bakker gesê: Dit is die uitleg: die drie mandjies is drie dae. 19Oor drie dae sal die farao aan jou aandag gee, maar vir jóú sal hy aan 'n paal laat ophang en die voëls sal jou vleis van jou afvreet. 20Drie dae later was dit die farao se verjaarsdag en hy het al sy amptenare op 'n groot ete onthaal. Daar voor sy amptenare het hy aandag gegee aan die saak van die skinker en die bakker. 21Hy het die hoof van die skinkers in sy amp as skinker herstel, en die skinker het weer vir die farao sy beker aangegee, 22maar hy het die hoof van die bakkers laat ophang. Dit alles het gebeur soos Josef vir die twee hulle drome uitgelê het. [23]Maar die hoof van die skinkers het nie aan Josef gedink nie, hy het van Josef vergeet.

Genesis 41

Joseph Interprets Pharaoh's Dreams

Gen 41:1 After two years had passed, the king of Egypt dreamed that he was standing by the Nile River,

Gen 41:2 when seven cows, fat and sleek, came up out of the river and began to feed on the grass.

Gen 41:3 Then seven other cows came up; they were thin and bony. They came and stood by the other cows on the riverbank,

Gen 41:4 and the thin cows ate up the fat cows. Then the king woke up.

Gen 41:5 He fell asleep again and had another dream. Seven heads of grain, full and ripe, were growing on one stalk.

Gen 41:6 Then seven other heads of grain sprouted, thin and scorched by the desert wind,

Gen 41:7 and the thin heads of grain swallowed the full ones. The king woke up and realized that he had been dreaming.

Gen 41:8 In the morning he was worried, so he sent for all the magicians and wise men of Egypt. He told them his dreams, but no one could explain them to him.

Gen 41:9 Then the wine steward said to the king, "I must confess today that I have done wrong.

Gen 41:10 You were angry with the chief baker and me, and you put us in prison in the house of the captain of the guard.

Gen 41:11 One night each of us had a dream, and the dreams had different meanings.

Gen 41:12 A young Hebrew was there with us, a slave of the captain of the guard. We told him our dreams, and he interpreted them for us.

Gen 41:13 Things turned out just as he said: you restored me to my position, but you executed the baker."

Gen 41:14 The king sent for Joseph, and he was immediately brought from the prison. After he had shaved and changed his clothes, he came into the king's presence.

Gen 41:15 The king said to him, "I have had a dream, and no one can explain it. I have been told that you can interpret dreams."

Gen 41:16 Joseph answered, "I cannot, Your Majesty, but God will give a favorable interpretation."

Gen 41:17 The king said, "I dreamed that I was standing on the bank of the Nile,

Gen 41:18 when seven cows, fat and sleek, came up out of the river and began feeding on the grass.

Gen 41:19 Then seven other cows came up which were thin and bony. They were the poorest cows I have ever seen anywhere in Egypt.

Gen 41:20 The thin cows ate up the fat ones,

Gen 41:21 but no one would have known it, because they looked just as bad as before. Then I woke up.

Gen 41:22 I also dreamed that I saw seven heads of grain which were full and ripe, growing on one stalk.

Gen 41:23 Then seven heads of grain sprouted, thin and scorched by the desert wind,

Gen 41:24 and the thin heads of grain swallowed the full ones. I told the dreams to the magicians, but none of them could explain them to me."

Gen 41:25 Joseph said to the king, "The two dreams mean the same thing; God has told you what he is going to do.

Gen 41:26 The seven fat cows are seven years, and the seven full heads of grain are also seven years; they have the same meaning.

Gen 41:27 The seven thin cows which came up later and the seven thin heads of grain scorched by the desert wind are seven years of famine.

Gen 41:28 It is just as I told you—God has shown you what he is going to do.

Gen 41:29 There will be seven years of great plenty in all the land of Egypt.

Gen 41:30 After that, there will be seven years of famine, and all the good years will be forgotten, because the famine will ruin the country.

Gen 41:31 The time of plenty will be entirely forgotten, because the famine which follows will be so terrible.

Gen 41:32 The repetition of your dream means that the matter is fixed by God and that he will make it happen in the near future.

Gen 41:33 "Now you should choose some man with wisdom and insight and put him in charge of the country.

Gen 41:34 You must also appoint other officials and take a fifth of the crops during the seven years of plenty.

Gen 41:35 Order them to collect all the food during the good years that are coming, and give them authority to store up grain in the cities and guard it.

Gen 41:36 The food will be a reserve supply for the country during the seven years of famine which are going to come on Egypt. In this way the people will not starve."

Joseph Rises to Power

Gen 41:37 The king and his officials approved this plan,

Gen 41:38 and he said to them, "We will never find a better man than Joseph, a man who has God's spirit in him."

Gen 41:39 The king said to Joseph, "God has shown you all this, so it is obvious that you have greater wisdom and insight than anyone else.

Gen 41:40 I will put you in charge of my country, and all my people will obey your orders. Your authority will be second only to mine.

Gen 41:41 I now appoint you governor over all Egypt."

Gen 41:42 The king removed from his finger the ring engraved with the royal seal and put it on Joseph's finger. He put a fine linen robe on him, and placed a gold chain around his neck.

Gen 41:43 He gave him the second royal chariot to ride in, and his guard of honor went ahead of him and cried out, "Make way! Make way!" And so Joseph was appointed governor over all Egypt.

Gen 41:44 The king said to him, "I am the king—and no one in all Egypt shall so much as lift a hand or a foot without your permission."

Gen 41:45 (45-46) He gave Joseph the Egyptian name Zaphenath Paneah, and he gave him a wife, Asenath, the daughter of Potiphera, a priest in the city of Heliopolis. Joseph was thirty years old when he began to serve the king of Egypt. He left the king's court and traveled all over the land.

Gen 41:47 During the seven years of plenty the land produced abundant crops,

Gen 41:48 all of which Joseph collected and stored in the cities. In each city he stored the food from the fields around it.

Gen 41:49 There was so much grain that Joseph stopped measuring it —it was like the sand of the sea.

Gen 41:50 Before the years of famine came, Joseph had two sons by Asenath.

Gen 41:51 He said, "God has made me forget all my sufferings and all my father's family"; so he named his first son Manasseh.

Gen 41:52 He also said, "God has given me children in the land of my trouble"; so he named his second son Ephraim.

Gen 41:53 The seven years of plenty that the land of Egypt had enjoyed came to an end,

Gen 41:54 and the seven years of famine began, just as Joseph had said. There was famine in every other country, but there was food throughout Egypt.

Gen 41:55 When the Egyptians began to be hungry, they cried out to the king for food. So he ordered them to go to Joseph and do what he told them.

Gen 41:56 The famine grew worse and spread over the whole country, so Joseph opened all the storehouses and sold grain to the Egyptians.

Gen 41:57 People came to Egypt from all over the world to buy grain from Joseph, because the famine was severe everywhere.

GENESIS 41

1Twee jaar later het die farao 'n droom gehad. Hy het gedroom hy staan langs die Nyl. 2Uit die rivier kom daar toe sewe mooi vet koeie uit en hulle gaan wei in die vleigras. 3Na hulle kom daar toe sewe ander koeie uit die rivier uit. Hulle was lelik en maer en het langs die ander koeie op die rivierwal gaan staan. 4Toe vreet die lelike maer koeie die sewe mooi vettes op. Daarna het die farao wakker geskrik. 5Hy het weer aan die slaap geraak en weer gedroom. Hy het gesien hoe sewe mooi vol are opskiet aan een stingel. 6Ná hulle kom daar toe sewe skraal are uit wat verskroei is deur die oostewind. 7Die skraal are sluk toe die sewe vol vet are in. Daarna het die farao wakker geskrik, en hy het besef hy het gedroom. 8Die môre was die farao onrustig oor die drome. Hy het al die waarsêers van Egipte en ook die raadgewers almal laat roep en vir hulle sy droom vertel. Maar niemand kon dit vir hom uitlê nie. 9Toe sê die hoof van die skinkers vir die farao: Vandag moet ek u herinner aan die verkeerde ding wat ek vroeër gedoen het. 10U het toe kwaad geword vir u dienaars, vir my en vir die hoof van die bakkers, en u het ons laat opsluit in die tronk in die huis van die hoof van u lyfwag. 11Daar het ons in een en dieselfde nag 'n droom gehad, elkeen sy eie droom met sy eie uitleg. 12Saam met ons was 'n Hebreeuse jongman, 'n slaaf van die hoof van die lyfwag. Ons het toe ons drome vir hom vertel, en hy het dit vir ons uitgelê. Hy het dit uitgelê volgens elkeen se droom. 13Soos hy dit vir ons uitgelê het, het dit daarna gebeur: vir my het hy in my amp laat herstel en die bakker het hy laat ophang. 14Toe het die farao vir Josef laat roep en hulle het hom gou uit die tronk gehaal. Nadat hulle hom geskeer en ander klere aangetrek het, is hy na die farao toe. 15Die farao het vir Josef gesê: Ek het 'n droom gehad, maar daar is niemand wat dit kan uitlê nie. Toe het ek van jou gehoor: jy lê 'n droom uit as jy hom hoor. 16Josef het vir die farao gesê: Nie ek nie! God gee dié goeie antwoord vir u. 17Toe sê die farao vir Josef: In my droom het ek op die wal van die Nyl gestaan. 18Toe kom daar sewe mooi vet koeie uit die rivier uit en hulle gaan wei in die vleigras. 19Ná hulle kom daar toe sewe ander koeie uit die rivier uit. Hulle was lelik en maer. Ek het nog nooit sulke lelike diere in Egipte gesien nie. 20Toe vreet die lelike maer koeie die eerste sewe, die vettes, op. 21Nadat hulle ingesluk was, kon jy dit nie aan die maeres merk nie: hulle het nog net so sleg gelyk as aan die begin. Toe het ek wakker geskrik. 22Ek het daarna in 'n droom gesien: sewe mooi vol are het opgeskiet aan een stingel. 23Na hulle kom daar toe sewe droë, skraal are uit wat verskroei is deur die oostewind. 24Die skraal are sluk toe die sewe mooi are in. Ek het dit vir die waarsêers vertel, maar niemand kon my iets sê nie. 25Toe sê Josef vir die farao: U het maar net een droom gehad. Wat God wil doen, het Hy aan u meegedeel. 26Die sewe mooi koeie is sewe jaar en die sewe mooi are is sewe jaar. Dit is maar een en dieselfde droom. 27Die sewe maer, lelike koeie wat daarna uit die rivier gekom het, en die sewe skraal are wat deur die oostewind verskroei is, is ook sewe jaar, sewe jaar hongersnood. 28Dit is wat ek bedoel het toe ek vir u gesê het dat God u laat sien het wat Hy wil doen. 29Daar sal in die hele Egipte sewe jaar groot oorvloed kom. 30Dan breek daar sewe jaar hongersnood aan. Die mense sal die voorspoed wat daar in die hele Egipte was, vergeet en die hongersnood sal die land op sy knieë bring. 31Die hongersnood sal so straf wees dat 'n mens later niks meer van die oorvloed sal merk nie. 32Die droom het twee keer na u toe gekom omdat die saak vas staan by God. Hy sal dit binnekort uitvoer. 33Ek beveel aan dat u 'n verstandige en wyse man kies en hom in beheer plaas van die hele Egipte. 34Die farao moet dit doen: u moet beamptes vir die hele land aanstel en die land tydens die sewe jaar van oorvloed behoorlik organiseer. 35Hulle moet al die graan van die goeie jare wat aan die kom is, insamel en dit in graanskure bêre en bewaak sodat daar kos tot u beskikking is. 36Die graan moet vir die land in reserwe gehou word, dit moet vir die sewe jaar van hongersnood beskikbaar wees in Egipte. Dan sal die hongersnood nie die land uitroei nie. 37Die farao en al sy amptenare het Josef se raad goedgevind. 38Toe sê die farao vir sy amptenare: Waar kry ons so iemand, 'n man met die verstand van 'n god? 39Die farao het daarop vir Josef gesê: God het jou dit alles bekend gemaak. Daaruit is dit duidelik dat niemand soveel verstand en wysheid as jy het nie. 40Ek stel jou aan oor my paleis. My volk moet jou gehoorsaam. Net ek sal meer mag hê as jy. 41Die farao het verder nog vir Josef gesê: Kyk, ek stel jou aan oor die hele Egipte. 42Toe haal die farao sy seëlring af en steek dit aan Josef se vinger. Die farao het vir Josef linneklere laat aantrek en 'n goue ketting om sy nek gehang 43en hom laat ry op die tweede beste wa van die farao. Daar is voor Josef uitgeroep: Betoon hom eer! So is Josef oor die hele Egipte aangestel. 44Toe het die farao vir Josef gesê: Ek bly die farao, maar sonder jou toestemming mag niemand in Egipte 'n vinger verroer of 'n voet versit nie. 45Die farao het Josef Safenat-Paneag genoem en vir hom Asenat, dogter van Poti-Fera priester van On, as vrou gegee. Josef was dertig jaar oud toe hy in die diens van die farao die koning van Egipte getree het. Josef is van die farao af weg en het die land deurgegaan, die hele Egipte. 46Tydens die sewe jaar van oorvloed het die land 'n buitengewone groot oes gegee, 47en Josef het al die graan wat daar in hierdie jare in Egipte was, bymekaargebring en in graanskure gebêre: in elke stad is die graan uit die lande van daardie omgewing gebêre. 48Josef het so baie koring bymekaargemaak dat dit net soveel was as die sand van die see. Hy het later opgehou om aan te teken hoeveel daar was, want dit was te veel om te tel. 49Reeds voor die jare van hongersnood begin het, is daar vir Josef twee seuns gebore. Sy vrou Asenat, dogter van Poti-Fera priester van On, het hulle vir Josef in die wêreld gebring. 50Hy het die oudste Manasse genoem, want, het hy gesê, God het my alles laat vergeet: al my swaarkry en alles wat my familie my aangedoen het. 51Josef het sy ander seun Efraim genoem, want, het hy gesê, God het my vrugbaar gemaak in die land waar ek verneder is. 52Na die sewe jaar voorspoed in Egipte 53het die sewe jaar hongersnood begin. So het Josef dit destyds aangekondig. In al die lande was daar hongersnood, maar in die hele Egipte was daar kos, 54want toe die hongersnood Egipte tref en die mense vir die farao kos vra, het hy vir al die Egiptenaars gesê: Gaan na Josef toe en doen wat hy sê. 55Oor die hele wêreld was daar hongersnood, en toe dit straf word in Egipte, het Josef die graanskure oopgesluit en wat daarin was, aan die Egiptenaars begin verkoop. 56En toe die hongersnood straf word in die ander lande, het die mense van die hele wêreld Egipte toe gekom om koring te koop by Josef.

Genesis 42

Joseph's Brothers Go to Egypt

Gen 42:1 When Jacob learned that there was grain in Egypt, he said to his sons, "Why don't you do something?

Gen 42:2 I hear that there is grain in Egypt; go there and buy some to keep us from starving to death."

Gen 42:3 So Joseph's ten half brothers went to buy grain in Egypt,

Gen 42:4 but Jacob did not send Joseph's full brother Benjamin with them, because he was afraid that something might happen to him.

Gen 42:5 The sons of Jacob came with others to buy grain, because there was famine in the land of Canaan.

Gen 42:6 Joseph, as governor of the land of Egypt, was selling grain to people from all over the world. So Joseph's brothers came and bowed down before him with their faces to the ground.

Gen 42:7 When Joseph saw his brothers, he recognized them, but he acted as if he did not know them. He asked them harshly, "Where do you come from?" "We have come from Canaan to buy food," they answered.

Gen 42:8 Although Joseph recognized his brothers, they did not recognize him.

Gen 42:9 He remembered the dreams he had dreamed about them and said, "You are spies; you have come to find out where our country is weak."

Gen 42:10 "No, sir," they answered. "We have come as your slaves, to buy food.

Gen 42:11 We are all brothers. We are not spies, sir, we are honest men."

Gen 42:12 Joseph said to them, "No! You have come to find out where our country is weak."

Gen 42:13 They said, "We were twelve brothers in all, sir, sons of the same man in the land of Canaan. One brother is dead, and the youngest is now with our father."

Gen 42:14 "It is just as I said," Joseph answered. "You are spies.

Gen 42:15 This is how you will be tested: I swear by the name of the king that you will never leave unless your youngest brother comes here.

Gen 42:16 One of you must go and get him. The rest of you will be kept under guard until the truth of what you say can be tested. Otherwise, as sure as the king lives, you are spies."

Gen 42:17 With that, he put them in prison for three days.

Gen 42:18 On the third day Joseph said to them, "I am a God-fearing man, and I will spare your lives on one condition.

Gen 42:19 To prove that you are honest, one of you will stay in the prison where you have been kept; the rest of you may go and take back to your starving families the grain that you have bought.

Gen 42:20 Then you must bring your youngest brother to me. This will prove that you have been telling the truth, and I will not put you to death." They agreed to this

Gen 42:21 and said to one another, "Yes, now we are suffering the consequences of what we did to our brother; we saw the great trouble he was in when he begged for help, but we would not listen. That is why we are in this trouble now."

Gen 42:22 Reuben said, "I told you not to harm the boy, but you wouldn't listen. And now we are being paid back for his death."

Gen 42:23 Joseph understood what they said, but they did not know it, because they had been speaking to him through an interpreter.

Gen 42:24 Joseph left them and began to cry. When he was able to speak again, he came back, picked out Simeon, and had him tied up in front of them.

Gen 42:25 Joseph gave orders to fill his brothers' packs with grain, to put each man's money back in his sack, and to give them food for the trip. This was done.

Gen 42:26 The brothers loaded their donkeys with the grain they had bought, and then they left.

Gen 42:27 At the place where they spent the night, one of them opened his sack to feed his donkey and found his money at the top of the sack.

Gen 42:28 "My money has been returned to me," he called to his brothers. "Here it is in my sack!" Their hearts sank, and in fear they asked one another, "What has God done to us?"

Gen 42:29 When they came to their father Jacob in Canaan, they told him all that had happened to them:

Gen 42:30 "The governor of Egypt spoke harshly to us and accused us of spying against his country.

Gen 42:31 'We are not spies,' we answered, 'we are honest men.

Gen 42:32 We were twelve brothers in all, sons of the same father. One brother is dead, and the youngest is still in Canaan with our father.'

Gen 42:33 The man answered, 'This is how I will find out if you are honest men: One of you will stay with me; the rest will take grain for your starving families and leave.

Gen 42:34 Bring your youngest brother to me. Then I will know that you are not spies, but honest men; I will give your brother back to you, and you can stay here and trade.' "

Gen 42:35 Then when they emptied out their sacks, every one of them found his bag of money; and when they saw the money, they and their father Jacob were afraid.

Gen 42:36 Their father said to them, "Do you want to make me lose all my children? Joseph is gone; Simeon is gone; and now you want to take away Benjamin. I am the one who suffers!"

Gen 42:37 Reuben said to his father, "If I do not bring Benjamin back to you, you can kill my two sons. Put him in my care, and I will bring him back."

Gen 42:38 But Jacob said, "My son cannot go with you; his brother is dead, and he is the only one left. Something might happen to him on the way. I am an old man, and the sorrow you would cause me would kill me."

GENESIS 42

1Toe Jakob verneem dat daar graan in Egipte is, sê hy vir sy seuns: Waarom sit julle vir mekaar en kyk? 2Hy het verder vir hulle gesê: Ek het gehoor daar is graan in Egipte. Gaan soontoe en koop daar vir ons koring dat ons aan die lewe kan bly, anders sterf ons. 3Tien broers van Josef is toe weg na Egipte toe om koring te gaan koop. 4Jakob het nie Josef se broer Benjamin saamgestuur nie, want, het hy gesê, netnou gebeur daar iets met hom! 5Die seuns van Israel het saam met ander mense gegaan wat ook koring in Egipte wou gaan koop omdat daar hongersnood was in die hele Kanaän. 6Josef was in beheer van Egipte en hy het self die graan aan die mense verkoop. Sy broers het dus na hom toe gegaan en diep voor hom gebuig. 7Toe hy sy broers sien, het hy hulle herken. Maar hy het hulle nie laat agterkom wie hy is nie. Hy het hulle bars aangespreek en gevra: Waarvandaan is julle? Hulle het hom geantwoord: Ons is van Kanaän. Ons kom koop graan. 8Josef het sy broers herken, maar hulle het hom nie herken nie. 9Hy het aan sy drome van vroeër gedink en vir hulle gesê: Julle is spioene. Julle het net kom kyk waar die land maklik ingeval kan word. 10Maar hulle het vir hom gesê: Nee, Meneer, ons is u onderdane. Ons het net kom graan koop. 11Ons almal het dieselfde pa. Ons is eerlike mense. Ons is nie spioene nie. 12Josef sê toe vir hulle: Dit is nie. Julle het net kom kyk waar die land maklik ingeval kan word. 13Hulle het geantwoord: Ons was twaalf broers. Ons het dieselfde pa, 'n man in Kanaän. Die jongste is nou nog by hom, en die een leef nie meer nie. 14Toe sê Josef vir hulle: Julle is wat ek vir julle gesê het, julle is spioene! 15Hieraan sal ek julle toets: So seker as die farao leef, julle sal nie hier weggaan voordat julle jongste broer hierheen gebring is nie. 16Stuur een van julle om hom te gaan haal. Julle ander sal gevange gehou word. So sal ek vasstel of julle die waarheid praat of nie. So seker as die farao leef: Julle is spioene. 17Josef het hulle drie dae lank aangehou 18en op die derde dag sê hy toe vir hulle: Ek dien God! Op hierdie voorwaarde kan julle bly lewe: 19as julle eerlike mense is, moet een van julle in die tronk agterbly. Julle ander moet dan graan wegbring vir julle honger huismense. 20Dan moet julle julle jongste broer na my toe bring. Dan sal ek julle glo, en julle sal nie sterf nie. Hulle het ingestem 21en vir mekaar gesê: Dit het ons nou van alles wat ons destyds ons broer aangedoen het. Ons het sy angs gesien toe hy ons om genade gesmeek het, maar ons het nie geluister nie. Nou sit ons met dieselfde angs. 22Toe sê Ruben vir hulle: Ek het julle mos gesê julle moet julle nie aan die kind vergryp nie. Maar julle wou nie luister nie, en daarom word sy dood nou op ons gewreek. 23Omdat Josef deur 'n tolk met hulle gepraat het, het hulle nie besef dat hy verstaan wat hulle sê nie.

24Josef het van hulle af weggegaan en gaan huil. Daarna het hy teruggekom na hulle toe en weer met hulle gepraat. Toe het hy vir Simeon gevat en hom voor hulle oë in die tronk gesit. 25Josef het opdrag gegee dat die broers se sakke vol koring gemaak moet word en dat elkeen se geld in die sakke teruggesit moet word. Daar moes ook padkos vir hulle gegee word. Alles is so gedoen vir hulle. 26Toe laai hulle die graan op hulle donkies en vertrek van daar af. 27Die aand toe een van die broers sy sak oopmaak om sy donkie te voer, sien hy die geld bo in die sak. 28Toe sê hy vir sy broers: Kom kyk hier! My geld is teruggesit in die sak. Hulle was radeloos, en doodgeskrik sê hulle vir mekaar: Wat het God ons nou aangedoen? 29Toe hulle by hulle pa Jakob in Kanaän aankom, het hulle alles wat met hulle gebeur het, vir hom vertel: 30Die man in bevel van daardie land het ons bars aangespreek en ons vir spioene gehou, 31maar ons het vir hom gesê dat ons eerlike mense is en nie spioene nie. 32Ons was twaalf broers en ons het dieselfde pa. Die een broer leef nie meer nie, en die jongste is by Pa in Kanaän. 33Maar die man in bevel van daardie land het vir ons gesê: Hieraan sal ek weet of julle eerlike mense is: een van julle moet hier by my bly. Julle ander moet die kos vir julle honger mense gaan wegbring. 34Bring dan julle jongste broer na my toe. Dan sal ek weet julle is nie spioene nie maar eerlike mense. Dan sal ek julle broer teruggee en mag julle vry rondbeweeg in die land. 35Toe die seuns hulle graansakke leegmaak, kry elkeen sy beursie met geld in sy sak. Toe hulle dit sien, was hulle en hulle pa baie bang, 36en het hy vir hulle gesê: Julle maak my kinderloos. Josef leef nie meer nie, Simeon is nie meer hier nie, en nou wil julle nog vir Benjamin ook wegvat! En ek ly daaronder. 37Maar Ruben het vir sy pa gesê: Pa kan albei my seuns om die lewe bring as ek nie vir Benjamin na Pa toe terugbring nie. Maak my verantwoordelik vir hom, en ek sal hom vir Pa terugbesorg. 38Jakob het net gesê: Sy broer is dood. My seun gaan nie saam met julle nie. Hy is al wat vir my oor is. As iets hom op die pad moet oorkom, sal ek deur julle toedoen in my ouderdom van verdriet sterf.

Joseph's Brothers Return to Egypt

Gen 43:1 The famine in Canaan got worse,

Gen 43:2 and when the family of Jacob had eaten all the grain which had been brought from Egypt, Jacob said to his sons, "Go back and buy a little food for us."

Gen 43:3 Judah said to him, "The man sternly warned us that we would not be admitted to his presence unless we had our brother with us.

Gen 43:4 If you are willing to send our brother with us, we will go and buy food for you.

Gen 43:5 If you are not willing, we will not go, because the man told us we would not be admitted to his presence unless our brother was with us."

Gen 43:6 Jacob said, "Why did you cause me so much trouble by telling the man that you had another brother?"

Gen 43:7 They answered, "The man kept asking about us and our family, 'Is your father still living? Do you have another brother?' We had to answer his questions. How could we know that he would tell us to bring our brother with us?"

Gen 43:8 Judah said to his father, "Send the boy with me, and we will leave at once. Then none of us will starve to death.

Gen 43:9 I will pledge my own life, and you can hold me responsible for him. If I do not bring him back to you safe and sound, I will always bear the blame.

Gen 43:10 If we had not waited so long, we could have been there and back twice by now."

Gen 43:11 Their father said to them, "If that is how it has to be, then take the best products of the land in your packs as a present for the governor: a little resin, a little honey, spices, pistachio nuts, and almonds.

Gen 43:12 Take with you also twice as much money, because you must take back the money that was returned in the top of your sacks. Maybe it was a mistake.

Gen 43:13 Take your brother and return at once.

Gen 43:14 May Almighty God cause the man to have pity on you, so that he will give Benjamin and your other brother back to you. As for me, if I must lose my children, I must lose them."

Gen 43:15 So the brothers took the gifts and twice as much money, and set out for Egypt with Benjamin. There they presented themselves to Joseph.

Gen 43:16 When Joseph saw Benjamin with them, he said to the servant in charge of his house, "Take these men to my house. They are going to eat with me at noon, so kill an animal and prepare it."

Gen 43:17 The servant did as he was commanded and took the brothers to Joseph's house.

Gen 43:18 As they were being brought to the house, they were afraid and thought, "We are being brought here because of the money that was returned in our sacks the first time. They will suddenly attack us, take our donkeys, and make us his slaves."

Gen 43:19 So at the door of the house, they said to the servant in charge,

Gen 43:20 "If you please, sir, we came here once before to buy food.

Gen 43:21 When we set up camp on the way home, we opened our sacks, and each man found his money in the top of his sack—every bit of it. We have brought it back to you.

Gen 43:22 We have also brought some more money with us to buy more food. We do not know who put our money back in our sacks."

Gen 43:23 The servant said, "Don't worry. Don't be afraid. Your God, the God of your father, must have put the money in your sacks for you. I received your payment." Then he brought Simeon to them.

Gen 43:24 The servant took the brothers into the house. He gave them water so that they could wash their feet, and he fed their donkeys.

Gen 43:25 They got their gifts ready to present to Joseph when he arrived at noon, because they had been told that they were to eat with him.

Gen 43:26 When Joseph got home, they took the gifts into the house to him and bowed down to the ground before him.

Gen 43:27 He asked about their health and then said, "You told me about your old father—how is he? Is he still alive and well?"

Gen 43:28 They answered, "Your humble servant, our father, is still alive and well." And they knelt and bowed down before him.

Gen 43:29 When Joseph saw his brother Benjamin, he said, "So this is your youngest brother, the one you told me about. God bless you, my son."

Gen 43:30 Then Joseph left suddenly, because his heart was full of tender feelings for his brother. He was about to break down, so he went to his room and cried.

Gen 43:31 After he had washed his face, he came out, and controlling himself, he ordered the meal to be served.

Gen 43:32 Joseph was served at one table and his brothers at another. The Egyptians who were eating there were served separately, because they considered it beneath their dignity to eat with Hebrews.

Gen 43:33 The brothers had been seated at the table, facing Joseph, in the order of their age from the oldest to the youngest. When they saw how they had been seated, they looked at one another in amazement.

Gen 43:34 Food was served to them from Joseph's table, and Benjamin was served five times as much as the rest of them. So they ate and drank with Joseph until they were drunk.

1Maar dit was 'n kwaai hongersnood, 2en toe die kos begin opraak wat die broers uit Egipte gebring het, sê hulle pa vir hulle: Julle moet maar weer vir ons 'n bietjie kos gaan koop. 3Juda het hom geantwoord: Daardie man het ons nadruklik gewaarsku en vir ons gesê: Julle kom nie weer hier by my sonder julle broer nie!' 4As Pa instem en ons broer saam met ons stuur, sal ons vir Pa gaan kos koop. 5Maar as Pa nie instem om hom saam te stuur nie, sal ons nie gaan nie, want daardie man het vir ons gesê ons kom nie weer by hom sonder ons broer nie. 6Toe sê Israel: Waarom het julle my hierdie onreg aangedoen en vir die man vertel julle het nog 'n broer! 7Hulle het gesê: Die man het ons uitgevra na ons familie. Hy het gevra: Leef julle pa nog? Het julle nog 'n broer?' Ons het net geantwoord op hierdie vrae van hom. Hoe moes ons weet hy sou sê: Bring julle broer hiernatoe'? 8Juda het vir sy pa Israel gesê: Stuur tog maar die kind saam met my sodat ons dadelik kan vertrek. Dan kan ons aan die lewe bly. So nie sterf Pa saam met ons en ons kinders. 9Ek waarborg hy sal terugkom. Pa kan hom van my eis. As ek hom nie vir Pa terugbring en hom hier voor Pa kom laat staan nie, sal ek vir altyd by Pa in die skuld wees. 10En as ons nie so getalm het nie, kon ons nou al twee keer terug gewees het. 11Toe sê hulle pa Israel vir hulle: Nou ja, as dit dan so is, moet julle dit maar doen. Vat van die beste wat ons land het saam in julle graansakke as 'n geskenk vir die man: 'n bietjie balsem, 'n bietjie heuning, gom, hars, neute en amandels. 12Julle moet die geld verdubbel wat julle saamvat. En die geld wat julle bo in die graansakke teruggebring het, moet julle ook saamvat. Dalk was daar 'n misverstand. 13Vat julle broer en maak klaar en gaan terug na die man toe. 14God die Almagtige sal sorg dat die man julle goedgesind is en julle ander broer terugstuur en ook vir Benjamin. En ek, as ek dan my kinders moet verloor, moet ek hulle maar verloor. 15Die manne het toe die geskenk gevat en hulle het die geld wat hulle saamgevat het, verdubbel. Hulle het vir Benjamin gevat en klaargemaak en Egipte toe gegaan. Hulle het by Josef gekom, 16en toe hy sien Benjamin is by hulle, sê hy vir sy hoofamptenaar: Vat die manne na my huis toe. Laat slag en laat 'n ete voorberei, want hulle moet vanmiddag by my eet. 17Hy het toe gedoen wat Josef gesê het. Hy het die manne na Josef se huis toe gevat, 18en hulle het bang geword omdat hulle na Josef se huis toe gebring is. Toe sê hulle: Dit is oor die geld wat die vorige keer in ons graansakke teruggesit is. Ons word hierheen gebring om ons te oorval en te oorrompel en van ons slawe te maak en ons donkies te vat. 19By die deur van die huis het hulle die hoofamptenaar genader 20en vir hom gesê: Ekskuus, Meneer, ons was al 'n vorige keer hier om kos te koop. 21En toe ons hier weg is en die aand ons graansakke oopmaak, lê elkeen se geld bo in sy sak. Dit was presies die regte bedrag. Maar ons het dit nou weer saamgebring, 22en ook nog geld om weer kos te koop. Ons weet nie wie die geld in ons sakke teruggesit het nie. 23Toe sê die amptenaar vir hulle: Wees gerus! Moenie bekommerd wees nie. Julle geld het by my uitgekom, en dit is julle God, die God van julle voorvaders, wat 'n skat in julle sakke gesit het. Die amptenaar het toe vir Simeon na hulle toe gebring. 24Nadat die amptenaar hulle in Josef se huis ingebring het, het hy vir hulle water gegee, en hulle het hulle voete gewas. Hy het ook hulle donkies voer gegee. 25Die broers het hulle geskenk gereed gehou vir wanneer Josef die middag kom, want hulle het gehoor dat hulle daar gaan eet. 26Toe Josef inkom, bring hulle vir hom die geskenk wat hulle saamgebring het, na die huis toe. Toe buig hulle diep voor hom. 27Josef het hulle toe gevra hoe dit gaan. Hy het gevra: Hoe gaan dit met julle pa wat so oud is en van wie julle my vertel het? Leef hy nog? 28Hulle het geantwoord: Dit gaan goed met u onderdaan, ons pa. Hy leef nog. Hulle het weer voor Josef gebuig en hom so geëer. 29Toe Josef sy broer, sy ma se seun Benjamin, raaksien, vra hy: Is dit julle jongste broer van wie julle my vertel het? En Josef sê vir hom: My seun, God sal jou genadig wees. 30Toe het Josef haastig padgegee om eenkant te gaan huil, want sy gemoed was vol oor sy broer. Josef is na sy kamer toe en hy het daar gaan huil. 31Daarna het hy sy gesig gewas en teruggegaan. Hy was weer homself en hy het gesê: Bedien die ete. 32Hulle het vir Josef afsonderlik bedien en so ook die broers en die Egiptenaars wat daar by hulle geëet het, want die Egiptenaars het 'n afsku daarvan om dieselfde kos as die Hebreërs te eet. 33Die broers het teenoor Josef gesit, volgens hulle ouderdom: van die oudste af tot die jongste. Hieroor het die manne mekaar verbaas aangekyk. 34Elkeen se kos is van Josef se tafel af aangegee, maar Benjamin s'n was vyf keer meer as dié van die ander. Hulle het wyn gedrink en saam met Josef dronk geword.

Joseph Tests His Brothers

Gen 44:1 Joseph commanded the servant in charge of his house, "Fill the men's sacks with as much food as they can carry, and put each man's money in the top of his sack.

Gen 44:2 Put my silver cup in the top of the youngest brother's sack, together with the money for his grain." He did as he was told.

Gen 44:3 Early in the morning the brothers were sent on their way with their donkeys.

Gen 44:4 When they had gone only a short distance from the city, Joseph said to the servant in charge of his house, "Hurry after those men. When you catch up with them, ask them, 'Why have you paid back evil for good?

Gen 44:5 Why did you steal my master's silver cup? It is the one he drinks from, the one he uses for divination. You have committed a serious crime!' "

Gen 44:6 When the servant caught up with them, he repeated these words.

Gen 44:7 They answered him, "What do you mean, sir, by talking like this? We swear that we have done no such thing.

Gen 44:8 You know that we brought back to you from the land of Canaan the money we found in the top of our sacks. Why then should we steal silver or gold from your master's house?

Gen 44:9 Sir, if any one of us is found to have it, he will be put to death, and the rest of us will become your slaves."

Gen 44:10 He said, "I agree; but only the one who has taken the cup will become my slave, and the rest of you can go free."

Gen 44:11 So they quickly lowered their sacks to the ground, and each man opened his sack.

Gen 44:12 Joseph's servant searched carefully, beginning with the oldest and ending with the youngest, and the cup was found in Benjamin's sack.

Gen 44:13 The brothers tore their clothes in sorrow, loaded their donkeys, and returned to the city.

Gen 44:14 When Judah and his brothers came to Joseph's house, he was still there. They bowed down before him,

Gen 44:15 and Joseph said, "What have you done? Didn't you know that a man in my position could find you out by practicing divination?"

Gen 44:16 "What can we say to you, sir?" Judah answered. "How can we argue? How can we clear ourselves? God has uncovered our guilt. All of us are now your slaves and not just the one with whom the cup was found."

Gen 44:17 Joseph said, "Oh, no! I would never do that! Only the one who had the cup will be my slave. The rest of you may go back safe and sound to your father."

Gen 44:18 Judah went up to Joseph and said, "Please, sir, allow me to speak with you freely. Don't be angry with me; you are like the king himself.

Gen 44:19 Sir, you asked us, 'Do you have a father or another brother?'

Gen 44:20 We answered, 'We have a father who is old and a younger brother, born to him in his old age. The boy's brother is dead, and he is the only one of his mother's children still alive; his father loves him very much.'

Gen 44:21 Sir, you told us to bring him here, so that you could see him,

Gen 44:22 and we answered that the boy could not leave his father; if he did, his father would die.

Gen 44:23 Then you said, 'You will not be admitted to my presence again unless your youngest brother comes with you.'

Gen 44:24 "When we went back to our father, we told him what you had said.

Gen 44:25 Then he told us to return and buy a little food.

Gen 44:26 We answered, 'We cannot go; we will not be admitted to the man's presence unless our youngest brother is with us. We can go only if our youngest brother goes also.'

Gen 44:27 Our father said to us, 'You know that my wife Rachel bore me only two sons.

Gen 44:28 One of them has already left me. He must have been torn to pieces by wild animals, because I have not seen him since he left.

Gen 44:29 If you take this one from me now and something happens to him, the sorrow you would cause me would kill me, as old as I am.'

Gen 44:30 (30-31) "And now, sir," Judah continued, "if I go back to my father without the boy, as soon as he sees that the boy is not with me, he will die. His life is wrapped up with the life of the boy, and he is so old that the sorrow we would cause him would kill him.

Gen 44:32 What is more, I pledged my life to my father for the boy. I told him that if I did not bring the boy back to him, I would bear the blame all my life.

Gen 44:33 And now, sir, I will stay here as your slave in place of the boy; let him go back with his brothers.

Gen 44:34 How can I go back to my father if the boy is not with me? I cannot bear to see this disaster come upon my father."

GENESIS 44

[1]Toe beveel Josef sy hoofamptenaar: Maak die graansakke van die manne vol met net soveel kos as hulle kan vervoer, en sit elkeen se geld bo in sy sak. [2]En my beker, my silwerbeker, moet julle bo in die sak van die jongste sit saam met die geld vir sy graan. Die hoofamptenaar het gedoen wat Josef gesê het. [3]Ligdag die volgende môre is die manne toe met hulle donkies daar weg. [4]Hulle was nog nie ver uit die stad uit nie, toe sê Josef vir sy hoofamptenaar: Kom, sit die manne agterna. En as jy hulle ingehaal het, moet jy vir hulle vra: Waarom beantwoord julle die goeie met die slegte? [5]Dit is die beker waaruit Meneer drink en waarmee hy voorspellings doen. Dis 'n lelike ding wat julle gedoen het. [6]Toe die hoofamptenaar hulle ingehaal het, het hy dit alles vir hulle gesê, [7]maar hulle het vir hom gesê: Waarom sê u so? Nie een van ons sal so iets aanvang nie. [8]Die geld wat ons die vorige keer in ons graansakke ontdek het, het ons uit Kanaän uit vir u teruggebring. Waarom sou ons dan goud of silwer uit die huis van u hoof steel? [9]Die een by wie iets van u hoof gekry word, kan doodgemaak word, en ons sal dan u slawe word. [10]Die hoofamptenaar het geantwoord: Goed en reg! Dit sal wees soos julle sê, maar net die een by wie die beker gekry word, sal my slaaf word. Julle ander sal onskuldig wees. [11]Toe het elkeen gou sy sak op die grond neergesit en dit oopgemaak. [12]Die hoofamptenaar het dit deurgesoek: hy het by die oudste s'n begin en by die jongste s'n laaste uitgekom en die beker in Benjamin se sak gekry. [13]Toe skeur hulle hulle klere. Elkeen het weer sy donkie gelaai en hulle het omgedraai stad toe. [14]Juda en sy broers het by Josef se huis aangekom. Hy was nog daar, en toe val hulle op die grond voor hom neer. [15]Josef het vir hulle gesê: Waarom het julle dit aangevang? Julle weet tog dat 'n man soos ek voorspellings moet doen! [16]Juda het geantwoord: Wat kan ons vir Meneer sê? Wat kan ons antwoord en hoe kan ons onsself verontskuldig? God het ons sonde aan die lig gebring. Hier is ons, ons is Meneer se slawe: ons almal, saam met hom by wie die beker gekry is. [17]Toe sê Josef: Dit laat ek nie toe nie. Dié een by wie die beker gekry is, sal my slaaf word, en julle kan ongehinderd na julle pa toe gaan. [18]Maar Juda het nader gekom na Josef toe en gesê: Asseblief tog, Meneer! Laat ek tog net nog een keer iets sê. Moet tog nie vir my kwaad word nie! U is soos die farao self. [19]Meneer het ons gevra of ons pa nog leef en of ons nog 'n broer het, [20]en ons het vir Meneer gesê: Ja, ons pa is oud. En op sy oudag het hy nog 'n jong seun wie se broer dood is. Die seun is die enigste wat van sy ma oorgebly het, en sy pa het hom lief.' [21]Maar u het gesê ons moet hom na u toe bring sodat u hom kan sien. [22]Toe het ons vir Meneer gesê: Die kind kan nie van sy pa af weggaan nie, en as hy sou weggaan, sou dit sy pa se dood beteken.' 23Maar u het vir ons gesê u wil ons nie weer sien as ons jongste broer nie hierheen kom nie. 24En toe ons weer terug was by u onderdaan, ons pa, het ons hom vertel wat Meneer gesê het. 25Toe ons pa ons later weer vra om vir ons 'n bietjie kos te gaan koop, 26het ons vir hom gesê: Ons kan nie gaan as ons jongste broer nie by ons is nie. Net as hy saamgaan, kan ons gaan, want as ons jongste broer nie by ons is nie, sal die man ons nie weer daar ontvang nie.' 27Toe het u onderdaan, ons pa, vir ons gesê: Julle weet my lieflingvrou het net twee seuns vir my in die wêreld gebring. 28Die een is van my af weg en ek moes aanvaar dat 'n roofdier hom opgevreet het, en ek het hom tot nou toe nog nie weer gesien nie. 29As julle nou ook nog hierdie jongste van my af wegvat en hy kom iets oor, sal julle my in my ouderdom laat sterf van verdriet.' 30Wanneer ons dus by ons pa terugkom en die seun aan wie hy so geheg is, is nie by ons nie, 31ja, as hy moet sien die seun is nie daar nie, sal hy sterf. So sal ons ons pa wat 'n ou man is, van kommer laat sterf. 32Juda het verder gesê: Ek het vir my pa gewaarborg dat die seun sal terugkom. Ek het belowe ek sal vir altyd by my pa in die skuld wees as ek die seun nie terugbring nie. 33Hou my daarom dan nou hier as Meneer se slaaf in die plek van die seun, maar laat hý saam met sy broers teruggaan. 34Hoe kan ek sonder die seun by my pa aankom? Ek sal dit nie kan verdra om te sien dat so 'n smart hom tref nie.

Joseph Provides for His Brothers and Family

Gen 45:1 Joseph was no longer able to control his feelings in front of his servants, so he ordered them all to leave the room. No one else was with him when Joseph told his brothers who he was.

Gen 45:2 He cried with such loud sobs that the Egyptians heard it, and the news was taken to the king's palace.

Gen 45:3 Joseph said to his brothers, "I am Joseph. Is my father still alive?" But when his brothers heard this, they were so terrified that they could not answer.

Gen 45:4 Then Joseph said to them, "Please come closer." They did, and he said, "I am your brother Joseph, whom you sold into Egypt.

Gen 45:5 Now do not be upset or blame yourselves because you sold me here. It was really God who sent me ahead of you to save people's lives.

Gen 45:6 This is only the second year of famine in the land; there will be five more years in which there will be neither plowing nor reaping.

Gen 45:7 God sent me ahead of you to rescue you in this amazing way and to make sure that you and your descendants survive.

Gen 45:8 So it was not really you who sent me here, but God. He has made me the king's highest official. I am in charge of his whole country; I am the ruler of all Egypt.

Gen 45:9 "Now hurry back to my father and tell him that this is what his son Joseph says: 'God has made me ruler of all Egypt; come to me without delay.

Gen 45:10 You can live in the region of Goshen, where you can be near me—you, your children, your grandchildren, your sheep, your goats, your cattle, and everything else that you have.

Gen 45:11 If you are in Goshen, I can take care of you. There will still be five years of famine; and I do not want you, your family, and your livestock to starve.' "

Gen 45:12 Joseph continued, "Now all of you, and you too, Benjamin, can see that I am really Joseph.

Gen 45:13 Tell my father how powerful I am here in Egypt and tell him about everything that you have seen. Then hurry and bring him here."

Gen 45:14 He threw his arms around his brother Benjamin and began to cry; Benjamin also cried as he hugged him.

Gen 45:15 Then, still weeping, he embraced each of his brothers and kissed them. After that, his brothers began to talk with him.

Gen 45:16 When the news reached the palace that Joseph's brothers had come, the king and his officials were pleased.

Gen 45:17 He said to Joseph, "Tell your brothers to load their animals and to return to the land of Canaan.

Gen 45:18 Let them get their father and their families and come back here. I will give them the best land in Egypt, and they will have more than enough to live on.

Gen 45:19 Tell them also to take wagons with them from Egypt for their wives and small children and to bring their father with them.

Gen 45:20 They are not to worry about leaving their possessions behind; the best in the whole land of Egypt will be theirs."

Gen 45:21 Jacob's sons did as they were told. Joseph gave them wagons, as the king had ordered, and food for the trip.

Gen 45:22 He also gave each of them a change of clothes, but he gave Benjamin three hundred pieces of silver and five changes of clothes.

Gen 45:23 He sent his father ten donkeys loaded with the best Egyptian goods and ten donkeys loaded with grain, bread, and other food for the trip.

Gen 45:24 He sent his brothers off and as they left, he said to them, "Don't quarrel on the way."

Gen 45:25 They left Egypt and went back home to their father Jacob in Canaan.

Gen 45:26 "Joseph is still alive!" they told him. "He is the ruler of all Egypt!" Jacob was stunned and could not believe them.

Gen 45:27 But when they told him all that Joseph had said to them, and when he saw the wagons which Joseph had sent to take him to Egypt, he recovered from the shock.

Gen 45:28 "My son Joseph is still alive!" he said. "This is all I could ask for! I must go and see him before I die."

GENESIS 45

1Josef kon homself nie langer bedwing voor die mense wat hom bedien het nie. Hy het hulle almal beveel om van hom af weg te gaan, en daar was van dié wat hom gedien het, nie een by hom toe hy hom aan sy broers bekend gemaak het nie. 2Hy het so hard gehuil dat die Egiptenaars en die mense in die farao se paleis dit gehoor het. 3Toe sê Josef vir sy broers: Ek is Josef. Leef Pa werklik nog? Sy broers kon hom nie antwoord nie, hulle was te bang vir hom. 4Maar hy het vir hulle gesê: Kom na my toe! en toe hulle nader kom, sê hy: Ek is julle broer Josef. Julle het my verkoop, en ek is Egipte toe gebring. 5Maar julle moet nou nie sleg voel of bang wees omdat julle my verkoop het nie, want God het my voor julle uit gestuur om lewens te red. 6Dit is nou maar die tweede jaar van hongersnood in die land. Daar lê nog vyf jaar voor waarin daar nie geploeg of geoes sal word nie. 7God het my voor julle uit gestuur om vir julle 'n oorblyfsel in hierdie land te laat oorbly, om julle aan die lewe te hou en sodat baie aan die dood sal ontkom. 8Dis nie júlle wat my hierheen gestuur het nie, maar God. Hy het my laat aanstel as die farao se raadgewer en as bevelhebber oor sy huis en as regeerder oor die hele Egipte. 9Gaan dadelik na Pa toe en sê vir hom: So sê Pa se seun Josef: God het my aangestel as regeerder oor die hele Egipte. Kom na my toe. Moenie talm nie, 10kom bly in die Gosenstreek. Dan is Pa naby my: Pa en Pa se seuns en kleinseuns, die kleinvee en grootvee en alles wat Pa besit. 11Ek sal vir Pa daar onderhou, want daar lê nog vyf jaar hongersnood voor. So sal Pa nie verarm nie: Pa en Pa se familie en almal by Pa.' 12Julle sien self, en my broer Benjamin sien dit ook: dis ek wat met julle praat. 13Julle moet vir Pa vertel van al my mag hier in Egipte en van alles wat julle gesien het. Maak gou en bring vir Pa hierheen. 14Toe omhels Josef sy broer Benjamin en hy huil; ook Benjamin het op sy broer se skouer gestaan en huil. 15Josef het al sy broers gesoen en daar by hulle gestaan en huil. Eers daarna het sy broers met hom begin praat. 16Die mense het dit in die farao se paleis gehoor en gesê: Josef se broers het gekom. Die farao en sy amptenare het dit goedgevind, 17en hy het vir Josef gesê: Sê vir jou broers: So moet julle nou optree: saal julle rydiere op en gaan na Kanaän toe. 18Kry julle vader en julle gesinne en kom hier na my toe. Ek sal julle die beste deel van Egipte gee en julle sal die room van die land geniet. 19Jy moet hulle beveel: So moet julle optree: vat vir julle uit Egipte waens saam vir julle kinders en vrouens en laat julle vader op 'n wa ry en kom hierheen. 20Moenie sleg voel oor wat julle nie kan saambring nie, want julle sal hier die beste kry van wat Egipte het. 21Die seuns van Israel het toe so gemaak. Josef het waens vir hulle saamgegee soos die farao beveel het

Josef het ook vir hulle padkos saamgegee. 22Hy het vir elkeen nuwe klere gegee, maar vir Benjamin het hy vyf stelle nuwe klere en nog drie en 'n half kilogram silwer gegee. 23Vir sy pa het hy tien donkies gestuur waarop die beste ware van Egipte gelaai was en tien donkiemerries waarop die beste koring en graan en kos gelaai was. Dit moes dien as padkos vir sy pa. 24So het Josef sy broers teruggestuur, en by hulle vertrek het hy vir hulle gesê: Moenie langs die pad bang word en begin twyfel nie. 25Hulle is toe uit Egipte weg en het in Kanaän by hulle pa Jakob aangekom. 26Hulle het vir hom gesê: Josef leef nog. Hy regeer oor die hele Egipte. Jakob was stomgeslaan. Hy het hulle nie geglo nie. 27Toe vertel hulle vir hulle pa alles wat Josef vir hulle gesê het, en eers toe hy die waens sien wat Josef gestuur het om hom te kom haal, het hy begin belang stel. 28En hulle pa Israel het gesê: Ek verlang niks meer nie. My seun Josef leef, en ek wil hom net sien voor ek sterf.

Genesis 46

Joseph Brings His Family to Egypt

Gen 46:1 Jacob packed up all he had and went to Beersheba, where he offered sacrifices to the God of his father Isaac.

Gen 46:2 God spoke to him in a vision at night and called, "Jacob, Jacob!" "Yes, here I am," he answered.

Gen 46:3 "I am God, the God of your father," he said. "Do not be afraid to go to Egypt; I will make your descendants a great nation there.

Gen 46:4 I will go with you to Egypt, and I will bring your descendants back to this land. Joseph will be with you when you die."

Gen 46:5 Jacob set out from Beersheba. His sons put him, their small children, and their wives in the wagons which the king of Egypt had sent.

Gen 46:6 They took their livestock and the possessions they had acquired in Canaan and went to Egypt. Jacob took all his descendants with him:

Gen 46:7 his sons, his grandsons, his daughters, and his granddaughters.

Gen 46:8 The members of Jacob's family who went to Egypt with him were his oldest son Reuben

Gen 46:9 and Reuben's sons: Hanoch, Pallu, Hezron, and Carmi.

Gen 46:10 Simeon and his sons: Jemuel, Jamin, Ohad, Jachin, Zohar, and Shaul, the son of a Canaanite woman.

Gen 46:11 Levi and his sons: Gershon, Kohath, and Merari.

Gen 46:12 Judah and his sons: Shelah, Perez, and Zerah. (Judah's other sons, Er and Onan, had died in Canaan.) Perez' sons were Hezron and Hamul.

Gen 46:13 Issachar and his sons: Tola, Puah, Jashub, and Shimron.

Gen 46:14 Zebulun and his sons: Sered, Elon, and Jahleel.

Gen 46:15 These are the sons that Leah had borne to Jacob in Mesopotamia, besides his daughter Dinah. In all, his descendants by Leah numbered thirty-three.

Gen 46:16 Gad and his sons: Zephon, Haggi, Shuni, Ezbon, Eri, Arod, and Areli.

Gen 46:17 Asher and his sons: Imnah, Ishvah, Ishvi, Beriah, and their sister Serah. Beriah's sons were Heber and Malchiel.

Gen 46:18 These sixteen are the descendants of Jacob by Zilpah, the slave woman whom Laban gave to his daughter Leah.

Gen 46:19 Jacob's wife Rachel bore him two sons: Joseph and Benjamin.

Gen 46:20 In Egypt Joseph had two sons, Manasseh and Ephraim, by Asenath, the daughter of Potiphera, a priest in Heliopolis.

Gen 46:21 Benjamin's sons were Bela, Becher, Ashbel, Gera, Naaman, Ehi, Rosh, Muppim, Huppim, and Ard.

Gen 46:22 These fourteen are the descendants of Jacob by Rachel.

Gen 46:23 Dan and his son Hushim.

Gen 46:24 Naphtali and his sons: Jahzeel, Guni, Jezer, and Shillem.

Gen 46:25 These seven are the descendants of Jacob by Bilhah, the slave woman whom Laban gave to his daughter Rachel.

Gen 46:26 The total number of the direct descendants of Jacob who went to Egypt was sixty-six, not including his sons' wives.

Gen 46:27 Two sons were born to Joseph in Egypt, bringing to seventy the total number of Jacob's family who went there.

Jacob and Joseph Reunited

Gen 46:28 Jacob sent Judah ahead to ask Joseph to meet them in Goshen. When they arrived,

Gen 46:29 Joseph got in his chariot and went to Goshen to meet his father. When they met, Joseph threw his arms around his father's neck and cried for a long time.

Gen 46:30 Jacob said to Joseph, "I am ready to die, now that I have seen you and know that you are still alive."

Gen 46:31 Then Joseph said to his brothers and the rest of his father's family, "I must go and tell the king that my brothers and all my father's family, who were living in Canaan, have come to me.

Gen 46:32 I will tell him that you are shepherds and take care of livestock and that you have brought your flocks and herds and everything else that belongs to you.

Gen 46:33 When the king calls for you and asks what your occupation is,

Gen 46:34 be sure to tell him that you have taken care of livestock all your lives, just as your ancestors did. In this way he will let you live in the region of Goshen." Joseph said this because Egyptians will have nothing to do with shepherds.

GENESIS 46

1Israel en almal by hom het vertrek. Hy het by Berseba gekom en daar 'n offer gebring aan die God van sy pa Isak. 2God het dié nag met Israel gepraat in 'n visioen en geroep: Jakob, Jakob! Hy het geantwoord: Hier is ek! 3Toe sê God: Ek is God, die God van jou vader. Moenie bang wees om na Egipte toe te gaan nie, want Ek sal jou daar 'n groot nasie maak. 4Ek gaan saam met jou Egipte toe, en Ek sal jou beslis weer hierheen laat terugkom. Wanneer jy sterf, sal Josef jou oë toedruk. 5Toe Jakob uit Berseba wou vertrek, het die seuns van Israel hulle pa Jakob en hulle kinders en vrouens op die waens laat klim wat deur die farao gestuur is om op te ry. 6Hulle het hulle vee saamgevat en ook die ander besittings wat hulle in Kanaän bymekaargemaak het. So is Jakob en sy hele nageslag weg Egipte toe: 7sy seuns en kleinseuns was by hom, ook sy dogters en kleindogters. Hy het sy hele familie saamgevat Egipte toe. 8Hier volg die name van die Israeliete wat Egipte toe is: Jakob en sy oudste seun Ruben 9en dié se seuns Ganok, Pallu, Gesron en Karmi. 10Simeon en sy seuns Jemuel, Jamin, Ohad, Jakin, Sogar en Saul, seun van 'n Kanaänitiese vrou. 11Levi en sy seuns Gerson, Kehat en Merari. 12Juda en sy seuns Sela, Peres en Serag. Juda se ander seuns, Er en Onan, het al in Kanaän gesterf. Peres se seuns was Gesron en Gamul. 13Issaskar en sy seuns Tola, Puwwa, Jasub en Simron. 14Sebulon en sy seuns Sered, Elon en Jagleël. 15Dit is die seuns wat Lea vir Jakob in Paddan-Aram in die wêreld gebring het. Sy het ook 'n dogter Dina gehad. Hulle almal saam was drie en dertig. 16Gad en sy seuns Sifjon, Gaggi, Suni, Esbon, Eri, Arod en Areli. 17Aser en sy seuns Jimna, Jiswa, Jiswi en Beria en hulle suster Serag. Die seuns van Beria was Geber en Malkiël. 18Dit is die seuns wat Silpa vir Jakob in die wêreld gebring het. Laban het haar vir sy dogter Lea gegee. Hulle almal saam was sestien. 19Josef en Benjamin was die seuns van Jakob se vrou Ragel. 20In Egipte is daar twee seuns vir Josef gebore. Asenat, dogter van Poti-Fera priester van On, het hulle vir hom in die wêreld gebring. Hulle was Manasse en Efraim. 21Benjamin se seuns was Bela, Beker, Asbel, Gera, Naäman, Egi, Ros, Muppim, Guppim en Ard. 22Dit is die seuns wat Ragel vir Jakob in die wêreld gebring het. Hulle almal saam was veertien. 23Dan en sy seun Sugam. 24Naftali en sy seuns Jagseël, Guni, Jeser en Sillem. 25Dit is die seuns wat Bilha vir Jakob in die wêreld gebring het. Laban het haar vir sy dogter Ragel gegee. Hulle almal saam was sewe. 26Afgesien van die vrouens van Jakob se seuns was daar ses en sestig afstammelinge van Jakob wat na Egipte toe is. 27In Egipte was daar reeds twee seuns vir Josef gebore. Jakob se afstammelinge was dus altesaam sewentig, en hulle was in Egipte.

28Jakob het vir Juda vooruit gestuur na Josef toe om hom te laat weet dat hy op pad is na Gosen toe. Nadat Jakob-hulle in Gosen aangekom het, 29het Josef sy wa laat inspan om sy pa Israel in Gosen te gaan ontmoet. Toe Josef hom sien, het hy hom omhels en lank so gestaan en huil. 30Toe sê Israel vir Josef: Nou kan ek maar sterf. Ek het jou gesien. Jy lewe nog! 31Josef het vir sy broers en vir sy hele familie gesê: Ek wil vir die farao gaan sê my broers en my familie het uit Kanaän hier aangekom. 32Die manne is kleinveeboere, mense met vee, en hulle het hulle kleinvee en grootvee en alles wat hulle besit, saamgebring. 33As die farao julle nou laat roep en vir julle vra wat is julle nering, 34moet julle vir hom sê: Van kleins af tot nou toe was ons veeboere, ons en ons voorvaders.' Dan sal hy julle in Gosen laat woon, want die Egiptenaars het 'n afkeer van kleinveeboere.

Jacob's Family Settles in Goshen

Gen 47:1 So Joseph took five of his brothers and went to the king. He told him, "My father and my brothers have come from Canaan with their flocks, their herds, and all that they own. They are now in the region of Goshen."

Gen 47:2 He then presented his brothers to the king.

Gen 47:3 The king asked them, "What is your occupation?" "We are shepherds, sir, just as our ancestors were," they answered.

Gen 47:4 "We have come to live in this country, because in the land of Canaan the famine is so severe that there is no pasture for our flocks. Please give us permission to live in the region of Goshen."

Gen 47:5 The king said to Joseph, "Now that your father and your brothers have arrived, Gen 47:6 the land of Egypt is theirs. Let them settle in the region of Goshen, the best part of the land. And if there are any capable men among them, put them in charge of my own livestock."

Gen 47:7 Then Joseph brought his father Jacob and presented him to the king. Jacob gave the king his blessing,

Gen 47:8 and the king asked him, "How old are you?"

Gen 47:9 Jacob answered, "My life of wandering has lasted a hundred and thirty years. Those years have been few and difficult, unlike the long years of my ancestors in their wanderings."

Gen 47:10 Jacob gave the king a farewell blessing and left.

Gen 47:11 Then Joseph settled his father and his brothers in Egypt, giving them property in the best of the land near the city of Rameses, as the king had commanded.

Gen 47:12 Joseph provided food for his father, his brothers, and all the rest of his father's family, including the very youngest.

Joseph and the Famine

Gen 47:13 The famine was so severe that there was no food anywhere, and the people of Egypt and Canaan became weak with hunger.

Gen 47:14 As they bought grain, Joseph collected all the money and took it to the palace.

Gen 47:15 When all the money in Egypt and Canaan was spent, the Egyptians came to Joseph and said, "Give us food! Don't let us die. Do something! Our money is all gone."

Gen 47:16 Joseph answered, "Bring your livestock; I will give you food in exchange for it if your money is all gone."

Gen 47:17 So they brought their livestock to Joseph, and he gave them food in exchange for their horses, sheep, goats, cattle, and donkeys. That year he supplied them with food in exchange for all their livestock.

Gen 47:18 The following year they came to him and said, "We will not hide the fact from you, sir, that our money is all gone and our livestock belongs to you. There is nothing left to give you except our bodies and our lands.

Gen 47:19 Don't let us die. Do something! Don't let our fields be deserted. Buy us and our land in exchange for food. We will be the king's slaves, and he will own our land. Give us grain to keep us alive and seed so that we can plant our fields."

Gen 47:20 Joseph bought all the land in Egypt for the king. Every Egyptian was forced to sell his land, because the famine was so severe; and all the land became the king's property.

Gen 47:21 Joseph made slaves of the people from one end of Egypt to the other.

Gen 47:22 The only land he did not buy was the land that belonged to the priests. They did not have to sell their lands, because the king gave them an allowance to live on.

Gen 47:23 Joseph said to the people, "You see, I have now bought you and your lands for the king. Here is seed for you to sow in your fields.

Gen 47:24 At the time of harvest you must give one-fifth to the king. You can use the rest for seed and for food for yourselves and your families."

Gen 47:25 They answered, "You have saved our lives; you have been good to us, sir, and we will be the king's slaves."

Gen 47:26 So Joseph made it a law for the land of Egypt that one-fifth of the harvest should belong to the king. This law still remains in force today. Only the lands of the priests did not become the king's property.

Gen 47:27 The Israelites lived in Egypt in the region of Goshen, where they became rich and had many children.

Gen 47:28 Jacob lived in Egypt seventeen years, until he was a hundred and forty-seven years old.

Gen 47:29 When the time drew near for him to die, he called for his son Joseph and said to him, "Place your hand between my thighs and make a solemn vow that you will not bury me in Egypt.

Gen 47:30 I want to be buried where my fathers are; carry me out of Egypt and bury me where they are buried." Joseph answered, "I will do as you say."

Gen 47:31 Jacob said, "Make a vow that you will." Joseph made the vow, and Jacob gave thanks there on his bed.

GENESIS 47

[1]Josef is toe daar weg en hy het die farao gaan inlig. Josef het vir hom gesê: My vader en my broers het met hulle kleinvee en grootvee en alles wat hulle besit, hier aangekom uit Kanaän. Hulle is nou in die Gosenstreek. [2]Josef het vyf van sy broers saamgevat en hulle aan die farao voorgestel, [3]en hy het hulle gevra: Wat is julle nering? Hulle het hom geantwoord: Ons is kleinveeboere, ons en ons voorvaders. [4]Verder het hulle vir die farao gesê: Ons wil graag as vreemdelinge hier kom woon, want ons het nie meer weiding vir ons vee nie. Daar is 'n groot droogte in Kanaän. Laat ons toe om in Gosen te kom woon. [5]Toe sê die farao vir Josef: Jou vader en jou broers het nou na jou toe gekom. [6]Egipte is tot hulle beskikking. Jy moet hulle in die beste deel van die land laat woon; hulle kan in die Gosenstreek aanbly. En as jy weet van knap manne onder hulle, moet jy dié in bevel plaas van my vee. [7]Josef het ook sy pa Jakob gebring en hom aan die farao voorgestel. Toe Jakob hom gegroet het, [8]vra hy vir Jakob: Hoe oud is u? [9]Jakob het vir hom gesê: Ek is nou al honderd en dertig jaar 'n vreemdeling hier op aarde. In vergelyking met dié van my voorvaders is dit maar min, en my lewensjare was vol swaarkry. [10]Toe groet Jakob die farao en vertrek. [11]Josef het sy pa en broers in Rameses laat woon. Hy het vir hulle in die beste deel van Egipte eiendom gegee soos die farao hom beveel het. [12]Hy het sy pa en broers, sy hele familie met kinders en al, van kos voorsien. [13]Daar was nêrens meer kos in die land nie, want die hongersnood was swaar. Al die mense van Egipte en Kanaän het daaronder gely. [14]Josef het ál die geld van die land in die hande gekry toe die mense van Egipte en Kanaän daarmee kom graan koop het. Hy het die geld na die farao se paleis toe gevat. [15]Maar toe die geld in Egipte en in Kanaän opraak, het al die Egiptenaars vir Josef kom sê: U moet vir ons kos laat kry. Waarom moet ons hier voor u doodgaan net omdat ons nie geld het nie? [16]Josef het vir hulle gesê: As julle geld op is, moet julle maar julle vee bring, dan gee ek vir julle kos in ruil daarvoor. [17]Toe bring hulle hulle vee vir Josef, en hy gee vir hulle kos in ruil vir perde en kleinvee en beeste en donkies. Daardie jaar het hy hulle van kos voorsien in ruil vir al hulle vee. [18]Aan die einde van daardie jaar, en die volgende jaar, het die mense weer by Josef gekom en vir hom gesê: Ons kan dit nie vir Meneer wegsteek nie: ons geld is op en u besit reeds al ons vee. Ons het niks meer oor om vir u te bring nie, net onsself en ons grond. [19]Waarom moet ons voor u oë doodgaan? Hier is ons, en daar is ons grond. Koop ons en koop ons grond in ruil vir kos. Ons sal die farao se slawe word en ons grond sal syne wees. Gee vir ons saad dat ons aan die lewe kan bly. En as ons nie sterf nie, sal ons grond nie onbewerk bly lê nie. [20]So het Josef al die grond vir die farao opgekoop. Al die Egiptenaars het hulle lande verkoop, want die hongersnood het hulle swaar gedruk. Die land het aan die farao behoort, [21]en die volk het van die een uithoek van Egipte tot by die ander uithoek na die stede toe gekom, na Josef toe. [22]Hy het net nie die priesters se grond gekoop nie, want hulle het 'n vaste inkomste van die farao gekry en hiervan het hulle geleef. Daarom het hulle nie hulle grond verkoop nie. [23]Toe sê Josef vir die volk: Ek het julle en julle grond nou vir die farao gekoop. Hier is vir julle saad. As julle dit nou op die lande saai, [24]moet julle 'n vyfde van die opbrengs vir die farao afgee en vier vyfdes is julle s'n. Gebruik dit as saad vir die lande en as kos vir julle en vir wie in julle huise is en vir julle kinders. [25]Hulle het vir Josef gesê: U het ons lewe gered. Meneer is ons goedgesind. Ons sal die farao se slawe wees. [26]Josef het hierdie reëling tot vandag toe 'n vaste instelling in Egipte gemaak: 'n vyfde van die opbrengs kom die farao toe. Net die priesters se grond is uitgesonder. Dit behoort nie aan die farao nie. [27]Israel en sy seuns het in Egipte gebly, in die Gosenstreek. Hulle het dit as hulle eiendom ontvang en hulle was vrugbaar en hulle het baie geword. [28]Jakob het sewentien jaar in Egipte gebly. Hy was dus toe honderd sewe en veertig jaar oud. [29]Toe sy einde nader kom, het hy sy seun Josef geroep en vir hom gesê: Bewys my nog 'n laaste guns. Sit jou hand onder my heup en beloof dat jy my met liefde en eerbied sal behandel en my nie in Egipte sal begrawe nie. [30]Wanneer ek sterf, moet jy my uit Egipte wegvat en in die graf van my voorvaders gaan begrawe. Toe antwoord Josef: Ek sal doen wat Pa vra. [31]En Jakob het vir hom gesê: Bevestig jou belofte met 'n eed. Toe lê Josef vir hom 'n eed af, en Israel het daar op sy bed gebuig voor God.

Jacob Blesses Ephraim and Manasseh

Gen 48:1 Some time later Joseph was told that his father was ill. So he took his two sons, Manasseh and Ephraim, and went to see Jacob.

Gen 48:2 When Jacob was told that his son Joseph had come to see him, he gathered his strength and sat up in bed.

Gen 48:3 Jacob said to Joseph, "Almighty God appeared to me at Luz in the land of Canaan and blessed me.

Gen 48:4 He said to me, 'I will give you many children, so that your descendants will become many nations; I will give this land to your descendants as their possession forever.' "

Gen 48:5 Jacob continued, "Joseph, your two sons, who were born to you in Egypt before I came here, belong to me; Ephraim and Manasseh are just as much my sons as Reuben and Simeon.

Gen 48:6 If you have any more sons, they will not be considered mine; the inheritance they get will come through Ephraim and Manasseh.

Gen 48:7 I am doing this because of your mother Rachel. To my great sorrow she died in the land of Canaan, not far from Ephrath, as I was returning from Mesopotamia. I buried her there beside the road to Ephrath." (Ephrath is now known as Bethlehem.)

Gen 48:8 When Jacob saw Joseph's sons, he asked, "Who are these boys?"

Gen 48:9 Joseph answered, "These are my sons, whom God has given me here in Egypt." Jacob said, "Bring them to me so that I may bless them."

Gen 48:10 Jacob's eyesight was failing because of his age, and he could not see very well. Joseph brought the boys to him, and he hugged them and kissed them.

Gen 48:11 Jacob said to Joseph, "I never expected to see you again, and now God has even let me see your children."

Gen 48:12 Then Joseph took them from Jacob's lap and bowed down before him with his face to the ground.

Gen 48:14 But Jacob crossed his hands, and put his right hand on the head of Ephraim, even though he was the younger, and his left hand on the head of Manasseh, who was the older.

Gen 48:15 Then he blessed Joseph: "May God, whom my fathers Abraham and Isaac served, bless these boys! May God, who has led me to this very day, bless them!

Gen 48:16 May the angel, who has rescued me from all harm, bless them! May my name and the name of my fathers Abraham and Isaac live on through these boys! May they have many children, many descendants!"

Gen 48:17 Joseph was upset when he saw that his father had put his right hand on Ephraim's head; so he took his father's hand to move it from Ephraim's head to the head of Manasseh.

Gen 48:18 He said to his father, "Not that way, father. This is the older boy; put your right hand on his head."

Gen 48:19 His father refused, saying, "I know, son, I know. Manasseh's descendants will also become a great people. But his younger brother will be greater than he, and his descendants will become great nations."

Gen 48:20 So he blessed them that day, saying, "The Israelites will use your names when they pronounce blessings. They will say, 'May God make you like Ephraim and Manasseh.' " In this way Jacob put Ephraim before Manasseh.

Gen 48:21 Then Jacob said to Joseph, "As you see, I am about to die, but God will be with you and will take you back to the land of your ancestors.

Gen 48:22 It is to you and not to your brothers that I am giving Shechem, that fertile region which I took from the Amorites with my sword and my bow."

GENESIS 48

[1]'n Rukkie hierna is vir Josef gesê sy pa is siek. Toe vat Josef sy twee seuns Manasse en Efraim saam. [2]Daar is aan Jakob gesê: U seun Josef het na u toe gekom. Toe het Israel sy kragte ingespan en regop gaan sit op die bed. [3]Hy het vir Josef gesê: God die Almagtige het in Lus in Kanaän aan my verskyn. Hy het my geseën [4]en vir my gesê: Ek sal jou vrugbaar maak en aan jou baie kinders gee. Ek sal jou nageslag baie volke laat word. Ek sal hierdie land aan jou nageslag gee om vir altyd te besit.' [5]Jou twee seuns wat hier in Egipte vir jou gebore is voordat ek hier na jou toe gekom het, Efraim en Manasse, is vir my soos my eie, soos Ruben en Simeon is hulle vir my. [6]As jy hierna nog kinders het, sal hulle eendag in die naam van hulle broers eiendom verkry. [7]Ek neem die twee seuns as my eie aan, want toe ek uit Paddan-Aram gekom het, is Ragel dood in Kanaän op pad na Efrata toe, dit is Betlehem, en ek het haar daar langs die pad begrawe. [8]Toe Jakob die twee seuns van Josef sien, vra hy: En wie is hulle? [9]Josef het sy pa geantwoord: Dit is my seuns. God het hulle vir my in hierdie land gegee. Jakob sê toe: Bring hulle hier na my toe. Ek wil hulle seën. [10]In sy hoë ouderdom was Israel se oë al sleg en hy kon nie goed sien nie. Josef het sy seuns tot teen Israel gebring, en hy het hulle gesoen en teen hom vasgedruk. [11]Toe sê Israel vir Josef: Ek het nooit daaraan gedink dat ek jou weer sal sien nie, en hier laat God my nou ook nog jou kinders sien. [12]Josef het sy seuns van sy pa se skoot af getel en voor hom gebuig. [13]Toe vat Josef die twee aan die hand: Efraim met sy regterhand, links van Israel, en Manasse met sy linkerhand, regs van Israel. Maar toe Josef hulle naby hom bring, [14]het Israel sy arms gekruis en sy regterhand op Efraim se kop gesit al was hy die jongste, en sy linkerhand op Manasse s'n al was hy die oudste. [15]Hy het vir Josef geseën en gesê: Mag die God naby wie my voorvaders Abraham en Isak geleef het, die God wat vir my van my geboorte af tot nou toe gesorg het, [16]die Engel wat my uit elke moontlike gevaar gered het, mag Hy die seuns seën. Dan sal my naam voortleef in hulle, en ook dié van my voorvaders Abraham en Isak. Mag die seuns vermeerder en baie word in daardie land. [17]Toe Josef sien sy pa sit sy regterhand op Efraim se kop, het Josef gedink dis nie reg nie en toe tel hy Jakob se hand van Efraim se kop af op om die hand op Manasse se kop te sit. [18]Josef het vir sy pa gesê: Dit hoort nie so nie, Pa! Manasse is die oudste, sit Pa se regterhand op sy kop. [19]Maar sy pa het geweier en gesê: Ek weet dit, my seun. Ook hý sal 'n volk word, ook hý sal baie word, maar sy jonger broer sal sterker word as hy, en die jonger broer se nageslag sal 'n magtige nasie word. [20]Daardie dag het Jakob die twee seuns geseën: Die Israeliete sal mekaar seën met die woorde:

Mag God jou maak soos Efraim en Manasse. So het Jakob vir Efraim bo Manasse gestel. 21Toe sê Israel vir Josef: Ek gaan binnekort sterf, maar God sal by julle wees. Hy sal julle terugbring in die land van julle voorvaders. 22Aan jou gee ek iets meer as aan jou broers: Sigem, wat ek van die Amoriete afgeneem het met my swaard en met my pyl en boog.

Genesis 49

Jacob Blesses His Sons

Gen 49:1 Jacob called for his sons and said, "Gather around, and I will tell you what will happen to you in the future:

Gen 49:2 "Come together and listen, sons of Jacob. Listen to your father Israel.

Gen 49:3 "Reuben, my first-born, you are my strength And the first child of my manhood, The proudest and strongest of all my sons.

Gen 49:4 You are like a raging flood, But you will not be the most important, For you slept with my concubine And dishonored your father's bed.

Gen 49:5 "Simeon and Levi are brothers. They use their weapons to commit violence.

Gen 49:6 I will not join in their secret talks, Nor will I take part in their meetings, For they killed people in anger And they crippled bulls for sport.

Gen 49:7 A curse be on their anger, because it is so fierce, And on their fury, because it is so cruel. I will scatter them throughout the land of Israel. I will disperse them among its people.

Gen 49:8 "Judah, your brothers will praise you. You hold your enemies by the neck. Your brothers will bow down before you.

Gen 49:9 Judah is like a lion, Killing his victim and returning to his den, Stretching out and lying down. No one dares disturb him.

Gen 49:10 Judah will hold the royal scepter, And his descendants will always rule. Nations will bring him tribute And bow in obedience before him.

Gen 49:11 He ties his young donkey to a grapevine, To the very best of the vines. He washes his clothes in blood-red wine.

Gen 49:12 His eyes are bloodshot from drinking wine, His teeth white from drinking milk.

Gen 49:13 "Zebulun will live beside the sea. His shore will be a haven for ships. His territory will reach as far as Sidon.

Gen 49:14 "Issachar is no better than a donkey That lies stretched out between its saddlebags.

Gen 49:15 But he sees that the resting place is good And that the land is delightful. So he bends his back to carry the load And is forced to work as a slave.

Gen 49:16 "Dan will be a ruler for his people. They will be like the other tribes of Israel.

Gen 49:17 Dan will be a snake at the side of the road, A poisonous snake beside the path, That strikes at the horse's heel, So that the rider is thrown off backward.

Gen 49:18 "I wait for your deliverance, LORD.

Gen 49:19 "Gad will be attacked by a band of robbers, But he will turn and pursue them.

Gen 49:20 "Asher's land will produce rich food. He will provide food fit for a king.

Gen 49:21 "Naphtali is a deer that runs free, Who bears lovely fawns.

Gen 49:22 "Joseph is like a wild donkey by a spring, A wild colt on a hillside.

Gen 49:23 His enemies attack him fiercely And pursue him with their bows and arrows.

Gen 49:24 But his bow remains steady, And his arms are made strong By the power of the Mighty God of Jacob, By the Shepherd, the Protector of Israel.

Gen 49:25 It is your father's God who helps you, The Almighty God who blesses you With blessings of rain from above And of deep waters from beneath the ground, Blessings of many cattle and children,

Gen 49:26 Blessings of grain and flowers, Blessings of ancient mountains, Delightful things from everlasting hills. May these blessings rest on the head of Joseph, On the brow of the one set apart from his brothers.

Gen 49:27 "Benjamin is like a vicious wolf. Morning and evening he kills and devours."

Jacob's Death and Burial

Gen 49:28 These are the twelve tribes of Israel, and this is what their father said as he spoke a suitable word of farewell to each son.

Gen 49:29 Then Jacob commanded his sons, "Now that I am going to join my people in death, bury me with my fathers in the cave that is in the field of Ephron the Hittite, Gen 49:30 at Machpelah east of Mamre in the land of Canaan. Abraham bought this cave and field from Ephron for a burial ground.

Gen 49:31 That is where they buried Abraham and his wife Sarah; that is where they buried Isaac and his wife Rebecca; and that is where I buried Leah.

Gen 49:32 The field and the cave in it were bought from the Hittites. Bury me there."

Gen 49:33 When Jacob had finished giving instructions to his sons, he lay back down and died.

GENESIS 49

[1]Jakob het sy seuns laat roep en vir hulle gesê: Kom hier! Ek wil vir julle sê wat met julle nageslagte sal gebeur: [2]Kom na my toe, seuns van Jakob, luister na Israel, julle vader! [3]Ruben, jy is die oudste, toonbeeld van my krag, gebore toe ek in my fleur was; jy is die vernaamste, die sterkste. [4]Maar jy sal nie langer die vernaamste wees nie, want soos stormwater was jy onstuimig: jy het jou vergryp aan 'n vrou van jou vader, jy het my bed verontreinig toe jy daarin geklim het. [5]Simeon en Levi is die een soos die ander: altyd gereed vir geweld. [6]Aan hulle beraadslagings wil ek geen deel hê nie, in hulle vergaderings wil ek nie kom nie, want koelbloedig het hulle mense vermoor, roekeloos het hulle diere mishandel. [7]Die straf van God sal hulle tref oor hulle geweldpleging, hulle onbeteuelde drif: hulle sal uitmekaar gejaag word in Jakob, versprei word tussen die stamme van Israel. [8]Juda, dit is jy vir wie jou broers sal eer: jy sal jou vyande onderwerp en jou broers sal voor jou buig. [9]Jy is 'n leeu, my seun Juda, wat van die prooi af wegstap. Jy rek jou uit, jy gaan lê rustig soos 'n leeu, soos 'n leeumannetjie wat deur niemand opgejaag word nie. [10]Jy sal altyd heers, jy sal aanhou regeer totdat Silo kom, die heerser aan wie die volke hulle sal onderwerp. [11]Hy maak sy rydier vas aan 'n wingerdstok, sy donkie aan die beste wingerdstok. Sy klere is so rooi soos wyn, sy koningskleed so rooi soos druiwesap. [12]Sy oë is donkerder as wyn, sy tande witter as melk. [13]Sebulon woon by die strand, by die strand waar skepe is, sy oë is op Sidon gerig. [14]Issaskar is 'n sterk pakdier, hy gaan lê tussen sy twee saalsakke. [15]Hy sien 'n goeie woonplek, 'n mooi landstreek, en daarvoor onderwerp hy hom aan dwangarbeid, doen hy slawewerk. [16]Dan is een van die stamme van Israel, hy handhaaf die reg van sy volk. [17]Dan is 'n slang op die pad, 'n horingslang op die grootpad, hy pik die perd aan sy hakskeen, die ruiter val agteroor. [18]Ek wag dat U red, Here! [19]Gad 'n bende oorval hom, maar hy val hulle van agter af aan. [20]Aser eet ryk kos, hy eet koningskos. [21]Naftali is 'n takbok wat vry rondloop, hy het 'n mooi nageslag. [22]Josef is 'n boom wat vrugte dra, 'n vrugteboom by die fontein, sy takke groei oor die omheining. [23]Dié wat met pyl en boog skiet, val hom aan, hulle is baie en hulle is sy vyande. [24]Maar hulle boog misluk elke keer, hulle sterk arms bewe, want die magtige God van Jakob gryp in, die Rots van Israel beskerm hom. [25]Die God van jou vader sal jou help, Josef, die Almagtige sal jou seën, Hy seën jou met reën uit die hemel, met water diep onder die grond uit, met moeders wat hulle kinders voed, met baie kinders. [26]Die seëninge wat jou vader gegee het, is sterk, sterker as dié van die ou-ou berge, as die kosbaarhede van die heuwels wat altyd daar is. Daardie seëninge kom op Josef, op hom wat die leier van sy broers sal wees. 27Benjamin is 'n wolf wat prooi verskeur: vroeg in die môre eet hy buit, in die aand vang hy sy prooi. 28Dit is al twaalf die stamme van Israel. So het hulle pa met hulle gepraat toe hy hulle geseën het. Hy het hulle een vir een geseën, elkeen met 'n eie seën. 29Jakob het vir sy kinders gesê: Wanneer ek sterf, moet julle my gaan begrawe in die familiegraf, in die grot op die grond van die Hetiet Efron. 30Dit is die Makpelagrot teenoor Mamre in Kanaän. Abraham het die stuk grond by die Hetiet Efron gekoop om 'n begraafplek te hê. 31Abraham en sy vrou Sara is daar begrawe, Isak en sy vrou Rebekka is daar begrawe, en daar het ek vir Lea begrawe. 32Abraham het die grond en die grot daarop by die Hetiete gekoop. 33Toe Jakob klaar gepraat het, het hy gaan lê, die asem uitgeblaas en gesterf.

Gen 50:1 Joseph threw himself on his father, crying and kissing his face.

Gen 50:2 Then Joseph gave orders to embalm his father's body.

Gen 50:3 It took forty days, the normal time for embalming. The Egyptians mourned for him seventy days.

Gen 50:4 When the time of mourning was over, Joseph said to the king's officials, "Please take this message to the king:

Gen 50:5 'When my father was about to die, he made me promise him that I would bury him in the tomb which he had prepared in the land of Canaan. So please let me go and bury my father, and then I will come back.' "

Gen 50:6 The king answered, "Go and bury your father, as you promised you would."

Gen 50:7 So Joseph went to bury his father. All the king's officials, the senior men of his court, and all the leading men of Egypt went with Joseph.

Gen 50:8 His family, his brothers, and the rest of his father's family all went with him. Only their small children and their sheep, goats, and cattle stayed in the region of Goshen.

Gen 50:9 Men in chariots and men on horseback also went with him; it was a huge group.

Gen 50:10 When they came to the threshing place at Atad east of the Jordan, they mourned loudly for a long time, and Joseph performed mourning ceremonies for seven days.

Gen 50:11 When the citizens of Canaan saw those people mourning at Atad, they said, "What a solemn ceremony of mourning the Egyptians are holding!" That is why the place was named Abel Mizraim.

Gen 50:12 So Jacob's sons did as he had commanded them;

Gen 50:13 they carried his body to Canaan and buried it in the cave at Machpelah east of Mamre in the field which Abraham had bought from Ephron the Hittite for a burial ground.

Gen 50:14 After Joseph had buried his father, he returned to Egypt with his brothers and all who had gone with him for the funeral.

God's Good Purposes

Gen 50:15 After the death of their father, Joseph's brothers said, "What if Joseph still hates us and plans to pay us back for all the harm we did to him?"

Gen 50:16 So they sent a message to Joseph: "Before our father died, Gen 50:17 he told us to ask you, 'Please forgive the crime your brothers committed when they wronged you.' Now please forgive us the wrong that we, the servants of your father's God, have done." Joseph cried when he received this message.

Gen 50:18 Then his brothers themselves came and bowed down before him. "Here we are before you as your slaves," they said.

Gen 50:19 But Joseph said to them, "Don't be afraid; I can't put myself in the place of God.

Gen 50:20 You plotted evil against me, but God turned it into good, in order to preserve the lives of many people who are alive today because of what happened.

Gen 50:21 You have nothing to fear. I will take care of you and your children." So he reassured them with kind words that touched their hearts.

The Death of Joseph

Gen 50:22 Joseph continued to live in Egypt with his father's family; he was a hundred and ten years old when he died.

Gen 50:23 He lived to see Ephraim's children and grandchildren. He also lived to receive the children of Machir son of Manasseh into the family.

Gen 50:24 He said to his brothers, "I am about to die, but God will certainly take care of you and lead you out of this land to the land he solemnly promised to Abraham, Isaac, and Jacob."

Gen 50:25 Then Joseph asked his people to make a vow. "Promise me," he said, "that when God leads you to that land, you will take my body with you."

Gen 50:26 So Joseph died in Egypt at the age of a hundred and ten. They embalmed his body and put it in a coffin.

GENESIS 50

1Josef het toe oor sy pa gebuk en hom al huilende gesoen. 2Daarna het Josef die dokters in sy diens beveel om die lyk van sy pa te balsem. Hulle het toe vir Israel gebalsem. 3Dit het veertig dae gevat om 'n lyk te balsem, en Egipte het sewentig dae lank oor Jakob gerou. 4Toe hierdie routyd verby was, het Josef vir die amptenare van die farao gesê: As julle my goedgesind is, praat dan tog met die farao en sê vir hom 5my vader het my 'n eed laat aflê dat ek hom, wanneer hy eendag sterf, sal gaan begrawe in die graf wat hy vir hom in Kanaän reggemaak het. Ek wil hom nou gaan begrawe en dan sal ek terugkom. 6Die farao het geantwoord: Gaan, en begrawe jou vader soos hy jou met 'n eed laat beloof het. 7Josef is toe weg om sy pa te gaan begrawe. Al die amptenare van die farao, die raadgewers van die paleis en die leiers van Egipte is met hom saam, 8die hele familie van Josef en sy broers en die familie van sy pa is ook saam. Net die kinders, die kleinvee en die grootvee het in die Gosenstreek agtergebly. 9Waens en perde is met Josef saam. Dit was 'n baie groot stoet. 10Toe hulle by die dorsvloer van Atad oos van die Jordaan kom, het hulle sewe dae lank daar getreur en gerou oor hulle pa. Hulle het baie getreur oor hom. 11Die mense van Kanaän het hulle daar by die dorsvloer van Atad sien rou en gesê: Egipte is swaar in rou. Daarom noem hulle hierdie plek aan die oostekant van die Jordaan Abel-Misrajim . 12Jakob se seuns het gedoen wat hulle pa gesê het. 13Hulle het hom Kanaän toe gevat en gaan begrawe in die Makpelagrot op die grond wat deur Abraham by die Hetiet Efron as 'n begraafplek gekoop is. Die grond lê oos van Mamre. 14Na die begrafnis is Josef en sy broers en almal wat met hom saam is om sy pa te gaan begrawe, terug Egipte toe. 15Na hulle pa se dood het Josef se broers gevra: En as Josef nog steeds 'n grief teen ons het en ons nou gaan terugbetaal vir al die kwaad wat ons hom aangedoen het? 16Daarom het hulle 'n boodskap na hom toe gestuur: Voor sy dood het u vader beveel: 17Julle moet vir Josef vra om tog die groot misdaad teen hom, die onreg wat julle hom aangedoen het, te vergewe.' Vergeef ons tog nou die misdaad. Ons dien ook die God van u vader. Josef het gehuil oor wat hulle vir hom laat weet het. 18Daarna het die broers na Josef toe gegaan en voor hom op hulle knieë geval en gesê: Hier is ons voor u. Ons is u slawe. 19Maar Josef het hulle geantwoord: Moenie bang wees nie. Ek is nie God nie. 20Julle wou my kwaad aandoen, maar God wou daarmee goed doen: Hy het gesorg dat 'n groot volk nou in die lewe gebly het. 21Moenie bang wees nie. Ek sal sorg dat julle en julle kinders kos het. Josef het hulle jammer gekry en hulle gerusgestel. 22Josef het in Egipte gebly, hy en sy hele familie. Hy het honderd en tien jaar oud geword. 23Hy het die kleinkinders van Efraim gesien, en hy kon nog die kinders van Manasse se seun Makir as sy eie aanneem. 24Josef het vir sy broers gesê: Na my dood sal God na julle omsien en Hy sal julle uit hierdie land uit laat trek na die land toe wat Hy met 'n eed beloof het aan Abraham, Isak en Jakob. 25Josef het die seuns van Israel met 'n eed laat beloof: Wanneer God na julle omsien en julle laat trek, moet julle my liggaam van hier af saamvat. 26Josef is dood toe hy honderd en tien jaar oud was. Hulle het hom gebalsem en hom daar in Egipte in 'n kis gesit.

Exodus 1

Israel Increases Greatly in Egypt

Exo 1:1 The sons of Jacob who went to Egypt with him, each with his family, were

Exo 1:2 Reuben, Simeon, Levi, Judah,

Exo 1:3 Issachar, Zebulun, Benjamin,

Exo 1:4 Dan, Naphtali, Gad, and Asher.

Exo 1:5 The total number of these people directly descended from Jacob was seventy. His son Joseph was already in Egypt.

Exo 1:6 In the course of time Joseph, his brothers, and all the rest of that generation died,

Exo 1:7 but their descendants, the Israelites, had many children and became so numerous and strong that Egypt was filled with them.

Pharaoh Oppresses Israel

Exo 1:8 Then, a new king, who knew nothing about Joseph, came to power in Egypt.

Exo 1:9 He said to his people, "These Israelites are so numerous and strong that they are a threat to us.

Exo 1:10 In case of war they might join our enemies in order to fight against us, and might escape from the country. We must find some way to keep them from becoming even more numerous."

Exo 1:11 So the Egyptians put slave drivers over them to crush their spirits with hard labor. The Israelites built the cities of Pithom and Rameses to serve as supply centers for the king.

Exo 1:12 But the more the Egyptians oppressed the Israelites, the more they increased in number and the farther they spread through the land. The Egyptians came to fear the Israelites Exo 1:13 (13-14) and made their lives miserable by forcing them into cruel slavery. They made them work on their building projects and in their fields, and they had no pity on them.

Exo 1:15 Then the king of Egypt spoke to Shiphrah and Puah, the two midwives who helped the Hebrew women.

Exo 1:16 "When you help the Hebrew women give birth," he said to them, "kill the baby if it is a boy; but if it is a girl, let it live."

Exo 1:17 But the midwives were God-fearing and so did not obey the king; instead, they let the boys live.

Exo 1:18 So the king sent for the midwives and asked them, "Why are you doing this? Why are you letting the boys live?"

Exo 1:19 They answered, "The Hebrew women are not like Egyptian women; they give birth easily, and their babies are born before either of us gets there."

Exo 1:20 (20-21) Because the midwives were God-fearing, God was good to them and gave them families of their own. And the Israelites continued to increase and become strong.

Exo 1:22 Finally the king issued a command to all his people: "Take every newborn Hebrew boy and throw him into the Nile, but let all the girls live."

EKSODUS 1

[1]Hier volg die name van die Israeliete wat saam met Jakob na Egipte toe gekom het, elkeen met sy gesin: [2]Ruben, Simeon, Levi en Juda; [3]Issaskar, Sebulon en Benjamin; [4]Dan, Naftali, Gad en Aser. [5]Jakob het sewentig afstammelinge gehad. Josef was toe al in Egipte. [6]Met verloop van tyd het hy en al sy broers, daardie hele geslag, gesterwe. [7]Die Israeliete was vrugbaar en het vermeerder. Hulle het baie geword, so baie dat die land vol was van hulle. [8]Toe 'n nuwe koning wat nie van Josef geweet het nie, oor Egipte begin heers, [9]het hy vir sy volk gesê: Besef julle dat die Israeliete nou meer en sterker is as ons? [10]Kom ons bedink 'n plan teen hulle sodat hulle nie kan vermeerder nie. Anders kan dit gebeur dat as daar oorlog uitbreek, hulle dalk by ons vyand aansluit om teen ons te veg en ons land te oorweldig. [11]Daar is toe slawedrywers oor hulle aangestel om hulle met dwangarbeid te onderdruk. Hulle moes die voorraadstede Pitom en Rameses vir die farao bou. [12]Maar hoe meer die Israeliete onderdruk is, hoe meer het hulle geword en hoe meer het hulle oor die land versprei, in so 'n mate dat die Egiptenaars baie bang geword het vir hulle. [13]Die Egiptenaars het slawe gemaak van die Israeliete [14]en die lewe vir hulle bitter gemaak deur swaar werk met klei en bakstene en deur allerhande werk in die lande. Hulle moes onder dwang al die slawewerk vir Egipte doen. [15]Die Egiptiese koning het vir die Hebreeuse vroedvroue Sifra en Pua gesê: [16]As julle 'n Hebreeuse vrou by geboorte bystaan en julle sien by die kraambed dat dit 'n seun is, moet julle hom doodmaak, maar as dit 'n dogter is, mag sy bly lewe. [17]Maar die vroedvroue het God gedien en nie gemaak soos die Egiptiese koning hulle beveel het nie: hulle het die seuntjies laat lewe. [18]Die Egiptiese koning het die vroedvroue ontbied en vir hulle gevra: Waarom doen julle dit? Waarom laat julle die seuntjies lewe? [19]Toe antwoord die vroedvroue die farao: Die Hebreeuse vrouens is nie soos dié van Egipte nie, hulle is sterk van gestel: voordat die vroedvrou by hulle kom, is die kind al gebore. [20]As gevolg hiervan het die volk aanhou vermeerder en baie talryk geword. God het toe die vroedvroue self ook voorspoedig gemaak. [21]Omdat hulle Hom gedien het, het Hy vir hulle huisgesinne gegee. [22]Daarna het die farao sy hele volk beveel: Julle moet elke pasgebore seuntjie in die Nyl gooi, maar spaar die dogtertjies se lewe.

Exodus 2

The Birth of Moses

Exo 2:1 During this time a man from the tribe of Levi married a woman of his own tribe,

Exo 2:2 and she bore him a son. When she saw what a fine baby he was, she hid him for three months.

Exo 2:3 But when she could not hide him any longer, she took a basket made of reeds and covered it with tar to make it watertight. She put the baby in it and then placed it in the tall grass at the edge of the river.

Exo 2:4 The baby's sister stood some distance away to see what would happen to him.

Exo 2:5 The king's daughter came down to the river to bathe, while her servants walked along the bank. Suddenly she noticed the basket in the tall grass and sent a slave woman to get it.

Exo 2:6 The princess opened it and saw a baby boy. He was crying, and she felt sorry for him. "This is one of the Hebrew babies," she said.

Exo 2:7 Then his sister asked her, "Shall I go and call a Hebrew woman to nurse the baby for you?"

Exo 2:8 "Please do," she answered. So the girl went and brought the baby's own mother.

Exo 2:9 The princess told the woman, "Take this baby and nurse him for me, and I will pay you." So she took the baby and nursed him.

Exo 2:10 Later, when the child was old enough, she took him to the king's daughter, who adopted him as her own son. She said to herself, "I pulled him out of the water, and so I name him Moses."

Moses Flees to Midian

Exo 2:11 When Moses had grown up, he went out to visit his people, the Hebrews, and he saw how they were forced to do hard labor. He even saw an Egyptian kill a Hebrew, one of Moses' own people.

Exo 2:12 Moses looked all around, and when he saw that no one was watching, he killed the Egyptian and hid his body in the sand.

Exo 2:13 The next day he went back and saw two Hebrew men fighting. He said to the one who was in the wrong, "Why are you beating up a fellow Hebrew?"

Exo 2:14 The man answered, "Who made you our ruler and judge? Are you going to kill me just as you killed that Egyptian?" Then Moses was afraid and said to himself, "People have found out what I have done."

Exo 2:15 (15-16) When the king heard about what had happened, he tried to have Moses killed, but Moses fled and went to live in the land of Midian. One day, when Moses was sitting by a well, seven daughters of Jethro, the priest of Midian, came to draw water and fill the troughs for their father's sheep and goats.

Exo 2:17 But some shepherds drove Jethro's daughters away. Then Moses went to their rescue and watered their animals for them.

Exo 2:18 When they returned to their father, he asked, "Why have you come back so early today?"

Exo 2:19 "An Egyptian rescued us from the shepherds," they answered, "and he even drew water for us and watered our animals."

Exo 2:20 "Where is he?" he asked his daughters. "Why did you leave the man out there? Go and invite him to eat with us."

Exo 2:21 So Moses decided to live there, and Jethro gave him his daughter Zipporah in marriage,

Exo 2:22 who bore him a son. Moses said to himself, "I am a foreigner in this land, and so I name him Gershom."

God Hears Israel's Groaning

Exo 2:23 Years later the king of Egypt died, but the Israelites were still groaning under their slavery and cried out for help. Their cry went up to God, Exo 2:24 who heard their groaning and remembered his covenant with Abraham, Isaac, and Jacob.

Exo 2:25 He saw the slavery of the Israelites and was concerned for them.

1'n Man uit die stam Levi was met 'n Levitiese meisie getroud. 2Die vrou het swanger geword en 'n seuntjie in die wêreld gebring. Toe sy sien hoe mooi is hy, het sy hom drie maande lank weggesteek. 3Langer kon sy hom nie wegsteek nie. Daarom het sy vir hom 'n biesiemandjie gekry en dit met klei en pik dig gemaak. Sy het die seuntjie daarin neergelê en dit tussen die riete aan die kant van die Nyl gesit. 4Sy suster het op 'n afstand gaan staan om te sien wat met hom gebeur. 5'n Dogter van die farao het afgegaan Nyl toe om te swem, en die jongmeisies wat haar vergesel, het aan die kant van die rivier geloop. Toe sy die mandjie tussen die riete sien, stuur sy haar diensmeisie om dit te gaan haal. 6Met die oopmaak sien sy dit is 'n seuntjie en hy huil. Toe kry sy hom jammer en dink: dit is seker een van die Hebreeuse seuntjies. 7Sy suster kom sê toe vir die farao se dogter: Mag ek vir u 'n vrou gaan roep, 'n Hebreeuse vrou met 'n pasgebore baba, dat sy die seuntjie vir u kan laat drink? 8Die dogter van die farao het haar geantwoord: Ja, goed! Die meisie het toe die seuntjie se ma gaan roep. 9Toe beveel die farao se dogter die ma: Neem hierdie seuntjie en laat hom vir my drink. Ek sal jou daarvoor betaal. Die vrou het die seuntjie geneem en vir hom gesorg. 10Toe hy oud genoeg was, het sy hom na die dogter van die farao toe gebring, wat hom as haar eie seun aangeneem het. Sy het hom Moses genoem, want, het sy gesê, ek het hom mos uit die water gehaal. 11Toe Moses al 'n volwasse man was, het hy op 'n keer na sy eie mense toe gegaan en gesien dat hulle dwangarbeid verrig. Hy sien toe hoe een van sy eie mense, 'n Hebreër, deur 'n Egiptenaar geslaan word. 12Nadat Moses rondgekyk het en niemand gewaar het nie, het hy die Egiptenaar doodgeslaan en hom onder sand toegekrap. 13Die volgende dag gaan hy weer, en tot sy verbasing was daar twee Hebreeuse manne aan die baklei. Waarom slaan jy aan jou broer? vra hy vir die een wat die rusie begin het. 14Wie het jou aangestel as baas en regter oor ons? vra die ander. Wil jy my miskien ook doodslaan, soos jy die Egiptenaar doodgeslaan het? Toe skrik Moses en hy dink: die ding het bekend geword. 15Toe dit by die farao uitkom, wou hy vir Moses laat doodmaak, maar Moses het van hom af weggevlug en in Midian gaan woon. Terwyl hy daar by 'n put sit, 16het die sewe dogters van 'n priester van Midian kom water skep om die drinkbakke vol te maak en hulle pa se kleinvee te laat suip. 17Toe daar veewagters aankom en die dogters wegjaag, het Moses opgestaan en hulle gehelp en hulle kleinvee laat suip. 18Met hulle aankoms by hulle pa Reüel het hy gevra: Hoe het julle dan vandag so gou gekom? 19en hulle antwoord: Daar was 'n Egiptenaar, en hy het ons gehelp teen die veewagters.

Boonop het hy vir ons water geskep en die kleinvee laat suip. [20]Toe vra die priester vir sy dogters: Waar is hy? Waarom het julle die man daar laat staan? Gaan nooi hom huis toe om by ons te kom eet. [21]Moses het ingewillig om by Reüel te kom woon, en is later met sy dogter Sippora getroud. [22]Toe sy 'n seuntjie kry, het Moses hom Gersom genoem, want, het hy gesê, ek woon as vreemdeling in 'n vreemde land. [23]Die jare het verbygegaan, en die koning van Egipte het te sterwe gekom, maar die Israeliete het nog steeds gesug en gekreun onder die swaar werk. Hulle geroep om hulp het tot God opgegaan. [24]God het hulle gekerm gehoor en aan sy verbond met Abraham, Isak en Jakob gedink. [25]Hy het die nood van die Israeliete gesien en dit ter harte geneem.

The Burning Bush

Exo 3:1 One day while Moses was taking care of the sheep and goats of his father-in-law Jethro, the priest of Midian, he led the flock across the desert and came to Sinai, the holy mountain.

Exo 3:2 There the angel of the LORD appeared to him as a flame coming from the middle of a bush. Moses saw that the bush was on fire but that it was not burning up.

Exo 3:3 "This is strange," he thought. "Why isn't the bush burning up? I will go closer and see."

Exo 3:4 When the LORD saw that Moses was coming closer, he called to him from the middle of the bush and said, "Moses! Moses!" He answered, "Yes, here I am."

Exo 3:5 God said, "Do not come any closer. Take off your sandals, because you are standing on holy ground.

Exo 3:6 I am the God of your ancestors, the God of Abraham, Isaac, and Jacob." So Moses covered his face, because he was afraid to look at God.

Exo 3:7 Then the LORD said, "I have seen how cruelly my people are being treated in Egypt; I have heard them cry out to be rescued from their slave drivers. I know all about their sufferings, Exo 3:8 and so I have come down to rescue them from the Egyptians and to bring them out of Egypt to a spacious land, one which is rich and fertile and in which the Canaanites, the Hittites, the Amorites, the Perizzites, the Hivites, and the Jebusites now live.

Exo 3:9 I have indeed heard the cry of my people, and I see how the Egyptians are oppressing them.

Exo 3:10 Now I am sending you to the king of Egypt so that you can lead my people out of his country."

Exo 3:11 But Moses said to God, "I am nobody. How can I go to the king and bring the Israelites out of Egypt?"

Exo 3:12 God answered, "I will be with you, and when you bring the people out of Egypt, you will worship me on this mountain. That will be the proof that I have sent you."

Exo 3:13 But Moses replied, "When I go to the Israelites and say to them, 'The God of your ancestors sent me to you,' they will ask me, 'What is his name?' So what can I tell them?"

Exo 3:14 God said, "I am who I am. You must tell them: 'The one who is called I AM has sent me to you.'

Exo 3:15 Tell the Israelites that I, the LORD, the God of their ancestors, the God of Abraham, Isaac, and Jacob, have sent you to them. This is my name forever; this is what all future generations are to call me.

Exo 3:16 Go and gather the leaders of Israel together and tell them that I, the LORD, the God of their ancestors, the God of Abraham, Isaac, and Jacob, appeared to you. Tell them that I have come to them and have seen what the Egyptians are doing to them.

Exo 3:17 I have decided that I will bring them out of Egypt, where they are being treated cruelly, and will take them to a rich and fertile land—the land of the Canaanites, the Hittites, the Amorites, the Perizzites, the Hivites, and the Jebusites.

Exo 3:18 "My people will listen to what you say to them. Then you must go with the leaders of Israel to the king of Egypt and say to him, 'The LORD, the God of the Hebrews, has revealed himself to us. Now allow us to travel three days into the desert to offer sacrifices to the LORD, our God.'

Exo 3:19 I know that the king of Egypt will not let you go unless he is forced to do so.

Exo 3:20 But I will use my power and will punish Egypt by doing terrifying things there. After that he will let you go.

Exo 3:21 "I will make the Egyptians respect you so that when my people leave, they will not go empty-handed.

Exo 3:22 Every Israelite woman will go to her Egyptian neighbors and to any Egyptian woman living in her house and will ask for clothing and for gold and silver jewelry. The Israelites will put these things on their sons and daughters and carry away the wealth of the Egyptians."

1Moses het die kleinvee van sy skoonpa Jetro, 'n priester van Midian, opgepas. Hy het die kleinvee diep die woestyn in gejaag totdat hy by Horeb, die berg van God, gekom het. 2Toe verskyn die Engel van die Here aan hom in 'n vlam binne-in 'n doringbos. Terwyl hy kyk, sien hy dat die doringbos aanhou brand, maar nie uitbrand nie. 3En Moses sê vir homself: Ek wil tog 'n bietjie nader gaan om hierdie wonderlike verskynsel te bekyk. Waarom brand die doringbos dan nie uit nie? 4Toe die Here sien dat hy nader kom om te kyk, roep God na hom uit die doringbos: Moses! Moses! En hy antwoord: Hier is ek. 5Die Here sê toe vir hom: Moenie nóg nader kom nie. Trek uit jou skoene, want die plek waarop jy staan, is gewyde grond. 6Verder sê Hy: Ek is die God van jou voorvaders, die God van Abraham, die God van Isak, die God van Jakob. Toe maak Moses sy gesig toe, want hy was bang om na God te kyk. 7Daarna sê die Here: Ek het die ellende van my volk in Egipte duidelik gesien en hulle noodkrete oor die slawedrywers gehoor. Ek het hulle lyding ter harte geneem. 8Daarom het Ek afgekom om hulle uit die mag van Egipte te bevry en om hulle daarvandaan te laat trek na 'n goeie en uitgestrekte land, 'n land wat oorloop van melk en heuning. Dit is die land van die Kanaäniete, Hetiete, Amoriete, Feresiete, Hewiete en Jebusiete. 9Die noodkrete van die Israeliete het My bereik, en Ek het ook aanskou hoe Egipte hulle verdruk. 10Daarom stuur Ek jou na die farao toe sodat jy my volk, die Israeliete, uit Egipte kan bevry. 11Toe sê Moses vir God: Wie is ék dat ek dit by die farao sou waag en dat ék die Israeliete uit Egipte sou bevry? 12God het Moses geantwoord: Ek sal by jou wees en die bewys dat Ek jou gestuur het, sal dít wees: wanneer jy die volk uit Egipte bevry het, sal julle My by hierdie berg aanbid. 13Daarna sê Moses vir God: Sê nou maar ek kom by die Israeliete en ek sê vir hulle: Die God van julle voorvaders het my na julle toe gestuur,' en hulle vra vir my: Wat is sy Naam?' wat moet ek dan vir hulle sê? 14Toe sê God vir Moses: Ek is wat Ek is. Jy moet vir die Israeliete sê: Ek is' het my na julle toe gestuur. 15Verder sê God vir Moses: Jy moet ook nog vir die Israeliete sê: Die Here die God van julle voorvaders, die God van Abraham, die God van Isak, die God van Jakob, het my na julle toe gestuur.' Dit is ewig my Naam, dit is die Naam waarmee Ek aangeroep moet word van geslag tot geslag. 16Gaan roep nou die leiers van Israel bymekaar en sê vir hulle: Die Here die God van julle voorvaders, die God van Abraham, Isak en Jakob, het aan my verskyn en gesê: Ek weet van julle en Ek weet ook wat julle aangedoen word in Egipte. 17Ek het besluit om julle te laat wegtrek uit die ellende van Egipte na die land van die Kanaäniete, Hetiete, Amoriete, Feresiete, Hewiete en Jebusiete, na 'n land wat oorloop van melk en heuning.' 18Die leiers van Israel sal na jou luister, en dan moet jy en hulle na die Egiptiese koning toe gaan en vir hom sê: Die Here die God van die Hebreërs het Hom aan ons geopenbaar. Laat ons asseblief drie dagreise ver die woestyn in trek om vir ons God, die Here, 'n offer te bring.' 19Ek weet dat die Egiptiese koning julle nie sal laat gaan nie, selfs nie onder dwang nie. 20Dan sal Ek my hand uitsteek en Egipte teister met die wonderdade wat Ek in hom sal doen. Eers daarna sal die farao julle laat gaan. 21Ek sal ook sorg dat die Egiptenaars goed doen aan hierdie volk van My, sodat, as julle uiteindelik wegtrek, julle nie met leë hande sal gaan nie. 22Elke vrou moet van haar buurvrou of in die huis waar sy werk, silwer- en goue goed sowel as klere eis. Laat julle seuns en dogters dit dan as buit uit Egipte uit wegdra.

Moses Given Powerful Signs

Exo 4:1 Then Moses answered the LORD, "But suppose the Israelites do not believe me and will not listen to what I say. What shall I do if they say that you did not appear to me?"

Exo 4:2 So the LORD asked him, "What are you holding?" "A walking stick," he answered.

Exo 4:3 The LORD said, "Throw it on the ground." When Moses threw it down, it turned into a snake, and he ran away from it.

Exo 4:4 Then the LORD said to Moses, "Reach down and pick it up by the tail." So Moses reached down and caught it, and it became a walking stick again.

Exo 4:5 The LORD said, "Do this to prove to the Israelites that the LORD, the God of their ancestors, the God of Abraham, Isaac, and Jacob, has appeared to you."

Exo 4:6 The LORD spoke to Moses again, "Put your hand inside your robe." Moses obeyed; and when he took his hand out, it was diseased, covered with white spots, like snow.

Exo 4:7 Then the LORD said, "Put your hand inside your robe again." He did so, and when he took it out this time, it was healthy, just like the rest of his body.

Exo 4:8 The LORD said, "If they will not believe you or be convinced by the first miracle, then this one will convince them.

Exo 4:9 If in spite of these two miracles they still will not believe you, and if they refuse to listen to what you say, take some water from the Nile and pour it on the ground. The water will turn into blood."

Exo 4:10 But Moses said, "No, LORD, don't send me. I have never been a good speaker, and I haven't become one since you began to speak to me. I am a poor speaker, slow and hesitant."

Exo 4:11 The LORD said to him, "Who gives man his mouth? Who makes him deaf or dumb? Who gives him sight or makes him blind? It is I, the LORD.

Exo 4:12 Now, go! I will help you to speak, and I will tell you what to say."

Exo 4:13 But Moses answered, "No, Lord, please send someone else."

Exo 4:14 At this the LORD became angry with Moses and said, "What about your brother Aaron, the Levite? I know that he can speak well.

In fact, he is now coming to meet you and will be glad to see you.

Exo 4:15 You can speak to him and tell him what to say. I will help both of you to speak, and I will tell you both what to do.

Exo 4:16 He will be your spokesman and speak to the people for you. Then you will be like God, telling him what to say.

Exo 4:17 Take this walking stick with you; for with it you will perform miracles."

Moses Returns to Egypt

Exo 4:18 Then Moses went back to Jethro, his father-in-law, and said to him, "Please let me go back to my relatives in Egypt to see if they are still alive." Jethro agreed and told him good-bye.

Exo 4:19 While Moses was still in Midian, the LORD said to him, "Go back to Egypt, for all those who wanted to kill you are dead."

Exo 4:20 So Moses took his wife and his sons, put them on a donkey, and set out with them for Egypt, carrying the walking stick that God had told him to take.

Exo 4:21 Again the LORD said to Moses, "Now that you are going back to Egypt, be sure to perform before the king all the miracles which I have given you the power to do. But I will make the king stubborn, and he will not let the people go.

Exo 4:22 Then you must tell him that I, the LORD, say, 'Israel is my first-born son.

Exo 4:23 I told you to let my son go, so that he might worship me, but you refused. Now I am going to kill your first-born son.' "

Exo 4:24 At a camping place on the way to Egypt, the LORD met Moses and tried to kill him.

Exo 4:25 (25-26) Then Zipporah, his wife, took a sharp stone, cut off the foreskin of her son, and touched Moses' feet with it. Because of the rite of circumcision she said to Moses, "You are a husband of blood to me." And so the LORD spared Moses' life.

Exo 4:27 Meanwhile the LORD had said to Aaron, "Go into the desert to meet Moses." So he went to meet him at the holy mountain; and when he met him, he kissed him.

Exo 4:28 Then Moses told Aaron everything that the LORD had said when he told him to return to Egypt; he also told him about the miracles which the LORD had ordered him to perform.

Exo 4:29 So Moses and Aaron went to Egypt and gathered all the Israelite leaders together.

Exo 4:30 Aaron told them everything that the LORD had said to Moses, and then Moses performed all the miracles in front of the people.

Exo 4:31 They believed, and when they heard that the LORD had come to them and had seen how they were being treated cruelly, they bowed down and worshiped.

1Maar toe sê Moses: Sê nou die Israeliete glo my nie en hulle luister nie na my nie en hulle sê die Here het nie aan my verskyn nie? 2Toe vra die Here vir hom: Wat het jy in jou hand? 'n Kierie, antwoord Moses. 3Gooi die kierie op die grond! sê die Here vir hom. Toe hy dit op die grond gooi, word dit 'n slang, en Moses het daarvoor padgegee. 4Die Here sê toe vir Moses: Steek jou hand uit en gryp hom aan sy stert. Moses steek sy hand uit en gryp hom, en skielik word dit weer 'n kierie in sy hand. 5Toe sê die Here: Op grond hiervan sal hulle glo dat die Here die God van hulle voorvaders, die God van Abraham, die God van Isak, die God van Jakob, aan jou verskyn het. 6Steek nou jou hand in die vou van jou klere! Hy steek toe sy hand in en toe hy dit uittrek, was dit melaats, so wit soos sneeu. 7Hierna sê die Here: Steek nou weer jou hand in jou klere. Hy steek toe weer sy hand in en toe hy dit uittrek, was dit gesond. 8Toe sê die Here: As hulle jou na die eerste wonderwerk nie geglo het nie en hulle nie daaraan gesteur het nie, behoort hulle jou na hierdie een wel te glo. 9As hulle jou n hierdie twee wonderwerke nog nie glo nie en nie na jou luister nie, moet jy van die Nyl se water vat en op die grond uitgooi. Die water wat jy uit die Nyl gevat het, sal dan op die grond bloed word. 10Toe sê Moses vir die Here: Ag, Here, ek kan nie goed praat nie; ek kon nie vroeër nie en ek kan ook nie nou, hier waar U met my praat nie. Ek praat swaar, en my tong sukkel. 11Daarna sê die Here vir hom: Wie het aan die mens 'n mond gegee? Wie maak stom of doof of siende of blind? Is dit nie Ek, die Here, nie? 12Gaan nou, Ek sal jou help met die praat en jou leer wat jy moet sê. 13Maar Moses antwoord: Asseblief tog, Here, stuur liewer iemand anders. 14Toe word die Here kwaad vir Moses en sê: Aäron die Leviet is mos jou broer, en Ek weet hy kan sy woord goed doen. Hy is al op pad om jou te ontmoet en hy sal bly wees om jou weer te sien. 15Praat met hom en sê vir hom wat om te sê. Ek sal by jou wees as jy praat en by hom as hy praat en Ek sal julle leer wat om te doen. 16Wanneer hy namens jou met die volk praat, is hy jou segsman en jy die een wat hom sy opdragte gee. 17Hou nou die kierie waarmee jy die tekens moet gaan doen, by jou. 18Daarna het Moses na sy skoonpa Jetro toe teruggegaan en vir hom gesê: Ek wil graag teruggaan na my mense toe in Egipte om te sien hoe dit met hulle gaan. Jetro antwoord hom: Gaan gerus. 19In Midian het die Here aan Moses gesê: Gaan nou terug na Egipte toe, want al die mense wat jou wou doodmaak, is al dood. 20Toe is Moses met sy vrou en kinders na Egipte toe. Hy het sy vrou en kinders op 'n donkie laat ry en die kierie wat God hom gegee het, saamgevat. 21Die Here het vir Moses gesê: Wanneer jy teruggaan Egipte toe, moet jy sorg dat jy al die wonderwerke waartoe Ek jou in staat gestel het, voor die farao doen. Maar Ek sal hom hardkoppig maak, en hy sal die volk nie laat gaan nie. 22Dan moet jy vir die farao sê: So sê die Here: Israel is my oudste seun. 23Ek het vir jou gesê: Laat my seun gaan sodat hy My kan aanbid. Maar jy het geweier om hom te laat gaan, en nou gaan Ek jou oudste seun doodmaak. 24Waar Moses-hulle langs die pad oornag het, het die Here by hom gekom en wou Hy vir Moses doodmaak. 25Sippora vat toe 'n klipmes, sny haar seun se voorhuid af, raak daarmee aan Moses se voete en sê: Jy is nou my bruidegom wat deur bloed beskerm word. 26Die Here het Moses met rus gelaat net toe sy sê: bruidegom wat deur bloed beskerm word. Dit het betrekking op die besnydenis. 27Intussen het die Here vir Aäron opdrag gegee om Moses in die woestyn tegemoet te gaan. Hy het gegaan en hom by die berg van God aangetref en met 'n soen gegroet. 28Moses vertel toe vir Aäron van alles waarvoor die Here hom gestuur het, ook van al die tekens wat Hy hom beveel het om te doen. 29Moses en Aäron het gegaan en al die leiers van die Israeliete bymekaargeroep. 30Aäron het hulle alles vertel wat die Here vir Moses gesê het, en daarna het Moses die tekens voor die volk gedoen. 31Hulle het hom geglo. Toe hulle hoor dat die Here die nood van die Israeliete gesien het en Hom hulle lot aangetrek het, het hulle in aanbidding gebuig.

Exodus 5

Making Bricks Without Straw

Exo 5:1 Then Moses and Aaron went to the king of Egypt and said, "The LORD, the God of Israel, says, 'Let my people go, so that they can hold a festival in the desert to honor me.' "

Exo 5:2 "Who is the LORD?" the king demanded. "Why should I listen to him and let Israel go? I do not know the LORD; and I will not let Israel go."

Exo 5:3 Moses and Aaron replied, "The God of the Hebrews has revealed himself to us. Allow us to travel three days into the desert to offer sacrifices to the LORD our God. If we don't do so, he will kill us with disease or by war."

Exo 5:4 The king said to Moses and Aaron, "What do you mean by making the people neglect their work? Get those slaves back to work!

Exo 5:5 You people have become more numerous than the Egyptians. And now you want to stop working!"

Exo 5:6 That same day the king commanded the Egyptian slave drivers and the Israelite foremen:

Exo 5:7 "Stop giving the people straw for making bricks. Make them go and find it for themselves.

Exo 5:8 But still require them to make the same number of bricks as before, not one brick less. They don't have enough work to do, and that is why they keep asking me to let them go and offer sacrifices to their God!

Exo 5:9 Make them work harder and keep them busy, so that they won't have time to listen to a pack of lies."

Exo 5:10 The slave drivers and the Israelite foremen went out and said to the Israelites, "The king has said that he will not supply you with any more straw.

Exo 5:11 He says that you must go and get it for yourselves wherever you can find it, but you must still make the same number of bricks."

Exo 5:12 So the people went all over Egypt looking for straw.

Exo 5:13 The slave drivers kept trying to force them to make the same number of bricks every day as they had made when they were given straw.

Exo 5:14 The Egyptian slave drivers beat the Israelite foremen, whom they had put in charge of the work. They demanded, "Why aren't you people making the same number of bricks that you made before?"

Exo 5:15 Then the foremen went to the king and complained, "Why do you do this to us, Your Majesty?

Exo 5:16 We are given no straw, but we are still ordered to make bricks! And now we are being beaten. It is your people that are at fault."

Exo 5:17 The king answered, "You are lazy and don't want to work, and that is why you ask me to let you go and offer sacrifices to the LORD.

Exo 5:18 Now get back to work! You will not be given any straw, but you must still make the same number of bricks."

Exo 5:19 The foremen realized that they were in trouble when they were told that they had to make the same number of bricks every day as they had made before.

Exo 5:20 As they were leaving, they met Moses and Aaron, who were waiting for them.

Exo 5:21 They said to Moses and Aaron, "The LORD has seen what you have done and will punish you for making the king and his officers hate us. You have given them an excuse to kill us."

Exo 5:22 Then Moses turned to the LORD again and said, "Lord, why do you mistreat your people? Why did you send me here?

Exo 5:23 Ever since I went to the king to speak for you, he has treated them cruelly. And you have done nothing to help them!"

1Daarna het Moses en Aäron na die farao toe gegaan en gesê: So sê die Here die God van Israel: Laat my volk gaan om tot my eer 'n fees in die woestyn te vier. 2Maar die farao het geantwoord: En wie is die Here nogal dat ek na Hom sal luister om Israel te laat gaan? Ek ken die Here nie, en ek sal Israel nie laat gaan nie! 3Hulle sê toe: Die God van die Hebreërs het Hom aan ons geopenbaar. Laat ons asseblief drie dagreise die woestyn in trek om 'n offer vir ons God, die Here, te bring, anders tref Hy ons dalk met die pes of die swaard. 4Maar die koning van Egipte het vir hulle gesê: Moses en Aäron, waarom hou julle die volk van hulle werk af weg? Gaan terug na julle werk toe! 5Julle mense is alreeds te veel en nou wil julle hulle ook nog laat ophou werk! 6Dieselfde dag nog het die farao die slawedrywers van die volk en hulle opsigters beveel: 7Julle mag nie meer soos vroeër vir die volk strooi gee om bakstene mee te maak nie. Laat hulle self gaan strooi bymekaarmaak, 8en julle moet van hulle dieselfde hoeveelheid stene as tevore bly eis. Julle mag niks verminder nie! Hulle is net lui, daarom hou hulle aan met neul: Ons wil vir ons God gaan offer.' 9Die werk moet vir die manne so swaar wees en hulle so besig hou dat hulle nie hulle ore uitleen vir allerhande leuens nie. 10Toe het die slawedrywers en die opsigters van die volk vir hulle gaan sê: So sê die farao: Julle kry nie meer strooi nie. 11Loop haal dit self waar julle dit ook al kan kry, maar aan die hoeveelheid werk word niks verminder nie. 12Die volk het toe dwarsoor Egipte stoppels bymekaargemaak, 13en die slawedrywers het hulle aangejaag en gesê: Julle moet nog elke dag net soveel lewer soos toe daar nog strooi verskaf is. 14Boonop het die farao se slawedrywers die Israelitiese opsigters geslaan en vir hulle gesê: Waarom het julle nie vandag net soos vroeër dieselfde hoeveelheid stene gemaak nie? 15Die Israelitiese opsigters kom kla toe by die farao: Waarom maak u so met u werksmense? 16Daar word nie meer strooi aan ons verskaf nie, en tog bly die drywers vir ons sê: Maak bakstene!' Ons word mishandel, maar eintlik lê die fout by ú mense. 17Toe sê die farao: Julle is lui! Lui! Dit is dié dat julle bly sê: Ons wil vir die Here gaan offer.' 18Loop! Gaan werk! Hulle sal nie meer vir julle strooi gee nie, maar julle kwota bakstene sal julle lewer. 19Toe die farao vir die Israelitiese opsigters sê dat die daaglikse kwota bakstene nie verminder gaan word nie, het hulle besef watter ramp hulle getref het. 20Moses en Aäron het hulle buite ingewag, en toe die opsigters van die farao af by hulle kom, 21sê hulle vir Moses en Aäron: Mag die Here julle straf omdat julle ons naam sleg gemaak het by die farao en sy amptenare en vir hulle 'n swaard in die hand gegee het om ons mee dood te maak. 22Daarna het Moses weer na die Here gegaan en gesê: Here, waarom werk U so sleg met hierdie volk? Waarom het U my nou eintlik gestuur? 23Van die eerste oomblik af dat ek by die farao gekom het om in u Naam te praat, het hy hierdie volk mishandel. Tog het U niks gedoen om u volk te red nie! 24Toe sê die Here vir Moses: Nou sal jy sien wat Ek met die farao gaan doen: Ek gaan hom dwing om my volk te laat gaan; ja, Ek gaan hom dwing om hulle uit sy land uit weg te jaag.

Exodus 6

God Promises Deliverance

Exo 6:1 Then the LORD said to Moses, "Now you are going to see what I will do to the king. I will force him to let my people go. In fact, I will force him to drive them out of his land."

Exo 6:2 God spoke to Moses and said, "I am the LORD.

Exo 6:3 I appeared to Abraham, to Isaac, and to Jacob as Almighty God, but I did not make myself known to them by my holy name, the LORD.

Exo 6:4 I also made my covenant with them, promising to give them the land of Canaan, the land in which they had lived as foreigners.

Exo 6:5 Now I have heard the groaning of the Israelites, whom the Egyptians have enslaved, and I have remembered my covenant.

Exo 6:6 So tell the Israelites that I say to them, 'I am the LORD; I will rescue you and set you free from your slavery to the Egyptians. I will raise my mighty arm to bring terrible punishment upon them, and I will save you.

Exo 6:7 I will make you my own people, and I will be your God. You will know that I am the LORD your God when I set you free from slavery in Egypt.

Exo 6:8 I will bring you to the land that I solemnly promised to give to Abraham, Isaac, and Jacob; and I will give it to you as your own possession. I am the LORD.' "

Exo 6:9 Moses told this to the Israelites, but they would not listen to him, because their spirit had been broken by their cruel slavery.

Exo 6:10 Then the LORD said to Moses,

Exo 6:11 "Go and tell the king of Egypt that he must let the Israelites leave his land."

Exo 6:12 But Moses replied, "Even the Israelites will not listen to me, so why should the king? I am such a poor speaker."

Exo 6:13 The LORD commanded Moses and Aaron: "Tell the Israelites and the king of Egypt that I have ordered you to lead the Israelites out of Egypt."

Exo 6:27 They were the men who told the king of Egypt to free the Israelites.

Exo 6:28 When the LORD spoke to Moses in the land of Egypt,

Exo 6:29 he said, "I am the LORD. Tell the king of Egypt everything I tell you."

Exo 6:30 But Moses answered, "You know that I am such a poor speaker; why should the king listen to me?"

EKSODUS 6

1God het vir Moses gesê: Ek is die Here! 2Ek het aan Abraham, Isak en Jakob verskyn as God die Almagtige, maar my Naam, die Here, het Ek nie aan hulle bekend gemaak nie. 3Tog het Ek my verbond met hulle gemaak, naamlik om die land Kanaän aan hulle te gee, 'n land waarvan hulle nie burgers was nie. 4Ek het die gekerm van die Israeliete, wat deur Egipte verkneg word, duidelik gehoor en Ek het aan my verbond gedink. 5Daarom moet jy vir die Israeliete sê: Ek is die Here. Ek sal julle van die dwangarbeid van Egipte bevry. Ek sal julle van die verknegting verlos, Ek sal julle vry maak met mag en met groot reddingsdade. 6Ek neem julle aan as my volk en Ek sal julle God wees. Dan sal julle besef dat Ek, die Here, julle God is wat julle van die dwangarbeid van Egipte bevry. 7Ek sal julle bring na die land toe wat Ek met 'n eed aan Abraham, Isak en Jakob belowe het. Ek sal dit julle eiendom maak. Ek is die Here. 8Dit het Moses toe aan die Israeliete vertel, maar in hulle moedeloosheid oor die harde werk het hulle nie na hom geluister nie. 9Toe sê die Here vir Moses: 10Gaan praat met die farao, die koning van Egipte, dat hy die Israeliete laat trek uit sy land uit. 11Maar Moses sê vir die Here: Die Israeliete luister nie eens na my nie, hoe sal die farao nog na my luister? Ek praat juis nie maklik nie. 12Nogtans het die Here vir Moses en Aäron na die Israeliete en na die farao, die koning van Egipte, toe gestuur met die opdrag om die Israeliete uit Egipte te bevry. 13Die volgende mense was leiers in die familie van Moses en Aäron: Ruben was die oudste seun van Israel. Ruben se seuns was Ganok, Pallu, Gesron en Karmi. Hulle was die familiehoofde van die stam Ruben. 14Die seuns van Simeon was Jemuel, Jamin, Ohad, Jakin, Sogar, en Saul, 'n seun van 'n Kanaänitiese vrou. Hulle was die familiehoofde van die stam Simeon. 15Nou volg die name van die seuns van Levi volgens hulle geslagsregisters: Gerson, Kehat en Merari. Levi het honderd sewe en dertig jaar oud geword. 16Die seuns van Gerson was Libni en Simi. Hulle het nageslagte gehad. 17Die seuns van Kehat was Amram, Jishar, Hebron en Ussiël. Kehat het honderd drie en dertig jaar oud geword. 18Die seuns van Merari was Magli en Musi. Dit was dan volgens die geslagsregisters die familiehoofde van die stam Levi. 19Amram het met Jogebed, 'n tante van hom, getrou, en hulle seuns was Aäron en Moses. Amram het honderd sewe en dertig jaar oud geword. 20Die seuns van Jishar was Korag, Nefeg en Sikri. 21Die seuns van Ussiël was Misael, Elisafan en Sitri. 22Aäron het met Eliseba 'n dogter van Amminadab, suster van Nagson, getrou, en hulle seuns was Nadab, Abihu, Eleasar en Itamar. 23Die seuns van Korag was Assir, Elkana en Abiasaf. Hulle was die familiehoofde van die

Koragiete. 24Aäron se seun Eleasar het met een van die dogters van Putiël getrou, en hulle seun was Pinehas. Dit was dan die familiehoofde van die stam Levi en hulle nageslagte. 25Dit is dié Aäron en Moses vir wie die Here gesê het: Julle moet die stamme van Israel uit Egipte bevry. 26En dit is hulle wat met die farao, die koning van Egipte, onderhandel het oor die bevryding van die Israeliete uit Egipte. 27Toe die Here in Egipte met Moses gepraat het, 28het Hy vir hom gesê: Ek is die Here. Gaan sê vir die farao, die koning van Egipte, alles wat Ek vir jou gesê het. 29Toe sê Moses vir die Here: Ek praat swaar, die farao sal nie na my luister nie.

Exodus 7

Moses and Aaron Before Pharaoh

Exo 7:1 The LORD said, "I am going to make you like God to the king, and your brother Aaron will speak to him as your prophet.

Exo 7:2 Tell Aaron everything I command you, and he will tell the king to let the Israelites leave his country.

Exo 7:3 (3-4) But I will make the king stubborn, and he will not listen to you, no matter how many terrifying things I do in Egypt. Then I will bring severe punishment on Egypt and lead the tribes of my people out of the land.

Exo 7:5 The Egyptians will then know that I am the LORD, when I raise my hand against them and bring the Israelites out of their country."

Exo 7:6 Moses and Aaron did what the LORD commanded.

Exo 7:7 At the time when they spoke to the king, Moses was eighty years old, and Aaron was eighty-three.

Exo 7:8 The LORD said to Moses and Aaron,

Exo 7:9 "If the king demands that you prove yourselves by performing a miracle, tell Aaron to take his walking stick and throw it down in front of the king, and it will turn into a snake."

Exo 7:10 So Moses and Aaron went to the king and did as the LORD had commanded. Aaron threw his walking stick down in front of the king and his officers, and it turned into a snake.

Exo 7:11 Then the king called for his wise men and magicians, and by their magic they did the same thing.

Exo 7:12 They threw down their walking sticks, and the sticks turned into snakes. But Aaron's stick swallowed theirs.

Exo 7:13 The king, however, remained stubborn and, just as the LORD had said, the king would not listen to Moses and Aaron.

The First Plague: Water Turned to Blood

Exo 7:14 Then the LORD said to Moses, "The king is very stubborn and refuses to let the people go.

Exo 7:15 So go and meet him in the morning when he goes down to the Nile. Take with you the walking stick that was turned into a snake, and wait for him on the riverbank.

Exo 7:16 Then say to the king, 'The LORD, the God of the Hebrews, sent me to tell you to let his people go, so that they can worship him in the desert. But until now you have not listened.

Exo 7:17 Now, Your Majesty, the LORD says that you will find out who he is by what he is going to do. Look, I am going to strike the surface of the river with this stick, and the water will be turned into blood.

Exo 7:18 The fish will die, and the river will stink so much that the Egyptians will not be able to drink from it.' "

Exo 7:19 The LORD said to Moses, "Tell Aaron to take his stick and hold it out over all the rivers, canals, and pools in Egypt. The water will become blood, and all over the land there will be blood, even in the wooden tubs and stone jars."

Exo 7:20 Then Moses and Aaron did as the LORD commanded. In the presence of the king and his officers, Aaron raised his stick and struck the surface of the river, and all the water in it was turned into blood.

Exo 7:21 The fish in the river died, and it smelled so bad that the Egyptians could not drink from it. There was blood everywhere in Egypt.

Exo 7:22 Then the king's magicians did the same thing by means of their magic, and the king was as stubborn as ever. Just as the LORD had said, the king refused to listen to Moses and Aaron.

Exo 7:23 Instead, he turned and went back to his palace without paying any attention even to this.

Exo 7:24 All the Egyptians dug along the bank of the river for drinking water, because they were not able to drink water from the river.

Exo 7:25 Seven days passed after the LORD struck the river.

EKSODUS 7

1Maar die Here antwoord hom: Kyk, Ek gee aan jou gesag oor die farao, en jou broer Aäron sal jou woordvoerder wees. 2Alles wat Ek jou beveel, moet jy aan jou broer Aäron oordra, en hy moet dit vir die farao vertel sodat hy die Israeliete kan laat trek uit sy land uit. 3Maar Ek sal die farao hardkoppig maak, sodat Ek baie tekens en wonders in Egipte kan doen. 4Hy sal wel nie na julle luister nie, maar dan sal Ek Egipte my mag laat ervaar: met groot reddingsdade sal Ek die stamme van my volk Israel uit Egipte bevry. 5As Ek Egipte tref, sal hulle besef dat Ek die Here is, en dan sal Ek Israel tussen hulle uit laat trek. 6Moses en Aäron het gedoen presies wat die Here hulle beveel het. 7Moses was tagtig en Aäron drie en tagtig toe hulle met die farao gaan praat het. 8Verder het die Here vir Moses en Aäron gesê: 9As die farao vir julle sê: Doen bietjie 'n wonderteken,' moet jy vir Aäron sê: Vat jou kierie en gooi dit voor die farao neer dat dit 'n groot slang word. 10Toe Moses en Aäron by die farao kom, het hulle gedoen wat die Here beveel het: Aäron het sy kierie voor die farao en sy amptenare neergegooi en dit het in 'n groot slang verander. 11Die farao roep toe ook sy manne bymekaar wat dié soort ding ken, sy goëlaars. Dié Egiptiese towenaars doen toe met hulle towerkunste presies dieselfde: 12soos elkeen sy kierie neergooi, verander dit in 'n groot slang. Maar toe sluk Aäron s'n hulle s'n in! 13Tog het die farao koppig gebly en nie aan hulle versoek gehoor gegee nie, net soos die Here vooraf gesê het. 14Die Here het vir Moses gesê: Die farao bly onversetlik, hy hou aan weier om die volk te laat trek. 15Gaan môre vroeg na die farao toe; hy sal juis op pad wees water toe. Gaan wag vir hom langs die Nyl, met die kierie wat in 'n slang verander het, in jou hand. 16Sê dan vir hom: Die Here die God van die Hebreërs het my na jou toe gestuur met die opdrag dat jy my volk moet laat gaan om My in die woestyn te dien, maar tot nou toe het jy nie gehoor gegee nie. 17So sê die Here: Deur wat nou gaan volg, sal jy weet dat Ek die Here is.' Jy moet ook vir die farao sê: Met hierdie kierie in my hand sal ek op die Nyl se water slaan, en dit sal in bloed verander. 18Dan sal die vis in die Nyl vrek, en dit sal so stink dat die Egiptenaars nie die water sal kan drink nie. 19Verder sê die Here vir Moses: Sê vir Aäron: Vat jou kierie en swaai dit oor al die water van Egipte, oor sy kanale, riviere, moerasse en damme, dat dit bloed kan word. Daar sal bloed wees in die hele Egipte, selfs in die hout- en klipbakke. 20Toe het Moses en Aäron gedoen presies wat die Here hulle beveel het. Aäron het sy kierie opgelig en voor die oë van die farao en sy amptenare op die Nyl se water geslaan, en al die water het in bloed verander. 21Die vis in die Nyl het gevrek en die Nyl se water het so gestink dat die Egiptenaars dit nie kon drink nie. Oral in Egipte was daar bloed. [22]Maar die Egiptiese towenaars het met hulle towerkunste dieselfde gedoen, sodat die farao koppig gebly het. Hy het nie aan Moses-hulle se versoek gehoor gegee nie, soos die Here vooraf gesê het. [23]Die farao het omgedraai na sy paleis toe sonder om hom daaraan te steur. [24]Intussen het die hele Egipte langs die Nyl na drinkwater gegrawe omdat hulle nie die Nyl se water kon drink nie. [25]Die toestand het 'n volle sewe dae geduur nadat die Here die Nyl getref het.

The Second Plague: Frogs

Exo 8:1 Then the LORD said to Moses, "Go to the king and tell him that the LORD says, 'Let my people go, so that they can worship me.

Exo 8:2 If you refuse, I will punish your country by covering it with frogs.

Exo 8:3 The Nile will be so full of frogs that they will leave it and go into your palace, your bedroom, your bed, the houses of your officials and your people, and even into your ovens and baking pans.

Exo 8:4 They will jump up on you, your people, and all your officials.' "

Exo 8:5 The LORD said to Moses, "Tell Aaron to hold out his walking stick over the rivers, the canals, and the pools, and make frogs come up and cover the land of Egypt."

Exo 8:6 So Aaron held it out over all the water, and the frogs came out and covered the land.

Exo 8:7 But the magicians used magic, and they also made frogs come up on the land.

Exo 8:8 The king called for Moses and Aaron and said, "Pray to the LORD to take away these frogs, and I will let your people go, so that they can offer sacrifices to the LORD."

Exo 8:9 Moses replied, "I will be glad to pray for you. Just set the time when I am to pray for you, your officers, and your people. Then you will be rid of the frogs, and there will be none left except in the Nile."

Exo 8:10 The king answered, "Pray for me tomorrow." Moses said, "I will do as you ask, and then you will know that there is no other god like the LORD, our God.

Exo 8:11 You, your officials, and your people will be rid of the frogs, and there will be none left except in the Nile."

Exo 8:12 Then Moses and Aaron left the king, and Moses prayed to the LORD to take away the frogs which he had brought on the king.

Exo 8:13 The LORD did as Moses asked, and the frogs in the houses, the courtyards, and the fields died.

Exo 8:14 The Egyptians piled them up in great heaps, until the land stank with them.

Exo 8:15 When the king saw that the frogs were dead, he became stubborn again and, just as the LORD had said, the king would not listen to Moses and Aaron.

The Third Plague: Gnats

Exo 8:16 The LORD said to Moses, "Tell Aaron to strike the ground with his stick, and all over the land of Egypt the dust will change into gnats."

Exo 8:17 So Aaron struck the ground with his stick, and all the dust in Egypt was turned into gnats, which covered the people and the animals.

Exo 8:18 The magicians tried to use their magic to make gnats appear, but they failed. There were gnats everywhere, Exo 8:19 and the magicians said to the king, "God has done this!" But the king was stubborn and, just as the LORD had said, the king would not listen to Moses and Aaron.

The Fourth Plague: Flies

Exo 8:20 The LORD said to Moses, "Early tomorrow morning go and meet the king as he goes to the river, and tell him that the LORD says, 'Let my people go, so that they can worship me.

Exo 8:21 I warn you that if you refuse, I will punish you by sending flies on you, your officials, and your people. The houses of the Egyptians will be full of flies, and the ground will be covered with them.

Exo 8:22 But I will spare the region of Goshen, where my people live, so that there will be no flies there. I will do this so that you will know that I, the LORD, am at work in this land.

Exo 8:23 I will make a distinction between my people and your people. This miracle will take place tomorrow.' "

Exo 8:24 The LORD sent great swarms of flies into the king's palace and the houses of his officials. The whole land of Egypt was brought to ruin by the flies.

Exo 8:25 Then the king called for Moses and Aaron and said, "Go and offer sacrifices to your God here in this country."

Exo 8:26 "It would not be right to do that," Moses answered, "because the Egyptians would be offended by our sacrificing the animals that we offer to the LORD our God. If we use these animals and offend the Egyptians by sacrificing them where they can see us, they will stone us to death.

Exo 8:27 We must travel three days into the desert to offer sacrifices to the LORD our God, just as he commanded us."

Exo 8:28 The king said, "I will let you go to sacrifice to the LORD, your God, in the desert, if you do not go very far. Pray for me."

Exo 8:29 Moses answered, "As soon as I leave, I will pray to the LORD that tomorrow the flies will leave you, your officials, and your people. But you must not deceive us again and prevent the people from going to sacrifice to the LORD."

Exo 8:30 Moses left the king and prayed to the LORD,

Exo 8:31 and the LORD did as Moses asked. The flies left the king, his officials, and his people; not one fly remained.

Exo 8:32 But even this time the king became stubborn, and again he would not let the people go.

EKSODUS 8

[1]Daarna sê die Here vir Moses: Gaan sê vir die farao: So sê die Here: Laat my volk gaan om My te dien. [2]As jy weier om hulle te laat gaan, sal Ek jou hele gebied met 'n paddaplaag tref. [3]Die Nyl sal wemel van die paddas. Hulle sal uitspring en in jou paleis kom, in jou slaapkamer, op jou bed, in jou amptenare se huise, tussen jou mense, in jou bakoonde en in jou skottels. [4]Die paddas sal op jou en op jou mense en al jou amptenare spring. [5]Verder sê die Here vir Moses: Sê vir Aäron: Swaai jou kierie oor die kanale, riviere en moerasse. Laat daar paddas kom oor Egipte. [6]Aäron swaai toe sy kierie oor al die water van Egipte en toe kom die paddas: Egipte was oortrek van hulle. [7]Tog het die towenaars met hulle towerkunste dieselfde gedoen en ook paddas oor Egipte laat kom. [8]Hierna roep die farao vir Moses en Aäron en sê: Julle moet die Here bid dat Hy die paddas van my en my mense af wegvat. Dan sal ek die volk laat gaan dat hulle vir die Here kan gaan offer. [9]Moses antwoord toe: Soos dit U Majesteit behaag. Wanneer sal ek vir u, u amptenare en u mense bid dat die paddas heeltemal van u en u huise af weggevat kan word, en daar net in die Nyl nog van hulle sal oorbly? [10]En die farao antwoord: Doen dit môre. Toe sê Moses: Goed, dan sal u besef dat daar geen god is soos ons God, die Here, nie. [11]Die paddas sal van u af weggevat word, van u huise, u amptenare en u mense af; net in die Nyl sal daar nog paddas oorbly. [12]Moses en Aäron het van die farao af weggegaan en Moses het die Here aangeroep oor die paddas wat Hy oor die farao gebring het. [13]Die Here het gedoen wat Moses gevra het, en die paddas het gevrek, in die huise, in die binneplase en op die lande. [14]Die mense het dit hope-hope bymekaargehark, en die land het daarvan gestink. [15]Maar toe die farao sien dat daar verligting gekom het, het hy weer onversetlik geword. Hy het nie aan Moses-hulle se versoek gehoor gegee nie, soos die Here vooraf gesê het. [16]Daarna het die Here vir Moses gesê: Sê vir Aäron: Swaai jou kierie en slaan op die grond dat daar muggies oor die hele Egipte kom. [17]Hulle twee het toe so gemaak. Aäron het die kierie geswaai en op die grond geslaan, en mens en dier was oortrek van die muggies. In die hele Egipte het elke krieseltjie stof 'n muggie geword. [18]Die towenaars het dieselfde probeer doen met hulle towerkunste, dié keer om muggies voort te bring, maar hulle kon nie. Mens en dier was oortrek van die muggies. [19]Toe sê die towenaars vir die farao: Dit is die vinger van God! Maar die farao het koppig gebly. Hy het nie aan Moses-hulle se versoek gehoor gegee nie, net soos die Here vooraf gesê het. [20]Daarna het die Here vir Moses gesê: Staan môreoggend vroeg op en gaan wag vir die farao by die water. Hy sal juis op pad wees soontoe. Sê vir hom: So sê die Here: Laat my volk gaan om My te dien, 21want as jy my volk nie laat gaan nie, sal Ek steekvlieë op jou loslaat, op jou amptenare, op jou mense en in jou huise. In die huise van die Egiptenaars en ook op hulle lande sal dit swerm van die steekvlieë. 22Maar dié dag sal Ek 'n uitsondering maak van die Gosenstreek waar my volk woon. Dáár sal nie 'n enkele steekvlieg wees nie, dat jy kan besef dat Ek, die Here, in die land is. 23Ek neem my volk in beskerming, joune nie. Net môre sal hierdie wonder gebeur. 24Die Here het dit toe gedoen. Groot swerms steekvlieë het in die paleis van die farao in gekom, in die huise van sy amptenare en oor die hele Egipte. Die land is daardeur lam gelê. 25Toe roep die farao vir Moses en Aäron en sê: Julle kan vir julle God gaan offer, maar hier in dié land! 26Maar Moses antwoord: Dit kan ons nie doen nie, want ons offers aan ons God, die Here, gee aanstoot aan die Egiptenaars. As ons nou hier voor hulle oë offers bring wat vir hulle aanstootlik is, sal hulle ons mos met klippe doodgooi! 27Ons wil maar net drie dagreise ver die woestyn in gaan om aan ons God, die Here, te offer soos Hy ons beveel het. 28Hierna sê die farao: Dan laat ek julle nou maar gaan om in die woestyn vir julle God, die Here, te offer. Moet net nie te ver weg gaan nie, en bid vir my. 29Toe antwoord Moses: Ek gaan nou weg van u af en sal die Here bid dat die steekvlieë môre van u af padgee en van u amptenare en u mense af. U Majesteit moet nou net nie weer u woord breek deur die volk nie te laat gaan om vir die Here te offer nie! 30Moses het weggegaan van die farao af en tot die Here gebid. 31Die Here het toe gedoen wat Moses gevra het en die steekvlieë van die farao af laat padgee, en van sy amptenare en sy mense af. Daar het nie een oorgebly nie. 32En tog het die farao ook hierdie keer onversetlik gebly en die volk nie laat gaan nie.

Exodus 9

The Fifth Plague: Egyptian Livestock Die

Exo 9:1 The LORD said to Moses, "Go to the king and tell him that the LORD, the God of the Hebrews, says, 'Let my people go, so that they may worship me.

Exo 9:2 If you again refuse to let them go,

Exo 9:3 I will punish you by sending a terrible disease on all your animals—your horses, donkeys, camels, cattle, sheep, and goats.

Exo 9:4 I will make a distinction between the animals of the Israelites and those of the Egyptians, and no animal that belongs to the Israelites will die.

Exo 9:5 I, the LORD, have set tomorrow as the time when I will do this.' "

Exo 9:6 The next day the LORD did as he had said, and all the animals of the Egyptians died, but not one of the animals of the Israelites died.

Exo 9:7 The king asked what had happened and was told that none of the animals of the Israelites had died. But he was stubborn and would not let the people go.

The Sixth Plague: Boils

Exo 9:8 Then the LORD said to Moses and Aaron, "Take a few handfuls of ashes from a furnace; Moses is to throw them into the air in front of the king.

Exo 9:9 They will spread out like fine dust over all the land of Egypt, and everywhere they will produce boils that become open sores on the people and the animals."

Exo 9:10 So they got some ashes and stood before the king; Moses threw them into the air, and they produced boils that became open sores on the people and the animals.

Exo 9:11 The magicians were not able to appear before Moses, because they were covered with boils, like all the other Egyptians.

Exo 9:12 But the LORD made the king stubborn and, just as the LORD had said, the king would not listen to Moses and Aaron.

The Seventh Plague: Hail

Exo 9:13 The LORD then said to Moses, "Early tomorrow morning meet with the king and tell him that the LORD, the God of the Hebrews, says, 'Let my people go, so that they may worship me.

Exo 9:14 This time I will punish not only your officials and your people, but I will punish you as well, so that you may know that there is no one like me in all the world.

Exo 9:15 If I had raised my hand to strike you and your people with disease, you would have been completely destroyed.

Exo 9:16 But to show you my power I have let you live so that my fame might spread over the whole world.

Exo 9:17 Yet you are still arrogant and refuse to let my people go.

Exo 9:18 This time tomorrow I will cause a heavy hailstorm, such as Egypt has never known in all its history.

Exo 9:19 Now give orders for your livestock and everything else you have in the open to be put under shelter. Hail will fall on the people and animals left outside unprotected, and they will all die.' "

Exo 9:20 Some of the king's officials were afraid because of what the LORD had said, and they brought their slaves and animals indoors for shelter.

Exo 9:21 Others, however, paid no attention to the LORD's warning and left their slaves and animals out in the open.

Exo 9:22 Then the LORD said to Moses, "Raise your hand toward the sky, and hail will fall over the whole land of Egypt—on the people, the animals, and all the plants in the fields."

Exo 9:23 So Moses raised his stick toward the sky, and the LORD sent thunder and hail, and lightning struck the ground. The LORD sent Exo 9:24 a heavy hailstorm, with lightning flashing back and forth. It was the worst storm that Egypt had ever known in all its history.

Exo 9:25 All over Egypt the hail struck down everything in the open, including all the people and all the animals. It beat down all the plants in the fields and broke all the trees.

Exo 9:26 The region of Goshen, where the Israelites lived, was the only place where there was no hail.

Exo 9:27 The king sent for Moses and Aaron and said, "This time I have sinned; the LORD is in the right, and my people and I are in the wrong.

Exo 9:28 Pray to the LORD! We have had enough of this thunder and hail! I promise to let you go; you don't have to stay here any longer."

Exo 9:29 Moses said to him, "As soon as I go out of the city, I will lift up my hands in prayer to the LORD. The thunder will stop, and there will be no more hail, so that you may know that the earth belongs to the LORD.

Exo 9:30 But I know that you and your officials do not yet fear the LORD God."

Exo 9:31 The flax and the barley were ruined, because the barley was ripe, and the flax was budding.

Exo 9:32 But none of the wheat was ruined, because it ripens later.

Exo 9:33 Moses left the king, went out of the city, and lifted up his hands in prayer to the LORD. The thunder, the hail, and the rain all stopped.

Exo 9:34 When the king saw what had happened, he sinned again. He and his officials remained as stubborn as ever

Exo 9:35 and, just as the LORD had foretold through Moses, the king would not let the Israelites go.

EKSODUS 9

[1]Daarna het die Here vir Moses gesê: Gaan sê vir die farao: So sê die Here die God van die Hebreërs: Laat my volk gaan om My te dien. [2]As jy weier om hulle te laat gaan en hulle bly vashou, [3]sal die Here sy mag toon met 'n baie swaar pes onder al jou vee in die veld: perde, donkies, kamele, beeste en kleinvee. [4]Die Here sal onderskeid maak tussen die vee van Israel en dié van Egipte: daar sal nie 'n enkele stuk vee van die Israeliete vrek nie. [5]Die Here het 'n tyd vasgestel en Hy het gesê Hy sal dit die volgende dag in Egipte laat gebeur. [6]Die volgende dag doen Hy dit toe ook, en al die vee van Egipte is dood, maar van die vee van die Israeliete is daar nie een dood nie. [7]Die farao het navraag gedoen en jou werklik waar, nie 'n enkele stuk van die Israeliete se vee is dood nie. Tog was die farao steeds onversetlik: hy het die volk nie laat gaan nie. [8]Daarna het die Here vir Moses en Aäron gesê: Skep hande vol roet uit 'n oond en laat Moses dit voor die farao in die lug opgooi. [9]Dit sal 'n fyn poeier word oor die hele Egipte en dit sal dwarsoor Egipte op mens en dier swere veroorsaak wat aanhoudend etter. [10]Hulle het toe roet uit 'n oond gevat en voor die farao gaan staan. Toe Moses dit in die lug opgooi, kom daar op mens en dier swere wat aanhoudend etter. [11]Die towenaars kon Moses dit nie eens probeer nadoen nie, want hulle was vol swere. Die swere het op al die Egiptenaars uitgekom, ook op die towenaars. [12]Tog het die Here die farao nog steeds koppig laat bly. Hy het nie aan Moses en Aäron se versoek gehoor gegee nie, soos die Here vooraf vir Moses gesê het. [13]Daarna het die Here vir Moses gesê: Staan môreoggend vroeg op en gaan na die farao toe en sê vir hom: So sê die Here die God van die Hebreërs: Laat my volk gaan om My te dien, [14]anders gaan Ek jou hierdie keer met 'n groot ramp tref en ook jou amptenare en jou mense. Dan sal jy besef dat daar op die hele aarde niemand soos Ek is nie. [15]Na regte moes Ek nou al my hand uitgesteek het en jou en jou mense met 'n pes van die aarde af uitgewis het. [16]Daar is net een rede waarom Ek jou nog laat lewe, en dit is dat Ek jou my mag kan wys en my Naam daardeur oor die hele wêreld geroem kan word. [17]Nog steeds hou jy jou groot teen my volk en laat jy hulle nie gaan nie. [18]Môre hierdie tyd gaan Ek 'n verskriklike swaar haelstorm laat losbars soos daar nog nooit in die bestaan van Egipte was nie. [19]Laat nou al jou vee en alles wat buite is, na veiligheid bring. Al die mense en diere wat buite is en nie onder dak gebring is nie, sal deur die hael doodgeslaan word. [20]Die amptenare van die farao wat bang geword het toe hulle hoor wat die Here gesê het, het haastig hulle slawe en vee onder dak gebring, [21]maar dié wat hulle nie aan sy woorde gesteur het nie, het hulle slawe en vee buite laat bly. [22]Toe het die Here vir Moses gesê: Steek jou hand in die lug op dat daar hael oor die hele Egipte kan kom oor mens en dier, en oor al die plante van Egipte. [23]Toe Moses sy kierie in die lug opsteek, het die Here donderslae en hael gestuur, en die blitse het tot op die grond geslaan. Die Here het die haelstorm oor Egipte laat losbars. [24]Die hael het geval; tussen die hael deur het die een blits op die ander gevolg, so erg soos dit nog nooit was vandat daar mense in Egipte woon nie. [25]Die hael het die hele Egipte getref, alles wat buite was, mens en dier. Al die plante is deur die hael weggeslaan, selfs al die bome is in repe geslaan. [26]Net in die Gosenstreek, waar die Israeliete was, was daar nie hael nie. [27]Die farao laat roep toe vir Moses en Aäron en sê vir hulle: Nou erken ek ek was verkeerd. Die Here het reg, ek en my mense is skuldig. [28]Bid tog tot die Here. Die donderslae en hael is vir ons te erg. Ek sal julle laat gaan. Julle hoef nie langer te bly nie. [29]Toe het Moses vir hom gesê: Sodra ek uit die stad is, sal ek my hande in gebed na die Here uitsteek. Dan sal die donderslae ophou, en daar sal nie meer hael wees nie, dat u kan besef dat hierdie land aan die Here behoort. [30]Wat u en u amptenare betref, ek weet u het nog nie ontsag vir God, die Here, nie. [31]Die vlas- en die garsoes is vernietig omdat die gars in die aar en die vlas in die knop was, [32]maar die koring en die sorghum is nie vernietig nie omdat dit later ryp word. [33]Moses is van die farao af weg uit die stad uit, en hy het sy hande in gebed na die Here uitgesteek. Die donderslae en die hael het opgehou en die stortbuie het bedaar. [34]Toe die farao sien die reën, hael en donderslae hou op, het hy maar weer verkeerd gedoen. Hy en sy amptenare was onversetlik. [35]Die farao het koppig gebly en die Israeliete nie laat gaan nie, soos die Here vooraf deur Moses gesê het.

Exodus 10

The Eighth Plague: Locusts

Exo 10:1 Then the LORD said to Moses, "Go and see the king. I have made him and his officials stubborn, in order that I may perform these miracles among them

Exo 10:2 and in order that you may be able to tell your children and grandchildren how I made fools of the Egyptians when I performed the miracles. All of you will know that I am the LORD."

Exo 10:3 So Moses and Aaron went to the king and said to him, "The LORD, the God of the Hebrews, says, 'How much longer will you refuse to submit to me? Let my people go, so that they may worship me.

Exo 10:4 If you keep on refusing, then I will bring locusts into your country tomorrow.

Exo 10:5 There will be so many that they will completely cover the ground. They will eat everything that the hail did not destroy, even the trees that are left.

Exo 10:6 They will fill your palaces and the houses of all your officials and all your people. They will be worse than anything your ancestors ever saw.' " Then Moses turned and left.

Exo 10:7 The king's officials said to him, "How long is this man going to give us trouble? Let the Israelite men go, so that they can worship the LORD their God. Don't you realize that Egypt is ruined?"

Exo 10:8 So Moses and Aaron were brought back to the king, and he said to them, "You may go and worship the LORD your God. But exactly who will go?"

Exo 10:9 Moses answered, "We will all go, including our children and our old people. We will take our sons and daughters, our sheep and goats, and our cattle, because we must hold a festival to honor the LORD."

Exo 10:10 The king said, "I swear by the LORD that I will never let you take your women and children! It is clear that you are plotting to revolt.

Exo 10:11 No! Only the men may go and worship the LORD if that is what you want." With that, Moses and Aaron were driven out of the king's presence.

Exo 10:12 Then the LORD said to Moses, "Raise your hand over the land of Egypt to bring the locusts. They will come and eat everything that grows, everything that has survived the hail."

Exo 10:13 So Moses raised his stick, and the LORD caused a wind from the east to blow on the land all that day and all that night. By morning it had brought the locusts.

Exo 10:14 They came in swarms and settled over the whole country. It was the largest swarm of locusts that had ever been seen or that ever would be seen again.

Exo 10:15 They covered the ground until it was black with them; they ate everything that the hail had left, including all the fruit on the trees. Not a green thing was left on any tree or plant in all the land of Egypt.

Exo 10:16 Then the king hurriedly called Moses and Aaron and said, "I have sinned against the LORD your God and against you.

Exo 10:17 Now forgive my sin this one time and pray to the LORD your God to take away this fatal punishment from me."

Exo 10:18 Moses left the king and prayed to the LORD.

Exo 10:19 And the LORD changed the east wind into a very strong west wind, which picked up the locusts and blew them into the Gulf of Suez. Not one locust was left in all of Egypt.

Exo 10:20 But the LORD made the king stubborn, and he did not let the Israelites go.

The Ninth Plague: Darkness

Exo 10:21 The LORD then said to Moses, "Raise your hand toward the sky, and a darkness thick enough to be felt will cover the land of Egypt."

Exo 10:22 Moses raised his hand toward the sky, and there was total darkness throughout Egypt for three days.

Exo 10:23 The Egyptians could not see each other, and no one left his house during that time. But the Israelites had light where they were living.

Exo 10:24 The king called Moses and said, "You may go and worship the LORD; even your women and children may go with you. But your sheep, goats, and cattle must stay here."

Exo 10:25 Moses answered, "Then you would have to provide us with animals for sacrifices and burnt offerings to offer to the LORD our God.

Exo 10:26 No, we will take our animals with us; not one will be left behind. We ourselves must select the animals with which to worship the LORD our God. And until we get there, we will not know what animals to sacrifice to him."

Exo 10:27 The LORD made the king stubborn, and he would not let them go.

Exo 10:28 He said to Moses, "Get out of my sight! Don't let me ever see you again! On the day I do, you will die!"

Exo 10:29 "You are right," Moses answered. "You will never see me again."

EKSODUS 10

1Daarna het die Here vir Moses gesê: Gaan na die farao toe, want Ek het hom en sy amptenare onversetlik gemaak sodat Ek hierdie wonders van My onder hulle kan doen. 2Dan kan jy aan jou kinders en kleinkinders vertel wat Ek aan die Egiptenaars gedoen het en watter wonders Ek onder hulle verrig het om julle te laat besef dat Ek die Here is. 3Moses en Aäron het toe na die farao toe gegaan en vir hom gesê: So sê die Here die God van die Hebreërs: Hoe lank gaan jy nog weier om jou aan My te onderwerp? Laat my volk gaan om My te dien! 4As jy weier om my volk te laat gaan, bring Ek môre 'n sprinkaanplaag oor jou land. 5Die land sal so toe wees onder hulle dat 'n mens nie die grond sal kan sien nie. Hulle sal elke groenigheidjie afvreet wat oorgebly het na die hael, selfs dié van elke boom wat weer uitloop. 6Hulle sal oral in jou paleise wees, in die huise van al jou amptenare en van elke Egiptenaar. So iets het julle en al julle voorvaders nog nooit gesien vandat hulle in die land is tot nou toe nie. Toe het Moses omgedraai en van die farao af weggegaan. 7Die amptenare sê toe vir die farao: Hoe lank gaan dié man nog vir ons moeilikheid gee? Laat hulle nou maar gaan om hulle God, die Here, te dien, maar net die mans. U sien tog dat Egipte te gronde gaan. 8Toe is Moses en Aäron na die farao toe teruggebring en hy sê vir hulle: Gaan dien julle God, die Here! Maar wie gaan almal saam? 9Moses antwoord: Ons gaan almal, met ons jong manne en ons ou manne, met ons seuns en ons dogters, met ons kleinvee en ons grootvee, want ons moet vir die Here 'n fees gaan hou. 10Maar die farao sê vir hulle: Die Here is net so min met julle as wat ek julle vrouens en kinders saam met julle sal laat gaan. Julle het 'n verkeerde ding in die kop. 11So sal ek dit nie toelaat nie! Net die mans gaan! Gaan dien die Here; dit is mos wat julle nog altyd vra! Toe is hulle van die farao af weggejaag. 12Daarna het die Here vir Moses gesê: Steek jou hand uit oor Egipte dat daar sprinkane oor die land kan kom om elke groen sprietjie op te vreet wat van die hael oorgebly het. 13Toe steek Moses sy kierie oor Egipte uit, en die Here het daardie hele dag en nag 'n oostewind laat waai wat die sprinkane aangebring het. Die volgende môre was hulle daar. 14Hulle het oor Egipte gekom en die hele land vol gesit, 'n yslike groot sprinkaanswerm, soos daar nog nooit tevore was nie en hierna ook nie weer sal wees nie. 15Die land was toe onder hulle en dit was donker. Hulle het elke groen sprietjie in die land opgevreet, en alles wat na die hael aan die bome oorgebly het. Daar het geen groenigheid aan 'n boom of 'n plant in Egipte oorgebly nie. 16Die farao laat toe haastig vir Moses en Aäron roep en hy sê: Ek het verkeerd gedoen teen julle God, die Here, en teen julle! 17Vergeef tog asseblief net hierdie keer my oortreding! Bid tot julle God, die Here, dat Hy hierdie dood afweer van my af. 18Moses het van die farao af weggegaan en tot die Here gebid. 19Toe laat die Here die wind verander in 'n sterk westewind wat die sprinkane opgeskep het en in die Rietsee gegooi het. Daar het nie een enkele sprinkaan in die hele Egiptiese gebied oorgebly nie. 20Maar die Here het die farao weer koppig gemaak, en hy het die Israeliete nie laat gaan nie. 21Daarna het die Here vir Moses gesê: Steek jou hand in die lug op, dan sal dit donker word in Egipte, so donker dat 'n mens dit kan voel. 22Moses het toe sy hand in die lug opgesteek, en drie dae lank was dit pikdonker oor die hele Egipte. 23Die mense kon mekaar nie sien nie en drie dae lank kon niemand iets uitrig nie, maar in al die woongebiede van die Israeliete was daar lig. 24Toe laat die farao vir Moses roep en sê: Gaan dien die Here! Julle vrouens en kinders kan saamgaan, maar julle kleinvee en julle grootvee moet hier agterbly. 25Maar Moses sê: U sal tog nie vir ons brandoffers en ander diereoffers gee om aan ons God, die Here, te bring nie! 26Daarom gaan ons vee beslis met ons saam. Daar bly nie 'n kloutjie agter nie. Ons moet van die vee gebruik om ons God, die Here, te dien en voordat ons daar aankom, weet ons nog nie met watter offer ons Hom sal dien nie. 27Maar die Here het die farao weer koppig gemaak, sodat hy hulle nie wou laat gaan nie. 28Toe het die farao vir Moses gesê: Maak dat jy hier wegkom! Sorg dat ek jou nie weer sien nie, want die oomblik dat ek jou weer sien, sterf jy! 29Moses het geantwoord: Soos u sê: u sal my nie weer sien nie.

A Final Plague Threatened

Exo 11:1 Then the LORD said to Moses, "I will send only one more punishment on the king of Egypt and his people. After that he will let you leave. In fact, he will drive all of you out of here.

Exo 11:2 Now speak to the people of Israel and tell all of them to ask their neighbors for gold and silver jewelry."

Exo 11:3 The LORD made the Egyptians respect the Israelites. Indeed, the officials and all the people considered Moses to be a very great man.

Exo 11:4 Moses then said to the king, "The LORD says, 'At about midnight I will go through Egypt, Exo 11:5 and every first-born son in Egypt will die, from the king's son, who is heir to the throne, to the son of the slave woman who grinds grain. The first-born of all the cattle will die also.

Exo 11:6 There will be loud crying all over Egypt, such as there has never been before or ever will be again.

Exo 11:7 But not even a dog will bark at the Israelites or their animals. Then you will know that I, the LORD, make a distinction between the Egyptians and the Israelites.' "

Exo 11:8 Moses concluded by saying, "All your officials will come to me and bow down before me, and they will beg me to take all my people and go away. After that, I will leave." Then in great anger Moses left the king.

Exo 11:9 The LORD had said to Moses, "The king will continue to refuse to listen to you, in order that I may do more of my miracles in Egypt."

Exo 11:10 Moses and Aaron performed all these miracles before the king, but the LORD made him stubborn, and he would not let the Israelites leave his country.

EKSODUS 11

1Die Here het toe vir Moses gesê: Met nog een plaag sal Ek die farao en Egipte tref, en dan sal hy julle hiervandaan laat gaan. Ja, hy sal julle onvoorwaardelik laat trek; hy sal julle selfs wegjaag hiervandaan. 2Gaan sê vir die volk elke man en vrou moet silwer- en goue goed van hulle Egiptiese bure eis. 3Die Here het gesorg dat die Egiptenaars aan sy volk goed doen, en boonop het Moses groot aansien onder die Egiptenaars geniet, by die amptenare en die volk. 4Toe sê Moses vir die farao: So sê die Here: Teen middernag sal Ek deur Egipte gaan, 5en elke eersgeborene in Egipte sal sterwe, van die kroonprins af, die eersgeborene van die farao, tot by die eersgeborene van die slavin wat koring maal, ja, selfs al die eerstelinge van die diere. 6In die hele Egipte sal daar so gehuil en gerou word soos nog nooit tevore nie en ook nie later nie. 7Maar onder die Israeliete sal niemand iets oorkom nie, nie 'n mens of 'n dier nie. Dan sal julle besef dat die Here 'n verskil maak tussen Egiptenaar en Israeliet. 8Al hierdie amptenare van u sal voor my kom buig en vra: Jy en jou hele volk moet asseblief trek.' Dan sal ek trek. Moses is toe woedend van die farao af weg. 9Daarna het die Here vir Moses gesê: Die farao luister nie na julle nie sodat my wonders in Egipte nog meer kan word. 10Moses en Aäron het al hierdie wonders voor die farao gedoen, maar die Here het die farao koppig gemaak, sodat hy die Israeliete nie uit sy land wou laat trek nie.

Exodus 12

The Passover

Exo 12:1 The LORD spoke to Moses and Aaron in Egypt:

Exo 12:2 "This month is to be the first month of the year for you.

Exo 12:3 Give these instructions to the whole community of Israel: On the tenth day of this month each man must choose either a lamb or a young goat for his household.

Exo 12:4 If his family is too small to eat a whole animal, he and his next-door neighbor may share an animal, in proportion to the number of people and the amount that each person can eat.

Exo 12:5 You may choose either a sheep or a goat, but it must be a one-year-old male without any defects.

Exo 12:6 Then, on the evening of the fourteenth day of the month, the whole community of Israel will kill the animals.

Exo 12:7 The people are to take some of the blood and put it on the doorposts and above the doors of the houses in which the animals are to be eaten.

Exo 12:8 That night the meat is to be roasted, and eaten with bitter herbs and with bread made without yeast.

Exo 12:9 Do not eat any of it raw or boiled, but eat it roasted whole, including the head, the legs, and the internal organs.

Exo 12:10 You must not leave any of it until morning; if any is left over, it must be burned.

Exo 12:11 You are to eat it quickly, for you are to be dressed for travel, with your sandals on your feet and your walking stick in your hand. It is the Passover Festival to honor me, the LORD.

Exo 12:12 "On that night I will go through the land of Egypt, killing every first-born male, both human and animal, and punishing all the gods of Egypt. I am the LORD.

Exo 12:13 The blood on the doorposts will be a sign to mark the houses in which you live. When I see the blood, I will pass over you and will not harm you when I punish the Egyptians.

Exo 12:14 You must celebrate this day as a religious festival to remind you of what I, the LORD, have done. Celebrate it for all time to come."

Exo 12:15 The LORD said, "For seven days you must not eat any bread made with yeast—eat only unleavened bread. On the first day you are to get rid of all the yeast in your houses, for if anyone during those seven days eats bread made with yeast, he shall no longer be considered one of my people.

Exo 12:16 On the first day and again on the seventh day you are to meet for worship. No work is to be done on those days, but you may prepare food.

Exo 12:17 Keep this festival, because it was on this day that I brought your tribes out of Egypt. For all time to come you must celebrate this day as a festival.

Exo 12:18 From the evening of the fourteenth day of the first month to the evening of the twenty-first day, you must not eat any bread made with yeast.

Exo 12:19 (19-20) For seven days no yeast must be found in your houses, for if anyone, native-born or foreign, eats bread made with yeast, he shall no longer be considered one of my people."

Exo 12:21 Moses called for all the leaders of Israel and said to them, "Each of you is to choose a lamb or a young goat and kill it, so that your families can celebrate Passover.

Exo 12:22 Take a sprig of hyssop, dip it in the bowl containing the animal's blood, and wipe the blood on the doorposts and the beam above the door of your house. Not one of you is to leave the house until morning.

Exo 12:23 When the LORD goes through Egypt to kill the Egyptians, he will see the blood on the beams and the doorposts and will not let the Angel of Death enter your houses and kill you.

Exo 12:24 You and your children must obey these rules forever.

Exo 12:25 When you enter the land that the LORD has promised to give you, you must perform this ritual.

Exo 12:26 When your children ask you, 'What does this ritual mean?'

Exo 12:27 you will answer, 'It is the sacrifice of Passover to honor the LORD, because he passed over the houses of the Israelites in Egypt. He killed the Egyptians, but spared us.' " The Israelites knelt down and worshiped.

Exo 12:28 Then they went and did what the LORD had commanded Moses and Aaron.

The Tenth Plague: Death of the Firstborn

Exo 12:29 At midnight the LORD killed all the first-born sons in Egypt, from the king's son, who was heir to the throne, to the son of the prisoner in the dungeon; all the first-born of the animals were also killed.

Exo 12:30 That night, the king, his officials, and all the other Egyptians were awakened. There was loud crying throughout Egypt, because there was not one home in which there was not a dead son.

Exo 12:31 That same night the king sent for Moses and Aaron and said, "Get out, you and your Israelites! Leave my country; go and worship the LORD, as you asked.

Exo 12:32 Take your sheep, goats, and cattle, and leave. Also pray for a blessing on me."

The Exodus

Exo 12:33 The Egyptians urged the people to hurry and leave the country; they said, "We will all be dead if you don't leave."

Exo 12:34 So the people filled their baking pans with unleavened dough, wrapped them in clothing, and carried them on their shoulders.

Exo 12:35 The Israelites had done as Moses had said, and had asked the Egyptians for gold and silver jewelry and for clothes.

Exo 12:36 The LORD made the Egyptians respect the people and give them what they asked for. In this way the Israelites carried away the wealth of the Egyptians.

Exo 12:37 The Israelites set out on foot from Rameses for Sukkoth. There were about 600,000 men, not counting women and children.

Exo 12:38 A large number of other people and many sheep, goats, and cattle also went with them.

Exo 12:39 They baked unleavened bread from the dough that they had brought out of Egypt, for they had been driven out of Egypt so suddenly that they did not have time to get their food ready or to prepare leavened dough.

Exo 12:40 The Israelites had lived in Egypt for 430 years.

Exo 12:41 On the day the 430 years ended, all the tribes of the LORD's people left Egypt.

Exo 12:42 It was a night when the LORD kept watch to bring them out of Egypt; this same night is dedicated to the LORD for all time to come as a night when the Israelites must keep watch.

Institution of the Passover

Exo 12:43 The LORD said to Moses and Aaron, "These are the Passover regulations: No foreigner shall eat the Passover meal, Exo 12:44 but any slave that you have bought may eat it if you circumcise him first.

Exo 12:45 No temporary resident or hired worker may eat it.

Exo 12:46 The whole meal must be eaten in the house in which it was prepared; it must not be taken outside. And do not break any of the animal's bones.

Exo 12:47 The whole community of Israel must celebrate this festival,

Exo 12:48 but no uncircumcised man may eat it. If a foreigner has settled among you and wants to celebrate Passover to honor the LORD, you must first circumcise all the males of his household. He is then to be treated like a native-born Israelite and may join in the festival.

Exo 12:49 The same regulations apply to native-born Israelites and to foreigners who settle among you."

Exo 12:50 All the Israelites obeyed and did what the LORD had commanded Moses and Aaron.

Exo 12:51 On that day the LORD brought the Israelite tribes out of Egypt.

EKSODUS 12

[1]In Egipte het die Here vir Moses en Aäron gesê: [2]Hierdie maand is vir julle die belangrikste maand; dit moet die eerste maand van die jaar word. [3]Sê vir die hele gemeente van Israel: Elkeen moet sorg dat hy op die tiende van hierdie maand 'n lam vir sy gesin het, vir elke huisgesin een. [4]As 'n huisgesin te klein is vir 'n lam, kan 'n man en sy naaste buurman dit onder mekaar verdeel volgens die getal persone. Julle moet die lam deel volgens elkeen se behoefte. [5]Dit moet 'n jaaroud rammetjie wees, sonder liggaamsgebrek, 'n skaap of 'n bok. [6]Julle moet hom goed oppas tot die veertiende van hierdie maand, en dan moet die hele gemeente van Israel teen laat middag slag. [7]Julle moet van die bloed smeer aan die sykante en die bokant van die deurkosyn van elke huis waar julle die lam gaan eet. [8]Nog dieselfde nag moet julle die vleis eet. Julle moet dit gebraai eet, saam met ongesuurde brood en bitter kruie. [9]Julle moet dit nie rou of in water gekook eet nie, maar oor die vuur gebraai, met kop, pootjies, binnegoed en al. [10]Julle mag niks daarvan tot die volgende môre laat oorbly nie. As daar die volgende môre tog iets oor is, moet julle dit verbrand. [11]Julle moet dit haastig eet, aangetrek vir die reis, skoene aan die voete en kierie in die hand. Dit is die paasfees van die Here. [12]Daardie selfde nag sal Ek deur Egipte gaan om al die eerstelinge van die Egiptenaars, mens en dier, te tref. Met al die Egiptiese gode sal Ek afreken. Ek is die Here! [13]Die bloed aan die huise waarin julle is, sal 'n teken wees: waar Ek die bloed sien, sal Ek die huis oorslaan, en die vernietigende slag waarmee Ek Egipte gaan tref, sal julle nie tref nie. [14]Hierdie dag moet vir julle 'n gedenkdag wees. Julle moet dit as 'n fees tot eer van die Here vier. Vir julle nageslag moet dit 'n vaste instelling wees wat hulle moet vier. [15]Sewe dae lank moet die brood wat julle eet, ongesuurde brood wees. Reeds op die eerste feesdag moet julle ontslae raak van suurdeeg in julle huise, want elkeen wat in die sewe dae gewone brood eet, moet van Israel afgesny word. [16]Op die eerste en die sewende dag moet daar 'n gewyde byeenkoms wees. Op hierdie dae mag geen werk gedoen word nie, behalwe dat vir elkeen iets te ete voorberei kan word. [17]Onderhou die fees van die ongesuurde brood, want die eerste dag van die fees is die presiese dag waarop Ek julle stamme uit Egipte sal bevry het. Julle en julle nageslagte moet dié dag altyd as 'n vaste instelling vier. [18]In die eerste maand moet julle van die aand van die veertiende af ongesuurde brood eet tot op die aand van die een en twintigste van die maand. [19]Sewe dae mag daar geen suurdeeg in julle huise wees nie, want elkeen wat gewone brood eet, sal van die gemeente van Israel afgesny word. Dit geld vir vreemdelinge sowel as vir gebore

Israeliete. [20]Julle mag glad nie gewone brood eet nie. In al julle woonplekke moet julle net ongesuurde brood eet. [21]Moses het toe al die leiers van Israel bymekaargeroep en vir hulle gesê: Gaan vang vir julle gesinne elkeen 'n lam uit en slag die paaslam! [22]Neem 'n bossie hisop, doop dit in 'n bak met bloed en smeer die bloed aan die bokant en die sykante van die deurkosyn. Nie een van julle mag by sy deur uitgaan voor die volgende môre nie. [23]As die Here verbykom om die Egiptenaars te tref, sal Hy die bloed aan die bokant en die sykante van die deurkosyn sien en dié deur oorslaan. Hy sal nie die dood in julle huise laat kom om julle te tref nie. [24]Julle en julle kinders moet altyd hierdie voorskrif eerbiedig. [25]Wanneer julle in die land kom wat die Here vir julle gaan gee soos Hy beloof het, moet julle hierdie verpligting nakom. [26]As julle kinders sou vra: Wat beteken hierdie verpligting?' [27]moet julle sê: Dit is 'n paasoffer aan die Here omdat Hy in Egipte die Israeliete se huise oorgeslaan het. Terwyl Hy die Egiptenaars getref het, het Hy ons huise gespaar. Toe het die volk in aanbidding gebuig. [28]Soos die Here vir Moses en Aäron beveel het, presies so het die Israeliete gedoen. [29]Om middernag het die Here elke eersgeborene van Egipte laat sterf, van die kroonprins af, die eersgeborene van die farao, tot by die eersgeborene van die krygsgevangene in die tronk, selfs die eerstelinge van die diere. [30]Toe die farao, al sy amptenare en al die Egiptenaars dié nag wakker word, het hulle almal bitterlik aan die huil gegaan, want daar was nie 'n enkele Egiptiese huis sonder 'n sterfgeval nie. [31]Dieselfde nag nog het die farao vir Moses en Aäron laat roep en gesê: Gee pad onder my mense uit, julle twee en al die ander Israeliete! Gaan dien die Here soos julle gevra het! [32]Vat julle kleinvee en julle grootvee soos julle gevra het, en trek! En bid dan dat dit met my ook goed mag gaan. [33]Die Egiptenaars het sterk by die volk daarop aangedring om gou uit die land pad te gee, want, het hulle gesê, anders is ons almal dood! [34]Die volk het toe hulle brooddeeg, sonder suurdeeg, in skottels gesit, dit in hulle klere toegedraai en dit so op hulle skouers gedra. [35]Verder het die Israeliete die opdrag van Moses uitgevoer, naamlik om van die Egiptenaars silwer- en goue goed sowel as klere te eis. [36]Die Here het gesorg dat die Egiptenaars aan sy volk goed doen, sodat hulle uit Egipte as buit kon wegdra wat hulle ook al geëis het. [37]Die Israeliete het van Rameses af na Sukkot toe getrek. Behalwe die afhanklikes was daar sowat ses honderd duisend weerbare manne te voet. [38]Daar het ook 'n menigte mense van ander afkoms saamgegaan en ook groot troppe kleinvee en baie beeste. [39]Met die deeg wat hulle uit Egipte saamgebring het, het hulle ongesuurde roosterkoeke gebak: dit was sonder suurdeeg omdat hulle uit Egipte gejaag is en nie kans gehad het om eers vir hulle padkos klaar te maak nie. [40]Die Israeliete was vier honderd en dertig jaar in Egipte. [41]Na vier honderd en dertig jaar, presies op die dag waarop die fees nou gevier word, het die hele volk van die Here uit Egipte weggetrek. 42Dit was die nag waarin die Here oor hulle gewaak het en hulle uit Egipte bevry het. Daarom behoort dié nag aan die Here en moet alle Israeliete en hulle nageslagte dié nag wakker bly. 43Die Here het vir Moses en Aäron gesê: Dit is die voorskrifte in verband met die paasfees: geen nie-Israeliet mag daarvan eet nie; 44'n slaaf wat deur iemand gekoop is, mag eers daarvan eet nadat hy besny is; 45geen bywoner of huurling mag daarvan eet nie. 46Dit moet geëet word in die huis waarvoor dit bedoel is. Van die vleis mag niks buitentoe geneem word nie. Geen been van die paaslam mag gebreek word nie. 47Die hele gemeente van Israel is verplig om die fees te vier. 48Die vreemdeling wat jou beskerming geniet en die paasfees van die Here wil vier, moet besny word, hy en al die mans en seuns by hom. Dan eers is hy soos 'n gebore Israeliet en kan hy daaraan deelneem. Iemand wat nie besny is nie, mag nie daarvan eet nie. 49Een en dieselfde bepaling moet geld vir die gebore Israeliet en vir die vreemdeling wat julle beskerming geniet. 50Al die Israeliete het gedoen presies wat die Here vir Moses en Aäron beveel het. 51Presies op die dag waarop die fees nou gevier word, het die Here die stamme van Israel uit Egipte bevry.

Exodus 13

Consecration of the Firstborn

Exo 13:1 The LORD said to Moses,

Exo 13:2 "Dedicate all the first-born males to me, for every first-born male Israelite and every first-born male animal belongs to me."

The Feast of Unleavened Bread

Exo 13:3 Moses said to the people, "Remember this day—the day on which you left Egypt, the place where you were slaves. This is the day the LORD brought you out by his great power. No leavened bread is to be eaten.

Exo 13:4 You are leaving Egypt on this day in the first month, the month of Abib.

Exo 13:5 The LORD solemnly promised your ancestors to give you the land of the Canaanites, the Hittites, the Amorites, the Hivites, and the Jebusites. When he brings you into that rich and fertile land, you must celebrate this festival in the first month of every year.

Exo 13:6 For seven days you must eat unleavened bread and on the seventh day there is to be a festival to honor the LORD.

Exo 13:7 For seven days you must not eat any bread made with yeast; there must be no yeast or leavened bread anywhere in your land.

Exo 13:8 When the festival begins, explain to your sons that you do all this because of what the LORD did for you when you left Egypt.

Exo 13:9 This observance will be a reminder, like something tied on your hand or on your forehead; it will remind you to continue to recite and study the Law of the LORD, because the LORD brought you out of Egypt by his great power.

Exo 13:10 Celebrate this festival at the appointed time each year.

Exo 13:11 "The LORD will bring you into the land of the Canaanites, which he solemnly promised to you and your ancestors. When he gives it to you,

Exo 13:12 you must offer every first-born male to the LORD. Every first-born male of your animals belongs to the LORD,

Exo 13:13 but you must buy back from him every first-born male donkey by offering a lamb in its place. If you do not want to buy back the donkey, break its neck. You must buy back every first-born male child of yours.

Exo 13:14 In the future, when your son asks what this observance means, you will answer him, 'By using great power the LORD brought us out of Egypt, the place where we were slaves.

Exo 13:15 When the king of Egypt was stubborn and refused to let us go, the LORD killed every first-born male in the land of Egypt, both human and animal. That is why we sacrifice every first-born male animal to the LORD, but buy back our first-born sons.

Exo 13:16 This observance will be a reminder, like something tied on our hands or on our foreheads; it will remind us that the LORD brought us out of Egypt by his great power.' "

Pillars of Cloud and Fire

Exo 13:17 When the king of Egypt let the people go, God did not take them by the road that goes up the coast to Philistia, although it was the shortest way. God thought, "I do not want the people to change their minds and return to Egypt when they see that they are going to have to fight."

Exo 13:18 Instead, he led them in a roundabout way through the desert toward the Red Sea. The Israelites were armed for battle.

Exo 13:19 Moses took the body of Joseph with him, as Joseph had made the Israelites solemnly promise to do. Joseph had said, "When God rescues you, you must carry my body with you from this place."

Exo 13:20 The Israelites left Sukkoth and camped at Etham on the edge of the desert.

Exo 13:21 During the day the LORD went in front of them in a pillar of cloud to show them the way, and during the night he went in front of them in a pillar of fire to give them light, so that they could travel night and day.

Exo 13:22 The pillar of cloud was always in front of the people during the day, and the pillar of fire at night.

1Die Here het vir Moses gesê: 2Julle moet elke eersgeborene aan My wy, elke eersteling wat in Israel gebore word, mens en dier. Dit is Myne. 3Moses het vir die volk gesê: Onthou die dag waarop julle uit Egipte, uit die plek van slawerny, weggetrek het, want dit is deur sy groot mag dat die Here julle daaruit bevry het. Julle mag op dié dag niks met suurdeeg in eet nie. 4Julle vertrek vandag, op hierdie besondere dag in die maand Abib. 5Die Here het met 'n eed aan julle voorvaders belowe om vir julle die land van die Kanaäniete, Hetiete, Amoriete, Hewiete en Jebusiete te gee. Wanneer Hy julle bring in die land wat oorloop van melk en heuning, moet julle die volgende verpligting in hierdie maand nakom: 6sewe dae lank moet julle ongesuurde brood eet, en die sewende dag is 'n feesdag tot eer van die Here. 7Dit moet beslis ongesuurde brood wees wat julle die sewe dae lank eet. Dan mag daar geen gis of enige suurdeeg by julle in julle hele gebied wees nie. 8Op die feesdag moet elkeen vir sy kinders vertel: Dit is oor wat die Here vir my gedoen het toe ek uit Egipte getrek het.' 9Die fees moet vir julle wees soos 'n teken op die hand of 'n merk op die voorkop sodat julle altyd sal getuig dat die Here Hom aan julle geopenbaar het, want dit is met sy groot mag dat Hy julle uit Egipte bevry het. 10Julle moet hierdie voorskrif van jaar tot jaar op die bepaalde tyd nakom. 11Wanneer die Here julle nou bring in die land van die Kanaäniete en dit aan julle gee, soos Hy met 'n eed aan julle en julle voorvaders belowe het, 12moet julle elke manlike eersteling wat gebore word, aan die Here wy, en ook elke manlike eersteling van julle vee vir die Here afstaan. 13Elke eerste hingsvulletjie van 'n donkie moet julle egter met 'n skaap loskoop. As julle hom nie kan loskoop nie, moet julle sy nek breek. Julle moet ook al julle eersgebore seuns loskoop. 14As julle kinders later sou vra: Wat beteken dit?' moet julle vir hulle sê: Met groot mag het die Here ons uit Egipte, uit die plek van slawerny, bevry, 15want toe die farao te hardkoppig was om ons te laat trek, het die Here al die eerstelinge van die Egiptenaars laat sterwe, mens en dier. Om hierdie rede offer ons die manlike eersteling van elke dier aan die Here, maar koop ons elke eersgebore seun los.' 16Soos 'n teken op die hand en 'n merk op die voorkop moet dit julle daaraan herinner dat die Here ons met groot mag uit Egipte bevry het. 17Toe die farao die volk laat trek het, het God hulle nie die pad na die land van die Filistyne toe laat vat nie, hoewel dit die kortste was, want Hy het gesê: As die volk in 'n geveg betrokke raak, kan hulle dalk spyt kry en na Egipte toe teruggaan. 18Daarom het God die volk met 'n ompad laat gaan, met die woestynpad in die rigting van die Rietsee. Die Israeliete het goed georganiseerd uit Egipte getrek. [19]Moses het die liggaam van Josef saamgevat, want Josef het die seuns van Israel dit destyds uitdruklik met 'n eed laat beloof. Hy het gesê: God sal beslis later na julle omsien, en dan moet julle my liggaam van hier af saamvat. [20]Hulle het Sukkot verlaat en by Etam aan die rand van die woestyn kamp opgeslaan. [21]Die Here het bedags met 'n wolkkolom voor hulle uit gegaan om vir hulle die pad te wys en snags met 'n vuurkolom om vir hulle lig te verskaf, sodat hulle dag en nag kon trek. [22]Die wolkkolom bedags en die vuurkolom snags het altyd voor die volk gebly.

Exodus 14

Crossing the Red Sea

Exo 14:1 Then the LORD said to Moses,

Exo 14:2 "Tell the Israelites to turn back and camp in front of Pi Hahiroth, between Migdol and the Red Sea, near Baal Zephon.

Exo 14:3 The king will think that the Israelites are wandering around in the country and are closed in by the desert.

Exo 14:4 I will make him stubborn, and he will pursue you, and my victory over the king and his army will bring me honor. Then the Egyptians will know that I am the LORD." The Israelites did as they were told.

Exo 14:5 When the king of Egypt was told that the people had escaped, he and his officials changed their minds and said, "What have we done? We have let the Israelites escape, and we have lost them as our slaves!"

Exo 14:6 The king got his war chariot and his army ready.

Exo 14:7 He set out with all his chariots, including the six hundred finest, commanded by their officers.

Exo 14:8 The LORD made the king stubborn, and he pursued the Israelites, who were leaving triumphantly.

Exo 14:9 The Egyptian army, with all the horses, chariots, and drivers, pursued them and caught up with them where they were camped by the Red Sea near Pi Hahiroth and Baal Zephon.

Exo 14:10 When the Israelites saw the king and his army marching against them, they were terrified and cried out to the LORD for help.

Exo 14:11 They said to Moses, "Weren't there any graves in Egypt? Did you have to bring us out here in the desert to die? Look what you have done by bringing us out of Egypt!

Exo 14:12 Didn't we tell you before we left that this would happen? We told you to leave us alone and let us go on being slaves of the Egyptians. It would be better to be slaves there than to die here in the desert."

Exo 14:13 Moses answered, "Don't be afraid! Stand your ground, and you will see what the LORD will do to save you today; you will never see these Egyptians again.

Exo 14:14 The LORD will fight for you, and all you have to do is keep still."

Exo 14:15 The LORD said to Moses, "Why are you crying out for help? Tell the people to move forward.

Exo 14:16 Lift up your walking stick and hold it out over the sea. The water will divide, and the Israelites will be able to walk through the sea on dry ground.

Exo 14:17 I will make the Egyptians so stubborn that they will go in after them, and I will gain honor by my victory over the king, his army, his chariots, and his drivers.

Exo 14:18 When I defeat them, the Egyptians will know that I am the LORD."

Exo 14:19 The angel of God, who had been in front of the army of Israel, moved and went to the rear. The pillar of cloud also moved until it was Exo 14:20 between the Egyptians and the Israelites. The cloud made it dark for the Egyptians, but gave light to the people of Israel, and so the armies could not come near each other all night.

Exo 14:21 Moses held out his hand over the sea, and the LORD drove the sea back with a strong east wind. It blew all night and turned the sea into dry land. The water was divided,

Exo 14:22 and the Israelites went through the sea on dry ground, with walls of water on both sides.

Exo 14:23 The Egyptians pursued them and went after them into the sea with all their horses, chariots, and drivers.

Exo 14:24 Just before dawn the LORD looked down from the pillar of fire and cloud at the Egyptian army and threw them into a panic.

Exo 14:25 He made the wheels of their chariots get stuck, so that they moved with great difficulty. The Egyptians said, "The LORD is fighting for the Israelites against us. Let's get out of here!"

Exo 14:26 The LORD said to Moses, "Hold out your hand over the sea, and the water will come back over the Egyptians and their chariots and drivers."

Exo 14:27 So Moses held out his hand over the sea, and at daybreak the water returned to its normal level. The Egyptians tried to escape from the water, but the LORD threw them into the sea.

Exo 14:28 The water returned and covered the chariots, the drivers, and all the Egyptian army that had followed the Israelites into the sea; not one of them was left.

Exo 14:29 But the Israelites walked through the sea on dry ground, with walls of water on both sides.

Exo 14:30 On that day the LORD saved the people of Israel from the Egyptians, and the Israelites saw them lying dead on the seashore.

Exo 14:31 When the Israelites saw the great power with which the LORD had defeated the Egyptians, they stood in awe of the LORD; and they had faith in the LORD and in his servant Moses.

1Die Here het vir Moses gesê: 2Beveel die Israeliete om weg te draai en kamp op te slaan naby Pi-Hagirot tussen Migdol en die see. Regoor Baäl-Sefon by die see moet julle kamp opslaan. 3Dan sal die farao dink die Israeliete het verdwaal en is deur die woestyn vasgekeer. 4Ek sal die farao weer koppig maak, sodat hy julle agtervolg, en Ek sal my mag laat geld teen hom en sy leër. Dan sal Egipte besef dat Ek die Here is. Die Israeliete het die bevele uitgevoer. 5Toe die koning van Egipte die berig kry dat die volk vir goed weg is, het sy houding en dié van sy amptenare teenoor die Israeliete verander. Die Egiptenaars het gesê: Wat het ons aangevang dat ons die Israeliete laat trek het? Nou is ons hulle diens kwyt! 6Die farao het sy strydwa laat inspan en sy leër saam met hom gevat. 7Hy het sy ses honderd beste strydwaens gevat, asook al die ander Egiptiese strydwaens, elkeen met 'n bemanning van drie. 8Die Here het die farao, die koning van Egipte, koppig gemaak sodat hy die Israeliete agtervolg het, maar die Israeliete het onder die beskerming van God verder getrek. 9Die Egiptenaars het hulle agtervolg, en al die strydwaens van die farao met bemanning en leërmag het hulle ingehaal terwyl hulle besig was om by die see kamp op te slaan, naby Pi-Hagirot regoor Baäl-Sefon. 10Toe die farao nader kom, sien die Israeliete skielik die Egiptenaars sit hulle agterna. Hulle het baie bang geword en benoud na die Here geroep. 11Hulle het vir Moses gesê: Is daar nie begraafplek in Egipte nie dat jy ons saamsleep om in die woestyn te sterwe? Wat het jy ons aangedoen dat jy ons uit Egipte laat trek het? 12Ons het jou mos in Egipte gesê om ons te laat staan dat ons vir die Egiptenaars werk. Dit is vir ons beter om vir hulle te werk as om hier in die woestyn om te kom. 13Maar Moses het die volk geantwoord: Moenie bang wees nie. Staan vas, kyk hoe die Here julle vandag gaan red, want soos julle die Egiptenaars nou daar sien, sal julle hulle nooit weer sien nie. 14Bly julle maar kalm. Die Here sal vir julle veg. 15Toe het die Here vir Moses gesê: Waarom roep julle so benoud na My? Sê vir die Israeliete hulle moet verder trek. 16En jy, lig jou kierie op en steek jou hand oor die see uit en kloof dit oop sodat die Israeliete op droë grond kan deurgaan. 17Ek sal die Egiptenaars so koppig maak dat hulle die Israeliete sal agtervolg. So sal Ek my mag laat geld teenoor die farao en sy hele leër: strydwaens en bemanning. 18Wanneer Ek my mag laat geld teenoor die farao, sy strydwaens en hulle bemanning, sal Egipte besef dat Ek die Here is. 19Die Engel van God wat altyd voor die Israeliete uit beweeg het terwyl hulle getrek het, het nou agter hulle plek ingeneem. Ook die wolkkolom wat voor hulle was, het agter hulle ingeskuif, 20tussen die Egiptenaars en die Israeliete. Aan die

Egiptiese kant was die wolk donker en aan die Israelitiese kant het dit die nag verlig. Die hele nag deur het die twee groepe nie nader aan mekaar gekom nie. 21Moses het sy hand oor die see uitgesteek, en die Here het daardie hele nag die water met 'n sterk oostewind weggedryf, sodat die water oopgekloof en die see daar drooggelê is. 22Die Israeliete het op droë grond deur die see gegaan, en die water het weerskante van hulle soos 'n muur gestaan. 23Die Egiptenaars het hulle agternagesit: die farao se perde, strydwaens en bemanning is almal agter hulle aan die see in. 24In die vroeë môre het die Here uit die vuur- en wolkkolom afgekyk op die Egiptiese leër en verwarring onder hulle gesaai. 25Hy het die wiele van hulle strydwaens laat uitval, sodat hulle skaars kon beweeg. Toe sê die Egiptenaars: Ons moet wegkom van die Israeliete af, want die Here veg vir hulle teen Egipte. 26Maar die Here het vir Moses gesê: Steek jou hand uit oor die see sodat die water oor die Egiptenaars, oor hulle strydwaens en bemanning kan stroom. 27Moses steek toe sy hand oor die see uit. Teen dagbreek het die see teruggestroom oor sy bodem en die Egiptenaars het hulle teen die water vasgevlug: die Here het hulle deur die see laat meesleur. 28Toe die water terugstroom, was die strydwaens en bemanning, die hele leërmag van die farao wat agter die Israeliete aan die see in is, tóé onder die water. Daar het nie een van hulle oorgebly nie. 29Maar die Israeliete het op droë grond deur die see gegaan en die water het weerskante van hulle soos 'n muur gestaan. 30Die Here het Israel daardie dag gered van Egipte, en die Israeliete het die Egiptenaars dood op die strand sien lê. 31Toe Israel sien hoe kragtig die Here teen Egipte opgetree het, is hulle met ontsag vir Hom vervul. Hulle het in die Here geglo en ook in Moses, sy dienaar.

Exodus 15

The Song of Moses

Exo 15:1 Then Moses and the Israelites sang this song to the LORD: "I will sing to the LORD, because he has won a glorious victory; he has thrown the horses and their riders into the sea.

Exo 15:2 The LORD is my strong defender; he is the one who has saved me. He is my God, and I will praise him, my father's God, and I will sing about his greatness.

Exo 15:3 The LORD is a warrior; the LORD is his name.

Exo 15:4 "He threw Egypt's army and its chariots into the sea; the best of its officers were drowned in the Red Sea.

Exo 15:5 The deep sea covered them; they sank to the bottom like a stone.

Exo 15:6 "Your right hand, LORD, is awesome in power; it breaks the enemy in pieces.

Exo 15:7 In majestic triumph you overthrow your foes; your anger blazes out and burns them up like straw.

Exo 15:8 You blew on the sea and the water piled up high; it stood up straight like a wall; the deepest part of the sea became solid.

Exo 15:9 The enemy said, 'I will pursue them and catch them; I will divide their wealth and take all I want; I will draw my sword and take all they have.'

Exo 15:10 But one breath from you, LORD, and the Egyptians were drowned; they sank like lead in the terrible water.

Exo 15:11 " LORD, who among the gods is like you? Who is like you, wonderful in holiness? Who can work miracles and mighty acts like yours?

Exo 15:12 You stretched out your right hand, and the earth swallowed our enemies.

Exo 15:13 Faithful to your promise, you led the people you had rescued; by your strength you guided them to your sacred land.

Exo 15:14 The nations have heard, and they tremble with fear; the Philistines are seized with terror.

Exo 15:15 The leaders of Edom are terrified; Moab's mighty men are trembling; the people of Canaan lose their courage.

Exo 15:16 Terror and dread fall upon them. They see your strength, O

LORD, and stand helpless with fear until your people have marched past—the people you set free from slavery.

Exo 15:17 You bring them in and plant them on your mountain, the place that you, LORD, have chosen for your home, the Temple that you yourself have built.

Exo 15:18 You, LORD, will be king forever and ever."

Exo 15:19 The Israelites walked through the sea on dry ground. But when the Egyptian chariots with their horses and drivers went into the sea, the LORD brought the water back, and it covered them.

Exo 15:20 The prophet Miriam, Aaron's sister, took her tambourine, and all the women followed her, playing tambourines and dancing.

Exo 15:21 Miriam sang for them: "Sing to the LORD, because he has won a glorious victory; he has thrown the horses and their riders into the sea."

Bitter Water Made Sweet

Exo 15:22 Then Moses led the people of Israel away from the Red Sea into the desert of Shur. For three days they walked through the desert, but found no water.

Exo 15:23 Then they came to a place called Marah, but the water there was so bitter that they could not drink it. That is why it was named Marah.

Exo 15:24 The people complained to Moses and asked, "What are we going to drink?"

Exo 15:25 Moses prayed earnestly to the LORD, and the LORD showed him a piece of wood, which he threw into the water; and the water became fit to drink. There the LORD gave them laws to live by, and there he also tested them.

Exo 15:26 He said, "If you will obey me completely by doing what I consider right and by keeping my commands, I will not punish you with any of the diseases that I brought on the Egyptians. I am the LORD, the one who heals you."

Exo 15:27 Next they came to Elim, where there were twelve springs and seventy palm trees; there they camped by the water.

EKSODUS 15

[1]Toe het Moses en die Israeliete die volgende lied tot eer van die Here gesing: Ek wil tot eer van die Here sing omdat Hy hoog verhewe is. Perd en strydwa het Hy in die see geslinger. [2]Die Here is my krag en my beskerming. Hy het tot my redding gekom. Hy is my God, Hom roem ek, die God van my voorvaders, Hom prys ek. [3]Die Here is oorwinnaar in die stryd, sy Naam is die Here'! [4]Die strydwaens van die farao en ook sy leër het Hy in die see geslinger. Die keur van Egipte se offisiere is in die Rietsee gedompel. [5]Watermassas het hulle oordek, soos 'n klip het hulle in die dieptes afgesak. [6]U regterhand, Here, gedug in sy krag, u regterhand, Here, verpletter die vyand. [7]U is hoog verhewe, U vernietig wie teen U opstaan, U laat u toorn woed, dit verteer hulle soos kaf. [8]U wind het gewaai: die water dam op, strome staan regop soos 'n muur, watermassas stol in die hart van die see. [9]Die vyand sê: Ek sal hulle agtervolg en inhaal, ek sal die buit verdeel, ek sal my sin kry, ek sal my swaard trek, my hand sal hulle verslaan.' [10]U laat u wind waai: die see oordek hulle, hulle sink soos lood in die magtige waters. [11]Wie van die gode is soos U, Here? Wie is soos U, so hoog geëer en heilig? In lofsange word U vereer, Bewerker van wonderdade! [12]U het u regterhand uitgesteek; die aarde het die vyand ingesluk. [13]Deur u trou het U die volk gelei wat deur U verlos is, hulle deur u krag gebring na u gewyde land toe. [14]Die volke het dit gehoor en hulle het gesidder, angs het die bewoners van Filistea beetgepak, [15]die stamhoofde van Edom was verskrik, die magtiges van Moab vreesbevange, al die bewoners van Kanaän was lam geskrik. [16]Vrees en angs het hulle oorval, u magtige dade het hulle laat versteen toe u volk deurtrek, Here, toe die volk wat U u eie gemaak het, deurtrek. [17]U het hulle ingebring, U het hulle geplant op die berg wat aan U behoort. Here, U het 'n plek vir u troon voorberei, u hande, Here, het 'n gewyde plek gereed gemaak. [18]Die Here regeer tot in ewigheid! [19]Waarlik, toe die perde van die farao met strydwaens en bemanning die see ingegaan het, het die Here die water van die see oor hulle laat terugvloei, maar die Israeliete het op droë grond daardeur gegaan. [20]Mirjam die profetes, suster van Aäron, het 'n tamboeryn gevat en al die vroue het met tamboeryne agternageloop en gedans. [21]Mirjam het vir hulle voorgesing: Sing tot eer van die Here omdat Hy hoog verhewe is. Perd en ruiter het Hy in die see geslinger. [22]Moses het die Israeliete laat wegtrek van die Rietsee af en hulle het na die Surwoestyn toe gegaan. Hulle het drie dae lank die woestyn in getrek en geen water gekry nie. [23]Toe hulle by Mara aankom, kon hulle nie die water drink nie, omdat dit bitter was. Daarom het hulle die plek Mara genoem. [24]Die volk het by Moses gekla: Wat moet ons drink? [25]Moses het die Here aangeroep, en die Here het hom 'n stuk hout gewys. Hy het dit toe in die water gegooi, en die water het soet geword. Daar het die Here die volk op die proef gestel en daar het Hy vir hulle 'n vaste reël neergelê. [26]Hy het gesê: Julle moet goed luister na wat Ek, die Here julle God, sê! Julle moet doen wat reg is in my oë, gehoor gee aan my gebooie en alles doen wat Ek vir julle voorskryf. Dan sal Ek geeneen van die siektes waarmee Ek Egipte getref het, oor julle bring nie, want dit is Ek, die Here, wat julle gesond hou. [27]Daarna het hulle by Elim aangekom met sy twaalf fonteine en sewentig palmbome en daar by die water kamp opgeslaan.

Exodus 16

Bread from Heaven

Exo 16:1 The whole Israelite community set out from Elim, and on the fifteenth day of the second month after they had left Egypt, they came to the desert of Sin, which is between Elim and Sinai.

Exo 16:2 There in the desert they all complained to Moses and Aaron

Exo 16:3 and said to them, "We wish that the LORD had killed us in Egypt. There we could at least sit down and eat meat and as much other food as we wanted. But you have brought us out into this desert to starve us all to death."

Exo 16:4 The LORD said to Moses, "Now I am going to cause food to rain down from the sky for all of you. The people must go out every day and gather enough for that day. In this way I can test them to find out if they will follow my instructions.

Exo 16:5 On the sixth day they are to bring in twice as much as usual and prepare it."

Exo 16:6 So Moses and Aaron said to all the Israelites, "This evening you will know that it was the LORD who brought you out of Egypt.

Exo 16:7 In the morning you will see the dazzling light of the LORD's presence. He has heard your complaints against him—yes, against him, because we are only carrying out his instructions."

Exo 16:8 Then Moses said, "It is the LORD who will give you meat to eat in the evening and as much bread as you want in the morning, because he has heard how much you have complained against him. When you complain against us, you are really complaining against the LORD."

Exo 16:9 Moses said to Aaron, "Tell the whole community to come and stand before the LORD, because he has heard their complaints."

Exo 16:10 As Aaron spoke to the whole community, they turned toward the desert, and suddenly the dazzling light of the LORD appeared in a cloud.

Exo 16:11 The LORD said to Moses,

Exo 16:12 "I have heard the complaints of the Israelites. Tell them that at twilight they will have meat to eat, and in the morning they will have all the bread they want. Then they will know that I, the LORD, am their God."

Exo 16:13 In the evening a large flock of quails flew in, enough to cover the camp, and in the morning there was dew all around the camp.

Exo 16:14 When the dew evaporated, there was something thin and flaky on the surface of the desert. It was as delicate as frost.

Exo 16:15 When the Israelites saw it, they didn't know what it was and asked each other, "What is it?" Moses said to them, "This is the food that the LORD has given you to eat.

Exo 16:16 The LORD has commanded that each of you is to gather as much of it as he needs, two quarts for each member of his household."

Exo 16:17 The Israelites did this, some gathering more, others less.

Exo 16:18 When they measured it, those who gathered much did not have too much, and those who gathered less did not have too little. Each had gathered just what he needed.

Exo 16:19 Moses said to them, "No one is to keep any of it for tomorrow."

Exo 16:20 But some of them did not listen to Moses and saved part of it. The next morning it was full of worms and smelled rotten, and Moses was angry with them.

Exo 16:21 Every morning each one gathered as much as he needed; and when the sun grew hot, what was left on the ground melted.

Exo 16:22 On the sixth day they gathered twice as much food, four quarts for each person. All the leaders of the community came and told Moses about it,

Exo 16:23 and he said to them, "The LORD has commanded that tomorrow is a holy day of rest, dedicated to him. Bake today what you want to bake and boil what you want to boil. Whatever is left should be put aside and kept for tomorrow."

Exo 16:24 As Moses had commanded, they kept what was left until the next day; it did not spoil or get worms in it.

Exo 16:25 Moses said, "Eat this today, because today is the Sabbath, a day of rest dedicated to the LORD, and you will not find any food outside the camp.

Exo 16:26 You must gather food for six days, but on the seventh day, the day of rest, there will be none."

Exo 16:27 On the seventh day some of the people went out to gather food, but they did not find any.

Exo 16:28 Then the LORD said to Moses, "How much longer will you people refuse to obey my commands?

Exo 16:29 Remember that I, the LORD, have given you a day of rest, and that is why on the sixth day I will always give you enough food for two days. Everyone is to stay where he is on the seventh day and not leave his home."

Exo 16:30 So the people did no work on the seventh day.

Exo 16:31 The people of Israel called the food manna. It was like a small white seed, and tasted like thin cakes made with honey.

Exo 16:32 Moses said, "The LORD has commanded us to save some manna, to be kept for our descendants, so that they can see the food which he gave us to eat in the desert when he brought us out of Egypt."

Exo 16:33 Moses said to Aaron, "Take a jar, put two quarts of manna in it, and place it in the LORD's presence to be kept for our descendants."

Exo 16:34 As the LORD had commanded Moses, Aaron put it in front of the Covenant Box, so that it could be kept.

Exo 16:35 The Israelites ate manna for the next forty years, until they reached the land of Canaan, where they settled.

Exo 16:36 (The standard dry measure then in use equaled twenty quarts.)

EKSODUS 16

[1]Nadat hulle Elim verlaat het, het die hele volk Israel in die Sinwoestyn aangekom wat tussen Elim en Sinai lê. Dit was op die vyftiende van die tweede maand nadat hulle uit Egipte getrek het. [2]In die woestyn het die hele volk hulle teenoor Moses en Aäron begin verset [3]en gesê: As ons maar liewer in Egipte omgekom het deur die hand van die Here terwyl ons by die vleispotte kon sit en oorgenoeg kos kon hê om te eet! Nou het julle ons laat wegtrek tot in hierdie woestyn om die hele volk van honger te laat omkom. [4]Toe het die Here vir Moses gesê: Let nou mooi op. Ek sal elke keer vir julle kos uit die hemel laat reën. Dan moet die volk elke dag gaan en dié dag se voorraad optel. So sal Ek toets of hulle my opdrag wil nakom of nie. [5]As hulle op die sesde dag voorberei wat hulle ingebring het, moet dit dubbel soveel wees as wat hulle elke dag optel. [6]Toe sê Moses en Aäron vir al die Israeliete: Vanaand sal julle besef dat dit die Here is wat julle uit Egipte bevry het, [7]en môreoggend sal julle sien hoe magtig die Here is. Hy het gehoor dat julle julle teen Hóm verset. Dat julle julle teen óns verset, is niks nie. [8]Verder het Moses gesê: As die Here vanaand vir julle vleis gee en môreoggend oorgenoeg kos om te eet, sal julle besef Hy het julle verset teen Hom opgemerk. Dit was nie teen ons nie, maar teen die Here dat julle julle verset het. [9]Moses het toe vir Aäron gesê: Beveel die hele gemeente van Israel om voor die Here te kom staan, want Hy het hulle verset opgemerk. [10]Nadat Aäron dit vir hulle gesê het, kyk die Israeliete na die woestyn se kant toe om, en toe word die magtige teenwoordigheid van die Here sigbaar in die wolk. [11]Die Here sê toe vir Moses: [12]Ek het die verset van die Israeliete opgemerk. Sê vir hulle: Teen skemeraand sal julle vleis eet en teen môreoggend sal julle oorgenoeg kos hê sodat julle kan besef dat Ek die Here julle God is. [13]Teen die aand se kant het daar kwartels aangevlieg gekom en hulle het die hele kamp vol gesit. Die volgende oggend was daar 'n wolk rondom die kamp, [14]en toe die wolk wegtrek, was die woestyn oortrek met fyn vlokkies soos ryp. [15]Toe die Israeliete dit sien, sê hulle vir mekaar: Wat is dit dié? want hulle het nie geweet wat dit is nie. Toe sê Moses vir hulle: Dit is die brood wat die Here vir julle gee om te eet. [16]Die Here het beveel: Gaan maak dit bymekaar volgens elke gesin se behoefte, twee liter per kop. Elkeen moet vat volgens die getal mense in sy tent. [17]Die Israeliete het dit toe gaan optel, die een baie en die ander 'n bietjie, [18]en toe hulle dit met 'n maatemmer afmeet, het dié met baie nie te veel nie, en dié met 'n bietjie nie te min gehad nie. Hulle het volgens elkeen se behoefte bymekaargemaak. [19]Moses het toe vir hulle gesê: Niemand mag iets daarvan laat oorskiet tot môreoggend nie. [20]Maar hulle het nie vir Moses geluister nie. Party het daarvan tot die volgende oggend laat oorstaan, maar daar het miet in gekom en dit het gestink. Moses was woedend oor wat hulle gedoen het. 21Hulle het dit vroeg elke oggend bymekaargemaak, volgens elkeen se behoefte, maar net as die son begin bak, het dit weggesmelt. 22Op die sesde dag het hulle 'n dubbele porsie opgetel, vier liter vir elkeen. Toe al die leiers van die volk dit vir Moses kom vertel, 23sê hy vir hulle: Dit is soos die Here gesê het: Môre is 'n rusdag, 'n gewyde sabbat van die Here. Maak alles gaar, bak wat julle wil bak, en kook wat julle wil kook, en wat oorbly nadat julle geëet het, moet julle wegsit en bewaar vir môre. 24Hulle het dit weggesit tot die volgende oggend soos Moses beveel het, en dit het nie sleg geword of miet gekry nie. 25Toe het Moses gesê: Eet dit nou vandag, want vandag is dit die sabbat van die Here. In die veld gaan julle niks kry nie. 26Ses dae moet julle dit bymekaarmaak, maar op die sewende dag, die sabbat, sal daar niks wees nie. 27Tog het daar op die sewende dag van die mense uitgegaan om bymekaar te maak, maar hulle het niks gekry nie. 28Die Here sê toe vir Moses: Hoe lank gaan julle nog weier om my bevele en opdragte te gehoorsaam? 29Ek het vir julle die sabbat gegee en daarom gee Ek vir julle op die sesde dag genoeg kos vir twee dae. Elkeen moet bly waar hy is en niemand mag op die sewende dag sy woonplek verlaat nie. 30Die volk het op die sewende dag gerus. 31Die Israeliete het die kos manna genoem. Dit was wit soos koljandersaad en het soos heuningkoek gesmaak. 32Moses het ook nog gesê: Die Here het beveel: 'n Volle twee liter manna moet vir die nageslag bewaar word sodat hulle die kos kan sien wat Ek julle in die woestyn gegee het nadat Ek julle uit Egipte bevry het. 33Moses sê toe vir Aäron: Vat 'n kruik en gooi twee liter manna daarin. Sit dit dan voor die Here neer sodat dit vir julle nageslag veilig bewaar kan word. 34Aäron het dit voor die getuienis neergesit om dit in bewaring te hou soos die Here vir Moses beveel het. 35Die Israeliete het veertig jaar lank manna geëet; hulle het dit geëet totdat hulle bewoonde gebied bereik het, tot hulle by die grens van Kanaän gekom het. 36Die tweelitermaat waarmee die manna afgemeet is, was een tiende van die standaardmaat.

Exodus 17

Water from the Rock

Exo 17:1 The whole Israelite community left the desert of Sin, moving from one place to another at the command of the LORD. They camped at Rephidim, but there was no water there to drink.

Exo 17:2 They complained to Moses and said, "Give us water to drink." Moses answered, "Why are you complaining? Why are you putting the LORD to the test?"

Exo 17:3 But the people were very thirsty and continued to complain to Moses. They said, "Why did you bring us out of Egypt? To kill us and our children and our livestock with thirst?"

Exo 17:4 Moses prayed earnestly to the LORD and said, "What can I do with these people? They are almost ready to stone me."

Exo 17:5 The LORD said to Moses, "Take some of the leaders of Israel with you, and go on ahead of the people. Take along the stick with which you struck the Nile.

Exo 17:6 I will stand before you on a rock at Mount Sinai. Strike the rock, and water will come out of it for the people to drink." Moses did so in the presence of the leaders of Israel.

Exo 17:7 The place was named Massah and Meribah, because the Israelites complained and put the LORD to the test when they asked, "Is the LORD with us or not?"

Israel Defeats Amalek

Exo 17:8 The Amalekites came and attacked the Israelites at Rephidim.

Exo 17:9 Moses said to Joshua, "Pick out some men to go and fight the Amalekites tomorrow. I will stand on top of the hill holding the stick that God told me to carry."

Exo 17:10 Joshua did as Moses commanded him and went out to fight the Amalekites, while Moses, Aaron, and Hur went up to the top of the hill.

Exo 17:11 As long as Moses held up his arms, the Israelites won, but when he put his arms down, the Amalekites started winning.

Exo 17:12 When Moses' arms grew tired, Aaron and Hur brought a stone for him to sit on, while they stood beside him and held up his arms, holding them steady until the sun went down.

Exo 17:13 In this way Joshua totally defeated the Amalekites.

Exo 17:14 Then the LORD said to Moses, "Write an account of this victory, so that it will be remembered. Tell Joshua that I will completely destroy the Amalekites."

Exo 17:15 Moses built an altar and named it "The LORD is my Banner."

Exo 17:16 He said, "Hold high the banner of the LORD! The LORD will continue to fight against the Amalekites forever!"

EKSODUS 17

[1]Nadat die hele volk Israel uit die Sinwoestyn vertrek het, het hulle op bevel van die Here van plek tot plek gegaan totdat hulle by Refidim kamp opgeslaan het. Maar daar was geen water vir die volk om te drink nie. [2]Toe het die volk met Moses rusie gemaak en gesê: Gee jý vir ons water om te drink! En Moses antwoord hulle: Waarom maak julle rusie met my? Waarom stel julle die geduld van die Here op die proef? [3]Maar die volk was dors en hulle het vir Moses verwyt: Waarom het jy ons uit Egipte laat optrek om ons en ons kinders en ons vee van dors te laat omkom? [4]Daarna het Moses tot die Here geroep: Wat moet ek met hierdie volk aanvang? Netnou gooi hulle my met klippe dood. [5]Toe sê die Here vir Moses: Loop voor die volk verby en neem van die leiers van Israel saam. Vat ook die kierie waarmee jy op die Nyl se water geslaan het, en stap vooruit. [6]Ek sal daar reg voor jou op die rots by Horeb staan. Dan moet jy teen die rots slaan, en daar sal water uitloop vir die volk om te drink. Moses het dit toe gedoen voor die oë van die leiers van Israel. [7]Hy het die plek Massa en Meriba genoem omdat die Israeliete daar met Moses rusie gemaak het en ook omdat hulle die geduld van die Here op die proef gestel het toe hulle gesê het: Is die Here by ons of nie? [8]Toe die Amalekiete by Refidim teen Israel kom veg het, [9]het Moses vir Josua gesê: Kies vir ons manskappe en gaan veg môre teen die Amalekiete. Dan sal ek op die top van die heuwel gaan staan met die kierie wat God my gegee het, in my hand. [10]Josua het toe gedoen wat Moses vir hom gesê het en hy het teen die Amalekiete gaan veg. Moses, Aäron en Hur het tot op die top van die heuwel uitgeklim. [11]Solank Moses sy hand opgehou het, was Israel die sterkste, en wanneer sy hand gesak het, die Amalekiete. [12]Maar Moses se arms het begin moeg word. Hulle het toe 'n klip gevat en dit agter hom neergesit sodat hy daarop kon gaan sit. Aäron en Hur het sy arms van weerskante af ondersteun sodat sy arms regop gebly het tot sononder. [13]Josua het die Amalekiete heeltemal verslaan. [14]Daarna het die Here vir Moses gesê: Skryf hierdie woorde op in 'n boek as 'n blywende herinnering en lees dit vir Josua voor: Ek wil die Amalekiete heeltemal van die aarde af verdelg. [15]Moses het 'n altaar gebou en dit genoem: Die Here gee my die oorwinning. [16]Verder het Moses gesê: Dit is die gedenkteken vir die oorwinning wat die Here gee. Die Here voer oorlog teen Amalek van geslag tot geslag.

Exodus 18

Jethro's Advice

Exo 18:1 Moses' father-in-law Jethro, the priest of Midian, heard about everything that God had done for Moses and the people of Israel when he led them out of Egypt.

Exo 18:2 So he came to Moses, bringing with him Moses' wife Zipporah, who had been left behind, Exo 18:3 and Gershom and Eliezer, her two sons. (Moses had said, "I have been a foreigner in a strange land"; so he had named one son Gershom.

Exo 18:4 He had also said, "The God of my father helped me and saved me from being killed by the king of Egypt"; so he had named the other son Eliezer.)

Exo 18:5 Jethro came with Moses' wife and her two sons into the desert where Moses was camped at the holy mountain.

Exo 18:6 He had sent word to Moses that they were coming,

Exo 18:7 so Moses went out to meet him, bowed before him, and kissed him. They asked about each other's health and then went into Moses' tent.

Exo 18:8 Moses told Jethro everything that the LORD had done to the king and the people of Egypt in order to rescue the Israelites. He also told him about the hardships the people had faced on the way and how the LORD had saved them.

Exo 18:9 When Jethro heard all this, he was happy

Exo 18:10 and said, "Praise the LORD, who saved you from the king and the people of Egypt! Praise the LORD, who saved his people from slavery!

Exo 18:11 Now I know that the LORD is greater than all the gods, because he did this when the Egyptians treated the Israelites with such contempt."

Exo 18:12 Then Jethro brought an offering to be burned whole and other sacrifices to be offered to God; and Aaron and all the leaders of Israel went with him to eat the sacred meal as an act of worship.

Exo 18:13 The next day Moses was settling disputes among the people, and he was kept busy from morning till night.

Exo 18:14 When Jethro saw everything that Moses had to do, he asked, "What is all this that you are doing for the people? Why are you doing this all alone, with people standing here from morning till night to consult you?"

Exo 18:15 Moses answered, "I must do this because the people come to me to learn God's will.

Exo 18:16 When two people have a dispute, they come to me, and I decide which one of them is right, and I tell them God's commands and laws."

Exo 18:17 Then Jethro said, "You are not doing this right.

Exo 18:18 You will wear yourself out and these people as well. This is too much for you to do alone.

Exo 18:19 Now let me give you some good advice, and God will be with you. It is right for you to represent the people before God and bring their disputes to him.

Exo 18:20 You should teach them God's commands and explain to them how they should live and what they should do.

Exo 18:21 But in addition, you should choose some capable men and appoint them as leaders of the people: leaders of thousands, hundreds, fifties, and tens. They must be God-fearing men who can be trusted and who cannot be bribed.

Exo 18:22 Let them serve as judges for the people on a permanent basis. They can bring all the difficult cases to you, but they themselves can decide all the smaller disputes. That will make it easier for you, as they share your burden.

Exo 18:23 If you do this, as God commands, you will not wear yourself out, and all these people can go home with their disputes settled."

Exo 18:24 Moses took Jethro's advice

Exo 18:25 and chose capable men from among all the Israelites. He appointed them as leaders of thousands, hundreds, fifties, and tens.

Exo 18:26 They served as judges for the people on a permanent basis, bringing the difficult cases to Moses but deciding the smaller disputes themselves.

Exo 18:27 Then Moses said good-bye to Jethro, and Jethro went back home.

EKSODUS 18

1Jetro, priester van Midian en skoonpa van Moses, het gehoor wat die Here God alles vir sy volk Israel en vir Moses gedoen het toe die Here die Israeliete uit Egipte bevry het. 2Toe Moses sy vrou Sippora destyds teruggestuur het, het sy skoonpa Jetro haar 3en haar twee seuns in sy huis geneem. Die naam van die een seun was Gersom , want, het Moses gesê, ek woon as vreemdeling in 'n vreemde land. 4Die naam van die ander was Eliëser , want, het Moses gesê, die God van my voorvaders het my gehelp: Hy het my gered toe die farao my wou doodmaak. 5Jetro, Moses se skoonpa, het met Moses se seuns en sy vrou na hom toe gegaan waar hy in die woestyn by die berg van God kamp opgeslaan het. 6Jetro het toe vir Moses laat weet: Ek is jou skoonpa Jetro. Ek kom na jou toe met jou vrou en jou twee seuns. 7Moses het toe sy skoonpa gaan ontmoet en voor hom gebuig en hom met 'n soen gegroet. Nadat hulle vir mekaar gevra het hoe dit gaan, het hulle in Moses se tent ingegaan. 8Daar het Moses vir sy skoonpa alles vertel wat die Here aan die farao en aan Egipte gedoen het ter wille van Israel, en ook van al die ontberings wat die Israeliete op pad gehad het en hoe die Here hulle bevry het. 9Jetro was bly om te hoor van al die goeie dinge wat die Here vir Israel gedoen het toe Hy hulle uit Egipte se mag bevry het. 10Toe het Jetro gesê: Aan die Here kom die lof toe! Dit is Hy wat julle bevry het uit die mag van Egipte en die farao. Nou besef ek dat die Here groter is as enige ander god, want toe die Egiptenaars vermetel teen die volk van die Here opgetree het, het Hy hulle uit Egipte se mag bevry. 11Jetro, Moses se skoonpa, het brandoffers en ander diereoffers vir God gebring, en daarna het Aäron en al die Israelitiese leiers gekom om saam met Moses se skoonpa aan die offermaaltyd deel te neem. 12Toe Moses die volgende dag gaan sit om hofsake te verhoor, het daar van die oggend af tot die aand toe mense vir hom gestaan en wag. 13Maar toe sy skoonpa sien wat Moses alles vir die volk doen, het hy gesê: Waarom doen jy die volk dit aan? Waarom tree net jý op as regter, en al die mense moet van die môre af tot die aand toe vir jou staan en wag? 14Moses het sy skoonpa geantwoord: Die volk kom na my toe om na die wil van God te vra. 15As hulle in sake betrokke raak, kom hulle na my toe. Ek lewer dan uitspraak oor die geskille tussen hulle en maak terselfdertyd God se voorskrifte en wette aan hulle bekend. 16Maar Moses se skoonpa sê vir hom: Jy maak nie reg nie. 17Jy en al hierdie mense by jou sal totaal uitgeput raak. Die werk is te veel vir jou. Jy kan dit nie alleen behartig nie. 18Luister nou na my raad en mag God jou bystaan! Jy moet die volk se verteenwoordiger by God wees en alle sake voor Hom bring. 19Druk die volk die voorskrifte en wette op die hart, leer hulle die pad wat hulle moet loop en wat hulle moet doen. [20]Verder moet jy onder die volk bekwame manne uitsoek, dienaars van die Here, mense wat die waarheid liefhet en nie hulle eie voordeel soek nie. Dan moet jy hulle oor die volk aanstel as leiers oor duisend, oor honderd, oor vyftig en oor tien. [21]Hulle moet deurentyd vir die volk hofsittings hou. Die belangrike sake moet na jóú verwys word, en die geringes moet húlle oplos. Dit sal vir jou makliker wees as hulle die verantwoordelikheid saam met jou dra. [22]As God jou beveel om dit so te doen, sal jy met die werk kan aanhou, en al hierdie mense sal dan tevrede huis toe gaan. [23]Moses het na sy skoonpa geluister en gedoen wat hy gesê het. [24]Moses het bekwame manne uit Israel gekies en hulle aangestel as hoofde oor die volk: leiers oor duisend, oor honderd, oor vyftig en oor tien. [25]Hulle het deurentyd hofsittings gehou. Die belangrike sake is na Moses verwys, en die geringes is deur die leiers verhoor. [26]Moses het toe afskeid geneem van sy skoonpa, en sy skoonpa is terug na sy eie land toe.

Israel at Mount Sinai

Exo 19:1 (1-2) The people of Israel left Rephidim, and on the first day of the third month after they had left Egypt they came to the desert of Sinai. There they set up camp at the foot of Mount Sinai,

Exo 19:3 and Moses went up the mountain to meet with God. The LORD called to him from the mountain and told him to say to the Israelites, Jacob's descendants:

Exo 19:4 "You saw what I, the LORD, did to the Egyptians and how I carried you as an eagle carries her young on her wings, and brought you here to me.

Exo 19:5 Now, if you will obey me and keep my covenant, you will be my own people. The whole earth is mine, but you will be my chosen people,

Exo 19:6 a people dedicated to me alone, and you will serve me as priests."

Exo 19:7 So Moses went down and called the leaders of the people together and told them everything that the LORD had commanded him.

Exo 19:8 Then all the people answered together, "We will do everything that the LORD has said," and Moses reported this to the LORD.

Exo 19:9 The LORD said to Moses, "I will come to you in a thick cloud, so that the people will hear me speaking with you and will believe you from now on." Moses told the LORD what the people had answered,

Exo 19:10 and the LORD said to him, "Go to the people and tell them to spend today and tomorrow purifying themselves for worship. They must wash their clothes

Exo 19:11 and be ready the day after tomorrow. On that day I will come down on Mount Sinai, where all the people can see me.

Exo 19:12 Mark a boundary around the mountain that the people must not cross, and tell them not to go up the mountain or even get near it. If any of you set foot on it, you are to be put to death;

Exo 19:13 you must either be stoned or shot with arrows, without anyone touching you. This applies to both people and animals; they must be put to death. But when the trumpet is blown, then the people are to go up to the mountain."

Exo 19:14 Then Moses came down the mountain and told the people to get ready for worship. So they washed their clothes,

Exo 19:15 and Moses told them, "Be ready by the day after tomorrow and don't have sexual intercourse in the meantime."

Exo 19:16 On the morning of the third day there was thunder and lightning, a thick cloud appeared on the mountain, and a very loud trumpet blast was heard. All the people in the camp trembled with fear.

Exo 19:17 Moses led them out of the camp to meet God, and they stood at the foot of the mountain.

Exo 19:18 All of Mount Sinai was covered with smoke, because the LORD had come down on it in fire. The smoke went up like the smoke of a furnace, and all the people trembled violently.

Exo 19:19 The sound of the trumpet became louder and louder. Moses spoke, and God answered him with thunder.

Exo 19:20 The LORD came down on the top of Mount Sinai and called Moses to the top of the mountain. Moses went up Exo 19:21 and the LORD said to him, "Go down and warn the people not to cross the boundary to come and look at me; if they do, many of them will die.

Exo 19:22 Even the priests who come near me must purify themselves, or I will punish them."

Exo 19:23 Moses said to the LORD, "The people cannot come up, because you commanded us to consider the mountain sacred and to mark a boundary around it."

Exo 19:24 The LORD replied, "Go down and bring Aaron back with you. But the priests and the people must not cross the boundary to come up to me, or I will punish them."

Exo 19:25 Moses then went down to the people and told them what the LORD had said.

1Presies drie maande na hulle uittog uit Egipte het die Israeliete in die Sinaiwoestyn aangekom. 2Nadat hulle van Refidim af vertrek het, het hulle kamp opgeslaan in die Sinaiwoestyn, regoor die berg. 3Moses het teen die berg uitgeklim na God toe, en die Here het van die berg af na hom geroep: So moet jy vir die nageslag van Jakob sê, vir die Israeliete vertel: 4 Julle het gesien wat Ek aan Egipte gedoen het, en hoe Ek julle soos op arendsvlerke veilig gedra en na My toe gebring het. 5As julle My gehoorsaam en julle aan my verbond hou, sal julle uit al die volke my eiendom wees, 'n koninkryk wat My as priesters dien, en 'n gewyde nasie. Die hele aarde behoort immers aan My.' Dit is wat jy aan die Israeliete moet vertel. 6Moses het toe afgeklim en die leiers van die volk bymekaargeroep en vir hulle alles vertel wat die Here hom beveel het. 7Daarna het die volk soos een man geantwoord: Alles wat die Here gesê het, sal ons doen. Moses het vir die Here gaan sê wat die volk geantwoord het. 8Toe het die Here vir Moses gesê: Ek kom na jou toe in 'n donderwolk. Die volk sal My kan hoor wanneer Ek met jou praat en dan sal hulle altyd vertroue in jou hê. Toe Moses alles wat die volk geantwoord het, aan die Here gaan meedeel het, 9het die Here ook nog vir hom gesê: Gaan terug na die volk toe. Laat hulle hulle vandag en môre reinig en laat hulle hulle klere was. 10Hulle moet oormôre gereed wees, want dan sal Ek, die Here, na Sinaiberg toe afkom, voor die oë van die hele volk. 11Jy moet rondom die berg vir die volk 'n grens vasstel en vir hulle sê: Julle moet oppas om nie op die berg te klim of selfs aan sy helling te raak nie. Elkeen wat aan die berg raak, moet beslis doodgemaak word. 12Julle mag so iemand nie met die hand aanraak nie; hy moet beslis met klippe doodgegooi of met 'n pyl doodgeskiet word. Dit maak nie saak of dit 'n mens of 'n dier is nie; hy mag nie bly lewe nie. Eers wanneer die ramshoring blaas, mag hulle die berg uitklim. 13Moses is toe die berg af na die volk toe. Hy het hulle beveel om hulle te reinig en hulle klere te was 14en vir hulle gesê: Wees oormôre gereed en moet intussen nie naby 'n vrou kom nie. 15Met dagbreek die derde dag was daar donderslae, weerligte en 'n donker wolk op die berg. Daar was ook die sterk, helder klank van 'n ramshoring. Die hele volk in die kamp het gebewe. 16Toe het Moses hulle uit die kamp laat uitgaan om voor God te gaan verskyn, en hulle het by die voet van die berg gaan staan. 17Die hele Sinaiberg het begin rook toe die Here in vuur daarheen afkom; die rook het opgetrek soos die rook van 'n oond. Die hele berg het ook geweldig geskud, 18en die geluid van die ramshoring het al hoe harder en harder geword. Moses het gepraat, en God het hom in die donderslae geantwoord. 19Toe die Here na die top van Sinaiberg toe afgekom het, het Hy vir Moses na die top van die berg toe geroep. Moses het daarheen opgeklim, [20]en die Here het vir hom gesê: Gaan af, waarsku die volk dat hulle nie deurbreek na My, die Here, toe om na My te kyk nie, want dan sal baie van hulle sterf. [21]Selfs die priesters wat gewoonlik in my teenwoordigheid kom, moet op 'n afstand bly of anders sal Ek hulle laat sterf. [22]Moses het die Here geantwoord: Die volk kan nie Sinaiberg bestyg nie, want U self het ons gewaarsku om 'n grens rondom die berg vas te stel en daarvan af weg te bly. [23]Toe het die Here vir hom gesê: Gaan nou af en kom dan saam met Aäron terug. Die priesters en die volk mag nie deurbreek en opklim na My, die Here, toe nie, want dan sal Ek hulle laat sterf. [24]Moses is toe af na die volk toe om alles vir hulle te gaan sê.

The Ten Commandments

Exo 20:1 God spoke, and these were his words:

Exo 20:2 "I am the LORD your God who brought you out of Egypt, where you were slaves.

Exo 20:3 "Worship no god but me.

Exo 20:4 "Do not make for yourselves images of anything in heaven or on earth or in the water under the earth.

Exo 20:5 Do not bow down to any idol or worship it, because I am the LORD your God and I tolerate no rivals. I bring punishment on those who hate me and on their descendants down to the third and fourth generation.

Exo 20:6 But I show my love to thousands of generations of those who love me and obey my laws.

Exo 20:7 "Do not use my name for evil purposes, for I, the LORD your God, will punish anyone who misuses my name.

Exo 20:8 "Observe the Sabbath and keep it holy.

Exo 20:9 You have six days in which to do your work,

Exo 20:10 but the seventh day is a day of rest dedicated to me. On that day no one is to work—neither you, your children, your slaves, your animals, nor the foreigners who live in your country.

Exo 20:11 In six days I, the LORD, made the earth, the sky, the seas, and everything in them, but on the seventh day I rested. That is why I, the LORD, blessed the Sabbath and made it holy.

Exo 20:12 "Respect your father and your mother, so that you may live a long time in the land that I am giving you.

Exo 20:13 "Do not commit murder.

Exo 20:14 "Do not commit adultery.

Exo 20:15 "Do not steal.

Exo 20:16 "Do not accuse anyone falsely.

Exo 20:17 "Do not desire another man's house; do not desire his wife, his slaves, his cattle, his donkeys, or anything else that he owns."

Exo 20:18 When the people heard the thunder and the trumpet blast and saw the lightning and the smoking mountain, they trembled with fear and stood a long way off.

Exo 20:19 They said to Moses, "If you speak to us, we will listen; but we are afraid that if God speaks to us, we will die."

Exo 20:20 Moses replied, "Don't be afraid; God has only come to test you and make you keep on obeying him, so that you will not sin."

Exo 20:21 But the people continued to stand a long way off, and only Moses went near the dark cloud where God was.

Laws About Altars

Exo 20:22 The LORD commanded Moses to tell the Israelites: "You have seen how I, the LORD, have spoken to you from heaven.

Exo 20:23 Do not make for yourselves gods of silver or gold to be worshiped in addition to me.

Exo 20:24 Make an altar of earth for me, and on it sacrifice your sheep and your cattle as offerings to be completely burned and as fellowship offerings. In every place that I set aside for you to worship me, I will come to you and bless you.

Exo 20:25 If you make an altar of stone for me, do not build it out of cut stones, because when you use a chisel on stones, you make them unfit for my use.

Exo 20:26 Do not build an altar for me with steps leading up to it; if you do, you will expose yourselves as you go up the steps.

EKSODUS 20

1Toe het God al hierdie gebooie aangekondig: 2Ek is die Here jou God wat jou uit Egipte, uit die plek van slawerny, bevry het. 3Jy mag naas My geen ander gode hê nie. 4Jy mag nie vir jou 'n beeld of enige afbeelding maak van wat in die hemel daarbo of op die aarde hieronder of in die water onder die aarde is nie. 5Jy mag hulle nie vereer of dien nie, want Ek, die Here jou God, eis onverdeelde trou aan My. Ek reken kinders die sondes van hulle vaders toe, selfs tot in die derde en vierde geslag van dié wat My haat, 6maar Ek betoon my liefde tot aan die duisendste geslag van dié wat My liefhet en my gebooie gehoorsaam. 7Jy mag die Naam van die Here jou God nie misbruik nie, want die Here sal die een wat sy Naam misbruik, nie ongestraf laat bly nie. 8Sorg dat jy die sabbatdag heilig hou. 9Ses dae moet jy werk en alles doen wat jy moet, 10maar die sewende dag is die sabbat van die Here jou God. Dan mag jy geen werk doen nie, nie jy of jou seun of jou dogter of die man of vrou wat vir jou werk, of enige dier van jou of die vreemdeling by jou nie. 11Die Here het in ses dae die hemel en alles daarin gemaak, die aarde en alles daarop, die see en alles daarin. Op die sewende dag het Hy gerus, en daarom het die Here dit as gereelde rusdag geheilig. 12Eer jou vader en jou moeder, dan sal jy lank bly woon in die land wat die Here jou God vir jou gee. 13Jy mag nie moord pleeg nie. 14Jy mag nie egbreuk pleeg nie. 15Jy mag nie steel nie. 16Jy mag nie vals getuienis teen 'n ander gee nie. 17Jy mag nie iemand anders se huis begeer nie. Jy mag nie sy vrou begeer nie, ook nie 'n slaaf of slavin, 'n bees of 'n donkie, of enigiets anders wat aan hom behoort nie. 18Toe die volk die donderslae en die klank van die ramshoring hoor, en die weerligte en die rook op die berg sien, het hulle van angs gebewe en op 'n afstand bly staan. 19Hulle sê toe vir Moses: Praat jý liewer met ons, en ons sal luister. Moet tog nie dat God met ons praat nie, want dan sal ons sterf. 20Maar Moses het die volk geantwoord: Moenie bang wees nie, want God het gekom om julle te toets. Hy wil hê julle moet ontsag hê vir Hom en nie sondig nie. 21Die volk het op 'n afstand bly staan, maar Moses het nader gegaan na die donker wolk waarin God was. 22Toe sê die Here vir Moses: So moet jy vir die Israeliete sê: Julle het nou self ervaar dat Ek uit die hemel met julle kom praat het. 23Julle mag nie gode uit silwer maak om my plek in te neem nie. Julle mag ook nie vir julle gode uit goud maak nie. 24Julle moet vir My 'n altaar van grond bou en julle brandoffers en maaltydoffers uit julle kleinvee en beeste daarop bring. Op elke plek waar Ek my Naam wil laat aanroep, sal Ek na julle toe kom en julle seën. 25As julle 'n altaar van klip vir My wil oprig, mag julle dit nie van gekapte klip bou nie. Sodra julle met die beitel daaraan kap, sal julle dit ontwy. [26]Julle mag nie met trappies na my altaar toe opklim nie, sodat julle julle nie by my altaar ontbloot nie.

Exodus 21

Laws About Slaves

Exo 21:1 "Give the Israelites the following laws:

Exo 21:2 If you buy a Hebrew slave, he shall serve you for six years. In the seventh year he is to be set free without having to pay anything.

Exo 21:3 If he was unmarried when he became your slave, he is not to take a wife with him when he leaves; but if he was married when he became your slave, he may take his wife with him.

Exo 21:4 If his master gave him a wife and she bore him sons or daughters, the woman and her children belong to the master, and the man is to leave by himself.

Exo 21:5 But if the slave declares that he loves his master, his wife, and his children and does not want to be set free, Exo 21:6 then his master shall take him to the place of worship. There he is to make him stand against the door or the doorpost and put a hole through his ear. Then he will be his slave for life.

Exo 21:7 "If a man sells his daughter as a slave, she is not to be set free, as male slaves are.

Exo 21:8 If she is sold to someone who intends to make her his wife, but he doesn't like her, then she is to be sold back to her father; her master cannot sell her to foreigners, because he has treated her unfairly.

Exo 21:9 If a man buys a female slave to give to his son, he is to treat her like a daughter.

Exo 21:10 If a man takes a second wife, he must continue to give his first wife the same amount of food and clothing and the same rights that she had before.

Exo 21:11 If he does not fulfill these duties to her, he must set her free and not receive any payment.

Exo 21:12 "Whoever hits someone and kills him is to be put to death.

Exo 21:13 But if it was an accident and he did not mean to kill him, he can escape to a place which I will choose for you, and there he will be safe.

Exo 21:14 But when someone gets angry and deliberately kills someone else, he is to be put to death, even if he has run to my altar for safety.

Exo 21:15 "Whoever hits his father or his mother is to be put to death.

Exo 21:16 "Whoever kidnaps someone, either to sell him or to keep him as a slave, is to be put to death.

Exo 21:17 "Whoever curses his father or his mother is to be put to death.

Exo 21:18 (18-19) "If there is a fight and someone hits someone else with a stone or with his fist, but does not kill him, he is not to be punished. If the one who was hit has to stay in bed, but later is able to get up and walk outside with the help of a cane, the one who hit him is to pay for his lost time and take care of him until he gets well.

Exo 21:20 "If a slave owner takes a stick and beats his slave, whether male or female, and the slave dies on the spot, the owner is to be punished.

Exo 21:21 But if the slave does not die for a day or two, the master is not to be punished. The loss of his property is punishment enough.

Exo 21:22 "If some men are fighting and hurt a pregnant woman so that she loses her child, but she is not injured in any other way, the one who hurt her is to be fined whatever amount the woman's husband demands, subject to the approval of the judges.

Exo 21:23 But if the woman herself is injured, the punishment shall be life for life,

Exo 21:24 eye for eye, tooth for tooth, hand for hand, foot for foot,

Exo 21:25 burn for burn, wound for wound, bruise for bruise.

Exo 21:26 "If someone hits his male or female slave in the eye and puts it out, he is to free the slave as payment for the eye.

Exo 21:27 If he knocks out a tooth, he is to free the slave as payment for the tooth.

Exo 21:28 "If a bull gores someone to death, it is to be stoned, and its flesh shall not be eaten; but its owner is not to be punished.

Exo 21:29 But if the bull had been in the habit of attacking people and its owner had been warned, but did not keep it penned up—then if it gores someone to death, it is to be stoned, and its owner is to be put to death also.

Exo 21:30 However, if the owner is allowed to pay a fine to save his life, he must pay the full amount required.

Exo 21:31 If the bull kills a boy or a girl, the same rule applies.

Exo 21:32 If the bull kills a male or female slave, its owner shall pay the owner of the slave thirty pieces of silver, and the bull shall be stoned to death.

Laws About Restitution

Exo 21:33 "If someone takes the cover off a pit or if he digs one and does not cover it, and a bull or a donkey falls into it,

Exo 21:34 he must pay for the animal. He is to pay the money to the owner and may keep the dead animal.

Exo 21:35 If someone's bull kills someone else's bull, the two of them shall sell the live bull and divide the money; they shall also divide up the meat from the dead animal.

Exo 21:36 But if it was known that the bull had been in the habit of attacking and its owner did not keep it penned up, he must make good the loss by giving the other man a live bull, but he may keep the dead animal.

[1]Dit is die bepalings wat jy die Israeliete moet meedeel: [2]Wanneer jy 'n Hebreeuse slaaf koop, moet hy ses jaar vir jou werk, maar in die sewende jaar moet jy hom vrylaat sonder dat hy jou iets daarvoor betaal. [3]As hy alleen was toe hy jou slaaf geword het, moet hy alleen vrygelaat word. As hy toe getroud was, moet sy vrou saam met hom vrygelaat word. [4]As sy eienaar vir hom 'n vrou gegee het, en sy vir hom seuns of dogters in die wêreld gebring het, behoort die vrou en haar kinders aan die eienaar, en dan hoef net die slaaf vrygelaat te word. [5]As die slaaf egter uitdruklik sou sê: Ek is lief vir my eienaar en vir my vrou en my kinders. [6]Ek wil nie vrygelaat word nie,' moet sy eienaar hom in die teenwoordigheid van God bring, by die heiligdom se deur of kosyn, en daar moet die eienaar 'n gaatjie in sy slaaf se oor steek met 'n els. Dan is hy vir altyd sy eienaar se slaaf. [7]Wanneer 'n man sy dogter as slavin verkoop, mag sy nie gewoonweg soos ander slawe vrygelaat word nie. [8]As haar eienaar wat haar as sy vrou wou hê, later nie meer van haar hou nie, moet hy toelaat dat sy deur haar eie mense losgekoop word. Hy het nie die reg om haar aan vreemde mense te verkoop nie, want dan pleeg hy troubreuk teenoor haar. [9]As die eienaar egter sou besluit om haar vir sy seun as vrou te gee, moet sy soos 'n dogter behandel word. [10]As die eienaar 'n ander vrou vat, mag hy die byvrou haar kos, klere en huweliksreg nie ontsê nie. [11]As hy hierdie drie dinge nie vir haar gee nie, moet sy vrygelaat word sonder dat daar iets aan haar eienaar betaal word. [12]Wie iemand doodslaan, moet doodgemaak word. [13]Hy wat dit onopsetlik gedoen het deurdat God dit met hom laat gebeur het, kan vlug na 'n plek toe wat Ek vir jou sal aanwys. [14]Wanneer iemand egter 'n ander opsetlik doodmaak, moet jy hom selfs by die altaar wegvat en doodmaak. [15]Wie aan sy pa of ma slaan, moet doodgemaak word. [16]Wie 'n ander ontvoer om hom te verkoop of om hom in sy besit te hou, moet doodgemaak word. [17]Wie sy pa of ma vloek, moet doodgemaak word. [18]Wanneer mans aan die stry raak en die een slaan die ander met 'n klip of met die vuis sonder om hom dood te slaan, moet die slaner nie gestraf word nie. As die man wat geslaan is, egter in die bed moet bly en eers later kan opstaan en met 'n kierie buite kan rondloop, moet die slaner hom vergoed vir die tyd wat hy nie kan werk nie en vir hom sorg tot hy behoorlik gesond is. [19]Wanneer 'n man sy slaaf of slavin met 'n stok slaan dat hy of sy onmiddellik doodgaan, moet dit gewreek word. [20]As so 'n slaaf dit vir 'n dag of twee oorleef, is daar nie 'n saak nie, want die slaaf is die man se eiendom. [21]Wanneer mans met mekaar baklei en hulle 'n swanger vrou omstamp, sodat sy 'n miskraam het maar nie blywend beseer is nie, moet hy wat haar gestamp het, onderhewig aan die goedkeuring van die regbank, die boete betaal wat die eggenoot van die vrou hom oplê. 22As sy blywend beseer is, is die straf: 'n lewe vir 'n lewe, 23'n oog vir 'n oog, 'n tand vir 'n tand, 'n hand vir 'n hand, 'n voet vir 'n voet, 24'n brandwond vir 'n brandwond, 'n wond vir 'n wond en 'n kneusplek vir 'n kneusplek. 25Wanneer 'n man sy slaaf of slavin op die oog slaan en dit blywend beskadig, moet hy die slaaf of slavin vrylaat as vergoeding vir die oog. 26As hy sy slaaf of slavin se tand uitslaan, moet hy die slaaf of slavin vrylaat as vergoeding vir die tand. 27Wanneer 'n bees 'n man of 'n vrou doodstoot, moet die bees met klippe doodgegooi word, en sy vleis mag nie geëet word nie. Daar is nie 'n saak teen die eienaar van die bees nie. 28As die bees tevore al stoterig was, en die eienaar se aandag daarop gevestig is, maar hy dit nogtans nie behoorlik oppas nie, sodat dit die dood van 'n man of 'n vrou veroorsaak, moet die bees met klippe doodgegooi word. Die eienaar van die bees moet ook doodgemaak word. 29As hy egter loskoopgeld moet betaal, moet hy alles wat hom opgelê is, betaal as afkoopgeld vir sy lewe. 30As 'n bees 'n seun of 'n dogter stoot, moet volgens dieselfde regsbeginsel gehandel word. 31As 'n bees 'n slaaf of 'n slavin doodstoot, moet drie honderd en veertig gram silwer aan die eienaar betaal word, en die bees moet met klippe doodgegooi word. 32Wanneer 'n man 'n put oop laat of wanneer hy 'n put grawe en dit nie behoorlik toemaak nie, en 'n bees of 'n donkie val daarin, 33moet die eienaar van die put vir die verlies vergoed; hy moet die eienaar van die dier uitbetaal en die dooie dier kan hy vat. 34Wanneer 'n man se bees iemand anders se bees doodstoot, moet hulle die lewende bees verkoop en die geld gelykop onder mekaar verdeel; ook die dooie dier moet gelykop verdeel word. 35Of as dit bekend is dat die bees tevore al bakleierig was, maar sy eienaar dit nie behoorlik opgepas het nie, moet hy 'n ander bees in die plek van die dooie bees gee. Die dooie dier sal syne wees.

Exo 22:1 "If someone steals a cow or a sheep and kills it or sells it, he must pay five cows for one cow and four sheep for one sheep.

Exo 22:2 (2-4) He must pay for what he stole. If he owns nothing, he shall be sold as a slave to pay for what he has stolen. If the stolen animal, whether a cow, a donkey, or a sheep, is found alive in his possession, he shall pay two for one. "If a thief is caught breaking into a house at night and is killed, the one who killed him is not guilty of murder. But if it happens during the day, he is guilty of murder.

Exo 22:5 "If someone lets his animals graze in a field or a vineyard and they stray away and eat up the crops growing in someone else's field, he must make good the loss with the crops from his own fields or vineyards.

Exo 22:6 "If someone starts a fire in his own field and it spreads through the weeds to someone else's field and burns up grain that is growing or that has been cut and stacked, the one who started the fire is to pay for the damage.

Exo 22:7 "If anyone agrees to keep someone else's money or other valuables for him and they are stolen from his house, the thief, if found, shall repay double.

Exo 22:8 But if the thief is not found, the one who was keeping the valuables is to be brought to the place of worship and there he must take an oath that he has not stolen the other one's property.

Exo 22:9 "In every case of a dispute about property, whether it involves cattle, donkeys, sheep, clothing, or any other lost object, the two people claiming the property shall be taken to the place of worship. The one whom God declares to be guilty shall pay double to the other one.

Exo 22:10 "If anyone agrees to keep someone else's donkey, cow, sheep, or other animal for him, and the animal dies or is injured or is carried off in a raid, and if there was no witness,

Exo 22:11 the man must go to the place of worship and take an oath that he has not stolen the other man's animal. If the animal was not stolen, the owner shall accept the loss, and the other man need not repay him;

Exo 22:12 but if the animal was stolen, the man must repay the owner.

Exo 22:13 If it was killed by wild animals, the man is to bring the remains as evidence; he need not pay for what has been killed by wild animals.

Exo 22:14 "If anyone borrows an animal from someone else and it is injured or dies when its owner is not present, he must pay for it.

Exo 22:15 But if that happens when the owner is present, he need not repay. If it is a rented animal, the loss is covered by the rental price.

Laws About Social Justice

Exo 22:16 "If a man seduces a virgin who is not engaged, he must pay the bride price for her and marry her.

Exo 22:17 But if her father refuses to let him marry her, he must pay the father a sum of money equal to the bride price for a virgin.

Exo 22:18 "Put to death any woman who practices magic.

Exo 22:19 "Put to death any man who has sexual relations with an animal.

Exo 22:20 "Condemn to death anyone who offers sacrifices to any god except to me, the LORD.

Exo 22:21 "Do not mistreat or oppress a foreigner; remember that you were foreigners in Egypt.

Exo 22:22 Do not mistreat any widow or orphan.

Exo 22:23 If you do, I, the LORD, will answer them when they cry out to me for help, Exo 22:24 and I will become angry and kill you in war. Your wives will become widows, and your children will be fatherless.

Exo 22:25 "If you lend money to any of my people who are poor, do not act like a moneylender and require him to pay interest.

Exo 22:26 If you take someone's cloak as a pledge that he will pay you, you must give it back to him before the sun sets, Exo 22:27 because it is the only covering he has to keep him warm. What else can he sleep in? When he cries out to me for help, I will answer him because I am merciful.

Exo 22:28 "Do not speak evil of God, and do not curse a leader of your people.

Exo 22:29 "Give me the offerings from your grain, your wine, and your olive oil when they are due. "Give me your first-born sons.

Exo 22:30 Give me the first-born of your cattle and your sheep. Let the first-born male stay with its mother for seven days, and on the eighth day offer it to me.

Exo 22:31 "You are my people, so you must not eat the meat of any animal that has been killed by wild animals; instead, give it to the dogs.

1Wanneer 'n man 'n bees of 'n skaap steel en dit slag of verkoop, moet hy vyf beeste terugbetaal vir die bees en vier stuks kleinvee vir die skaap. 2As die gesteelde goed lewend in sy besit gevind word, moet hy dit dubbel vergoed, of dit nou beeste, donkies of skape is. 'n Dief moet ten volle vir sy diefstal vergoed. As hy niks besit nie, moet hy vir die waarde van die gesteelde goed verkoop word. As 'n dief inbreek en op heter daad betrap en doodgeslaan word, mag sy dood nie gewreek word nie. As dit egter na sonop gebeur, kan sy dood wel gewreek word. 3Wanneer 'n man sy vee laat wei en hulle nie oppas waar hulle wei nie, en hulle loop wei in die land of wingerd van 'n ander, moet hy met die opbrengs van sy beste land of wingerd daarvoor vergoed. 4Wanneer 'n man onkruid aan die brand steek, en die vuur vang die rye gerwe of die ongesnyde graan of die land van 'n ander, moet die man wat met die brand begin het, ten volle daarvoor vergoed. 5As 'n man aan iemand anders geld of goedere gee om te bewaar, en dit word uit sy huis gesteel, moet die dief dit dubbel betaal as hy gevang word. 6Maar as die dief nie gevang word nie, moet die huiseienaar in die teenwoordigheid van God 'n eed gaan aflê dat hy nie die ander man se goed gesteel het nie. 7In die geval van 'n geskil oor 'n bees of 'n donkie of 'n skaap of klere of enigiets wat weggeraak het, moet dié wat die goed eis, hulle saak voor God gaan stel. Die een wat deur God as die skuldige aangewys word, moet dubbel betaal aan die ander. 8Wanneer 'n man 'n donkie of 'n bees of 'n skaap of enige ander dier aan iemand anders gee om op te pas, en dit vrek of word verskeur of buitgemaak sonder dat daar 'n ooggetuie by is, 9moet hy in wie se sorg dit gegee is, in die teenwoordigheid van die Here 'n eed teenoor die eienaar aflê dat hy wat dit moes oppas, dit nie gesteel het nie. Die eienaar moet sy woord aanvaar, en in so 'n geval hoef niks betaal te word nie. 10As die dier egter gesteel is terwyl dit in die ander man se sorg was, moet die eienaar daarvoor vergoed word. 11As dit deur wilde diere verskeur is, moet die eienaar by die verskeurde dier gebring word, en dan hoef niks betaal te word nie. 12Wanneer 'n man 'n dier van 'n ander leen, en dit word verskeur of gaan dood terwyl die eienaar nie by is nie, moet die eienaar ten volle daarvoor vergoed word. 13As die eienaar by is, is daar nie 'n eis nie. As die dier gehuur was, moet die huur betaal word. 14Wanneer 'n man 'n jongmeisie wat nog nie verloof is nie, verlei om met hom geslagsgemeenskap te hê, moet hy aan haar pa die volle bruidsprys betaal en met haar trou. 15As haar pa volstrek weier om haar aan hom te gee, moet hy nogtans die volle bruidsprys vir jongmeisies betaal, en dit met silwer. 16Jy mag nie 'n towenares laat lewe nie. 17Elkeen wat met 'n dier geslagsgemeenskap het, moet doodgemaak word. [18]Iemand wat aan enige god behalwe aan die Here offer, moet om die lewe gebring word. [19]Jy mag nie 'n vreemdeling verdruk of laat swaarkry nie, want jy was self 'n vreemdeling in Egipte. [20]Jy mag geen weduwee of weeskind veronreg nie. [21]As jy tog so iemand veronreg, en hy na My roep, sal Ek na sy hulpgeroep luister. [22]Dan sal my toorn ontvlam, en Ek sal jou om die lewe bring, sodat jou vrou 'n weduwee word en jou kinders weeskinders. [23]As jy aan 'n arm man uit my volk geld leen, moet jy nooit teenoor hom soos 'n skuldeiser optree nie. Jy mag hom ook nie rente vra nie. [24]As iemand sy klere by jou verpand, moet jy dit voor sononder teruggee, [25]want dit is al wat hy het om hom mee toe te maak. Onder wat anders kan hy slaap? As hy My hieroor aanroep, sal Ek na hom luister, want Ek is barmhartig. [26]Jy mag God nie vervloek nie en ook nie 'n leier van jou volk nie. [27]Moenie talm met jou offers uit jou graan- en wynoes nie. Die eersteling van jou seuns moet jy vir My gee. [28]Dit geld ook van jou beeste en kleinvee. Sewe dae kan die eerstelinge by hulle ma's bly, maar op die agste dag moet jy hulle vir My gee. [29]Julle moet mense wees wat aan My gewy is. Julle mag nie vleis eet van diere wat in die veld verskeur is nie. Gooi dit vir die honde.

Exodus 23

Exo 23:1 "Do not spread false rumors, and do not help a guilty person by giving false testimony.

Exo 23:2 Do not follow the majority when they do wrong or when they give testimony that perverts justice.

Exo 23:3 Do not show partiality to a poor person at his trial.

Exo 23:4 "If you happen to see your enemy's cow or donkey running loose, take it back to him.

Exo 23:5 If his donkey has fallen under its load, help him get the donkey to its feet again; don't just walk off.

Exo 23:6 "Do not deny justice to a poor person when he appears in court.

Exo 23:7 Do not make false accusations, and do not put an innocent person to death, for I will condemn anyone who does such an evil thing.

Exo 23:8 Do not accept a bribe, for a bribe makes people blind to what is right and ruins the cause of those who are innocent.

Exo 23:9 "Do not mistreat a foreigner; you know how it feels to be a foreigner, because you were foreigners in Egypt.

Laws About the Sabbath and Festivals

Exo 23:10 "For six years plant your land and gather in what it produces.

Exo 23:11 But in the seventh year let it rest, and do not harvest anything that grows on it. The poor may eat what grows there, and the wild animals can have what is left. Do the same with your vineyards and your olive trees.

Exo 23:12 "Work six days a week, but do no work on the seventh day, so that your slaves and the foreigners who work for you and even your animals can rest.

Exo 23:13 "Listen to everything that I, the LORD, have said to you. Do not pray to other gods; do not even mention their names.

Exo 23:14 "Celebrate three festivals a year to honor me.

Exo 23:15 In the month of Abib, the month in which you left Egypt, celebrate the Festival of Unleavened Bread in the way that I commanded you. Do not eat any bread made with yeast during the seven days of this festival. Never come to worship me without bringing an offering.

Exo 23:16 "Celebrate the Harvest Festival when you begin to harvest your crops. "Celebrate the Festival of Shelters in the autumn, when you gather the fruit from your vineyards and orchards.

Exo 23:17 Every year at these three festivals all your men must come to worship me, the Lord your God.

Exo 23:18 "Do not offer bread made with yeast when you sacrifice an animal to me. The fat of animals sacrificed to me during these festivals is not to be left until the following morning.

Exo 23:19 "Each year bring to the house of the LORD your God the first grain that you harvest. "Do not cook a young sheep or goat in its mother's milk.

Conquest of Canaan Promised

Exo 23:20 "I will send an angel ahead of you to protect you as you travel and to bring you to the place which I have prepared.

Exo 23:21 Pay attention to him and obey him. Do not rebel against him, for I have sent him, and he will not pardon such rebellion.

Exo 23:22 But if you obey him and do everything I command, I will fight against all your enemies.

Exo 23:23 My angel will go ahead of you and take you into the land of the Amorites, the Hittites, the Perizzites, the Canaanites, the Hivites, and the Jebusites, and I will destroy them.

Exo 23:24 Do not bow down to their gods or worship them, and do not adopt their religious practices. Destroy their gods and break down their sacred stone pillars.

Exo 23:25 If you worship me, the LORD your God, I will bless you with food and water and take away all your sicknesses.

Exo 23:26 In your land no woman will have a miscarriage or be without children. I will give you long lives.

Exo 23:27 "I will make the people who oppose you afraid of me; I will bring confusion among the people against whom you fight, and I will make all your enemies turn and run from you.

Exo 23:28 I will throw your enemies into panic; I will drive out the Hivites, the Canaanites, and the Hittites as you advance.

Exo 23:29 I will not drive them out within a year's time; if I did, the land would become deserted, and the wild animals would be too many for you.

Exo 23:30 Instead, I will drive them out little by little, until there are enough of you to take possession of the land.

Exo 23:31 I will make the borders of your land extend from the Gulf of Aqaba to the Mediterranean Sea and from the desert to the Euphrates River. I will give you power over the inhabitants of the land, and you will drive them out as you advance.

Exo 23:32 Do not make any agreement with them or with their gods.

Exo 23:33 Do not let those people live in your country; if you do, they will make you sin against me. If you worship their gods, it will be a fatal trap for you."

1Jy mag nie skinderstories versprei nie. Jy mag nie met 'n misdadiger saamwerk en in sy guns vals getuienis lewer nie. 2Jy mag nie agter die meerderheid aan doen wat verkeerd is nie. Wat jy in 'n hofsaak getuig, mag jy nie verdraai nie, al doen die meerderheid dit ook. 3Wanneer jy regspreek, mag jy 'n arm man nie in sy hofsaak voortrek nie. 4Wanneer jy 'n verdwaalde bees of donkie van jou vyand raakloop, moet jy dit beslis na hom toe terugbring. 5Wanneer jy iemand wat jou haat, se donkie sien lê onder sy vrag, moet jy hom nie sonder hulp los nie; gaan help hom met sy vrag. 6Wanneer jy regspreek, mag jy 'n arme nie in 'n hofsaak veronreg nie 7en moet jy wegbly van leuens sodat jy nie onskuldiges en regverdiges doodmaak nie. Ek, die Here, vind nie 'n skuldige onskuldig nie. 8Wanneer jy regspreek, mag jy geen omkoopgeskenk aanneem nie, want dit maak dié wat sien, blind en laat die saak van die onskuldige skeef loop. 9Jy mag 'n vreemdeling nie laat verdruk nie. Julle ken die lewe van 'n vreemdeling, want julle was vreemdelinge in Egipte. 10Ses jaar mag jy jou lande saai en die oes insamel, 11maar die sewende jaar moet jy dit laat braak lê. Die armes onder jou mense mag van die opslag eet, en wat hulle laat oorbly, kan die wilde diere vreet. So moet jy ook met jou wingerd en olyfbome maak. 12In ses dae moet jy jou werk doen, maar op die sewende dag moet jy nie werk nie sodat jou beeste en donkies kan uitrus en jou werksmense en die vreemdelinge by jou 'n bietjie kan asem skep. 13Sorg dat julle alles doen wat Ek julle beveel het. Julle mag die naam van ander gode nie in julle gebede noem nie. Jy mag nie eers van hulle praat nie. 14Drie maal per jaar moet jy tot my eer 'n fees hou. 15Jy moet die fees van die ongesuurde brood vier. Soos Ek jou al vroeër beveel het, moet jy sewe dae ongesuurde brood eet, van dié dag in die maand Abib af waarop jy uit Egipte weggetrek het. Die volk mag nie sonder offers voor My verskyn nie. 16Die fees van die oes moet gevier word met die eerste opbrengs van wat jy op die land saai. Die fees van die insameling moet gevier word aan die einde van die jaar wanneer jy die vrug van jou arbeid ingesamel het op die lande. 17Drie keer per jaar moet alle mans voor My, die Here God, verskyn. 18Jy mag nie die bloed van die offerdier offer saam met iets wat suurdeeg in het nie. Die vet van die feesoffer wat jy vir My bring, mag nie tot die volgende oggend oorstaan nie. 19Die beste uit die eerste opbrengs van jou lande moet jy bring na die huis van die Here jou God toe. Jy mag nie 'n boklam in sy ma se melk kook nie. 20Ek, die Here, stuur 'n engel voor jou uit om jou op die pad te beskerm en jou na die plek toe te bring wat Ek vir jou reg gemaak het. 21Gee ag op die engel en luister na hom; moet jou nie teen hom verset nie. Hy sal jou nie vergewe as jy teen hom in opstand kom nie, want Ek het aan hom my volmag gegee. [22]As jy goed ag gee op hom en alles doen wat Ek sê, sal Ek die vyand van jou vyande wees en die teëstander van jou teëstanders. [23]My engel sal voor jou uitgaan en jou bring by die Amoriete, Hetiete, Feresiete, Kanaäniete, Hewiete en Jebusiete, en dan sal Ek hulle uitwis. [24]Jy mag nie hulle gode aanbid of dien nie. Jy mag nie daardie nasies se gewoontes oorneem nie. Jy moet hulle klippilare afbreek en stukkend slaan. [25]Jy moet die Here jou God dien. Dan sal Hy jou met kos en water seën en siekte van jou af weghou. [26]Daar sal geen miskraam en onvrugbaarheid in jou land wees nie. Ek sal jou met 'n lang lewe seën. [27]Ek sal die skrik vir My voor jou uit stuur en Ek sal alle volke met wie jy in aanraking kom, in verwarring bring. Ek sal al jou vyande laat vlug. [28]Ek sal die Hewiete, Kanaäniete en Hetiete die skrik op die lyf jaag en hulle voor jou uit verdryf. [29]Ek sal hulle egter nie dadelik voor jou uitdryf nie, sodat die land nie leeg lê en die wilde diere te veel word nie. [30]Ek sal hulle bietjie vir bietjie voor jou uit verdryf totdat jou mense genoeg is om die land in besit te neem. [31]Ek sal jou grens vasstel van die Rietsee af tot by die Filistynse See en van die woestyn af tot by die Eufraatrivier. Ek sal die inwoners van hierdie land in jou mag gee, en jy moet hulle uitdryf. [32]Jy mag nie met hulle of hulle gode 'n verdrag sluit nie. [33]Hulle mag nie in jou land bly woon nie, want dan sal hulle jou verlei om teen My te sondig deur hulle gode te dien. Dan sal hulle jou tot 'n val bring.

Exodus 24

The Covenant Confirmed

Exo 24:1 The LORD said to Moses, "Come up the mountain to me, you and Aaron, Nadab, Abihu, and seventy of the leaders of Israel; and while you are still some distance away, bow down in worship.

Exo 24:2 You alone, and none of the others, are to come near me. The people are not even to come up the mountain."

Exo 24:3 Moses went and told the people all the LORD's commands and all the ordinances, and all the people answered together, "We will do everything that the LORD has said."

Exo 24:4 Moses wrote down all the LORD's commands. Early the next morning he built an altar at the foot of the mountain and set up twelve stones, one for each of the twelve tribes of Israel.

Exo 24:5 Then he sent young men, and they burned sacrifices to the LORD and sacrificed some cattle as fellowship offerings.

Exo 24:6 Moses took half of the blood of the animals and put it in bowls; and the other half he threw against the altar.

EKSODUS 24

[1]Die Here het vir Moses gesê: Klim die berg op na My toe: jy, Aäron, Nadab, Abihu en sewentig leiers van Israel. As julle nog ver is, moet julle al voor My buig. [2]Dan moet jy, Moses, alleen nader kom na My toe. Die ander moenie saam met jou nader kom nie. Die volk mag ook nie saam met jou opklim nie. [3]Moses het toe al die gebooie en bepalings van die Here aan die volk gaan bekend maak. Hulle het soos een man gesê: Ons sal alles doen wat die Here beveel het. [4]Toe het Moses al die gebooie van die Here neergeskryf. Vroeg die volgende oggend het hy aan die voet van die berg 'n altaar gebou van twaalf klippe, vir die twaalf stamme van Israel. [5]Hy het toe van die jong Israeliete gestuur om bulle as brandoffers en maaltydoffers vir die Here te offer. [6]Moses het die helfte van die bloed in bakke gehou en die ander helfte op die altaar gesprinkel. [7]Hy het die verbondsboek geneem en dit vir die volk voorgelees. Hulle het gesê: Ons sal alles doen wat die Here beveel het en daaraan gehoorsaam wees. [8]Moses het toe die bloed gevat en op die volk gesprinkel terwyl hy sê: Dit is die bloed van die verbond wat die Here op grond van al hierdie gebooie met julle gesluit het. [9]Moses, Aäron, Nadab, Abihu en sewentig leiers van Israel het toe die berg uitgeklim. [10]Hulle het die God van Israel gesien: onder sy voete was 'n plaveisel soos saffiersteen, so blou soos die hemel self. [11]God het geen hand teen die leiers van Israel gelig nie: hulle het Hom gesien en daarna het hulle geëet en gedrink. [12]Toe sê die Here vir Moses: Klim nou die berg verder uit na My toe en vertoef daar dat Ek vir jou die plat klippe kan gee waarop Ek die wette en gebooie neergeskryf het vir die onderrig van die volk. [13]Moses en sy assistent Josua is toe hoër teen die berg van God op. [14]Vir die leiers het Moses gesê: Wag hier vir ons totdat ons na julle toe terugkom. Aäron en Hur is hier by julle: as iemand 'n probleem het, kan hy na hulle toe gaan. [15]Terwyl Moses die berg uitklim, het 'n wolk dit omhul. [16]Die magtige teenwoordigheid van die Here het op Sinaiberg gebly, en ses dae het die wolk die berg omhul. Op die sewende dag het die Here uit die wolk uit na Moses geroep. [17]Die magtige teenwoordigheid van die Here het vir die Israeliete gelyk soos 'n gloeiende vuur op die berg. [18]Moses het toe die wolk ingegaan en nog verder boontoe uitgeklim. Hy het veertig dae en nagte daar gebly.

1Die Here het vir Moses gesê: 2Sê vir die Israeliete hulle moet elkeen vir My 'n offergawe bring. Julle moet die offergawes aanvaar soos dit vir My aangebied word, 3en wel die volgende: goud, silwer en brons; 4verder ook nog blou, pers en bloedrooi wolstof, linne, bokhaar, 5rooigekleurde ramsvelle, gebreide velle en doringhout; 6olie vir die lampe, balsem vir salfolie en vir geurige wierookoffers; 7oniks en ander halfedelstene waarmee die skouerkleed en borssak van die hoëpriester versier kan word. 8Hulle moet vir My 'n heiligdom oprig dat Ek tussen hulle kan woon. 9Die tabernakel en al sy toebehore moet gemaak word presies volgens die plan wat Ek jou gewys het. 10Julle moet 'n ark van doringhout maak: een en 'n kwart meter lank, 'n driekwart meter breed en net so hoog. 11Jy moet dit binne en buite met suiwer goud oortrek en 'n goue lys rondom vassit. 12Verder moet jy vier goue ringe giet wat aan die onderste vier hoeke vasgesit moet word, sodat daar twee ringe aan elke kant is. 13Jy moet draaghoute van doringhout maak en dit met goud oortrek. 14Dan moet jy die draaghoute deur die ringe aan weerskante van die ark steek om die ark daarmee te dra. 15Die draaghoute moet in die ringe van die ark bly en mag nooit uitgehaal word nie. 16In die ark moet jy die getuienis van die verbond sit wat Ek jou sal gee. 17Dan moet jy 'n deksel van suiwer goud maak, een en 'n kwart meter lank en 'n driekwart meter breed. 18Maak twee gerubs van geslae goud op die kante van die deksel, een links en een regs. 19Die gerubs aan weerskante van die deksel moet so gemaak word dat hulle 'n eenheid met die deksel vorm. 20Hulle vlerke moet uitgesprei wees oor die deksel, sodat hulle dit bedek. Die gerubs se gesigte moet na mekaar toe wees, en hulle moet afkyk op die deksel. 21Jy moet die deksel bo-op die ark sit en daarbinne die getuienis wat Ek jou sal gee. 22Dáár sal Ek jou ontmoet. Ek sal met jou praat van die deksel af tussen die twee gerubs uit wat op die ark met die getuienis is. Al my bevele vir die Israeliete sal Ek jou van daar af gee. 23Jy moet 'n tafel van doringhout maak. Sy lengte moet een meter wees, sy breedte 'n half meter en sy hoogte 'n driekwart meter. 24Trek dit oor met suiwer goud en sit 'n goue lys rondom vas. 25Jy moet 'n band, sewe sentimeter breed, rondom die tafel sit en daarrondom 'n goue lys vassit. 26Jy moet vier goue ringe vir die tafel maak en dit aan die vier hoeke vassit, regoor die vier pote. 27Die ringe moet naby die band vas kom sodat die draaghoute deur hulle gesteek kan word om die tafel mee te dra. 28Maak die draaghoute waarmee die tafel gedra moet word, van doringhout en trek hulle oor met goud. 29Maak vir die tafel skottels, panne, kanne en komme, alles van suiwer goud. Gebruik dit om die drankoffer mee uit te giet. 30Sit offerbrood op die tafel. Dit moet altyd daar voor My in my teenwoordigheid wees. 31Jy moet 'n kandelaar van suiwer goud maak. Dit moet van geslae goud wees, sodat die kandelaar se voetstuk, stam, blomkelke, knoppe en kroonblare alles een geheel is. 32Daar moet ses arms uit die stam vertak, drie aan elke kant. 33Daar moet ook drie blomkelke, in die vorm van amandelbloeisels, met knoppe en kroonblare aan elke arm van die kandelaar wees. So moet dit wees vir al ses arms wat uit die stam van die kandelaar vertak. 34Vir die hoofstam van die kandelaar moet daar vier blomkelke, in die vorm van amandelbloeisels, met knoppe en kroonblare wees. 35Verder moet daar 'n knop wees onder elke paar arms van die kandelaar, drie vir die ses arms wat uit die stam van die kandelaar vertak. 36Die knoppe en die arms moet alles wees uit een stuk suiwer geslae goud. 37Jy moet sewe lampies maak en dit so op die kandelaar vassit dat dit lig gee na sy voorkant toe. 38Die pithouers en bakkies van die kandelaar moet van suiwer goud wees. 39Al hierdie voorwerpe moet uit vier en dertig kilogram suiwer goud gemaak word. 40Sorg dat jy dit maak volgens die plan wat vir jou op die berg gewys is.

Exo 28:12 Put them on the shoulder straps of the ephod to represent the twelve tribes of Israel. In this way Aaron will carry their names on his shoulders, so that I, the LORD, will always remember my people.

Exo 28:13 Make two gold settings

Exo 28:14 and two chains of pure gold twisted like cords, and attach them to the settings.

Exo 28:15 "Make a breastpiece for the High Priest to use in determining God's will. It is to be made of the same materials as the ephod and with similar embroidery.

Exo 28:16 It is to be square and folded double, 9 inches long and 9 inches wide.

Exo 28:17 Mount four rows of precious stones on it; in the first row mount a ruby, a topaz, and a garnet;

Exo 28:18 in the second row, an emerald, a sapphire, and a diamond;

Exo 28:19 in the third row, a turquoise, an agate, and an amethyst;

Exo 28:20 and in the fourth row, a beryl, a carnelian, and a jasper. These are to be mounted in gold settings.

Exo 28:21 Each of these twelve stones is to have engraved on it the name of one of the sons of Jacob, to represent the tribes of Israel.

Exo 28:22 For the breastpiece make chains of pure gold, twisted like cords.

Exo 28:23 Make two gold rings and attach them to the upper corners of the breastpiece, Exo 28:24 and fasten the two gold cords to the two rings.

Exo 28:25 Fasten the other two ends of the cords to the two settings, and in this way attach them in front to the shoulder straps of the ephod.

Exo 28:26 Then make two rings of gold and attach them to the lower corners of the breastpiece on the inside edge next to the ephod.

Exo 28:27 Make two more gold rings and attach them to the lower part of the front of the two shoulder straps of the ephod, near the seam and above the finely woven belt.

Exo 28:28 Tie the rings of the breastpiece to the rings of the ephod with a blue cord, so that the breastpiece rests above the belt and does not come loose.

Exo 28:29 "When Aaron enters the Holy Place, he will wear this breastpiece engraved with the names of the tribes of Israel, so that I, the LORD, will always remember my people.

Exo 28:30 Put the Urim and Thummim in the breastpiece, so that Aaron will carry them when he comes into my holy presence. At such times he must always wear this breastpiece, so that he can determine my will for the people of Israel.

Exo 28:31 "The robe that goes under the ephod is to be made entirely of blue wool.

Exo 28:32 It is to have a hole for the head, and this hole is to be reinforced with a woven binding to keep it from tearing.

Exo 28:33 (33-34) All around its lower hem put pomegranates of blue, purple, and red wool, alternating with gold bells.

Exo 28:35 Aaron is to wear this robe when he serves as priest. When he comes into my presence in the Holy Place or when he leaves it, the sound of the bells will be heard, and he will not be killed.

Exo 28:36 "Make an ornament of pure gold and engrave on it 'Dedicated to the LORD.'

Exo 28:37 Tie it to the front of the turban with a blue cord.

Exo 28:38 Aaron is to wear it on his forehead, so that I, the LORD, will accept all the offerings that the Israelites dedicate to me, even if the people commit some error in offering them.

Exo 28:39 "Weave Aaron's shirt of fine linen and make a turban of fine linen and also a sash decorated with embroidery.

Exo 28:40 "Make shirts, sashes, and caps for Aaron's sons, to provide them with dignity and beauty.

Exo 28:41 Put these clothes on your brother Aaron and his sons. Then ordain them and dedicate them by anointing them with olive oil, so that they may serve me as priests.

Exo 28:42 Make linen shorts for them, reaching from the waist to the thighs, so that they will not expose themselves.

Exo 28:43 Aaron and his sons must always wear them when they go into the Tent of my presence or approach the altar to serve as priests in the Holy Place, so that they will not be killed for exposing themselves. This is a permanent rule for Aaron and his descendants.

1Jy moet jou broer Aäron en sy seuns Nadab, Abihu, Eleasar en Itamar na jou toe laat kom uit die volk Israel uit en hulle aanstel om My as priesters te dien. 2Maak vir jou broer Aäron gewyde klere wat waardig en mooi is. 3Jy moet al die knap manne vir wie Ek met vakmanskap bedeel het, aansê om vir Aäron klere te maak sodat hy gewy kan word om 'n priester in my diens te wees. 4Hulle moet die volgende kledingstukke maak: 'n borssak, 'n skouerkleed, 'n mantel, geweefde priesterklere, 'n tulband en 'n serp. Dit is die gewyde klere wat vir jou broer Aäron en sy seuns gemaak moet word sodat hulle priesters kan wees in my diens. 5Die vakmanne moet gouddraad en blou, pers en bloedrooi wolstof en linne gebruik 6om die skouerkleed te maak. Die blou, pers en bloedrooi wolstof en die goed geweefde linne moet met die gouddraad geborduur word. 7Die skouerkleed moet aan die punte twee bande hê om dit oor die skouer aanmekaar vas te maak. 8Dit moet ook 'n gordel hê van dieselfde gehalte en daarvoor moet ook gouddraad, blou, pers en bloedrooi wolstof en goed geweefde linne gebruik word. 9Vat twee oniksstene en graveer die name van die seuns van Israel 10volgens ouderdom daarop, ses op die een en ses op die ander. 11Jy moet 'n bekwame vakman wat graveerwerk op seëlringe kan doen, aansê om die name van die seuns van Israel op die twee stene te graveer, en monteer dit in goud. 12Werk die twee stene vas op die skouerbande van die skouerkleed dat die stene kan herinner aan die stamme van Israel. So sal Aäron hulle name op sy twee skouers dra voor My, die Here, om My aan hulle te herinner. 13Jy moet goue monterings maak 14en van suiwer goud ook twee kettinkies, gedraai soos tou. Sit hierdie gedraaide kettinkies aan die monterings vas. 15Maak 'n borssak wat deur die priester gebruik word wanneer hy oor regsake moet beslis. Dit moet netjies geborduur wees soos die skouerkleed, gemaak van gouddraad, blou, pers en bloedrooi wolstof en goed geweefde linne. 16Die borssak moet dubbel gevou wees, vyf en twintig sentimeter in die vierkant. 17Jy moet hierop vier rye edelstene monteer. Die eerste ry moet bestaan uit 'n karneool, 'n topaas en 'n smarag; 18die tweede uit 'n turkoois, 'n saffier en 'n jaspis; 19die derde uit 'n hiasint, 'n agaat en 'n ametis, 20en die vierde uit 'n chrisoliet, 'n oniks en 'n opaal. Die hele montering moet van goud wees. 21Daar moet twaalf stene wees, een vir elke naam van die stamme van Israel. Die name van al twaalf stamme moet daarop gegraveer word soos op 'n seëlring. 22Jy moet van suiwer goud vir die borssak ook kettinkies maak, gedraai soos tou. 23Jy moet ook nog twee goue ringe maak vir die borssak en dit vassit aan die twee boonste hoeke daarvan. 24Maak die twee goue kettinkies vas aan die twee ringe wat aan die hoeke van die borssak is. 25Maak dan die ander punte van die twee kettinkies vas aan die twee monterings en werk dit vas aan die voorkant van die skouerbande van die skouerkleed. 26Jy moet nog twee goue ringe maak en dit vaswerk aan die onderste hoeke van die borssak, aan die agterkant, die kant waar dit teen die skouerkleed is. 27Dan moet jy twee ander goue ringe maak en dit aan die twee skouerbande van die skouerkleed vassit, laag af aan die voorkant, aan die naat net bo die gordel. 28Die ringe van die borssak moet met 'n blou toutjie aan die ringe van die skouerkleed vasgemaak word, net bokant die gordel van die skouerkleed, sodat die borssak nie van die skouerkleed af wegskuif nie. 29Wanneer Aäron in die heiligdom ingaan, moet hy die name van die stamme van Israel op die borssak op sy bors dra om My, die Here, altyd aan hulle te herinner. 30Binne-in die borssak wat deur die priester gebruik word wanneer hy oor regsake moet beslis, moet jy die urim en tummim sit. Hulle moet op Aäron se bors wees as hy ingaan na My toe. Aäron moet gedurig die borssak vir regsake met die name van die stamme van Israel daarop, op sy bors dra as hy voor My, die Here, verskyn. 31Jy moet die mantel wat saam met die skouerkleed gedra word, as een stuk blou wolstof weef. 32In sy middel moet daar 'n opening vir die kop wees, die gat moet omgeboor wees, sterk soos 'n pantserhemp, dat dit nie kan skeur nie. 33Rondom die some moet jy granaatjies van blou, pers en bloedrooi wolstof maak met goue klokkies tussenin, 34afwisselend 'n goue klokkie en 'n granaatjie rondom die hele soom van die mantel. 35Aäron moet dit dra as hy diens doen. Wanneer hy in die heiligdom na My toe ingaan en as hy daarvandaan uitkom, sal die geluid van die klokkies gehoor word, en dan sal hy nie sterf nie. 36Jy moet 'n blom van suiwer goud maak en daarop, soos op 'n seëlring, graveer: Aan Die Here Gewy. 37Jy moet dit met 'n blou toutjie aan die tulband vasmaak. Dit moet aan die voorkant van die tulband wees. 38Dit moet op Aäron se voorkop wees as teken dat hy aanspreeklik is vir elke ontwyding van die offers deur Israel. Die blom moet gedurig op Aäron se voorkop wees as teken dat Ek, die Here, die Israeliete goedgesind is. 39Jy moet vir Aäron die priesterklere van linne weef en jy moet vir hom 'n tulband van linne en 'n geborduurde serp maak. 40Vir elkeen van sy seuns moet jy 'n stel priesterklere en 'n serp maak. Jy moet vir hulle kopdoeke maak wat waardig en mooi is. 41Laat jou broer Aäron en sy seuns hierdie klere aantrek. Salf hulle, wy hulle en reinig hulle om vir My as priesters diens te doen. 42Jy moet vir hulle linnebroeke maak om hulle naaktheid te bedek. Die broeke moet van die heupe af tot by die bobene strek. 43Aäron en sy seuns moet dit aanhê as hulle in die tent van ontmoeting ingaan of as hulle na die altaar toe kom om diens in die heiligdom te doen, want anders sal hulle 'n oortreding begaan en sterf. Dit is 'n vaste voorskrif vir hulle en ook vir dié wat ná hulle kom.

Exodus 29

Consecration of the Priests

Exo 29:1 "This is what you are to do to Aaron and his sons to dedicate them as priests in my service. Take one young bull and two rams without any defects.

Exo 29:2 Use the best wheat flour, but no yeast, and make some bread with olive oil, some without it, and some in the form of thin cakes brushed with oil.

Exo 29:3 Put them in a basket and offer them to me when you sacrifice the bull and the two rams.

Exo 29:4 "Bring Aaron and his sons to the entrance of the Tent of my presence, and have them take a ritual bath.

Exo 29:5 Then dress Aaron in the priestly garments—the shirt, the robe that goes under the ephod, the ephod, the breastpiece, and the belt.

Exo 29:6 Put the turban on him and tie on it the sacred sign of dedication engraved 'Dedicated to the LORD.'

Exo 29:7 Then take the anointing oil, pour it on his head, and anoint him.

Exo 29:8 "Bring his sons and put shirts on them;

Exo 29:9 put sashes around their waists and tie caps on their heads. That is how you are to ordain Aaron and his sons. They and their descendants are to serve me as priests forever.

Exo 29:10 "Bring the bull to the front of the Tent of my presence and tell Aaron and his sons to put their hands on its head.

Exo 29:11 Kill the bull there in my holy presence at the entrance of the Tent.

Exo 29:12 Take some of the bull's blood and with your finger put it on the projections of the altar. Then pour out the rest of the blood at the base of the altar.

Exo 29:13 Next, take all the fat which covers the internal organs, the best part of the liver, and the two kidneys with the fat on them, and burn them on the altar as an offering to me.

Exo 29:14 But burn the bull's flesh, its skin, and its intestines outside the camp. This is an offering to take away the sins of the priests.

Exo 29:15 "Take one of the rams and tell Aaron and his sons to put their hands on its head.

Exo 29:16 Kill it, and take its blood and throw it against all four sides of the altar.

Exo 29:17 Cut the ram in pieces; wash its internal organs and its hind legs, and put them on top of the head and the other pieces.

Exo 29:18 Burn the whole ram on the altar as a food offering. The odor of this offering pleases me.

Exo 29:19 "Take the other ram—the ram used for dedication—and tell Aaron and his sons to put their hands on its head.

Exo 29:20 Kill it, and take some of its blood and put it on the lobes of the right ears of Aaron and his sons, on the thumbs of their right hands and on the big toes of their right feet. Throw the rest of the blood against all four sides of the altar.

Exo 29:21 Take some of the blood that is on the altar and some of the anointing oil, and sprinkle it on Aaron and his clothes and on his sons and their clothes. He, his sons, and their clothes will then be dedicated to me.

Exo 29:22 "Cut away the ram's fat, the fat tail, the fat covering the internal organs, the best part of the liver, the two kidneys with the fat on them, and the right thigh.

Exo 29:23 From the basket of bread which has been offered to me, take one loaf of each kind: one loaf made with olive oil and one made without it and one thin cake.

Exo 29:24 Put all this food in the hands of Aaron and his sons and have them dedicate it to me as a special gift.

Exo 29:25 Then take it from them and burn it on the altar, on top of the burnt offering, as a food offering to me. The odor of this offering pleases me.

Exo 29:26 "Take the breast of this ram and dedicate it to me as a special gift. This part of the animal will be yours.

Exo 29:27 "When a priest is ordained, the breast and the thigh of the ram being used for the ordination are to be dedicated to me as a special gift and set aside for the priests.

Exo 29:28 It is my unchanging decision that when my people make their fellowship offerings, the breast and the thigh of the animal belong to the priests. This is the people's gift to me, the LORD.

Exo 29:29 "Aaron's priestly garments are to be handed on to his sons after his death, for them to wear when they are ordained.

Exo 29:30 The son of Aaron who succeeds him as priest and who goes into the Tent of my presence to serve in the Holy Place is to wear these garments for seven days.

Exo 29:31 "Take the meat of the ram used for the ordination of Aaron and his sons and boil it in a holy place.

Exo 29:32 At the entrance of the Tent of my presence they are to eat it along with the bread left in the basket.

Exo 29:33 They shall eat what was used in the ritual of forgiveness at their ordination. Only priests may eat this food, because it is sacred.

Exo 29:34 If some of the meat or some of the bread is not eaten by morning, it is to be burned; it is not to be eaten, for it is sacred.

Exo 29:35 "Perform the rites of ordination for Aaron and his sons for seven days exactly as I have commanded you.

Exo 29:36 Each day you must offer a bull as a sacrifice, so that sin may be forgiven. This will purify the altar. Then anoint it with olive oil to make it holy.

Exo 29:37 Do this every day for seven days. Then the altar will be completely holy, and anyone or anything that touches it will be harmed by the power of its holiness.

Exo 29:38 "Every day for all time to come, sacrifice on the altar two one-year-old lambs.

Exo 29:39 Sacrifice one of the lambs in the morning and the other in the evening.

Exo 29:40 With the first lamb offer two pounds of fine wheat flour mixed with one quart of pure olive oil. Pour out one quart of wine as an offering.

Exo 29:41 Sacrifice the second lamb in the evening, and offer with it the same amounts of flour, olive oil, and wine as in the morning. This is a food offering to me, the LORD, and its odor pleases me.

Exo 29:42 For all time to come, this burnt offering is to be offered in my presence at the entrance of the Tent of my presence. That is where I will meet my people and speak to you.

Exo 29:43 There I will meet the people of Israel, and the dazzling light of my presence will make the place holy.

Exo 29:44 I will make the Tent and the altar holy, and I will set Aaron and his sons apart to serve me as priests.

Exo 29:45 I will live among the people of Israel, and I will be their God.

Exo 29:46 They will know that I am the LORD their God who brought them out of Egypt so that I could live among them. I am the LORD their God.

EKSODUS 29

1Jy moet vir Aäron en sy seuns soos volg wy om My te dien as priesters: vat 'n bul en twee ramme, almal sonder liggaamsgebrek, 2brood sonder suurdeeg, ringbrood sonder suurdeeg, geknie met olie, en roosterkoeke sonder suurdeeg, met olie gesmeer. Jy moet dit van koringmeel maak. 3Sit dit in 'n mandjie en bring die mandjie, die bul en die twee ramme na die heiligdom toe. 4Laat Aäron en sy seuns na die deur van die tent van ontmoeting toe kom, en was hulle met water. 5Vat die klere en trek vir Aäron die priesterklere, die skouerkleed, die mantel wat saam met die skouerkleed gedra word, en die borssak aan. Maak die skouerkleed vas met die gordel. 6Bind die tulband om sy kop en sit die gewyde priesterkroon op die tulband. 7Vat olie en salf hom deur dit op sy kop uit te giet. 8Net so moet jy sy seuns laat naderkom en vir hulle ook priesterklere laat aantrek. 9Bind die serpe om Aäron en sy seuns en bind die kopdoeke vir hulle vas. Die priesterskap moet vir hulle 'n blywende amp wees. Jy moet vir Aäron en sy seuns soos volg wy: 10bring die bul tot voor die tent van ontmoeting. Dan moet Aäron en sy seuns hulle hande op die bul se kop sit. 11Slag dan die bul by die deur van die tent van ontmoeting in my teenwoordigheid. 12Vat van die bul se bloed en smeer dit met jou vingers aan die horings van die altaar. Gooi dan die bloed aan die voet van die altaar uit. 13Vat al die vet wat oor die binnegoed is, die punt van die lewer, die twee niere en die niervet en verbrand dit op die altaar. 14Jy moet die bul se vleis, vel en pensmis buite die kamp verbrand. Dit is 'n sondeoffer. 15Vat dan die een ram en laat Aäron en sy seuns hulle hande op sy kop sit. 16Slag die ram, vat sy bloed en sprinkel dit oral op die altaar. 17Sny die ram op in stukke, was sy binnegoed en pootjies en sit dit neer by die stukke vleis en die kop. 18Verbrand dan die hele ram op die altaar. Dit is 'n brandoffer vir My, die Here, 'n vuuroffer wat Ek met graagte aanvaar. 19Vat die ander ram en laat Aäron en sy seuns hulle hande op sy kop sit. 20Slag die ram en vat van sy bloed en smeer dit aan die regteroorlelle van Aäron en sy seuns, ook aan hulle regterduime en regtergroottone. Sprinkel dan die bloed oral op die altaar. 21Vat van die bloed op die altaar en van die salfolie en sprinkel dit op Aäron en sy klere, en op sy seuns en hulle klere. Dan sal hy en sy klere, en sy seuns en hulle klere gewy wees. 22Vat die ram waarmee Aäron en sy seuns gewy word, se vet, die vetstert, die vet wat oor die binnegoed is, die punt van die lewer, die twee niertjies, die niervet en die regterboud, 23asook 'n ringbrood, 'n oliekoek en 'n roosterkoek uit die mandjie wat jy na die heiligdom toe gebring het, 24en sit dit alles op Aäron en sy seuns se hande dat hulle dit heen en weer beweeg as 'n beweegoffer vir My, die Here.

[25]Vat dit dan uit hulle hande en verbrand dit op die altaar as 'n brandoffer, 'n vuuroffer wat Ek met graagte aanvaar. [26]Vat die bors van die ram wat gebruik is vir Aäron se wyding, en beweeg dit heen en weer as beweegoffer voor My. Daarna kan jy dit vir jou vat. [27]Die ram waarmee Aäron en sy seuns gewy is, se bors wat as beweegoffer beweeg is, en die boud wat as offergawe aangebied is, moet opsy gesit word vir Aäron en sy seuns. [28]Dit is 'n blywende reëling vir die Israeliete dat Aäron en sy seuns hierdie deel kry. Dit is 'n offergawe en sal altyd 'n offergawe van die Israeliete wees. Hulle offergawe vir die Here moet uit hulle maaltydoffers geneem word. [29]Die gewyde klere van Aäron moet na sy dood gebruik word om sy opvolgers daarin te salf en as priesters te wy. [30]Aäron se seun wat hom as priester opvolg en in die tent van ontmoeting ingaan om in die heiligdom diens te doen, moet die klere sewe dae aanhou. [31]Vat die ram wat vir die wyding gebruik is, en kook die res van sy vleis in 'n plek wat gewy is [32]sodat Aäron en sy seuns die vleis by die deur van die tent van ontmoeting kan eet saam met die brood in die mandjie. [33]Hulle moet die offer eet waarmee vir hulle versoening gedoen is by hulle wyding en reiniging. 'n Persoon wat nie priester is nie, mag nie daarvan eet nie, want dit is gewyd. [34]As daar die volgende môre gewyde vleis en brood oor is, moet jy dit verbrand. Dit mag dan nie meer geëet word nie, want dit is gewyd. [35]Jy moet met Aäron en sy seuns doen presies soos Ek jou beveel het. Jy moet hulle sewe dae lank as priesters wy. [36]Elke dag moet jy 'n bul as sondeoffer offer. Jy moet die altaar deur jou versoeningsoffer reinig en dit salf om dit te wy. [37]Sewe dae lank moet jy 'n versoeningsoffer op die altaar bring en dit wy. Dan sal die altaar besonder gewyd wees en alles wat daaraan raak, sal ook gewyd wees. [38]Jy moet die volgende op die altaar offer: elke dag twee jaaroud lammers, [39]een in die môre en een in die aand. [40]Saam met die eerste lam moet jy een en 'n half kilogram fynmeel offer, gemeng met een liter suiwer olie en een liter wyn. [41]Die tweede lam moet jy teen die aand offer met dieselfde offer van meel, olie en wyn daarby as in die oggend. Dit moet 'n vuuroffer wees wat Ek met graagte aanvaar. [42]Julle nakomelinge moet altyd 'n brandoffer vir My bring by die deur van die tent van ontmoeting. Dit is waar Ek julle sal ontmoet en met jou sal praat. [43]Dáár sal Ek die Israeliete ontmoet en daar sal hulle geheilig word deur my magtige teenwoordigheid. [44]Ek sal die tent van ontmoeting en die altaar heilig en ook vir Aäron en sy seuns om My as priesters te dien. [45]Ek sal tussen die Israeliete woon en hulle God wees. [46]So sal hulle besef dat Ek, die Here, hulle God is wat hulle uit Egipte bevry het om tussen hulle te woon. Ek is die Here hulle God!

Exodus 30

The Altar of Incense

Exo 30:1 "Make an altar out of acacia wood, for burning incense.

Exo 30:2 It is to be square, 18 inches long and 18 inches wide, and it is to be 36 inches high. Its projections at the four corners are to form one piece with it.

Exo 30:3 Cover its top, all four sides, and its projections with pure gold, and put a gold border around it.

Exo 30:4 Make two gold carrying rings for it and attach them below the border on two sides to hold the poles with which it is to be carried.

Exo 30:5 Make these poles of acacia wood and cover them with gold.

Exo 30:6 Put this altar outside the curtain which hangs in front of the Covenant Box. That is the place where I will meet you.

Exo 30:7 Every morning when Aaron comes to take care of the lamps, he is to burn sweet-smelling incense on it.

Exo 30:8 He must do the same when he lights the lamps in the evening. This offering of incense is to continue without interruption for all time to come.

Exo 30:9 Do not offer on this altar any forbidden incense, any animal offering, or any grain offering, and do not pour out any wine offering on it.

Exo 30:10 Once a year Aaron is to perform the ritual for purifying the altar by putting on its four projections the blood of the animal sacrificed for sin. This is to be done every year for all time to come. This altar is to be completely holy, dedicated to me, the LORD."

The Census Tax

Exo 30:11 The LORD said to Moses,

Exo 30:12 "When you take a census of the people of Israel, each man is to pay me a price for his life, so that no disaster will come on him while the census is being taken.

Exo 30:13 Everyone included in the census must pay the required amount of money, weighed according to the official standard. Everyone must pay this as an offering to me.

Exo 30:14 Everyone being counted in the census, that is, every man twenty years old or older, is to pay me this amount.

Exo 30:15 The rich man is not to pay more, nor the poor man less, when they pay this amount for their lives.

Exo 30:16 Collect this money from the people of Israel and spend it for the upkeep of the Tent of my presence. This tax will be the payment for their lives, and I will remember to protect them."

The Bronze Basin

Exo 30:17 The LORD said to Moses,

Exo 30:18 "Make a bronze basin with a bronze base. Place it between the Tent and the altar, and put water in it.

Exo 30:19 Aaron and his sons are to use the water to wash their hands and feet

Exo 30:20 before they go into the Tent or approach the altar to offer the food offering. Then they will not be killed.

Exo 30:21 They must wash their hands and feet, so that they will not die. This is a rule which they and their descendants are to observe forever."

The Anointing Oil and Incense

Exo 30:22 The LORD said to Moses,

Exo 30:23 "Take the finest spices—12 pounds of liquid myrrh, 6 pounds of sweet-smelling cinnamon, 6 pounds of sweet-smelling cane,

Exo 30:24 and 12 pounds of cassia (all weighed according to the official standard). Add one gallon of olive oil, Exo 30:25 and make a sacred anointing oil, mixed like perfume.

Exo 30:26 Use it to anoint the Tent of my presence, the Covenant Box,

Exo 30:27 the table and all its equipment, the lampstand and its equipment, the altar for burning incense,

Exo 30:28 the altar for burning offerings, together with all its equipment, and the washbasin with its base.

Exo 30:29 Dedicate these things in this way, and they will be completely holy, and anyone or anything that touches them will be harmed by the power of its holiness.

Exo 30:30 Then anoint Aaron and his sons, and ordain them as priests in my service.

Exo 30:31 Say to the people of Israel, 'This holy anointing oil is to be used in my service for all time to come.

Exo 30:32 It must not be poured on ordinary men, and you must not use the same formula to make any mixture like it. It is holy, and you must treat it as holy.

Exo 30:33 Whoever makes any like it or uses any of it on anyone who is not a priest will no longer be considered one of my people.' "

Exo 30:34 The LORD said to Moses, "Take an equal part of each of the following sweet spices—stacte, onycha, galbanum, and pure frankincense.

Exo 30:35 Use them to make incense, mixed like perfume. Add salt to keep it pure and holy.

Exo 30:36 Beat part of it into a fine powder, take it into the Tent of my presence, and sprinkle it in front of the Covenant Box. Treat this incense as completely holy.

Exo 30:37 Do not use the same formula to make any incense like it for yourselves. Treat it as a holy thing dedicated to me.

Exo 30:38 If anyone makes any like it for use as perfume, he will no longer be considered one of my people."

1Jy moet 'n altaar van doringhout maak om daarop wierook te brand. 2Dit moet 'n half meter in die vierkant wees en 'n meter hoog. Sy horings moet 'n eenheid daarmee vorm. 3Jy moet die bokant, die sye rondom, en die horings met suiwer goud oortrek en 'n goue lys rondom die altaar vassit. 4Jy moet twee goue ringe vir elke kant maak en dit aan weerskante teenoor mekaar, onderaan die lys vassit om die draaghoute waarmee jy die altaar moet dra, daardeur te steek. 5Jy moet die draaghoute van doringhout maak en hulle met goud oortrek. 6Sit die altaar dan neer voor die voorhangsel wat hang voor die ark met die getuienis, voor die deksel op die getuienis waar Ek jou sal ontmoet. 7Elke oggend wanneer Aäron die lampe versorg, moet hy geurige wierook op die altaar brand. 8Elke aand wanneer hy die lampe aansteek, moet hy wierook brand. Die wierookoffer moet altyd, ook deur julle nageslag, vir My, die Here, gebring word. 9Julle mag nie ongeoorloofde wierook op die wierookaltaar brand nie, ook nie brandoffers of graanoffers nie, en nie 'n drankoffer daarop uitgiet nie. 10Aäron moet een keer per jaar op die horings van die altaar versoening doen met die bloed van die sondeoffer. Ook julle nageslag moet een keer per jaar op die horings versoening doen. Die altaar is op 'n besondere manier gewy aan My, die Here. 11Die Here het verder vir Moses gesê: 12Wanneer jy die Israeliete tel, moet elkeen wanneer hy getel word, 'n versoeningsoffer vir sy lewe aan My, die Here, offer. Dan sal hy nie deur 'n ramp getref word wanneer hy getel word nie. 13Elkeen wat kom om getel te word, moet met silwer betaal, ses gram volgens die standaardgewig van die heiligdom. Die ses gram is 'n offergawe vir My, die Here. 14Elkeen van twintig jaar en ouer wat kom om getel te word, moet die offergawe vir My bring. 15Die ryke moet nie meer en die arme nie minder as die offergawe van ses gram silwer vir My bring as versoeningsoffer vir sy lewe nie. 16Jy moet die versoeningsgeld by die Israeliete insamel en dit aan die priesters gee vir die diens in die tent van ontmoeting. Die versoeningsgeld sal My, die Here, laat dink aan die Israeliete en sal hulle lewens loskoop. 17Die Here het vir Moses gesê: 18Jy moet 'n bronswaskom met 'n bronsvoetstuk maak om in te was. Sit dit tussen die tent van ontmoeting en die altaar neer en gooi water daarin. 19Aäron en sy seuns moet hulle hande en voete daarin was. 20Voordat hulle in die tent van ontmoeting ingaan, moet hulle hulle met die water was sodat hulle nie sterf nie. Voordat hulle na die altaar toe kom vir hulle diens om 'n vuuroffer vir My, die Here, aan die brand te steek, 21moet hulle hulle hande en hulle voete was sodat hulle nie sterf nie. Dit is 'n blywende voorskrif vir hulle en vir hulle nageslagte. 22Die Here het vir Moses gesê: [23]Gebruik die standaardmaat van die heiligdom en meet die volgende speserye af: vyf honderd dele vloeibare mirre, die helfte soveel geurige kaneel, twee honderd en vyftig dele geurige kalmoes, vyf honderd dele kassie, en vier liter olyfolie. [24]Maak daarvan gewyde salfolie, goed gemeng soos wanneer 'n vakman parfuum maak. Dit is die gewyde salfolie. [25]Jy moet die tent van ontmoeting en die ark waarin die getuienis is, daarmee salf, [26]en verder ook nog die tafel met al sy toebehore, die kandelaar met al sy toebehore, die wierookaltaar, [27]die brandofferaltaar met al sy toebehore, en ook die waskom met sy voetstuk. [28]Jy moet dit wy en dan sal dit besonder gewyd wees. Alles wat daaraan raak, sal ook gewyd wees. [29]Jy moet ook vir Aäron en sy seuns salf en hulle so wy om as priesters vir My diens te doen. [30]Sê vir die Israeliete: Dit is die gewyde salfolie wat deur al julle geslagte heen aan My sal behoort. [31]Dit mag nie sommer op enige mens uitgegiet word nie. Hierdie mengsel mag julle vir geen ander doel gebruik nie. Dit is gewy en dit moet vir julle gewyd wees. [32]Iemand wat so 'n mengsel maak en aan 'n onbevoegde persoon gee, moet van sy volk afgesny word. [33]Die Here het verder vir Moses gesê: Vat die volgende geurige speserye in gelyke hoeveelhede: hars, naeltjies, galbanum en suiwer wierook. [34]Berei dit as wierookoffer. Meng dit soos 'n vakman dit doen. Dit moet gesout wees, rein en gewyd. [35]Vryf dit fyn tot 'n poeier en sit daarvan neer voor die getuienis in die tent van ontmoeting waar Ek jou sal ontmoet. Die wierookoffer moet vir julle besonder gewyd wees. [36]Wat die wierook betref wat jy voorberei, niemand van julle mag dit volgens dieselfde voorskrif vir homself voorberei nie. Dit moet gewyd wees vir julle, aan My, die Here, gewy. [37]Enigiemand wat so 'n mengsel voorberei om aan te ruik, moet van sy volk afgesny word.

Oholiab and Bezalel

Exo 31:1 The LORD said to Moses,

Exo 31:2 "I have chosen Bezalel, the son of Uri and grandson of Hur, from the tribe of Judah,

Exo 31:3 and I have filled him with my power. I have given him understanding, skill, and ability for every kind of artistic work—

Exo 31:4 for planning skillful designs and working them in gold, silver, and bronze;

Exo 31:5 for cutting jewels to be set; for carving wood; and for every other kind of artistic work.

Exo 31:6 I have also selected Oholiab son of Ahisamach, from the tribe of Dan, to work with him. I have also given great ability to all the other skilled workers, so that they can make everything I have commanded to be made:

Exo 31:7 the Tent of my presence, the Covenant Box and its lid, all the furnishings of the Tent,

Exo 31:8 the table and its equipment, the lampstand of pure gold and all its equipment, the altar for burning incense,

Exo 31:9 the altar for burnt offerings and all its equipment, the washbasin and its base,

Exo 31:10 the magnificent priestly garments for Aaron and his sons to use when they serve as priests,

Exo 31:11 the anointing oil, and the sweet-smelling incense for the Holy Place. In making all these things, they are to do exactly as I have commanded you."

The Sabbath

Exo 31:12 The LORD commanded Moses

Exo 31:13 to tell the people of Israel, "Keep the Sabbath, my day of rest, because it is a sign between you and me for all time to come, to show that I, the LORD, have made you my own people.

Exo 31:14 You must keep the day of rest, because it is sacred. Whoever does not keep it, but works on that day, is to be put to death.

Exo 31:15 You have six days in which to do your work, but the seventh day is a solemn day of rest dedicated to me. Whoever does any work on that day is to be put to death.

Exo 31:16 The people of Israel are to keep this day as a sign of the covenant.

Exo 31:17 It is a permanent sign between the people of Israel and me, because I, the LORD, made heaven and earth in six days, and on the seventh day I stopped working and rested."

Exo 31:18 When God had finished speaking to Moses on Mount Sinai, he gave him the two stone tablets on which God himself had written the commandments.

EKSODUS 31

1Die Here het vir Moses gesê: 2Kyk, Ek het vir Besaleël uitgekies. Hy is 'n seun van Uri, seun van Gur uit die stam Juda. 3Ek het hom toegerus met my Gees sodat hy met vaardigheid, insig en verstand enige werk kan doen: 4ontwerpe maak en dit in goud, silwer en brons uitwerk, 5edelstene verwerk en monteer, en houtwerk doen. Hy sal enige werk kan doen. 6Ek het vir Oholiab, seun van Agisamak uit die stam Dan, aangestel om saam met hom te werk. Aan elke vakman het Ek vaardigheid gegee sodat hulle alles kan maak wat Ek jou beveel het: 7die tent van ontmoeting, die ark met die getuienis daarin en die deksel daaroor, al die toebehore van die tent, 8die tafel met sy toebehore, die kandelaar van suiwer goud met sy toebehore, die wierookaltaar, 9die brandofferaltaar met al sy toebehore, die waskom met sy voetstuk, 10die geborduurde klere wat gewy is vir die priester Aäron en sy seuns om daarin as priesters diens te doen, 11die salfolie en die geurige wierook vir die heiligdom. Hulle moet alles maak net soos Ek jou beveel het. 12Die Here het vir Moses gesê: 13Jy moet vir die Israeliete sê: Onderhou my sabbatte. Dit is van geslag tot geslag 'n teken tussen My en julle sodat julle kan besef dat Ek, die Here, julle vir My geheilig het. 14Onderhou dus die sabbat. Dit moet vir julle 'n gewyde dag wees. Hy wat dit ontwy, moet doodgemaak word. Wie op dié dag werk, moet van sy volk afgesny word. 15Ses dae kan daar gewerk word, maar die sewende dag is 'n rusdag, 'n sabbat wat gewy is aan My, die Here. Elkeen wat op die sabbatdag werk, moet doodgemaak word. 16Die Israeliete moet die sabbat onderhou. Ook op hulle nageslag lê die verbond 'n blywende verpligting om die sabbat te onderhou. 17Dit sal vir altyd 'n teken wees tussen My en die Israeliete. In ses dae het Ek, die Here, die hemel en die aarde gemaak, maar op die sewende dag het Ek nie gewerk nie, maar gerus. 18Nadat die Here op Sinaiberg met Moses gepraat het, het Hy die twee plat klippe met die getuienis daarop aan Moses gegee. Dit is die plat klippe waarop God met sy vinger geskryf het.

Exodus 32

The Golden Calf

Exo 32:1 When the people saw that Moses had not come down from the mountain but was staying there a long time, they gathered around Aaron and said to him, "We do not know what has happened to this man Moses, who led us out of Egypt; so make us a god to lead us."

Exo 32:2 Aaron said to them, "Take off the gold earrings which your wives, your sons, and your daughters are wearing, and bring them to me."

Exo 32:3 So all the people took off their gold earrings and brought them to Aaron.

Exo 32:4 He took the earrings, melted them, poured the gold into a mold, and made a gold bull-calf. The people said, "Israel, this is our god, who led us out of Egypt!"

Exo 32:5 Then Aaron built an altar in front of the gold bull-calf and announced, "Tomorrow there will be a festival to honor the LORD."

Exo 32:6 Early the next morning they brought some animals to burn as sacrifices and others to eat as fellowship offerings. The people sat down to a feast, which turned into an orgy of drinking and sex.

Exo 32:7 The LORD said to Moses, "Hurry and go back down, because your people, whom you led out of Egypt, have sinned and rejected me.

Exo 32:8 They have already left the way that I commanded them to follow; they have made a bull-calf out of melted gold and have worshiped it and offered sacrifices to it. They are saying that this is their god, who led them out of Egypt.

Exo 32:9 I know how stubborn these people are.

Exo 32:10 Now, don't try to stop me. I am angry with them, and I am going to destroy them. Then I will make you and your descendants into a great nation."

Exo 32:11 But Moses pleaded with the LORD his God and said, " LORD, why should you be so angry with your people, whom you rescued from Egypt with great might and power?

Exo 32:12 Why should the Egyptians be able to say that you led your people out of Egypt, planning to kill them in the mountains and destroy them completely? Stop being angry; change your mind and do not bring this disaster on your people.

Exo 32:13 Remember your servants Abraham, Isaac, and Jacob. Remember the solemn promise you made to them to give them as many descendants as there are stars in the sky and to give their descendants all that land you promised would be their possession forever."

Exo 32:14 So the LORD changed his mind and did not bring on his people the disaster he had threatened.

Exo 32:15 Moses went back down the mountain, carrying the two stone tablets with the commandments written on both sides.

Exo 32:16 God himself had made the tablets and had engraved the commandments on them.

Exo 32:17 Joshua heard the people shouting and said to Moses, "I hear the sound of battle in the camp."

Exo 32:18 Moses said, "That doesn't sound like a shout of victory or a cry of defeat; it's the sound of singing."

Exo 32:19 When Moses came close enough to the camp to see the bull-calf and to see the people dancing, he became furious. There at the foot of the mountain, he threw down the tablets he was carrying and broke them.

Exo 32:20 He took the bull-calf which they had made, melted it, ground it into fine powder, and mixed it with water. Then he made the people of Israel drink it.

Exo 32:21 He said to Aaron, "What did these people do to you, that you have made them commit such a terrible sin?"

Exo 32:22 Aaron answered, "Don't be angry with me; you know how determined these people are to do evil.

Exo 32:23 They said to me, 'We don't know what has happened to this man Moses, who brought us out of Egypt; so make us a god to lead us.'

Exo 32:24 I asked them to bring me their gold ornaments, and those who had any took them off and gave them to me. I threw the ornaments into the fire and out came this bull-calf!"

Exo 32:25 Moses saw that Aaron had let the people get out of control and make fools of themselves in front of their enemies.

Exo 32:26 So he stood at the gate of the camp and shouted, "Everyone who is on the LORD's side come over here!" So all the Levites gathered around him,

Exo 32:27 and he said to them, "The LORD God of Israel commands every one of you to put on your sword and go through the camp from this gate to the other and kill your brothers, your friends, and your neighbors."

Exo 32:28 The Levites obeyed, and killed about three thousand men that day.

Exo 32:29 Moses said to the Levites, "Today you have consecrated yourselves as priests in the service of the LORD by killing your sons and brothers, so the LORD has given you his blessing."

Exo 32:30 The next day Moses said to the people, "You have committed a terrible sin. But now I will again go up the mountain to the LORD; perhaps I can obtain forgiveness for your sin."

Exo 32:31 Moses then returned to the LORD and said, "These people have committed a terrible sin. They have made a god out of gold and worshiped it.

Exo 32:32 Please forgive their sin; but if you won't, then remove my name from the book in which you have written the names of your people."

Exo 32:33 The LORD answered, "It is those who have sinned against me whose names I will remove from my book.

Exo 32:34 Now go, lead the people to the place I told you about. Remember that my angel will guide you, but the time is coming when I will punish these people for their sin."

Exo 32:35 So the LORD sent a disease on the people, because they had caused Aaron to make the gold bull-calf.

1Toe die volk sien dat Moses talm en nie van die berg af kom nie, het hulle om Aäron saamgedrom en vir hom gesê: Kom maak vir ons 'n god dat hy ons kan lei. Hierdie man Moses het nou wel vir ons uit Egipte laat wegtrek, maar ons weet nie wat van hom geword het nie. 2Aäron het hulle geantwoord: Haal die goue oorringe van julle vrouens, julle seuns en julle dogters se ore af en bring dit vir my. 3Die hele volk het toe die goue ringe van hulle ore afgehaal en dit vir Aäron gebring. 4Hy het dit van hulle ontvang, dit verwerk en daarvan 'n beeld in die vorm van 'n bulkalf gemaak. Toe sê die volk: Hier is jou God wat jou uit Egipte bevry het, Israel! 5Toe Aäron dit hoor, het hy 'n altaar voor die beeld gebou en uitgeroep: Môre is daar fees vir die Here! 6Vroeg die volgende môre het die volk brandoffers en maaltydoffers geoffer. Daarna het die volk begin feesvier en losbandig te kere gegaan. 7Toe sê die Here vir Moses: Klim van die berg af, want jou volk wat jy uit Egipte laat wegtrek het, het iets vreesliks gedoen. 8Hulle het gou die pad verlaat wat Ek vir hulle aangewys het en hulle het vir hulle 'n beeld van 'n bulkalf gemaak. Nou aanbid hulle hom en bring vir hom offers en sê: Hier is jou God wat jou uit Egipte bevry het, Israel. 9Verder het die Here vir Moses gesê: Ek het gesien dat dit 'n opstandige volk is hierdie. 10Moet My nie probeer keer nie. Ek is toornig op my volk en Ek wil hulle vernietig. Vir jou sal Ek dan tot 'n groot nasie maak. 11Maar Moses het by die Here sy God gepleit en gesê: Here, waarom is U toornig op u volk vir wie U deur u groot mag en met kragtige dade uit Egipte bevry het? 12Waarom moet die Egiptenaars kan sê: Hy het die Israeliete bevry met die bose plan om hulle tussen die berge dood te maak en hulle heeltemal te vernietig'? Laat u toorn bedaar en wees u volk genadig. Moet tog nie dié ramp oor hulle laat kom nie. 13Dink aan wat U met 'n eed beloof het aan u dienaars, aan Abraham, Isak en Israel toe U vir hulle gesê het: Ek sal julle nageslag so baie maak soos die sterre aan die hemel. Die hele landstreek wat Ek belowe het, sal Ek vir julle nageslag gee om vir altyd in besit te neem. 14Toe het die Here daarvan afgesien om die ramp waarvan Hy gepraat het, oor sy volk te bring. 15Daarna het Moses omgedraai en van die berg af gegaan met die twee plat klippe waarop die getuienis was, in sy hand. Aan weerskante was daar op hulle geskryf, 16en dit was die werk van God. Dit was 'n inskripsie wat deur God op die klippe gegraveer is. 17Toe Josua die volk hoor lawaai, sê hy vir Moses: Daar is oorlog in die kamp! 18Maar Moses het gesê: Dit klink nie na oorwinning nie, dit klink nie na neerlaag nie, wat ek hoor, klink na feesviering. 19Toe Moses naby die kamp kom en die kalf en die dansery sien, het hy woedend geword en die twee plat klippe in sy hand flenters gegooi teen die voet van die berg. [20]Daarna vat hy die kalf wat hulle gemaak het, gooi dit in die vuur, maal dit fyn soos stof en strooi dit op die water. Toe laat hy die Israeliete die water drink. [21]Moses het vir Aäron gesê: Wat het hierdie volk jou aangedoen dat jy hulle hierdie groot sonde laat doen het? [22]Maar Aäron antwoord: U moenie kwaad wees nie. U weet self hoe sleg die volk is. [23]Hulle het vir my gesê: Maak vir ons 'n god dat hy ons kan lei. Hierdie Moses het nou wel vir ons uit Egipte laat wegtrek, maar ons weet nie wat van hom geword het nie.' [24]Toe sê ek vir hulle: Dié wat goud aan hulle het, moet dit afhaal en vir my gee.' Ek het dit in die vuur gegooi, en hierdie bulkalf het daaruit gekom. [25]Toe Moses hoor dat dit die volk is wat op loop gesit het, en dat dit Aäron is wat hulle op loop laat sit het, sodat hulle 'n spot by hulle vyande geword het, [26]het hy by die ingang van die kamp gaan staan en gesê: Wie vir die Here is, kom hier na my toe! Al die Leviete het om hom bymekaargekom. [27]Moses sê toe vir hulle: So sê die Here die God van Israel: Elkeen moet sy swaard vat, kruis en dwars deur die kamp gaan en doodmaak, ongeag of dit familie, vriende of bure is. [28]Die Leviete het gedoen wat Moses gesê het, en daardie dag is sowat drie duisend om die lewe gebring. [29]Toe het Moses vir die Leviete gesê: Vandag is julle gewy vir diens aan die Here, want julle het selfs teen seuns en broers opgetree. Om hierdie rede gee die Here vandag aan julle hierdie besondere voorreg. [30]Die volgende dag het Moses vir die volk gesê: Julle het 'n ernstige sonde gedoen, maar ek klim nou na die Here toe op en miskien kry ek by Hom vir julle vergifnis vir julle sonde. [31]Moses het toe na die Here toe teruggegaan en gesê: Hierdie volk het 'n ernstige sonde gedoen deur vir hulle 'n god van goud te maak. [32]Vergewe tog hulle sonde. As dit nie kan nie, moet U my naam maar uitvee uit die boek wat U geskrywe het. [33]Maar die Here het hom geantwoord: Nee, Ek sal hulle wat teen My gesondig het, se name uit my boek uitvee. [34]Gaan lei jy nou die volk na die plek toe waarvan Ek met jou gepraat het. My engel sal voor jou uit gaan. Op die dag dat Ek rekenskap eis, sal Ek die volk straf oor hulle sonde. [35]Die Here het die volk met 'n ramp getref oor die kalf wat Aäron op hulle aandrang gemaak het.

The Command to Leave Sinai

Exo 33:1 The LORD said to Moses, "Leave this place, you and the people you brought out of Egypt, and go to the land that I promised to give to Abraham, Isaac, and Jacob and to their descendants.

Exo 33:2 I will send an angel to guide you, and I will drive out the Canaanites, the Amorites, the Hittites, the Perizzites, the Hivites, and the Jebusites.

Exo 33:3 You are going to a rich and fertile land. But I will not go with you myself, because you are a stubborn people, and I might destroy you on the way."

Exo 33:4 When the people heard this, they began to mourn and did not wear jewelry any more.

Exo 33:5 For the LORD had commanded Moses to tell them, "You are a stubborn people. If I were to go with you even for a moment, I would completely destroy you. Now take off your jewelry, and I will decide what to do with you."

Exo 33:6 So after they left Mount Sinai, the people of Israel no longer wore jewelry.

The Tent of Meeting

Exo 33:7 Whenever the people of Israel set up camp, Moses would take the sacred Tent and put it up some distance outside the camp. It was called the Tent of the LORD's presence, and anyone who wanted to consult the LORD would go out to it.

Exo 33:8 Whenever Moses went out there, the people would stand at the door of their tents and watch Moses until he entered it.

Exo 33:9 After Moses had gone in, the pillar of cloud would come down and stay at the door of the Tent, and the LORD would speak to Moses from the cloud.

Exo 33:10 As soon as the people saw the pillar of cloud at the door of the Tent, they would bow down.

Exo 33:11 The LORD would speak with Moses face-to-face, just as someone speaks with a friend. Then Moses would return to the camp. But the young man who was his helper, Joshua son of Nun, stayed in the Tent.

Moses' Intercession

Exo 33:12 Moses said to the LORD, "It is true that you have told me to lead these people to that land, but you did not tell me whom you would send with me. You have said that you know me well and are pleased with me.

Exo 33:13 Now if you are, tell me your plans, so that I may serve you and continue to please you. Remember also that you have chosen this nation to be your own."

Exo 33:14 The LORD said, "I will go with you, and I will give you victory."

Exo 33:15 Moses replied, "If you do not go with us, don't make us leave this place.

Exo 33:16 How will anyone know that you are pleased with your people and with me if you do not go with us? Your presence with us will distinguish us from any other people on earth."

Exo 33:17 The LORD said to Moses, "I will do just as you have asked, because I know you very well and I am pleased with you."

Exo 33:18 Then Moses requested, "Please, let me see the dazzling light of your presence."

Exo 33:19 The LORD answered, "I will make all my splendor pass before you and in your presence I will pronounce my sacred name. I am the LORD, and I show compassion and pity on those I choose.

Exo 33:20 I will not let you see my face, because no one can see me and stay alive, Exo 33:21 but here is a place beside me where you can stand on a rock.

Exo 33:22 When the dazzling light of my presence passes by, I will put you in an opening in the rock and cover you with my hand until I have passed by.

Exo 33:23 Then I will take my hand away, and you will see my back but not my face."

EKSODUS 33

[1]Toe het die Here vir Moses gesê: Trek nou hiervandaan af weg, jy en die volk wat jy uit Egipte laat wegtrek het. Trek na die land toe wat Ek met 'n eed beloof het aan Abraham, Isak en Jakob toe Ek gesê het: Ek sal dit aan julle nageslag gee.' [2]Ek sal my engel voor jou uit stuur en Ek sal die Kanaäniete, Amoriete, Hetiete, Feresiete, Hewiete en Jebusiete verdryf. [3]Julle is so 'n moedswillige volk dat Ek nie sal saamtrek na hierdie land wat oorloop van melk en heuning nie, want dan verdelg Ek julle op pad daarheen. [4]Toe die volk van hierdie harde uitspraak verneem, het hulle getreur en geen juwele gedra nie. [5]Daarop het die Here vir Moses gesê: Sê vir die Israeliete: Julle is 'n moedswillige volk. As Ek net 'n oomblikkie saam met julle trek, sal Ek julle verdelg. Sit al julle juwele weg. Ek sal later besluit wat Ek met julle gaan doen. [6]Vandat hulle van Horebberg af verder getrek het, het die Israeliete nie meer juwele gedra nie. [7]Moses het 'n tent gevat en dit ver buite die kamp gaan opslaan. Hy het dit die tent van ontmoeting genoem. Elkeen wat na die wil van die Here wou vra, het na die tent van ontmoeting buite die kamp gegaan. [8]Elke keer wanneer Moses na die tent toe uitgegaan het, het die hele volk opgestaan. Elkeen het by die ingang van sy tent bly staan en Moses agterna gekyk tot hy in die tent ingaan. [9]Sodra hy ingaan, het die wolkkolom afgekom en by die ingang van die tent van ontmoeting gaan staan, en dan het die Here met Moses gepraat. [10]Wanneer die hele volk die wolkkolom by die ingang van die tent van ontmoeting sien staan, het elkeen by die ingang van sy tent gebuig in aanbidding. [11]Die Here het direk met Moses gepraat soos 'n man met sy vriend. Daarna is Moses terug kamp toe, maar sy assistent, die jongman Josua seun van Nun, het nie die tent van ontmoeting verlaat nie. [12]Op 'n keer het Moses vir die Here gesê: Kyk, U beveel my om met hierdie volk te trek, sonder om my mee te deel vir wie U saam met my stuur. Tog het U gesê: Ek ken jou op jou naam; Ek is jou goedgesind.' [13]As U my dan goedgesind is, maak my u wil bekend, sodat ek U kan leer ken en kan doen wat U verwag. Onthou tog hierdie nasie is u volk. [14]Toe het die Here gevra: Moet Ek self saamgaan en vir jou vrede gee? [15]Toe het Moses vir Hom gesê: As U nie self saamgaan nie, moet U ons nie van hier af laat wegtrek nie. [16]Hoe sal die mense weet dat ek en u volk u goedgesindheid geniet as U nie saam met ons gaan nie? Dit is juis deurdat U met ons saamgaan dat ons, ek en u volk, anders is as al die ander volke op die aarde. [17]Die Here het vir Moses geantwoord: Ook wat jy nou gevra het, sal Ek doen. Ek is jou goedgesind en Ek ken jou op jou naam. [18]Toe sê Moses: Laat ek tog net u magtige verskyning sien! [19]Maar die Here sê: Ek sal al my voortreflikheid voor jou laat verbykom en Ek sal die Naam die Here' vir jou uitroep, want Ek betoon genade aan wie Ek genade wil betoon en Ek ontferm My oor wie Ek My wil ontferm. [20]Vir My kan jy nie sien nie, want geen mens kan My sien en bly lewe nie. [21]Die Here het verder gesê: Maar hier by My is 'n plek waar jy op die rots kan staan. [22]As Ek in my magtige verskyning verbykom, sal Ek jou eers in 'n rotsskeur sit en jou met my hande toemaak totdat Ek verby is. [23]Dan sal Ek my hande wegvat sodat jy My van agter kan sien. Niemand mag my gesig sien nie.

Exodus 34

Moses Makes New Tablets

Exo 34:1 The LORD said to Moses, "Cut two stone tablets like the first ones, and I will write on them the words that were on the first tablets, which you broke.

Exo 34:2 Get ready tomorrow morning, and come up Mount Sinai to meet me there at the top.

Exo 34:3 No one is to come up with you; no one is to be seen on any part of the mountain; and no sheep or cattle are to graze at the foot of the mountain."

Exo 34:4 So Moses cut two more stone tablets, and early the next morning he carried them up Mount Sinai, just as the LORD had commanded.

Exo 34:5 The LORD came down in a cloud, stood with him there, and pronounced his holy name, the LORD.

Exo 34:6 The LORD then passed in front of him and called out, "I, the LORD, am a God who is full of compassion and pity, who is not easily angered and who shows great love and faithfulness.

Exo 34:7 I keep my promise for thousands of generations and forgive evil and sin; but I will not fail to punish children and grandchildren to the third and fourth generation for the sins of their parents."

Exo 34:8 Moses quickly bowed down to the ground and worshiped.

Exo 34:9 He said, "Lord, if you really are pleased with me, I ask you to go with us. These people are stubborn, but forgive our evil and our sin, and accept us as your own people."

The Covenant Renewed

Exo 34:10 The LORD said to Moses, "I now make a covenant with the people of Israel. In their presence I will do great things such as have never been done anywhere on earth among any of the nations. All the people will see what great things I, the LORD, can do, because I am going to do an awesome thing for you.

Exo 34:11 Obey the laws that I am giving you today. I will drive out the Amorites, the Canaanites, the Hittites, the Perizzites, the Hivites, and the Jebusites, as you advance.

Exo 34:12 Do not make any treaties with the people of the country into which you are going, because this could be a fatal trap for you.

Exo 34:13 Instead, tear down their altars, destroy their sacred pillars, and cut down their symbols of the goddess Asherah.

Exo 34:14 "Do not worship any other god, because I, the LORD, tolerate no rivals.

Exo 34:15 Do not make any treaties with the people of the country, because when they worship their pagan gods and sacrifice to them, they will invite you to join them, and you will be tempted to eat the food they offer to their gods.

Exo 34:16 Your sons might marry those foreign women, who would lead them to be unfaithful to me and to worship their pagan gods.

Exo 34:17 "Do not make gods of metal and worship them.

Exo 34:18 "Keep the Festival of Unleavened Bread. As I have commanded you, eat unleavened bread for seven days in the month of Abib, because it was in that month that you left Egypt.

Exo 34:19 "Every first-born son and first-born male domestic animal belongs to me, Exo 34:20 but you are to buy back every first-born donkey by offering a lamb in its place. If you do not buy it back, break its neck. Buy back every first-born son. "No one is to appear before me without an offering.

Exo 34:21 "You have six days in which to do your work, but do not work on the seventh day, not even during plowing time or harvest.

Exo 34:22 "Keep the Harvest Festival when you begin to harvest the first crop of your wheat, and keep the Festival of Shelters in the autumn when you gather your fruit.

Exo 34:23 "Three times a year all of your men must come to worship me, the LORD, the God of Israel.

Exo 34:24 After I have driven out the nations before you and extended your territory, no one will try to conquer your country during the three festivals.

Exo 34:25 "Do not offer bread made with yeast when you sacrifice an animal to me. Do not keep until the following morning any part of the animal killed at the Passover Festival.

Exo 34:26 "Each year bring to the house of the LORD the first grain that you harvest. "Do not cook a young sheep or goat in its mother's milk."

Exo 34:27 The LORD said to Moses, "Write these words down, because it is on the basis of these words that I am making a covenant with you and with Israel."

Exo 34:28 Moses stayed there with the LORD forty days and nights, eating and drinking nothing. He wrote on the tablets the words of the covenant—the Ten Commandments.

The Shining Face of Moses

Exo 34:29 When Moses went down from Mount Sinai carrying the Ten Commandments, his face was shining because he had been speaking with the LORD; but he did not know it.

Exo 34:30 Aaron and all the people looked at Moses and saw that his face was shining, and they were afraid to go near him.

Exo 34:31 But Moses called them, and Aaron and all the leaders of the community went to him, and Moses spoke with them.

Exo 34:32 After that, all the people of Israel gathered around him, and Moses gave them all the laws that the LORD had given him on Mount Sinai.

Exo 34:33 When Moses had finished speaking with them, he covered his face with a veil.

Exo 34:34 Whenever Moses went into the Tent of the LORD's presence to speak to the LORD, he would take the veil off. When he came out, he would tell the people of Israel everything that he had been commanded to say, Exo 34:35 and they would see that his face was shining. Then he would put the veil back on until the next time he went to speak with the LORD.

1Die Here het vir Moses gesê: Kap vir jou twee plat klippe net soos die voriges. Ek sal op die klippe die gebooie skryf wat op die voriges was wat jy stukkend gegooi het. 2Maak môreoggend klaar en klim die oggend nog Sinaiberg uit. Wag vir My daar op die top van die berg. 3Niemand mag saam met jou opklim nie. Nêrens op die berg mag daar selfs iemand gesien word nie. Die kleinvee en beeste mag ook nie naby die berg wei nie. 4Moses het toe twee plat klippe soos die voriges gekap. Nadat hy vroeg die oggend opgestaan het, het hy net soos die Here hom beveel het, Sinaiberg uitgeklim met die twee plat klippe in sy hand. 5Die Here het in 'n wolk afgekom en daar by Moses kom staan en die Naam die Here uitgeroep. 6Terwyl Hy by Moses verbygaan, roep die Here: Ek, die Here, is die barmhartige en genadige God, lankmoedig, vol liefde en trou. 7Ek betoon my liefde aan geslagte en geslagte. Ek vergewe ongeregtigheid, oortreding en sonde, maar Ek spreek niemand sonder meer vry nie. Ek reken kinders en kleinkinders die sondes van vaders toe selfs tot in die derde en vierde geslag. 8Moses het toe vinnig gebuig in eerbied 9en gesê: As ek u goedgesindheid geniet, Here, moet U saam met ons wegtrek. Al is die volk moedswillig, moet U ons ongeregtigheid en sonde vergewe. Laat ons tog u volk bly, u eiendom. 10Toe het die Here gesê: Ek sluit nou 'n verbond met julle. Voor jou hele volk gaan Ek magtige dade doen wat nog nooit tevore op die hele aarde onder enige nasie gedoen is nie. Die hele volk by wie jy is, sal sien wat Ek, die Here, doen. Wat Ek vir jou gaan doen, sal hulle met ontsag vervul. 11Wat Ek julle nou hier gaan beveel, moet julle gehoorsaam. Ek sal die Amoriete, Kanaäniete, Hetiete, Feresiete, Hewiete en Jebusiete voor julle uit verdryf. 12Moenie 'n verdrag sluit met die inwoners van die land waarheen julle gaan nie. Hulle sal julle tot 'n val bring. 13Nee, vernietig hulle altare, breek hulle klippilare af en kap hulle gewyde pale stukkend. 14Julle mag nie 'n ander god vereer nie, want Ek, die Here, eis onverdeelde trou aan My. Daarom noem hulle My: Die God wat onverdeelde trou eis.' 15Julle mag nie 'n verdrag met die inwoners van die land sluit nie. Wanneer hulle onsedelikheid bedryf in die verering van hulle gode en vir hulle gode offers bring, sal die mense julle uitnooi na hulle offermaaltye toe, en julle sal daaraan deel hê. 16Julle sal julle seuns met hulle dogters laat trou, en wanneer hulle dogters onsedelikheid bedryf in die verering van hulle gode, sal hulle julle seuns tot dieselfde soort onsedelikheid verlei. 17Julle mag nie afgodsbeelde maak nie. 18Julle moet die fees van die ongesuurde brood vier. Soos Ek julle beveel het, moet julle sewe dae ongesuurde brood eet, van die vasgestelde dag van die maand Abib af, want dit is die dag waarop julle uit Egipte weggetrek het. 19Elke eersgebore seun behoort aan My; so ook al die manlike eerstelinge van julle beeste en skape. 20Julle moet elke donkie se eerste hingsvulletjie loskoop met 'n skaap. As julle dit nie doen nie, moet julle die vul se nek breek. Alle eersgebore seuns moet ook losgekoop word. Niemand mag sonder 'n offer voor My verskyn nie. 21Ses dae moet jy werk, maar op die sewende dag moet jy rus. Of dit nou ploegtyd of oestyd is, jy moet rus. 22Jy moet die fees van die weke vier; dit is die fees aan die begin van die koringoes. Dan is daar nog die fees van die insameling aan die einde van die jaar. 23Drie keer per jaar moet alle mans voor My, die Here, verskyn, voor My, die Here die God van Israel. 24Ek sal nasies voor jou uit verdryf en vir jou 'n land gee. Drie keer per jaar moet jy voor My, die Here jou God, verskyn. Dan sal Ek sorg dat niemand jou land begeer nie. 25As jy vir die offer slag, moet jy sorg dat die offerbloed weggehou word van iets wat suurdeeg in het. Die paasoffer mag nie tot die volgende oggend oorstaan nie. 26Die keur van die eerste produkte van jou lande moet jy na my huis toe bring, die huis van die Here jou God. Jy mag nie 'n boklam in sy ma se melk kook nie. 27Die Here het vir Moses gesê: Teken al hierdie gebooie op, want hierop berus my verbond met jou en Israel. 28Moses was veertig dae en nagte by die Here. In dié tyd het Moses geen kos geëet of water gedrink nie. Hy het die verbondsbepalings, die tien gebooie, op die plat klippe geskryf. 29Toe hy van Sinaiberg af gaan met die twee plat klippe in sy hand, die klippe waarop die getuienis was, was hy nie daarvan bewus dat sy gesig blink geword het terwyl die Here met hom gepraat het nie. 30Toe Aäron en die Israeliete opmerk dat sy gesig blink, was hulle bang om naby hom te kom. 31Eers toe Moses hulle nader roep, het Aäron en al die leiers van die volk na hom toe gekom, en hy het met hulle gepraat. 32Daarna het al die Israeliete nader gekom, en hy het hulle alles beveel wat die Here vir hom op Sinaiberg gesê het. 33Toe Moses klaar met hulle gepraat het, het hy sy gesig met 'n doek toegemaak. 34Wanneer Moses na die Here toe gaan om met Hom te praat, verwyder hy die doek tot na sy terugkoms. Wanneer hy van die Here af terugkom, sê hy vir die Israeliete wat die Here hom beveel het. 35Wanneer die Israeliete sy gesig sien blink, trek Moses die doek oor sy gesig totdat hy weer met die Here gaan praat.

die bokhaar gespin. 27Al die leiers het oniks en ander edelstene gebring om dit op die skouerkleed en op die borssak te monteer; 28ook speserye en olie vir die lampe, vir die salfolie en vir die geurige wierook. 29Elke Israelitiese man en vrou wat vrywillig iets wou bring vir die werk wat die Here vir Moses beveel het om te doen, het dit vir die Here gebring. 30Moses het vir die Israeliete gesê: Kyk, die Here het vir Besaleël uitgekies vir die werk. Hy is 'n seun van Uri, seun van Gur uit die stam Juda. 31Die Here het hom toegerus met sy Gees sodat hy met vaardigheid, insig en verstand enige werk kan doen: 32ontwerpe maak en dit in goud, silwer en brons uitwerk, 33edelstene verwerk en monteer, en houtwerk doen. Hy sal enige werk kan doen. 34Die Here het vir hom en vir Oholiab, seun van Agisamak uit die stam Dan, die begaafdheid gegee om ander as vakmanne op te lei. 35Die Here het aan hulle die vaardigheid gegee om al die werk van 'n vakman te verrig: om te ontwerp, om blou, pers en bloedrooi wolstof en linne te borduur, en om te weef. Hierdie manne kan enige werk doen en ontwerpe maak.

Exodus 36

Exo 36:1 "Bezalel, Oholiab, and all the other workers to whom the LORD has given skill and understanding, who know how to make everything needed to build the sacred Tent, are to make everything just as the LORD has commanded."

Exo 36:2 Moses called Bezalel, Oholiab, and all the other skilled men to whom the LORD had given ability and who were willing to help, and Moses told them to start working.

Exo 36:3 They received from him all the offerings which the Israelites had brought for constructing the sacred Tent. But the people of Israel continued to bring Moses their offerings every morning.

Exo 36:4 Then the skilled men who were doing the work went

Exo 36:5 and told Moses, "The people are bringing more than is needed for the work which the LORD commanded to be done."

Exo 36:6 So Moses sent a command throughout the camp that no one was to make any further contribution for the sacred Tent; so the people did not bring any more.

Exo 36:7 What had already been brought was more than enough to finish all the work.

Exo 36:8 The most skilled men among those doing the work made the Tent of the LORD's presence. They made it out of ten pieces of fine linen woven with blue, purple, and red wool and embroidered with figures of winged creatures.

Exo 36:9 Each piece was the same size, 14 yards long and 2 yards wide.

Exo 36:10 They sewed five of them together in one set and did the same with the other five.

Exo 36:11 They made loops of blue cloth on the edge of the outside piece in each set.

Exo 36:12 They put fifty loops on the first piece of the first set and fifty loops matching them on the last piece of the second set.

Exo 36:13 They made fifty gold hooks, with which to join the two sets into one piece.

Exo 36:14 Then they made a cover for the Tent out of eleven pieces of cloth made of goats' hair.

Exo 36:15 They made them all the same size, 15 yards long and 2 yards wide.

Exo 36:16 They sewed five of them together in one set and the other six in another set.

Exo 36:17 They put fifty loops on the edge of the last piece of one set and fifty loops on the edge of the other set.

Exo 36:18 They made fifty bronze hooks to join the two sets, so as to form one cover.

Exo 36:19 They made two more coverings, one of rams' skin dyed red and the other of fine leather, to serve as an outer cover.

Exo 36:20 They made upright frames of acacia wood for the Tent.

Exo 36:21 Each frame was 15 feet tall and 27 inches wide,

Exo 36:22 with two matching projections, so that the frames could be joined together. All the frames had these projections.

Exo 36:23 They made twenty frames for the south side

Exo 36:24 and forty silver bases to go under them, two bases under each frame to hold its two projections.

Exo 36:25 They made twenty frames for the north side of the Tent

Exo 36:26 and forty silver bases, two under each frame.

Exo 36:27 For the back of the Tent, on the west, they made six frames

Exo 36:28 and two frames for the corners.

Exo 36:29 These corner frames were joined at the bottom and connected all the way to the top. The two frames that formed the two corners were made in this way.

Exo 36:30 So there were eight frames and sixteen silver bases, two under each frame.

Exo 36:31 They made fifteen crossbars of acacia wood, five for the frames on one side of the Tent,

Exo 36:32 five for the frames on the other side, and five for the frames on the west end, at the back.

Exo 36:33 The middle crossbar, set halfway up the frames, extended from one end of the Tent to the other.

Exo 36:34 They covered the frames with gold and fitted them with gold rings to hold the crossbars, which were also covered with gold.

Exo 36:35 They made a curtain of fine linen, woven with blue, purple, and red wool and embroidered it with figures of winged creatures.

Exo 36:36 They made four posts of acacia wood to hold the curtain, covered them with gold, and fitted them with gold hooks. Then they made four silver bases to hold the posts.

Exo 36:37 For the entrance of the Tent they made a curtain of fine linen woven with blue, purple, and red wool and decorated with embroidery.

Exo 36:38 For this curtain they made five posts fitted with hooks, covered their tops and their rods with gold, and made five bronze bases for the posts.

1Besaleël, Oholiab en al die ander vakmanne vir wie die Here die vaardigheid en verstand gegee het om te weet hoe om al die werk aan die heiligdom uit te voer, moet die werk doen soos die Here beveel het. 2Moses het toe vir Besaleël en Oholiab geroep en al die ander vakmanne vir wie die Here die vaardigheid gegee het, almal wat aangebied het om die werk te doen. 3Hulle het van Moses al die offergawes ontvang wat deur die Israeliete gebring is om die heiligdom op te rig. Die volk het elke oggend nog vrywillige offers na Moses toe gebring. 4Toe het al die vakmanne wat die werk aan die heiligdom moes doen, elkeen van sy afdeling van die werk af, 5vir Moses kom sê: Die volk bring meer as wat nodig is om die werk te doen wat die Here beveel het. 6Toe het Moses in die kamp rond laat weet dat die mense nie meer iets as offergawe vir die heiligdom moet gee nie, en eers toe het die volk opgehou bring. 7Daar was meer as genoeg om al die werk te doen, daar was selfs nog oor. 8Die begaafde vakmanne het met die werk aan die tabernakel begin. Hulle het tien stukke materiaal van goed geweefde linne en blou, pers en bloedrooi wolstof gebruik en gerubs daarop uitgeborduur. 9Die lengte van elke stuk materiaal was veertien meter en die breedte twee meter, almal was presies ewe groot. 10Die stukke materiaal is vyf-vyf aanmekaar gewerk. 11Daar is toe blou lissies vasgewerk aan die een kant van die een strook materiaal en so ook aan die een kant van die ander strook, 12vyftig vir die een en vyftig vir die ander strook. Die lissies was presies reg teenoor mekaar. 13Hulle het vyftig goue hakies gemaak om die twee stelle doeke aanmekaar te hou sodat die tabernakel een geheel kon wees. 14Daar is 'n tent van bokhaarmateriaal gemaak om oor die tabernakel te sit. Elf stukke bokhaarmateriaal is gebruik 15en elke stuk materiaal was vyftien meter lank en twee meter breed. Die elf stukke was almal presies ewe groot. 16Hulle het eers vyf stukke aanmekaar gewerk en toe die ses ander stukke. 17Hulle het daarna vyftig lissies gemaak vir die een kant van die een strook en so ook vyftig vir die een kant van die ander strook. 18Hulle het vyftig bronshakies gemaak om die tent aanmekaar te hou sodat dit een geheel kon wees. 19Hulle het verder ook 'n seil van rooigekleurde ramsvelle gemaak en 'n seil van gebreide vel daarbo-oor gespan. 20Hulle het rame van doringhout vir die tabernakel gemaak om dit regop te hou. 21Elke raam was vyf meter lank en 'n driekwart meter breed. 22Daar was twee tappe vir elke raam om die rame aanmekaar te voeg. Al die rame vir die tabernakel is so gemaak. 23Hulle het twintig rame gebruik vir die raamwerk aan die suidekant, die regterkant van die tabernakel. 24Die mense het verder ook veertig

silwervoetstukke gemaak en onder die twintig rame gesit, twee voetstukke onder elke raam, een by elke tap. Onder elke raam was dus twee voetstukke, by sy twee tappe. 25Vir die ander kant van die tabernakel, die noordekant, het hulle ook twintig rame gemaak. 26Vir hulle was daar veertig silwervoetstukke, twee voetstukke vir elke raam. 27Hulle het vir die agterkant, die westekant van die tabernakel, ses rame gemaak. 28Hulle het verder nog twee rame gemaak vir die hoeke aan die agterkant van die tabernakel. 29Hierdie rame was versterk van onder tot bo, tot by die boonste ring. Dit was die hoekrame. 30Daar was dus ag rame met hulle sestien silwervoetstukke, twee voetstukke vir elke raam. 31Hulle het dwarslatte van doringhout gemaak, vyf vir die rame van die een kant van die tabernakel 32en vyf vir dié van die ander kant, en ook nog vyf dwarslatte vir die agterkant, die westekant van die tabernakel. 33Daar was 'n middelste dwarslat wat in die middel van die rame dwarsdeur geloop het van die een kant af tot by die ander kant. 34Die rame is met goud oorgetrek en vir hulle is goue ringe gemaak om die dwarslatte deur te steek. Die dwarslatte is ook met goud oorgetrek. 35Hulle het 'n voorhangsel gemaak van goed geweefde linne en van blou, pers en bloedrooi wolstof. Gerubs is daarop uitgeborduur. 36Hulle het toe, om die voorhangsel op te hang, vier doringhoutstyle gemaak en dit met goud oorgetrek. Daar was goue kramme aan die style, en hulle het ook vier silwervoetstukke daarvoor gegiet. 37Hulle het 'n afskorting vir die deur van die tent gemaak van goed geweefde linne en van blou, pers en bloedrooi wolstof. Dit was borduurwerk. 38Vir hierdie afskorting het hulle vyf style gemaak met kramme daaraan. Die bokante van die style was met goud oorgetrek, so ook die gordynstokke. Die vyf voetstukke was van brons.

Exo 37:26 He covered its top, all four sides, and its projections with pure gold and put a gold border around it.

Exo 37:27 He made two gold carrying rings for it and attached them below the border on the two sides, to hold the poles with which it was to be carried.

Exo 37:28 He made the poles of acacia wood and covered them with gold.

Exo 37:29 He also made the sacred anointing oil and the pure sweet-smelling incense, mixed like perfume.

EKSODUS 37

[1]Besaleël het die ark van doringhout gemaak: een en 'n kwart meter lank, 'n driekwart meter breed en net so hoog. [2]Hy het dit binne en buite met suiwer goud oorgetrek en 'n goue lys rondom vasgesit. [3]Hy het vier goue ringe gegiet wat aan die onderste vier hoeke vasgesit is, sodat daar twee ringe aan elke kant was. [4]Hy het draaghoute van doringhout gemaak en dit met goud oorgetrek. [5]Die draaghoute is deur die ringe aan weerskante van die ark gesteek om die ark daarmee te dra. [8]Hy het die gerubs aan weerskante van die deksel so gemaak dat hulle 'n eenheid met die deksel gevorm het. [9]Hulle vlerke was uitgesprei oor die deksel, sodat hulle dit bedek het. Die gerubs se gesigte was na mekaar toe en hulle het afgekyk op die deksel. [10]Besaleël het 'n tafel van doringhout gemaak. Sy lengte was een meter, sy breedte 'n half meter en sy hoogte 'n driekwart meter. [11]Hy het dit met suiwer goud oorgetrek en 'n goue lys rondom vasgesit. [12]Hy het 'n band, sewe sentimeter breed, rondom die tafel gesit en daarrondom 'n goue lys vasgesit. [13]Hy het vier goue ringe vir die tafel gegiet en dit aan die vier hoeke vasgesit, regoor die vier pote. [14]Die ringe was naby die band sodat die draaghoute deur hulle gesteek kon word om die tafel mee te dra. [15]Hy het die draaghoute waarmee die tafel gedra moes word, van doringhout gemaak en hulle met goud oorgetrek. [16]Hy het die toebehore vir die tafel van suiwer goud gemaak: skottels, panne, kanne en komme om die drankoffer mee uit te giet. [17]Hy het ook 'n kandelaar van suiwer goud gemaak. Die kandelaar se voetstuk, stam, blomkelke, knoppe en kroonblare is van geslae goud gemaak sodat dit alles een geheel was. [18]Daar was ses arms aan die stam, drie aan elke kant. [19]Daar was drie blomkelke in die vorm van amandelbloeisels, met knoppe en kroonblare aan elke arm van die kandelaar. So was dit vir die ses arms wat uit die stam van die kandelaar vertak. [20]Vir die kandelaar se hoofstam was daar vier blomkelke in die vorm van amandelbloeisels, met knoppe en kroonblare. [21]Onder elke paar arms van die kandelaar was daar 'n knop. [22]Die knoppe en die arms was alles een stuk, een stuk suiwer geslae goud. [23]Besaleël het sewe lampies gemaak vir die kandelaar. Die pithouers en bakkies van die kandelaar is van suiwer goud gemaak. [24]Al hierdie voorwerpe is uit vier en dertig kilogram suiwer goud gemaak. [25]Besaleël het 'n wierookaltaar van doringhout gemaak. Dit was 'n half meter in die vierkant en een meter hoog. Die altaar en sy horings was 'n eenheid. [26]Hy het die bokant, die sye rondom en die horings met suiwer goud oorgetrek. Besaleël het 'n goue lys rondom die altaar vasgesit. 27Verder het hy twee goue ringe vir elke kant gemaak en dit aan weerskante, teenoor mekaar, onderaan die lys vasgesit om die draaghoute waarmee die altaar gedra moes word, daardeur te steek. 28Hy het die draaghoute van doringhout gemaak en hulle met goud oorgetrek. 29Hy het ook die gewyde salfolie en die geurige, rein wierook gemeng soos 'n bekwame vakman dit doen.

[1]Besaleël het 'n brandofferaltaar van doringhout gemaak, twee en 'n half meter in die vierkant en een en 'n half meter hoog. [2]Aan die vier hoeke het hy horings gemaak en dit het 'n eenheid met die altaar gevorm. Hy het die altaar met brons oorgetrek. [3]Hy het al die gereedskap vir die altaar van brons gemaak: potte, skoppe, komme, vurke en vuurpanne. [4]Hy het 'n bronstraliewerk om die altaar gemaak en dit onder die rand van die altaar vasgesit, sodat dit halfpad teen die altaar afloop. [7]Die draaghoute is deur die ringe gesteek aan weerskante van die altaar om dit mee te dra. Die altaar is van plank gemaak, in die vorm van 'n kas. [8]Besaleël het 'n bronswaskom met 'n bronsvoetstuk gemaak van bronsspieëls wat gekom het van die vroue wat by die deur van die tent van ontmoeting werk. [9]Hy het ook 'n voorhof gemaak. Aan die suidekant, die regterkant daarvan, was gordyne van goed geweefde linne, vyftig meter breed. [10]Om die gordyne te hang, was daar twintig style met twintig bronsvoetstukke, en ook kramme aan die style, en silwergordynstokke. Aäron. 22Onder leiding van Besaleël seun van Uri, seun van Gur uit die stam Juda, is alles gedoen wat die Here vir Moses beveel het. 23Oholiab, seun van Agisamak uit die stam Dan, het hom gehelp. Oholiab was 'n vakman en 'n ontwerper en 'n wewer van blou, pers en bloedrooi wolstof en van linne. 24Die hoeveelheid goud wat uit die spesiale bydrae ingekom het, en wat gebruik is vir al die werk aan die heiligdom, bereken volgens die standaardgewig van die heiligdom, was duisend en twee kilogram. 25Die silwer afkomstig van die volk wat vroeër getel is, bereken volgens die standaardgewig van die heiligdom, was drie duisend vier honderd sewe en veertig kilogram. 26Volgens die standaardgewig van die heiligdom is dit ongeveer ses gram per kop vir elkeen van twintig jaar en ouer wat vroeër getel is: daar was toe ses honderd en drie duisend vyf honderd en vyftig man. 27Daar is drie duisend vier honderd sewe en twintig kilogram silwer gebruik vir die giet van die voetstukke vir die style van die heiligdom en sy afskortings. Exo 39:2 They made the ephod of fine linen; blue, purple, and red wool; and gold thread.

Exo 39:3 They hammered out sheets of gold and cut them into thin strips to be worked into the fine linen and into the blue, purple, and red wool.

Exo 39:4 They made two shoulder straps for the ephod and attached them to its sides, so that it could be fastened.

Exo 39:15 For the breastpiece they made chains of pure gold, twisted like cords.

Exo 39:16 They made two gold settings and two gold rings and attached the two rings to the upper corners of the breastpiece.

Exo 39:17 They fastened the two gold cords to the two rings

Exo 39:18 and fastened the other two ends of the cords to the two settings and in this way attached them in front to the shoulder straps of the ephod.

Exo 39:19 They made two rings of gold and attached them to the lower corners of the breastpiece, on the inside edge next to the ephod.

Exo 39:20 They made two more gold rings and attached them to the lower part of the front of the two shoulder straps of the ephod, near the seam and above the finely woven belt.

Exo 39:21 Just as the LORD had commanded Moses, they tied the rings of the breastpiece to the rings of the ephod with a blue cord, so that the breastpiece rested above the belt and did not come loose.

Exo 39:22 The robe that goes under the ephod was made entirely of blue wool.

Exo 39:23 The hole for the head was reinforced with a woven binding to keep it from tearing.

Exo 39:24 (24-26) All around its lower hem they put pomegranates of fine linen and of blue, purple, and red wool, alternating with bells of pure gold, just as the LORD had commanded Moses.

Exo 39:27 They made the shirts for Aaron and his sons,

Exo 39:28 and the turban, the caps, the linen shorts,

Exo 39:29 and the sash of fine linen and of blue, purple, and red wool, decorated with embroidery, as the LORD had commanded Moses.

Exo 39:30 They made the ornament, the sacred sign of dedication, out of pure gold, and they engraved on it "Dedicated to the LORD."

Exo 39:31 They tied it to the front of the turban with a blue cord, just as the LORD had commanded Moses.

Exo 39:32 All the work on the Tent of the LORD's presence was finally completed. The Israelites made everything just as the LORD had commanded Moses.

Exo 39:33 They brought to Moses the Tent and all its equipment, its hooks, its frames, its crossbars, its posts, and its bases;

Exo 39:34 the covering of rams' skin dyed red; the covering of fine leather; the curtain;

Exo 39:35 the Covenant Box containing the stone tablets, its poles, and its lid;

Exo 39:36 the table and all its equipment, and the bread offered to God;

Exo 39:37 the lampstand of pure gold, its lamps, all its equipment, and the oil for the lamps;

Exo 39:38 the gold altar; the anointing oil; the sweet-smelling incense; the curtain for the entrance of the Tent;

Exo 39:39 the bronze altar with its bronze grating, its poles, and all its equipment; the washbasin and its base;

Exo 39:40 the curtains for the enclosure and its posts and bases; the curtain for the entrance of the enclosure and its ropes; the Tent pegs; all the equipment to be used in the Tent;

Exo 39:41 and the magnificent garments the priests were to wear in the Holy Place—the sacred clothes for Aaron the priest and for his sons.

Exo 39:42 The Israelites had done all the work just as the LORD had commanded Moses.

Exo 39:43 Moses examined everything and saw that they had made it all just as the LORD had commanded. So Moses blessed them.

EKSODUS 39

[1]Van die blou, pers en bloedrooi wolstof het Besaleël en sy helpers die geborduurde klere gemaak wat in die diens van die heiligdom gebruik is. Soos die Here vir Moses beveel het, het hulle vir Aäron ampsklere gemaak en dit gewy. [2]Die skouerkleed is gemaak van gouddraad, blou, pers en bloedrooi wolstof en goed geweefde linne. [3]Hulle het bladgoud gemaak en dit in drade opgesny en ingeborduur in die blou, die pers en die bloedrooi wolstof en in die goed geweefde linne. Dit was die werk van 'n vakman. [4]Hulle het vir die skouerkleed twee bande gemaak om dit aan die punte oor die skouer aanmekaar vas te maak. [5]Die gordel wat oor die skouerkleed gekom het, was van dieselfde gehalte en daarvoor het hulle ook gouddraad, blou, pers en bloedrooi wolstof en goed geweefde linne gebruik, soos die Here vir Moses beveel het. [6]Hulle het oniks verwerk en gemonteer in goud. Die name van die seuns van Israel is daarop gegraveer, soos 'n vakman dit op 'n seëlring doen. [7]Die stene is op die skouerbande van die skouerkleed vasgewerk sodat die stene kan herinner aan die stamme van Israel. Dit alles is gedoen soos die Here vir Moses beveel het. [8]Hulle het ook 'n borssak uitgeborduur soos die skouerkleed, die werk van 'n vakman, gemaak van gouddraad, blou, pers en bloedrooi wolstof en goed geweefde linne. [9]Die borssak is dubbel gevou, vyf en twintig sentimeter in die vierkant. [10]Hierop het hulle vier rye edelstene gemonteer. Die eerste ry het bestaan uit 'n karneool, 'n topaas en 'n smarag; [11]die tweede uit 'n turkoois, 'n saffier en 'n jaspis; [12]die derde uit 'n hiasint, 'n agaat en 'n ametis, [13]en die vierde uit 'n chrisoliet, 'n oniks en 'n opaal. Die hele montering was van goud. [14]Daar was twaalf stene, een vir elke naam van die twaalf stamme van Israel. Die name van al twaalf stamme is daarop gegraveer soos op 'n seëlring. [15]Hulle het toe van suiwer goud vir die borssak kettinkies gemaak, gedraai soos tou. [16]Hulle het ook twee goue monterings en twee goue ringe gemaak. Die twee ringe is agter aan die twee boonste hoeke van die borssak vasgewerk [17]en aan elkeen van hierdie ringe aan die hoeke van die borssak is 'n goue kettinkie vasgemaak. [18]Die ander twee punte van die kettinkies is aan die twee monterings aan die voorkant van die skouerbande van die skouerkleed vasgemaak. [19]Hulle het nog twee goue ringe gemaak en dit vasgewerk aan die onderste hoeke van die borssak, aan die agterkant waar dit teen die skouerkleed is. [20]Hulle het nog twee ander goue ringe gemaak en dit aan die twee skouerbande van die skouerkleed vasgesit, laag af aan die voorkant, aan die naat net bo die gordel. [21]Die ringe van die borssak is met 'n blou toutjie aan die ringe van die skouerkleed vasgemaak, net bokant die gordel van die skouerkleed, sodat die

borssak nie van die skouerkleed af wegskuif nie. Dit alles is gedoen volgens die voorskrif van die Here aan Moses. 22Die mantel wat saam met die skouerkleed gedra word, is as een stuk blou wolstof geweef. 23In sy middel was daar 'n opening omgeboor, sterk soos 'n pantserhemp dat dit nie kan skeur nie. 24Vir die some van die mantel het hulle granaatjies gemaak van goed geweefde blou, pers en bloedrooi wolstof. 25Dan het hulle ook klokkies van suiwer goud gemaak en die klokkies tussen die granaatjies rondom die hele soom van die mantel vasgewerk, 26een klokkie tussen elke twee granaatjies. Die mantel was vir diens bestem soos die Here dit vir Moses beveel het. 27Hulle het ook priesterklere van linne geweef vir Aäron en sy seuns, 28asook 'n tulband en mooi kopdoeke van linne, en linnebroeke van goed geweefde linne. 29Hulle het ook 'n serp gemaak van goed geweefde linne, blou, pers en bloedrooi wolstof. Dit was weefwerk, soos die Here vir Moses beveel het. 30Hulle het 'n blom van suiwer goud vir die gewyde tulband gemaak en daarop, soos op 'n seëlring, gegraveer: Aan Die Here Gewy. 31Dit is met 'n blou toutjie aan die voorkant van die tulband vasgemaak, soos die Here vir Moses beveel het. 32Uiteindelik was al die werk vir die tabernakel, die tent van ontmoeting, klaar. Die Israeliete het alles gemaak presies net soos die Here vir Moses beveel het. 33Hulle het die tabernakel, die tent met al sy toebehore, na Moses toe gebring: die kramme, die rame, die dwarslatte, die style met hulle voetstukke; 34die seil van rooigekleurde ramsvel, die seil van gebreide vel, die voorhangsel, 35die ark met die getuienis, die draaghoute, die deksel, 36die tafel met sy draaghoute en al sy toebehore, die offerbrood; 37die gewyde kandelaar met sy ry lampe en toebehore en olie vir die lampe, 38die goue altaar, die salfolie, die geurige wierook en die afskorting vir die tentdeur; 39die bronsaltaar met al sy toebehore, die bronstraliewerk waaraan die draaghoute vas was, die waskom met sy voetstuk, 40die gordyne van die voorhof, hulle style met hulle voetstukke, die afskorting vir die deur van die voorhof met sy toue en penne, en al die ander toebehore vir die diens in die tabernakel, die tent van ontmoeting; 41die geborduurde klere om in die heiligdom mee te dien, die gewyde klere vir die priester Aäron en vir sy seuns om daarin as priesters diens te doen. 42Die Israeliete het alles gemaak net soos die Here vir Moses beveel het. 43Moses het al die werk geïnspekteer en gesien dat dit gemaak is soos die Here beveel het. Toe het Moses die vakmanne gelukgewens en bedank.

Exo 40:32 whenever they went into the Tent or to the altar, just as the LORD had commanded.

Exo 40:33 Moses set up the enclosure around the Tent and the altar and hung the curtain at the entrance of the enclosure. So he finished all the work.

The Glory of the Lord

Exo 40:34 Then the cloud covered the Tent and the dazzling light of the LORD's presence filled it.

Exo 40:35 Because of this, Moses could not go into the Tent.

Exo 40:36 The Israelites moved their camp to another place only when the cloud lifted from the Tent.

Exo 40:37 As long as the cloud stayed there, they did not move their camp.

Exo 40:38 During all their wanderings they could see the cloud of the LORD's presence over the Tent during the day and a fire burning above it during the night.

1Die Here het vir Moses gesê: 2Op die eerste dag van die eerste maand moet jy die tabernakel, die tent van ontmoeting, opslaan. 3Jy moet die ark met die getuienis neersit in die tent en die ark afskort met die voorhangsel. 4Dan moet jy die tafel inbring en sy toebehore daarop regsit. Jy moet ook die kandelaar inbring en sy lampe opsteek. 5Die goue wierookaltaar moet jy neersit voor die ark met die getuienis en dan die voorhangsel in die deur van die tabernakel hang. 6Jy moet die brandofferaltaar neersit voor die ingang van die tabernakel, die tent van ontmoeting. 7Die waskom moet jy neersit tussen die tent van ontmoeting en die altaar, en jy moet water daarin gooi. 8Jy moet die voorhof opslaan en die afskorting in die ingang van die voorhof hang. 9Vat dan salfolie en salf die tabernakel en alles wat daarin is. Wy die tabernakel en al die toebehore. Dan sal dit gewyd wees. 10Salf die brandofferaltaar en al sy toebehore. Jy moet die altaar ook wy: dit moet 'n gewyde altaar wees. 11Salf die waskom en sy voetstuk en wy dit ook. 12Laat Aäron en sy seuns na die deur van die tent van ontmoeting toe kom en was hulle met water. 13Laat Aäron dan die gewyde klere aantrek; salf en wy hom sodat hy vir My as priester kan diens doen. 14Laat sy seuns ook naderkom en laat hulle ook hulle priesterklere aantrek. 15Jy moet hulle salf soos jy hulle pa gesalf het sodat ook húlle vir My as priesters kan diens doen. Hulle salwing dui aan dat hulle en hulle nageslag vir altyd as priesters sal moet diens doen. 16Moses het alles gedoen presies net soos die Here hom beveel het. 17Op die eerste dag van die eerste maand van die tweede jaar na die uittog is die tabernakel opgerig. 18Moses het dit soos volg gedoen: hy het die voetstukke neergesit, die rame regop gesit, die dwarslatte vasgesit en die style regop gesit. 19Hy het die tent oor die tabernakel gesit en die seil daarbo-oor gespan, soos die Here hom beveel het. 20Hy het die getuienis gevat en dit in die ark gesit. Hy het die draaghoute van die ark ingesteek en die deksel bo-op die ark neergesit. 21Daarna het hy die ark in die tabernakel gebring en die voorhangsel opgehang om die ark met die getuienis af te skort, soos die Here hom beveel het. 22Hy het die tafel in die tent van ontmoeting neergesit, aan die noordekant van die tabernakel, buite die voorhangsel. 23Hy het offerbrood daarop neergesit voor die Here, soos die Here hom beveel het. 24Hy het die kandelaar in die tent van ontmoeting neergesit, regoor die tafel, aan die suidekant van die tabernakel. 25Toe het hy die lampe opgesteek voor die Here, soos die Here hom beveel het. 26Hy het die goue altaar in die tent van ontmoeting neergesit, voor die voorhangsel. 27Toe het hy geurige wierook daarop aan die brand gesteek, soos die Here hom beveel het.

Leviticus 1

Laws for Burnt Offerings

Lev 1:1 The LORD called to Moses from the Tent of the LORD's presence and gave him the following rules

Lev 1:2 for the Israelites to observe when they offer their sacrifices. When you offer an animal sacrifice, it may be one of your cattle or one of your sheep or goats.

Lev 1:3 If you are offering one of your cattle as a burnt offering, you must bring a bull without any defects. You must present it at the entrance of the Tent of the LORD's presence so that the LORD will accept you.

Lev 1:4 You shall put your hand on its head, and it will be accepted as a sacrifice to take away your sins.

Lev 1:5 You shall kill the bull there, and the Aaronite priests shall present the blood to the LORD and then throw it against all four sides of the altar located at the entrance of the Tent.

Lev 1:6 Then you shall skin the animal and cut it up,

Lev 1:7 and the priests shall arrange firewood on the altar and light it.

Lev 1:8 They shall put on the fire the pieces of the animal, including the head and the fat.

Lev 1:9 You must wash the internal organs and the hind legs, and the officiating priest will burn the whole sacrifice on the altar. The odor of this food offering is pleasing to the LORD.

Lev 1:10 If you are offering one of your sheep or goats, it must be a male without any defects.

Lev 1:11 You shall kill it on the north side of the altar, and the priests shall throw its blood on all four sides of the altar.

Lev 1:12 After you cut it up, the officiating priest shall put on the fire all the parts, including the head and the fat.

Lev 1:14 If you are offering a bird as a burnt offering, it must be a dove or a pigeon.

Lev 1:15 The priest shall present it at the altar, wring its neck, and burn its head on the altar. Its blood shall be drained out against the side of the altar.

Lev 1:16 He shall remove the crop and its contents and throw them away on the east side of the altar where the ashes are put.

Lev 1:17 He shall take hold of its wings and tear its body open, without tearing the wings off, and then burn it whole on the altar. The odor of this food offering is pleasing to the LORD.

LEVÍTIKUS 1

1Die Here het vir Moses geroep en uit die tent van ontmoeting vir hom gesê: 2Praat met die Israeliete en sê vir hulle: Wanneer een van julle vir die Here 'n offer wil aanbied, kan hy dit aanbied uit sy beeste of uit sy kleinvee. 3As dit 'n brandoffer uit die beeste is, bied die man 'n bul aan sonder liggaamsgebrek. Hy bied dit aan by die ingang van die tent van ontmoeting sodat dit vir die Here aanneemlik sal wees. 4Daarna sit hy sy hand op die offerdier se kop sodat dit aanvaar sal word as versoening vir hom. 5Dan slag hy die bul daar in die teenwoordigheid van die Here, en die Äronitiese priesters bring die bloed en sprinkel dit rondom teen die altaar by die ingang van die tent van ontmoeting. 6Die man slag die offerdier af en sny dit in stukke op. 7Die Äronitiese priesters maak dan vuur op die altaar en sit hout op die vuur. 8Dan sit hulle die stukke vleis, die kop en die niervet op die hout op die altaarvuur. 9Die man was die binnegoed en die pote af, en 'n priester verbrand alles op die altaar. Dit is die brandoffer, 'n vuuroffer wat deur die Here aanvaar word. 10As dit 'n offer uit die kleinvee is, 'n brandoffer uit die skape of bokke, bied die man 'n ram aan sonder liggaamsgebrek. 11Hy slag die dier daar in die teenwoordigheid van die Here, aan die noordekant van die altaar, en die Äronitiese priesters sprinkel die bloed rondom teen die altaar. 12Dan sny die man die offerdier in stukke op, en die priesters sit die stukke vleis, die kop en die niervet op die hout op die altaarvuur. 13Die man was die binnegoed en die pote af, en die priester bring alles op die altaar en verbrand dit. Dit is die brandoffer, 'n vuuroffer wat deur die Here aanvaar word. 14As dit 'n brandoffer van voëls is wat iemand vir die Here wil offer, bied hy 'n tortelduif of 'n ander duif aan. 15Die priester bring dit op die altaar, knyp die kop af en verbrand dit op die altaar. Die bloed word eers teen die kante van die altaar uitgedruk; 16dan verwyder die priester die krop en die vere en gooi dit langs die altaar aan die oostekant op die plek vir die as, 17en nadat hy die duif tussen die vlerke oopgeskeur het sonder om dit heeltemal middeldeur te skeur, verbrand hy dit in die vuur op die altaar. Dit is die brandoffer, 'n vuuroffer wat deur die Here aanvaar word.

Leviticus 2

Laws for Grain Offerings

Lev 2:1 When any of you present an offering of grain to the LORD, you must first grind it into flour. You must put olive oil and incense on it

Lev 2:2 and bring it to the Aaronite priests. The officiating priest shall take a handful of the flour and oil and all of the incense and burn it on the altar as a token that it has all been offered to the LORD. The odor of this food offering is pleasing to the LORD.

Lev 2:3 The rest of the grain offering belongs to the priests; it is very holy, since it is taken from the food offered to the LORD.

Lev 2:4 If the offering is bread baked in an oven, it must be made without yeast. It may be thick loaves made of flour mixed with olive oil or thin cakes brushed with olive oil.

Lev 2:5 If the offering is bread cooked on a griddle, it is to be made of flour mixed with olive oil but without yeast.

Lev 2:6 Crumble it up and pour the oil on it when you present it as an offering.

Lev 2:7 If the offering is bread cooked in a pan, it is to be made of flour and olive oil.

Lev 2:8 Bring it as an offering to the LORD and present it to the priest, who will take it to the altar.

Lev 2:9 The priest will take part of it as a token that it has all been offered to the LORD, and he will burn it on the altar. The odor of this food offering is pleasing to the LORD.

Lev 2:10 The rest of the offering belongs to the priests; it is very holy, since it is taken from the food offered to the LORD.

Lev 2:11 None of the grain offerings which you present to the LORD may be made with yeast; you must never use yeast or honey in food offered to the LORD.

Lev 2:12 An offering of the first grain that you harvest each year shall be brought to the LORD, but it is not to be burned on the altar.

Lev 2:13 Put salt on every grain offering, because salt represents the covenant between you and God. (You must put salt on all your offerings.)

Lev 2:14 When you bring to the LORD an offering of the first grain harvested, offer roasted grain or ground meal.

Lev 2:15 Add olive oil and put incense on it.

Lev 2:16 The priest will burn that part of the meal and oil that is to serve as a token, and also all the incense, as a food offering to the LORD.

LEVÍTIKUS 2

1Wanneer iemand vir die Here 'n graanoffer wil aanbied, kan hy meel aanbied. Hy gooi daar olie oor en sit wierook bo-op. 2Dan bring hy dit na die Äronitiese priesters toe, vat 'n handvol van die meel en die olie, en al die wierook, en die priester verbrand dit op die altaar as simbool van die hele offer. Dit is 'n vuuroffer wat deur die Here aanvaar word. 3Die oorblywende deel van die graanoffer is vir Äron en sy seuns. Dit is 'n besondere gewyde gawe, 'n deel van die vuuroffer wat vir die Here gebring is. 4Wanneer jy 'n graanoffer uit die oond aanbied, moet dit van fynmeel wees. Dit kan ongesuurde ringbrood wees, met olie geknie, of ongesuurde roosterkoek, met olie gesmeer. 5As jou graanoffer op 'n bakplaat gebak word, moet dit van fynmeel wees, geknie met olie en sonder suurdeeg. 6Jy breek dit in stukke en gooi olie daaroor. Dit is die graanoffer. 7As jou graanoffer in 'n bakpan gebak word, maak jy die fynmeel met olie aan. 8Jy bring dan die graanoffer wat jy op een van dié maniere vir die Here klaargemaak het, na die priester toe, en hy bring dit na die altaar toe. 9Die priester vat die deel wat as simbool vir die hele offer dien en verbrand dit op die altaar. Dit is 'n vuuroffer wat deur die Here aanvaar word. 10Die oorblywende deel van die graanoffer is vir Äron en sy seuns. Dit is 'n besondere gewyde gawe, 'n deel van die vuuroffer wat vir die Here gebring is. 11Geen graanoffer wat vir die Here aangebied word, mag suurdeeg in hê nie. Julle mag geen suurdeeg of heuning verbrand as 'n vuuroffer vir die Here nie. 12Julle mag dit as eerstelingoffer vir die Here aanbied, maar op die altaar mag dit nie kom as 'n offer wat deur die Here aanvaar word nie. 13Gooi sout by al jou graanoffers. Die sout herinner aan die verbond met jou God; moenie dat dit in jou graanoffers ontbreek nie. Bied sout aan op al jou graanoffers. 14Wanneer jy vir die Here 'n graanoffer uit die eerste opbrengs van die oes aanbied, kan dit gebraaide koring of stampkoring wees. Jy bied dit aan as die graanoffer uit die eerste opbrengs van jou oes, 15en jy gooi olie daarop en sit wierook bo-op. Dit is die graanoffer. 16Die priester verbrand dié deel van die stampkoring en die olie wat as simbool vir die hele offer dien, saam met al die wierook. Dit is 'n vuuroffer vir die Here.

LEVÍTIKUS 3

1As iemand 'n maaltydoffer wil bring en hy wil dit aanbied uit sy beeste, kan hy vir die Here 'n bul of 'n koei aanbied, maar sonder liggaamsgebrek. 2Die man sit sy hand op die offerdier se kop en slag dit by die ingang van die tent van ontmoeting. Die Aäronitiese priesters sprinkel dan die bloed rondom teen die altaar. 3Dan bied hy uit die maaltydoffer vir die Here 'n vuuroffer aan, bestaande uit die vet wat die binnegoed bedek, die vet aan die binnegoed self, 4die twee niere met die vet aan wat teen die kruis is, en die punt van die lewer wat saam met die niere verwyder word. 5Die Aäroniete verbrand dit op die altaar, bo-op die brandoffer op die vuur. Dit is voedsel, dit is 'n vuuroffer vir die Here. 12As die offer 'n bok is, bring die man dit in die teenwoordigheid van die Here, 13sit sy hand op die dier se kop en slag dit daar voor die tent van ontmoeting. Die Aäroniete sprinkel dan die bloed rondom teen die altaar. 14Dan bied die man uit sy offer vir die Here 'n vuuroffer aan, bestaande uit die vet wat die binnegoed bedek, al die vet aan die binnegoed self, 15die twee niertjies met die vet aan wat teen die kruis is, en die punt van die lewer wat saam met die niertjies verwyder word. 16Die priester verbrand dit op die altaar. Dit is voedsel, dit is 'n vuuroffer wat deur die Here aanvaar word. Al die vet is die Here s'n. 17Dit is 'n vaste voorskrif vir julle nageslag, waar julle ook al woon: julle mag geen vet of bloed eet nie.

Leviticus 4

Laws for Sin Offerings

Lev 4:1 The LORD commanded Moses

Lev 4:2 to tell the people of Israel that anyone who sinned and broke any of the LORD's commands without intending to, would have to observe the following rules.

Lev 4:3 If it is the High Priest who sins and so brings guilt on the people, he shall present a young bull without any defects and sacrifice it to the LORD for his sin.

Lev 4:4 He shall bring the bull to the entrance of the Tent, put his hand on its head, and kill it there in the LORD's presence.

Lev 4:5 Then the High Priest shall take some of the bull's blood and carry it into the Tent.

Lev 4:6 He shall dip his finger in the blood and sprinkle it in front of the sacred curtain seven times.

Lev 4:7 Then he shall put some of the blood on the projections at the corners of the incense altar in the Tent. He shall pour out the rest of the blood at the base of the altar used for burning sacrifices, which is at the entrance of the Tent.

Lev 4:8 From this bull he shall take all the fat, the fat on the internal organs,

Lev 4:9 the kidneys and the fat on them, and the best part of the liver.

Lev 4:10 The priest shall take this fat and burn it on the altar used for the burnt offerings, just as he does with the fat from the animal killed for the fellowship offering.

Lev 4:11 But he shall take its skin, all its flesh, its head, its legs, and its internal organs, including the intestines,

Lev 4:12 carry it all outside the camp to the ritually clean place where the ashes are poured out, and there he shall burn it on a wood fire.

Lev 4:13 If it is the whole community of Israel that sins and becomes guilty of breaking one of the LORD's commands without intending to,

Lev 4:14 then as soon as the sin becomes known, the community shall bring a young bull as a sin offering. They shall bring it to the Tent of the LORD's presence;

Lev 4:15 the leaders of the community shall put their hands on its head, and it shall be killed there.

Lev 4:16 The High Priest shall take some of the bull's blood into the Tent, Lev 4:17 dip his finger in it, and sprinkle it in front of the curtain seven times.

Lev 4:18 He shall put some of the blood on the projections at the corners of the incense altar inside the Tent and pour out the rest of it at the base of the altar used for burning sacrifices, which is at the entrance of the Tent.

Lev 4:19 Then he shall take all its fat and burn it on the altar.

Lev 4:20 He shall do the same thing with this bull as he does with the bull for the sin offering, and in this way he shall make the sacrifice for the people's sin, and they will be forgiven.

Lev 4:21 Then he shall take the bull outside the camp and burn it, just as he burns the bull offered for his own sin. This is an offering to take away the sin of the community.

Lev 4:22 If it is a ruler who sins and becomes guilty of breaking one of the LORD's commands without intending to,

Lev 4:23 then as soon as the sin is called to his attention, he shall bring as his offering a male goat without any defects.

Lev 4:24 He shall put his hand on its head and kill it on the north side of the altar, where the animals for the burnt offerings are killed. This is an offering to take away sin.

Lev 4:25 The priest shall dip his finger in the blood of the animal, put it on the projections at the corners of the altar, and pour out the rest of it at the base of the altar.

Lev 4:26 Then he shall burn all of its fat on the altar, just as he burns the fat of the animals killed for the fellowship offerings. In this way the priest shall offer the sacrifice for the sin of the ruler, and he will be forgiven.

Lev 4:27 If any of you people sin and become guilty of breaking one of the LORD's commands without intending to,

Lev 4:28 then as soon as the sin is called to your attention, you shall bring as your offering a female goat without any defects.

Lev 4:29 You shall put your hand on its head and kill it on the north side of the altar, where the animals for the burnt offerings are killed.

Lev 4:30 The priest shall dip his finger in the blood of the animal, put it on the projections at the corners of the altar, and pour out the rest of it at the base of the altar.

Lev 4:31 Then he shall remove all its fat, just as the fat is removed from the animals killed for the fellowship offerings, and he shall burn it on the altar as an odor pleasing to the LORD. In this way the priest shall offer the sacrifice for the man's sin, and he will be forgiven.

Lev 4:32 If you bring a sheep as a sin offering, it must be a female without any defects.

Lev 4:33 You shall put your hand on its head and kill it on the north side of the altar, where the animals for the burnt offerings are killed.

Lev 4:34 The priest shall dip his finger in the blood of the animal, put it on the projections at the corners of the altar, and pour out the rest of it at the base of the altar.

Lev 4:35 Then he shall remove all its fat, just as the fat is removed from the sheep killed for the fellowship offerings, and he shall burn it on the altar along with the food offerings given to the LORD. In this way the priest shall offer the sacrifice for your sin, and you will be forgiven.

1Die Here het vir Moses gesê: 2Sê vir die Israeliete: Wanneer iemand onopsetlik teen enige van die gebooie van die Here sondig en iets doen wat hy nie mag doen nie, moet soos volg gehandel word: 3As die gesalfde priester sondig en so die volk skuldig maak, bied hy vir die sonde wat hy gedoen het, 'n bul sonder liggaamsgebrek as sondeoffer aan die Here aan. 4Hy bring die bul by die ingang van die tent van ontmoeting, sit sy hand op die bul se kop en slag dit daar in die teenwoordigheid van die Here. 5Dan vat die gesalfde priester van die bul se bloed, bring dit na die tent van ontmoeting toe, 6steek sy vinger in die bloed en sprinkel van die bloed sewe maal in die teenwoordigheid van die Here op die voorkant van die voorhangsel in die heiligdom. 7Hy smeer ook van die bloed aan die horings van die wierookaltaar in die teenwoordigheid van die Here in die tent van ontmoeting. Die res van die bul se bloed gooi hy alles uit teen die fondament van die brandofferaltaar by die ingang van die tent van ontmoeting. 8Hy verwyder ook al die vet van die sondeofferbul, die vet wat die binnegoed bedek, dié aan die binnegoed self, 9die twee niere met die vet aan wat teen die kruis is, en die punt van die lewer wat saam met die niere verwyder word, 10net soos dit verwyder word by die maaltydofferbul. Die priester verbrand die vet dan op die brandofferaltaar. 11Die vel van die bul, al die vleis saam met die kop en pote, die binnegoed wat oor is, en die pensmis, 12die hele bul, word dan buitekant die kamp gebring na 'n rein plek toe, die plek waar die as weggegooi word, en daar op 'n houtvuur verbrand. Dit word op die ashoop verbrand. 13As die hele volk Israel onopsetlik sondig, en 'n misdaad teen die Here begaan sonder dat hulle weet dat hulle 'n gebod van die Here oortree, 14en dit word agterna bekend dat hulle gesondig het, moet die volk 'n bul as sondeoffer aanbied. Hulle bring die bul voor die tent van ontmoeting, 15en dan sit die leiers van die volk daar in die teenwoordigheid van die Here hulle hande op die bul se kop en slag dit daar. 16Die gesalfde priester neem van die bloed na die tent van ontmoeting toe, 17steek sy vinger in die bloed en sprinkel van die bloed sewe maal in die teenwoordigheid van die Here op die voorkant van die voorhangsel. 18Hy smeer ook van die bloed aan die horings van die altaar wat in die teenwoordigheid van die Here in die tent van ontmoeting staan. Die res van die bloed gooi hy alles uit teen die fondament van die brandofferaltaar by die ingang van die tent van ontmoeting. 19Hy verwyder ook al die vet van die dier en verbrand dit op die altaar. 20Verder doen hy met die bul presies wat gedoen word met die sondeoffer. So doen die priester versoening vir die volk en word hulle sonde vergewe. 21Hy bring dan die bul buitekant die kamp en verbrand dit net soos die bul wat voorheen genoem is. Dit is die sondeoffer van die volk. 22As 'n gesagsdraer sondig en 'n misdaad teen die Here begaan deurdat hy sonder opset 'n gebod van die Here sy God oortree, 23en die sonde wat hy gedoen het, word onder sy aandag gebring, bring hy 'n bokram sonder liggaamsgebrek as offer. 24Hy sit sy hand op die bok se kop en slag dit in die teenwoordigheid van die Here op die plek waar die diere vir die brandoffer geslag word. Dit is die sondeoffer. 25Die priester vat dan met sy vinger van die bloed en smeer dit aan die horings van die brandofferaltaar. Die res van die bloed gooi hy alles teen die fondament van die altaar uit. 26Hy verbrand dan al die vet op die altaar soos in die geval van die vet van die maaltydoffer. So doen die priester versoening vir die gesagsdraer en word sy sonde vergewe. 27As een van die burgers van die land sonder opset sondig en 'n misdaad teen die Here begaan deurdat hy 'n gebod van die Here oortree, 28en die sonde wat hy gedoen het, word onder sy aandag gebring, bring hy 'n bokooi sonder liggaamsgebrek as offer vir die sonde wat hy begaan het. 29Hy sit sy hand op die offerdier se kop en slag dit op die plek waar die diere vir die brandoffer geslag word. 30Die priester vat dan met sy vinger van die bloed en smeer dit aan die horings van die brandofferaltaar. Die res van die bloed gooi hy alles teen die fondament van die altaar uit. 31Al die vet word verwyder soos in die geval van die maaltydoffer, en die priester verbrand dit op die altaar. Die offer word deur die Here aanvaar. So doen die priester versoening vir die burger en word sy sonde vergewe. 32As hy 'n skaap as sondeoffer bring, bring hy 'n ooi sonder liggaamsgebrek. 33Hy sit sy hand op die offerdier se kop en slag dit as 'n sondeoffer op die plek waar die diere vir die brandoffer geslag word. 34Die priester vat dan met sy vinger van die offerdier se bloed en smeer dit aan die horings van die brandofferaltaar. Die res van die bloed gooi hy alles teen die fondament van die altaar uit. 35Al die vet word verwyder soos in die geval van die skaap vir die maaltydoffer, en die priester verbrand dit op die altaar by die vuuroffer vir die Here. So doen die priester versoening vir die sonde wat die burger gedoen het, en word sy sonde vergewe.

Leviticus 5

Lev 5:1 Sin offerings are required in the following cases. If you are officially summoned to give evidence in court and do not give information about something you have seen or heard, you must suffer the consequences.

Lev 5:2 If you unintentionally touch anything ritually unclean, such as a dead animal, you are unclean and guilty as soon as you realize what you have done.

Lev 5:3 If you unintentionally touch anything of human origin that is unclean, whatever it may be, you are guilty as soon as you realize what you have done.

Lev 5:4 If you make a careless vow, no matter what it is about, you are guilty as soon as you realize what you have done.

Lev 5:5 When you are guilty, you must confess the sin,

Lev 5:6 and as the penalty for your sin you must bring to the LORD a female sheep or goat as an offering. The priest shall offer the sacrifice for your sin.

Lev 5:7 If you cannot afford a sheep or a goat, you shall bring to the LORD as the payment for your sin two doves or two pigeons, one for a sin offering and the other for a burnt offering.

Lev 5:8 You shall bring them to the priest, who will first offer the bird for the sin offering. He will break its neck without pulling off its head

Lev 5:9 and sprinkle some of its blood against the side of the altar. The rest of the blood will be drained out at the base of the altar. This is an offering to take away sin.

Lev 5:10 Then he shall offer the second bird as a burnt offering, according to the regulations. In this way the priest shall offer the sacrifice for your sin, and you will be forgiven.

Lev 5:11 If you cannot afford two doves or two pigeons, you shall bring two pounds of flour as a sin offering. You shall not put any olive oil or any incense on it, because it is a sin offering, not a grain offering.

Lev 5:12 You shall bring it to the priest, who will take a handful of it as a token that it has all been offered to the LORD, and he will burn it on the altar as a food offering. It is an offering to take away sin.

Lev 5:13 In this way the priest shall offer the sacrifice for your sin, and you will be forgiven. The rest of the flour belongs to the priest, just as in the case of a grain offering.

Laws for Guilt Offerings

Lev 5:14 The LORD gave the following regulations to Moses.

Lev 5:15 If any of you sin unintentionally by failing to hand over the payments that are sacred to the LORD, you shall bring as your repayment offering to the LORD a male sheep or goat without any defects. Its value is to be determined according to the official standard.

Lev 5:16 You must make the payments you have failed to hand over and must pay an additional 20 percent. You shall give it to the priest, and the priest shall offer the animal as a sacrifice for your sin, and you will be forgiven.

Lev 5:17 If any of you sin unintentionally by breaking any of the LORD's commands, you are guilty and must pay the penalty.

Lev 5:18 You must bring to the priest as a repayment offering a male sheep or goat without any defects. Its value is to be determined according to the official standard. The priest shall offer the sacrifice for the sin which you committed unintentionally, and you will be forgiven.

Lev 5:19 It is a repayment offering for the sin you committed against the LORD.

1Wanneer iemand hoor of te wete kom dat 'n vervloeking uitgespreek is en hy verswyg dit, sondig hy. Hy was 'n getuie daarvan, en daarom rus daar skuld op hom. 2Iemand raak dalk aan iets onreins, aan die onrein dooie liggaam van 'n wilde dier of 'n mak dier of 'n insek, en hy is nie bewus daarvan nie; dan is hy onrein en is hy skuldig; 3of iemand raak aan iets onreins van 'n mens, iets wat hom onrein maak, en hy is nie bewus daarvan nie, is hy skuldig; 4of iemand lê 'n onbesonne eed af, ten goede of ten kwade, hoe 'n mens ook al onbesonne dinge kan sê in 'n eed, en hy is nie bewus dat dit onbesonne is nie, is hy skuldig. In enige van hierdie gevalle is hy skuldig. 5Wanneer hy in enige van dié gevalle te wete kom dat hy skuldig geword het, bely hy dat hy gesondig het 6en bring hy vir die Here 'n skuldoffer oor die sonde wat hy gedoen het. Dit kan 'n skaapooi of 'n bokooi wees wat hy as sondeoffer bring. Die priester doen versoening vir die persoon oor sy sonde. 7As 'n stuk kleinvee bo die vermoë van die persoon is, bring hy as skuldoffer vir sy sonde twee tortelduiwe of twee ander duiwe vir die Here, een as sondeoffer en een as brandoffer. 8Hy bring hulle na die priester toe, en die priester bied eers dié een aan wat as sondeoffer bedoel is. Die priester knyp die duif se nek teen die kop af, maar verwyder nie die kop nie. 9Hy sprinkel van die bloed van die sondeoffer teen die kante van die altaar, en die bloed wat oorbly, druk hy teen die fondament van die altaar uit. Dit is die sondeoffer. 10Die tweede duif word as brandoffer gebring op die voorgeskrewe wyse. So doen die priester vir die persoon versoening vir die sonde wat hy gedoen het, en word sy sonde vergewe. 11As twee tortelduiwe of twee ander duiwe bo die persoon se vermoë is, bring hy as offer vir sy sonde twee kilogram meel as sondeoffer. Hy gooi nie olie daarop nie en sit nie wierook bo-op nie, want dit is 'n sondeoffer. 12Hy neem die meel na die priester toe, en die priester vat 'n handvol daarvan as simbool vir die hele offer en verbrand dit op die altaar by die vuuroffer vir die Here. Dit is die sondeoffer. 13So doen die priester vir die persoon versoening vir die sonde wat hy gedoen het in enige van die genoemde gevalle, en so word sy sonde vergewe. Soos by die graanoffer, kom die meel wat oorbly die priester toe. 14Die Here het vir Moses gesê: 15Wanneer iemand sonder opset troueloos handel en teen die heilige dinge van die Here sondig, bring hy vir die Here as skuldoffer 'n ram sonder liggaamsgebrek uit die kleinveetrop. Die waarde van die ram as skuldoffer word in silwer bereken volgens die standaardgewig van die heiligdom. 16As die waarde te min is, betaal die persoon in wat hy nog aan die heiligdom verskuldig is, en voeg nog een vyfde by en gee dit aan die priester. Die priester doen vir die persoon versoening met die ram as skuldoffer, en sy sonde word hom vergewe. 17As iemand sondig en teen een van die gebooie van die Here oortree, is hy skuldig al was hy nie bewus daarvan nie. Sy skuld rus op hom. 18Hy bring as skuldoffer 'n ram sonder liggaamsgebrek uit die kleinveetrop na die priester toe, volgens die vasgestelde waarde, en die priester doen vir die persoon versoening vir die onopsetlike sonde wat hy gedoen het en waarvan hy nie bewus was nie, en sy sonde word hom vergewe. 19Dit is die skuldoffer, die skuldoffer wat hy aan die Here bring.

Leviticus 6

Lev 6:1 The LORD gave the following regulations to Moses.

Lev 6:2 An offering is to be made if any of you sin against the LORD by refusing to return what another Israelite has left as a deposit or by stealing something from him or by cheating him

Lev 6:3 or by lying about something that has been lost and swearing that you did not find it.

Lev 6:4 (4-5) When you sin in any of these ways, you must repay whatever you got by dishonest means. On the day you are found guilty, you must repay the owner in full, plus an additional 20 percent.

Lev 6:6 You shall bring to the priest as your repayment offering to the LORD a male sheep or goat without any defects. Its value is to be determined according to the official standard.

Lev 6:7 The priest shall offer the sacrifice for your sin, and you will be forgiven.

The Priests and the Offerings

Lev 6:8 The LORD commanded Moses

Lev 6:9 to give Aaron and his sons the following regulations for burnt offerings. A burnt offering is to be left on the altar all night long, and the fire is to be kept burning.

Lev 6:10 Then the priest, wearing his linen robe and linen shorts, shall remove the greasy ashes left on the altar and put them at the side of the altar.

Lev 6:11 Then he shall change his clothes and take the ashes outside the camp to a ritually clean place.

Lev 6:12 The fire on the altar must be kept burning and never allowed to go out. Every morning the priest shall put firewood on it, arrange the burnt offering on it, and burn the fat of the fellowship offering.

Lev 6:13 The fire must always be kept burning on the altar and never allowed to go out.

Lev 6:14 The following are the regulations for grain offerings. An Aaronite priest shall present the grain offering to the LORD in front of the altar.

Lev 6:15 Then he shall take a handful of the flour and oil, and the incense on it, and burn it on the altar as a token that all of it has been offered to the LORD. The odor of this offering is pleasing to the LORD.

Lev 6:16 (16-17) The priests shall eat the rest of it. It shall be made into bread baked without yeast and eaten in a holy place, the courtyard of the Tent of the LORD's presence. The LORD has given it to the priests as their part of the food offerings. It is very holy, like the sin offerings and the repayment offerings.

Lev 6:18 For all time to come any of the male descendants of Aaron may eat it as their continuing share of the food offered to the LORD. Anyone else who touches a food offering will be harmed by the power of its holiness.

Lev 6:19 The LORD gave Moses the following regulations

Lev 6:20 for the ordination of an Aaronite priest. On the day he is ordained, he shall present as an offering to the LORD two pounds of flour (the same amount as the daily grain offering), half in the morning and half in the evening.

Lev 6:21 It is to be mixed with oil and cooked on a griddle and then crumbled and presented as a grain offering, an odor pleasing to the LORD.

Lev 6:22 For all time to come this offering is to be made by every descendant of Aaron who is serving as High Priest. It shall be completely burned as a sacrifice to the LORD.

Lev 6:23 No part of a grain offering that a priest makes may be eaten; all of it must be burned.

Lev 6:24 The LORD commanded Moses

Lev 6:25 to give Aaron and his sons the following regulations for sin offerings. The animal for a sin offering shall be killed on the north side of the altar, where the animals for the burnt offerings are killed. This is a very holy offering.

Lev 6:26 The priest who sacrifices the animal shall eat it in a holy place, the courtyard of the Tent of the LORD's presence.

Lev 6:27 Anyone or anything that touches the flesh of the animal will be harmed by the power of its holiness. If any article of clothing is spattered with the animal's blood, it must be washed in a holy place.

Lev 6:28 Any clay pot in which the meat is boiled must be broken, and if a metal pot is used, it must be scrubbed and rinsed with water.

Lev 6:29 Any male of the priestly families may eat this offering; it is very holy.

Lev 6:30 But if any of the blood is brought into the Tent and used in the ritual to take away sin, the animal must not be eaten; it must be burned.

LEVÍTIKUS 6

1Die Here het vir Moses gesê: 2Dit kan gebeur dat iemand sondig en troueloos handel teen die Here deurdat hy sy volksgenoot bedrieg met iets wat in sy bewaring gegee of aan hom geleen is, of sy volksgenoot beroof of hom te kort doen. 3Of hy kry dalk iets wat weggeraak het, maar ontken dit en lê 'n vals eed af oor enige saak waarin 'n mens in dié opsig sou kon sondig. 4As hy so gesondig en hom skuldig gemaak het, moet hy teruggee wat hy geroof het of waarmee hy iemand te kort gedoen het of wat in sy bewaring gegee was of wat weggeraak het en deur hom gevind is, 5of wat ook al waaroor hy 'n vals eed afgelê het. Op die dag dat sy skuld bekend word, moet hy alles terugbetaal aan die persoon aan wie dit toekom, en hy moet nog 'n vyfde bysit. 6As skuldoffer bring hy vir die Here 'n ram sonder liggaamsgebrek uit die kleinveetrop na die priester toe, volgens die vasgestelde waarde, 7en die priester doen voor die Here versoening vir die skuldige, en sy sonde word hom vergewe, hoe hy hom ook al skuldig gemaak het. 8Die Here het vir Moses gesê: 9Gee aan Aäron en sy seuns die volgende opdrag: Die reëling oor die brandoffer is soos volg, die brandoffer naamlik wat die hele nag deur tot die môre toe op die vuurmaakplek op die altaar is terwyl die vuur aan die brand gehou word: 10die priester trek sy linnekleed en linnebroek aan, en tel die vet op wat uitgebraai het toe die vuur die brandoffer op die altaar verteer het, en sit dit langs die altaar. 11Hy trek sy klere uit en trek ander klere aan en bring die vet buite die kamp na 'n rein plek toe. 12Die vuur op die altaar word aan die brand gehou; dit mag nie doodgaan nie. Die priester pak elke môre hout op die vuur, lê die brandoffer daarop en verbrand op die altaar die vet van die maaltydoffers. 13Die vuur moet aanhou brand op die altaar; dit mag nie doodgaan nie. 14Die reëlings oor die graanoffer is soos volg: een van Aäron se seuns bied dit vir die Here aan voor die altaar. 15Hy vat daaruit 'n handvol meel en olie en al die wierook bo-op die graanoffer en verbrand dit op die altaar. Die simbool van die hele offer word aanvaar deur die Here. 16Aäron en sy seuns eet die oorblywende deel. Daar kom nie suurdeeg by nie. Hulle eet dit op die gewyde plek, in die voorhof van die tent van ontmoeting. 17Dit word gebak, maar nie met suurdeeg nie. Dit is hulle deel wat Ek hulle uit my vuuroffer gee. Dit is 'n besondere gewyde gawe, net soos die sondeoffer en die skuldoffer. 18Enige van die manlike nasate van Aäron mag daarvan eet. Dit is 'n vaste instelling vir julle nageslag met betrekking tot die vuuroffers van die Here. Elkeen wat daaraan raak, moet 'n gewyde wees. 19Die Here het vir Moses gesê: 20Aäron en elkeen wat hom opvolg, moet op die dag van sy salwing die volgende offergawe vir die Here aanbied: twee kilogram meel as graanoffer, die helfte in die môre en die helfte in die aand. Dit is 'n blywende voorskrif. 21Die offergawe word met olie aangemaak op 'n bakplaat en die mengsel word as graanoffer in stukkies aangebied. Dit is aanvaarbaar vir die Here. 22Die gesalfde priester wat uit die seuns van Aäron in sy plek gekom het, doen dit. Dit is 'n vaste instelling vir die Here. Die offer word heeltemal verbrand. 23Elke graanoffer van dié priester word heeltemal verbrand. Dit word nie geëet nie. 24Die Here het vir Moses gesê: 25Sê vir Aäron en sy seuns: Die reëling vir die sondeoffer is soos volg: die sondeofferdier word in die teenwoordigheid van die Here geslag op dieselfde plek as die brandofferdier. Dit is 'n besondere gewyde gawe. 26Die priester wat die sondeoffer hanteer, eet dit. Hy eet dit op die gewyde plek, in die voorhof van die tent van ontmoeting. 27Elkeen wat aan die vleis raak, moet 'n gewyde wees. As daar van die bloed op iemand se klere spat, moet die deel waarop die bloed gespat het, in die gewyde plek gewas word. 28Die kleipot waarin die vleis gekook is, word gebreek, en as dit in 'n bronspot gekook is, moet die pot geskuur en met water afgespoel word. 29Enige manlike persoon onder die priesters eet van die sondeoffer. Dit is 'n besondere gewyde gawe. 30'n Sondeofferdier waarvan bloed in die tent van ontmoeting gebring word om daarmee in die heiligdom versoening te doen, word egter nie geëet nie. Dit word verbrand.

Leviticus 7

Lev 7:1 The following are the regulations for repayment offerings, which are very holy.

Lev 7:2 The animal for this offering is to be killed on the north side of the altar, where the animals for the burnt offerings are killed, and its blood is to be thrown against all four sides of the altar.

Lev 7:3 All of its fat shall be removed and offered on the altar: the fat tail, the fat covering the internal organs,

Lev 7:4 the kidneys and the fat on them, and the best part of the liver.

Lev 7:5 The priest shall burn all the fat on the altar as a food offering to the LORD. It is a repayment offering.

Lev 7:6 Any male of the priestly families may eat it, but it must be eaten in a holy place, because it is very holy.

Lev 7:7 There is one regulation that applies to both the sin offering and the repayment offering: the meat belongs to the priest who offers the sacrifice.

Lev 7:8 The skin of an animal offered as a burnt offering belongs to the priest who offers the sacrifice.

Lev 7:9 Every grain offering that has been baked in an oven or prepared in a pan or on a griddle belongs to the priest who has offered it to God.

Lev 7:10 But all uncooked grain offerings, whether mixed with oil or dry, belong to all the Aaronite priests and must be shared equally among them.

Lev 7:11 The following are the regulations for the fellowship offerings presented to the LORD.

Lev 7:12 If you make this offering as a thanksgiving offering to God, you shall present, together with the animal to be sacrificed, an offering of bread made without yeast: either thick loaves made of flour mixed with olive oil or thin cakes brushed with olive oil or cakes made of flour mixed with olive oil.

Lev 7:13 In addition, you shall offer loaves of bread baked with yeast.

Lev 7:14 You shall present one part of each kind of bread as a special contribution to the LORD; it belongs to the priest who takes the blood of the animal and throws it against the altar.

Lev 7:15 The flesh of the animal must be eaten on the day it is sacrificed; none of it may be left until the next morning.

Lev 7:16 If you bring a fellowship offering as fulfillment of a vow or as your own freewill offering, not all of it has to be eaten on the day it is offered, but any that is left over may be eaten on the following day.

Lev 7:17 Any meat that still remains on the third day must be burned.

Lev 7:18 If any of it is eaten on the third day, God will not accept your offering. The offering will not be counted to your credit but will be considered unclean, and whoever eats it will suffer the consequences.

Lev 7:19 If the meat comes into contact with anything ritually unclean, it must not be eaten, but must be burned. Any of you that are ritually clean may eat the meat,

Lev 7:20 but if any of you who are not clean eat it, you shall no longer be considered one of God's people.

Lev 7:21 Also, if you eat the meat of this offering after you have touched anything ritually unclean, whether from a person or an animal, you shall no longer be considered one of God's people.

Lev 7:22 The LORD gave Moses the following regulations

Lev 7:23 for the people of Israel. No fat of cattle, sheep, or goats shall be eaten.

Lev 7:24 The fat of an animal that has died a natural death or has been killed by a wild animal must not be eaten, but it may be used for any other purpose.

Lev 7:25 Anyone who eats the fat of an animal that may be offered as a food offering to the LORD will no longer be considered one of God's people.

Lev 7:26 No matter where the Israelites live, they must never use the blood of birds or animals for food.

Lev 7:27 Anyone who breaks this law will no longer be considered one of God's people.

Lev 7:28 The LORD gave Moses the following regulations

Lev 7:29 for the people of Israel. When any of you offer a fellowship offering you must bring part of it as a special gift to the LORD,

Lev 7:30 bringing it with your own hands as a food offering. You shall bring the fat of the animal with its breast and present it as a special gift to the LORD.

Lev 7:31 The priest shall burn the fat on the altar, but the breast shall belong to the priests.

Lev 7:32 The right hind leg of the animal shall be given as a special contribution

Lev 7:33 to the priest who offers the blood and the fat of the fellowship offering.

Lev 7:34 The breast of the animal is a special gift, and the right hind leg is a special contribution that the LORD has taken from the people of Israel and given to the priests. This is what the people of Israel must give to the priests for all time to come.

Lev 7:35 This is the part of the food offered to the LORD that was given to Aaron and his sons on the day they were ordained as priests.

Lev 7:36 On that day the LORD commanded the people of Israel to give them this part of the offering. It is a regulation that the people of Israel must obey for all time to come.

Lev 7:37 These, then, are the regulations for the burnt offerings, the grain offerings, the sin offerings, the repayment offerings, the ordination offerings, and the fellowship offerings.

Lev 7:38 There on Mount Sinai in the desert, the LORD gave these commands to Moses on the day he told the people of Israel to make their offerings.

1Die skuldoffer is 'n besondere gewyde gawe. Die reëlings daaroor is soos volg: 2die skuldofferdier word geslag op dieselfde plek as die brandoffer en sy bloed word rondom teen die altaar gesprinkel. 3Al die vet word aangebied: die vetstert, die vet wat die binnegoed bedek, 4die twee niertjies met die vet oor hulle teen die kruis en die lewerpunt wat saam met die niertjies verwyder word. 5Die priester verbrand dit op die altaar. Dit is 'n vuuroffer vir die Here. Dit is die skuldoffer. 6Enige manlike persoon onder die priesters mag die skuldoffer eet. Dit is 'n besondere gewyde gawe. Dit word op die gewyde plek geëet. 7Die aanwysings vir die skuldoffer is dieselfde as dié vir die sondeoffer. Dit kom die priester toe wat daarmee vir iemand versoening doen. 8Waar 'n priester vir iemand 'n brandoffer aanbied, kom die vel van die offerdier die priester toe wat die offer aanbied. 9Elke graanoffer wat in 'n oond gebak is, en dié wat in 'n bakpan of op 'n bakplaat gaargemaak is, kom die priester toe wat die offer aanbied. 10Elke graanoffer wat met olie aangemaak is, en ook dié sonder olie, kom egter die seuns van Aäron toe, sonder voorkeur. 11Die reëlings oor die maaltydoffers wat vir die Here aangebied word, is soos volg: 12as iemand dit aanbied as dankoffer, bied hy saam met die dankoffer ongesuurde ringbrood aan, met olie geknie, of ongesuurde roosterkoek met olie gesmeer, of 'n deegmengsel vir ringbrood, met olie geknie. 13Hy bied sy offer aan saam met ringbrood met suurdeeg, saam met sy maaltydoffer waarmee hy sy dank wil uitspreek. 14Hy bied een brood uit elk van hierdie offers aan as 'n spesiale gawe aan die Here. Die priester wat die bloed van die maaltydoffers sprinkel, kry die brood. 15Die vleis van die maaltydoffer waarmee iemand sy dank wil uitspreek, word geëet op die dag van die offer. Dit mag nie oorstaan tot die volgende môre nie. 16As iemand 'n offer aanbied om 'n gelofte na te kom of as hy 'n ander vrywillige offer aanbied, word die vleis dieselfde dag geëet. Wat oorbly, mag ook nog die volgende dag geëet word, 17maar wat op die derde dag nog oor is, moet verbrand word. 18As daar tog op die derde dag van die maaltydoffervleis geëet word, word dit nie meer as offer aanvaar nie en tel dit nie in die guns van die offeraar nie. Die offervleis is dan onrein, en wie daarvan eet, is skuldig. 19Vleis wat geraak het aan enigiets wat onrein is, mag nie geëet word nie; dit moet verbrand word Iemand wat rein is, mag offervleis eet, 20maar die persoon wat terwyl hy onrein is, eet van die maaltydoffervleis wat aan die Here behoort, moet van sy volksgenote afgesny word. 21As iemand aan iets onreins van 'n mens of van 'n dier raak, aan enigiets wat afstootlik en onrein is, en so iemand eet van die maaltydoffervleis wat aan die Here behoort, moet dié persoon van sy volksgenote afgesny word. 22Die Here het vir Moses gesê: 23Sê vir die Israeliete: Julle mag geen vet van beeste, skape en bokke eet nie. 24Die vet van 'n dooie dier of van 'n dier wat deur roofdiere gevang is, mag wel gebruik word, maar dit mag glad nie geëet word nie. 25Iemand wat die vet eet van 'n dier wat as vuuroffer vir die Here aangebied is, moet van sy volksgenote afgesny word. 26Julle mag, waar julle ook al woon, geen bloed eet nie, nie van voëls of van diere nie. 27Iemand wat enige bloed eet, moet van sy volksgenote afgesny word. 28Die Here het vir Moses gesê: 29Sê vir die Israeliete: Wanneer iemand vir die Here 'n maaltydoffer aanbied, moet hy self uit sy maaltydoffer 'n offer aan die Here bring. 30Hy moet dit met sy eie hand as vuuroffer vir die Here bring. Hy moet die vuuroffer, die vet van die bors, saam met die bors bring en dit in die teenwoordigheid van die Here heen en weer beweeg as 'n beweegoffer. 31Die priester verbrand dan die vet op die altaar, maar die bors kom Aäron en sy seuns toe. 32Julle moet die regterboud van die maaltydofferdier as 'n offergawe aan die priester gee. 33Die priester uit die seuns van Aäron wat die bloed en die vet van die maaltydoffers hanteer, het aanspraak op die regterboud as sy aandeel. 34Die Here het die bors van die beweegoffer en die boud wat as offergawe gebring is, uit die maaltydoffers van Israel gevat en dit aan die priester Aäron en sy seuns gegee. Dit is 'n vaste instelling vir die Israeliete. 35Dit is die aandeel van Aäron en sy seuns aan die vuuroffers van die Here, van die dag af dat hulle as priesters vir die Here gewy is. 36Die dag toe hulle gesalf is, het die Here beveel dat hulle dié gawes van die Israeliete moet ontvang. Dit is 'n vaste instelling, ook vir hulle nageslag. 37Dit is dan die reëlings vir die brandoffer, die graanoffer, die sondeoffer, die skuldoffer, die offers by die priesterwyding en die maaltydoffers. 38So het die Here aan Moses opdrag gegee by Sinaiberg in die Sinaiwoestyn die dag toe Hy die Israeliete beveel het om vir Hom offers te bring.

Leviticus 8

Consecration of Aaron and His Sons

Lev 8:1 The LORD said to Moses,

Lev 8:2 "Take Aaron and his sons to the entrance of the Tent of my presence and bring the priestly garments, the anointing oil, the young bull for the sin offering, the two rams, and the basket of unleavened bread.

Lev 8:3 Then call the whole community together there."

Lev 8:4 Moses did as the LORD had commanded, and when the community had assembled,

Lev 8:5 he said to them, "What I am now about to do is what the LORD has commanded."

Lev 8:6 Moses brought Aaron and his sons forward and had them take a ritual bath.

Lev 8:7 He put the shirt and the robe on Aaron and the sash around his waist. He put the ephod on him and fastened it by putting its finely woven belt around his waist.

Lev 8:8 He put the breastpiece on him and put the Urim and Thummim in it.

Lev 8:9 He placed the turban on his head, and on the front of it he put the gold ornament, the sacred sign of dedication, just as the LORD had commanded him.

Lev 8:10 Then Moses took the anointing oil and put it on the Tent of the LORD's presence and everything that was in it, and in this way he dedicated it all to the LORD.

Lev 8:11 He took some of the oil and sprinkled it seven times on the altar and its equipment and on the basin and its base, in order to dedicate them to the LORD.

Lev 8:12 He ordained Aaron by pouring some of the anointing oil on his head.

Lev 8:13 Next, Moses brought the sons of Aaron forward and put shirts on them, put sashes around their waists, and tied caps on their heads, just as the LORD had commanded.

Lev 8:14 Then Moses brought the young bull for the sin offering, and Aaron and his sons put their hands on its head.

Lev 8:15 Moses killed it and took some of the blood, and with his finger put it on the projections at the corners of the altar, in order to dedicate it. He then poured out the rest of the blood at the base of the altar. In this way he dedicated it and purified it.

Lev 8:16 Moses took all the fat on the internal organs, the best part of the liver, and the kidneys with the fat on them, and burned it all on the altar.

Lev 8:17 He took the rest of the bull, including its skin, flesh, and intestines, and burned it outside the camp, just as the LORD had commanded.

Lev 8:18 Next, Moses brought the ram for the burnt offering, and Aaron and his sons put their hands on its head.

Lev 8:19 Moses killed it and threw the blood on all four sides of the altar.

Lev 8:20 (20-21) He cut the ram in pieces, washed the internal organs and the hind legs with water, and burned the head, the fat, and all the rest of the ram on the altar, just as the LORD had commanded. This burnt offering was a food offering, and its odor was pleasing to the LORD.

Lev 8:22 Then Moses brought the second ram, which was for the ordination of priests, and Aaron and his sons put their hands on its head.

Lev 8:23 Moses killed it and took some of the blood and put it on the lobe of Aaron's right ear, on the thumb of his right hand, and on the big toe of his right foot.

Lev 8:24 Then he brought Aaron's sons forward and put some of the blood on the lobes of their right ears, on the thumbs of their right hands, and on the big toes of their right feet. Moses then threw the rest of the blood on all four sides of the altar.

Lev 8:25 He took the fat, the fat tail, all the fat covering the internal organs, the best part of the liver, the kidneys with the fat on them, and the right hind leg.

Lev 8:26 Then he took one loaf of bread from the basket of unleavened bread dedicated to the LORD, one loaf made with oil, and one thin cake, and he put them on top of the fat and the right hind leg.

Lev 8:27 He put all of this food in the hands of Aaron and his sons, and they presented it as a special gift to the LORD.

Lev 8:28 Then Moses took the food from them and burned it on the altar, on top of the burnt offering, as an ordination offering. This was a food offering, and its odor was pleasing to the LORD.

Lev 8:29 Then Moses took the breast and presented it as a special gift to the LORD. It was Moses' part of the ordination ram. Moses did everything just as the LORD had commanded.

Lev 8:30 Moses took some of the anointing oil and some of the blood that was on the altar and sprinkled them on Aaron and his sons and on their clothes. In this way he consecrated them and their clothes to the LORD.

Lev 8:31 Moses said to Aaron and his sons, "Take the meat to the entrance of the Tent of the LORD's presence, boil it, and eat it there with the bread that is in the basket of ordination offerings, just as the LORD commanded.

Lev 8:32 Burn up any meat or bread that is left over.

Lev 8:33 You shall not leave the entrance of the Tent for seven days, until your ordination rites are completed.

Lev 8:34 The LORD commanded us to do what we have done today, in order to take away your sin.

Lev 8:35 You must stay at the entrance of the Tent day and night for seven days, doing what the LORD has commanded. If you don't, you will die. This is what the LORD has commanded me."

Lev 8:36 So Aaron and his sons did everything that the LORD had commanded through Moses.

1Die Here het vir Moses gesê: 2Laat Aäron en sy seuns na die ingang van die tent van ontmoeting toe kom. Bring die klere, die salfolie, die bul vir die sondeoffer, die twee ramme en die mandjie met ongesuurde brood, 3en laat die hele gemeente ook by die ingang van die tent van ontmoeting bymekaarkom. 4Moses het die bevel van die Here uitgevoer, en toe die gemeente bymekaar was voor die tent van ontmoeting, 5het Moses vir hulle gesê: Ek sal nou daartoe oorgaan om te doen wat die Here my beveel het. 6Hy het Aäron en sy seuns laat naderkom na die altaar toe en hulle gewas. 7Daarna het hy die priesterklere vir Aäron aangetrek en die serp vir hom omgebind. Hy het die mantel vir hom omgehang en die skouerkleed vir hom aangetrek deur dit met die band wat daaraan was, om sy lyf vas te maak. 8Hy het ook die borssak daaraan vasgebind en die urim en tummim in die borssak gesit. 9Hy het die tulband om sy kop gesit en die goue blom aan die voorkant van die tulband vasgesit as 'n besondere wydingsteken. Dit is alles gedoen soos die Here Moses beveel het. 10Moses het toe met die salfolie die tabernakel en alles wat daarin was, gesalf. So het hy dit vir die diens van die Here gewy. 11Hy het naamlik sewe maal van die olie teen die altaar gesprinkel en die altaar met al sy gereedskap en ook die waskom en sy staander gesalf om dit te wy. 12Hy het ook van die salfolie op Aäron se kop gegooi om hom te salf en aan die diens van die Here te wy. 13Toe het Moses die seuns van Aäron by die altaar laat plek inneem, die priesterklere vir hulle aangetrek, hulle serpe omgebind en hulle kopdoeke vasgemaak. Hy het dit gedoen soos die Here hom beveel het. 14Hierna het hy die bul vir die sondeoffer na die altaar toe gebring, en Aäron en sy seuns het hulle hande op die kop van die bul gesit. 15Moses het die bul geslag en van die bloed met sy vinger rondom die horings van die altaar gesmeer om die altaar te reinig. Hy het toe die res van die bloed teen die fondament van die altaar uitgegooi. So het hy die altaar aan die Here gewy sodat daarop versoening gedoen kan word. 16Hierna het Moses al die vet wat aan die binnegoed sit en die punt van die lewer saam met die twee niere en die niervet op die altaar verbrand. 17Die res van die bul, die vel, die vleis en die pensmis is buite die kamp verbrand soos die Here vir Moses beveel het. 18Toe is die ram vir die brandoffer nadergebring na die altaar toe Aäron en sy seuns het hulle hande op die kop van die ram gesit. 19Moses het hom geslag en die bloed rondom teen die altaar uitgegooi. 20Hy het die ram opgesny. Hy het die kop, die opgesnyde dele, die binnevet, en 21nadat hy dit skoon gewas het, ook die binnegoed en pote verbrand. So het Moses die hele ram op die altaar verbrand. Dit was 'n brandoffer wat deur die Here aanvaar is, 'n vuuroffer wat aan die Here gebring is soos Hy Moses beveel het. 22Hierna is die ander ram wat vir die priesterwyding bedoel was, na die altaar toe gebring. Aäron en sy seuns het hulle hande ook op die kop van dié ram gesit. 23Moses het hom geslag en van die bloed aan Aäron se regteroorlel, sy regterduim en regtergroottoon gesmeer. 24Moses het die seuns van Aäron laat naderkom en van die bloed ook aan húlle regteroorlelle, regterduime en regtergroottone gesmeer. Die res van die bloed het hy rondom teen die altaar uitgegooi. 25Hy het die vet, dit is die vetstert en al die vet wat aan die binnegoed sit, saam met die punt van die lewer, die twee niere met die niervet en die regterboud eenkant gesit. 26Hy het 'n ongesuurde ringbrood, 'n ringbrood wat met olie geknie is, en 'n roosterkoek uitgehaal uit die mandjie met ongesuurde brood wat by die altaar gestaan het, en dit by die vet en die regterboud gesit. 27Daarna het hy dit alles vir Aäron en sy seuns gegee en hulle aangesê om dit as 'n beweegoffer vir die Here aan te bied. 28Moses het dit toe by hulle geneem en dit op die altaar bo-op die brandoffer verbrand. Die offer waarmee die priesters gewy is, was 'n offer wat deur die Here aanvaar is. Dit was 'n vuuroffer wat vir die Here aangebied is. 29Moses het die bors as 'n beweegoffer vir die Here aangebied. Dit was die deel van die offerram vir die priesterwyding wat Moses, volgens die bevel van die Here, gekry het. 30Daarna het Moses van die salfolie en van die bloed wat op die altaar was, oor Aäron en sy klere gesprinkel en ook oor sy seuns en hulle klere. So het Moses vir Aäron en sy seuns en hulle klere aan die Here gewy. 31Moses het vir Aäron en sy seuns gesê: Kook die vleis by die ingang van die tent van ontmoeting en eet dit daar saam met die brood in die mandjie wat gebruik is by die priesterwyding, want die bevel aan my was: Aäron en sy seuns moet dit eet.' 32As daar iets oorbly van die vleis of die brood, moet dit verbrand word. 33Julle mag 'n week lank nie die ingang van die tent van ontmoeting verlaat nie, nie voordat die sewe dae van die wydingseremonies verby is nie. 34Die dinge wat vandag gedoen is op bevel van die Here, was bedoel om julle sonde te versoen. 35Daarom moet julle 'n week lank dag en nag by die ingang van die tent van ontmoeting bly en die bevel van die Here uitvoer, anders sal julle sterwe. Dit is die bevel wat ek van die Here ontvang het. 36Aäron en sy seuns het toe alles wat die Here deur Moses beveel het, gedoen.

Leviticus 9

The Lord Accepts Aaron's Offering

Lev 9:1 The day after the ordination rites were completed, Moses called Aaron and his sons and the leaders of Israel.

Lev 9:2 He said to Aaron, "Take a young bull and a ram without any defects and offer them to the LORD, the bull for a sin offering and the ram for a burnt offering.

Lev 9:3 Then tell the people of Israel to take a male goat for a sin offering, a one-year-old calf, and a one-year-old lamb without any defects for a burnt offering,

Lev 9:4 and a bull and a ram for a fellowship offering. They are to sacrifice them to the LORD with the grain offering mixed with oil. They must do this because the LORD will appear to them today."

Lev 9:5 They brought to the front of the Tent everything that Moses had commanded, and the whole community assembled there to worship the LORD.

Lev 9:6 Moses said, "The LORD has commanded you to do all this, so that the dazzling light of his presence can appear to you."

Lev 9:7 Then he said to Aaron, "Go to the altar and offer the sin offering and the burnt offering to take away your sins and the sins of the people. Present this offering to take away the sins of the people, just as the LORD commanded."

Lev 9:8 Aaron went to the altar and killed the young bull which was for his own sin offering.

Lev 9:9 His sons brought him the blood, and he dipped his finger in it, put some of it on the projections at the corners of the altar, and poured out the rest of it at the base of the altar.

Lev 9:10 Then he burned on the altar the fat, the kidneys, and the best part of the liver, just as the LORD had commanded Moses.

Lev 9:11 But he burned the meat and the skin outside the camp.

Lev 9:12 He killed the animal which was for his own burnt offering. His sons brought him the blood, and he threw it on all four sides of the altar.

Lev 9:13 They handed him the head and the other pieces of the animal, and he burned them on the altar.

Lev 9:14 Then he washed the internal organs and the hind legs and burned them on the altar on top of the rest of the burnt offering.

Lev 9:15 After that, he presented the people's offerings. He took the goat that was to be offered for the people's sins, killed it, and offered it, as he had done with his own sin offering.

Lev 9:16 He also brought the animal for the burnt offering and offered it according to the regulations.

Lev 9:17 He presented the grain offering and took a handful of flour and burned it on the altar. (This was in addition to the daily burnt offering.)

Lev 9:18 He killed the bull and the ram as a fellowship offering for the people. His sons brought him the blood, and he threw it on all four sides of the altar.

Lev 9:19 Aaron put the fat parts of the bull and the ram

Lev 9:20 on top of the breasts of the animals and carried it all to the altar. He burned the fat on the altar

Lev 9:21 and presented the breasts and the right hind legs as the special gift to the LORD for the priests, as Moses had commanded.

Lev 9:22 When Aaron had finished all the sacrifices, he raised his hands over the people and blessed them, and then stepped down.

Lev 9:23 Moses and Aaron went into the Tent of the LORD's presence, and when they came out, they blessed the people, and the dazzling light of the LORD's presence appeared to all the people.

Lev 9:24 Suddenly the LORD sent a fire, and it consumed the burnt offering and the fat parts on the altar. When the people saw it, they all shouted and bowed down with their faces to the ground.

LEVÍTIKUS 9

[1]Toe die week verby was, het Moses vir Aäron, sy seuns en die leiers van Israel laat roep. [2]Hy sê toe vir Aäron: Vat 'n bulkalf en 'n ram, altwee sonder liggaamsgebrek, en offer die kalf as 'n sondeoffer en die ram as 'n brandoffer aan die Here. [3]Sê dan vir die Israeliete hulle moet 'n bokram bring as sondeoffer en 'n bulkalf en 'n lam as brandoffer, almal 'n jaar oud en sonder liggaamsgebrek. [4]Hulle moet ook 'n bul en 'n ram bring as 'n maaltydoffer aan die Here, sowel as 'n graanoffer wat met olie aangemaak is, want die Here wil Hom vandag aan julle openbaar. [5]Hulle het alles wat Moses beveel het, na die voorkant van die tent van ontmoeting toe gebring en die hele gemeente het saamgekom en in die teenwoordigheid van die Here kom staan. [6]Toe sê Moses: Ons sal nou doen wat die Here beveel het. Dan sal die magtige teenwoordigheid van die Here aan julle geopenbaar word. [7]Moses sê toe vir Aäron: Kom nader na die altaar toe en offer die sondeoffer en die brandoffer wat vir jouself bedoel is, en doen versoening vir jouself en jou mense. Bring daarna die offer van die volk en doen versoening vir hulle soos die Here beveel het. [8]Aäron het nader gegaan na die altaar toe en die kalf geslag wat bedoel was as sondeoffer vir homself. [9]Sy seuns het die bloed vir hom na die altaar toe gebring en hy het sy vinger in die bloed gesteek en daarvan aan die horings van die altaar gesmeer. Die res van die bloed het hy teen die fondament van die altaar uitgegooi. [10]Die vet, die niere en die punt van die lewer van die sondeofferdier het hy op die altaar verbrand soos die Here vir Moses beveel het. [11]Die vleis en die vel is egter buite die kamp verbrand. [12]Daarna het hy die ram geslag wat vir homself bedoel was as brandoffer. Sy seuns het die bloed vir hom aangegee, en hy het dit rondom teen die altaar gesprinkel. [13]Hulle het ook die stukke en die kop van die brandofferdier vir hom aangegee, en hy het dit op die altaar aan die brand gesteek. [14]Hy het die binnegoed en die pote gewas en dit bo-op die brandoffer op die altaar verbrand. [15]Daarna het Aäron die offer van die volk na die altaar toe gebring. Hy het die bokram wat as sondeoffer vir die volk bedoel was, gevat, hom geslag en geoffer op dieselfde manier as die vorige sondeoffer. [16]Hy het ook die brandoffer van die volk na die altaar toe gebring en dit volgens die voorskrif geoffer. [17]Toe het hy die graanoffer nadergebring en 'n handvol daarvan op die altaar verbrand. Dit was afgesien van die daaglikse brandoffer. [18]Die bul en die ram wat bedoel was as maaltydoffers van die volk, het hy ook geslag. Die seuns van Aäron het die bloed vir hom aangegee en hy het dit rondom teen die altaar gesprinkel. [19]Sy seuns het die vetdele van die bul en die ram, naamlik die vetstert, die niervet, die niere en die punt van die lewer, [20]op die borsstukke gepak en dit alles vir Aäron aangegee. Hy het die vetdele op die altaar verbrand, [21]maar die borsstukke en die regterboud het hy as beweegoffer aan die Here aangebied soos Moses hom beveel het. [22]Nadat Aäron die sondeoffer, die brandoffer en die maaltydoffers gebring het, het hy sy hande na die volk toe uitgesteek en hulle geseën. Hy het van die altaar afgeklim [23]en saam met Moses in die tent van ontmoeting ingegaan. Toe hulle uitkom, het hulle die volk geseën. Die magtige teenwoordigheid van die Here is toe aan die hele volk geopenbaar: [24]vuur wat van die Here gekom het, het die oorblyfsels van die brandoffer en die vetstukke op die altaar weggebrand. Toe die volk dit sien, was daar uitroepe van blydskap en het almal op hulle knieë geval.

The Death of Nadab and Abihu

Lev 10:1 Aaron's sons, Nadab and Abihu, each took his fire pan, put live coals in it, added incense, and presented it to the LORD. But this fire was not holy, because the LORD had not commanded them to present it.

Lev 10:2 Suddenly the LORD sent fire, and it burned them to death there in the presence of the LORD.

Lev 10:3 Then Moses said to Aaron, "This is what the LORD was speaking about when he said, 'All who serve me must respect my holiness; I will reveal my glory to my people.' " But Aaron remained silent.

Lev 10:4 Moses called Mishael and Elzaphan, the sons of Uzziel, Aaron's uncle, and said to them, "Come here and carry your cousins' bodies away from the sacred Tent and put them outside the camp."

Lev 10:5 So they came and took hold of the clothing on the corpses and carried them outside the camp, just as Moses had commanded.

Lev 10:6 Then Moses said to Aaron and to his sons Eleazar and Ithamar, "Do not leave your hair uncombed or tear your clothes to show that you are in mourning. If you do, you will die, and the LORD will be angry with the whole community. But all other Israelites are allowed to mourn this death caused by the fire which the LORD sent.

Lev 10:7 Do not leave the entrance of the Tent or you will die, because you have been consecrated by the anointing oil of the LORD." So they did as Moses said.

Lev 10:8 The LORD said to Aaron,

Lev 10:9 "You and your sons are not to enter the Tent of my presence after drinking wine or beer; if you do, you will die. This is a law to be kept by all your descendants.

Lev 10:10 You must distinguish between what belongs to God and what is for general use, between what is ritually clean and what is unclean.

Lev 10:11 You must teach the people of Israel all the laws which I have given to you through Moses."

Lev 10:12 Moses said to Aaron and his two remaining sons, Eleazar and Ithamar, "Take the grain offering that is left over from the food offered to the LORD, make unleavened bread with it and eat it beside the altar, because this offering is very holy.

Lev 10:13 Eat it in a holy place; it is the part that belongs to you and your sons from the food offered to the LORD. That is what the LORD commanded me.

Lev 10:14 But you and your families may eat the breast and the hind leg that are presented as the special gift and the special contribution to the LORD for the priests. You may eat them in any ritually clean place. These offerings have been given to you and your children as the part that belongs to you from the fellowship offerings of the people of Israel.

Lev 10:15 They shall bring the hind leg and the breast at the time the fat is presented as a food offering to the LORD. These parts belong to you and your children forever, just as the LORD commanded."

Lev 10:16 Moses asked about the goat for the sin offering and learned that it had already been burned. This made him angry at Eleazar and Ithamar, and he demanded, Lev 10:17 "Why didn't you eat the sin offering in a sacred place? It is very holy, and the LORD has given it to you in order to take away the sin of the community.

Lev 10:18 Since its blood was not brought into the sacred Tent, you should have eaten the sacrifice there, as I commanded."

Lev 10:19 Aaron answered, "If I had eaten the sin offering today, would the LORD have approved? The people presented their sin offering to the LORD today, and they brought their burnt offering, but still these terrible things have happened to me."

Lev 10:20 When Moses heard this, he was satisfied.

1Nadab en Abihu, seuns van Aäron, het elkeen sy vuurpan gevat en gloeiende kole daarin gesit. Hulle het wierook daaroor gegooi en dit vir die Here aangebied. Dit was egter ongeoorloofde vuur omdat dit teen die bevel van die Here was. 2'n Vuur wat van die Here af gekom het, het hulle verteer, en hulle het gesterf in die teenwoordigheid van die Here. 3Toe sê Moses vir Aäron: Die Here het gesê: Wie 'n offer vir My bring, moet besef dat Ek heilig is; sy ontsag vir My moet vir die hele volk duidelik wees. Aäron was sprakeloos. 4Moses het daarna vir Misael en Elisafan, seuns van Aäron se oom Ussiël, geroep en vir hulle gesê: Gaan nader en vat julle familielede weg voor die heiligdom en dra hulle uit die kamp uit. 5Hulle het toe nader gegaan en die dooies in hulle ampsklere uitgedra na 'n plek buite die kamp soos Moses gesê het. 6Moses het Aäron en sy twee seuns Eleasar en Itamar beveel: Moenie rou deur julle hare onversorg te laat en julle klere te skeur nie. As julle rou, sal julle sterwe, en sal die Here toornig wees op die hele gemeente. Maar julle volksgenote, al die Israeliete, mag rou oor hierdie vuurdood wat van die Here gekom het. 7Julle mag ook glad nie van die ingang van die tent van ontmoeting af weggaan nie. As julle dit doen, sal julle sterwe, want die salfolie van die Here het julle aan Hom gewy. Hulle het toe gemaak soos Moses gesê het. 8Die Here het vir Aäron gesê: 9Jy en jou seuns mag geen wyn of bier drink wanneer julle moet gaan diens doen in die tent van ontmoeting nie, want dan sal julle sterwe. Dit is 'n vaste voorskrif, ook vir julle nageslag. 10Daar moet duidelik onderskeid gemaak word tussen wat gewyd is en wat nie gewyd is nie, tussen wat onrein is en wat rein is. 11Julle moet al die voorskrifte wat die Here deur Moses aan julle gegee het, vir die Israeliete leer. 12Moses het vir Aäron en sy twee seuns wat nog gelewe het, Eleasar en Itamar, gesê: Vat die graanoffer wat oorgebly het nadat die vuuroffer aan die Here gebring is, en eet dit by die altaar. Daar mag nie suurdeeg by kom nie. Omdat dit 'n besondere gewyde gawe is, 13moet julle dit op 'n gewyde plek eet. Volgens die bevel wat ek ontvang het, is dit julle deel uit die vuuroffer wat aan die Here gebring word. 14Maar die borsstuk van die beweegoffer en die boud uit die offergawe mag julle en julle familie op enige rein plek eet, want dit is die deel wat julle en julle familie toekom uit die maaltydoffers van die Israeliete. 15Die Israeliete moet die boud uit die offergawe en die borsstuk wat as beweegoffer vir die Here aangebied is, bring wanneer hulle die vetdele bring wat vir die vuuroffer bedoel is. Hulle moet dit as beweegoffers aan die Here aanbied. Daarna kry julle dit. Die Here het beveel dat dit 'n vaste voorskrif moet wees. 16Toe Moses op 'n keer navraag doen oor die sondeofferbok en hy uitvind dat dit verbrand is, was hy kwaad vir Eleasar en Itamar, die seuns van Aäron wat nog gelewe het. Hy vra toe: 17Waarom het julle nie die sondeoffer op 'n gewyde plek geëet nie? Dit is 'n besondere gewyde gawe en die Here het dit aan julle gegee om die sonde van die gemeente weg te neem; dit is bedoel om vir hulle by die Here versoening te doen. 18Omdat die bloed nie in die heiligdom ingeneem is nie, moes julle die sondeoffer in die heiligdom geëet het soos ek julle beveel het. 19Aäron antwoord toe daarop: Die mense hét vandag hulle sondeoffer en brandoffer aan die Here gebring, en tog het hierdie ramp my getref! Sou dit dan enige verskil gemaak het as ek die sondeoffer geëet het? 20Toe Moses dit hoor, was hy tevrede.

Leviticus 11

Clean and Unclean Animals

Lev 11:1 The LORD gave Moses and Aaron the following regulations

Lev 11:2 for the people of Israel. You may eat any land animal

Lev 11:3 that has divided hoofs and that also chews the cud,

Lev 11:4 (4-6) but you must not eat camels, rock badgers, or rabbits. These must be considered unclean; they chew the cud, but do not have divided hoofs.

Lev 11:7 Do not eat pigs. They must be considered unclean; they have divided hoofs, but do not chew the cud.

Lev 11:8 Do not eat these animals or even touch their dead bodies; they are unclean.

Lev 11:9 You may eat any kind of fish that has fins and scales,

Lev 11:10 but anything living in the water that does not have fins and scales must not be eaten.

Lev 11:11 Such creatures must be considered unclean. You must not eat them or even touch their dead bodies.

Lev 11:12 You must not eat anything that lives in the water and does not have fins and scales.

Lev 11:13 (13-19) You must not eat any of the following birds: eagles, owls, hawks, falcons; buzzards, vultures, crows; ostriches; seagulls, storks, herons, pelicans, cormorants; hoopoes; or bats.

Lev 11:20 All winged insects are unclean,

Lev 11:21 except those that hop.

Lev 11:22 You may eat locusts, crickets, or grasshoppers.

Lev 11:23 But all other small things that have wings and also crawl must be considered unclean.

Lev 11:24 (24-28) If you touch the dead bodies of the following animals, you will be unclean until evening: all animals with hoofs, unless their hoofs are divided and they chew the cud, and all four-footed animals with paws. If you carry their dead bodies, you must wash your clothes, but you will still be unclean until evening.

Lev 11:29 (29-30) Moles, rats, mice, and lizards must be considered unclean.

Lev 11:31 Whoever touches them or their dead bodies will be unclean until evening.

Lev 11:32 And if their dead bodies fall on anything, it will be unclean. This applies to any article of wood, cloth, leather, or sacking, no matter what it is used for. It shall be dipped in water, but it will remain unclean until evening.

Lev 11:33 And if their bodies fall into a clay pot, everything that is in it shall be unclean, and you must break the pot.

Lev 11:34 Any food which could normally be eaten, but on which water from such a pot has been poured, will be unclean, and anything drinkable in such a pot is unclean.

Lev 11:35 Anything on which the dead bodies fall is unclean; a clay stove or oven shall be broken,

Lev 11:36 but a spring or a cistern remains clean, although anything else that touches their dead bodies is unclean.

Lev 11:37 If one of them falls on seed that is going to be planted, the seed remains clean.

Lev 11:38 But if the seed is soaking in water and one of them falls on it, the seed is unclean.

Lev 11:39 If any animal that may be eaten dies, anyone who touches it will be unclean until evening.

Lev 11:40 And if any of you eat any part of the animal, you must wash your clothes, but you will still be unclean until evening; any of you who carry the dead body must wash your clothes, but you will still be unclean until evening.

Lev 11:41 You must not eat any of the small animals that move on the ground,

Lev 11:42 whether they crawl, or walk on four legs, or have many legs.

Lev 11:43 Do not make yourselves unclean by eating any of these.

Lev 11:44 I am the LORD your God, and you must keep yourselves holy, because I am holy.

Lev 11:45 I am the LORD who brought you out of Egypt so that I could be your God. You must be holy, because I am holy.

Lev 11:46 This, then, is the law about animals and birds, about everything that lives in the water, and everything that moves on the ground.

Lev 11:47 You must be careful to distinguish between what is ritually clean and unclean, between animals that may be eaten and those that may not.

LEVÍTIKUS 11

1Die Here het vir Moses en Aäron gesê: 2Sê vir die Israeliete: Van al die diere wat op land hou, mag julle 3net dié eet wat volledig gesplete kloue het en herkou. 4Maar dié wat net herkou of net gesplete kloue het, mag julle nie eet nie. Dit geld vir die kameel, want, alhoewel die dier herkou, het hy nie gesplete kloue nie. Julle moet hom dus as onrein beskou. 5Dit geld ook vir die dassie 6en vir die haas. 7'n Vark het weer volledig gesplete kloue, maar hy herkou nie. Hy is vir julle dus 'n onrein dier. 8Julle mag nie die vleis van hierdie diere eet of selfs aan hulle karkasse raak nie: hulle is vir julle onrein. 9In die geval van waterdiere mag julle alles eet wat vinne en skubbe het. Dit geld vir soutwaterdiere en varswaterdiere. 10Maar enige ding wat in die water lewe en nie vinne en skubbe het nie, is vir julle verbode. 11Hulle is vir julle verbode en julle mag glad nie van dié diere eet of selfs raak aan een wat dood is nie. 12Alle waterdiere wat nie vinne en skubbe het nie, is dus vir julle verbode. 13In die geval van diere met vlerke is die volgende soorte verbode en hulle mag dus nie geëet word nie: arende, lammervangers en visarende; 14aasvoëls en valksoorte; 15al die kraaisoorte; 16volstruise, nagvalke, seemeeue en alle soorte roofvoëls; 17uile, visvangers, ibisse, 18flaminke, pelikane, swane, 19ooievaars, al die reiersoorte, hoep-hoepe en vlermuise. 20Alle insekte wat vlerke het en op pote loop, is vir julle verbode. 21Julle mag egter dié eet waarvan die pote so is dat hulle kan spring. 22Dit sluit in alle soorte sprinkane en krieke. 23Alle ander insekte wat vlerke het en op pote loop, is vir julle verbode. 24Sommige diere se karkasse maak iemand wat net daaraan raak, onrein vir die res van die dag. 25As iemand die karkas van so 'n dier gedra het, moet hy sy klere was, maar hy is vir die res van die dag onrein. 26Dit is alle mak diere waarvan die pote nie volledig gesplete is nie en wat nie ook herkou nie. Dit is onrein diere, en elkeen wat aan die karkas van so 'n dier raak, is onrein. 27Verder is alle viervoetige wilde diere wat nie hoewe het nie, onrein. As iemand aan die karkas van so 'n dier raak, is hy onrein vir die res van die dag. 28As hy so 'n karkas gedra het, moet hy sy klere was, maar hy is nog vir die res van die dag onrein. 29Die volgende diertjies wat volop voorkom in die veld, moet julle as onrein beskou: molle, muise en al die akkedissoorte 30soos geitjies, sandakkedisse, boomakkedisse, gewone akkedisse en ook verkleurmannetjies. 31Dit is onrein diertjies en elkeen wat aan so 'n diertjie raak as hy dood is, is die res van die dag onrein. 32Enigiets waarop so 'n dooie diertjie val, is ook onrein. Dit geld vir enige gebruiksartikel van hout, lap, leer of growwe linne, enige gewone gebruiksartikel. Dit moet in water gedruk word, maar is nog vir die res van die dag onrein. Eers daarna is dit rein. 33As een van die diertjies in 'n kleipot val, is alles wat in die pot is, onrein. Die pot moet dan gebreek word, 34want enige kos waarby water uit so 'n pot gegooi is, is onrein, en enige vloeistof uit so 'n pot is onrein. 35Enigiets waarop een so 'n dooie diertjie val, is onrein. 'n Kleioond of kleikookplek moet in so 'n geval afgebreek word; dit het onrein geword, en julle moet dit as onrein beskou. 36'n Fontein of opgaardam is wel nie onrein as so 'n dooie diertjie daarin val nie, maar iemand wat aan die diertjie raak, is onrein. 37As so 'n dooie diertjie op saad val wat gesaai gaan word, word die saad nie onrein nie. 38As dit egter gebeur wanneer die saad in water lê om te week, is dit onrein. 39As enige dier wat julle wel mag eet, vrek, is iemand wat aan die karkas raak, die res van die dag onrein. 40As iemand van die dooie dier se vleis eet of die karkas dra, moet hy sy klere was, maar self is hy die res van die dag onrein. 41Alle klein diertjies wat volop voorkom in die veld, is vir julle verbode: 42of hulle nou seil of op vier pote loop of baie pote het, julle mag nie een van hulle eet nie, want dit is verbode. 43Julle moet julle nie besoedel met een van dié diere dat julle onrein word nie. 44Ek is die Here julle God. Wy julle aan my diens en wees heilig, want Ek is heilig. Julle mag julle nie verontreinig met enige van die kleiner diertjies wat volop voorkom in die veld nie. 45Ek is die Here wat julle uit Egipte laat trek het sodat Ek julle God kan wees. Omdat Ek heilig is, moet julle ook heilig wees. 46Dit is dan die reëling wat betrekking het op diere en voëls en op alles wat in water lewe en wat op die grond beweeg. 47Julle moet noukeurig onderskei tussen rein en onrein, tussen diere wat geëet mag word en diere wat nie geëet mag word nie.

Leviticus 12

Purification After Childbirth

Lev 12:1 The LORD gave Moses the following regulations

Lev 12:2 for the people of Israel. For seven days after a woman gives birth to a son, she is ritually unclean, as she is during her monthly period.

Lev 12:3 On the eighth day, the child shall be circumcised.

Lev 12:4 Then it will be thirty-three more days until she is ritually clean from her loss of blood; she must not touch anything that is holy or enter the sacred Tent until the time of her purification is completed.

Lev 12:5 For fourteen days after a woman gives birth to a daughter, she is ritually unclean, as she is during her monthly period. Then it will be sixty-six more days until she is ritually clean from her loss of blood.

Lev 12:6 When the time of her purification is completed, whether for a son or daughter, she shall bring to the priest at the entrance of the Tent of the LORD's presence a one-year-old lamb for a burnt offering and a pigeon or a dove for a sin offering.

Lev 12:7 The priest shall present her offering to the LORD and perform the ritual to take away her impurity, and she will be ritually clean. This, then, is what a woman must do after giving birth.

Lev 12:8 If the woman cannot afford a lamb, she shall bring two doves or two pigeons, one for a burnt offering and the other for a sin offering, and the priest shall perform the ritual to take away her impurity, and she will be ritually clean.

LEVÍTIKUS 12

1Die Here het vir Moses gesê: 2Sê vir die Israeliete: Wanneer 'n vrou 'n seun in die wêreld bring, is sy onrein, soos wanneer sy menstrueer, 'n week lank. 3Op die agste dag moet die seuntjie besny word. 4Daarna moet sy nog drie en dertig dae wag om seker te wees dat die bloedvloeiing opklaar. Voordat dié tydperk om is, mag sy aan niks raak wat gewyd is nie en ook nie in die heiligdom ingaan nie. 5As sy 'n dogter in die wêreld bring, is sy onrein soos wanneer sy menstrueer, maar twee weke lank. Dan moet sy nog ses en sestig dae wag om seker te wees dat daar geen bloedvloeiing meer is nie. 6As sy in die geval van 'n seun of dogter die bepaalde aantal dae gewag het, moet sy 'n jaaroud lam as brandoffer en 'n tortelduif of enige ander duif as sondeoffer neem na die priester toe wat diens doen by die ingang van die tent van ontmoeting. 7Hy moet dit dan aan die Here offer en vir haar versoening doen. Dan sal sy rein wees van die bloedvloeiing wat sy gehad het. Hierdie wet is van toepassing op enige vrou wat 'n kind in die wêreld bring, of dit nou 'n seun is of 'n dogter. 8As sy nie 'n lam kan bekostig nie, moet sy twee tortelduiwe of twee ander duiwe bring, die een as brandoffer en die ander as sondeoffer, sodat die priester vir haar versoening kan doen en sy rein kan wees.

Leviticus 13

Laws About Leprosy

Lev 13:1 The LORD gave Moses and Aaron these regulations.

Lev 13:2 If any of you have a sore on your skin or a boil or an inflammation which could develop into a dreaded skin disease, you shall be brought to the Aaronite priest.

Lev 13:3 The priest shall examine the sore, and if the hairs in it have turned white and the sore appears to be deeper than the surrounding skin, it is a dreaded skin disease, and the priest shall pronounce you unclean.

Lev 13:4 But if the sore is white and does not appear to be deeper than the skin around it and the hairs have not turned white, the priest shall isolate you for seven days.

Lev 13:5 The priest shall examine you again on the seventh day, and if in his opinion the sore looks the same and has not spread, he shall isolate you for another seven days.

Lev 13:6 The priest shall examine you again on the seventh day, and if the sore has faded and has not spread, he shall pronounce you ritually clean; it is only a sore. You shall wash your clothes and be ritually clean.

Lev 13:7 But if the sore spreads after the priest has examined you and pronounced you clean, you must appear before the priest again.

Lev 13:8 The priest will examine you again, and if it has spread, he shall pronounce you unclean; it is a dreaded skin disease.

Lev 13:9 If any of you have a dreaded skin disease, you shall be brought to the priest,

Lev 13:10 who will examine you. If there is a white sore on your skin which turns the hairs white and is full of pus,

Lev 13:11 it is a chronic skin disease. The priest shall pronounce you unclean; there is no need to isolate you, because you are obviously unclean.

Lev 13:12 If the skin disease spreads and covers you from head to foot,

Lev 13:13 the priest shall examine you again. If he finds that it actually has covered the whole body, he shall pronounce you ritually clean. If your whole skin has turned white, you are ritually clean.

Lev 13:14 But from the moment an open sore appears, you are unclean.

Lev 13:15 The priest shall examine you again, and if he sees an open sore, he shall pronounce you unclean. An open sore means a dreaded skin disease, and you are unclean.

Lev 13:16 But when the sore heals and becomes white again, you shall go to the priest,

Lev 13:17 who will examine you again. If the sore has turned white, you are ritually clean, and the priest shall pronounce you clean.

Lev 13:18 If any of you have a boil that has healed

Lev 13:19 and if afterward a white swelling or a reddish-white spot appears where the boil was, you shall go to the priest.

Lev 13:20 The priest shall examine you, and if the spot seems to be deeper than the surrounding skin and the hairs in it have turned white, he shall pronounce you unclean. It is a dreaded skin disease that has started in the boil.

Lev 13:21 But if the priest examines it and finds that the hairs in it have not turned white and that it is not deeper than the surrounding skin, but is light in color, the priest shall isolate you for seven days.

Lev 13:22 If the spot spreads, the priest shall pronounce you unclean; you are diseased.

Lev 13:23 But if it remains unchanged and does not spread, it is only the scar left from the boil, and the priest shall pronounce you ritually clean.

Lev 13:24 In case any of you have been burned, if the raw flesh becomes white or reddish-white,

Lev 13:25 the priest shall examine you. If the hairs in the spot have turned white and it appears deeper than the surrounding skin, it is a dreaded skin disease that has started in the burn, and the priest shall pronounce you unclean.

Lev 13:26 But if the hairs in it have not turned white and it is not deeper than the surrounding skin, but is light in color, the priest shall isolate you for seven days.

Lev 13:27 The priest shall examine you again on the seventh day, and if it is spreading, it is a dreaded skin disease, and the priest shall pronounce you unclean.

Lev 13:28 But if the spot remains unchanged and does not spread and is light in color, it is not a dreaded skin disease. The priest shall pronounce you ritually clean, because it is only a scar from the burn.

Lev 13:29 When any of you, male or female, have a sore on your head or chin,

Lev 13:30 the priest shall examine it. If it seems to be deeper than the surrounding skin and the hairs in it are yellowish and thin, it is a dreaded skin disease, and he shall pronounce you unclean.

Lev 13:31 If, when the priest examines you, the sore does not appear to be deeper than the surrounding skin, but there are still no healthy hairs in it, he shall isolate you for seven days.

Lev 13:32 The priest shall examine the sore again on the seventh day, and if it has not spread and there are no yellowish hairs in it and it does not seem to be deeper than the surrounding skin,

Lev 13:33 you shall shave the head except the area around the sore. The priest shall then isolate you for another seven days.

Lev 13:34 On the seventh day the priest shall again examine the sore, and if it has not spread and does not seem to be deeper than the surrounding skin, he shall pronounce you ritually clean. You shall wash your clothes, and you will be clean.

Lev 13:35 But if the sore spreads after you have been pronounced clean, Lev 13:36 the priest shall examine you again. If the sore has spread, he need not look for yellowish hairs; you are obviously unclean.

Lev 13:37 But if in the priest's opinion the sore has not spread and healthy hairs are growing in it, the sore has healed, and the priest shall pronounce you ritually clean.

Lev 13:38 When any of you, male or female, have white spots on the skin,

Lev 13:39 the priest shall examine you. If the spots are dull white, it is only a blemish that has broken out on the skin; you are ritually clean.

Lev 13:40 (40-41) If you lose your hair at the back or the front of your head, this does not make you unclean.

Lev 13:42 But if a reddish-white sore appears on the bald spot, it is a dreaded skin disease.

Lev 13:43 The priest shall examine you, and if there is a reddish-white sore,

Lev 13:44 the priest shall pronounce you unclean, because of the dreaded skin disease on your head.

Lev 13:45 If you have a dreaded skin disease, you must wear torn clothes, leave your hair uncombed, cover the lower part of your face, and call out, "Unclean, unclean!"

Lev 13:46 You remain unclean as long as you have the disease, and you must live outside the camp, away from others.

Lev 13:47 When there is mildew on clothing, whether wool or linen,

Lev 13:48 or on any piece of linen or wool cloth or on leather or anything made of leather,

Lev 13:49 if it is greenish or reddish, it is a spreading mildew and must be shown to the priest.

Lev 13:50 The priest shall examine it and put the object away for seven days.

Lev 13:51 He shall examine it again on the seventh day, and if the mildew has spread, the object is unclean.

Lev 13:52 The priest shall burn it, because it is a spreading mildew which must be destroyed by fire.

Lev 13:53 But if, when he examines it, the priest finds that the mildew has not spread on the object,

Lev 13:54 he shall order that it be washed and put away for another seven days.

Lev 13:55 Then he shall examine it, and if the mildew has not changed color, even though it has not spread, it is still unclean; you must burn the object, whether the rot is on the front or the back.

Lev 13:56 But if, when the priest examines it again, the mildew has faded, he shall tear it out of the clothing or leather.

Lev 13:57 Then, if the mildew reappears, it is spreading again, and the owner shall burn the object.

Lev 13:58 If he washes the object and the spot disappears, he shall wash it again, and it will be ritually clean.

Lev 13:59 This, then, is the law about mildew on clothing, whether it is wool or linen, or on linen or wool cloth or on anything made of leather; this is how the decision is made as to whether it is ritually clean or unclean.

1Die Here het vir Moses en Aäron gesê: 2Wanneer iemand êrens aan sy lyf 'n swelsel of 'n uitslag of 'n seer het wat dalk kan ontwikkel in 'n velsiekte wat hom onrein kan maak, moet hy na Aäron of een van die Äaronitiese priesters toe gebring word. 3Die priester moet dan die seerplek ondersoek. As die hare daarop wit geword het en dit lyk of die ontsteking dieper is as die vel, is dit 'n velsiekte waardeur die persoon onrein gemaak word. Die priester wat dit ondersoek het, moet dan die persoon onrein verklaar. 4Maar as die seer 'n ligte kleur het en dit lyk of dit nie dieper as die vel is nie en die hare daarop het nie wit geword nie, moet die priester die persoon 'n week lank afsonder. 5Op die sewende dag moet die priester die persoon weer ondersoek. As daar na die priester se mening geen verandering ingetree het nie en die ontsteking het nie versprei in die vel nie, moet hy die persoon nog 'n week afsonder. 6Op die sewende dag moet die priester die persoon dan weer ondersoek. As die ontsteking opgeklaar het en nie verder versprei het in die vel nie, moet die priester die persoon rein verklaar. Dit is dan 'n onskadelike uitslag. Nadat hy sy klere gewas het, sal hy rein wees. 7As die uitslag egter verder versprei nadat die priester hom ondersoek en rein verklaar het, moet hy weer na die priester toe gaan vir 'n ondersoek. 8As die priester merk dat die uitslag versprei het, moet hy die persoon onrein verklaar. Dit is dan 'n velsiekte waardeur hy onrein gemaak word. 9Iemand wat vermoedelik 'n velsiekte het wat hom onrein kan maak, moet na die priester toe gebring word. 10Die priester moet hom dan ondersoek. Al is daar op die vel net 'n enkele wit seerplek wat die hare laat wit word en wat oop en rou is, 11het die persoon alreeds 'n velsiekte wat hom onrein maak. Die priester moet die persoon onrein verklaar. Die priester hoef die persoon nie vir 'n tyd af te sonder nie, want hy is klaar onrein. 12Maar as iemand 'n velsiekte het wat so versprei het dat dit vir die priester lyk of dit die hele lyf bedek, 13moet die priester hom noukeurig ondersoek. Al is die velsiekte oor sy hele lyf versprei, maar daar is geen teken van ontsteking nie, is hy rein. 14Maar wanneer daar êrens aan hom 'n rou seer verskyn, is hy onrein. 15Wanneer die priester by 'n ondersoek 'n rou seer ontdek, moet hy die persoon onrein verklaar. 'n Rou seer beteken onreinheid, 'n velsiekte waardeur die persoon onrein gemaak word. 16As die rou seer egter genees en 'n wit roof vorm, moet hy weer na die priester toe gaan. 17Die priester moet dit ondersoek. As die seerplek inderdaad 'n wit roof gevorm het, moet die priester die persoon rein verklaar. Hy is rein. 18As iemand aan sy lyf 'n verswering gehad het wat genees het, 19en waar die verswering was, kom daar 'n wit swelsel of 'n rooierige seer, moet dit aan die

priester gewys word. [20]Die priester moet dit ondersoek. As dit lyk of die kwaad onder die vel is en die hare daarop het wit geword, moet die priester die persoon onrein verklaar. Deur die verswering het daar 'n velsiekte ontstaan wat hom onrein maak. [21]Maar as die priester die plek ondersoek en sien dat die hare daarop nie wit geword het nie, dat die kwaad nie onder die vel is nie en dat die ontsteking opgeklaar het, moet die priester die persoon 'n week lank afsonder. [22]As die kwaad dan verder versprei in die vel, moet die priester die persoon onrein verklaar. Hy het 'n seerplek wat hom onrein maak. [23]Maar as die plek onverander bly en die ontsteking het nie versprei nie, is dit maar net die litteken van die verswering. Die priester kan hom dan rein verklaar. [24]Wanneer iemand 'n brandwond opgedoen het en die rou wond vorm 'n rooierige of 'n wit seer, [25]moet die priester die plek ondersoek. As die hare op die seer wit geword het en die seer lyk dieper as die vel, het deur die brandwond 'n velsiekte ontstaan waardeur die persoon onrein gemaak word. Die priester moet die persoon onrein verklaar. Hy het 'n velsiekte wat hom onrein maak. [26]As die priester by sy ondersoek egter vind dat die hare op die seer nie wit geword het nie, dat die seer nie dieper is as die vel nie en dat die ontsteking opgeklaar het, moet die priester die persoon 'n week lank afsonder. [27]Op die sewende dag moet die priester die persoon weer ondersoek. As die kwaad verder versprei het in die vel, moet die priester die persoon onrein verklaar. Dit is 'n velsiekte wat hom onrein maak. [28]Maar as die plek onverander bly en die ontsteking het nie in die vel versprei nie maar opgeklaar, is dit die swelsel van die brandwond. Die priester moet hom dan rein verklaar, want dit is maar net die merk van die brandwond. [29]Wanneer daar 'n seerplek is aan die kop van 'n man of 'n vrou of in die baard van 'n man, [30]moet die priester dit ondersoek. As dit lyk of die kwaad dieper is as die vel en as die hare daarop geel en donserig is, moet die priester die persoon onrein verklaar. Dit is 'n skurfsiekte, 'n velsiekte aan die kop of gesig, waardeur die persoon onrein gemaak word. [31]As die priester egter sien dat die skurfsiekte nie dieper is as die vel nie, maar dat die hare daarop tog nie 'n gesonde kleur het nie, moet hy die persoon met die skurfsiekte 'n week lank afsonder. [32]Op die sewende dag moet die priester weer die seerplek ondersoek. As die skurfsiekte nie versprei het nie, die hare daarop nie geel is nie en dit nie dieper lyk as die vel nie, [33]moet al die hare afgeskeer word behalwe dié waar die skurfsiekte is. Daarna moet die priester die persoon nog 'n week afsonder. [34]Op die sewende dag moet die priester die skurfsiekte weer ondersoek. As dit nie versprei het in die vel nie en dit lyk nie dieper as die vel nie, moet die priester die persoon rein verklaar. Nadat hy sy klere gewas het, sal hy rein wees. [35]As daar egter enige verspreiding van die skurfsiekte voorkom nadat die persoon rein verklaar is,

36moet die priester hom weer ondersoek. As dit duidelik is dat die skurfsiekte versprei het op die vel, hoef die priester nie eens te kyk of daar geel hare is nie. Die persoon is onrein. 37As die priester later sien dat die skurfsiekte nie versprei het nie en dat daar gesonde hare op groei, is dit 'n teken dat die plek genees het en dat die persoon rein is. Die priester moet hom dan ook rein verklaar. 38As 'n man of 'n vrou êrens aan die lyf wit vlekke het, 39moet die priester dit ondersoek. As die vlekke op die vel bleekwit vertoon, is dit gewone velverwitting waaraan die persoon ly. Hy is rein. 40Iemand wie se hare uitval sodat sy kop kaal word, is nie daarvan onrein nie. 41Ook wanneer net die hare op sy voorkop uitval, sodat sy kop daar kaal word, is hy nie onrein nie. 42As daar egter 'n rooierige ontsteekte plek verskyn waar sy kop kaal raak, is dit 'n teken dat hy aan sy kopvel 'n velsiekte het wat hom dalk onrein maak. 43Die priester moet die persoon dan ondersoek. As die simptome dieselfde is as dié van 'n velsiekte aan die lyf, wat 'n mens onrein maak, naamlik 'n rooierige swelsel, 44het die man inderdaad so 'n velsiekte. Hy is onrein en die priester moet nie huiwer om die man onrein te verklaar nie. Die kwaad is in sy kopvel. 45Iemand wat 'n velsiekte het wat hom onrein maak, moet geskeurde klere dra en sy hare onversorg laat. Hy moet ook die onderste deel van sy gesig bedek en uitroep: Onrein! Onrein!' 46Hy bly onrein solank hy die siekte het. Hy moet dan ook in afsondering lewe en buite die kampplek bly. 47As daar 'n kol skimmel is op 'n kledingstuk, 48of op garing of materiaal van linne of wol, of op vel of enige velartikel, 49en die skimmel het 'n groenerige of rooierige kleur, kan dit skadelike skimmel wees, en moet dit aan die priester gewys word. 50Die priester moet die kol ondersoek en die artikel met die skimmel 'n week lank eenkant sit. 51Op die sewende dag moet hy dit weer ondersoek. As die kol op die kledingstuk of garing of materiaal of velartikel groter geword het, is dit skadelike skimmel. Dit is onrein. 52Die ding waarop die kol skadelike skimmel is, die wol, linne of vel, moet sonder meer in die vuur gegooi en verbrand word. 53Maar as die priester sien dat die kol nie groter geword het nie, 54moet hy beveel dat die artikel met die skimmel gewas word. Daarna moet hy dit nog 'n week eenkant sit. 55As die priester dan, nadat dit so behandel is, sien dat die kleur van die kol nie verander het nie, is dit onrein, ook al het die kol nie groter geword nie. Dit moet verbrand word. Dit maak nie saak of die bederfde plek aan die voor- of aan die agterkant is nie. 56As die priester egter sien dat die kol dowwer van kleur is 'n week nadat die artikel gewas is, moet hy die kol uitskeur uit die kledingstuk, die vel, die garing of die materiaal. 57As daar dan weer 'n kol verskyn, is dit 'n teken dat die skimmel nog daar is. So 'n artikel moet verbrand word. 58'n Kledingstuk, garing, materiaal of 'n velartikel waarvan die skimmel verdwyn het nadat dit gewas is, moet

'n tweede keer gewas word, dan is dit rein. [59]Die voorafgaande is die voorskrifte waarvolgens bepaal moet word of klere, garing en materiaal van wol of linne, en velartikels rein of onrein is wanneer daar skimmel op is.

Leviticus 14

Laws for Cleansing Lepers

Lev 14:1 The LORD gave Moses

Lev 14:2 the following regulations about the ritual purification of those of you cured of a dreaded skin disease. On the day you are to be pronounced clean, you shall be brought to the priest,

Lev 14:3 and the priest shall take you outside the camp and examine you. If the disease is healed,

Lev 14:4 the priest shall order that two ritually clean birds be brought, along with a piece of cedar wood, a red cord, and a sprig of hyssop.

Lev 14:5 Then the priest shall order that one of the birds be killed over a clay bowl containing fresh spring water.

Lev 14:6 He shall take the other bird and dip it, together with the cedar wood, the red cord, and the hyssop, in the blood of the bird that was killed.

Lev 14:7 He shall sprinkle the blood seven times on the one of you who is to be purified from your skin disease, and then he shall pronounce you clean. He shall let the live bird fly away over the open fields.

Lev 14:8 You shall wash your clothes, shave off all your hair, and take a bath; you will then be ritually clean. You may enter the camp, but you must live outside your tent for seven days.

Lev 14:9 On the seventh day you shall again shave your head, your beard, your eyebrows, and all the rest of the hair on your body; you shall wash your clothes and take a bath, and then you will be ritually clean.

Lev 14:10 On the eighth day you shall bring two male lambs and one female lamb a year old that are without any defects, five pounds of flour mixed with olive oil, and half a pint of olive oil.

Lev 14:11 The priest shall take you and these offerings to the entrance of the Tent of the LORD's presence.

Lev 14:12 Then the priest shall take one of the male lambs and together with the half pint of oil he shall offer it as a repayment offering. He shall present them as a special gift to the LORD for the priest.

Lev 14:13 He shall kill the lamb in the holy place where the animals for the sin offerings and the burnt offerings are killed. He must do this because the repayment offering, like the sin offering, belongs to the priest and is very holy.

Lev 14:14 The priest shall take some of the blood of the lamb and put it on the lobe of the right ear, on the thumb of the right hand, and on the big toe of the right foot of the one of you to be declared ritually clean.

Lev 14:15 The priest shall take some of the olive oil and pour it in the palm of his own left hand,

Lev 14:16 dip a finger of his right hand in it, and sprinkle some of it seven times there in the LORD's presence.

Lev 14:17 He shall take some of the oil that is in the palm of his hand and some of the blood of the lamb and put them on the lobe of the right ear, on the thumb of the right hand, and on the big toe of the right foot of the one of you to be declared ritually clean.

Lev 14:18 He shall put the rest of the oil that is in the palm of his hand on your head. In this way he shall perform the ritual of purification.

Lev 14:19 Then the priest shall offer the sin offering and perform the ritual of purification. After that, he shall kill the animal for the burnt offering Lev 14:20 and offer it with the grain offering on the altar. In this way the priest shall perform the ritual of purification, and you will be ritually clean.

Lev 14:21 If you are poor and cannot afford any more, you shall bring for your purification only one male lamb as your repayment offering, a special gift to the LORD for the priest. You shall bring only two pounds of flour mixed with olive oil for a grain offering and half a pint of olive oil.

Lev 14:22 You shall also bring two doves or two pigeons, one for the sin offering and one for the burnt offering.

Lev 14:23 On the eighth day of your purification you shall bring them to the priest at the entrance of the Tent.

Lev 14:24 The priest shall take the lamb and the olive oil and present them as a special gift to the LORD for the priest.

Lev 14:25 He shall kill the lamb and take some of the blood and put it on the lobe of your right ear, on the thumb of your right hand, and on the big toe of your right foot.

Lev 14:26 The priest shall pour some of the oil into the palm of his own left hand

Lev 14:27 and with a finger of his right hand sprinkle some of it seven times there in the LORD's presence.

Lev 14:28 He shall put some of the oil on the same places he put the blood: on the lobe of your right ear, on the thumb of your right hand, and on the big toe of your right foot.

Lev 14:29 The rest of the oil that is in his palm he shall put on your head and in this way perform the ritual of purification.

Lev 14:30 Then he shall offer one of the doves or pigeons

Lev 14:31 as the sin offering and the other as the burnt offering with the grain offering. In this way the priest shall perform the ritual of purification.

Lev 14:32 This is the law for those who have a dreaded skin disease but who cannot afford the normal offerings required for his purification.

Laws for Cleansing Houses

Lev 14:33 The LORD gave Moses and Aaron

Lev 14:34 (34-35) the following regulations about houses affected by spreading mildew. (These were to apply after the people of Israel entered the land of Canaan, which the LORD was going to give them as their possession.) If any of you find that the LORD has sent mildew on your house, then you must go and tell the priest about it.

Lev 14:36 The priest shall order everything to be moved out of the house before he goes to examine the mildew; otherwise everything in the house will be declared unclean. Then he shall go to the house

Lev 14:37 and examine the mildew. If there are greenish or reddish spots that appear to be eating into the wall,

Lev 14:38 he shall leave the house and lock it up for seven days.

Lev 14:39 On the seventh day he shall return and examine it again. If the mildew has spread,

Lev 14:40 he shall order that the stones on which the mildew is found be removed and thrown into some unclean place outside the city.

Lev 14:41 After that he must have all the interior walls scraped and the plaster dumped in an unclean place outside the city.

Lev 14:42 Then other stones are to be used to replace the stones that were removed, and new plaster will be used to cover the walls.

Lev 14:43 If the mildew breaks out again in the house after the stones have been removed and the house has been scraped and plastered, Lev 14:44 the priest shall go and look. If it has spread, the house is unclean.

Lev 14:45 It must be torn down, and its stones, its wood, and all its plaster must be carried out of the city to an unclean place.

Lev 14:46 Any who enter the house while it is locked up will be unclean until evening.

Lev 14:47 Any who lie down or eat in the house must wash their clothes.

Lev 14:48 If, when the priest comes to look, the mildew has not reappeared after the house has been replastered, he shall pronounce the house ritually clean, because the mildew has been completely removed.

Lev 14:49 To purify the house, he shall take two birds, some cedar wood, a red cord, and a sprig of hyssop.

Lev 14:50 He shall kill one of the birds over a clay bowl containing fresh spring water.

Lev 14:51 Then he shall take the cedar wood, the hyssop, the red cord, and the live bird and shall dip them in the blood of the bird that was killed and in the fresh water. And he shall sprinkle the house seven times.

Lev 14:52 In this way he shall purify the house with the bird's blood, the fresh water, the live bird, the cedar wood, the hyssop, and the red cord.

Lev 14:53 Then he shall let the live bird fly away outside the city over the open fields. In this way he shall perform the ritual of purification for the house, and it will be ritually clean.

Lev 14:54 These are the laws about dreaded skin diseases;

Lev 14:55 (55-56) sores, boils, or inflammations; and about mildew in clothes or houses.

Lev 14:57 These laws determine when something is unclean and when it is clean.

LEVÍTIKUS 14

1Die Here het vir Moses gesê: 2Wanneer iemand gereinig moet word wat gely het aan 'n velsiekte wat hom onrein maak, moet die volgende voorskrif nagekom word. Hy moet na die priester toe gebring word, 3maar buite die kampplek. Die priester moet die persoon daar ondersoek. As hy genees is van die velsiekte, 4moet daar op bevel van die priester twee lewende rein voëls, 'n stukkie sederhout, bloedrooi garing en 'n hisoptakkie gebring word vir die persoon wat gereinig moet word. 5Op bevel van die priester moet die kop van die een voël afgesny word oor 'n erdebakkie waarin vars water is. 6Die priester moet dan die lewende voël vat en hom saam met die stukkie sederhout, die bloedrooi garing en die hisoptakkie dompel in die bloed van die voël waarvan die kop afgesny is oor die bakkie vars water. 7Hy moet die water met die bloed in sewe maal sprinkel oor die persoon wat gereinig moet word van sy siekte en hom dan rein verklaar. Daarna moet hy die lewende voël in die veld loslaat. 8Die persoon wat gereinig word, moet sy klere was, al sy hare afskeer en bad. Dan is hy rein en mag hy in die kampplek ingaan, maar hy moet nog 'n week buite sy tent bly. 9Op die sewende dag moet hy al sy hare afskeer. Hy moet sy hare, sy baard, sy wenkbroue en al sy liggaamshare afskeer. As hy dan sy klere gewas en hom gebad het, is hy rein en mag hy in sy tent ingaan. 10Op die agste dag moet hy twee ramlammers en 'n jaaroud ooilam, almal sonder liggaamsgebrek, 'n graanoffer wat bestaan uit vyf kilogram meel wat met olyfolie aangemaak is, en 'n halwe liter olyfolie na die priester toe bring. 11Die priester wat die reiniging doen, moet dan die persoon wat gereinig word, saam met sy offergawes bring na die ingang van die tent van ontmoeting toe, in die teenwoordigheid van die Here. 12Daarna moet die priester die een ramlam en die halwe liter olie as 'n skuldoffer bring; hy moet dit as 'n beweegoffer vir die Here aanbied. 13Hy moet die lam slag op dieselfde plek waar die sondeoffer en die brandoffer geslag word, op die gewyde plek, want die skuldoffer is net soos die sondeoffer. Dit kom die priester toe, dit is 'n besondere gewyde gawe. 14Die priester moet van die bloed van die skuldofferlam smeer aan die regteroorlel, die regterduim en die regtergroottoon van die persoon wat gereinig word. 15Daarna moet die priester van die olyfolie in die palm van sy eie linkerhand gooi, 16'n vinger van sy regterhand in die olie druk en dit sewe maal sprinkel in die teenwoordigheid van die Here. 17Die priester moet van die olie wat in sy handpalm oorbly, bo-oor die skuldofferbloed smeer wat aan die regteroorlel, die duim en die groottoon van die persoon is. 18Die priester smeer die res van die olie in sy handpalm aan die kop

van die persoon wat gereinig word. So doen die priester versoening by die Here vir die persoon. [19]Daarby moet die priester ook die sondeofferlam offer en so versoening doen vir die persoon wat gereinig word. Hierna mag die persoon die brandofferlam slag, [20]en die priester moet dit saam met die graanoffer op die altaar verbrand. Wanneer die priester so versoening gedoen het vir die persoon, is hy rein. [21]As die persoon egter so arm is dat hy nie gewone offers kan bekostig nie, kan hy 'n ramlam gebruik as skuldoffer. Dit moet as beweegoffer aangebied word om vir hom versoening te doen, saam met 'n graanoffer bestaande uit een en 'n half kilogram meel wat met olyfolie aangemaak is en 'n halwe liter olyfolie. [22]Verder moet hy twee tortelduiwe of twee ander duiwe gebruik, een vir die sondeoffer en een vir die brandoffer. [23]Hy moet dit op die agste dag van sy reiniging vir die priester bring na die ingang van die tent van ontmoeting toe, in die teenwoordigheid van die Here. [24]Die priester moet dan die skuldofferlam en die halwe liter olie as beweegoffer vir die Here aanbied. [25]Daarna moet die priester die skuldofferlam slag en van die bloed smeer aan die regteroorlel, die regterduim en die regtergroottoon van die persoon wat gereinig word. [26]Daarna moet die priester van die olie in die palm van sy eie linkerhand gooi [27]en dit met 'n vinger van sy regterhand sewe maal sprinkel in die teenwoordigheid van die Here. [28]Hy moet ook van die olie in sy handpalm bo-oor die skuldofferbloed smeer wat aan die regteroorlel, die duim en die groottoon van die persoon is wat gereinig word. [29]Die priester smeer die olie wat in sy handpalm oor is, aan die persoon se kop. So doen die priester versoening by die Here vir die persoon. [30]Die priester moet dan een van die twee tortelduiwe of ander duiwe wat die man gebring het, [31]as 'n sondeoffer bring en die ander as 'n brandoffer saam met die graanoffer. So doen die priester versoening by die Here vir die persoon wat gereinig word. [32]Hierdie voorskrif moet geld in die geval van 'n persoon wat 'n velsiekte gehad het wat hom onrein gemaak het en wat nie die gewone reinigingsoffers kan bekostig nie. [33]Die Here het vir Moses en Aäron gesê: [34]Julle gaan intrek in die land Kanaän wat Ek vir julle as besitting gee. As Ek dan swamme laat groei in een van die huise in die land wat julle sal besit, [35]moet die eienaar van die huis vir die priester gaan sê: Dit lyk my daar is 'n swamplaag in my huis.' [36]Die priester moet dan beveel dat die huis ontruim word voordat hy die swamme gaan ondersoek, anders word alles in die huis dalk onrein verklaar. Eers daarna kan hy die huis gaan ondersoek. [37]As die priester sien dat die swamme aan die mure van die huis sit en dat dit groenerige of rooierige holtes vorm wat lyk of dit dieper is as die oppervlak van die muur, [38]moet hy uit die huis uitgaan en toegang tot die huis 'n week lank verbied. [39]Op die sewende dag moet die priester die huis weer ondersoek. As die swamme aan die mure versprei het, 40moet die klippe waaraan die swamme is, uitgebreek word op bevel van die priester en buite die dorp op 'n onrein plek weggegooi word. 41Al die pleister in die huis moet dan afgekrap en ook buite die dorp op 'n onrein plek gegooi word. 42Hulle moet dan ander klippe in die muur inbou en die hele huis oorpleister. 43As daar weer swamme groei nadat die klippe uitgebreek, die pleister afgekrap en die huis oorgepleister is, 44moet die priester weer gaan kyk. As dit inderdaad weer uitgeslaan het, is dit skadelike swamme. Daardie huis is onrein. 45Dit moet afgebreek word en die klippe, houtwerk en klei moet buite die dorp op 'n onrein plek gegooi word. 46Iemand wat in die huis ingaan in die tyd dat toegang verbied is, sal die res van die dag onrein wees 47en as hy in die huis slaap of eet, moet hy ook sy klere was. 48As die priester egter vind dat die swamme nie weer gegroei het nadat die huis oorgepleister is nie, moet hy dit rein verklaar aangesien daar nie meer swamme is nie. 49Om die huis te reinig, moet hy twee voëls, 'n stukkie sederhout, bloedrooi garing en 'n hisoptakkie vat. 50Hy moet die kop van die een voël afsny oor 'n erdebakkie waarin vars water is, 51en dan die stukkie sederhout, die hisoptakkie, die bloedrooi garing en die lewende voël dompel in die vars water met die bloed van die voël waarvan die kop afgesny is. Hy moet die water met die bloed in sewe keer teen die huis sprinkel. 52So moet hy die huis reinig met die bloed van die voël en die vars water en deur middel van die lewende voël, die stukkie sederhout, die hisoptakkie en die bloedrooi garing. 53Daarna moet hy die lewende voël buite die dorp loslaat in die oop veld. So doen die priester versoening vir die huis en word dit rein. 54Die voorafgaande voorskrifte het betrekking op skurfsiekte, 55skimmel aan klere, swamme in 'n huis, 56swelsels, uitslag en sere wat onrein maak. 57So moet vasgestel word wanneer iets rein of onrein is. Dit is die voorskrif in verband met dinge wat onrein maak.

Lev 15:30 The priest shall offer one of them as a sin offering and the other as a burnt offering, and in this way he will perform the ritual of purification for her.

Lev 15:31 The LORD told Moses to warn the people of Israel about their uncleanness, so that they would not defile the Tent of his presence, which was in the middle of the camp. If they did, they would be killed.

Lev 15:32 These are the regulations about a man who has a discharge or an emission of semen,

Lev 15:33 a woman during her monthly period, or a man who has sexual intercourse with a woman who is ritually unclean.

LEVÍTIKUS 15

1Die Here het vir Moses en Aäron gesê: 2Sê vir die Israeliete: Enige abnormale afskeiding uit die geslagsorgaan van 'n man is onrein. 3Hy is self ook onrein solank die afskeiding duur. Of dit nou 'n aanhoudende of 'n periodieke afskeiding is, dit maak hom onrein. 4'n Bed waarop so iemand lê, of enigiets waarop hy sit, word onrein. 5Enigiemand wat aan die bed raak, moet sy klere was en hom bad. Hy is die res van die dag onrein. 6Wanneer iemand op iets sit waarop die man met die afskeiding gesit het, moet so 'n persoon sy klere was en hom bad. Hy is die res van die dag onrein. 7Wanneer iemand raak aan 'n man wat 'n afskeiding het, moet so 'n persoon sy klere was en hom bad. Hy is die res van die dag onrein. 8Wanneer 'n man met 'n afskeiding op 'n rein persoon spoeg, moet die persoon sy klere was en hom bad. Hy is die res van die dag onrein. 9Enige saal waarop die man ry wat die afskeiding het, is onrein, 10en elkeen wat aan iets raak waarop die man gesit het, is die res van die dag onrein. Enigiemand wat iets optel waarop die man gesit het wat die afskeiding het, moet bad en sy klere was. Hy is die res van die dag onrein. 11Enigiemand aan wie 'n man met 'n afskeiding raak sonder dat hy sy hande eers afgespoel het, moet bad en sy klere was. Hy is die res van die dag onrein. 12Alle kleipotte waaraan die man raak wat die afskeiding het, moet gebreek word, maar gebruiksartikels van hout moet afgespoel word. 13As 'n man wat 'n afskeiding het, gesond word, moet hy sewe dae wag voordat hy rein verklaar kan word. Hy moet sy klere was en hom in lopende water bad. Daarna is hy rein. 14Op die agste dag moet hy met twee tortelduiwe of twee ander duiwe na die ingang van die tent van ontmoeting toe gaan en hulle in die teenwoordigheid van die Here vir die priester gee. 15Die priester moet die een vir 'n sondeoffer en die ander vir 'n brandoffer gebruik om vir die man wat die afskeiding gehad het, versoening te doen by die Here. 16As 'n man 'n normale saadafskeiding het, moet hy hom bad. Hy is die res van die dag onrein. 17Enige linne of leer waarop die saad kom, moet ook gewas word en is die res van die dag onrein. 18Wanneer 'n man en 'n vrou geslagtelike omgang gehad het, moet altwee bad. Hulle is die res van die dag onrein. 19Met 'n normale menstruasie is 'n vrou sewe dae onrein. Enigiemand wat aan haar raak, is die res van die dag onrein. 20Enigiets waarop sy lê of sit gedurende die sewe dae, is onrein. 21Enige persoon wat aan haar bed raak of aan iets waarop sy gesit het, moet sy klere was en hom bad. Hy is die res van die dag onrein. 22As iemand aan iets raak wat op haar bed lê of aan iets waarop sy gesit het, is hy ook die res van die dag onrein. 23As 'n man dit sou waag om met haar geslagsgemeenskap te hê, word haar onreinheid op hom oorgedra en is hyself ook sewe dae onrein. Enige bed waarop hy lê, is ook onrein. 24As 'n vrou 'n bloedvloeiing het buite haar menstruasietyd of as die bloedvloeiing tydens menstruasie abnormaal lank aanhou, is sy onrein solank die bloedvloeiing duur. 25Net soos met menstruasie is enige bed waarop sy lê of enigiets waarop sy gedurende dié tyd sit, onrein. 26Elkeen wat daaraan raak, is onrein. Hy moet sy klere was en hom bad en hy is die res van die dag onrein. 27Wanneer die bloedvloeiing ophou, moet sy sewe dae wag voordat sy rein verklaar kan word. 28Op die agste dag moet sy dan twee tortelduiwe of twee ander duiwe na die priester toe bring by die ingang van die tent van ontmoeting. 29Die priester moet die een as 'n sondeoffer en die ander as 'n brandoffer gebruik om vir haar versoening te doen by die Here oor die onreinheid wat deur die vloeiing veroorsaak is. 30Julle moet die Israeliete streng laat hou by hierdie reinheidsvoorskrifte, anders sal hulle dalk my heiligdom wat by hulle is, ontwy. As dit gebeur, sal hulle sterwe. 31Die voorafgaande voorskrifte reël die geval wanneer 'n man 'n afskeiding of saadstorting het wat hom onrein maak, 32en wanneer 'n vrou menstrueer, dit wil sê enige geval van 'n afskeiding uit die geslagsorgaan van 'n man of 'n vrou en ook wanneer 'n man met 'n onrein vrou geslagsgemeenskap het.

Leviticus 16

The Day of Atonement

Lev 16:1 The LORD spoke to Moses after the death of the two sons of Aaron who were killed when they offered unholy fire to the LORD.

Lev 16:2 He said, "Tell your brother Aaron that only at the proper time is he to go behind the curtain into the Most Holy Place, because that is where I appear in a cloud above the lid on the Covenant Box. If he disobeys, he will be killed.

Lev 16:3 He may enter the Most Holy Place only after he has brought a young bull for a sin offering and a ram for a burnt offering."

Lev 16:4 Then the LORD gave the following instructions. Before Aaron goes into the Most Holy Place, he must take a bath and put on the priestly garments: the linen robe and shorts, the belt, and the turban.

Lev 16:5 The community of Israel shall give Aaron two male goats for a sin offering and a ram for a burnt offering.

Lev 16:6 He shall offer a bull as a sacrifice to take away his own sins and those of his family.

Lev 16:7 Then he shall take the two goats to the entrance of the Tent of the LORD's presence.

Lev 16:8 There he shall draw lots, using two stones, one marked "for the LORD" and the other "for Azazel."

Lev 16:9 Aaron shall sacrifice the goat chosen by lot for the LORD and offer it as a sin offering.

Lev 16:10 The goat chosen for Azazel shall be presented alive to the LORD and sent off into the desert to Azazel, in order to take away the sins of the people.

Lev 16:11 When Aaron sacrifices the bull as the sin offering for himself and his family,

Lev 16:12 he shall take a fire pan full of burning coals from the altar and two handfuls of fine incense and bring them into the Most Holy Place.

Lev 16:13 There in the LORD's presence he shall put the incense on the fire, and the smoke of the incense will hide the lid of the Covenant Box so that he will not see it and die.

Lev 16:14 He shall take some of the bull's blood and with his finger sprinkle it on the front of the lid and then sprinkle some of it seven times in front of the Covenant Box.

Lev 16:15 After that, he shall kill the goat for the sin offering for the people, bring its blood into the Most Holy Place, and sprinkle it on the lid and then in front of the Covenant Box, as he did with the bull's blood.

Lev 16:16 In this way he will perform the ritual to purify the Most Holy Place from the uncleanness of the people of Israel and from all their sins. He must do this to the Tent, because it stands in the middle of the camp, which is ritually unclean.

Lev 16:17 From the time Aaron enters the Most Holy Place to perform the ritual of purification until he comes out, there must be no one in the Tent. When he has performed the ritual for himself, his family, and the whole community,

Lev 16:18 he must then go out to the altar for burnt offerings and purify it. He must take some of the bull's blood and some of the goat's blood and put it all over the projections at the corners of the altar.

Lev 16:19 With his finger he must sprinkle some of the blood on the altar seven times. In this way he is to purify it from the sins of the people of Israel and make it holy.

Lev 16:20 When Aaron has finished performing the ritual to purify the Most Holy Place, the rest of the Tent of the LORD's presence, and the altar, he shall present to the LORD the live goat chosen for Azazel.

Lev 16:21 He shall put both of his hands on the goat's head and confess over it all the evils, sins, and rebellions of the people of Israel, and so transfer them to the goat's head. Then the goat is to be driven off into the desert by someone appointed to do it.

Lev 16:22 The goat will carry all their sins away with him into some uninhabited land.

Lev 16:23 Then Aaron shall go into the Tent, take off the priestly garments that he had put on before entering the Most Holy Place, and leave them there.

Lev 16:24 He must take a bath in a holy place and put on his own clothes. After that, he shall go out and offer the burnt offering to remove his own sins and those of the people.

Lev 16:25 He shall burn on the altar the fat of the animal for the sin offering.

Lev 16:26 The man who drove the goat into the desert to Azazel must wash his clothes and take a bath before he comes back into camp.

Lev 16:27 The bull and the goat used for the sin offering, whose blood was brought into the Most Holy Place to take away sin, shall be carried outside the camp and burned. Skin, meat, and intestines shall all be burned.

Lev 16:28 The one who burns them must wash his clothes and take a bath before he returns to camp.

Lev 16:29 The following regulations are to be observed for all time to come. On the tenth day of the seventh month the Israelites and the foreigners living among them must fast and must not do any work.

Lev 16:30 On that day the ritual is to be performed to purify them from all their sins, so that they will be ritually clean.

Lev 16:31 That day is to be a very holy day, one on which they fast and do no work at all. These regulations are to be observed for all time to come.

Lev 16:32 The High Priest, properly ordained and consecrated to succeed his father, is to perform the ritual of purification. He shall put on the priestly garments

Lev 16:33 and perform the ritual to purify the Most Holy Place, the rest of the Tent of the LORD's presence, the altar, the priests, and all the people of the community.

Lev 16:34 These regulations are to be observed for all time to come. This ritual must be performed once a year to purify the people of Israel from all their sins. So Moses did as the LORD had commanded.

1Aäron se twee seuns het gesterf toe hulle 'n offer aan die Here wou bring, en na aanleiding daarvan het die Here vir Moses 'n opdrag gegee. 2Hy het vir Moses gesê: Sê vir jou broer Aäron hy mag nooit sommer in die heiligdom agter die voorhangsel ingaan na die deksel van die verbondsark toe nie. Ek verskyn telkens in 'n wolk bokant die deksel van die ark en as Aäron sommer ingaan, sal hy sterwe. 3Voordat hy in die Allerheiligste ingaan, moet hy 'n jong bul as sondeoffer bring en 'n ram as brandoffer. 4Verder moet hy die gewyde klere van 'n gewone priester aanhê oor 'n broek en hy moet 'n serp om sy lyf en 'n tulband op sy kop hê. Dit moet alles gewyde linneklere wees. Hy moet hom was voor hy dit aantrek. 5Van die gemeente Israel moet hy twee bokramme as sondeoffer kry en een skaapram as brandoffer. 6Hy offer dan eers die bul wat vir homself bedoel is as sondeoffer, sodat hy versoening kan doen vir homself en al die priesters. 7Daarna bring hy die twee bokke na die ingang van die tent van ontmoeting toe in die teenwoordigheid van die Here. 8Hier moet Aäron lootjies trek oor die bokke. Die een lootjie moet gemerk wees vir die Here' en die ander een vir Asasel'. 9Aäron moet die bok wat vir die Here geloot word, as 'n sondeoffer offer. 10Die bok wat vir Asasel geloot is, moet bly lewe. Die bok moet in die teenwoordigheid van die Here bly staan sodat Aäron die versoeningshandeling daarop kan verrig, en daarna moet die bok die woestyn in gestuur word vir Asasel. 11Wanneer Aäron die sondeofferbul offer wat vir homself bedoel is en waarmee hy vir hom en al die priesters versoening doen, moet hy die bul slag 12en moet hy 'n vuurpan vol maak met gloeiende kole van die altaar af wat in die teenwoordigheid van die Here staan. Aäron moet ook 'n dubbele handvol fyngestampte wierook vat en daarmee agter die voorhangsel ingaan. 13Daar in die teenwoordigheid van die Here moet hy dan die wierook op die kole gooi sodat dit 'n rookwolk maak wat die deksel van die ark bedek waarin die getuienis is. Dan sal hy nie sterf nie. 14Hy moet daarna van die bloed van die bul met sy vinger sprinkel op die deksel se voorkant en dan ook nog sewe maal op die grond voor die deksel. 15Wanneer Aäron die bokram slag wat as sondeoffer vir die volk bedoel is, moet hy met die bloed agter die voorhangsel ingaan en daarmee doen soos hy gedoen het met die bul se bloed. Hy moet dit sprinkel op die deksel en voor die deksel. 16So moet hy die Allerheiligste reinig van die onreinhede van die Israeliete, van hulle oortredinge en al hulle sondes. Hy moet die tent van ontmoeting ook op dieselfde manier reinig, want dit staan by die volk met al hulle onreinheid. 17Niemand anders mag in die tent van ontmoeting wees vandat Aäron ingaan om in die heiligdom versoening te doen totdat hy uitgaan nie: hy doen versoening vir homself, die priesters en die hele gemeente Israel. 18Daarna moet Aäron uitgaan na die altaar toe in die teenwoordigheid van die Here en dit reinig: hy moet van die bloed van die bul en die bokram rondom al die horings van die altaar smeer 19en met sy vinger van die bloed sewe keer op die altaar sprinkel. So moet hy die altaar reinig van die onreinheid van die Israeliete en dit wy. 20Nadat Aäron die Allerheiligste, die tent van ontmoeting en die altaar gereinig het, moet hy die lewende bok nader bring. 21Terwyl hy dan sy twee hande op die kop van die bok lê, moet hy ál die oortredinge en opstandigheid, al die sondes van die Israeliete daar bo-oor die bok bely. Sodoende sal hy die sonde op die kop van die bok oordra. Iemand wat beskikbaar is, moet dan die bok die woestyn injaag. 22So sal die bok al hulle sonde met hom saamdra na 'n onherbergsame streek toe en daar in die woestyn moet hy agtergelaat word. 23Aäron moet dan in die tent van ontmoeting ingaan en sy linneklere waarmee hy in die Allerheiligste ingegaan het, uittrek en dit daar neersit. 24Hy moet hom op 'n gewyde plek gaan was en sy hoëpriesterlike klere aantrek. Dan moet hy uitgaan en die brandoffer vir die versoening van sy eie sonde bring, asook die brandoffer vir die versoening van die sonde van die volk. 25Hy moet ook die vet van die sondeoffer op die altaar verbrand. 26Die man wat die bok na Asasel toe gejaag het, moet sy klere en homself was voordat hy na die kamp toe terugkom. 27Die sondeofferbul en die sondeofferbok waarvan die bloed gebruik is om versoening te doen in die Allerheiligste, moet buite die kampplek verbrand word, velle, vleis, pensmis en al. 28Die man wat dit verbrand het, moet eers sy klere en homself was voordat hy na die kamp toe terugkom. 29Julle moet dit as 'n vaste instelling handhaaf dat julle almal, die gebore Israeliete en die vreemdelinge wat by julle woon, moet vas en alle werk moet staak op die tiende dag van die sewende maand, 30want op dié dag moet daar vir julle versoening gedoen word sodat julle rein kan wees. Julle moet in die teenwoordigheid van die Here gereinig word van al julle sonde. 31Dit moet 'n plegtige rusdag wees, 'n dag waarop julle vas, 'n vaste instelling. 32Die priester wat gesalf is en in die plek van sy vader as hoëpriester georden is, moet die versoening doen. Hy moet die gewyde linneklere aantrek, 33die Allerheiligste, die tent van ontmoeting en die altaar reinig en versoening doen vir die priesters en die hele gemeente. 34Die versoening vir die sonde van die Israeliete moet 'n vaste instelling wees. Dit moet elke jaar plaasvind. Aäron het toe gedoen wat die Here vir Moses beveel het.

Leviticus 17

The Place of Sacrifice

Lev 17:1 The LORD commanded Moses

Lev 17:2 to give Aaron and his sons and all the people of Israel the following regulations.

Lev 17:3 (3-4) Any Israelites who kill a cow or a sheep or a goat as an offering to the LORD anywhere except at the entrance of the Tent of the LORD's presence have broken the Law. They have shed blood and shall no longer be considered God's people.

Lev 17:5 The meaning of this command is that the people of Israel shall now bring to the LORD the animals which they used to kill in the open country. They shall now bring them to the priest at the entrance of the Tent and kill them as fellowship offerings.

Lev 17:6 The priest shall throw the blood against the sides of the altar at the entrance of the Tent and burn the fat to produce an odor that is pleasing to the LORD.

Lev 17:7 The people of Israel must no longer be unfaithful to the LORD by killing their animals in the fields as sacrifices to the goat demons. The people of Israel must keep this regulation for all time to come.

Lev 17:8 Any Israelites or any foreigners living in the community who offer a burnt offering or any other sacrifice

Lev 17:9 as an offering to the LORD anywhere except at the entrance of the Tent shall no longer be considered God's people.

Laws Against Eating Blood

Lev 17:10 If any Israelites or any foreigners living in the community eat meat with blood still in it, the LORD will turn against them and no longer consider them his people.

Lev 17:11 The life of every living thing is in the blood, and that is why the LORD has commanded that all blood be poured out on the altar to take away the people's sins. Blood, which is life, takes away sins.

Lev 17:12 That is why the LORD has told the people of Israel that neither they nor any foreigner living among them shall eat any meat with blood still in it.

Lev 17:13 If any Israelites or any foreigners living in the community catch an animal or a bird which is ritually clean, they must pour its blood out on the ground and cover it with dirt.

Lev 17:14 The life of every living thing is in the blood, and that is why the LORD has told the people of Israel that they shall not eat any meat with blood still in it and that anyone who does so will no longer be considered one of his people.

Lev 17:15 Any people, Israelites or foreigners, who eat meat from an animal that has died a natural death or has been killed by wild animals must wash their clothes, take a bath, and wait until evening before they are ritually clean.

Lev 17:16 If they do not, they must suffer the consequences.

LEVÍTIKUS 17

1Die Here het vir Moses gesê: 2Sê vir Aäron, die priesters en al die Israeliete, die Here het beveel: 3Elke Israeliet wat 'n bees of 'n skaap of 'n bok in die kamp of buite die kamp slag 4en nie by die ingang van die tent van ontmoeting waar hy voor die heiligdom van die Here 'n deel as gawe aan die Here kan gee nie, is skuldig aan bloedvergieting. So iemand het bloed vergiet, en sal van sy volksgenote afgesny word. 5Die bedoeling is dat die Israeliete nie meer diere in die veld moet slag nie, maar dit vir die Here moet bring. Hulle moet dit na die ingang van die tent van ontmoeting na die priester toe bring en daar slag as maaltydoffer vir die Here. 6Die priester moet die bloed sprinkel teen die altaar van die Here by die ingang van die tent van ontmoeting en ook die vet op die altaar verbrand as 'n offer wat deur die Here aanvaar word. 7Die Israeliete mag nooit weer diere slag vir die veldgode en só aan die Here ontrou wees nie. Hierdie bepaling moet 'n vaste reël wees vir alle toekomstige geslagte. 8Verder moet jy vir hulle sê: Elke Israeliet en elke vreemdeling by julle wat 'n brandoffer of enige ander offer wil bring, 9moet dit vir die Here bring by die ingang van die tent van ontmoeting. As iemand dit nie doen nie, sal hy van sy volksgenote afgesny word. 10Elke Israeliet en elke vreemdeling by julle wat enige bloed eet, sal Ek self straf. Ek sal hom van sy volksgenote afsny. 11Omdat die lewe van 'n dier in sy bloed is, het Ek die bloed vir julle gegee om op die altaar versoening te doen vir julle lewens. Omdat bloed versoening bring deur die lewe wat daarin is, 12beveel Ek elke Israeliet en elke vreemdeling by julle om géén bloed te eet nie. 13Elke Israeliet en elke vreemdeling by julle wat 'n rein wilde dier of voël slag, moet dit laat uitbloei en die bloed met grond toemaak. 14Omdat die bloed van enige dier sy lewe is, beveel ek julle, Israeliete, dat julle géén bloed mag eet nie. Omdat die bloed van enige dier sy lewe is, sal elkeen wat dit eet, doodgemaak word. 15Enige persoon onder julle, of hy nou 'n gebore Israeliet is of 'n vreemdeling, wat 'n dier eet wat gevrek het of deur roofdiere verskeur is, moet sy klere en homself was. Hy sal die res van die dag onrein wees. 16As hy nie sy klere en homself was nie, moet hy die gevolge dra.

Leviticus 18

Unlawful Sexual Relations

Lev 18:1 The LORD told Moses

Lev 18:2 to say to the people of Israel, "I am the LORD your God.

Lev 18:3 Do not follow the practices of the people of Egypt, where you once lived, or of the people in the land of Canaan, where I am now taking you.

Lev 18:4 Obey my laws and do what I command. I am the LORD your God.

Lev 18:5 Follow the practices and the laws that I give you; you will save your life by doing so. I am the LORD."

Lev 18:6 The LORD gave the following regulations. Do not have sexual intercourse with any of your relatives.

Lev 18:7 Do not disgrace your father by having intercourse with your mother. You must not disgrace your own mother.

Lev 18:8 Do not disgrace your father by having intercourse with any of his other wives.

Lev 18:9 Do not have intercourse with your sister or your stepsister, whether or not she was brought up in the same house with you.

Lev 18:10 Do not have intercourse with your granddaughter; that would be a disgrace to you.

Lev 18:11 Do not have intercourse with a half sister; she, too, is your sister.

Lev 18:12 (12-13) Do not have intercourse with an aunt, whether she is your father's sister or your mother's sister.

Lev 18:14 Do not have intercourse with your uncle's wife; she, too, is your aunt.

Lev 18:15 Do not have intercourse with your daughter-in-law

Lev 18:16 or with your brother's wife.

Lev 18:17 Do not have intercourse with the daughter or granddaughter of a woman with whom you have had intercourse; they may be related to you, and that would be incest.

Lev 18:18 Do not take your wife's sister as one of your wives, as long as your wife is living.

Lev 18:19 Do not have intercourse with a woman during her monthly period, because she is ritually unclean.

Lev 18:20 Do not have intercourse with another man's wife; that would make you ritually unclean.

Lev 18:21 Do not hand over any of your children to be used in the worship of the god Molech, because that would bring disgrace on the name of God, the LORD.

Lev 18:22 No man is to have sexual relations with another man; God hates that.

Lev 18:23 No man or woman is to have sexual relations with an animal; that perversion makes you ritually unclean.

Lev 18:24 Do not make yourselves unclean by any of these acts, for that is how the pagans made themselves unclean, those pagans who lived in the land before you and whom the LORD is driving out so that you can go in.

Lev 18:25 Their actions made the land unclean, and so the LORD is punishing the land and making it reject the people who lived there.

Lev 18:26 (26-27) They did all these disgusting things and made the land unclean, but you must not do them. All of you, whether Israelites or foreigners living with you, must keep the LORD's laws and commands, Lev 18:28 and then the land will not reject you, as it rejected the pagans who lived there before you.

Lev 18:29 You know that whoever does any of these disgusting things will no longer be considered one of God's people.

Lev 18:30 And the LORD said, "Obey the commands I give and do not follow the practices of the people who lived in the land before you, and do not make yourselves unclean by doing any of these things. I am the LORD your God."

LEVÍTIKUS 18

1Die Here het vir Moses gesê: 2Praat met die Israeliete en sê vir hulle: Ek is die Here julle God. 3Julle mag nie maak soos die Egiptenaars by wie julle gewoon het, of soos die Kanaäniete na wie se land toe Ek julle bring nie. Julle mag hulle gebruike nie navolg nie. 4Julle moet my bepalings nakom en my voorskrifte gehoorsaam deur daarvolgens te lewe. Ek is die Here julle God. 5Wees gehoorsaam aan my voorskrifte en bepalings. Wie dit doen, sal lewe. Ek is die Here. 6Niemand van julle mag met 'n naby bloedverwant geslagsgemeenskap hê nie. Ek is die Here. 7Jy mag nie jou pa die skande aandoen dat jy met jou ma gemeenskap het nie. Sy is tog immers jou ma. Jy mag nie met haar gemeenskap hê nie. 8Jy mag ook nie met 'n ander vrou van jou pa gemeenskap hê nie. Dit sal skande oor jou pa bring. 9Jy mag nie met jou suster gemeenskap hê nie, ook nie met 'n halfsuster aan vaderskant of aan moederskant nie, of hulle nou deel is van die gesin of nie. 10Jy mag nie met jou kleindogter gemeenskap hê nie, want sy is jou nageslag. 11Jy mag nie met 'n halfsuster aan vaderskant gemeenskap hê nie, want sy is jou suster. 12Jy mag nie met jou tante aan vaderskant gemeenskap hê nie, want sy is jou pa se bloedverwant. 13Jy mag nie met jou tante aan moederskant gemeenskap hê nie, want sy is jou ma se bloedverwant. 14Jy mag nie jou oom die skande aandoen dat jy met sy vrou gemeenskap het nie. Sy is immers jou tante. 15Jy mag nie met jou skoondogter gemeenskap hê nie. Sy is jou seun se vrou. Jy mag nie met haar gemeenskap hê nie. 16Jy mag nie met jou skoonsuster gemeenskap hê nie, want dit sal skande oor jou broer bring. 17Jy mag nie gemeenskap hê met 'n vrou en met haar dogter nie. Jy mag die vrou nie die skande aandoen dat jy met 'n kleindogter van haar trou nie. Hulle is haar nageslag en dit sal 'n afstootlike daad wees. 18Solank jou vrou lewe, mag jy nie met haar suster trou nie. Daar sal vyandskap tussen hulle ontstaan as jy met albei gemeenskap het. 19Jy mag nie met 'n vrou gemeenskap hê terwyl sy menstrueer en dus onrein is nie. 20Jy mag nie met jou naaste se vrou gemeenskap hê en jouself só verontreinig nie. 21Jy mag nie een van jou kinders wy aan Molek en só die Naam van jou God ontheilig nie. Ek is die Here. 22Jy mag nie 'n homoseksuele verhouding hê nie. Dit is 'n afstootlike sonde. 23Jy mag met geen dier geslagsgemeenskap hê en jouself so besoedel nie. 'n Vrou mag dit ook nie doen nie. Dit is iets afskuweliks. 24Julle moet julle op geen van hierdie maniere verontreinig nie, want dit is wat die heidene gedoen het wat Ek voor julle verdryf. 25Hulle het die land verontreinig en Ek het die land daarvoor gestraf sodat hy sy bewoners uitgespoeg het. 26Julle almal, die gebore Israeliete en die vreemdelinge by julle, moet my voorskrifte en bepalings gehoorsaam. Julle mag geen van dié afstootlike dinge doen nie. 27Omdat die vorige inwoners hierdie afstootlike dinge gedoen het, is die land verontreinig. 28As julle die land verontreinig, sal hy júlle ook uitspoeg soos hy die heidene vóór julle uitgespoeg het. 29Elkeen wat enige van hierdie afstootlike dinge doen, sal van sy volksgenote afgesny word! 30Wees gehoorsaam aan wat Ek julle beveel. Vermy die afstootlike gebruike van die vorige inwoners en hou julleself rein. Ek is die Here julle God.

Leviticus 19

The Lord Is Holy

Lev 19:2 to say to the community of Israel, "Be holy, because I, the LORD your God, am holy.

Lev 19:3 Each of you must respect your mother and your father, and must keep the Sabbath, as I have commanded. I am the LORD your God.

Lev 19:5 "When you kill an animal for a fellowship offering, keep the regulations that I have given you, and I will accept the offering.

Lev 19:7 because it is ritually unclean, and if anyone eats it, I will not accept the offering.

Lev 19:8 Any who eat it will be guilty of treating as ordinary what is dedicated to me, and they will no longer be considered my people.

Love Your Neighbor as Yourself

Lev 19:9 "When you harvest your fields, do not cut the grain at the edges of the fields, and do not go back to cut the heads of grain that were left.

Lev 19:10 Do not go back through your vineyard to gather the grapes that were missed or to pick up the grapes that have fallen; leave them for poor people and foreigners. I am the LORD your God.

Lev 19:12 Do not make a promise in my name if you do not intend to keep it; that brings disgrace on my name. I am the LORD your God.

Lev 19:14 Do not curse the deaf or put something in front of the blind so as to make them stumble over it. Obey me; I am the LORD your God.

Lev 19:15 "Be honest and just when you make decisions in legal cases; do not show favoritism to the poor or fear the rich.

Lev 19:16 Do not spread lies about anyone, and when someone is on trial for his life, speak out if your testimony can help him. I am the LORD.

Lev 19:17 "Do not bear a grudge against others, but settle your differences with them, so that you will not commit a sin because of them.

Lev 19:18 Do not take revenge on others or continue to hate them, but love your neighbors as you love yourself. I am the LORD.

You Shall Keep My Statutes

Lev 19:19 "Obey my commands. Do not crossbreed domestic animals. Do not plant two kinds of seed in the same field. Do not wear clothes made of two kinds of material.

Lev 19:20 "If a slave woman is the recognized concubine of a man and she has not been paid for and freed, then if another man has sexual relations with her, they will be punished, but not put to death, since she is a slave.

Lev 19:21 The man shall bring a ram to the entrance of the Tent of my presence as his repayment offering,

Lev 19:22 and with it the priest shall perform the ritual of purification to remove the man's sin, and God will forgive him.

Lev 19:23 "When you come into the land of Canaan and plant any kind of fruit tree, consider the fruit ritually unclean for the first three years. During that time you must not eat it.

Lev 19:24 In the fourth year all the fruit shall be dedicated as an offering to show your gratitude to me, the LORD.

Lev 19:25 But in the fifth year you may eat the fruit. If you do all this, your trees will bear more fruit. I am the LORD your God.

Lev 19:26 "Do not eat any meat with blood still in it. Do not practice any kind of magic.

Lev 19:27 Do not cut the hair on the sides of your head or trim your beard

Lev 19:28 or tattoo yourselves or cut gashes in your body to mourn for the dead. I am the LORD.

Lev 19:29 "Do not disgrace your daughters by making them temple prostitutes; if you do, you will turn to other gods and the land will be full of immorality.

Lev 19:30 Keep the Sabbath, and honor the place where I am worshiped. I am the LORD.

Lev 19:31 "Do not go for advice to people who consult the spirits of the dead. If you do, you will be ritually unclean. I am the LORD your God.

Lev 19:32 "Show respect for old people and honor them. Reverently obey me; I am the LORD.

Lev 19:33 "Do not mistreat foreigners who are living in your land.

Lev 19:34 Treat them as you would an Israelite, and love them as you love yourselves. Remember that you were once foreigners in the land of Egypt. I am the LORD your God.

Lev 19:35 "Do not cheat anyone by using false measures of length, weight, or quantity.

Lev 19:36 Use honest scales, honest weights, and honest measures. I am the LORD your God, and I brought you out of Egypt.

Lev 19:37 Obey all my laws and commands. I am the LORD."

LEVÍTIKUS 19

[1]Die Here het vir Moses gesê: [2]Praat met die hele gemeente Israel en sê vir hulle: Wees heilig, want Ek die Here julle God is heilig. [3]Elkeen van julle moet eerbied hê vir sy ma en sy pa. Julle moet my gebooie oor die sabbat gehoorsaam. Ek is die Here julle God. [4]Julle mag nie afgode dien nie en julle mag nie vir julle afgodsbeelde maak nie. Ek is die Here julle God. [5]Wanneer julle 'n maaltydoffer vir My, die Here, slag, moet julle dit so doen dat julle vir My aanneemlik is: [6]julle moet die vleis eet op die dag wanneer julle slag, of hoogstens die volgende dag. Wat oorbly tot die derde dag, moet verbrand word. [7]Wie daarvan op die derde dag eet, eet iets onreins. Dit is nie vir My aanneemlik nie. [8]Wie daarvan eet, is skuldig, want hy ontheilig wat aan die Here gewy is. So iemand sal van sy volksgenote afgesny word. [9]Wanneer julle julle lande afoes, moet julle nie die wenakkers afoes nie en ook nie die are wat bly lê, agterna optel nie. [10]Julle moet ook nie die wingerde 'n tweede keer oes of die korrels wat val, optel nie. Laat dit alles bly vir die armes en die vreemdelinge. Ek is die Here julle God. [11]Julle mag nie steel nie en julle mag nie lieg of mekaar bedrieg nie. [12]Julle mag nie 'n vals eed aflê in my Naam en so die Naam van julle God ontheilig nie. Ek is die Here. [13]Jy mag nie jou naaste uitbuit of hom beroof nie. Jy mag nie 'n dagloner se loon terughou tot die volgende dag nie. [14]Uit eerbied vir jou God mag jy nie 'n dowe vloek of 'n hindernis in die pad van 'n blinde lê nie. Ek is die Here. [15]Jy mag nie onregverdig wees in die regspraak nie: jy mag nie partydig wees vir dié wat geen aansien het nie of die vooraanstaande bevoordeel nie. Oordeel regverdig oor jou naaste. [16]Jy mag nie loop en skinder nie, jy mag nie jou medemens se lewe in gevaar stel nie. Ek is die Here. [17]Jy mag nie haatdraend wees teenoor jou volksgenoot nie. Maak die geskil openlik met hom uit, moenie wat hy verkeerd gedoen het, teen hom bly hou nie. [18]Jy mag nie wraak neem of 'n grief koester teenoor jou volksgenoot nie, jy moet jou naaste liefhê soos jouself. Ek is die Here. [19]Julle moet my voorskrifte gehoorsaam. Moenie verskillende soorte diere kruis of verskillende soorte saad in een land saai of 'n kledingstuk van verskillende soorte materiaal dra nie. [20]Wanneer die eienaar van 'n slavin reeds 'n ooreenkoms aangegaan het waarvolgens iemand anders haar as byvrou koop, en die eienaar het met haar gemeenskap voordat die prys betaal is en voordat hy van haar afstand gedoen het, moet hy aan die toekomstige eienaar skadevergoeding betaal. Hulle mag nie die doodstraf opgelê word nie, want hy het nog beskikkingsreg oor haar. [21]Verder moet hy as skuldoffer vir die Here 'n ram bring na die ingang van die tent van ontmoeting toe. [22]Die priester moet met die skuldofferram vir die eienaar van die slavin versoening doen by die Here oor die sonde wat gedoen is. Die sonde sal dan vergewe word. 23Wanneer julle julle in die land vestig en allerhande soorte vrugtebome plant, mag julle drie jaar lank glad nie die vrugte pluk nie. Die vrugte is vir julle verbode. Dit mag nie geëet word nie. 24Die vierde jaar moet al die vrugte as 'n gawe van dankbaarheid aan die Here gewy word. 25Van die vyfde jaar af mag julle die vrugte gebruik. Julle sal dan goeie opbrengste hê. Ek is die Here julle God. 26Julle mag nie aan heidense offermaaltye deelneem nie. Julle mag nie waarsêery en towery beoefen nie. 27Julle mag nie heidense rougebruike navolg deur die hare voor die ore en die wangbaard te knip of deur snye en tatoeëermerke op julle liggame te maak nie. Ek is die Here. 28Niemand van julle mag sy dogter die skande aandoen om haar 'n tempelprostituut te laat word nie. Dit lei tot hoerery en afskuwelike sondes in die land. 29Julle moet my gebooie oor die sabbat gehoorsaam en eerbied hê vir my heiligdom. Ek is die Here. 30Moenie hulp soek by geeste of waarsêers nie. Dit sal julle onrein maak. Ek is die Here julle God. 31Uit eerbied vir jou God moet jy eerbied bewys aan oumense en hulle met respek behandel. Ek is die Here. 32Wanneer daar 'n vreemdeling by julle in julle land woon, mag julle hom nie onderdruk nie. 33Julle moet hom soos 'n medeburger behandel en hom liefhê soos julleself. Julle was immers self ook vreemdelinge in Egipte. Ek is die Here julle God. 34Julle mag nie bedrog pleeg wanneer julle meet of weeg of inhoud bepaal nie. 35Julle moet 'n betroubare skaal en die regte gewigte en inhoudsmate gebruik. Ek is die Here julle God wat julle uit Egipte laat wegtrek het. 36Gehoorsaam al my voorskrifte en bepalings en leef daarvolgens. Ek is die Here.

Leviticus 20

Punishment for Child Sacrifice

Lev 20:1 The LORD told Moses

Lev 20:2 to say to the people of Israel, "Any of you or any foreigner living among you who gives any children to be used in the worship of the god Molech shall be stoned to death by the whole community.

Lev 20:3 If any of you give one of your children to Molech and make my sacred Tent unclean and disgrace my holy name, I will turn against you and will no longer consider you my people.

Lev 20:4 But if the community ignores what you have done and does not put you to death,

Lev 20:5 I myself will turn against you and your whole family and against all who join you in being unfaithful to me and worshiping Molech. I will no longer consider any of you my people.

Lev 20:6 "If any of you go for advice to people who consult the spirits of the dead, I will turn against you and will no longer consider you one of my people.

Lev 20:7 Keep yourselves holy, because I am the LORD your God.

Lev 20:8 Obey my laws, because I am the LORD and I make you holy."

Lev 20:9 The LORD gave the following regulations. Any of you that curse your father or mother shall be put to death; you are responsible for your own death.

Punishments for Sexual Immorality

Lev 20:10 If a man commits adultery with the wife of an Israelite, both he and the woman shall be put to death.

Lev 20:11 A man who has intercourse with one of his father's wives disgraces his father, and both he and the woman shall be put to death. They are responsible for their own death.

Lev 20:12 If a man has intercourse with his daughter-in-law, they shall both be put to death. They have committed incest and are responsible for their own death.

Lev 20:13 If a man has sexual relations with another man, they have done a disgusting thing, and both shall be put to death. They are responsible for their own death.

Lev 20:14 If a man marries a woman and her mother, all three shall be burned to death because of the disgraceful thing they have done; such a thing must not be permitted among you.

Lev 20:15 If a man has sexual relations with an animal, he and the animal shall be put to death.

Lev 20:16 If a woman tries to have sexual relations with an animal, she and the animal shall be put to death. They are responsible for their own death.

Lev 20:17 If a man marries his sister or half sister, they shall be publicly disgraced and driven out of the community. He has had intercourse with his sister and must suffer the consequences.

Lev 20:18 If a man has intercourse with a woman during her monthly period, both of them are to be driven out of the community, because they have broken the regulations about ritual uncleanness.

Lev 20:19 If a man has intercourse with his aunt, both of them must suffer the consequences for incest.

Lev 20:20 If a man has intercourse with his uncle's wife, he disgraces his uncle, and he and the woman will pay the penalty; neither one will have children.

Lev 20:21 If a man takes his brother's wife, they will die childless. He has done a ritually unclean thing and has disgraced his brother.

You Shall Be Holy

Lev 20:22 The LORD said, "Keep all my laws and commands, so that you will not be rejected by the land of Canaan, into which I am bringing you.

Lev 20:23 Do not adopt the customs of the people who live there; I am driving out those pagans so that you can enter the land. They have disgusted me with all their evil practices.

Lev 20:24 But I have promised you this rich and fertile land as your possession, and I will give it to you. I am the LORD your God, and I have set you apart from the other nations.

Lev 20:25 So then, you must make a clear distinction between animals and birds that are ritually clean and those that are not. Do not eat unclean animals or birds. I have declared them unclean, and eating them would make you unclean.

Lev 20:26 You shall be holy and belong only to me, because I am the LORD and I am holy. I have set you apart from the other nations so that you would belong to me alone.

Lev 20:27 "Any man or woman who consults the spirits of the dead shall be stoned to death; any of you that do this are responsible for your own death."

LEVÍTIKUS 20

1Die Here het vir Moses gesê: 2Sê vir die Israeliete: Elke Israeliet en vreemdeling in Israel wat sy kind aan Molek wy, moet met die dood gestraf word: die burgers moet hom met klippe doodgooi, 3anders sal Ek self teen so iemand optree en hom van sy volksgenote afsny omdat die wyding van 'n kind aan Molek my heiligdom onrein maak en my heilige Naam ontheilig. 4As die burgers hulle oë sluit vir so 'n oortreding en nie die skuldige doodmaak nie, 5sal Ek self ingryp en so iemand en sy familie sowel as almal wat saam met hom ontrou is en vir Molek dien, van sy volksgenote afsny. 6Enigiemand wat aan My ontrou is deur hulp te soek by geeste of waarsêers, teen hom sal Ek optree: Ek sal hom van sy volksgenote afsny. 7Wy julle aan My. Wees heilig, want Ek is die Here julle God. 8Gehoorsaam my voorskrifte en leef daarvolgens. Ek is die Here, Ek heilig julle aan My. 9Wanneer iemand sy pa of sy ma vloek, moet hy doodgemaak word. Hy het sy pa of sy ma gevloek en hy verdien die dood. 10Iemand wat egbreuk pleeg met die vrou van 'n medeburger, moet doodgemaak word. Dit geld vir die man en ook vir die vrou wat egbreuk pleeg. 11Iemand wat gemeenskap het met een van sy pa se vrouens, bring skande oor sy pa. Hy en die vrou moet albei doodgemaak word. Hulle verdien die dood. 12Iemand wat met sy skoondogter gemeenskap het, moet doodgemaak word, en sy ook. Hulle het iets afskuweliks gedoen. Hulle verdien die dood. 13Twee mans wat homoseksueel verkeer, doen 'n afskuwelike sonde. Hulle moet doodgemaak word. Hulle verdien die dood. 14Iemand wat met 'n ma en haar dogter trou, begaan 'n afskuwelike sonde. Hulle moet al drie 'n vuurdood sterf. Julle mag sulke afskuwelike sondes nie duld nie. 15'n Man wat met 'n dier geslagsgemeenskap het, moet doodgemaak word, en die dier ook. 16'n Vrou wat met 'n dier geslagsgemeenskap het, moet doodgemaak word, en die dier ook. Sulke mense moet doodgemaak word. Hulle verdien die dood. 17As 'n man met sy suster of halfsuster se toestemming gemeenskap met haar het, is dit 'n skandelike daad. Hulle moet in die openbaar van hulle volksgenote afgesny word. Hy het skande oor sy suster gebring en moet die gevolge dra. 18As 'n man met die toestemming van 'n vrou wat menstrueer, gemeenskap met haar het, moet albei afgesny word van hulle volksgenote. 19Niemand mag gemeenskap hê met sy tante aan moederskant of aan vaderskant nie, want sy is 'n naaste bloedverwant. As dit gebeur, moet albei gestraf word. 20As iemand met sy oom se vrou gemeenskap het, bring hy skande oor sy oom. Die man en die vrou moet die gevolge dra: hulle sal sterf as mense wat alle regte verbeur het. 21As 'n man sy broer se vrou afneem, is dit 'n skandelike daad. Die man het skande oor sy broer gebring. Die man en die vrou verbeur al hulle regte. 22Julle moet al my voorskrifte en bepalings gehoorsaam en dit uitvoer. As julle dit nie doen nie, sal die land waarheen Ek julle laat trek om daar te woon, julle uitspoeg. 23Julle mag nie die gebruike van die nasies wat Ek voor julle gaan uitdryf, navolg nie. Ek het juis 'n afsku van hulle gekry omdat hulle al hierdie dinge doen. 24Ek het julle belowe dat julle hulle land in besit sal neem. Dit is Ek wat hierdie land aan julle gee om dit in besit te neem, 'n land wat oorloop van melk en heuning. Ek is die Here julle God, Ek het julle afgesonder van die ander volke. 25Daarom moet julle by diere en voëls onderskeid maak tussen rein en onrein. Julle mag julle nie besoedel met die diere of voëls of met enigiets wat op die aarde kruip wat Ek afgesonder het as dinge waardeur julle onrein gemaak word nie. 26Julle moet heilig lewe, want Ek die Here is heilig. Ek het julle afgesonder uit die volke om aan My te behoort. 27Enige mens wat hom ophou met die oproep van geeste of met beswering, moet doodgemaak word. Hy moet met klippe doodgegooi word. Hy verdien die dood.

Leviticus 21

Holiness and the Priests

Lev 21:1 The LORD commanded Moses to tell the Aaronite priests, "No priest is to make himself ritually unclean by taking part in the funeral ceremonies when a relative dies,

Lev 21:2 unless it is his mother, father, son, daughter, brother,

Lev 21:3 or unmarried sister living in his house.

Lev 21:4 He shall not make himself unclean at the death of those related to him by marriage.

Lev 21:5 "No priest shall shave any part of his head or trim his beard or cut gashes on his body to show that he is in mourning.

Lev 21:6 He must be holy and must not disgrace my name. He offers food offerings to me, and he must be holy.

Lev 21:7 A priest shall not marry a woman who has been a prostitute or a woman who is not a virgin or who is divorced; he is holy.

Lev 21:8 The people must consider the priest holy, because he presents the food offerings to me. I am the LORD; I am holy and I make my people holy.

Lev 21:9 If a priest's daughter becomes a prostitute, she disgraces her father; she shall be burned to death.

Lev 21:10 "The High Priest has had the anointing oil poured on his head and has been consecrated to wear the priestly garments, so he must not leave his hair uncombed or tear his clothes to show that he is in mourning.

Lev 21:11 (11-12) He has been dedicated to me and is not to make himself ritually unclean nor is he to defile my sacred Tent by leaving it and entering a house where there is a dead person, even if it is his own father or mother.

Lev 21:13 He shall marry a virgin,

Lev 21:14 not a widow or a divorced woman or a woman who has been a prostitute. He shall marry only a virgin from his own clan.

Lev 21:15 Otherwise, his children, who ought to be holy, will be ritually unclean. I am the LORD and I have set him apart as the High Priest."

Lev 21:16 The LORD commanded Moses

Lev 21:17 to tell Aaron, "None of your descendants who has any physical defects may present the food offering to me. This applies for all time to come.

Lev 21:18 No man with any physical defects may make the offering: no one who is blind, lame, disfigured, or deformed;

Lev 21:19 no one with a crippled hand or foot;

Lev 21:20 no one who is a hunchback or a dwarf; no one with any eye or skin disease; and no eunuch.

Lev 21:21 No descendant of Aaron the priest who has any physical defects may present the food offering to me.

Lev 21:22 Such a man may eat the food offered to me, both the holy food offering and the very holy food offering,

Lev 21:23 but because he has a physical defect, he shall not come near the sacred curtain or approach the altar. He must not profane these holy things, because I am the LORD and I make them holy."

Lev 21:24 This, then, is what Moses said to Aaron, the sons of Aaron, and to all the people of Israel.

LEVÍTIKUS 21

[1]Die Here het vir Moses gesê: Sê vir die Aäronitiese priesters: 'n Priester mag hom nie verontreinig deur naby 'n lyk te kom nie, al is die oorledene ook 'n familielid. [2]Hy mag dit slegs doen in die geval van 'n naaste bloedverwant van hom: sy ma of pa, sy seun of dogter, sy broer [3]of 'n eie suster as sy 'n ongetroude jongmeisie is. [4]Hy mag hom nie verontreinig deur naby die lyk van 'n aangetroude familielid te kom nie. [5]Priesters mag nie as teken van rou hulle hare of wangbaard afskeer of aan hulle liggame snymerke maak nie. [6]Hulle moet aan hulle God alleen gewy wees en mag nie sy Naam ontheilig nie. Omdat hulle gedurig offers aan die Here hulle God bring, moet hulle gewyd bly. [7]'n Priester mag nie trou met 'n prostituut of met 'n meisie wat nie meer 'n maagd is nie. Hy mag ook nie met 'n geskeide vrou trou nie; hy is aan sy God gewy. [8]Jy moet die heiligheid van die priester erken, Israel! Hy is immers die een wat die offers vir jou God aanbied. Die priester moet vir jou heilig wees, want Ek die Here is heilig en Ek heilig julle. [9]As 'n priester se dogter haar ontwy deur te hoereer, ontwy sy ook haar pa. Sy moet verbrand word. [10]Die hoëpriester op wie se kop olie uitgegiet is om hom te salf en wat georden is om die heilige klere te dra, mag glad nie rou deur sy hare onversorg te laat of sy klere te skeur nie. [11]Hy mag ook glad nie naby enige lyk kom nie, hy mag nie eens met die lyk van sy pa of ma verontreinig word nie. [12]Hy mag nie die heiligdom verlaat met die oog op 'n sterfgeval nie, want hy kan dalk die heiligdom van sy God ontwy. As hoëpriester is hy met olie gesalf en dra hy die wydingsteken van sy God. Ek is die Here. [13]Die hoëpriester mag net met 'n maagd trou. [14]Met 'n weduwee, 'n geskeide vrou, 'n vrou wat nie meer 'n maagd is nie, of met 'n prostituut, mag hy nie trou nie. Hy mag alleen met 'n maagd uit sy eie stam trou, [15]anders is sy nageslag ontwy. Ek, die Here, het hom geheilig. [16]Die Here het Moses ook beveel: [17]Sê vir Aäron: Geeneen van jou nakomelinge met 'n liggaamlike tekortkoming mag ooit 'n offer aan God bring nie. [18]Geen persoon wat 'n liggaamlike tekortkoming het, mag offer nie: geen blinde of kreupele of iemand met 'n misvormde gesig of liggaamsdeel, [19]of met 'n gebreekte voet of hand, [20]of met 'n boggel of 'n onderontwikkelde liggaam, of met 'n pêrel op die oog, of met skurfte of veluitslag, of 'n beskadigde geslagsdeel nie. [21]Geen persoon uit die priestergeslag mag dus in die heiligdom ingaan om te offer as hy 'n liggaamlike tekortkoming het nie. Hy mag nie 'n offer vir die Here sy God bring as hy 'n liggaamlike tekortkoming het nie. [22]Maar hy mag van die gewyde gawes eet, ook van die besondere gewyde gawes. [23]Hy mag egter nie naby die voorhangsel of naby die altaar kom as hy 'n liggaamlike tekortkoming het nie. Ek, die Here, het hierdie dinge geheilig en dit mag nie ontheilig word nie. [24]Moses het dit toe vir Aäron en sy seuns en vir al die Israeliete gesê.

Leviticus 22

Lev 22:1 The LORD commanded Moses

Lev 22:2 to tell Aaron and his sons, "You must not bring disgrace on my holy name, so treat with respect the sacred offerings that the people of Israel dedicate to me. I am the LORD.

Lev 22:3 If any of your descendants, while he is ritually unclean, comes near the sacred offerings which the people of Israel have dedicated to me, he can never again serve at the altar. This applies for all time to come. I am the LORD.

Lev 22:4 "None of the descendants of Aaron who has a dreaded skin disease or a discharge may eat any of the sacred offerings until he is ritually clean. Any priest is unclean if he touches anything which is unclean through contact with a corpse or if he has an emission of semen

Lev 22:5 or if he has touched an unclean animal or person.

Lev 22:6 Any priest who becomes unclean remains unclean until evening, and even then he may not eat any of the sacred offerings until he has taken a bath.

Lev 22:7 After the sun sets he is clean, and then he may eat the sacred offerings, which are his food.

Lev 22:8 He shall not eat the meat of any animal that has died a natural death or has been killed by wild animals; it will make him unclean. I am the LORD.

Lev 22:9 "All priests shall observe the regulations that I have given. Otherwise, they will become guilty and die, because they have disobeyed the sacred regulations. I am the LORD and I make them holy.

Lev 22:10 "Only a member of a priestly family may eat any of the sacred offerings; no one else may eat them—not even someone staying with a priest or hired by him.

Lev 22:11 But a priest's slaves, bought with his own money or born in his home, may eat the food the priest receives.

Lev 22:12 A priest's daughter who marries someone who is not a priest may not eat any of the sacred offerings.

Lev 22:13 But a widowed or divorced daughter who has no children and who has returned to live in her father's house as a dependent may eat the food her father receives as a priest. Only a member of a priestly family may eat any of it.

Lev 22:14 "If any people who are not members of a priestly family eat any of the sacred offerings without intending to, they must repay the priest its full value plus an additional 20 percent.

Lev 22:15 The priests shall not profane the sacred offerings

Lev 22:16 by letting any unauthorized people eat them; this would bring guilt and punishment on such people. I am the LORD and I make the offerings holy."

Acceptable Offerings

Lev 22:17 The LORD commanded Moses

Lev 22:18 to give Aaron and his sons and all the people of Israel the following regulations. When any Israelite or any foreigner living in Israel presents a burnt offering, whether as fulfillment of a vow or as a freewill offering, the animal must not have any defects.

Lev 22:19 To be accepted, it must be a male without any defects.

Lev 22:20 If you offer any animal that has any defects, the LORD will not accept it.

Lev 22:21 When anyone presents a fellowship offering to the LORD, whether as fulfillment of a vow or as a freewill offering, the animal must be without any defects if it is to be accepted.

Lev 22:22 Do not offer to the LORD any animal that is blind or crippled or mutilated, or that has a running sore or a skin eruption or scabs. Do not offer any such animals on the altar as a food offering.

Lev 22:23 As a freewill offering you may offer an animal that is stunted or not perfectly formed, but it is not acceptable in fulfillment of a vow.

Lev 22:24 Do not offer to the LORD any animal whose testicles have been crushed, cut, bruised, or torn off. This is not permitted in your land.

Lev 22:25 Do not offer as a food offering any animal obtained from a foreigner. Such animals are considered defective and are not acceptable.

Lev 22:26 (26-27) When a calf or a lamb or a kid is born, it must not be taken from its mother for seven days, but after that it is acceptable as a food offering.

Lev 22:28 Do not sacrifice a cow and its calf or a sheep and its lamb or a goat and its kid on the same day.

Lev 22:29 When you offer a sacrifice of thanksgiving to the LORD, follow the rules so that you will be accepted;

Lev 22:30 eat it the same day and leave none of it until the next morning.

Lev 22:31 The LORD said, "Obey my commands; I am the LORD.

Lev 22:32 Do not bring disgrace on my holy name; all the people of Israel must acknowledge me to be holy. I am the LORD and I make you holy;

Lev 22:33 and I brought you out of Egypt to become your God. I am the LORD."

1Die Here het vir Moses gesê: 2Sê vir Aäron en sy seuns hulle moet versigtig omgaan met die gewyde gawes wat die Israeliete aan My wy, sodat hulle nie my heilige Naam ontheilig nie. Ek is die Here. 3Sê vir hulle: Nie een van julle of julle nakomelinge mag ooit van die gewyde gawes wat die Israeliete aan My wy, gebruik terwyl hy onrein is nie. Die persoon wat dit doen, mag nooit weer in my teenwoordigheid diens doen nie. Ek is die Here. 4Geen priester uit die geslag van Aäron wat 'n velsiekte of 'n afskeiding het wat hom onrein maak, mag van die gewyde gawes eet voordat hy weer rein is nie. As 'n priester aan enigiets geraak het wat deur 'n lyk verontreinig is, of as hyself 'n saadvloeiing gehad het 5of aan enige dier of persoon geraak het wat hom op enige manier onrein maak, 6is hy die res van die dag onrein en mag hy nie van die gewyde gawes eet nie. Eers nadat hy gebad het 7en die son onder is, is hy weer rein. Daarna moet hy toegelaat word om van die gewyde gawes te eet, want dit is al kos wat hy het. 8Hy mag nie die vleis eet van 'n dier wat gevrek het of wat deur roofdiere verskeur is nie. Dit maak hom onrein. Ek is die Here. 9Die priesters moet my bevel gehoorsaam en nie sondig nie. Hulle sal sterf as hulle die gewyde gawes ontwy. Ek, die Here, heilig die priesters. 10Geen onbevoegde persoon mag van die gewyde gawes eet nie, ook nie 'n bywoner of dagloner van 'n priester mag daarvan eet nie. 11Slawe wat deur die priester gekoop is, of dié wat van geboorte af deel is van sy huishouding, mag wel eet van die kos wat hy ontvang. 12Wanneer 'n priester se dogter trou met iemand wat nie lid is van die priesterfamilie nie, mag sy nie langer van die gewyde gawes eet nie. 13As so 'n dogter egter 'n weduwee word of van haar man skei en sy geen kinders het nie, mag sy weer by haar pa gaan inwoon soos toe sy 'n jongmeisie was en kan sy ook van die kos eet wat hy ontvang. Geen onbevoegde persoon mag egter van die gewyde gawes eet nie. 14As 'n onbevoegde persoon per ongeluk van die gewyde gawes eet, moet hy die waarde daarvan plus twintig persent aan die priester uitbetaal. 15Die priesters moet egter toesien dat die gewyde gawes wat die Israeliete aan die Here gee, nie ontwy word nie. 16Hulle mag nie toelaat dat onbevoegde persone van die gewyde gawes eet nie, want dan sal hulle straf oor hulleself bring. Ek, die Here, heilig die priesters. 17Die Here het vir Moses gesê: 18Sê vir Aäron, vir sy seuns en vir al die Israeliete: Wanneer enige Israeliet of vreemdeling in Israel aan die Here 'n brandoffer wil bring, moet dit vir die Here aanneemlik wees, of dit nou bedoel is om geloftes na te kom en of dit bedoel is as vrywillige offers. Dit moet 'n bul, 'n skaapram of 'n bokram wees en sonder liggaamsgebrek. 19Geen dier wat 'n liggaamlike tekortkoming het, mag geoffer word nie, want die Here sal dit nie van julle aanneem nie. [20]Wanneer iemand 'n maaltydoffer aan die Here bring om 'n gelofte na te kom of as 'n vrywillige offer, is 'n bees of 'n stuk kleinvee sonder liggaamsgebrek aanneemlik. Die dier mag nie enige liggaamlike tekortkominge hê nie: [21]dit mag nie blind wees of 'n afpoot hê of 'n seerplek of vratjies of brandsiek of enige velkwaal nie. Só 'n dier mag julle nie vir die Here aanbied en op die altaar bring as 'n offergawe vir Hom nie. [22]As vrywillige gawes mag julle wel beeste of kleinvee met misvormde liggaamsdele offer, maar sulke diere mag nie gebruik word om 'n gelofte na te kom nie. [23]Julle mag nie 'n os of 'n hamel aan die Here offer nie, ongeag die manier waarop dit gekastreer is. Sulke offers mag julle in julle land nie bring nie. [24]Julle mag ook nie 'n os of 'n hamel wat julle by 'n uitlander kry, aan julle God offer nie. Sulke diere is vermink, hulle het 'n liggaamlike tekortkoming, en die Here sal dit nie van julle aanneem nie. [25]Die Here het vir Moses gesê: [26]'n Kalf of 'n skaaplam of 'n boklam wat aankom, moet 'n week lank by sy ma bly. Van die agste dag af is die diertjie aanneemlik as 'n offergawe aan die Here. [27]'n Kalf of 'n lam mag nie op dieselfde dag as sy ma geoffer word nie. [28]Wanneer julle 'n dankoffer aan die Here bring, moet julle dit so doen dat dit vir die Here aanneemlik is. [29]Julle moet die offervleis dieselfde dag opeet en niks laat oorbly tot die volgende dag nie. Ek is die Here. [30]Gehoorsaam my gebooie en voer dit uit. Ek is die Here. [31]Julle mag nie my heilige Naam ontheilig nie. Die hele Israel moet My as die Heilige erken. Ek, die Here, heilig julle. [32]Ek het julle uit Egipte gebring sodat Ek julle God kan wees. Ek is die Here.

Leviticus 23

Feasts of the Lord

Lev 23:1 The LORD gave Moses

Lev 23:2 the following regulations for the religious festivals, when the people of Israel are to gather for worship.

The Sabbath

Lev 23:3 You have six days in which to do your work, but remember that the seventh day, the Sabbath, is a day of rest. On that day do not work, but gather for worship. The Sabbath belongs to the LORD, no matter where you live.

The Passover

Lev 23:4 Proclaim the following festivals at the appointed times.

Lev 23:5 The Passover, celebrated to honor the LORD, begins at sunset on the fourteenth day of the first month.

Lev 23:6 On the fifteenth day the Festival of Unleavened Bread begins, and for seven days you must not eat any bread made with yeast.

Lev 23:7 On the first of these days you shall gather for worship and do none of your daily work.

Lev 23:8 Offer your food offerings to the LORD for seven days. On the seventh day you shall again gather for worship, but you shall do none of your daily work.

The Feast of Firstfruits

Lev 23:9 (9-10) When you come into the land that the LORD is giving you and you harvest your grain, take the first sheaf to the priest.

Lev 23:11 He shall present it as a special offering to the LORD, so that you may be accepted. The priest shall present it the day after the Sabbath.

Lev 23:12 On the day you present the offering of grain, also sacrifice as a burnt offering a one-year-old male lamb that has no defects.

Lev 23:13 With it you shall present four pounds of flour mixed with olive oil as a food offering. The odor of this offering is pleasing to the LORD. You shall also present with it an offering of one quart of wine.

Lev 23:14 Do not eat any of the new grain, whether raw, roasted, or baked into bread, until you have brought this offering to God. This regulation is to be observed by all your descendants for all time to come.

The Feast of Weeks

Lev 23:15 Count seven full weeks from the day after the Sabbath on which you bring your sheaf of grain to present to the LORD.

Lev 23:16 On the fiftieth day, the day after the seventh Sabbath, present to the LORD another new offering of grain.

Lev 23:17 Each family is to bring two loaves of bread and present them to the LORD as a special gift. Each loaf shall be made of four pounds of flour baked with yeast and shall be presented to the LORD as an offering of the first grain to be harvested.

Lev 23:18 And with the bread the community is to present seven one-year-old lambs, one bull, and two rams, none of which may have any defects. They shall be offered as a burnt offering to the LORD, along with a grain offering and a wine offering. The odor of this offering is pleasing to the LORD.

Lev 23:19 Also offer one male goat as a sin offering and two one-year-old male lambs as a fellowship offering.

Lev 23:20 The priest shall present the bread with the two lambs as a special gift to the LORD for the priests. These offerings are holy.

Lev 23:21 On that day do none of your daily work, but gather for worship. Your descendants are to observe this regulation for all time to come, no matter where they live.

Lev 23:22 When you harvest your fields, do not cut the grain at the edges of the fields, and do not go back to cut the heads of grain that were left; leave them for poor people and foreigners. The LORD is your God.

The Feast of Trumpets

Lev 23:23 (23-24) On the first day of the seventh month observe a special day of rest, and come together for worship when the trumpets sound.

Lev 23:25 Present a food offering to the LORD and do none of your daily work.

The Day of Atonement

Lev 23:26 (26-27) The tenth day of the seventh month is the day when the annual ritual is to be performed to take away the sins of the people. On that day do not eat anything at all; come together for worship, and present a food offering to the LORD.

Lev 23:28 Do no work on that day, because it is the day for performing the ritual to take away sin.

Lev 23:29 Any who eat anything on that day will no longer be considered God's people.

Lev 23:30 And if any do any work on that day, the LORD himself will put them to death.

Lev 23:31 This regulation applies to all your descendants, no matter where they live.

Lev 23:32 From sunset on the ninth day of the month to sunset on the tenth observe this day as a special day of rest, during which nothing may be eaten.

The Feast of Booths

Lev 23:33 (33-34) The Festival of Shelters begins on the fifteenth day of the seventh month and continues for seven days.

Lev 23:35 On the first of these days come together for worship and do none of your daily work.

Lev 23:36 Each day for seven days you shall present a food offering. On the eighth day come together again for worship and present a food offering. It is a day for worship, and you shall do no work.

Lev 23:37 (These are the religious festivals on which you honor the LORD by gathering together for worship and presenting food offerings, burnt offerings, grain offerings, sacrifices, and wine offerings, as required day by day.

Lev 23:38 These festivals are in addition to the regular Sabbaths, and these offerings are in addition to your regular gifts, your offerings as fulfillment of vows, and your freewill offerings that you give to the LORD.)

Lev 23:39 When you have harvested your fields, celebrate this festival for seven days, beginning on the fifteenth day of the seventh month. The first day shall be a special day of rest.

Lev 23:40 On that day take some of the best fruit from your trees, take palm branches and limbs from leafy trees, and begin a religious festival to honor the LORD your God.

Lev 23:41 Celebrate it for seven days. This regulation is to be kept by your descendants for all time to come.

Lev 23:42 All the people of Israel shall live in shelters for seven days,

Lev 23:43 so that your descendants may know that the LORD made the people of Israel live in simple shelters when he led them out of Egypt. He is the LORD your God.

Lev 23:44 So in this way Moses gave the people of Israel the regulations for observing the religious festivals to honor the LORD.

LEVÍTIKUS 23

1Die Here het vir Moses gesê: 2Sê vir die Israeliete: Die feeste wat julle tot my eer moet vier, moet gewyde byeenkomste wees. Die volgende is my feeste: 3Ses dae moet julle werk, maar die sewende dag is 'n rusdag, 'n sabbat waarop julle 'n gewyde byeenkoms moet hou. Dan mag julle geen werk doen nie. Julle moet die sabbat aan die Here wy, waar julle ook al woon. 4Verder is daar ook die volgende feeste tot my eer, gewyde byeenkomste wat julle op vasgestelde tye moet vier: 5Op die veertiende van die eerste maand teen skemer moet julle die paasfees vier tot eer van die Here. 6Op die vyftiende van dieselfde maand begin die fees van ongesuurde brood tot eer van die Here. Sewe dae moet julle ongesuurde brood eet. 7Op die eerste dag moet julle 'n gewyde byeenkoms hou: julle mag dan geen werk doen nie. 8Sewe dae lank moet julle offers aan die Here bring. Die sewende dag moet julle weer 'n gewyde byeenkoms hou, en niemand mag werk nie. 9Die Here het verder vir Moses gesê: 10Sê vir die Israeliete: Wanneer julle in die land kom wat Ek aan julle gee, en julle samel die graanoes in, moet elkeen die eerste ryp are van sy oes na die priester toe neem. 11Hy moet die are as beweegoffer vir My, die Here, aanbied sodat julle vir My aanneemlik sal wees. Die priester moet dit die dag ná die sabbat doen. 12Wanneer julle die are as beweegoffer aanbied, moet julle ook 'n jaaroud lam sonder liggaamsgebrek as brandoffer aan die Here bring, 13sowel as 'n graanoffer van drie kilogram meel aangemaak met olyfolie. Dit is 'n offer wat deur My, die Here, aanvaar word. Daarby moet een liter wyn as drankoffer gebring word. 14Voor hierdie dag waarop julle die offer aan julle God bring, mag julle nog niks van die nuwe graan gebruik nie, nie gebak of gebraai of rou nie. Dit moet 'n vaste instelling vir julle hele nageslag wees, waar julle ook al woon. 15Van die dag ná die sabbat af, die dag waarop julle die are as beweegoffer vir die Here aanbied, moet julle sewe volle weke tel. 16Die dag ná die sewende sabbat, op die vyftigste dag, moet julle vir die Here 'n graanoffer bring uit die pas geoeste graan. 17Elke gesin moet twee brode vir 'n beweegoffer na die heiligdom toe bring. Dit moet van drie kilogram meel met suurdeeg gebak wees en is 'n gawe aan die Here uit die eerste opbrengs van die oes. 18Behalwe al die brode moet daar ook sewe jaaroud lammers sonder liggaamsgebrek, 'n jong bul en twee ramme gebring word. Hulle moet as brandoffers aan die Here gebring word met die graanoffer en die drankoffers wat daarby behoort. Dit is 'n offer wat deur My, die Here, aanvaar word. 19Julle moet ook 'n bokram as sondeoffer bring en twee jaaroud lammers as maaltydoffer. 20Die priester moet die twee lammers saam met die brode uit die eerste opbrengs van die oes as beweegoffer vir die Here aanbied. Dit is 'n gewyde gawe aan die Here en dit kom die priesters toe. 21Op hierdie dag moet julle 'n gewyde byeenkoms hou. Niemand mag dan werk nie. Dit moet vir altyd 'n vaste instelling wees, waar julle of julle nageslag ook al woon. 22Wanneer julle julle lande oes, moet julle nie die wenakkers afoes of die are wat bly lê, optel nie. Julle moet dit los vir die armes en die vreemdelinge. Ek is die Here julle God. 23Die Here het vir Moses gesê: 24Sê vir die Israeliete: Die eerste dag van die sewende maand moet 'n rusdag wees, 'n gedenkdag wat met die blaas van ramshorings aangekondig word, 'n gewyde byeenkoms. 25Niemand mag dan werk nie en julle moet offers aan die Here bring. 26Die Here het vir Moses gesê: 27Op die tiende van die sewende maand is dit die versoendag. Julle moet dan 'n gewyde byeenkoms hou, en julle moet vas en aan die Here offers bring. 28Niemand mag op dié dag werk nie, want dit is die versoendag waarop daar vir julle versoening gedoen word by die Here julle God. 29Enigiemand wat nie vas op hierdie dag nie, moet van sy volksgenote afgesny word 30en Ek sal elkeen wat op hierdie dag werk, om die lewe bring. 31Julle mag geen werk doen nie. Hierdie dag moet vir altyd 'n vaste instelling wees, waar julle of julle nageslag ook al woon. 32Dit moet vir julle 'n plegtige rusdag wees waarop julle vas. Julle moet rus van sononder af op die negende van die maand tot sononder op die tiende. 33Die Here het vir Moses gesê: 34Sê vir die Israeliete: Van die vyftiende van die sewende maand af moet julle sewe dae lank die huttefees vier tot eer van die Here. 35Op die eerste dag van die fees moet julle 'n gewyde byeenkoms hou. Niemand mag dan werk nie. 36Sewe dae lank moet julle offers aan die Here bring. Op die agste dag moet julle weer 'n gewyde byeenkoms hou en offers aan die Here bring. Dit moet 'n besondere feesdag wees. Niemand mag dan werk nie. 37Dit is die feestye wat deur die Here bepaal is, die tye waarop julle gewyde byeenkomste moet hou om offers aan die Here te bring: brandoffers en graanoffers, maaltydoffers en drankoffers soos vir elke feesdag voorgeskryf. 38Daarnaas is daar nog die gewone sabbatte van die Here, die gewone geskenke aan die heiligdom en al die offers wat julle bring om geloftes na te kom of wat julle vrywillig aan die Here gee. 39Julle moet dus op die vyftiende van die sewende maand wanneer julle die vrugteoes insamel, sewe dae lank die fees van die Here vier. Die eerste en die agste dag moet rusdae wees. 40Op die eerste dag moet julle sitrusvrugte neem saam met palmblare en takke van digte bome en rivierwilgers, en dan moet julle sewe dae lank met vreugde feesvier by die heiligdom van die Here julle God. 41Julle moet hierdie fees van die Here elke jaar sewe dae lank vier. Dit moet 'n vaste instelling wees vir julle nageslag. Julle moet dit in die sewende maand vier. 42Sewe dae lank moet julle in hutte woon, alle gebore Israeliete moet dan in hutte woon. 43Die doel daarmee is dat julle nageslag moet weet dat Ek die Israeliete in hutte laat woon het toe Ek hulle uit Egipte laat trek het. Ek is die Here julle God. 44Moses het toe aan die Israeliete die bevele gegee oor die feestye wat deur die Here bepaal is.

Leviticus 24

The Lamps

Lev 24:1 The LORD told Moses

Lev 24:2 to give the following orders to the people of Israel: Bring pure olive oil of the finest quality for the lamps in the Tent, so that a light might be kept burning regularly.

Lev 24:3 Each evening Aaron shall light them and keep them burning until morning, there in the LORD's presence outside the curtain in front of the Covenant Box, which is in the Most Holy Place. This regulation is to be observed for all time to come.

Lev 24:4 Aaron shall take care of the lamps on the lampstand of pure gold and must see that they burn regularly in the LORD's presence.

Bread for the Tabernacle

Lev 24:5 Take twenty-four pounds of flour and bake twelve loaves of bread.

Lev 24:6 Put the loaves in two rows, six in each row, on the table covered with pure gold, which is in the LORD's presence.

Lev 24:7 Put some pure incense on each row, as a token food offering to the LORD to take the place of the bread.

Lev 24:8 Every Sabbath, for all time to come, the bread must be placed in the presence of the LORD. This is Israel's duty forever.

Lev 24:9 The bread belongs to Aaron and his descendants, and they shall eat it in a holy place, because this is a very holy part of the food offered to the LORD for the priests.

Punishment for Blasphemy

Lev 24:10 (10-11) There was a man whose father was an Egyptian and whose mother was an Israelite named Shelomith, the daughter of Dibri from the tribe of Dan. There in the camp this man quarreled with an Israelite. During the quarrel he cursed the LORD, so they took him to Moses,

Lev 24:12 put him under guard, and waited for the LORD to tell them what to do with him.

Lev 24:13 The LORD said to Moses,

Lev 24:14 "Take that man out of the camp. Everyone who heard him curse shall put his hands on the man's head to testify that he is guilty, and then the whole community shall stone him to death.

Lev 24:15 Then tell the people of Israel that anyone who curses God must suffer the consequences

Lev 24:16 and be put to death. Any Israelite or any foreigner living in Israel who curses the LORD shall be stoned to death by the whole community.

An Eye for an Eye

Lev 24:17 "Any who commit murder shall be put to death,

Lev 24:18 and any who kill an animal belonging to someone else must replace it. The principle is a life for a life.

Lev 24:19 "If any of you injure another person, whatever you have done shall be done to you.

Lev 24:20 If you break a bone, one of your bones shall be broken; if you put out an eye, one of your eyes shall be put out; if you knock out a tooth, one of your teeth shall be knocked out. Whatever injury you cause another person shall be done to you in return.

Lev 24:21 Whoever kills an animal shall replace it, but whoever kills a human being shall be put to death.

Lev 24:22 This law applies to all of you, to Israelites and to foreigners living among you, because I am the LORD your God."

Lev 24:23 When Moses had said this to the people of Israel, they took the man outside the camp and stoned him to death. In this way the people of Israel did what the LORD had commanded Moses.

LEVÍTIKUS 24

1Die Here het vir Moses gesê: 2Beveel die Israeliete om vir jou van die suiwerste olyfolie te bring vir die lamp in die heiligdom, sodat daar gereeld lig kan wees. 3Aäron moet sorg dat daar dwarsdeur die nag 'n lig brand in die tent van ontmoeting, voor die voorhangsel waaragter die ark met die getuienis is en waar die Here teenwoordig is. Dit is 'n vaste voorskrif ook vir julle nageslag. 4Aäron moet die lampe van die goue kandelaar gereeld versorg voor die Here. 5Jy moet koringmeel vat en twaalf ringbrode daarvan bak. Elke brood moet van drie kilogram meel gebak word. 6Pak dit in twee stapels van ses elk op die goue tafel voor die Here. 7Sit dan op elke stapel 'n bakkie suiwer wierook. Die wierook is 'n offer van die Here in die plek van die brood. 8Die brood moet gereeld op elke sabbat daar voor die Here vervang word. Dit is 'n verpligting wat vir altyd op die Israeliete rus. 9Die brood kom Aäron en sy seuns toe. Hulle moet dit op 'n gewyde plek eet, want dit is 'n besondere gewyde gawe. Dit is 'n deel wat hulle altyd moet kry uit die offers wat aan die Here gebring word. 10Daar was 'n man tussen die Israeliete wat 'n Egiptiese pa en 'n Israelitiese ma gehad het. Sy ma se naam was Selomit. Sy was 'n dogter van Dibri, uit die stam Dan. Dié man het in die kamp met 'n man van suiwer Israelitiese afkoms in 'n woordewisseling betrokke geraak en die Godsnaam lasterlik gebruik. Hy is toe na Moses toe gevat 11en gevange gehou. Intussen is 'n beslissing van die Here oor die saak afgewag. 12Die Here het toe vir Moses gesê: 13Vat die man wat gelaster het, uit die kamp uit. Laat almal wat hom hoor laster het, hulle hande op sy kop sit, en laat die hele gemeente hom daarna met klippe doodgooi. 14Sê dan vir die Israeliete: Elkeen wat vir God laster, sal die straf daarvoor kry. 15Wie die Naam van die Here oneerbiedig gebruik, moet die doodstraf kry. Die hele gemeente moet hom met klippe doodgooi. Dit geld vir gebore Israeliete en vir vreemdelinge: wie die Godsnaam oneerbiedig gebruik, moet sterf. 16Iemand wat moord pleeg, moet die doodstraf kry. 17As iemand 'n ander se dier doodmaak, moet hy dit vervang. Die beginsel is: 'n lewe vir 'n lewe. 18As iemand 'n medemens beseer, moet aan hom presies dieselfde gedoen word: 19as hy iemand se been gebreek het, moet sý been ook gebreek word; as hy iemand se oog beskadig het, moet sý oog ook beskadig word; as hy iemand se tand uitgeslaan het, moet sý tand ook uitgeslaan word. Daar moet aan hom gedoen word wat hy aan sy medemens gedoen het. 20As iemand 'n ander se dier doodmaak, moet hy dit vervang, maar as iemand 'n moord pleeg, moet hy die doodstraf kry. 21Hierdie beginsel geld vir gebore Israeliete en vir vreemdelinge, want Ek, die Here, is julle God. 22Moses het dit toe vir die Israeliete gesê. Hulle het die man wat gelaster het, uit die kamp gevat en hom met klippe doodgegooi. So het die Israeliete die bevele wat die Here vir Moses gegee het, uitgevoer.

Leviticus 25

The Sabbath Year

Lev 25:1 The LORD spoke to Moses on Mount Sinai and commanded him

Lev 25:2 to give the following regulations to the people of Israel. When you enter the land that the LORD is giving you, you shall honor the LORD by not cultivating the land every seventh year.

Lev 25:3 You shall plant your fields, prune your vineyards, and gather your crops for six years.

Lev 25:4 But the seventh year is to be a year of complete rest for the land, a year dedicated to the LORD. Do not plant your fields or prune your vineyards.

Lev 25:5 Do not even harvest the grain that grows by itself without being planted, and do not gather the grapes from your unpruned vines; it is a year of complete rest for the land.

Lev 25:6 Although the land has not been cultivated during that year, it will provide food for you, your slaves, your hired men, the foreigners living with you,

Lev 25:7 your domestic animals, and the wild animals in your fields. Everything that it produces may be eaten.

The Year of Jubilee

Lev 25:8 Count seven times seven years, a total of forty-nine years.

Lev 25:9 Then, on the tenth day of the seventh month, the Day of Atonement, send someone to blow a trumpet throughout the whole land.

Lev 25:10 In this way you shall set the fiftieth year apart and proclaim freedom to all the inhabitants of the land. During this year all property that has been sold shall be restored to the original owner or the descendants, and any who have been sold as slaves shall return to their families.

Lev 25:11 You shall not plant your fields or harvest the grain that grows by itself or gather the grapes in your unpruned vineyards.

Lev 25:12 The whole year shall be sacred for you; you shall eat only what the fields produce of themselves.

Lev 25:13 In this year all property that has been sold shall be restored to its original owner.

Lev 25:14 So when you sell land to an Israelite or buy land, do not deal unfairly.

Lev 25:15 The price is to be set according to the number of years the land can produce crops before the next Year of Restoration.

Lev 25:16 If there are many years, the price shall be higher, but if there are only a few years, the price shall be lower, because what is being sold is the number of crops the land can produce.

Lev 25:17 Do not cheat an Israelite, but obey the LORD your God.

Lev 25:18 Obey all the LORD's laws and commands, so that you may live in safety in the land.

Lev 25:19 The land will produce its crops, and you will have all you want to eat and will live in safety.

Lev 25:20 But someone may ask what there will be to eat during the seventh year, when no fields are planted and no crops gathered.

Lev 25:21 The LORD will bless the land in the sixth year so that it will produce enough food for two years.

Lev 25:22 When you plant your fields in the eighth year, you will still be eating what you harvested during the sixth year, and you will have enough to eat until the crops you plant that year are harvested.

Redemption of Property

Lev 25:23 Your land must not be sold on a permanent basis, because you do not own it; it belongs to God, and you are like foreigners who are allowed to make use of it.

Lev 25:24 When land is sold, the right of the original owner to buy it back must be recognized.

Lev 25:25 If any of you Israelites become poor and are forced to sell your land, your closest relative is to buy it back.

Lev 25:26 If you have no relative to buy it back, you may later become prosperous and have enough to buy it back yourself.

Lev 25:27 In that case you must pay to the one who bought it a sum that will make up for the years remaining until the next Year of Restoration, when you would in any event recover your land.

Lev 25:28 But if you do not have enough money to buy the land back, it remains under the control of the one who bought it until the next Year of Restoration. In that year it will be returned to its original owner.

Lev 25:29 If you sell a house in a walled city, you have the right to buy it back during the first full year from the date of sale.

Lev 25:30 But if you do not buy it back within the year, you lose the right of repurchase, and the house becomes the permanent property of the purchasers and their descendants; it will not be returned in the Year of Restoration.

Lev 25:31 But houses in unwalled villages are to be treated like fields; the original owner has the right to buy them back, and they are to be returned in the Year of Restoration.

Lev 25:32 However, Levites have the right to buy back at any time their property in the cities assigned to them.

Lev 25:33 If a house in one of these cities is sold by a Levite and is not bought back, it must be returned in the Year of Restoration, because the houses which the Levites own in their cities are their permanent property among the people of Israel.

Lev 25:34 But the pasture land around the Levite cities shall never be sold; it is their property forever.

Kindness for Poor Brothers

Lev 25:35 If any Israelites living near you become poor and cannot support themselves, you must provide for them as you would for a hired worker, so that they can continue to live near you.

Lev 25:36 Do not charge Israelites any interest, but obey God and let them live near you.

Lev 25:37 Do not make them pay interest on the money you lend them, and do not make a profit on the food you sell them.

Lev 25:38 This is the command of the LORD your God, who brought you out of Egypt in order to give you the land of Canaan and to be your God.

Lev 25:39 If any Israelites living near you become so poor that they sell themselves to you as a slave, you shall not make them do the work of a slave.

Lev 25:40 They shall stay with you as hired workers and serve you until the next Year of Restoration.

Lev 25:41 At that time they and their children shall leave you and return to their family and to the property of their ancestors.

Lev 25:42 The people of Israel are the LORD's slaves, and he brought them out of Egypt; they must not be sold into slavery.

Lev 25:43 Do not treat them harshly, but obey your God.

Lev 25:44 If you need slaves, you may buy them from the nations around you.

Lev 25:45 You may also buy the children of the foreigners who are living among you. Such children born in your land may become your property,

Lev 25:46 and you may leave them as an inheritance to your children, whom they must serve as long as they live. But you must not treat any Israelites harshly.

Redeeming a Poor Man

Lev 25:47 Suppose a foreigner living with you becomes rich, while some Israelites become poor and sell themselves as slaves to that foreigner or to a member of that foreigner's family.

Lev 25:48 After they are sold, they still have the right to be bought back. A brother

Lev 25:49 or an uncle or a cousin or another close relative may buy them back; or if they themselves earn enough, they may buy their own freedom.

Lev 25:50 They must consult the one who bought them, and they must count the years from the time they sold themselves until the next Year of Restoration and must set the price for their release on the basis of the wages paid hired workers.

Lev 25:51 (51-52) They must refund a part of the purchase price according to the number of years left,

Lev 25:53 as if they had been hired on an annual basis. Their master must not treat them harshly.

Lev 25:54 If they are not set free in any of these ways, they and their children must be set free in the next Year of Restoration.

Lev 25:55 Israelites cannot be permanent slaves, because the people of Israel are the LORD's slaves. He brought them out of Egypt; he is the LORD their God.

LEVÍTIKUS 25

[1]Die Here het vir Moses by Sinaiberg gesê: [2]Sê vir die Israeliete: Wanneer julle in die land kom wat Ek aan julle gee, moet daar vir die land rustye wees tot eer van die Here: [3]ses jaar kan julle die lande saai en die wingerde snoei en die opbrengs oes, [4]maar die sewende jaar moet die hele land 'n rustyd hê, 'n sabbatsjaar tot eer van die Here. Dan mag julle niks saai nie en ook nie die wingerde snoei nie. [5]Julle mag selfs nie die opslaggraan of die druiwetrosse van die ongesnoeide wingerde afoes nie. Dit moet vir die land 'n jaar van algehele rus wees. [6]Dit moet vir julle 'n jaar van algehele rus wees. Julle, julle slawe, julle slavinne, julle dagloners en die bywoners in julle land sowel as julle diere en die wild moet dan leef van wat die veld oplewer. [7]Tel sewe sabbatsjare af, sewe maal sewe jaar, dit wil sê nege en veertig jaar. [8]Laat dan ramshorings blaas op die tiende van die sewende maand op die versoendag. Die ramshorings is die teken dat almal in die land [9]die jaar van die vyftigste landbouseisoen op 'n besondere wyse aan die Here moet wy. Daar moet 'n landswye afskrywing van skuld geproklameer word. Dit moet vir almal 'n hersteljaar wees: elke Israeliet moet sy grond terugkry en mag na sy familie toe teruggaan. [10]Hierdie vyftigste landbouseisoen moet julle hersteljaar wees. Julle mag nie saai nie en ook nie die opslaggraan of ongesnoeide wingerde afoes nie, [11]maar julle moet eet van wat die veld opgelewer het: die hersteljaar is 'n gewyde jaar. [12]In die hersteljaar moet elkeen sy grond terugkry. [13]Wanneer julle grond verkoop of koop, moet julle mekaar nie uitbuit nie. [14]Die koop- of verkoopprys moet bepaal word volgens die aantal oeste wat die stuk grond kan oplewer tot die volgende hersteljaar. [15]As dit lank voor die volgende hersteljaar is, moet die prys hoër wees, maar as daar min jare oor is, moet die prys laer wees, want in werklikheid word alleen die opbrengs tot die volgende hersteljaar verkoop. [16]Uit eerbied vir julle God mag julle mekaar nie uitbuit nie. Ek is die Here julle God. [17]Julle moet my voorskrifte nakom en my bepalings gehoorsaam. As julle dit doen, sal julle sonder sorge in die land kan woon. [18]Die grond sal goeie oeste lewer, en julle sal oorgenoeg hê om te eet sodat julle sonder sorge in die land kan woon. [19]Julle kan julle miskien afvra waarvan julle elke sewende jaar moet leef, aangesien julle nie mag saai of 'n oes insamel nie. [20]Ek sal aan julle oorvloed gee in die sesde jaar sodat die oes groot genoeg sal wees vir drie jaar. [21]Wanneer julle in die agste jaar weer saai, sal julle nog steeds die oes van die sesde jaar gebruik. Julle sal selfs genoeg hê totdat julle in die negende jaar die oes insamel. [22]Geen grond mag permanent verkoop word nie, want die land behoort aan My. Julle is slegs vreemdelinge en bywoners by My. [23]Verder moet die reg om grond terug te koop, oral en altyd geld. [24]Wanneer 'n Israeliet deur armoede verplig was om van sy grond te verkoop, moet die naaste manlike familielid dit vir die eienaar terugkoop. [25]Wanneer daar nie iemand is wat dit kan terugkoop nie, kan dit gebeur dat die persoon later self genoeg geld bymekaarmaak om die grond terug te koop. [26]Die aantal jare wat verloop het sedert die kooptransaksie moet dan in berekening gebring word en die oorspronklike eienaar moet die koper slegs uitbetaal vir die seisoene wat nog oor is tot die volgende hersteljaar. Die oorspronklike eienaar kan dan weer sy grond in besit neem. [27]As hy egter nie genoeg geld bymekaarkry om die grond terug te koop nie, bly die koper in beheer daarvan tot die volgende hersteljaar. In die hersteljaar moet hy die grond ontruim en die oorspronklike eienaar moet dan weer sy grond in besit neem. [28]Wanneer iemand 'n woonhuis in 'n ommuurde stad verkoop, moet hy 'n volle jaar lank die reg behou om dit terug te koop. [29]As hy nie binne een jaar van hierdie reg gebruik maak nie, verval sy aanspraak op die betrokke huis en word dit die wettige eiendom van die koper en sy erfgename. 'n Woonhuis in 'n ommuurde stad val dus nie terug in die hersteljaar nie. [30]Woonhuise in dorpe wat nie mure om het nie, geld as deel van die platteland: die oorspronklike eienaar het die reg om dit enige tyd terug te koop, en in die hersteljaar val dit terug na hom. [31]In die Levietestede het die Leviete die onvervreembare reg om woonhuise waarvan hulle die oorspronklike eienaars was, terug te koop. [32]Wanneer 'n Leviet 'n huis wat hy in 'n Levietestad gekoop het, terugverkoop aan die oorspronklike eienaar wat nie 'n Leviet is nie, moet die huis in die hersteljaar terugval na die Leviet, want die huise in die Levietestede moet in Israel die eiendom van die Leviete wees. [33]Die weiveld om die Levietestede mag nooit verkoop word nie, want die Leviete het 'n onvervreembare reg daarop. [34]Wanneer 'n mede-Israeliet só in die skuld raak by jou dat hy nie kan betaal nie, moet jy hom help soos jy 'n vreemdeling of 'n bywoner sou help, en hom by jou aan die lewe hou. [35]Jy mag hom geen rente van enige aard laat betaal nie. Uit eerbied vir jou God moet jy jou mede-Israeliet by jou aan die lewe hou. [36]As jy aan hom geld leen, moet dit dus rentevry wees, en as jy aan hom kos verskaf, moet dit teen kosprys wees. [37]Ek is die Here julle God wat julle uit Egipte laat trek het om Kanaän aan julle te gee en om julle God te wees. [38]Wanneer 'n mede-Israeliet in jou omgewing só in die skuld raak dat hy hom aan jou verkoop as slaaf, mag jy hom nie slawewerk laat doen nie. [39]Jy moet hom soos 'n dagloner of soos 'n bywoner behandel. Hy moet tot die hersteljaar in jou diens bly. [40]Dan moet hy en sy afhanklikes as vry mense teruggaan na hulle familie en hulle familiegrond toe. [41]Omdat Ek die Israeliete uit Egipte laat trek het, is hulle my dienaars. Daarom mag hulle nie as slawe aan iemand verkoop word nie. 42Uit eerbied vir julle God mag julle ook nie so 'n mede-Israeliet hard behandel nie. 43Julle moet die slawe en slavinne wat julle nodig het, by die nasies rondom julle koop. 44Julle mag ook die kinders van bywoners koop wat tydelik tussen julle woon of van bywonerfamilies wat al geslagte in die land is. Sulke slawe is julle wettige eiendom 45wat deur julle aan julle kinders bemaak kan word as besittings en wat lewenslank hulle slawe sal wees. Julle mag egter nooit van julle mede-Israeliete slawe maak nie. 46Wanneer 'n vreemdeling of 'n bywoner in julle land ryk word, en 'n mede-Israeliet raak by so iemand in die skuld sodat hy hom as slaaf moet verkoop aan die nie-Israeliet of dié se nageslag, 47het die Israeliet die reg om vrygekoop te word. Een van sy broers 48of 'n oom of 'n neef of 'n ander manlike familielid kan hom vrykoop. As so 'n slaaf genoeg geld bymekaarkry, kan hy homself vrykoop. 49In so 'n geval moet die bedrag waarteen hy as slaaf verkoop is en die getal jare van die tyd af dat hy verkoop is tot die volgende hersteljaar toe, in berekening gebring word. Hy moet dan krediet ontvang vir die jare wat hy reeds diens gedoen het en as dagloner sy skuld afgewerk het. 50As dit lank voor die hersteljaar is, sal die vrykoopprys dus 'n groot deel van die oorspronklike verkoopprys uitmaak. 51As daar net 'n paar jaar oor is voor die hersteljaar, sal die vrykoopprys slegs 'n klein deeltjie van die oorspronklike verkoopprys wees. 52Hy het soos 'n dagloner jaar na jaar vir die nie-Israeliet gewerk. Jy moet sorg dat hy nie hard behandel word nie. 53As hy nie voor die tyd vrygekoop word nie, moet hy en sy afhanklikes vrygelaat word in die hersteljaar. 54Dit moet gedoen word omdat die Israeliete my dienaars is. Hulle is my dienaars omdat Ek hulle uit Egipte laat trek het. Ek is die Here julle God.

Leviticus 26

Blessings for Obedience

Lev 26:1 The LORD said, "Do not make idols or set up statues, stone pillars, or carved stones to worship. I am the LORD your God.

Lev 26:2 Keep the religious festivals and honor the place where I am worshiped. I am the LORD.

Lev 26:3 "If you live according to my laws and obey my commands,

Lev 26:4 I will send you rain at the right time, so that the land will produce crops and the trees will bear fruit.

Lev 26:5 Your crops will be so plentiful that you will still be harvesting grain when it is time to pick grapes, and you will still be picking grapes when it is time to plant grain. You will have all that you want to eat, and you can live in safety in your land.

Lev 26:6 "I will give you peace in your land, and you can sleep without being afraid of anyone. I will get rid of the dangerous animals in the land, and there will be no more war there.

Lev 26:7 You will be victorious over your enemies;

Lev 26:8 five of you will be able to defeat a hundred, and a hundred will be able to defeat ten thousand.

Lev 26:9 I will bless you and give you many children; I will keep my part of the covenant that I made with you.

Lev 26:10 Your harvests will be so plentiful that they will last for a year, and even then you will have to throw away what is left of the old harvest to make room for the new.

Lev 26:11 I will live among you in my sacred Tent, and I will never turn away from you.

Lev 26:12 I will be with you; I will be your God, and you will be my people.

Lev 26:13 I, the LORD your God, brought you out of Egypt so that you would no longer be slaves. I broke the power that held you down and I let you walk with your head held high."

Punishment for Disobedience

Lev 26:14 The LORD said, "If you will not obey my commands, you will be punished.

Lev 26:15 If you refuse to obey my laws and commands and break the covenant I have made with you,

Lev 26:16 I will punish you. I will bring disaster on you—incurable diseases and fevers that will make you blind and cause your life to waste away. You will plant your crops, but it will do you no good, because your enemies will conquer you and eat what you have grown.

Lev 26:17 I will turn against you, so that you will be defeated, and those who hate you will rule over you; you will be so terrified that you will run when no one is chasing you.

Lev 26:18 "If even after all of this you still do not obey me, I will increase your punishment seven times.

Lev 26:19 I will break your stubborn pride; there will be no rain, and your land will be dry and as hard as iron.

Lev 26:20 All your hard work will do you no good, because your land will not produce crops and the trees will not bear fruit.

Lev 26:21 "If you still continue to resist me and refuse to obey me, I will again increase your punishment seven times.

Lev 26:22 I will send dangerous animals among you, and they will kill your children, destroy your livestock, and leave so few of you that your roads will be deserted.

Lev 26:23 "If after all of this punishment you still do not listen to me, but continue to defy me,

Lev 26:24 then I will turn on you and punish you seven times harder than before.

Lev 26:25 I will bring war on you to punish you for breaking our covenant, and if you gather in your cities for safety, I will send incurable diseases among you, and you will be forced to surrender to your enemies.

Lev 26:26 I will cut off your food supply, so that ten women will need only one oven to bake all the bread they have. They will ration it out, and when you have eaten it all, you will still be hungry.

Lev 26:27 "If after all of this you still continue to defy me and refuse to obey me,

Lev 26:28 then in my anger I will turn on you and again make your punishment seven times worse than before.

Lev 26:29 Your hunger will be so great that you will eat your own children.

Lev 26:30 I will destroy your places of worship on the hills, tear down your incense altars, and throw your dead bodies on your fallen idols. In utter disgust

Lev 26:31 I will turn your cities into ruins, destroy your places of worship, and refuse to accept your sacrifices.

Lev 26:32 I will destroy your land so completely that the enemies who occupy it will be shocked at the destruction.

Lev 26:33 I will bring war on you and scatter you in foreign lands. Your land will be deserted, and your cities left in ruins.

Lev 26:34 (34-35) Then the land will enjoy the years of complete rest that you would not give it; it will lie abandoned and get its rest while you are in exile in the land of your enemies.

Lev 26:36 "I will make those of you who are in exile so terrified that the sound of a leaf blowing in the wind will make you run. You will run as if you were being pursued in battle, and you will fall when there is no enemy near you.

Lev 26:37 You will stumble over one another when no one is chasing you, and you will be unable to fight against any enemy.

Lev 26:38 You will die in exile, swallowed up by the land of your enemies.

Lev 26:39 The few of you who survive in the land of your enemies will waste away because of your own sin and the sin of your ancestors.

Lev 26:40 "But your descendants will confess their sins and the sins of their ancestors, who resisted me and rebelled against me,

Lev 26:41 and caused me to turn against them and send them into exile in the land of their enemies. At last, when your descendants are humbled and they have paid the penalty for their sin and rebellion,

Lev 26:42 I will remember my covenant with Jacob and with Isaac and with Abraham, and I will renew my promise to give my people the land.

Lev 26:43 First, however, the land must be rid of its people, so that it can enjoy its complete rest, and they must pay the full penalty for having rejected my laws and my commands.

Lev 26:44 But even then, when they are still in the land of their enemies, I will not completely abandon them or destroy them. That would put an end to my covenant with them, and I am the LORD their God.

Lev 26:45 I will renew the covenant that I made with their ancestors when I showed all the nations my power by bringing my people out of Egypt, in order that I, the LORD, might be their God."

Lev 26:46 All these are the laws and commands that the LORD gave to Moses on Mount Sinai for the people of Israel.

LEVÍTIKUS 26

1Julle mag vir julle geen gode maak nie. Julle mag geen beelde of klippilare oprig nie. Julle mag in julle land geen klippe met afbeeldings hê wat deur julle vereer word nie. Ek, die Here, is julle God. 2Julle moet my sabbatte vier en eerbied hê vir my heiligdom. Ek is die Here. 3As julle my voorskrifte nakom, my gebooie gehoorsaam en daarvolgens lewe, 4sal Ek vir julle reën gee op die regte tyd, sodat die lande oeste sal lewer en die bome vrugte sal dra. 5Julle sal graan dors tot dit weer tyd is om vrugte te oes, en julle sal vrugte oes tot dit weer planttyd is. Julle sal oorgenoeg kos hê en sonder sorge in julle land woon. 6Ek sal vrede gee in die land sodat julle rustig kan slaap: Ek sal die ongediertes uitroei en daar sal nie oorlog in julle land kom nie. 7Julle sal julle vyande verdryf en om die lewe bring. 8Net vyf van julle soldate sal honderd van die vyand op loop jaag, en net honderd van julle sal tien duisend op loop jaag. Julle sal hulle om die lewe bring. 9Ek sal vir julle goed wees en julle vrugbaar maak sodat julle 'n groot nasie sal word. So sal Ek my verbond met julle nakom. 10Julle sal nie eens 'n vorige seisoen se graan kan opgebruik nie, julle sal dit moet weggooi om plek te maak vir die nuwe oes. 11Ek sal by julle woon en nie 'n afsku van julle hê nie. 12Ek sal by julle bly en julle God wees, en julle sal my volk wees. 13Ek is die Here julle God wat julle uit Egipte laat trek het sodat julle nie meer sy slawe hoef te wees nie. Ek het die juk wat julle moes dra, gebreek en julle vry gemaak. 14As julle egter nie na My luister nie en nie alles doen wat Ek julle beveel het nie, 15as julle my voorskrifte en bepalings verwerp en met minagting behandel, sodat julle nie my bevele nakom nie en my verbond verbreek, 16sal Ek die volgende doen: Ek sal julle lewens vol angs maak. Julle sal geteister word deur tering en koors, siektes wat 'n mens blind maak en jou laat wegkwyn. Julle sal tevergeefs saai, want julle vyande sal julle oeste opeet. 17Ek sal my rug vir julle draai sodat julle deur julle vyande verpletter sal word. Julle haters sal dit vir julle so ondraaglik maak dat julle sal vlug al word julle nie agtervolg nie. 18As julle ná al hierdie dinge nog nie na My luister nie, sal Ek julle nog swaarder straf oor julle sondes: 19Ek sal alles waarop julle staatmaak, laat verdwyn. Daar sal geen druppel reën val nie: dit sal wees asof die hemel van yster en die grond van brons is. 20Julle sal julle kragte tevergeefs inspan: daar sal geen oes op julle lande wees nie, en julle bome sal geen vrugte dra nie. 21As julle My bly teenstaan en nie na My wil luister nie, sal Ek julle nóg swaarder straf, soos julle verdien oor julle sondes: 22Ek sal roofdiere tussen julle loslaat, en hulle sal julle kinders vang en julle veetroppe uitroei. Hulle sal julle só uitdun dat die paaie verlate sal wees. 23As dit julle nie tot ander insigte bring nie en julle My nog bly teenstaan, 24sal Ek júlle ook teenstaan. Ek sal julle nog swaarder straf oor julle sondes: 25Ek sal 'n oorlog oor julle bring. Dit sal die wraak wees oor julle ontrou aan my verbond. As julle veiligheid soek in julle stede, sal Ek pes onder julle loslaat sodat julle sal móét oorgee. 26Ek sal julle meel so min laat word dat tien vrouens saam net genoeg sal hê vir een baksel. Die stukkie wat vir elkeen afgeweeg word, sal nie julle honger kan stil nie. 27As julle hierna nóg nie na My luister nie en My nog steeds teenstaan, 28sal Ek julle in woede teenstaan. Ek sal julle nog swaarder straf oor julle sondes: 29julle sal die vleis van julle eie kinders moet eet! 30Ek sal julle hoogtes verwoes en julle wierookaltaartjies vernietig. Ek sal so 'n afsku van julle hê dat Ek julle lyke bo-op julle lewelose afgodsbeelde sal gooi. 31Ek sal puinhope maak van julle stede, Ek sal julle heiligdomme verwoes, Ek sal geen offer van julle aanvaar nie. 32Ek sal die land só verniel dat julle vyande wat daarin gaan woon, daaroor verstom sal staan. 33Vir júlle sal Ek met die swaard uitmekaar laat jaag en julle onder die heidennasies verstrooi. Julle land sal verlate wees en julle stede puinhope. 34Wanneer die land dan verlate lê en julle in julle vyande se gebied is, sal die grond uiteindelik sy verdiende rusjare kry. Dan sal die land rus en die verlore sabbatsjare inhaal. 35So lank as die land verlate is, sal dit die rus kry wat dit om die sewe jaar moes gehad het maar nooit gekry het toe julle dit bewoon het nie. 36Dié van julle wat oorbly, sal Ek in die lande van hulle vyande in so 'n spanning laat leef dat die geritsel van 'n droë blaar hulle op die loop sal jaag. Hulle sal hardloop tot hulle neerslaan, asof iemand met 'n swaard agter hulle aan is, maar daar sal niemand wees nie! 37Die vrees vir oorlog sal hulle oormekaar laat val om weg te kom van agtervolgers wat nie bestaan nie. Julle sal geen krag hê om weerstand te bied teen julle vyande nie! 38Julle sal tussen die heidennasies omkom, in die land van julle vyande sal julle sterf. 39Dié van julle wat daarna nog oor is, sal in die lande van julle vyande wegkwyn onder die selfverwyt oor hulle sonde. Hulle sal ook wegkwyn onder die wroeging oor die sondes van hulle voorvaders. 40Hulle sal húlle sonde en dié wat hulle voorvaders teen My begaan het, bely. Hulle sal erken dat hulle My teengestaan het, 41dat Ek hulle ook teengestaan het en hulle na hulle vyande se land toe gevat het om te sien of hulle dan oor hulle ongehoorsaamheid berou sal kry en hulle skuld sal erken. 42Wanneer hulle dit doen, sal Ek die beloftes wat Ek aan Jakob, aan Isak en aan Abraham gegee het, weer van krag maak. Ek sal my beloftes oor die land weer van krag maak. 43Maar die land sal eers sonder sy mense verlate moet lê om die verlore rusjare in te haal. Húlle sal hulle skuld moet erken, dat hulle my bepalings verwerp het en my voorskrifte met minagting behandel het. 44En tog, al sou hulle ballinge word in die land van hulle vyande, sal Ek hulle nie so verwerp, so minag, dat hulle heeltemal sal verdwyn en dat my verbond met hulle tot niet sal gaan nie, want Ek is die Here hulle God. 45Ek sal die belofte aan hulle voorouers wat Ek voor die oë van die nasies uit Egipte laat trek het, weer van krag maak, die belofte dat Ek hulle God sal wees. Ek is die Here. 46Die voorafgaande is die voorskrifte, bepalings en wette wat die Here deur Moses op Sinaiberg gegee het oor die verhouding tussen die Here en die Israeliete.

Leviticus 27

Laws About Vows

Lev 27:1 The LORD gave Moses

Lev 27:2 the following regulations for the people of Israel. When any of you have been given to the LORD in fulfillment of a special vow, you may be set free by the payment of the following sums of money,

Lev 27:3 (3-7) according to the official standard: –adult male, twenty to sixty years old: 50 pieces of silver –adult female: 30 pieces of silver –young male, five to twenty years old: 20 pieces of silver –young female: 10 pieces of silver –infant male under five: 5 pieces of silver –infant female: 3 pieces of silver –male above sixty years of age: 15 pieces of silver –female above sixty: 10 pieces of silver

Lev 27:8 If any of you make a vow and are too poor to pay the standard price, you shall bring the person to the priest, and the priest will set a lower price, according to your ability to pay.

Lev 27:9 If your vow concerns an animal that is acceptable as an offering to the LORD, then every gift made to the LORD is sacred, Lev 27:10 and you may not substitute another animal for it. If you do, both animals belong to the LORD.

Lev 27:11 But if your vow concerns a ritually unclean animal, which is not acceptable as an offering to the LORD, you shall take the animal to the priest.

Lev 27:12 The priest shall set a price for it, according to its good or bad qualities, and the price will be final.

Lev 27:13 If you wish to buy it back, you must pay the price plus an additional 20 percent.

Lev 27:14 When any of you dedicate your house to the LORD, the priest shall set the price according to its good or bad points, and the price will be final.

Lev 27:15 If you wish to buy your house back, you must pay the price plus an additional 20 percent.

Lev 27:16 If any of you dedicate part of your land to the LORD, the price shall be set according to the amount of seed it takes to sow it, at the rate of ten pieces of silver per bushel of barley.

Lev 27:17 If you dedicate the land immediately after a Year of Restoration, the full price applies.

Lev 27:18 If you dedicate it any time later, the priest shall estimate the cash value according to the number of years left until the next Year of Restoration, and set a reduced price.

Lev 27:19 If you wish to buy your field back, you must pay the price plus an additional 20 percent.

Lev 27:20 If you sell the field to someone else without first buying it back from the LORD, you lose the right to buy it back.

Lev 27:21 At the next Year of Restoration the field will become the LORD's permanent property; it shall belong to the priests.

Lev 27:22 If you dedicate to the LORD a field that you have bought,

Lev 27:23 the priest shall estimate its value according to the number of years until the next Year of Restoration, and you must pay the price that very day; the money belongs to the LORD.

Lev 27:24 At the Year of Restoration the field shall be returned to the original owner or to the descendants.

Lev 27:25 All prices shall be set according to the official standard.

Lev 27:26 The first-born of an animal already belongs to the LORD, so no one may dedicate it to him as a freewill offering. A calf, a lamb, or a kid belongs to the LORD,

Lev 27:27 but the first-born of an unclean animal may be bought back at the standard price plus an additional 20 percent. If it is not bought back, it may be sold to someone else at the standard price.

Lev 27:28 None of you may sell or buy back what you have unconditionally dedicated to the LORD, whether it is a human being, an animal, or land. It belongs permanently to the LORD.

Lev 27:29 Not even human beings who have been unconditionally dedicated may be bought back; they must be put to death.

Lev 27:30 One tenth of all the produce of the land, whether grain or fruit, belongs to the LORD.

Lev 27:31 If you wish to buy any of it back, you must pay the standard price plus an additional 20 percent.

Lev 27:32 One of every ten domestic animals belongs to the LORD. When the animals are counted, every tenth one belongs to the LORD.

Lev 27:33 You may not arrange the animals so that the poor animals are chosen, and you may not make any substitutions. If you do substitute one animal for another, then both animals will belong to the LORD and may not be bought back.

Lev 27:34 These are the commands that the LORD gave Moses on Mount Sinai for the people of Israel.

LEVÍTIKUS 27

[1]Die Here het vir Moses gesê: [2]Sê vir die Israeliete: Wanneer iemand in 'n gelofte 'n persoon aan die Here gewy het, en die persoon se loskoopwaarde moet vasgestel word, [3]moet die volgende riglyne geld: 'n Man van twintig tot sestig jaar kan losgekoop word teen vyf honderd en sewentig gram silwer volgens die standaardgewig van die heiligdom, [4]'n vrou van dieselfde ouderdom teen drie honderd en veertig gram. [5]Tussen vyf jaar en twintig jaar is die loskoopwaarde van 'n man twee honderd en dertig gram en van 'n meisie honderd en vyftien. [6]Van 'n maand oud tot op vyf jaar is 'n seun se loskoopwaarde sewe en vyftig gram en 'n dogter s'n vier en dertig. [7]Bo sestig is 'n man se loskoopwaarde honderd een en sewentig gram en 'n vrou s'n honderd en vyftien. [8]As iemand wat 'n gelofte afgelê het, te arm is om hierdie loskoopwaarde te betaal, moet hy die persoon oor wie dit gaan, na die priester toe bring. Die priester moet die persoon dan deurkyk en 'n bedrag bepaal wat bekostig kan word deur die een wat die gelofte afgelê het. [9]As die gelofte gaan oor 'n rein dier wat aan die Here geoffer word, geld die reël dat 'n dier wat eenmaal aan die Here gegee is, sy eiendom word. [10]So 'n dier mag dus nie vervang word met 'n dier van dieselfde kwaliteit of omgeruil word vir 'n slegter of selfs 'n beter dier nie. As iemand so 'n dier tóg probeer omruil, word albei diere die Here se eiendom. [11]As die gelofte gaan oor 'n onrein dier wat nie aan die Here geoffer mag word nie, moet die dier na die priester toe gebring word. [12]Hy moet dan die loskoopwaarde van die dier bepaal volgens sy kwaliteit. Die oordeel van die priester is in so 'n geval finaal. [13]As die persoon self die dier wil terugkoop, moet hy twintig persent meer as die vasgestelde loskoopwaarde betaal. [14]Wanneer iemand sy huis vrywillig aan die Here wy, word dit die Here se eiendom. Die priester moet dan die loskoopwaarde daarvan bepaal volgens die toestand van die gebou. Die oordeel van die priester is ook in hierdie geval finaal. [15]As die persoon wat die huis gewy het, dit self weer wil terugkoop, moet hy twintig persent meer as die vasgestelde loskoopwaarde betaal. Dan is dit weer syne. [16]As iemand 'n deel van sy grond aan die Here wy, moet die loskoopwaarde bepaal word volgens die hoeveelheid saad wat gewoonlik op die stuk grond gesaai word: vir elke honderd kilogram gars is die loskoopwaarde vyf honderd en sewentig gram silwer. [17]As hy die grond aan die Here wy gedurende die hersteljaar, geld die volle loskoopwaarde. [18]Maar as hy die grond ná die hersteljaar wy, moet die priester die aantal seisoene wat oorbly tot die volgende hersteljaar in berekening bring en die loskoopwaarde dienooreenkomstig verminder. [19]As die persoon die grond wil terugkoop, moet hy twintig persent meer as die vasgestelde loskoopwaarde betaal. Dan is dit weer syne. [20]As hy die grond aan iemand anders verkoop sonder dat hy dit self teruggekoop het, kan hy dit nooit weer terugkoop nie. [21]Met die hersteljaar word die grond dan, soos in die geval van grond wat as banoffer aan die Here gewy is, die eiendom van die Here. Dit word dan deel van die priesters se grond. [22]As iemand 'n stuk grond wat hy gekoop het, wat dus nie sy erfgrond is nie, aan die Here wy, [23]moet die priester die totale loskoopwaarde bereken wat die grond tot die volgende hersteljaar het. Die skenker moet dan dadelik die loskoopwaarde in kontant betaal. Dit behoort aan die Here. [24]In die hersteljaar val die grond dan weer terug na die persoon van wie dit oorspronklik gekoop is en wie se erfgrond dit is. [25]Al hierdie loskoopwaardes moet vasgestel word volgens die standaardgewig van die heiligdom. [26]Onthou dat die eerste kalf van 'n koei en die eerste lam van 'n bok of 'n skaap buitendien aan die Here behoort en dus nie as 'n vrywillige offer aan Hom gewy mag word nie. [27]Die eerste kleintjie van 'n onrein dier kan deur sy eienaar teruggekoop word vir die loskoopwaarde plus twintig persent. As hy dit nie wil terugkoop nie, moet dit verkoop word vir die loskoopwaarde. [28]Onthou ook verder dat iets wat as banoffer aan die Here gewy is, nie verkoop mag word nie en ook nie losgekoop mag word nie. Dit maak nie saak of dit 'n mens of 'n dier of 'n stuk erfgrond is nie, dit is heilig en behoort net aan die Here. [29]'n Mens wat as banoffer aan die Here gewy word, mag nie losgekoop word nie. Hy moet doodgemaak word. [30]Een tiende van al die produkte van die land behoort aan die Here, of dit nou graan of vrugte is. Dit is aan die Here gewy. [31]As iemand daarvan wil terugkoop, moet hy die loskoopwaarde daarvan plus twintig persent betaal. [32]Een tiende van die beeste en kleinvee behoort aan die Here. Die diere moet getel word, en al om die tiende dier wat verbykom, moet vir die Here afgekeer word. [33]Daar mag nie goeies of slegtes uitgesoek word nie, en 'n dier wat afgekeer is, mag nie omgeruil word nie. As iemand so 'n dier probeer omruil, word albei diere die Here se eiendom. Daar mag nie teruggekoop word nie. [34]Die voorafgaande is die gebooie wat die Here deur Moses by Sinaiberg vir die Israeliete gegee het.

Numbers 1

A Census of Israel's Warriors

Num 1:1 On the first day of the second month in the second year after the people of Israel left Egypt, the LORD spoke to Moses there in the Tent of his presence in the Sinai Desert. He said,

Num 1:2 "You and Aaron are to take a census of the people of Israel by clans and families. List the names of all the men

Num 1:3 twenty years old or older who are fit for military service.

Num 1:4 Ask one clan chief from each tribe to help you."

Num 1:5 (5-16) These are the men, leaders within their tribes, who were chosen from the community for this work:

Tribe	Clan chief
Reuben	Elizur son of Shedeur
Simeon	Shelumiel son of Zurishaddai
Judah	Nahshon son of Amminadab
Issachar	Nethanel son of Zuar
Zebulun	Eliab son of Helon
Ephraim	Elishama son of Ammihud
Manasseh	Gamaliel son of Pedahzur
Benjamin	Abidan son of Gideoni
Dan	Ahiezer son of Ammishaddai
Asher	Pagiel son of Ochran
Gad	Eliasaph son of Deuel
Naphtali	Ahira son of Enan

Num 1:17 With the help of these twelve men Moses and Aaron

Num 1:18 called together the whole community on the first day of the second month and registered all the people by clans and families. The names of all the men twenty years old or older were recorded and counted,

Num 1:19 as the LORD had commanded. In the Sinai Desert, Moses registered the people.

Num 1:20 (20-46) The men twenty years old or older who were fit for military service were registered by name according to clan and family, beginning with the tribe of Reuben, Jacob's oldest son. The totals were as follows:

Tribe	Number
Reuben	46,500

Simeon	59,300
Gad	45,650
Judah	74,600
Issachar	54,400
Zebulun	57,400
Ephraim	40,500
Manasseh	32,200
Benjamin	35,400
Dan	62,700
Asher	41,500
Naphtali	53,400

Total: 603,550.

Levites Exempted

Num 1:47 The Levites were not registered with the other tribes,

Num 1:48 because the LORD had said to Moses,

Num 1:49 "When you take a census of the men fit for military service, do not include the tribe of Levi.

Num 1:50 Instead, put the Levites in charge of the Tent of my presence and all its equipment. They shall carry it and its equipment, serve in it, and set up their camp around it.

Num 1:51 Whenever you move your camp, the Levites shall take the Tent down and set it up again at each new campsite. Anyone else who comes near the Tent shall be put to death.

Num 1:52 The rest of the Israelites shall set up camp, company by company, each man with his own group and under his own banner.

Num 1:53 But the Levites shall camp around the Tent to guard it, so that no one may come near and cause my anger to strike the community of Israel."

Num 1:54 So the people of Israel did everything that the LORD had commanded Moses.

1Die Here het met Moses gepraat in die tent van ontmoeting in die Sinaiwoestyn. Dit was op die eerste dag van die tweede maand, in die tweede jaar nadat Israel uit Egipte weggetrek het. 2Die Here het gesê: Jy en Aäron moet al die Israeliete man vir man tel volgens afkoms en familie; skryf die name op van elke manlike persoon van twintig jaar en ouer, elkeen in Israel wat vir militêre diens geskik is en wat in leërafdelings ingedeel is. 3Julle moet hierin bygestaan word deur persone wat hoofde is van hulle families, een uit elke stam. 4En dit is die name van die manne wat vir julle moet bystaan: uit die stam Ruben: Elisur seun van Sedeür; 5uit Simeon: Selumiël seun van Suri-Saddai; 6uit Juda: Nagson seun van Amminadab; 7uit Issaskar: Netanel seun van Suar; 8uit Sebulon: Eliab seun van Gelon; 9uit die nageslag van Josef, uit Efraim: Elisama seun van Ammihud, en uit Manasse: Gamliël seun van Pedasur; 10uit die stam Benjamin: Abidan seun van Gidoni; 11uit Dan: Agiëser seun van Ammi-Saddai; 12uit Aser: Pagiël seun van Okran; 13uit Gad: Eljasaf seun van Reüel; 14uit Naftali: Agira seun van Enan. 15Hulle was die manne wat uit die vergadering aangewys is, leiers van die stamme van hulle voorvaders en stamhoofde van Israel. 16Moses en Aäron het hierdie manne wie se name genoem is, laat kom. 17Op die eerste dag van die tweede maand het hulle toe die hele volk bymekaargeroep. Daarna het elke weerbare man sy afkoms volgens stam en familie opgegee, almal van twintig jaar en ouer. 18Moses het hulle in die Sinaiwoestyn getel, soos die Here hom beveel het. 19Die manlike afstammelinge van die onderskeie stamvaders was: van Ruben die oudste seun van Israel 46 500, van Simeon 59 300, van Gad 45 650, van Juda 74 600, van Issaskar 54 400, van Sebulon 57 400, van Josef se seuns: Efraim 40 500, Manasse 32 200, van Benjamin 35 400, van Dan 62 700, van Aser 41 500 en van Naftali 53 400. Dit was in die geval van elke stam die getal weerbare manne van twintig jaar en ouer, getel volgens afkoms en familie. 20Dit was dan die getal van die manne wat deur Moses, Aäron en die twaalf Israelitiese stamhoofde getel is. Altesaam was die getelde Israeliete 603 550. Dit was die weerbare manne van twintig jaar en ouer, getel volgens families. 21Die Leviete is nie as afsonderlike stam bygetel nie. 22Die Here het naamlik vir Moses gesê: 23Die stam Levi moet jy nie tel nie en hulle getal moet jy nie by dié van die Israeliete voeg nie. 24Jy moet die Leviete aanstel om toesig te hou oor die tabernakel met die getuienis, oor al sy gereedskap en al sy toebehore. Hulle moet die tabernakel en sy gereedskap dra; net húlle moet daarmee werk; en hulle moet hulle tente rondom die tabernakel opslaan. 25As die tabernakel verskuif moet word, moet die Leviete dit uitmekaarhaal; en as dit opgeslaan moet word, moet hulle dit opslaan. 'n Onbevoegde persoon wat nader kom om te help, moet doodgemaak word. 26Die ander stamme van Israel moet hulle tente opslaan, elke stam op sy eie staanplek, rondom sy eie vaandel, ingedeel by sy eie leërafdeling, 27maar die Leviete moet hulle tente rondom die tabernakel met die getuienis opslaan, sodat my toorn nie oor die Israeliete kom nie. So moet die Leviete dan vir die tabernakel met die getuienis sorg. 28Die Israeliete het alles presies gedoen soos die Here vir Moses beveel het.

Numbers 2

Arrangement of the Camp

Num 2:1 The LORD gave Moses and Aaron the following instructions.

Numbers 3

The Sons of Aaron

Num 3:1 This is the family of Aaron and Moses at the time the LORD spoke to Moses on Mount Sinai.

Num 3:2 Aaron had four sons: Nadab, the oldest, Abihu, Eleazar, and Ithamar.

Num 3:3 They were anointed and ordained as priests,

Num 3:4 but Nadab and Abihu were killed when they offered unholy fire to the LORD in the Sinai Desert. They had no children, so Eleazar and Ithamar served as priests during Aaron's lifetime.

Duties of the Levites

Num 3:5 The LORD said to Moses,

Num 3:6 "Bring forward the tribe of Levi and appoint them as servants of Aaron the priest.

Num 3:7 They shall do the work required for the Tent of my presence and perform duties for the priests and for the whole community.

Num 3:8 They shall take charge of all the equipment of the Tent and perform the duties for the rest of the Israelites.

Num 3:9 The only responsibility the Levites have is to serve Aaron and his sons.

Num 3:10 You shall appoint Aaron and his sons to carry out the duties of the priesthood; anyone else who tries to do so shall be put to death."

Num 3:11 The LORD said to Moses,

Num 3:12 (12-13) "The Levites are now to be mine. When I killed all the first-born of the Egyptians, I consecrated as my own the oldest son of each Israelite family and the first-born of every animal. Now, instead of having the first-born sons of Israel as my own, I have the Levites; they will belong to me. I am the LORD."

Num 3:14 In the Sinai Desert the LORD commanded Moses

Num 3:15 to register the Levites by clans and families, enrolling every male a month old or older,

Num 3:16 and Moses did so.

Num 3:17 (17-20) Levi had three sons: Gershon, Kohath, and Merari, who were the ancestors of the clans that bear their names. Gershon had two sons: Libni and Shimei; Kohath had four sons: Amram, Izhar, Hebron, and Uzziel; and Merari had two sons: Mahli and Mushi. They were the ancestors of the families that bear their names.

Num 3:21 The clan of Gershon was composed of the families of Libni and Shimei.

Num 3:22 The total number of males one month old or older that were enrolled was 7,500.

Num 3:23 This clan was to camp on the west behind the Tent,

Num 3:24 with Eliasaph son of Lael as chief of the clan.

Num 3:25 They were responsible for the Tent, its inner cover, its outer cover, the curtain for the entrance,

Num 3:26 the curtains for the court which is around the Tent and the altar, and the curtain for the entrance of the court. They were responsible for all the service connected with these items.

Num 3:27 The clan of Kohath was composed of the families of Amram, Izhar, Hebron, and Uzziel.

Num 3:28 The total number of males one month old or older that were enrolled was 8,600.

Num 3:29 This clan was to camp on the south side of the Tent,

Num 3:30 with Elizaphan son of Uzziel as chief of the clan.

Num 3:31 They were responsible for the Covenant Box, the table, the lampstand, the altars, the utensils the priests use in the Holy Place, and the curtain at the entrance to the Most Holy Place. They were responsible for all the service connected with these items.

Num 3:32 The chief of the Levites was Eleazar son of Aaron the priest. He was in charge of those who carried out the duties in the Holy Place.

Num 3:33 The clan of Merari was composed of the families of Mahli and Mushi.

Num 3:34 The total number of males one month old or older that were enrolled was 6,200.

Num 3:35 This clan was to camp on the north side of the Tent, with Zuriel son of Abihail as chief of the clan.

Num 3:36 They were assigned responsibility for the frames for the Tent, its bars, posts, bases, and all its fittings. They were responsible for all the service connected with these items.

Num 3:37 They were also responsible for the posts, bases, pegs, and ropes for the outer court.

Num 3:38 Moses and Aaron and his sons were to camp in front of the Tent on the east. They were responsible for carrying out the services performed in the Holy Place for the people of Israel. Anyone else who tried to do so was to be put to death.

Num 3:39 The total number of all the Levite males one month old or older that Moses enrolled by clans at the command of the LORD, was 22,000.

Redemption of the Firstborn

Num 3:40 (40-41) The LORD said to Moses, "All of Israel's first-born sons belong to me. So register by name every first-born male Israelite, one month old or older. But in place of them I claim all the Levites as mine! I am the LORD! I also claim the livestock of the Levites in place of all the first-born of the livestock."

Num 3:42 Moses obeyed, and registered all the first-born males

Num 3:43 one month old or older; the total was 22,273.

Num 3:44 The LORD said to Moses,

Num 3:45 "Now dedicate the Levites as mine in place of all the first-born Israelite sons, and dedicate the livestock of the Levites in place of the first-born of the Israelites' livestock.

Num 3:46 Since the first-born Israelite sons outnumber the Levites by 273, you must buy back the extra sons.

Num 3:47 For each one pay five pieces of silver, according to the official standard,

Num 3:48 and give this money to Aaron and his sons."

Num 3:49 Moses obeyed and took

Num 3:50 the 1,365 pieces of silver

Num 3:51 and gave them to Aaron and his sons.

1Toe die Here destyds met Moses op Sinaiberg gepraat het, het Aäron en Moses reeds afstammelinge gehad. 2Die name van die seuns van Aäron was Nadab, die oudste, Abihu, Eleasar en Itamar. 3Dit was die name van Aäron se seuns, gesalfde priesters, vir wie Moses in die priesteramp aangestel het. 4Maar die Here het vir Nadab en Abihu laat sterwe omdat hulle in die Sinaiwoestyn ongeoorloofde vuur voor Hom neergesit het. Hulle het geen seuns gehad nie. Eleasar en Itamar het toe die priesterdiens verrig onder die toesig van Aäron, hulle pa. 5Die Here het verder vir Moses gesê: 6Stel die stam Levi tot beskikking van die priester Aäron, dat hulle hom kan help. 7Hulle moet vir Aäron in die gemeente diensbeurte waarneem in die tent van ontmoeting deur die werk wat hulle in die tabernakel doen. 8Hulle moet sorg vir al die toebehore van die tent van ontmoeting; hulle moet die diensbeurte vir die volk Israel waarneem deur die werk wat hulle in die tabernakel doen. 9Jy moet die Leviete tot beskikking van Aäron en sy seuns stel; uit die volk Israel is hulle die mense wat volkome aan Aäron se diens gewy is. 10Net aan Aäron en sy seuns is dit opgedra om die priesterdiens te verrig; 'n onbevoegde persoon wat nader kom om dit te doen, moet doodgemaak word. 11Die Here het weer met Moses gepraat en gesê: 12Kyk, Ek het die Leviete uit die volk vir My geneem in die plek van al Israel se eersgeborenes; hulle behoort aan My. 13Al die eersgeborenes is Myne: die dag toe Ek al die eersgeborenes van die Egiptenaars omgebring het, het Ek dié van Israel, van mens en dier, vir My opgeëis; hulle behoort aan My. Ek is die Here. 14Die Here het in die Sinaiwoestyn vir Moses gesê: 15Tel die Leviete volgens hulle afkoms en families, almal van 'n maand en ouer wat manlik is. 16Moses het hulle getel presies soos die Here hom beveel het. 17Levi se seuns was Gerson, Kehat en Merari. 18Die Gersongroep was Libni en Simi. 19Die Kehatgroep was Amram, Jishar, Hebron en Ussiël. 20Die Merarigroep was Magli en Musi. Dit was die afstammelinge van Levi volgens familieverband. 21Die afstammelinge van Gerson was die familiegroepe Libni en Simi. Hulle was die Gersoniete. 22Hulle manlike persone van 'n maand en ouer wat so getel is, was altesaam sewe duisend vyf honderd. 23Die Gersongroep het aan die westekant agter die tabernakel kamp opgeslaan 24met Eljasaf seun van Lael as leier. 25Die taak van die Gersoniete by die tent van ontmoeting was die versorging van die tabernakel: die tent met sy dekseile, die gordyn by die deur van die tent van ontmoeting, 26die gordyn van die ingang van die voorhof, die gordyne van die voorhof wat rondom die tabernakel en die altaar was, al die toue, met alles wat dié diens insluit. 27Die Kehatgroep was Amram, Jishar,

Hebron en Ussiël. Hulle was die Kehatiete. 28Hulle manlike persone van 'n maand en ouer was altesaam ag duisend ses honderd. Hulle taak was om die heiligdom te versorg. 29Die Kehatgroep het aan die suidekant van die tabernakel kamp opgeslaan 30met Elisafan seun van Ussiël as leier. 31Hulle taak was die versorging van die ark, die tafel, die kandelaar, die altare, die gereedskap wat in die heiligdom gebruik word, sowel as die voorhangsel, met alles wat dié diens insluit. 32Eleasar seun van die priester Aäron was die leier van die familiehoofde van Levi, en as sodanig opsigter oor almal wat in die heiligdom diens doen. 33Merari was die hoof van die familiegroepe Magli en Musi. Hulle was die Merariërs. 34Hulle manlike persone van 'n maand en ouer wat so getel is, was altesaam ses duisend twee honderd. 35Suriël seun van Abigajil was leier van die Merarigroep wat aan die noordekant van die tabernakel kamp opgeslaan het. 36Die Merarigroep was verantwoordelik vir die versorging van die rame, dwarslatte, style en voetstukke van die tabernakel, en ook van al sy gereedskap, met alles wat dié diens insluit; 37ook van die style rondom die voorhof, met voetstukke, penne en toue. 38Moses, Aäron en Aäron se seuns het aan die oostekant voor die tabernakel, voor die tent van ontmoeting, kamp opgeslaan. Aäron en sy seuns het die diens van die tabernakel in belang van Israel waargeneem. 'n Onbevoegde persoon wat nader gekom het om te help, moes doodgemaak word. 39Die manlike Leviete van 'n maand en ouer wat deur Moses en Aäron op bevel van die Here volgens families getel is, was altesaam twee en twintig duisend. 40Die Here het ook vir Moses gesê: Tel al die manlike eersgeborenes van die Israeliete van 'n maand en ouer, en maak 'n lys van hulle name. 41In die plek van al die eersgeborenes uit Israel moet jy die Leviete vir my diens beskikbaar stel, en ook die Leviete se vee in die plek van al die eerstelinge onder die vee van die Israeliete. Ek is die Here. 42Moses het toe volgens die bevel van die Here al die eersgeborenes van die Israeliete getel. 43Die manlike eersgeborenes van 'n maand en ouer wie se name opgeskryf is, was twee en twintig duisend twee honderd drie en sewentig. 44Die Here het verder vir Moses gesê: 45Stel die Leviete beskikbaar vir my diens in die plek van al Israel se eersgeborenes; neem ook die Leviete se vee in die plek van die Israeliete s'n. Die Leviete behoort aan My. Ek is die Here. 46Die twee honderd drie en sewentig eersgeborenes uit die Israeliete wat daar meer is as Leviete, moet losgekoop word. 47Jy moet vyf silwerstukke per kop invorder; bereken volgens die standaardgewig van die heiligdom is dit elf gram per silwerstuk. 48Die geld vir hierdie groter getal eersgeborenes van die Israeliete moet jy as losprys aan Aäron en sy seuns gee. 49Moses het toe die loskoopgeld ingevorder vir dié eersgeborenes wat daar meer was as dié wat reeds met Leviete losgekoop is. 50Hierdie geld het hy geneem van die eersgebore Israeliete, vyftien en 'n half kilogram silwer. [51]Dit het Moses in opdrag van die Here aan Aäron en sy seuns gegee, soos die Here hom beveel het.

Numbers 4

Duties of the Kohathites

Num 4:1 The LORD told Moses

Num 4:2 to take a census of the Levite clan of Kohath by subclans and families,

Num 4:4 Their service involves the most holy things.

Num 4:8 They shall spread a red cloth over all of this, put a fine leather cover over it, and then insert the carrying poles.

Num 4:9 They shall take a blue cloth and cover the lampstand, with its lamps, tongs, trays, and all the olive oil containers.

Num 4:17 The LORD said to Moses and Aaron,

Num 4:18 "Do not let the clan of Kohath

Num 4:19 be killed by coming near these most sacred objects. To prevent this from happening, Aaron and his sons shall go in and assign each man his task and tell him what to carry.

Num 4:20 But if the Kohathites enter the Tent and see the priests preparing the sacred objects for moving, they will die."

Num 4:21 The LORD told Moses

Num 4:22 to take a census of the Levite clan of Gershon by subclans and families,

Num 4:23 and to register all the men between the ages of thirty and fifty who were qualified to work in the Tent of the LORD's presence.

Num 4:26 the curtains and ropes for the court that is around the Tent and the altar, the curtains for the entrance of the court, and all the fittings used in setting up these objects. They shall perform all the tasks required for these things.

Num 4:27 Moses and Aaron shall see to it that the Gershonites perform all the duties and carry everything that Aaron and his sons assign to them.

Num 4:28 These are the responsibilities of the Gershon clan in the Tent; they shall carry them out under the direction of Ithamar son of Aaron the priest.

Num 4:29 The LORD told Moses to take a census of the Levite clan of Merari by subclans and families,

Num 4:30 and to register all the men between the ages of thirty and fifty who were qualified to work in the Tent of the LORD's presence.

Num 4:31 They shall be responsible for carrying the frames, bars, posts, and bases of the Tent,

Num 4:33 These are the responsibilities of the Merari clan in their service in the Tent; they shall carry them out under the direction of Ithamar son of Aaron the priest.

Num 4:34 (34-48) Following the LORD's command, Moses, Aaron, and the leaders of the community took a census of the three Levite clans, Kohath, Gershon, and Merari. NÚMERI 4

1Die Here het vir Moses en Aäron gesê: 2Tel die Leviete tussen dertig en vyftig jaar, almal wat van Kehat afstam. Doen dit volgens afstamming van familie. Dit moet almal insluit wat vir diens geskik is, wat die werk in die tent van ontmoeting kan verrig. 3Die ampsplig van die Kehatgroep in die tent van ontmoeting het te doen met die besondere gewyde voorwerpe. 4Net voor die kamp versit, moet Aäron en sy seuns nader kom. Hulle moet die voorhangsel wat as bedekking dien, afhaal en die ark waarin die getuienis is daarmee toemaak. 5Hulle moet 'n seil van gebreide vel daaroor gooi, en dit met 'n groot blou doek toemaak. Dan moet hulle die draaghoute weer insteek. 6'n Blou doek moet ook oor die offerbroodtafel gegooi word, en daarop moet hulle die skottels, bakke, komme en drankofferkanne sit; ook die offerbrood moet daarop gesit word. Dit moet altyd daar wees. 7Hulle moet 'n bloedrooi doek oor die offerbroodtafel gooi en dit met 'n seil van gebreide vel toemaak. Dan moet hulle die draaghoute insteek. 8Hulle moet die kandelaar met sy lampe, pithouers, bakkies en al die oliekanne in 'n blou doek toedraai. 9Die kandelaar met al sy toebehore moet hulle op 'n seil van gebreide vel neersit en dit op 'n draagbaar sit. 10Hulle moet 'n blou doek oor die goue wierookaltaar gooi en dit dan met 'n seil van gebreide vel toemaak. Dan moet hulle die draaghoute insteek. 11Hulle moet al die gereedskap neem wat vir die diens in die heiligdom nodig is, en dit op 'n blou doek sit. Dan moet hulle dit met 'n seil van gebreide vel toemaak en so op die draagbaar neersit. 12Hulle moet die as van die altaar afvee en dan 'n pers doek oor die altaar gooi. 13Al die gereedskap wat hulle vir die diens by die altaar gebruik, moet hulle op die doek neersit: al die vuurpanne, vurke, skoppe en komme, kortom, al die altaargereedskap, en dit met 'n seil van gebreide vel toemaak. Dan moet hulle die draaghoute insteek. 14Net voor die kamp versit, moet Aäron en sy seuns eers die gewyde voorwerpe saam met hulle gereedskap toemaak, en dan moet die Kehatiete nader kom om dit te dra. Hulle mag nie aan die gewyde voorwerpe raak nie, want dan sal hulle sterwe. Hierdie voorwerpe van die tent van ontmoeting moet deur die Kehatiete gedra word. 15Eleasar seun van die priester Aäron moet toesig hou oor die olie vir die kandelaar, die geurige wierook, die gereelde graanoffer en die salfolie. Hy moet toesig hou oor die hele tabernakel en alles wat daarin is, oor die heiligdom met sy gereedskap. 16Die Here het ook nog vir Moses en Aäron gesê: 17Julle moet voorsorg tref dat die Kehatgroep van Levi nie met die dood gestraf word nie. 18Wanneer hulle kom om die gewyde voorwerpe te dra, moet Aäron en sy seuns vir hulle presies aandui wat elkeen van hulle moet doen en dra, sodat hulle kan bly lewe en nie met die dood gestraf word nie. [19]Die Kehatiete mag selfs nie 'n oomblik na die heiligdom kom kyk nie, want dan sal hulle sterwe. [20]Die Here het vir Moses gesê: [21]Jy moet ook die afstammelinge van Gerson tel. Doen dit volgens familie en afstamming. [22]Jy moet almal tussen dertig en vyftig jaar tel wat vir diens geskik is en wat die werk in die tent van ontmoeting kan verrig. [23]Die ampsplig van die Gersongroep is om drawerk te doen: [24]hulle moet die tentdoeke van die tabernakel, die tent van ontmoeting, dra, sy seil en die seil van gebreide vel wat daarbo-oor is, die gordyn by die ingang van die tent van ontmoeting [25]en die gordyn by die ingang van die voorhof, asook die gordyne van die voorhof wat rondom die tabernakel en die altaar is, die toue en al die nodige gereedskap. Vir al hierdie dinge is hulle verantwoordelik. [26]Al die ampspligte van die Gersongroep, alles wat hulle moet dra en doen, moet onder toesig van Aäron en sy seuns verrig word. Hulle moet toesien dat die Gersongroep al hulle opdragte uitvoer. [27]Dit is dan die ampspligte van die Gersongroep in verband met die tent van ontmoeting. Hulle werk staan onder toesig van Itamar seun van die priester Aäron. [28]Jy moet ook die afstammelinge van Merari tel. Doen dit volgens afstamming en familie. [29]Jy moet almal tussen dertig en vyftig jaar tel wat vir diens geskik is en wat die werk in die tent van ontmoeting kan verrig. [30]Hulle diens in verband met die tent van ontmoeting sal wees om die volgende te dra: die rame, dwarslatte, style en voetstukke van die tabernakel; [31]ook die style rondom die voorhof met hulle voetstukke, penne en toue, al die gereedskap en toebehore. Julle moet 'n lys name opstel van persone wat vir die dra van bepaalde voorwerpe verantwoordelik is. [32]Dit is al die verpligtinge van die Merarigroep in verband met die tent van ontmoeting. Dit moet verrig word onder toesig van Itamar seun van die priester Aäron. [33]Moses, Aäron en die volksleiers het die drie Levitiese families Kehat, Gerson en Merari getel. Hulle het dit gedoen volgens afstamming en familie soos die Here vir Moses beveel het. Hulle het al die manlike persone van tussen dertig en vyftig jaar opgeskryf, almal wat geskik was vir diens en wat die werk in die tent van ontmoeting kon verrig. Die getalle was soos volg: Kehat twee duisend sewe honderd en vyftig, Gerson twee duisend ses honderd en dertig, Merari drie duisend twee honderd. [34]Die groottotaal Leviete van tussen dertig en vyftig jaar, almal wat geskik was om te dien in die tent van ontmoeting en om die drawerk te doen, was ag duisend vyf honderd en tagtig. Moses, Aäron en die leiers van Israel het hulle volgens afkoms en familie getel. [35]Op die bevel wat die Here deur Moses gegee het, is hulle getel en is aan elkeen sy besondere taak en verantwoordelikheid toegewys. Hulle is getel soos die Here vir Moses beveel het.

Numbers 5

Unclean People

Num 5:1 The LORD said to Moses,

Num 5:2 "Command the people of Israel to expel from the camp everyone with a dreaded skin disease or a bodily discharge and everyone who is unclean by contact with a corpse.

Num 5:3 Send all these ritually unclean people out, so that they will not defile the camp, where I live among my people."

Num 5:4 The Israelites obeyed and expelled them all from the camp.

Confession and Restitution

Num 5:5 The LORD gave Moses

Num 5:6 the following instructions for the people of Israel. When any of you are unfaithful to the LORD and commit a wrong against someone,

Num 5:7 you must confess your sin and make full repayment, plus an additional 20 percent, to the person you have wronged.

Num 5:8 But if that person has died and has no near relative to whom payment can be made, it shall be given to the LORD for the priest. This payment is in addition to the ram used to perform the ritual of purification for the guilty person.

Num 5:9 Also every special contribution which the Israelites offer to the LORD belongs to the priest to whom they present it.

Num 5:10 Each priest shall keep the offerings presented to him.

A Test for Adultery

Num 5:11 The LORD commanded Moses

Num 5:12 (12-14) to give the Israelites the following instructions. It may happen that a man becomes suspicious that his wife is unfaithful to him and has defiled herself by having intercourse with another man. But the husband may not be certain, for his wife may have kept it secret—there was no witness, and she was not caught in the act. Or it may happen that a husband becomes suspicious of his wife, even though she has not been unfaithful.

Num 5:15 In either case the man shall take his wife to the priest. He shall also take the required offering of two pounds of barley flour, but he shall not pour any olive oil on it or put any incense on it, because it is an offering from a suspicious husband, made to bring the truth to light.

Num 5:16 The priest shall bring the woman forward and have her stand in front of the altar.

Num 5:17 He shall pour some holy water into a clay bowl and take some of the earth that is on the floor of the Tent of the LORD's presence and put it in the water to make it bitter.

Num 5:18 Then he shall loosen the woman's hair and put the offering of flour in her hands. In his hands the priest shall hold the bowl containing the bitter water that brings a curse.

Num 5:19 Then the priest shall make the woman agree to this oath spoken by the priest: "If you have not committed adultery, you will not be harmed by the curse that this water brings.

Num 5:20 But if you have committed adultery,

Num 5:21 may the LORD make your name a curse among your people. May he cause your genital organs to shrink and your stomach to swell up.

Num 5:22 May this water enter your stomach and cause it to swell up and your genital organs to shrink." The woman shall respond, "I agree; may the LORD do so."

Num 5:23 Then the priest shall write this curse down and wash the writing off into the bowl of bitter water.

Num 5:24 Before he makes the woman drink the water, which may then cause her bitter pain,

Num 5:25 the priest shall take the offering of flour out of the woman's hands, hold it out in dedication to the LORD, and present it on the altar.

Num 5:26 Then he shall take a handful of it as a token offering and burn it on the altar. Finally, he shall make the woman drink the water.

Num 5:27 If she has committed adultery, the water will cause bitter pain; her stomach will swell up and her genital organs will shrink. Her name will become a curse among her people.

Num 5:28 But if she is innocent, she will not be harmed and will be able to bear children.

Num 5:29 (29-30) This is the law in cases where a man is jealous and becomes suspicious that his wife has committed adultery. The woman shall be made to stand in front of the altar, and the priest shall perform this ritual.

Num 5:31 The husband shall be free of guilt, but the woman, if guilty, must suffer the consequences.

1Die Here het vir Moses gesê: 2Beveel die Israeliete om elkeen uit die kamp uit te stuur wat 'n ernstige velsiekte het of aan 'n geslagsiekte ly, of wat verontreinig is deur aan 'n lyk te raak. 3Dit geld mans sowel as vrouens. Julle moet hulle buitekant die kamp uit stuur, sodat hulle nie die kamp waarin Ek onder hulle woon, verontreinig nie. 4Die Israeliete het toe so gemaak: hulle het die onreines uit die kamp uit gestuur, presies soos die Here vir Moses gesê het. 5Die Here het aan Moses opdrag gegee 6om vir die Israeliete te sê: Wanneer iemand, man of vrou, 'n medemens benadeel en dus ontrou teenoor die Here is, is hy skuldig 7en moet hy sy sonde bely. Hy moet die volle bedrag van die skade plus 'n vyfde daarvan teruggee aan die persoon wat hy benadeel het. 8As die benadeelde na sy dood geen familielid het aan wie die skuld betaal kan word nie, kom die bedrag die Here toe en moet dit aan 'n priester gegee word. Afgesien hiervan moet die skuldige nog die ram voorsien waarmee die priester vir die skuldige versoening moet doen. 9Die offergawes wat die Israeliete na die priester toe bring vir die diens van die Here, behoort aan die priester. 10Die gewyde gawes wat iemand bring, bly sy eie, maar wat die priester toekom, moet aan hom gegee word. 11Die Here het aan Moses opdrag gegee 12om vir die Israeliete te sê: As 'n man agterdogtig word, sodat hy sy vrou van ontrou verdink, moet hy haar na die priester toe bring. Dit kan wees dat die getroude vrou ontrou teenoor haar man was en met iemand anders geslagsgemeenskap gehad het sonder dat haar man daarvan weet of dat sy uitgevind is. Dit kan ook wees dat, hoewel sy oortree het, daar geen getuie teen haar is nie en sy nie betrap is nie. Dit kan ook wees dat die man agterdogtig is en sy vrou verdink hoewel sy niks verkeerds gedoen het nie. Die man moet sy vrou na die priester toe bring saam met die voorgeskrewe offer: een en 'n half kilogram garsmeel. Hy moet die meel nie met olie en wierook meng nie, omdat die offer bedoel is vir 'n geval van agterdog, 'n offer wat moet aantoon of daar oortree is. 13Die priester moet haar dan nader bring en in die teenwoordigheid van die Here laat staan. 14Die priester moet 'n erdebak met gewyde water vol maak en van die tabernakelvloer se stof daarin gooi. 15Dan moet hy die vrou in die teenwoordigheid van die Here laat staan, haar hare losmaak en haar die voorgeskrewe offer, wat 'n offer vir die agterdog is, gee om vas te hou. Die priester moet die erdebak met water wat bittere smart en 'n vloek oor haar kan bring, self vashou. 16Hy moet die vrou onder eed plaas en vir haar sê: As iemand anders nie met jou gemeenskap gehad het nie en jy as getroude vrou jouself nie met 'n ander man verontreinig het nie, mag jou onskuld dan bewys word deur hierdie water wat bittere smart en 'n vloek oor jou kan bring. 17Maar as jy, as getroude vrou, ontrou was en jouself verontreinig het deurdat jy met iemand anders behalwe jou eie man gemeenskap gehad het, 18mag die Here dan gee dat jou eie mense jou sal vervloek en verwens. Mag Hy jou vrugbaarheid laat vergaan en jou buik laat opswel. Mag hierdie water wat die vloek veroorsaak, in jou maag kom om jou buik te laat opswel en jou vrugbaarheid te laat vergaan. Dit alles moet die priester sê vir die vrou wat staan onder 'n eed dat 'n vloek haar kan tref as sy skuldig is. Dan moet sy sê: Amen, amen.' 19Die priester moet hierdie vervloekinge neerskrywe en die letters uitwis in die water wat bittere smart sou kan veroorsaak. 20Hy moet die vrou van die water laat drink wat bittere smart en 'n vloek oor haar kan bring, sodat die water wat 'n vloek van bittere smart veroorsaak, in haar kan ingaan. 21Daarna moet die priester uit haar hand die offer vat wat vir die agterdog bedoel is, dit in teenwoordigheid van die Here beweeg en dit na die altaar toe bring. 22Die priester moet ook 'n handjievol van die graanoffer as simbool van haar hele offer vat en op die altaar verbrand, en daarna moet hy die vrou die res van die water laat drink. 23Die water wat hy haar laat drink, sal, as sy haar verontreinig en troubreuk teenoor haar man gepleeg het, in haar ingaan en die vloek meebring wat bittere smart sal veroorsaak, en dit sal haar buik laat opswel. Haar vrugbaarheid sal vergaan en haar mense sal haar vervloek. 24Maar as die vrou haar nie verontreinig het nie en getrou was, sal haar onskuld bewys word en sal sy kinders kan kry. 25Dit is dan die voorskrif vir gevalle van agterdog. As 'n vrou ontrou word aan haar man en haarself verontreinig, 26of as 'n man agterdogtig begin raak en sy vrou verdink, moet die priester die vrou in die teenwoordigheid van die Here laat staan en met haar handel presies volgens al die bepalings van hierdie voorskrif. 27Die man sal onskuldig wees, maar die vrou sal vir haar oortreding moet boet.

Numbers 6

The Nazirite Vow

Num 6:1 The LORD commanded Moses

Num 6:2 to give the following instructions to the people of Israel. Any of you, male or female, who make a special vow to become a nazirite and dedicate yourself to the LORD

Num 6:3 shall abstain from wine and beer. You shall not drink any kind of drink made from grapes or eat any grapes or raisins.

Num 6:4 As long as you are a nazirite, you shall not eat anything that comes from a grapevine, not even the seeds or skins of grapes.

Num 6:5 As long as you are under the nazirite vow, you must not cut your hair or shave. You are bound by the vow for the full time that you are dedicated to the LORD, and you shall let your hair grow.

Num 6:6 (6-7) Your hair is the sign of your dedication to God, and so you must not defile yourself by going near a corpse, not even that of your father, mother, brother, or sister.

Num 6:8 As long as you are a nazirite, you are consecrated to the LORD.

Num 6:9 If your consecrated hair is defiled because you are right beside someone who suddenly dies, you must wait seven days and then shave your head; and so you become ritually clean.

Num 6:10 On the eighth day you shall bring two doves or two pigeons to the priest at the entrance of the Tent of the LORD's presence.

Num 6:11 The priest shall offer one as a sin offering and the other as a burnt offering, to perform the ritual of purification for you because of your contact with a corpse. On the same day you shall reconsecrate your hair

Num 6:12 and rededicate to the LORD your time as a nazirite. The previous period of time doesn't count, because your consecrated hair was defiled. As a repayment offering you shall bring a one-year-old lamb.

Num 6:13 When you complete your nazirite vow, you shall perform this ritual. You shall go to the entrance of the Tent

Num 6:14 and present to the LORD three animals without any defects: a one-year-old male lamb for a burnt offering, a one-year-old ewe lamb for a sin offering, and a ram for a fellowship offering.

Num 6:15 You shall also offer a basket of bread made without yeast: thick loaves made of flour mixed with olive oil and thin cakes brushed with olive oil, and in addition the required offerings of grain and wine.

Num 6:16 The priest shall present all these to the LORD and offer the sin offering and the burnt offering.

Num 6:17 He shall sacrifice the ram to the LORD as a fellowship offering, and offer it with the basket of bread; he shall also present the offerings of grain and wine.

Num 6:18 At the entrance of the Tent you nazirites shall shave off your hair and put it on the fire on which the fellowship offering is being burned.

Num 6:19 Then, when the shoulder of the ram is boiled, the priest shall take it and put it, together with one thick loaf of bread and one thin cake from the basket, into the hands of the nazirite.

Num 6:20 Next, the priest shall present them as a special gift to the LORD; they are a sacred offering for the priest, in addition to the breast and the leg of the ram which by law belong to the priest. After that, the nazirite may drink wine.

Num 6:21 These are the regulations for you nazirites; but if you promise an offering beyond what your vow requires you to give, you must fulfill exactly the promise you made.

Aaron's Blessing

Num 6:22 The LORD commanded Moses

Num 6:23 to tell Aaron and his sons to use the following words in blessing the people of Israel:

Num 6:24 May the LORD bless you and take care of you;

Num 6:25 May the LORD be kind and gracious to you;

Num 6:26 May the LORD look on you with favor and give you peace.

Num 6:27 And the LORD said, "If they pronounce my name as a blessing upon the people of Israel, I will bless them."

NÚMERI 6

[1]Die Here het aan Moses opdrag gegee [2]om met die Israeliete te praat en vir hulle te sê: Wanneer iemand, 'n man of 'n vrou, 'n besondere nasireërgelofte aflê om hom aan die Here te wy, [3]moet hy hom weerhou van wyn en bier. Hy mag geen druiwe-asyn of ander asyn drink nie, geen druiwesap nie en ook nie druiwe of rosyntjies eet nie. [4]Die hele tydperk van sy wyding mag hy hoegenaamd niks eet wat die wingerdstok voortbring nie, selfs nie druiwepitte of -doppe nie. [5]Vir die volle duur van sy nasireërgelofte mag hy nie sy hare of sy baard skeer nie. Hy is iemand wat vir die Here afgesonder is, en hy moet sy hare vrylik laat groei totdat die tyd van sy wyding aan die Here verby is. [6]Gedurende die tyd van sy wyding aan die Here mag hy nie naby 'n lyk kom nie. [7]Selfs as sy pa of ma, broer of suster sterf, mag hy hom nie verontreinig deur aan hulle te raak nie, want sy hare is die teken van sy wyding aan God. [8]Solank sy nasireërgelofte van krag is, is hy afgesonder vir die Here. [9]Maar as hy hom verontreinig deur aan iemand te raak wat onverwags in sy omgewing te sterwe kom, moet hy sy hare afskeer op die dag waarop hy rein verklaar word; op die sewende dag moet hy sy hare afskeer. [10]Op die agste dag moet hy twee tortelduiwe of twee ander duiwe na die priester toe bring, by die ingang van die tent van ontmoeting. [11]Die priester moet dan een duif as 'n sondeoffer en die ander as 'n brandoffer voorberei, en daarmee vir die nasireër versoening doen vir die oortreding wat hy onbewus begaan het deur aan die lyk te raak. Op dieselfde dag moet hy begin om sy hare te laat groei. [12]Hy moet hom opnuut as nasireër aan die Here wy en 'n jaaroud lam as skuldoffer bring. Die vorige dae moet nie gereken word nie, omdat hy sy nasireërskap verontreinig het. [13]Die voorskrif vir die nasireër wanneer die tyd van sy wyding verby is, is soos volg: Hy moet na die ingang van die tent van ontmoeting toe gaan [14]en sy offergawe aan die Here bring. Dit moet bestaan uit 'n jaaroud lam as brandoffer, 'n jaaroud ooilam as sondeoffer en 'n ram as maaltydoffer, aldrie sonder liggaamsgebrek; [15]verder 'n mandjie ongesuurde brood van fynmeel, ringbrood met olie geknie, en ongesuurde roosterkoek met olie gesmeer, met die bybehorende graanoffer en drankoffers. [16]Die priester moet die lammers aan die Here offer as die nasireër se sondeoffer en brandoffer. [17]Die priester moet die ram, saam met die ongesuurde brood in die mandjie, as maaltydoffer vir die Here aanbied, en ook die nasireër se graan- en drankoffer offer. [18]By die ingang van die tent van ontmoeting moet die nasireër sy hare, die teken van sy wyding, afskeer en dit vat en in die vuur saam met die maaltydoffer verbrand. [19]Nadat die nasireër sy hare afgeskeer het, moet die priester die gekookte blad van die ram vat en dit, saam met 'n ongesuurde ringbrood uit die mandjie en 'n ongesuurde roosterkoek, op die nasireër se hande sit [20]en dit as 'n beweegoffer aan die Here wy. Hierdie gawes is gewy en kom die priester toe, saam met die bors van die beweegoffer en die boud wat as offergawe gebring is. Daarna is die persoon vry om wyn te drink. [21]Dit is dan die voorskrif vir 'n nasireër wat met die oog op sy nasireërskap 'n offer aan die Here beloof het, afgesien van wat hy nog vrywillig wil bring. Hy moet noukeurig handel volgens die gelofte wat hy afgelê het. Dit is die voorskrif vir die nasireër. [22]Die Here het vir Moses gesê: [23]Sê vir Aäron en sy seuns: So moet julle sê wanneer julle die Israeliete seën: [24]Die Here sal julle seën en julle beskerm; [25]die Here sal tot julle redding verskyn en julle genadig wees; [26]die Here sal julle gebede verhoor en aan julle vrede gee! [27]So moet die priesters my Naam oor die Israeliete uitroep, en Ek sal hulle seën.

Numbers 7

Offerings at the Tabernacle's Consecration

Num 7:1 On the day Moses finished setting up the Tent of the LORD's presence, he anointed and dedicated the Tent and all its equipment, and the altar and all its equipment.

Num 7:2 Then the clan chiefs who were leaders in the tribes of Israel, the same men who were in charge of the census,

Num 7:3 brought their offerings to the LORD: six wagons and twelve oxen, a wagon for every two leaders and an ox for each leader. After they had presented them,

Num 7:4 the LORD said to Moses,

Num 7:5 "Accept these gifts for use in the work to be done for the Tent; give them to the Levites according to the work they have to do."

Num 7:6 So Moses gave the wagons and the oxen to the Levites.

Num 7:7 He gave two wagons and four oxen to the Gershonites,

Num 7:8 and four wagons and eight oxen to the Merarites. All their work was to be done under the direction of Ithamar son of Aaron.

Num 7:9 But Moses gave no wagons or oxen to the Kohathites, because the sacred objects they took care of had to be carried on their shoulders.

Num 7:10 The leaders also brought offerings to celebrate the dedication of the altar. When they were ready to present their gifts at the altar,

Num 7:11 the LORD said to Moses, "Tell them that each day for a period of twelve days one of the leaders is to present his gifts for the dedication of the altar."

Num 7:12 (12-83) They presented their offerings in the following order:

Day	Tribe	Leader
1	Judah	Nahshon son of Amminadab
2	Issachar	Nethanel son of Zuar
3	Zebulun	Eliab son of Helon
4	Reuben	Elizur son of Shedeur
5	Simeon	Shelumiel son of Zurishaddai
6	Gad	Eliasaph son of Deuel
7	Ephraim	Elishama son of Ammihud

8	Manasseh	Gamaliel son of Pedahzur
9	Benjamin	Abidan son of Gideoni
10	Dan	Ahiezer son of Ammishaddai
11	Asher	Pagiel son of Ochran
12	Naphtali	Ahira son of Enan

The offerings each one brought were identical: one silver bowl weighing 50 ounces and one silver basin weighing 30 ounces, by the official standard, both of them full of flour mixed with oil for the grain offering; one gold dish weighing 4 ounces, full of incense; one young bull, one ram, and a one-year-old lamb, for the burnt offering; one goat for the sin offering; and two bulls, five rams, five goats, and five one-year-old lambs, for the fellowship offering.

Num 7:84 (84-88) The totals of the offerings brought by the twelve leaders for the dedication of the altar were as follows: –twelve silver bowls and twelve silver basins weighing a total of 60 pounds –twelve gold dishes weighing a total of 48 ounces, filled with incense –twelve bulls, twelve rams, and twelve one-year-old lambs, plus the grain offerings that go with them, for the burnt offerings –twelve goats for the sin offerings –twenty-four bulls, sixty rams, sixty goats, sixty one-year-old lambs, for the fellowship offerings

Num 7:89 When Moses went into the Tent to talk with the LORD, he heard the LORD speaking to him from above the lid on the Covenant Box, between the two winged creatures.

1Nadat Moses klaar was met die oprigting van die tabernakel het hy die tent met al sy toebehore en ook die altaar met al sy gereedskap gesalf en aan die diens van die Here gewy. 2Die leiers van Israel, die familiehoofde en stamleiers wat die sensus opgeneem het, het offergawes gebring. 3Hulle het as offergawes ses tentwaens en twaalf osse gebring, 'n wa namens elke twee leiers, en 'n os namens elkeen afsonderlik. Hulle het dit na die tabernakel toe gebring. 4Die Here sê toe vir Moses: 5Vat hulle offergawes en gebruik dit in die diens van die tent van ontmoeting; gee dit aan die Leviete vir die werk wat elkeen van hulle moet verrig. 6Moses het die waens en osse ontvang en aan die Leviete gegee: 7twee waens en vier osse aan die Gersongroep, vier waens en ag osse aan die Merarigroep. Hulle het dit ontvang vir hulle onderskeie take, onder toesig van Itamar seun van die priester Aäron. 8Moses het nie waens en osse aan die Kehatgroep gegee nie, want hulle moes die gewyde voorwerpe op hulle skouers dra. 9Die dag toe die altaar vir gebruik gesalf is, het die leiers hulle offergawes vir die inwyding na die altaar toe gebring. 10Die Here het vir Moses gesê: Op elke agtereenvolgende dag moet een van die leiers sy offergawes vir die inwyding van die altaar bring. 11Op die eerste dag het Nagson, seun van Amminadab uit die stam Juda, sy offergawe gebring; op die tweede dag Netanel, seun van Suar leier van Issaskar; op die derde dag Eliab, seun van Gelon leier van Sebulon; op die vierde dag Elisur, seun van Sedeür leier van Ruben; op die vyfde dag Selumiël, seun van Suri-Saddai leier van Simeon; op die sesde dag Eljasaf, seun van Reüel leier van Gad; op die sewende dag Elisama, seun van Ammihud leier van Efraim; op die agste dag Gamliël, seun van Pedasur leier van Manasse; op die negende dag Abidan, seun van Gidoni leier van Benjamin; op die tiende dag Agiëser, seun van Ammi-Saddai leier van Dan; op die elfde dag Pagiël, seun van Okran leier van Aser, en op die twaalfde dag Agira, seun van Enan leier van Naftali. Elke leier het die volgende offergawes gebring: een silwerskottel met 'n gewig van een en 'n half kilogram, een silwerkom van ag honderd gram, albei volgens die standaardgewig van die heiligdom en vol meel met olie gemeng as graanoffer; een goue pannetjie van honderd en vyftien gram, vol wierook; een jong bul, een ram en een jaaroud lam as brandoffers; een bokram as sondeoffer; en twee osse, vyf ramme, vyf bokramme en vyf jaaroud lammers as maaltydoffers.12Die offergawes wat die leiers van Israel gebring het toe die altaar ingewy is, was altesaam twaalf silwerskottels, twaalf silwerkomme en twaalf goue pannetjies. 13Elke skottel het een en 'n half kilogram geweeg en elke kom ag honderd gram. Die silwer van al die gereedskap het ag en twintig kilogram geweeg volgens die standaardgewig van die heiligdom. [14]Die twaalf goue pannetjies vol wierook het elkeen honderd en vyftien gram geweeg volgens die standaardgewig van die heiligdom. Al die goud van die pannetjies was byna een en 'n half kilogram. [15]Daar was twaalf bulle, twaalf ramme, twaalf jaaroud lammers vir die brandoffer saam met hulle graanoffers en twaalf bokramme as sondeoffer. [16]Al die vee vir die maaltydoffers was vier en twintig bulle, sestig ramme, sestig bokramme en sestig jaaroud lammers. Dit was die offergawes vir die inwyding van die altaar nadat dit gesalf is. [17]Telkens wanneer Moses in die tent van ontmoeting ingegaan het om met die Here te praat, het hy die stem van die Here met hom hoor praat. Die stem het van die deksel af gekom tussen die twee gerubs uit, die deksel op die ark waarin die getuienis was. So het die Here met Moses gepraat.

Numbers 8

The Seven Lamps

Num 8:1 The LORD said to Moses,

Num 8:2 "Tell Aaron that when he puts the seven lamps on the lampstand, he should place them so that the light shines toward the front."

Num 8:3 Aaron obeyed and placed the lamps facing the front of the lampstand.

Num 8:4 From top to bottom the lampstand was made of hammered gold, according to the pattern that the LORD had shown Moses.

Cleansing of the Levites

Num 8:5 The LORD said to Moses,

Num 8:6 "Separate the Levites from the rest of the people of Israel and purify them

Num 8:7 in the following way: sprinkle them with the water of purification and have them shave their whole bodies and have them wash their clothes. Then they will be ritually clean.

Num 8:8 Then they are to take a young bull and the required grain offering of flour mixed with olive oil; and you are to take another bull for the sin offering.

Num 8:9 Then assemble the whole community of Israel and have the Levites stand in front of the Tent of my presence.

Num 8:10 The people of Israel are to place their hands on the heads of the Levites,

Num 8:11 and then Aaron shall dedicate the Levites to me as a special gift from the Israelites, so that they may do my work.

Num 8:12 The Levites shall then put their hands on the heads of the two bulls; one is to be offered as a sin offering and the other as a burnt offering, in order to perform the ritual of purification for the Levites.

Num 8:13 "Dedicate the Levites as a special gift to me, and put Aaron and his sons in charge of them.

Num 8:14 Separate the Levites in this way from the rest of the Israelites, so that they will belong to me.

Num 8:15 After you have purified and dedicated the Levites, they will be qualified to work in the Tent.

Num 8:16 I have claimed them in the place of all the first-born sons of the Israelites, and they belong to me alone.

Num 8:17 When I killed all the first-born in Egypt, I consecrated as my own the oldest son of each Israelite family and the first-born of every animal.

Num 8:18 I am now taking the Levites instead of all the first-born of the Israelites,

Num 8:19 and I assign the Levites to Aaron and his sons, as a gift from the Israelites, to work in the Tent for the people of Israel and to protect the Israelites from the disaster that would strike them if they came too near the Holy Place."

Num 8:20 So Moses, Aaron, and all the people of Israel dedicated the Levites, as the LORD commanded Moses.

Num 8:21 The Levites purified themselves and washed their clothes, and Aaron dedicated them as a special gift to the LORD. He also performed the ritual of purification for them.

Num 8:22 The people did everything the LORD had commanded Moses concerning the Levites. And so the Levites were qualified to work in the Tent under Aaron and his sons.

Retirement of the Levites

Num 8:23 The LORD said to Moses,

Num 8:24 "From the age of twenty-five each Levite shall perform his duties in the Tent of my presence,

Num 8:25 and at the age of fifty he shall retire.

Num 8:26 After that, he may help his fellow Levites in performing their duties in the Tent, but he must not perform any service by himself. This is how you are to regulate the duties of the Levites."

NÚMERI 8

1Die Here het vir Moses gesê: 2Praat met Aäron en sê vir hom: As jy die lampies van die kandelaar vassit, moet hulle al sewe na die voorkant toe lig gee. 3Aäron het toe so gemaak soos die Here vir Moses beveel het, en die lampies aan die voorkant van die kandelaar vasgesit. 4Die kandelaar is so gemaak: van die voetstuk af tot by die kroonblare is dit van geslae goud. Aäron het dit gemaak volgens die model wat die Here vir Moses gewys het. 5Die Here het vir Moses gesê: 6Sonder die Leviete van die res van die Israeliete af en reinig hulle. 7Jy moet hulle soos volg reinig: sprinkel reinigingswater oor hulle en laat hulle hulle hele liggaam kaalskeer en hulle klere was. So moet hulle hulleself reinig. 8Dan moet hulle 'n jong bul vat, met die graanoffer van meel met olie gemeng wat daarby hoort; 'n tweede jong bul moet jy as sondeoffer vat. 9Jy moet die Leviete dan nader bring voor die tent van ontmoeting en die hele gemeente van Israel daar bymekaar laat kom. 10Jy moet die Leviete nader bring voor My, die Here, en daar moet die Israeliete hulle hande op die Leviete lê. 11Aäron moet dan die Leviete as 'n beweegoffer van die Israeliete aan My wy sodat hulle die werk in my diens kan verrig. 12Die Leviete moet hulle hande op die koppe van die twee bulle sit. Die een bul moet as sondeoffer en die ander as brandoffer vir My, die Here, berei word, om vir die Leviete versoening te doen. 13Jy moet die Leviete in diens van Aäron en sy seuns stel en as 'n beweegoffer aan My wy. 14Jy moet hulle van die res van die Israeliete afsonder dat hulle aan My kan behoort. 15Nadat jy die Leviete gereinig en as beweegoffer aan My gewy het, moet hulle die diens in die tent van ontmoeting gaan behartig. 16Van alle Israeliete behoort die Leviete in 'n besondere sin aan My, want Ek het hulle in die plek van al Israel se eersgebore seuns as my besondere eiendom vir My opgeëis. 17Toe Ek al die eersgeborenes in Egipte getref het, het Ek die eersgeborenes van mens en dier in Israel vir My afgesonder. 18Die Leviete het Ek toe in die plek van Israel se eersgebore seuns geneem. 19Uit al die Israeliete gee Ek die Leviete nou as 'n gawe aan Aäron en sy seuns om namens die Israeliete die diens in die tent van ontmoeting te behartig en om vir hulle versoening te doen sodat geen ramp die Israeliete sal tref as hulle te naby aan die heiligdom kom nie. 20Moses, Aäron en die hele gemeente van Israel het toe met die Leviete presies gemaak soos die Here vir Moses in verband met hulle beveel het. So het die Israeliete met hulle gedoen. 21Die Leviete het hulleself gereinig en hulle klere gewas, en Aäron het hulle as 'n beweegoffer aan die Here gewy. Aäron het ook vir hulle sondes versoening gedoen en hulle so gereinig. 22Die Leviete het toe onder toesig van Aäron en sy seuns hulle ampswerk in die tent van ontmoeting gaan verrig, soos die Here vir Moses aangaande hulle beveel het. So het die Israeliete met die Leviete gedoen. [23]Die Here het vir Moses gesê: [24]Wat die Leviete betref, hulle moet vyf en twintig jaar of ouer wees voordat hulle hulle ampsplig in die tent van ontmoeting kan kom vervul. [25]As 'n Leviet egter vyftig jaar oud is, moet hy sy amp neerlê en mag hy nie verder dien nie. [26]Hy mag sy mede-Leviete nog met hulle ampswerk in die tent van ontmoeting behulpsaam wees, maar self mag hy die diens nie behartig nie. So moet jy die ampspligte van die Leviete reël.

Numbers 9

The Passover Celebrated

Num 9:1 The LORD spoke to Moses in the Sinai Desert in the first month of the second year after the people of Israel had left Egypt. He said,

Num 9:2 (2-3) "On the fourteenth day of this month, beginning at sunset, the people of Israel are to observe the Passover according to all the rules and regulations for it."

Num 9:4 So Moses told the people to observe the Passover,

Num 9:5 and on the evening of the fourteenth day of the first month they did so in the Sinai Desert. The people did everything just as the LORD had commanded Moses.

Num 9:6 But there were some people who were ritually unclean because they had touched a corpse, and they were not able to keep the Passover on that day. They went to Moses and Aaron

Num 9:7 and said, "We are unclean because we have touched a corpse, but why should we be excluded from presenting the LORD's offering with the rest of the Israelites?"

Num 9:8 Moses answered, "Wait until I receive instructions from the LORD."

Num 9:9 The LORD told Moses

Num 9:10 to say to the people of Israel, "When any of you or your descendants are unclean from touching a corpse or are far away on a journey, but still want to keep the Passover,

Num 9:11 you are permitted to observe it one month later instead, on the evening of the fourteenth day of the second month. Celebrate it with unleavened bread and bitter herbs.

Num 9:12 Do not leave any of the food until the following morning and do not break any of the animal's bones. Observe the Passover according to all the regulations.

Num 9:13 But if any of you are ritually clean and not away on a journey and do not observe the Passover, you shall no longer be considered my people, because you did not present the offering to me at the appointed time. You must suffer the consequences of your sin.

Num 9:14 "If foreigners living among you want to keep the Passover, they must observe it according to all the rules and regulations. The same law applies to everyone, whether native or foreigner."

The Cloud Covering the Tabernacle

Num 9:15 (15-16) On the day the Tent of the LORD's presence was set up, a cloud came and covered it. At night the cloud looked like fire.

Num 9:17 Whenever the cloud lifted, the people of Israel broke camp, and they set up camp again in the place where the cloud came down.

Num 9:18 The people broke camp at the command of the LORD, and at his command they set up camp. As long as the cloud stayed over the Tent, they stayed in the same camp.

Num 9:19 When the cloud stayed over the Tent for a long time, they obeyed the LORD and did not move on.

Num 9:20 Sometimes the cloud remained over the Tent for only a few days; in any case, they remained in camp or moved, according to the command of the LORD.

Num 9:21 Sometimes the cloud remained only from evening until morning, and they moved on as soon as the cloud lifted. Whenever the cloud lifted, they moved on.

Num 9:22 Whether it was two days, a month, a year, or longer, as long as the cloud remained over the Tent, they did not move on; but when it lifted, they moved.

Num 9:23 They set up camp and broke camp in obedience to the commands which the LORD gave through Moses.

1Die Here het met Moses gepraat. Dit was in die Sinaiwoestyn, die eerste maand van die tweede jaar ná die uittog uit Egipte. Hy het vir hom gesê: 2Op die vasgestelde tyd, teen sonsondergang, op die veertiende dag van hierdie maand, moet die Israeliete die paasfees vier. Julle moet dit doen op die vasgestelde tyd volgens die voorskrifte en bepalings wat daarvoor geld. 3Moses het die Israeliete toe opdrag gegee om die paasfees te vier. 4Hulle het dit gedoen in die Sinaiwoestyn teen sonsondergang op die veertiende dag van die eerste maand, presies soos die Here vir Moses beveel het. So het die Israeliete gedoen. 5Maar daar was persone wat die paasfees nie op daardie dag kon vier nie omdat hulle aan 'n lyk geraak het en dus onrein was. Hierdie manne het dieselfde dag nog na Moses en Aäron toe gekom en vir hulle gesê: 6Ons is onrein, want ons het aan 'n lyk geraak, maar waarom word ons daarvan weerhou om op die bestemde tyd saam met die ander Israeliete 'n offergawe aan die Here te bring? 7Moses het toe vir hulle gesê: Wag tot ek verneem het wat die Here oor julle beveel. 8Die Here het toe vir Moses gesê: Praat met die Israeliete en sê vir hulle: 9As een van julle of julle nakomelinge deur 'n lyk onrein is, of op 'n ver reis is, mag hy nogtans die paasfees vir die Here vier. 10Maar dan moet hulle dit in die tweede maand, op die veertiende van die maand, teen sonsondergang vier. Hulle moet die paaslam eet saam met die ongesuurde brood en bitter kruie. 11Hulle mag niks daarvan tot die volgende môre laat oorbly nie en hulle mag ook geen been van die lam breek nie. Hulle moet die paasfees stiptelik volgens al sy voorskrifte vier. 12Maar as 'n persoon rein is en nie op reis is nie en nogtans in gebreke bly om die paasfees op die gewone tyd te vier, moet hy van sy volksgenote afgesny word omdat hy nagelaat het om 'n offergawe op die bestemde tyd aan die Here te bring. Dié man moet die gevolge van sy sonde dra. 13As 'n vreemdeling wat by julle woon, die paasfees vir die Here wil vier, moet hy dit volgens die bestaande voorskrifte en bepalings doen. Een en dieselfde voorskrif geld vir julle almal: vir die vreemdeling en vir die landsburger. 14Die dag toe die tabernakel, die tent met die getuienis, opgerig is, het 'n wolk dit oordek. In die aand het die wolk oor die tabernakel soos vuur geword en dit het so gebly tot die môre toe. 15So was dit deurentyd. Die wolk het die tabernakel oordek en snags was dit soos vuur. 16Elke keer nadat die wolk van die tent af opgetrek het, het die Israeliete weggetrek, en op die plek waar die wolk afkom, daar het die Israeliete kamp opgeslaan. 17Op bevel van die Here het die Israeliete weggetrek, en op sy bevel het hulle kamp opgeslaan; gedurende die hele tyd dat die wolk op die tabernakel gerus het, het hulle in die kamp gebly. [18]Wanneer die wolk 'n geruime tyd op die tabernakel gerus het, het die Israeliete die diens van die Here waargeneem en nie weggetrek nie. [19]Soms het die wolk net 'n paar dae op die tabernakel gerus. Wat die geval ook al was, op die bevel van die Here het hulle kamp opgeslaan en op sý bevel het hulle weggetrek. [20]Soms was die wolk net van die aand af tot die volgende môre toe daar, en as dit dan in die môre optrek, het die volk weggetrek. Of dit bedags of snags was, as die wolk optrek, het hulle weggetrek. [21]As die wolk 'n paar dae of 'n maand of 'n jaar of langer op die tabernakel rus, het die Israeliete in die kamp gebly en nie weggetrek nie, maar sodra dit optrek, het hulle weggetrek. [22]Op die bevel van die Here het hulle kamp opgeslaan en op sy bevel het hulle weggetrek. Hulle het die diens van die Here onderhou soos die Here deur middel van Moses beveel het.

Numbers 10

The Silver Trumpets

Num 10:1 The LORD said to Moses,

Num 10:2 "Make two trumpets of hammered silver to use for calling the people together and for breaking camp.

Num 10:3 When long blasts are sounded on both trumpets, the whole community is to gather around you at the entrance to the Tent of my presence.

Num 10:4 But when only one trumpet is sounded, then only the leaders of the clans are to gather around you.

Num 10:5 When short blasts are sounded, the tribes camped on the east will move out.

Num 10:6 When short blasts are sounded a second time, the tribes on the south will move out. So short blasts are to be sounded to break camp,

Num 10:7 but in order to call the community together, long blasts are to be sounded.

Num 10:8 The trumpets are to be blown by Aaron's sons, the priests. "The following rule is to be observed for all time to come.

Num 10:9 When you are at war in your land, defending yourselves against an enemy who has attacked you, sound the signal for battle on these trumpets. I, the LORD your God, will help you and save you from your enemies.

Num 10:10 Also on joyful occasions—at your New Moon Festivals and your other religious festivals—you are to blow the trumpets when you present your burnt offerings and your fellowship offerings. Then I will help you. I am the LORD your God."

Israel Leaves Sinai

Num 10:11 On the twentieth day of the second month in the second year after the people left Egypt, the cloud over the Tent of the LORD's presence lifted,

Num 10:12 and the Israelites started on their journey out of the Sinai Desert. The cloud came to rest in the wilderness of Paran.

Num 10:13 They began to march at the command of the LORD through Moses,

Num 10:14 and each time they moved, they were in the same order. Those under the banner of the division led by the tribe of Judah started out first, company by company, with Nahshon son of Amminadab in command.

Num 10:15 Nethanel son of Zuar was in command of the tribe of Issachar, Num 10:16 and Eliab son of Helon was in command of the tribe of Zebulun.

Num 10:17 Then the Tent would be taken down, and the clans of Gershon and Merari, who carried it, would start out.

Num 10:18 Next, those under the banner of the division led by the tribe of Reuben would start out, company by company, with Elizur son of Shedeur in command.

Num 10:19 Shelumiel son of Zurishaddai was in command of the tribe of Simeon, Num 10:20 and Eliasaph son of Deuel was in command of the tribe of Gad.

Num 10:21 Then the Levite clan of Kohath would start out, carrying the sacred objects. By the time they arrived at the next camp, the Tent had been set up again.

Num 10:22 Next, those under the banner of the division led by the tribe of Ephraim would start out, company by company, with Elishama son of Ammihud in command.

Num 10:23 Gamaliel son of Pedahzur was in command of the tribe of Manasseh, Num 10:24 and Abidan son of Gideoni was in command of the tribe of Benjamin.

Num 10:25 Finally, those under the banner of the division led by the tribe of Dan, serving as the rear guard of all the divisions, would start out, company by company, with Ahiezer son of Ammishaddai in command.

Num 10:26 Pagiel son of Ochran was in command of the tribe of Asher,

Num 10:27 and Ahira son of Enan was in command of the tribe of Naphtali.

Num 10:28 This, then, was the order of march, company by company, whenever the Israelites broke camp and set out.

Num 10:29 Moses said to his brother-in-law Hobab son of Jethro the Midianite, "We are about to start out for the place which the LORD said he would give us. He has promised to make Israel prosperous, so come with us, and we will share our prosperity with you."

Num 10:30 Hobab answered, "No, I am going back to my native land."

Num 10:31 "Please don't leave us," Moses said. "You know where we can camp in the wilderness, and you can be our guide.

Num 10:32 If you come with us, we will share with you all the blessings that the LORD gives us."

Num 10:33 When the people left Sinai, the holy mountain, they traveled three days. The LORD's Covenant Box always went ahead of them to find a place for them to camp.

Num 10:34 As they moved on from each camp, the cloud of the LORD was over them by day.

Num 10:35 Whenever the Covenant Box started out, Moses would say, "Arise, LORD; scatter your enemies and put to flight those who hate you!"

Num 10:36 And whenever it stopped, he would say, "Return, LORD, to the thousands of families of Israel."

NÚMERI 10

1Die Here het vir Moses gesê: 2Maak nou twee trompette van geslae silwer, en gebruik dit om die vergadering bymekaar te roep en om die kamp te laat opbreek. 3Wanneer julle op albei blaas, moet die hele vergadering by jou bymekaarkom by die ingang van die tent van ontmoeting. 4Maar as net op een geblaas word, moet net die leiers, die familiehoofde van Israel, by jou bymekaarkom. 5As julle die eerste keer hard blaas, moet die stamme wat aan die oostekant kampeer, vertrek. 6As julle 'n tweede keer hard blaas, moet die stamme aan die suidekant vertrek. As daar hard geblaas word, sal hulle weet om te vertrek. 7Om die vergadering bymekaar te roep, moet julle die trompette blaas, maar julle moet nie hard blaas nie. 8Aäron se seuns, die priesters, moet die trompette blaas. Dit moet vir julle en julle nageslag 'n vaste instelling wees. 9As julle in julle land wil gaan veg teen 'n vyand wat julle verdruk, moet julle hard op die trompette blaas. Ek, die Here julle God, sal dan op julle ag slaan en julle van julle vyande red. 10Ook op 'n dag van vreugde of op julle vasgestelde feestye of aan die begin van julle nuwemaansfeeste moet julle by julle brandoffers en maaltydoffers op die trompette blaas. Dit sal My, julle God, aan julle herinner. Ek is die Here julle God. 11In die tweede jaar, op die twintigste van die tweede maand, het die wolk opgetrek van die tabernakel met die getuienis af. 12Die Israeliete het hulle reis toe van die Sinaiwoestyn af verder voortgesit, totdat die wolk in die Paranwoestyn gaan staan het. 13Hulle het begin trek op bevel van die Here deur Moses. 14Die vaandel van die afdelings onder leiding van die stam Juda het eerste vertrek. Nagson seun van Amminadab was hier in bevel. 15Netanel seun van Suar was in bevel van die afdeling van die stam Issaskar, 16en Eliab seun van Gelon was oor die afdeling van die stam Sebulon. 17Daarna is die tabernakel afgebreek, en het die Gersongroep en die Merarigroep wat dit moes dra, ook vertrek. 18Die volgende wat vertrek het, was die vaandel van die afdelings onder leiding van die stam Ruben. Elisur seun van Sedeür was in bevel van hierdie afdeling. 19Selumiël seun van Suri-Saddai was in bevel van die afdeling van die stam Simeon, 20en Eljasaf seun van Reüel was oor die afdeling van die stam Gad. 21Daarna het die Kehatgroep vertrek. Hulle het die gewyde voorwerpe gedra. Die tabernakel moes opgerig wees teen die tyd dat hulle daar aankom. 22Ná hulle het die vaandel van die afdelings onder leiding van die stam Efraim vertrek. Elisama seun van Ammihud was in bevel van hierdie afdeling. 23Gamliël seun van Pedasur was in bevel van die afdeling van die stam Manasse, 24en Abidan seun van Gidoni oor die afdeling van die stam Benjamin. 25Die volgende wat vertrek het, was die vaandel van die afdelings onder leiding van die stam Dan wat die agterhoede van al die afdelings gevorm het. Agiëser seun van Ammi-Saddai was in bevel van hierdie afdeling. 26Pagiël seun van Okran was in bevel van die afdeling van die stam Aser, 27en Agira seun van Enan oor die afdeling van die stam Naftali. 28Dit was die volgorde waarin die afdelings van Israel op hulle reis vertrek het. 29Moses het vir Gobab seun van sy skoonpa Reüel, die Midianiet, gesê: Ons trek na die land waarvan die Here gesê het: Ek sal dit aan julle gee.' Kom saam met ons. Ons sal jou goed behandel, want die Here het goeie dinge aan Israel beloof. 30Maar Gobab het vir Moses gesê: Ek sal nie saam gaan nie, ek sal teruggaan na my eie land en familie toe. 31Moses het toe by hom aangedring: Moet ons tog nie verlaat nie. Jy ken die plekke in die woestyn waar ons kamp kan opslaan, en jy moet ons gids wees. 32As jy met ons saam kom, sal ons die goeie dinge wat die Here aan ons gee, met jou deel. 33Die Israeliete het van die berg van die Here af weggetrek, drie dagreise ver. Die verbondsark van die Here het gedurende die drie dae voor hulle uit getrek om vir hulle 'n plek te vind waar hulle kon oorbly. 34Die wolk van die Here was bedags oor hulle as hulle van die kampplek af wegtrek. 35Elke keer wanneer die ark vertrek, het Moses gesê: Trek op, Here, verstrooi u vyande! Laat hulle wat vir U haat, voor U wegvlug! 36En wanneer die ark neergesit word, sê Moses: Kom terug, Here, na die ontelbare menigtes van Israel toe.

Numbers 11

The People Complain

Num 11:1 The people began to complain to the LORD about their troubles. When the LORD heard them, he became angry and sent fire on the people. It burned among them and destroyed one end of the camp.

Num 11:2 The people cried out to Moses for help; he prayed to the LORD, and the fire died down.

Num 11:3 So the place was named Taberah, because there the fire of the LORD burned among them.

Num 11:4 There were foreigners traveling with the Israelites. They had a strong craving for meat, and even the Israelites themselves began to complain: "If only we could have some meat!

Num 11:5 In Egypt we used to eat all the fish we wanted, and it cost us nothing. Remember the cucumbers, the watermelons, the leeks, the onions, and the garlic we had?

Num 11:6 But now our strength is gone. There is nothing at all to eat —nothing but this manna day after day!"

Num 11:7 (Manna was like small seeds, whitish yellow in color.

Num 11:8 (8-9) It fell on the camp at night along with the dew. The next morning the people would go around and gather it, grind it or pound it into flour, and then boil it and make it into flat cakes. It tasted like bread baked with olive oil.)

Num 11:10 Moses heard all the people complaining as they stood around in groups at the entrances of their tents. He was distressed because the LORD had become angry with them, Num 11:11 and he said to the LORD, "Why have you treated me so badly? Why are you displeased with me? Why have you given me the responsibility for all these people?

Num 11:12 I didn't create them or bring them to birth! Why should you ask me to act like a nurse and carry them in my arms like babies all the way to the land you promised to their ancestors?

Num 11:13 Where could I get enough meat for all these people? They keep whining and asking for meat.

Num 11:14 I can't be responsible for all these people by myself; it's too much for me!

Num 11:15 If you are going to treat me like this, have pity on me and kill me, so that I won't have to endure your cruelty any longer."

Elders Appointed to Aid Moses

Num 11:16 The LORD said to Moses, "Assemble seventy respected men who are recognized as leaders of the people, bring them to me at the Tent of my presence, and tell them to stand there beside you.

Num 11:17 I will come down and speak with you there, and I will take some of the spirit I have given you and give it to them. Then they can help you bear the responsibility for these people, and you will not have to bear it alone.

Num 11:18 Now tell the people, 'Purify yourselves for tomorrow; you will have meat to eat. The LORD has heard you whining and saying that you wished you had some meat and that you were better off in Egypt. Now the LORD will give you meat, and you will have to eat it.

Num 11:19 You will have to eat it not just for one or two days, or five, or ten, or even twenty days,

Num 11:20 but for a whole month, until it comes out of your ears, until you are sick of it. This will happen because you have rejected the LORD who is here among you and have complained to him that you should never have left Egypt.' "

Num 11:21 Moses said to the LORD, "Here I am leading 600,000 people, and you say that you will give them enough meat for a month?

Num 11:22 Could enough cattle and sheep be killed to satisfy them? Are all the fish in the sea enough for them?"

Num 11:23 "Is there a limit to my power?" the LORD answered. "You will soon see whether what I have said will happen or not!"

Num 11:24 So Moses went out and told the people what the LORD had said. He assembled seventy of the leaders and placed them around the Tent.

Num 11:25 Then the LORD came down in the cloud and spoke to him. He took some of the spirit he had given to Moses and gave it to the seventy leaders. When the spirit came on them, they began to shout like prophets, but not for long.

Num 11:26 Two of the seventy leaders, Eldad and Medad, had stayed in the camp and had not gone out to the Tent. There in the camp the spirit came on them, and they too began to shout like prophets.

Num 11:27 A young man ran out to tell Moses what Eldad and Medad were doing.

Num 11:28 Then Joshua son of Nun, who had been Moses' helper since he was a young man, spoke up and said to Moses, "Stop them, sir!"

Num 11:29 Moses answered, "Are you concerned about my interests? I wish that the LORD would give his spirit to all his people and make all of them shout like prophets!"

Num 11:30 Then Moses and the seventy leaders of Israel went back to camp.

Quail and a Plague

Num 11:31 Suddenly the LORD sent a wind that brought quails from the sea, flying three feet above the ground. They settled on the camp and all around it for miles and miles in every direction.

Num 11:32 So all that day, all night, and all the next day, the people worked catching quails; no one gathered less than fifty bushels. They spread them out to dry all around the camp.

Num 11:33 While there was still plenty of meat for them to eat, the LORD became angry with the people and caused an epidemic to break out among them.

Num 11:34 That place was named Kibroth Hattaavah (which means "Graves of Craving"), because there they buried the people who had craved meat.

Num 11:35 From there the people moved to Hazeroth, where they made camp.

NÚMERI 11

1Dit het sleg gegaan met die volk, en hulle het die Here daaroor verwyt. Toe die Here dit hoor, het Hy kwaad geword en vuur onder hulle in gestuur. Dit het 'n deel van die kamp verbrand. 2Die volk het hulle nood by Moses gekla, en hy het tot die Here gebid, en die vuur het doodgegaan. 3Hulle het die plek Tabera genoem, omdat die vuur van die Here onder hulle gebrand het. 4Die mense van ander afkoms wat saam met die Israeliete getrek het, het 'n onweerstaanbare lus vir vleis gekry, en toe het die Israeliete self ook begin kla en gesê: As ons tog net vleis gehad het om te eet! 5Ons onthou nog die vis wat ons in Egipte verniet kon eet, ook die komkommers, waatlemoene, prei, uie en knoffel. 6Maar nou wurg ons. Daar is niks behalwe hierdie manna voor ons nie! 7Die manna was soos koljandersaad en het gelyk soos balsemgom. 8Die volk het die manna oral vandaan bymekaargemaak, dit op maalklippe gemaal of in vysels gestamp en dan in panne gebak of roosterkoeke daarvan gemaak. Dit het soos oliekoeke gesmaak. 9Die manna het snags saam met die dou by die kamp geval. 10Moses het die volk hoor kla, elke familie by die ingang van sy tent. Die Here het hieroor baie kwaad geword, en dit was ook verkeerd in Moses se oë. 11Moses sê toe vir die Here: Waarom behandel U my so sleg, waarom is U my nie goedgesind nie, dat U die verantwoordelikheid vir hierdie hele volk op my gelaai het? 12Het ek dan swanger geword en hierdie hele volk in die wêreld gebring, dat U vir my sê: Dra hulle aan jou bors soos 'n oppasser met 'n suigeling doen, en bring hulle na die land toe wat Ek met 'n eed aan hulle voorvaders beloof het'? 13Waar sal ek die vleis vandaan haal om aan hierdie hele volk te gee, hulle wat by my kla en sê: Gee vir ons vleis dat ons kan eet!' 14Ek sien nie langer kans om hierdie hele volk alleen te dra nie, want dit is te swaar vir my. 15As U so met my wil maak, kan U my gerus maar om die lewe bring as U my goedgesind is. Hierdie slegte behandeling kan ek nie meer verduur nie. 16Die Here het vir Moses gesê: Bring vir My sewentig van Israel se leiers, mense van wie jy weet dat hulle leiers en ampsdraers van die volk is. Neem hulle na die tent van ontmoeting toe en laat hulle daar by jou staan. 17Ek sal dan afkom en daar met jou praat, en Ek sal van die Gees wat op jou is, op hulle laat kom. Hulle sal dan saam met jou die verantwoordelikheid vir die volk dra, sodat jy dit nie alleen hoef te doen nie. 18Vir die volk moet jy sê: Reinig julle vir môreoggend, dan sal julle vleis eet. Die Here het gehoor hoe julle kla en sê: As ons tog net vleis gehad het om te eet; in Egipte was dit vir ons goed!' Die Here sal vir julle vleis gee, en julle sal eet! 19Julle sal nie net een dag of twee of vyf of tien of twintig dae eet nie, 20maar 'n hele maand lank, totdat julle daarvan naar word en daarvan walg, omdat julle die Here wat by julle is, getart het, en Hom verwyt het met die woorde: Waarom is ons tog uit Egipte weg? 21Moses het toe gesê: Hier is ek tussen ses honderd duisend mense, almal te voet, en U sê U sal vir hulle vleis gee, sodat hulle 'n hele maand lank daarvan kan eet! 22Sal daar genoeg skape en beeste vir hulle geslag kan word? Sal hulle genoeg hê as al die vis in die see vir hulle gevang word? 23Maar die Here het vir Moses gesê: Dink jy Ek het nie die mag nie? Jy sal nou self sien of my woord bewaarheid word of nie. 24Moses het vir die volk gaan vertel wat die Here gesê het. Hy het sewentig leiers van die volk bymekaar laat kom en hulle rondom die tent laat staan. 25Die Here het toe in die wolk afgekom, met Moses gepraat en 'n deel van die Gees wat op Moses was, op die sewentig laat kom. Toe die Gees op hulle kom, het hulle as profete begin optree, maar daarna nie meer nie. 26Twee van die manne onder dié wat opgeskryf was, het nie na die tent toe uitgegaan nie, maar het in die kamp agtergebly. Die een se naam was Eldad en die ander s'n Medad. Terwyl die Gees op hulle gerus het, het hulle in die kamp as profete opgetree. 27'n Jongman het toe gehardloop en vir Moses gaan vertel: Eldad en Medad tree as profete op in die kamp! 28Josua seun van Nun, van jongs af Moses se assistent, het gesê: Laat hulle tog ophou, Meneer! 29Maar Moses sê vir hom: Bekommer jy jou oor my posisie? Ek sou wou wens dat die hele volk van die Here profete was, en dat Hy sy Gees op almal mag lê. 30Daarna het Moses en die leiers na die kamp toe teruggegaan. 31Die Here het toe 'n wind gestuur en dit het kwartels van die see se kant af aangebring en hulle rondom die kamp laat val, omtrent 'n dagreis ver na alle kante toe en omtrent 'n meter diep op die grond. 32Die volk het daardie hele dag en die hele nag en ook die volgende dag uitgegaan en kwartels bymekaargemaak. Elkeen het minstens 'n ton vleis bymekaargemaak en dit rondom die kamp oopgegooi. 33Die vleis was nog tussen hulle tande, hulle het nog nie begin kou nie, toe ontvlam die toorn van die Here teen die volk. Hy het baie van hulle om die lewe gebring. 34Hulle het dié plek Kibrot-Taäwa genoem, omdat hulle die gulsige mense daar begrawe het. 35Van Kibrot-Taäwa af het die volk na Gaserot toe weggetrek en daar gebly.

Numbers 12

Miriam and Aaron Oppose Moses

Num 12:1 Moses had married a Cushite woman, and Miriam and Aaron criticized him for it.

Num 12:2 They said, "Has the LORD spoken only through Moses? Hasn't he also spoken through us?" The LORD heard what they said.

Num 12:3 (Moses was a humble man, more humble than anyone else on earth.)

Num 12:4 Suddenly the LORD said to Moses, Aaron, and Miriam, "I want the three of you to come out to the Tent of my presence." They went,

Num 12:5 and the LORD came down in a pillar of cloud, stood at the entrance of the Tent, and called out, "Aaron! Miriam!" The two of them stepped forward, Num 12:6 and the LORD said, "Now hear what I have to say! When there are prophets among you, I reveal myself to them in visions and speak to them in dreams.

Num 12:7 It is different when I speak with my servant Moses; I have put him in charge of all my people Israel.

Num 12:8 So I speak to him face-to-face, clearly and not in riddles; he has even seen my form! How dare you speak against my servant Moses?"

Num 12:9 The LORD was angry with them; and so as he departed

Num 12:10 and the cloud left the Tent, Miriam's skin was suddenly covered with a dreaded disease and turned as white as snow. When Aaron looked at her and saw that she was covered with the disease, Num 12:11 he said to Moses, "Please, sir, do not make us suffer this punishment for our foolish sin.

Num 12:12 Don't let her become like something born dead with half its flesh eaten away."

Num 12:13 So Moses cried out to the LORD, "O God, heal her!"

Num 12:14 The LORD answered, "If her father had spit in her face, she would have to bear her disgrace for seven days. So let her be shut out of the camp for a week, and after that she can be brought back in."

Num 12:15 Miriam was shut out of the camp for seven days, and the people did not move on until she was brought back in.

Num 12:16 Then they left Hazeroth and set up camp in the wilderness of Paran.

NÚMERI 12

1Mirjam en Aäron het vir Moses aangespreek oor die Kussitiese vrou wat hy gevat het, want hy het met 'n Kussitiese vrou getrou. 2Het die Here dan net deur Moses gepraat, wou hulle ook nog weet, en nie ook deur ons nie? Die Here het dit gehoor. 3Moses was 'n uiters sagmoedige man, meer as enigiemand anders op die aarde. 4Die Here het onmiddellik vir Moses, Aäron en Mirjam gesê: Gaan julle aldrie na die tent van ontmoeting toe! En hulle drie het gegaan. 5Die Here het toe in 'n wolk afgekom, by die ingang van die tent gaan staan en Aäron en Mirjam nader geroep. Toe hulle twee nader kom, 6het die Here gesê: Luister na wat Ek sê: As daar 'n profeet van die Here onder julle is, maak Ek My aan hom bekend deur visioene en praat Ek met hom in drome. 7Maar met my dienaar Moses is dit anders. Hy is die betroubaarste in my diens. 8Met hóm praat Ek direk en persoonlik, nie in raaisels nie. Hy sien selfs die gestalte van die Here. Waarom was julle dan nie bang om só met my dienaar Moses te praat nie? 9Die toorn van die Here het teen hulle ontvlam en Hy het van hulle af weggegaan. 10Toe die wolk van die tent af optrek, staan Mirjam daar melaats soos sneeu. Toe Aäron na Mirjam toe draai, is sy melaats. 11Hy het vir Moses gesê: Asseblief, Meneer, moet tog nie die sonde wat ons in dwaasheid begaan het, teen ons hou nie. 12Laat sy tog nie wees soos 'n doodgebore kind waarvan die liggaam by geboorte al halfpad verteer is nie. 13Toe het Moses die Here aangeroep en gesê: Maak haar tog gesond, o God! 14Die Here het vir Moses geantwoord: As haar pa haar in die gesig gespoeg het, sou dit nie vir sewe dae lank vir haar 'n skande gewees het nie? Laat sy dan nou sewe dae lank uit die kamp uitgesluit word, en daarna kan sy terugkom. 15Hulle het Mirjam toe sewe dae lank uit die kamp uitgesluit, en die volk het nie verder getrek voordat sy teruggekom het nie. 16Daarna het die volk van Gaserot af weggetrek en in die Paranwoestyn kamp opgeslaan.

Numbers 13

Spies Sent into Canaan

Num 13:1 The LORD said to Moses,

Num 13:2 "Choose one of the leaders from each of the twelve tribes and send them as spies to explore the land of Canaan, which I am giving to the Israelites."

Num 13:3 (3-15) Moses obeyed and from the wilderness of Paran he sent out leaders, as follows:

Tribe	Leader
Reuben	Shammua son of Zaccur
Simeon	Shaphat son of Hori
Judah	Caleb son of Jephunneh
Issachar	Igal son of Joseph
Ephraim	Hoshea son of Nun
Benjamin	Palti son of Raphu
Zebulun	Gaddiel son of Sodi
Manasseh	Gaddi son of Susi
Dan	Ammiel son of Gemalli
Asher	Sethur son of Michael
Naphtali	Nahbi son of Vophsi
Gad	Geuel son of Machi

Num 13:16 These are the spies Moses sent to explore the land. He changed the name of Hoshea son of Nun to Joshua.

Num 13:17 When Moses sent them out, he said to them, "Go north from here into the southern part of the land of Canaan and then on into the hill country.

Num 13:18 Find out what kind of country it is, how many people live there, and how strong they are.

Num 13:19 Find out whether the land is good or bad and whether the people live in open towns or in fortified cities.

Num 13:20 Find out whether the soil is fertile and whether the land is wooded. And be sure to bring back some of the fruit that grows there." (It was the season when grapes were beginning to ripen.)

Num 13:21 So the men went north and explored the land from the wilderness of Zin in the south all the way to Rehob, near Hamath Pass in the north.

Num 13:22 They went first into the southern part of the land and came to Hebron, where the clans of Ahiman, Sheshai, and Talmai, the descendants of a race of giants called the Anakim, lived. (Hebron was founded seven years before Zoan in Egypt.)

Num 13:23 They came to Eshcol Valley, and there they cut off a branch which had one bunch of grapes on it so heavy that it took two men to carry it on a pole between them. They also brought back some pomegranates and figs.

Num 13:24 (That place was named Eshcol Valley because of the bunch of grapes the Israelites cut off there.)

Report of the Spies

Num 13:25 After exploring the land for forty days, the spies returned

Num 13:26 to Moses, Aaron, and the whole community of Israel at Kadesh in the wilderness of Paran. They reported what they had seen and showed them the fruit they had brought.

Num 13:27 They told Moses, "We explored the land and found it to be rich and fertile; and here is some of its fruit.

Num 13:28 But the people who live there are powerful, and their cities are very large and well fortified. Even worse, we saw the descendants of the giants there.

Num 13:29 Amalekites live in the southern part of the land; Hittites, Jebusites, and Amorites live in the hill country; and Canaanites live by the Mediterranean Sea and along the Jordan River."

Num 13:30 Caleb silenced the people who were complaining against Moses, and said, "We should attack now and take the land; we are strong enough to conquer it."

Num 13:31 But the men who had gone with Caleb said, "No, we are not strong enough to attack them; the people there are more powerful than we are."

Num 13:32 So they spread a false report among the Israelites about the land they had explored. They said, "That land doesn't even produce enough to feed the people who live there. Everyone we saw was very tall, Num 13:33 and we even saw giants there, the descendants of Anak. We felt as small as grasshoppers, and that is how we must have looked to them."

1Die Here het vir Moses gesê: 2Stuur manne om Kanaän, wat Ek aan die Israeliete sal gee, te verken. Uit elke voorvaderlike stam moet jy een stuur wat 'n leier onder hulle is. 3Op die bevel van die Here het Moses hulle toe van die Paranwoestyn af uitgestuur. Al die manne was leiers onder die Israeliete. 4Hulle was Sammua, seun van Sakkur uit die stam Ruben, 5Safat, seun van Gori uit die stam Simeon, 6Kaleb, seun van Jefunne uit die stam Juda, 7Jigal, seun van Josef uit die stam Issaskar, 8Hosea, seun van Nun uit die stam Efraim, 9Palti, seun van Rafu uit die stam Benjamin, 10Gaddiël, seun van Sodi uit die stam Sebulon, 11Gaddi, seun van Susi uit die stam Manasse, 'n Josefstam, 12Ammiël, seun van Gemalli uit die stam Dan, 13Setur, seun van Migael uit die stam Aser, 14Nagbi, seun van Wofsi uit die stam Naftali, en 15Geüel, seun van Maki uit die stam Gad. 16Dit is die name van die manne vir wie Moses gestuur het om die land te verken. Moses het aan Hosea seun van Nun die naam Josua gegee. 17Moses het hulle gestuur om Kanaän te verken, en vir hulle gesê: Trek deur die Suidland en op na die bergwêreld toe. 18Bekyk die land, hoe dit is, en of die mense wat daar woon, sterk of swak, min of baie is, 19of die land waarin hulle woon, goed of sleg is, en of die mense se stede oop of versterk is, 20of die grond vrugbaar of skraal is, of dit bome het of nie. Doen julle bes om van die land se vrugte saam te bring. Dit was juis die tyd van die eerste ryp druiwe. 21Hulle het toe die land gaan verken, van die Sinwoestyn af tot by Regob, by Lebo-Hamat. 22Hulle het deur die Suidland getrek en by Hebron gekom, waar Agiman, Sesai en Talmai, afstammelinge van Enak, gewoon het. Hebron is reeds sewe jaar voor die Egiptiese stad Soan gebou. 23Toe hulle by Eskolspruit kom, het hulle daar 'n rank met een druiwetros afgesny. Twee van hulle het dit aan 'n stok gedra, saam met 'n paar granate en vye. 24As gevolg van die tros wat die Israeliete daar afgesny het, het hulle die plek Eskolspruit genoem. 25Nadat hulle die land veertig dae lank verken het, het hulle teruggegaan. 26Die verkenners het toe by Moses en Aäron en die hele vergadering van die Israeliete by Kades in die Paranwoestyn aangekom. Daar het hulle aan Moses-hulle en aan die hele vergadering verslag gedoen en vir hulle die vrugte van die land gewys. 27Hulle het aan Moses gerapporteer en gesê: Ons het in die land gekom waarheen u ons gestuur het. Dit loop oor van melk en heuning, en hier is van sy vrugte. 28Maar die mense wat in die land woon, is sterk, en die stede is versterk en baie groot. Ons het ook die nasate van Enak daar gesien. 29Die Amalekiete woon in die Suidland, die Hetiete, Jebusiete en Amoriete in die Bergwêreld, en die Kanaäniete by die see en langs die Jordaan. 30Kaleb het egter die manne wat met Moses praat, stilgemaak en gesê: Ons moet beslis optrek en die land in besit neem, want ons kán dit doen. [31]Maar die manne wat saam met hom gegaan het, het gesê: Nee, ons kan nie teen daardie mense optrek nie, want hulle is sterker as ons. [32]Die manne het toe 'n slegte gerug onder die Israeliete versprei oor die land wat hulle verken het. Hulle het gesê: Die land wat ons gaan verken het, is 'n land wat die lewe vir sy inwoners onmoontlik maak, en die mense wat ons daarin gesien het, is almal baie groot. [33]Ons het daar ook die reuse gesien. Die Enakiete stam van hulle af. Ons was soos sprinkane in ons eie oë, en so was ons ook in hulle oë.

Numbers 14

The People Rebel

Num 14:1 All night long the people cried out in distress.

Num 14:2 They complained against Moses and Aaron, and said, "It would have been better to die in Egypt or even here in the wilderness!

Num 14:3 Why is the LORD taking us into that land? We will be killed in battle, and our wives and children will be captured. Wouldn't it be better to go back to Egypt?"

Num 14:4 So they said to one another, "Let's choose a leader and go back to Egypt!"

Num 14:5 Then Moses and Aaron bowed to the ground in front of all the people.

Num 14:6 And Joshua son of Nun and Caleb son of Jephunneh, two of the spies, tore their clothes in sorrow Num 14:7 and said to the people, "The land we explored is an excellent land.

Num 14:8 If the LORD is pleased with us, he will take us there and give us that rich and fertile land.

Num 14:9 Do not rebel against the LORD and don't be afraid of the people who live there. We will conquer them easily. The LORD is with us and has defeated the gods who protected them; so don't be afraid."

Num 14:10 The whole community was threatening to stone them to death, but suddenly the people saw the dazzling light of the LORD's presence appear over the Tent.

Num 14:11 The LORD said to Moses, "How much longer will these people reject me? How much longer will they refuse to trust in me, even though I have performed so many miracles among them?

Num 14:12 I will send an epidemic and destroy them, but I will make you the father of a nation that is larger and more powerful than they are!"

Moses Intercedes for the People

Num 14:13 But Moses said to the LORD, "You brought these people out of Egypt by your power. When the Egyptians hear what you have done to your people,

Num 14:14 they will tell it to the people who live in this land. These people have already heard that you, LORD, are with us, that you appear in plain sight when your cloud stops over us, and that you go before us in a pillar of cloud by day and a pillar of fire by night.

Num 14:15 Now if you kill all your people, the nations who have heard of your fame will say

Num 14:16 that you killed your people in the wilderness because you were not able to bring them into the land you promised to give them.

Num 14:17 So now, LORD, I pray, show us your power and do what you promised when you said,

Num 14:18 'I, the LORD, am not easily angered, and I show great love and faithfulness and forgive sin and rebellion. Yet I will not fail to punish children and grandchildren to the third and fourth generation for the sins of their parents.'

Num 14:19 And now, LORD, according to the greatness of your unchanging love, forgive, I pray, the sin of these people, just as you have forgiven them ever since they left Egypt."

God Promises Judgment

Num 14:20 The LORD answered, "I will forgive them, as you have asked.

Num 14:21 But I promise that as surely as I live and as surely as my presence fills the earth,

Num 14:22 none of these people will live to enter that land. They have seen the dazzling light of my presence and the miracles that I performed in Egypt and in the wilderness, but they have tried my patience over and over again and have refused to obey me.

Num 14:23 They will never enter the land which I promised to their ancestors. None of those who have rejected me will ever enter it.

Num 14:24 But because my servant Caleb has a different attitude and has remained loyal to me, I will bring him into the land which he explored, and his descendants will possess the land

Num 14:25 in whose valleys the Amalekites and the Canaanites now live. Turn back tomorrow and go into the wilderness in the direction of the Gulf of Aqaba."

Num 14:26 The LORD said to Moses and Aaron,

Num 14:27 "How much longer are these wicked people going to complain against me? I have heard enough of these complaints!

Num 14:28 Now give them this answer: 'I swear that as surely as I live, I will do to you just what you have asked. I, the LORD, have spoken.

Num 14:29 You will die and your corpses will be scattered across this wilderness. Because you have complained against me, none of you over twenty years of age will enter that land.

Num 14:30 I promised to let you live there, but not one of you will, except Caleb and Joshua.

Num 14:31 You said that your children would be captured, but I will bring them into the land that you rejected, and it will be their home.

Num 14:32 You will die here in this wilderness.

Num 14:33 Your children will wander in the wilderness for forty years, suffering for your unfaithfulness, until the last one of you dies.

Num 14:34 You will suffer the consequences of your sin for forty years, one year for each of the forty days you spent exploring the land. You will know what it means to have me against you!

Num 14:35 I swear that I will do this to you wicked people who have gathered together against me. Here in the wilderness every one of you will die. I, the LORD, have spoken.' "

Num 14:36 (36-37) The men Moses had sent to explore the land brought back a false report which caused the people to complain against the LORD. And so the LORD struck them with a disease, and they died.

Num 14:38 Of the twelve spies only Joshua and Caleb survived.

Israel Defeated in Battle

Num 14:39 When Moses told the Israelites what the LORD had said, they mourned bitterly.

Num 14:40 Early the next morning they started out to invade the hill country, saying, "Now we are ready to go to the place which the LORD told us about. We admit that we have sinned."

Num 14:41 But Moses said, "Then why are you disobeying the LORD now? You will not succeed!

Num 14:42 Don't go. The LORD is not with you, and your enemies will defeat you.

Num 14:43 When you face the Amalekites and the Canaanites, you will die in battle; the LORD will not be with you, because you have refused to follow him."

Num 14:44 Yet they still dared to go up into the hill country, even though neither the LORD's Covenant Box nor Moses left the camp.

Num 14:45 Then the Amalekites and the Canaanites who lived there attacked and defeated them, and pursued them as far as Hormah.

NÚMERI 14

1Daardie nag het die hele volksvergadering aanhoudend gekla. 2Al die Israeliete was in verset teen Moses en Aäron, en die hele vergadering het vir hulle gesê: As ons maar in Egipte of in hierdie woestyn gesterf het! 3Waarom het die Here ons na hierdie land toe gebring? Net om doodgemaak te word? Ons vrouens en kinders sal krygsgevangenes word. Is dit nie vir ons beter om na Egipte toe terug te gaan nie? 4Hulle het toe vir mekaar gesê: Kom ons kies 'n leier en gaan terug Egipte toe! 5Moses en Aäron het toe voor die hele vergadering van Israeliete wat daar saam was, op hulle knieë geval. 6Ook het Josua seun van Nun, en Kaleb seun van Jefunne, manne wat saam die land verken het, hulle klere geskeur, 7en vir die hele vergadering Israeliete gesê: Die land wat ons gaan verken het, is 'n buitengewoon goeie land. 8As die Here ons goedgesind is, sal Hy ons na hierdie land toe bring en dit aan ons gee, 'n land wat oorloop van melk en heuning. 9Julle moet net nie teen die Here in opstand kom nie. Moet ook nie vir die mense van die land bang wees nie, want ons sal hulle maklik verslaan. Hulle gode sal hulle nie kan beskerm nie. Die Here is by ons. Moenie vir hulle bang wees nie! 10Maar die hele vergadering het gedreig om vir Josua en Kaleb met klippe dood te gooi. Toe het die magtige teenwoordigheid van die Here by die tent van ontmoeting vir al die Israeliete sigbaar geword. 11Die Here het vir Moses gesê: Hoe lank sal hierdie volk my almag bly onderskat? Hoe lank sal hulle weier om op My te vertrou ten spyte van al die wonders wat Ek onder hulle gedoen het? 12Ek gaan hulle tref met die pes en hulle uitroei, en dan sal Ek jou 'n volk maak, groter en sterker as hulle! 13Maar Moses het vir die Here gesê: Die Egiptenaars sal dit hoor en dit vir die inwoners van hierdie land vertel. Dit is tog U wat hierdie volk deur u mag uit Egipte laat wegtrek het, en die inwoners van hierdie land het reeds gehoor dat U, Here, onder hierdie volk is, dat U duidelik waarneembaar verskyn het, dat u wolk oor hulle is, en dat U bedags in 'n wolkkolom en snags in 'n vuurkolom voor hulle uit gaan. 1415As U hierdie volk soos een man om die lewe bring, sal die nasies wat van u dade gehoor het, sê: 16Die Here was nie in staat om hierdie volk in te bring in die land wat Hy met 'n eed aan hulle beloof het nie, daarom het Hy hulle in die woestyn omgebring.' 17Laat u groot mag nou bekend word, Here, soos U gesê het: 18Ek, die Here, is lankmoedig en vol liefde; Ek vergewe ongeregtigheid en oortreding, maar Ek spreek niemand sonder meer vry nie. Ek reken kinders die sondes van vaders toe selfs tot in die derde en vierde geslag.' 19Vergewe dan tog die sonde van hierdie volk in u groot liefde, soos U hulle van Egipte af tot hiertoe vergewe het! 20Toe het die Here geantwoord: Ek vergewe hulle, soos jy gevra het. 21Nogtans, so seker as Ek leef en die hele aarde vol sal word van my magtige teenwoordigheid, 22nie een van die manne wat my mag en die wonders wat Ek in Egipte en in die woestyn gedoen het, gesien het, en wat My nou oor en oor getart het en nie na my woorde geluister het nie, 23sal die land wat Ek met 'n eed aan hulle voorvaders beloof het, sien nie. Nie een van hulle wat My geminag het, sal die land sien nie. 24Maar omdat my dienaar Kaleb 'n ander gesindheid het en My getrou gevolg het, sal Ek hom inbring in die land wat hy gaan verken het, en sy nageslag sal dit besit. 25Die Amalekiete en die Kanaäniete woon in die laagte. Draai môre om en trek weg na die woestyn toe met die Rietseepad. 26Die Here het vir Moses en Aäron gesê: 27Hoe lank sal hierdie slegte volk nog aanhou met hulle verset teen My? Ek het opgemerk hoe die Israeliete hulle teen My verset. 28Sê vir hulle: So seker as Ek leef,' sê die Here, Ek sal met julle maak soos Ek julle hoor sê het. 29In hierdie selfde woestyn sal die lyke bly lê van julle almal van twintig jaar en ouer wat in die sensus opgeneem is en wat teen My in verset gekom het. 30Nie een van julle sal die land betree wat Ek met 'n eed aan julle as woonplek beloof het nie, behalwe Kaleb seun van Jefunne, en Josua seun van Nun. 31En wat julle kinders betref, van wie julle gesê het dat hulle krygsgevangenes sal word, vir hulle sal Ek inbring, en hulle sal die land wat deur julle verwerp is, lief kry. 32Maar julle lyke sal in hierdie woestyn bly lê. 33Julle kinders sal veertig jaar lank in die woestyn rondtrek. Hulle sal die gevolge van julle ontrou moet dra totdat julle almal se lyke in die woestyn lê. 34Julle het die land veertig dae lank verken. Julle sal veertig jaar, een jaar vir elke dag, die gevolge van julle ongeregtigheid moet dra. Dan sal julle besef wat dit beteken om My teen julle te hê.' 35Ek, die Here, het dit gesê, Ek sal dit beslis doen aan hierdie slegte volk wat teen My saamgespan het: hulle sal in hierdie woestyn omkom en hier sterf. 36Die manne vir wie Moses gestuur het om die land te verken en wat ná hulle terugkoms die hele volk teen Moses in verset laat kom het deur die slegte gerug oor die land te versprei, 37almal wat vir die slegte gerug oor die land verantwoordelik was, het gesterwe deur 'n plaag wat deur die Here gestuur is. 38Van die manne wat die land gaan verken het, het net Josua seun van Nun, en Kaleb seun van Jefunne bly lewe. 39Toe Moses vir al die Israeliete sê wat die Here gesê het, het die volk begin kerm en huil. 40Hulle het toe die oggend vroeg klaargemaak en na die hoë Bergland toe begin trek. Ons was verkeerd, het hulle gesê, ons wil nou optrek na die plek toe wat die Here beloof het. 41Maar Moses het gesê: Waarom oortree julle die bevel van die Here? Julle sal nie die land verower nie. 42Moenie gaan nie, want die Here is nie by julle nie. Julle sal deur julle vyande verslaan word, 43want die Amalekiete en Kanaäniete sal julle daar inwag, en julle sal om die lewe gebring word. Die Here sal nie by julle wees nie, omdat julle van Hom af weggedraai het. 44Hulle was egter vermetel genoeg om tog na die hoë Bergland toe te begin trek. Maar Moses en die verbondsark van die Here het nie die kamp verlaat nie. 45Die Amalekiete en Kanaäniete wat in daardie Bergland woon, het afgekom en hulle verslaan en uitmekaar gejaag tot by Gorma.

Numbers 15

Laws About Sacrifices

Num 15:1 The LORD gave Moses

Num 15:2 the following regulations for the people of Israel to observe in the land that he was going to give them.

Num 15:3 A bull, a ram, a sheep, or a goat may be presented to the LORD as a burnt offering or as a sacrifice in fulfillment of a vow or as a freewill offering or as an offering at your regular religious festivals; the odor of these food offerings is pleasing to the LORD.

Num 15:4 (4-5) Whoever presents a sheep or a goat as a burnt offering to the LORD is to bring with each animal 2 pounds of flour mixed with 2 pints of olive oil as a grain offering, together with 2 pints of wine.

Num 15:6 When a ram is offered, 4 pounds of flour mixed with 3 pints of olive oil are to be presented as a grain offering,

Num 15:7 together with 3 pints of wine. The odor of these sacrifices is pleasing to the LORD.

Num 15:8 When a bull is offered to the LORD as a burnt offering or as a sacrifice in fulfillment of a vow or as a fellowship offering,

Num 15:9 a grain offering of 6 pounds of flour mixed with 4 pints of olive oil is to be presented,

Num 15:10 together with 4 pints of wine. The odor of this sacrifice is pleasing to the LORD.

Num 15:11 That is what shall be offered with each bull, ram, sheep, or goat.

Num 15:12 When more than one animal is offered, the accompanying offering is to be increased proportionately.

Num 15:13 All native Israelites are to do this when they present a food offering, an odor pleasing to the LORD.

Num 15:14 And if at any time foreigners living among you, whether on a temporary or a permanent basis, make a food offering, an odor that pleases the LORD, they are to observe the same regulations.

Num 15:15 For all time to come, the same rules are binding on you and on the foreigners who live among you. You and they are alike in the LORD's sight;

Num 15:16 the same laws and regulations apply to you and to them.

Num 15:17 The LORD gave Moses

Num 15:18 the following regulations for the people of Israel to observe in the land that he was going to give them.

Num 15:19 When any food produced there is eaten, some of it is to be set aside as a special contribution to the LORD.

Num 15:20 When you bake bread, the first loaf of the first bread made from the new grain is to be presented as a special contribution to the LORD. This is to be presented in the same way as the special contribution you make from the grain you thresh.

Num 15:21 For all time to come, this special gift is to be given to the LORD from the bread you bake.

Laws About Unintentional Sins

Num 15:22 But suppose someone unintentionally fails to keep some of these regulations which the LORD has given Moses.

Num 15:23 And suppose that in the future the community fails to do everything that the LORD commanded through Moses.

Num 15:24 If the mistake was made because of the ignorance of the community, they are to offer a bull as a burnt offering, an odor that pleases the LORD, with the proper grain offering and wine offering. In addition, they are to offer a male goat as a sin offering.

Num 15:25 The priest shall perform the ritual of purification for the community, and they will be forgiven, because the mistake was unintentional and they brought their sin offering as a food offering to the LORD.

Num 15:26 The whole community of Israel and the foreigners living among them will be forgiven, because everyone was involved in the mistake.

Num 15:27 If any of you sin unintentionally, you are to offer a one-year-old female goat as a sin offering.

Num 15:28 At the altar the priest shall perform the ritual of purification to purify you from your sin, and you will be forgiven.

Num 15:29 The same regulation applies to all who unintentionally commit a sin, whether they are native Israelites or resident foreigners.

Num 15:30 But any who sin deliberately, whether they are natives or foreigners, are guilty of treating the LORD with contempt, and they shall be put to death,

Num 15:31 because they have rejected what the LORD said and have deliberately broken one of his commands. They are responsible for their own death.

A Sabbathbreaker Executed

Num 15:32 Once, while the Israelites were still in the wilderness, a man was found gathering firewood on the Sabbath.

Num 15:33 He was taken to Moses, Aaron, and the whole community,

Num 15:34 and was put under guard, because it was not clear what should be done with him.

Num 15:35 Then the LORD said to Moses, "The man must be put to death; the whole community is to stone him to death outside the camp."

Num 15:36 So the whole community took him outside the camp and stoned him to death, as the LORD had commanded.

Tassels on Garments

Num 15:37 The LORD commanded Moses

Num 15:38 to say to the people of Israel: "Make tassels on the corners of your garments and put a blue cord on each tassel. You are to do this for all time to come.

Num 15:39 The tassels will serve as reminders, and each time you see them you will remember all my commands and obey them; then you will not turn away from me and follow your own wishes and desires.

Num 15:40 The tassels will remind you to keep all my commands, and you will belong completely to me.

Num 15:41 I am the LORD your God; I brought you out of Egypt to be your God. I am the LORD."

NÚMERI 15

1Die Here het vir Moses gesê: 2Sê vir die Israeliete: As julle in die land kom wat Ek vir julle as woonplek gee, 3en julle vir My, die Here, van julle beeste of kleinvee 'n vuuroffer wil aanbied wat vir My aanvaarbaar is, 'n brandoffer of 'n ander diereoffer om 'n gelofte te betaal of as vrywillige offer, of by julle feestye, 4dan moet die een wat sy offer bring, vir My ook 'n graanoffer bring van een en 'n half kilogram meel, gemeng met een liter olie. 5Saam met elke lam wat as brandoffer of ander diereoffer gebring word, moet jy 'n liter wyn as drankoffer aanbied. 6Vir 'n ram moet jy 'n graanoffer aanbied van drie kilogram meel, gemeng met een en 'n derde liter olie, 7en daarby een en 'n derde liter wyn as drankoffer. Jy moet dit bring dat dit vir My, die Here, aanvaarbaar is. 8As jy 'n jong bul as brandoffer of ander diereoffer aanbied om 'n gelofte te betaal of as ander maaltydoffer aan My, 9moet jy by die bul vier en 'n half kilogram meel, gemeng met twee liter olie, as graanoffer bring. 10Bring ook ongeveer twee liter wyn as drankoffer. So sal dit 'n vuuroffer wees wat deur My, die Here, aanvaar word. 11Elke bul, elke ram of lam van skape of bokke moet so aangebied word. 12Julle moet so maak met elke dier wat julle as vuuroffer aanbied. 13Elke landsburger wat 'n vuuroffer wil aanbied, wat deur My, die Here, aanvaar word, moet dit op dieselfde manier doen. 14'n Vreemdeling wat by julle woon, of iemand wat reeds vir geslagte onder julle is, moet ook 'n vuuroffer aanbied wat deur My aanvaar word. Hy moet presies dieselfde doen as julle. 15Daar moet in die gemeente dieselfde voorskrif wees vir julle en vir die vreemdeling wat by julle woon. Dit is 'n vaste voorskrif vir julle nageslag dat die vreemdeling net soos julle moet wees voor die Here. 16Een en dieselfde wet en bepaling moet op julle en op die vreemdeling wat by julle woon, van toepassing wees. 17Die Here het ook vir Moses gesê: 18Sê vir die Israeliete: As julle in die land kom waarheen Ek julle bring, 19en julle eet van die land se brood, moet julle 'n offergawe vir My bring. 20Offer 'n ringbrood van julle eerste growwe meel, en bied dit aan as 'n offergawe van julle dorsvloer af. So moet julle dit offer. 21Al julle geslagte moet altyd weer 'n offergawe van die eerste growwe meel aan My gee. 22Dit kan gebeur dat julle onopsetlik sondig en nie handel volgens al die gebooie wat Ek, die Here, aan Moses gegee het nie, 23dat julle nie handel volgens alles wat Ek julle deur Moses beveel het van die dag af waarop Ek dit gegee het en verder in julle nageslagte nie. 24As dit onopsetlik gedoen is sonder dat die gemeente daarvan bewus was, moet die hele gemeente 'n jong bul as brandoffer berei wat deur My, die Here, aanvaar word. Hulle moet dit berei saam met die voorgeskrewe graan- en drankoffer, en 'n bokram as sondeoffer. [25]Die priester moet vir die hele gemeente van Israel versoening doen, en hulle sal vergewe word, want dit was onopsetlik, en hulle het vir hulle onopsetlike sonde hulle vuuroffer en hulle sondeoffer vir My gebring. [26]Die hele gemeente van Israel en die vreemdeling wat by hulle woon, sal vergewe word, want hulle het onopsetlik gesondig. [27]As een persoon onopsetlik sondig, moet hy 'n jaaroud bokooi as sondeoffer bring. [28]Die priester moet vir die persoon wat onopsetlik gesondig het, voor My versoening doen, en as die versoening vir hom gedoen is, sal die sonde hom vergewe word. [29]Een en dieselfde wet geld vir elkeen wat onopsetlik gesondig het, of hy 'n gebore Israeliet is of 'n vreemdeling wat by julle woon. [30]Maar die landsburger of vreemdeling wat moedswillig sondig, doen My, die Here, oneer aan en hy moet van sy volk afgesny word. [31]Omdat hy die woord van die Here verag het en sy gebooie verbreek het, moet so iemand doodgemaak word; hy moet die straf vir sy sonde dra. [32]Terwyl die Israeliete in die woestyn was, het hulle 'n man gekry wat op die sabbat hout bymekaarmaak. [33]Die mense wat hom gekry het terwyl hy besig was om hout bymekaar te maak, het hom na Moses, Aäron en die hele gemeente toe gebring. [34]Hulle het hom aangehou, want dit was nie duidelik wat hulle met hom moes doen nie. [35]Die Here het toe vir Moses gesê: Die man moet beslis sterwe. Die hele gemeente moet hom buite die kamp met klippe doodgooi. [36]Hulle het hom toe uitgebring buite die kamp en hom met klippe doodgegooi. So het hy dan gesterf, soos die Here vir Moses beveel het. [37]Die Here het verder vir Moses gesê: [38]Sê vir die Israeliete hulle moet aan die some van hulle klere klossies vaswerk. Dit geld ook vir hulle nageslag. Hulle moet 'n blou toutjie aan die hoekklossies vaswerk. [39]As julle die klossies sien, moet julle dink aan al my gebooie sodat julle dit onderhou en nie die sondige begeertes van julle hart en oë navolg nie. [40]Julle moet aan al my gebooie dink en hulle onderhou sodat julle aan My gewy sal wees. [41]Ek is die Here julle God wat julle uit Egipte gebring het om vir julle 'n God te wees. Ek is die Here julle God.

Numbers 16

Korah's Rebellion

Num 16:1 (1-2) Korah son of Izhar, from the Levite clan of Kohath, rebelled against the leadership of Moses. He was joined by three members of the tribe of Reuben—Dathan and Abiram, the sons of Eliab, and On son of Peleth—and by 250 other Israelites, well-known leaders chosen by the community.

Num 16:3 They assembled before Moses and Aaron and said to them, "You have gone too far! All the members of the community belong to the LORD, and the LORD is with all of us. Why, then, Moses, do you set yourself above the LORD's community?"

Num 16:4 When Moses heard this, he threw himself on the ground and prayed.

Num 16:5 Then he said to Korah and his followers, "Tomorrow morning the LORD will show us who belongs to him; he will let the one who belongs to him, that is, the one he has chosen, approach him at the altar.

Num 16:6 (6-7) Tomorrow morning you and your followers take fire pans, put live coals and incense on them, and take them to the altar. Then we will see which of us the LORD has chosen. You Levites are the ones who have gone too far!"

Num 16:8 Moses continued to speak to Korah. "Listen, you Levites!

Num 16:9 Do you consider it a small matter that the God of Israel has set you apart from the rest of the community, so that you can approach him, perform your service in the LORD's Tent, and minister to the community and serve them?

Num 16:10 He has let you and all the other Levites have this honor—and now you are trying to get the priesthood too!

Num 16:11 When you complain against Aaron, it is really against the LORD that you and your followers are rebelling."

Num 16:12 Then Moses sent for Dathan and Abiram, but they said, "We will not come!

Num 16:13 Isn't it enough that you have brought us out of the fertile land of Egypt to kill us here in the wilderness? Do you also have to lord it over us?

Num 16:14 You certainly have not brought us into a fertile land or given us fields and vineyards as our possession, and now you are trying to deceive us. We will not come!"

Num 16:15 Moses became angry and said to the LORD, "Do not accept any offerings these men bring. I have not wronged any of them; I have not even taken one of their donkeys."

Num 16:16 Moses said to Korah, "Tomorrow you and your 250 followers must come to the Tent of the LORD's presence; Aaron will also be there.

Num 16:17 Each of you will take his fire pan, put incense on it, and then present it at the altar."

Num 16:18 So they each took their fire pans, put live coals and incense on them, and stood at the entrance of the Tent with Moses and Aaron.

Num 16:19 Then Korah gathered the whole community, and they stood facing Moses and Aaron at the entrance of the Tent. Suddenly the dazzling light of the LORD's presence appeared to the whole community,

Num 16:20 and the LORD said to Moses and Aaron,

Num 16:21 "Move back from these people, and I will destroy them immediately."

Num 16:22 But Moses and Aaron bowed down with their faces to the ground and said, "O God, you are the source of all life. When one of us sins, do you become angry with the whole community?"

Num 16:23 The LORD said to Moses,

Num 16:24 "Tell the people to move away from the tents of Korah, Dathan, and Abiram."

Num 16:25 Then Moses, accompanied by the leaders of Israel, went to Dathan and Abiram.

Num 16:26 He said to the people, "Get away from the tents of these wicked men and don't touch anything that belongs to them. Otherwise, you will be wiped out with them for all their sins."

Num 16:27 So they moved away from the tents of Korah, Dathan, and Abiram. Dathan and Abiram had come out and were standing at the entrance of their tents, with their wives and children.

Num 16:28 Moses said to the people, "This is how you will know that the LORD has sent me to do all these things and that it is not by my own choice that I have done them.

Num 16:29 If these men die a natural death without some punishment from God, then the LORD did not send me.

Num 16:30 But if the LORD does something unheard of, and the earth opens up and swallows them with all they own, so that they go down alive to the world of the dead, you will know that these men have rejected the LORD."

Num 16:31 As soon as he had finished speaking, the ground under Dathan and Abiram split open

Num 16:32 and swallowed them and their families, together with all of Korah's followers and their possessions.

Num 16:33 So they went down alive to the world of the dead, with their possessions. The earth closed over them, and they vanished.

Num 16:34 All the people of Israel who were there fled when they heard their cry. They shouted, "Run! The earth might swallow us too!"

Num 16:35 Then the LORD sent a fire that blazed out and burned up the 250 men who had presented the incense.

Num 16:36 Then the LORD said to Moses,

Num 16:37 "Tell Eleazar son of Aaron the priest to remove the bronze fire pans from the remains of those who have been burned, and scatter the coals from the fire pans somewhere else, because the fire pans are holy.

Num 16:38 They became holy when they were presented at the LORD's altar. So take the fire pans of these who were put to death for their sin, beat them into thin plates, and make a covering for the altar. It will be a warning to the people of Israel."

Num 16:39 So Eleazar the priest took the fire pans and had them beaten into thin plates to make a covering for the altar.

Num 16:40 This was a warning to the Israelites that no one who was not a descendant of Aaron should come to the altar to burn incense for the LORD. Otherwise he would be destroyed like Korah and his men. All this was done as the LORD had commanded Eleazar through Moses.

Num 16:41 The next day the whole community complained against Moses and Aaron and said, "You have killed some of the LORD's people."

Num 16:42 After they had all gathered to protest to Moses and Aaron, they turned toward the Tent and saw that the cloud was covering it and that the dazzling light of the LORD's presence had appeared.

Num 16:43 Moses and Aaron went and stood in front of the Tent,

Num 16:44 and the LORD said to Moses,

Num 16:45 "Move back from these people, and I will destroy them on the spot!" The two of them bowed down with their faces to the ground,

Num 16:46 and Moses said to Aaron, "Take your fire pan, put live coals from the altar in it, and put some incense on the coals. Then hurry with it to the people and perform the ritual of purification for them. Hurry! The LORD's anger has already broken out and an epidemic has already begun."

Num 16:47 Aaron obeyed, took his fire pan and ran into the middle of the assembled people. When he saw that the plague had already begun, he put the incense on the coals and performed the ritual of purification for the people.

Num 16:48 This stopped the plague, and he was left standing between the living and the dead.

Num 16:49 The number of people who died was 14,700, not counting those who died in Korah's rebellion.

Num 16:50 When the plague had stopped, Aaron returned to Moses at the entrance of the Tent.

NÚMERI 16

hulle by die ingang van die tent van ontmoeting laat saamkom, word die magtige teenwoordigheid van die Here vir die hele gemeente sigbaar. 20Die Here sê toe vir Moses en Aäron: 21Gee pad van hierdie gemeente af, dat Ek hulle in 'n oogwink kan vernietig. 22Maar Moses en Aäron het op hulle knieë geval en gebid: O God, God wat aan alle mense die lewe gee, sal u toorn teen die hele gemeente ontvlam as net een mens gesondig het? 23Toe sê die Here vir Moses: 24Sê vir die gemeente: Gee pad van Korag, Datan en Abiram se tente af! 25Daarna het Moses na Datan en Abiram toe gegaan, en die leiers van Israel het hom gevolg. 26Hy sê toe vir die gemeente: Gee pad van die tente van hierdie goddelose mense af! Moenie aan iets van hulle raak nie, dat julle nie deur al hulle sondes omkom nie. 27Die gemeente het toe van Korag, Datan en Abiram se tente af padgegee. Datan en Abiram het uitgekom saam met hulle vrouens, hulle kinders en almal onder hulle sorg en voor hulle tente gaan staan. 28Toe sê Moses: Hieraan sal julle weet dat die Here my gestuur het om al hierdie dinge te doen en dat dit nie uit myself is nie. 29As hierdie manne 'n gewone dood sterf en dit met hulle gaan soos dit met elke mens gaan, het die Here my nie gestuur nie! 30Maar as die Here iets nuuts laat gebeur en die aarde sy mond oopmaak en hulle insluk saam met alles wat aan hulle behoort, sodat hulle lewend in die doderyk afgaan, sal julle weet dat hierdie mense die Here geminag het. 31Net toe Moses klaar gepraat het, skeur die grond onder hulle oop 32en maak die aarde sy mond oop en sluk vir Datan en Abiram met hulle gesinne in en ook vir Korag en al die manne by hom saam met hulle besittings. 33Hulle en alles wat aan hulle behoort, het lewend in die doderyk afgegaan; die aarde het hulle bedek, en so het hulle uit die gemeente verdwyn. 34Al die Israeliete in die omgewing het gevlug toe hulle die geskree hoor, want hulle het gedink: dalk sluk die aarde ons ook in! 35Toe het die Here 'n vuur gestuur en dit het die twee honderd en vyftig man wat die wierookoffer wou bring, verteer. 36Daarna het die Here vir Moses beveel: 37Sê vir die priester Eleasar seun van Aäron hy moet die vuurpanne wegvat waar die brand was en die kole êrens weggooi, want die kole is aan die Here gewy. 38Van die vuurpanne van die manne wat deur hulle sonde gesterf het, moet julle dun plate maak en die altaar daarmee oortrek, want hulle is by die altaar gebruik en is aan die Here gewy. Hulle moet die Israeliete altyd aan hierdie gebeure herinner. 39Die priester Eleasar het toe die bronsvuurpanne gevat wat by die altaar gebruik is deur die manne wat verbrand is, en hulle uitgeklop en die altaar daarmee oorgetrek. 40Dit moes die Israeliete altyd daaraan herinner dat iemand wat nie uit Aäron se geslag is nie en dus nie daartoe bevoeg is nie, nie 'n wierookoffer na die altaar toe mag bring om dit aan die Here te offer nie. Anders sal so 'n persoon soos Korag en sy bende word oor wie die Here deur middel van Moses uitspraak gelewer het. 41Die volgende môre het die hele gemeente van Israel teen Moses en Aäron in verset gekom en gesê: Júlle het die volk van die Here doodgemaak! 42Toe die gemeente teen Moses en Aäron bymekaarkom en na die tent van ontmoeting toe draai, het die wolk die tent bedek en het die magtige teenwoordigheid van die Here sigbaar geword. 43Moses en Aäron het toe na die voorkant van die tent van ontmoeting toe gegaan, 44en die Here het vir Moses gesê: 45Gee pad tussen die gemeente uit dat Ek hulle in 'n oogwink kan verdelg. Moses en Aäron het op hulle knieë geval en gebid. 46Moses sê toe vir Aäron: Vat 'n vuurpan, sit vuur van die altaar af daarin en plaas wierook daarop en gaan gou na die gemeente toe en doen vir hulle versoening. Die toorn van die Here het reeds ontvlam en Hy het hulle met 'n plaag begin straf. 47Aäron het gedoen soos Moses gesê het en tussen die gemeente in gehardloop. Die plaag het toe reeds onder die volk begin woed, maar Aäron het die wierook geoffer en vir die volk versoening gedoen. 48Hy het gaan staan tussen dié wat al dood was en dié wat nog geleef het, en die plaag het opgehou. 49Daar het veertien duisend sewe honderd deur die plaag omgekom, afgesien van dié wat deur Korag se toedoen gesterf het. 50Aäron is toe terug na Moses toe by die ingang van die tent van ontmoeting. Die plaag was verby.

Numbers 17

Aaron's Staff Buds

Num 17:1 The LORD said to Moses,

Num 17:2 "Tell the people of Israel to give you twelve walking sticks, one from the leader of each tribe. Write each man's name on his stick Num 17:3 and then write Aaron's name on the stick representing Levi. There will be one stick for each tribal leader.

Num 17:4 Take them to the Tent of my presence and put them in front of the Covenant Box, where I meet you.

Num 17:5 Then the stick of the man I have chosen will sprout. In this way I will put a stop to the constant complaining of these Israelites against you."

Num 17:6 So Moses spoke to the Israelites, and each of their leaders gave him a stick, one for each tribe, twelve in all, and Aaron's stick was put with them.

Num 17:7 Moses then put all the sticks in the Tent in front of the LORD's Covenant Box.

Num 17:8 The next day, when Moses went into the Tent, he saw that Aaron's stick, representing the tribe of Levi, had sprouted. It had budded, blossomed, and produced ripe almonds!

Num 17:9 Moses took all the sticks and showed them to the Israelites. They saw what had happened, and each leader took his own stick back.

Num 17:10 The LORD said to Moses, "Put Aaron's stick back in front of the Covenant Box. It is to be kept as a warning to the rebel Israelites that they will die unless their complaining stops."

Num 17:11 Moses did as the LORD commanded.

Num 17:12 The people of Israel said to Moses, "Then that's the end of us!

Num 17:13 If anyone who even comes near the Tent must die, then we are all as good as dead!"

NÚMERI 17

1Die Here het vir Moses gesê: 2Vra vir die Israeliete twaalf kieries, een vir die leier van elkeen van die twaalf stamme. Skryf die naam van elke leier op sy kierie. 3Op Levi se kierie moet jy Aäron se naam skryf. Daar moet net een kierie vir elke stam wees. 4Sit die kieries dan voor die getuienis in die tent van ontmoeting, waar Ek julle ontmoet. 5Die kierie van die man wat Ek uitkies, sal bot, en so sal Ek 'n einde maak aan die Israeliete se aanhoudende verset teen julle. 6Moses het toe met die Israeliete gepraat, en hulle leiers het vir hom twaalf kieries gegee, een vir die leier van elkeen van die twaalf stamme. Aäron se kierie was ook onder hulle. 7Moses het toe die kieries neergesit in die tent met die getuienis, in die teenwoordigheid van die Here. 8Toe Moses die volgende môre by die tent met die getuienis kom, was daar botsels aan die kierie van Aäron, wat daar was vir die stam Levi. Trouens, daar was nie net botsels aan nie, daar was ook bloeisels en dit het selfs ryp amandels gedra. 9Moses het toe al die kieries wat in die heiligdom was, na Israel toe uitgebring, en hulle het dit gesien, en elke leier het sy eie kierie gevat. 10Die Here sê toe vir Moses: Sit Aäron se kierie terug voor die getuienis, en bêre dit as teken vir die opstandiges. So moet jy 'n einde maak aan hulle verset teen My, sodat hulle nie sterwe nie. 11Moses het gedoen presies soos die Here hom beveel het. 12Die Israeliete het toe vir Moses gesê: Dit is klaar met ons! Ons gaan tot niet, ons gaan almal tot niet! 13Elkeen wat maar net naby die tabernakel van die Here kom, sal sterwe. Is dit dan heeltemal klaar met ons?

Numbers 18

Duties of Priests and Levites

Num 18:1 The LORD said to Aaron, "You, your sons, and the Levites must suffer the consequences of any guilt connected with serving in the Tent of my presence; but only you and your sons will suffer the consequences of service in the priesthood.

Num 18:2 Bring in your relatives, the tribe of Levi, to work with you and help you while you and your sons are serving at the Tent.

Num 18:3 They are to fulfill their duties to you and their responsibilities for the Tent, but they must not have any contact with sacred objects in the Holy Place or with the altar. If they do, both they and you will be put to death.

Num 18:4 They are to work with you and fulfill their responsibilities for all the service in the Tent, but no unqualified person may work with you.

Num 18:5 You and your sons alone must fulfill the responsibilities for the Holy Place and the altar, so that my anger will not again break out against the people of Israel.

Num 18:6 I am the one who has chosen your relatives the Levites from among the Israelites as a gift to you. They are dedicated to me, so that they can carry out their duties in the Tent.

Num 18:7 But you and your sons alone shall fulfill all the responsibilities of the priesthood that concern the altar and what is in the Most Holy Place. These things are your responsibility, because I have given you the gift of the priesthood. Any unqualified person who comes near the sacred objects shall be put to death."

Num 18:8 The LORD said to Aaron, "Remember that I am giving you all the special contributions made to me that are not burned as sacrifices. I am giving them to you and to your descendants as the part assigned to you forever.

Num 18:9 Of the most sacred offerings not burned on the altar, the following belong to you: the grain offerings, the sin offerings, and the repayment offerings. Everything that is presented to me as a sacred offering belongs to you and your sons.

Num 18:10 You must eat these things in a holy place, and only males may eat them; consider them holy.

Num 18:11 "In addition, any other special contributions that the Israelites present to me shall be yours. I am giving them to you, your sons, and your daughters for all time to come. Every member of your family who is ritually clean may eat them.

Num 18:12 "I am giving you all the best of the first produce which the Israelites give me each year: olive oil, wine, and grain.

Num 18:13 It all belongs to you. Every member of your family who is ritually clean may eat it.

Num 18:14 "Everything in Israel that has been unconditionally dedicated to me belongs to you.

Num 18:15 "Every first-born child or animal that the Israelites present to me belongs to you. But you must accept payment to buy back every first-born child, and must also accept payment for every first-born animal that is ritually unclean.

Num 18:16 Children shall be bought back at the age of one month for the fixed price of five pieces of silver, according to the official standard.

Num 18:17 But the first-born of cows, sheep, and goats are not to be bought back; they belong completely to me and are to be sacrificed. Throw their blood against the altar and burn their fat as a food offering, an odor pleasing to me.

Num 18:18 The meat from them belongs to you, like the breast and the right hind leg of the special offering.

Num 18:19 "I am giving to you, to your sons, and to your daughters, for all time to come, all the special contributions which the Israelites present to me. This is an unbreakable covenant that I have made with you and your descendants."

Num 18:20 The LORD said to Aaron, "You will not receive any property that can be inherited, and no part of the land of Israel will be assigned to you. I, the LORD, am all you need."

Num 18:21 The LORD said, "I have given to the Levites every tithe that the people of Israel present to me. This is in payment for their service in taking care of the Tent of my presence.

Num 18:22 The other Israelites must no longer approach the Tent and in this way bring on themselves the penalty of death.

Num 18:23 From now on only the Levites will take care of the Tent and bear the full responsibility for it. This is a permanent rule that applies also to your descendants. The Levites shall have no permanent property in Israel,

Num 18:24 because I have given to them as their possession the tithe which the Israelites present to me as a special contribution. That is why I told them that they would have no permanent property in Israel."

Num 18:25 The LORD commanded Moses

Num 18:26 to say to the Levites: "When you receive from the Israelites the tithe that the LORD gives you as your possession, you must present a tenth of it as a special contribution to the LORD.

Num 18:27 This special contribution will be considered as the equivalent of the offering which the farmer makes of new grain and new wine.

Num 18:28 In this way you also will present the special contribution that belongs to the LORD from all the tithes which you receive from the Israelites. You are to give this special contribution for the LORD to Aaron the priest.

Num 18:29 Give it from the best that you receive.

Num 18:30 When you have presented the best part, you may keep the rest, just as the farmer keeps what is left after he makes his offering.

Num 18:31 You and your families may eat the rest anywhere, because it is your wages for your service in the Tent.

Num 18:32 You will not become guilty when you eat it, as long as you have presented the best of it to the LORD. But be sure not to profane the sacred gifts of the Israelites by eating any of the gifts before the best part is offered; if you do, you will be put to death."

NÚMERI 18

1Die Here het vir Aäron gesê: Jy en jou seuns, en jou stam saam met jou, word aanspreeklik gehou vir oortredings teen die heiligdom, maar net jy en jou seuns word aanspreeklik gehou vir oortredings teen die priesteramp wat deur julle beklee word. 2Jy moet jou Levitiese ampsgenote uit jou stam na jou toe laat kom dat hulle by jou kan aansluit en jou kan help. Jy en jou seuns moet die ampspligte by die tent met die getuienis verrig. 3Die Leviete is tot jou beskikking vir al die diens by die tent. Hulle mag egter nie die offergereedskap hanteer om op die altaar te offer nie, want dan sal hulle en julle sterf. 4Hulle moet by jou aansluit en die diens by die tent van ontmoeting waarneem, al die werk by die tent. Iemand wat nie daartoe bevoeg is nie, mag nie saam met julle diens doen nie. 5Net júlle mag die diens by die heiligdom en die altaar waarneem, sodat die toorn van die Here nie weer oor die Israeliete kom nie. 6Ek het julle Levitiese ampsgenote uit die Israeliete afgesonder as my geskenk aan julle. Hulle behoort aan My vir die werk by die tent van ontmoeting. 7Maar net jy en jou seuns mag as priesters diens doen en al die werk by die altaar en agter die voorhangsel verrig. Dat julle die priesterskap mag beklee, is 'n geskenk van My aan julle. 'n Onbevoegde persoon wat nader kom om die diens te verrig, moet doodgemaak word. 8Die Here het vir Aäron gesê: Ek het jou aangestel om toesig te hou oor die offergawes wat vir My gebring word. Ek gee aan jou en jou seuns 'n deel van al die gewyde gawes wat deur die Israeliete gebring word. Dit is 'n vaste instelling. 9Die deel van die besondere gewyde gawes wat nie verbrand word nie, kom jou toe. Dit geld van al die offergawes wat die Israeliete vir My bring as besondere gewyde gawes, of dit graanoffers, sondeoffers of skuldoffers is. Dit behoort aan jou en jou seuns. 10Wanneer jy dit eet, moet jy onthou dat dit besondere gewyde gawes is. Elke manspersoon uit jou familie mag dit eet. Dit moet ook vir jóú gewyde gawes wees. 11Verder behoort elke offergawe wat die Israeliete as beweegoffer bring, aan jou. Ek gee dit vir jou en jou seuns en jou dogters. Dit is 'n vaste instelling. Elkeen in jou huis wat rein is, mag daarvan eet. 12Ek gee ook aan jou die beste van al die olie, die wyn en die koring wat deur die Israeliete uit hulle eerste opbrengs vir die Here gebring word. 13Die eerste van alles wat hulle land oplewer en wat hulle vir die Here bring, is joune. Elkeen in jou huis wat rein is, mag daarvan eet. 14Alles wat in Israel as banoffer aan die Here gewy word, is joune. 15Elke eersgeborene van mens of dier wat vir die Here gebring word, is joune. Maar elke eersgebore seun en elke eersteling van 'n onrein dier moet jy loskoop. 16Wat die loskoping betref, jy moet hulle loskoop as hulle 'n maand oud is, elkeen teen die vasgestelde prys van vyf en vyftig gram silwer volgens die standaardgewig van die heiligdom. 17Maar die eerstelinge van beeste, skape en bokke moet jy nie loskoop nie, hulle is aan My gewy. Jy moet hulle bloed teen die altaar sprinkel en hulle vet as 'n vuuroffer verbrand, 'n offer wat vir My, die Here, aanvaarbaar is. 18Die vleis van hierdie offerdiere is joune net soos die bors en die regterboud van die beweegoffer joune is. 19Aan jou, jou seuns en jou dogters gee Ek al die gewyde gawes wat deur die Israeliete vir My as offergawes gebring word. Dit is 'n vaste instelling. Dit is my onverbreekbare verbond met jou en jou nageslag. 20Die Here het vir Aäron gesê: Jy ontvang nie 'n deel van die Israeliete se land as besitting nie, jy kry nie 'n deel saam met hulle nie. Jou deel en jou besitting onder die Israeliete ontvang jy uit wat My toekom. 21Vir die dienswerk wat die Leviete in die tent van ontmoeting verrig, gee Ek aan hulle as hulle besitting al die tiendes wat die Israeliete as offergawes bring. 22Die Israeliete mag nie weer naby die tent van ontmoeting diens probeer doen nie, want dan sondig hulle en sal hulle sterwe. 23Die Leviete moet die diens by die tent van ontmoeting behartig, en húlle is aanspreeklik vir hulle eie oortredinge. Dit is 'n vaste instelling, ook vir julle nageslag. Die Leviete kry nie 'n deel van die land saam met die Israeliete nie. 24Ek gee aan die Leviete as hulle besitting die tiendes wat die Israeliete as offergawe aan die Here bring. Dit is waarom Ek vir hulle gesê het dat hulle nie 'n deel van die land saam met die Israeliete kry nie. 25Die Here het verder vir Moses gesê: 26Sê vir die Leviete: As julle die tiende wat Ek vir julle as besitting gee, van die Israeliete ontvang, moet julle 'n tiende daarvan as 'n offergawe aan die Here bring. 27Julle offergawe sal beskou word asof dit koring is wat van die dorsvloer af kom en asof dit uit die volle opbrengs van die parskuip kom. 28So moet ook julle van al die tiendes wat julle van die Israeliete ontvang, 'n offergawe aan die Here bring. Wat die Here daarvan toekom as offergawe, moet julle aan die priester Aäron gee. 29Van alles wat aan julle gegee word, moet julle die beste en die mees gewyde deel as offergawe aan die Here bring. 30Jy moet vir die Leviete sê: As julle die beste daarvan as offergawe bring, sal dit vir julle beskou word as julle deel van die opbrengs van die dorsvloer en die parskuip. 31Julle en julle gesinne mag op enige plek daarvan eet. Dit is die beloning vir julle dienswerk by die tent van ontmoeting. 32Deur die beste daarvan te bring, sal julle nie in hierdie saak oortree nie. Maar julle mag nie die gewyde gawes van die Israeliete ontwy nie, want dan sal julle sterwe.

Numbers 19

Laws for Purification

Num 19:1 The LORD commanded Moses and Aaron

Num 19:2 to give the Israelites the following regulations. Bring to Moses and Aaron a red cow which has no defects and which has never been worked,

Num 19:3 and they will give it to Eleazar the priest. It is to be taken outside the camp and killed in his presence.

Num 19:4 Then Eleazar is to take some of its blood and with his finger sprinkle it seven times in the direction of the Tent.

Num 19:5 The whole animal, including skin, meat, blood, and intestines, is to be burned in the presence of the priest.

Num 19:6 Then he is to take some cedar wood, a sprig of hyssop, and a red cord and throw them into the fire.

Num 19:7 After that, he is to wash his clothes and pour water over himself, and then he may enter the camp; but he remains ritually unclean until evening.

Num 19:8 The one who burned the cow must also wash his clothes and pour water over himself, but he also remains unclean until evening.

Num 19:9 Then someone who is ritually clean is to collect the ashes of the cow and put them in a ritually clean place outside the camp, where they are to be kept for the Israelite community to use in preparing the water for removing ritual uncleanness. This ritual is performed to remove sin.

Num 19:10 The one who collected the ashes must wash his clothes, but he remains unclean until evening. This regulation is valid for all time to come, both for the Israelites and for the foreigners living among them.

Num 19:11 Those who touch a corpse are ritually unclean for seven days.

Num 19:12 They must purify themselves with the water for purification on the third day and on the seventh day, and then they will be clean. But if they do not purify themselves on both the third and the seventh day, they will not be clean.

Num 19:13 Those who touch a corpse and do not purify themselves remain unclean, because the water for purification has not been thrown over them. They defile the LORD's Tent, and they will no longer be considered God's people.

Num 19:14 In the case of a person who dies in a tent, anyone who is in the tent at the time of death or who enters it becomes ritually unclean for seven days.

Num 19:15 Every jar and pot in the tent that has no lid on it also becomes unclean.

Num 19:16 If any touch a person who has been killed or has died a natural death outdoors or if any touch a human bone or a grave, they become unclean for seven days.

Num 19:17 To remove the uncleanness, some ashes from the red cow which was burned to remove sin shall be taken and put in a pot, and fresh water added.

Num 19:18 In the first case, someone who is ritually clean is to take a sprig of hyssop, dip it in the water, and sprinkle the tent, everything in it, and the people who were there. In the second case, someone who is ritually clean is to sprinkle the water on those who had touched the human bone or the dead body or the grave.

Num 19:19 On the third day and on the seventh the person who is ritually clean is to sprinkle the water on the unclean persons. On the seventh day he is to purify those, who, after washing their clothes and pouring water over themselves, become ritually clean at sunset.

Num 19:20 Those who have become ritually unclean and do not purify themselves remain unclean, because the water for purification has not been thrown over them. They defile the LORD's Tent and will no longer be considered God's people.

Num 19:21 You are to observe this rule for all time to come. The person who sprinkles the water for purification must also wash his clothes; anyone who touches the water remains ritually unclean until evening.

Num 19:22 Whatever an unclean person touches is unclean, and anyone else who touches it remains unclean until evening.

NÚMERI 19

1Die Here het vir Moses en Aäron gesê: 2Ek gee ook hierdie voorskrif vir julle: Sê vir die Israeliete hulle moet vir jou 'n rooi koei bring. Die koei moet sonder liggaamsgebrek of letsel wees en sy mag ook nie in 'n juk getrek het nie. 3Gee haar vir die priester Eleasar, en hy moet haar buitekant die kamp laat uitbring en voor hom laat slag. 4Hy moet dan van die koei se bloed op sy vinger neem en dit sewe keer in die rigting van die ingang van die tent van ontmoeting sprinkel. 5Die koei moet dan in Eleasar se teenwoordigheid verbrand word. Hulle moet haar vel, vleis en bloed saam met haar pensmis verbrand. 6Die priester moet sederhout, hisop en bloedrooi wolstof op die koei gooi wat verbrand word. 7Dan moet hy sy klere was en hom bad. Daarna mag hy in die kamp kom, maar hy sal die res van die dag onrein wees. 8Die persoon wat die koei verbrand, moet self ook sy klere was en hom bad, en hy sal ook die res van die dag onrein wees. 9'n Rein persoon moet die as van die koei bymekaarmaak en dit buitekant die kamp op 'n rein plek bêre. Die as is tot beskikking van die gemeente van Israel om in reinigingswater te gebruik. Die koei is 'n sondeoffer. 10Die man wat die koei se as bymekaargemaak het, moet ook sy klere was en hy sal die res van die dag onrein wees. Dit is 'n vaste instelling vir die Israeliete en vir die vreemdelinge wat by hulle woon. 11Iemand wat aan die lyk van 'n mens raak, sal sewe dae lank onrein wees. 12Hy moet hom op die derde en die sewende dag met die reinigingswater reinig, dan sal hy rein wees. As hy hom nie op die derde en die sewende dag reinig nie, bly hy onrein. 13Elkeen wat aan die lyk van 'n mens raak en homself nie reinig nie, verontreinig die tabernakel van die Here. So 'n persoon moet van Israel afgesny word. Omdat die reinigingswater nie op hom gesprinkel is nie, is hy onrein, en bly sy onreinheid op hom. 14Wanneer iemand in 'n tent sterf, is dít die voorskrif: Elkeen wat in die tent kom, en alles wat daarin is, sal sewe dae lank onrein wees. 15Ook elke gebruiksvoorwerp wat nie met 'n deksel toegemaak is nie, sal onrein wees. 16Enigiemand wat in die veld aan 'n persoon raak wat doodgemaak is, of aan iemand wat gewoon gesterf het, of aan 'n mensbeen of aan 'n graf, sal sewe dae lank onrein wees. 17Wanneer 'n persoon op hierdie manier onrein geword het, moet iemand van die as vat van die sondeoffer wat verbrand is, dit in 'n pot sit en vars water daaroor gooi. 18Dan moet iemand wat rein is, 'n hisoptakkie in die water doop en die water sprinkel oor die tent, oor al die gebruiksvoorwerpe en oor die mense wat by was. Dieselfde moet gebeur met iemand wat aan doodsbene geraak het of aan die lyk van iemand wat doodgemaak is of aan iemand wat gewoon gesterf het of aan 'n graf. 19'n Rein persoon moet op die derde en die sewende dag die water oor die onreine sprinkel, en op die sewende dag moet die onreine homself reinig. Daarna moet hy sy klere was en hom bad, dan sal hy teen die aand rein wees. [20]As iemand onrein is en hy hom nie reinig nie, moet hy van die gemeente afgesny word. Hy het die heiligdom van die Here ontwy, die reinigingswater is nie oor hom gesprinkel nie en daarom bly hy onrein. [21]Dit is vir julle 'n vaste instelling. Die persoon wat die reinigingswater sprinkel, moet self ook sy klere was, en enigeen wat aan die reinigingswater raak, sal die res van die dag onrein wees. [22]Enigiets waaraan 'n onrein persoon raak, sal onrein wees, en enigiemand wat aan hom raak, sal die res van die dag onrein wees.

Numbers 20

The Death of Miriam

Num 20:1 In the first month the whole community of Israel came to the wilderness of Zin and camped at Kadesh. There Miriam died and was buried.

The Waters of Meribah

Num 20:2 There was no water where they camped, so the people gathered around Moses and Aaron

Num 20:3 and complained: "It would have been better if we had died in front of the LORD's Tent along with the other Israelites.

Num 20:4 Why have you brought us out into this wilderness? Just so that we can die here with our animals?

Num 20:5 Why did you bring us out of Egypt into this miserable place where nothing will grow? There's no grain, no figs, no grapes, no pomegranates. There is not even any water to drink!"

Num 20:6 Moses and Aaron moved away from the people and stood at the entrance of the Tent. They bowed down with their faces to the ground, and the dazzling light of the LORD's presence appeared to them.

Num 20:7 The LORD said to Moses,

Num 20:8 "Take the stick that is in front of the Covenant Box, and then you and Aaron assemble the whole community. There in front of them all speak to that rock over there, and water will gush out of it. In this way you will bring water out of the rock for the people, for them and their animals to drink."

Num 20:9 Moses went and got the stick, as the LORD had commanded.

Moses Strikes the Rock

Num 20:10 He and Aaron assembled the whole community in front of the rock, and Moses said, "Listen, you rebels! Do we have to get water out of this rock for you?"

Num 20:11 Then Moses raised the stick and struck the rock twice with it, and a great stream of water gushed out, and all the people and animals drank.

Num 20:12 But the LORD reprimanded Moses and Aaron. He said, "Because you did not have enough faith to acknowledge my holy power before the people of Israel, you will not lead them into the land that I promised to give them."

Num 20:13 This happened at Meribah, where the people of Israel complained against the LORD and where he showed them that he is holy.

Edom Refuses Passage

Num 20:14 Moses sent messengers from Kadesh to the king of Edom. They said, "This message is from your kinsmen, the tribes of Israel. You know the hardships we have suffered,

Num 20:15 how our ancestors went to Egypt, where we lived many years. The Egyptians mistreated our ancestors and us,

Num 20:16 and we cried to the LORD for help. He heard our cry and sent an angel, who led us out of Egypt. Now we are at Kadesh, a town at the border of your territory.

Num 20:17 Please permit us to pass through your land. We and our cattle will not leave the road or go into your fields or vineyards, and we will not drink from your wells. We will stay on the main road until we are out of your territory."

Num 20:18 But the Edomites answered, "We refuse to let you pass through our country! If you try, we will march out and attack you."

Num 20:19 The people of Israel said, "We will stay on the main road, and if we or our animals drink any of your water, we will pay for it—all we want is to pass through."

Num 20:20 The Edomites repeated, "We refuse!" and they marched out with a powerful army to attack the people of Israel.

Num 20:21 Because the Edomites would not let the Israelites pass through their territory, the Israelites turned and went another way.

The Death of Aaron

Num 20:22 The whole community of Israel left Kadesh and arrived at Mount Hor,

Num 20:23 on the border of Edom. There the LORD said to Moses and Aaron, Num 20:24 "Aaron is not going to enter the land which I promised to give to Israel; he is going to die, because the two of you rebelled against my command at Meribah.

Num 20:25 Take Aaron and his son Eleazar up Mount Hor,

Num 20:26 and there remove Aaron's priestly robes and put them on Eleazar. Aaron is going to die there."

Num 20:27 Moses did what the LORD had commanded. They went up Mount Hor in the sight of the whole community, Num 20:28 and Moses removed Aaron's priestly robes and put them on Eleazar. There on the top of the mountain Aaron died, and Moses and Eleazar came back down.

Num 20:29 The whole community learned that Aaron had died, and they all mourned for him for thirty days.

NÚMERI 20

[1]Die hele volk Israel het in die eerste maand in die Sinwoestyn aangekom en toe by Kades oorgebly. Mirjam is daar oorlede en is ook daar begrawe. [2]Omdat die volk geen drinkwater gehad het nie, het hulle saam teen Moses en Aäron rusie gemaak en gesê: As ons maar liewer ook omgekom het toe ons volksgenote deur die Here om die lewe gebring is! [3]Waarom het julle die volk van die Here na hierdie woestyn toe gebring, dat ons en ons vee hier moet sterwe? [4]Waarom het julle ons uit Egipte laat optrek en ons na hierdie ellendige plek toe gebring? Hierdie plek deug nie vir graan of vye, vir wingerde of granate nie, en daar is geen drinkwater nie. [5]Moses en Aäron het weggedraai van die volk af, en toe hulle by die ingang van die tent van ontmoeting kom, het hulle op hulle knieë geval terwyl die magtige teenwoordigheid van die Here vir hulle sigbaar word. [6]Die Here sê toe vir Moses: [7]Vat Aäron se kierie en roep jy en jou broer Aäron die volk bymekaar. Julle moet dan in hulle teenwoordigheid met die rots praat, en daar sal water uitkom. Jy moet vir hulle water uit die rots laat kom, sodat die volk en hulle vee kan drink. [8]Moses het toe die kierie wat in die tabernakel was, gevat soos die Here hom beveel het [9]en hy en Aäron het die volk by die rots laat bymekaarkom. Moses het vir hulle gesê: Luister, julle wat julle teen die Here verset! Luister! Moet ons vir julle water uit hierdie rots laat kom? [10]Toe lig Moses sy hand op en hy slaan die rots twee keer met die kierie. Daar het baie water uitgekom, en die volk en hulle vee het gedrink. [11]Maar toe sê die Here vir Moses en Aäron: Omdat julle My nie erken het en My, die Heilige, nie voor die Israeliete gehoorsaam was nie, sal julle hierdie volk nie inlei in die land wat Ek aan hulle gee nie. [12]Dit het gebeur by die Meribawaters waar die Israeliete met die Here rusie gemaak het, en waar Hy Hom as die Heilige aan hulle bekend gemaak het. [13]Moses het boodskappers van Kades af na die koning van Edom toe gestuur met die versoek: So sê u broer Israel: U is bewus van al die probleme waarmee ons te kampe gehad het. [14]Ons voorvaders het na Egipte toe getrek en daar het ons baie lank gebly. Die Egiptenaars het ons voorvaders én vir ons sleg behandel. [15]Ons het na die Here om hulp geroep en Hy het ons gebed verhoor, 'n engel gestuur en ons uit Egipte laat trek. Ons is nou in Kades, 'n stad aan die grens van u gebied. [16]Laat ons toe om deur u land te trek. Ons sal nie deur die lande of die wingerde trek nie en ons sal ook nie water uit die putte drink nie. Ons sal op die Koningspad bly en nie links of regs afdraai totdat ons deur u gebied is nie. [17]Die koning van Edom het egter geantwoord: Jy mag nie deur my gebied trek nie, want dan trek ek jou met die swaard tegemoet. [18]Die Israeliete het weer vir hom laat weet: Ons sal op die grootpad bly, en as ons, ons en ons vee, van u water drink, sal ons daarvoor betaal. Ons wil net te voet deurtrek, verder niks nie. 19Die koning van Edom het laat weet: Jy mag nie deurtrek nie. Die Edomiete het toe met 'n groot, magtige leër teen die Israeliete opgetrek. 20So het Edom geweier om Israel deur sy gebied te laat trek, en Israel moes van Edom af wegdraai. 21Die hele volk Israel het van Kades af versit en by Horberg aangekom. 22By Horberg, vlak by die grens van Edom, het die Here vir Moses en Aäron gesê: 23Die tyd het gekom dat Aäron moet sterf. Hy sal nie in die land kom wat Ek aan die Israeliete gee nie, omdat julle twee julle verset het teen my bevel by die Meribawaters. 24Vat vir Aäron en sy seun Eleasar saam en gaan na Horberg toe. 25Daar moet jy Aäron se klere uittrek en dit vir sy seun Eleasar aantrek. Aäron sal daar sterwe. 26Moses het gedoen wat die Here beveel het: voor die oë van die hele volk het hulle Horberg uitgeklim. 27Daar het Moses Aäron se klere uitgetrek en dit vir sy seun Eleasar aangetrek, en Aäron is daar op die top van die berg dood. Daarna het Moses en Eleasar afgekom van die berg af. 28Toe die hele volk Israel verneem dat Aäron dood is, het hulle almal oor hom getreur, dertig dae lank.

Numbers 21

Arad Destroyed

Num 21:1 When the Canaanite king of Arad in the southern part of Canaan heard that the Israelites were coming by way of Atharim, he attacked them and captured some of them.

Num 21:2 Then the Israelites made a vow to the LORD: "If you will let us conquer these people, we will unconditionally dedicate them and their cities to you and will destroy them."

Num 21:3 The LORD heard them and helped them conquer the Canaanites. So the Israelites completely destroyed them and their cities, and named the place Hormah.

The Bronze Serpent

Num 21:4 The Israelites left Mount Hor by the road that leads to the Gulf of Aqaba, in order to go around the territory of Edom. But on the way the people lost their patience

Num 21:5 and spoke against God and Moses. They complained, "Why did you bring us out of Egypt to die in this desert, where there is no food or water? We can't stand any more of this miserable food!"

Num 21:6 Then the LORD sent poisonous snakes among the people, and many Israelites were bitten and died.

Num 21:7 The people came to Moses and said, "We sinned when we spoke against the LORD and against you. Now pray to the LORD to take these snakes away." So Moses prayed for the people.

Num 21:8 Then the LORD told Moses to make a metal snake and put it on a pole, so that anyone who was bitten could look at it and be healed.

Num 21:9 So Moses made a bronze snake and put it on a pole. Anyone who had been bitten would look at the bronze snake and be healed.

The Song of the Well

Num 21:10 The Israelites moved on and camped at Oboth.

Num 21:11 After leaving that place, they camped at the ruins of Abarim in the wilderness east of Moabite territory.

Num 21:12 Then they camped in Zered Valley.

Num 21:13 From there they moved again and camped on the north side of the Arnon River, in the wilderness which extends into Amorite territory. (The Arnon was the border between the Moabites and the Amorites.)

Num 21:14 That is why The Book of the LORD's Battles speaks of "...the town of Waheb in the area of Suphah, and the valleys; the Arnon River, Num 21:15 and the slope of the valleys that extend to the town of Ar and toward the border of Moab."

Num 21:16 From there they went on to a place called Wells, where the LORD said to Moses, "Bring the people together, and I will give them water."

Num 21:17 At that time the people of Israel sang this song: "Wells, produce your water; And we will greet it with a song—

Num 21:18 The well dug by princes And by leaders of the people, Dug with a royal scepter And with their walking sticks." They moved from the wilderness to Mattanah,

Num 21:19 and from there they went on to Nahaliel, and from Nahaliel to Bamoth, Num 21:20 and from Bamoth to the valley in the territory of the Moabites, below the top of Mount Pisgah, looking out over the desert.

King Sihon Defeated

Num 21:21 Then the people of Israel sent messengers to the Amorite king Sihon to say:

Num 21:22 "Let us pass through your land. We and our cattle will not leave the road and go into your fields or vineyards, and we will not drink water from your wells; we will stay on the main road until we are out of your territory."

Num 21:23 But Sihon would not permit the people of Israel to pass through his territory. He gathered his army and went out to Jahaz in the wilderness and attacked the Israelites.

Num 21:24 But the Israelites killed many of the enemy in battle and occupied their land from the Arnon River north to the Jabbok, that is, to the Ammonites, because the Ammonite border was strongly defended.

Num 21:25 So the people of Israel captured all the Amorite cities, including Heshbon and all the surrounding towns, and settled in them.

Num 21:26 Heshbon was the capital city of the Amorite king Sihon, who had fought against the former king of Moab and had captured all his land as far as the Arnon River.

Num 21:27 That is why the poets sing, "Come to Heshbon, to King Sihon's city! We want to see it rebuilt and restored.

Num 21:28 Once from this city of Heshbon Sihon's army went forth like a fire; It destroyed the city of Ar in Moab And devoured the hills of the upper Arnon.

Num 21:29 How terrible for you, people of Moab! You worshipers of Chemosh are brought to ruin! Your god let the men become refugees, And the women became captives of the Amorite king.

Num 21:30 But now their descendants are destroyed, All the way from Heshbon to Dibon, From Nashim to Nophah, near Medeba."

King Og Defeated

Num 21:31 So the people of Israel settled in the territory of the Amorites,

Num 21:32 and Moses sent men to find the best way to attack the city of Jazer. The Israelites captured it and its surrounding towns and drove out the Amorites living there.

Num 21:33 Then the Israelites turned and took the road to Bashan, and King Og of Bashan marched out with his army to attack them at Edrei.

Num 21:34 The LORD said to Moses, "Do not be afraid of him. I will give you victory over him, all his people, and his land. Do to him what you did to Sihon, the Amorite king who ruled at Heshbon."

Num 21:35 So the Israelites killed Og, his sons, and all his people, leaving no survivors, and then they occupied his land.

NÚMERI 21

[1]Toe die Kanaänitiese koning Arad wat in die Suidland woon, verneem dat Israel in die rigting van Atarim optrek, het hy teen hulle gaan veg en 'n aantal van hulle gevange geneem. [2]Israel het 'n gelofte aan die Here gedoen: As U hierdie volk en hulle stede in ons mag gee, sal ons hulle stede as banoffers aan U offer. [3]Die Here het die gebed verhoor en die Kanaäniete in Israel se mag oorgegee. Hulle het toe die Kanaäniete verslaan en hulle stede heeltemal verwoes. Daarom word die plek Gorma genoem. [4]Om by die gebied van Edom verby te kom, het die Israeliete van Horberg af in die rigting van die Rietsee getrek. Op pad daarheen het die volk ongeduldig geword [5]en teen God en Moses uitgevaar: Waarom het U ons uit Egipte laat trek net om in die woestyn te sterwe? Hier is nie brood en water nie, en ons is sat vir hierdie slegte kos. [6]Die Here het toe giftige slange onder die volk ingestuur. Die slange het die mense gepik en baie Israeliete het gesterf. [7]Toe kom die volk na Moses toe en bely: Ons het teen die Here en teen u gesondig met wat ons gesê het. Bid tog tot die Here dat Hy die slange van ons af wegneem. Moses het toe vir die volk gebid, [8]en die Here het vir Moses gesê: Maak 'n beeld van 'n giftige slang en sit dit op 'n paal. Elkeen wat gepik is en daarna opkyk, sal lewe. [9]Moses het toe 'n koperslang gemaak en dit op 'n paal gesit. As iemand wat deur 'n slang gepik is, na die koperslang opkyk, het hy bly leef. [10]Die Israeliete het weggetrek en by Obot kamp opgeslaan. [11]Daarvandaan het hulle versit en kamp opgeslaan by Ije-Abarim in die woestyn regoor Moab, aan die oostekant. [12]Hulle het daarvandaan weggetrek en kamp opgeslaan in die Seredvallei. [13]Daarvandaan het hulle weer versit en kamp opgeslaan langs die Arnonrivier wat uit die gebied van die Amoriete deur die woestyn loop. Die Arnon is die grens tussen Moab en die Amoriete. [14]Daarom lees ons in die Boek van die Oorloë van die Here: By Waheb in Sufa en by die spruite, by die Arnon, [15]teen die hange langs die spruite wat strek tot by die gebied van Ar en grens aan die gebied van Moab. [16]Daarvandaan het Israel verder getrek tot by Beër. Dit is die Beër waar die Here vir Moses gesê het: Laat die volk bymekaarkom en Ek sal vir hulle water uit die put gee. [17]Israel het toe hierdie lied gesing: Put, lewer jou water, en ons sal daarvan sing! [18]Put wat deur leiers gegrawe is, wat deur vernames van die volk oopgemaak is met septer en kierie. Van die woestyn af is die Israeliete na Mattana toe, [19]van Mattana af na Nagaliël toe, van Nagaliël af na Bamot toe, [20]en van Bamot af na die vallei in die gebied van Moab, naby die top van Pisgaberg wat afkyk op die droë wêreld. [21]Die Israeliete het boodskappers gestuur na koning Sihon van die Amoriete toe met die versoek: [22]Laat ons toe om deur u land te trek. Ons sal nie afdraai na die lande of die wingerde toe nie, en ons sal ook nie water uit die putte drink nie. Ons sal net met die Koningspad langs trek totdat ons deur u gebied is. 23Sihon wou Israel egter nie toelaat om deur sy gebied te trek nie. Hy het al sy manskappe opgeroep en Israel in die woestyn tegemoet getrek. Toe Sihon by Jahas kom, het hy Israel aangeval. 24Israel het hom egter verslaan en sy land beset van die Arnon af tot by die Jabbok, tot by die Ammoniete, wie se grens goed versterk was. 25Die Israeliete het al die stede van die Amoriete verower en daarin gaan woon, ook in Gesbon en al sy buitedorpe. 26Gesbon was die stad van koning Sihon van die Amoriete. Sihon het teen 'n vorige koning van Moab oorlog gemaak en sy hele gebied tot aan die Arnon van hom afgevat. 27Daarom sê die digters: Kom na Gesbon toe, bou dit weer op, herstel die stad van Sihon. 28Daar het 'n vuur uit Gesbon uit gegaan, 'n vlam uit die stad van Sihon, en dit het Ar-Moab verteer wat die Arnonhoogtes beheer. 29Dis klaar met jou, Moab, jy gaan tot niet, volk van Kemos! Hy moes sy seuns as vlugtelinge prysgee, sy dogters as gevangenes aan koning Sihon van die Amoriete! 30Maar nou het ons op hulle losgetrek: Gesbon se gebied is verwoes tot by Dibon, ons het hulle uitgeroei tot by Nofag, tot by Medeba. 31So het Israel dan in die land van die Amoriete gaan woon. 32Moses het manne gestuur om Jaser te gaan verken. Hulle het Jaser en sy buitedorpe ingeneem en die Amoritiese inwoners verdryf. 33Hulle het toe weggedraai en in die rigting van Basan getrek. Koning Og van Basan het hulle tegemoet getrek met sy hele leërmag en hulle by Edreï aangeval. 34Die Here het vir Moses gesê: Moenie vir hom bang wees nie. Ek gee hom met sy hele leër en sy land in jou mag oor. Doen met hom soos jy gedoen het met koning Sihon van die Amoriete wat in Gesbon gewoon het. 35Die Israeliete het vir Og saam met sy seuns en sy hele leër verslaan. Nie een van sy mense het oorgebly nie. Die Israeliete het ook sy land in besit geneem.

Balak Summons Balaam

Num 22:1 The Israelites moved on and set up camp in the plains of Moab east of the Jordan and opposite Jericho.

Num 22:2 When the king of Moab, Balak son of Zippor, heard what the Israelites had done to the Amorites and how many Israelites there were,

Num 22:3 he and all his people became terrified.

Num 22:4 The Moabites said to the leaders of the Midianites, "This horde will soon destroy everything around us, like a bull eating the grass in a pasture." So King Balak

Num 22:5 sent messengers to summon Balaam son of Beor, who was at Pethor near the Euphrates River in the land of Amaw. They brought him this message from Balak: "I want you to know that a whole nation has come from Egypt; its people are spreading out everywhere and threatening to take over our land.

Num 22:6 They outnumber us, so please come and put a curse on them for me. Then perhaps we will be able to defeat them and drive them out of the land. I know that when you pronounce a blessing, people are blessed, and when you pronounce a curse, they are placed under a curse."

Num 22:7 So the Moabite and Midianite leaders took with them the payment for the curse, went to Balaam, and gave him Balak's message.

Num 22:8 Balaam said to them, "Spend the night here, and tomorrow I will report to you whatever the LORD tells me." So the Moabite leaders stayed with Balaam.

Num 22:9 God came to Balaam and asked, "Who are these people that are staying with you?"

Num 22:10 He answered, "King Balak of Moab has sent them to tell me

Num 22:11 that a people who came from Egypt has spread out over the whole land. He wants me to curse them for him, so that he can fight them and drive them out."

Num 22:12 God said to Balaam, "Do not go with them, and do not put a curse on the people of Israel, because they have my blessing."

Num 22:13 The next morning Balaam went to Balak's messengers and said, "Go back home; the LORD has refused to let me go with you."

Num 22:14 So they returned to Balak and told him that Balaam had refused to come with them.

Num 22:15 Then Balak sent a larger number of leaders, who were more important than the first.

Num 22:16 They went to Balaam and gave him this message from Balak: "Please don't let anything prevent you from coming to me!

Num 22:17 I will reward you richly and do anything you say. Please come and curse these people for me."

Num 22:18 But Balaam answered, "Even if Balak gave me all the silver and gold in his palace, I could not disobey the command of the LORD my God in even the smallest matter.

Num 22:19 But please spend the night, as the others did, so that I may learn whether or not the LORD has something else to tell me."

Num 22:20 That night God came to Balaam and said, "If these men have come to ask you to go with them, get ready and go, but do only what I tell you."

Num 22:21 So the next morning Balaam saddled his donkey and went with the Moabite leaders.

Balaam's Donkey and the Angel

Num 22:22 God was angry that Balaam was going, and as Balaam was riding along on his donkey, accompanied by his two servants, the angel of the LORD stood in the road to bar his way.

Num 22:23 When the donkey saw the angel standing there holding a sword, it left the road and turned into the fields. Balaam beat the donkey and brought it back onto the road.

Num 22:24 Then the angel stood where the road narrowed between two vineyards and had a stone wall on each side.

Num 22:25 When the donkey saw the angel, it moved over against the wall and crushed Balaam's foot against it. Again Balaam beat the donkey.

Num 22:26 Once more the angel moved ahead; he stood in a narrow place where there was no room at all to pass on either side.

Num 22:27 This time, when the donkey saw the angel, it lay down. Balaam lost his temper and began to beat the donkey with his stick.

Num 22:28 Then the LORD gave the donkey the power of speech, and it said to Balaam, "What have I done to you? Why have you beaten me these three times?"

Num 22:29 Balaam answered, "Because you have made a fool of me! If I had a sword, I would kill you."

Num 22:30 The donkey replied, "Am I not the same donkey on which you have ridden all your life? Have I ever treated you like this before?" "No," he answered.

Num 22:31 Then the LORD let Balaam see the angel standing there with his sword; and Balaam threw himself face downward on the ground.

Num 22:32 The angel demanded, "Why have you beaten your donkey three times like this? I have come to bar your way, because you should not be making this journey.

Num 22:33 But your donkey saw me and turned aside three times. If it hadn't, I would have killed you and spared the donkey."

Num 22:34 Balaam replied, "I have sinned. I did not know that you were standing in the road to oppose me; but now if you think it is wrong for me to go on, I will return home."

Num 22:35 But the angel said, "Go on with these men, but say only what I tell you to say." So Balaam went on with them.

Num 22:36 When Balak heard that Balaam was coming, he went to meet him at Ar, a city on the Arnon River at the border of Moab.

Num 22:37 Balak said to him, "Why didn't you come when I sent for you the first time? Did you think I wasn't able to reward you enough?"

Num 22:38 Balaam answered, "I came, didn't I? But now, what power do I have? I can say only what God tells me to say."

Num 22:39 So Balaam went with Balak to the town of Huzoth,

Num 22:40 where Balak slaughtered cattle and sheep and gave some of the meat to Balaam and the leaders who were with him.

Num 22:41 The next morning Balak took Balaam up to Bamoth Baal, from where Balaam could see a part of the people of Israel.

1Daarna het die Israeliete verder getrek en kamp opgeslaan in die Moabsvlakte teenoor Jerigo, oos van die Jordaan. 2Balak seun van Sippor het gehoor van alles wat Israel aan die Amoriete gedoen het. 3Die Moabiete het baie groot geskrik vir die Israeliete, want hulle was baie. Die Moabiete het bang geword vir die Israeliete 4en het vir die leiers van Midian gesê: Hierdie horde gaan alles rondom ons opvreet soos beeste die gras in die veld opvreet. Balak seun van Sippor was destyds koning van Moab 5en hy het boodskappers gestuur om vir Bileam seun van Beor te laat haal. Hy was in Petor aan die Eufraat in die land Ammau. Balak het hom laat weet: 'n Volk wat uit Egipte kom, het hier by my kom intrek. Die aarde is tóé onder hulle. 6Kom asseblief en vervloek hierdie volk vir my, want hulle is te sterk vir my. Miskien sal ek hulle dan kan verslaan en uit die land verdryf. Ek weet: wie jy seën, is geseën, en wie jy vervloek, is vervloek. 7Die leiers van Moab en Midian het die beloning wat aan 'n waarsêer betaal moet word, saamgevat na Bileam toe en Balak se versoek aan hom oorgedra. 8Bileam sê toe vir hulle: Bly vannag oor, dan sê ek môre vir julle wat die Here vir my sal sê. Die amptenare van Moab het toe by Bileam oornag. 9God het aan Bileam verskyn en gevra: Wie is die manne hier by jou? 10en hy het geantwoord: Koning Balak van Moab, seun van Sippor, het hulle na my toe gestuur met die boodskap: 11Hier is 'n volk wat uit Egipte getrek het, en die aarde is tóé onder hulle. Kom asseblief en vervloek hulle vir my. Miskien sal ek dan teen hulle kan veg en hulle verdryf! 12Maar God het vir Bileam gesê: Moenie met hulle saamgaan nie. Jy mag dié volk nie vervloek nie, want hulle is geseën. 13Die volgende môre het Bileam vir die amptenare van Balak gesê: Gaan terug na julle land toe, want die Here wil nie hê ek moet saam met julle gaan nie. 14Die amptenare van Moab is toe terug na Balak toe en het vir hom gesê: Bileam weier om met ons saam te kom. 15Balak het toe ander amptenare gestuur, méér en hoër in rang as die voriges. 16Hulle het by Bileam gekom en vir hom gesê: Balak seun van Sippor sê: Moenie dat iets jou keer om na my toe te kom nie. 17Ek sal jou baie goed beloon en alles doen wat jy vir my sê. Kom asseblief en vervloek hierdie volk vir my. 18Maar Bileam het vir die amptenare van Balak gesê: Selfs al gee Balak vir my sy paleis vol silwer en goud, mag ek niks doen, klein of groot, teen die opdrag van die Here my God in nie. 19Maar bly julle ook 'n nag oor dat ek kan uitvind of die Here weer met my wil praat. 20Daardie nag verskyn God toe aan Bileam en sê vir hom: Die manne het nou gekom om jou te kom haal. Gaan saam met hulle, maar jy mag net doen wat Ek vir jou sê. 21Bileam het toe die oggend sy donkie opgesaal en met die amptenare van Moab saamgegaan. 22God het kwaad geword toe Bileam gaan, en die Engel van die Here het vir Bileam in die pad voorgestaan om hom te keer. Bileam het op sy donkie gery, en twee van sy amptenare was by hom. 23Toe die donkie die Engel van die Here in die pad sien staan met 'n ontblote swaard in die hand, het die donkie uit die pad gedraai en die veld in geloop. Toe Bileam die donkie slaan om hom in die pad terug te bring, 24gaan staan die Engel van die Here in 'n smal pad tussen die wingerde, met 'n muur aan weerskante. 25Toe die donkie die Engel van die Here gewaar, skuur die donkie teen die muur langs en druk Bileam se voet daarteen vas. Bileam slaan hom toe weer. 26Toe gaan die Engel van die Here verder en gaan staan in 'n nou plek waar daar nie kans was om na enige kant toe uit te draai nie. 27Die donkie het die Engel van die Here gesien en het onder Bileam gaan lê. Bileam het so kwaad geword dat hy die donkie met 'n stok geslaan het. 28Toe laat die Here die donkie praat, en die donkie sê vir Bileam: Wat het ek jou aangedoen dat jy my nou al drie keer geslaan het? 29Bileam antwoord toe: Jy hou my vir die gek. As ek 'n swaard by my gehad het, het ek jou doodgemaak. 30Toe sê die donkie vir Bileam: Is ek nie die donkie waarop jy nog altyd gery het nie? Maak ek altyd so met jou? en Bileam antwoord: Nee! 31Die Here het Bileam se oë oopgemaak en hy het die Engel van die Here in die pad sien staan met 'n ontblote swaard in die hand. Toe buig Bileam voor die Engel. 32Die Engel van die Here vra hom toe: Waarom het jy jou donkie nou al drie keer geslaan? Ek het jou kom voorstaan, want Ek sien jy is op 'n gevaarlike pad. 33Die donkie het My gesien en drie keer vir My uitgedraai. As hy dit nie gedoen het nie, het Ek jou al doodgemaak en hom laat leef. 34Bileam sê toe vir die Engel van die Here: Ek was verkeerd, ek het nie geweet dat U my in die pad voorstaan nie. As U nie wil hê ek moet voortgaan nie, draai ek om. 35Toe sê die Engel van die Here vir Bileam: Gaan saam met die manne, maar jy moet net sê wat Ek vir jou sê. Bileam is toe saam met Balak se amptenare. 36Toe Balak hoor dat Bileam aan die kom is, het hy hom tegemoet gegaan by Ar-Moab aan die oewer van die Arnon, op die grens. 37Balak vra toe vir Bileam: Ek het jou dringend laat roep, en waarom het jy toe nie na my toe gekom nie? Dink jy ek kan jou nie goed betaal nie? 38Bileam het vir Balak geantwoord: Ek het mos nou gekom. Maar laat ek net dit sê: Ek kan net sê wat God vir my voorsê. 39Bileam is toe saam met Balak, en hulle het by Kirjat-Gusot aangekom. 40Balak het beeste en skape geslag en dit vir Bileam en die amptenare wat saam met hom was, laat bring. 41Die volgende môre het Balak vir Bileam teen Bamot-Baäl laat uitklim. Daarvandaan kon Bileam die volk Israel van die kant af sien.

Numbers 23

Balaam's First Oracle

Num 23:1 He said to Balak, "Build seven altars here for me, and bring me seven bulls and seven rams."

Num 23:2 Balak did as he was told, and he and Balaam offered a bull and a ram on each altar.

Num 23:3 Then Balaam said to Balak, "Stand here by your burnt offering, while I go to see whether or not the LORD will meet me. I will tell you whatever he reveals to me." So he went alone to the top of a hill,

Num 23:4 and God met him. Balaam said to him, "I have built the seven altars and offered a bull and a ram on each."

Num 23:5 The LORD told Balaam what to say and sent him back to Balak to give him his message.

Num 23:6 So he went back and found Balak still standing by his burnt offering with all the leaders of Moab.

Num 23:7 Balaam uttered this prophecy: "Balak king of Moab has brought me From Syria, from the eastern mountains. 'Come speak for me,' he said. 'Put a curse on the people of Israel.'

Num 23:8 How can I curse what God has not cursed, Or speak of doom when the LORD has not?

Num 23:9 From the high rocks I can see them; I can watch them from the hills. They are a nation that lives alone; They know they are blessed more than other nations.

Num 23:10 The descendants of Israel are like the dust—There are too many of them to be counted. Let me end my days like one of God's people; Let me die in peace like the righteous."

Num 23:11 Then Balak said to Balaam, "What have you done to me? I brought you here to curse my enemies, but all you have done is bless them."

Num 23:12 He answered, "I can say only what the LORD tells me to say."

Balaam's Second Oracle

Num 23:13 Then Balak said to Balaam, "Come with me to another place from which you can see only some of the Israelites. Curse them for me from there."

Num 23:14 He took him to the field of Zophim on the top of Mount Pisgah. There also he built seven altars and offered a bull and a ram on each of them.

Num 23:15 Balaam said to Balak, "Stand here by your burnt offering, and I will meet God over there."

Num 23:16 The LORD met Balaam, told him what to say, and sent him back to Balak to give him his message.

Num 23:17 So he went back and found Balak still standing by his burnt offering, with the leaders of Moab. Balak asked what the LORD had said, Num 23:18 and Balaam uttered this prophecy: "Come, Balak son of Zippor, And listen to what I have to say.

Num 23:19 God is not like people, who lie; He is not a human who changes his mind. Whatever he promises, he does; He speaks, and it is done.

Num 23:20 I have been instructed to bless, And when God blesses, I cannot call it back.

Num 23:21 I foresee that Israel's future Will bring her no misfortune or trouble. The LORD their God is with them; They proclaim that he is their king.

Num 23:22 God has brought them out of Egypt; He fights for them like a wild ox.

Num 23:23 There is no magic charm, no witchcraft, That can be used against the nation of Israel. Now people will say about Israel, 'Look what God has done!'

Num 23:24 The nation of Israel is like a mighty lion: It doesn't rest until it has torn and devoured, Until it has drunk the blood of those it has killed."

Num 23:25 Then Balak said to Balaam, "You refuse to curse the people of Israel, but at least don't bless them!"

Num 23:26 Balaam answered, "Didn't I tell you that I had to do everything that the LORD told me?"

Num 23:27 Balak said, "Come with me, and I will take you to another place. Perhaps God will be willing to let you curse them for me from there."

Num 23:28 So he took Balaam to the top of Mount Peor overlooking the desert.

Num 23:29 Balaam said to him, "Build seven altars for me here and bring me seven bulls and seven rams."

Num 23:30 Balak did as he was told, and offered a bull and a ram on each altar.

NÚMERI 23

[1]Bileam het vir Balak gesê: Bou hier vir my sewe altare en maak sewe bulle en sewe ramme gereed vir offers. [2]Balak het gedoen wat Bileam gesê het, en hy en Bileam het toe op elkeen van die altare 'n bul en 'n ram geoffer. [3]Daarna sê Bileam vir Balak: Bly jy hier by jou brandoffer terwyl ek eenkant toe gaan. Miskien sal die Here Hom aan my openbaar, en wat Hy ook al aan my bekend maak, sal ek vir jou sê. Bileam het na 'n kaal hoogte toe gestap, [4]en daar het God Hom aan Bileam geopenbaar. Bileam het toe gesê: Ek het sewe altare laat bou en op elke altaar 'n bul en 'n ram geoffer. [5]Die Here het vir Bileam gesê wat hy moet sê en hom beveel: Gaan na Balak toe terug en sê dit vir hom. [6]Bileam het by Balak gekom waar hy en al die amptenare van Moab by die brandoffer staan. [7]Toe kom Bileam met hierdie uitspraak: Uit Aram het Balak my laat kom, die koning van Moab het my laat kom uit die berge in die ooste. Kom,' het hy gesê, vervloek Jakob vir my; kom, kondig 'n ramp aan oor Israel.' [8]Maar hoe kan ek hóm vervloek vir wie God nie vervloek nie, hoe kan ek 'n ramp oor hóm aankondig as die Here dit nie aangekondig het nie? [9]Hier van die hoë rotse af sien ek vir Israel, van die hoogtes af kyk ek na hom! Ek sien 'n volk wat op sy eie woon en hom van die nasies afsonder. [10]Wie kan die stof tel, wie vir Jakob, wie kan selfs een kwart van Israel se getal bereken? Mag ek ook eendag as opregte sterwe, mag my einde soos hierdie volk s'n wees. [11]Toe sê Balak vir Bileam: Wat het jy my nou aangedoen? Ek laat jou kom om my vyande te vervloek, en jy kom seën hulle! [12]Bileam het geantwoord: Ek moes tog presies kom sê wat die Here my voorgesê het. [13]Toe sê Balak vir Bileam: Kom saam met my na 'n ander plek toe. Van daar af sal jy net 'n deel van hulle kan sien, nie almal nie. Vervloek hulle vir my van daar af! [14]Balak vat hom toe na 'n uitkykpos op die top van Pisgaberg. Daar bou hy sewe altare en offer op elke altaar 'n bul en 'n ram. [15]Daarna sê Bileam vir Balak: Bly jy hier by jou brandoffer, terwyl ek eenkant toe gaan om van God 'n openbaring te vra. [16]Die Here het Hom aan Bileam geopenbaar, hom gesê wat om te sê en hom beveel: Gaan na Balak toe terug en sê dit vir hom. [17]Bileam het toe by Balak gekom waar hy en die amptenare van Moab by die brandoffer staan. Balak vra hom toe: Wat het die Here gesê? [18]Toe kom Bileam met hierdie uitspraak: Kom luister, Balak, hoor wat ek sê, seun van Sippor. [19]God is nie 'n mens dat Hy sou lieg nie, 'n mens dat Hy van gedagte sou verander nie. Sou Hy iets sê en dit nie doen nie, iets belowe en dit nie uitvoer nie? [20]Ek het die opdrag om te seën: Hý het geseën, en ék kan niks daaraan verander nie. [21]Jy sal nie vind dat 'n ramp vir Jakob tref nie, jy sal Israel nie sien swaarkry nie: die Here hulle God is by hulle; oor Hom, hulle koning, jubel hulle. 22God het hulle uit Egipte laat trek, sy krag is vir hulle soos die horings van 'n buffel. 23Geen toordery rig iets uit teen Jakob nie, geen waarsêery iets teen Israel nie. Nou word daar oor Jakob, oor Israel gesê: Wat het God nie alles gedoen nie!' 24Dit is 'n volk wat soos 'n leeumannetjie opstaan, wat hom uitrek soos 'n leeu, en nie weer gaan lê voordat hy sy prooi verskeur het en sy slagoffers se bloed gedrink het nie. 25Toe sê Balak vir Bileam: As jy hulle nie kan vervloek nie, moet jy hulle ook nie seën nie! 26Bileam het geantwoord: Ek het jou mos gesê ek sal net doen wat die Here vir my sê. 27Toe sê Balak vir Bileam: Kom ek vat jou na 'n ander plek toe. Miskien vind God dit tog goed dat jy die volk daarvandaan vir my vervloek. 28Balak vat toe vir Bileam na die top van Peor toe wat afkyk op die droë wêreld. 29Bileam het vir hom gesê: Bou hier vir my sewe altare en maak vir my sewe bulle en sewe ramme gereed vir offers. 30Balak het gedoen wat Bileam gesê het en op elke altaar 'n bul en 'n ram geoffer.

Balaam's Third Oracle

Num 24:1 By now Balaam knew that the LORD wanted him to bless the people of Israel, so he did not go to look for omens, as he had done before. He turned toward the desert

Num 24:2 and saw the people of Israel camped tribe by tribe. The spirit of God took control of him,

Num 24:3 and he uttered this prophecy: "The message of Balaam son of Beor, The words of the man who can see clearly,

Num 24:4 Who can hear what God is saying. With staring eyes I see in a trance A vision from Almighty God.

Num 24:5 The tents of Israel are beautiful,

Num 24:6 Like long rows of palms Or gardens beside a river, Like aloes planted by the LORD Or cedars beside the water.

Num 24:7 They will have abundant rainfall And plant their seed in well-watered fields. Their king shall be greater than Agag, And his rule shall be extended far and wide.

Num 24:8 God brought them out of Egypt; He fights for them like a wild ox. They devour their enemies, Crush their bones, smash their arrows.

Num 24:9 The nation is like a mighty lion; When it is sleeping, no one dares wake it. Whoever blesses Israel will be blessed, And whoever curses Israel will be cursed."

Num 24:10 Balak clenched his fists in anger and said to Balaam, "I called you to curse my enemies, but three times now you have blessed them instead.

Num 24:11 Now get on home! I promised to reward you, but the LORD has kept you from getting the reward."

Num 24:12 Balaam answered, "I told the messengers you sent to me that Num 24:13 even if you gave me all the silver and gold in your palace, I could not disobey the command of the LORD by doing anything of myself. I will say only what the LORD tells me to say."

Num 24:14 Balaam said to Balak, "Now I am going back to my own people, but before I go, I am warning you what the people of Israel will do to your people in the future."

Balaam's Final Oracle

Num 24:15 Then he uttered this prophecy: "The message of Balaam son of Beor, The words of the man who can see clearly,

Num 24:16 Who can hear what God is saying And receive the knowledge that comes from the Most High. With staring eyes I see in a trance A vision from Almighty God.

Num 24:17 I look into the future, And I see the nation of Israel. A king, like a bright star, will arise in that nation. Like a comet he will come from Israel. He will strike the leaders of Moab And beat down all the people of Seth.

Num 24:18 He will conquer his enemies in Edom And make their land his property, While Israel continues victorious.

Num 24:19 The nation of Israel will trample them down And wipe out the last survivors."

Num 24:20 Then in his vision Balaam saw the Amalekites and uttered this prophecy: "Amalek was the most powerful nation of all, But at the end it will perish forever."

Num 24:21 In his vision he saw the Kenites, and uttered this prophecy: "The place where you live is secure, Safe as a nest set high on a cliff, Num 24:22 But you Kenites will be destroyed When Assyria takes you captive."

Num 24:23 Balaam uttered this prophecy: "Who are these people gathering in the north?

Num 24:24 Invaders will sail from Cyprus; They will conquer Assyria and Eber, But they, in turn, will perish forever."

Num 24:25 Then Balaam got ready and went back home, and Balak went on his way.

NÚMERI 24

1Bileam het nou al geweet dat die Here vir Israel wil seën, en daarom het hy nie soos die vorige kere 'n voorteken gaan soek nie. Hy het na die woestyn toe gedraai 2en toe hy opkyk en die stamme van Israel langs mekaar sien woon, het die Gees van God oor hom gekom, 3en toe kom Bileam met hierdie uitspraak: Die openbaring aan Bileam seun van Beor, die openbaring aan 'n man wie se oë geopen is, 4die openbaring aan een wat die woorde van God hoor, wat sien wat die Almagtige hom laat sien, wat in gebed neerval, en sy oë word geopen: 5Hoe mooi is jou tente, Jakob, jou wonings, Israel! 6Hulle lyk soos uitgestrekte valleie, soos tuine aan 'n rivier, soos aalwyne wat deur die Here geplant is, soos sederbome by die water. 7Israel se waterkruike loop oor, hy saai waar oorvloed water is. Sy koning is sterker as Agag en sy koninkryk groei steeds. 8God het hulle uit Egipte laat trek, sy krag is vir hulle soos die horings van 'n buffel. Israel vernietig die nasies wat hom teëstaan, hy breek hulle bene stukkend, hy deurboor hulle met pyle. 9Hy buig sy knieë en gaan lê soos 'n leeu, soos 'n leeumannetjie; wie sal hom opjaag? Geseën is hulle wat jou seën, vervloek is hulle wat jou vervloek. 10Balak was toe baie kwaad vir Bileam. Hy het sy hande afwerend voor hom gehou en vir Bileam gesê: Ek het jou laat kom om my vyande te vervloek, en jy het hulle nou al drie keer geseën. 11Maak dat jy wegkom na jou eie plek toe. Ek het belowe om jou goed te betaal, maar die Here het gekeer dat jy betaal word. 12Bileam sê toe vir Balak: Ek het mos al vir die boodskappers wat jy na my toe gestuur het, gesê: 13Selfs al gee Balak vir my sy paleis vol silwer of goud, mag ek niks doen, goed of kwaad, teen die opdrag van die Here in nie. Ek kan net sê wat die Here vir my voorsê.' 14Ek gaan terug na my mense toe, maar ek wil eers vir jou sê wat hierdie volk in die toekoms aan jou volk sal doen. 15Bileam het toe met hierdie uitspraak gekom: Die openbaring aan Bileam seun van Beor, die openbaring aan 'n man wie se oë geopen is, 16die openbaring aan een wat die woorde van God hoor, wat sy kennis ontvang het van die Allerhoogste, wat in gebed neerval, en sy oë word geopen: 17Ek sien hom, maar hy kom nie nou al nie, ek kyk na hom, maar hy is nie naby nie, daar kom 'n ster uit Jakob, daar staan 'n heerser in Israel op. Hy verpletter die voorkop van Moab, hy vernietig al die opstandiges. 18Edom sal verower word, Seïr, die vyand van Israel, sal ingeneem word, maar Israel sal al sterker word. 19Een uit Jakob sal heers en hy sal dié vernietig wat uit Edom se hoofstad wegvlug. 20Bileam het ook vir Amalek gesien en met hierdie uitspraak gekom: Amalek is die eerste onder die nasies, maar ondergang wag hom in. 21Bileam het ook die Keniete gesien en met hierdie uitspraak gekom: Jou woonplek is stewig, jou nes is op 'n rots gebou, 22maar tog sal Kain uitgewis word, die Assiriërs sal jou as gevangene wegvoer. 23Bileam het ook met hierdie uitspraak gekom: Wie kan in die lewe bly as God dit nie so bepaal nie? 24Daar kom skepe van die Kittiërs se kuste af, hulle verslaan die Assiriërs en die Hebreërs, maar hulle sal self ook vernietig word. 25Daarna het Bileam huis toe teruggegaan, en ook Balak het sy koers gekry.

Numbers 25

Baal Worship at Peor

Num 25:1 When the Israelites were camped at Acacia Valley, the men began to have sexual intercourse with the Moabite women who were there.

Num 25:2 These women invited them to sacrificial feasts, where the god of Moab was worshiped. The Israelites ate the food and worshiped the god

Num 25:3 Baal of Peor. So the LORD was angry with them

Num 25:4 and said to Moses, "Take all the leaders of Israel and, in obedience to me, execute them in broad daylight, and then I will no longer be angry with the people."

Num 25:5 Moses said to the officials, "Each of you is to kill every man in your tribe who has become a worshiper of Baal of Peor."

Num 25:6 One of the Israelites took a Midianite woman into his tent in the sight of Moses and the whole community, while they were mourning at the entrance of the Tent of the LORD's presence.

Num 25:7 When Phinehas, the son of Eleazar and grandson of Aaron the priest, saw this, he got up and left the assembly. He took a spear,

Num 25:8 followed the man and the woman into the tent, and drove the spear through both of them. In this way the epidemic that was destroying Israel was stopped,

Num 25:9 but it had already killed twenty-four thousand people.

The Zeal of Phinehas

Num 25:10 The LORD said to Moses,

Num 25:11 "Because of what Phinehas has done, I am no longer angry with the people of Israel. He refused to tolerate the worship of any god but me, and that is why I did not destroy them in my anger.

Num 25:12 So tell him that I am making a covenant with him that is valid for all time to come.

Num 25:13 He and his descendants are permanently established as priests, because he did not tolerate any rivals to me and brought about forgiveness for the people's sin."

Num 25:14 The name of the Israelite who was killed with the Midianite woman was Zimri son of Salu, the head of a family in the tribe of Simeon.

Num 25:15 The woman's name was Cozbi. Zur, her father, was chief of a group of Midianite clans.

Num 25:16 The LORD commanded Moses,

Num 25:17 "Attack the Midianites and destroy them,

Num 25:18 because of the evil they did to you when they deceived you at Peor, and because of Cozbi, who was killed at the time of the epidemic at Peor."

NÚMERI 25

1Terwyl Israel in Sittim was, het van die Israelitiese mans met Moabitiese vrouens gemeenskap gehad. 2Dit het gebeur toe die mans deur die Moabitiese vrouens uitgenooi is na die offers ter ere van hulle gode. Die mans het aan die offermaaltye deelgeneem en die gode van die vrouens aanbid. 3So het die Israeliete vir Baäl-Peor aangehang. Die toorn van die Here het teen Israel ontvlam 4en Hy het vir Moses gesê: Vat hierdie manne se leiers en hang hulle in die openbaar voor die heiligdom op. Dan sal my toorn nie langer teen Israel woed nie. 5Moses het toe vir die stamhoofde van Israel gesê: Julle moet elkeen julle eie manne wat vir Baäl-Peor aangehang het, doodmaak. 6Onder dit alles het 'n Israelitiese man tog nog 'n Midianitiese vrou tussen sy familie in gebring. Hy het dit gedoen voor die oë van Moses en die hele gemeente van Israel wat by die ingang van die tent van ontmoeting gestaan en huil het. 7Toe Pinehas seun van Eleasar, seun van die priester Aäron, sien wat die man doen, het hy uit die gemeente opgestaan, 'n spies gevat 8en die man na die vrouetent toe gevolg. Daar het hy die spies deur albei gesteek, deur die man tot in die onderlyf van die vrou. Daarmee het die ramp onder die Israeliete tot 'n einde gekom; 9daar het vier en twintig duisend deur die ramp gesterf. 10Die Here het toe vir Moses gesê: 11Pinehas seun van Eleasar, seun van die priester Aäron, het my toorn teen Israel laat ophou deurdat hy vir my eer opgekom het. Dit was nie nodig dat Ek self vir my eer moes opkom en die Israeliete vernietig nie. 12Daarom moet jy vir Pinehas sê dat Ek 'n verbond met hom sluit wat hom vir altyd ten goede sal kom. 13Hierdie verbond verseker vir hom en vir sy nageslag 'n blywende priesterskap omdat hy vir die eer van sy God opgekom het en vir die Israeliete versoening gedoen het. 14Die Israelitiese man wat saam met die Midianitiese vrou doodgemaak is, was Simri seun van Salu, 'n vooraanstaande man uit die stam Simeon. 15Die Midianitiese vrou wat doodgemaak is, was Kosbi dogter van Sur, 'n stamhoof van Midian. 16Die Here het vir Moses gesê: 17Julle moet die Midianiete as julle vyande beskou en hulle doodmaak 18omdat hulle vyandig opgetree het teen julle. Hulle het julle verlei deur julle in die strik te laat trap van Baäl-Peor en van hulle landgenoot Kosbi, 'n Midianitiese stamhoof se dogter wat doodgemaak is toe die ramp julle oor Peor getref het.

NÚMERI 26

1Ná die ramp het die Here vir Moses en vir Eleasar seun van die priester Aäron gesê: 2Neem 'n sensus op van die hele volk Israel, van elke Israeliet van twintig jaar en ouer wat vir militêre diens geskik is. Julle moet dit familiegewys doen. 3Moses en die priester Eleasar het toe in die Moabsvlakte regoor Jerigo aan die Jordaan die opname gemaak 4van almal van twintig jaar en ouer soos die Here vir Moses beveel het. Hier volg die opgawe van die Israelitiese families wat uit Egipte gekom het: 5Ruben, oudste seun van Israel: die Rubenfamilies was dié van Ganok, 6Gesron en Karmi. 7Die Rubenfamilies was altesaam 43 730 man. 8Pallu se seun was Eliab, 9en sy seuns was Nemuel, Datan en Abiram. Dit was dié Datan en Abiram wat as leiers deur die vergadering verkies was, maar teen Moses en Aäron in opstand gekom het toe die bende van Korag teen die Here in opstand gekom het. 10Die grond het oopgeskeur en hulle ingesluk saam met Korag wie se bende omgekom het toe die vuur twee honderd en vyftig man verteer het. Dit was 'n waarskuwing vir Israel. 11Die seuns van Korag het egter nie gesterf nie. 12Die Simeonfamilies was dié van Jemuel, Jamin, Jakin, 13Serag en Saul. 14Die Simeonfamilies was altesaam 22 200 man. 15Die Gadfamilies was dié van Sifion, Gaggi, Suni, 16Osni, Eri, 17Arod en Areli. 18Die Gadfamilies was altesaam 40 500 man. 19Er en Onan was seuns van Juda, maar hulle is vroeër al in Kanaän oorlede. 20Die Judafamilies was dié van Sela, Peres en Serag. 21Die Peresfamilies was dié van Gesron en Gamul. 22Die Judafamilies was altesaam 76 500 man. 23Die Issaskarfamilies was dié van Tola, Puwwa, 24Jasub en Simron. 25Die Issaskarfamilies was altesaam 64 300 man. 26Die Sebulonfamilies was dié van Sered, Elon en Jagleël. 27Die Sebulonfamilies was altesaam 60 500 man. 28Die Joseffamilies was dié van Manasse en Efraim. 29Makir, voorvader van Gilead, was uit die Manassefamilie. 30Die Gileadfamilie was dié van Iëser, Gelek, 31Asriël, Sekem, 32Semida, Gefer 33en Selofgad. Selofgad seun van Gefer het nie seuns gehad nie, net dogters. Sy dogters was Magla, Noa, Gogla, Milka en Tirsa. 34Die Manassefamilies was altesaam 52 700 man. 35Die Efraimfamilies was dié van Sutelag, Beker en Tagan. 36Eran was uit die Sutelagfamilie. 37Die Efraimfamilies was altesaam 32 500 man. Dit was al die Joseffamilies. 38Die Benjaminfamilies was dié van Bela, Asbel, Agiram, 39Sefufam en Gufam. 40Die Belafamilies was dié van Ard en Naäman. 41Die Benjaminfamilies was altesaam 45 600 man. 42Die Danfamilie was dié van Sugam en sy nageslag. Dit was die enigste Danfamilie. 43Die Sugamfamilie was altesaam 64 400 man. 44Die Aserfamilies was dié van Jimna, Jiswi en Beria. 45Die Beriafamilies was dié van Geber en

Malkiël. [46]Aser het ook 'n dogter gehad, Serag. [47]Die Aserfamilies was altesaam 53 400 man. [48]Die Naftalifamilies was dié van Jagseël, Guni, [49]Jeser en Sillem. [50]Die Naftalifamilies was altesaam 45 400 man. [51]Die Israeliete was altesaam 601 730 man. [52]Daarna het die Here vir Moses gesê: [53]Verdeel nou die land tussen die families en gee aan elkeen 'n eiendom volgens sy grootte: [54]aan 'n groot familie 'n groot eiendom en aan 'n klein familie 'n kleiner eiendom. Elkeen moet sy eiendom ontvang ooreenkomstig sy getal. [55]Die land moet verdeel word deur te loot. Elke stam moet 'n eiendom ontvang. [56]Bepaal vir elkeen sy eiendom deur loting tussen die groter en die kleiner stamme. [57]Die Levifamilies wat getel is, was dié van Gerson, Kehat en Merari [58]en ook dié van Libni, Hebron, Magli, Musi en Korag. Kehat was die voorvader van Amram, [59]en Amram se vrou was Jogebed, ook uit die nageslag van Levi. Sy is in Egipte gebore en haar en Amram se kinders was Aäron en Moses en hulle suster Mirjam. [60]Aäron was die vader van Nadab, Abihu, Eleasar en Itamar. [61]Nadab en Abihu is dood toe hulle ongeoorloofde vuur na die altaar toe gebring het. [62]Die Leviete van 'n maand en ouer was altesaam 23 000 man. Hulle is nie saam met die ander Israeliete getel nie, want hulle het nie self eiendom onder die Israeliete gekry nie. [63]Al hierdie mense is getel deur Moses en die priester Eleasar in die Moabsvlakte regoor Jerigo aan die Jordaan. [64]Onder hulle was daar egter niemand van die Israeliete wat deur Moses en die priester Aäron in die Sinaiwoestyn getel is nie. [65]Die Here het destyds vir daardie Israeliete gesê dat hulle beslis in die woestyn sou sterf. Nie een van húlle het toe oorgebly nie, behalwe Kaleb seun van Jefunne, en Josua seun van Nun.

Numbers 27

The Daughters of Zelophehad

Num 27:1 Mahlah, Noah, Hoglah, Milcah, and Tirzah were the daughters of Zelophehad son of Hepher, son of Gilead, son of Machir, son of Manasseh, son of Joseph.

Num 27:2 They went and stood before Moses, Eleazar the priest, the leaders, and the whole community at the entrance of the Tent of the LORD's presence and said, Num 27:3 "Our father died in the wilderness without leaving any sons. He was not among the followers of Korah, who rebelled against the LORD; he died because of his own sin.

Num 27:4 Just because he had no sons, why should our father's name disappear from Israel? Give us property among our father's relatives."

Num 27:5 Moses presented their case to the LORD,

Num 27:6 and the LORD said to him,

Num 27:7 "What the daughters of Zelophehad request is right; give them property among their father's relatives. Let his inheritance pass on to them.

Num 27:8 Tell the people of Israel that whenever a man dies without leaving a son, his daughter is to inherit his property.

Num 27:9 If he has no daughter, his brothers are to inherit it.

Num 27:10 If he has no brothers, his father's brothers are to inherit it.

Num 27:11 If he has no brothers or uncles, then his nearest relative is to inherit it and hold it as his own property. The people of Israel are to observe this as a legal requirement, just as I, the LORD, have commanded you."

Joshua to Succeed Moses

Num 27:12 The LORD said to Moses, "Go up the Abarim Mountains and look out over the land that I am giving to the Israelites.

Num 27:13 After you have seen it, you will die, as your brother Aaron did,

Num 27:14 because both of you rebelled against my command in the wilderness of Zin. When the whole community complained against me at Meribah, you refused to acknowledge my holy power before them." (Meribah is the spring at Kadesh in the wilderness of Zin.)

Num 27:15 Moses prayed,

Num 27:16 " LORD God, source of all life, appoint, I pray, a man who can lead the people

Num 27:17 and can command them in battle, so that your community will not be like sheep without a shepherd."

Num 27:18 The LORD said to Moses, "Take Joshua son of Nun, a capable man, and place your hands on his head.

Num 27:19 Have him stand in front of Eleazar the priest and the whole community, and there before them all proclaim him as your successor.

Num 27:20 Give him some of your own authority, so that the whole community of Israel will obey him.

Num 27:21 He will depend on Eleazar the priest, who will learn my will by using the Urim and Thummim. In this way Eleazar will direct Joshua and the whole community of Israel in all their affairs."

Num 27:22 Moses did as the LORD had commanded him. He had Joshua stand before Eleazar the priest and the whole community.

Num 27:23 As the LORD had commanded, Moses put his hands on Joshua's head and proclaimed him as his successor.

NÚMERI 27

1Die dogters van Selofgad het na Moses toe gekom. Hulle het aan die Manassestam behoort. Selofgad was 'n seun van Gefer, seun van Gilead, seun van Makir, seun van Manasse, seun van Josef. Die dogters was Magla, Noa, Gogla, Milka en Tirsa. 2Hulle het voor Moses en die priester Eleasar en voor die leiers en die hele gemeente by die ingang van die tent van ontmoeting gaan staan en gesê: 3Ons pa is in die woestyn dood. Hy was nie een van Korag se bende wat teen die Here saamgesweer het nie. Hy het deur sy eie sondes gesterf en geen seuns gehad nie. 4Waarom moet ons pa se naam uit sy familie verdwyn net omdat hy nie 'n seun gehad het nie? Gee vir ons grond tussen dié van sy familie. 5Moses het hulle saak voor die Here gebring, 6en die Here het vir hom gesê: 7Selofgad se dogters het gelyk. Jy moet beslis vir hulle hulle eie grond tussen dié van hulle pa se familie gee. Gee vir hulle die grond wat hulle pa sou gekry het. 8Sê vir die Israeliete: As iemand sterf en hy het nie 'n seun nie, moet julle sy grond aan sy dogter gee. 9As hy ook nie 'n dogter het nie, gee sy grond vir sy broers. 10As hy nie broers het nie, gee dit vir sy ooms aan vaderskant. 11En as sy pa nie broers gehad het nie, moet julle sy grond vir die naaste bloedverwant uit sy familie gee, dat dié dit kan besit. Dit moet vir die Israeliete 'n bindende voorskrif bly soos die Here vir Moses beveel het. 12Die Here het vir Moses gesê: Klim teen Abarimberg uit en bekyk die land wat Ek aan die Israeliete gee. 13Nadat jy dit bekyk het, sal jy sterwe net soos jou broer Aäron, 14want toe die volk by Meriba in die Sinwoestyn teen My in opstand gekom het, het julle julle teen my bevel verset en My, die Heilige, nie voor die volk gehoorsaam nie. Dit het gebeur by die Meribawaters by Kades in die Sinwoestyn. 15Moses sê toe vir die Here: 16Dan moet U, Here, God wat aan alle mense die lewe gee, iemand oor hierdie volk aanstel 17wat vir hulle 'n leier en aanvoerder kan wees sodat die volk van die Here nie soos skape sonder wagter sal wees nie. 18Toe sê die Here vir Moses: Neem vir Josua seun van Nun, 'n man op wie my Gees is, en lê hom die hande op. 19Laat hom voor die priester Eleasar en voor die hele volk staan en sê vir hom in hulle teenwoordigheid wat sy taak is. 20Dra van jou gesag aan hom oor sodat die hele volk Israel hom kan gehoorsaam. 21Maar hy moet altyd die priester Eleasar raadpleeg dat dié vir hom met die urim die beslissing van die Here vra. Alleen op Eleasar se bevel sal Josua en die hele volk Israel vir oorlog optrek en van die oorlog af terugkom. 22Moses het gedoen wat die Here hom beveel het. Hy het Josua voor die priester en die hele volk laat staan, 23hom die hande opgelê en vir hom gesê wat sy taak is soos die Here deur Moses beveel het.

Num 28:29 and 2 pounds with each lamb.

Num 28:30 Also offer one male goat as a sin offering, and in this way perform the ritual of purification for the people.

Num 28:31 Offer these and the wine offering in addition to the daily burnt offering and grain offering.

NÚMERI 28

1Die Here het vir Moses gesê: 2Beveel die Israeliete om op die bestemde tyd die offer te bring wat My toekom, die voedsel vir my vuuroffers wat deur My aanvaar word. 3Sê vir hulle: Julle moet die volgende vuuroffer vir die Here bring: twee jaaroud lammers sonder liggaamsgebrek as gereelde brandoffers vir elke dag. 4Offer een lam in die môre en een teen die aand 5saam met een en 'n half kilogram meel as graanoffer, gemeng met 'n liter suiwer olie. 6Dit is die gereelde brandoffer wat al by Sinaiberg gebring is, 'n vuuroffer wat deur die Here aanvaar word. 7Wanneer julle die eerste lam offer, moet julle 'n liter wyn as drankoffer vir die Here by die heiligdom uitgiet. 8Julle moet die tweede lam teen die aand offer, met dieselfde hoeveelheid meel, olie en wyn daarby as in die oggend. Dit is 'n vuuroffer wat deur die Here aanvaar word. 9Op die sabbat moet julle twee jaaroud lammers sonder liggaamsgebrek offer, met daarby drie kilogram meel wat met olie gemeng is as graanoffer en met 'n drankoffer daarby. 10Dit is die brandoffer vir elke sabbat afgesien van die gereelde brandoffer en die drankoffer daarby. 11Op die eerste dag van elke maand moet julle vir die Here as brandoffer bring twee jong bulle, een ram en sewe jaaroud lammers, almal sonder liggaamsgebrek. 12Saam met elke bul moet julle 'n graanoffer bring van vyf kilogram meel gemeng met olie, saam met elke ram drie kilogram, 13en saam met elke lam een en 'n half kilogram. Dit is die brandoffer, die vuuroffer, wat deur die Here aanvaar word. 14Die drankoffer saam met elke bul is twee liter wyn, saam met elke ram een en 'n derde liter en saam met elke lam een liter. Dit is die brandoffer wat deur die jaar elke maand gebring moet word. 15Afgesien van die gereelde brandoffer met die drankoffer daarby, moet 'n bokram as sondeoffer vir My gebring word. 16Die paasfees moet op die veertiende van die eerste maand tot eer van die Here gevier word. 17Op die vyftiende van dié maand moet daar 'n fees wees. Julle moet sewe dae lank net ongesuurde brood eet. 18Op die eerste van die sewe dae moet daar 'n gewyde byeenkoms wees, dan mag julle geen gewone werk doen nie. 19Julle moet vir die Here 'n vuuroffer, 'n brandoffer bring van twee jong bulle, 'n ram en sewe jaaroud lammers, almal sonder liggaamsgebrek. 20Saam met elke bul moet julle 'n graanoffer bring van vyf kilogram meel gemeng met olie, saam met die ram drie kilogram, 21en saam met elk van die sewe lammers een en 'n half kilogram. 22Julle moet ook nog 'n bokram as sondeoffer bring om vir julle versoening te doen. 23Julle moet hierdie offers bring afgesien van die gereelde brandoffers in die môre. 24So moet julle sewe dae lank elke dag 'n voedseloffer, 'n vuuroffer, bring wat deur die Here aanvaar word. Dié offers moet gebring word afgesien van die gereelde brandoffer met die drankoffer daarby. [25]Ook op die sewende dag moet daar vir julle 'n gewyde byeenkoms wees, dan mag julle geen gewone werk doen nie. [26]Sewe weke na paasfees wanneer julle die fees van die weke tot eer van die Here begin vier en die graanoffer uit die nuwe oes bring, moet daar vir julle 'n gewyde byeenkoms wees, dan mag julle geen gewone werk doen nie. [27]Julle moet vir die Here as brandoffer wat deur Hom aanvaar word, twee jong bulle, 'n ram en sewe jaaroud lammers bring. [28]Saam met elke bul moet julle 'n graanoffer bring van vyf kilogram meel gemeng met olie, saam met die ram drie kilogram, [29]en saam met elk van die sewe lammers een en 'n half kilogram. [30]Julle moet ook nog 'n bokram as sondeoffer bring om vir julle versoening te doen. [31]Julle moet hierdie offers bring met die drankoffers daarby, afgesien van die gereelde brandoffer en die graanoffer daarby. Julle moet sorg dat die offerdiere sonder liggaamsgebrek is.

Numbers 30

Men and Vows

Num 30:1 Moses gave the following instructions to the leaders of the tribes of Israel.

Num 30:2 When a man makes a vow to give something to the LORD or takes an oath to abstain from something, he must not break his promise, but must do everything that he said he would.

Women and Vows

Num 30:3 When a young woman still living in her father's house makes a vow to give something to the LORD or promises to abstain from something,

Num 30:4 she must do everything that she vowed or promised unless her father raises an objection when he hears about it.

Num 30:5 But if her father forbids her to fulfill the vow when he hears about it, she is not required to keep it. The LORD will forgive her, because her father refused to let her keep it.

Num 30:6 If an unmarried woman makes a vow, whether deliberately or carelessly, or promises to abstain from something, and then marries,

Num 30:7 she must do everything that she vowed or promised unless her husband raises an objection when he hears about it.

Num 30:8 But if her husband forbids her to fulfill the vow when he hears about it, she is not required to keep it. The LORD will forgive her.

Num 30:9 A widow or a divorced woman must keep every vow she makes and every promise to abstain from something.

Num 30:10 If a married woman makes a vow or promises to abstain from something,

Num 30:11 she must do everything that she vowed or promised unless her husband raises an objection when he hears about it.

Num 30:12 But if her husband forbids her to fulfill the vow when he hears about it, she is not required to keep it. The LORD will forgive her, because her husband prevented her from keeping her vow.

Num 30:13 Her husband has the right to affirm or to annul any vow or promise that she has made.

Num 30:14 But if, by the day after he hears of the vow, he has raised no objection, she must do everything that she has vowed or promised. He has affirmed the vow by not objecting on the day he heard of it.

Num 30:15 But if he later annuls the vow, he must suffer the consequences for the failure to fulfill the vow.

Num 30:16 These are the rules that the LORD gave Moses concerning vows made by an unmarried woman living in her father's house or by a married woman.

NÚMERI 30

1Moses het vir die leiers van die Israelitiese stamme gesê: Dit is wat die Here beveel het: 2As iemand aan die Here 'n gelofte doen of met 'n eed 'n verpligting op hom neem, mag hy sy woord nie breek nie; hy moet hom aan alles hou wat hy beloof het. 3As 'n jong vrou wat nog in haar ouerhuis is, 'n gelofte aan die Here doen of 'n verpligting op haar neem, 4en haar pa hoor van die gelofte of die verpligting en hy maak nie daarteen beswaar nie, bly al die geloftes of die verpligtinge wat sy op haar geneem het, van krag. 5Maar as haar pa dit afkeur wanneer hy daarvan hoor, is die geloftes of die verpligtinge wat sy op haar geneem het, nie van krag nie. Die Here sal dit nie teen haar hou nie omdat haar pa dit afgekeur het. 6As 'n vrou trou nadat sy aan die Here geloftes gedoen het, of onnadenkend 'n verpligting op haar geneem het, 7en haar man hoor daarvan en maak die dag waarop hy daarvan hoor, geen beswaar nie, bly die geloftes of al die verpligtinge wat sy op haar geneem het, van krag. 8Maar as haar man dit afkeur wanneer hy daarvan hoor, verklaar hy die gelofte of die verpligtinge wat sy onnadenkend op haar geneem het, nietig, en sal die Here dit nie teen haar hou nie. 9Enige gelofte wat 'n weduwee of 'n geskeide vrou gedoen het of enige verpligting wat sy op haar geneem het, bly van krag. 10As 'n getroude vrou 'n gelofte doen of met 'n eed 'n verpligting op haar neem, 11en haar man hoor daarvan en maak nie beswaar nie en keur dit nie af nie, bly al haar geloftes en die verpligtinge wat sy op haar geneem het, van krag. 12Maar as haar man die geloftes uitdruklik nietig verklaar wanneer hy daarvan hoor, is alles wat sy gesê het, haar geloftes of verpligtinge, nie van krag nie, en sal die Here dit nie teen haar hou nie. 13Elke gelofte of eed waarmee sy haarself wil kasty, kan deur haar man van krag gemaak of nietig verklaar word. 14As haar man nie voor die volgende dag beswaar maak nie, maak hy al haar geloftes of al die verpligtinge wat sy op haar geneem het, van krag. Hy het dit dan van krag gemaak deurdat hy geen beswaar gemaak het toe hy daarvan gehoor het nie. 15As hy egter die geloftes of verpligtinge eers lank nadat hy daarvan gehoor het, nietig verklaar, dra hy die skuld daarvoor, nie sy nie. 16Dit is die voorskrifte wat die Here aan Moses gegee het oor die verhouding tussen 'n man en sy vrou, en tussen 'n pa en sy ongetroude dogter wat nog in haar ouerhuis is.

Numbers 31

Vengeance on Midian

Num 31:1 The LORD said to Moses,

Num 31:2 "Punish the Midianites for what they did to the people of Israel. After you have done that, you will die."

Num 31:3 So Moses said to the people, "Get ready for war, so that you can attack Midian and punish them for what they did to the LORD.

Num 31:4 From each tribe of Israel send a thousand men to war."

Num 31:5 So a thousand men were chosen from each tribe, a total of twelve thousand men ready for battle.

Num 31:6 Moses sent them to war under the command of Phinehas son of Eleazar the priest, who took charge of the sacred objects and the trumpets for giving signals.

Num 31:7 They attacked Midian, as the LORD had commanded Moses, and killed all the men, Num 31:8 including the five kings of Midian: Evi, Rekem, Zur, Hur, and Reba. They also killed Balaam son of Beor.

Num 31:9 The people of Israel captured the Midianite women and children, took their cattle and their flocks, plundered all their wealth,

Num 31:10 and burned all their cities and camps.

Num 31:11 They took all the loot that they had captured, including the prisoners and the animals,

Num 31:12 and brought them to Moses and Eleazar and to the community of the people of Israel, who were at the camp on the plains of Moab across the Jordan from Jericho.

Num 31:13 Moses, Eleazar, and all the other leaders of the community went out of the camp to meet the army.

Num 31:14 Moses became angry with the officers, the commanders of battalions and companies, who had returned from the war.

Num 31:15 He asked them, "Why have you kept all the women alive?

Num 31:16 Remember that it was the women who followed Balaam's instructions and at Peor led the people to be unfaithful to the LORD. That was what brought the epidemic on the LORD's people.

Num 31:17 So now kill every boy and kill every woman who has had sexual intercourse,

Num 31:18 but keep alive for yourselves all the girls and all the women who are virgins.

Num 31:19 Now all of you who have killed anyone or have touched a corpse must stay outside the camp for seven days. On the third day and on the seventh day purify yourselves and the women you have captured.

Num 31:20 You must also purify every piece of clothing and everything made of leather, goats' hair, or wood."

Num 31:21 Eleazar the priest said to the men who had returned from battle, "These are the regulations that the LORD has given to Moses.

Num 31:22 (22-23) Everything that will not burn, such as gold, silver, bronze, iron, tin, or lead, is to be purified by passing it through fire. Everything else is to be purified by the water for purification.

Num 31:24 On the seventh day you must wash your clothes; then you will be ritually clean and will be permitted to enter the camp."

Num 31:25 The LORD said to Moses,

Num 31:26 "You and Eleazar, together with the other leaders of the community, are to count everything that has been captured, including the prisoners and the animals.

Num 31:27 Divide what was taken into two equal parts, one part for the soldiers and the other part for the rest of the community.

Num 31:28 From the part that belongs to the soldiers, withhold as a tax for the LORD one out of every five hundred prisoners and the same proportion of the cattle, donkeys, sheep, and goats.

Num 31:29 Give them to Eleazar the priest as a special contribution to the LORD.

Num 31:30 From the part given to the rest of the people, take one out of every fifty prisoners and the same proportion of the cattle, donkeys, sheep, and goats. Give them to the Levites who are in charge of the LORD's Tent."

Num 31:31 Moses and Eleazar did what the LORD commanded.

Num 31:32 (32-35) The following is a list of what was captured by the soldiers, in addition to what they kept for themselves: 675,000 sheep and goats, 72,000 cattle, 61,000 donkeys, and 32,000 virgins.

Num 31:36 (36-40) The half share of the soldiers was 337,500 sheep and goats, of which 675 were the tax for the LORD; 36,000 cattle for the soldiers, of which 72 were the tax for the LORD; 30,500 donkeys for the soldiers, of which 61 were the tax for the LORD; and 16,000 virgins for the soldiers, of which 32 were the tax for the LORD.

Num 31:41 So Moses gave Eleazar the tax as a special contribution to the LORD, as the LORD had commanded.

Num 31:42 (42-46) The share of the community was the same as that for the soldiers: 337,500 sheep and goats, 36,000 cattle, 30,500 donkeys, and 16,000 virgins.

Num 31:47 From this share Moses took one out of every fifty prisoners and animals, and as the LORD had commanded, gave them to the Levites who were in charge of the LORD's Tent.

Num 31:48 Then the officers who had commanded the army went to Moses Num 31:49 and reported, "Sir, we have counted the soldiers under our command and not one of them is missing.

Num 31:50 So we are bringing the gold ornaments, armlets, bracelets, rings, earrings, and necklaces that each of us has taken. We offer them to the LORD as a payment for our lives, so that he will protect us."

Num 31:51 Moses and Eleazar received the gold, all of which was in the form of ornaments.

Num 31:52 The total contribution of the officers weighed over four hundred pounds.

Num 31:53 Those who were not officers kept the loot they had taken.

Num 31:54 So Moses and Eleazar took the gold to the Tent, so that the LORD would protect the people of Israel.

NÚMERI 31

1Die Here het vir Moses gesê: 2Die Israeliete moet die Midianiete straf vir wat hulle julle aangedoen het. Daarna sal jy sterwe. 3Moses het toe vir die volk gesê: Bewapen manne vir die oorlog en laat hulle teen die Midianiete optrek om hulle te straf in die Naam van die Here. 4Stuur uit elke stam van Israel duisend man om te gaan veg. 5Daar is toe twaalf duisend man uit die stamme van Israel aangewys, duisend uit elke stam, almal toegerus vir die oorlog. 6Moses het hulle, duisend uit elke stam, saam met Pinehas seun van die priester Eleasar gestuur om te gaan veg. Pinehas het gewyde voorwerpe, die trompette om die seine te gee, saamgevat. 7Hulle het oorlog gemaak teen die Midianiete soos die Here vir Moses beveel het en al die mans doodgemaak. 8Onder die gesneuweldes was die vyf Midianitiese konings Ewi, Rekem, Sur, Gur en Reba. Die Israeliete het ook vir Bileam seun van Beor doodgemaak. 9Hulle het die Midianitiese vrouens met hulle kinders gevange geneem, en al die beeste, kleinvee en besittings buitgemaak. 10Die Israeliete het al die stede in die gebied van die Midianiete en al hulle ander blyplekke verbrand. 11Daarna het die Israeliete alles wat hulle gebuit en geroof het, mens en dier, gevat 12en die gevangenes, die roof en die buit na Moses en die priester Eleasar en die volk Israel toe gebring in die kamp in die Moabsvlakte regoor Jerigo aan die Jordaan. 13Moses en die priester Eleasar en al die leiers van die volk het die leër buite die kamp gaan ontmoet. 14Moses was kwaad vir die bevelvoerders van die leër, die bevelvoerders oor duisend en oor honderd wat van die veldtog af teruggekom het. 15Hy het vir hulle gesê: Julle het al die vrouens in die lewe laat bly, 16en deur toedoen van Bileam was juis húlle die oorsaak dat die Israeliete by Peor ontrou was aan die Here en daar 'n ramp oor die volk van die Here gekom het! 17Maak al die seuntjies dood en elke vrou wat al met 'n man gemeenskap gehad het. 18Maar elke dogter wat nog nie met 'n man gemeenskap gehad het nie, mag julle laat lewe en vir julle vat. 19Dié van julle wat iemand doodgemaak het of aan 'n lyk geraak het, moet sewe dae buite die kamp bly. Op die derde en die sewende dag moet julle julleself en julle gevangenes reinig. 20Julle moet ook al julle klere en alles wat van vel of bokhaar of hout gemaak is, reinig. 21Die priester Eleasar het vir die soldate wat gaan oorlog maak het, gesê: Die voorskrif wat die Here aan Moses geopenbaar het, is: 22goud, silwer, brons, yster, tin, lood, 23alles wat nie kan verbrand nie, moet deur julle met vuur gereinig word en daarna met reinigingswater. Alles wat kan verbrand, moet deur julle met reinigingswater gereinig word. 24Op die sewende dag moet julle julle klere was en sal julle rein wees. Daarna mag julle na die kamp toe terugkom. 25Die Here het vir Moses gesê: 26Jy en die priester Eleasar en die familiehoofde van die volk moet al die mense wat gevang is en die diere wat buitgemaak is, tel. 27Dan moet julle die buit verdeel tussen dié wat by die oorlog betrokke was en gaan veg het, en die res van die volk. 28Jy moet van die soldate wat gaan veg het, 'n offergawe vir die Here neem, een op vyf honderd uit die mense, beeste, donkies en kleinvee. 29Die bydrae wat jy uit hulle deel vat, moet jy aan die priester Eleasar gee as 'n offergawe aan die Here. 30Uit die deel van die res van die Israeliete moet jy een op vyftig vat, uit die mense, beeste, donkies, kleinvee en ander diere, en dit aan die Leviete gee wat die diens by die tabernakel van die Here behartig. 31Moses en die priester Eleasar het gedoen soos die Here vir Moses beveel het. 32Die buit wat behoue gebly het uit wat die soldate geroof het, was ses honderd vyf en sewentig duisend stuks kleinvee, 33twee en sewentig duisend beeste, 34een en sestig duisend donkies, 35twee en dertig duisend vrouens wat nog nie met mans gemeenskap gehad het nie. 36Die soldate wat gaan veg het, se deel was drie honderd sewe en dertig duisend vyf honderd stuks kleinvee, 37waarvan ses honderd vyf en sewentig as offergawe aan die Here, 38ses en dertig duisend beeste, waarvan twee en sewentig as offergawe aan die Here, 39dertig duisend vyf honderd donkies waarvan een en sestig as offergawe aan die Here, 40en sestien duisend mense van wie twee en dertig as offergawe aan die Here. 41Moses het die offergawe aan die Here vir die priester Eleasar gegee soos die Here hom beveel het. 42Die ander Israeliete se deel wat deur Moses van dié van die soldate afgesonder is, 43die volk se helfte, was drie honderd sewe en dertig duisend vyf honderd stuks kleinvee, 44ses en dertig duisend beeste, 45dertig duisend vyf honderd donkies en 46sestien duisend mense. 47Van die Israeliete se helfte het Moses een uit elke vyftig persone en diere gevat soos die Here hom beveel het, en dit aan die Leviete gegee wat die diens by die tabernakel van die Here behartig. 48Toe het die bevelvoerders van die leërafdelings, die bevelvoerders oor duisend en oor honderd, na Moses toe gekom 49en gesê: Ons het die soldate wat onder ons bevel was, getel, en daar word nie een vermis nie. 50Daarom bring ons as offergawe aan die Here al die goue goed wat ons gekry het: armkettings en armbande, seëlringe, oorringe en halskettings. Dit moet vir ons versoening doen by die Here. 51Moses en die priester Eleasar het al die goue sierade in ontvangs geneem. 52Al die goud wat hulle van die bevelvoerders ontvang het en wat as offergawe aan die Here gegee is, het amper twee honderd kilogram geweeg. 53Die soldate het hulle buit vir hulleself gehou. 54Moses en die priester Eleasar het die goud by die bevelvoerders in ontvangs geneem en dit na die tent van ontmoeting toe gebring. Dit moes die Here altyd aan Israel herinner.

Numbers 32

Reuben and Gad Settle in Gilead

Num 32:1 The tribes of Reuben and Gad had a lot of livestock. When they saw how suitable the land of Jazer and Gilead was for cattle,

Num 32:2 they went to Moses, Eleazar, and the other leaders of the community and said,

Num 32:3 (3-4) "This region which the LORD has helped the Israelites occupy—the towns of Ataroth, Dibon, Jazer, Nimrah, Heshbon, Elealeh, Sibmah, Nebo, and Beon—is good land for livestock, and we have so much livestock.

Num 32:5 Please give us this land as our property, and do not make us cross the Jordan River and settle there."

Num 32:6 Moses replied, "Do you want to stay here while the other Israelites go to war?

Num 32:7 How dare you try to discourage the people of Israel from crossing the Jordan into the land which the LORD has given them?

Num 32:8 That is what your fathers did when I sent them from Kadesh Barnea to explore the land.

Num 32:9 They went as far as Eshcol Valley and saw the land, but when they returned, they discouraged the people from entering the land which the LORD had given them.

Num 32:10 The LORD became angry that day and made a promise:

Num 32:11 'I swear that because they did not remain loyal to me, none of the men twenty years old or older who came out of Egypt will enter the land that I promised to Abraham, Isaac, and Jacob.'

Num 32:12 This included everyone, except Caleb son of Jephunneh the Kenizzite and Joshua son of Nun; they remained loyal to the LORD.

Num 32:13 The LORD became angry with the people and made them wander in the wilderness forty years until that whole generation that had displeased him was dead.

Num 32:14 And now you have taken your ancestors' place, a new generation of sinful people ready to bring down the fierce anger of the LORD on Israel again.

Num 32:15 If you people of Reuben and Gad refuse to follow him now, he will once again abandon all these people in the wilderness, and you will be responsible for their destruction."

Num 32:16 They approached Moses and said, "First, allow us to build stone enclosures here for our sheep and fortified towns for our dependents.

Num 32:17 Then we will be ready to go with the other Israelites into battle and lead the attack until we have settled them in the land that will be theirs. In the meantime, our dependents can live here in the fortified towns, safe from the people of this land.

Num 32:18 We will not return to our homes until all the other Israelites have taken possession of the land assigned to them.

Num 32:19 We will not take possession of any property among them on the other side of the Jordan, because we have received our share here east of the Jordan."

Num 32:20 Moses answered, "If you really mean what you say, then here in the presence of the LORD get ready to go into battle.

Num 32:21 All your fighting men are to cross the Jordan and under the command of the LORD they are to attack our enemies until the LORD defeats them

Num 32:22 and takes possession of the land. After that, you may return, because you will have fulfilled your obligation to the LORD and to the other Israelites. Then the LORD will acknowledge that this land east of the Jordan is yours.

Num 32:23 But if you do not keep your promise, I warn you that you will be sinning against the LORD. Make no mistake about it; you will be punished for your sin.

Num 32:24 So build your towns and the enclosures for your sheep, but do what you have promised!"

Num 32:25 The men of Gad and Reuben said, "Sir, we will do as you command.

Num 32:26 Our wives and children and our cattle and sheep will remain here in the towns of Gilead.

Num 32:27 But all of us are ready to go into battle under the LORD's command. We will cross the Jordan and fight, just as you have said."

Num 32:28 So Moses gave these commands to Eleazar, Joshua, and the other leaders of Israel:

Num 32:29 "If the men of Gad and Reuben cross the Jordan ready for battle at the LORD's command and if with their help you are able to conquer the land, then give them the land of Gilead as their property.

Num 32:30 But if they do not cross the Jordan and go into battle with you, they are to receive their share of the property in the land of Canaan, as you do."

Num 32:31 The men of Gad and Reuben answered, "Sir, we will do as the LORD has commanded.

Num 32:32 Under his command we will cross into the land of Canaan and go into battle, so that we can retain our property here east of the Jordan."

Num 32:33 So Moses assigned to the tribes of Gad and Reuben and to half the tribe of Manasseh all the territory of King Sihon of the Amorites and King Og of Bashan, including the towns and the country around them.

Num 32:34 The tribe of Gad rebuilt the fortified towns of Dibon, Ataroth, Aroer,

Num 32:35 Atroth Shophan, Jazer, Jogbehah,

Num 32:36 Beth Nimrah, and Beth Haran.

Num 32:37 The tribe of Reuben rebuilt Heshbon, Elealeh, Kiriathaim,

Num 32:38 Nebo, Baal Meon (this name was changed), and Sibmah. They gave new names to the towns they rebuilt.

Num 32:39 The clan of Machir son of Manasseh invaded the land of Gilead, occupied it, and drove out the Amorites who were there.

Num 32:40 So Moses gave Gilead to the clan of Machir, and they lived there.

Num 32:41 Jair, of the tribe of Manasseh, attacked and captured some villages and named them "Villages of Jair."

Num 32:42 Nobah attacked and captured Kenath and its villages, and he renamed it Nobah, after himself.

1Die stamme Ruben en Gad het groot troppe vee besit. Hulle het gesien dat die Jaser- en Gileadstreke goeie veewêreld is, 2en het toe vir Moses, die priester Eleasar en die volksleiers gaan sê: 3Die streke Atarot, Dibon, Jaser, Nimra, Gesbon, Elale, Sibma, Nebo en Baäl-Meon 4wat deur die Here vir die volk Israel verower is, is goeie veewêreld, en ons het baie vee. 5As u dit goedvind, het hulle gesê, gee dan hierdie gebied vir ons as besitting en moet ons nie verplig om deur die Jordaan te trek nie. 6Moses sê toe vir hulle: Moet julle volksgenote gaan veg terwyl julle hier bly? 7Waarom wil julle die ander Israeliete ontmoedig om na die land toe te trek wat die Here vir hulle gegee het? 8So het julle voorvaders ook gemaak toe ek hulle van Kades-Barnea af gestuur het om die land te verken. 9Hulle het tot by Eskolspruit gegaan en die land verken, en toe die Israeliete ontmoedig, sodat hulle nie na die land toe wou gaan wat die Here vir hulle gegee het nie. 10Dié dag het die Here baie kwaad geword omdat hulle Hom nie getrou gevolg het nie. Hy het met 'n eed verklaar dat die manne van twintig jaar en ouer wat uit Egipte getrek het, nie die land sou sien wat Hy met 'n eed aan Abraham, Isak en Jakob beloof het nie. 11Net Kaleb seun van Jefunne, die Kenassiet, en Josua seun van Nun sal die land sien, want hulle het die Here getrou gevolg. 12Die Here was baie kwaad vir Israel en het hulle veertig jaar lank in die woestyn laat rondswerf, totdat die hele geslag omgekom het wat in sy oë verkeerd gedoen het. 13En nou kom julle, sondaarsgeslag, net soos julle voorvaders destyds, en julle maak die Here nog meer kwaad vir Israel. 14As julle nou aan Hom ontrou is, sal Hy die hele volk nog langer in die woestyn laat bly en hulle tot niet laat gaan. 15Hulle het toe vir Moses gesê: Ons sal hier krale bou vir ons kleinvee en stede vir ons gesinne, 16maar ons sal dadelik ons wapens vat en aan die voorpunt van die Israeliete trek totdat ons hulle by hulle bestemming gebring het. Intussen kan ons gesinne in die versterkte stede woon en so sal hulle veilig wees teen die inwoners van die land. 17Ons sal nie na ons huise toe terugkom voordat elke Israeliet sy besitting ontvang het nie. 18Ons wil nie saam met hulle aan die westekant van die Jordaan ons besitting hê nie, ons wil ons besitting hier oos van die Jordaan hê. 19Toe het Moses vir hulle gesê: Doen dit dan. Vat julle wapens en trek op voor die ark van die Here uit om te gaan veg. 20Al julle gewapende manne moet deur die Jordaan gaan en voor die ark van die Here uit optrek, totdat Hy sy vyande verslaan het. 21Eers wanneer die Here die land onderwerp het, mag julle terugkom en sal julle vrygestel wees van julle verpligting teenoor die Here en teenoor Israel. Dan kan julle hierdie gebied uit die hand van die Here ontvang as julle besitting. [22]Maar as julle dit nie doen nie, sondig julle teen die Here en moet julle weet dat julle sonde julle sal agterhaal. [23]Bou gerus die stede vir julle gesinne en die krale vir julle kleinvee, maar doen wat julle gesê het. [24]Die mense van Gad en Ruben het toe vir Moses gesê: Ons sal doen soos u gesê het. [25]Ons vrouens en kinders, ons kleinvee en ons beeste sal hier in die stede van Gilead bly, [26]maar al ons gewapende manne sal voor die ark van die Here uit optrek om te gaan veg soos u gesê het. [27]Moses het toe vir die priester Eleasar, vir Josua seun van Nun en vir die leiers van die stamme van Israel [28]gesê: As die mense van Gad en Ruben, al hulle gewapende manne, saam met julle deur die Jordaan gaan en voor die ark van die Here uit optrek om te gaan veg, en die land aan julle onderwerp is, moet julle die Gileadgebied aan hulle as 'n besitting gee. [29]Maar as hulle gewapende manne nie saam met julle gaan nie, moet hulle tussen julle in Kanaän 'n besitting kry. [30]Die mense van Gad en Ruben het toe geantwoord: Ons sal doen wat die Here vir ons gesê het. [31]Ons gewapende manne sal voor die ark van die Here uit optrek na Kanaän toe, maar ons besitting moet hier oos van die Jordaan wees. [32]Moses het toe die koninkryk van koning Sihon van die Amoriete, en die koninkryk van koning Og van Basan, die hele streek met sy stede en die gebied daar rondom, aan die stamme Gad en Ruben en aan die halwe stam van Manasse seun van Josef gegee. [33]Die mense van Gad het Dibon, Atarot, Aroër, [34]Atrot-Sofan, Jaser, Jogboha, [35]Bet-Nimra en Bet-Haram as vestingstede ingerig en ook krale vir hulle kleinvee gebou. [36]Die mense van Ruben het die volgende stede herbou: Gesbon, Elale, Kirjatajim, [37]Nebo, Baäl-Meon, waarvan die naam verander is, en Sibma. Hulle het die ander stede wat hulle herbou het, se name behou. [38]Die afstammelinge van Makir seun van Manasse het na Gilead toe gegaan, dit verower en die Amoriete wat daar was, uitgedryf. [39]Moses het Gilead toe aan die mense van Makir seun van Manasse gegee, en hulle het daar gaan woon. [40]Jaïr, ook 'n afstammeling van Manasse, het die tentdorpe gaan verower, en hulle tentdorpe van Jaïr genoem. [41]Nobag het Kenat en sy buitedorpe gaan verower, en die plek Nobag genoem, na homself.

Numbers 33

Recounting Israel's Journey

Num 33:1 The following account gives the names of the places where the Israelites set up camp after they left Egypt in their tribes under the leadership of Moses and Aaron.

Num 33:2 At the command of the LORD, Moses wrote down the name of the place each time they set up camp.

Num 33:3 The people of Israel left Egypt on the fifteenth day of the first month of the year, the day after the first Passover. Under the LORD's protection they left the city of Rameses in full view of the Egyptians, Num 33:4 who were burying the first-born sons that the LORD had killed. By doing this, the LORD showed that he was more powerful than the gods of Egypt.

Num 33:5 The people of Israel left Rameses and set up camp at Sukkoth.

Num 33:6 Their next camp was at Etham on the edge of the desert.

Num 33:7 From there they turned back to Pi Hahiroth, east of Baal Zephon, and camped near Migdol.

Num 33:8 They left Pi Hahiroth and passed through the Red Sea into the desert of Shur; after a three days' march they camped at Marah.

Num 33:9 From there they went to Elim, where they camped, because there were twelve springs of water and seventy palm trees there.

Num 33:10 They left Elim and camped near the Gulf of Suez.

Num 33:11 Their next camp was in the desert of Sin.

Num 33:12 Then they camped at Dophkah,

Num 33:13 and after that at Alush.

Num 33:14 Next was Rephidim, where there was no water for them to drink.

Num 33:15 (15-37) From Rephidim to Mount Hor they set up camp at the following places: the Sinai Desert, Kibroth Hattaavah (or "Graves of Craving"), Hazeroth, Rithmah, Rimmon Perez, Libnah, Rissah, Kehelathah, Mount Shepher, Haradah, Makheloth, Tahath, Terah, Mithkah, Hashmonah, Moseroth, Bene Jaakan, Hor Haggidgad, Jotbathah, Abronah, Eziongeber, the wilderness of Zin (that is, Kadesh), and Mount Hor, at the edge of the land of Edom.

Num 33:38 (38-39) At the command of the LORD, Aaron the priest climbed Mount Hor. At the age of 123 he died there on the first day of the fifth month of the fortieth year after the Israelites had left Egypt.

Num 33:40 The king of Arad in southern Canaan heard that the Israelites were coming.

Num 33:41 (41-49) From Mount Hor to the plains of Moab the Israelites set up camp at the following places: Zalmonah, Punon, Oboth, the ruins of Abarim in the territory of Moab, Dibon Gad, Almon Diblathaim, the Abarim Mountains near Mount Nebo, and in the plains of Moab across the Jordan River from Jericho, between Beth Jeshimoth and Acacia Valley.

Drive Out the Inhabitants

Num 33:50 There in the plains of Moab across the Jordan from Jericho the LORD gave Moses

Num 33:51 the following instructions for Israel: "When you cross the Jordan into the land of Canaan,

Num 33:52 you must drive out all the inhabitants of the land. Destroy all their stone and metal idols and all their places of worship.

Num 33:53 Occupy the land and settle in it, because I am giving it to you.

Num 33:54 Divide the land among the various tribes and clans by drawing lots, giving a large piece of property to a large clan and a small one to a small clan.

Num 33:55 But if you do not drive out the inhabitants of the land, those that are left will be as troublesome as splinters in your eyes and thorns in your sides, and they will fight against you.

Num 33:56 If you do not drive them out, I will destroy you, as I planned to destroy them."

Dit is hoe hulle getrek het: [3]Hulle het uit Rameses vertrek op die vyftiende van die eerste maand, die dag ná die paasfees. Deur die magtige dade van die Here het hulle voor die oë van die Egiptenaars weggetrek [4]terwyl die Egiptenaars nog besig was om hulle eersgeborenes, wat deur die Here om die lewe gebring is, te begrawe. Dit is hoe die Here die oordeel oor hulle gode voltrek het. [5]Die Israeliete het van Rameses af weggetrek en by Sukkot kamp opgeslaan. Vernietig al die afgodsbeelde wat hulle vir hulle uitgesny en gegiet het, en verwoes al hulle hoogtes. 53Neem die land in besit en gaan woon daar, want Ek gee die land aan julle as besitting. 54Verdeel die land deur loting volgens julle stamme. Gee meer grond aan 'n groter groep, en minder aan 'n kleiner groep. Elkeen kry sy deel waar die lot dit aanwys. Elke stam moet sy eie grond hê. 55As julle nie al die inwoners van die land verdryf nie, sal dié van hulle wat oorbly, soos splinters in julle oë en soos dorings in julle sye wees. Hulle sal teen julle oorlog maak oor die land waarin julle woon, 56en dan sal Ek aan júlle doen wat Ek aan húlle wou doen!

Numbers 34

Num 34:1 The LORD gave Moses

Num 34:2 the following instructions for the people of Israel: "When you enter Canaan, the land which I am giving you, the borders of your territory will be as follows.

Num 34:3 The southern border will extend from the wilderness of Zin along the border of Edom. It will begin on the east at the southern end of the Dead Sea.

Num 34:4 Then it will turn southward toward Akrabbim Pass and continue on through Zin as far south as Kadesh Barnea. Then it will turn northwest to Hazar Addar and on to Azmon, Num 34:5 where it will turn toward the valley at the border of Egypt and end at the Mediterranean.

Num 34:6 "The western border will be the Mediterranean Sea.

Num 34:7 "The northern border will follow a line from the Mediterranean to Mount Hor Num 34:10 "The eastern border will follow a line from Hazar Enan to Shepham.

Num 34:11 It will then go south to Harbel, east of Ain, and on to the hills on the eastern shore of Lake Galilee,

Num 34:12 then south along the Jordan River to the Dead Sea. "These will be the four borders of your land."

Num 34:13 So Moses said to the Israelites, "This is the land that you will receive by drawing lots, the land that the LORD has assigned to the nine and one-half tribes.

Num 34:14 The tribes of Reuben and Gad and the eastern half of Manasseh have received their property, divided according to their families,

Num 34:15 on the eastern side of the Jordan, opposite Jericho."

1Die Here het vir Moses gesê: 2Jy moet vir die Israeliete sê: Wanneer julle in Kanaän kom, moet die land wat vir julle as besitting aangewys is, die volgende grense hê: 3Julle suidgrens is die grens van die Suidland, van die Sinwoestyn af tot teen Edom. Aan die oostekant begin hierdie grens by die suidelike punt van die Soutsee, 4daarvandaan draai dit suid van Skerpioenpas weg en loop dit deur tot by Sin. Daarvandaan gaan dit suid van Kades-Barnea tot by Gasar-Addar en dan verby tot by Asmon, 5waar dit wegdraai en met Egiptespruit langs loop tot by die see. 6Julle wesgrens is die Groot See. 7Julle noordgrens moet loop van die Groot See af: trek 'n lyn van daar af tot by Horberg in die noorde, 8en van daar af tot by Lebo-Hamat. Daarvandaan loop die grens na Sedad toe 9en verder tot by Sifron en Gasar-Enan. Dit is julle noordgrens. 10Vir julle oosgrens moet julle 'n lyn trek van Gasar-Enan af tot by Sefam. 11Die grens loop dan van Sefam af tot by Ribla, oos van Ajin, en daarvandaan teen die oostelike oewer van die Gennesaretmeer en dan met 12die Jordaan langs tot by die Soutsee. Dit is die grense van julle hele land. 13Moses het vir die Israeliete gesê: Dit is die land wat julle deur loting moet verdeel, die gebied wat volgens bevel van die Here aan die nege en 'n halwe stamme gegee moet word. 14Die families in die stamme Ruben en Gad en die halwe Manassestam het reeds hulle grond gekry. 15Hierdie twee en 'n halwe stamme het hulle grond regoor Jerigo, oos van die Jordaan, gekry. 16Die Here het ook nog vir Moses gesê: 17Die manne wat die land vir julle moet verdeel, is die priester Eleasar en Josua seun van Nun. 18Stel een leier uit elke stam aan om die land te help verdeel. 19Die name van dié manne is: Kaleb seun van Jefunne vir die stam Juda; 20Samuel seun van Ammihud vir die stam Simeon; 21Elidad seun van Kislon vir die stam Benjamin; 22Bukki, seun van Jogli, leier van die stam Dan; 23Ganniël, seun van Efod, leier van die stam Manasse seun van Josef; 24Kemuel, seun van Siftan, leier van die stam Efraim; 25Elisafan, seun van Parnak, leier van die stam Sebulon; 26Paltiël, seun van Assan, leier van die stam Issaskar; 27Agihud, seun van Selomi, leier van die stam Aser; 28Pedael, seun van Ammihud, leier van die stam Naftali. 29Dit is die manne aan wie die Here opdrag gegee het om Kanaän onder die Israeliete te help verdeel.

Numbers 35

Cities for the Levites

Num 35:1 In the plains of Moab across the Jordan from Jericho the LORD said to Moses,

Num 35:2 "Tell the Israelites that from the property they receive they must give the Levites some cities to live in and pasture land around the cities.

Num 35:3 These cities will belong to the Levites, and they will live there. The pasture land will be for their cattle and all their other animals.

Num 35:4 The pasture land is to extend outward from the city walls five hundred yards in each direction,

Num 35:5 so that there is a square area measuring one thousand yards on each side, with the city in the middle.

Num 35:6 You are to give the Levites six cities of refuge to which any of you can escape if you kill someone accidentally. In addition, give them forty-two other cities

Num 35:7 with their pasture land, making a total of forty-eight.

Num 35:8 The number of Levite cities in each tribe is to be determined according to the size of its territory."

Cities of Refuge

Num 35:9 The LORD told Moses

Num 35:10 to say to the people of Israel: "When you cross the Jordan River and enter the land of Canaan,

Num 35:11 you are to choose cities of refuge to which any of you can escape if you kill someone accidentally.

Num 35:12 There you will be safe from the dead person's relative who seeks revenge. No one accused of manslaughter is to be put to death without a public trial.

Num 35:13 Choose six cities,

Num 35:14 three east of the Jordan and three in the land of Canaan.

Num 35:15 These will serve as cities of refuge for Israelites and for foreigners who are temporary or permanent residents. Anyone who kills someone accidentally can escape to one of them.

Num 35:16 (16-18) "If, however, any of you use a weapon of iron or stone or wood to kill someone, you are guilty of murder and are to be put to death.

Num 35:19 The dead person's nearest relative has the responsibility for putting the murderer to death. When he finds you, he is to kill you.

Num 35:20 "If you hate someone and kill him by pushing him down or by throwing something at him

Num 35:21 or by striking him with your fist, you are guilty of murder and are to be put to death. The dead person's nearest relative has the responsibility for putting the murderer to death. When he finds you, he is to kill you.

Num 35:22 "But suppose you accidentally kill someone you do not hate, whether by pushing him down or by throwing something at him.

Num 35:23 Or suppose that, without looking, you throw a stone that kills someone whom you did not intend to hurt and who was not your enemy.

Num 35:24 In such cases the community shall judge in your favor and not in favor of the dead person's relative who is seeking revenge.

Num 35:25 You are guilty only of manslaughter, and the community is to rescue you from the dead person's relative, and they are to return you to the city of refuge to which you had escaped. You must live there until the death of the man who is then High Priest.

Num 35:26 If you leave the city of refuge to which you have escaped

Num 35:27 and if the dead person's relative finds you and kills you, this act of revenge is not murder.

Num 35:28 Any of you guilty of manslaughter must remain in the city of refuge until the death of the High Priest, but after that you may return home.

Num 35:29 These rules apply to you and your descendants wherever you may live.

Num 35:30 "Those accused of murder may be found guilty and put to death only on the evidence of two or more witnesses; the evidence of one witness is not sufficient to support an accusation of murder.

Num 35:31 Murderers must be put to death. They cannot escape this penalty by the payment of money.

Num 35:32 If they have fled to a city of refuge, do not allow them to make a payment in order to return home before the death of the High Priest.

Num 35:33 If you did this, you would defile the land where you are living. Murder defiles the land, and except by the death of the murderer there is no way to perform the ritual of purification for the land where someone has been murdered.

Num 35:34 Do not defile the land where you are living, because I am the LORD and I live among the people of Israel."

NÚMERI 35

1In die Moabsvlakte aan die Jordaan, regoor Jerigo, het die Here vir Moses gesê: 2Sê vir die Israeliete hulle moet in die gebiede wat hulle besit, vir die Leviete stede gee om in te woon, en ook weiveld rondom die stede. 3Dan sal hulle stede hê om in te woon, en ook weivelde vir hulle beeste, hulle kleinvee en ander diere. 4Julle moet 'n strook van ten minste vier honderd en vyftig meter wyd buite die stadsmuur vir die Leviete as weiveld gee. 5Meet van die buitekant van die stad af aan die oostekant nege honderd meter, aan die suidekant nege honderd meter, aan die westekant nege honderd meter, en aan die noordekant nege honderd meter, met die stad in die middel. Dit sal hulle weiveld rondom die stede wees. 6Ses van die stede wat julle vir die Leviete gee, moet asielstede wees waarheen iemand wat 'n ander se dood veroorsaak het, kan vlug. Afgesien hiervan moet julle vir die Leviete nog twee en veertig stede gee. 7Julle moet vir hulle altesaam ag en veertig stede met hulle weivelde gee. 8Die stede wat julle in die gebied van elke stam aan die Leviete gee, moet volgens die grootte van die gebied wees wat elke stam gekry het: meer stede van die groter stamme en minder van die kleiner stamme. 9Die Here het vir Moses gesê: 10Sê vir die Israeliete: Wanneer julle deur die Jordaan na Kanaän toe trek, 11moet julle stede aanwys wat asielstede vir julle kan wees waarheen 'n persoon kan vlug wat onopsetlik die dood van 'n ander veroorsaak het. 12Dit moet vir julle plekke wees waar julle veilig is teen die wraak van 'n bloedverwant van die oorledene, sodat iemand wat 'n ander se dood veroorsaak het, nie hoef te sterf voordat hy sy saak voor die bevoegde vergadering gelê het nie. 13Die ses stede wat julle gee, sal vir julle asielstede wees. 14Julle moet drie asielstede oos van die Jordaan en drie in Kanaän beskikbaar stel. 15Die ses stede moet plekke van asiel wees vir Israeliete sowel as vir vreemdelinge en ander uitlanders tussen julle, sodat elkeen wat onopsetlik die dood van 'n ander veroorsaak het, daarheen kan vlug. 16As iemand 'n ander met 'n stuk yster slaan, sodat hy sterf, is hy 'n moordenaar en moet hy beslis doodgemaak word. 17As iemand in sy hand 'n klip het wat groot genoeg is om 'n mens mee dood te maak, en hy slaan 'n ander daarmee dat hy sterf, is hy 'n moordenaar en moet hy beslis doodgemaak word. 18As iemand in sy hand 'n stuk hout het wat groot genoeg is om 'n mens mee dood te maak, en hy slaan 'n ander dat hy sterf, is hy 'n moordenaar en moet hy beslis doodgemaak word. 19'n Bloedverwant van die oorledene moet die dood wreek en die moordenaar doodmaak waar hy hom ook al kry. 20As iemand 'n ander uit haat stamp of hom doelbewus met iets gooi, sodat hy sterf 21of hom uit vyandskap met die vuis slaan, sodat hy sterf, moet so iemand doodgemaak word; hy is 'n moordenaar. 'n Bloedverwant van die oorledene moet die dood wreek en die moordenaar doodmaak waar hy hom ook al kry. 22Maar as iemand sonder opset en sonder vyandskap 'n ander stamp of hom per ongeluk raakgooi 23of as iemand sonder dat hy kyk 'n klip gooi wat die dood kan veroorsaak, en dit 'n ander tref, sodat hy sterf, en hy wat gegooi het, het dit nie uit vyandskap of met verkeerde bedoelings gedoen nie, 24moet die bevoegde vergadering volgens hierdie bepalings uitspraak lewer tussen hom wat die dood veroorsaak het en die bloedverwant wat die dood wil wreek. 25Die vergadering moet die beskuldigde bevry uit die mag van die bloedverwant en hom terugstuur na die asielstad toe waarheen hy gevlug het. Dáár moet hy bly totdat die hoëpriester, die man wat met gewyde olie gesalf is, gesterf het. 26Maar as die een wat die dood veroorsaak het, hom waag buite die gebied van die asielstad waarheen hy gevlug het, 27en die bloedverwant wat die dood wil wreek, loop hom raak, mag die bloedverwant hom doodmaak sonder om skuldig te wees aan moord. 28Die man wat die dood veroorsaak het, moet in die asielstad bly tot die dood van die hoëpriester, en eers ná die dood van die hoëpriester kan hy na sy eie grond toe teruggaan. 29Dit is 'n vaste voorskrif vir julle en vir julle nageslag, waar julle ook al mag woon. 30Enigeen wat die dood van 'n ander veroorsaak, mag slegs as moordenaar doodgemaak word op grond van die getuienis van meer as een persoon. Een getuie is nie genoeg om iemand met die dood te straf nie. 31Julle mag nie loskoopgeld aanneem vir die lewe van 'n moordenaar wat die dood skuldig is nie. Hy moet beslis doodgemaak word. 32Julle mag ook nie loskoopgeld aanneem vir iemand wat na sy asielstad toe gevlug het en voor die dood van die hoëpriester na sy grond toe teruggekeer het nie. 33Julle mag die land waarin julle woon, nie onrein maak nie, want bloedvergieting verontreinig die land en daar kan alleen deur die dood van hom wat die bloed vergiet het, versoening gedoen word vir die land waarin die bloed vergiet is. 34Julle moenie die land waarin julle bly en waar Ek teenwoordig is, onrein maak nie, want Ek, die Here, is teenwoordig by die Israeliete.

Numbers 36

Marriage of Female Heirs

Num 36:1 The heads of the families in the clan of Gilead, the son of Machir and grandson of Manasseh son of Joseph, went to Moses and the other leaders.

Num 36:2 They said, "The LORD commanded you to distribute the land to the people of Israel by drawing lots. He also commanded you to give the property of our relative Zelophehad to his daughters.

Num 36:3 But remember, if they marry men of another tribe, their property will then belong to that tribe, and the total allotted to us will be reduced.

Num 36:4 In the Year of Restoration, when all property that has been sold is restored to its original owners, the property of Zelophehad's daughters will be permanently added to the tribe into which they marry and will be lost to our tribe."

Num 36:5 So Moses gave the people of Israel the following command from the LORD. He said, "What the tribe of Manasseh says is right, Num 36:6 and so the LORD says that the daughters of Zelophehad are free to marry anyone they wish but only within their own tribe.

Num 36:7 The property of every Israelite will remain attached to his tribe.

Num 36:8 Every woman who inherits property in an Israelite tribe must marry a man belonging to that tribe. In this way all Israelites will inherit the property of their ancestors,

Num 36:9 and the property will not pass from one tribe to another. Each tribe will continue to possess its own property."

Num 36:10 (10-11) So Mahlah, Tirzah, Hoglah, Milcah, and Noah, the daughters of Zelophehad, did as the LORD had commanded Moses, and they married their cousins.

Num 36:12 They married within the clans of the tribe of Manasseh son of Joseph, and their property remained in their father's tribe.

Num 36:13 These are the rules and regulations that the LORD gave the Israelites through Moses in the plains of Moab across the Jordan River from Jericho.

Deuteronomy 1

The Command to Leave Horeb

Deu 1:1 In this book are the words that Moses spoke to the people of Israel when they were in the wilderness east of the Jordan River. They were in the Jordan Valley near Suph, between the town of Paran on one side and the towns of Tophel, Laban, Hazeroth, and Dizahab on the other.

Deu 1:2 (It takes eleven days to travel from Mount Sinai to Kadesh Barnea by way of the hill country of Edom.)

Deu 1:3 On the first day of the eleventh month of the fortieth year after they had left Egypt, Moses told the people everything the LORD had commanded him to tell them.

Deu 1:4 This was after the LORD had defeated King Sihon of the Amorites, who ruled in the town of Heshbon, and King Og of Bashan, who ruled in the towns of Ashtaroth and Edrei.

Deu 1:5 It was while the people were east of the Jordan in the territory of Moab that Moses began to explain God's laws and teachings. He said, Deu 1:6 "When we were at Mount Sinai, the LORD our God said to us, 'You have stayed long enough at this mountain.

Deu 1:7 Break camp and move on. Go to the hill country of the Amorites and to all the surrounding regions—to the Jordan Valley, to the hill country and the lowlands, to the southern region, and to the Mediterranean coast. Go to the land of Canaan and on beyond the Lebanon Mountains as far as the great Euphrates River.

Deu 1:8 All of this is the land which I, the LORD, promised to give to your ancestors, Abraham, Isaac, and Jacob, and to their descendants. Go and occupy it.' "

Leaders Appointed

Deu 1:9 Moses said to the people, "While we were still at Mount Sinai, I told you, 'The responsibility for leading you is too much for me. I can't do it alone.

Deu 1:10 The LORD your God has made you as numerous as the stars in the sky.

Deu 1:11 May the LORD, the God of your ancestors, make you increase a thousand times more and make you prosperous, as he promised!

Deu 1:12 But how can I alone bear the heavy responsibility for settling your disputes?

Deu 1:13 Choose some wise, understanding, and experienced men from each tribe, and I will put them in charge of you.'

Deu 1:14 And you agreed that this was a good thing to do.

Deu 1:15 So I took the wise and experienced leaders you chose from your tribes, and I placed them in charge of you. Some were responsible for a thousand people, some for a hundred, some for fifty, and some for ten. I also appointed other officials throughout the tribes.

Deu 1:16 "At that time I instructed them, 'Listen to the disputes that come up among your people. Judge every dispute fairly, whether it concerns only your own people or involves foreigners who live among you.

Deu 1:17 Show no partiality in your decisions; judge everyone on the same basis, no matter who they are. Do not be afraid of anyone, for the decisions you make come from God. If any case is too difficult for you, bring it to me, and I will decide it.'

Deu 1:18 At the same time I gave you instructions for everything else you were to do.

Israel's Refusal to Enter the Land

Deu 1:19 "We did what the LORD our God commanded us. We left Mount Sinai and went through that vast and fearful desert on the way to the hill country of the Amorites. When we reached Kadesh Barnea,

Deu 1:20 (20-21) I told you, 'You have now come to the hill country of the Amorites, which the LORD our God, the God of our ancestors, is giving us. Look, there it is. Go and occupy it as he commanded. Do not hesitate or be afraid.'

Deu 1:22 "But you came to me and said, 'Let's send men ahead of us to spy out the land, so that they can tell us the best route to take and what kind of cities are there.'

Deu 1:23 "That seemed like a good thing to do, so I selected twelve men, one from each tribe.

Deu 1:24 They went into the hill country as far as Eshcol Valley and explored it.

Deu 1:25 They brought us back some fruit they found there, and reported that the land which the LORD our God was giving us was very fertile.

Deu 1:26 "But you rebelled against the command of the LORD your God, and you would not enter the land.

Deu 1:27 You grumbled to one another: 'The LORD hates us. He brought us out of Egypt just to hand us over to these Amorites, so that they could kill us.

Deu 1:28 Why should we go there? We are afraid. The men we sent tell us that the people there are stronger and taller than we are, and that they live in cities with walls that reach the sky. They saw giants there!'

Deu 1:29 "But I told you, 'Don't be afraid of those people.

Deu 1:30 The LORD your God will lead you, and he will fight for you, just as you saw him do in Egypt

Deu 1:31 and in the desert. You saw how he brought you safely all the way to this place, just as a father would carry his son.'

Deu 1:32 But in spite of what I said, you still would not trust the LORD,

Deu 1:33 even though he always went ahead of you to find a place for you to camp. To show you the way, he went in front of you in a pillar of fire by night and in a pillar of cloud by day.

The Penalty for Israel's Rebellion

Deu 1:34 "The LORD heard your complaints and became angry, and so he solemnly declared,

Deu 1:35 'Not one of you from this evil generation will enter the fertile land that I promised to give your ancestors.

Deu 1:36 Only Caleb son of Jephunneh will enter it. He has remained faithful to me, and I will give him and his descendants the land that he has explored.'

Deu 1:37 Because of you the LORD also became angry with me and said, 'Not even you, Moses, will enter the land.

Deu 1:38 But strengthen the determination of your helper, Joshua son of Nun. He will lead Israel to occupy the land.'

Deu 1:39 "Then the LORD said to all of us, 'Your children, who are still too young to know right from wrong, will enter the land—the children you said would be seized by your enemies. I will give the land to them, and they will occupy it.

Deu 1:40 But as for you people, turn around and go back into the desert on the road to the Gulf of Aqaba.'

Deu 1:41 "You replied, 'Moses, we have sinned against the LORD. But now we will attack, just as the LORD our God commanded us.' Then each one of you got ready to fight, thinking it would be easy to invade the hill country.

Deu 1:42 "But the LORD said to me, 'Warn them not to attack, for I will not be with them, and their enemies will defeat them.'

Deu 1:43 I told you what the LORD had said, but you paid no attention. You rebelled against him, and in your pride you marched into the hill country.

Deu 1:44 Then the Amorites who lived in those hills came out against you like a swarm of bees. They chased you as far as Hormah and defeated you there in the hill country of Edom.

Deu 1:45 So you cried out to the LORD for help, but he would not listen to you or pay any attention to you.

Deu 1:46 "So then, after we had stayed at Kadesh for a long time,

DEUTERONÓMIUM 1

1In hierdie boek word die woorde van Moses weergegee. Hy het al die Israeliete toegespreek in die woestynvlakte oos van die Jordaan, oorkant Suf, in die omgewing van Paran, Tofel, Laban, Gaserot en Di-Sahab. 2Dit vat elf dae om met die Seïrbergpad van Horeb af by Kades-Barnea te kom. 3Op die eerste van die elfde maand van die veertigste jaar na die uittog uit Egipte het Moses vir die Israeliete alles gesê wat die Here hom oor hulle beveel het. 4Dit was nadat Moses vir Sihon en Og verslaan het. Koning Sihon van die Amoriete het in Gesbon gewoon, en koning Og van Basan in Astarot by Edreï. 5Dit was oos van die Jordaan, in Moab, dat Moses die wet begin verduidelik het. Hy het gesê: 6Die Here ons God het by Horeb vir ons gesê: Julle het nou lank genoeg by hierdie berg gebly. 7Breek nou kamp af en trek die Bergwêreld van die Amoriete in en ook die gebied van die mense wat saam met die Amoriete in die land woon: die Jordaanvallei, die Bergwêreld, die Laeveld, die Suidland en die Kusvlakte. Dit is die hele Kanaän en die Libanon tot by die groot rivier, die Eufraat. 8Ek stel hierdie land tot julle beskikking. Trek in en neem dit in besit. Ek, die Here, het met 'n eed beloof om dit aan julle voorvaders Abraham, Isak en Jakob te gee en aan hulle nageslag.' 9Toe julle van Horeb af weg is, het ek vir julle gesê: Ek kan nie alleen al die verantwoordelikheid vir julle dra nie. 10Die Here julle God het julle baie laat word, en nou is julle net so baie soos die sterre aan die hemel. 11Mag die Here die God van julle voorvaders julle nog duisend maal meer maak en vir julle 'n groot nageslag gee soos Hy julle beloof het. 12Hoe kan ek alleen julle probleme oplos, die verantwoordelikheid vir julle dra en julle hofsake verhoor? 13Bring uit julle stamme verstandige manne, manne met insig, manne van aansien, sodat ek hulle as hoofde oor julle kan aanstel.' 14Toe het julle vir my gesê: Wat u wil doen, is reg,' 15en ek het die leiers uit julle stamme aanvaar, verstandige manne, manne van aansien, en hulle aangestel as hoofde oor julle, leiers van duisend, van honderd, van vyftig en van tien: amptenare vir julle stamme. 16In dieselfde tyd het ek ook julle regters beveel: Verhoor die sake wat daar tussen julle volksgenote kom en lewer regverdige uitsprake, of dit nou is tussen volksgenoot en volksgenoot of tussen volksgenoot en vreemdeling. 17Moenie partydig wees as julle 'n saak verhoor nie, luister na klein en groot. Moenie vir mense bang wees nie. Wie regspreek, is in diens van God. Sake wat vir julle te moeilik is, moet julle na my toe bring en ek sal hulle verhoor.' 18Ek het julle destyds alles beveel wat julle moet doen. 19Ons het van Horeb af weggetrek en ons het deur daardie groot woestyn met al sy gevare getrek, daardie woestyn wat julle self gesien het. Ons het met die pad na die Bergwêreld van die Amoriete toe getrek soos die Here ons God ons beveel het, en ons het by Kades-Barnea uitgekom. 20Toe het ek vir julle gesê: Ons het nou die Bergwêreld van die Amoriete bereik. Die Here ons God gee dit vir ons. 21Kyk, die Here julle God stel die land tot julle beskikking. Trek in, neem dit in besit soos die Here die God van julle voorvaders julle beloof het. Moenie bang wees nie, moenie huiwer nie.' 22Julle almal het toe na my toe gekom en gevra ons moet manne voor ons uit stuur dat hulle die land vir ons kan verken en ons kan kom inlig oor die pad wat ons moet vat en oor die stede waarheen ons op pad is. 23Ek het gedink dis 'n goeie plan en ek het twaalf man uit julle gekies, een uit elke stam. 24Hulle het die Bergwêreld ingegaan en by die Eskolvallei gekom en dit verken. 25Hulle het van die vrugte van die land na ons toe gebring en vir ons kom sê: Die Here ons God gee ons 'n goeie land.' 26Maar julle wou nie optrek nie. Julle het julle verset teen die opdrag van die Here julle God. 27Julle het in julle tente bly sit en mor, en julle het gesê: Omdat die Here ons haat, het Hy ons uit. Egipte laat trek om ons aan die Amoriete oor te gee sodat hulle ons kan uitroei. 28Waarheen kan ons nou gaan? Ons broers het ons moed gebreek toe hulle gesê het: Daar woon 'n volk wat groter en sterker is as ons. Hulle het groot stede en sterk, hoë vestings. Ons het ook die Enakiete, die reuse, daar gesien.' 29Toe het ek vir julle gesê: Moenie bang wees nie, moenie vir hulle skrik nie. 30Die Here julle God gaan voor julle uit en Hy sal vir julle veg net soos Hy in Egipte voor julle eie oë alles vir julle gedoen het. 31Julle het in die woestyn ondervind hoe die Here julle God julle die hele pad waarlangs julle tot hier toe gekom het, gedra het soos 'n man sy seun dra.' 32Maar tog het julle nie julle vertroue gestel in die Here julle God 33wat op die pad voor julle vooruit gegaan het om kampplekke vir julle uit te soek nie. Snags het Hy vir julle julle pad met vuur aangewys en bedags met 'n wolkkolom. 34Toe die Here hoor wat julle sê, het sy toorn ontvlam en het Hy 'n eed afgelê: 35Nie een van hierdie slegte geslag sal die goeie land sien wat Ek, die Here, hulle voorvaders met 'n eed beloof het om aan hulle te gee nie. 36Net Kaleb seun van Jefunne sal die land sien, en aan hom en sy nageslag sal Ek die grond gee waarop hy geloop het, want hy het die Here getrou gevolg.' 37Dit was oor julle dat die Here vir my kwaad geword het en gesê het: Ook jý sal nie die land ingaan nie. 38Jou assistent, Josua seun van Nun, hý sal daar ingaan. Moedig hom aan, want dit is hý wat Israel die land in besit sal laat neem. 39Julle babatjies van wie julle gesê het hulle sal buitgemaak word, en julle kleuters wat nou nog niks weet nie, hulle sal die land ingaan. Ek gee dit vir hulle en hulle sal dit in besit neem. 40Julle moet nou omdraai en die woestyn in trek, al met die pad na die Rietsee toe.' 41Toe het julle uitgeroep: Ons het teen die Here gesondig! Ons wil optrek en gaan veg soos die Here ons God ons beveel het.' Julle het julle wapens gegryp en gedink dis kinderspeletjies om die Bergwêreld te gaan verower. 42Maar die Here het vir my gesê: Sê vir hulle hulle moenie optrek om te gaan oorlog maak nie, want Ek is nie by hulle nie. Hulle sal nie hulle vyande verslaan nie.' 43Ek het dit vir julle gesê, maar julle het nie geluister nie en in opstand gekom teen die opdrag van die Here. Julle was moedswillig en het na die Bergwêreld toe getrek, 44maar die Amoriete wat in daardie gebied woon, het teen julle opgeruk en julle verjaag soos 'n swerm bye dit sou doen en julle van Seïr af tot by Gorma uitmekaar gejaag. 45Toe het dit julle berou dat julle dit gedoen het en julle het julle nood by die Here kom kla, maar Hy het nie na julle geluister nie en Hom nie aan julle gesteur nie. 46So het dit gekom dat julle so lank by Kades gebly het.

Deuteronomy 2

The Wilderness Years

Deu 2:1 we finally turned and went into the desert, on the road to the Gulf of Aqaba, as the LORD had commanded, and we spent a long time wandering about in the hill country of Edom.

Deu 2:2 "Then the LORD told me

Deu 2:3 that we had spent enough time wandering about in those hills and that we should go north.

Deu 2:4 He told me to give you the following instructions 'You are about to go through the hill country of Edom, the territory of your distant relatives, the descendants of Esau. They will be afraid of you,

Deu 2:5 but you must not start a war with them, because I am not going to give you so much as a square foot of their land. I have given Edom to Esau's descendants.

Deu 2:6 You may buy food and water from them.'

Deu 2:7 "Remember how the LORD your God has blessed you in everything that you have done. He has taken care of you as you wandered through this vast desert. He has been with you these forty years, and you have had everything you needed.

Deu 2:8 "So we moved on and left the road that goes from the towns of Elath and Eziongeber to the Dead Sea, and we turned northeast toward Moab.

Deu 2:9 The LORD said to me, 'Don't trouble the people of Moab, the descendants of Lot, or start a war against them. I have given them the city of Ar, and I am not going to give you any of their land.' " Deu 2:10 (A mighty race of giants called the Emim used to live in Ar. They were as tall as the Anakim, another race of giants.

Deu 2:11 Like the Anakim they were also known as Rephaim; but the Moabites called them Emim.

Deu 2:12 The Horites used to live in Edom, but the descendants of Esau chased them out, destroyed their nation, and settled there themselves, just as the Israelites later chased their enemies out of the land that the LORD gave them.)

Deu 2:13 "Then we crossed the Zered River as the LORD told us to do.

Deu 2:14 This was thirty-eight years after we had left Kadesh Barnea. All the fighting men of that generation had died, as the LORD had said they would.

Deu 2:15 The LORD kept on opposing them until he had destroyed them all.

Deu 2:16 "After they had all died,

Deu 2:17 the LORD said to us,

Deu 2:18 'Today you are to pass through the territory of Moab by way of Ar.

Deu 2:19 You will then be near the land of the Ammonites, the descendants of Lot. Don't trouble them or start a war against them, because I am not going to give you any of the land that I have given them.' "

Deu 2:20 (This territory is also known as the land of the Rephaim, the name of the people who used to live there; the Ammonites called them Zamzummim.

Deu 2:21 They were as tall as the Anakim. There were many of them, and they were a mighty race. But the LORD destroyed them, so that the Ammonites took over their land and settled there.

Deu 2:22 The LORD had done the same thing for the Edomites, the descendants of Esau, who live in the hill country of Edom. He destroyed the Horites, so that the Edomites took over their land and settled there, where they still live.

Deu 2:23 The land along the Mediterranean coast had been settled by people from the island of Crete. They had destroyed the Avvim, the original inhabitants, and had taken over all their land as far south as the city of Gaza.)

Deu 2:24 "After we had passed through Moab, the LORD told us, 'Now, start out and cross the Arnon River. I am placing in your power Sihon, the Amorite king of Heshbon, along with his land. Attack him, and begin occupying his land.

Deu 2:25 From today on I will make people everywhere afraid of you. Everyone will tremble with fear at the mention of your name.'

The Defeat of King Sihon

Deu 2:26 "Then I sent messengers from the desert of Kedemoth to King Sihon of Heshbon with the following offer of peace:

Deu 2:27 'Let us pass through your country. We will go straight through and not leave the road.

Deu 2:28 We will pay for the food we eat and the water we drink. All we want to do is to pass through your country,

Deu 2:29 until we cross the Jordan River into the land that the LORD our God is giving us. The descendants of Esau, who live in Edom, and the Moabites, who live in Ar, allowed us to pass through their territory.'

Deu 2:30 "But King Sihon would not let us pass through his country. The LORD your God had made him stubborn and rebellious, so that we could defeat him and take his territory, which we still occupy.

Deu 2:31 "Then the LORD said to me, 'Look, I have made King Sihon and his land helpless before you; take his land and occupy it.'

Deu 2:32 Sihon came out with all his men to fight us near the town of Jahaz, Deu 2:33 but the LORD our God put him in our power, and we killed him, his sons, and all his men.

Deu 2:34 At the same time we captured and destroyed every town, and put everyone to death, men, women, and children. We left no survivors.

Deu 2:35 We took the livestock and plundered the towns.

Deu 2:36 The LORD our God let us capture all the towns from Aroer, on the edge of the Arnon Valley, and the city in the middle of that valley, all the way to Gilead. No town had walls too strong for us.

Deu 2:37 But we did not go near the territory of the Ammonites or to the banks of the Jabbok River or to the towns of the hill country or to any other place where the LORD our God had commanded us not to go.

DEUTERONÓMIUM 2

1Later het ons die woestyn ingetrek, al met die Rietseepad soos die Here my beveel het. Dit het ons lank gevat om óm Seïrberg te trek. 2Toe het die Here vir my gesê: 3Julle het nou ver genoeg om hierdie berg getrek. Draai nou noord 4en sê vir die volk: Julle staan op die punt om deur die gebied te trek van julle broers, die nageslag van Esau wat in Seïr woon. Hulle is bang vir julle, maar julle moet julle bedwing. 5Moenie oorlog teen hulle maak nie, want Ek sal nie van hulle grond vir julle gee nie, nie eers 'n handbreedte nie, want Ek het Seïrberg vir Esau gegee as besitting. 6Die kos en water wat julle nodig het, moet julle by hulle koop.' 7Die Here julle God het julle voorspoedig gemaak in alles wat julle gedoen het. Hy het sy oog oor julle gehou in hierdie groot woestyn, en in hierdie hele veertig jaar was die Here julle God by julle en het julle niks kortgekom nie. 8Ons het toe verbygetrek by ons broers, die nageslag van Esau wat in Seïr woon, en ons het uit die Woestynpad weggedraai by Elat en Esjon-Geber en met die pad na die Moabwoestyn toe verbygetrek. 9Toe het die Here vir my gesê: Moenie die Moabiete aanval en teen hulle oorlog maak nie, want Ek sal nie van hulle grond vir jou as besitting gee nie. Ek het Ar vir die nageslag van Lot gegee as besitting.' 10Die Emiete het voorheen in die gebied gewoon. Hulle was 'n groot en sterk volk. Net soos die Enakiete was hulle groot mense. 11Die Moabiete het hulle Emiete genoem, maar net soos die Enakiete is hulle as Refaïete beskou. 12Die Goriete het vroeër in Seïr gewoon, maar die nageslag van Esau het hulle verslaan en uitgeroei en in hulle gebied gaan woon soos die Israeliete later met hulle vyande gedoen het in die land wat die Here vir hulle as besitting gegee het. 13Die Here het verder gesê: Trek nou deur Seredspruit,' en ons het deurgetrek. 14Vandat ons van Kades-Barnea af weg is tot ons deur Seredspruit getrek het, het ag en dertig jaar verloop. Teen daardie tyd was die weerbare manne uit die ouer geslag nie meer tussen ons nie, soos die Here destyds vir hulle met 'n eed aangekondig het. 15Sy hand was teen hulle en Hy het hulle almal laat omkom. 16Toe al daardie weerbare manne onder die volk uitgesterf het, 17het die Here vir my gesê: 18Jy staan op die punt om deur die Moabiete se gebied by Ar te trek, 19en jy sal naby die grens van die Ammoniete kom. Moet hulle nie aanval en teen hulle oorlog maak nie, want Ek sal nie van hulle grond vir jou as besitting gee nie. Ek het dit vir die nageslag van Lot gegee as besitting. 20Die gebied is beskou as die land van die Refaïete, want hulle het vroeër hier gewoon. Die Ammoniete het hulle Samsummiete genoem. 21Hulle was 'n groot en sterk volk, net sulke groot mense as die Enakiete. Die Here het die Samsummiete voor die Ammoniete uit verdryf, en die

Ammoniete het hulle verslaan en in hulle gebied gaan woon. [22]Die Here het dieselfde gedoen vir die nageslag van Esau wat in Seïr woon. Die Here het die Goriete voor hulle uit verdryf, en toe het die Edomiete hulle verslaan en in hulle gebied gaan woon. Die Edomiete woon nou nog daar. [23]Die Awwiete wat in dorpies tot by Gasa woon, is verdryf deur mense wat uit Kaftor gekom het en in die Awwiete se gebied gaan woon het. [24]Die Here het vir my gesê: Breek kamp af en trek deur die Arnonkloof. Ek gee die Amoriet, koning Sihon van Gesbon, en sy land in jou mag. Begin nou, neem sy land in besit, maak oorlog teen hom. [25]Vandag bring Ek skrik en vrees vir jou oor al die volke op die aarde. Wanneer hulle hoor wat jy doen, sal hulle bewe en bang wees vir jou.' [26]Uit die Kedemotwoestyn het ek boodskappers na koning Sihon van Gesbon toe gestuur. Ek het 'n vredesvoorstel gemaak en laat weet: [27]Laat my toe om met die pad deur jou land te trek. Ek sal al met die pad langs trek en nie links of regs uitdraai nie. [28]Verkoop aan my die kos en water wat ek nodig het. Ek wil net deurtrek [29]tot waar ek deur die Jordaanrivier gaan na die land toe wat die Here ons God vir ons gee. So het die Edomiete van Seïr en die Moabiete van Ar my ook laat doen.' [30]Maar koning Sihon van Gesbon het geweier om ons deur sy gebied te laat trek, want die Here jou God het hom onversetlik gemaak. Die Here het hom koppig gemaak om hom in jou mag oor te gee. Hy is nou nog in jou mag. [31]Die Here het verder vir my gesê: Let op, Ek gee Sihon en sy land van nou af in jou mag oor. Begin nou, verower sy land.' [32]Toe Sihon en sy hele leër optrek om by Jahas teen ons te veg, [33]het die Here ons God hulle in ons mag oorgegee, en ons het hom en sy seuns en sy hele volk verslaan. [34]In daardie tyd het ons al sy stede verower en verwoes. Van hulle mans, vrouens en kinders het ons niemand laat vrykom nie. [35]Ons het net die vee en ook wat daar te buit was in die stede wat deur ons verower is, vir ons gevat. [36]Van Aroër op die Arnonoewer en die stad in die Arnonkloof af tot by Gilead was daar geen stad te sterk vir ons nie. Die Here ons God het hulle almal in ons mag oorgegee. [37]Soos die Here ons God ons beveel het, het ons nie die land van die Ammoniete binnegegaan nie: dit is die gebied aan Jabbokspruit en die stede in die bergagtige gebied.

Deuteronomy 3

The Defeat of King Og

Deu 3:1 "Next, we moved north toward the region of Bashan, and King Og came out with all his men to fight us near the town of Edrei.

Deu 3:2 But the LORD said to me, 'Don't be afraid of him. I am going to give him, his men, and all his territory to you. Do the same thing to him that you did to Sihon the Amorite king who ruled in Heshbon.'

Deu 3:3 "So the LORD also placed King Og and his people in our power, and we slaughtered them all.

Deu 3:4 At the same time we captured all his towns—there was not one that we did not take. In all we captured sixty towns—the whole region of Argob, where King Og of Bashan ruled.

Deu 3:5 All these towns were fortified with high walls, gates, and bars to lock the gates, and there were also many villages without walls.

Deu 3:6 We destroyed all the towns and put to death all the men, women, and children, just as we did in the towns that belonged to King Sihon of Heshbon.

Deu 3:7 We took the livestock and plundered the towns.

Deu 3:8 "At that time we took from those two Amorite kings the land east of the Jordan River, from the Arnon River to Mount Hermon.

Deu 3:9 (Mount Hermon is called Sirion by the Sidonians, and Senir by the Amorites.)

Deu 3:10 We took all the territory of King Og of Bashan: the cities on the plateau, the regions of Gilead and of Bashan, as far east as the towns of Salecah and Edrei."

Deu 3:11 (King Og was the last of the Rephaim. His coffin, made of stone, was six feet wide and almost fourteen feet long, according to standard measurements. It can still be seen in the Ammonite city of Rabbah.)

Deu 3:12 "When we took possession of the land, I assigned to the tribes of Reuben and Gad the territory north of the town of Aroer near the Arnon River and part of the hill country of Gilead, along with its towns.

Deu 3:13 To half the tribe of Manasseh I assigned the rest of Gilead and also all of Bashan, where Og had ruled, that is, the entire Argob region." (Bashan was known as the land of the Rephaim.

Deu 3:14 Jair, from the tribe of Manasseh, took the entire region of Argob, that is, Bashan, as far as the border of Geshur and Maacah. He named the villages after himself, and they are still known as the villages of Jair.)

Deu 3:15 "I assigned Gilead to the clan of Machir of the tribe of Manasseh.

Deu 3:16 And to the tribes of Reuben and Gad I assigned the territory from Gilead to the Arnon River. The middle of the river was their southern boundary, and their northern boundary was the Jabbok River, part of which formed the Ammonite border.

Deu 3:17 On the west their territory extended to the Jordan River, from Lake Galilee in the north down to the Dead Sea in the south and to the foot of Mount Pisgah on the east.

Deu 3:18 "At the same time, I gave them the following instructions: 'The LORD our God has given you this land east of the Jordan to occupy. Now arm your fighting men and send them across the Jordan ahead of the other tribes of Israel, to help them occupy their land.

Deu 3:19 Only your wives, children, and livestock—I know you have a lot of livestock—will remain behind in the towns that I have assigned to you.

Deu 3:20 Help the other Israelites until they occupy the land that the LORD is giving them west of the Jordan and until the LORD lets them live there in peace, as he has already done here for you. After that, you may return to this land that I have assigned to you.'

Deu 3:21 "Then I instructed Joshua: 'You have seen all that the LORD your God did to those two kings, Sihon and Og; and he will do the same thing to everyone else whose land you invade.

Deu 3:22 Don't be afraid of them, for the LORD your God will fight for you.'

Moses Forbidden to Enter the Land

Deu 3:23 "At that time I earnestly prayed,

Deu 3:24 'Sovereign LORD, I know that you have shown me only the beginning of the great and wonderful things you are going to do. There is no god in heaven or on earth who can do the mighty things that you have done!

Deu 3:25 Let me cross the Jordan River, LORD, and see the fertile land on the other side, the beautiful hill country and the Lebanon Mountains.'

Deu 3:26 "But because of you people the LORD was angry with me and would not listen. Instead, he said, 'That's enough! Don't mention this again!

Deu 3:27 Go to the peak of Mount Pisgah and look to the north and to the south, to the east and to the west. Look carefully at what you see, because you will never go across the Jordan.

Deu 3:28 Give Joshua his instructions. Strengthen his determination, because he will lead the people across to occupy the land that you see.'

Deu 3:29 "So we remained in the valley opposite the town of Bethpeor."

DEUTERONÓMIUM 3

1Ons het weggedraai met die pad na Basan toe, en koning Og van Basan het met sy hele leër teen ons opgeruk om by Edreï teen ons te veg. 2Toe het die Here vir my gesê: Moenie vir hom bang wees nie, want Ek gee hom en sy hele leër en sy hele land in jou mag oor, en jy moet met hom maak soos jy gemaak het met koning Sihon van die Amoriete, wat in Gesbon gewoon het.' 3Die Here ons God het toe vir koning Og van Basan en sy hele leër in ons mag oorgegee. Ons het hom verslaan en nie een van sy mense het weggekom nie. 4Ons het destyds ál sy stede verower. Daar is nie een van die sestig stede in die Argobstreek waar Og se ryk in Basan was, wat ons nie afgevat het van sy mense nie. 5Al hierdie stede was versterk met hoë mure en met poorte met sluitbalke. Daar was ook baie dorpe sonder mure, 6en ons het hulle almal heeltemal verwoes soos ons gemaak het met koning Sihon van Gesbon wie se stede ons met mans, vrouens, kinders en al uitgewis het. 7Ons het net die vee en wat daar in die stede te buit was, vir ons gevat. 8Ons het destyds die gebied van die twee Amoritiese konings oos van die Jordaan afgevat: die gebied van die Arnonrivier af tot by Hermonberg, 9die berg wat Sirjon genoem word deur die mense van Sidon, en Senir deur die Amoriete. 10Ons het ál die stede in die Hoogvlakte verower en die hele Gilead en Basan tot by Salka en Edreï, die stede en die ryk van Og in Basan. 11Net koning Og van Basan het destyds nog van die Refaïete oorgebly. Sy bed was van yster. Dit was sowat vier meter lank en amper twee meter breed, en is nou nog te sien in Rabba van die Ammoniete. 12Ek het die gebied wat ons destyds verower het, van Aroër op die Arnonoewer af tot halfpad in die bergwêreld van Gilead en al die stede daarin, aan die stamme Ruben en Gad gegee. 13Die res van Gilead en die hele Basan, die vroeëre ryk van Og, het ek aan die halwe Manassestam gegee. Dit is die hele Argobgebied in Basan wat voorheen bekend was as die Refaïete se land. 14Jaïr uit die nageslag van Manasse het die Argobstreek gevat tot by die grens van Gesur en Maäkat. Basan is toe na Jaïr vernoem, en dit staan nou nog bekend as die tentdorpe van Jaïr. 15Ek het Gilead vir Makir gegee. 16Ek het die gebied van Gilead af tot in die middel van die Arnonbedding vir die stamme Ruben en Gad gegee. Hulle noordgrens was Jabbokspruit, die grens van die Ammoniete se land, 17en die wesgrens was die Jordaanvallei en die Jordaanrivier van Gennesaret af tot by die see in die Jordaanvallei, die Soutsee, onderkant die Pisgahange net oos van die see. 18Ek het destyds vir die drie stamme gesê: Die Here julle God het hierdie land vir julle gegee as julle besitting. Maar julle gewapende manne, elke weerbare man, moet die Jordaan oorsteek voor julle volksgenote uit.

19Net julle vrouens en kinders en vee, en ek weet julle het baie vee, mag agterbly in die stede wat ek vir julle gegee het. 20Julle moet saam met julle volksgenote trek totdat die Here ook aan hulle, soos aan julle, 'n veilige woonplek gegee het, en ook húlle die land wat die Here julle God vir hulle sal gee, die land wes van die Jordaan, in besit geneem het. 21Ek het destyds vir Josua gesê: Jou twee oë het nou alles gesien wat die Here julle God met daardie twee konings gedoen het. So sal die Here doen met al die koninkryke waarnatoe jy nou gaan deurtrek. 22Moenie vir hulle bang wees nie. Die Here julle God sal vir julle veg.' 23Dit was toe dat ek die Here gesmeek het: 24Here my God, U het begin om my u grootheid en u groot mag te laat ondervind. Watter god is daar, in die hemel of op die aarde, wat u magtige dade kan nadoen? 25Laat my tog nou deur die Jordaan gaan om hierdie mooi land te gaan bekyk, die mooi Bergwêreld en die Libanon.' 26Maar deur julle toedoen het die Here destyds vir my kwaad geword en daarom het Hy nie nou my gebed verhoor nie. Hy het vir my gesê: Jy het nou al genoeg daaroor gepraat. Moenie weer met My oor hierdie saak praat nie. 27Klim eerder Pisgaberg uit en kyk na die weste en die noorde, die suide en die ooste. Kyk daarna, want jy sal nie hierdie Jordaan oorsteek nie. 28Gee vir Josua sy opdragte, praat hom moed in en gee hom raad, want hy moet voor hierdie volk uit deur die Jordaan trek en hy moet hulle die land wat jy sal sien, in besit laat neem.' 29Daarom het ons in die laagte teenoor Bet-Peor gebly.

Deuteronomy 4

Moses Commands Obedience

Deu 4:1 Then Moses said to the people, "Obey all the laws that I am teaching you, and you will live and occupy the land which the LORD, the God of your ancestors, is giving you.

Deu 4:2 Do not add anything to what I command you, and do not take anything away. Obey the commands of the LORD your God that I have given you.

Deu 4:3 You yourselves saw what the LORD did at Mount Peor. He destroyed everyone who worshiped Baal there, Deu 4:4 but those of you who were faithful to the LORD your God are still alive today.

Deu 4:5 "I have taught you all the laws, as the LORD my God told me to do. Obey them in the land that you are about to invade and occupy.

Deu 4:6 Obey them faithfully, and this will show the people of other nations how wise you are. When they hear of all these laws, they will say, 'What wisdom and understanding this great nation has!'

Deu 4:7 "No other nation, no matter how great, has a god who is so near when they need him as the LORD our God is to us. He answers us whenever we call for help.

Deu 4:8 No other nation, no matter how great, has laws so just as those that I have taught you today.

Deu 4:9 Be on your guard! Make certain that you do not forget, as long as you live, what you have seen with your own eyes. Tell your children and your grandchildren

Deu 4:10 about the day you stood in the presence of the LORD your God at Mount Sinai, when he said to me, 'Assemble the people. I want them to hear what I have to say, so that they will learn to obey me as long as they live and so that they will teach their children to do the same.'

Deu 4:11 "Tell your children how you went and stood at the foot of the mountain which was covered with thick clouds of dark smoke and fire blazing up to the sky.

Deu 4:12 Tell them how the LORD spoke to you from the fire, how you heard him speaking but did not see him in any form at all.

Deu 4:13 He told you what you must do to keep the covenant he made with you—you must obey the Ten Commandments, which he wrote on two stone tablets.

Deu 4:14 The LORD told me to teach you all the laws that you are to obey in the land that you are about to invade and occupy.

Idolatry Forbidden

Deu 4:15 "When the LORD spoke to you from the fire on Mount Sinai, you did not see any form. For your own good, then, make certain

Deu 4:16 that you do not sin by making for yourselves an idol in any form at all—whether man or woman,

Deu 4:17 animal or bird,

Deu 4:18 reptile or fish.

Deu 4:19 Do not be tempted to worship and serve what you see in the sky—the sun, the moon, and the stars. The LORD your God has given these to all other peoples for them to worship.

Deu 4:20 But you are the people he rescued from Egypt, that blazing furnace. He brought you out to make you his own people, as you are today.

Deu 4:21 Because of you the LORD your God was angry with me and solemnly declared that I would not cross the Jordan River to enter the fertile land which he is giving you.

Deu 4:22 I will die in this land and never cross the river, but you are about to go across and occupy that fertile land.

Deu 4:23 Be certain that you do not forget the covenant that the LORD your God made with you. Obey his command not to make yourselves any kind of idol, Deu 4:24 because the LORD your God is like a flaming fire; he tolerates no rivals.

Deu 4:25 "Even when you have been in the land a long time and have children and grandchildren, do not sin by making for yourselves an idol in any form at all. This is evil in the LORD's sight, and it will make him angry.

Deu 4:26 I call heaven and earth as witnesses against you today that, if you disobey me, you will soon disappear from the land. You will not live very long in the land across the Jordan that you are about to occupy. You will be completely destroyed.

Deu 4:27 The LORD will scatter you among other nations, where only a few of you will survive.

Deu 4:28 There you will serve gods made by human hands, gods of wood and stone, gods that cannot see or hear, eat or smell.

Deu 4:29 There you will look for the LORD your God, and if you search for him with all your heart, you will find him.

Deu 4:30 When you are in trouble and all those things happen to you, then you will finally turn to the LORD and obey him.

Deu 4:31 He is a merciful God. He will not abandon you or destroy you, and he will not forget the covenant that he himself made with your ancestors.

The Lord Alone Is God

Deu 4:32 "Search the past, the time before you were born, all the way back to the time when God created human beings on the earth. Search the entire earth. Has anything as great as this ever happened before? Has anyone ever heard of anything like this?

Deu 4:33 Have any people ever lived after hearing a god speak to them from a fire, as you have?

Deu 4:34 Has any god ever dared to go and take a people from another nation and make them his own, as the LORD your God did for you in Egypt? Before your very eyes he used his great power and strength; he brought plagues and war, worked miracles and wonders, and caused terrifying things to happen.

Deu 4:35 The LORD has shown you this, to prove to you that he alone is God and that there is no other.

Deu 4:36 He let you hear his voice from heaven so that he could instruct you; and here on earth he let you see his holy fire, and he spoke to you from it.

Deu 4:37 Because he loved your ancestors, he chose you, and by his great power he himself brought you out of Egypt.

Deu 4:38 As you advanced, he drove out nations greater and more powerful than you, so that he might bring you in and give you their land, the land which still belongs to you.

Deu 4:39 So remember today and never forget: the LORD is God in heaven and on earth. There is no other god.

Deu 4:40 Obey all his laws that I have given you today, and all will go well with you and your descendants. You will continue to live in the land that the LORD your God is giving you to be yours forever."

Cities of Refuge

Deu 4:41 Then Moses set aside three cities east of the Jordan River

Deu 4:42 to which a man could escape and be safe if he had accidentally killed someone who had not been his enemy. He could escape to one of these cities and not be put to death.

Deu 4:43 For the tribe of Reuben there was the city of Bezer, on the desert plateau; for the tribe of Gad there was Ramoth, in the territory of Gilead; and for the tribe of Manasseh there was Golan, in the territory of Bashan.

Introduction to the Law

Deu 4:44 Moses gave God's laws and teachings to the people of Israel.

Deu 4:45 (45-46) It was after they had come out of Egypt and were in the valley east of the Jordan River, opposite the town of Bethpeor, that he gave them these laws. This was in the territory that had belonged to King Sihon of the Amorites, who had ruled in the town of Heshbon. Moses and the people of Israel defeated him when they came out of Egypt.

Deu 4:47 They occupied his land and the land of King Og of Bashan, the other Amorite king who lived east of the Jordan.

Deu 4:48 This land extended from the town of Aroer, on the edge of the Arnon River, all the way north to Mount Sirion, that is, Mount Hermon.

Deu 4:49 It also included all the region east of the Jordan River as far south as the Dead Sea and east to the foot of Mount Pisgah.

DEUTERONÓMIUM 4

1Israeliete, julle moet luister na die voorskrifte en die bepalings waarin ek julle onderrig. Julle moet daarvolgens lewe, dan sal julle bly lewe en die land binnegaan en in besit neem wat die Here die God van julle voorvaders vir julle sal gee. 2Moenie iets byvoeg by wat ek julle beveel nie en moet ook nie iets daarvan wegvat nie, maar gehoorsaam die Here julle God se gebooie wat ek julle gegee het. 3Julle eie oë het gesien wat die Here by Baäl-Peor gedoen het: elkeen wat vir Baäl-Peor gedien het, is deur die Here julle God tussen julle uit verdelg. 4Maar julle wat getrou gebly het aan die Here julle God, lewe vandag nog almal. 5Kyk, ek het julle die voorskrifte en die bepalings geleer soos die Here my God my beveel het. Julle moet daarvolgens lewe wanneer julle in die land kom en dit in besit neem. 6Gehoorsaam die voorskrifte en lewe daarvolgens, want daaraan sal die ander volke sien dat julle wysheid en insig het. Hulle sal van al hierdie voorskrifte hoor en sê: Net hierdie groot nasie het wysheid en insig.' 7Watter groot nasie se god is so by hom soos die Here ons God by ons is elke keer as ons tot Hom bid? 8Watter groot nasie se voorskrifte en bepalings is so billik as hierdie wet wat ek vandag vir julle gee? 9Pas net op en wees baie versigtig om so lank julle leef, nie hierdie dinge wat julle gesien het, te vergeet of te verontagsaam nie. Julle moet dit alles vir julle kinders en julle kleinkinders inskerp. 10Julle moet hulle van dié dag laat leer toe julle by Horebberg gestaan het in die teenwoordigheid van die Here julle God, van dié dag toe Hy vir my gesê het: Maak die volk vir My bymekaar dat Ek hulle my gebooie wat hulle moet ken, kan meedeel sodat hulle My kan dien so lank hulle in hierdie land lewe en sodat hulle my gebooie vir hulle kinders kan leer.' 11Julle het toe nader gekom en aan die voet van die berg gaan staan. Die berg het gebrand, die vuur was tot in die hemel, en daar was 'n rookwolk wat dit stikdonker gemaak het. 12Toe het die Here uit die vuur uit met julle gepraat. Julle het woorde gehoor maar niemand gesien nie. Daar was net 'n stem. 13Die Here het julle die bepalings van sy verbond meegedeel en julle beveel om hulle te gehoorsaam: die tien gebooie wat Hy op die twee plat klippe geskryf het. 14Die Here het my destyds beveel om julle die voorskrifte en die bepalings te leer sodat julle daarvolgens kan lewe in die land waarheen julle sal deurtrek om dit in besit te gaan neem. 15Pas op! Die lewe is vir julle op die spel. Die Here self het met julle op Horeb uit die vuur uit gepraat, al het julle dié dag niemand gesien nie. 16Moenie julle eie ondergang soek deur vir julle 'n afbeelding as afgodsbeeld te maak nie: nie van 'n man of 'n vrou nie, 17nie van enige dier op die aarde of van enige voël in die lug nie, 18nie van enigiets wat op die aarde kruip of van enige vis in die waters onder die aarde nie. [19]Wanneer julle na die hemelruim opkyk, die son, die maan en die sterre, enige hemelliggaam, moet julle nie julle hoop op hulle vestig nie. Moet julle nie laat verlei om hulle te vereer en te dien nie. Die Here julle God het hulle toegeken aan al die volke op die aarde. [20]Vir julle het die Here gevat en uit die ystersmeltoond, uit Egipte, uitgelei om sy volk te wees wat aan Hom behoort soos dit vandag dan ook die geval is. [21]Deur julle toedoen het die Here vir my kwaad geword en dit met 'n eed bevestig dat ek nie deur die Jordaan sou gaan en in die goeie land sou kom wat die Here julle God aan julle as besitting sal gee nie. [22]Ek sal in hierdie land sterf. Ek sal nie die Jordaan oorsteek nie, maar julle sal deurtrek en daardie goeie land in besit neem. [23]Wees versigtig om nie die verbond wat die Here julle God met julle gesluit het, te vergeet nie. Pas op om nie vir julle 'n afgodsbeeld te maak nie. Die Here jou God het jou dit verbied. [24]Die Here jou God is 'n verterende vuur, Hy eis onverdeelde trou aan Hom. [25]Wanneer julle kinders en kleinkinders het en julle oud geword het in die land, moet julle nie julle eie ondergang soek deur 'n afgodsbeeld te maak nie, want dan doen julle wat verkeerd is in die oë van die Here julle God en tart julle Hom. [26]Ek roep vandag die hemel en die aarde tot getuie teen julle dat julle dan baie gou en baie beslis sal verdwyn uit die land wat julle in besit gaan neem sodra julle deur die Jordaanrivier trek. Julle sal nie lank in die land bly woon nie, julle sal beslis uitgeroei word. [27]Die Here sal julle verstrooi onder die volke, net 'n klein klompie van julle sal oorbly onder die nasies waarheen die Here julle sal lei. [28]Dáár sal julle gode dien wat deur mense gemaak is: hout en klip wat nie kan sien of hoor, eet of ruik nie. [29]As julle die Here julle God dáár aanroep, sal Hy julle gebed verhoor as julle Hom nader in onverdeelde trou. [30]Wanneer julle in nood verkeer deurdat hierdie dinge in die toekoms oor julle kom, moet julle terugkom na die Here julle God, en sy woord gehoorsaam. [31]Die Here julle God is 'n genadige God. Hy sal julle nie in die steek laat of om die lewe bring nie. Hy sal nie die verbond vergeet wat Hy met 'n eed aan julle voorvaders bevestig het nie. [32]Gaan stel ondersoek in na die verre verlede, na die dae lank voor julle tyd, van die tyd af toe God die mens op die aarde geskep het, van die een uiteinde van die hemel af tot by die ander uiteinde, en kyk of iets so magtigs al gebeur het en of so iets al gehoor is. [33]Het 'n volk die stem van sy god uit die vuur uit hoor praat, soos julle die stem van julle God gehoor het, en het hy bly lewe? [34]Het 'n god dit ooit gewaag om vir hom 'n nasie te kom vat by 'n ander nasie, en dít met rampe, tekens, wonders, oorlog, magtige dade, wonderlike, groot dade waarvoor mense vreesbevange word? Dit alles het die Here julle God voor julle eie oë in Egipte vir julle gedoen. [35]Dit is vir julle gewys dat julle kan besef die Here is God, en dat daar naas Hom nie 'n ander is nie. [36]Hy het julle sy stem uit die hemel laat hoor om julle te onderrig en Hy het julle sy groot vuur op die aarde laat sien en julle het sy woorde uit die vuur uit gehoor. [37]Omdat die Here julle voorvaders liefgehad het en hulle nageslag uitgekies het, het Hy julle deur sy groot krag in sy teenwoordigheid laat trek uit Egipte uit [38]om nasies, groter en sterker as julle, voor julle uit te verdryf en om julle in hulle land in te bring en dit aan julle te gee as julle besitting. En so is dit nou nog. [39]Weet dan nou en neem dit ter harte: die Here is God. In die hemel daarbo en op die aarde hieronder is daar nie nog 'n god nie. [40]Gehoorsaam sy voorskrifte en sy gebooie wat ek julle vandag beveel, sodat dit goed kan gaan met julle en julle nageslag en julle lank kan woon in die land wat die Here julle God vir altyd aan julle wil gee. [41]Toe het Moses drie stede oos van die Jordaan uitgesonder as stede [42]waarheen iemand kon vlug as hy 'n ander doodgemaak het sonder voorbedagte rade en sonder dat daar voorheen vyandskap tussen hulle was. As hy dan na een van hierdie stede toe vlug, kon hy bly lewe. [43]Die stede was: Beser in die Woestynhoogvlakte vir Ruben, Ramot in Gilead vir Gad, en Golan in Basan vir Manasse. [44]Dit is die wet wat Moses vir die Israeliete gegee het: [45]die verordeninge en voorskrifte en bepalings wat Moses aan die oostekant van die Jordaan in die vlakte regoor Bet-Peor vir die Israeliete afgekondig het nadat hulle uit Egipte weggetrek het. Bet-Peor was geleë in die gebied van koning Sihon van die Amoriete wat in Gesbon gewoon het en deur Moses en die Israeliete verslaan is nadat hulle uit Egipte weggetrek het. [46]Hulle het Sihon se gebied en dié van koning Og van Basan in besit geneem. Sihon en Og was die twee Amoritiese konings aan die oostekant van die Jordaan, [47]en hulle gebied het gestrek van Aroër op die Arnonoewer af tot by Sionsberg, dit is Hermon, [48]met insluiting van die oostekant van die Jordaanvallei tot by die see in die Jordaanvallei onderkant die Pisgahange.

Deuteronomy 5

The Ten Commandments

Deu 5:1 Moses called together all the people of Israel and said to them, "People of Israel, listen to all the laws that I am giving you today. Learn them and be sure that you obey them.

Deu 5:2 At Mount Sinai the LORD our God made a covenant,

Deu 5:3 not only with our fathers, but with all of us who are living today.

Deu 5:4 There on the mountain the LORD spoke to you face-to-face from the fire.

Deu 5:5 I stood between you and the LORD at that time to tell you what he said, because you were afraid of the fire and would not go up the mountain. "The LORD said,

Deu 5:6 'I am the LORD your God, who rescued you from Egypt, where you were slaves.

Deu 5:7 " 'Worship no god but me.

Deu 5:8 " 'Do not make for yourselves images of anything in heaven or on earth or in the water under the earth.

Deu 5:9 Do not bow down to any idol or worship it, for I am the LORD your God and I tolerate no rivals. I bring punishment on those who hate me and on their descendants down to the third and fourth generation.

Deu 5:10 But I show my love to thousands of generations of those who love me and obey my laws.

Deu 5:11 " 'Do not use my name for evil purposes, for I, the LORD your God, will punish anyone who misuses my name.

Deu 5:12 " 'Observe the Sabbath and keep it holy, as I, the LORD your God, have commanded you.

Deu 5:13 You have six days in which to do your work,

Deu 5:14 but the seventh day is a day of rest dedicated to me. On that day no one is to work—neither you, your children, your slaves, your animals, nor the foreigners who live in your country. Your slaves must rest just as you do.

Deu 5:15 Remember that you were slaves in Egypt, and that I, the LORD your God, rescued you by my great power and strength. That is why I command you to observe the Sabbath.

Deu 5:16 " 'Respect your father and your mother, as I, the LORD your God, command you, so that all may go well with you and so that you may live a long time in the land that I am giving you.

Deu 5:17 " 'Do not commit murder.

Deu 5:18 " 'Do not commit adultery.

Deu 5:19 " 'Do not steal.

Deu 5:20 " 'Do not accuse anyone falsely.

Deu 5:21 " 'Do not desire another man's wife; do not desire his house, his land, his slaves, his cattle, his donkeys, or anything else that he owns.'

Deu 5:22 "These are the commandments the LORD gave to all of you when you were gathered at the mountain. When he spoke with a mighty voice from the fire and from the thick clouds, he gave these commandments and no others. Then he wrote them on two stone tablets and gave them to me.

Deu 5:23 "When the whole mountain was on fire and you heard the voice from the darkness, your leaders and the chiefs of your tribes came to me

Deu 5:24 and said, 'The LORD our God showed us his greatness and his glory when we heard him speak from the fire! Today we have seen that it is possible for people to continue to live, even though God has spoken to them.

Deu 5:25 But why should we risk death again? That terrible fire will destroy us. We are sure to die if we hear the LORD our God speak again.

Deu 5:26 Has any human being ever lived after hearing the living God speak from a fire?

Deu 5:27 Go back, Moses, and listen to everything that the LORD our God says. Then return and tell us what he said to you. We will listen and obey.'

Deu 5:28 "When the LORD heard this, he said to me, 'I have heard what these people said, and they are right.

Deu 5:29 If only they would always feel this way! If only they would always honor me and obey all my commands, so that everything would go well with them and their descendants forever.

Deu 5:30 Go and tell them to return to their tents.

Deu 5:31 But you, Moses, stay here with me, and I will give you all my laws and commands. Teach them to the people, so that they will obey them in the land that I am giving them.'

Deu 5:32 "People of Israel, be sure that you do everything that the LORD your God has commanded you. Do not disobey any of his laws.

Deu 5:33 Obey them all, so that everything will go well with you and so that you will continue to live in the land that you are going to occupy.

DEUTERONÓMIUM 5

1Moses het die hele volk bymekaargeroep en vir hulle gesê: Israeliete, luister na die voorskrifte en die bepalings wat ek vandag hier in julle teenwoordigheid aankondig. Julle moet dit leer, dit gehoorsaam en daarvolgens lewe. 2Die Here ons God het by Horeb 'n verbond met ons gesluit. 3Dit is nie ons voorvaders met wie Hy hierdie verbond gesluit het nie, maar ons, ons almal wat hier is en nou lewe. 4Ja, met julle persoonlik het die Here op die berg uit die vuur uit gepraat. 5Ek het destyds tussen die Here en julle gestaan om die gebod van die Here aan julle deur te gee, want julle was bang vir die vuur en julle het nie teen die berg uitgeklim nie. Die Here het gesê: 6 Ek is die Here jou God wat jou uit Egipte, uit die plek van slawerny, bevry het. 7Jy mag naas My geen ander gode hê nie. 8 Jy mag nie vir jou 'n beeld of enige afbeelding maak van wat in die hemel daarbo of op die aarde hieronder of in die water onder die aarde is nie. 9Jy mag hulle nie vereer of dien nie, want Ek die Here jou God eis onverdeelde trou aan My. Ek reken kinders die sondes van hulle vaders toe, selfs tot in die derde en vierde geslag van dié wat My haat, 10maar Ek betoon my liefde tot aan die duisendste geslag van dié wat My liefhet en my gebooie gehoorsaam. 11 Jy mag die Naam van die Here jou God nie misbruik nie, want die Here sal dié een wat sy Naam misbruik, nie ongestraf laat bly nie. 12 Jy moet die sabbatdag so deurbring dat jy dit heilig hou, soos die Here jou God jou beveel het. 13Ses dae moet jy werk en alles doen wat jy moet, 14maar die sewende dag is die sabbat van die Here jou God. Dan mag jy geen werk doen nie, nie jy of jou seun of jou dogter of die man of vrou wat vir jou werk, of jou bees of jou donkie of enige dier van jou of die vreemdeling by jou nie, sodat jou werksmense kan rus soos jy. 15Jy moet daaraan dink dat jy in Egipte 'n slaaf was en dat die Here jou God jou deur sy groot krag en met magtige dade daaruit bevry het. Daarom het die Here jou God jou beveel om die sabbatdag te onderhou. 16 Eer jou vader en jou moeder, soos die Here jou God jou beveel het, dan sal jy 'n lang lewe hê en sal dit goed gaan met jou in die land wat die Here jou God vir jou gee. 17 Jy mag nie moord pleeg nie. 18 Jy mag nie egbreuk pleeg nie. 19 Jy mag nie steel nie. 20 Jy mag nie vals teen 'n ander getuig nie. 21 Jy mag nie iemand anders se vrou begeer nie. Jy mag nie sy huis begeer nie, ook nie sy grond, sy slaaf of slavin, sy bees of donkie, of enigiets anders wat aan hom behoort nie.' 22Die Here het by die berg al hierdie gebooie duidelik hoorbaar aan julle hele gemeente gegee, uit die vuur en die stikdonker wolk uit, en toe het Hy stilgebly. Daarna het Hy dit op twee plat klippe geskryf en dit vir my gegee. 23Toe julle die stem uit die donkerte uit gehoor het terwyl die berg gebrand het, het al julle stamhoofde en leiers na my toe gekom [24]en gesê: Die Here ons God het ons sy mag en sy grootheid laat sien, en ons het sy stem uit die vuur uit gehoor. Vandag het ons ondervind dat God met mense praat, en hulle bly lewe. [25]Maar as ons weer die stem van die Here ons God hoor, sal ons sterf, want hierdie groot vuur sal ons verteer. Waarom moet ons die gevaar loop om te sterf? [26]Watter mens het die stem van die lewende God wat uit die vuur uit praat, gehoor soos ons en bly lewe? [27]Gaan jy nader en luister na wat die Here ons God sê, dan kan jy alles wat Hy vir jou sê, vir ons vertel en ons sal dit gehoorsaam en daarvolgens lewe.' [28]Toe die Here hoor wat julle vir my sê, het Hy vir my gesê: Ek het gehoor wat hierdie volk vir jou gesê het. Wat hulle gesê het, is goed. [29]Mag hulle altyd soveel eerbied vir My hê en al my gebooie gehoorsaam sodat dit altyd goed kan gaan met hulle en hulle nageslag. [30]Gaan sê vir hulle hulle moet teruggaan na hulle tente toe. [31]Maar jy moet hier by My kom staan. Ek wil die hele wet vir jou gee, die voorskrifte en die bepalings wat jy vir hulle moet leer, en waarvolgens hulle moet lewe in die land wat Ek vir hulle gee om te besit. [32]Julle moet nougeset doen wat die Here julle God julle beveel het. Julle moet nie in enige opsig daarvan afwyk nie. [33]Bly op die pad wat die Here julle God vir julle aangewys het, sodat julle kan bly lewe en voorspoedig kan wees en lank kan woon in die land wat julle in besit sal neem.

Deuteronomy 6

The Greatest Commandment

Deu 6:1 "These are all the laws that the LORD your God commanded me to teach you. Obey them in the land that you are about to enter and occupy.

Deu 6:2 As long as you live, you and your descendants are to honor the LORD your God and obey all his laws that I am giving you, so that you may live in that land a long time.

Deu 6:3 Listen to them, people of Israel, and obey them! Then all will go well with you, and you will become a mighty nation and live in that rich and fertile land, just as the LORD, the God of our ancestors, has promised.

Deu 6:4 "Israel, remember this! The LORD—and the LORD alone—is our God.

Deu 6:5 Love the LORD your God with all your heart, with all your soul, and with all your strength.

Deu 6:6 Never forget these commands that I am giving you today.

Deu 6:7 Teach them to your children. Repeat them when you are at home and when you are away, when you are resting and when you are working.

Deu 6:8 Tie them on your arms and wear them on your foreheads as a reminder.

Deu 6:9 Write them on the doorposts of your houses and on your gates.

Deu 6:10 "Just as the LORD your God promised your ancestors, Abraham, Isaac, and Jacob, he will give you a land with large and prosperous cities which you did not build.

Deu 6:11 The houses will be full of good things which you did not put in them, and there will be wells that you did not dig, and vineyards and olive orchards that you did not plant. When the LORD brings you into this land and you have all you want to eat, Deu 6:12 make certain that you do not forget the LORD who rescued you from Egypt, where you were slaves.

Deu 6:13 Honor the LORD your God, worship only him, and make your promises in his name alone.

Deu 6:14 Do not worship other gods, any of the gods of the peoples around you.

Deu 6:15 If you do worship other gods, the LORD's anger will come against you like fire and will destroy you completely, because the LORD your God, who is present with you, tolerates no rivals.

Deu 6:16 "Do not put the LORD your God to the test, as you did at Massah.

Deu 6:17 Be sure that you obey all the laws that he has given you.

Deu 6:18 Do what the LORD says is right and good, and all will go well with you. You will be able to take possession of the fertile land that the LORD promised your ancestors,

Deu 6:19 and you will drive out your enemies, as he promised.

Deu 6:20 "In times to come your children will ask you, 'Why did the LORD our God command us to obey all these laws?'

Deu 6:21 Then tell them, 'We were slaves of the king of Egypt, and the LORD rescued us by his great power.

Deu 6:22 With our own eyes we saw him work miracles and do terrifying things to the Egyptians and to their king and to all his officials.

Deu 6:23 He freed us from Egypt to bring us here and give us this land, as he had promised our ancestors he would.

Deu 6:24 Then the LORD our God commanded us to obey all these laws and to honor him. If we do, he will always watch over our nation and keep it prosperous.

Deu 6:25 If we faithfully obey everything that God has commanded us, he will be pleased with us.'

DEUTERONÓMIUM 6

1Dit is die wet, die voorskrifte en die bepalings, wat die Here julle God my beveel het om vir julle te leer, sodat julle daarvolgens kan lewe in die land wat julle in besit gaan neem. 2So sal jy die Here jou God jou lewe lank kan dien en gehoorsaam wees aan sy voorskrifte en gebooie wat ek jou gegee het, jy en jou hele nageslag, en dan sal jy 'n lang lewe hê. 3As jy luister, Israel, en as jy gehoorsaam is en lewe volgens my gebooie, sal jy voorspoedig wees en uitermate baie word in die land wat oorloop van melk en heuning. Dit is wat die Here die God van jou voorvaders jou beloof het. 4Luister, Israel, die Here is ons God, Hy is die enigste Here. 5Daarom moet jy die Here jou God liefhê met hart en siel, met al jou krag. 6Hierdie gebooie wat ek jou vandag gegee het, moet in jou gedagtes bly. 7Jy moet dit inskerp by jou kinders en met hulle daaroor praat as jy in jou huis is en as jy op pad is, as jy gaan slaap en as jy opstaan. 8Jy moet dit as herinneringsteken vasbind aan jou hande, en dit moet 'n merk op jou voorkop wees. 9Skryf dit op jou deurkosyne en op jou stadspoorte. 10Die Here jou God sal jou bring in die land waarvan Hy met 'n eed aan jou voorvaders Abraham, Isak en Jakob beloof het om vir jou groot en mooi stede te gee wat jy nie gebou het nie, 11huise vol voorrade waarvoor jy nie gewerk het nie, putte wat jy nie uitgekap het nie, wingerde en olyfboorde wat jy nie geplant het nie, en jy sal kos in oorvloed hê. 12Maar sorg dat jy nie dan die Here vergeet wat jou uit Egipte, uit die plek van slawerny, bevry het nie. 13Jy moet die Here jou God eer en dien en net in sy Naam 'n eed aflê. 14Jy mag nie ander gode aanhang nie, ook nie gode van die volke in jou omgewing nie, 15want die Here jou God eis onverdeelde trou aan Hom. Hy is by jou, en as jy ander gode aanhang, sal sy toorn teen jou ontvlam en sal Hy jou van die aarde af wegvee. 16Julle mag nie die geduld van die Here julle God op die proef stel soos julle by Massa gedoen het nie. 17Julle moet die gebooie van die Here julle God, sy verordeninge en sy voorskrifte, wat Hy jou gegee het, stiptelik gehoorsaam. 18Doen wat reg is in die oë van die Here, sodat dit goed kan gaan met jou en dat jy die goeie land wat die Here met 'n eed aan jou voorvaders beloof het, kan ingaan en in besit neem, 19dat jy al jou vyande kan verdryf soos die Here belowe het. 20Wanneer jou seun jou in die toekoms vra: Wat beteken die verordeninge en die voorskrifte en die bepalings wat die Here ons God vir u gegee het? 21moet jy hom antwoord: Ons was in Egipte die farao se slawe, en die Here het ons daar deur sy magtige dade bevry 22toe Hy voor ons oë tekens en groot wonderdade gedoen het en rampe oor Egipte laat kom het, oor die farao en sy hele huis. 23Maar vir ons het die Here daarvandaan laat wegtrek om ons in hierdie land te bring en dit vir ons te gee soos Hy aan ons voorvaders met 'n eed belowe het. 24Die Here het ons beveel om volgens al hierdie voorskrifte te lewe en om die Here ons God te dien, sodat dit altyd goed kan gaan met ons en sodat ons kan bly lewe soos dit nou die geval is. 25Ons sal die wil van die Here ons God doen as ons hierdie hele wet in sy teenwoordigheid gehoorsaam en daarvolgens lewe soos Hy ons beveel het.

Deuteronomy 7

A Chosen People

Deu 7:1 "The LORD your God will bring you into the land that you are going to occupy, and he will drive many nations out of it. As you advance, he will drive out seven nations larger and more powerful than you: the Hittites, the Girgashites, the Amorites, the Canaanites, the Perizzites, the Hivites, and the Jebusites.

Deu 7:2 When the LORD your God places these people in your power and you defeat them, you must put them all to death. Do not make an alliance with them or show them any mercy.

Deu 7:3 Do not marry any of them, and do not let your children marry any of them,

Deu 7:4 because then they would lead your children away from the LORD to worship other gods. If that happens, the LORD will be angry with you and destroy you at once.

Deu 7:5 So then, tear down their altars, break their sacred stone pillars in pieces, cut down their symbols of the goddess Asherah, and burn their idols.

Deu 7:6 Do this because you belong to the LORD your God. From all the peoples on earth he chose you to be his own special people.

Deu 7:7 "The LORD did not love you and choose you because you outnumbered other peoples; you were the smallest nation on earth.

Deu 7:8 But the LORD loved you and wanted to keep the promise that he made to your ancestors. That is why he saved you by his great might and set you free from slavery to the king of Egypt.

Deu 7:9 Remember that the LORD your God is the only God and that he is faithful. He will keep his covenant and show his constant love to a thousand generations of those who love him and obey his commands,

Deu 7:10 but he will not hesitate to punish those who hate him.

Deu 7:11 Now then, obey what you have been taught; obey all the laws that I have given you today.

Deu 7:12 "If you listen to these commands and obey them faithfully, then the LORD your God will continue to keep his covenant with you and will show you his constant love, as he promised your ancestors.

Deu 7:13 He will love you and bless you, so that you will increase in number and have many children; he will bless your fields, so that you will have grain, wine, and olive oil; and he will bless you by giving you many cattle and sheep. He will give you all these blessings in the land that he promised your ancestors he would give to you.

Deu 7:14 No people in the world will be as richly blessed as you. None of you nor any of your livestock will be sterile.

Deu 7:15 The LORD will protect you from all sickness, and he will not bring on you any of the dreadful diseases that you experienced in Egypt, but he will bring them on all your enemies.

Deu 7:16 Destroy every nation that the LORD your God places in your power, and do not show them any mercy. Do not worship their gods, for that would be fatal.

Deu 7:17 "Do not tell yourselves that these peoples outnumber you and that you cannot drive them out.

Deu 7:18 Do not be afraid of them; remember what the LORD your God did to the king of Egypt and to all his people.

Deu 7:19 Remember the terrible plagues that you saw with your own eyes, the miracles and wonders, and the great power and strength by which the LORD your God set you free. In the same way that he destroyed the Egyptians, he will destroy all these people that you now fear.

Deu 7:20 He will even cause panic among them and will destroy those who escape and go into hiding.

Deu 7:21 So do not be afraid of these people. The LORD your God is with you; he is a great God and one to be feared.

Deu 7:22 Little by little he will drive out these nations as you advance. You will not be able to destroy them all at once, for, if you did, the number of wild animals would increase and be a threat to you.

Deu 7:23 The LORD will put your enemies in your power and make them panic until they are destroyed.

Deu 7:24 He will put their kings in your power. You will kill them, and they will be forgotten. No one will be able to stop you; you will destroy everyone.

Deu 7:25 Burn their idols. Do not desire the silver or gold that is on them, and do not take it for yourselves. If you do, that will be fatal, because the LORD hates idolatry.

Deu 7:26 Do not bring any of these idols into your homes, or the same curse will be on you that is on them. You must hate and despise these idols, because they are under the LORD's curse.

DEUTERONÓMIUM 7

1Die Here jou God sal jou bring in die land waarheen jy op pad is en wat jy in besit sal neem. Hy sal baie nasies voor jou uit verdryf: Hetiete, Girgasiete, Amoriete, Kanaäniete, Feresiete, Hewiete en Jebusiete. Wanneer die Here jou God hierdie sewe nasies wat groter en sterker is as jy, 2in jou mag oorgee en jy hulle verslaan, moet jy hulle om die lewe bring as banoffer aan die Here jou God. Jy mag hulle nie jammer kry en 'n verbond met hulle sluit nie. 3Jy mag nie met hulle ondertrou nie: jou dogter mag jy nie aan een van hulle seuns gee nie en vir jou seun mag jy nie een van hulle dogters as vrou vat nie, 4want hulle sal jou kinders wegrokkel van die Here af en hulle sal ander gode dien. Dan sal die toorn van die Here teen jou ontvlam en Hy sal jou gou uitdelg. 5Maar wat jy met die nasies moet doen, is dit: breek hulle altare af, breek hulle klippilare stukkend, kap hulle gewyde pale in stukkies en verbrand hulle afgodsbeelde. 6Jy is 'n volk wat vir die Here jou God afgesonder is. Vir jou het die Here jou God gekies om uit al die volke op die aarde sy eiendomsvolk te wees. 7Die Here het jou nie liefgekry en gekies omdat jy groter was as die ander volke nie, jy was die kleinste van almal. 8Omdat die Here jou liefhet en Hy sy belofte nakom wat Hy met 'n eed bekragtig het aan jou voorvaders, het Hy jou deur sy groot krag laat wegtrek en jou bevry uit die plek van slawerny, uit die mag van die farao, die koning van Egipte. 9Weet dan nou: die Here jou God, Hy is God. Hy is die betroubare God wat sy verbond in stand hou en sy troue liefde betoon tot aan die duisendste geslag van hulle wat Hom liefhet en sy gebooie gehoorsaam, 10maar Hy straf elkeen wat Hom haat, Hy bring hom om, Hy laat nie na om elkeen wat Hom haat, te straf nie. 11Daarom moet jy die gebod, die voorskrifte en die bepalings wat ek jou vandag gegee het, gehoorsaam deur daarvolgens te lewe. 12As jy goed luister na hierdie bepalings en hulle gehoorsaam en daarvolgens lewe, sal die Here jou God sy verbond nakom en sy troue liefde aan jou betoon soos Hy aan jou voorvaders met 'n eed beloof het. 13Hy sal jou liefhê, Hy sal jou voorspoedig maak en jou 'n groot volk maak. Hy sal jou nageslag voorspoedig maak en Hy sal jou grond 'n ryk oes laat lewer: volop koring, wyn en olie. Hy sal jou grootvee en jou kleinvee vinnig laat aanteel. Dit alles sal Hy doen in die land wat Hy met 'n eed aan jou voorvaders beloof het om vir jou te gee. 14Dit sal met jou beter gaan as met al die volke. Nie een van jou mense of jou vee sal onvrugbaar wees nie. 15Die Here sal elke soort siekte van jou af weghou. Nie een van Egipte se dodelike siektes wat jy maar alte goed ken, sal Hy jou laat tref nie. Hy sal dit jou vyande laat tref. 16Jy moet al die volke wat deur die Here jou God in jou mag oorgegee word, uitroei. Moenie een van hulle spaar nie en moenie hulle gode dien nie: hulle is valstrikke vir jou. 17Jy kan dalk dink: hierdie nasies is sterker as ek. Hoe sal ek hulle kan verdryf? 18Moenie vir hulle bang wees nie. Dink net wat die Here jou God met die farao en die hele Egipte gedoen het. 19Jy het met jou eie oë gesien met watter groot plae en tekens en wonders, met watter magtige dade en wonderdade die Here jou God jou bevry het. Hy sal met al die volke vir wie jy bang is, maak soos met Egipte. 20Die Here jou God sal die nasies die skrik op die lyf jaag totdat ook dié wat oorgebly het en vir jou weggekruip het, uitgewis is. 21Moenie vir hulle bang wees nie, want die Here jou God is by jou en Hy is 'n groot en magtige God. 22Hy sal daardie nasies die een na die ander verdryf. Jy sal hulle nie almal sommer dadelik kan uitwis nie, want dan sal die wilde diere vir jou te veel word. 23Die Here jou God sal die nasies in jou mag oorgee. Hy sal hulle in groot verwarring bring totdat hulle uiteindelik vernietig is. 24Hy sal hulle konings in jou mag gee, en jy sal hulle heeltemal van die aarde af wegvee. Niemand sal jou kan teenstaan nie, jy sal hulle uitdelg. 25Jy moet hulle afgodsbeelde verbrand. Moenie die silwer en goud wat aan die beelde is, begeer en vir jou vat nie. Jy kan daardeur in 'n valstrik trap: die afgodsbeelde is afskuwelike goed in die oë van die Here jou God. 26Moenie so iets afskuweliks in jou huis inbring nie, want dan is jy gedoem om vernietig te word. Jy moet dit verafsku en as afskuwelik beskou; dit moet vernietig word.

Deuteronomy 8

Remember the Lord Your God

Deu 8:1 "Obey faithfully all the laws that I have given you today, so that you may live, increase in number, and occupy the land that the LORD promised to your ancestors.

Deu 8:2 Remember how the LORD your God led you on this long journey through the desert these past forty years, sending hardships to test you, so that he might know what you intended to do and whether you would obey his commands.

Deu 8:3 He made you go hungry, and then he gave you manna to eat, food that you and your ancestors had never eaten before. He did this to teach you that you must not depend on bread alone to sustain you, but on everything that the LORD says.

Deu 8:4 During these forty years your clothes have not worn out, nor have your feet swollen up.

Deu 8:5 Remember that the LORD your God corrects and punishes you just as parents discipline their children.

Deu 8:6 So then, do as the LORD has commanded you: live according to his laws and obey him.

Deu 8:7 The LORD your God is bringing you into a fertile land—a land that has rivers and springs, and underground streams gushing out into the valleys and hills;

Deu 8:8 a land that produces wheat and barley, grapes, figs, pomegranates, olives, and honey.

Deu 8:9 There you will never go hungry or ever be in need. Its rocks have iron in them, and from its hills you can mine copper.

Deu 8:10 You will have all you want to eat, and you will give thanks to the LORD your God for the fertile land that he has given you.

Deu 8:11 "Make certain that you do not forget the LORD your God; do not fail to obey any of his laws that I am giving you today.

Deu 8:12 When you have all you want to eat and have built good houses to live in

Deu 8:13 and when your cattle and sheep, your silver and gold, and all your other possessions have increased,

Deu 8:14 be sure that you do not become proud and forget the LORD your God who rescued you from Egypt, where you were slaves.

Deu 8:15 He led you through that vast and terrifying desert where there were poisonous snakes and scorpions. In that dry and waterless land he made water flow out of solid rock for you.

Deu 8:16 In the desert he gave you manna to eat, food that your ancestors had never eaten. He sent hardships on you to test you, so that in the end he could bless you with good things.

Deu 8:17 So then, you must never think that you have made yourselves wealthy by your own power and strength.

Deu 8:18 Remember that it is the LORD your God who gives you the power to become rich. He does this because he is still faithful today to the covenant that he made with your ancestors.

Deu 8:19 Never forget the LORD your God or turn to other gods to worship and serve them. If you do, then I warn you today that you will certainly be destroyed.

Deu 8:20 If you do not obey the LORD, then you will be destroyed just like those nations that he is going to destroy as you advance.

DEUTERONÓMIUM 8

1Jy moet elke gebod wat ek jou vandag gee, gehoorsaam en daarvolgens lewe. Dan sal jy bly lewe, baie word, die land ingaan en dit in besit neem soos die Here met 'n eed aan jou voorvaders beloof het. 2Jy moet onthou hoe die Here jou God jou nou veertig jaar lank in die woestyn gelei het. Hy het dit gedoen om jou nederig te laat word en om jou op die proef te stel sodat Hy kan weet wat jy dink en of jy sy gebooie sal gehoorsaam of nie. 3Hy het jou laat swaarkry, laat honger ly en toe met manna gevoed, iets waarmee nóg jy nóg jou voorvaders bekend was. Hy het dit gedoen om jou te leer dat 'n mens nie net van brood leef nie, maar dat hy leef van elke woord wat uit die mond van God kom. 4Jou klere het in die veertig jaar nie verslyt nie, en jou voete het nie geswel nie. 5Jy moet diep in jou hart weet: soos 'n man dissipline by sy seun kweek, so het die Here jou God vir jou dissipline geleer. 6Jy moet die gebooie van die Here jou God gehoorsaam en sy wil doen. Jy moet Hom dien, 7want Hy sal jou in 'n goeie land bring: 'n land met waterstrome, met fonteine en riviere wat in valleie en berge ontspring, 8'n land met koring en gars, wingerde, vyebome en granate, 'n land met volop olyfolie en heuning, 9'n land sonder armoede, waarin jy genoeg sal eet en niks sal kortkom nie, 'n land waarin daar volop yster in die klippe is en waar jy kan koper delf in die berge. 10Telkens wanneer jy genoeg geëet het, moet jy die Here jou God dank vir hierdie goeie land wat Hy aan jou gegee het. 11Sorg dat jy nie die Here jou God vergeet deurdat jy nie gehoorsaam is aan sy gebooie en bepalings en voorskrifte wat ek jou vandag gee nie. 12As jy nie gehoorsaam is nie, kan dit gebeur dat jy genoeg eet en mooi huise bou en rustig woon, 13dat jou grootvee en jou kleinvee baie word, dat jou silwer en goud vermeerder en jou besittings al hoe meer word, 14en dat jy dan hoogmoedig word en die Here jou God vergeet wat jou uit Egipte, uit die plek van slawerny, bevry het. 15Dit is Hy wat jou laat trek het deur hierdie groot en gevaarlike woestyn vol giftige slange en skerpioene, dit is Hy wat vir jou water uit die klipharde rots laat vloei het in hierdie dor land sonder water 16en wat jou in die woestyn manna laat eet het, iets wat jou voorvaders nie geken het nie. Hy het jou laat swaarkry om jou op die proef te stel en om agterna weer aan jou goed te doen. 17Jy kan dalk dink: my krag en my sterk hande het vir my hierdie rykdom verwerf. 18Maar jy moet die Here jou God nie vergeet nie, want dit is Hy wat jou die krag gee om die rykdom te verwerf. So hou Hy die verbond in stand wat Hy met 'n eed aan jou voorvaders beloof het. So is dit nou nog. 19As jy ooit die Here jou God vergeet en ander gode aanhang en hulle dien en vereer, verklaar ek vandag dat jy beslis tot niet sal gaan. 20Omdat jy dan nie gehoorsaam is aan die woord van die Here jou God nie, sal jy net so omkom soos die nasies vir wie die Here laat omkom het.

Deuteronomy 9

Not Because of Righteousness

Deu 9:1 "Listen, people of Israel! Today you are about to cross the Jordan River and occupy the land belonging to nations greater and more powerful than you. Their cities are large, with walls that reach the sky.

Deu 9:2 The people themselves are tall and strong; they are giants, and you have heard it said that no one can stand against them.

Deu 9:3 But now you will see for yourselves that the LORD your God will go ahead of you like a raging fire. He will defeat them as you advance, so that you will drive them out and destroy them quickly, as he promised.

Deu 9:4 "After the LORD your God has driven them out for you, do not say to yourselves that he brought you in to possess this land because you deserved it. No, the LORD is going to drive these people out for you because they are wicked.

Deu 9:5 It is not because you are good and do what is right that the LORD is letting you take their land. He will drive them out because they are wicked and because he intends to keep the promise that he made to your ancestors, Abraham, Isaac, and Jacob.

Deu 9:6 You can be sure that the LORD is not giving you this fertile land because you deserve it. No, you are a stubborn people.

Deu 9:7 "Never forget how you made the LORD your God angry in the desert. From the day that you left Egypt until the day you arrived here, you have rebelled against him.

Deu 9:8 Even at Mount Sinai you made the LORD angry—angry enough to destroy you.

Deu 9:9 I went up the mountain to receive the stone tablets on which was written the covenant that the LORD had made with you. I stayed there forty days and nights and did not eat or drink anything.

Deu 9:10 Then the LORD gave me the two stone tablets on which he had written with his own hand what he had said to you from the fire on the day that you were gathered there at the mountain.

Deu 9:11 Yes, after those forty days and nights the LORD gave me the two stone tablets on which he had written the covenant.

Deu 9:12 "Then the LORD said to me, 'Go down the mountain at once, because your people, whom you led out of Egypt, have become corrupt and have done evil. They have already turned away from what

I commanded them to do, and they have made an idol for themselves.'

The Golden Calf

Deu 9:13 "The LORD also said to me, 'I know how stubborn these people are.

Deu 9:14 Don't try to stop me. I intend to destroy them so that no one will remember them any longer. Then I will make you the father of a nation larger and more powerful than they are.'

Deu 9:15 "So I turned and went down the mountain, carrying the two stone tablets on which the covenant was written. Flames of fire were coming from the mountain.

Deu 9:16 I saw that you had already disobeyed the command that the LORD your God had given you, and that you had sinned against him by making yourselves a metal idol in the form of a bull-calf.

Deu 9:17 So there in front of you I threw the stone tablets down and broke them to pieces.

Deu 9:18 Then once again I lay face downward in the LORD's presence for forty days and nights and did not eat or drink anything. I did this because you had sinned against the LORD and had made him angry.

Deu 9:19 I was afraid of the LORD's fierce anger, because he was furious enough to destroy you; but once again the LORD listened to me.

Deu 9:20 The LORD was also angry enough with Aaron to kill him, so I prayed for Aaron at the same time.

Deu 9:21 I took that sinful thing that you had made—that metal bull-calf—and threw it into the fire. Then I broke it in pieces, ground it to dust, and threw the dust into the stream that flowed down the mountain.

Deu 9:22 "You also made the LORD your God angry when you were at Taberah, Massah, and Kibroth Hattaavah.

Deu 9:23 And when he sent you from Kadesh Barnea with orders to go and take possession of the land that he was giving you, you rebelled against him; you did not trust him or obey him.

Deu 9:24 Ever since I have known you, you have rebelled against the LORD.

Deu 9:25 "So I lay face downward in the LORD's presence those forty days and nights, because I knew that he was determined to destroy you.

Deu 9:26 And I prayed, 'Sovereign LORD, don't destroy your own people, the people you rescued and brought out of Egypt by your great strength and power.

Deu 9:27 Remember your servants, Abraham, Isaac, and Jacob, and do not pay any attention to the stubbornness, wickedness, and sin of this people.

Deu 9:28 Otherwise, the Egyptians will say that you were unable to take your people into the land that you had promised them. They will say that you took your people out into the desert to kill them, because you hated them.

Deu 9:29 After all, these are the people whom you chose to be your own and whom you brought out of Egypt by your great power and might.'

DEUTERONÓMIUM 9

1Luister, Israel, jy gaan nou deur die Jordaanrivier trek om nasies te gaan verdryf wat groter en sterker is as jy en om groot stede wat met hoë mure versterk is, te gaan verower. 2Jy weet hoe 'n groot en sterk volk die Enakiete is. Jy het gehoor daar word gevra: Wie kan die Enakiete teëstaan?' 3Maar onthou: die Here jou God gaan voor jou uit deur die Jordaan. Hy is 'n verterende vuur. Hy sal die Enakiete oorweldig en aan jou onderwerp. Dan sal jy hulle kan verslaan en hulle gou uitwis soos die Here jou beloof het. 4Wanneer die Here jou God hulle verdryf het, moet jy nie sê: Die Here het my hierdie land in besit laat neem omdat ek volmaak is' nie, want die Here het hierdie nasies verdryf omdat hulle so goddeloos is. 5Dit is nie omdat jy volmaak en opreg is dat jy sal ingaan om hulle land in besit te neem nie. Omdat hierdie nasies so goddeloos is, sal die Here jou God hulle verdryf, en so sal Hy die belofte vervul wat Hy met 'n eed aan jou voorvaders Abraham, Isak en Jakob gemaak het. 6Jy moet goed onthou dat die Here jou God nie hierdie goeie land vir jou gee om in besit te neem omdat jy volmaak is nie. Jy is 'n hardkoppige volk. 7Moenie vergeet hoe julle die Here julle God kwaad gemaak het in die woestyn nie. Vandat julle uit Egipte weggetrek het totdat julle hier op hierdie plek aangekom het, was julle die hele tyd in opstand teen die Here. 8By Horeb het julle gemaak dat die toorn van die Here ontvlam, en Hy het so kwaad geword vir julle dat Hy julle wou uitroei. 9Ek het teen die berg uitgeklim om die plat klippe te gaan ontvang, die plat klippe waarop die Here die bepalings van sy verbond met julle geskryf het. Ek het veertig dae en veertig nagte lank daar gebly en niks geëet of gedrink nie. 10Die Here het vir my die twee plat klippe gegee waarop met sy eie vinger al die woorde geskryf was wat Hy op die berg uit die vuur uit met julle gepraat het, die dag met die vergadering. 11Dit was aan die einde van die veertig dae en die veertig nagte dat die Here die twee plat klippe, die plat klippe met die verbondsbepalings daarop, vir my gegee het. 12Toe het die Here vir my gesê: Gaan gou ondertoe, want jou volk wat jy uit Egipte laat trek het, het afvallig geword. Hulle het baie gou weggedraai van die koers af wat Ek vir hulle aangewys het, en hulle het vir hulle 'n afgodsbeeld gegiet.' 13Die Here het verder vir my gesê: Ek het gesien dat dit 'n hardkoppige volk is hierdie. 14Jy moet My nie probeer keer nie. Ek wil hulle uitwis en hulle naam van die aarde af wegvee. Dan sal Ek jou 'n sterk nasie maak, groter as hulle.' 15Toe het ek omgedraai en terwyl die berg gebrand het, het ek afgegaan met die twee klippe van die verbond in my hande. 16Ek het gesien hoe julle teen die Here julle God gesondig het deurdat julle vir julle 'n beeld in die vorm van 'n bulkalf gemaak het. Julle het baie gou weggedraai van die koers af wat die Here vir julle aangewys het. 17Ek het die twee plat klippe wat ek in my hande gehad het, flenters gegooi in julle teenwoordigheid. 18Daarna het ek, soos die eerste keer, veertig dae en veertig nagte lank voor die Here gelê en gebid. Ek het niks geëet en gedrink nie oor die groot sonde wat julle gedoen het. Julle het gedoen wat verkeerd is in die oë van die Here en Hom uitgetart. 19Ek was bang, want die toorn, die gramskap van die Here, het so teen julle ontvlam dat Hy julle wou uitroei. Maar ook hierdie keer het die Here na my geluister. 20Die Here was so kwaad vir Aäron dat die Here hom om die lewe wou bring, maar ek het destyds ook vir hom gebid. 21Ek het daardie gruwelike ding, die kalf wat julle gemaak het, gevat en in die vuur gegooi. Toe het ek dit stukkend geslaan en dit so fyn soos stof gemaal en dit in die spruit gegooi wat van die berg af kom. 22Julle het die Here ook nog by Tabera, by Massa en by Kibrot-Taäwa kwaad gemaak. 23Toe die Here julle van Kades-Barnea af weggestuur het, het Hy gesê: Trek op en neem die land wat Ek vir julle gegee het, in besit.' Maar julle het in opstand gekom teen die bevel van die Here julle God. Julle het nie op Hom vertrou nie en Hom nie gehoorsaam nie. 24Vandat ek julle leer ken het, was julle in opstand teen die Here. 25Ek het die veertig dae en veertig nagte voor die Here gelê en gebid, want Hy wou julle vernietig. 26Ek het tot Hom gebid: Here my God, moet tog nie u volk vernietig nie. Hy is u eiendom, U het hom gered toe U hom deur u groot mag en met kragtige dade uit Egipte laat wegtrek het. 27Onthou tog u dienaars Abraham, Isak en Jakob. Moenie aandag gee aan die hardkoppigheid van hierdie volk nie, aan hulle opstandigheid en hulle sonde nie. 28Waarom moet die mense van die land waaruit U ons laat trek het, sê: Omdat die Here nie die Israeliete kon bring in die land wat Hy hulle beloof het nie en omdat Hy hulle haat, het Hy hulle laat wegtrek om hulle in die woestyn om die lewe te bring?' 29Hulle is tog u volk, u eiendom wat U deur u groot mag en met kragtige dade laat wegtrek het!

Deuteronomy 10

New Tablets of Stone

Deu 10:1 "Then the LORD said to me, 'Cut two stone tablets like the first ones and make a wooden Box to put them in. Come up to me on the mountain,

Deu 10:2 and I will write on those tablets what I wrote on the tablets that you broke, and then you are to put them in the Box.'

Deu 10:3 "So I made a Box of acacia wood and cut two stone tablets like the first ones and took them up the mountain.

Deu 10:4 Then the LORD wrote on those tablets the same words that he had written the first time, the Ten Commandments that he gave you when he spoke from the fire on the day you were gathered at the mountain. The LORD gave me the tablets,

Deu 10:5 and I turned and went down the mountain. Then, just as the LORD had commanded, I put them in the Box that I had made—and they have been there ever since."

Deu 10:6 (The Israelites set out from the wells that belonged to the people of Jaakan, and went to Moserah. There Aaron died and was buried, and his son Eleazar succeeded him as priest.

Deu 10:7 From there they went to Gudgodah and then on to Jotbathah, a well-watered place.

Deu 10:8 At the mountain the LORD appointed the men of the tribe of Levi to be in charge of the Covenant Box, to serve him as priests, and to pronounce blessings in his name. And these are still their duties.

Deu 10:9 That is why the tribe of Levi received no land as the other tribes did; what they received was the privilege of being the LORD's priests, as the LORD your God promised.)

Deu 10:10 "I stayed on the mountain forty days and nights, as I did the first time. The LORD listened to me once more and agreed not to destroy you.

Deu 10:11 Then he told me to go and lead you, so that you could take possession of the land that he had promised to give to your ancestors.

Circumcise Your Heart

Deu 10:12 "Now, people of Israel, listen to what the LORD your God demands of you: Worship the LORD and do all that he commands. Love him, serve him with all your heart,

Deu 10:13 and obey all his laws. I am giving them to you today for your benefit.

Deu 10:14 To the LORD belong even the highest heavens; the earth is his also, and everything on it.

Deu 10:15 But the LORD's love for your ancestors was so strong that he chose you instead of any other people, and you are still his chosen people.

Deu 10:16 So then, from now on be obedient to the LORD and stop being stubborn.

Deu 10:17 The LORD your God is supreme over all gods and over all powers. He is great and mighty, and he is to be obeyed. He does not show partiality, and he does not accept bribes.

Deu 10:18 He makes sure that orphans and widows are treated fairly; he loves the foreigners who live with our people, and gives them food and clothes.

Deu 10:19 So then, show love for those foreigners, because you were once foreigners in Egypt.

Deu 10:20 Have reverence for the LORD your God and worship only him. Be faithful to him and make your promises in his name alone.

Deu 10:21 Praise him—he is your God, and you have seen with your own eyes the great and astounding things that he has done for you.

Deu 10:22 When your ancestors went to Egypt, there were only seventy of them. But now the LORD your God has made you as numerous as the stars in the sky.

DEUTERONÓMIUM 10

1Destyds het die Here vir my gesê: Kap vir jou twee plat klippe soos die voriges en klim die berg uit na My toe. Maak ook 'n ark van hout. 2Ek sal op die klippe die gebooie skryf wat op die voriges was wat jy stukkend gegooi het. Dan moet jy die twee plat klippe in die ark sit.' 3Ek het die ark van doringhout gemaak en ek het twee plat klippe soos die voriges gekap. Toe het ek teen die berg uitgeklim met die twee plat klippe in my hand. 4Die Here het in dieselfde skrif as tevore die tien gebooie geskryf wat Hy op die berg, die dag toe die volk bymekaargekom het, uit die vuur uit vir julle gegee het. Daarna het Hy die twee plat klippe vir my gegee. 5Toe het ek van die berg af gekom en soos die Here my beveel het, het ek die plat klippe in die ark gesit wat ek gemaak het. Hulle is nog daar. 6Die Israeliete het weggetrek van die putte van Bene-Jaäkan af na Moserot toe. Daar is Aäron oorlede, en daar is hy begrawe. Sy seun Eleasar het toe in sy plek priester geword. 7Van daar af het hulle na Gor-Gidgad toe getrek en van daar af na Jotbata toe, 'n waterryke gebied. 8Destyds het die Here die Levistam afgesonder om die verbondsark van die Here te dra, om in sy teenwoordigheid diens te doen en sy dienaars te wees, en om die volk in die Naam van die Here te seën. En so is dit vandag nog. 9Daarom het die Leviete nie 'n eie grondgebied tussen hulle volksgenote gekry nie, want Levi ontvang van wat die Here self toekom, soos die Here jou God hom beloof het. 10Moses het verder gesê: Soos die eerste keer het ek veertig dae en nagte op die berg gebly. Ook hierdie keer het die Here na my geluister. Hy wou jou nie meer uitroei nie. 11Toe het Hy vir my gesê: Jy moet die volk laat wegtrek en hulle lei sodat hulle die land kan binnegaan en in besit neem. Dit is die land wat Ek met 'n eed aan hulle voorvaders beloof het om aan hulle te gee.' 12En nou, Israel, die Here jou God vra net dat jy Hom moet eer, sy wil moet gehoorsaam, Hom moet liefhê en dien met hart en siel. 13Gehoorsaam die gebooie en voorskrifte wat die Here jou vandag deur my gee. Dit sal tot jou voordeel wees. 14Die hemel, selfs die hoogste hemel, behoort aan die Here jou God, ook die aarde en alles daarop. 15En tog het Hy sy liefde net aan jou voorvaders betoon en vir julle, hulle nageslag, uit al die volke uitgekies. Dit is nou nog so. 16Wy jou aan Hom en moenie hardkoppig wees nie. 17Die Here jou God, Hy alleen is God, die Here: die groot God, die magtige, wat wonderdade doen, wat vir niemand partydig is nie en ook nie omkoopgeld aanneem nie. 18Hy laat reg geskied aan die weeskind en die weduwee. Hy het die vreemdeling lief en gee vir hom kos en klere. 19Jy moet ook die vreemdelinge liefhê, want jy was self 'n vreemdeling in Egipte. 20Jy moet die Here jou God eer, Hom dien en aanhang, en wanneer jy 'n eed aflê, moet jy dit in sy Naam doen. [21]Jy moet Hom prys, want Hy is jou God en Hy het al hierdie magtige wonderdade wat jy met jou eie oë gesien het, vir jou gedoen. [22]Toe jou voorvaders Egipte toe is, was hulle net sewentig; maar nou het die Here jou God jou so baie gemaak soos die sterre in die lug.

Deuteronomy 11

Love and Serve the Lord

Deu 11:1 "Love the LORD your God and always obey all his laws.

Deu 11:2 Remember today what you have learned about the LORD through your experiences with him. It was you, not your children, who had these experiences. You saw the LORD's greatness, his power, his might,

Deu 11:3 and his miracles. You saw what he did to the king of Egypt and to his entire country.

Deu 11:4 You saw how the LORD completely wiped out the Egyptian army, along with their horses and chariots, by drowning them in the Red Sea when they were pursuing you.

Deu 11:5 You know what the LORD did for you in the desert before you arrived here.

Deu 11:6 You recall what he did to Dathan and Abiram, the sons of Eliab of the tribe of Reuben. In the sight of everyone the earth opened up and swallowed them, along with their families, their tents, and all their servants and animals.

Deu 11:7 Yes, you are the ones who have seen all these great things that the LORD has done.

Deu 11:8 "Obey everything that I have commanded you today. Then you will be able to cross the river and occupy the land that you are about to enter.

Deu 11:9 And you will live a long time in the rich and fertile land that the LORD promised to give your ancestors and their descendants.

Deu 11:10 The land that you are about to occupy is not like the land of Egypt, where you lived before. There, when you planted grain, you had to work hard to irrigate the fields;

Deu 11:11 but the land that you are about to enter is a land of mountains and valleys, a land watered by rain.

Deu 11:12 The LORD your God takes care of this land and watches over it throughout the year.

Deu 11:13 "So then, obey the commands that I have given you today; love the LORD your God and serve him with all your heart.

Deu 11:14 If you do, he will send rain on your land when it is needed, in the autumn and in the spring, so that there will be grain, wine, and olive oil for you,

Deu 11:15 and grass for your livestock. You will have all the food you want.

Deu 11:16 Do not let yourselves be led away from the LORD to worship and serve other gods.

Deu 11:17 If you do, the LORD will become angry with you. He will hold back the rain, and your ground will become too dry for crops to grow. Then you will soon die there, even though it is a good land that he is giving you.

Deu 11:18 "Remember these commands and cherish them. Tie them on your arms and wear them on your foreheads as a reminder.

Deu 11:19 Teach them to your children. Talk about them when you are at home and when you are away, when you are resting and when you are working.

Deu 11:20 Write them on the doorposts of your houses and on your gates.

Deu 11:21 Then you and your children will live a long time in the land that the LORD your God promised to give to your ancestors. You will live there as long as there is a sky above the earth.

Deu 11:22 "Obey faithfully everything that I have commanded you: Love the LORD your God, do everything he commands, and be faithful to him.

Deu 11:23 Then he will drive out all those nations as you advance, and you will occupy the land belonging to nations greater and more powerful than you.

Deu 11:24 All the ground that you march over will be yours. Your territory will extend from the desert in the south to the Lebanon Mountains in the north, and from the Euphrates River in the east to the Mediterranean Sea in the west.

Deu 11:25 Wherever you go in that land, the LORD your God will make the people fear you, as he has promised, and no one will be able to stop you.

Deu 11:26 "Today I am giving you the choice between a blessing and a curse—

Deu 11:27 a blessing, if you obey the commands of the LORD your God that I am giving you today;

Deu 11:28 but a curse, if you disobey these commands and turn away to worship other gods that you have never worshiped before.

Deu 11:29 When the LORD brings you into the land that you are going to occupy, you are to proclaim the blessing from Mount Gerizim and the curse from Mount Ebal.

Deu 11:30 (These two mountains are west of the Jordan River in the territory of the Canaanites who live in the Jordan Valley. They are toward the west, not far from the sacred trees of Moreh near the town of Gilgal.)

Deu 11:31 You are about to cross the Jordan River and occupy the land that the LORD your God is giving you. When you take it and settle there,

Deu 11:32 be sure to obey all the laws that I am giving you today.

DEUTERONÓMIUM 11

1Julle moet die Here julle God liefhê en altyd sy opdragte gehoorsaam: al sy voorskrifte en bepalings en gebooie. 2Vandag weet julle hoe die Here julle onderrig het, want julle, en nie julle kinders nie, het dit beleef en gesien: sy grootheid, sy magtige dade, sy wonderdade, 3sy tekens, alles wat Hy in Egipte gedoen het met die farao, koning van Egipte, en sy hele land. 4Julle het beleef wat Hy gedoen het met die leër van Egipte, sy perde en sy strydwaens wat die Here deur die water van die Rietsee laat verswelg het toe hulle julle agtervolg het. Die Here het hulle mag so gebreek dat hulle nou nog nie herstel het nie. 5Julle het self beleef wat Hy vir julle gedoen het in die woestyn en totdat julle tot hier gekom het, 6wat Hy gedoen het met Datan en Abiram, seuns van Eliab seun van Ruben, toe die aarde oopgeskeur het en hulle en hulle familie en hulle eiendom, selfs al hulle vee ingesluk het voor die oë van al die Israeliete. 7Met julle eie oë het julle al hierdie groot dade gesien wat die Here gedoen het. 8Julle moet alles gehoorsaam wat ek julle vandag beveel, sodat julle sterk kan optree en die land wat julle gaan verower, kan binnegaan en in besit neem. 9As julle gehoorsaam is, sal julle baie lank bly woon in die land wat die Here met 'n eed beloof het om aan julle voorvaders en hulle nageslag te gee. Dit is 'n land wat oorloop van melk en heuning. 10Die land wat julle in besit gaan neem, is nie soos Egipte waar julle vandaan kom nie, waar julle julle saad gesaai het en wat julle dan met baie moeite natgelei het asof dit 'n groentetuin is. 11Die land wat julle in besit gaan neem, is 'n land met berge en vlaktes en word nat gemaak met reënwater. 12Dit is 'n land waarvoor die Here jou God sorg: van nuwejaarsdag af tot oujaarsdag toe hou Hy ononderbroke sy oog daaroor. 13As julle al die gebooie wat ek julle vandag gee, stiptelik gehoorsaam en die Here julle God liefhet en dien met hart en siel, 14sal Hy vir julle land sy reën gee op die regte tyd, lente- en somerreëns, en julle sal koring, wyn en olie oes. 15Die Here sal sorg vir groen gras op julle veld vir julle vee, en julle sal oorgenoeg hê om te eet. 16Pas op dat julle nie verlei word om ander gode te gaan dien en vereer nie, 17want dan sal die toorn van die Here teen julle ontvlam, en Hy sal dit nie laat reën nie, die aarde sal nie meer sy opbrengs lewer nie, en julle sal baie gou verdwyn uit die goeie land wat die Here aan julle gee. 18Hierdie woorde van die Here moet julle lewe vul. Julle moet dit as herinneringsteken vasbind aan julle hande en dit moet 'n merk op julle voorkoppe wees. 19Leer dit vir jou kinders deur met hulle daaroor te praat as jy in jou huis is en as jy op pad is, as jy gaan slaap en as jy opstaan. 20Skryf dit op jou deurkosyne en op jou stadspoorte. 21Dan sal julle en julle nageslag lank, ja, so lank as die hemel en die aarde sal bestaan, bly woon in die land wat die Here met 'n eed beloof het om aan julle voorvaders te gee. 22As julle al hierdie gebooie wat ek julle vandag gee, stiptelik gehoorsaam deur daarvolgens te lewe en die Here julle God lief te hê, sy wil te doen en Hom aan te hang, 23sal Hy al hierdie nasies verdryf, en dan sal julle die grondgebied van nasies wat groter en sterker is as julle, in besit neem. 24Elke plek waar julle kom, sal julle s'n wees: van die woestyn in die suide af tot by Libanonberg in die noorde, van die rivier, die Eufraatrivier, in die ooste af tot by die see in die weste. Dit sal julle grense wees. 25Niemand sal teen julle kan bly staan nie. Soos die Here beloof het, sal Hy orals waar julle gaan, 'n skrik en angs vir julle oor die land laat kom. 26Let op, ek hou julle vandag die seën en die straf voor: 27die seën sal kom as julle die gebooie van die Here julle God gehoorsaam, wat ek julle vandag gee; 28die straf sal kom as julle ongehoorsaam is aan die gebooie van die Here julle God en die pad verlaat wat ek julle vandag aangewys het en ander gode aanhang waarvan julle nou nog nie eers weet nie. 29Wanneer die Here julle God julle bring in die land wat julle in besit gaan neem, moet julle die seën afkondig op Gerisimberg en die straf op Ebalberg. 30Die twee berge lê wes van die Jordaan, anderkant die pad uit die ooste, die pad uit die gebied van die Jordaanvallei, waar die Kanaäniete woon, regoor Gilgal, naby die waarsêersboom. 31Julle staan op die punt om deur die Jordaan te trek om die land in besit te neem wat die Here julle God aan julle gee. Wanneer julle dit in besit geneem het en daar woon, 32moet julle al die voorskrifte en die bepalings wat ek julle vandag gegee het, gehoorsaam en daarvolgens lewe.

Deuteronomy 12

The Lord's Chosen Place of Worship

Deu 12:1 "Here are the laws that you are to obey as long as you live in the land that the LORD, the God of your ancestors, is giving you. Listen to them!

Deu 12:2 In the land that you are taking, destroy all the places where the people worship their gods on high mountains, on hills, and under green trees.

Deu 12:3 Tear down their altars and smash their sacred stone pillars to pieces. Burn their symbols of the goddess Asherah and chop down their idols, so that they will never again be worshiped at those places.

Deu 12:4 "Do not worship the LORD your God in the way that these people worship their gods.

Deu 12:5 Out of the territory of all your tribes the LORD will choose the one place where the people are to come into his presence and worship him.

Deu 12:6 There you are to offer your sacrifices that are to be burned and your other sacrifices, your tithes and your offerings, the gifts that you promise to the LORD, your freewill offerings, and the first-born of your cattle and sheep.

Deu 12:7 There, in the presence of the LORD your God, who has blessed you, you and your families will eat and enjoy the good things that you have worked for.

Deu 12:8 "When that time comes, you must not do as you have been doing. Until now you have all been worshiping as you please,

Deu 12:9 because you have not yet entered the land that the LORD your God is giving you, where you can live in peace.

Deu 12:10 When you cross the Jordan River, the LORD will let you occupy the land and live there. He will keep you safe from all your enemies, and you will live in peace.

Deu 12:11 The LORD will choose a single place where he is to be worshiped, and there you must bring to him everything that I have commanded: your sacrifices that are to be burned and your other sacrifices, your tithes and your offerings, and those special gifts that you have promised to the LORD.

Deu 12:12 Be joyful there in his presence, together with your children, your servants, and the Levites who live in your towns; remember that the Levites will have no land of their own.

Deu 12:13 You are not to offer your sacrifices wherever you choose;

Deu 12:14 you must offer them only in the one place that the LORD will choose in the territory of one of your tribes. Only there are you to offer your sacrifices that are to be burned and do all the other things that I have commanded you.

Deu 12:15 "But you are free to kill and eat your animals wherever you live. You may eat as many as the LORD gives you. All of you, whether ritually clean or unclean, may eat them, just as you would eat the meat of deer or antelope.

Deu 12:16 But you must not eat their blood; you must pour it out on the ground like water.

Deu 12:17 Nothing that you offer to the LORD is to be eaten in the places where you live: neither the tithes of your grain, your wine, or your olive oil, nor the first-born of your cattle and sheep, the gifts that you promise to the LORD, your freewill offerings, or any other offerings.

Deu 12:18 You and your children, together with your servants and the Levites who live in your towns, are to eat these offerings only in the presence of the LORD your God, in the one place of worship chosen by the LORD your God. And you are to be happy there over everything that you have done.

Deu 12:19 Be sure, also, not to neglect the Levites, as long as you live in your land.

Deu 12:20 "When the LORD your God enlarges your territory, as he has promised, you may eat meat whenever you want to.

Deu 12:21 If the one place of worship is too far away, then, whenever you wish, you may kill any of the cattle or sheep that the LORD has given you, and you may eat the meat at home, as I have told you.

Deu 12:22 Anyone, ritually clean or unclean, may eat that meat, just as he would eat the meat of deer or antelope.

Deu 12:23 Only do not eat meat with blood still in it, for the life is in the blood, and you must not eat the life with the meat.

Deu 12:24 Do not use the blood for food; instead, pour it out on the ground like water.

Deu 12:25 If you obey this command, the LORD will be pleased, and all will go well for you and your descendants.

Deu 12:26 Take to the one place of worship your offerings and the gifts that you have promised the LORD.

Deu 12:27 Offer there the sacrifices which are to be completely burned on the LORD's altar. Also offer those sacrifices in which you eat the meat and pour the blood out on the altar.

Deu 12:28 Obey faithfully everything that I have commanded you, and all will go well for you and your descendants forever, because you will be doing what is right and what pleases the LORD your God.

Warning Against Idolatry

Deu 12:29 "The LORD your God will destroy the nations as you invade their land, and you will occupy it and settle there.

Deu 12:30 After the LORD destroys those nations, make sure that you don't follow their religious practices, because that would be fatal. Don't try to find out how they worship their gods, so that you can worship in the same way.

Deu 12:31 Do not worship the LORD your God in the way they worship their gods, for in the worship of their gods they do all the disgusting things that the LORD hates. They even sacrifice their children in the fires on their altars.

Deu 12:32 "Do everything that I have commanded you; do not add anything to it or take anything from it.

DEUTERONÓMIUM 12

1Hier volg voorskrifte en bepalings waaraan julle julle lewe lank gehoorsaam moet wees en waarvolgens julle hier op aarde moet lewe in die land wat die Here die God van julle voorvaders aan julle gegee het om in besit te neem. 2Vernietig elke plek waar die nasies vir wie julle gaan verdryf, hulle gode gedien het: op hoë berge, op heuwels en onder elke groen boom. 3Breek hulle altare af, breek hulle klippilare stukkend, verbrand hulle gewyde pale, vernietig hulle afgodsbeelde en verwyder elke teken van hulle bestaan uit die land uit. 4Julle mag nie die Here julle God dien op die manier waarop ander nasies hulle gode dien nie. 5Julle moet na die wil van God gaan vra op die plek wat die Here julle God sal kies uit al julle stamgebiede om sy Naam daar te vestig en daar te woon. Daarheen moet julle gaan 6en julle brandoffers en ander offers bring, ook julle tiendes en ander bydraes, julle gelofteoffers en vrywillige offers, die eerstelinge van julle groot- en kleinvee. 7Daar in die teenwoordigheid van die Here julle God moet julle en julle families saam eet en bly wees oor alles wat julle reggekry het deurdat die Here julle God julle voorspoedig gemaak het. 8Moenie doen soos ons nou hier doen deurdat elkeen aanbid waar hy wil nie, 9want julle het nog nie gekom by die rusplek, die besitting wat die Here julle God vir julle sal gee nie. 10Maar julle sal deur die Jordaan trek en gaan woon in die land wat die Here julle God julle sal laat besit en daar sal julle rus hê van al julle vyande in die omgewing en daar sal julle veilig woon. 11Daar is die plek wat die Here julle God sal kies om sy Naam daar te laat woon en daarheen moet julle al die offers bring soos ek julle beveel het: julle brandoffers en ander offers, julle tiendes en ander bydraes, en al die gelofteoffers wat julle aan die Here beloof het. 12Daar moet julle en julle kinders en julle slawe en slavinne daarvan geniet in die teenwoordigheid van die Here julle God, ook die Leviete wat by julle woon, want hulle het nie 'n deel van die land as besitting saam met julle gekry nie. 13Moenie julle brandoffers sommer op enige plek offer wat vir julle goed lyk nie. 14Julle mag dit net offer op die plek wat die Here sal kies in die gebied van een van die stamme. Daar moet julle julle brandoffers offer en daar moet julle alles doen wat ek julle beveel het. 15Vir kos mag julle egter op enige plek waar julle woon 'n dier slag en die vleis eet wat die Here julle God vir julle gee deurdat Hy julle voorspoedig maak. Of 'n persoon rein of onrein is, hy mag daarvan eet, ook van 'n ribbok of 'n takbok. 16Julle mag egter nie die bloed eet nie. Julle moet dit op die grond uitgooi asof dit water is. 17In die plekke waar julle woon, mag julle ook nie die tiende van julle koring of wyn of olie eet nie, ook nie die eerstelinge van julle grootvee of kleinvee nie, en

ook nie iets wat julle aan die Here beloof het of enige vrywillige offer of ander bydrae aan die Here nie. [18]Dit mag julle net in die teenwoordigheid van die Here julle God eet op die plek wat Hy gekies het. Eet dit, saam met julle seuns en dogters, julle slawe en slavinne en die Leviete wat by julle woon. In die teenwoordigheid van die Here julle God moet julle bly wees oor alles wat Hy julle laat regkry het. [19]So lank as julle in julle land woon, mag julle nie die Leviet afskeep nie. [20]Wanneer die Here julle God julle grondgebied uitbrei, soos Hy julle beloof het, en julle besluit om vleis te eet omdat julle lus is daarvoor, mag julle dit in enige plek eet waar julle woon. [21]Wanneer die plek wat die Here julle God sal kies om sy Naam daar te vestig, ver van julle af is, kan julle van die grootvee of die kleinvee wat die Here vir julle gegee het, slag soos ek julle beveel het en julle kan dit na hartelus geniet in die plek waar julle woon, [22]en soos in die geval van 'n ribbok of 'n takbok mag almal, rein en onrein, daarvan eet. [23]Julle moet net sorg dat julle nie die bloed eet nie, want die lewe van 'n dier is in sy bloed, en julle mag nie die lewe saam met die vleis eet nie. [24]Julle mag die bloed nie eet nie. Julle moet dit op die grond uitgooi asof dit water is. [25]As julle dit nie eet nie, doen julle wat reg is in die oë van die Here, en dan sal dit goed gaan met julle en julle nageslag. [26]Alle gewyde gawes wat julle by julle het en alles wat julle met 'n gelofte aan die Here beloof het, moet julle bring na die plek toe wat die Here sal kies. [27]Julle moet julle brandoffers, die vleis en die bloed daarvan, op die altaar van die Here julle God neersit. Die bloed van julle ander offers moet julle teen die altaar van die Here julle God uitgooi en dan mag julle die vleis eet. [28]Julle moet al die gebooie wat ek julle gegee het, gehoorsaam en dan sal dit vir altyd goed gaan met julle en julle nageslag, want dan doen julle wat goed en reg is in die oë van die Here julle God. [29]Die Here julle God sal die nasies verslaan na wie toe julle op pad is om hulle te verdryf. As julle hulle oorwin het en in hulle land woon, [30]moet julle sorg dat julle nie, selfs nadat hulle deur julle verslaan is, deur hulle in 'n valstrik gelei word wanneer julle na hulle gode sou begin uitvra nie. Moenie sê: Hoe vereer hierdie nasies hulle gode? Ek sou dit ook so wou doen' nie. [31]Julle mag nie die Here julle God dien op die manier waarop hulle hulle gode dien nie, want wat hierdie nasies doen, is afskuwelik vir die Here: hulle verbrand selfs hulle seuns en dogters vir hulle gode. Die Here haat dit alles. [32]Elke gebod wat ek julle beveel het, moet julle gehoorsaam en daarvolgens moet julle lewe; julle mag daar niks bysit en niks daarvan wegvat nie.

Deuteronomy 13

Deu 13:1 "Prophets or interpreters of dreams may promise a miracle or a wonder,

Deu 13:2 in order to lead you to worship and serve gods that you have not worshiped before. Even if what they promise comes true,

Deu 13:3 do not pay any attention to them. The LORD your God is using them to test you, to see if you love the LORD with all your heart.

Deu 13:4 Follow the LORD and honor him; obey him and keep his commands; worship him and be faithful to him.

Deu 13:5 But put to death any interpreters of dreams or prophets that tell you to rebel against the LORD, who rescued you from Egypt, where you were slaves. Such people are evil and are trying to lead you away from the life that the LORD has commanded you to live. They must be put to death, in order to rid yourselves of this evil.

Deu 13:6 "Even your brother or your son or your daughter or the wife you love or your closest friend may secretly encourage you to worship other gods, gods that you and your ancestors have never worshiped.

Deu 13:7 Some of them may encourage you to worship the gods of the people who live near you or the gods of those who live far away.

Deu 13:8 But do not let any of them persuade you; do not even listen to them. Show them no mercy or pity, and do not protect them.

Deu 13:9 Kill them! Be the first to stone them, and then let everyone else stone them too.

Deu 13:10 Stone them to death! They tried to lead you away from the LORD your God, who rescued you from Egypt, where you were slaves.

Deu 13:11 Then all the people of Israel will hear what happened; they will be afraid, and no one will ever again do such an evil thing.

Deu 13:12 "When you are living in the towns that the LORD your God gives you, you may hear

Deu 13:13 that some worthless people of your nation have misled the people of their town to worship gods that you have never worshiped before.

Deu 13:14 If you hear such a rumor, investigate it thoroughly; and if it is true that this evil thing did happen,

Deu 13:15 then kill all the people in that town and all their livestock too. Destroy that town completely.

Deu 13:16 Bring together all the possessions of the people who live there and pile them up in the town square. Then burn the town and everything in it as an offering to the LORD your God. It must be left in ruins forever and never again be rebuilt.

Deu 13:17 Do not keep for yourselves anything that was condemned to destruction, and then the LORD will turn from his fierce anger and show you mercy. He will be merciful to you and make you a numerous people, as he promised your ancestors,

Deu 13:18 if you obey all his commands that I have given you today, and do what he requires.

DEUTERONÓMIUM 13

1Wanneer 'n profeet of iemand wat drome uitlê by jou kom en vir jou vertel van 'n teken of 'n wonder, 2en die teken kom uit of die wonder vind plaas soos hy gesê het, en hy dan op grond daarvan vir jou sê: Kom ons gaan dien ander gode al het jy hulle nie vroeër geken nie, al het ons hulle nie vroeër gedien nie,' 3moet jy nie na hom luister nie. Die Here jou God stel jou net op die proef om vas te stel of jy Hom liefhet met hart en siel. 4Jy moet getrou bly aan die Here jou God en Hom eer, jy moet sy gebooie gehoorsaam en na sy bevele luister, jy moet Hom dien en aanhang. 5Daardie profeet of droomuitlêer moet doodgemaak word, want hy het jou aangehits om in opstand te kom teen die Here jou God wat jou uit Egipte laat trek het en jou bevry het uit die plek van slawerny. Daardie man wil jou laat optree in stryd met die wil van die Here jou God wat Hy aan jou geopenbaar het. Jy moet hierdie soort kwaad tussen julle uitroei. 6Dit kan gebeur dat jou broer, jou ma se seun, of jou seun of jou dogter of jou eie vrou of jou boesemvriend jou in die geheim wil verlei en vir jou sê: Kom ons gaan dien ander gode.' Dit kan gode wees wat jy en jou voorvaders nie geken het nie, 7gode van die volke in jou omgewing, gode wat naby is of ver, gode in die een uithoek van die land of in die ander uithoek. 8Dan mag jy nie voor hom swig en na hom luister nie. Jy mag hom nie jammer kry nie. Moet hom nie verskoon en wegsteek nie. 9Jy moet hom sonder meer doodmaak. Jy moet daarmee begin en dan moet die volk jou daarin bystaan. 10Jy moet hom met klippe doodgooi, want hy wou jou verlei om ontrou te word aan die Here jou God wat jou uit Egipte, uit die plek van slawerny, bevry het. 11Die hele Israel moet dit hoor en bang word sodat so 'n verkeerde ding nie weer onder julle gedoen word nie. 12Wanneer jy hoor dat kwaadstokers gekom het in een van die stede wat die Here jou God vir jou sal gee om in te woon, en hulle sy inwoners verlei het deur hulle aan te spoor om vreemde gode te dien waarvan julle nie geweet het nie, 13moet jy die saak deeglik ondersoek en haarfyn daarna uitvra. As die gerug waar is en die afskuwelike daad wel tussen julle plaasgevind het, 14moet jy die inwoners van daardie stad sonder meer doodmaak. Die stad met alles daarin, selfs sy vee, moet as banoffer vernietig word. 15Jy moet alles in die stad op die stadsplein bymekaarmaak en saam met die stad geheel en al verbrand as 'n offer aan die Here jou God. Die stad moet vir altyd 'n puinhoop bly. Dit mag nie weer herbou word nie. 16Niks van wat as banoffer bestem is, mag deur jou gevat word nie, sodat die toorn van die Here nie verder ontvlam nie en Hy jou genadig kan wees. Dan sal jy weer baie word soos die Here met 'n eed aan jou voorvaders beloof het, 17want dan luister jy na die Here jou God en gehoorsaam jy al sy gebooie wat ek jou vandag gee, deurdat jy doen wat reg is in die oë van die Here jou God.

Deuteronomy 14

Clean and Unclean Food

Deu 14:1 "You are the people of the LORD your God. So when you mourn for the dead, don't gash yourselves or shave the front of your head, as other people do.

Deu 14:2 You belong to the LORD your God; he has chosen you to be his own people from among all the peoples who live on earth.

Deu 14:3 "Do not eat anything that the LORD has declared unclean.

Deu 14:4 You may eat these animals: cattle, sheep, goats,

Deu 14:5 deer, wild sheep, wild goats, or antelopes—

Deu 14:6 any animals that have divided hoofs and that also chew the cud.

Deu 14:7 But no animals may be eaten unless they have divided hoofs and also chew the cud. You may not eat camels, rabbits, or rock badgers. They must be considered unclean; they chew the cud but do not have divided hoofs.

Deu 14:8 Do not eat pigs. They must be considered unclean; they have divided hoofs but do not chew the cud. Do not eat any of these animals or even touch their dead bodies.

Deu 14:9 "You may eat any kind of fish that has fins and scales,

Deu 14:10 but anything living in the water that does not have fins and scales may not be eaten; it must be considered unclean.

Deu 14:11 "You may eat any clean bird.

Deu 14:12 (12-18) But these are the kinds of birds you are not to eat: eagles, owls, hawks, falcons; buzzards, vultures, crows; ostriches; seagulls, storks, herons, pelicans, cormorants; hoopoes; and bats.

Deu 14:19 "All winged insects are unclean; do not eat them.

Deu 14:20 You may eat any clean insect.

Deu 14:21 "Do not eat any animal that dies a natural death. You may let the foreigners who live among you eat it, or you may sell it to other foreigners. But you belong to the LORD your God; you are his people. "Do not cook a young sheep or goat in its mother's milk.

Tithes

Deu 14:22 "Set aside a tithe—a tenth of all that your fields produce each year.

Deu 14:23 Then go to the one place where the LORD your God has chosen to be worshiped; and there in his presence eat the tithes of your grain, wine, and olive oil, and the first-born of your cattle and sheep. Do this so that you may learn to honor the LORD your God always.

Deu 14:24 If the place of worship is too far from your home for you to carry there the tithe of the produce that the LORD has blessed you with, then do this:

Deu 14:25 Sell your produce and take the money with you to the one place of worship.

Deu 14:26 Spend it on whatever you want—beef, lamb, wine, beer—and there, in the presence of the LORD your God, you and your families are to eat and enjoy yourselves.

Deu 14:27 "Do not neglect the Levites who live in your towns; they have no property of their own.

Deu 14:28 At the end of every third year bring the tithe of all your crops and store it in your towns.

Deu 14:29 This food is for the Levites, since they own no property, and for the foreigners, orphans, and widows who live in your towns. They are to come and get all they need. Do this, and the LORD your God will bless you in everything you do.

DEUTERONÓMIUM 14

1Julle is kinders van die Here julle God. Julle mag julle nie stukkend kerf of die hare voor op julle kop afskeer as julle oor 'n afgestorwene treur nie. 2Julle is 'n volk wat aan die Here julle God gewy is. Hy het julle uit al die volke op die aarde uitgekies om sy eiendomsvolk te wees. 3Julle mag niks eet wat afstootlik is nie. 4Die diere waarvan julle mag eet, is: bees, skaap, bok, 5takbok, ribbok, hartbees, klipbok, eland, gemsbok, springbok, 6al dié wat volledig gesplete kloue het en herkou. 7Maar dié wat net herkou of net volledig gesplete kloue het, mag julle nie eet nie: die kameel, die haas, die dassie. Hulle herkou maar het nie gesplete kloue nie: hulle is vir julle onrein. 8Dit geld ook van die vark: hy het wel gesplete kloue maar hy herkou nie. Hy is vir julle onrein. Julle mag nie die vleis van hierdie diere eet of selfs aan hulle karkasse raak nie. 9In die geval van waterdiere mag julle alles eet wat vinne en skubbe het. 10Maar julle mag nie dié eet wat nie vinne en skubbe het nie: hulle is vir julle onrein. 11Julle mag alle rein voëls eet. 12Die volgende mag egter nie geëet word nie: arende, lammervangers en visarende; 13swartaasvoëls, valke en al die roofvoëlsoorte; 14al die kraaisoorte; 15volstruise, nagvalke, seemeeue en alle soorte roofvoëls; 16uile, ibisse en flaminke; 17pelikane, swane en visvangers; 18ooievaars en al die reiersoorte; hoep-hoepe en vlermuise. 19Alle insekte wat vlerke het, is vir julle onrein. Hulle mag nie geëet word nie. 20Julle mag net rein voëls eet. 21Julle mag nie 'n dier wat gevrek het, eet nie. Gee dit vir die vreemdeling wat by julle bly, en hy kan dit eet, of verkoop dit aan 'n uitlander. Julle is 'n gewyde volk, julle behoort aan die Here julle God. Julle mag nie 'n boklam in sy ma se melk kook nie. 22Jy moet elke jaar 'n tiende van die opbrengs van jou gesaaides, van wat op jou land groei, opsy sit: 23jy moet dit in die teenwoordigheid van die Here jou God eet op die plek wat Hy sal kies om sy Naam daar te laat woon. Jy moet die tiende opsy sit van jou koring, jou wyn en jou olie en dan ook nog die eerstelinge van jou grootvee en jou kleinvee, sodat jy kan leer om die Here jou God altyddeur te eer. 24Maar as die Here jou God jou baie voorspoedig maak en die plek wat Hy sal kies om sy Naam daar te vestig boonop nog ver van jou af is, sodat jy nie die tiende die hele ent pad kan dra nie, 25kan jy die tiende in geld omsit. Jy moet dan die geld vat en na die plek toe gaan wat die Here jou God vir Hom gekies het. 26Daar moet jy met die geld koop net wat jy wil: bees, skaap, wyn, bier, of enigiets anders wat jy wil hê. Dan moet jy en jou familie dit daar in die teenwoordigheid van die Here jou God eet en bly wees. 27Moenie die Leviete wat in jou omgewing woon, vergeet nie, want hulle het nie 'n eie grondgebied as besitting saam met jou gekry nie.

[28]Om die drie jaar moet jy die volle tiende van daardie jaar se opbrengs in jou dorpe gaan wegpak. [29]Dan kan die Leviete wat nie 'n eie grondgebied as besitting saam met jou gekry het nie, die vreemdelinge, die weeskinders en die weduwees in jou omgewing genoeg eet. As jy dit doen, sal die Here jou God jou voorspoedig maak in alles wat jy aanpak.

Deuteronomy 15

The Sabbatical Year

Deu 15:1 "At the end of every seventh year you are to cancel the debts of those who owe you money.

Deu 15:2 This is how it is to be done. Each of you who has lent money to any Israelite is to cancel the debt; you must not try to collect the money; the LORD himself has declared the debt canceled.

Deu 15:3 You may collect what a foreigner owes you, but you must not collect what any of your own people owe you.

Deu 15:4 "The LORD your God will bless you in the land that he is giving you. Not one of your people will be poor

Deu 15:5 if you obey him and carefully observe everything that I command you today.

Deu 15:6 The LORD will bless you, as he has promised. You will lend money to many nations, but you will not have to borrow from any; you will have control over many nations, but no nation will have control over you.

Deu 15:7 "If in any of the towns in the land that the LORD your God is giving you there are Israelites in need, then do not be selfish and refuse to help them.

Deu 15:8 Instead, be generous and lend them as much as they need.

Deu 15:9 Do not refuse to lend them something, just because the year when debts are canceled is near. Do not let such an evil thought enter your mind. If you refuse to make the loan, they will cry out to the LORD against you, and you will be held guilty.

Deu 15:10 Give to them freely and unselfishly, and the LORD will bless you in everything you do.

Deu 15:11 There will always be some Israelites who are poor and in need, and so I command you to be generous to them.

Deu 15:12 "If any Israelites, male or female, sell themselves to you as slaves, you are to release them after they have served you for six years. When the seventh year comes, you must let them go free.

Deu 15:13 When you set them free, do not send them away empty-handed.

Deu 15:14 Give to them generously from what the LORD has blessed you with—sheep, grain, and wine.

Deu 15:15 Remember that you were slaves in Egypt and the LORD your God set you free; that is why I am now giving you this command.

Deu 15:16 "But your slave may not want to leave; he may love you and your family and be content to stay.

Deu 15:17 Then take him to the door of your house and there pierce his ear; he will then be your slave for life. Treat your female slave in the same way.

Deu 15:18 Do not be resentful when you set slaves free; after all, they have served you for six years at half the cost of hired servants. Do this, and the LORD your God will bless you in all that you do.

Deu 15:19 "Set aside for the LORD your God all the first-born males of your cattle and sheep; don't use any of these cattle for work and don't shear any of these sheep.

Deu 15:20 Each year you and your family are to eat them in the LORD's presence at the one place of worship.

Deu 15:21 But if there is anything wrong with the animals, if they are crippled or blind or have any other serious defect, you must not sacrifice them to the LORD your God.

Deu 15:22 You may eat such animals at home. All of you, whether ritually clean or unclean, may eat them, just as you eat deer or antelope.

Deu 15:23 But do not use their blood for food; instead, you must pour it out on the ground like water.

DEUTERONÓMIUM 15

1Aan die einde van elke sewende jaar moet jy skuld afskryf. 2Dit moet so gedoen word: elkeen aan wie 'n mede-Israeliet iets skuld, moet dit vir hom afskryf. 'n Skuldeiser mag nie sy mede-Israeliet, sy broer, dwing om hom te betaal nie, want dit is die jaar waarin die Here afskrywing van skuld beveel. 3Jy mag wel 'n nie-Israeliet dwing om sy skuld te betaal, maar as 'n mede-Israeliet jou iets skuld, moet jy dit vir hom afskryf. 4As jy maar net luister na die Here jou God en gehoorsaam is aan al hierdie gebooie wat ek jou vandag gee en daarvolgens lewe, sal daar nie 'n arme onder jou wees nie, want die Here sal jou baie voorspoedig maak in die land wat Hy jou gee om as jou eie te besit. 5Die Here jou God sal jou voorspoedig maak soos Hy beloof het, en jy sal aan baie nasies kan uitleen sonder dat jy self hoef te leen. Jy sal oor baie nasies heers, maar oor jou sal hulle nie heers nie. 6As daar in een van die dorpe in die land wat die Here jou God aan jou gee, 'n arme is, 'n mede-Israeliet, moet jy nie hard en suinig wees teenoor so 'n broer van jou wat arm is nie. 7Wees vrygewig teenoor hom en leen hom wat hy nodig het. 8Moenie sondige gedagtes herberg en dink dit is nie goed om jou broer wat arm is te help nie omdat die sewende jaar, die jaar van afskrywing, op hande is nie. Hy mag hom teen jou op die Here beroep, en jy sal skuldig staan. 9Gee vryelik aan jou broer wat arm is, en moenie sleg voel omdat jy vir hom gegee het nie, want juis omdat jy vir hom gee, sal die Here jou God jou voorspoedig maak in alles wat jy doen en aanpak. 10Daar sal altyd armes in jou land wees, en daarom het ek jou beveel om vrygewig te wees teenoor jou mede-Israeliet wat in nood is en arm is. 11Wanneer 'n mede-Israeliet, 'n Hebreër soos jy, 'n man of 'n vrou, aan jou verkoop word, en hy werk ses jaar vir jou, moet jy hom in die sewende jaar vrylaat. 12Maar wanneer jy hom vrylaat, moet jy hom nie met leë hande laat gaan nie. 13Gee hom 'n behoorlike deel van jou kleinvee, van die graan op jou dorsvloer en van jou parskuip. Van alles waarin die Here jou God jou voorspoedig gemaak het, moet jy vir hom gee. 14Jy moet onthou jy was self 'n slaaf in Egipte en die Here jou God het jou bevry. Dit is daarom dat ek jou vandag hierdie bevel gee. 15Maar as dit sou gebeur dat jou slaaf vir jou sê: Ek wil nie van u af weggaan nie, want ek het u en u familie lief,' omdat hy dit goed by jou het, 16moet jy 'n els vat en dit deur sy oor steek teen die deur. Dan is hy vir altyd jou slaaf. Met 'n slavin moet jy dieselfde doen. 17Moenie dink 'n ramp het jou getref as jy jou slaaf vrylaat nie, want in die ses jaar het hy jou dubbel die loon van 'n huurling gespaar. Die Here jou God sal jou voorspoedig maak in alles wat jy doen. 18Jy moet elke manlike eersteling wat daar onder jou grootvee en jou kleinvee gebore word, aan die Here jou God wy. Jy mag nie die eersteling van jou grootvee laat werk nie, en die eersteling van jou kleinvee mag jy nie skeer nie. [19]Jy en jou familie moet dit elke jaar in die teenwoordigheid van die Here jou God eet op die plek wat Hy gekies het. [20]Maar as die eersteling 'n liggaamsgebrek het, as hy lam of blind is of enige ander liggaamsgebrek het, mag jy hom nie as offer vir die Here jou God bring nie. [21]Jy moet dit dan in jou woonplek eet en enigiemand, rein of onrein, mag daarvan eet asof dit 'n ribbok of 'n takbok is. [22]Maar jy mag nie die bloed daarvan eet nie; gooi dit op die grond uit asof dit water is.

Deuteronomy 16

Passover

Deu 16:1 "Honor the LORD your God by celebrating Passover in the month of Abib; it was on a night in that month that he rescued you from Egypt.

Deu 16:2 Go to the one place of worship and slaughter there one of your sheep or cattle for the Passover meal to honor the LORD your God.

Deu 16:3 When you eat this meal, do not eat bread prepared with yeast. For seven days you are to eat bread prepared without yeast, as you did when you had to leave Egypt in such a hurry. Eat this bread—it will be called the bread of suffering—so that as long as you live you will remember the day you came out of Egypt, that place of suffering.

Deu 16:4 For seven days no one in your land is to have any yeast in the house; and the meat of the animal killed on the evening of the first day must be eaten that same night.

Deu 16:5 (5-6) "Slaughter the Passover animals at the one place of worship—and nowhere else in the land that the LORD your God will give you. Do it at sunset, the time of day when you left Egypt.

Deu 16:7 Boil the meat and eat it at the one place of worship; and the next morning return home.

Deu 16:8 For the next six days you are to eat bread prepared without yeast, and on the seventh day assemble to worship the LORD your God, and do no work on that day.

The Feast of Weeks

Deu 16:9 "Count seven weeks from the time that you begin to harvest the grain,

Deu 16:10 and then celebrate the Harvest Festival, to honor the LORD your God, by bringing him a freewill offering in proportion to the blessing he has given you.

Deu 16:11 Be joyful in the LORD's presence, together with your children, your servants, and the Levites, foreigners, orphans, and widows who live in your towns. Do this at the one place of worship.

Deu 16:12 Be sure that you obey these commands; do not forget that you were slaves in Egypt.

The Feast of Booths

Deu 16:13 "After you have threshed all your grain and pressed all your grapes, celebrate the Festival of Shelters for seven days.

Deu 16:14 Enjoy it with your children, your servants, and the Levites, foreigners, orphans, and widows who live in your towns.

Deu 16:15 Honor the LORD your God by celebrating this festival for seven days at the one place of worship. Be joyful, because the LORD has blessed your harvest and your work.

Deu 16:16 "All the men of your nation are to come to worship the LORD three times a year at the one place of worship: at Passover, Harvest Festival, and the Festival of Shelters. Each man is to bring a gift

Deu 16:17 as he is able, in proportion to the blessings that the LORD your God has given him.

Justice

Deu 16:18 "Appoint judges and other officials in every town that the LORD your God gives you. These men are to judge the people impartially.

Deu 16:19 They are not to be unjust or show partiality in their judgments; and they are not to accept bribes, for gifts blind the eyes even of wise and honest men, and cause them to give wrong decisions.

Deu 16:20 Always be fair and just, so that you will occupy the land that the LORD your God is giving you and so that you will continue to live there.

Forbidden Forms of Worship

Deu 16:21 "When you make an altar for the LORD your God, do not put beside it a wooden symbol of the goddess Asherah.

Deu 16:22 And do not set up any stone pillar for idol worship; the LORD hates them.

DEUTERONÓMIUM 16

1Onthou die maand Abib en vier die paasfees tot eer van die Here jou God. Dit was 'n nag in die maand Abib dat die Here jou God jou uit Egipte laat trek het. 2Op die plek wat die Here sal kies om sy Naam daar te laat woon, moet jy uit jou kleinvee of jou grootvee die paasoffer vir die Here jou God bring. 3Jy mag nie brood met suurdeeg in eet nie, maar sewe dae lank moet jy ongesuurde brood eet. Dit is brood wat herinner aan jou swaarkry, en jy moet jou lewe lank dink aan die dag waarop jy uit Egipte weg is: hoe jy haastig daar weg is. 4Sewe dae lank mag daar in jou hele gebied geen suurdeeg wees nie. Daar mag nie van die vleis wat jy op die eerste aand offer, tot die volgende môre toe oorbly nie. 5Jy mag nie die paasoffer bring in enige van die woonplekke wat die Here jou God vir jou gee nie. 6Jy mag dit net bring in die plek wat die Here jou God sal kies om sy Naam daar te laat woon. Daar moet jy die paasoffer bring in die aand, teen sononder, want julle het in die aand uit Egipte uit weggetrek. 7Braai en eet dit in die plek wat die Here jou God sal kies. Gaan dan die volgende môre terug huis toe. 8Ses dae moet jy dan nog ongesuurde brood eet, en op die sewende dag moet julle tot eer van die Here jou God saamkom. Op hierdie dag mag jy geen werk doen nie. 9Jy moet sewe weke bereken van die dag af dat jy jou graan begin oes. 10Vier die fees van die weke tot eer van die Here jou God. In die mate waarin die Here jou God jou met voorspoed geseën het, moet jy 'n vrywillige offer vir Hom bring. 11In die plek wat die Here jou God sal kies om sy Naam daar te laat woon, moet jy bly wees in die teenwoordigheid van die Here jou God, jy en jou seuns en dogters, jou slawe en slavinne, die Leviete wat in jou omgewing woon, die vreemdelinge, die weeskinders en die weduwees by jou. 12Jy moet altyd onthou dat jy 'n slaaf was in Egipte. Onderhou al hierdie voorskrifte en leef daarvolgens. 13Jy moet die huttefees sewe dae lank vier nadat jy jou oes van die dorsvloer en die parskuip af ingery het. 14Jy moet bly wees op hierdie fees, jy en jou seuns en dogters, jou slawe en slavinne, al die Leviete, vreemdelinge, weeskinders en weduwees van jou omgewing. 15In die plek wat die Here jou God sal kies, moet jy sewe dae lank tot sy eer feesvier, omdat die Here jou God jou met 'n goeie oes geseën het en alles wat jy aangepak het, voorspoedig gemaak het. Daarom moet jy bly wees. 16Drie keer elke jaar moet al jou mans in die plek wat die Here jou God sal kies, in sy teenwoordigheid verskyn: op die fees van die ongesuurde brood, die fees van die weke en die huttefees. Die volk mag nie sonder offers in die teenwoordigheid van die Here verskyn nie. 17Elkeen moet 'n geskenk bring in die mate waarin die Here jou God jou voorspoedig gemaak het. [18]In elke dorp wat die Here jou God vir jou gee, moet jy regters en amptenare aanstel. Hulle moet die volk billik regeer. [19]Jy moet die regspraak sy loop laat neem en vir niemand partydig wees nie. Wanneer jy regspreek, mag jy geen omkoopgeskenk aanneem nie, want dit maak dié wat van beter moet weet, blind en laat die saak van die onskuldige skeef loop. [20]Jy moet alleen laat geld wat reg is. Dan sal jy bly lewe en die land wat die Here jou God vir jou gee, in besit neem. [21]Jy mag nie 'n gewyde paal inplant langs die altaar wat jy vir die Here jou God gebou het nie. [22]Jy mag ook nie vir jou 'n klippilaar oprig nie, want die Here jou God haat sulke goed.

Deuteronomy 17

Deu 17:1 "Do not sacrifice to the LORD your God cattle or sheep that have any defects; the LORD hates this.

Deu 17:2 "Suppose you hear that in one of your towns some men or women have sinned against the LORD and broken his covenant

Deu 17:3 by worshiping and serving other gods or the sun or the moon or the stars, contrary to the LORD's command.

Deu 17:4 If you hear such a report, then investigate it thoroughly. If it is true that this evil thing has happened in Israel,

Deu 17:5 then take them outside the town and stone them to death.

Deu 17:6 However, they may be put to death only if two or more witnesses testify against them; they are not to be put to death if there is only one witness.

Deu 17:7 The witnesses are to throw the first stones, and then the rest of the people are to stone them; in this way you will get rid of this evil.

Legal Decisions by Priests and Judges

Deu 17:8 "It may be that some cases will be too difficult for the local judges to decide, such as certain cases of property rights or of bodily injury or those cases that involve a distinction between murder and manslaughter. When this happens, go to the one place of worship chosen by the LORD your God,

Deu 17:9 and present your case to the levitical priests and to the judge who is in office at that time, and let them decide the case.

Deu 17:10 They will give their decision, and you are to do exactly as they tell you.

Deu 17:11 Accept their verdict and follow their instructions in every detail.

Deu 17:12 Anyone who dares to disobey either the judge or the priest on duty is to be put to death; in this way you will remove this evil from Israel.

Deu 17:13 Then everyone will hear of it and be afraid, and no one else will dare to act in such a way.

Laws Concerning Israel's Kings

Deu 17:14 "After you have taken possession of the land that the LORD your God is going to give you and have settled there, then you will decide you need a king like all the nations around you.

Deu 17:15 Be sure that the man you choose to be king is the one whom the LORD has chosen. He must be one of your own people; do not make a foreigner your king.

Deu 17:16 The king is not to have a large number of horses for his army, and he is not to send people to Egypt to buy horses, because the LORD has said that his people are never to return there.

Deu 17:17 The king is not to have many wives, because this would make him turn away from the LORD; and he is not to make himself rich with silver and gold.

Deu 17:18 When he becomes king, he is to have a copy of the book of God's laws and teachings made from the original copy kept by the levitical priests.

Deu 17:19 He is to keep this book near him and read from it all his life, so that he will learn to honor the LORD and to obey faithfully everything that is commanded in it.

Deu 17:20 This will keep him from thinking that he is better than other Israelites and from disobeying the LORD's commands in any way. Then he will reign for many years, and his descendants will rule Israel for many generations.

DEUTERONÓMIUM 17

1Jy mag nie vir die Here jou God 'n bees of 'n skaap offer wat 'n liggaamsgebrek of 'n letsel het nie. So iets is afskuwelik vir die Here jou God. 2Dit kan gebeur dat jy in een van die dorpe wat die Here jou God vir jou sal gee, 'n man of 'n vrou kry wat die verbond verbreek en doen wat verkeerd is in die oë van die Here jou God 3deur ander gode te dien en te vereer: die son of die maan of enige ander hemelliggaam. Die Here het nie hierdie soort diens beveel nie. 4Wanneer dit vir jou vertel word of wanneer jy dit hoor, moet jy noukeurig navraag doen daaroor en as dit waar is dat so iets afskuweliks in Israel gedoen is, 5moet jy die man of die vrou wat die verkeerde ding gedoen het, laat uitbring na die stadspoort toe en hy of sy moet daar met klippe doodgegooi word. 6Die terdoodveroordeling mag net plaasvind op die eenparige getuienis van twee of drie getuies, nie op dié van net een nie. 7Die getuies moet die vonnis begin voltrek, en daarna moet die hele volk dit help uitvoer. Jy moet hierdie soort kwaad tussen julle uitroei. 8Dit kan gebeur dat 'n saak voor jou gebring word wat vir jou te moeilik is: oor bloedvergieting of oor 'n hofuitspraak of oor aanranding. Dan moet jy na die plek toe gaan wat die Here jou God vir Hom sal uitkies. 9Gaan dan na die Levitiese priesters en die regter wat aan diens is, en vra raad by hulle. Hulle sal vir jou die regte uitspraak lewer. 10Handel volgens die uitspraak wat hulle vir jou lewer daar by die plek wat die Here sal kies. Gehoorsaam alles wat hulle jou daar leer, en lewe daarvolgens. 11Jy moet handel volgens die onderrig wat hulle gee, volgens die uitspraak wat hulle vir jou lewer. Jy mag nie 'n haarbreedte afwyk van wat hulle vir jou sê nie. 12Die man wat nie luister nie en so die regter en die priester wat diens lewer in die heiligdom van die Here jou God, met minagting behandel, moet doodgemaak word. Jy moet die soort verkeerde ding uit Israel uitroei. 13Die hele volk sal hiervan hoor en bang word om so moedswillig op te tree. 14Wanneer jy in die land kom wat die Here jou God vir jou sal gee, en jy dit in besit geneem het en daarin woon, sal jy sê: Ek wil 'n koning oor my aanstel. Elke nasie in my omgewing het 'n koning.' 15Stel dan tog die koning aan vir wie die Here jou God kies. Jy moet iemand uit jou eie volk as koning aanstel. Jy mag nie 'n uitlander, iemand wat nie uit jou volk is nie, as koning aanstel nie. 16Hy mag nie baie perde aanhou nie en hy mag ook nie die volk na Egipte toe laat teruggaan om vir hulle baie perde aan te skaf nie. Die Here het vir julle gesê: Julle mag nooit weer daarheen teruggaan nie.' 17Die koning mag ook nie baie vrouens hê nie, sodat hy nie aan die Here ontrou word nie. Hy mag ook nie sy silwer en goud te veel laat word nie. 18Wanneer hy as koning oor sy ryk regeer, moet hy vir hom

'n afskrif van hierdie wet maak. Hiervoor moet hy die eksemplaar van die Levitiese priesters gebruik. [19]Hy moet die afskrif by hom hou en sy lewe lank moet hy dit gereeld lees sodat hy kan leer om die Here sy God te dien deur gehoorsaam te wees aan alles in hierdie wet en om volgens al hierdie voorskrifte te lewe. [20]Dan sal hy hom nie bo sy volksgenote verhef en 'n haarbreedte afwyk van hierdie gebod nie. As hy gehoorsaam is, sal hy lank lewe in sy koninkryk, hy en sy seuns tussen sy volk Israel.

Deuteronomy 18

Provision for Priests and Levites

Deu 18:1 "The priestly tribe of Levi is not to receive any share of land in Israel; instead, they are to live on the offerings and other sacrifices given to the LORD.

Deu 18:2 They are to own no land, as the other tribes do; their share is the privilege of being the LORD's priests, as the LORD has promised.

Deu 18:3 "Whenever cattle or sheep are sacrificed, the priests are to be given the shoulder, the jaw, and the stomach.

Deu 18:4 They are to receive the first share of the grain, wine, olive oil, and wool.

Deu 18:5 The LORD chose from all your tribes the tribe of Levi to serve him as priests forever.

Deu 18:6 "Any Levite who wants to may come from any town in Israel to the one place of worship

Deu 18:7 and may serve there as a priest of the LORD his God, like the other Levites who are serving there.

Deu 18:8 He is to receive the same amount of food as the other priests, and he may keep whatever his family sends him.

Abominable Practices

Deu 18:9 "When you come into the land that the LORD your God is giving you, don't follow the disgusting practices of the nations that are there.

Deu 18:10 Don't sacrifice your children in the fires on your altars; and don't let your people practice divination or look for omens or use spells

Deu 18:11 or charms, and don't let them consult the spirits of the dead.

Deu 18:12 The LORD your God hates people who do these disgusting things, and that is why he is driving those nations out of the land as you advance.

Deu 18:13 Be completely faithful to the LORD."

Deu 18:14 Then Moses said, "In the land you are about to occupy, people follow the advice of those who practice divination and look for omens, but the LORD your God does not allow you to do this.

A New Prophet like Moses

Deu 18:15 Instead, he will send you a prophet like me from among your own people, and you are to obey him.

Deu 18:16 "On the day that you were gathered at Mount Sinai, you begged not to hear the LORD speak again or to see his fiery presence any more, because you were afraid you would die.

Deu 18:17 So the LORD said to me, 'They have made a wise request.

Deu 18:18 I will send them a prophet like you from among their own people; I will tell him what to say, and he will tell the people everything I command.

Deu 18:19 He will speak in my name, and I will punish anyone who refuses to obey him.

Deu 18:20 But if any prophet dares to speak a message in my name when I did not command him to do so, he must die for it, and so must any prophet who speaks in the name of other gods.'

Deu 18:21 "You may wonder how you can tell when a prophet's message does not come from the LORD.

Deu 18:22 If a prophet speaks in the name of the LORD and what he says does not come true, then it is not the LORD's message. That prophet has spoken on his own authority, and you are not to fear him.

DEUTERONÓMIUM 18

1Die Levitiese priesters, die afstammelinge van Levi, sal nie tussen die Israeliete grond as besitting kry nie. Die hele Levistam sal die vuuroffers eet wat vir die Here gebring is, wat aan Hom behoort. 2Die priesters kry nie 'n eie grondgebied tussen hulle volksgenote nie, Levi ontvang van wat die Here self toekom. Dit is soos die Here vir hom beloof het. 3Die priesters mag soos volg by die volk aanspraak maak op offers wat gebring word: iemand wat 'n bees of 'n skaap kom offer, moet vir die priester die blad, die kakebene en die pens van die dier gee; 4jy moet vir die priester die beste deel gee van jou koringoes en jou wynoes, van jou olie-opbrengs en jou wolskeersel. 5Die Here jou God het die Levistam uit al jou stamme uitgekies om in sy diens te staan. Levi en sy nageslag moet vir altyd aan die Naam van die Here diens lewer. 6Wanneer 'n Leviet uit enige van die Israelitiese stede waar hy as vreemdeling woon, na die plek toe wil kom wat die Here sal kies, 7mag die Leviet aan die Naam van die Here sy God diens lewer soos al sy mede-Leviete wat daar in die teenwoordigheid van die Here diens doen. 8So 'n Leviet moet net soveel kos as die ander Leviete kry, ongeag wat hy as erfgoed besit. 9Wanneer jy in die land kom wat die Here jou God vir jou sal gee, moet jy nie die afskuwelike praktyke van daardie nasies aanleer nie. 10Daar mag nie iemand by jou wees wat sy seun of dogter as offer laat verbrand nie. Daar mag nie 'n besweerder by jou wees nie en ook nie 'n towenaar of iemand wat voortekens lees of 'n goëlaar 11of 'n slangbesweerder of iemand wat geeste om inligting vra en dooies raadpleeg nie. 12Die Here het 'n afsku van elkeen wat hierdie soort ding doen. Trouens, dit is juis oor die afskuwelike praktyke van die Kanaäniete dat die Here jou God hulle in jou belang gaan verdryf. 13Jy moet opreg wees voor die Here jou God. 14Hierdie nasies wat jy gaan verdryf, luister na towenaars en besweerders. Maar die Here jou God verbied jou om dit te doen. 15Die Here jou God sal 'n profeet onder jou na vore laat kom, een van jou volksgenote. Hy sal soos ek wees. Vir hom moet jy gehoorsaam. 16Dit sal wees soos destyds toe die gemeente by Horeb bymekaargekom het en jy vir die Here jou God gesê het: Ek kan nie weer 'n keer die stem van die Here my God aanhoor en weer na die groot vuur kyk nie, want dan sterf ek.' 17Toe het die Here vir my gesê: Wat hulle gesê het, is reg. 18Ek sal 'n profeet vir hulle na vore laat kom, een van hulle volksgenote. Hy sal soos jy wees. Ek sal my woorde in sy mond gee, en hy sal vir sy volksgenote alles sê wat Ek hom beveel. 19Ek sal self rekenskap eis van elkeen wat nie gehoorsaam is aan my woorde wat die profeet in my Naam sê nie. 20'n Profeet wat hom dit aanmatig om in my Naam iets te sê wat Ek hom nie beveel het nie, moet sterf. Dit geld ook van 'n profeet wat in die naam van ander gode praat.' [21]Wanneer jy jou afvra: Hoe sal ek die woorde kan uitken wat die Here nie met die profeet gepraat het nie? [22]moet jy weet: as 'n profeet iets in die Naam van die Here aankondig en dit kom nie uit nie en dit gebeur nie so nie, dan het die Here nie met die profeet gepraat nie. Dan het die profeet hom dit aangematig en hoef jy jou nie aan hom te steur nie.

Deuteronomy 19

Laws Concerning Cities of Refuge

Deu 19:1 "After the LORD your God has destroyed the people whose land he is giving you and after you have taken their cities and houses and settled there,

Deu 19:2 (2-3) divide the territory into three parts, each with a city that can be easily reached. Then any of you that kill will be able to escape to one of them for protection.

Deu 19:4 If you accidentally kill someone who is not your enemy, you may escape to any of these cities and be safe.

Deu 19:5 For example, if two of you go into the forest together to cut wood and if, as one of you is chopping down a tree, the ax head comes off the handle and kills the other, you can run to one of those three cities and be safe.

Deu 19:6 If there were only one city, the distance to it might be too great, and the relative who is responsible for taking revenge for the killing might catch you and angrily kill an innocent person. After all, it was by accident that you killed someone who was not your enemy.

Deu 19:7 This is why I order you to set aside three cities.

Deu 19:8 "When the LORD your God enlarges your territory, as he told your ancestors he would, and gives you all the land he has promised,

Deu 19:9 then you are to select three more cities. (He will give you this land if you do everything that I command you today and if you love the LORD your God and live according to his teachings.)

Deu 19:10 Do this, so that innocent people will not die and so that you will not be guilty of putting them to death in the land that the LORD is giving you.

Deu 19:11 "But suppose you deliberately murder your enemy in cold blood and then escape to one of those cities for protection.

Deu 19:12 In that case, the leaders of your own town are to send for you and hand you over to the relative responsible for taking revenge for the murder, so that you may be put to death.

Deu 19:13 No mercy will be shown to you. Israel must rid itself of murderers, so that all will go well.

Property Boundaries

Deu 19:14 "Do not move your neighbor's property line, established long ago in the land that the LORD your God is giving you.

Laws Concerning Witnesses

Deu 19:15 "One witness is not enough to convict someone of a crime; at least two witnesses are necessary to prove that someone is guilty.

Deu 19:16 If any of you try to harm another by false accusations,

Deu 19:17 both of you are to go to the one place of worship and be judged by the priests and judges who are then in office.

Deu 19:18 The judges will investigate the case thoroughly; and if you have made a false accusation,

Deu 19:19 you are to receive the punishment the accused would have received. In this way your nation will get rid of this evil.

Deu 19:20 Then everyone else will hear what happened; they will be afraid, and no one will ever again do such an evil thing.

Deu 19:21 In such cases show no mercy; the punishment is to be a life for a life, an eye for an eye, a tooth for a tooth, a hand for a hand, and a foot for a foot.

DEUTERONÓMIUM 19

1Die Here jou God sal die nasies uitroei wie se land Hy aan jou sal gee. Hy sal hulle verdryf en jy sal in hulle stede en in hulle huise woon. 2In die land wat die Here jou God aan jou gee om te besit, moet jy drie stede uitsonder 3as stede waarheen iemand kan vlug as hy 'n ander doodgemaak het. Jy moet die land wat die Here jou God aan jou as besitting gee, in drie streke verdeel sodat die stede maklik bereikbaar is. 4Iemand mag na een van die stede toe vlug om te bly lewe as hy 'n ander doodgemaak het sonder voorbedagte rade en sonder dat daar voorheen vyandskap tussen hulle was. 5Wanneer iemand byvoorbeeld saam met sy buurman na 'n bos toe gaan om hout te kap en hy swaai die byl in sy hand om 'n boom te kap, en die byl skram weg van die boom af en tref die buurman sodat hy sterf, mag so 'n persoon na een van die drie stede toe vlug om te bly lewe. 6As die pad na so 'n stad toe te lank sou wees, sou dit kon gebeur dat 'n familielid wat in sy woede die ander se dood wil wreek, die man wat hom doodgemaak het, agtervolg en inhaal en doodmaak al is daar nie 'n misdaad gepleeg wat die dood verdien nie: daar was mos nie voorheen vyandskap tussen hulle nie. 7Dit is waarom ek jou beveel om drie stede uit te sonder. 8Maar as die Here jou God die grondgebied uitbrei soos Hy met 'n eed aan jou voorvaders beloof het en Hy gee die hele land wat Hy aan hulle beloof het aan jou, moet jy nog drie stede by die eerste drie voeg. Die Here sal jou gebied uitbrei omdat jy hierdie hele wet wat ek jou vandag gee, gehoorsaam deurdat jy die Here jou God liefhet en altyd volgens sy wil lewe. 9Daar mag nie onskuldige bloed vergiet word in die land wat die Here jou God aan jou as besitting sal gee nie, want dan sal daar bloedskuld op jou rus. 10Wanneer daar vyandskap is tussen 'n man en sy buurman, en hy lê sy buurman voor en pak hom en slaan hom dat hy sterf, en die man vlug dan na een van hierdie stede toe, 11moet die leiers van sy stad hom van daar af laat haal en hom oorgee in die mag van die familielid wat die ander se dood wil wreek, en die familielid mag hom doodmaak. 12Jy mag hom nie genade betoon nie. Jy moet uit Israel uitroei dié wat onskuldige bloed vergiet, dan sal dit met jou goed gaan. 13Jy mag nie jou buurman se grenslyne verskuif nie. Dit is grenslyne wat voorheen deur die voorgeslag vasgestel is vir die eiendom wat jy sal besit in die land wat die Here jou God jou as besit sal gee. 14Daar mag nie net een persoon teen iemand getuig nie, al was die oortreding of die misdaad ook wat, al het hy ook hoe verkeerd gehandel. 'n Beskuldiging kan net bewys word deur die getuienis van twee of drie getuies. 15Wanneer 'n kwaadwillige getuie iemand van ontrou aan die Here beskuldig, 16moet die twee mans wat in die saak betrokke is, voor die Here verskyn, voor die priesters en die regters wat aan diens is. [17]Die regters moet die saak deeglik ondersoek en as dit blyk dat die persoon wat sy volksgenoot beskuldig het, 'n vals getuie is, [18]moet julle hom aandoen wat hy sy volksgenoot wou aandoen. So moet hierdie soort kwaad tussen julle uitgeroei word. [19]Die ander mense sal daarvan hoor en bang word en hierdie soort verkeerde ding sal nie weer tussen julle voorkom nie. [20]Jy mag so 'n persoon nie genade betoon nie: 'n lewe vir 'n lewe, 'n oog vir 'n oog, 'n tand vir 'n tand, 'n hand vir 'n hand en 'n voet vir 'n voet.

Deuteronomy 20

Laws Concerning Warfare

Deu 20:1 "When you go out to fight against your enemies and you see chariots and horses and an army that outnumbers yours, do not be afraid of them. The LORD your God, who rescued you from Egypt, will be with you.

Deu 20:2 Before you start fighting, a priest is to come forward and say to the army,

Deu 20:3 'Men of Israel, listen! Today you are going into battle. Do not be afraid of your enemies or lose courage or panic.

Deu 20:4 The LORD your God is going with you, and he will give you victory.'

Deu 20:5 "Then the officers will address the men and say, 'Is there any man here who has just built a house, but has not yet dedicated it? If so, he is to go home. Otherwise, if he is killed in battle, someone else will dedicate his house.

Deu 20:6 Is there any man here who has just planted a vineyard, but has not yet had the chance to harvest its grapes? If so, he is to go home. Otherwise, if he is killed in battle, someone else will enjoy the wine.

Deu 20:7 Is there anyone here who is engaged to be married? If so, he is to go home. Otherwise, if he is killed in battle, someone else will marry the woman he is engaged to.'

Deu 20:8 "The officers will also say to the men, 'Is there any man here who has lost his nerve and is afraid? If so, he is to go home. Otherwise, he will destroy the morale of the others.'

Deu 20:9 When the officers have finished speaking to the army, leaders are to be chosen for each unit.

Deu 20:10 "When you go to attack a city, first give its people a chance to surrender.

Deu 20:11 If they open the gates and surrender, they are all to become your slaves and do forced labor for you.

Deu 20:12 But if the people of that city will not surrender, but choose to fight, surround it with your army.

Deu 20:13 Then, when the LORD your God lets you capture the city, kill every man in it.

Deu 20:14 You may, however, take for yourselves the women, the children, the livestock, and everything else in the city. You may use everything that belongs to your enemies. The LORD has given it to you.

Deu 20:15 That is how you are to deal with those cities that are far away from the land you will settle in.

Deu 20:16 "But when you capture cities in the land that the LORD your God is giving you, kill everyone.

Deu 20:17 Completely destroy all the people: the Hittites, the Amorites, the Canaanites, the Perizzites, the Hivites, and the Jebusites, as the LORD ordered you to do.

Deu 20:18 Kill them, so that they will not make you sin against the LORD by teaching you to do all the disgusting things that they do in the worship of their gods.

Deu 20:19 "When you are trying to capture a city, do not cut down its fruit trees, even though the siege lasts a long time. Eat the fruit, but do not destroy the trees; the trees are not your enemies.

Deu 20:20 You may cut down the other trees and use them in the siege mounds until the city is captured.

DEUTERONÓMIUM 20

1Wanneer jy teen jou vyande gaan oorlog maak en jy merk hulle het perde en strydwaens en hulle is meer as jy, moet jy nie vir die vyande bang wees nie. Die Here jou God wat jou uit Egipte laat trek het, is by jou. 2Wanneer jy gereed staan om te veg, moet die priester nader kom en die volk toespreek. 3Hy moet vir hulle sê: Luister, Israel! Julle staan nou gereed om teen julle vyande te veg. Moenie bewe nie, moenie bang wees nie, moenie vreesbevange word nie, moenie vir hulle skrik nie. 4Die Here julle God gaan saam met julle om vir julle teen julle vyande te veg, om julle die oorwinning te laat behaal.' 5Die leiers moet vir die volk sê: Wie het 'n huis gebou en dit nog nie betrek nie? Hy moet teruggaan huis toe sodat hy nie in die oorlog omkom en 'n ander sy huis betrek nie. 6Wie het 'n wingerd geplant en nog nie van sy vrugte geëet nie? Hy moet teruggaan huis toe sodat hy nie in die oorlog omkom en 'n ander van sy wingerd eet nie. 7Wie het verloof geraak maar is nog nie getroud nie? Hy moet teruggaan huis toe sodat hy nie in die oorlog omkom en 'n ander met sy verloofde trou nie.' 8Verder moet die leiers nog vir die volk sê: Wie is bang? Wie bewe? Hy moet teruggaan huis toe sodat hy nie sy volksgenote laat moed verloor soos hy nie.' 9Wanneer die leiers met die volk gepraat het, moet daar leëraanvoerders aangestel word. 10Wanneer jy teen 'n stad optrek om daarteen te veg, moet jy 'n vredesaanbod maak. 11As die stad die vredesaanbod aanvaar en sy poorte vir jou oopgooi, moet al sy inwoners jou dwangarbeiders word en vir jou werk. 12Maar as die stad nie met jou vrede sluit nie en teen jou wil oorlog maak, moet jy dit beleër. 13Die Here jou God sal dit in jou mag oorgee. Dan moet jy al die manlike inwoners daarvan om die lewe bring, 14maar die vrouens en klein kindertjies, die vee en alles wat in die stad is, alles wat gebuit kan word, moet jy buitmaak sodat jy kan geniet wat jy by jou vyand buitgemaak het, wat die Here jou God vir jou gegee het. 15Dit moet jy doen met al die stede wat baie ver van jou af is, met die stede wat nie aan hierdie nasies hier by jou behoort nie. 16Uit die stede van hierdie volke wat deur die Here jou God aan jou as besitting gegee word, mag jy niks laat bly lewe nie. 17Jy moet die Hetiete, Amoriete, Kanaäniete, Feresiete, Hewiete en Jebusiete om die lewe bring as 'n banoffer aan die Here jou God soos Hy jou beveel het. 18Hulle mag julle nie leer om al die afskuwelike afgodsbeelde te maak wat hulle vir hulle as gode gemaak het nie. Hulle mag julle nie teen die Here julle God laat sondig nie. 19Wanneer jy 'n stad 'n lang ruk beleër terwyl jy daarteen oorlog maak om dit in te neem, moet jy nie sy bome verwoes en dit afkap nie, want jy moet die vrugte daarvan eet. Jy mag dit nie afkap nie, want die bome op die land is nie mense dat jy teen hulle moet veg nie. [20]Net bome wat jy weet nie vrugte dra wat geëet kan word nie, mag jy beskadig. Jy kan hulle afkap om beleëringswerke te bou teen die stad wat met jou oorlog maak solank jy dit nog nie ingeneem het nie.

Deuteronomy 21

Atonement for Unsolved Murders

Deu 21:1 "Suppose someone is found murdered in a field in the land that the LORD your God is going to give you, and you do not know who killed him.

Deu 21:2 Your leaders and judges are to go out and measure the distance from the place where the body was found to each of the nearby towns.

Deu 21:3 Then the leaders of the town nearest to where the body was found are to select a young cow that has never been used for work.

Deu 21:4 They are to take it down to a spot near a stream that never runs dry and where the ground has never been plowed or planted, and there they are to break its neck.

Deu 21:5 The levitical priests are to go there also, because they are to decide every legal case involving violence. The LORD your God has chosen them to serve him and to pronounce blessings in his name.

Deu 21:6 Then all the leaders from the town nearest the place where the murdered person was found are to wash their hands over the cow

Deu 21:7 and say, 'We did not murder this one, and we do not know who did it.

Deu 21:8 LORD, forgive your people Israel, whom you rescued from Egypt. Forgive us and do not hold us responsible for the murder of an innocent person.'

Deu 21:9 And so, by doing what the LORD requires, you will not be held responsible for the murder.

Marrying Female Captives

Deu 21:10 "When the LORD your God gives you victory in battle and you take prisoners,

Deu 21:11 you may see among them a beautiful woman that you like and want to marry.

Deu 21:12 Take her to your home, where she will shave her head, cut her fingernails,

Deu 21:13 and change her clothes. She is to stay in your home and mourn for her parents for a month; after that, you may marry her.

Deu 21:14 Later, if you no longer want her, you are to let her go free. Since you forced her to have intercourse with you, you cannot treat her as a slave and sell her.

Inheritance Rights of the Firstborn

Deu 21:15 "Suppose a man has two wives and they both bear him sons, but the first son is not the child of his favorite wife.

Deu 21:16 When the man decides how he is going to divide his property among his children, he is not to show partiality to the son of his favorite wife by giving him the share that belongs to the first-born son.

Deu 21:17 He is to give a double share of his possessions to his first son, even though he is not the son of his favorite wife. A man must acknowledge his first son and give him the share he is legally entitled to.

A Rebellious Son

Deu 21:18 "Suppose someone has a son who is stubborn and rebellious, a son who will not obey his parents, even though they punish him.

Deu 21:19 His parents are to take him before the leaders of the town where he lives and make him stand trial.

Deu 21:20 They are to say to them, 'Our son is stubborn and rebellious and refuses to obey us; he wastes money and is a drunkard.'

Deu 21:21 Then the men of the city are to stone him to death, and so you will get rid of this evil. Everyone in Israel will hear what has happened and be afraid.

A Man Hanged on a Tree Is Cursed

Deu 21:22 "If someone has been put to death for a crime and the body is hung on a post,

Deu 21:23 it is not to remain there overnight. It must be buried the same day, because a dead body hanging on a post brings God's curse on the land. Bury the body, so that you will not defile the land that the LORD your God is giving you.

DEUTERONÓMIUM 21

1Wanneer iemand wat om die lewe gebring is, gekry word waar hy in die veld lê in die land wat die Here jou God aan jou as besitting sal gee, en niemand weet wie hom doodgemaak het nie, 2moet jou leiers en jou regters uitgaan en die afstand meet van hom af tot by die stede in die omgewing. 3Die leiers van die stad naaste aan die lyk moet dan 'n vers vat wat nog nooit in 'n juk getrek het nie 4en haar na 'n spruit toe bring wat loop en waar daar nie geploeg of gesaai is nie. Daar by die spruit moet hulle die vers se nek breek. 5Dan moet die Levitiese priesters wat deur die Here jou God uitgekies is om Hom te dien en in sy Naam die seën uit te spreek, nader kom en enige geskil of aanklag moet deur hulle uitspraak afgehandel word. 6Al die leiers van die stad naaste aan die lyk moet dan hulle hande was bo-oor die vers waarvan die nek gebreek is by die spruit, 7en sê: Ons het nie hierdie bloed vergiet nie en ons het ook nie gesien wie dit gedoen het nie. 8Here, U wat vir Israel verlos het, spreek tog u volk vry en moenie dat die skuld van bloed wat onskuldig vergiet is, op u volk Israel bly nie.' Dan sal hulle vry wees van die skuld vir die dood van die man. 9So sal jy doen wat reg is in die oë van die Here en sal jy die skuld vir 'n onskuldige dood onder jou uit verwyder. 10Wanneer jy gaan oorlog maak, en die Here jou God gee jou vyande in jou mag oor, en jy neem krygsgevangenes 11en jy sien 'n mooi vrou onder hulle en jy kry haar lief en jy wil met haar trou, 12moet jy haar in jou huis inbring. Dan moet sy haar hare afskeer, haar naels afsny, 13en haar klere wat sy as krygsgevangene gedra het, uittrek. Sy moet in jou huis woon en 'n maand lank oor haar ouers treur. Daarna kan jy met haar gemeenskap hê, en is jy haar man en sy jou vrou. 14As jy later nie meer lief is vir haar nie, moet jy haar laat gaan waarheen sy wil. Jy mag haar nie verkoop nie, jy mag haar ook nie as slavin gebruik nie, want jy het met haar gemeenskap gehad. 15Wanneer 'n man twee vrouens het, een wat hy liefhet en een van wie hy nie hou nie, en albei het vir hom kinders in die wêreld gebring, en die oudste seun is die kind van die vrou van wie hy nie hou nie, 16mag hy nie die seun van die vrou wat hy liefhet, in sy testament as sy oudste beskou en hom bevoorreg bo die seun wat eintlik sy oudste is nie, die seun van die vrou van wie hy nie hou nie. 17Die man moet die seun van die vrou van wie hy nie hou nie, as oudste erken deur aan hom 'n dubbele deel van alles te gee. Hy is die eersteling van die man se manlike krag, en die reg van die eersteling kom hom toe. 18Wanneer 'n man 'n opstandige en ongehoorsame seun het wat nie na sy pa en ma wil luister nie, selfs al straf hulle hom, 19moet hulle hom na die leiers van die stad toe vat by die stadspoort. 20Hulle moet vir die leiers van die stad sê: Hierdie seun van ons is opstandig en ongehoorsaam. Hy luister nie na ons nie. Hy is 'n vraat en 'n suiplap.' 21Dan moet al die mans van die stad hom met klippe doodgooi. So moet jy hierdie soort kwaad tussen julle uitroei, en die hele Israel sal daarvan hoor en bang wees. 22Wanneer iemand tereggestel word vir 'n oortreding wat die doodstraf verdien, en jy hang hom aan 'n paal op, 23mag sy lyk nie die nag daaraan bly hang nie. Jy moet hom dieselfde dag nog begrawe, want wie opgehang word, is deur God vervloek. Jy mag nie die land wat deur die Here jou God aan jou as besitting gegee is, verontreinig nie.

Deuteronomy 22

Various Laws

Deu 22:1 "If you see an Israelite's cow or sheep running loose, do not ignore it; take it back.

Deu 22:2 But if its owner lives a long way off or if you don't know who owns it, then take it home with you. When its owner comes looking for it, give it to him.

Deu 22:3 Do the same thing if you find a donkey, a piece of clothing, or anything else that an Israelite may have lost.

Deu 22:4 "If an Israelite's donkey or cow has fallen down, don't ignore it; help him get the animal to its feet again.

Deu 22:5 "Women are not to wear men's clothing, and men are not to wear women's clothing; the LORD your God hates people who do such things.

Deu 22:6 "If you happen to find a bird's nest in a tree or on the ground with the mother bird sitting either on the eggs or with her young, you are not to take the mother bird.

Deu 22:7 You may take the young birds, but you must let the mother bird go, so that you will live a long and prosperous life.

Deu 22:8 "When you build a new house, be sure to put a railing around the edge of the roof. Then you will not be responsible if someone falls off and is killed.

Deu 22:9 "Do not plant any crop in the same field with your grapevines; if you do, you are forbidden to use either the grapes or the produce of the other crop.

Deu 22:10 "Do not hitch an ox and a donkey together for plowing.

Deu 22:11 "Do not wear cloth made by weaving wool and linen together.

Deu 22:12 "Sew tassels on the four corners of your clothes.

Laws Concerning Sexual Immorality

Deu 22:13 "Suppose a man marries a young woman and later he decides he doesn't want her.

Deu 22:14 So he makes up false charges against her, accusing her of not being a virgin when they got married.

Deu 22:15 "If this happens, the young woman's parents are to take the blood-stained wedding sheet that proves she was a virgin, and they are to show it in court to the town leaders.

Deu 22:16 Her father will say to them, 'I gave my daughter to this man in marriage, and now he doesn't want her.

Deu 22:17 He has made false charges against her, saying that she was not a virgin when he married her. But here is the proof that my daughter was a virgin; look at the bloodstains on the wedding sheet!'

Deu 22:18 Then the town leaders are to take the husband and beat him.

Deu 22:19 They are also to fine him a hundred pieces of silver and give the money to the young woman's father, because the man has brought disgrace on an Israelite woman. Moreover, she will continue to be his wife, and he can never divorce her as long as he lives.

Deu 22:20 "But if the charge is true and there is no proof that she was a virgin,

Deu 22:21 then they are to take her out to the entrance of her father's house, where the men of her city are to stone her to death. She has done a shameful thing among our people by having intercourse before she was married, while she was still living in her father's house. In this way you will get rid of this evil.

Deu 22:22 "If a man is caught having intercourse with another man's wife, both of them are to be put to death. In this way you will get rid of this evil.

Deu 22:23 "Suppose a man is caught in a town having intercourse with a young woman who is engaged to someone else.

Deu 22:24 You are to take them outside the town and stone them to death. She is to die because she did not cry out for help, although she was in a town, where she could have been heard. And the man is to die because he had intercourse with someone who was engaged. In this way you will get rid of this evil.

Deu 22:25 "Suppose a man out in the countryside rapes a young woman who is engaged to someone else. Then only the man is to be put to death;

Deu 22:26 nothing is to be done to the woman, because she has not committed a sin worthy of death. This case is the same as when one man attacks another man and murders him.

Deu 22:27 The man raped the engaged woman in the countryside, and although she cried for help, there was no one to help her.

Deu 22:28 "Suppose a man is caught raping a young woman who is not engaged.

Deu 22:29 He is to pay her father the bride price of fifty pieces of silver, and she is to become his wife, because he forced her to have intercourse with him. He can never divorce her as long as he lives.

Deu 22:30 "No man is to disgrace his father by having intercourse with any of his father's wives.

1Jy mag jou nie blind hou wanneer jy 'n verdwaalde bees of skaap van jou volksgenoot sien nie. Jy moet dit na hom toe terugvat. 2As hy nie naby jou bly nie of as jy hom nie ken nie, moet jy die dier na jou huis toe vat, en dit moet daar bly tot hy dit kom soek. Dan moet jy dit vir hom teruggee. 3So moet jy ook maak met 'n donkie of 'n kledingstuk van jou volksgenoot of enigiets anders wat wegraak en jy kry dit. Jy mag nie onverskillig staan daarteenoor nie. 4Jy mag nie onverskillig staan teenoor 'n donkie of 'n bees van jou volksgenoot as jy dit sien val nie. Jy moet hom die dier help optel. 5'n Vrou mag nie mansklere dra nie, en 'n man mag nie vrouensklere aantrek nie. Die Here jou God het 'n afsku van mense wat dit doen. 6Wanneer jy afkom op 'n voëlnes in 'n boom of op die grond, en daar is kleintjies of eiers in die nes en die wyfie sit daarop, mag jy nie die wyfie saam met die kleintjies vir jou vat nie. 7Jy mag die kleintjies vir jou vat, maar jy moet die wyfie laat wegvlieg. Dan sal dit goed gaan met jou, en sal jy 'n lang lewe hê. 8Wanneer jy 'n nuwe huis bou, moet jy 'n reling rondom die dak aanbring sodat jy nie met jou huis iemand se dood veroorsaak as hy van die dak af val nie. 9Jy mag nie 'n ander gewas in jou wingerd plant nie. As jy dit doen, sal die opbrengs van die gewas, sowel as die druiweoes die tempel toekom. 10Jy mag nie 'n bees en 'n donkie saam voor 'n ploeg inspan nie. 11Jy mag nie 'n kledingstuk dra wat van twee soorte materiaal, wol en linne, gemaak is nie. 12Jy moet klossies vaswerk aan al die some van jou klere. 13Wanneer 'n man 'n vrou trou, kan dit gebeur dat hy 'n afkeer kry van haar nadat hy met haar gemeenskap gehad het 14en haar van slegte gedrag beskuldig en haar 'n slegte naam laat kry deurdat hy sê: Ek het hierdie vrou getrou en met haar gemeenskap gehad, maar ek het nie enige tekens dat sy 'n maagd was, by haar gevind nie.' 15Dan moet haar pa en haar ma die tekens dat sy 'n maagd was, na die leiers van die stad toe bring in die stadspoort 16en dan moet haar pa vir hulle sê: Ek het my dogter met hierdie man laat trou en nou haat hy haar. 17Hy beskuldig haar van slegte gedrag deurdat hy sê hy het nie enige tekens dat sy 'n maagd was, by haar gevind nie. Maar hier is die tekens dat my dogter 'n maagd was.' Dan moet haar pa haar nagklere vir die leiers van die stad wys. 18Hulle moet die man dan met 'n sweep slaan 19en hom met elf honderd en veertig gram silwer beboet. Hulle moet die geld vir haar pa gee omdat die man haar, 'n maagd van Israel, 'n slegte naam laat kry het. Sy sal ook die man se vrou bly. Hy mag nooit van haar skei nie. 20Maar as die man die waarheid gepraat het, en daar nie enige tekens dat sy 'n maagd was by haar gevind is nie, 21moet hulle haar by die deur van haar pa se huis laat uitkom en die mans van die stad moet haar daar met klippe doodgooi. Sy moet sterf omdat sy 'n ongehoorde ding in Israel gedoen het deurdat sy met 'n man geslagsgemeenskap gehad het terwyl sy nog ongetroud was. So moet jy hierdie soort kwaad tussen julle uitroei. 22Wanneer 'n man betrap word terwyl hy gemeenskap het met 'n ander man se vrou, moet die man en die vrou wat gemeenskap gehad het, altwee doodgemaak word. So moet jy hierdie soort kwaad tussen die Israeliete uitroei. 23Wanneer 'n man 'n verloofde meisie in die stad raakloop en met haar gemeenskap het, 24moet jy altwee na die stadspoort toe uitbring en met klippe doodgooi. Hulle moet sterf: die meisie omdat sy nie in die stad om hulp geroep het nie en die man omdat hy die verloofde van sy volksgenoot onteer het. So moet jy hierdie soort kwaad tussen julle uitroei. 25Maar as 'n man 'n verloofde meisie in die veld raakloop en haar oorweldig en met haar gemeenskap het, moet net die man sterf. 26Die meisie moet ongestraf bly. Sy het niks gedoen wat die dood verdien nie, want in haar geval is dit soos wanneer 'n man iemand gryp en vermoor. 27Die verloofde meisie is in die veld raakgeloop, en sy het om hulp geroep, maar daar was niemand om haar te help nie. 28Wanneer 'n man 'n meisie wat nie verloof is nie, raakloop en haar gryp en met haar gemeenskap het, en hulle word betrap, 29moet die man wat met haar gemeenskap gehad het, vyf honderd en sewentig gram silwer aan haar pa gee en met haar trou. Hy het haar onteer en daarom mag hy nooit van haar skei nie. 30'n Seun mag nie met sy pa se vrou trou nie. 'n Seun mag nie gemeenskap hê met 'n vrou wat aan sy pa behoort nie.

Deuteronomy 23

Those Excluded from the Assembly

Deu 23:1 "No man who has been castrated or whose penis has been cut off may be included among the LORD's people.

Deu 23:2 "No one born out of wedlock or any descendant of such a person, even in the tenth generation, may be included among the LORD's people.

Deu 23:3 "No Ammonite or Moabite—or any of their descendants, even in the tenth generation—may be included among the LORD's people.

Deu 23:4 They refused to provide you with food and water when you were on your way out of Egypt, and they hired Balaam son of Beor, from the city of Pethor in Mesopotamia, to curse you.

Deu 23:5 But the LORD your God would not listen to Balaam; instead he turned the curse into a blessing, because he loved you.

Deu 23:6 As long as you are a nation, never do anything to help these nations or to make them prosperous.

Deu 23:7 "Do not despise the Edomites; they are your relatives. And do not despise the Egyptians; you once lived in their land.

Deu 23:8 From the third generation onward their descendants may be included among the LORD's people.

Uncleanness in the Camp

Deu 23:9 "When you are in camp in time of war, you are to avoid anything that would make you ritually unclean.

Deu 23:10 If a man becomes unclean because he has had a wet dream during the night, he is to go outside the camp and stay there.

Deu 23:11 Toward evening he is to wash himself, and at sunset he may come back into camp.

Deu 23:12 "You are to have a place outside the camp where you can go when you need to relieve yourselves.

Deu 23:13 Carry a stick as part of your equipment, so that when you have a bowel movement you can dig a hole and cover it up.

Deu 23:14 Keep your camp ritually clean, because the LORD your God is with you in your camp to protect you and to give you victory over your enemies. Do not do anything indecent that would cause the LORD to turn his back on you.

Miscellaneous Laws

Deu 23:15 "If slaves run away from their owners and come to you for protection, do not send them back.

Deu 23:16 They may live in any of your towns that they choose, and you are not to treat them harshly.

Deu 23:17 "No Israelite, man or woman, is to become a temple prostitute.

Deu 23:18 Also, no money earned in this way may be brought into the house of the LORD your God in fulfillment of a vow. The LORD hates temple prostitutes.

Deu 23:19 "When you lend money or food or anything else to Israelites, do not charge them interest.

Deu 23:20 You may charge interest on what you lend to foreigners, but not on what you lend to Israelites. Obey this rule, and the LORD your God will bless everything you do in the land that you are going to occupy.

Deu 23:21 "When you make a vow to the LORD your God, do not put off doing what you promised; the LORD will hold you to your vow, and it is a sin not to keep it.

Deu 23:22 It is no sin not to make a vow to the LORD,

Deu 23:23 but if you make one voluntarily, be sure that you keep it.

Deu 23:24 "When you walk along a path in someone else's vineyard, you may eat all the grapes you want, but you must not carry any away in a container.

Deu 23:25 When you walk along a path in someone else's grainfield, you may eat all the grain you can pull off with your hands, but you must not cut any grain with a sickle.

DEUTERONÓMIUM 23

1Iemand wie se geslagsorgane verbrysel is of iemand wat ontman is, mag nie lid van die gemeente van die Here wees nie. 2Niemand wat gebore is uit ontoelaatbare geslagsgemeenskap mag lid van die gemeente word nie, selfs nie so 'n persoon se tiende nageslag nie. 3Geen Ammoniet of Moabiet mag lid van die gemeente word nie. Niemand uit hulle nageslag mag ooit lid van die gemeente word nie, selfs nie eers een van die tiende geslag nie. 4Dit is omdat hulle jou nie van kos en water voorsien het toe julle uit Egipte getrek het nie en hulle vir Bileam seun van Beor uit Petor in Mesopotamië gehuur het om jou te vervloek. 5Die Here jou God wou egter nie na Bileam luister nie en die Here jou God het Bileam se vervloeking in 'n seën verander, want die Here jou God het jou lief. 6Jy mag nooit in vrede leef met die Ammoniete en die Moabiete nie, en jy mag nooit iets goeds aan hulle doen nie. 7Jy mag egter nie 'n Edomiet wegstoot nie, want hy is jou bloedverwant; ook nie 'n Egiptenaar nie, want jy was 'n vreemdeling in sy land. 8Kinders uit hulle derde geslag mag lid word van die gemeente. 9Wanneer jy optrek teen jou vyande, moet jy oppas dat jy nie iets verkeerds doen nie. 10As daar iemand by jou is wat nie rein is nie op grond van iets wat in die nag met hom gebeur het, moet hy uit die kamp uit gaan. Hy mag nie in die kamp wees nie. 11Teen die aand moet hy hom was en na sononder mag hy in die kamp inkom. 12Jy moet 'n plek buite jou kamp hê waarheen jy kan uitgaan. 13By jou uitrusting moet daar 'n stok wees en as jy jou buite wil gaan ontlas, moet jy 'n gat grawe met die stok en as jy klaar is, moet jy alles toekrap. 14Die Here jou God gaan saam met jou in jou kamp om jou te bevry deur jou vyande in jou mag oor te gee, en daarom moet jou kamp rein wees. As die Here iets onbetaamliks by jou sien, sal Hy jou verlaat. 15Jy mag nie 'n slaaf wat van sy eienaar af na jou toe weggeloop het, aan sy eienaar teruggee nie. 16Die slaaf mag by jou woon in een van jou stede wat hy kies, waar dit hom pas. Jy mag hom nie laat swaarkry nie. 17Jy mag nie prostitute by die tempel aanhou nie, of dit nou vrouens of mans uit Israel is. 18Wanneer jy 'n gelofte afgelê het, mag jy nie die loon van 'n prostituut, of dit nou dié van 'n man of 'n vrou is, na die huis van die Here jou God toe bring nie. Hy het 'n afkeer van hierdie twee dinge. 19Jy mag niks teen rente aan jou volksgenoot uitleen nie: nie geld of kos of enigiets wat 'n mens kan uitleen nie. 20Jy mag aan 'n nie-Israeliet iets teen rente uitleen, maar aan jou volksgenoot mag jy niks teen rente uitleen nie. Dan sal die Here jou God jou voorspoedig maak in alles wat jy aanpak in die land waarheen jy op pad is om dit in besit te neem. 21Wanneer jy 'n gelofte aflê teenoor die Here jou God, moet jy nie traag wees om dit na te kom nie, anders sal die Here jou God jou tot verantwoording roep en sal jy skuldig wees. 22Wanneer jy nie 'n gelofte aflê nie, sal jy nie skuldig wees nie, 23maar as jy vrywillig 'n gelofte teenoor die Here jou God aflê, moet jy versigtig wees met wat jy sê en moet jy die gelofte nakom. 24Wanneer jy in jou buurman se wingerd ingaan, mag jy net soveel druiwe eet as jy wil om jou honger te stil, maar jy mag niks in jou sak sit nie. 25Wanneer jy in jou buurman se koringland ingaan, mag jy are pluk met jou hand, maar jy mag nie 'n sekel in sy koringland gebruik nie.

Deuteronomy 24

Laws Concerning Divorce

Deu 24:1 "Suppose a man marries a woman and later decides that he doesn't want her, because he finds something about her that he doesn't like. So he writes out divorce papers, gives them to her, and sends her away from his home.

Deu 24:2 Then suppose she marries another man,

Deu 24:3 and he also decides that he doesn't want her, so he also writes out divorce papers, gives them to her, and sends her away from his home. Or suppose her second husband dies.

Deu 24:4 In either case, her first husband is not to marry her again; he is to consider her defiled. If he married her again, it would be offensive to the LORD. You are not to commit such a terrible sin in the land that the LORD your God is giving you.

Miscellaneous Laws

Deu 24:5 "When a man is newly married, he is not to be drafted into military service or any other public duty; he is to be excused from duty for one year, so that he can stay at home and make his wife happy.

Deu 24:6 "When you lend someone something, you are not to take as security his millstones used for grinding his grain. This would take away the family's means of preparing food to stay alive.

Deu 24:7 "If any of you kidnap Israelites and make them your slaves or sell them into slavery, you are to be put to death. In this way your nation will get rid of this evil.

Deu 24:8 "When you are suffering from a dreaded skin disease, be sure to do exactly what the levitical priests tell you; follow the instructions that I have given them.

Deu 24:9 Remember what the LORD your God did to Miriam as you were coming from Egypt.

Deu 24:10 "When you lend someone something, do not go into his house to get the garment he is going to give you as security;

Deu 24:11 wait outside and let him bring it to you himself.

Deu 24:12 If he is poor, do not keep it overnight;

Deu 24:13 return it to him each evening, so that he can have it to sleep in. Then he will be grateful, and the LORD your God will be pleased with you.

Deu 24:14 "Do not cheat poor and needy hired servants, whether they are Israelites or foreigners living in one of your towns.

Deu 24:15 Each day before sunset pay them for that day's work; they need the money and have counted on getting it. If you do not pay them, they will cry out against you to the LORD, and you will be guilty of sin.

Deu 24:16 "Parents are not to be put to death for crimes committed by their children, and children are not to be put to death for crimes committed by their parents; people are to be put to death only for a crime they themselves have committed.

Deu 24:17 "Do not deprive foreigners and orphans of their rights; and do not take a widow's garment as security for a loan.

Deu 24:18 Remember that you were slaves in Egypt and that the LORD your God set you free; that is why I have given you this command.

Deu 24:19 "When you gather your crops and fail to bring in some of the grain that you have cut, do not go back for it; it is to be left for the foreigners, orphans, and widows, so that the LORD your God will bless you in everything you do.

Deu 24:20 When you have picked your olives once, do not go back and get those that are left; they are for the foreigners, orphans, and widows.

Deu 24:21 When you have gathered your grapes once, do not go back over the vines a second time; the grapes that are left are for the foreigners, orphans, and widows.

Deu 24:22 Never forget that you were slaves in Egypt; that is why I have given you this command.

DEUTERONÓMIUM 24

1Wanneer 'n man met 'n vrou trou, kan dit gebeur dat hy haar nie meer liefhet nie omdat hy iets onbetaamliks aan haar gevind het. Dan mag hy 'n skeibrief skryf en dit vir haar gee en haar uit sy huis uit wegstuur. 2Sy kan dan uit sy huis uit gaan en met 'n ander man trou. 3As haar tweede man haar ook later nie meer liefhet nie en 'n skeibrief skryf en dit vir haar gee en haar uit sy huis uit wegstuur, of as haar tweede man sterf, 4mag haar eerste man wat haar weggestuur het, nie weer met haar trou nie. Sy is verontreinig, en as hy weer met haar trou, sal dit vir die Here iets afskuweliks wees. Jy mag nie die land wat die Here jou God vir jou as besitting sal gee, onder jou sonde laat ly nie. 5Wanneer 'n man pas getroud is, mag hy nie saam met die leër optrek om te gaan oorlog maak nie. Hy mag ook nie met enige verpligting belas word nie. 'n Jaar lank moet hy van alles vrygestel wees om sy vrou met wie hy getroud is, gelukkig te maak. 6Jy mag nie iemand se twee maalklippe as pand neem nie, selfs nie die boonste maalklip nie, want dan vat jy sy daaglikse brood as pand. 7Wanneer dit ontdek word dat iemand sy broer, 'n mede-Israeliet, gesteel het en hom as slaaf gebruik of verkoop het, moet die dief sterf. Jy moet hierdie soort kwaad tussen julle uitroei. 8Jy moet versigtig wees as melaatsheid jou tref. Jy moet versigtig wees en presies doen wat die Levitiese priesters jou voorhou. Ek het hulle alles beveel, en jy moet versigtig wees en dit doen. 9Jy moet onthou wat die Here jou God vir Mirjam aangedoen het toe julle uit Egipte weggetrek het. 10Wanneer jy iets aan jou buurman leen, mag jy nie in sy huis ingaan om iets as pand te gaan vat nie. 11Jy moet buite staan en die man aan wie jy geleen het, moet vir jou die pand uitbring buite toe. 12As die man arm is, moet jy nie die pand ná slaaptyd hou nie. 13Jy moet die pand teruggee wanneer die son ondergaan sodat hy onder sy kledingstuk kan slaap. Dan sal hy jou seën, en die Here jou God sal jou optrede goedvind. 14Jy mag nie 'n huurling wat arm en behoeftig is, laat swaarkry nie, of hy nou al 'n volksgenoot is of 'n vreemdeling wat by jou woon in een van jou land se stede. 15Jy moet hom sy loon nog dieselfde dag gee, voor die son ondergaan, want hy is arm en reken op sy loon. As jy dit nie doen nie, sal hy by die Here kla oor jou en sal jy skuldig wees. 16Vaders mag nie oor die optrede van kinders en kinders nie oor die optrede van vaders doodgemaak word nie. Elkeen kan net vir sy eie sonde die doodstraf kry. 17Jy mag nie die regte van 'n vreemdeling of van 'n weeskind van hulle af wegvat nie. Jy mag nie die klere van 'n weduwee as pand neem nie. 18Jy moet onthou dat jy in Egipte 'n slaaf was, en dat die Here jou God jou daaruit bevry het. Daarom beveel ek jou om al hierdie dinge te doen. 19Wanneer jy jou lande afoes en jy vergeet 'n gerf op die land, moet jy nie omdraai om dit te gaan haal nie. Dit moet bly vir 'n vreemdeling of 'n weeskind of 'n weduwee. Dan sal die Here jou God jou seën in alles wat jy aanpak. 20Wanneer jy olywe afslaan van jou olyfboom af, mag jy nie agterna weer gaan afslaan nie. Wat agtergebly het, moet bly vir 'n vreemdeling of 'n weeskind of 'n weduwee. 21Wanneer jy jou wingerd oes, mag jy nie agterna weer gaan oes nie. Wat agtergebly het, moet bly vir 'n vreemdeling of 'n weeskind of 'n weduwee. 22Jy moet onthou dat jy in Egipte 'n slaaf was. Dit is waarom ek jou beveel om al hierdie dinge te doen.

Deu 25:1 "Suppose two Israelites go to court to settle a dispute, and one is declared innocent and the other guilty.

Deu 25:2 If the guilty one is sentenced to be beaten, the judge is to make him lie face downward and have him whipped. The number of lashes will depend on the crime he has committed.

Deu 25:3 He may be given as many as forty lashes, but no more; more than that would humiliate him publicly.

Deu 25:4 "Do not muzzle an ox when you are using it to thresh grain.

Laws Concerning Levirate Marriage

Deu 25:5 "If two brothers live on the same property and one of them dies, leaving no son, then his widow is not to be married to someone outside the family; it is the duty of the dead man's brother to marry her.

Deu 25:6 The first son that they have will be considered the son of the dead man, so that his family line will continue in Israel.

Deu 25:7 But if the dead man's brother does not want to marry her, she is to go before the town leaders and say, 'My husband's brother will not do his duty; he refuses to give his brother a descendant among the people of Israel.'

Deu 25:8 Then the town leaders are to summon him and speak to him. If he still refuses to marry her,

Deu 25:9 his brother's widow is to go up to him in the presence of the town leaders, take off one of his sandals, spit in his face, and say, 'This is what happens to the man who refuses to give his brother a descendant.'

Deu 25:10 His family will be known in Israel as 'the family of the man who had his sandal pulled off.'

Miscellaneous Laws

Deu 25:11 "If two men are having a fight and the wife of one tries to help her husband by grabbing hold of the other man's genitals,

Deu 25:12 show her no mercy; cut off her hand.

Deu 25:13 (13-14) "Do not cheat when you use weights and measures.

Deu 25:15 Use true and honest weights and measures, so that you may live a long time in the land that the LORD your God is giving you.

Deu 25:16 The LORD hates people who cheat.

Deu 25:17 "Remember what the Amalekites did to you as you were coming from Egypt.

Deu 25:18 They had no fear of God, and so they attacked you from the rear when you were tired and exhausted, and killed all who were straggling behind.

Deu 25:19 So then, when the LORD your God has given you the land and made you safe from all your enemies who live around you, be sure to kill all the Amalekites, so that no one will remember them any longer. Do not forget!

1Dit kan gebeur dat twee mans in 'n hofsaak betrokke raak en dat die regters uitspraak lewer en die een onskuldig verklaar en die ander een skuldig. 2Wanneer die skuldige dan lyfstraf opgelê is, moet 'n regter hom op die grond laat lê, en hy moet in die teenwoordigheid van die regter soveel houe kry as hy verdien. 3Hy mag nie meer as veertig houe kry nie, want as hy meer as dit kry, word jou volksgenoot voor jou oë verkleineer. 4Jy mag nie 'n bees waarmee jy graan dors, se bek toebind nie. 5Wanneer broers saamwoon, en een van hulle sterf sonder 'n seun, mag sy weduwee nie met 'n buitestaander trou nie. Haar man se broer moet met haar trou en so sy verantwoordelikheid nakom teenoor sy broer. 6Haar eerste seun moet die naam van die afgestorwe broer dra sodat sy naam nie uit Israel uitsterf nie. 7As die broer nie met sy broer se weduwee wil trou nie, moet sy na die leiers in die stadspoort toe gaan en vir hulle sê: My swaer weier om die naam van sy broer in Israel te laat voortleef. Hy weier om met my sy verantwoordelikheid na te kom teenoor sy broer.' 8Die stadsleiers moet hom dan laat roep en met hom praat. As hy daarop staan en bly sê: Ek wil nie met haar trou nie,' 9moet sy skoonsuster na hom toe kom en in die teenwoordigheid van die stadsleiers moet sy sy skoen uittrek en hom in die gesig spoeg en vir hom sê: So sal dit gaan met die man wat nie vir sy broer 'n huis, 'n nageslag, wil bou nie.' 10Dan moet die man en sy huis onder die Israeliete bekend wees as Huis van die uitgetrekte Skoen. 11Wanneer twee mans baklei, en die een se vrou kom help haar man teen die een deur wie haar man geslaan word en sy gryp die ander man aan sy geslagsorgane, 12moet haar hand afgesny word. Jy mag geen genade betoon nie. 13Jy mag nie met gewigte werk wat nou sus dan so, nou groot dan klein is nie. 14Jy mag nie met inhoudsmate werk wat nou sus dan so, nou groot dan klein is nie. 15Jy moet billik en regverdig afweeg en afmeet. Dan sal jy lank leef in die land wat deur die Here jou God aan jou gegee word. 16Die Here jou God het 'n afsku van almal wat oneerlik is en ander bedrieg. 17Jy moet onthou wat Amalek jou aangedoen het toe julle uit Egipte getrek het. 18Hy het jou van agter af aangeval toe jy moeg en uitgeput was, en hy het almal wat nie kon byhou nie, om die lewe gebring sonder om hom aan God te steur. 19Wanneer die Here jou God jou die oorwinning laat behaal het oor al jou vyande rondom jou en jy rustig woon in die land wat die Here jou God aan jou gee as jou eiendom en jy dit besit, moet jy die naam van Amalek van die aarde af uitwis. Jy mag nie vergeet om dit te doen nie.

Deuteronomy 26

Offerings of Firstfruits and Tithes

Deu 26:1 "After you have occupied the land that the LORD your God is giving you and have settled there,

Deu 26:2 each of you must place in a basket the first part of each crop that you harvest and you must take it with you to the one place of worship.

Deu 26:3 Go to the priest in charge at that time and say to him, 'I now acknowledge to the LORD my God that I have entered the land that he promised our ancestors to give us.'

Deu 26:4 "The priest will take the basket from you and place it before the altar of the LORD your God.

Deu 26:5 Then, in the LORD's presence you will recite these words: 'My ancestor was a wandering Aramean, who took his family to Egypt to live. They were few in number when they went there, but they became a large and powerful nation.

Deu 26:6 The Egyptians treated us harshly and forced us to work as slaves.

Deu 26:7 Then we cried out for help to the LORD, the God of our ancestors. He heard us and saw our suffering, hardship, and misery.

Deu 26:8 By his great power and strength he rescued us from Egypt. He worked miracles and wonders, and caused terrifying things to happen.

Deu 26:9 He brought us here and gave us this rich and fertile land.

Deu 26:10 So now I bring to the LORD the first part of the harvest that he has given me.' "Then set the basket down in the LORD's presence and worship there.

Deu 26:11 Be grateful for the good things that the LORD your God has given you and your family; and let the Levites and the foreigners who live among you join in the celebration.

Deu 26:12 "Every third year give the tithe—a tenth of your crops—to the Levites, the foreigners, the orphans, and the widows, so that in every community they will have all they need to eat. When you have done this,

Deu 26:13 say to the LORD, 'None of the sacred tithe is left in my house; I have given it to the Levites, the foreigners, the orphans, and the widows, as you commanded me to do. I have not disobeyed or forgotten any of your commands concerning the tithe.

Deu 26:14 I have not eaten any of it when I was mourning; I have not taken any of it out of my house when I was ritually unclean; and I have not given any of it as an offering for the dead. I have obeyed you, O LORD; I have done everything you commanded concerning the tithe.

Deu 26:15 Look down from your holy place in heaven and bless your people Israel; bless also the rich and fertile land that you have given us, as you promised our ancestors.'

Deu 26:16 "Today the LORD your God commands you to obey all his laws; so obey them faithfully with all your heart.

Deu 26:17 Today you have acknowledged the LORD as your God; you have promised to obey him, to keep all his laws, and to do all that he commands.

Deu 26:18 Today the LORD has accepted you as his own people, as he promised you; and he commands you to obey all his laws.

Deu 26:19 He will make you greater than any other nation that he has created, and you will bring praise and honor to his name. You will be his own people, as he promised."

DEUTERONÓMIUM 26

1Wanneer jy in die land kom wat die Here jou God aan jou gee as jou eiendom en jy dit besit en jy daarin woon, 2moet jy van elke eerste oes wat jy insamel in die land wat die Here jou God aan jou gee, 'n deel vat en dit in 'n mandjie sit en daarmee na die plek toe gaan wat die Here jou God sal kies om sy Naam daar te laat woon. 3Jy moet na die priester toe gaan wat in daardie tyd daar sal wees, en vir hom sê: Ek verklaar vandag voor die Here u God dat ek gekom het in die land wat die Here met 'n eed aan ons voorvaders beloof het om aan ons te gee.' 4Dan moet die priester die mandjie by jou vat en dit neersit voor die altaar van die Here jou God. 5Jy moet dan in die teenwoordigheid van die Here jou God sê: My vader was 'n Arameër wat van plek tot plek getrek het. Hy het na Egipte toe gegaan en met min mense daar as vreemdeling gaan woon. Daar het hy 'n groot, sterk en talryke nasie geword. 6Die Egiptenaars het ons sleg behandel. Hulle het ons verdruk en ons harde werk laat doen. 7Ons het na die Here die God van ons voorvaders om hulp geroep, en Hy het ons gehoor. Hy het ons ellende en ons swaarkry raakgesien en gesien hoe ons verdruk word. 8Die Here het ons uit Egipte laat wegtrek deur magtige dade, kragtige groot dade wat vrees ingeboesem het, tekens en wonders. 9Hy het ons in hierdie plek gebring en hierdie land aan ons gegee, 'n land wat oorloop van melk en heuning. 10Dit is die rede waarom ek nou die eerste opbrengs van die land wat deur die Here aan my gegee is, gebring het.' Dan moet jy dit neersit in die teenwoordigheid van die Here jou God en Hom aanbid. 11Jy moet al die goeie dinge geniet wat die Here jou God aan jou en jou huisgenote gee, jy en die Leviete en die vreemdelinge wat by jou woon. 12Om die drie jaar is dit 'n jaar van tiendes. Dan moet jy 'n tiende van die opbrengs van jou land opsy sit. As jy dit opsy gesit het, moet jy dit gee aan die Leviet, die vreemdeling, die weeskind en die weduwee dat hulle in jou stede genoeg kan hê om te eet. 13Dan moet jy in die teenwoordigheid van die Here jou God sê: Ek het die gewyde deel uit my huis uit weggeneem en aan die Leviet, die vreemdeling, die weeskind en die weduwee gegee soos U my beveel het in al u gebooie. Ek het nie een van u gebooie oortree nie. Ek het hulle nie vergeet nie. 14Ek het nie van die tiende geëet terwyl ek gerou het nie. Ek het dit nie uit my huis uit weggeneem terwyl ek onrein was nie. Ek het nie daarvan aan 'n dooie afgod geoffer nie. Ek het na U geluister, Here my God, en ek het alles gedoen wat U my beveel het. 15Kyk tog af, Here, uit u heilige woonplek, uit die hemel, en seën u volk Israel en die land wat U aan ons gegee het soos U aan ons voorvaders met 'n eed beloof het, 'n land wat oorloop van melk en heuning.' 16Die Here jou God beveel jou vandag om volgens hierdie voorskrifte en bepalings te leef en om hulle te gehoorsaam. Jy moet dit doen met hart en siel. [17]Jy het vandag verklaar dat die Here jou God is, en dat jy volgens sy wil sal lewe, dat jy sy voorskrifte en gebooie en bepalings sal gehoorsaam en dat jy na Hom sal luister. [18]Die Here het vandag verklaar dat jy sy eiendomsvolk is soos Hy jou beloof het, en gesê dat jy al sy gebooie moet gehoorsaam, [19]dat Hy jou oor al die nasies wat Hy gemaak het, sal stel en aan jou meer lof en roem en eer sal gee as aan hulle, en dat jy 'n volk sal wees wat aan die Here jou God gewy sal wees soos Hy beloof het.

Deuteronomy 27

The Altar on Mount Ebal

Deu 27:1 Then Moses, together with the leaders of Israel, said to the people, "Obey all the instructions that I am giving you today.

Deu 27:2 On the day you cross the Jordan River and enter the land that the LORD your God is giving you, you are to set up some large stones, cover them with plaster,

Deu 27:3 and write on them all these laws and teachings. When you have entered the rich and fertile land that the LORD, the God of your ancestors, promised you,

Deu 27:4 and you are on the other side of the Jordan, set up these stones on Mount Ebal, as I am instructing you today, and cover them with plaster.

Deu 27:5 Build an altar there made of stones that have had no iron tools used on them,

Deu 27:6 because any altar you build for the LORD your God must be made of uncut stones. There you are to offer the sacrifices that are to be burned,

Deu 27:7 and there you are to sacrifice and eat your fellowship offerings and be grateful in the presence of the LORD your God.

Deu 27:8 On the stones covered with plaster write clearly every word of God's laws."

Curses from Mount Ebal

Deu 27:9 Then Moses, together with the levitical priests, said to all the people of Israel, "Give me your attention, people of Israel, and listen to me. Today you have become the people of the LORD your God;

Deu 27:10 so obey him and keep all his laws that I am giving you today."

Deu 27:11 Then Moses said to the people of Israel,

Deu 27:12 "After you have crossed the Jordan, the following tribes are to stand on Mount Gerizim when the blessings are pronounced on the people: Simeon, Levi, Judah, Issachar, Joseph, and Benjamin.

Deu 27:13 And the following tribes will stand on Mount Ebal when the curses are pronounced: Reuben, Gad, Asher, Zebulun, Dan, and Naphtali.

Deu 27:14 The Levites will speak these words in a loud voice:

Deu 27:15 " 'God's curse on anyone who makes an idol of stone, wood, or metal and secretly worships it; the LORD hates idolatry.' "And all the people will answer, 'Amen!'

Deu 27:16 " 'God's curse on anyone who dishonors his father or mother.' "And all the people will answer, 'Amen!'

Deu 27:17 " 'God's curse on anyone who moves a neighbor's property line.' "And all the people will answer, 'Amen!'

Deu 27:18 " 'God's curse on anyone who leads a blind person in the wrong direction.' "And all the people will answer, 'Amen!'

Deu 27:19 " 'God's curse on anyone who deprives foreigners, orphans, and widows of their rights.' "And all the people will answer, 'Amen!'

Deu 27:20 " 'God's curse on anyone who disgraces his father by having intercourse with any of his father's wives.' "And all the people will answer, 'Amen!'

Deu 27:21 " 'God's curse on anyone who has sexual relations with an animal.' "And all the people will answer, 'Amen!'

Deu 27:22 " 'God's curse on anyone who has intercourse with his sister or half sister.' "And all the people will answer, 'Amen!'

Deu 27:23 " 'God's curse on anyone who has intercourse with his mother-in-law.' "And all the people will answer, 'Amen!'

Deu 27:24 " 'God's curse on anyone who secretly commits murder.' "And all the people will answer, 'Amen!'

Deu 27:25 " 'God's curse on anyone who accepts money to murder an innocent person.' "And all the people will answer, 'Amen!'

Deu 27:26 " 'God's curse on anyone who does not obey all of God's laws and teachings.' "And all the people will answer, 'Amen!'

DEUTERONÓMIUM 27

1Moses en die leiers van Israel het die volk beveel: Jy moet al die gebooie gehoorsaam wat ek jou vandag beveel. 2Wanneer jy deur die Jordaanrivier trek op pad na die land toe wat die Here jou God aan jou gee, moet jy groot klippe opstapel en hulle met kalk afwit. 3Wanneer jy deurtrek om die land in te gaan, die land wat die Here jou God aan jou sal gee, die land wat oorloop van melk en heuning, soos die Here jou God aan jou voorvaders beloof het, moet jy al die woorde van hierdie wet op die klippe skryf. 4Nadat jy deur die Jordaan getrek het, moet jy die klippe waaroor ek nou net opdragte gegee het, op Ebalberg opstapel en moet jy hulle met kalk afwit. 5Daar moet jy 'n klipaltaar bou vir die Here jou God. Jy mag die klip nie kap nie. 6Jy moet die altaar vir die Here jou God bou van onbewerkte klip en daarop moet jy jou brandoffers aan die Here jou God offer. 7Jy moet jou maaltydoffers offer en dit daar eet en bly wees in die teenwoordigheid van die Here jou God. 8Jy moet hierdie hele wet duidelik leesbaar skryf op die klippe wat jy opstapel. 9Moses en die Levitiese priesters het vir die hele Israel gesê: Bly stil en luister, Israel! Vandag het jy die volk van die Here jou God geword. 10Jy moet na die Here jou God luister en jy moet lewe volgens die gebooie en die voorskrifte wat ek jou vandag beveel. 11Op dieselfde dag het Moses vir die volk gesê: 12Wanneer julle deur die Jordaanrivier getrek het, moet die volgende stamme op Gerisimberg gaan staan: Simeon, Levi, Juda, Issaskar, Josef en Benjamin. Hulle moet die volk seën. 13Die volgende stamme moet op Ebalberg gaan staan: Ruben, Gad, Aser, Sebulon, Dan en Naftali. Hulle moet die straf aankondig. 14Die Leviete moet hardop vir die hele Israel sê: 15Daar rus 'n vloek op elkeen wat 'n afgodsbeeld uitsny of giet en dit in die geheim êrens neersit om te vereer. Die Here het 'n afsku daarvan. Dit is mensewerk. Dan moet die hele volk antwoord: Amen!' 16Daar rus 'n vloek op elkeen wat sy pa of ma minag. Dan moet die hele volk antwoord: Amen!' 17Daar rus 'n vloek op elkeen wat die grenslyn van sy buurman verlê! Dan moet die hele volk antwoord: Amen!' 18Daar rus 'n vloek op elkeen wat 'n blinde op 'n verkeerde pad lei! Dan moet die hele volk antwoord: Amen!' 19Daar rus 'n vloek op elkeen wat nie reg laat geskied aan 'n vreemdeling, 'n weeskind of 'n weduwee nie! Dan moet die hele volk antwoord: Amen!' 20Daar rus 'n vloek op elkeen wat gemeenskap het met sy pa se vrou, want hy het haar wat aan sy pa behoort, ontbloot. Dan moet die hele volk antwoord: Amen!' 21Daar rus 'n vloek op elkeen wat gemeenskap het met enige dier! Dan moet die hele volk antwoord: Amen!' 22Daar rus 'n vloek op elkeen wat gemeenskap het met sy suster, 'n dogter van sy pa of sy ma. Dan moet die hele volk antwoord: Amen!' 23Daar rus 'n vloek op elkeen wat gemeenskap het met sy skoonma! Dan moet die hele volk antwoord: Amen!' 24Daar rus 'n vloek op elkeen wat sy naaste doodmaak, al is dit in die geheim! Dan moet die hele volk antwoord: Amen!' 25Daar rus 'n vloek op elkeen wat omkoopgeld aanvaar om 'n onskuldige dood te maak! Dan moet die hele volk antwoord: Amen!' 26Daar rus 'n vloek op elkeen wat nie hierdie wet onderhou en nie daarvolgens lewe nie! Dan moet die hele volk antwoord: Amen!

Deuteronomy 28

Blessings for Obedience

Deu 28:1 "If you obey the LORD your God and faithfully keep all his commands that I am giving you today, he will make you greater than any other nation on earth.

Deu 28:2 Obey the LORD your God and all these blessings will be yours:

Deu 28:3 "The LORD will bless your towns and your fields.

Deu 28:4 "The LORD will bless you with many children, with abundant crops, and with many cattle and sheep.

Deu 28:5 "The LORD will bless your grain crops and the food you prepare from them.

Deu 28:6 "The LORD will bless everything you do.

Deu 28:7 "The LORD will defeat your enemies when they attack you. They will attack from one direction, but they will run from you in all directions.

Deu 28:8 "The LORD your God will bless your work and fill your barns with grain. He will bless you in the land that he is giving you.

Deu 28:9 "If you obey the LORD your God and do everything he commands, he will make you his own people, as he has promised.

Deu 28:10 Then all the peoples on earth will see that the LORD has chosen you to be his own people, and they will be afraid of you.

Deu 28:11 The LORD will give you many children, many cattle, and abundant crops in the land that he promised your ancestors to give you.

Deu 28:12 He will send rain in season from his rich storehouse in the sky and bless all your work, so that you will lend to many nations, but you will not have to borrow from any.

Deu 28:13 The LORD your God will make you the leader among the nations and not a follower; you will always prosper and never fail if you obey faithfully all his commands that I am giving you today.

Deu 28:14 But you must never disobey them in any way, or worship and serve other gods.

Curses for Disobedience

Deu 28:15 "But if you disobey the LORD your God and do not faithfully keep all his commands and laws that I am giving you today, all these evil things will happen to you:

Deu 28:16 "The LORD will curse your towns and your fields.

Deu 28:17 "The LORD will curse your grain crops and the food you prepare from them.

Deu 28:18 "The LORD will curse you by giving you only a few children, poor crops, and few cattle and sheep.

Deu 28:19 "The LORD will curse everything you do.

Deu 28:20 "If you do evil and reject the LORD, he will bring on you disaster, confusion, and trouble in everything you do, until you are quickly and completely destroyed.

Deu 28:21 He will send disease after disease on you until there is not one of you left in the land that you are about to occupy.

Deu 28:22 The LORD will strike you with infectious diseases, with swelling and fever; he will send drought and scorching winds to destroy your crops. These disasters will be with you until you die.

Deu 28:23 No rain will fall, and your ground will become as hard as iron.

Deu 28:24 Instead of rain, the LORD will send down duststorms and sandstorms until you are destroyed.

Deu 28:25 "The LORD will give your enemies victory over you. You will attack them from one direction, but you will run from them in all directions, and all the people on earth will be terrified when they see what happens to you.

Deu 28:26 When you die, birds and wild animals will come and eat your bodies, and there will be no one to scare them off.

Deu 28:27 The LORD will send boils on you, as he did on the Egyptians. He will make your bodies break out with sores. You will be covered with scabs, and you will itch, but there will be no cure.

Deu 28:28 The LORD will make you lose your mind; he will strike you with blindness and confusion.

Deu 28:29 You will grope about in broad daylight like someone blind, and you will not be able to find your way. You will not prosper in anything you do. You will be constantly oppressed and robbed, and there will be no one to help you.

Deu 28:30 "You will be engaged to a young woman—but someone else will marry her. You will build a house—but never live in it. You will plant a vineyard—but never eat its grapes.

Deu 28:31 Your cattle will be butchered before your very eyes, but you will not eat any of the meat. Your donkeys will be dragged away while you look on, and they will not be given back to you. Your sheep will be given to your enemies, and there will be no one to help you.

Deu 28:32 Your sons and daughters will be given as slaves to foreigners while you look on. Every day you will strain your eyes, looking in vain for your children to return.

Deu 28:33 A foreign nation will take all the crops that you have worked so hard to grow, while you receive nothing but constant oppression and harsh treatment.

Deu 28:34 Your sufferings will make you lose your mind.

Deu 28:35 The LORD will cover your legs with incurable, painful sores; boils will cover you from head to foot.

Deu 28:36 "The LORD will take you and your king away to a foreign land, where neither you nor your ancestors ever lived before; there you will serve gods made of wood and stone.

Deu 28:37 In the countries to which the LORD will scatter you, the people will be shocked at what has happened to you; they will make fun of you and ridicule you.

Deu 28:38 "You will plant plenty of seed, but reap only a small harvest, because the locusts will eat your crops.

Deu 28:39 You will plant vineyards and take care of them, but you will not gather their grapes or drink wine from them, because worms will eat the vines.

Deu 28:40 Olive trees will grow everywhere in your land, but you will not have any olive oil, because the olives will drop off.

Deu 28:41 You will have sons and daughters, but you will lose them, because they will be taken away as prisoners of war.

Deu 28:42 All your trees and crops will be devoured by insects.

Deu 28:43 "Foreigners who live in your land will gain more and more power, while you gradually lose yours.

Deu 28:44 They will have money to lend you, but you will have none to lend them. In the end they will be your rulers.

Deu 28:45 "All these disasters will come on you, and they will be with you until you are destroyed, because you did not obey the LORD your God and keep all the laws that he gave you.

Deu 28:46 They will be the evidence of God's judgment on you and your descendants forever.

Deu 28:47 The LORD blessed you in every way, but you would not serve him with glad and joyful hearts.

Deu 28:48 So then, you will serve the enemies that the LORD is going to send against you. You will be hungry, thirsty, and naked—in need of everything. The LORD will oppress you harshly until you are destroyed.

Deu 28:49 The LORD will bring against you a nation from the ends of the earth, a nation whose language you do not know. They will swoop down on you like an eagle.

Deu 28:50 They will be ruthless and show no mercy to anyone, young or old.

Deu 28:51 They will eat your livestock and your crops, and you will starve to death. They will not leave you any grain, wine, olive oil, cattle, or sheep; and you will die.

Deu 28:52 They will attack every town in the land that the LORD your God is giving you, and the high, fortified walls in which you trust will fall.

Deu 28:53 "When your enemies are besieging your towns, you will become so desperate for food that you will even eat the children that the LORD your God has given you.

Deu 28:54 (54-55) Even the most refined man of noble birth will become so desperate during the siege that he will eat some of his own children because he has no other food. He will not even give any to his brother or to the wife he loves or to any of his children who are left.

Deu 28:56 (56-57) Even the most refined woman of noble birth, so rich that she has never had to walk anywhere, will behave in the same way. When the enemy besieges her town, she will become so desperate for food that she will secretly eat her newborn child and the afterbirth as well. She will not share them with the husband she loves or with any of her children.

Deu 28:58 "If you do not obey faithfully all of God's teachings that are written in this book and if you do not honor the wonderful and awesome name of the LORD your God,

Deu 28:59 he will send on you and on your descendants incurable diseases and horrible epidemics that can never be stopped.

Deu 28:60 He will bring on you once again all the dreadful diseases you experienced in Egypt, and you will never recover.

Deu 28:61 He will also send all kinds of diseases and epidemics that are not mentioned in this book of God's laws and teachings, and you will be destroyed.

Deu 28:62 Although you become as numerous as the stars in the sky, only a few of you will survive, because you did not obey the LORD your God.

Deu 28:63 Just as the LORD took delight in making you prosper and in making you increase in number, so he will take delight in destroying you and in bringing ruin on you. You will be uprooted from the land that you are about to occupy.

Deu 28:64 "The LORD will scatter you among all the nations, from one end of the earth to the other, and there you will serve gods made of wood and stone, gods that neither you nor your ancestors have ever worshiped before.

Deu 28:65 You will find no peace anywhere, no place to call your own; the LORD will overwhelm you with anxiety, hopelessness, and despair.

Deu 28:66 Your life will always be in danger. Day and night you will be filled with terror, and you will live in constant fear of death.

Deu 28:67 Your hearts will pound with fear at everything you see. Every morning you will wish for evening; every evening you will wish for morning.

Deu 28:68 The LORD will send you back to Egypt in ships, even though he said that you would never have to go there again. There you will try to sell yourselves to your enemies as slaves, but no one will want to buy you."

DEUTERONÓMIUM 28

brandkoring en roes. Dit sal by jou bly totdat jy uitgewis is. 22Die hemel bo jou sal brons word en die aarde onder jou yster. 23Die Here sal stof en roet in jou land laat reën. Dit sal uit die hemel uit op jou afkom en jou uitdelg. 24Die Here sal jou laat vlug vir jou vyande. Uit een rigting sal jy teen hulle opruk, maar in talle rigtings sal jy voor hulle uit vlug. Jy sal bewe vir al die koninkryke van die aarde. 25Al die voëls en die wilde diere sal aan jou lyke vreet, en niemand sal hulle verjaag nie. 26Die Here sal jou tref met die swere van Egipte, met bloedvinte, uitslag en jeuksiektes, waarvan jy nie genees sal kan word nie. 27Die Here sal jou tref met kranksinnigheid en blindheid en waansin. 28Jy sal op die helder middag rondtas soos 'n blinde rondtas in sy donkerte. Jy sal nie voorspoed ondervind nie. Jy sal aanhoudend verdruk en beroof word en daar sal niemand wees om jou te help nie. 29Jy sal aan 'n vrou verloof raak, maar 'n ander man sal haar verkrag; jy sal 'n huis bou, maar nie daarin woon nie; jy sal 'n wingerd plant, maar nie sy vrugte eet nie. 30Jou bees sal voor jou oë geslag word, maar jy sal nie daarvan eet nie Jou donkie sal voor jou oë geroof word en nie weer aan jou terugbesorg word nie Jou kleinvee sal aan jou vyande gegee word, en daar sal niemand wees wat jou help nie. 31Jou seuns en dogters sal aan 'n vreemde volk gegee word terwyl jy toekyk, en jou oë sal ingee soos jy die hele dag kyk of hulle terugkom, maar jy sal niks daaraan kan doen nie. 32'n Volk wat jy nie ken nie, sal die opbrengs eet van jou lande en alles waarvoor jy jou afsloof. Daar sal deurentyd net verdrukking en swaarkry vir jou wees, 33en jy sal kranksinnig word van wat jy sien. 34Die Here sal jou tref met kwaadaardige swere aan jou knieë en jou dye. Van kop tot tone sal jy nie genees kan word nie. 35Die Here sal jou en die koning wat jy vir jou sal aanstel, na 'n nasie toe laat gaan wat jy en jou voorvaders nie geken het nie, en daar sal jy ander gode dien: hout en klip. 36Daar sal jy wees tot 'n spot en 'n skimp onder al die volke na wie toe die Here jou sal bring, iets waarvoor hulle sal skrik. 37Jy sal baie saad saai, maar min oes, want sprinkane sal die oes opvreet. 38Jy sal wingerde plant en bewerk, maar jy sal nie wyn daarvan drink of druiwe daarvan oes nie, want wurms sal dit opvreet. 39Oral in jou grondgebied sal jy olyfbome hê, maar jy sal jou liggaam nie met hulle olie versorg nie, want die olywe sal afval. 40Jy sal seuns en dogters hê, maar jy sal hulle nie behou nie, want hulle sal as ballinge weggevoer word. 41Goggas sal jou bome en die opbrengs van jou lande oorneem. 42Die vreemdeling wat by jou woon, sal meer en meer kry, en jy sal agteruitboer en minder en minder hê. 43Hy sal aan jou leen, jy sal nie aan hom leen nie. Hy sal die kop wees en jy die stert. 44Al hierdie strawwe sal oor jou kom. Hulle sal jou tref en by jou bly totdat jy uitgeroei is, omdat jy nie na die opdrag van die Here jou God geluister het nie en nie sy gebooie en voorskrifte wat Hy jou gegee het, gehoorsaam het nie. 45Die gebooie en voorskrifte moet altyd vir jou en jou kinders 'n waarskuwingsteken wees. 46As jy die Here jou God nie met vreugde en blydskap dien nie omdat jy baie besit, 47sal jy jou vyande wat deur die Here teen jou gestuur sal word, moet dien. Jy sal dit doen terwyl jy honger en dors en sonder klere is en gebrek ly, en jou vyand sal 'n ysterjuk op jou nek sit totdat hy jou uitgeroei het. 48Die Here sal van ver af 'n nasie teen jou laat opruk. Hy sal van die uithoeke van die aarde af kom, vinnig soos 'n arend wat vlieg. Dit sal 'n nasie wees wie se taal jy nie verstaan nie, 49'n wrede nasie deur wie niemand, oud of jonk, ontsien word nie, 'n nasie sonder genade. 50Hy sal die aanteel van jou vee en die opbrengs van jou land opeet totdat hy jou uitgeroei het. Hy sal nie vir jou koring of wyn of olie laat oorbly nie, ook nie van die aanteel van jou grootvee en jou kleinvee nie. Jou vyand sal dit doen totdat hy jou ondergang bewerk het. 51Hy sal jou in al jou stede beleër totdat jou hoë stadsmure en jou vestings waarop jy staatmaak, dwarsdeur jou land afgebreek is. Hy sal jou beleër in al die stede van jou hele land wat deur die Here jou God aan jou gegee is. 52Wanneer jou vyand jou beleër en jou laat swaarkry, sal jy die vleis van jou eie kinders eet, jou seuns en dogters wat deur die Here jou God aan jou gegee is. 53Selfs die sagste en mees verfynde man by jou sal niks omgee vir sy broer of sy lieflingvrou of sy kind wat nog lewe nie. 54Hy sal vir nie een van hulle die vleis van sy eie kinders gee wat hy eet nie, want dan hou hy niks vir homself oor nie. Dit is wat sal gebeur wanneer jou vyand jou beleër en jou laat swaarkry in al jou stede. 55Die sagste en mees verfynde vrou by jou wat nie eers sal probeer om 'n voet op die grond te sit nie, so verfyn en sag is sy, sal vir haar man vir wie sy lief is, of vir haar seun of haar dogter niks omgee nie. Sy sal hulle nie laat eet 56van die nageboorte of van die vleis van haar kinders wat sy in die wêreld gebring het nie. Sy sal alles in die geheim opeet, so honger sal sy wees. Dit sal gebeur wanneer jou vyand jou beleër en jou laat swaarkry in al jou stede. 57Sorg dat jy lewe volgens al die bepalings van hierdie wet wat in hierdie boek opgeteken is, dat jy eerbied betoon aan die Here jou God, Hy aan wie se Naam eer en ontsag toekom. 58As jy dit nie doen nie, sal Hy ontsettende rampe oor jou en jou nageslag bring, groot en langdurige rampe, kwaadaardige en ongeneeslike siektes. 59Hy sal al die siektes van Egipte oor jou bring, alles waarvoor jy bang is, en hulle sal ongeneeslik wees. 60Die Here sal ook al die siektes en rampe wat nie in hierdie wetboek genoem is nie, oor jou laat kom totdat Hy jou uitgeroei het. 61Julle was so baie soos die sterre aan die hemelruim, maar daar sal net 'n klompie van julle oorbly omdat jy nie die Here jou God gehoorsaam het nie. 62Soos die Here jou God Hom oor julle verbly het toe Hy aan julle goed gedoen en julle baie gemaak het, so sal Hy Hom verbly wanneer Hy julle tot niet maak en julle uitroei. Julle sal uitgeruk word uit die land waarheen jy gaan om dit in besit te neem. 63Die Here sal jou verstrooi onder al die volke, oor die hele aarde. Daar sal jy ander gode dien wat jy en jou voorvaders nie geken het nie, gode van hout en klip. 64Onder daardie nasies sal jy nie vrede vind nie, nie eers 'n rusplek vir jou voete nie. Die Here sal jou daar 'n hart vol angs gee, oë wat ingee, 'n lewe wat wegkwyn. 65Jou lewe sal aan 'n draadjie hang, jy sal dag en nag in vrees lewe, jy sal jou lewe lank onveilig wees. 66In die môre sal jy sê: Was dit maar aand!' en in die aand sal jy sê: Was dit maar môre!' so vol vrees sal jy wees en sulke vreeslike dinge sal jy belewe. 67Die Here sal jou met die pad waarvan ek vir jou gesê het jy sal dit nie meer sien nie, terugvat Egipte toe in groot ellende. Daar sal julle julleself aan jou vyande as slawe en slavinne te koop aanbied, maar daar sal nie 'n koper wees nie.

Deuteronomy 29

The Covenant Renewed in Moab

Deu 29:1 These are the terms of the covenant that the LORD commanded Moses to make with the people of Israel in the land of Moab; all this was in addition to the covenant which the LORD had made with them at Mount Sinai.

Deu 29:2 Moses called together all the people of Israel and said to them, "You saw for yourselves what the LORD did to the king of Egypt, to his officials, and to his entire country.

Deu 29:3 You saw the terrible plagues, the miracles, and the great wonders that the LORD performed.

Deu 29:4 But to this very day he has not let you understand what you have experienced.

Deu 29:5 For forty years the LORD led you through the desert, and your clothes and sandals never wore out.

Deu 29:6 You did not have bread to eat or wine or beer to drink, but the LORD provided for your needs in order to teach you that he is your God.

Deu 29:7 And when we came to this place, King Sihon of Heshbon and King Og of Bashan came out to fight against us. But we defeated them, Deu 29:8 took their land, and divided it among the tribes of Reuben and Gad, and half the tribe of Manasseh.

Deu 29:9 Obey faithfully all the terms of this covenant, so that you will be successful in everything you do.

Deu 29:10 "Today you are standing in the presence of the LORD your God, all of you—your leaders and officials, your men,

Deu 29:11 women, and children, and the foreigners who live among you and cut wood and carry water for you.

Deu 29:12 You are here today to enter into this covenant that the LORD your God is making with you and to accept its obligations,

Deu 29:13 so that the LORD may now confirm you as his people and be your God, as he promised you and your ancestors, Abraham, Isaac, and Jacob.

Deu 29:14 You are not the only ones with whom the LORD is making this covenant with its obligations.

Deu 29:15 He is making it with all of us who stand here in his presence today and also with our descendants who are not yet born.

Deu 29:16 "You remember what life was like in Egypt and what it was like to travel through the territory of other nations.

Deu 29:17 You saw their disgusting idols made of wood, stone, silver, and gold.

Deu 29:18 Make sure that no man, woman, family, or tribe standing here today turns from the LORD our God to worship the gods of other nations. This would be like a root that grows to be a bitter and poisonous plant.

Deu 29:19 Make sure that there is no one here today who hears these solemn demands and yet convinces himself that all will be well with him, even if he stubbornly goes his own way. That would destroy all of you, good and evil alike.

Deu 29:20 The LORD will not forgive such a man. Instead, the LORD's burning anger will flame up against him, and all the disasters written in this book will fall on him until the LORD has destroyed him completely.

Deu 29:21 The LORD will make an example of him before all the tribes of Israel and will bring disaster on him in accordance with all the curses listed in the covenant that is written in this book of the LORD's teachings.

Deu 29:22 "In future generations your descendants and foreigners from distant lands will see the disasters and sufferings that the LORD has brought on your land.

Deu 29:23 The fields will be a barren waste, covered with sulfur and salt; nothing will be planted, and not even weeds will grow there. Your land will be like the cities of Sodom and Gomorrah, of Admah and Zeboiim, which the LORD destroyed when he was furiously angry.

Deu 29:24 Then the whole world will ask, 'Why did the LORD do this to their land? What was the reason for his fierce anger?'

Deu 29:25 And the answer will be, 'It is because the LORD's people broke the covenant they had made with him, the God of their ancestors, when he brought them out of Egypt.

Deu 29:26 They served other gods that they had never worshiped before, gods that the LORD had forbidden them to worship.

Deu 29:27 And so the LORD became angry with his people and brought on their land all the disasters written in this book.

Deu 29:28 The LORD became furiously angry, and in his great anger he uprooted them from their land and threw them into a foreign land, and there they are today.'

Deu 29:29 "There are some things that the LORD our God has kept secret; but he has revealed his Law, and we and our descendants are to obey it forever.

DEUTERONÓMIUM 29

1Behalwe die verbond wat Moses by Horeb met die Israeliete gesluit het, het hy op bevel van die Here ook in Moab 'n verbond met hulle gesluit. Hier volg die inhoud daarvan. 2Moses het die hele Israel bymekaargeroep en vir hulle gesê: Julle het self ondervind wat die Here alles voor julle oë met Egipte, met die farao en al sy amptenare en met sy hele land gedoen het: 3die groot rampe wat julle self gesien het, die tekens, daardie groot wonderdade. 4En tog het die Here tot nou toe nie vir julle verstand gegee om te verstaan, oë om te sien en ore om te luister nie. 5Ek het julle veertig jaar deur die woestyn gelei: julle klere het nie aan julle liggame verslyt en julle skoene het nie stukkend afgeval van julle voete af nie. 6Julle het nie brood geëet en wyn of bier gedrink nie sodat julle kon leer dat die Here julle God is. 7Toe julle by hierdie plek aangekom het, het koning Sihon van Gesbon en koning Og van Basan opgetrek om teen ons oorlog te maak. Ons het hulle verslaan 8en hulle land afgevat en dit as besitting gegee aan Ruben en Gad en aan die halwe Manassestam. 9Sorg dat julle doen wat hierdie verbond bepaal en lewe daarvolgens sodat julle voorspoedig sal wees in alles wat julle aanpak. 10Julle staan vandag almal in die teenwoordigheid van die Here julle God. Julle is almal hier: hoofde, stamme, leiers, beamptes, elke Israeliet, 11ook julle kinders en julle vrouens, selfs die vreemdeling wat by julle in die laer is, dié wat julle hout vir julle moet kap, en dié wat julle water vir julle moet aandra. 12Julle staan hier sodat julle deel kan kry aan die verbond van die Here julle God wat Hy vandag onder eed met julle sluit, 13sodat Hy julle vandag sy volk kan maak en Hy julle God kan word, soos Hy julle beloof het en soos Hy met 'n eed beloof het aan julle voorvaders, Abraham, Isak en Jakob. 14Die Here het gesê: Dis nie net julle met wie Ek hierdie verbond onder eed sluit nie.' 15Hy sluit die verbond met almal wat vandag hier saam met ons voor Hom, die Here ons God staan, maar ook met hulle wat nie vandag hier saam met ons is nie. 16Julle weet hoe ons in Egipte gewoon het en hoe ons tussen die nasies deurgetrek het, en hoe julle waar julle verbygetrek het, 17hulle afskuwelike afgodsbeelde van hout en klip, van silwer en goud by hulle gesien het. 18Pas op dat daar nie dalk onder julle 'n man of 'n vrou, 'n familie of 'n stam is wat vandag afvallig word van die Here ons God en die gode van daardie nasies gaan dien nie. As daar so iemand is, so 'n gifwortel wat alles kan vergiftig, 19kan hy homself dalk probeer gerusstel wanneer hy hierdie woorde hoor, en kan hy dalk sê: Ek is veilig al volg ek my eie harde kop.' Maar dit sal lei tot ellende en swaarkry, 20want die Here sal nie so iemand wil vergewe nie. Die toorn, die verontwaardiging van die Here, sal teen so iemand ontbrand en elke vloek wat in hierdie boek opgeteken is, sal hom tref. Die Here sal die herinnering aan so iemand van die aarde af wegvee. 21Die Here sal hom van die ander stamme van Israel afsonder sodat rampe hom kan tref ooreenkomstig die verbond wat met 'n eed gesluit en in hierdie wet opgeteken is. 22Wanneer die nageslag, julle kinders wat n julle kom, en vreemdes wat van ver af kom, die plae in hierdie land sien en ook die siektes wat deur die Here daarin gebring word, sal hulle sê: 23Die hele land is verbrand, dis swael en sout! Niemand saai daar nie, daar groei niks, daar kom nie eers 'n groenigheid op nie. Dit is verwoes soos Sodom en Gomorra, soos Adma en Sebojim wat deur die Here in sy gloeiende toorn verwoes is.' 24Dan sal al die nasies vra: Waarom het die Here dit met hierdie land gedoen? Waarom het hierdie groot toorn ontvlam?' 25Dan sal die antwoord wees: Omdat die mense van hierdie land die verbond verbreek het wat die Here die God van hulle voorvaders met hulle gesluit het toe Hy hulle uit Egipte laat wegtrek het. 26Hulle het ander gode gaan dien en vereer, gode wat onbekend was aan hulle en nie vir hulle bestem was nie. 27Daarom het die toorn van die Here teen hierdie land ontvlam en het Hy al die strawwe wat in hierdie boek opgeteken is, oor die land gebring. 28Daarom het die Here in sy gloeiende toorn en in sy groot woede die mense uit hulle land geruk en in 'n ander land neergegooi. Hulle is nou nog daar.' 29Wat nie geopenbaar is nie, is bekend aan die Here ons God, maar wat geopenbaar is, is vir altyd bekend aan ons en ons nageslag: ons moet lewe volgens al die woorde van hierdie wet.

Deuteronomy 30

Repentance and Forgiveness

Deu 30:1 "I have now given you a choice between a blessing and a curse. When all these things have happened to you, and you are living among the nations where the LORD your God has scattered you, you will remember the choice I gave you.

Deu 30:2 If you and your descendants will turn back to the LORD and with all your heart obey his commands that I am giving you today,

Deu 30:3 then the LORD your God will have mercy on you. He will bring you back from the nations where he has scattered you, and he will make you prosperous again.

Deu 30:4 Even if you are scattered to the farthest corners of the earth, the LORD your God will gather you together and bring you back,

Deu 30:5 so that you may again take possession of the land where your ancestors once lived. And he will make you more prosperous and more numerous than your ancestors ever were.

Deu 30:6 The LORD your God will give you and your descendants obedient hearts, so that you will love him with all your heart, and you will continue to live in that land.

Deu 30:7 He will turn all these curses against your enemies, who hated you and oppressed you,

Deu 30:8 and you will again obey him and keep all his commands that I am giving you today.

Deu 30:9 The LORD will make you prosperous in all that you do; you will have many children and a lot of livestock, and your fields will produce abundant crops. He will be as glad to make you prosperous as he was to make your ancestors prosperous,

Deu 30:10 but you will have to obey him and keep all his laws that are written in this book of his teachings. You will have to turn to him with all your heart.

The Choice of Life and Death

Deu 30:11 "The command that I am giving you today is not too difficult or beyond your reach.

Deu 30:12 It is not up in the sky. You do not have to ask, 'Who will go up and bring it down for us, so that we can hear it and obey it?'

Deu 30:13 Nor is it on the other side of the ocean. You do not have to ask, 'Who will go across the ocean and bring it to us, so that we may hear it and obey it?'

Deu 30:14 No, it is here with you. You know it and can quote it, so now obey it.

Deu 30:15 "Today I am giving you a choice between good and evil, between life and death.

Deu 30:16 If you obey the commands of the LORD your God, which I give you today, if you love him, obey him, and keep all his laws, then you will prosper and become a nation of many people. The LORD your God will bless you in the land that you are about to occupy.

Deu 30:17 But if you disobey and refuse to listen, and are led away to worship other gods, Deu 30:18 you will be destroyed—I warn you here and now. You will not live long in that land across the Jordan that you are about to occupy.

Deu 30:19 I am now giving you the choice between life and death, between God's blessing and God's curse, and I call heaven and earth to witness the choice you make. Choose life.

Deu 30:20 Love the LORD your God, obey him and be faithful to him, and then you and your descendants will live long in the land that he promised to give your ancestors, Abraham, Isaac, and Jacob."

DEUTERONÓMIUM 30

1Wanneer al hierdie dinge, die seën en die straf wat ek jou voorgehou het, oor jou kom en jy daar tussen al die nasies waarheen die Here jou God jou verdryf het, daaraan dink 2en jy terugkom na die Here jou God en Hom gehoorsaam en jy en jou kinders met hart en siel doen wat ek jou vandag beveel het, 3sal die Here jou God jou omstandighede verander. Hy sal jou jammer kry en jou weer bymekaarmaak van oral af waarheen Hy jou tussen die volke verstrooi het. 4Al is jy verdryf tot in die uithoeke van die aarde, die Here jou God sal jou daar gaan bymekaarmaak en van daar af gaan haal. 5Hy sal jou terugbring na die land toe wat deur jou voorvaders besit is en jy sal dit in besit neem, en die Here sal aan jou goeddoen en jou meer laat word as jou voorvaders was. 6Die Here jou God sal jou lewe en die lewe van jou nageslag aan Hom wy, sodat jy Hom sal liefhê met hart en siel. Dan sal jy lewe, 7en die Here jou God sal al hierdie strawwe laat neerkom op jou vyande en op jou haters wat jou agtervolg. 8Dan sal jy terugkom na die Here en Hom gehoorsaam en volgens al sy gebooie lewe wat ek jou vandag beveel. 9Die Here jou God sal jou dan voorspoedig maak in alles wat jy aanpak en Hy sal jou kinders, die aanteel van jou vee en die opbrengs van jou land baie maak, sodat dit met jou goed sal gaan. Wanneer jy die Here jou God gehoorsaam en sy gebooie en voorskrifte nakom wat opgeteken is in hierdie wetboek, en wanneer jy met hart en siel terugkom na die Here jou God, sal Hy Hom weer oor jou verbly soos Hy Hom oor jou voorvaders verbly het en sal dit met jou goed gaan. 1011Die gebod wat ek jou vandag beveel, is nie te moeilik vir jou nie. Dit is ook nie buite jou bereik nie. 12Dit is nie in die hemel nie, sodat jy nie hoef te sê: Wie sal vir ons opklim hemel toe om die gebod vir ons te gaan haal en ons dit mee te deel sodat ons daarvolgens kan lewe' nie. 13Dit is ook nie oorkant die see nie, sodat jy nie hoef te sê: Wie sal vir ons oorvaar na die oorkant toe om die gebod vir ons te gaan haal en ons dit mee te deel sodat ons daarvolgens kan lewe' nie. 14Die gebod is baie naby aan jou, jy kan daaroor praat, jy ken dit, jy kan daarvolgens lewe. 15Ek het vandag die lewe en die voorspoed, die dood en die teenspoed aan jou voorgehou. 16As jy die Here jou God liefhet en sy wil doen deur sy gebooie, sy voorskrifte en sy bepalings wat ek jou vandag gegee het, te gehoorsaam, sal jy lewe en baie word en sal die Here jou God jou voorspoedig maak in die land wat jy in besit gaan neem. 17Maar ek verkondig vandag aan julle: As jy van die Here af wegdraai en Hom nie gehoorsaam nie en as jy jou laat verlei om ander gode te vereer en te dien, sal julle almal omkom; julle sal nie lank bly woon in die land wat jy in besit gaan neem sodra jy deur die Jordaan getrek het nie. [18][19]Ek roep vandag die hemel en die aarde tot getuie teen julle dat ek die lewe en die dood aan jou voorgehou het, die seën en die straf. Kies die lewe, sodat jy en jou nageslag kan lewe. [20]Om die Here jou God lief te hê, Hom te gehoorsaam en Hom aan te hang, sal vir jou lewe gee en jou lank laat woon in die land wat die Here met 'n eed aan jou voorvaders Abraham, Isak en Jakob beloof het om aan hulle te gee.

Deuteronomy 31

Joshua to Succeed Moses

Deu 31:1 Moses continued speaking to the people of Israel,

Deu 31:2 and said, "I am now a hundred and twenty years old and am no longer able to be your leader. And besides this, the LORD has told me that I will not cross the Jordan.

Deu 31:3 The LORD your God himself will go before you and destroy the nations living there, so that you can occupy their land; and Joshua will be your leader, as the LORD has said.

Deu 31:4 The LORD will destroy those people, just as he defeated Sihon and Og, kings of the Amorites, and destroyed their country.

Deu 31:5 The LORD will give you victory over them, and you are to treat them exactly as I have told you.

Deu 31:6 Be determined and confident. Do not be afraid of them. Your God, the LORD himself, will be with you. He will not fail you or abandon you."

Deu 31:7 Then Moses called Joshua and said to him in the presence of all the people of Israel, "Be determined and confident; you are the one who will lead these people to occupy the land that the LORD promised to their ancestors.

Deu 31:8 The LORD himself will lead you and be with you. He will not fail you or abandon you, so do not lose courage or be afraid."

The Reading of the Law

Deu 31:9 So Moses wrote down God's Law and gave it to the levitical priests, who were in charge of the LORD's Covenant Box, and to the leaders of Israel.

Deu 31:10 He commanded them, "At the end of every seven years, when the year that debts are canceled comes around, read this aloud at the Festival of Shelters.

Deu 31:11 Read it to the people of Israel when they come to worship the LORD your God at the one place of worship.

Deu 31:12 Call together all the men, women, and children, and the foreigners who live in your towns, so that everyone may hear it and learn to honor the LORD your God and to obey his teachings faithfully.

Deu 31:13 In this way your descendants who have never heard the Law of the LORD your God will hear it. And so they will learn to obey him as long as they live in the land that you are about to occupy across the Jordan."

Joshua Commissioned to Lead Israel

Deu 31:14 Then the LORD said to Moses, "You do not have much longer to live. Call Joshua and bring him to the Tent, so that I may give him his instructions." Moses and Joshua went to the Tent,

Deu 31:15 and the LORD appeared to them there in a pillar of cloud that stood by the door of the Tent.

Deu 31:16 The LORD said to Moses, "You will soon die, and after your death the people will become unfaithful to me and break the covenant that I made with them. They will abandon me and worship the pagan gods of the land they are about to enter.

Deu 31:17 When that happens, I will become angry with them; I will abandon them, and they will be destroyed. Many terrible disasters will come upon them, and then they will realize that these things are happening to them because I, their God, am no longer with them.

Deu 31:18 And I will refuse to help them then, because they have done evil and worshiped other gods.

Deu 31:19 "Now, write down this song. Teach it to the people of Israel, so that it will stand as evidence against them.

Deu 31:20 I will take them into this rich and fertile land, as I promised their ancestors. There they will have all the food they want, and they will live comfortably. But they will turn away and worship other gods. They will reject me and break my covenant,

Deu 31:21 and many terrible disasters will come on them. But this song will still be sung, and it will stand as evidence against them. Even now, before I take them into the land that I promised to give them, I know what they are thinking."

Deu 31:22 That same day Moses wrote down the song and taught it to the people of Israel.

Deu 31:23 Then the LORD spoke to Joshua son of Nun and told him, "Be confident and determined. You will lead the people of Israel into the land that I promised them, and I will be with you."

Deu 31:24 Moses wrote God's Law in a book, taking care not to leave out anything.

Deu 31:25 When he finished, he said to the levitical priests, who were in charge of the LORD's Covenant Box, Deu 31:26 "Take this book of God's Law and place it beside the Covenant Box of the LORD your God, so that it will remain there as a witness against his people.

Deu 31:27 I know how stubborn and rebellious they are. They have rebelled against the LORD during my lifetime, and they will rebel even more after I am dead.

Deu 31:28 Assemble all your tribal leaders and officials before me, so that I can tell them these things; I will call heaven and earth to be my witnesses against them.

Deu 31:29 I know that after my death the people will become wicked and reject what I have taught them. And in time to come they will meet with disaster, because they will have made the LORD angry by doing what he has forbidden."

The Song of Moses

Deu 31:30 Then Moses recited the entire song while all the people of Israel listened.

DEUTERONÓMIUM 31

[1]Moses het met die hele Israel gaan praat [2]en vir hulle gesê: Ek is nou honderd en twintig jaar oud, ek kan nie meer gaan oorlog maak nie. Die Here het vir my gesê: Jy mag nie deur die Jordaan trek nie.' [3]Die Here julle God sal voor julle uit deur die Jordaan trek en Hy sal hierdie nasies voor julle uitroei sodat julle hulle gebied in besit sal neem Josua sal julle deurlei, soos die Here beloof het. [4]Die Here sal met hierdie nasies doen soos Hy gedoen het met die Amoritiese konings Sihon en Og en met hulle land toe Hy hulle uitgeroei het. [5]Die Here sal hierdie nasies in julle mag oorgee, en julle moet met hulle alles doen wat ek julle beveel het. [6]Hou moed en wees dapper! Moenie bang wees nie, moenie vir hulle skrik nie, want die Here julle God gaan saam met julle. Hy sal julle nie in die steek laat nie, julle nie alleen laat nie. [7]Toe het Moses vir Josua geroep en vir hom gesê waar die hele Israel dit kon hoor: Wees sterk, wees dapper! Jy gaan saam met hierdie volk in die land in wat die Here met 'n eed aan hulle voorvaders beloof het om aan hulle te gee. Jy moet hulle dit in besit laat neem. [8]Die Here sal voor jou uit gaan. Hy sal by jou wees. Hy sal jou nie in die steek laat nie, jou nie alleen laat nie. Moenie bang wees nie, moenie skrik nie. [9]Moses het toe hierdie wet opgeskryf en dit gegee aan die Levitiese priesters wat die verbondsark van die Here dra, en ook aan al die leiers van Israel. [10]Toe het Moses hulle beveel: Aan die einde van elke sewende jaar, op die vasgestelde tyd, die jaar waarin julle skuld moet afskryf, op die huttefees, [11]wanneer die hele Israel in die teenwoordigheid van die Here julle God moet verskyn op die plek wat Hy sal kies, moet julle hierdie wet lees in die teenwoordigheid van die hele Israel waar hulle dit kan hoor. [12]Julle moet die volk bymekaarroep: mans, vrouens en kinders, en ook die vreemdeling wat in julle stede by julle woon, sodat hulle kan luister en die wet kan leer, sodat hulle die Here julle God kan dien en gehoorsaam, sodat hulle kan leef volgens alles wat in hierdie wet staan. [13]So sal hulle kinders wat nie hierdie wet ken nie, dit kan hoor en leer en sal hulle die Here julle God kan dien so lank as julle lewe in die land waarheen julle deur die Jordaan trek om dit in besit te gaan neem. [14]Die Here het vir Moses gesê: Jou tyd om te sterf, het aangebreek. Roep vir Josua en gaan staan in die tent van ontmoeting sodat Ek hom sy bevele kan gee. Moses en Josua het toe in die tent van ontmoeting gaan staan, [15]en die Here het daar verskyn in 'n wolkkolom, 'n wolkkolom wat by die tentdeur bly hang het. [16]Toe sê die Here vir Moses: Jy gaan nou sterf. Daarna sal hierdie volk ontrou word en in die land waar hy gaan woon, die vreemde gode van die land aanhang. Die volk sal My verlaat en die verbond verbreek wat Ek met hom gesluit het. 17Dan sal my toorn teen hom ontvlam en Ek sal hulle verlaat en van hulle af weggaan. Ek sal nie aan hulle verskyn nie en die volk sal te gronde gaan. Baie plae en rampe sal hom tref, en dan sal hy sê: Hierdie plae tref my omdat my God nie by my is nie.' 18Maar ook dan sal Ek nie aan hom verskyn nie, want hy het al hierdie verkeerde dinge gedoen en ander gode gaan dien. 19Teken hierdie lied vir julle op en leer dit vir die Israeliete. Laat hulle dit sing sodat die lied my getuie teen hulle kan wees. 20Wanneer Ek vir Israel gebring het in die land wat Ek aan sy voorvaders met 'n eed beloof het, die land wat oorloop van melk en heuning, sal Israel genoeg eet en lekker lewe en dan sal hy ander gode aanhang en hulle dien. Hulle sal My minag en my verbond verbreek. 21Wanneer baie plae en rampe hom dan tref, sal hierdie lied teen hom getuig, want dit sal nie deur sy nageslag vergeet word nie. Ek weet wat daar vandag in Israel se hart omgaan, hier net voordat Ek hom inbring in die land waaroor Ek 'n eed afgelê het. 22Moses het daardie selfde dag nog die lied opgeteken en dit vir die Israeliete geleer. 23Die Here het ook vir Josua seun van Nun beveel: Wees sterk, wees dapper! Jy sal die Israeliete inbring in die land wat Ek met 'n eed aan hulle beloof het, en Ek sal by jou wees. 24Toe Moses hierdie wet, tot die laaste woord toe, in 'n boek opgeteken het, 25het hy die Leviete wat die verbondsark van die Here dra, beveel: 26Vat hierdie wetboek en sit dit langs die verbondsark van die Here julle God. Dit moet daar bly om teen julle te getuig. 27Ek weet hoe opstandig en hardkoppig julle is. Terwyl ek nog hier by julle in die lewe is, is julle al opstandig teen die Here, hoeveel te meer nog as ek eers dood is! 28Maak vir my julle beamptes en al die leiers van julle stamme bymekaar sodat ek al hierdie woorde vir hulle kan sê en die hemel en die aarde as getuies teen hulle kan inroep. 29Ek weet julle sal na my dood julle ondergang soek deur te verontagsaam wat ek julle beveel het. Wanneer julle in die toekoms doen wat verkeerd is in die oë van die Here, en Hom tart met wat julle doen, sal rampe oor julle kom. 30Toe het Moses hierdie lied, tot die laaste woord toe, aan die hele Israel wat daar bymekaar was, voorgehou:

Deuteronomy 32

Deu 32:1 "Earth and sky, hear my words, listen closely to what I say.

Deu 32:2 My teaching will fall like drops of rain and form on the earth like dew. My words will fall like showers on young plants, like gentle rain on tender grass.

Deu 32:3 I will praise the name of the LORD, and his people will tell of his greatness.

Deu 32:4 "The LORD is your mighty defender, perfect and just in all his ways; Your God is faithful and true; he does what is right and fair.

Deu 32:5 But you are unfaithful, unworthy to be his people, a sinful and deceitful nation.

Deu 32:6 Is this the way you should treat the LORD, you foolish, senseless people? He is your father, your Creator, he made you into a nation.

Deu 32:7 "Think of the past, of the time long ago; ask your parents to tell you what happened, ask the old people to tell of the past.

Deu 32:8 The Most High assigned nations their lands; he determined where peoples should live. He assigned to each nation a heavenly being,

Deu 32:9 but Jacob's descendants he chose for himself.

Deu 32:10 "He found them wandering through the desert, a desolate, wind-swept wilderness. He protected them and cared for them, as he would protect himself.

Deu 32:11 Like an eagle teaching its young to fly, catching them safely on its spreading wings, the LORD kept Israel from falling.

Deu 32:12 The LORD alone led his people without the help of a foreign god.

Deu 32:13 "He let them rule the highlands, and they ate what grew in the fields. They found wild honey among the rocks; their olive trees flourished in stony ground.

Deu 32:14 Their cows and goats gave plenty of milk; they had the best sheep, goats, and cattle, the finest wheat, and the choicest wine.

Deu 32:15 "The LORD's people grew rich, but rebellious; they were fat and stuffed with food. They abandoned God their Creator and rejected their mighty savior.

Deu 32:16 Their idolatry made the LORD jealous; the evil they did made him angry.

Deu 32:17 They sacrificed to gods that are not real, new gods their ancestors had never known, gods that Israel had never obeyed.

Deu 32:18 They forgot their God, their mighty savior, the one who had given them life.

Deu 32:19 "When the LORD saw this, he was angry and rejected his sons and daughters.

Deu 32:20 'I will no longer help them,' he said; 'then I will see what happens to them, those stubborn, unfaithful people.

Deu 32:21 With their idols they have made me angry, jealous with their so-called gods, gods that are really not gods. So I will use a so-called nation to make them angry; I will make them jealous with a nation of fools.

Deu 32:22 My anger will flame up like fire and burn everything on earth. It will reach to the world below and consume the roots of the mountains.

Deu 32:23 " 'I will bring on them endless disasters and use all my arrows against them.

Deu 32:24 They will die from hunger and fever; they will die from terrible diseases. I will send wild animals to attack them, and poisonous snakes to bite them.

Deu 32:25 War will bring death in the streets; terrors will strike in the homes. Young men and young women will die; neither babies nor old people will be spared.

Deu 32:26 I would have destroyed them completely, so that no one would remember them.

Deu 32:27 But I could not let their enemies boast that they had defeated my people, when it was I myself who had crushed them.'

Deu 32:28 "Israel is a nation without sense; they have no wisdom at all.

Deu 32:29 They fail to see why they were defeated; they cannot understand what happened.

Deu 32:30 Why were a thousand defeated by one, and ten thousand by only two? The LORD, their God, had abandoned them; their mighty God had given them up.

Deu 32:31 Their enemies know that their own gods are weak, not mighty like Israel's God.

Deu 32:32 Their enemies, corrupt as Sodom and Gomorrah, are like vines that bear bitter and poisonous grapes,

Deu 32:33 like wine made from the venom of snakes.

Deu 32:34 "The LORD remembers what their enemies have done; he waits for the right time to punish them.

Deu 32:35 The LORD will take revenge and punish them; the time will come when they will fall; the day of their doom is near.

Deu 32:36 The LORD will rescue his people when he sees that their strength is gone. He will have mercy on those who serve him, when he sees how helpless they are.

Deu 32:37 Then the LORD will ask his people, 'Where are those mighty gods you trusted?

Deu 32:38 You fed them the fat of your sacrifices and offered them wine to drink. Let them come and help you now; let them run to your rescue.

Deu 32:39 " 'I, and I alone, am God; no other god is real. I kill and I give life, I wound and I heal, and no one can oppose what I do.

Deu 32:40 As surely as I am the living God, I raise my hand and I vow

Deu 32:41 that I will sharpen my flashing sword and see that justice is done. I will take revenge on my enemies and punish those who hate me.

Deu 32:42 My arrows will drip with their blood, and my sword will kill all who oppose me. I will spare no one who fights against me; even the wounded and prisoners will die.'

Deu 32:43 "Nations, you must praise the LORD's people—he punishes all who kill them. He takes revenge on his enemies and forgives the sins of his people."

Deu 32:44 Moses and Joshua son of Nun recited this song, so that the people of Israel could hear it.

Deu 32:45 When Moses had finished giving God's teachings to the people, Deu 32:46 he said, "Be sure to obey all these commands that I have given you today. Repeat them to your children, so that they may faithfully obey all of God's teachings.

Deu 32:47 These teachings are not empty words; they are your very life. Obey them and you will live long in that land across the Jordan that you are about to occupy."

Moses' Death Foretold

Deu 32:48 That same day the LORD said to Moses,

Deu 32:49 "Go to the Abarim Mountains in the land of Moab opposite the city of Jericho; climb Mount Nebo and look at the land of Canaan that I am about to give the people of Israel.

Deu 32:50 You will die on that mountain as your brother Aaron died on Mount Hor, Deu 32:51 because both of you were unfaithful to me in the presence of the people of Israel. When you were at the waters of Meribah, near the town of Kadesh in the wilderness of Zin, you dishonored me in the presence of the people.

Deu 32:52 You will look at the land from a distance, but you will not enter the land that I am giving the people of Israel."

DEUTERONÓMIUM 32

1Hoor, hemele, ek praat, luister na my woorde, aarde! 2My onderrig kom na julle toe soos reënwater, my woorde verkwik julle soos dou, soos sagte reëns op die grassies, soos reënbuie op die graan. 3Ek wil die Naam van die Here roem. Prys ons God om sy grootheid! 4Hy is die Rots, sy werk is volmaak, alles wat Hy doen, is regverdig. Hy is die getroue God, sonder onreg, Hy is regverdig en betroubaar. 5Israel is ontrou aan die Here, nie meer sy kinders nie, nie geskik vir sy diens nie, vals en korrup. 6Doen julle dit die Here aan? Jy is 'n dwase volk, sonder verstand. Is die Here nie jou Vader, jou Skepper, nie? Hy het jou gemaak, jou in die lewe gebring. 7Dink aan die dae lank verby, onthou die jare van die voorgeslagte. Vra jou pa dat hy jou vertel, jou oumense dat hulle jou dit sê. 8Toe die Allerhoogste vir die nasies hulle besittings gegee het, toe Hy die mense in volke opgedeel het, het Hy vir hulle hulle grense bepaal, soveel as wat daar Israeliete is. 9Hulle is die Here se volk, sy deel, Jakob is die Here se vaste eiendom. 10Hy het sy volk in die woestyn gevind, in 'n onbewoonbare land waar woestyndiere skreeu. Die Here het sy volk omhels, hom vertroetel en versorg soos die appel van sy oog. 11Soos 'n arend wat sy kleintjies uit die nes uitskop, oor hulle fladder en hulle vang op sy vlerke wat hy oopsprei, soos 'n arend wat sy kuikens op sy vlerke dra, 12so het die Here, net Hy alleen, sy volk gelei; daar was nie 'n ander god by Hom nie. 13Die Here het sy volk die land in besit laat neem, en hom laat eet van die opbrengs van die lande, hom heuning uit klipskeure laat geniet, olie uit harde klip, 14botter uit die beestrop, melk van die kleinvee, vet lammers, skaapramme en bokramme uit Basan, die beste koring; die wyn wat jy drink, kom uit die beste druiwe. 15Jesurun het alles in oorvloed gehad; hy het in opstand gekom. Jy het oorvloed gehad, jy het dom geword, jy het jou ooreet. Hy het God wat hom gemaak het, verwerp, Hy was vermetel teen die Rots wat hom gered het. 16Israel het vreemde gode bo die Here verkies, Hom getart met hulle afskuwelike afgode, 17offers gebring aan veldduiwels, aan goed wat nie gode is nie, aan onbekende gode, nuwe gode wat van die bure af kom, gode wat onbekend was aan julle voorvaders. 18Jy het jou Rots, jou Skepper, nie in ag geneem nie, die God wat jou in die wêreld gebring het, vergeet. 19Die Here het dit gesien en vir jou minagting gekry. Omdat sy seuns en dogters Hom getart het, 20het Hy gesê: Ek sal nie meer vir hulle sorg nie, Ek wil kyk wat hulle uiteinde is, want hulle is 'n onbestendige volk, mense sonder trou. 21Hulle het iets wat nie 'n god is nie, bo My verkies, My getart met wat niks is nie. Ek sal wat nie 'n volk is nie, bo hulle verkies, met 'n nasie sonder verstand sal Ek hulle tart. 22My toorn het 'n vuur aangesteek; dit brand tot in die doderyk daaronder, dit verteer die aarde en sy opbrengs, dit brand deur tot diep onder die berge. 23Ek sal ramp op ramp oor hulle bring, my pyle op hulle afskiet: 24hongerpyne, koorsgloed, ongeneeslike siekte. Ek sal roofdiere op hulle afstuur, en giftige slange! 25Op straat roei die swaard die kinders uit, in die slaapkamers is daar angs: jong man en jong meisie, suigling en grysaard, almal kom om. 26Ek sou wou sê Ek sal hulle verstrooi, Ek sal maak dat geen mens meer aan hulle dink nie, 27maar Ek is bevrees die vyand sal My tart, Israel se teenstanders sal dit verkeerd beoordeel en sê: In eie krag het ons dit alles gedoen, nie die Here nie,' 28want hulle is 'n nasie sonder verstand, hulle het geen insig nie. 29As hulle wysheid gehad het, sou hulle dit verstaan het, sou hulle begryp het wat hulle uiteinde sal wees. 30Hoe kan een mens duisend agtervolg of twee tienduisende op die vlug jaag? Gebeur dit nie omdat die Rots van Israel hulle verkoop het nie, omdat die Here hulle uitgelewer het nie 31Die rots van die nasies is nie soos ons Rots nie, ons vyande kan tog self oordeel, 32want hulle stam uit Sodom se wingerd, uit Gomorra se droë gelyktes. Hulle druiwe is giftig, elke tros is bitter. 33Hulle wyn is slanggif, wrede addergif. 34Die Here het gesê: Dit is weggebêre by My, toegesluit in my skure. 35Ek straf en Ek vergeld op die dag as hulle voete gly. Die dag van hulle ondergang is naby; wat oor hulle besluit is, kom gou.' 36Die Here behartig die saak van sy volk, die Here ontferm Hom oor sy dienaars, want Hy sien hulle krag het ingegee, dit is klaar met hulle almal. 37Dan sal Hy vra: Waar is hulle gode? Waar is die rots waar hulle gaan skuil het, 38die gode deur wie die vet van hulle offers geëet is en die wyn van hulle drankoffers gedrink is? Laat hulle na vore kom en julle help, laat hulle vir julle 'n skuiling wees! 39Besef dit tog: Ek, Ek is die Here! Naas My is daar geen ander God nie. Ek maak dood en Ek gee lewe. Ek maak siek en Ek maak gesond. Uit my mag word niemand bevry nie. 40Ek steek my hand op na die hemel toe en lê 'n eed af: So seker as Ek ewig lewe, 41wanneer Ek my blink swaard skerp gemaak het, wanneer my hand dit gevat het om te oordeel, sal Ek my teenstanders straf en my haters vergeld vir wat hulle gedoen het. 42My swaard sal dood saai; Ek sal my pyle deurweek met bloed: die bloed van gesneuweldes en gevangenes, die bloed van die vyand met die lang haarlokke.' 43Al julle nasies, julle moet die volk van die Here roem, want Hy wreek die bloed van sy dienaars, Hy straf sy teenstanders, Hy bring vrede tussen Hom en sy land, tussen Hom en sy volk. 44Moses het nader gekom en hierdie hele lied aan die volk voorgehou. Josua seun van Nun was by hom. 45Toe Moses hiermee klaar was, 46het hy vir al die Israeliete gesê: Neem al die woorde waarmee ek julle vandag vermaan het, ter harte. Julle moet julle kinders beveel om dit te gehoorsaam en te lewe volgens hierdie hele wet. 47Dit is nie 'n geringe saak vir julle nie, dit is die lewe vir julle, en deur hierdie gebod te onderhou, sal julle julle verblyf verleng in die land wat julle in besit sal neem wanneer julle die Jordaan deurtrek. 48Op dieselfde dag waarop Moses so met die Israeliete gepraat het, het die Here vir hom gesê: 49Klim op Neboberg in die Abarimberge in Moab regoor Jerigo en bekyk Kanaän wat Ek vir die Israeliete as besitting sal gee. 50Jy sal sterf op die berg waarop jy moet klim. So het jou broer Aäron gesterf op Horberg. 51Julle was voor die oë van die Israeliete aan My ontrou by die waters van Meriba-Kades in die Sinwoestyn, want julle het My nie daar voor hulle oë as die Heilige geëer nie. 52Jy sal die land wat Ek aan die Israeliete sal gee, regoor jou sien, maar jy sal daar nie binnegaan nie.

Deuteronomy 33

Moses' Final Blessing on Israel

Deu 33:1 These are the blessings that Moses, the man of God, pronounced on the people of Israel before he died.

Deu 33:2 The LORD came from Mount Sinai; he rose like the sun over Edom and shone on his people from Mount Paran. Ten thousand angels were with him, a flaming fire at his right hand.

Deu 33:3 The LORD loves his people and protects those who belong to him. So we bow at his feet and obey his commands.

Deu 33:4 We obey the Law that Moses gave us, our nation's most treasured possession.

Deu 33:5 The LORD became king of his people Israel when their tribes and leaders were gathered together.

Deu 33:6 Moses said about the tribe of Reuben: "May Reuben never die out, Although their people are few."

Deu 33:7 About the tribe of Judah he said: " LORD, listen to their cry for help; Unite them again with the other tribes. Fight for them, LORD, And help them against their enemies."

Deu 33:8 About the tribe of Levi he said: "You, LORD, reveal your will by the Urim and Thummim Through your faithful servants, the Levites; You put them to the test at Massah And proved them true at the waters of Meribah.

Deu 33:9 They showed greater loyalty to you Than to parents, brothers, or children. They obeyed your commands And were faithful to your covenant.

Deu 33:10 They will teach your people to obey your Law; They will offer sacrifices on your altar.

Deu 33:11 LORD, help their tribe to grow strong; Be pleased with what they do. Crush all their enemies; Let them never rise again."

Deu 33:12 About the tribe of Benjamin he said: "This is the tribe the LORD loves and protects; He guards them all the day long, And he dwells in their midst."

Deu 33:13 About the tribe of Joseph he said: "May the LORD bless their land with rain And with water from under the earth.

Deu 33:14 May their land be blessed with sun-ripened fruit, Rich with the best fruits of each season.

Deu 33:15 May their ancient hills be covered with choice fruit.

Deu 33:16 May their land be filled with all that is good, Blessed by the goodness of the LORD, Who spoke from the burning bush. May these blessings come to the tribe of Joseph, Because he was the leader among his brothers.

Deu 33:17 Joseph has the strength of a bull, The horns of a wild ox. His horns are Manasseh's thousands And Ephraim's ten thousands. With them he gores the nations And pushes them to the ends of the earth."

Deu 33:18 About the tribes of Zebulun and Issachar he said: "May Zebulun be prosperous in their trade on the sea, And may Issachar's wealth increase at home.

Deu 33:19 They invite foreigners to their mountain And offer the right sacrifices there. They get their wealth from the sea And from the sand along the shore."

Deu 33:20 About the tribe of Gad he said: "Praise God, who made their territory large. Gad waits like a lion To tear off an arm or a scalp.

Deu 33:21 They took the best of the land for themselves; A leader's share was assigned to them. They obeyed the LORD's commands and laws When the leaders of Israel were gathered together."

Deu 33:22 About the tribe of Dan he said: "Dan is a young lion; He leaps out from Bashan."

Deu 33:23 About the tribe of Naphtali he said: "Naphtali is richly blessed by the LORD's good favor; Their land reaches to the south from Lake Galilee."

Deu 33:24 About the tribe of Asher he said: "Asher is blessed more than the other tribes. May he be the favorite of his brothers, And may his land be rich with olive trees.

Deu 33:25 May his towns be protected with iron gates, And may he always live secure."

Deu 33:26 People of Israel, no god is like your God, riding in splendor across the sky, riding through the clouds to come to your aid.

Deu 33:27 God has always been your defense; his eternal arms are your support. He drove out your enemies as you advanced, and told you to destroy them all.

Deu 33:28 So Jacob's descendants live in peace, secure in a land full of grain and wine, where dew from the sky waters the ground.

Deu 33:29 Israel, how happy you are! There is no one like you, a nation saved by the LORD. The LORD himself is your shield and your sword, to defend you and give you victory. Your enemies will come begging for mercy, and you will trample them down.

DEUTERONÓMIUM 33

1Moses, die man van God, het die Israeliete voor sy dood met die volgende woorde geseën: 2Hy het gesê: Die Here kom van Sinai af, Hy laat van Seïr af sy lig oor sy volk skyn, laat dit deurbreek van Paranberg af. Hy kom van waar tienduisende hemelwesens woon, van waar hulle aan sy regterhand hulle plek het. 3U, Here, het u volk lief, al die heiliges is in u hand. Hulle sit aan u voete, elkeen luister na u woorde. 4Moses het ons 'n wet gegee, dit is 'n besitting vir die volk van Jakob. 5Die Here het koning geword oor Jesurun toe die volksleiers, al die stamme van Israel, bymekaargekom het. 6Ruben moet lewe, hy mag nie sterf nie; hy moet 'n groot volk word. 7Oor Juda het Moses gesê: Here, luister na Juda! Bring hom na sy volk toe; maak hom sterk, wees vir hom 'n hulp teen sy teenstanders. 8Oor Levi het Moses gesê: U tummim en u urim is toevertrou aan u troue dienaar, U het hom by Massa op die proef gestel, U het 'n saak teen hom gehad by die Meribawaters.9Hy het van sy pa en ma gesê: Ek hou nie rekening met hulle nie.' Hy het sy broers nie erken nie, sy seuns nie as familie beskou nie. Die mense van Levi is gehoorsaam aan u bevele, hulle eerbiedig u verbond. 10Hulle sal vir Jakob in u bepalings onderrig, vir Israel in u wet. Hulle sal wierookoffers voor U kom neersit, brandoffers op u altaar. 11Seën sy werk, Here! Aanvaar wat hy doen! Tref sy teenstanders waar hulle krag sit, tref sy haters sodat hulle nie weer opstaan nie. 12Oor Benjamin het Moses gesê: Wie deur die Here bemin word, is veilig by Hom, skuil altyd by Hom en leef onder sy beskerming. 13Oor Josef het Moses gesê: Mag sy land deur die Here geseën word: met die beste uit die hemel, met dou en met die beste uit die water diep onder die grond, 14met die beste wat deur die son gegee kan word en met die beste wat deur elke maand opgelewer kan word, 15met die beste uit die gryse berge en met die beste uit die ou-ou heuwels, 16met die beste uit die aarde en wat daarop is en met die toegeneentheid van Hom wat woon in die doringbos. Mag dit alles op Josef kom, op hom wat heerser is oor sy broers. 17Hy sal trots wees soos 'n jong bul, so sterk soos 'n buffel. Hy sal volke met sy krag rondjaag, almal saam tot in die uithoeke van die aarde. Mag die tienduisende van Efraim so wees en ook die duisende van Manasse. 18Oor Sebulon het Moses gesê: Jy moet bly wees, Sebulon, as jy op pad gaan; Issaskar, jy moet bly wees as jy by die huis bly. 19Hulle twee nooi volke na die berg toe en offer daar die offers wat voorgeskryf is. Hulle twee geniet die oorvloed uit die see, die skatte wat deur die sand bedek word. 20Oor Gad het Moses gesê: Geseënd is elkeen wat vir Gad woonplek gee. Hy lê soos 'n leeu, sterkes en leiers is sy prooi. 21Gad het die beste vir hom gekies, want sy land is 'n uitsoekdeel, 'n terrasland. Gad het met die leiers van die volk gekom en die wil van die Here gedoen en saam met Israel die bepalings van die Here nagekom. 22Oor Dan het Moses gesê: Dan is 'n jong leeu, hy bespring sy prooi van Basan af. 23Oor Naftali het Moses gesê: Naftali geniet baie guns, hy word ryklik geseën deur die Here en besit die see en die suide. 24Oor Aser het Moses gesê: Aser is meer geseënd as die ander seuns, hy is die gunsteling onder sy broers en hy sal sy voete met olie was. 25Jou sluitbalke is van yster en brons. Mag jy jou lewe lank rustig woon. 26Jesurun, daar is niemand soos God nie, Hy ry deur die hemel om jou te kom help, in sy majesteit ry Hy op die wolke. 27Die ewige God is 'n skuilplek, sy arms is altyd onder jou. Hy verdryf die vyand voor jou uit, Hy beveel: Roei uit!' 28Daarom woon Israel rustig, woon die nasate van Jakob eenkant in 'n land van koring en wyn en drup die hemel dou. 29Dit gaan goed met jou, Israel! Wie is soos jy? Jy is 'n volk wat deur die Here verlos is! Hy beskerm en help jou. Hy gee mag aan jou, jou vyande kruip voor jou, en jy sal oor hulle offerplekke stap.

Deuteronomy 34

The Death of Moses

Deu 34:1 Moses went up from the plains of Moab to Mount Nebo, to the top of Mount Pisgah east of Jericho, and there the LORD showed him the whole land: the territory of Gilead as far north as the town of Dan;

Deu 34:2 the entire territory of Naphtali; the territories of Ephraim and Manasseh; the territory of Judah as far west as the Mediterranean Sea;

Deu 34:3 the southern part of Judah; and the plain that reaches from Zoar to Jericho, the city of palm trees.

Deu 34:4 Then the LORD said to Moses, "This is the land that I promised Abraham, Isaac, and Jacob I would give to their descendants. I have let you see it, but I will not let you go there."

Deu 34:5 So Moses, the LORD's servant, died there in the land of Moab, as the LORD had said he would.

Deu 34:6 The LORD buried him in a valley in Moab, opposite the town of Bethpeor, but to this day no one knows the exact place of his burial.

Deu 34:7 Moses was a hundred and twenty years old when he died; he was as strong as ever, and his eyesight was still good.

Deu 34:8 The people of Israel mourned for him for thirty days in the plains of Moab.

Deu 34:9 Joshua son of Nun was filled with wisdom, because Moses had appointed him to be his successor. The people of Israel obeyed Joshua and kept the commands that the LORD had given them through Moses.

Deu 34:10 There has never been a prophet in Israel like Moses; the LORD spoke with him face-to-face.

Deu 34:11 No other prophet has ever done miracles and wonders like those that the LORD sent Moses to perform against the king of Egypt, his officials, and the entire country.

Deu 34:12 No other prophet has been able to do the great and terrifying things that Moses did in the sight of all Israel.

DEUTERONÓMIUM 34

1Moses het uit die Moabsvlakte opgeklim na Neboberg toe, tot op die top van Pisgaberg regoor Jerigo. Die Here het hom die hele land gewys: van Gilead af tot by Dan, 2die hele Naftali, die gebied van Efraim en Manasse en die hele Juda tot by die see in die weste, 3die Suidland en die vlakte, die Jerigolaagte met sy palms tot by Soar. 4Die Here het vir Moses gesê: Dit is die land wat Ek met 'n eed beloof het aan Abraham en Isak en Jakob Ek het gesê: Ek gee dit aan jou nageslag.' Ek het jou dit met jou eie oë laat sien, maar jy sal nie daarheen deurtrek nie. 5Moses, die dienaar van die Here, het daar in die land Moab gesterf soos die Here beveel het. 6Hy het vir Moses begrawe in 'n vlakte in Moab, regoor Bet-Peor, maar tot nou toe weet niemand waar sy graf is nie. 7Moses was honderd en twintig jaar toe hy gesterf het; sy oë was toe nog goed en sy krag het nog nie ingegee nie. 8Die Israeliete het dertig dae oor Moses gerou in die Moabsvlakte en so die routyd oor Moses voltooi. 9Josua seun van Nun het oor wysheid beskik, want Moses het sy hande op Josua gelê. Die Israeliete het hom gehoorsaam en hulle het gedoen wat die Here vir Moses beveel het. 10Daar het nie weer 'n profeet in Israel opgetree wat soos Moses was nie. Hy het die Here persoonlik geken. 11Die Here het hom gestuur om in Egipte al die tekens en wonders vir die farao en sy amptenare en sy hele land te doen. 12Moses het al die magtige dade, al die groot dade wat vrees inboesem, voor die oë van die hele Israel gedoen.

Joshua 1

God Commissions Joshua

Jos 1:1 After the death of the LORD's servant Moses, the LORD spoke to Moses' helper, Joshua son of Nun.

Jos 1:2 He said, "My servant Moses is dead. Get ready now, you and all the people of Israel, and cross the Jordan River into the land that I am giving them.

Jos 1:3 As I told Moses, I have given you and all my people the entire land that you will be marching over.

Jos 1:4 Your borders will reach from the desert in the south to the Lebanon Mountains in the north; from the great Euphrates River in the east, through the Hittite country, to the Mediterranean Sea in the west.

Jos 1:5 Joshua, no one will be able to defeat you as long as you live. I will be with you as I was with Moses. I will always be with you; I will never abandon you.

Jos 1:6 Be determined and confident, for you will be the leader of these people as they occupy this land which I promised their ancestors.

Jos 1:7 Just be determined, be confident; and make sure that you obey the whole Law that my servant Moses gave you. Do not neglect any part of it and you will succeed wherever you go.

Jos 1:8 Be sure that the book of the Law is always read in your worship. Study it day and night, and make sure that you obey everything written in it. Then you will be prosperous and successful.

Jos 1:9 Remember that I have commanded you to be determined and confident! Do not be afraid or discouraged, for I, the LORD your God, am with you wherever you go."

Joshua Assumes Command

Jos 1:10 Then Joshua ordered the leaders to

Jos 1:11 go through the camp and say to the people, "Get some food ready, because in three days you are going to cross the Jordan River to occupy the land that the LORD your God is giving you."

Jos 1:12 Joshua said to the tribes of Reuben and Gad and to half the tribe of Manasseh, Jos 1:13 "Remember how the LORD's servant Moses told you that the LORD your God would give you this land on the east side of the Jordan as your home.

Jos 1:14 Your wives, your children, and your livestock will stay here, but your soldiers, armed for battle, will cross over ahead of the other Israelites in order to help them

Jos 1:15 until they have occupied the land west of the Jordan that the LORD your God has given them. When he has given safety to all the tribes of Israel, then you may come back and settle here in your own land east of the Jordan, which Moses, the LORD's servant, gave to you."

Jos 1:16 They answered Joshua, "We will do everything you have told us and will go anywhere you send us.

Jos 1:17 We will obey you, just as we always obeyed Moses, and may the LORD your God be with you as he was with Moses!

Jos 1:18 Whoever questions your authority or disobeys any of your orders will be put to death. Be determined and confident!"

JOSUA 1

1Na die dood van Moses, die dienaar van die Here, het die Here vir Josua, seun van Nun en assistent van Moses, gesê: 2Moses my dienaar is dood. Maak jy nou gereed en trek deur die Jordaanrivier, jy en hierdie hele volk. Gaan na die land toe wat Ek aan hulle, die Israeliete, gee. 3Soos Ek vir Moses gesê het, gee Ek aan julle elke plek waar julle kom: 4van die woestyn af en van die Libanon af tot aan die groot rivier, die Eufraat, die hele gebied van die Hetiete tot aan die Groot See in die weste, alles sal julle woongebied wees. 5Solank jy lewe, sal niemand bestand wees teen jou nie. Soos Ek by Moses was, so sal Ek by jou wees. Ek sal jou nie in die steek laat nie, jou nie verlaat nie. 6Wees sterk, wees vasberade, want jy moet hierdie volk die land in besit laat neem wat Ek met 'n eed aan hulle voorvaders beloof het. 7Wees veral sterk en baie vasberade in die uitvoering van die wet wat my dienaar Moses jou beveel het. Moet daarvan nie links of regs afwyk nie. Dan sal jy voorspoedig wees, waar jy ook al gaan. 8Hierdie wetboek moet die rigsnoer wees vir alles wat jy sê. Oordink dit dag en nag en sorg dat jy alles uitvoer wat daarin geskryf staan. Dan sal jy slaag in wat jy moet doen, jy sal voorspoedig wees. 9Ek self gee jou die opdrag. Wees sterk, wees vasberade. Moenie skrik nie, moenie bang wees nie, want Ek, die Here jou God, is by jou oral waar jy gaan. 10Josua het die beamptes van die volk beveel: 11Gaan die kamp deur en sê vir die mense: Maak vir julle padkos gereed, want oor drie dae trek julle deur die Jordaan en gaan julle die land in besit neem wat die Here julle God julle as besitting gee. 12Vir die stamme Ruben en Gad en vir die halwe Manassestam het Josua gesê: 13Julle onthou die woorde van Moses die dienaar van die Here. Hy het vir julle gesê: Die Here julle God sal vir julle 'n vaste woonplek gee; Hy sal julle hierdie gebied gee.' 14Julle vrouens en kinders en julle vee kan in die gebied aan hierdie kant van die Jordaan bly wat Moses aan julle toegeken het, maar julle, elke weerbare man, moet in formasie voor julle volksgenote uit optrek en hulle help. 15Eers nadat die Here aan julle volksgenote 'n vaste woonplek gegee het soos vir julle, en hulle ook die gebied in besit geneem het wat die Here julle God aan hulle gee, kan julle terugkom. Dan kan julle julle eie gebied wat Moses die dienaar van die Here aan julle oos van die Jordaan toegeken het, in besit neem. 16Hulle het Josua geantwoord: Ons sal alles doen wat u ons opdra, ons sal gaan waar u ons ook al stuur. 17Soos ons aan Moses gehoorsaam was, so sal ons aan u gehoorsaam wees. Mag die Here u God by u wees soos Hy by Moses was. 18Elke man wat hom teen u bevele verset en nie gehoorsaam is aan al die bevele wat u gee nie, sal doodgemaak word. Wees u net sterk en vasberade.

Joshua 2

Rahab Hides the Spies

Jos 2:1 Then Joshua sent two spies from the camp at Acacia with orders to go and secretly explore the land of Canaan, especially the city of Jericho. When they came to the city, they went to spend the night in the house of a prostitute named Rahab.

Jos 2:2 The king of Jericho heard that some Israelites had come that night to spy out the country,

Jos 2:3 so he sent word to Rahab: "The men in your house have come to spy out the whole country! Bring them out!"

Jos 2:4 (4-6) "Some men did come to my house," she answered, "but I don't know where they were from. They left at sundown before the city gate was closed. I didn't find out where they were going, but if you start after them quickly, you can catch them." (Now Rahab had taken the two spies up on the roof and hidden them under some stalks of flax that she had put there.)

Jos 2:7 The king's men left the city, and then the gate was shut. They went looking for the Israelite spies as far as the place where the road crosses the Jordan.

Jos 2:8 Before the spies settled down for the night, Rahab went up on the roof

Jos 2:9 and said to them, "I know that the LORD has given you this land. Everyone in the country is terrified of you.

Jos 2:10 We have heard how the LORD dried up the Red Sea in front of you when you were leaving Egypt. We have also heard how you killed Sihon and Og, the two Amorite kings east of the Jordan.

Jos 2:11 We were afraid as soon as we heard about it; we have all lost our courage because of you. The LORD your God is God in heaven above and here on earth.

Jos 2:12 Now swear by him that you will treat my family as kindly as I have treated you, and give me some sign that I can trust you.

Jos 2:13 Promise me that you will save my father and mother, my brothers and sisters, and all their families! Don't let us be killed!"

Jos 2:14 The men said to her, "May God take our lives if we don't do as we say! If you do not tell anyone what we have been doing, we promise you that when the LORD gives us this land, we will treat you well."

Jos 2:15 Rahab lived in a house built into the city wall, so she let the men down from the window by a rope.

Jos 2:16 "Go into the hill country," she said, "or the king's men will find you. Hide there for three days until they come back. After that, you can go on your way."

Jos 2:17 The men said to her, "We will keep the promise that you have made us give.

Jos 2:18 This is what you must do. When we invade your land, tie this red cord to the window you let us down from. Get your father and mother, your brothers, and all your father's family together in your house.

Jos 2:19 If anyone goes out of the house, his death will be his own fault, and we will not be responsible; but if anyone in the house with you is harmed, then we will be responsible.

Jos 2:20 However, if you tell anyone what we have been doing, then we will not have to keep our promise which you have made us give you."

Jos 2:21 She agreed and sent them away. When they had gone, she tied the red cord to the window.

Jos 2:22 The spies went into the hills and hid. The king's men looked for them all over the countryside for three days, but they did not find them, so they returned to Jericho.

Jos 2:23 Then the two spies came down from the hills, crossed the river, and went back to Joshua. They told him everything that had happened,

Jos 2:24 and then said, "We are sure that the LORD has given us the whole country. All the people there are terrified of us."

JOSUA 2

[1]Josua seun van Nun het van Sittim af in die geheim twee verkenners uitgestuur en vir hulle gesê: Gaan kyk die land deur, veral Jerigo. Hulle is toe weg en het uitgekom by die huis van 'n prostituut met die naam Ragab en daar tuis gegaan. [2]Die koning van Jerigo het berig gekry dat daar in die nag van die Israeliete af mense aangekom het om die land te verken, [3]en hy het vir Ragab laat weet: Lewer die manne uit wat na jou toe, na jou huis toe, gekom het. Hulle is hier om die land te verken. [4]Die vrou het die twee manne weggesteek en vir die koning laat weet: Daar het manne by my aangekom, maar ek weet nie waarvandaan hulle is nie. [5]Hulle het met donker vertrek toe dit tyd was vir die stadspoort om te sluit, en ek weet nie waarheen hulle is nie. Maak gou en agtervolg hulle. Miskien haal u hulle in. [6]Sy het die twee manne intussen op die dak laat klim en hulle weggesteek onder die vlasstoppels wat sy daar oopgesprei het. [7]Die koning se manne het na die twee verkenners gaan soek op die pad na die Jordaan toe, in die driwwe se rigting. Nadat die agtervolgers weg is agter die verkenners aan, is die stadspoort gesluit. [8]Voor die verkenners aan die slaap geraak het, is die vrou na hulle toe op die dak [9]en het sy vir hulle gesê: Ek weet die Here gee vir julle die land; ons is skrikbevange vir julle, al die inwoners van die land bewe van vrees vir julle. [10]Ons het gehoor hoe die Here die water van die Rietsee voor julle laat wegdroog het met julle trek uit Egipte, en ook wat julle met die twee konings van die Amoriete oorkant die Jordaan, met Sihon en Og, gedoen het, hoe julle hulle voor die voet uitgeroei het. [11]Ons het dit gehoor en ons harte het van angs verstyf. Niemand het nog moed teen julle nie, want julle God, die Here, is God, bo in die hemel en onder op die aarde. [12]Ek het julle goed behandel. Lê dan nou vir my 'n eed voor die Here af dat julle my familie ook goed sal behandel, en gee my 'n betroubare aanduiding [13]dat julle my pa en ma, my broers en susters en almal wat by hulle hoort, se lewens sal spaar en ons so van die dood sal red. [14]Toe sê die manne vir haar: Ons staan met ons eie lewe in vir julle s'n. As julle nie oor ons praat nie en die Here gee ons die land, sal ons jou goed behandel en ons woord hou. [15]Sy het hulle met 'n tou deur die venster laat afsak; haar huis was in die stadsmuur ingebou, sodat sy in die muur gewoon het. [16]Haar woorde aan hulle was: Gaan die berge in sodat die mense wat na julle soek, julle nie raakloop nie. Kruip drie dae daar weg tot hulle die soektog staak. Daarna kan julle julle koers gaan. [17]Die manne het vir haar gesê: Die eed wat jy ons laat aflê het, sal ons net bind [18]as jy, wanneer ons die stad aanval, hierdie bloedrooi tou vasbind aan die venster waardeur jy ons laat afsak, en jou pa en ma, jou broers en jou hele familie by jou in die huis bymekaarhou. [19]Enigeen wat by jou huis se deure uitgaan buitentoe, sal self vir sy dood verantwoordelik wees, nie ons nie. Ons hou ons verantwoordelik vir enigeen wat by jou in die huis is; daar sal nie 'n hand teen hom gelig word nie. [20]En as jy oor ons praat, is ons nie gebind aan die eed wat jy ons laat aflê het nie. [21]Sy het gesê: Laat dit wees soos julle gesê het, en sy het hulle laat gaan en hulle is weg. Sy het toe die bloedrooi tou aan die venster vasgebind. [22]Hulle het vertrek en is die berge in. Daar het hulle drie dae gebly tot die mense wat hulle gaan soek het, teruggekom het. Die mense het langs die hele pad gesoek en niks gekry nie. [23]Daarna het die twee manne uit die berge teruggekom en is hulle die rivier oor na Josua seun van Nun toe. Hulle het hom alles vertel wat met hulle gebeur het. [24]Hulle het vir Josua gesê: Die Here gee die hele land oor in ons mag. Al die inwoners van die land bewe van vrees vir ons.

Joshua 3

Israel Crosses the Jordan

Jos 3:1 The next morning Joshua and all the people of Israel got up early, left the camp at Acacia, and went to the Jordan, where they camped while waiting to cross it.

Jos 3:2 Three days later the leaders went through the camp

Jos 3:3 and told the people, "When you see the priests carrying the Covenant Box of the LORD your God, break camp and follow them.

Jos 3:4 You have never been here before, so they will show you the way to go. But do not get near the Covenant Box; stay about half a mile behind it."

Jos 3:5 Joshua told the people, "Purify yourselves, because tomorrow the LORD will perform miracles among you."

Jos 3:6 Then he told the priests to take the Covenant Box and go with it ahead of the people. They did as he said.

Jos 3:7 The LORD said to Joshua, "What I do today will make all the people of Israel begin to honor you as a great man, and they will realize that I am with you as I was with Moses.

Jos 3:8 Tell the priests carrying the Covenant Box that when they reach the river, they must wade in and stand near the bank."

Jos 3:9 Then Joshua said to the people, "Come here and listen to what the LORD your God has to say.

Jos 3:10 As you advance, he will surely drive out the Canaanites, the Hittites, the Hivites, the Perizzites, the Girgashites, the Amorites, and the Jebusites. You will know that the living God is among you

Jos 3:11 when the Covenant Box of the Lord of all the earth crosses the Jordan ahead of you.

Jos 3:12 Now choose twelve men, one from each of the tribes of Israel.

Jos 3:13 When the priests who carry the Covenant Box of the LORD of all the earth put their feet in the water, the Jordan will stop flowing, and the water coming downstream will pile up in one place."

Jos 3:14 (14-15) It was harvest time, and the river was in flood. When the people left the camp to cross the Jordan, the priests went ahead of them, carrying the Covenant Box. As soon as the priests stepped into the river,

Jos 3:16 the water stopped flowing and piled up, far upstream at Adam, the city beside Zarethan. The flow downstream to the Dead Sea was completely cut off, and the people were able to cross over near Jericho.

Jos 3:17 While the people walked across on dry ground, the priests carrying the LORD's Covenant Box stood on dry ground in the middle of the Jordan until all the people had crossed over.

JOSUA 3

1Josua het die môre vroeg van Sittim af vertrek en by die Jordaan aangekom, hy en al die Israeliete. Hulle het daar oorgebly voor hulle deur die rivier sou trek. 2Na drie dae het die beamptes die kamp deurgegaan 3en die volk beveel: Wanneer julle sien die Levitiese priesters dra die verbondsark van die Here julle God, moet julle van julle staanplekke af vertrek en die ark volg, 4sodat julle kan weet watter pad om te gaan, want julle het nie vantevore met dié pad langs gegaan nie. Maar daar moet 'n behoorlike afstand wees tussen julle en die ark, omtrent nege honderd meter. Moenie te naby hom kom nie. 5Josua het vir die volk gesê: Reinig julle, want môre gaan die Here wonders doen tussen julle. 6Vir die priesters het Josua gesê: Tel die verbondsark op en stap voor die volk uit. Hulle het die verbondsark opgetel en voor die volk uit geloop. 7Toe sê die Here vir Josua: Ek begin vandag om vir jou hoë aansien in die oë van die hele Israel te gee sodat hulle kan weet dat Ek by jou is soos Ek by Moses was. 8Sê nou vir die priesters wat die verbondsark dra, hulle moet by die Jordaan gaan staan wanneer hulle by die waterkant kom. 9Josua het vir die Israeliete gesê: Kom nader, luister na die woorde van die Here julle God! 10Daarna sê hy: Hieraan sal julle weet dat die lewende God tussen julle is en dat Hy die Kanaäniete, Hetiete, Hewiete, Feresiete, Girgasiete, Amoriete en Jebusiete sekerlik sal verdryf om vir julle plek te maak: 11kyk, die verbondsark van die Here van die hele aarde sal voor julle uit die Jordaan in gaan. 12Wys nou twaalf man aan uit die stamme van Israel, een uit elke stam. 13Wanneer die voetsole van die priesters aan die Jordaan se water raak, die priesters wat die ark van die Here dra, die Here van die hele aarde, sal die water van die Jordaan wat afkom, afgesny word en op een hoop gaan staan. 14Die volk het toe van hulle tente af vertrek om deur die Jordaan te trek. Die priesters wat die verbondsark gedra het, was voor hulle. 15Die draers van die ark het by die Jordaan aangekom. Gedurende die hele oestyd is die Jordaan gewoonlik vol, oor al sy oewers. Toe die voete van die priesters wat die ark dra, in die vlakwater kom, 16het die water wat afkom, gaan staan. Dit het op een hoop gaan staan, ver boontoe by Adam, die stad langs Saretan. Die water wat afloop na die see in die Jordaanvallei, die Soutsee, was heeltemal afgesny. Die volk het regoor Jerigo deurgetrek. 17Die priesters wat die verbondsark van die Here dra, het daar binne in die Jordaan op die droë bedding gaan staan terwyl die hele Israel oor die droë bedding deurgaan tot die hele nasie uiteindelik deur die Jordaan is.

Joshua 4

Twelve Memorial Stones from the Jordan

Jos 4:1 When the whole nation had crossed the Jordan, the LORD said to Joshua,

Jos 4:2 "Choose twelve men, one from each tribe,

Jos 4:3 and command them to take twelve stones out of the middle of the Jordan, from the very place where the priests were standing. Tell them to carry these stones with them and to put them down where you camp tonight."

Jos 4:4 Then Joshua called the twelve men he had chosen,

Jos 4:5 and he told them, "Go into the Jordan ahead of the Covenant Box of the LORD your God. Each one of you take a stone on your shoulder, one for each of the tribes of Israel.

Jos 4:6 These stones will remind the people of what the LORD has done. In the future, when your children ask what these stones mean to you,

Jos 4:7 you will tell them that the water of the Jordan stopped flowing when the LORD's Covenant Box crossed the river. These stones will always remind the people of Israel of what happened here."

Jos 4:8 The men followed Joshua's orders. As the LORD had commanded Joshua, they took twelve stones from the middle of the Jordan, one for each of the tribes of Israel, carried them to the camping place, and put them down there.

Jos 4:9 Joshua also set up twelve stones in the middle of the Jordan, where the priests carrying the Covenant Box had stood. (Those stones are still there.)

Jos 4:10 The priests stood in the middle of the Jordan until everything had been done that the LORD ordered Joshua to tell the people to do. This is what Moses had commanded. The people hurried across the river.

Jos 4:11 When they were all on the other side, the priests with the LORD's Covenant Box went on ahead of the people.

Jos 4:12 The men of the tribes of Reuben and Gad and of half the tribe of Manasseh, ready for battle, crossed ahead of the rest of the people, as Moses had told them to do.

Jos 4:13 In the presence of the LORD about forty thousand men ready for war crossed over to the plain near Jericho.

Jos 4:14 What the LORD did that day made the people of Israel consider Joshua a great man. They honored him all his life, just as they had honored Moses.

Jos 4:15 Then the LORD told Joshua

Jos 4:16 to command the priests carrying the Covenant Box to come up out of the Jordan.

Jos 4:17 Joshua did so,

Jos 4:18 and when the priests reached the riverbank, the river began flowing once more and flooded its banks again.

Jos 4:19 The people crossed the Jordan on the tenth day of the first month and camped at Gilgal, east of Jericho.

Jos 4:20 There Joshua set up the twelve stones taken from the Jordan.

Jos 4:21 And he said to the people of Israel, "In the future, when your children ask you what these stones mean,

Jos 4:22 you will tell them about the time when Israel crossed the Jordan on dry ground.

Jos 4:23 Tell them that the LORD your God dried up the water of the Jordan for you until you had crossed, just as he dried up the Red Sea for us.

Jos 4:24 Because of this everyone on earth will know how great the LORD's power is, and you will honor the LORD your God forever."

1Nadat die hele nasie deur die Jordaan is, het die Here vir Josua gesê: 2Neem nou die twaalf man uit die volk, een uit elke stam, 3en sê vir hulle: Vat hier uit die Jordaan, op die plek waar die priesters gestaan het, twaalf klippe en neem hulle saam met julle deur en sit hulle neer op die plek waar julle vannag oorbly. 4Josua roep toe die twaalf man wat hy uit die Israeliete aangewys het, een uit elke stam, 5en hy sê vir hulle: Gaan by die ark van die Here julle God verby tot in die middel van die Jordaan en tel elkeen 'n klip op die skouer, in ooreenstemming met die getal stamme van die Israeliete. 6Dit moet onder julle as 'n teken dien. Wanneer julle kinders julle eendag vra: Wat beteken hierdie klippe vir u?' 7moet julle vir hulle sê die Jordaan se water is voor die verbondsark van die Here afgesny; toe die ark deur die Jordaan moes gaan, is die rivier se water afgesny; daarom is hierdie klippe vir die Israeliete 'n blywende herinnering daaraan. 8Die Israeliete het gemaak soos Josua gesê het. Hulle het die twaalf klippe in ooreenstemming met die getal stamme van Israel gevat soos die Here vir Josua gesê het, dit met hulle saam deurgeneem na die plek toe waar hulle sou oornag en dit daar neergesit. 9Josua het ook twaalf klippe binne-in die Jordaan opgerig, op die plek waar die priesters gestaan het wat die verbondsark gedra het. Die klippe is vandag nog daar. 10Die priesters wat die verbondsark gedra het, het in die Jordaan bly staan tot alles afgehandel was wat die Here vir Josua opgedra het om vir die volk te sê in ooreenstemming met alles wat Moses vir Josua beveel het. Die volk was haastig om deur te gaan. 11Toe die volk klaar deur is, het die ark van die Here deurgegaan. Die priesters was voor die volk. 12Die stamme Ruben en Gad en die halwe Manassestam het, soos Moses hulle beveel het, in formasie voor die Israeliete getrek. 13Omtrent veertig duisend gewapende manne het vir die oorlog die rivier deurgegaan voor die ark van die Here uit na die Jerigovlakte toe. 14Die Here het daardie dag aan Josua hoë aansien gegee in die oë van die hele Israel. Hulle het sy lewe lank aan hom eerbied betoon soos aan Moses. 15Die Here het vir Josua gesê: 16Sê vir die priesters wat die ark met die getuienis dra, hulle moet uit die Jordaan kom. 17Josua het toe die priesters beveel om uit die Jordaan te kom, 18en toe die priesters wat die verbondsark van die Here dra, uit die Jordaan kom en hulle voetsole die grond aan die kant raak, het die rivier se waters weer op hulle ou plek begin loop. Soos tevore het hy weer al sy oewers oorstroom. 19Die volk het op die tiende dag van die eerste maand uit die Jordaan gekom en kamp opgeslaan in Gilgal, oos van Jerigo. 20Josua het die twaalf klippe wat hulle uit die Jordaan saamgebring het, in Gilgal opgestel 21en vir die Israeliete gesê: As julle kinders eendag hulle pa's vra: Wat beteken daardie klippe?' [22]moet julle die kinders inlig en sê: Israel het op droë grond deur hierdie Jordaanrivier gegaan. [23]Die Here julle God het die Jordaan se water voor julle laat opdroog sodat julle kon deurgaan, net soos Hy met die Rietsee gemaak het toe Hy dit voor ons laat opdroog het sodat ons kon deurgaan. [24]Hy het dit gedoen sodat al die volke van die aarde kan besef dat die mag van die Here groot is, en sodat julle die Here julle God altyd sal dien.

Joshua 5

The New Generation Circumcised

Jos 5:1 All the Amorite kings west of the Jordan and all the Canaanite kings along the Mediterranean Sea heard that the LORD had dried up the Jordan until the people of Israel had crossed it. They became afraid and lost their courage because of the Israelites.

Jos 5:2 Then the LORD told Joshua, "Make some knives out of flint and circumcise the Israelites."

Jos 5:3 So Joshua did as the LORD had commanded, and he circumcised the Israelites at a place called Circumcision Hill.

Jos 5:4 (4-6) When the people of Israel left Egypt, all the males were already circumcised. However, during the forty years the people spent crossing the desert, none of the baby boys had been circumcised. Also, by the end of that time all the men who were of fighting age when they left Egypt had died because they had disobeyed the LORD. Just as he had sworn, they were not allowed to see the rich and fertile land that he had promised their ancestors.

Jos 5:7 The sons of these men had never been circumcised, and it was this new generation that Joshua circumcised.

Jos 5:8 After the circumcision was completed, the whole nation stayed in the camp until the wounds had healed.

Jos 5:9 The LORD said to Joshua, "Today I have removed from you the disgrace of being slaves in Egypt." That is why the place was named Gilgal, the name it still has.

First Passover in Canaan

Jos 5:10 While the Israelites were camping at Gilgal on the plain near Jericho, they observed Passover on the evening of the fourteenth day of the month.

Jos 5:11 The next day was the first time they ate food grown in Canaan: roasted grain and bread made without yeast.

Jos 5:12 The manna stopped falling then, and the Israelites no longer had any. From that time on they ate food grown in Canaan.

The Commander of the Lord's Army

Jos 5:13 While Joshua was near Jericho, he suddenly saw a man standing in front of him, holding a sword. Joshua went up to him and asked, "Are you one of our soldiers, or an enemy?"

Jos 5:14 "Neither," the man answered. "I am here as the commander of the LORD's army." Joshua threw himself on the ground in worship and said, "I am your servant, sir. What do you want me to do?"

Jos 5:15 And the commander of the LORD's army told him, "Take your sandals off; you are standing on holy ground." And Joshua did as he was told.

1Toe al die konings van die Amoriete wes van die Jordaan en al die konings van die Kanaäniete aan die see hoor dat die Here die water van die Jordaan voor die Israeliete laat opdroog het sodat ons kon deurgaan, het hulle harte van angs verstyf en het hulle nie meer moed teen die Israeliete gehad nie. 2In dié tyd het die Here vir Josua gesê: Maak vir jou klipmesse en besny die Israeliete. Daar moet weer 'n besnydenis wees. 3Josua het toe vir hom klipmesse gemaak en hy het die Israeliete besny. Die plek is genoem die Heuwel van die Besnydenis. 4Die rede waarom Josua die besnydenis moes uitvoer, is die volgende: die hele volk wat uit Egipte getrek het, die mans, al die weerbare manne, is op pad in die woestyn dood met die uittog uit Egipte; 5al die mense wat destyds getrek het, was besny, maar die mense wat in die woestyn onderweg gebore is tydens die uittog uit Egipte, was nie een besny nie; 6die Israeliete het veertig jaar lank in die woestyn rondgetrek, totdat die hele nasie uitgesterf het, dit wil sê die weerbare manne wat uit Egipte getrek het en ongehoorsaam was aan die opdrag van die Here. Hy het destyds 'n eed afgelê dat hulle nie die land sou sien wat Hy met 'n eed aan hulle voorvaders beloof het om aan hulle te gee nie, 'n land wat oorloop van melk en heuning; 7Hy het daardie mense se kinders in hulle plek gestel en vir hulle het Josua besny, want hulle was nog nie besny nie, hulle is nie langs die pad besny nie. 8Nadat die hele nasie klaar besny is, het hulle eers in die kamp gebly tot hulle gesond was. 9Die Here het vir Josua gesê: Vandag het Ek julle bevry van die smaad wat van Egipte se tyd af op julle rus. Josua het die plek toe Gilgal genoem. Dit is vandag nog die naam. 10Terwyl die Israeliete nog in Gilgal in die kamp was, het hulle die paasfees daar in die Jerigovlakte gevier, op die veertiende van die maand, in die aand. 11Die oggend na paasfees, presies op dié dag, het hulle ongesuurde brood en gebraaide koring, van die opbrengs van die land, geëet. 12Daardie oggend toe hulle van die opbrengs van die land eet, het die manna weggebly; daar was nie weer manna vir die Israeliete nie: hulle het daardie jaar van die land Kanaän se eie oes geëet. 13Josua was naby Jerigo. Toe hy sien, staan daar 'n man voor hom met 'n ontblote swaard in die hand. Josua het na hom toe gegaan en hom gevra: Is u aan ons kant of aan ons vyande s'n? 14Nee, sê die man, ek is die aanvoerder van die leër van die Here. Daarom is ek hier. Josua het diep gebuig en vir die man gesê: Wat wil u aan my, u dienaar, sê? 15Toe sê die leëraanvoerder van die Here vir Josua: Trek jou skoene uit, want die plek waarop jy staan, is 'n gewyde plek. Josua het dit gedoen.

Joshua 6

The Fall of Jericho

Jos 6:1 The gates of Jericho were kept shut and guarded to keep the Israelites out. No one could enter or leave the city.

Jos 6:2 The LORD said to Joshua, "I am putting into your hands Jericho, with its king and all its brave soldiers.

Jos 6:3 You and your soldiers are to march around the city once a day for six days.

Jos 6:4 Seven priests, each carrying a trumpet, are to go in front of the Covenant Box. On the seventh day you and your soldiers are to march around the city seven times while the priests blow the trumpets.

Jos 6:5 Then they are to sound one long note. As soon as you hear it, all the people are to give a loud shout, and the city walls will collapse. Then the whole army will go straight into the city."

Jos 6:6 Joshua called the priests and told them, "Take the Covenant Box, and seven of you go in front of it, carrying trumpets."

Jos 6:7 Then he ordered the people to start marching around the city, with an advance guard going on ahead of the LORD's Covenant Box.

Jos 6:8 (8-9) So, just as Joshua had ordered, an advance guard started out ahead of the priests who were blowing trumpets; behind these came the priests who were carrying the Covenant Box, followed by a rear guard. All this time the trumpets were sounding.

Jos 6:10 But Joshua had ordered the people not to shout, not to say a word until he gave the order.

Jos 6:11 So he had this group of men take the LORD's Covenant Box around the city one time. Then they came back to camp and spent the night there.

Jos 6:12 (12-13) Joshua got up early the next morning, and for the second time the priests and soldiers marched around the city in the same order as the day before: first, the advance guard; next, the seven priests blowing the seven trumpets; then, the priests carrying the LORD's Covenant Box; and finally, the rear guard. All this time the trumpets were sounding.

Jos 6:14 On this second day they again marched around the city one time and then returned to camp. They did this for six days.

Jos 6:15 On the seventh day they got up at daybreak and marched seven times around the city in the same way—this was the only day that they marched around it seven times.

Jos 6:16 The seventh time around, when the priests were about to sound the trumpets, Joshua ordered the people to shout, and he said, "The LORD has given you the city!

Jos 6:17 The city and everything in it must be totally destroyed as an offering to the LORD. Only the prostitute Rahab and her household will be spared, because she hid our spies.

Jos 6:18 But you are not to take anything that is to be destroyed; if you do, you will bring trouble and destruction on the Israelite camp.

Jos 6:19 Everything made of silver, gold, bronze, or iron is set apart for the LORD. It is to be put in the LORD's treasury."

Jos 6:20 So the priests blew the trumpets. As soon as the people heard it, they gave a loud shout, and the walls collapsed. Then all the army went straight up the hill into the city and captured it.

Jos 6:21 With their swords they killed everyone in the city, men and women, young and old. They also killed the cattle, sheep, and donkeys.

Jos 6:22 Joshua then told the two men who had served as spies, "Go into the prostitute's house, and bring her and her family out, as you promised her."

Jos 6:23 So they went and brought Rahab out, along with her father and mother, her brothers, and the rest of her family. They took them all, family and slaves, to safety near the Israelite camp.

Jos 6:24 Then they set fire to the city and burned it to the ground, along with everything in it, except the things made of gold, silver, bronze, and iron, which they took and put in the LORD's treasury.

Jos 6:25 But Joshua spared the lives of the prostitute Rahab and all her relatives, because she had hidden the two spies that he had sent to Jericho. (Her descendants have lived in Israel to this day.)

Jos 6:26 At this time Joshua issued a solemn warning: "Anyone who tries to rebuild the city of Jericho will be under the LORD's curse. Whoever lays the foundation will lose his oldest son; Whoever builds the gates will lose his youngest."

Jos 6:27 So the LORD was with Joshua, and his fame spread through the whole country.

JOSUA 6

1Jerigo was gesluit en verskans teen die Israeliete; niemand het uitgegaan of ingekom nie. 2Die Here het vir Josua gesê: Ek gaan Jerigo, sy koning en sy soldate nou in jou mag oorgee. 3Julle moet om die stad loop; al die manne onder wapen moet een maal om die stad gaan, en dit moet julle ses dae lank doen. 4Sewe priesters moet elkeen 'n ramshoring voor die ark uit dra. Die sewende dag moet julle sewe maal om die stad loop. Dan moet die priesters die ramshorings blaas, 5en sodra die ramshorings blaas en julle dit hoor, moet al die manskappe die aanvalskreet hard uitskreeu. Die muur van die stad sal dan inmekaar stort en die manskappe kan oorklim, elkeen reguit vorentoe. 6Josua seun van Nun het die priesters geroep en vir hulle gesê: Vat die verbondsark en laat sewe priesters elkeen 'n ramshoring voor die ark van die Here uit dra. 7Vir die manskappe het hy gesê: Kom verby en loop om die stad. Die gewapende manne moet verbygaan voor die ark van die Here uit. 8Josua was nog besig om met die manskappe te praat, toe kom die sewe priesters wat elkeen 'n ramshoring voor die ark van die Here uit moes dra, verby en blaas die ramshorings terwyl die verbondsark van die Here agter hulle aan kom. 9Die gewapende manne het voor die priesters geloop wat die ramshorings blaas, en die agterhoede het die ark gevolg. Terwyl hulle loop, het die ramshorings geblaas. 10Josua het die manskappe beveel: Julle moenie skreeu of 'n geluid laat hoor nie; nie 'n woord moet uit julle mond kom voor die dag dat ek vir julle sê: Skreeu!' nie, dan moet julle skreeu. 11Josua het die ark van die Here toe om die stad laat gaan. Toe dit een maal om was, het hulle na die kamp toe teruggegaan en die nag in die kamp deurgebring. 12Die volgende môre het Josua vroeg begin. Die priesters het die ark van die Here gedra. 13Die sewe priesters wat elkeen 'n ramshoring voor die ark van die Here uit moes dra, het die ramshorings geblaas terwyl hulle loop; die gewapende manne het voor hulle geloop, en die agterhoede het die ark van die Here gevolg. Terwyl hulle loop, het die ramshorings geblaas. 14Hulle het die tweede dag een maal om die stad geloop en het toe teruggegaan kamp toe. Dit het hulle ses dae gedoen. 15Die sewende dag het hulle vroeg, toe die rooidag breek, begin. Hulle het sewe maal om die stad gegaan, in dieselfde volgorde as tevore. Daardie dag het hulle dus sewe maal om die stad gegaan. 16Na die sewende maal het die priesters die ramshorings geblaas. Josua het vir die manskappe gesê: Skreeu! Die Here gee die stad aan julle oor! 17Dit moet heeltemal uitgedelg word as banoffer vir die Here: die stad en al wat daarin is, behoort aan die Here. Net die prostituut Ragab mag lewe, sy en almal by haar in die huis, want sy het die verkenners wat deur ons uitgestuur is, weggesteek. 18Maar weerhou julle van wat aan die Here behoort. Moet niks vat van wat aan Hom behoort en vernietig moet word nie, anders maak julle dat die kamp van Israel self vernietig moet word en bring julle die dood daaroor. 19Die silwer en goud en die brons- en ystergoed in die stad is alles aan die Here gewy. Dit moet in die skatkis van die Here kom. 20Toe skreeu die manskappe en die ramshorings blaas. Net toe die manskappe die ramshorings hoor, het hulle die aanvalskreet hard uitgeskreeu. Toe stort die mure inmekaar en die manskappe gaan oor, die stad in. Hulle het die stad ingeneem 21en al wat daarin is, uitgedelg, man en vrou, jonk en oud, selfs die beeste, die skape en die donkies. 22Vir die twee manne wat die land moes verken, het Josua gesê: Gaan na die huis van die prostituut toe en bring die vrou en al haar mense uit soos julle haar met 'n eed beloof het. 23Die verkenners het toe gegaan en vir Ragab, haar pa en ma, haar broers en al haar mense, haar hele familie, uitgebring en vir hulle 'n plek buite die kamp van Israel ingerig. 24Die stad met alles daarin is verbrand, net die silwer en goud en die brons- en ystergoed is in die skatkis van die huis van die Here gesit. 25Josua het die prostituut Ragab en haar familie, al haar mense, laat lewe. Sy het tussen die Israeliete gewoon, en haar nageslag woon nou nog hier, omdat sy die manne vir wie Josua gestuur het om Jerigo te verken, weggesteek het. 26Josua het destyds plegtig verklaar: Die Here sal die man straf wat dié stad, Jerigo, probeer herbou. Dit sal hom sy oudste seun kos as hy die fondament lê en sy jongste as hy die poortdeure hang. 27Die Here was by Josua. Josua was oor die hele land bekend.

Joshua 7

Israel Defeated at Ai

Jos 7:1 The LORD's command to Israel not to take from Jericho anything that was to be destroyed was not obeyed. A man named Achan disobeyed that order, and so the LORD was furious with the Israelites. (Achan was the son of Carmi and grandson of Zabdi, and belonged to the clan of Zerah, a part of the tribe of Judah.)

Jos 7:2 Joshua sent some men from Jericho to Ai, a city east of Bethel, near Bethaven, with orders to go and explore the land. When they had done so,

Jos 7:3 they reported back to Joshua: "There is no need for everyone to attack Ai. Send only about two or three thousand men. Don't send the whole army up there to fight; it is not a large city."

Jos 7:4 So about three thousand Israelites made the attack, but they were forced to retreat.

Jos 7:5 The men of Ai chased them from the city gate as far as some quarries and killed about thirty-six of them on the way down the hill. Then the Israelites lost their courage and were afraid.

Jos 7:6 Joshua and the leaders of Israel tore their clothes in grief, threw themselves to the ground before the LORD's Covenant Box, and lay there till evening, with dust on their heads to show their sorrow.

Jos 7:7 And Joshua said, "Sovereign LORD! Why did you bring us across the Jordan at all? To turn us over to the Amorites? To destroy us? Why didn't we just stay on the other side of the Jordan?

Jos 7:8 What can I say, O Lord, now that Israel has retreated from the enemy?

Jos 7:9 The Canaanites and everyone else in the country will hear about it. They will surround us and kill every one of us! And then what will you do to protect your honor?"

The Sin of Achan

Jos 7:10 The LORD said to Joshua, "Get up! Why are you lying on the ground like this?

Jos 7:11 Israel has sinned! They have broken the agreement with me that I ordered them to keep. They have taken some of the things condemned to destruction. They stole them, lied about it, and put them with their own things.

Jos 7:12 This is why the Israelites cannot stand against their enemies. They retreat from them because they themselves have now been condemned to destruction! I will not stay with you any longer unless you destroy the things you were ordered not to take!

Jos 7:13 Get up! Purify the people and get them ready to come before me. Tell them to be ready tomorrow, because I, the LORD God of Israel, have this to say: 'Israel, you have in your possession some things that I ordered you to destroy! You cannot stand against your enemies until you get rid of these things!'

Jos 7:14 So tell them that in the morning they will be brought forward, tribe by tribe. The tribe that I pick out will then come forward, clan by clan. The clan that I pick out will come forward, family by family. The family that I pick out will come forward, one by one.

Jos 7:15 The one who is then picked out and found with the condemned goods will be burned, along with his family and everything he owns, for he has brought terrible shame on Israel and has broken my covenant."

Jos 7:16 Early the next morning Joshua brought Israel forward, tribe by tribe, and the tribe of Judah was picked out.

Jos 7:17 He brought the tribe of Judah forward, clan by clan, and the clan of Zerah was picked out. Then he brought the clan of Zerah forward, family by family, and the family of Zabdi was picked out.

Jos 7:18 He then brought Zabdi's family forward, one by one, and Achan, the son of Carmi and grandson of Zabdi, was picked out.

Jos 7:19 Joshua said to him, "My son, tell the truth here before the LORD, the God of Israel, and confess. Tell me now what you have done. Don't try to hide it from me."

Jos 7:20 "It's true," Achan answered. "I have sinned against the LORD, Israel's God, and this is what I did.

Jos 7:21 Among the things we seized I saw a beautiful Babylonian cloak, about five pounds of silver, and a bar of gold weighing over one pound. I wanted them so much that I took them. You will find them buried inside my tent, with the silver at the bottom."

Jos 7:22 So Joshua sent some men, who ran to the tent and found that the condemned things really were buried there, with the silver at the bottom.

Jos 7:23 They brought them out of the tent, took them to Joshua and all the Israelites, and laid them down in the presence of the LORD.

Jos 7:24 Joshua, along with all the people of Israel, seized Achan, the silver, the cloak, the bar of gold, together with Achan's sons and daughters, his cattle, donkeys, and sheep, his tent, and everything else he owned; and they took them to Trouble Valley.

Jos 7:25 And Joshua said, "Why have you brought such trouble on us? The LORD will now bring trouble on you!" All the people then stoned Achan to death; they also stoned and burned his family and possessions.

Jos 7:26 They put a huge pile of stones over him, which is there to this day. That is why that place is still called Trouble Valley. Then the LORD was no longer furious.

JOSUA 7

[1]Die Israeliete het troueloos gehandel met die banoffer wat aan die Here behoort het. Akan seun van Karmi, seun van Sabdi, seun van Serag uit die Judastam, het van die goed wat aan die Here gewy was, gevat en daardeur het die toorn van die Here teen die Israeliete ontvlam. [2]Josua het van Jerigo af manne gestuur na Ai toe, naby Bet-Awen, oos van Bet-El, en vir hulle gesê: Gaan verken die land. Die manne is toe weg en het Ai verken. [3]Toe hulle by Josua terugkom, sê hulle vir hom: Dit is nie nodig dat al die manskappe gaan nie. So twee of drie duisend man kan gaan en Ai inneem. Die manskappe hoef hulle nie almal daar te gaan moeg maak nie, daar is min mense in Ai. [4]Daar het toe omtrent drie duisend man daarheen opgetrek, maar hulle moes op die vlug slaan vir die mense van Ai, [5]en dié het omtrent ses en dertig van hulle doodgemaak. Die mense van Ai het van die stadspoort af op hulle hakke gebly tot by die klipskeure en hulle daar teen die afdraand doodgemaak. Die volk se moed is gebreek, [6]en Josua het sy klere geskeur en tot die aand toe met sy gesig in die grond gelê voor die ark van die Here, hy en die leiers van Israel. Hulle het stof op hulle koppe gegooi. [7]Daarna het Josua gesê: Ag, Here, waarom het U eintlik hierdie volk oor die Jordaan gebring? Om ons in die mag van die Amoriete oor te gee dat hulle ons kan uitroei? Het ons tog maar liewer oorkant die Jordaan gebly! [8]Here, wat moet ek sê noudat Israel vir sy vyande moes vlug? [9]Die Kanaäniete en al die inwoners van die land sal daarvan hoor en ons omsingel en alle gedagtenis aan ons uit die land uitroei! Wat sal U dán doen om die grootheid van u Naam te verseker? [10]Toe sê die Here vir Josua: Staan op. Hoekom lê jy met jou gesig in die grond? [11]Israel het gesondig en my verbond wat Ek hulle opgelê het, verbreek. Hulle het van die goed wat aan My gewy is, gevat, hulle het gesteel, hulle het gelieg en van die goed by hulle s'n gesit. [12]Daarom kan die Israeliete nie teen hulle vyande staande bly nie; hulle vlug vir hulle vyande omdat hulle nou self mense geword het wat vernietig moet word. As julle nie al die gewyde goed tussen julle verwyder nie, sal Ek nie meer by julle bly nie. [13]Staan op, reinig die volk, sê vir hulle: Reinig julle vir môre, want so sê die Here die God van Israel: Daar is gewyde goed tussen julle, Israel. Julle kan nie teen julle vyande staande bly as julle nie die gewyde goed tussen julle verwyder nie. [14]Kom môre nader volgens julle stamme; die stam wat deur die Here aangewys word, moet volgens families nader kom, die familie wat deur die Here aangewys word, moet volgens gesinne nader kom, en die gesin wat deur die Here aangewys word, moet man vir man nader kom. [15]Die man wat gevang word met die gewyde goed, moet verbrand word, hy en al sy mense, want hy het die verbond van die Here verbreek en 'n roekelose sonde in Israel begaan. 16Josua het die môre vroeg opgestaan en Israel volgens stamme laat nader kom. Die stam Juda is aangewys. 17Toe hy die families uit Juda laat nader kom, is die Seragfamilie aangewys, en toe hy die Seragfamilie man vir man laat nader kom, is Sabdi aangewys. 18Toe hy die gesin van Sabdi man vir man laat nader kom, is Akan seun van Karmi, seun van Sabdi, seun van Serag uit die Judastam aangewys. 19Josua het vir Akan gesê: My seun, gee tog aan die Here die God van Israel die eer wat Hom toekom en doen belydenis voor Hom. Sê my wat jy gedoen het, moet dit nie vir my wegsteek nie. 20Toe sê Akan vir Josua: Dit is waar. Ek het gesondig teen die Here die God van Israel. Wat ek gedoen het, is dit: 21ek het onder die buit pragtige klere uit Sinar gesien en ook sowat twee kilogram silwer en 'n staaf goud van meer as 'n halwe kilogram; ek wou dit baie graag hê en ek het dit gevat. Dit is in die grond in my tent begrawe. Die silwer is heel onder. 22Josua het mense gestuur, en hulle het na die tent toe gehardloop en daar kry hulle toe die goed in Akan se tent, die silwer onder. 23Hulle het die goed uitgehaal en na Josua en al die Israeliete toe gebring. Toe hulle dit daar voor die Here uitskud, 24vat Josua en die hele Israel saam met hom vir Akan seun van Serag en bring hom na die Akorlaagte toe, en ook die silwer, die klere en die staaf goud, Akan se seuns en dogters, sy beeste, sy donkies, sy kleinvee, sy tent, alles wat aan hom behoort. 25Josua het gesê: Jy het die dood oor óns gebring, vandag bring die Here die dood oor jóú! Die hele Israel het toe vir Akan met klippe doodgegooi en hom en sy mense en sy besittings verbrand en met klippe toegegooi. 26Hulle het 'n groot hoop klippe bo-oor gepak. Dit is vandag nog daar. Daarna het die Here se toorn bedaar. Hulle noem die plek tot vandag toe die Akorlaagte .

Joshua 8

The Fall of Ai

Jos 8:1 The LORD said to Joshua, "Take all the soldiers with you and go on up to Ai. Don't be afraid or discouraged. I will give you victory over the king of Ai; his people, city, and land will be yours.

Jos 8:2 You are to do to Ai and its king what you did to Jericho and its king, but this time you may keep its goods and livestock for yourselves. Prepare to attack the city by surprise from the rear."

Jos 8:3 So Joshua got ready to go to Ai with all his soldiers. He picked out thirty thousand of his best troops and sent them out at night

Jos 8:4 with these orders: "Hide on the other side of the city, but not too far away from it; be ready to attack.

Jos 8:5 My men and I will approach the city. When the men of Ai come out against us, we will turn and run, just as we did the first time.

Jos 8:6 They will pursue us until we have led them away from the city. They will think that we are running from them, as we did before.

Jos 8:7 Then you will come out of hiding and capture the city. The LORD your God will give it to you.

Jos 8:8 After you have taken the city, set it on fire, just as the LORD has commanded. These are your orders."

Jos 8:9 So Joshua sent them out, and they went to their hiding place and waited there, west of Ai, between Ai and Bethel. Joshua spent the night in camp.

Jos 8:10 Early in the morning Joshua got up and called the soldiers together. Then he and the leaders of Israel led them to Ai.

Jos 8:11 The soldiers with him went toward the main entrance to the city and set up camp on the north side, with a valley between themselves and Ai.

Jos 8:12 He took about five thousand men and put them in hiding west of the city, between Ai and Bethel.

Jos 8:13 The soldiers were arranged for battle with the main camp north of the city and the rest of the men to the west. Joshua spent the night in the valley.

Jos 8:14 When the king of Ai saw Joshua's men, he acted quickly. He and all his men went out toward the Jordan Valley to fight the Israelites at the same place as before, not knowing that he was about to be attacked from the rear.

Jos 8:15 Joshua and his men pretended that they were retreating, and ran away toward the barren country.

Jos 8:16 All the men in the city had been called together to go after them, and as they pursued Joshua, they kept getting farther away from the city.

Jos 8:17 Every man in Ai went after the Israelites, and the city was left wide open, with no one to defend it.

Jos 8:18 Then the LORD said to Joshua, "Point your spear at Ai; I am giving it to you." Joshua did as he was told,

Jos 8:19 and as soon as he lifted his hand, the men who had been hiding got up quickly, ran into the city and captured it. They immediately set the city on fire.

Jos 8:20 When the men of Ai looked back, they saw the smoke rising to the sky. There was no way for them to escape, because the Israelites who had run toward the barren country now turned around to attack them.

Jos 8:21 When Joshua and his men saw that the others had taken the city and that it was on fire, they turned around and began killing the men of Ai.

Jos 8:22 The Israelites in the city now came down to join the battle. So the men of Ai found themselves completely surrounded by Israelites, and they were all killed. No one got away, and no one lived through it

Jos 8:23 except the king of Ai. He was captured and taken to Joshua.

Jos 8:24 The Israelites killed every one of the enemy in the barren country where they had chased them. Then they went back to Ai and killed everyone there.

Jos 8:25 (25-26) Joshua kept his spear pointed at Ai and did not put it down until every person there had been killed. The whole population of Ai was killed that day—twelve thousand men and women.

Jos 8:27 The Israelites kept for themselves the livestock and goods captured in the city, as the LORD had told Joshua.

Jos 8:28 Joshua burned Ai and left it in ruins. It is still like that today.

Jos 8:29 He hanged the king of Ai from a tree and left his body there until evening. At sundown Joshua gave orders for the body to be removed, and it was thrown down at the entrance to the city gate. They covered it with a huge pile of stones, which is still there today.

Joshua Renews the Covenant

Jos 8:30 Then Joshua built on Mount Ebal an altar to the LORD, the God of Israel.

Jos 8:31 He made it according to the instructions that Moses, the LORD's servant, had given the Israelites, as it says in the Law of Moses: "an altar made of stones which have not been cut with iron tools." On it they offered burnt sacrifices to the LORD, and they also presented their fellowship offerings.

Jos 8:32 There, with the Israelites looking on, Joshua made on the stones a copy of the Law which Moses had written.

Jos 8:33 The Israelites, with their leaders, officers, and judges, as well as the foreigners among them, stood on two sides of the LORD's Covenant Box, facing the levitical priests who carried it. Half of the people stood with their backs to Mount Gerizim and the other half with their backs to Mount Ebal. The LORD's servant Moses had commanded them to do this when the time came for them to receive the blessing.

Jos 8:34 Joshua then read aloud the whole Law, including the blessings and the curses, just as they are written in the book of the Law.

Jos 8:35 Every one of the commandments of Moses was read by Joshua to the whole gathering, which included women and children, as well as the foreigners living among them.

JOSUA 8

1Die Here het vir Josua gesê: Moenie bang wees nie, moenie bekommerd wees nie. Neem al die manskappe met jou saam en trek op teen Ai. Ek gee die koning van Ai, sy volk, sy stad, sy land nou aan jou oor. 2Jy moet met Ai en sy koning doen soos jy met Jerigo en sy koning gedoen het. Net die buit en die vee kan julle vir julle vat. Laat van die manskappe hulle agter die stad versteek. 3Josua en al die manskappe het toe klaargemaak om teen Ai op te trek. Josua het dertig duisend dapper manne gekies en hulle in die nag gestuur 4en hulle beveel: Julle moet julle agter die stad versteek, nie te ver van die stad af nie, en julle moet gereed wees. 5Ek en al die manskappe by my sal na die stad toe aankom, en as hulle ons tegemoet kom, soos die vorige keer, sal ons vir hulle vlug. 6Hulle sal agter ons aan kom en so sal ons hulle van die stad af weglok. Hulle sal dink ons vlug vir hulle soos die vorige keer. Ons sal vir hulle vlug, 7en dan moet julle uit die skuilplek opstaan en die stad in besit neem. Die Here julle God gee dit aan julle oor. 8Wanneer julle die stad ingeneem het, moet julle dit aan die brand steek. Julle moet doen wat die Here beveel het. Ek dra die opdrag nou aan julle oor. 9Josua het hulle toe laat gaan en hulle het hulle gaan versteek. Hulle het tussen Bet-El en Ai gelê, wes van Ai. Josua het dié nag tussen die manskappe geslaap. 10Vroeg die môre is Josua uit. Hy het sy manskappe in gelid opgestel en hy en die leiers van Israel het die manskappe na Ai toe gelei. 11Al die manskappe by hom het opgetrek en nader gegaan en reg voor die stad aangekom. Hulle het kamp opgeslaan noord van Ai. Die laagte was tussen hulle en Ai. 12Josua het omtrent vyf duisend man geneem en hulle 'n verskuilde posisie laat inneem tussen Bet-El en Ai, wes van die stad. 13Die manskappe het die hele kamp wat noord van die stad moes wees, opgeslaan, maar die ander deel was wes van die stad. Josua het dié nag afgegaan na die laagte toe. 14Die koning van Ai het gesien daar kom 'n aanval. Die manne van die stad het haastig klaargemaak en hulle het Israel vroeg die môre tegemoet getrek vir die veldslag. Die koning en al sy manskappe is na die plek toe waar hulle Israel wou ontmoet, regoor die Jordaanvallei. Hy het nie geweet van die versteekte afdeling agter die stad nie. 15Josua en die hele Israel het hulleself laat terugdryf deur die manne van Ai, en in die rigting van die woestyn gevlug. 16Al die manskappe in die stad is toe vir die agtervolging opgeroep; hulle het Josua agtervolg en is van die stad af weggelok. 17Daar het geen man in Ai of Bet-El agtergebly wat nie uit is agter Israel aan nie. Hulle het die stad net so oop gelos en het Israel agternagesit. 18Toe sê die Here vir Josua: Steek die swaard wat jy in jou hand het, na Ai toe uit, want Ek gee die stad in jou mag oor. Josua het die swaard wat hy in sy hand gehad het, na die stad toe uitgesteek, [19]en toe staan die versteekte manskappe op uit hulle skuilplekke en storm, net toe hy sy hand uitsteek. Hulle is die stad in en het dit ingeneem en dit dadelik aan die brand gesteek. [20]Toe die manne van Ai terugkyk, sien hulle die rook van die stad in die lug opstyg. Hulle kon nêrens heen vlug nie, nie hiernatoe of soontoe nie, want Josua se manne wat woestyn se kant toe gevlug het, het omgedraai na hulle agtervolgers toe. [21]Josua en die hele Israel het gesien die versteekte manskappe vat die stad, en toe die rook van die stad uitslaan, draai hulle om en val die manne van Ai aan. [22]Dié mense het die stad verlaat om die Israeliete tegemoet te gaan, maar daar was nou Israeliete weerskante van hulle, en dié het hulle neergevel tot daar nie een oor was wat ontkom en vrygeraak het nie. [23]Die Israeliete het die koning van Ai gevang en hom na Josua toe gevat. [24]Israel het al die inwoners van Ai doodgemaak wat vir Josua-hulle in die veld en die woestyn agternagesit het. Die agtervolgers het almal gesneuwel, tot die laaste man toe. Daarna is die hele Israel terug na Ai toe en het hulle al die mense in die stad doodgemaak. [25]Almal wat daardie dag gesneuwel het, mans en vrouens, was twaalf duisend, al die mense van Ai. [26]Josua het nie sy hand met die swaard teruggetrek voordat al die inwoners van Ai uitgeroei was nie. [27]Israel het net die vee en die buit in die stad vir hulleself gevat, soos die Here vir Josua beveel het. [28]Josua het Ai afgebrand en daarvan vir altyd 'n verlate ruïne gemaak. Dit is nou nog so. [29]Hy het die koning van Ai aan 'n boom opgehang en hom daar laat bly tot die aand toe. Toe die son ondergaan, het Josua opdrag gegee, en hulle het die lyk van die boom afgehaal, dit in die stadspoort gegooi en 'n groot hoop klippe daarop gepak, wat vandag nog daar is. [30]Daarna het Josua op Ebalberg 'n altaar gebou vir die Here die God van Israel, [31]soos Moses, die dienaar van die Here, die Israeliete beveel het en soos dit geskryf staan in die wetboek van Moses: 'n altaar van ongekapte klip waarop daar nie 'n ysterwerktuig gebruik is nie. Hulle het brandoffers vir die Here op die altaar gebring en ook maaltydoffers geoffer. [32]Josua het daar op die klippe 'n afskrif aangebring van die wet van Moses. Hy het dit voor die oë van die Israeliete neergeskrywe. [33]Die hele Israel, sy leiers, sy beamptes en sy regters het daar weerskante van die ark gestaan voor die Levitiese priesters wat die verbondsark van die Here dra. Vreemdelinge sowel as burgers was daar. Een helfte het regoor Gerisimberg gestaan en die ander helfte regoor Ebalberg, soos Moses, die dienaar van die Here, vroeër beveel het toe hy bepaal het dat die volk Israel die seën moet ontvang. [34]Daarna het Josua alles wat die wet sê, die seën sowel as die straf, voorgelees, net soos dit geskryf staan in die wetboek. [35]Daar was nie een woord van alles wat Moses beveel het wat Josua nie voor die hele gemeente van Israel voorgelees het nie. Die vrouens en die kinders en die vreemdelinge wat tussen die Israeliete gebly het, was by.

Joshua 9

The Gibeonite Deception

Jos 9:1 The victories of Israel became known to all the kings west of the Jordan—in the hills, in the foothills, and all along the coastal plain of the Mediterranean Sea as far north as Lebanon; these were the kings of the Hittites, the Amorites, the Canaanites, the Perizzites, the Hivites, and the Jebusites.

Jos 9:2 They all came together and joined forces to fight against Joshua and the Israelites.

Jos 9:3 But the people of Gibeon, who were Hivites, heard what Joshua had done to Jericho and Ai,

Jos 9:4 and they decided to deceive him. They went and got some food and loaded their donkeys with worn-out sacks and patched-up wineskins.

Jos 9:5 They put on ragged clothes and worn-out sandals that had been mended. The bread they took with them was dry and moldy.

Jos 9:6 Then they went to the camp at Gilgal and said to Joshua and the Israelites, "We have come from a distant land. We want you to make a treaty with us."

Jos 9:7 But the Israelites said, "Why should we make a treaty with you? Maybe you live nearby."

Jos 9:8 They said to Joshua, "We are at your service." Joshua asked them, "Who are you? Where do you come from?"

Jos 9:9 Then they told him this story: "We have come from a very distant land, sir, because we have heard of the LORD your God. We have heard about everything that he did in Egypt

Jos 9:10 and what he did to the two Amorite kings east of the Jordan: King Sihon of Heshbon and King Og of Bashan, who lived in Ashtaroth.

Jos 9:11 Our leaders and all the people that live in our land told us to get some food ready for a trip and to go and meet you. We were told to put ourselves at your service and ask you to make a treaty with us.

Jos 9:12 Look at our bread. When we left home with it and started out to meet you, it was still warm. But look! Now it is dry and moldy.

Jos 9:13 When we filled these wineskins, they were new, but look! They are torn. Our clothes and sandals are worn out from the long trip."

Jos 9:14 The Israelites accepted some food from them, but did not consult the LORD about it.

Jos 9:15 Joshua made a treaty of friendship with the people of Gibeon and allowed them to live. The leaders of the community of Israel gave their solemn promise to keep the treaty.

Jos 9:16 Three days after the treaty had been made, the Israelites learned that these people did indeed live nearby.

Jos 9:17 So the people of Israel started out and three days later arrived at the cities where these people lived: Gibeon, Chephirah, Beeroth, and Kiriath Jearim.

Jos 9:18 But the Israelites could not kill them, because their leaders had made a solemn promise to them in the name of the LORD, Israel's God. All the people complained to the leaders about this,

Jos 9:19 but they answered, "We have made our solemn promise to them in the name of the LORD God of Israel. Now we cannot harm them.

Jos 9:20 We must let them live because of our promise; if we don't, God will punish us.

Jos 9:21 Let them live, but they will have to cut wood and carry water for us." This was what the leaders suggested.

Jos 9:22 Joshua ordered the people of Gibeon to be brought to him, and he asked them, "Why did you deceive us and tell us that you were from far away, when you live right here?

Jos 9:23 Because you did this, God has condemned you. Your people will always be slaves, cutting wood and carrying water for the sanctuary of my God."

Jos 9:24 They answered, "We did it, sir, because we learned that it was really true that the LORD your God had commanded his servant Moses to give you the whole land and to kill the people living in it as you advanced. We did it because we were terrified of you; we were in fear of our lives.

Jos 9:25 Now we are in your power; do with us what you think is right."

Jos 9:26 So this is what Joshua did: he protected them and did not allow the people of Israel to kill them.

Jos 9:27 But at the same time he made them slaves, to cut wood and carry water for the people of Israel and for the LORD's altar. To this day they have continued to do this work in the place where the LORD has chosen to be worshiped.

JOSUA 9

1Al die konings wes van die Jordaan, dié in die Bergland, in die Laeveld, aan die hele kus van die Groot See en tot regoor die Libanon, die Hetiete, Amoriete, Kanaäniete, Feresiete, Hewiete en Jebusiete, het van Josua gehoor 2en hulle het eendragtig saamgestaan om teen hom en Israel te veg. 3Maar toe die inwoners van Gibeon hoor wat Josua met Jerigo en Ai gedoen het, 4het hulle 'n slim plan gemaak. Hulle het padkos ingepak; hulle het verslete saalsakke op hulle donkies saamgeneem en verslete wynsakke wat geskeur en weer toegewerk was; 5aan hulle voete was verslete, gelapte skoene en hulle het verslete klere aangehad; al hulle padkos was droog en verkrummel. 6Hulle het na Josua toe in die kamp by Gilgal gegaan en vir hom en die Israeliete gesê: Ons kom uit 'n ver land en ons kom vra dat u met ons 'n verdrag sluit. 7Die Israeliete het vir die Gibeoniete, wat Hewiete was, gesê: Dalk woon julle hier tussen ons. Hoe kan ons dan met julle 'n verdrag sluit? 8Hulle het vir Josua gesê: Ons wil u onderdane wees. Maar wie is julle en waar kom julle vandaan? vra Josua. 9En hulle antwoord: Ons kom uit 'n baie ver land; ons kom op grond van die roem van die Here u God. Ons het van Hom gehoor en van alles wat Hy met Egipte gedoen het, 10en ook van alles wat Hy met die twee Amoritiese konings oorkant die Jordaan gedoen het, met koning Sihon van Gesbon en met koning Og van Basan wat in Astarot gewoon het. 11Ons leiers en al die inwoners van ons land het vir ons gesê: Vat padkos saam en gaan die Israeliete tegemoet en sê vir hulle: Ons wil onderdane wees; wil u nie met ons 'n verdrag sluit nie? 12Kyk ons brood, dit was nog warm toe ons dit uit ons huise gebring het om vir padkos saam te vat die dag toe ons na u toe vertrek het, en nou is dit droog en verkrummel. 13En kyk ons wynsakke wat nuut was toe ons hulle vol gemaak het, nou is hulle vol barste. Kyk hoe verslete is ons klere en ons skoene van die lang pad. 14Die Israeliete het na die padkos gekyk, maar nie die Here geraadpleeg nie. 15Josua het die Gibeoniete goed behandel en met hulle 'n verdrag gesluit dat hulle lewens gespaar sal word. Die leiers van die volksvergadering het dit met 'n eed bevestig. 16Drie dae nadat die verdrag gesluit is, het die Israeliete gehoor dat die Gibeoniete hulle bure is en tussen hulle woon. 17Die Israeliete het dadelik vertrek en op die derde dag by die stede van die Gibeoniete aangekom. Die stede was Gibeon, Kefira, Beërot en Kirjat-Jearim. 18Die Israeliete het hulle nie aangeval nie omdat die leiers van die volksvergadering 'n eed teenoor die Gibeoniete afgelê het voor die Here die God van Israel, maar die hele volk het teen die leiers gemor. 19Die leiers het vir die volk gesê: Ons het 'n eed teenoor hulle afgelê voor die Here die God van Israel. Ons kan hulle nie nou aanval nie. [20]Ons moet ons woord hou en hulle lewens spaar sodat die eed wat ons teenoor hulle afgelê het, nie die straf van God op ons bring nie. [21]Die leiers het verder ook nog vir die volk gesê: Laat hulle lewe, maar dan moet hulle houtkappers en waterdraers van die hele volk word. Nadat die leiers met die Israeliete gepraat het, [22]het Josua die Gibeoniete geroep en vir hulle gesê: Hoekom het julle ons bedrieg? Julle het gesê julle woon baie ver van ons af en al die tyd woon julle tussen ons. [23]Daar rus nou 'n vloek op julle. Julle sal altyd slawe wees: houtkappers en waterdraers vir die huis van my God. [24]Hulle het Josua geantwoord: Daar is oor en oor aan ons vertel wat die Here u God vir sy dienaar Moses gesê het, naamlik dat Hy aan u die hele land gee en dat Hy al die inwoners van die land sal uitroei om vir u plek te maak. Ons het vir ons lewens gevrees, en daarom het ons dié ding gedoen. [25]Ons is in u hande, doen met ons wat goed en reg is in u oë. [26]Josua het toe só gemaak: hy het hulle beskerm teen die Israeliete dat dié hulle nie doodmaak nie, [27]maar hy het hulle van dié dag af houtkappers en waterdraers gemaak vir die volk en vir die altaar van die Here op dié plek wat die Here sou kies. Dit is vandag nog so.

Joshua 10

The Sun Stands Still

Jos 10:1 Adonizedek, the king of Jerusalem, heard that Joshua had captured and totally destroyed Ai and had killed its king, just as he had done to Jericho and its king. He also heard that the people of Gibeon had made peace with the Israelites and were living among them.

Jos 10:2 The people of Jerusalem were greatly alarmed at this because Gibeon was as large as any of the cities that had a king; it was larger than Ai, and its men were good fighters.

Jos 10:3 So Adonizedek sent the following message to King Hoham of Hebron, King Piram of Jarmuth, King Japhia of Lachish, and to King Debir of Eglon:

Jos 10:4 "Come and help me attack Gibeon, because its people have made peace with Joshua and the Israelites."

Jos 10:5 These five Amorite kings, the kings of Jerusalem, Hebron, Jarmuth, Lachish, and Eglon, joined forces, surrounded Gibeon, and attacked it.

Jos 10:6 The men of Gibeon sent word to Joshua at the camp in Gilgal: "Do not abandon us, sir! Come at once and help us! Save us! All the Amorite kings in the hill country have joined forces and have attacked us!"

Jos 10:7 So Joshua and his whole army, including the best troops, started out from Gilgal.

Jos 10:8 The LORD said to Joshua, "Do not be afraid of them. I have already given you the victory. Not one of them will be able to stand against you."

Jos 10:9 All night Joshua and his army marched from Gilgal to Gibeon, and they made a surprise attack on the Amorites.

Jos 10:10 The LORD made the Amorites panic at the sight of Israel's army. The Israelites slaughtered them at Gibeon and pursued them down the mountain pass at Beth Horon, keeping up the attack as far south as Azekah and Makkedah.

Jos 10:11 While the Amorites were running down the pass from the Israelite army, the LORD made large hailstones fall down on them all the way to Azekah. More were killed by the hailstones than by the Israelites.

Jos 10:12 On the day that the LORD gave the men of Israel victory over the Amorites, Joshua spoke to the LORD. In the presence of the Israelites he said, "Sun, stand still over Gibeon; Moon, stop over Aijalon Valley."

Jos 10:13 The sun stood still and the moon did not move until the nation had conquered its enemies. This is written in The Book of Jashar. The sun stood still in the middle of the sky and did not go down for a whole day.

Jos 10:14 Never before, and never since, has there been a day like it, when the LORD obeyed a human being. The LORD fought on Israel's side!

Jos 10:15 After this, Joshua and his army went back to the camp at Gilgal.

Five Amorite Kings Executed

Jos 10:16 The five Amorite kings, however, had escaped and were hiding in the cave at Makkedah.

Jos 10:17 Someone found them, and Joshua was told where they were hiding.

Jos 10:18 He said, "Roll some big stones in front of the entrance to the cave. Place some guards there, Jos 10:19 but don't stay there yourselves. Keep on after the enemy and attack them from the rear; don't let them get to their cities! The LORD your God has given you victory over them."

Jos 10:20 Joshua and the men of Israel slaughtered them, although some managed to find safety inside their city walls and were not killed.

Jos 10:21 Then all of Joshua's men came back safe to him at the camp at Makkedah. No one in the land dared even to speak against the Israelites.

Jos 10:22 Then Joshua said, "Open the entrance to the cave and bring those five kings out to me."

Jos 10:23 So the cave was opened, and the kings of Jerusalem, Hebron, Jarmuth, Lachish, and Eglon were brought out

Jos 10:24 and taken to Joshua. Joshua then called all the men of Israel to him and ordered the officers who had gone with him to come and put their feet on the necks of the kings. They did so.

Jos 10:25 Then Joshua said to his officers, "Don't be afraid or discouraged. Be determined and confident because this is what the LORD is going to do to all your enemies."

Jos 10:26 Then Joshua killed the kings and hanged them on five trees, where their bodies stayed until evening.

Jos 10:27 At sundown Joshua gave orders, and their bodies were taken down and thrown into the same cave where they had hidden earlier. Large stones were placed at the entrance to the cave, and they are still there.

Jos 10:28 Joshua attacked and captured Makkedah and its king that day. He put everyone in the city to death; no one was left alive. He did to the king of Makkedah what he had done to the king of Jericho.

Conquest of Southern Canaan

Jos 10:29 After this, Joshua and his army went on from Makkedah to Libnah and attacked it.

Jos 10:30 The LORD also gave the Israelites victory over this city and its king. They spared no one, but killed every person in it. They did to the king what they had done to the king of Jericho.

Jos 10:31 After this, Joshua and his army went on from Libnah to Lachish, surrounded it and attacked it.

Jos 10:32 The LORD gave the Israelites victory over Lachish on the second day of the battle. Just as they had done at Libnah, they spared no one, but killed every person in the city.

Jos 10:33 King Horam of Gezer came to the aid of Lachish, but Joshua defeated him and his army and left none of them alive.

Jos 10:34 Next, Joshua and his army went on from Lachish to Eglon, surrounded it and attacked it.

Jos 10:35 They captured it the same day and put everyone there to death, just as they had done at Lachish.

Jos 10:36 After this, Joshua and his army went from Eglon up into the hills to Hebron, attacked it

Jos 10:37 and captured it. They killed the king and everyone else in the city as well as in the nearby towns. Joshua condemned the city to total destruction, just as he had done to Eglon. No one in it was left alive.

Jos 10:38 Then Joshua and his army turned back to Debir and attacked it.

Jos 10:39 He captured it, with its king and all the nearby towns. They put everyone there to death. Joshua did to Debir and its king what he had done to Hebron and to Libnah and its king.

Jos 10:40 Joshua conquered the whole land. He defeated the kings of the hill country, the eastern slopes, and the western foothills, as well as those of the dry country in the south. He spared no one; everyone was put to death. This was what the LORD God of Israel had commanded.

Jos 10:41 Joshua's campaign took him from Kadesh Barnea in the south to Gaza near the coast, including all the area of Goshen, and as far north as Gibeon.

Jos 10:42 Joshua conquered all these kings and their territory in one campaign because the LORD, Israel's God, was fighting for Israel.

Jos 10:43 After this, Joshua and his army went back to the camp at Gilgal.

JOSUA 10

1Koning Adoni-Sedek van Jerusalem het gehoor dat Josua Ai ingeneem en heeltemal vernietig het, dat hy met Ai en sy koning dieselfde gedoen het as wat hy met Jerigo en sy koning gedoen het, en ook dat die inwoners van Gibeon met Israel vrede gemaak het en by hulle woon. 2Die mense van Jerusalem het baie bang geword, want Gibeon was 'n belangrike stad, soos 'n stad met 'n koning, en groter as Ai, en al sy manne was dapper vegters. 3Koning Adoni-Sedek van Jerusalem het toe vir koning Hoham van Hebron, vir koning Piram van Jarmut, vir koning Jafia van Lakis en vir koning Debir van Eglon laat weet: 4Kom help my dat ons Gibeon aanval; hulle het vrede gemaak met Josua en die Israeliete. 5Die vyf Amoritiese konings, die konings van Jerusalem, Hebron, Jarmut, Lakis en Eglon, het toe elkeen met sy hele leër gekom, hulle manskappe teen Gibeon ontplooi en die aanval begin. 6Die manne van Gibeon het vir Josua in die kamp by Gilgal laat weet: Moet ons tog nie nou in die steek laat nie, u moet gou hiernatoe kom en ons red U moet ons help, want al die Amoritiese konings in die Bergland het 'n bondgenootskap teen ons gesluit. 7Josua en al sy manskappe, al die dapper vegters, het toe uit Gilgal vertrek. 8Die Here het vir Josua gesê: Moenie vir hulle bang wees nie, Ek gee hulle in jou mag oor. Nie een van hulle is teen jou bestand nie. 9Josua het van Gilgal af die hele nag deur getrek en die Amoriete skielik oorval. 10Die Here het hulle paniekbevange laat word vir Israel. Israel het 'n groot slagting onder hulle aangerig in Gibeon, hulle agtervolg deur die pas na Bet-Goron toe en hulle bly doodmaak tot by Aseka en tot by Makkeda. 11Terwyl hulle op die vlug was vir Israel met die afdraand na Bet-Goron toe, het die Here van daar af tot by Aseka groot haelstene uit die lug op hulle laat val. Daar is meer van hulle deur die hael dood as wat deur die Israeliete met die swaard doodgemaak is. 12Dié dag toe die Here die Amoriete in die mag van die Israeliete gegee het, het Josua die Here om hulp gevra. Ten aanhore van Israel het hy gesê: Son, staan stil in Gibeon, en maan, staan stil in Ajalonlaagte! 13Die son het stilgestaan, die maan het nie geroer nie totdat Israel sy vyande verslaan het. Dit staan so geskrywe in die Boek van die Opregte. Die son het halfpad in die hemel bly staan. Byna 'n volle dag was hy nie haastig om onder te gaan nie. 14So 'n dag was daar nie voorheen of daarna nie, toe die Here vir 'n mens geluister het! Die Here het vir Israel die oorlog gevoer. 15Daarna is Josua, en die hele Israel saam met hom, terug na die kamp toe in Gilgal. 16Die vyf konings het gevlug en in 'n grot in Makkeda gaan wegkruip. 17Josua het berig gekry dat hulle ontdek is waar hulle weggekruip het, 18en hy het beveel: Rol groot klippe in die bek van die grot en sit daar manne om hulle op te pas. 19Maar julle moenie daar bly staan nie. Agtervolg julle vyande en val hulle van agter af aan. Moenie dat hulle by hulle stede kom nie. Die Here julle God het hulle in julle mag oorgegee. 20Toe Josua en die Israeliete klaar was met die groot slagting onder die vyande, is al die manskappe behoue terug na die kamp toe, na Josua toe in Makkeda. Die vyand is tot die laaste man toe doodgemaak, afgesien van die paar wat ontkom en die vestingstede gehaal het. Niemand het dit gewaag om iets teen die Israeliete te sê nie. 21Josua het gesê: Maak oop die grot se bek en bring die vyf konings uit die grot uit na my toe. 22Hulle het dit gedoen, hulle het die vyf konings uit die grot uit na Josua toe gebring, die konings van Jerusalem, Hebron, Jarmut, Lakis en Eglon. 23Nadat hulle die konings na Josua toe gebring het, roep hy al die Israeliete en sê vir die offisiere wat met hom saamgegaan het: Kom hier, sit julle voete op die konings se nekke. Hulle het dit toe gedoen, 24en Josua het vir hulle gesê: Moenie bang wees nie, moenie bekommerd wees nie, wees sterk, wees vasberade. So sal die Here maak met al julle vyande teen wie julle nog moet oorlog maak. 25Daarna het Josua die konings doodgemaak. Hy het hulle elkeen aan 'n boom opgehang en hulle het daar bly hang tot die aand toe. 26Met sononder is hulle op bevel van Josua van die bome af afgehaal en in die grot gegooi waar hulle weggekruip het. Die bek van die grot is met groot klippe toegepak. Dié is tot vandag toe nog daar. 27Daardie dag het Josua ook Makkeda ingeneem. Hy het die mense en hulle koning laat doodmaak en al wat leef in die stad uitgeroei. Niemand het vrygekom nie. Hy het met die koning van Makkeda gedoen soos met die koning van Jerigo. 28Van Makkeda af is Josua, met die hele Israel by hom, na Libna toe. Hy het Libna aangeval, 29en die Here het ook dié stad met sy koning in die mag van Israel oorgegee. Josua het die mense, al wat leef in die stad, doodgemaak. Niemand het vrygekom nie. Hy het met die koning van Libna gedoen soos met die koning van Jerigo. 30Van Libna af is Josua, met die hele Israel by hom, na Lakis toe. Hy het sy manskappe teen die stad ontplooi en dit aangeval. 31Die Here het Lakis in die mag van Israel oorgegee, en Israel het die stad na twee dae ingeneem en al wat leef daarin doodgemaak, net soos hy met Libna gedoen het. 32Toe koning Horam van Geser vir Lakis te hulp snel, het Josua hom en sy manskappe ook verslaan. Niemand het vrygekom nie. 33Van Lakis af is Josua, met die hele Israel by hom, na Eglon toe. Hy het sy manskappe teen die stad ontplooi en dit aangeval. 34Hulle het die stad nog dieselfde dag ingeneem en al wat leef daarin doodgemaak. Josua het die hele stad uitgeroei, net soos hy met Lakis gedoen het. 35Van Eglon af het Josua, met die hele Israel by hom, teen Hebron opgetrek en die stad aangeval. 36Hulle het die stad ingeneem en die koning, die inwoners van al die buitedorpe en al wat in die stad leef, doodgemaak. Niemand het ontkom nie. Soos Josua met Eglon gedoen het, het hy ook Hebron en al wat daarin leef, uitgeroei. 37Daarna het Josua, met die hele Israel by hom, na Debir toe gedraai en die stad aangeval. 38Hy het dit ingeneem, die koning en die inwoners van die buitedorpe doodgemaak en al die mense in die stad uitgeroei. Niemand het ontkom nie. Soos hy met Hebron en met Libna en sy koning gedoen het, het hy ook met Debir en sy koning gedoen. 39Josua het die hele gebied platgeloop, die Bergland, die Suidland, die Laeveld, die Hange, al die konings daar. Hy het niemand laat vrykom nie. Hy het alles wat asem het, uitgeroei, soos die Here die God van Israel beveel het. 40Josua het hulle platgeloop van Kades-Barnea af tot by Gasa, ook die hele Gosengebied en tot by Gibeon. 41Hy het al die konings en hulle lande in een veldtog oorwin, want die Here die God van Israel het die oorlog vir Israel gevoer. 42Daarna is Josua, en die hele Israel saam met hom, terug na die kamp toe in Gilgal.

Joshua 11

Conquests in Northern Canaan

Jos 11:1 When the news of Israel's victories reached King Jabin of Hazor, he sent word to King Jobab of Madon, to the kings of Shimron and Achshaph,

Jos 11:2 and to the kings in the hill country in the north, in the Jordan Valley south of Lake Galilee, in the foothills, and on the coast near Dor.

Jos 11:3 He also sent word to the Canaanites on both sides of the Jordan, to the Amorites, the Hittites, the Perizzites, and the Jebusites in the hill country, as well as to the Hivites who lived at the foot of Mount Hermon in the land of Mizpah.

Jos 11:4 They came with all their soldiers—an army with as many men as there are grains of sand on the seashore. They also had many horses and chariots.

Jos 11:5 All of these kings joined forces and came together and set up camp at Merom Brook to fight against Israel.

Jos 11:6 The LORD said to Joshua, "Do not be afraid of them. By this time tomorrow I will have killed all of them for Israel. You are to cripple their horses and burn their chariots."

Jos 11:7 So Joshua and all his men attacked them by surprise at Merom Brook.

Jos 11:8 The LORD gave the Israelites victory over them; the Israelites attacked and pursued them as far north as Misrephoth Maim and Sidon, and as far east as the valley of Mizpah. The fight continued until none of the enemy was left alive.

Jos 11:9 Joshua did to them what the LORD had commanded: he crippled their horses and burned their chariots.

Jos 11:10 Joshua then turned back, captured Hazor and killed its king. (At that time Hazor was the most powerful of all those kingdoms.)

Jos 11:11 They put everyone there to death; no one was left alive, and the city was burned.

Jos 11:12 Joshua captured all these cities and their kings, putting everyone to death, just as Moses, the LORD's servant, had commanded.

Jos 11:13 However, the Israelites did not burn any of the cities built on mounds, except Hazor, which Joshua did burn.

Jos 11:14 The people of Israel took all the valuables and livestock from these cities and kept them for themselves. But they put every person to death; no one was left alive.

Jos 11:15 The LORD had given his commands to his servant Moses, Moses had given them to Joshua, and Joshua obeyed them. He did everything that the LORD had commanded Moses.

Jos 11:16 Joshua captured all the land—the hill country and foothills, both north and south, all the area of Goshen and the dry country south of it, as well as the Jordan Valley.

Jos 11:17 (17-18) The territory extended from Mount Halak in the south near Edom, as far as Baalgad in the north, in the valley of Lebanon south of Mount Hermon. Joshua was at war with the kings of this territory for a long time, but he captured them all and put them to death.

Jos 11:19 The only city that made peace with the people of Israel was Gibeon, where some of the Hivites lived. All the others were conquered in battle.

Jos 11:20 The LORD had made them determined to fight the Israelites, so that they would be condemned to total destruction and all be killed without mercy. This was what the LORD had commanded Moses.

Jos 11:21 At this time Joshua went and destroyed the race of giants called the Anakim who lived in the hill country—in Hebron, Debir, Anab, and in all the hill country of Judah and Israel. Joshua completely destroyed them and their cities.

Jos 11:22 None of the Anakim were left in the land of Israel; a few, however, were left in Gaza, Gath, and Ashdod.

Jos 11:23 Joshua captured the whole land, as the LORD had commanded Moses. Joshua gave it to the Israelites as their own and divided it into portions, one for each tribe. So the people rested from war.

JOSUA 11

1Koning Jabin van Hasor het gehoor van Josua se oorwinnings. Hy stuur toe boodskappe aan koning Jobab van Madon, aan die konings van Simron en Aksaf 2en aan die konings in die noordelike Bergland, dié in die Jordaanvallei suid van Gennesaret, in die Laeveld en op die bergrug van Dor in die weste, 3die Kanaäniete in die ooste en die weste, die Amoriete, Hetiete, Feresiete, Jebusiete in die Bergland en die Hewiete onderkant Hermon in die Mispegebied. 4Hulle het almal gekom met hulle leërs, 'n groot menigte, so baie soos die sand van die see. Hulle het ook baie perde en strydwaens gehad. 5Al die konings het 'n bondgenootskap gesluit en saam hulle soldate vir die oorlog teen Israel ontplooi by die Meromwaters. 6Die Here het vir Josua gesê: Moenie vir hulle bang wees nie. Môre dié tyd gee Ek hulle oor aan Israel, dan sneuwel hulle almal. Jy moet hulle perde se hakskeensenings afsny en hulle strydwaens verbrand. 7Josua en al sy manskappe het die vyand skielik oorval by die Meromwaters. 8Die Here het hulle in die mag van Israel oorgegee en dié het hulle verslaan en hulle agtervolg by Groot-Sidon, Misrefot-Majim en die Mispelaagte in die ooste. Die Israeliete het hulle uitgeroei. Nie een het vrygekom nie. 9Josua het met hulle gedoen soos die Here vir hom gesê het: hy het hulle perde se hakskeensenings afgesny en hulle strydwaens verbrand. 10Daarna het Josua na Hasor toe gegaan, die stad ingeneem en sy koning doodgemaak. Hasor het vroeër die leiersposisie ingeneem tussen al die koninkryke daar. 11Die Israeliete het al die mense in die stad doodgemaak. Josua het hulle uitgeroei sodat niks wat asemhaal, bly lewe het nie. Die stad self het hy afgebrand. 12Josua het ook al die stede van die ander konings ingeneem en die konings en die mense uitgeroei soos Moses, die dienaar van die Here, beveel het. 13Israel het egter nie die ou, gevestigde stede afgebrand nie. Dit is net Hasor wat deur Josua afgebrand is. 14Die Israeliete het die buit en die vee van die stede gevat, maar al die mense doodgemaak. Hulle het die mense heeltemal uitgeroei. Nie een het bly lewe nie. 15Wat die Here sy dienaar Moses beveel het, het Moses vir Josua beveel, en dit het Josua gedoen. Niks wat die Here vir Moses beveel het, is nagelaat nie. 16Josua het die hele land ingeneem, die Bergland, die hele Suidland, die hele Gosengebied, die Laeveld, die Jordaanvallei en die Israelberge met hulle uitlopers. 17Die gebied het gestrek van Kaalberg af wat na Seïr toe oploop, tot by Baäl-Gad in die Libanonvallei onderkant Hermonberg. Josua het al die konings in dié gebied verslaan en doodgemaak. 18Hy moes lank teen hulle oorlog voer. 19Behalwe die Hewiete in Gibeon het nie een stad met die Israeliete vrede gemaak nie. Die Israeliete het hulle almal in gevegte verower. 20Dit was die

Here wat hulle in verset laat kom het, sodat hulle teen Israel geveg het: hulle moes sonder genade uitgeroei word, uitgewis word, soos die Here vir Moses beveel het. [21]In dié tyd het Josua ook die Enakiete in die berge, in Hebron, Debir en Anab, in al die Judaberge en in al die Israelberge uitgeroei. Hy het hulle saam met hulle stede uitgeroei, [22]en daar het geen Enakiete in die gebied van die Israeliete oorgebly nie. Net in Gasa, Gat en Asdod was daar Enakiete oor. [23]Josua het die hele land ingeneem soos die Here vir Moses beveel het, en toe die land as besitting aan Israel gegee, vir elke stam 'n deel. Die land kon toe rus van oorlog.

Joshua 12

Kings Defeated by Moses

Jos 12:1 The people of Israel had already conquered and occupied the land east of the Jordan, from the Arnon Valley up the Jordan Valley and as far north as Mount Hermon. They defeated two kings.

Jos 12:2 One was Sihon, the Amorite king who ruled at Heshbon. His kingdom included half of Gilead: from Aroer (on the edge of the Arnon Valley) and from the city in the middle of that valley, as far as the Jabbok River, the border of Ammon;

Jos 12:3 it included the Jordan Valley from Lake Galilee south to Beth Jeshimoth (east of the Dead Sea) and on toward the foot of Mount Pisgah.

Jos 12:4 They also defeated King Og of Bashan, who was one of the last of the Rephaim; he ruled at Ashtaroth and Edrei.

Jos 12:5 His kingdom included Mount Hermon, Salecah, and all of Bashan as far as the boundaries of Geshur and Maacah, as well as half of Gilead, as far as the territory of King Sihon of Heshbon.

Jos 12:6 These two kings were defeated by Moses and the people of Israel. Moses, the LORD's servant, gave their land to the tribes of Reuben and Gad and to half the tribe of Manasseh, to be their possession.

Kings Defeated by Joshua

Jos 12:7 Joshua and the people of Israel defeated all the kings in the territory west of the Jordan, from Baalgad in the valley of Lebanon to Mount Halak in the south near Edom. Joshua divided this land among the tribes and gave it to them as a permanent possession.

Jos 12:8 This portion included the hill country, the western foothills, the Jordan Valley and its foothills, the eastern slopes, and the dry country in the south. This land had been the home of the Hittites, the Amorites, the Canaanites, the Perizzites, the Hivites, and the Jebusites.

Jos 12:9 The people of Israel defeated the kings of the following cities: Jericho, Ai (near Bethel),

Jos 12:10 Jerusalem, Hebron,

Jos 12:11 Jarmuth, Lachish,

Jos 12:12 Eglon, Gezer,

Jos 12:13 Debir, Geder,

Jos 12:14 Hormah, Arad,

Jos 12:15 Libnah, Adullam,

Jos 12:16 Makkedah, Bethel,

Jos 12:17 Tappuah, Hepher,

Jos 12:18 Aphek, Lasharon,

Jos 12:19 Madon, Hazor,

Jos 12:20 Shimron Meron, Achshaph,

Jos 12:21 Taanach, Megiddo,

Jos 12:22 Kedesh, Jokneam (in Carmel),

Jos 12:23 Dor (on the coast), Goiim (in Galilee),

Jos 12:24 and Tirzah—thirty-one kings in all.

JOSUA 12

1Die Israeliete het die volgende konings van die land oorkant die Jordaan, aan die oostekant, verslaan en hulle gebiede in besit geneem, die gebied van die Arnonvallei af tot by Hermonberg, en die hele oostelike deel van die Jordaanvallei: 2Koning Sihon van die Amoriete in Gesbon het geheers oor die helfte van Gilead, van Aroër af aan die kant van die Arnonbedding, die middel van die bedding, tot aan Jabbokspruit waar die Ammoniete se gebied begin. 3Ook die oostelike deel van die Jordaanvallei, van die Gennesaretmeer af suid tot aan die see in die Jordaanvallei, die Soutsee, en verder in die rigting van Bet-Jesimot en suidwaarts van onderkant die Pisgahange af. 4Koning Og van Basan, een van die laaste van die Refaïete, het in Astarot en Edreï geregeer. Die gebied 5waaroor hy geheers het, het Hermonberg, Salka en die hele Basan ingesluit, tot aan die grens van Gesur en Maäka, en ook die helfte van Gilead tot aan die grens van die gebied van koning Sihon van Gesbon. 6Moses, die dienaar van die Here, en die Israeliete het hierdie twee konings verslaan, en Moses het die gebied aan die stam Ruben, die stam Gad en die halwe Manassestam as besitting gegee. 7Hier volg nou ook 'n lys van die konings van die land duskant die Jordaan, aan die westekant, wat deur Josua en die Israeliete verslaan is, van Baäl-Gad in die Libanonvallei af tot by Kaalberg wat na Seïr toe oploop. Josua het die gebied tussen die stamme as besitting verdeel: 8die Bergland, die Laeveld, die Jordaanvallei, die Hange, die woestyngebied en die Suidland, die gebiede waar die Hetiete, Amoriete, Kanaäniete, Feresiete, Hewiete en Jebusiete gewoon het. 9Die konings van die volgende stede is verslaan: Jerigo, Ai naby Bet-El, 10Jerusalem, Hebron, 11Jarmut, Lakis, 12Eglon, Geser, 13Debir, Geder, 14Gorma, Arad, 15Libna, Adullam, 16Makkeda, Bet-El, 17Tappuag, Gefer, 18Afek, Saron, 19Madon, Hasor, 20Simron-Meron, Aksaf, 21Taänak, Megiddo, 22Kedes, Jokneam teen Karmelberg, 23Dor op die bergrug van Dor, Gojim by Gilgal, 24en Tirsa. Dit was altesaam een en dertig konings.

Joshua 13

Land Still to Be Conquered

Jos 13:1 Joshua was now very old. The LORD said to him, "You are very old, but there is still much land to be taken:

Jos 13:2 all the territory of Philistia and Geshur,

Jos 13:3 as well as all the territory of the Avvim to the south. (The land from the stream Shihor, at the Egyptian border, as far north as the border of Ekron was considered Canaanite; the kings of the Philistines lived at Gaza, Ashdod, Ashkelon, Gath, and Ekron.)

Jos 13:4 There is still all the Canaanite country, and Mearah (which belonged to the Sidonians), as far as Aphek, at the Amorite border;

Jos 13:5 the land of the Gebalites; all of Lebanon to the east, from Baalgad, which is south of Mount Hermon, to Hamath Pass.

Jos 13:6 This includes all the territory of the Sidonians, who live in the hill country between the Lebanon Mountains and Misrephoth Maim. I will drive all these peoples out as the people of Israel advance. You must divide the land among the Israelites, just as I have commanded you to do.

Jos 13:7 Now then, divide this land among the other nine tribes and half of the tribe of Manasseh, for them to possess as their own."

The Inheritance East of the Jordan

Jos 13:8 The tribes of Reuben and Gad and the other half of the tribe of Manasseh had already received the land that Moses, the LORD's servant, had given them; it was on the east side of the Jordan River.

Jos 13:9 Their territory extended to Aroer (on the edge of the Arnon Valley) and the city in the middle of that valley and included all of the plateau from Medeba to Dibon.

Jos 13:10 It went as far as the border of Ammon and included all the cities that had been ruled by the Amorite king Sihon, who had ruled at Heshbon.

Jos 13:11 It included Gilead, the regions of Geshur and Maacah, all of Mount Hermon, and all of Bashan as far as Salecah.

Jos 13:12 It included the kingdom of Og, the last of the Rephaim, who had ruled at Ashtaroth and Edrei. Moses had defeated these people and driven them out.

Jos 13:13 However, the Israelites did not drive out the people of Geshur and Maacah; they still live in Israel.

Jos 13:14 Moses had given no land to the tribe of Levi. As the LORD had told Moses, they were to receive as their possession a share of the sacrifices burned on the altar to the LORD God of Israel.

Jos 13:15 Moses had given a part of the land to the families of the tribe of Reuben as their possession.

Jos 13:16 Their territory extended to Aroer (on the edge of the Arnon Valley) and the city in the middle of that valley and included all the plateau around Medeba.

Jos 13:17 It included Heshbon and all the cities on the plateau: Dibon, Bamoth Baal, Beth Baalmeon,

Jos 13:18 Jahaz, Kedemoth, Mephaath,

Jos 13:19 Kiriathaim, Sibmah, Zereth Shahar on the hill in the valley,

Jos 13:20 Bethpeor, the slopes of Mount Pisgah, and Beth Jeshimoth.

Jos 13:21 It included all the cities of the plateau and the whole kingdom of the Amorite king Sihon, who had ruled at Heshbon. Moses defeated him, as well as the rulers of Midian: Evi, Rekem, Zur, Hur, and Reba. All of them had ruled the land for King Sihon.

Jos 13:22 Among those whom the people of Israel killed was the fortune teller Balaam son of Beor.

Jos 13:23 The Jordan was the western border of the tribe of Reuben.

These were the cities and towns given to the families of the tribe of Reuben as their possession.

Jos 13:24 Moses had also given a part of the land to the families of the tribe of Gad as their possession.

Jos 13:25 Their territory included Jazer and all the cities of Gilead, half the land of Ammon as far as Aroer, which is east of Rabbah;

Jos 13:26 their land extended from Heshbon to Ramath Mizpeh and Betonim, from Mahanaim to the border of Lodebar.

Jos 13:27 In the Jordan Valley it included Beth Haram, Bethnimrah, Sukkoth, and Zaphon, the rest of the kingdom of King Sihon of Heshbon. Their western border was the Jordan River as far north as Lake Galilee.

Jos 13:28 These were the cities and towns given to the families of the tribe of Gad as their possession.

Jos 13:29 Moses had given a part of the land to the families of half the tribe of Manasseh as their possession.

Jos 13:30 Their territory extended to Mahanaim and included all of Bashan—the whole kingdom of Og, the king of Bashan, as well as all sixty of the villages of Jair in Bashan.

Jos 13:31 It included half of Gilead, as well as Ashtaroth and Edrei, the capital cities of Og's kingdom in Bashan. All this was given to half the families descended from Machir son of Manasseh.

Jos 13:32 This is how Moses divided the land east of Jericho and the Jordan when he was in the plains of Moab.

Jos 13:33 But Moses did not assign any land to the tribe of Levi. He told them that their possession was to be a share of the offerings to the LORD God of Israel.

1Josua was al baie oud. Die Here het vir hom gesê: Jy is al baie oud, en daar is nog 'n baie groot deel van die land wat in besit geneem moet word. 2Onder die deel wat oorbly, is daar al die Filistynse gebiede en die hele Gesurgebied. 3Die gebied van die Sigor af teen Egipte tot by die Ekrongebied in die noorde word as Kanaänitiese gebied beskou. Dit is die gebiede van die vyf Filistynse regeerders, dié van Gasa, Asdod, Askelon, Gat en Ekron, en dit sluit die gebied van die Awwiete in. 4Verder is daar die hele Kanaänitiese gebied van Teman af, die Gebalgebied van Meara af wat aan die Sidoniërs behoort, tot by Afek aan die Amoritiese grens en die hele Libanon aan die oostekant, van Baäl-Gad suid van Hermonberg af tot by Lebo-Hamat. 5Ek sal al die bewoners van die bergwêreld verdryf om vir die Israeliete plek te maak, van die Libanon af tot by Misrefot-Majim, al die Sidoniërs. Intussen moet jy hierdie gebiede as besitting aan Israel toewys soos Ek jou beveel het. 6Verdeel dus nou die land vir die nege stamme en die halwe Manassestam. 7Saam met die ander helfte van die Manassestam het die stamme Ruben en Gad reeds hulle besitting ontvang wat Moses aan hulle toegeken het oorkant die Jordaan, aan die oostekant Moses, die dienaar van die Here, het die volgende gebied aan hulle toegeken: 8van Aroër af op die oewer van die Arnonrivier, die stad aan die rivier, die hele Medebahoogvlakte tot by Dibon, 9al die stede van die Amoritiese koning Sihon wat in Gesbon geregeer het, tot aan die Ammonitiese grens, 10Gilead met die gebiede Gesur en Maäka, die hele Hermonberg en die hele Basan tot by Salka 11met insluiting van die hele koninkryk van Og in Basan wat in Astarot en Edreï geregeer het. Og was een van die laaste Refaïete. Moses het hulle verslaan en verdryf. 12Die Israeliete het egter nie die mense van Gesur en Maäka verdryf nie, en hulle woon nou nog tussen die Israeliete. 13Net aan die stam Levi het Moses nie 'n eie besitting toegeken nie. Die Leviete is offers aan die Here die God van Israel en hulle ontvang van wat Hom toekom, soos Hy hulle beloof het. 14Aan die families in die stam Ruben het Moses die volgende gebied toegeken: 15van Aroër af op die oewer van die Arnonrivier, van die stad af aan die rivier, die hele hoogvlakte tot by Medeba, 16en tot by Gesbon met al sy stede op die hoogvlakte: Dibon, Bamot-Baäl, Bet-Baäl-Meon, 17Jahas, Kedemot, Mefaät, 18Kirjatajim, Sibma, Seret-Sagar op die berg in die laagte, 19Bet-Peor, Asdot-Pisga en Bet-Jesimot, 20al die stede op die hoogvlakte, die hele koninkryk van die Amoritiese koning Sihon wat in Gesbon geregeer het. Moses het vir Sihon verslaan en ook die Midianitiese leiers Ewi, Rekem, Sur, Gur en Reba, stamhoofde wat aan Sihon onderhorig was en in die land gewoon het. [21]Die waarsêer Bileam seun van Beor is een van dié wat deur die Israeliete doodgemaak is. [22]Die gebied van die stam Ruben het aan die Jordaan gegrens. Dit was dan die besitting van die families in die stam Ruben, die stede en hulle buiteposte. [23]Aan die families in die stam Gad het Moses die volgende gebied toegeken: [24]Jaser, al die stede in Gilead, die helfte van die Ammonitiese gebied tot by Aroër wat regoor Rabba lê, [25]van Gesbon af tot by Ramat-Mispe en Betonim, van Maganajim af tot aan die grens van Lo-Dabar, [26]en in die laagte Bet-Haram, Bet-Nimra, Sukkot en Safon, die oorblywende deel van die koninkryk van koning Sihon van Gesbon, die Jordaanstreek tot aan die Gennesaretmeer, die streek oos van die Jordaan. [27]Dit was dan die besitting van die families van die stam Gad, die stede en hulle buiteposte. [28]Aan die families in die halwe Manassestam het Moses die volgende gebied toegeken: [29]van Maganajim af die hele Basan, die hele koninkryk van koning Og van Basan, al die tentdorpe van Jaïr in Basan, sestig altesaam, [30]die helfte van Gilead, en Astarot en Edreï, die koningstede van Og in Basan. Dit is wat die nakomelinge van Makir seun van Manasse ontvang het, die families in die een helfte van die nakomelinge van Makir. [31]Dit is dan die gebied wat Moses toegeken het in die Moabsvlakte oorkant die Jordaan, regoor Jerigo, aan die oostekant. [32]Aan die stam Levi het Moses nie 'n eie besitting toegeken nie. Hulle ontvang van wat die Here die God van Israel self toekom, soos Hy hulle beloof het.

Joshua 14

The Inheritance West of the Jordan

Jos 14:1 What follows is an account of how the land of Canaan west of the Jordan was divided among the people of Israel. Eleazar the priest, Joshua son of Nun, and the leaders of the families of the Israelite tribes divided it among the population.

Jos 14:2 As the LORD had commanded Moses, the territories of the nine and one-half tribes west of the Jordan were determined by drawing lots.

Jos 14:3 (3-4) Moses had already assigned the land east of the Jordan to the other two and one-half tribes. (The descendants of Joseph were divided into two tribes: Manasseh and Ephraim.) However, Moses gave the Levites no portion of the territory. Instead, they received cities to live in, with fields for their cattle and flocks.

Jos 14:5 The people of Israel divided the land as the LORD had commanded Moses.

Caleb's Request and Inheritance

Jos 14:6 One day some people from the tribe of Judah came to Joshua at Gilgal. One of them, Caleb son of Jephunneh the Kenizzite, said to him, "You know what the LORD said in Kadesh Barnea about you and me to Moses, the man of God.

Jos 14:7 I was forty years old when the LORD's servant Moses sent me from Kadesh Barnea to spy out this land. I brought an honest report back to him.

Jos 14:8 The men who went with me, however, made our people afraid. But I faithfully obeyed the LORD my God.

Jos 14:9 Because I did, Moses promised me that my children and I would certainly receive as our possession the land which I walked over.

Jos 14:10 But now, look. It has been forty-five years since the LORD said that to Moses. That was when Israel was going through the desert, and the LORD, as he promised, has kept me alive ever since. Look at me! I am eighty-five years old

Jos 14:11 and am just as strong today as I was when Moses sent me out. I am still strong enough for war or for anything else.

Jos 14:12 Now then, give me the hill country that the LORD promised me on that day when my men and I reported. We told you then that the race of giants called the Anakim were there in large walled cities. Maybe the LORD will be with me, and I will drive them out, just as the LORD said."

Jos 14:13 Joshua blessed Caleb son of Jephunneh and gave him the city of Hebron as his possession.

Jos 14:14 Hebron still belongs to the descendants of Caleb son of Jephunneh the Kenizzite, because he faithfully obeyed the LORD, the God of Israel.

Jos 14:15 Before this, Hebron was called the city of Arba. (Arba had been the greatest of the Anakim.) There was now peace in the land.

JOSUA 14

1Hier volg nou 'n oorsig van die gebiede wat die Israeliete in Kanaän ontvang het. Die priester Eleasar en Josua seun van Nun het saam met die stamhoofde die gebiede aan die Israeliete toegeken, 2dit is aan die nege stamme en die halwe stam. Dit is gedoen deur loting soos die Here deur Moses beveel het. 3Aan die ander twee stamme en die halwe stam het Moses 'n gebied oorkant die Jordaan toegeken, en aan die Leviete het hy nie 'n gebied toegeken saam met die ander nie. 4Die nageslag van Josef het twee stamme gevorm, Manasse en Efraim, en die Leviete het nie 'n deel van die land ontvang nie, maar wel dorpe om in te woon en weidingsgebiede vir hulle veetroppe. 5Die Israeliete het gedoen wat die Here vir Moses beveel het, hulle het die land verdeel. 6Toe die mense van Juda na Josua toe gekom het in Gilgal, het Kaleb seun van Jefunne, 'n Kenassiet, vir Josua gesê: Jy onthou wat die Here vir Moses, die man van God, oor jou en oor my gesê het in Kades-Barnea. 7Ek was veertig toe Moses, die dienaar van die Here, my van Kades-Barnea af gestuur het om die land te verken. Ek het aan hom verslag gedoen soos ek sake gesien het, 8maar my medeverkenners wat saam met my gegaan het, het die volk se hart laat verstyf van angs. Ek het die Here my God getrou gevolg, 9en Moses het my daardie dag met 'n eed belowe: Die gebied wat jy deurgestap het, sal jou en jou nageslag se permanente besitting wees omdat jy volhard het in jou trou aan die Here my God.' 10Van die tyd af dat die Here dit vir Moses gesê het toe Israel deur die woestyn getrek het, het die Here my in die lewe laat bly soos Hy beloof het, vyf en veertig jaar lank. Ek is nou 'n man van vyf en tagtig, 11maar ek is vandag nog net so sterk as die dag toe Moses my uitgestuur het. Die krag wat ek toe gehad het, het ek nou nog. Ek kan nog gaan oorlog maak en behoue terugkom. 12Gee my nou asseblief die bergwêreld waarvan die Here daardie dag gepraat het. Jy het daardie dag gehoor dat daar Enakiete is en groot vestingstede. Miskien sal die Here by my wees sodat ek hulle kan verower soos Hy beloof het. 13Josua het sy seën uitgespreek oor Kaleb seun van Jefunne en aan hom Hebron as besitting toegeken. 14Daarom behoort Hebron tot vandag toe aan Kaleb seun van Jefunne, die Kenassiet. Dit is omdat hy die Here die God van Israel getrou gevolg het. 15Die naam van Hebron was voorheen Kirjat-Arba. Arba was die naam van 'n groot man onder die Enakiete. Die oorlog was verby, die land het gerus.

Joshua 15

The Allotment for Judah

Jos 15:1 The families of the tribe of Judah received a part of the land described as follows: The land reached south to the southernmost point of the wilderness of Zin, at the border of Edom.

Jos 15:2 This southern border ran from the south end of the Dead Sea,

Jos 15:3 went southward from the Akrabbim Pass and on to Zin. It ran south of Kadesh Barnea, past Hezron and up to Addar, turned toward Karka, Jos 15:4 went on to Azmon, and followed the stream on the border of Egypt to the Mediterranean Sea, where the border ended. That was the southern border of Judah.

Jos 15:5 The eastern border was the Dead Sea, all the way up to the inlet where the Jordan empties into it. The northern border began there,

Jos 15:6 extended up to Beth Hoglah, and went north of the ridge overlooking the Jordan Valley. Then it went up to the Stone of Bohan (Bohan was a son of Reuben),

Jos 15:7 from Trouble Valley up to Debir, and then turned north toward Gilgal, which faces Adummim Pass on the south side of the valley. It then went on to the springs of Enshemesh, out to Enrogel, Jos 15:8 and up through Hinnom Valley on the south side of the hill where the Jebusite city of Jerusalem was located. The border then proceeded up to the top of the hill on the west side of Hinnom Valley, at the northern end of Rephaim Valley.

Jos 15:9 From there it went to the Springs of Nephtoah and out to the cities near Mount Ephron. There it turned toward Baalah (or Kiriath Jearim), Jos 15:10 where it circled west of Baalah toward the hill country of Edom, went on the north side of Mount Jearim (or Chesalon), down to Beth Shemesh, and on past Timnah.

Jos 15:11 The border then went out to the hill north of Ekron, turned toward Shikkeron, past Mount Baalah, and on to Jamnia. It ended at the Mediterranean Sea, Jos 15:12 which formed the western border. Within these borders lived the people of the families of Judah.

Jos 15:13 As the LORD commanded Joshua, part of the territory of Judah was given to Caleb son of Jephunneh, from the tribe of Judah. He received Hebron, the city belonging to Arba, father of Anak.

Jos 15:14 Caleb drove the descendants of Anak out of the city—the clans of Sheshai, Ahiman, and Talmai.

Jos 15:15 From there he went to attack the people living in Debir. (This city used to be called Kiriath Sepher.)

Jos 15:16 Caleb said, "I will give my daughter Achsah in marriage to the man who succeeds in capturing Kiriath Sepher."

Jos 15:17 Othniel, the son of Caleb's brother Kenaz, captured the city, so Caleb gave him his daughter Achsah in marriage.

Jos 15:18 On the wedding day Othniel urged her to ask her father for a field. She got down from her donkey, and Caleb asked her what she wanted.

Jos 15:19 She answered, "I want some water holes. The land you have given me is in the dry country." So Caleb gave her the upper and lower springs.

Jos 15:20 This is the land that the families of the tribe of Judah received as their possession.

Jos 15:21 The cities farthest south that belonged to them, those that were near the border of Edom, were Kabzeel, Eder, Jagur,

Jos 15:22 Kinah, Dimonah, Adadah,

Jos 15:23 Kedesh, Hazor, Ithnan,

Jos 15:24 Ziph, Telem, Bealoth,

Jos 15:25 Hazor Hadattah, Kerioth Hezron (or Hazor),

Jos 15:26 Amam, Shema, Moladah,

Jos 15:27 Hazar Gaddah, Heshmon, Bethpelet,

Jos 15:28 Hazar Shual, Beersheba, Biziothiah,

Jos 15:29 Baalah, Iim, Ezem,

Jos 15:30 Eltolad, Chesil, Hormah,

Jos 15:31 Ziklag, Madmannah, Sansannah,

Jos 15:32 Lebaoth, Shilhim, Ain, and Rimmon: twenty-nine cities in all, along with the towns around them.

Jos 15:33 The cities in the foothills were Eshtaol, Zorah, Ashnah,

Jos 15:34 Zanoah, Engannim, Tappuah, Enam,

Jos 15:35 Jarmuth, Adullam, Socoh, Azekah,

Jos 15:36 Shaaraim, Adithaim, Gederah, and Gederothaim: fourteen cities, along with the towns around them.

Jos 15:37 There were also Zenan, Hadashah, Migdalgad,

Jos 15:38 Dilean, Mizpah, Joktheel,

Jos 15:39 Lachish, Bozkath, Eglon,

Jos 15:40 Cabbon, Lahmam, Chitlish,

Jos 15:41 Gederoth, Bethdagon, Naamah, and Makkedah: sixteen cities, along with the towns around them.

Jos 15:42 There were also Libnah, Ether, Ashan,

Jos 15:43 Iphtah, Ashnah, Nezib,

Jos 15:44 Keilah, Achzib, and Mareshah: nine cities, along with the towns around them.

Jos 15:45 There was Ekron with its towns and villages,

Jos 15:46 and all the cities and towns near Ashdod, from Ekron to the Mediterranean Sea.

Jos 15:47 There were Ashdod and Gaza, with their towns and villages, reaching to the stream on the border of Egypt and the coast of the Mediterranean Sea.

Jos 15:48 In the hill country there were Shamir, Jattir, Socoh,

Jos 15:49 Dannah, Kiriath Sepher (or Debir),

Jos 15:50 Anab, Eshtemoa, Anim,

Jos 15:51 Goshen, Holon, and Giloh: eleven cities, along with the towns around them.

Jos 15:52 There were Arab, Dumah, Eshan,

Jos 15:53 Janim, Beth Tappuah, Aphekah,

Jos 15:54 Humtah, Hebron, and Zior: nine cities, along with the towns around them.

Jos 15:55 There were Maon, Carmel, Ziph, Juttah,

Jos 15:56 Jezreel, Jokdeam, Zanoah,

Jos 15:57 Kain, Gibeah, and Timnah: ten cities, along with the towns around them.

Jos 15:58 There were Halhul, Bethzur, Gedor,

Jos 15:59 Maarath, Bethanoth, and Eltekon: six cities, along with the towns around them.

Jos 15:60 There were Kiriath Baal (or Kiriath Jearim) and Rabbah: two cities, along with the towns around them.

Jos 15:61 In the desert there were Beth Arabah, Middin, Secacah,

Jos 15:62 Nibshan, Salt City, and Engedi: six cities, along with the towns around them.

Jos 15:63 But the people of Judah were not able to drive out the Jebusites, who lived in Jerusalem. The Jebusites still live there with the people of Judah.

JOSUA 15

1Aan die families in die stam Juda is deur loting 'n gebied toegeken wat suidwaarts gestrek het tot aan die verre suidekant van die Sinwoestyn teen die grens van Edom. 2Juda se suidelike grens begin dus by die Soutsee, by die punt wat suid uitsteek, 3en dit loop suid van Skerpioenpas verby na Sin toe, op na 'n punt suid van Kades-Barnea, oor na Gesron toe, op na Addar toe en swaai na Karka toe. 4Dan loop dit oor na Asmon toe en met Egiptespruit langs totdat dit teen die see doodloop. Dit is Juda se suidelike grens. 5Die oostelike grens is die Soutsee tot waar die Jordaan in die see inloop. Die grens aan die noordekant begin waar die Jordaan in die see inloop, 6en loop op na Bet-Gogla toe, noord van Bet-Araba verby, op na die Klip van Bohan seun van Ruben, 7op na Debir toe van die Akorlaagte af, en swaai noord na Gilgal toe wat regoor Adummimspas suid van die spruit lê. Dan loop die grens oor tot aan die water van Semesfontein en tot by Rogelfontein, 8daarvandaan op met Ben-Hinnomdal na die suidelike hang van Jebusieteberg, dit is Jerusalem, en op na die top van die berg wes van Hinnomdal by die noordelike punt van Spooklaagte. 9Van die top van die berg af draai die grens na Neftoagsfontein toe, loop aan na die stede teen Efronberg en draai na Baäla toe, dit is Kirjat-Jearim. 10Van Baäla af swaai dit wes na Seïrberg toe, verby die noordelike hang van Jearimsberg, dit is Kesalon, loop dan af Bet-Semes toe, oor na Timna toe 11en met die noordelike hang van Ekron langs. Dan draai die grens na Sikaron toe en loop oor Baälaberg na Jabne toe, waarna dit teen die see doodloop. 12Die westelike grens is die kus van die Groot See. Dit is die grense rondom die gebied van die families in die stam Juda. 13Aan Kaleb seun van Jefunne het Josua, soos die Here hom beveel het, 'n eie gebied toegeken tussen die mense van Juda, naamlik Kirjat-Arba, dit is Hebron. Arba was die voorvader van die Enakiete. 14Kaleb het die Enakiete Sesai, Agiman en Talmai uit Hebron verdryf, al drie Enakskinders. 15Daarvandaan het Kaleb die mense van Debir gaan aanval. Debir se naam was voorheen Kirjat-Sefer. 16Kaleb het gesê: Aan die man wat Kirjat-Sefer verslaan en inneem, gee ek my dogter Aksa as vrou. 17Kaleb se stamgenoot Otniël seun van Kenas het die stad ingeneem, en Kaleb het sy dogter Aksa aan hom as vrou gegee. 18Toe sy by Otniël kom, het sy by hom aangehou dat hulle vir haar pa landbougrond moet gaan vra. Toe sy van die donkie afklim, vra Kaleb vir haar wat sy wil hê, 19en sy antwoord: Gee my 'n stuk vrugbare grond. U het my die droë Suidland gegee. Gee my nou ook standhoudende water. Hy het toe vir haar fonteine in die hooggeleë deel en fonteine in die laaggeleë deel gegee. 20Die families in die

Joshua 16

The Allotment for Ephraim and Manasseh

Jos 16:1 The southern boundary of the land assigned to the descendants of Joseph started from the Jordan near Jericho, at a point east of the springs of Jericho, and went into the desert. It went from Jericho up into the hill country as far as Bethel.

Jos 16:2 From Bethel it went to Luz, passing on to Ataroth Addar, where the Archites lived.

Jos 16:3 It then went west to the area of the Japhletites, as far as the area of Lower Beth Horon. It went on from there to Gezer and ended at the Mediterranean Sea.

Jos 16:4 The descendants of Joseph, the tribes of Ephraim and West Manasseh, received this land as their possession.

Jos 16:5 This was the territory of the Ephraimite families: their border ran from Ataroth Addar eastward to Upper Beth Horon, Jos 16:6 and from there to the Mediterranean Sea. Michmethath was on their north. East of there the border bent toward Taanath Shiloh and went past it on the east to Janoah.

Jos 16:7 Then it went down from Janoah to Ataroth and Naarah, reaching Jericho and ending at the Jordan.

Jos 16:8 The border went west from Tappuah to the stream Kanah and ended at the Mediterranean Sea. This was the land given to the families of the tribe of Ephraim as their possession,

Jos 16:9 along with some towns and villages that were within the borders of Manasseh, but given to the Ephraimites.

Jos 16:10 But they did not drive out the Canaanites who lived in Gezer, so the Canaanites have lived among the Ephraimites to this day, but they have been forced to work as slaves.

JOSUA 16

1Aan die nakomelinge van Josef is deur loting 'n gebied toegeken wat strek van die Jordaan af regoor Jerigo, oos van die Jerigofonteine. Die grens loop van Jerigo af oor die woestyn op na Bet-El se berge toe. 2Van Bet-El af loop dit na Lus toe, en verby die grens van die Erekiete na Atarot toe, 3dan weswaarts af na die grens van die Jafletiete toe tot by die grens van Bet-Goron-Onder en Geser, en dit loop dan dood aan die see. 4Die stamme Manasse en Efraim, nakomelinge van Josef, het die grondgebied gekry. 5Die grens van die grondgebied van die families in die stam Efraim loop van Atrot-Addar in die ooste na Bet-Goron-Bo toe, 6en dan verder tot aan die see. Van Mikmetat af in die noorde swaai die grens oos verby Taänat-Silo na Janoag toe in die ooste, 7van Janoag af loop die grens af na Atarot en Naära toe, dan teen Jerigo verby en aan tot by die Jordaan. 8Van Tappuag af loop die grens wes met Kanaspruit langs en dit loop dood aan die see. Dit is die gebied van die families in die stam Efraim. 9Daarby het gekom al die stede en buiteposte wat aan die Efraimiete toegeken is binne-in die grondgebied van Manasse. 10Die Efraimiete het nie die Kanaäniete verdryf wat in Geser gewoon het nie en die Kanaäniete woon nou nog tussen die Efraimiete, maar hulle doen dwangarbeid.

Joshua 17

Jos 17:1 A part of the land west of the Jordan was assigned to some of the families descended from Joseph's older son Manasseh. Machir, the father of Gilead, was Manasseh's oldest son and a military hero, so Gilead and Bashan, east of the Jordan, were assigned to him.

Jos 17:2 Land west of the Jordan was assigned to the rest of the families of Manasseh: Abiezer, Helek, Asriel, Shechem, Hepher, and Shemida. These were male descendants of Manasseh son of Joseph, and they were heads of families.

Jos 17:3 Zelophehad, son of Hepher, son of Gilead, son of Machir, son of Manasseh, did not have any sons, but only daughters. Their names were Mahlah, Noah, Hoglah, Milcah, and Tirzah.

Jos 17:4 They went to Eleazar the priest and to Joshua son of Nun and to the leaders, and said, "The LORD commanded Moses to give us, as well as our male relatives, a part of the land to possess." So, as the LORD had commanded, they were given land along with their male relatives.

Jos 17:5 This is why Manasseh received ten shares in addition to Gilead and Bashan on the east side of the Jordan,

Jos 17:6 since his female descendants as well as his male descendants were assigned land. The land of Gilead was assigned to the rest of the descendants of Manasseh.

Jos 17:7 The territory of Manasseh reached from Asher to Michmethath, east of Shechem. The border then went south to include the people of Entappuah.

Jos 17:8 The land around Tappuah belonged to Manasseh, but the town of Tappuah, on the border, belonged to the descendants of Ephraim.

Jos 17:9 The border then went down to the stream Kanah. The cities south of the stream belonged to Ephraim, even though they were in the territory of Manasseh. The border of Manasseh proceeded along the north side of the stream and ended at the Mediterranean Sea.

Jos 17:10 Ephraim was to the south, and Manasseh was to the north, with the Mediterranean Sea as their western border. Asher was to the northwest, and Issachar to the northeast.

Jos 17:11 Within the territories of Issachar and Asher, Manasseh possessed Beth Shan and Ibleam, along with their surrounding towns, as well as Dor (the one on the coast), Endor, Taanach, Megiddo, and their surrounding towns.

Jos 17:12 The people of Manasseh, however, were not able to drive out the people living in those cities, so the Canaanites continued to live there.

Jos 17:13 Even when the Israelites became stronger, they did not drive out all the Canaanites, but they did force them to work for them.

Jos 17:14 The descendants of Joseph said to Joshua, "Why have you given us only one part of the land to possess as our own? There are very many of us because the LORD has blessed us."

Jos 17:15 Joshua answered, "If there are so many of you and the hill country of Ephraim is too small for you, then go into the forests and clear ground for yourselves in the land of the Perizzites and the Rephaim."

Jos 17:16 They replied, "The hill country is not big enough for us, but the Canaanites in the plains have iron chariots, both those who live in Beth Shan and its surrounding towns and those who live in Jezreel Valley."

Jos 17:17 Joshua said to the tribes of Ephraim and West Manasseh, "There are indeed many of you, and you are very powerful. You shall have more than one share.

Jos 17:18 The hill country will be yours. Even though it is a forest, you will clear it and take possession of it from one end to the other. As for the Canaanites, you will drive them out, even though they do have iron chariots and are a strong people."

JOSUA 17

1Daar is ook aan die stam Manasse 'n gebied deur loting toegeken. Manasse was Josef se oudste seun, en die toekenning is gemaak aan Manasse se oudste seun Makir die voorvader van Gilead. Hy was 'n krygsman en het Gilead en Basan ontvang. 2Die toekenning was vir die oorblywende families in die stam Manasse, dié van Abiëser, Gelek, Asriël, Sekem, Gefer en Semida. Dit was die families van die ander manlike afstammelinge van Manasse seun van Josef. 3Selofgad seun van Gefer, seun van Gilead, seun van Makir, seun van Manasse, het nie seuns gehad nie, net dogters. Hier is hulle name: Magla, Noa, Gogla, Milka en Tirsa. 4Hulle het na die priester Eleasar, na Josua seun van Nun en na die leiers toe gegaan en gesê: Die Here het vir Moses beveel om vir ons tussen ons stamgenote grond te gee. Moses het toe aan hulle grondgebied toegeken tussen hulle vader se broers soos die Here beveel het. 5Behalwe Gilead en Basan oos van die Jordaan het Manasse dus nog tien dele ontvang, 6want hierdie dogters uit die Manassestam het grondgebied ontvang saam met die mans. Die Gileadstreek het behoort aan die res van die stam Manasse. 7Die gebied van Manasse strek van Aser af tot by Mikmetat regoor Sigem, en die grens loop daarvandaan suid en sluit die inwoners van En-Tappuag in. 8Die Tappuagstreek het aan Manasse behoort, maar Tappuag self, op die grens van Manasse, het behoort aan die mense van Efraim. 9Van Tappuag af loop die grens af na Kanaspruit toe. Suid van die spruit lê stede van Efraim tussen dié van Manasse. Manasse se grens is noord van die spruit en dit loop dood aan die see. 10Efraim was aan die suidekant en Manasse aan die noordekant. Die gebied van Manasse loop tot teen die see, en grens noord aan Aser en oos aan Issaskar. 11In Issaskar en Aser self het Bet-San, Jibleam, Dor op die bergrug, En-Dor, Taänak en Megiddo met hulle buitedorpe ook nog aan Manasse behoort. 12Die mense van Manasse kon egter nie dié stede verower nie, en die Kanaäniete het dié gebied bly bewoon. 13Toe die Israeliete sterker geword het, het hulle die Kanaäniete dwangarbeid laat doen, maar nie die stede ingeneem nie. 14Die nakomelinge van Josef het met Josua gaan praat: Waarom loot u vir ons net een keer en gee u ons net een deel? Ons is baie mense, want die Here het ons besonderlik geseën. 15Josua het vir hulle gesê: Julle is baie. Gaan maak vir julle 'n stuk boswêreld skoon in die gebied van die Feresiete en die Refaïete. Die Efraimsberge is te klein vir julle. 16Hulle het vir Josua gesê: Die Bergland is nie groot genoeg vir ons nie, en al die Kanaäniete wat in die laagte woon, het ysterstrydwaens, dié in Bet-San en sy buiteposte, en dié in die Jisreëlvlakte. 17Daarom het Josua vir die nageslag van Josef, vir Efraim en Manasse, gesê:

Julle is baie mense en julle is sterk. Julle kry dus nie net een deel nie. [18]Die Bergland is julle s'n. Dit is bebos, maar julle kan dit skoonmaak en dit ten volle benut. Die Kanaäniete het wel ysterstrydwaens en hulle is sterk, maar julle sal hulle uitdryf.

Joshua 18

Allotment of the Remaining Land

Jos 18:1 After they had conquered the land, the entire community of Israel assembled at Shiloh and set up the Tent of the LORD's presence.

Jos 18:2 There were still seven tribes of the people of Israel who had not yet been assigned their share of the land.

Jos 18:3 So Joshua said to the people of Israel, "How long are you going to wait before you go in and take the land that the LORD, the God of your ancestors, has given you?

Jos 18:4 Let me have three men from each tribe. I will send them out over the whole country to map out the territory that they would like to have as their possession. Then they are to come back to me.

Jos 18:5 The land will be divided among them in seven parts; Judah will stay in its territory in the south, and Joseph in its territory in the north.

Jos 18:6 Write down a description of these seven divisions and bring it to me. Then I will draw lots to consult the LORD our God for you.

Jos 18:7 The Levites, however, will not receive a share of the land with the rest of you, because their share is to serve as the LORD's priests. And of course, the tribes of Gad, Reuben, and East Manasseh have already received their land east of the Jordan, which Moses, the LORD's servant, gave to them."

Jos 18:8 The men went on their way to map out the land after Joshua had given them these instructions: "Go all over the land and map it out, and come back to me. And then here in Shiloh I will consult the LORD for you by drawing lots."

Jos 18:9 So the men went all over the land and set down in writing how they divided it into seven parts, making a list of the towns. Then they went back to Joshua in the camp at Shiloh.

Jos 18:10 Joshua drew lots to consult the LORD for them, and assigned each of the remaining tribes of Israel a certain part of the land.

The Inheritance for Benjamin

Jos 18:11 The territory belonging to the families of the tribe of Benjamin was the first to be assigned. Their land lay between the tribes of Judah and Joseph.

Jos 18:12 On the north their border began at the Jordan and then went up the slope north of Jericho and westward through the hill country as far as the desert of Bethaven.

Jos 18:13 The border then went to the slope on the south side of Luz (also called Bethel), then down to Ataroth Addar, on the mountain south of Lower Beth Horon.

Jos 18:14 The border then went in another direction, turning south from the western side of this mountain and going to Kiriath Baal (or Kiriath Jearim), which belongs to the tribe of Judah. This was the western border.

Jos 18:15 The southern border started on the edge of Kiriath Jearim and went to the Springs of Nephtoah.

Jos 18:16 It then went down to the foot of the mountain that overlooks Hinnom Valley, at the north end of Rephaim Valley. It then went south through Hinnom Valley, south of the Jebusite ridge, toward Enrogel.

Jos 18:17 It then turned north to Enshemesh and then on to Geliloth, opposite Adummim Pass. The border then went down to the Stone of Bohan (Bohan was a son of Reuben)

Jos 18:18 and passed north of the ridge overlooking the Jordan Valley. It then went down into the valley,

Jos 18:19 passing north of the ridge of Beth Hoglah, and ended at the northern inlet on the Dead Sea, where the Jordan River empties into it. This was the southern border.

Jos 18:20 The Jordan was the eastern border. These were the borders of the land which the families of the tribe of Benjamin received as their possession.

Jos 18:21 The cities belonging to the families of the tribe of Benjamin were Jericho, Beth Hoglah, Emek Keziz,

Jos 18:22 Beth Arabah, Zemaraim, Bethel,

Jos 18:23 Avvim, Parah, Ophrah,

Jos 18:24 Chepharammoni, Ophni, and Geba: twelve cities, along with the towns around them.

Jos 18:25 There were also Gibeon, Ramah, Beeroth,

Jos 18:26 Mizpah, Chephirah, Mozah,

Jos 18:27 Rekem, Irpeel, Taralah,

Jos 18:28 Zela, Haeleph, Jebus (or Jerusalem), Gibeah, and Kiriath Jearim: fourteen cities, along with the towns around them. This is the land which the families of the tribe of Benjamin received as their possession.

JOSUA 18

1Die hele Israelitiese volksvergadering het in Silo bymekaargekom en die tent van ontmoeting daar opgeslaan. Die land was nou onderwerp, 2maar daar was nog sewe van die Israelitiese stamme wat nie hulle eie grondgebied ontvang het nie. 3Josua het vir die Israeliete gesê: Hoe lank gaan julle nog talm voor julle die land in besit gaan neem wat die Here die God van julle voorvaders aan julle gegee het? 4Bring drie man uit elke stam dat ek hulle kan stuur en dat hulle die res van die land kan deurgaan en 'n beskrywing kan maak van die verskillende dele en dit vir my bring. 5Hulle moet die gebied in sewe dele verdeel. Juda behou sy gebied in die suide, en die nageslag van Josef hulle s'n in die noorde. 6Julle moet 'n beskrywing maak van die sewe dele van die land en dit vir my bring dat ek die loting hier in die teenwoordigheid van die Here ons God kan maak. 7Die Leviete kry nie 'n deel saam met julle nie, want hulle besondere voorreg is die priesterskap in diens van die Here. Gad, Ruben en die helfte van Manasse het hulle deel oos van die Jordaan gekry waar Moses, die dienaar van die Here, dit aan hulle toegeken het. 8Die manne het toe klaargemaak en vertrek. By hulle vertrek om 'n beskrywing van die land te maak, het Josua hulle beveel: Gaan die land deur, maak 'n beskrywing daarvan en kom terug na my toe dat ek vir julle die loting hier in Silo in die teenwoordigheid van die Here kan doen. 9Die manne is weg en het die land deurgegaan en in 'n boek 'n beskrywing van die sewe dele opgeteken, stad vir stad. Daarna is hulle terug na Josua toe in die kamp by Silo. 10Josua het toe die loting daar in Silo in die teenwoordigheid van die Here gedoen en die land tussen die Israelitiese stamme verdeel. 11Aan die families in die stam Benjamin is deur loting 'n gebied toegeken tussen dié van Juda en Josef. 12Aan die noordekant begin hulle grens by die Jordaan en dit loop dan op teen die hang noord van Jerigo, teen die berge uit weswaarts en dan loop dit tot teen die woestyn van Bet-Awen. 13Daarvandaan loop die grens oor na Lus toe, teen die hang suid van Lus, dit is Bet-El, en dan af na Atrot-Addar toe op die berg suid van Bet-Goron-Onder. 14Dan draai die grens en swaai westekant toe suid van die berg regoor Bet-Goron en loop dood by Kirjat-Baäl, dit is Kirjat-Jearim, 'n stad wat aan Juda behoort. Dit is die westelike grens. 15Die suidelike grens begin teenaan Kirjat-Jearim, loop wes en kom uit by Neftoagsfontein, 16en loop dan af na die voet van die berg regoor Ben-Hinnomdal, noord van Spooklaagte. Dan loop die grens met die Hinnomdal af na die hang suid van die Jebusietestad en af na Rogelfontein toe, 17draai noord en loop na Semesfontein toe, aan na Gelilot toe regoor Adummimspas en af tot by die Klip van Bohan seun van Ruben. 18Dan loop dit noord van die hang regoor die Jordaanvallei verby en af na die Jordaanvallei toe, [19]noord van die hang van Bet-Gogla verby en loop dood by die noordelike punt van die Soutsee, waar die Jordaan inloop. Dit is die suidelike grens. [20]Die Jordaan self vorm die oostelike grens. Dit is dan die grense rondom die grondgebied van die families in die stam Benjamin. [21]Die stede van die families in die stam Benjamin is Jerigo, Bet-Gogla, Kesisdal, [22]Bet-Araba, Semarajim, Bet-El, [23]Awwim, Para, Ofra, [24]Kefar-Ammoni, Ofni en Geba, twaalf stede met hulle buiteposte, [25]verder Gibeon, Rama, Beërot, [26]Mispa, Kefira, Mosa, [27]Rekem, Jirpeël, Tarala, [28]Sela, Elef, Jebusietestad, dit is Jerusalem, Gibea en Kirjat, veertien stede met hulle buiteposte. Dit is die besitting van die families in die stam Benjamin.

[16]Dié stede met hulle buiteposte is dan die eiendom van die families in die stam Sebulon. [17]Die vierde loting was vir Issaskar, vir die families in die stam Issaskar. [18]Hulle gebied omvat Jisreël, Kesulot, Sunem, [19]Gafarajim, Sion, Anagarat, [20]Rabbit, Kisjon, Ebes, [21]Remet, En-Gannim, En-Gadda en Bet-Passes. [22]Hulle grens gaan teen Tabor, Sagasajim en Bet-Semes verby en loop dood teen die Jordaan. Daar is sestien stede met hulle buiteposte. [23]Dié stede met hulle buiteposte is dan die gebied van die families in die stam Issaskar. [24]Die vyfde loting was vir die families in die stam Aser. [25]Hulle gebied omvat Gelkat, Gali, Beten, Aksaf, [26]Alammelek, Amad en Misal. Aan die westekant gaan die grens teen Karmel en Sigor-Libnat verby. [27]Dan swaai dit oos na Bet-Dagon toe, gaan teen Sebulon en Ge-Jiftag-El noordwaarts verby na Bet-Emek en Neïel toe en loop aan na Kabul in die noorde [28]en na Abdon, Regob, Gammon en Kana toe tot by Groot-Sidon. [29]Dan loop die grens om na Rama toe en tot by die vestingstad Tirus, dan om na Gosa toe en loop dood teen die see in die omgewing van Aksib. [30]Uma, Afek en Regob kom ook by. Daar is twee en twintig stede met hulle buiteposte. [31]Dié stede met hulle buiteposte is dan die eiendom van die families in die stam Aser. [32]Die sesde loting was vir Naftali, vir die families in die stam Naftali. [33]Hulle grens begin by Gelef, by die groot boom in Saänannim, en loop oor Adami-Nekeb en Jabneël tot by Lakkum, en loop dan dood teen die Jordaan. 34Dan draai die grens wes na Asnot-Tabor toe en loop daarvandaan aan na Gukok toe, teen Sebulon aan die suidekant en teen Aser aan die westekant verby tot teen die Jordaan aan die oostekant. 35Die gebied sluit vestingstede in: Siddim, Ser, Gammat, Rakkat, Gennesaret, 36Adama, Rama, Hasor, 37Kedes, Edreï, En-Gasor, 38Jiron, Migdal-El, Gorem, Bet-Anat en Bet-Semes. Daar is negentien stede met hulle buiteposte. 39Dié stede met hulle buiteposte is dan die eiendom van die families in die stam Naftali. 40Vir die families in die stam Dan is sewende geloot. 41Hulle grondgebied het omvat Sora, Estaol, Ir-Semes, 42Saälbim, Ajalon, Jitla, 43Elon, Timna, Ekron, 44Elteke, Gibbeton, Baälat, 45Jehud, Bene-Berak, Gat-Rimmon, 46Me-Jarkon, Rakkon, en ook die gebied regoor Joppe. 47Die stam Dan het sy gebied verloor en het toe vir Lesem aangeval en verower. Hulle het die inwoners doodgemaak, die stad beset en daar gaan woon. Hulle het Lesem die naam Dan gegee, na hulle voorvader Dan. 48Dié stede met hulle buiteposte was die eiendom van die families in die stam Dan. 49Nadat die Israeliete die land in sy onderskeie gebiede aan die stamme toegewys het, het hulle aan Josua seun van Nun 'n eiendom tussen hulle toegeken. 50Op bevel van die Here het hulle hom die stad gegee wat hy gevra het. Dit was Timnat-Serag in die Efraimsberge. Josua het die stad herbou en daar gaan woon. 51Dit was dan die woongebiede wat die priester Eleasar en Josua seun van Nun saam met die familiehoofde aan die Israelitiese stamme toegeken het. Hulle het die verdeling van die land afgehandel deur loting in Silo in die teenwoordigheid van die Here, by die ingang van die tent van ontmoeting.

Joshua 20

The Cities of Refuge

Jos 20:1 Then the LORD told Joshua

Jos 20:2 to say to the people of Israel, "Choose the cities of refuge that I had Moses tell you about.

Jos 20:3 If any of you accidentally kills someone, you can go there and escape the one who is looking for revenge.

Jos 20:4 You can run away to one of these cities, go to the place of judgment at the entrance to the city, and explain to the leaders what happened. Then they will let you into the city and give you a place to live in, so that you can stay there.

Jos 20:5 If the one looking for revenge follows you there, the people of the city must not hand you over to that one. They must protect you because you killed the person accidentally and not out of anger.

Jos 20:6 You may stay in the city until you have received a public trial and until the death of the man who is then the High Priest. Then you may go back home to your own town, from which you had run away."

Jos 20:7 So, on the west side of the Jordan they set aside Kedesh in Galilee, in the hill country of Naphtali; Shechem, in the hill country of Ephraim; and Hebron, in the hill country of Judah.

Jos 20:8 East of the Jordan, on the desert plateau east of Jericho, they chose Bezer in the territory of Reuben; Ramoth in Gilead, in the territory of Gad; and Golan in Bashan, in the territory of Manasseh.

Jos 20:9 These were the cities of refuge chosen for all the people of Israel and for any foreigner living among them. Any who killed a person accidentally could find protection there from the one looking for revenge; they could not be killed unless they had first received a public trial.

JOSUA 20

1Die Here het vir Josua gesê: Sê vir die Israeliete: 2Julle moet nou die asielstede afstaan wat Ek julle deur Moses beveel het, 3sodat iemand wat onopsetlik en sonder voorbedagte rade die dood van 'n ander veroorsaak het, daarheen kan vlug om aan die wraak van 'n bloedverwant van die oorledene te ontkom. 4Wanneer so iemand na een van dié stede toe vlug, moet hy by die ingang van die stadspoort gaan staan en sy saak stel aan die leiers van die stad. Hulle moet hom dan in die stad opneem en hom 'n woonplek by hulle gee. 5As die bloedverwant van die oorledene hom agtervolg, moet die leiers hom nie aan die bloedverwant uitlewer as hy onopsetlik die dood van 'n ander veroorsaak het en nie kwaadgesind teen hom was nie. 6Die vlugteling moet in die stad bly totdat hy voor die bevoegde vergadering tereggestaan het en totdat die hoëpriester van dié tyd dood is. Eers dan mag die persoon wat die dood veroorsaak het, vry teruggaan huis toe na die stad waar hy vandaan gevlug het. 7Kedes in Galilea op die Naftaliberge, Sigem in die Efraimsberge, en Kirjat-Arba, dit is Hebron, in die Judaberge is toe afgesonder. 8Oos van die Jerigo-Jordaan is Beser in die woestyn op die hoogvlakte in die stamgebied van Ruben, Ramot in Gilead in die stamgebied van Gad, en Golan in Basan in die stamgebied van Manasse afgestaan. 9Dit was die stede waarop ooreengekom is. Enige Israeliet, of enige vreemdeling tussen die Israeliete, wat onopsetlik die dood van 'n ander veroorsaak het, kon na so 'n asielstad toe vlug sodat hy nie deur 'n bloedverwant van die oorledene doodgemaak word sonder dat hy deur 'n vergadering verhoor is nie.

Joshua 21

Cities and Pasturelands Allotted to Levi

Jos 21:1 The leaders of the Levite families went to Eleazar the priest, Joshua son of Nun, and to the heads of the families of all the tribes of Israel.

Jos 21:2 There at Shiloh in the land of Canaan they said to them, "The LORD commanded through Moses that we were to be given cities to live in, as well as pasture land around them for our livestock."

Jos 21:3 So in accordance with the LORD's command the people of Israel gave the Levites certain cities and pasture lands out of their own territories.

Jos 21:4 The families of the Levite clan of Kohath were the first to be assigned cities. The families who were descended from Aaron the priest were assigned thirteen cities from the territories of Judah, Simeon, and Benjamin.

Jos 21:5 The rest of the clan of Kohath was assigned ten cities from the territories of Ephraim, Dan, and West Manasseh.

Jos 21:6 The clan of Gershon was assigned thirteen cities from the territories of Issachar, Asher, Naphtali, and East Manasseh.

Jos 21:7 The families of the clan of Merari were assigned twelve cities from the territories of Reuben, Gad, and Zebulun.

Jos 21:8 By drawing lots, the people of Israel assigned these cities and their pasture lands to the Levites, as the LORD had commanded through Moses.

Jos 21:9 These are the names of the cities from the territories of Judah and Simeon which were given

Jos 21:10 to the descendants of Aaron who were of the clan of Kohath, which was descended from Levi. Their assignment was the first to be made.

Jos 21:11 They were given the city of Arba (Arba was Anak's father), now called Hebron, in the hill country of Judah, along with the pasture land surrounding it.

Jos 21:12 However, the fields of the city, as well as its towns, had already been given to Caleb son of Jephunneh as his possession.

Jos 21:13 In addition to Hebron (one of the cities of refuge), the following cities were assigned to the descendants of Aaron the priest: Libnah,

Jos 21:14 Jattir, Eshtemoa,

Jos 21:15 Holon, Debir,

Jos 21:16 Ain, Juttah, and Beth Shemesh, with their pasture lands: nine cities from the tribes of Judah and Simeon.

Jos 21:17 From the territory of Benjamin they were given four cities: Gibeon, Geba, Jos 21:18 Anathoth, and Almon, with their pasture lands.

Jos 21:19 Thirteen cities in all, with their pasture lands, were given to the priests, the descendants of Aaron.

Jos 21:20 The other families of the Levite clan of Kohath were assigned some cities from the territory of Ephraim.

Jos 21:21 They were given four cities: Shechem and its pasture lands in the hill country of Ephraim (one of the cities of refuge), Gezer, Jos 21:22 Kibzaim, and Beth Horon, with their pasture lands.

Jos 21:23 From the territory of Dan they were given four cities: Eltekeh, Gibbethon, Jos 21:24 Aijalon, and Gathrimmon, with their pasture lands.

Jos 21:25 From the territory of West Manasseh they were given two cities: Taanach and Gathrimmon, with their pasture lands.

Jos 21:26 These families of the clan of Kohath received ten cities in all, with their pasture lands.

Jos 21:27 Another group of Levites, the clan of Gershon, received from the territory of East Manasseh two cities: Golan in Bashan (one of the cities of refuge) and Beeshterah, with their pasture lands.

Jos 21:28 From the territory of Issachar they received four cities: Kishion, Daberath, Jos 21:29 Jarmuth, and Engannim, with their pasture lands.

Jos 21:30 From the territory of Asher they received four cities: Mishal, Abdon, Jos 21:31 Helkath, and Rehob, with their pasture lands.

Jos 21:32 From the territory of Naphtali they received three cities: Kedesh in Galilee, with its pasture lands (one of the cities of refuge), Hammoth Dor, and Kartan, with their pasture lands.

Jos 21:33 The various families of the clan of Gershon received a total of thirteen cities with their pasture lands.

Jos 21:34 The rest of the Levites, the clan of Merari, received from the territory of Zebulun four cities: Jokneam, Kartah, Jos 21:35 Dimnah, and Nahalal, with their pasture lands.

Jos 21:36 From the territory of Reuben they received four cities: Bezer, Jahaz, Jos 21:37 Kedemoth, and Mephaath, with their pasture lands.

Jos 21:38 From the tribe of Gad they received four cities: Ramoth in Gilead, with its pasture lands (one of the cities of refuge), Mahanaim, Jos 21:39 Heshbon, and Jazer, with their pasture lands.

Jos 21:40 So the clan of Merari was assigned a total of twelve cities.

Jos 21:41 (41-42) From the land that the people of Israel possessed, a total of forty-eight cities, with the pasture lands around them, was given to the Levites.

Jos 21:43 So the LORD gave to Israel all the land that he had solemnly promised their ancestors he would give them. When they had taken possession of it, they settled down there.

Jos 21:44 The LORD gave them peace throughout the land, just as he had promised their ancestors. Not one of all their enemies had been able to stand against them, because the LORD gave the Israelites the victory over all their enemies.

Jos 21:45 The LORD kept every one of the promises that he had made to the people of Israel.

JOSUA 21

1Die familiehoofde van die Leviete het na die priester Eleasar, na Josua seun van Nun en na die familiehoofde van die Israelitiese stamme toe gekom 2in Silo in Kanaän en vir hulle gesê: Die Here het deur Moses beveel dat ons stede moet kry om in te woon en weiveld vir ons vee. 3Die Israeliete het toe die bevel van die Here uitgevoer en uit hulle woongebiede vir die Leviete dorpe met weivelde gegee. 4Daar is vir die Kehatgroep geloot, en aan hierdie Leviete uit die geslag van die priester Aäron is dertien stede toegeken in die stamgebied van Juda, Simeon en Benjamin. 5Vir die res van die Kehatgroep is tien stede geloot in die gebied van die families in die stam Efraim, die stamgebied Dan en dié van die halwe Manassestam. 6Vir die Gersongroep is dertien stede geloot in die gebiede van die families in die stam Issaskar, die stamgebied van Aser en Naftali en dié van die halwe Manassestam in Basan. 7Vir die families in die Merarigroep was daar twaalf stede in die stamgebied van Ruben, Gad en Sebulon. 8Die Israeliete het die stede met weivelde aan die Leviete toegeken deur loting, soos die Here deur Moses beveel het. 9In die stamgebied van Juda en Simeon is die volgende stede wat by name aangedui is, toegeken 10aan die Leviete uit die nageslag van Aäron wat tot die Kehatgroep behoort het. Die eerste loting was vir hulle. 11Aan hulle is eerstens Kirjat-Arba toegeken, dit is Hebron in die Judaberge met sy weivelde rondom. Arba was die voorvader van die Enakiete. 12Die lande en die buiteposte van die stad is aan Kaleb seun van Jefunne as eiendom toegeken. 13Die nageslag van die priester Aäron het dus ontvang: die asielstad Hebron, en Libna, 14Jattir, Estemoa, 15Golon, Debir, 16Ajin, Jutta en Bet-Semes, elkeen met sy weiveld, nege stede van dié twee stamme, 17en van die stam Benjamin Gibeon, Geba, 18Anatot en Almon, die vier stede elkeen met sy weiveld. 19Die priesters uit die nageslag van Aäron het dus altesaam dertien stede met hulle weivelde gehad. 20Vir die Levitiese families in die res van die Kehatgroep is eerstens stede geloot in die stamgebied van Efraim. 21Aan hulle is toegeken: die asielstad Sigem in die Efraimsberge en Geser, 22Kibsajim en Bet-Goron, dié vier stede elkeen met sy weiveld; 23in die stamgebied van Dan: Elteke, Gibbeton, 24Ajalon en Gat-Rimmon, dié vier stede elkeen met sy weiveld; 25en in die gebied van die halwe Manassestam: Taänak en Gat-Rimmon, dié twee stede elkeen met sy weiveld. 26Die families in die res van die Kehatgroep het dus altesaam tien stede met hulle weivelde gehad. 27Aan die Levitiese families in die Gersongroep is in die gebied van die ander helfte van die Manassestam toegeken: die asielstad Golan in Basan, en Astarot, dié twee stede elkeen met sy weiveld; 28in die stamgebied van Issaskar: Kisjon, Daberat, 29Jarmut en En-Gannim, dié vier stede elkeen met sy weiveld; 30in die stamgebied van Aser: Misal, Abdon, 31Gelkat en Regob, dié vier stede elkeen met sy weiveld; 32en in die stamgebied van Naftali die asielstad Kedes in Galilea, en Gammot-Dor en Kartan, dié drie stede elkeen met sy weiveld. 33Die Gersonfamilies het dus altesaam dertien stede met weivelde gehad. 34Aan die Levitiese families wat oorgebly het, dié in die Merarigroep, is in die stamgebied van Sebulon toegeken: Jokneam, Karta, 35Dimna en Nahalal, dié vier stede elkeen met sy weiveld; 36in die stamgebied van Ruben: Beser, Jahas, 37Kedemot en Mefaät, dié vier stede elkeen met sy weiveld; 38en in die stamgebied van Gad die asielstad Ramot in Gilead, Maganajim, 39Gesbon, Jaser, dié vier stede elkeen met sy weiveld. 40Vir die oorblywende families, dié in die Merarigroep, is dus altesaam twaalf stede geloot. 41Die Leviete het altesaam ag en veertig stede met weivelde gehad in die woongebied van die Israeliete. 42Elke stad het weiveld rondom hom gehad. Dit was die geval met al dié stede. 43Die Here het aan Israel die hele land gegee wat Hy met 'n eed aan hulle voorvaders beloof het. Hulle het dit in besit geneem en daar gaan woon. 44Die Here het hulle na alle kante toe rus gegee soos Hy met 'n eed aan hulle voorvaders beloof het. Nie een van al hulle vyande kon teen hulle standhou nie. Die Here het al hulle vyande in hulle mag oorgegee. 45Nie een van al die goeie beloftes wat die Here aan Israel gemaak het, het onvervul gebly nie. Almal is nagekom.

Joshua 22

The Eastern Tribes Return Home

Jos 22:1 Then Joshua called together the people of the tribes of Reuben, Gad, and East Manasseh.

Jos 22:2 He said to them, "You have done everything that Moses the LORD's servant ordered you to do, and you have obeyed all my commands.

Jos 22:3 All this time you have never once deserted the other Israelites. You have been careful to obey the commands of the LORD your God.

Jos 22:4 Now, as he promised, the LORD your God has given the other Israelites peace. So go back home to the land which you claimed for your own, the land on the east side of the Jordan, that Moses, the LORD's servant, gave you.

Jos 22:5 Make sure you obey the law that Moses commanded you: love the LORD your God, do his will, obey his commandments, be faithful to him, and serve him with all your heart and soul."

Jos 22:6 (6-8) Joshua sent them home with his blessing and with these words: "You are going back home very rich, with a lot of livestock, silver, gold, bronze, iron, and many clothes. Share with your fellow tribesmen what you took from your enemies." Then they left for home. Moses had given land east of the Jordan to one half of the tribe of Manasseh, but to the other half Joshua had given land west of the Jordan, along with the other tribes.

Jos 22:9 So the people of the tribes of Reuben, Gad, and East Manasseh went back home. They left the rest of the people of Israel at Shiloh in the land of Canaan and started out for their own land, the land of Gilead, which they had taken as the LORD had commanded them through Moses.

The Eastern Tribes' Altar of Witness

Jos 22:10 When the tribes of Reuben, Gad, and East Manasseh arrived at Geliloth, still on the west side of the Jordan, they built a large, impressive altar there by the river.

Jos 22:11 The rest of the people of Israel were told, "Listen! The people of the tribes of Reuben, Gad, and East Manasseh have built an altar at Geliloth, on our side of the Jordan!"

Jos 22:12 When the people of Israel heard this, the whole community came together at Shiloh to go to war against the eastern tribes.

Jos 22:13 Then the people of Israel sent Phinehas, the son of Eleazar the priest, to the people of the tribes of Reuben, Gad, and East Manasseh in the land of Gilead.

Jos 22:14 Ten leading men went with Phinehas, one from each of the western tribes and each one the head of a family among the clans.

Jos 22:15 They came to the land of Gilead, to the people of Reuben, Gad, and East Manasseh, Jos 22:16 and speaking for the whole community of the LORD, they said to them, "Why have you done this evil thing against the God of Israel? You have rebelled against the LORD by building this altar for yourselves! You are no longer following him!

Jos 22:17 Remember our sin at Peor, when the LORD punished his own people with an epidemic? We are still suffering because of that. Wasn't that sin enough?

Jos 22:18 Are you going to refuse to follow him now? If you rebel against the LORD today, he will be angry with everyone in Israel tomorrow.

Jos 22:19 Now then, if your land is not fit to worship in, come over into the LORD's land, where his Tent is. Claim some land among us. But don't rebel against the LORD or make rebels out of us by building an altar in addition to the altar of the LORD our God.

Jos 22:20 Remember how Achan son of Zerah refused to obey the command about the things condemned to destruction; the whole community of Israel was punished for that. Achan was not the only one who died because of his sin."

Jos 22:21 The people of the tribes of Reuben, Gad, and East Manasseh answered the heads of the families of the western tribes:

Jos 22:22 "The Mighty One is God! He is the LORD! The Mighty One is God! He is the LORD! He knows why we did this, and we want you to know too! If we rebelled and did not keep faith with the LORD, do not let us live any longer!

Jos 22:23 If we disobeyed the LORD and built our own altar to burn sacrifices on or to use for grain offerings or fellowship offerings, let the LORD himself punish us.

Jos 22:24 No! We did it because we were afraid that in the future your descendants would say to ours, 'What do you have to do with the LORD, the God of Israel?

Jos 22:25 He made the Jordan a boundary between us and you people of Reuben and Gad. You have nothing to do with the LORD.' Then your descendants might make our descendants stop worshiping the LORD.

Jos 22:26 So we built an altar, not to burn sacrifices or make offerings,

Jos 22:27 but instead, as a sign for our people and yours, and for the generations after us, that we do indeed worship the LORD before his sacred Tent with our offerings to be burned and with sacrifices and fellowship offerings. This was to keep your descendants from saying that ours have nothing to do with the LORD.

Jos 22:28 It was our idea that, if this should ever happen, our descendants could say, 'Look! Our ancestors made an altar just like the LORD's altar. It was not for burning offerings or for sacrifice, but as a sign for our people and yours.'

Jos 22:29 We would certainly not rebel against the LORD or stop following him now by building an altar to burn offerings on or for grain offerings or sacrifices. We would not build any other altar than the altar of the LORD our God that stands in front of the Tent of his presence."

Jos 22:30 Phinehas the priest and the ten leading men of the community who were with him, the heads of families of the western tribes, heard what the people of the tribes of Reuben, Gad, and East Manasseh had to say, and they were satisfied.

Jos 22:31 Phinehas, the son of Eleazar the priest, said to them, "Now we know that the LORD is with us. You have not rebelled against him, and so you have saved the people of Israel from the LORD's punishment."

Jos 22:32 Then Phinehas and the leaders left the people of Reuben and Gad in the land of Gilead and went back to Canaan, to the people of Israel, and reported to them.

Jos 22:33 The Israelites were satisfied and praised God. They no longer talked about going to war to devastate the land where the people of Reuben and Gad had settled.

Jos 22:34 The people of Reuben and Gad said, "This altar is a witness to all of us that the LORD is God." And so they named it "Witness."

JOSUA 22

1Josua het daarna die stamme Ruben en Gad en die een helfte van die Manassestam geroep 2en vir hulle gesê: Julle het alles gedoen wat Moses die dienaar van die Here julle beveel het en julle was gehoorsaam aan alles wat ek julle beveel het. 3Julle het hierdie hele tyd tot vandag toe nie julle broers in die steek gelaat nie en julle het gedoen wat die Here julle God julle beveel het. 4Nou het Hy aan julle broers 'n woonplek gegee soos Hy hulle beloof het. Gaan nou terug na julle eie woonplekke toe, na julle eie gebied oorkant die Jordaan wat Moses die dienaar van die Here aan julle toegeken het. 5Sorg net dat julle die gebod en die wet wat Moses die dienaar van die Here julle opgelê het, getrou onderhou, naamlik om die Here julle God lief te hê en volgens sy wil te lewe, sy gebooie te onderhou, aan Hom getrou te bly en Hom met julle hele hart en siel te dien. 6Josua het hulle met 'n seënwens laat gaan, en hulle is na hulle woonplekke toe. 7Vir die een helfte van die Manassestam het Moses 'n gebied in Basan gegee, en vir die ander helfte het Josua wes van die Jordaan 'n gebied gegee saam met die ander stamme. Toe Josua die stamme na hulle woonplekke toe laat gaan met 'n seënwens, 8het hy vir hulle gesê: Gaan terug na julle woonplekke toe met groot rykdom, met groot troppe vee, met silwer, goud, koper en yster, met baie klere, maar deel die buit wat julle van julle vyande gevat het, met julle stamgenote. 9Die stamme Ruben en Gad en die halwe Manassestam is toe van die Israeliete in Silo in Kanaän af weg om na Gilead toe te gaan, na hulle eie gebied wat in besit geneem is op die bevel van die Here deur Moses. 10Toe hulle by Gelilot aan die Jordaan in Kanaän kom, bou hulle daar by die Jordaan 'n altaar, 'n groot indrukwekkende altaar. 11Die Israeliete het gehoor dat die stamme Ruben en Gad en die halwe Manassestam die altaar gebou het en dat dit teenaan Kanaän by Gelilot aan die Jordaan was, aan die Israeliete se kant. 12Toe het die hele Israelitiese volksvergadering in Silo bymekaargekom, gereed om oorlog te maak teen die twee stamme en die halwe stam. 13Die Israeliete het vir Pinehas seun van die priester Eleasar na die stamme Ruben en Gad en die halwe Manassestam in Gilead gestuur. 14Saam met Pinehas was daar tien volksleiers, een vir elke stam van Israel, elkeen 'n hoof van 'n Israelitiese familiegroep. 15Toe hulle by die stamme in Gilead kom, sê hulle vir die stamme: 16So sê die hele volksvergadering van die Here: Hoe kon julle dié daad van ontrou begaan teen die God van Israel? Julle het mos nou die Here verlaat toe julle die altaar gebou het! Julle is nou in verset teen Hom! 17Was ons sonde by Peor nie erg genoeg nie? Tot vandag toe is ons nie daarvan gereinig nie, ten spyte van die plaag wat die volk van die Here getref het. 18Vandag verlaat julle die

Here en kom julle in verset teen Hom, môre breek sy toorn los teen die hele Israel. 19As julle gebied onrein is, kom oor na die Here se eie gebied toe waar sy tabernakel staan, en vat vir julle 'n gebied tussen ons. Maar moenie in verset kom teen die Here en teen ons deur vir julle 'n altaar te bou bo en behalwe die altaar van die Here ons God nie. 20Akan seun van Serag was ontrou met wat aan die Here gewy was, en die toorn het teen die hele Israel losgebreek. Nie net hy het vir sy sonde gesterf nie. 21Die mense van Ruben, Gad en die halwe Manassestam het vir die hoofde van die Israelitiese familiegroep gesê: 22Die Here alleen is God, die Here alleen is God! Hy weet, en Israel moet weet: as dit in verset en ontrou teen die Here was, dan moet julle ons vandag nie spaar nie. 23Of ons vir ons 'n altaar gebou het om die Here te verlaat en daarop brandoffers, graanoffers en maaltydoffers te bring, dit sal die Here self vasstel. 24Nee, dit was uit kommer dat ons dit gedoen het. Ons het gedink môre-oormôre sê julle nageslag dalk vir ons s'n: Wat het julle te doen met die Here die God van Israel? 25Die Here het 'n grens gestel tussen ons en julle, die Jordaan. Julle het nie 'n deel in die Here nie!' So sou julle nageslag ons s'n kon verhinder om die Here te dien. 26Ons het toe gedink ons moet vir ons die altaar bou, nie vir brandoffers of ander diereoffers nie, 27maar as 'n getuie tussen ons en julle en tussen ons nageslagte, dat ons die diens aan die Here by sy heiligdom sal uitvoer met ons brandoffers, ons ander diereoffers en ons maaltydoffers, en dat julle nageslag nie later vir ons s'n sal sê: Julle het nie 'n deel in die Here nie.' 28Ons het gedink as hulle dit later vir ons of ons nageslag sou sê, sou ons nageslag kon sê: Kyk die model van die Here se altaar. Ons voorvaders het dit gemaak, nie vir brandoffers of ander diereoffers nie, maar as 'n getuie tussen ons en julle.' 29Ons dink glad nie daaraan om teen die Here in verset te kom en Hom te verlaat deur 'n altaar te bou vir brandoffers, graanoffers en ander diereoffers bo en behalwe die altaar van die Here ons God voor sy tabernakel nie. 30Toe die priester Pinehas en die leiers van die volksvergadering en die Israelitiese familiehoofde wat by hom was, hoor wat die mense uit Ruben, Gad en Manasse sê, was hulle tevrede. 31Pinehas seun van die priester Eleasar het vir die mense van Ruben, Gad en Manasse gesê: Ons weet nou die Here is by ons; julle was nie ontrou aan die Here nie; julle het Israel aan die straf van die Here laat ontkom. 32Pinehas seun van die priester Eleasar en die volksleiers is toe terug van die mense van Ruben en Gad af uit Gilead na Kanaän, na die Israeliete toe en het verslag gedoen. 33Die Israeliete was tevrede en het God geprys. Hulle het afgesien van die plan om die mense van Ruben en Gad te gaan aanval en die gebied waar hulle woon, te verwoes. 34Die mense van Ruben en Gad het die altaar 'n naam gegee, en gesê: Hy is die getuie tussen ons dat die Here God is.

Joshua 23

Joshua's Charge to Israel's Leaders

Jos 23:1 Much later the LORD gave Israel security from their enemies around them. By that time Joshua was very old, Jos 23:2 so he called all Israel, the elders, leaders, judges, and officers of the people, and said, "I am very old now.

Jos 23:3 You have seen everything that the LORD your God has done to all these nations because of you. The LORD your God has been fighting for you.

Jos 23:4 I have assigned as the possession of your tribes the land of the nations that are still left, as well as of all the nations that I have already conquered, from the Jordan River in the east to the Mediterranean Sea in the west.

Jos 23:5 The LORD your God will make them retreat from you, and he will drive them away as you advance. You shall have their land, as the LORD your God has promised you.

Jos 23:6 So be careful to obey and do everything that is written in the book of the Law of Moses. Do not neglect any part of it,

Jos 23:7 and then you will not associate with these peoples left among you or speak the names of their gods or use those names in taking vows or worship those gods or bow down to them.

Jos 23:8 Instead, be faithful to the LORD, as you have been till now.

Jos 23:9 The LORD has driven great and powerful nations out as you advanced, and no one has ever been able to stand against you.

Jos 23:10 Any one of you can make a thousand men run away, because the LORD your God is fighting for you, just as he promised.

Jos 23:11 Be careful, then, to love the LORD your God.

Jos 23:12 If you are disloyal and join with the nations that are still left among you and intermarry with them,

Jos 23:13 you may be sure that the LORD your God will no longer drive these nations out as you advance. Rather, they will be as dangerous for you as a trap or a pit and as painful as a whip on your back or thorns in your eyes. And this will last until none of you are left in this good land which the LORD your God has given you.

Jos 23:14 "Now my time has come to die. Every one of you knows in his heart and soul that the LORD your God has given you all the good things that he promised. Every promise he made has been kept; not one has failed.

Jos 23:15 But just as he kept every promise that he made to you, so he will carry out every threat.

Jos 23:16 If you do not keep the covenant which the LORD your God commanded you to keep and if you serve and worship other gods, then in his anger he will punish you, and soon none of you will be left in this good land that he has given you."

JOSUA 23

[1]Dit was al lank dat die Here na alle kante toe aan Israel rus gegee het van sy vyande, en Josua was al baie oud. [2]Josua het die hele Israel geroep, die leiers, die hoofde, die regters, die ampsdraers, en vir hulle gesê: Ek is al baie oud. [3]Julle het gesien wat die Here julle God alles aan hierdie nasies gedoen het ter wille van julle. Dit is Hy, die Here julle God, wat die oorlog vir julle gevoer het. [4]Ek het saam met die gebiede van al die nasies wat ek uitgeroei het, ook dié van die nasies wat nog oorbly, as eiendom aan julle stamme toegeken: van die Jordaan af tot by die Groot See in die weste. [5]Die Here julle God sal hulle wegstoot voor julle en hulle voor julle uit verdrywe sodat julle hulle land in besit kan neem soos die Here julle God julle beloof het. [6]Maar julle moet sterk staan in die uitvoering van alles wat geskryf staan in die wetboek van Moses. Moet daarvan nie links of regs afwyk nie, [7]dat julle nie by hierdie nasies kom wat nog tussen julle woon, en die naam van hulle gode aanroep en in hulle naam 'n eed aflê en hulle dien en voor hulle buig nie. [8]Julle moet aan die Here julle God getrou bly, soos julle tot nou toe gedoen het. [9]Die Here het groot en sterk nasies voor julle uit verdryf. Niemand kon tot nou toe voor julle standhou nie. [10]Een van julle jaag 'n duisend op loop, want dit is die Here julle God wat die oorlog vir julle voer soos Hy julle beloof het. [11]Lê julle dus daarop toe om die Here julle God lief te hê. [12]As julle egter 'n ander pad loop en julle verbind aan die mense wat oor is van hierdie nasies wat nog tussen julle woon, en julle ondertrou met hulle en julle kom by hulle, en hulle by julle, [13]weet dan seker dat die Here julle God hierdie nasies nie verder sal verdryf voor julle uit nie. Hulle sal vir julle strikke en wippe word, swepe op julle rûe en skerp dorings in julle oë, en uiteindelik sal julle verdwyn uit hierdie goeie land wat die Here julle God aan julle gegee het. [14]Self gaan ek nou die pad van almal op aarde. Julle weet met julle hele hart en siel dat nie een van al die goeie beloftes wat die Here julle God oor julle gemaak het, onvervul gebly het nie. Almal het uitgekom. Nie een belofte het onvervul gebly nie. [15]Maar net soos elke goeie belofte wat die Here julle God oor julle gemaak het, nagekom is, so sal Hy elke ramp oor julle bring wat Hy aangekondig het, totdat Hy julle uitgeroei het uit hierdie goeie land wat Hy julle gegee het. [16]As julle die verbondsverpligtings wat die Here julle God julle opgelê het, nie hou nie en julle dien ander gode en buig voor hulle, sal die toorn van die Here teen julle ontvlam en sal julle gou verdwyn uit die goeie land wat Hy julle gegee het.

Joshua 24

The Covenant Renewal at Shechem

Jos 24:1 Joshua gathered all the tribes of Israel together at Shechem. He called the elders, the leaders, the judges, and the officers of Israel, and they came into the presence of God.

Jos 24:2 Joshua said to all the people, "This is what the LORD, the God of Israel, has to say: 'Long ago your ancestors lived on the other side of the Euphrates River and worshiped other gods. One of those ancestors was Terah, the father of Abraham and Nahor.

Jos 24:3 Then I took Abraham, your ancestor, from the land across the Euphrates and led him through the whole land of Canaan. I gave him many descendants. I gave him Isaac, Jos 24:4 and to Isaac I gave Jacob and Esau. I gave Esau the hill country of Edom as his possession, but your ancestor Jacob and his children went down to Egypt.

Jos 24:5 Later I sent Moses and Aaron, and I brought great trouble on Egypt. But I led you out;

Jos 24:6 I brought your ancestors out of Egypt, and the Egyptians pursued them with chariots and cavalry. But when your ancestors got to the Red Sea

Jos 24:7 they cried out to me for help, and I put darkness between them and the Egyptians. I made the sea come rolling over the Egyptians and drown them. You know what I did to Egypt. " 'You lived in the desert a long time.

Jos 24:8 Then I brought you to the land of the Amorites, who lived on the east side of the Jordan. They fought you, but I gave you victory over them. You took their land, and I destroyed them as you advanced.

Jos 24:9 Then the king of Moab, Balak son of Zippor, fought against you. He sent word to Balaam son of Beor and asked him to put a curse on you.

Jos 24:10 But I would not listen to Balaam, so he blessed you, and in this way I rescued you from Balak.

Jos 24:11 You crossed the Jordan and came to Jericho. The men of Jericho fought you, as did the Amorites, the Perizzites, the Canaanites, the Hittites, the Girgashites, the Hivites, and the Jebusites. But I gave you victory over them all.

Jos 24:12 As you advanced, I threw them into panic in order to drive out the two Amorite kings. Your swords and bows had nothing to do with it.

Jos 24:13 I gave you a land that you had never worked and cities that you had not built. Now you are living there and eating grapes from vines that you did not plant, and olives from trees that you did not plant.'

Choose Whom You Will Serve

Jos 24:14 "Now then," Joshua continued, "honor the LORD and serve him sincerely and faithfully. Get rid of the gods which your ancestors used to worship in Mesopotamia and in Egypt, and serve only the LORD.

Jos 24:15 If you are not willing to serve him, decide today whom you will serve, the gods your ancestors worshiped in Mesopotamia or the gods of the Amorites, in whose land you are now living. As for my family and me, we will serve the LORD."

Jos 24:16 The people replied, "We would never leave the LORD to serve other gods!

Jos 24:17 The LORD our God brought our fathers and us out of slavery in Egypt, and we saw the miracles that he performed. He kept us safe wherever we went among all the nations through which we passed.

Jos 24:18 As we advanced into this land, the LORD drove out all the Amorites who lived here. So we also will serve the LORD; he is our God."

Jos 24:19 Joshua said to the people, "But you may not be able to serve the LORD. He is a holy God and will not forgive your sins. He will tolerate no rivals, Jos 24:20 and if you leave him to serve foreign gods, he will turn against you and punish you. He will destroy you, even though he was good to you before."

Jos 24:21 The people said to Joshua, "No! We will serve the LORD."

Jos 24:22 Joshua told them, "You are your own witnesses to the fact that you have chosen to serve the LORD." "Yes," they said, "we are witnesses."

Jos 24:23 "Then get rid of those foreign gods that you have," he demanded, "and pledge your loyalty to the LORD, the God of Israel."

Jos 24:24 The people then said to Joshua, "We will serve the LORD our God. We will obey his commands."

Jos 24:25 So Joshua made a covenant for the people that day, and there at Shechem he gave them laws and rules to follow.

Jos 24:26 Joshua wrote these commands in the book of the Law of God. Then he took a large stone and set it up under the oak tree in the LORD's sanctuary.

Jos 24:27 He said to all the people, "This stone will be our witness. It has heard all the words that the LORD has spoken to us. So it will be a witness against you, to keep you from rebelling against your God."

Jos 24:28 Then Joshua sent the people away, and everyone returned to their own part of the land.

Joshua's Death and Burial

Jos 24:29 After that, the LORD's servant Joshua son of Nun died at the age of a hundred and ten.

Jos 24:30 They buried him on his own land at Timnath Serah in the hill country of Ephraim north of Mount Gaash.

Jos 24:31 As long as Joshua lived, the people of Israel served the LORD, and after his death they continued to do so as long as those leaders were alive who had seen for themselves everything that the LORD had done for Israel.

Jos 24:32 The body of Joseph, which the people of Israel had brought from Egypt, was buried at Shechem, in the piece of land that Jacob had bought from the sons of Hamor, the father of Shechem, for a hundred pieces of silver. This land was inherited by Joseph's descendants.

Jos 24:33 Eleazar son of Aaron died and was buried at Gibeah, the town in the hill country of Ephraim which had been given to his son Phinehas.

JOSUA 24

[1]Josua het al die stamme van Israel bymekaargebring in Sigem. Hy het die leiers van Israel, die hoofde, die regters en die ampsdraers geroep, en hulle het hulle plekke kom inneem in die teenwoordigheid van God. [2]Toe sê Josua vir die hele volk: So sê die Here die God van Israel: Lank gelede het julle voorvaders onder hulle was Tera, vader van Abraham en Nahor anderkant die Eufraat gewoon en hulle het ander gode gedien. [3]Ek het julle voorvader Abraham anderkant die Eufraat geneem en hom die hele Kanaän laat deurgaan. Ek het hom baie nakomelinge gegee. Aan hom het Ek vir Isak gegee, [4]aan Isak vir Jakob en Esau. Aan Esau het Ek die Seïrberge gegee om in besit te neem, maar Jakob en sy nageslag is af na Egipte toe. [5]Ek het vir Moses en Aäron gestuur en Ek het Egipte met rampe getref soos Ek dit goedgevind het. Daarna het Ek julle uitgebring: [6]Ek het julle voorvaders uit Egipte gebring, en toe hulle by die Rietsee kom, het die Egiptenaars hulle agtervolg met strydwaens en ruiters. [7]Julle voorvaders het na My geroep om hulp, en Ek het dit donker laat word tussen julle en die Egiptenaars en die see oor die Egiptenaars laat kom sodat dit hulle bedek het. Julle eie oë het gesien wat Ek aan die Egiptenaars gedoen het. Daarna het julle lank in die woestyn gebly. [8]Toe het Ek julle gebring na die land van die Amoriete wat oos van die Jordaan gewoon het. Hulle het teen julle oorlog gemaak, maar Ek het hulle in julle mag oorgegee sodat julle hulle land in besit kon neem. Ek het hulle uitgeroei om vir julle plek te maak. [9]Toe Balak seun van Sippor en koning van Moab teen Israel oorlog wou maak, het hy vir Bileam seun van Beor laat roep om 'n vloek oor julle uit te spreek. [10]Maar Ek het nie na Bileam geluister nie, en hy moes julle teen wil en dank seën. So het Ek julle gered uit die hande van Balak. [11]Julle het deur die Jordaan getrek en by Jerigo gekom. Die mense wat in besit was van Jerigo, die Amoriete, Feresiete, Kanaäniete, Hetiete, Girgasiete, Hewiete en Jebusiete, het teen julle oorlog gemaak, maar Ek het hulle in julle mag oorgegee. [12]Ek het al vantevore die twee Amoritiese konings laat moed verloor, en dít het hulle voor julle uit verdryf, nie julle swaarde en julle pyl en boë nie. [13]Ek het julle 'n land gegee wat julle nie bewerk het nie, stede wat julle nie gebou het nie, maar waar julle kon gaan woon; julle eet van wingerde en olyfboorde wat julle nie geplant het nie. [14]Betoon dan nou eerbied aan die Here en dien Hom met opregtheid en met trou. Sien af van die gode wat julle voorvaders anderkant die Eufraat en in Egipte gedien het, en dien die Here. [15]Of, as julle dit nie goedvind om die Here te dien nie, kies dan vandag wie julle wil dien: die gode wat julle voorvaders gedien het anderkant die Eufraat, of die gode van die

Amoriete in wie se land julle woon. Wat my en my familie betref, ons sal die Here dien. 16Die volk het geantwoord: Ons dink glad nie daaraan om die Here te verlaat en ander gode te dien nie. 17Dit is die Here ons God wat ons en ons voorvaders uit Egipte, die plek van slawerny, gebring het. Hy het daardie groot wonders voor ons oë gedoen en Hy het ons beskerm op die hele pad wat ons gekom het en teen al die volke deur wie se gebiede ons getrek het. 18Die Here het al die volke voor ons uit verdryf, die Amoriete wat in die land gewoon het. Ook ons sal die Here dien. Hy is ons God. 19Maar Josua het vir die volk gesê: Julle kan nie die Here dien nie. Hy is 'n heilige God, Hy is 'n God wat onverdeelde trou eis en julle opstandigheid en sonde nie sal vergewe nie. 20As julle die Here verlaat en julle dien vreemde gode, sal Hy wat aan julle goed gedoen het, teen julle draai en rampe oor julle bring en 'n end aan julle maak. 21Die volk het vir Josua gesê: Nee, ons sal die Here dien! 22Toe sê Josua vir die volk: Julle is self getuies daarvan dat julle gekies het om die Here te dien, en hulle antwoord: Ons is. 23Toe sê Josua: Verwyder dan die vreemde gode tussen julle uit en wy julle heeltemal aan die Here die God van Israel. 24En die volk sê vir Josua: Ons sal die Here ons God dien, ons sal na Hom luister. 25Josua het daardie dag vir die volk 'n verbond gesluit en vir hulle daar in Sigem voorskrifte en bepalings vasgelê. 26Hy het dié dinge in die wetboek van God opgeskryf, 'n groot klip gevat en dit daar onder 'n groot boom by die heiligdom van die Here regop gesit. 27Hy het vir die hele volk gesê: Sien julle dié klip? Hy sal die getuie teen ons wees. Hy het alles gehoor wat die Here vir ons gesê het. Hy sal die getuie teen julle wees dat julle nie julle God bedrieg nie. 28Daarna het Josua die volk laat gaan, elkeen na sy grond toe. 29Na hierdie gebeure het Josua seun van Nun, dienaar van die Here, gesterf. Hy was honderd en tien jaar. 30Hy is begrawe in die gebied wat aan hom gegee was as besitting, in Timnat-Serag in die Efraimsberge, noord van Gaäsberg. 31Israel het die Here bly dien tydens die lewe van Josua en tydens die lewe van die leiers wat vir Josua oorleef het en alles ervaar het wat die Here vir Israel gedoen het. 32Die liggaam van Josef wat deur die Israeliete uit Egipte gebring is, is in Sigem begrawe, in die stuk grond wat Jakob by die nageslag van Gamor, vader van Sigem, gekoop het vir honderd stukke silwer. Die grond het die eiendom van die nakomelinge van Josef geword. 33Ook Eleasar seun van Aäron is oorlede. Hy is begrawe in Gibea, 'n plek in die Efraimsberge wat aan sy seun Pinehas toegeken was.

Judges 1

The Continuing Conquest of Canaan

Jdg 1:1 After Joshua's death the people of Israel asked the LORD, "Which of our tribes should be the first to go and attack the Canaanites?"

Jdg 1:2 The LORD answered, "The tribe of Judah will go first. I am giving them control of the land."

Jdg 1:3 The people of Judah said to the people of Simeon, "Go with us into the territory assigned to us, and we will fight the Canaanites together. Then we will go with you into the territory assigned to you." So the tribes of Simeon Jdg 1:4 and Judah went into battle together. The LORD gave them victory over the Canaanites and the Perizzites, and they defeated ten thousand men at Bezek.

Jdg 1:5 They found Adonibezek there and fought him.

Jdg 1:6 He ran away, but they chased him, caught him, and cut off his thumbs and big toes.

Jdg 1:7 Adonibezek said, "Seventy kings with their thumbs and big toes cut off have picked up scraps under my table. God has now done to me what I did to them." He was taken to Jerusalem, where he died.

Jdg 1:8 The people of Judah attacked Jerusalem and captured it. They killed its people and set fire to the city.

Jdg 1:9 After this they went on to fight the Canaanites who lived in the hill country, in the foothills, and in the dry country to the south.

Jdg 1:10 They marched against the Canaanites living in the city of Hebron, which used to be called Kiriath Arba. There they defeated the clans of Sheshai, Ahiman, and Talmai.

Jdg 1:11 From there the men of Judah marched against the city of Debir, at that time called Kiriath Sepher.

Jdg 1:12 One of them, called Caleb, said, "I will give my daughter Achsah in marriage to the man who succeeds in capturing Kiriath Sepher."

Jdg 1:13 Othniel, the son of Caleb's younger brother Kenaz, captured the city, so Caleb gave him his daughter Achsah in marriage.

Jdg 1:14 On the wedding day Othniel urged her to ask her father for a field. She got down from her donkey, and Caleb asked her what she wanted.

Jdg 1:15 She answered, "I want some water holes. The land you have given me is in the dry country." So Caleb gave her the upper and lower springs.

Jdg 1:16 The descendants of Moses' father-in-law, the Kenite, went on with the people of Judah from Jericho, the city of palm trees, into the barren country south of Arad in Judah. There they settled among the Amalekites.

Jdg 1:17 The people of Judah went with the people of Simeon, and together they defeated the Canaanites who lived in the city of Zephath. They put a curse on the city, destroyed it, and named it Hormah.

Jdg 1:18 (18-19) The LORD helped the people of Judah, and they took possession of the hill country. But they did not capture Gaza, Ashkelon, or Ekron, with their surrounding territories. These people living along the coast had iron chariots, and so the people of Judah were not able to drive them out.

Jdg 1:20 As Moses had commanded, Hebron was given to Caleb, who drove out of the city the three clans descended from Anak.

Jdg 1:21 But the people of the tribe of Benjamin did not drive out the Jebusites living in Jerusalem, and the Jebusites have continued to live there with the people of Benjamin ever since.

Jdg 1:22 (22-23) The tribes of Ephraim and Manasseh went to attack the city of Bethel, at that time called Luz. The LORD helped them. They sent spies to the city,

Jdg 1:24 who saw a man leaving and said to him, "Show us how to get into the city, and we won't hurt you."

Jdg 1:25 So he showed them, and the people of Ephraim and Manasseh killed everyone in the city, except this man and his family.

Jdg 1:26 He later went to the land of the Hittites, built a city there, and named it Luz, which is still its name.

Failure to Complete the Conquest

Jdg 1:27 The tribe of Manasseh did not drive out the people living in the cities of Beth Shan, Taanach, Dor, Ibleam, Megiddo, and the nearby towns; the Canaanites continued to live there.

Jdg 1:28 When the Israelites became stronger, they forced the Canaanites to work for them, but still they did not drive them all out.

Jdg 1:29 The tribe of Ephraim did not drive out the Canaanites living in the city of Gezer, and so the Canaanites continued to live there with them.

Jdg 1:30 The tribe of Zebulun did not drive out the people living in the cities of Kitron and Nahalal, and so the Canaanites continued to live there with them and were forced to work for them.

Jdg 1:31 The tribe of Asher did not drive out the people living in the cities of Acco, Sidon, Ahlab, Achzib, Helbah, Aphek, and Rehob.

Jdg 1:32 The people of Asher lived with the local Canaanites, since they had not been driven out.

Jdg 1:33 The tribe of Naphtali did not drive out the people living in the cities of Beth Shemesh and Bethanath. The people of Naphtali lived with the local Canaanites, but forced them to work for them.

Jdg 1:34 The Amorites forced the people of the tribe of Dan into the hill country and did not let them come down to the plain.

Jdg 1:35 The Amorites continued to live at Aijalon, Shaalbim, and Mount Heres, but the tribes of Ephraim and Manasseh kept them under their rule and forced them to work for them.

Jdg 1:36 North of Sela, the Edomite border ran through Akrabbim Pass.

RIGTERS 1

[1]Na die dood van Josua het die Israeliete die Here geraadpleeg. Hulle het gevra: Wie van ons moet eerste teen die Kanaäniete gaan veg? [2]Die Here het geantwoord: Juda moet gaan. Ek gee die land oor in sy mag. [3]Toe sê Juda vir sy broer Simeon: Kom saam met my na die gebied toe wat aan my toegesê is, dan veg ons saam teen die Kanaäniete. Ek sal dan weer saam met jou gaan na jou gebied toe. Simeon is toe saam met hom. [4]Juda het toe gaan veg, en die Here het die Kanaäniete en die Feresiete in Juda se mag oorgegee en hy het in Besek tien duisend man verslaan. [5]Daar het hy op Adoni-Besek afgekom en teen hom geveg en die Kanaäniete en die Feresiete verslaan. [6]Adoni-Besek het gevlug, maar Juda het hom agternagesit en hom gevang. Hulle het sy duime en groottone afgesny. [7]Toe sê Adoni-Besek: God het my nou die straf gegee wat ek verdien, want ek het sewentig konings se duime en groottone laat afsny, en hulle moes kos soek onder my tafel. Juda het vir Adoni-Besek na Jerusalem toe gevat, en hy is daar dood. [8]Juda het teen Jerusalem geveg en dit ingeneem. Hulle het sy inwoners doodgemaak en die stad aan die brand gesteek. [9]Daarna het Juda gaan veg teen die Kanaäniete wat gewoon het op die Bergland, in die Suidland en in die Laeveld. [10]Toe het Juda teen die Kanaäniete van Hebron gaan veg en vir Sesai, Agiman en Talmai verslaan. Hebron was vroeër bekend as Kirjat-Arba. [11]Van hier af het Juda teen die mense van Debir gaan veg. Debir was vroeër bekend as Kirjat-Sefer. [12]By daardie geleentheid het Kaleb beloof: Ek sal my dogter Aksa as vrou gee aan die man wat vir Kirjat-Sefer aanval en inneem. [13]Otniël seun van Kenas, 'n jonger broer van Kaleb, het dit ingeneem, en Kaleb het sy dogter Aksa vir hom as vrou gegee. [14]Toe sy by hom kom, het hy haar aangepor om vir haar pa landbougrond te vra. Sy het van haar donkie afgeklim en Kaleb het vir haar gevra: Wat wil jy vir my vra? [15]Toe sê sy vir hom: Gee my 'n stuk vrugbare grond. U het my die droë Suidland gegee. Gee my nou ook standhoudende water. Kaleb het toe vir haar fonteine in die hooggeleë deel en fonteine in die laaggeleë deel gegee. [16]Die Keniete, afstammelinge van Moses se skoonpa, het saam met Juda uit die Palmstad getrek na die Judawoestyn toe. Dit was geleë in die Suidland by Arad. Hulle het by die volk daar gaan woon. [17]Juda het met sy broer Simeon saamgespan en die Kanaäniete verslaan wat in Sefat woon. Hulle het die stad in puin gelê en dit Gorma genoem. [18]Die Here was by Juda, en hulle het die Bergland in besit geneem. Maar Juda kon nie die inwoners van die Vlakte verslaan en hulle stede verower nie, want hulle het ysterstrydwaens gehad. Hulle stede was Gasa, Askelon en Ekron, elkeen met sy grondgebied. [19]Soos Moses beveel het, is Hebron aan Kaleb gegee, en hy het die drie nasate van Enak uit Hebron verdryf. 20Die Jebusiete het in Jerusalem gewoon, en die Benjaminiete het hulle nie verslaan nie. Hulle woon nou nog saam met die Benjaminiete in Jerusalem. 21Die Josefstam het na Bet-El toe opgeruk en die Here was by hulle. 22Hulle het verkenners na Bet-El toe gestuur. Bet-El was vroeër bekend as Lus. 23Die verkenners het 'n man uit die stad sien kom en vir hom gevra: Wys ons tog hoe om in die stad te kom. Ons sal jou goed behandel. 24Hy het vir hulle gewys hoe om in die stad te kom. Die Josefstam het toe die stad verower en sy mense doodgemaak maar hierdie man en sy hele familie gespaar. 25Hy is toe na die Hetiete toe en daar het hy vir hom 'n stad gebou en dit Lus genoem. Dit is nou nog die stad se naam. 26Manasse kon nie die stede Bet-San en Taänak en hulle buitedorpe verslaan nie, ook nie die inwoners van die stede Dor, Jibleam en Megiddo en hulle buitedorpe nie. Die Kanaäniete was sterk genoeg om in daardie stede te bly woon. 27Toe die Israeliete sterker geword het, het hulle die Kanaäniete dwangarbeid laat doen maar nie die stede ingeneem nie. 28Ook Efraim het nie die Kanaäniete wat in Geser gewoon het, verslaan nie. Hulle het in Geser by Efraim bly woon. 29Sebulon het nie die inwoners van Kitron en Nahalal verslaan nie. Die Kanaäniete het by Sebulon bly woon en moes dwangarbeid doen. 30Aser het nie die inwoners van Akko, Sidon, Aglab, Aksib, Gelba, Afek en Regob verslaan nie. 31Die mense van Aser het tussen die Kanaäniete wat daar gebly het, gaan woon, want Aser het hulle nie verslaan nie. 32Naftali het nie die inwoners van Bet-Semes en Bet-Anat verslaan nie. Hy het tussen die Kanaäniete wat daar gebly het, gaan woon, maar die inwoners van Bet-Semes en Bet-Anat moes dwangarbeid doen vir Naftali. 33Die Amoriete het vir Dan berg-in gedryf en hom nie in die laagte laat kom nie. 34Die Amoriete was sterk genoeg om in Har-Geres, Ajalon en Saälbim te bly woon. Maar toe die Josefstam sterker geword het, moes die Amoriete dwangarbeid doen. 35Die grens van die Amoriete het by Skerpioenpas by die klip begin en het daarvandaan verder geloop.

Judges 2

Israel's Disobedience

Jdg 2:1 The angel of the LORD went from Gilgal to Bochim and said to the Israelites, "I took you out of Egypt and brought you to the land that I promised to your ancestors. I said, 'I will never break my covenant with you.

Jdg 2:2 You must not make any covenant with the people who live in this land. You must tear down their altars.' But you have not done what I told you. You have done just the opposite!

Jdg 2:3 So I tell you now that I will not drive these people out as you advance. They will be your enemies, and you will be trapped by the worship of their gods."

Jdg 2:4 When the angel had said this, all the people of Israel began to cry, Jdg 2:5 and that is why the place is called Bochim. There they offered sacrifices to the LORD.

The Death of Joshua

Jdg 2:6 Joshua sent the people of Israel on their way, and each man went to take possession of his own share of the land.

Jdg 2:7 As long as Joshua lived, the people of Israel served the LORD, and even after his death they continued to do so as long as the leaders were alive who had seen for themselves all the great things that the LORD had done for Israel.

Jdg 2:8 The LORD's servant Joshua son of Nun died at the age of a hundred and ten.

Jdg 2:9 He was buried in his own part of the land at Timnath Serah in the hill country of Ephraim north of Mount Gaash.

Jdg 2:10 That whole generation also died, and the next generation forgot the LORD and what he had done for Israel.

Israel's Unfaithfulness

Jdg 2:11 Then the people of Israel sinned against the LORD and began to serve the Baals.

Jdg 2:12 They stopped worshiping the LORD, the God of their ancestors, the God who had brought them out of Egypt, and they began to worship other gods, the gods of the peoples around them. They bowed down to them and made the LORD angry.

Jdg 2:13 They stopped worshiping the LORD and served the Baals and the Astartes.

Jdg 2:14 And so the LORD became furious with Israel and let raiders attack and rob them. He let the enemies all around overpower them, and the Israelites could no longer protect themselves.

Jdg 2:15 Every time they would go into battle, the LORD was against them, just as he had said he would be. They were in great distress.

The Lord Raises Up Judges

Jdg 2:16 Then the LORD gave the Israelites leaders who saved them from the raiders.

Jdg 2:17 But the Israelites paid no attention to their leaders. Israel was unfaithful to the LORD and worshiped other gods. Their fathers had obeyed the LORD's commands, but this new generation soon stopped doing so.

Jdg 2:18 Whenever the LORD gave Israel a leader, the LORD would help that leader and would save the people from their enemies as long as that leader lived. The LORD would have mercy on them because they groaned under their suffering and oppression.

Jdg 2:19 But when the leader died, the people would return to the old ways and behave worse than the previous generation. They would serve and worship other gods, and stubbornly continue their own evil ways.

Jdg 2:20 Then the LORD would become furious with Israel and say, "This nation has broken the covenant that I commanded their ancestors to keep. Because they have not obeyed me, Jdg 2:21 I will no longer drive out any of the nations that were still in the land when Joshua died.

Jdg 2:22 I will use them to find out whether or not these Israelites will follow my ways, as their ancestors did."

Jdg 2:23 So the LORD allowed these nations to remain in the land; he did not give Joshua victory over them, nor did he drive them out soon after Joshua's death.

RIGTERS 2

1Die Engel van die Here het van Gilgal af na Bokim toe gegaan. Hy het gesê: Ek het julle uit Egipte laat trek en julle gebring in die land wat Ek met 'n eed aan julle voorvaders beloof het. Ek het vir hulle gesê: Ek sal my verbond met julle nooit verbreek nie, 2maar julle mag nie 'n verdrag sluit met die inwoners van hierdie land nie. Julle moet hulle altare afbreek.' Maar julle het My nie gehoorsaam nie. Waarom het julle dit gedoen? 3Daarom sê Ek vir julle: Ek sal nie hierdie nasies van julle af wegdryf nie. Hulle sal vir julle 'n strik word, en hulle gode sal vir julle 'n valstrik word. 4Toe die Engel van die Here dit alles vir die Israeliete gesê het, het die hele volk hard gehuil. 5Daarom het hulle die plek Bokim genoem. Hulle het daar 'n offer aan die Here gebring. 6Nadat Josua die volk laat gaan het, het hulle die land gaan verower en daarna het elkeen na sy grond toe gegaan. 7So lank as Josua geleef het, het die volk die Here gedien. Dit was ook nog so terwyl die leiers geleef het wat vir Josua oorleef het. Hulle het nog al die groot dade beleef wat die Here gedoen het om vir Israel te help. 8Josua, seun van Nun en dienaar van die Here, het honderd en tien jaar oud geword. Hy het gesterf, 9en hy is begrawe op sy grond in Timnat-Geres op die Efraimsberge noord van Gaäsberg. 10Al die mense van sy leeftyd het gesterf, en die volgende geslag se mense het nie die Here geken nie. Hulle het ook nie geweet van sy groot dade wat Hy gedoen het om vir Israel te help nie. 11Die Israeliete het toe gedoen wat verkeerd is in die oë van die Here: hulle het die Baäls gedien. 12Hulle het opgehou om die Here die God van hulle voorvaders, wat hulle uit Egipte laat trek het, te dien. Hulle het ander gode begin dien, van die gode van die nasies in die omgewing. Die Israeliete het hierdie gode aanbid en die Here getart. 13Hulle het opgehou om die Here te dien en hulle het die Baäls en die Astartes gedien. 14Toe het die Here kwaad geword vir Israel en hulle oorgegee in die mag van roofbendes deur wie Israel beroof is. Die Here het hulle ook uitgelewer aan die vyande in die omgewing. Die Israeliete kon nie meer teen hulle vyande standhou nie. 15In watter rigting die Israeliete ook al gaan veg het, die Here het hulle teëgestaan. Dit is wat Hy voorheen vir hulle met 'n eed bevestig het. Die Israeliete het baie swaar gekry. 16Maar die Here het leiers na vore laat kom en dié het die volk gered uit die mag van die mense deur wie hulle beroof is. 17Die volk het ook nie na hulle leiers geluister nie. Die volk was ontrou aan die Here en het ander gode aanbid en baie gou die pad van hulle voorvaders verlaat en ongehoorsaam geword aan die gebooie van die Here. 18Wanneer die Here vir hulle leiers na vore laat kom het, was Hy by die leiers en so het Hy die volk gered uit die mag van hulle vyande. So was dit so lank as die leier geleef het, want die Here het medelye gehad met sy volk wanneer hulle om hulp geroep het oor hulle vyande deur wie hulle verdruk is. [19]Maar na die leier se dood het hulle nog erger as hulle voorvaders gehandel en ander gode aangehang en gedien en aanbid. Hulle het nie hulle verkeerde dade en hulle hardkoppigheid laat vaar nie. [20]Dan het die Here kwaad geword vir die Israeliete en gesê: Omdat hierdie volk hulle nie steur aan die verbond wat Ek met hulle voorvaders gesluit het en My nie gehoorsaam nie, [21]sal Ek uit die nasies wat nie deur Josua voor sy dood oorwin is nie, nie verder 'n enkele mens verdryf om vir die Israeliete plek te maak nie. [22]Ek wil hulle met hierdie nasies op die proef stel om te sien of die Israeliete so gehoorsaam sal wees aan my wil soos hulle voorvaders en daarvolgens sal lewe of nie. [23]Daarom het die Here hierdie nasies met rus gelaat en hulle nie dadelik verslaan en in Josua se mag oorgegee nie.

Judges 3

Jdg 3:1 So then, the LORD left some nations in the land to test the Israelites who had not been through the wars in Canaan.

Jdg 3:2 He did this only in order to teach each generation of Israelites about war, especially those who had never been in battle before.

Jdg 3:3 Those left in the land were the five Philistine cities, all the Canaanites, the Sidonians, and the Hivites who lived in the Lebanon Mountains from Mount Baal Hermon as far as Hamath Pass.

Jdg 3:4 They were to be a test for Israel, to find out whether or not the Israelites would obey the commands that the LORD had given their ancestors through Moses.

Jdg 3:5 And so the people of Israel settled down among the Canaanites, the Hittites, the Amorites, the Perizzites, the Hivites, and the Jebusites.

Jdg 3:6 They intermarried with them and worshiped their gods.

Othniel

Jdg 3:7 The people of Israel forgot the LORD their God; they sinned against him and worshiped the idols of Baal and Asherah.

Jdg 3:8 So the LORD became angry with Israel and let King Cushan Rishathaim of Mesopotamia conquer them. They were subject to him for eight years.

Jdg 3:9 Then the Israelites cried out to the LORD, and he sent someone to free them. This was Othniel, the son of Caleb's younger brother Kenaz.

Jdg 3:10 The spirit of the LORD came upon him, and he became Israel's leader. Othniel went to war, and the LORD gave him the victory over the king of Mesopotamia.

Jdg 3:11 There was peace in the land for forty years, and then Othniel died.

Ehud

Jdg 3:12 The people of Israel sinned against the LORD again. Because of this the LORD made King Eglon of Moab stronger than Israel.

Jdg 3:13 Eglon joined the Ammonites and the Amalekites; they defeated Israel and captured Jericho, the city of palm trees.

Jdg 3:14 The Israelites were subject to Eglon for eighteen years.

Jdg 3:15 Then the Israelites cried out to the LORD, and he sent someone to free them. This was Ehud, a left-handed man, who was the son of Gera, from the tribe of Benjamin. The people of Israel sent Ehud to King Eglon of Moab with gifts for him.

Jdg 3:16 Ehud had made himself a double-edged sword about a foot and a half long. He had it fastened on his right side under his clothes.

Jdg 3:17 Then he took the gifts to Eglon, who was a very fat man.

Jdg 3:18 When Ehud had given him the gifts, he told the men who had carried them to go back home.

Jdg 3:19 But Ehud himself turned back at the carved stones near Gilgal, went back to Eglon, and said, "Your Majesty, I have a secret message for you." So the king ordered his servants, "Leave us alone!" And they all went out.

Jdg 3:20 Then, as the king was sitting there alone in his cool room on the roof, Ehud went over to him and said, "I have a message from God for you." The king stood up.

Jdg 3:22 The whole sword went in, handle and all, and the fat covered it up. Ehud did not pull it out of the king's belly, and it stuck out behind, between his legs.

Jdg 3:23 Then Ehud went outside, closed the doors behind him, locked them,

Jdg 3:24 and left. The servants came and saw that the doors were locked, but they only thought that the king was inside, relieving himself.

Jdg 3:25 They waited as long as they thought they should, but when he still did not open the door, they took the key and opened it. And there was their master, lying dead on the floor.

Jdg 3:26 Ehud got away while they were waiting. He went past the carved stones and escaped to Seirah.

Jdg 3:27 When he arrived there in the hill country of Ephraim, he blew a trumpet to call the people of Israel to battle; then he led them down from the hills.

Jdg 3:28 He told them, "Follow me! The LORD has given you victory over your enemies, the Moabites." So they followed Ehud down and captured the place where the Moabites were to cross the Jordan; they did not allow anyone to cross.

Jdg 3:29 That day they killed about ten thousand of the best Moabite soldiers; none of them escaped.

Jdg 3:30 That day the Israelites defeated Moab, and there was peace in the land for eighty years.

Shamgar

Jdg 3:31 The next leader was Shamgar son of Anath. He too rescued Israel, and did so by killing six hundred Philistines with an oxgoad.

RIGTERS 3

1Die Here het hierdie nasies met rus gelaat om die Israeliete met hulle op die proef te stel, dié Israeliete wat nie ondervinding gehad het van al die oorloë teen die Kanaäniete nie. 2Die Here wou hierdie Israeliete leer hoe om oorlog te maak, hulle wat dit nie voorheen ondervind het nie. Die volgende nasies is met rus gelaat: 3die Filistyne met hulle vyf leiers, al die Kanaäniete, die mense van Sidon en die Hewiete wat Libanonberg bewoon het, van Baäl-Hermonberg af tot by Lebo-Hamat. 4Hulle is met rus gelaat om Israel met hulle te toets, om te sien of die Israeliete gehoorsaam sou wees aan die gebooie van die Here, die gebooie wat Hy hulle voorvaders deur Moses beveel het. 5Die Israeliete het toe gewoon tussen die Kanaäniete, Hetiete, Amoriete, Feresiete, Hewiete en Jebusiete. 6Die Israeliete het met die dogters van hierdie nasies getrou en hulle dogters met hierdie nasies se seuns laat trou. Die Israeliete het hierdie nasies se gode gedien. 7Die Israeliete het gedoen wat verkeerd is in die oë van die Here. Hulle het die Here hulle God vergeet en die Baäls en die gewyde pale gedien. 8Toe het die Here kwaad geword vir die Israeliete. Hy het hulle oorgegee in die mag van koning Kusan-Risatajim van Mesopotamië en hulle was ag jaar sy onderdane. 9Toe het die Israeliete tot die Here geroep, en Hy het vir hulle 'n redder na vore laat kom wat hulle gered het. Hy was Otniël seun van Kenas, 'n jonger broer van Kaleb. 10Die Gees van die Here was op hom en hy het oor Israel geregeer. Otniël het oorlog gemaak teen koning Kusan-Risatajim van Mesopotamië, en die Here het hom oorgegee in die mag van Otniël. Hy het vir Kusan-Risatajim verslaan. 11Daarna was daar veertig jaar lank vrede in die land, en toe is Otniël seun van Kenas dood. 12Die Israeliete het weer gedoen wat verkeerd is in die oë van die Here en Hy het koning Eglon van Moab mag oor hulle laat kry omdat hulle gedoen het wat verkeerd is in die oë van die Here. 13Eglon het die Ammoniete en ook vir Amalek by hom laat aansluit, en hulle het die Israeliete gaan verslaan en die Palmstad verower. 14Die Israeliete was agtien jaar lank die onderdane van koning Eglon van Moab. 15Toe het hulle tot die Here geroep om hulp, en Hy het 'n redder vir hulle na vore laat kom, Ehud seun van Gera, 'n Benjaminiet Ehud was links, en die Israeliete het hom met die belasting gestuur na koning Eglon van Moab toe. 16Ehud het vir hom 'n swaard gemaak, 'n halwe meter lank en aan albei kante geslyp. Hy het dit aan sy regterkant onder sy klere vasgemaak. 17Hy het die belasting oorhandig aan koning Eglon van Moab, 'n baie vet man. 18Nadat Ehud die belasting oorhandig het, het die koning die mense wat dit gebring het, laat vertrek, 19maar Ehud het by Die Beelde naby Gilgal omgedraai en vir die koning kom sê: Koning Eglon, ek het 'n geheime boodskap om vir u te gee. Toe sê die koning: Laat ons alleen, en al sy amptenare het van hom af weggegaan. [20]Ehud het nader gekom na die koning toe waar hy gesit het in sy koel bovertrek wat net vir hom bedoel was, en vir hom gesê: Ek het 'n boodskap van God vir u. Hy het toe opgestaan van sy troon af, [21]en Ehud het sy swaard van sy regterheup af met sy linkerhand gegryp en vir Eglon in sy maag gesteek. [22]Die hef het saam met die lem in sy maag ingegaan en die vet het oor die swaard gepeul, sodat Ehud dit nie kon uittrek nie. Hy het toe deur 'n geheime uitgang [23]en deur die voorportaal uitgegaan nadat hy die deur van die bovertrek toegetrek en gesluit het. [24]Nadat hy uit is, het Eglon se amptenare gekom en toe hulle sien dat die deure van die bovertrek gegrendel is, het hulle gedink die koning is seker besig om hom te ontlas daar in die koel vertrek. [25]Hulle het tot vervelens toe gewag, maar die koning het nie die deure van sy bovertrek oopgemaak nie, en toe hulle 'n sleutel vat en oopsluit, lê hulle koning daar dood op die vloer. [26]En omdat hulle so lank gewag het, kon Ehud ontsnap. Hy het by Die Beelde verbygegaan en na Seïra toe gevlug. [27]Toe hy daar kom, het hy die ramshoring op die Efraimsberge laat blaas. Die Israeliete het van daar af na hom toe gekom. Hy het hulle leier geword [28]en vir hulle gesê: Kom saam met my, want die Here gee julle vyande, die Moabiete, in julle mag oor. Hulle is toe saam met hom en hulle het die Jordaandriwwe na Moab toe beset en niemand daar laat deurgaan nie. [29]By daardie geleentheid het hulle die Moabiete verslaan: omtrent tien duisend man, almal sterk en goeie soldate. Niemand het ontsnap nie. [30]Moab is daardie dag deur Israel onderwerp, en daar was tagtig jaar lank vrede in die land. [31]Na Ehud het Samgar seun van Anat opgetree. Hy het ses honderd Filistyne doodgeslaan met 'n stok en so vir Israel gered.

Judges 4

Deborah and Barak

Jdg 4:1 After Ehud died, the people of Israel sinned against the LORD again.

Jdg 4:2 So the LORD let them be conquered by Jabin, a Canaanite king who ruled in the city of Hazor. The commander of his army was Sisera, who lived at Harosheth-of-the-Gentiles.

Jdg 4:3 Jabin had nine hundred iron chariots, and he ruled the people of Israel with cruelty and violence for twenty years. Then the people of Israel cried out to the LORD for help.

Jdg 4:4 Now Deborah, the wife of Lappidoth, was a prophet, and she was serving as a judge for the Israelites at that time.

Jdg 4:5 She would sit under a certain palm tree between Ramah and Bethel in the hill country of Ephraim, and the people of Israel would go there for her decisions.

Jdg 4:6 One day she sent for Barak son of Abinoam from the city of Kedesh in Naphtali and said to him, "The LORD, the God of Israel, has given you this command: 'Take ten thousand men from the tribes of Naphtali and Zebulun and lead them to Mount Tabor.

Jdg 4:7 I will bring Sisera, the commander of Jabin's army, to fight you at the Kishon River. He will have his chariots and soldiers, but I will give you victory over him.' "

Jdg 4:8 Then Barak replied, "I will go if you go with me, but if you don't go with me, I won't go either."

Jdg 4:9 She answered, "All right, I will go with you, but you won't get any credit for the victory, because the LORD will hand Sisera over to a woman." So Deborah set off for Kedesh with Barak.

Jdg 4:10 Barak called the tribes of Zebulun and Naphtali to Kedesh, and ten thousand men followed him. Deborah went with him.

Jdg 4:11 In the meantime Heber the Kenite had set up his tent close to Kedesh near the oak tree at Zaanannim. He had moved away from the other Kenites, the descendants of Hobab, the brother-in-law of Moses.

Jdg 4:12 When Sisera learned that Barak had gone up to Mount Tabor, Jdg 4:13 he called out his nine hundred iron chariots and all his men, and sent them from Harosheth-of-the-Gentiles to the Kishon River.

Jdg 4:14 Then Deborah said to Barak, "Go! The LORD is leading you! Today he has given you victory over Sisera." So Barak went down from Mount Tabor with his ten thousand men.

Jdg 4:15 When Barak attacked with his army, the LORD threw Sisera into confusion together with all his chariots and men. Sisera got down from his chariot and fled on foot.

Jdg 4:16 Barak pursued the chariots and the army to Harosheth-of-the-Gentiles, and Sisera's whole army was killed. Not a man was left.

Jdg 4:17 Sisera ran away to the tent of Jael, the wife of Heber the Kenite, because King Jabin of Hazor was at peace with Heber's family.

Jdg 4:18 Jael went out to meet Sisera and said to him, "Come in, sir; come into my tent. Don't be afraid." So he went in, and she hid him behind a curtain.

Jdg 4:19 He said to her, "Please give me a drink of water; I'm thirsty." She opened a leather bag of milk, gave him a drink, and hid him again.

Jdg 4:20 Then he told her, "Stand at the door of the tent, and if anyone comes and asks you if anyone is here, say no."

Jdg 4:21 Sisera was so tired that he fell sound asleep. Then Jael took a hammer and a tent peg, quietly went up to him, and killed him by driving the peg right through the side of his head and into the ground.

Jdg 4:22 When Barak came looking for Sisera, Jael went out to meet him and said to him, "Come here! I'll show you the man you're looking for." So he went in with her, and there was Sisera on the ground, dead, with the tent peg through his head.

Jdg 4:23 That day God gave the Israelites victory over Jabin, the Canaanite king.

Jdg 4:24 They pressed harder and harder against him until they destroyed him.

RIGTERS 4

1Na Ehud se dood het die Israeliete weer gedoen wat verkeerd is in die oë van die Here. 2Die Here het hulle oorgegee in die mag van koning Jabin van Kanaän wat in Hasor geregeer het. Sisera uit Garoset-Gojim was die hoof van Jabin se weermag. 3Hy het nege honderd ysterstrydwaens gehad en hy het die Israeliete twintig jaar lank verdruk. Daarom het hulle tot die Here geroep om hulp. 4In daardie tyd was Debora, die vrou van Lappidot, die leier van die Israeliete. Sy was 'n profetes. 5Sy het altyd onder die Deborapalm in die Efraimsberge tussen Rama en Bet-El gesit, en die Israeliete het daarheen gekom sodat sy hulle geskille kon bylê. 6Sy het vir Barak seun van Abinoam uit Kedes in Naftali laat roep en vir hom gesê: Die Here die God van Israel beveel jou: Trek met tien duisend man uit Naftali en Sebulon op na Taborberg toe. 7Ek sal vir Sisera, die hoof van Jabin se leër, met sy strydwaens en sy leër na jou toe laat optrek tot by Kisonspruit en Ek sal hulle in jou mag oorgee. 8Barak het haar geantwoord: As u saamgaan, sal ek optrek, maar as u nie saamgaan nie, gaan ek nie. 9Sy het vir hom gesê: Goed, ek sal saamgaan, maar jy sal nie die eer vir die veldtog kry nie: die Here sal vir Sisera aan 'n vrou uitlewer. Toe het Debora klaargemaak en saam met Barak na Kedes toe gegaan. 10Barak het vir Sebulon en Naftali daarheen ontbied. Tien duisend man het vir Barak gevolg, en Debora het saam met hom opgetrek. 11In daardie gebied was daar 'n man met die naam Geber, 'n Keniet uit die nageslag van Moses se skoonpa Gobab. Geber het weggetrek van die Keniete af en sy tent opgeslaan by die groot boom in Saänannim naby Kedes. 12Daar is aan Sisera vertel dat Barak seun van Abinoam na Taborberg toe opgetrek het. 13Sisera het toe sy nege honderd strydwaens en al sy manskappe van Garoset-Gojim af laat kom na Kisonspruit toe. 14Toe sê Debora vir Barak: Trek op, want vandag gee die Here vir Sisera in jou mag oor. Die Here gaan voor jou uit. Barak het toe van Taborberg af afgegaan, en die tien duisend man het hom gevolg. 15Die Here het Sisera en sy strydwabemanning en sy hele leër baie bang laat word vir Barak en sy mag, en Sisera het van sy strydwa af afgespring en te voet gevlug. 16Barak het die strydwaens en die leër agternagesit tot by Garoset-Gojim, en die hele leër van Sisera is afgemaai: daar het nie een van hulle oorgebly nie. 17Sisera het te voet gevlug na die tent van Jael, die Keniet Geber se vrou, want koning Jabin van Hasor en die familie van Geber die Keniet het op goeie voet verkeer. 18Jael het vir Sisera tegemoet gegaan en vir hom gesê: Kom hierheen, Meneer! Kom na my toe, moenie bang wees nie! Toe gaan hy na haar toe in die tent en sy het hom agter 'n gordyn weggesteek. 19Hy sê toe vir haar: Ek is dors, gee my 'n bietjie water om te drink. Sy het die melksak oopgemaak en hom melk laat drink. Toe het sy hom weer toegemaak. [20]Hy het vir haar gesê: Staan by die tentdeur, en as daar iemand kom wat vir jou vra: Is hier dalk iemand by jou?' moet jy vir hom sê: Nee! [21]Jael die vrou van Geber het toe 'n tentpen gevat en met 'n hamer in haar hand is sy suutjies na Sisera toe. Hy was moeg en het vas geslaap. Toe slaan sy die tentpen deur die slaap van sy kop, sodat sy hom in die grond vasslaan, en so is hy dood. [22]Barak was besig om vir Sisera te agtervolg, en Jael het na Barak toe gegaan. Toe sê sy vir hom: Kom hier! Ek sal vir jou die man wys wat jy soek. Toe Barak by haar kom, lê Sisera daar dood met 'n tentpen deur sy slaap. [23]Daardie dag het God vir koning Jabin van Kanaän voor die Israeliete verneder [24]en hulle het al hoe meer die oorhand oor hom gekry totdat hulle hom vernietig het.

Judges 5

The Song of Deborah and Barak

Jdg 5:1 On that day Deborah and Barak son of Abinoam sang this song:

Jdg 5:2 Praise the LORD! The Israelites were determined to fight; the people gladly volunteered.

Jdg 5:3 Listen, you kings! Pay attention, you rulers! I will sing and play music to Israel's God, the LORD.

Jdg 5:4 LORD, when you left the mountains of Seir, when you came out of the region of Edom, the earth shook, and rain fell from the sky. Yes, water poured down from the clouds.

Jdg 5:5 The mountains quaked before the LORD of Sinai, before the LORD, the God of Israel.

Jdg 5:6 In the days of Shamgar son of Anath, in the days of Jael, caravans no longer went through the land, and travelers used the back roads.

Jdg 5:7 The towns of Israel stood abandoned, Deborah; they stood empty until you came, came like a mother for Israel.

Jdg 5:8 Then there was war in the land when the Israelites chose new gods. Of the forty thousand men in Israel, did anyone carry shield or spear?

Jdg 5:9 My heart is with the commanders of Israel, with the people who gladly volunteered. Praise the LORD!

Jdg 5:10 Tell of it, you that ride on white donkeys, sitting on saddles, and you that must walk wherever you go.

Jdg 5:11 Listen! The noisy crowds around the wells are telling of the LORD's victories, the victories of Israel's people! Then the LORD's people marched down from their cities.

Jdg 5:12 Lead on, Deborah, lead on! Lead on! Sing a song! Lead on! Forward, Barak son of Abinoam, lead your captives away!

Jdg 5:13 Then the faithful ones came down to their leaders; the LORD's people came to him ready to fight.

Jdg 5:14 They came from Ephraim into the valley, behind the tribe of Benjamin and its people. The commanders came down from Machir, the officers down from Zebulun.

Jdg 5:15 The leaders of Issachar came with Deborah; yes, Issachar came and Barak too, and they followed him into the valley. But the tribe of Reuben was divided; they could not decide to come.

Jdg 5:16 Why did they stay behind with the sheep? To listen to shepherds calling the flocks? Yes, the tribe of Reuben was divided; they could not decide to come.

Jdg 5:17 The tribe of Gad stayed east of the Jordan, and the tribe of Dan remained by the ships. The tribe of Asher stayed by the seacoast; they remained along the shore.

Jdg 5:18 But the people of Zebulun and Naphtali risked their lives on the battlefield.

Jdg 5:19 At Taanach, by the stream of Megiddo, the kings came and fought; the kings of Canaan fought, but they took no silver away.

Jdg 5:20 The stars fought from the sky; as they moved across the sky, they fought against Sisera.

Jdg 5:21 A flood in the Kishon swept them away—the onrushing Kishon River. I shall march, march on, with strength!

Jdg 5:22 Then the horses came galloping on, stamping the ground with their hoofs.

Jdg 5:23 "Put a curse on Meroz," says the angel of the LORD, "a curse, a curse on those who live there. They did not come to help the LORD, come as soldiers to fight for him."

Jdg 5:24 The most fortunate of women is Jael, the wife of Heber the Kenite—the most fortunate of women who live in tents.

Jdg 5:25 Sisera asked for water, but she gave him milk; she brought him cream in a beautiful bowl.

Jdg 5:26 She took a tent peg in one hand, a worker's hammer in the other; she struck Sisera and crushed his skull; she pierced him through the head.

Jdg 5:27 He sank to his knees, fell down and lay still at her feet. At her feet he sank to his knees and fell; he fell to the ground, dead.

Jdg 5:28 Sisera's mother looked out of the window; she gazed from behind the lattice. "Why is his chariot so late in coming?" she asked. "Why are his horses so slow to return?"

Jdg 5:29 Her wisest friends answered her, and she told herself over and over,

Jdg 5:30 "They are only finding things to capture and divide, a woman or two for every soldier, rich cloth for Sisera, embroidered pieces for the neck of the queen."

Jdg 5:31 So may all your enemies die like that, O LORD, but may your friends shine like the rising sun! And there was peace in the land for forty years.

1Daardie dag het Debora en Barak seun van Abinoam gesing: 2Julle moet die Here prys, want leiers het opgetree in Israel, die volk het hulle aangemeld vir die oorlog. 3Luister, konings, gee aandag, regeerders! Ek sing tot eer van die Here, ek prys die Here die God van Israel met my lied: 4Toe U uit Seïr gekom het, Here, toe U uit die veld van Edom opgetrek het, het die aarde gebewe, het die hemel reën gegee: die wolke het strome water gegee. 5Die berge het weggesmelt voor die Here, voor Hom uit Sinai, voor die Here die God van Israel. 6In die dae van Samgar seun van Anat, in die dae van Jael was die hoofpaaie stil, reisigers het ompaaie gebruik. 7Die lewe buite die stede het in Israel gekwyn en agteruitgegaan totdat ek, Debora, na vore gekom het, totdat 'n moeder in Israel na vore gekom het. 8Toe die volk nuwe gode vir hulle gekies het, het daar oorlog gekom, maar nie een uit Israel se duisende soldate het die wapen opgeneem nie. 9Ek staan by die leiers van Israel, by dié wat hulle vrywillig aangemeld het. Julle moet die Here prys, 10julle wat op bruin donkies ry, julle wat op mooi saalkleedjies sit, julle wat op reis is, julle moet dit alles vertel! 11Tussen die drinkbakke praat hulle daaroor, besing hulle die oorwinning wat die Here behaal het, sy oorwinning vir die boere van Israel. Die volk van die Here kom bymekaar by die stadspoorte, hulle sing: 12Kom, Debora, kom, kom, kom sing 'n lied! Maak klaar, Barak seun van Abinoam, kom maak vir jou krygsgevangenes!' 13Dié van my volk wat oorgebly het, het bymekaargekom by die leiers, die volk van die Here het na my toe gekom, al die dapper vegters: 14party was van Efraim, selfs ver uit Amalek uit, saam met hulle Benjamin, almal uit jou volk, party was van Makir, sy leiers het gekom, en uit Sebulon dié wat die heersersepter dra, 15die leiers uit Issaskar was by Debora. Issaskar was soos Barak, in die laagte was Issaskar by Barak. By Ruben se suipplekke is daar baie beraadslaag. 16Waarom het jy by die saalsakke bly sit, bly luister na die fluitspel by die veetroppe? By Ruben se suipplekke is daar baie beraadslaag. 17Gilead het oorkant die Jordaan bly sit, en waarom het Dan by die skepe gebly? Aser het by die seestrand bly sit, nie van sy kaai af geroer nie. 18Sebulon was nie bang vir die dood nie en Naftali het die dood getrotseer op die hoogland. 19Konings het gekom, hulle het geveg, die konings van Kanaän het geveg by Taänak, by Megiddo se waters, maar hulle het nie silwer buitgemaak nie. 20Uit die hemel het die sterre geveg, uit hulle bane het hulle teen Sisera geveg. 21Die Kisonrivier het die vyand meegesleur, die Kisonrivier, die rivier uit die voortyd. Hou moed! Wees sterk! 22Die perde het met hulle hoewe gekap, die sterkes het in jaaggalop voortgestorm. 23Die Engel van die Here het gesê:

Julle moet vir Meros vervloek, julle moet sy inwoners sonder genade vervloek, want hulle het nie vir die Here kom veg nie, nie vir Hom teen die dapper vegters kom veg nie.' 24Geseënd is Jael vrou van Geber die Keniet, meer geseënd as al die vrouens, die vrouens wat in tente woon. 25Sisera het water gevra, sy het hom melk gegee, in 'n koningsbeker het sy vir hom dikmelk gegee. 26In haar hand het sy die tentpen vasgevat, in haar regterhand die werksman se hamer. Sy het vir Sisera daarmee getref, sy kop papgeslaan, sy het die slaap van sy kop verbrysel, dit deurboor. 27By haar voete het hy neergesak, geval en bly lê, by haar voete het hy neergesak en geval; waar hy neergesak het, het hy geval, morsdood. 28Sisera se ma het deur die venster gekyk, sy het by die traliewerk gestaan en gekla: Waarom talm sy strydwa om te kom, waarom bly die gedreun van sy strydwawiele weg?' 29Haar slimste hofdame antwoord haar en sy sê die woorde agterna: 30Hulle het 'n groot buit in die hande gekry, hulle verdeel dit: 'n meisie of twee vir elke soldaat; gekleurde klere as buit vir Sisera; gekleurde weefwerk as buit, gekleurde doeke vir my nek, dit is die buit!' 31Mag al u vyande so omkom, Here, maar mag dié wat vir U liefhet, wees soos die son wat in sy volle krag skyn. Daarna was daar veertig jaar lank vrede in die land.

Judges 6

Midian Oppresses Israel

Jdg 6:1 Once again the people of Israel sinned against the LORD, so he let the people of Midian rule them for seven years.

Jdg 6:2 The Midianites were stronger than Israel, and the people of Israel hid from them in caves and other safe places in the hills.

Jdg 6:3 Whenever the Israelites would plant their crops, the Midianites would come with the Amalekites and the desert tribes and attack them.

Jdg 6:4 They would camp on the land and destroy the crops as far south as the area around Gaza. They would take all the sheep, cattle, and donkeys, and leave nothing for the Israelites to live on.

Jdg 6:5 They would come with their livestock and tents, as thick as locusts. They and their camels were too many to count. They came and devastated the land, Jdg 6:6 and Israel was helpless against them.

Jdg 6:7 Then the people of Israel cried out to the LORD for help against the Midianites, Jdg 6:8 and he sent them a prophet who brought them this message from the LORD, the God of Israel: "I brought you out of slavery in Egypt.

Jdg 6:9 I rescued you from the Egyptians and from the people who fought you here in this land. I drove them out as you advanced, and I gave you their land.

Jdg 6:10 I told you that I am the LORD your God and that you should not worship the gods of the Amorites, whose land you are now living in. But you have not listened to me."

The Call of Gideon

Jdg 6:11 Then the LORD's angel came to the village of Ophrah and sat under the oak tree that belonged to Joash, a man of the clan of Abiezer. His son Gideon was threshing some wheat secretly in a wine press, so that the Midianites would not see him.

Jdg 6:12 The LORD's angel appeared to him there and said, "The LORD is with you, brave and mighty man!"

Jdg 6:13 Gideon said to him, "If I may ask, sir, why has all this happened to us if the LORD is with us? What happened to all the wonderful things that our fathers told us the LORD used to do—how he brought them out of Egypt? The LORD has abandoned us and left us to the mercy of the Midianites."

Jdg 6:14 Then the LORD ordered him, "Go with all your great strength and rescue Israel from the Midianites. I myself am sending you."

Jdg 6:15 Gideon replied, "But Lord, how can I rescue Israel? My clan is the weakest in the tribe of Manasseh, and I am the least important member of my family."

Jdg 6:16 The LORD answered, "You can do it because I will help you. You will crush the Midianites as easily as if they were only one man."

Jdg 6:17 Gideon replied, "If you are pleased with me, give me some proof that you are really the LORD.

Jdg 6:18 Please do not leave until I bring you an offering of food." He said, "I will stay until you come back."

Jdg 6:19 So Gideon went into his house and cooked a young goat and used a bushel of flour to make bread without any yeast. He put the meat in a basket and the broth in a pot, brought them to the LORD's angel under the oak tree, and gave them to him.

Jdg 6:20 The angel told him, "Put the meat and the bread on this rock, and pour the broth over them." Gideon did so.

Jdg 6:21 Then the LORD's angel reached out and touched the meat and the bread with the end of the stick he was holding. Fire came out of the rock and burned up the meat and the bread. Then the angel disappeared.

Jdg 6:22 Gideon then realized that it was the LORD's angel he had seen, and he said in terror, "Sovereign LORD! I have seen your angel face-to-face!"

Jdg 6:23 But the LORD told him, "Peace. Don't be afraid. You will not die."

Jdg 6:24 Gideon built an altar to the LORD there and named it "The LORD is Peace." (It is still standing at Ophrah, which belongs to the clan of Abiezer.)

Jdg 6:25 That night the LORD told Gideon, "Take your father's bull and another bull seven years old, tear down your father's altar to Baal, and cut down the symbol of the goddess Asherah, which is beside it.

Jdg 6:26 Build a well-constructed altar to the LORD your God on top of this mound. Then take the second bull and burn it whole as an offering, using for firewood the symbol of Asherah you have cut down."

Jdg 6:27 So Gideon took ten of his servants and did what the LORD had told him. He was too afraid of his family and the people in town to do it by day, so he did it at night.

Gideon Destroys the Altar of Baal

Jdg 6:28 When the people in town got up early the next morning, they found that the altar to Baal and the symbol of Asherah had been cut down, and that the second bull had been burned on the altar that had been built there.

Jdg 6:29 They asked each other, "Who did this?" They investigated and found out that Gideon son of Joash had done it.

Jdg 6:30 Then they said to Joash, "Bring your son out here, so that we can kill him! He tore down the altar to Baal and cut down the symbol of Asherah beside it."

Jdg 6:31 But Joash said to all those who confronted him, "Are you arguing for Baal? Are you defending him? Anyone who argues for him will be killed before morning. If Baal is a god, let him defend himself. It is his altar that was torn down."

Jdg 6:32 From then on Gideon was known as Jerubbaal, because Joash said, "Let Baal defend himself; it is his altar that was torn down."

Jdg 6:33 Then all the Midianites, the Amalekites, and the desert tribes assembled, crossed the Jordan River, and camped in Jezreel Valley.

Jdg 6:34 The spirit of the LORD took control of Gideon, and he blew a trumpet to call the men of the clan of Abiezer to follow him.

Jdg 6:35 He sent messengers throughout the territory of both parts of Manasseh to call them to follow him. He sent messengers to the tribes of Asher, Zebulun, and Naphtali, and they also came to join him.

The Sign of the Fleece

Jdg 6:36 Then Gideon said to God, "You say that you have decided to use me to rescue Israel.

Jdg 6:37 Well, I am putting some wool on the ground where we thresh the wheat. If in the morning there is dew only on the wool but not on the ground, then I will know that you are going to use me to rescue Israel."

Jdg 6:38 That is exactly what happened. When Gideon got up early the next morning, he squeezed the wool and wrung enough dew out of it to fill a bowl with water.

Jdg 6:39 Then Gideon said to God, "Don't be angry with me; let me speak just once more. Please let me make one more test with the wool. This time let the wool be dry, and the ground be wet."

Jdg 6:40 That night God did that very thing. The next morning the wool was dry, but the ground was wet with dew.

RIGTERS 6

1Die Israeliete het gedoen wat verkeerd is in die oë van die Here, en Hy het hulle sewe jaar lank oorgegee in die mag van die Midianiete. 2Hulle het die Israeliete hard behandel, en daarom het hulle langs die bergstroompies, in grotte en in ander ontoeganklike plekke gaan bly. 3Wanneer die Israeliete iets gesaai het, het die Midianiete teen hulle opgetrek saam met die Amalekiete en ander mense uit die ooste. 4Dan slaan die Midianiete kamp op en vernietig die opbrengs van die land selfs tot by Gasa se wêreld. Hulle het nie 'n dier in Israel lewend agtergelaat nie, nie 'n skaap of 'n bees of 'n donkie nie. 5Die Midianiete het met hulle veetroppe gekom en kom tent opslaan. Hulle was so baie soos sprinkane: hulle en hulle kamele kon nie getel word nie. Hulle het die land kaalgestroop. 6Hulle het die Israeliete arm laat word, en toe het die Israeliete tot die Here geroep om hulp. 7Toe hulle tot die Here roep om hulp teen die Midianiete, 8het Hy 'n man gestuur om onder die Israeliete as profeet op te tree, en hy het vir hulle gesê: So sê die Here die God van Israel: Ek het julle uit Egipte laat wegtrek en Ek het julle uit die plek van slawerny bevry. 9Ek het julle gered uit die mag van Egipte en van almal deur wie julle verdruk is. Ek het hulle laat plek maak vir julle en Ek het hulle land vir julle gegee. 10Ek het vir julle gesê: Ek is die Here julle God. Julle mag nie die gode dien van die Amoriete in wie se land julle woon nie.' Maar julle het nie na My geluister nie. 11Daarna het 'n Engel van die Here gaan sit onder die groot boom in Ofra wat behoort het aan Joas die Abiësriet. Sy seun Gideon was besig om koring uit te slaan in 'n parskuip waar hy weggekruip het vir die Midianiete. 12Die Engel van die Here het aan hom verskyn en vir hom gesê: Die Here is by jou, dapper man! 13Maar Gideon het vir die Engel gesê: Ekskuus, Meneer, maar as die Here by ons is, waarom kom al hierdie dinge oor ons? Waar is al sy magtige dade waarvan ons voorvaders ons vertel het toe hulle gesê het: Het die Here ons nie uit Egipte bevry nie?' Nou het die Here ons in die steek gelaat: Hy het ons oorgegee in die mag van die Midianiete. 14Toe het die Here na Gideon toe gedraai en vir hom gesê: Gaan met die krag wat jy het en gaan red die Israeliete uit die mag van die Midianiete! Toe, Ek stuur jou! 15Maar Gideon sê vir Hom: Ekskuus, Meneer, waarmee sal ek die Israeliete gaan red? Die familie waaraan ek behoort, is die armste in die hele Manasse, en van my pa se kinders het ek die minste aansien. 16Die Here het hom geantwoord: Ek is by jou, en jy sal die Midianiete verslaan asof hulle nie meer as een is nie. 17Gideon het vir Hom gesê: As U so vriendelik wil wees, doen tog vir my 'n wonder dat ek seker kan wees dit is U, Here, wat met my praat! 18Moenie hiervandaan af padgee nie dat ek tog net gou 'n offer voor U kan kom neersit. Toe sê die Here: Ek sal wag tot jy terug is. 19Gideon het toe 'n bokkie gaan gaar maak, en van sestien kilogram meel het hy brood sonder suurdeeg gebak. Hy het die vleis in 'n mandjie gepak en die sous in 'n pan gegooi en vir die Engel van die Here gebring onder die groot boom. Toe Gideon dit naderbring, 20sê die Engel van God vir Gideon: Vat die vleis en die brood sonder suurdeeg en sit dit op hierdie rots en gooi die sous daaroor. Hy het so gemaak, 21en toe raak die Engel van die Here met die punt van die stok in sy hand aan die vleis en die brood. 'n Vuur het uit die rots uit opgevlam en die vleis en die brood verteer. Daarna is Hy van Gideon af weg. 22Gideon het besef dat dit die Engel van die Here was, en hy het uitgeroep: Ag, Here my God, ek het die Engel van die Here van aangesig tot aangesig gesien! 23Toe sê die Here vir Gideon: Wees gerus! Moenie bang wees nie! Jy sal nie sterf nie! 24Gideon het net daar 'n altaar vir die Here gebou en dit genoem: Die Here gee rus! Die altaar staan vandag nog in Ofra van die Abiësriete. 25Daardie nag het die Here vir Gideon gesê: Vat 'n groot bul, die sewe jaar oud bul van jou pa, sy tweede bul, breek jou pa se altaar vir Baäl af en kap die gewyde paal daar langsaan af. 26Bou dan 'n netjiese altaar vir die Here jou God bo-op daardie versterkte plek en vat die bul en offer dit as brandoffer. Jy moet die hout gebruik van die gewyde paal wat jy afgekap het. 27Gideon het tien van sy slawe gevat en gedoen wat die Here hom beveel het. Hy het dit in die nag gedoen: hy was bang vir sy pa se familie en vir die stad se mense om dit oordag te doen. 28Toe die stad se mense die volgende môre opstaan, was Baäl se altaar afgebreek en die gewyde paal daar langsaan afgekap en was die bul 'n brandoffer op die altaar wat gebou is. 29Hulle het vir mekaar gevra: Wie het dit gedoen? Hulle het oral navraag gedoen, en daar is gesê: Dit is Gideon seun van Joas! Hy het dit gedoen! 30Toe sê die stad se mense vir Joas: Bring jou seun uit jou huis uit! Hy moet doodgemaak word, want hy het Baäl se altaar afgebreek en die gewyde paal daar langsaan afgekap. 31Maar Joas het vir almal wat daar by hom gestaan het, gesê: Wil julle Baäl se saak behartig? Wil julle hom red? Wie Baäl se saak behartig, moet vanmôre nog doodgemaak word. As hy 'n god is, kan hy sy eie saak behartig. Dis sý altaar wat afgebreek is. 32Daardie dag het hulle vir Gideon genoem Jerubbaäl , want, het hulle gesê, laat Baäl self sy saak teen Gideon behartig, want dis hý wat Baäl se altaar afgebreek het. 33In daardie tyd het die hele Midian en Amalek saam met ander mense uit die ooste bymekaargekom en deur die Jordaanrivier getrek. Hulle het in die Jisreëlvlakte kamp opgeslaan. 34Die Gees van die Here het vir Gideon in besit geneem, en hy het die ramshoring geblaas en die Abiësriete opgeroep om hom te volg. 35Hy het ook boodskappers na Manasse, Aser, Sebulon en Naftali toe gestuur en hulle ook opgeroep om hom te volg, en hulle het almal bymekaargekom. 36Gideon het vir God gesê: Ek sal weet dat U deur my vir Israel wil red soos U beloof het, as ek 'n stukkie vlieswol op die dorsvloer sit en daar kom dou op die wol terwyl die grond droog bly. 37En dit het toe gebeur: toe Gideon die volgende môre opstaan, het hy die stukkie wol uitgedraai en dou daaruit gedruk, 'n hele kom vol water. 38Toe sê hy vir God: Moet asseblief nie vir my kwaad word nie! Ek wil nog 'n keer iets vra. Laat my tog net nog een toets met die vlieswol toe: net die wol moet droog wees, terwyl daar oral op die grond dou is. 39Daardie nag het God dit so laat gebeur: net die wol was droog en oral op die grond was daar dou.

Judges 7

Gideon's Three Hundred Men

Jdg 7:1 One day Gideon and all his men got up early and camped beside Harod Spring. The Midianite camp was in the valley to the north of them by Moreh Hill.

Jdg 7:2 The LORD said to Gideon, "The men you have are too many for me to give them victory over the Midianites. They might think that they had won by themselves, and so give me no credit.

Jdg 7:3 Announce to the people, 'Anyone who is afraid should go back home, and we will stay here at Mount Gilead.' " So twenty-two thousand went back, but ten thousand stayed.

Jdg 7:4 Then the LORD said to Gideon, "You still have too many men. Take them down to the water, and I will separate them for you there. If I tell you a man should go with you, he will go. If I tell you a man should not go with you, he will not go."

Jdg 7:5 Gideon took the men down to the water, and the LORD told him, "Separate everyone who laps up the water with his tongue like a dog, from everyone who gets down on his knees to drink."

Jdg 7:6 There were three hundred men who scooped up water in their hands and lapped it; all the others got down on their knees to drink.

Jdg 7:7 The LORD said to Gideon, "I will rescue you and give you victory over the Midianites with the three hundred men who lapped the water. Tell everyone else to go home."

Jdg 7:8 So Gideon sent all the Israelites home, except the three hundred, who kept all the supplies and trumpets. The Midianite camp was below them in the valley.

Jdg 7:9 That night the LORD commanded Gideon, "Get up and attack the camp; I am giving you victory over it.

Jdg 7:10 But if you are afraid to attack, go down to the camp with your servant Purah.

Jdg 7:11 You will hear what they are saying, and then you will have the courage to attack." So Gideon and his servant Purah went down to the edge of the enemy camp.

Jdg 7:12 The Midianites, the Amalekites, and the desert tribesmen were spread out in the valley like a swarm of locusts, and they had as many camels as there are grains of sand on the seashore.

Jdg 7:13 When Gideon arrived, he heard a man telling a friend about a dream. He was saying, "I dreamed that a loaf of barley bread rolled into our camp and hit a tent. The tent collapsed and lay flat on the ground."

Jdg 7:14 His friend replied, "It's the sword of the Israelite, Gideon son of Joash! It can't mean anything else! God has given him victory over Midian and our whole army!"

Jdg 7:15 When Gideon heard about the man's dream and what it meant, he fell to his knees and worshiped the LORD. Then he went back to the Israelite camp and said, "Get up! The LORD is giving you victory over the Midianite army!"

Jdg 7:16 He divided his three hundred men into three groups and gave each man a trumpet and a jar with a torch inside it.

Jdg 7:17 He told them, "When I get to the edge of the camp, watch me, and do what I do.

Jdg 7:18 When my group and I blow our trumpets, then you blow yours all around the camp and shout, 'For the LORD and for Gideon!' "

Gideon Defeats Midian

Jdg 7:19 Gideon and his one hundred men came to the edge of the camp a while before midnight, just after the guard had been changed. Then they blew the trumpets and broke the jars they were holding,

Jdg 7:20 and the other two groups did the same. They all held the torches in their left hands, the trumpets in their right, and shouted, "A sword for the LORD and for Gideon!"

Jdg 7:21 Every man stood in his place around the camp, and the whole enemy army ran away yelling.

Jdg 7:22 While Gideon's men were blowing their trumpets, the LORD made the enemy troops attack each other with their swords. They ran toward Zarethan as far as Beth Shittah, as far as the town of Abel Meholah near Tabbath.

Jdg 7:23 Then men from the tribes of Naphtali, Asher, and both parts of Manasseh were called out, and they pursued the Midianites.

Jdg 7:24 Gideon sent messengers through all the hill country of Ephraim to say, "Come down and fight the Midianites. Hold the Jordan River and the streams as far as Bethbarah, to keep the Midianites from crossing them." The men of Ephraim were called together, and they held the Jordan River and the streams as far as Bethbarah.

Jdg 7:25 They captured the two Midianite chiefs, Oreb and Zeeb; they killed Oreb at Oreb Rock, and Zeeb at the Winepress of Zeeb. They continued to pursue the Midianites and brought the heads of Oreb and Zeeb to Gideon, who was now east of the Jordan.

RIGTERS 7

1Jerubbaäl, dit is Gideon, en al sy manne het vroegmôre klaargemaak en kamp opgeslaan by En-Garod. Die kamp van Midian was noord van Gideon s'n, in die vlakte by Waarsêershoogte. 2Die Here het vir Gideon gesê: Ek kan Midian nie oorgee in die mag van soveel manne by jou nie. Israel sal teenoor My spog en sê: Ek het myself gered.' 3Jy moet vir die manskappe sê dié wat bewe en bang is, moet omdraai en van Gileadberg af padgee. Al die manskappe moet dit kan hoor. Twee en twintig duisend man het toe van die leër af padgegee en tien duisend het oorgebly. 4Toe sê die Here vir Gideon: Daar is nog te veel. Vat hulle af water toe, en daar sal Ek hulle vir jou sif. As Ek vir jou sê: Hierdie een moet saamgaan', moet hy met jou saamgaan, maar elkeen van wie Ek vir jou sê: Hierdie een mag nie saamgaan nie', hy mag nie met jou saamgaan nie. 5Toe het Gideon die manne afgevat water toe en daar het die Here vir hom gesê: Elkeen wat water drink soos 'n hond dit met sy tong oplek, moet jy skei van dié wat kniel om te drink. 6Drie honderd het die water met die hand opgeskep. Die res het gekniel om te drink. 7Toe sê die Here vir Gideon: Ek sal julle red met die drie honderd man wat die water opgeskep het. Ek sal vir Midian in jou mag oorgee. Die ander moet almal huis toe gaan. 8Gideon-hulle het al die kos en die ramshorings gevat en toe het hy die ander almal huis toe gestuur. Hy het net die drie honderd by hom gehou. Die kamp van die Midianiete was teenoor hom in die vlakte. 9Dié nag het die Here vir hom gesê: Kom, gaan na die Midianiete se laer toe. Ek gee hulle in jou mag oor. 10Maar as jy bang is om hulle aan te val, moet jy en jou slaaf Pura eers in hulle kamp ingaan. 11Luister wat hulle sê, dan sal jy moed skep en hulle aanval. Gideon en sy slaaf Pura is toe sowat vyftig tree in die Midianiete se kamp in. 12Die Midianiete, die Amalekiete en die ander mense uit die ooste wat die vlakte ingeval het, was so baie soos sprinkane, en die kamele kon nie getel word nie. Hulle was so baie soos die sand aan die see. 13Gideon het in die kamp ingekom net toe 'n man vir sy maat hierdie droom vertel: Ek het gedroom, het hy gesê, daar kom 'n ronde garsbrood in ons laer ingerol. Die brood het tot by die tent gerol, daarteen gestamp en dit laat omval. Die brood het die tent omgestamp en die tent het inmekaargetuimel. 14Die maat het geantwoord: Dit is beslis die swaard van die Israeliet Gideon seun van Joas. God gee Midian en sy hele leër in Gideon se mag oor. 15Toe Gideon die droom en sy uitleg hoor, het hy die Here gedank en na die Israeliete se kamp toe teruggegaan en gesê: Kom, die Here gee die leër van Midian in ons mag oor. 16Gideon het die drie honderd man in drie groepe verdeel en aan elkeen 'n ramshoring en 'n leë erdekruik met 'n fakkel daarbinne gegee. [17]Toe sê hy vir sy manne: Let mooi op wat julle moet doen: as ek by die onderpunt van die kamp kom, moet julle doen wat ek doen. [18]As ek en almal by my die ramshoring blaas, moet julle almal wat rondom die kamp is, dit ook doen en dan moet julle uitroep: Vir die Here en vir Gideon! [19]Gideon en die honderd man by hom het tot by die onderpunt van die kamp gegaan. Dit was in die nag, aan die begin van die middelste wagaflos, en die wagte was net klaar omgeruil. Toe blaas Gideon-hulle die ramshorings en breek die erdekruike. [20]Al drie afdelings het dit gedoen: hulle het die fakkels in die linkerhand gehou en die ramshorings met die regterhand om dit te blaas. Toe roep hulle: Die swaard van die Here en Gideon! [21]Hulle het rondom die kamp gestaan, elkeen op sy pos. Toe die drie honderd man die ramshoring blaas, het die hele kamp op die vlug geslaan, hulle het geskreeu en gehardloop, en toe het die Here dit bewerk dat hulle mekaar daar in die kamp doodmaak. Die kamp se mense het gevlug tot by Bet-Sitta na Sereda se kant toe, tot by die grens van Abel-Megola naby Tabbat. [22]Die Israeliete uit Naftali, Aser en die hele Manasse is toe opgeroep om die Midianiete te agtervolg. [23]Gideon het boodskappers na die Efraimsberge toe gestuur: Kom val vir Midian aan, beset die Jordaan tot by Bet-Bara voordat die Midianiete daar kom. Toe is die Efraimiete opgeroep, en hulle het die Jordaan beset tot by Bet-Bara. [24]Hulle het twee leiers van die Midianiete gevang, Oreb en Seëb. Efraim het vir Oreb doodgemaak op die Orebrots en vir Seëb in die Seëbparskuip. Nadat Efraim die Midianiete klaar agtervolg het, het hulle die koppe van Oreb en Seëb na Gideon toe gebring wes van die Jordaan.

Judges 8

Gideon Defeats Zebah and Zalmunna

Jdg 8:1 Then the people of Ephraim said to Gideon, "Why didn't you call us when you went to fight the Midianites? Why did you treat us like this?" They complained bitterly about it.

Jdg 8:2 But he told them, "What I was able to do is nothing compared with what you have done. Even the little that you people of Ephraim did is worth more than what my whole clan has done.

Jdg 8:3 After all, through the power of God you killed the two Midianite chiefs, Oreb and Zeeb. What have I done to compare with that?" When he said this, they were no longer so angry.

Jdg 8:4 By this time Gideon and his three hundred men had come to the Jordan River and had crossed it. They were exhausted, but were still pursuing the enemy.

Jdg 8:5 When they arrived at Sukkoth, he said to the men of the town, "Please give my men some loaves of bread. They are exhausted, and I am chasing Zebah and Zalmunna, the Midianite kings."

Jdg 8:6 But the leaders of Sukkoth said, "Why should we give your army any food? You haven't captured Zebah and Zalmunna yet."

Jdg 8:7 So Gideon said, "All right! When the LORD has handed Zebah and Zalmunna over to me, I will beat you with thorns and briers from the desert!"

Jdg 8:8 Gideon went on to Penuel and made the same request of the people there, but the men of Penuel gave the same answer as the men of Sukkoth.

Jdg 8:9 So he said to them, "I am going to come back safe and sound, and when I do, I will tear this tower down!"

Jdg 8:10 Zebah and Zalmunna were at Karkor with their army. Of the whole army of desert tribesmen, only about 15,000 were left; 120,000 soldiers had been killed.

Jdg 8:11 Gideon went on the road along the edge of the desert, east of Nobah and Jogbehah, and attacked the army by surprise.

Jdg 8:12 The two Midianite kings, Zebah and Zalmunna, ran away, but he pursued them and captured them, and caused their whole army to panic.

Jdg 8:13 When Gideon was returning from the battle by way of Heres Pass, Jdg 8:14 he captured a young man from Sukkoth and questioned him. The young man wrote down for Gideon the names of the seventy-seven leading men of Sukkoth.

Jdg 8:15 Then Gideon went to the men of Sukkoth and said, "Remember when you refused to help me? You said that you couldn't give any food to my exhausted army because I hadn't captured Zebah and Zalmunna yet. Well, here they are!"

Jdg 8:16 He then took thorns and briers from the desert and used them to punish the leaders of Sukkoth.

Jdg 8:17 He also tore down the tower at Penuel and killed the men of that city.

Jdg 8:18 Then Gideon asked Zebah and Zalmunna, "What about the men you killed at Tabor?" They answered, "They looked like you—every one of them like the son of a king."

Jdg 8:19 Gideon said, "They were my brothers, my own mother's sons. I solemnly swear that if you had not killed them, I would not kill you."

Jdg 8:20 Then he said to Jether, his oldest son, "Go ahead, kill them!" But the boy did not draw his sword. He hesitated, because he was still only a boy.

Jdg 8:21 Then Zebah and Zalmunna said to Gideon, "Come on, kill us yourself. It takes a man to do a man's job." So Gideon killed them and took the ornaments that were on the necks of their camels.

Gideon's Ephod

Jdg 8:22 After that, the Israelites said to Gideon, "Be our ruler—you and your descendants after you. You have saved us from the Midianites."

Jdg 8:23 Gideon answered, "I will not be your ruler, nor will my son. The LORD will be your ruler."

Jdg 8:24 But he went on to say, "Let me ask one thing of you. Every one of you give me the earrings you took." (The Midianites, like other desert people, wore gold earrings.)

Jdg 8:25 The people answered, "We'll be glad to give them to you." They spread out a cloth, and everyone put on it the earrings that he had taken.

Jdg 8:26 The gold earrings that Gideon got weighed over forty pounds, and this did not include the ornaments, necklaces, and purple clothes that the kings of Midian wore, nor the collars that were around the necks of their camels.

Jdg 8:27 Gideon made an idol from the gold and put it in his hometown, Ophrah. All the Israelites abandoned God and went there to worship the idol. It was a trap for Gideon and his family.

Jdg 8:28 So Midian was defeated by the Israelites and was no longer a threat. The land was at peace for forty years, until Gideon died.

The Death of Gideon

Jdg 8:29 Gideon went back to his own home and lived there.

Jdg 8:30 He had seventy sons, because he had many wives.

Jdg 8:31 He also had a concubine in Shechem; she bore him a son, and he named him Abimelech.

Jdg 8:32 Gideon son of Joash died at a ripe old age and was buried in the tomb of his father Joash, at Ophrah, the town of the clan of Abiezer.

Jdg 8:33 After Gideon's death the people of Israel were unfaithful to God again and worshiped the Baals. They made Baal-of-the-Covenant their god, Jdg 8:34 and no longer served the LORD their God, who had saved them from all their enemies around them.

Jdg 8:35 They were not grateful to the family of Gideon for all the good that he had done for Israel.

RIGTERS 8

1Toe vra die Efraimiete vir Gideon: Waarom het jy so gemaak met ons? Waarom het jy ons nie opgeroep toe jy teen die Midianiete gaan veg het nie? Die Efraimiete het teen hom uitgevaar, 2maar hy het vir hulle gesê: Wat het ek gedoen in vergelyking met julle? Was die na-oes van Efraim se druiwe nie in hierdie geval baie beter as die volle oes van Abiëser nie? 3God het die leiers van die Midianiete, Oreb en Seëb, in julle mag oorgegee. Ek was nie in staat om te doen wat julle gedoen het nie. Eers tóé het hulle bui gesak. 4Daarna het Gideon by die Jordaan gekom en dit oorgesteek met die drie honderd man by hom. Hulle was moeg, maar hulle het aangehou om die vyand te agtervolg. 5Toe sê Gideon vir die mense van Sukkot: Gee tog brood vir die manne wat by my is. Hulle is moeg en ek is besig om die Midianitiese konings Sebag en Salmunna te agtervolg. 6Maar die leiers van Sukkot het vir hom gevra: Het jy al vir Sebag en Salmunna gevang dat ons vir jou en jou leër moet brood gee? 7Gideon het vir hulle gesê: Wanneer die Here vir Sebag en Salmunna in my mag oorgegee het, sal ek julle kom stukkend skeur met doringstruike, met haakdorings uit die woestyn. 8Van daar af is hy verder na Pniël toe en hy het ook vir hulle kos gevra, maar die mense van Pniël het hom dieselfde antwoord gegee as dié van Sukkot. 9Toe sê hy vir die mense van Pniël: Wanneer ek as oorwinnaar terugkom, sal ek die toring in julle stad platslaan. 10Sebag en Salmunna was toe in Karkor. By hulle was 'n leër van ongeveer vyftien duisend man. Dit was al wat oorgebly het van die leër van die mense uit die ooste; honderd en twintig duisend van hulle beste soldate het gesneuwel. 11Gideon het toe die Nomadepad ooste toe gevat, na Nobag en Jogboha toe. Die leër van die Midianiete was houtgerus en Gideon het hulle aangeval. 12Sebag en Salmunna het gevlug, maar Gideon het hulle agternagesit en die twee Midianitiese konings gevang. Hy het die hele leër met skrik vervul. 13Gideon seun van Joas is toe van die slagveld af terug oor Gerespas. 14Hy het 'n jong man uit Sukkot gevang en hom ondervra. Die jong man het toe vir hom die name van die sewe en sewentig amptenare en leiers van Sukkot opgeskryf. 15Gideon is toe na die mense van Sukkot toe en hy het vir hulle gesê: Hier is Sebag en Salmunna oor wie julle my gespot het toe julle gesê het: Is Sebag en Salmunna al in jou mag dat ons vir jou moeë manne kos moet gee? 16Toe het hy die leiers van die stad gevat en hulle 'n les geleer met doringstruike, met haakdorings uit die woestyn. 17Hy het ook die toring van Pniël platgeslaan en die mense van die stad doodgemaak. 18Toe het Gideon vir Sebag en Salmunna gevra: Watter soort mense is deur julle vermoor op Tabor? en hulle antwoord: Hulle was almal soos u, elkeen het soos 'n koningskind gelyk. [19]Gideon sê toe: Hulle was my eie broers. So seker as die Here leef, ek sou julle laat bly lewe het as julle hulle nie vermoor het nie. [20]Toe beveel Gideon sy oudste seun Jeter: Kom, maak hulle dood! Maar die seun het nie 'n vinger verroer nie, want hy was 'n blote kind en hy was bang. [21]Toe sê Sebag en Salmunna vir Gideon: Kom jy, bring jy ons om die lewe. 'n Man se krag lê in homself. Gideon het opgestaan en vir Sebag en Salmunna doodgemaak. Hy het die maanversierings aan hulle kamele se nekke vir hom gevat. [22]Die Israeliete het vir Gideon gesê: Jy moet oor ons regeer: jy, jou seun en sy nageslag. Jy het ons gered uit die mag van Midian. [23]Maar hy sê vir hulle: Ek kan nie oor julle regeer nie, ook nie my nageslag nie. Die Here regeer oor julle. [24]Gideon het verder vir hulle gesê: Ek wil julle egter een ding vra: elkeen van julle moet vir my 'n oorring gee uit die buit wat julle by die Midianiete afgevat het; hulle dra mos goue oorringe. [25]Die Israeliete het geantwoord: Dit doen ons graag. Hulle het 'n doek oopgegooi en elkeen het 'n oorring uit sy buit daarop gegooi. [26]Die gewig van die goue oorringe wat Gideon gevra het, was negentien en 'n half kilogram. Die maanversierings, oorbelle en pers klere van die Midianitiese konings was nie daarby gereken nie en ook nie die kettinkies rondom die kamele se nekke nie. [27]Gideon het 'n efodbeeld van die goud gemaak en dit in sy stad Ofra gesit. Die hele Israel het daarheen gekom en op dié wyse ontrou geword aan die Here. Die beeld was vir Gideon en sy mense 'n valstrik. [28]Die Midianiete was onderdanig aan Israel. Hulle het nie weer in opstand gekom nie, en daar was veertig jaar lank vrede in die land in die dae van Gideon. [29]Jerubbaäl seun van Joas het na die oorlog teen Midian in sy huis gaan woon. [30]Hy het sewentig seuns gehad, almal sy eie kinders, want hy het baie vrouens gehad. [31]Ook sy byvrou uit Sigem het vir hom 'n seun in die wêreld gebring. Sy naam was Abimelek. [32]Gideon seun van Joas is op hoë ouderdom oorlede, en hy is in Ofra begrawe in die graf van sy pa Joas die Abiësriet. [33]Na Gideon se dood het die Israeliete weer die Baäls begin vereer. Hulle het vir Baäl-Berit as god aanvaar [34]en die Here hulle God vergeet deur wie hulle gered is uit die mag van hulle vyande rondom hulle. [35]Hulle was ook nie lojaal teenoor die gesin van Jerubbaäl, dit is Gideon, nie, ten spyte van al die goeie dinge wat hy vir Israel gedoen het.

Judges 9

Abimelech's Conspiracy

Jdg 9:1 Gideon's son Abimelech went to the town of Shechem, where all his mother's relatives lived, and told them

Jdg 9:2 to ask the men of Shechem, "Which would you prefer? To have all seventy of Gideon's sons govern you or to have just one man? Remember that Abimelech is your own flesh and blood."

Jdg 9:3 His mother's relatives talked to the men of Shechem about this for him, and the men of Shechem decided to follow Abimelech because he was their relative.

Jdg 9:4 They gave him seventy pieces of silver from the temple of Baal-of-the-Covenant, and with this money he hired a bunch of worthless scoundrels to join him.

Jdg 9:5 He went to his father's house at Ophrah, and there on top of a single stone he killed his seventy brothers, Gideon's sons. But Jotham, Gideon's youngest son, hid and was not killed.

Jdg 9:6 Then all the men of Shechem and Bethmillo got together and went to the sacred oak tree at Shechem, where they made Abimelech king.

Jdg 9:7 When Jotham heard about this, he went and stood on top of Mount Gerizim and shouted out to them, "Listen to me, you men of Shechem, and God may listen to you!

Jdg 9:8 Once upon a time the trees went out to choose a king for themselves. They said to the olive tree, 'Be our king.'

Jdg 9:9 The olive tree answered, 'In order to govern you, I would have to stop producing my oil, which is used to honor gods and human beings.'

Jdg 9:10 Then the trees said to the fig tree, 'You come and be our king.'

Jdg 9:11 But the fig tree answered, 'In order to govern you, I would have to stop producing my good sweet fruit.'

Jdg 9:12 So the trees then said to the grapevine, 'You come and be our king.'

Jdg 9:13 But the vine answered, 'In order to govern you, I would have to stop producing my wine, that makes gods and human beings happy.'

Jdg 9:14 So then all the trees said to the thorn bush, 'You come and be our king.'

Jdg 9:15 The thorn bush answered, 'If you really want to make me your king, then come and take shelter in my shade. If you don't, fire will blaze out of my thorny branches and burn up the cedars of Lebanon.'

Jdg 9:16 "Now then," Jotham continued, "were you really honest and sincere when you made Abimelech king? Did you respect Gideon's memory and treat his family properly, as his actions deserved?

Jdg 9:17 Remember that my father fought for you. He risked his life to save you from the Midianites.

Jdg 9:18 But today you turned against my father's family. You killed his sons—seventy men on a single stone—and just because Abimelech, his son by his servant woman, is your relative, you have made him king of Shechem.

Jdg 9:19 Now then, if what you did today to Gideon and his family was sincere and honest, then be happy with Abimelech and let him be happy with you.

Jdg 9:20 But if not, may fire blaze out from Abimelech and burn up the men of Shechem and Bethmillo. May fire blaze out from the men of Shechem and Bethmillo and burn Abimelech up."

Jdg 9:21 Then because he was afraid of his brother Abimelech, Jotham ran away and went to live at Beer.

The Downfall of Abimelech

Jdg 9:22 Abimelech ruled Israel for three years.

Jdg 9:23 Then God made Abimelech and the men of Shechem hostile to each other, and they rebelled against Abimelech.

Jdg 9:24 This happened so that Abimelech and the men of Shechem, who encouraged him to murder Gideon's seventy sons, would pay for their crime.

Jdg 9:25 The men of Shechem put men in ambush against Abimelech on the mountaintops, and they robbed everyone who passed their way. Abimelech was told about this.

Jdg 9:26 Then Gaal son of Ebed came to Shechem with his brothers, and the men of Shechem put their confidence in him.

Jdg 9:27 They all went out into their vineyards and picked the grapes, made wine from them, and held a festival. They went into the temple of their god, where they ate and drank and made fun of Abimelech.

Jdg 9:28 Gaal said, "What kind of men are we in Shechem? Why are we serving Abimelech? Who is he, anyway? The son of Gideon! And Zebul takes orders from him, but why should we serve him? Be loyal to your ancestor Hamor, who founded your clan!

Jdg 9:29 I wish I were leading this people! I would get rid of Abimelech! I would tell him, 'Reinforce your army, come on out and fight!' "

Jdg 9:30 Zebul, the ruler of the city, became angry when he heard what Gaal had said.

Jdg 9:31 He sent messengers to Abimelech at Arumah to say, "Gaal son of Ebed and his brothers have come to Shechem, and they are not going to let you into the city.

Jdg 9:32 Now then, you and your men should move by night and hide in the fields.

Jdg 9:33 Get up tomorrow morning at sunrise and make a sudden attack on the city. Then when Gaal and his men come out against you, hit them with all you've got!"

Jdg 9:34 So Abimelech and all his men made their move at night and hid outside Shechem in four groups.

Jdg 9:35 When Abimelech and his men saw Gaal come out and stand at the city gate, they got up from their hiding places.

Jdg 9:36 Gaal saw them and said to Zebul, "Look! There are men coming down from the mountaintops!" "Those are not men," Zebul answered. "They are just shadows on the mountains."

Jdg 9:37 Gaal said again, "Look! There are men coming down the crest of the mountain and one group is coming along the road from the oak tree of the fortunetellers!"

Jdg 9:38 Then Zebul said to him, "Where is all your big talk now? You were the one who asked why we should serve this man Abimelech. These are the men you were making fun of. Go on out now and fight them."

Jdg 9:39 Gaal led the men of Shechem out and fought Abimelech.

Jdg 9:40 Abimelech started after Gaal, and Gaal ran. Many were wounded, even at the city gate.

Jdg 9:41 Abimelech lived in Arumah, and Zebul drove Gaal and his brothers out of Shechem, so that they could no longer live there.

Jdg 9:42 The next day Abimelech found out that the people of Shechem were planning to go out into the fields, Jdg 9:43 so he took his men, divided them into three groups, and hid in the fields, waiting. When he saw the people coming out of the city, he came out of hiding to kill them.

Jdg 9:44 While Abimelech and his group hurried forward to guard the city gate, the other two companies attacked the people in the fields and killed them all.

Jdg 9:45 The fighting continued all day long. Abimelech captured the city, killed its people, tore it down, and covered the ground with salt.

Jdg 9:46 When all the leading men in the fort at Shechem heard about this, they sought safety in the stronghold of the temple of Baal-of-the-Covenant.

Jdg 9:47 Abimelech was told that they had gathered there,

Jdg 9:48 so he went up to Mount Zalmon with his men. There he took an ax, cut a limb off a tree, and put it on his shoulder. He told his men to hurry and do the same thing.

Jdg 9:49 So everyone cut off a tree limb; then they followed Abimelech and piled the wood up against the stronghold. They set it on fire, with the people inside, and all the people of the fort died—about a thousand men and women.

Jdg 9:50 Then Abimelech went to Thebez, surrounded that city, and captured it.

Jdg 9:51 There was a strong tower there, and every man and woman in the city, including the leaders, ran to it. They locked themselves in and went up to the roof.

Jdg 9:52 When Abimelech came to attack the tower, he went up to the door to set the tower on fire.

Jdg 9:53 But a woman threw a millstone down on his head and fractured his skull.

Jdg 9:54 Then he quickly called the young man who was carrying his weapons and told him, "Draw your sword and kill me. I don't want it said that a woman killed me." So the young man ran him through, and he died.

Jdg 9:55 When the Israelites saw that Abimelech was dead, they all went home.

Jdg 9:56 And so it was that God paid Abimelech back for the crime that he committed against his father in killing his seventy brothers.

Jdg 9:57 God also made the men of Shechem suffer for their wickedness, just as Jotham, Gideon's son, said they would when he cursed them.

RIGTERS 9

1Abimelek seun van Jerubbaäl het na Sigem toe gegaan, na sy ma se mense toe, en vir hulle en vir die hele familie gesê: 2Vra vir al die leiers van Sigem: Is dit beter as al sewentig seuns van Jerubbaäl oor julle regeer of as net een oor julle regeer? Julle weet goed ek is een van julle. 3Abimelek se familie het dit vir die burgers van Sigem gevra, en hulle was bereid om vir Abimelek te aanvaar, want, het hulle gesê, hy is een van ons. 4Hulle het vir hom sowat een kilogram silwer uit Baäl-Berit se tempel gegee, en daarmee het Abimelek vir hom leeglêers gehuur om sy volgelinge te wees. 5Hy is toe na sy pa se huis toe in Ofra en daar het hy sy broers, die sewentig seuns van Jerubbaäl, almal op een klip doodgemaak. Net Jotam, die jongste seun van Jerubbaäl, het oorgebly, want hy het weggekruip. 6Toe het al die burgers van Sigem en al die mense van Millo bymekaargekom en vir Abimelek gaan koning maak by die groot boom langs die klippilaar van Sigem. 7Dit is aan Jotam vertel en hy het op Gerisimberg gaan staan en vir hulle geskree: Luister na my, leiers van Sigem, dan sal God na julle luister. 8Die bome het op 'n dag gegaan om vir hulle 'n koning te salf. Hulle het vir die olyfboom gesê: Wees koning oor ons!' 9Maar die olyfboom het vir hulle gesê: Moet ek my olie prysgee waarmee eer betoon word aan gode en mense? Moet ek tussen die bome gaan ronddwaal?' 10Toe sê die bome vir die vyeboom: Kom, wees jý koning oor ons!' 11Maar die vyeboom sê vir hulle: Moet ek my lekker soet vrugte prysgee? Moet ek tussen die bome gaan ronddwaal?' 12Toe sê die bome vir die wingerdstok: Kom, wees jý koning oor ons!' 13Maar die wingerdstok sê vir hulle: Moet ek my wyn prysgee, my wyn wat gode en mense bly maak? Moet ek tussen die bome gaan ronddwaal?' 14Toe sê al die bome vir die doringbos: Kom, wees jý koning oor ons.' 15En die doringbos sê vir hulle: As julle my werklik wil salf sodat ek koning oor julle kan wees, moet julle almal in my skaduwee kom skuil. As julle dit nie kan doen nie, sal daar 'n vuur uitgaan uit die doringbos uit en dit sal die seders van die Libanon verteer.' 16Dink julle miskien julle het opreg en in goeie trou gehandel toe julle vir Abimelek koning gemaak het? Het julle reg opgetree teenoor Jerubbaäl en sy huis? Het julle hom behandel volgens wat hy verdien? 17My pa het in julle belang gaan oorlog maak, hy het sy lewe openlik in gevaar gestel, hy het julle uit die mag van die Midianiete bevry. 18Maar julle het vandag in opstand gekom teen hom en sy huis, en julle het sy sewentig seuns almal op een klip doodgemaak. En toe het julle vir Abimelek, die seun van sy slavin, koning gemaak oor die burgers van Sigem net omdat hy julle familie is. 19As julle vandag opreg en in goeie trou gehandel het teenoor

Jerubbaäl en sy huis, moet julle bly wees oor Abimelek en hy moet bly wees oor julle. [20]Maar as dit nie so is nie, moet daar 'n vuur uit Abimelek uitgaan en die burgers van Sigem en die mense van Millo verteer. Daar moet ook 'n vuur uit die burgers van Sigem en die mense van Millo uitgaan en vir Abimelek verteer. [21]Jotam het toe gevlug. Hy het na Beër toe padgegee en daar gaan woon omdat hy bang was vir sy broer Abimelek. [22]Abimelek het drie jaar lank oor Israel geregeer. [23]Toe het God vyandskap laat kom tussen Abimelek en die burgers van Sigem, en hulle het teen hom in opstand gekom. [24]God het dit oor Abimelek gebring oor die onreg wat hy sy broers, die sewentig seuns van Jerubbaäl, aangedoen het toe hy hulle vermoor het. God wou hulle dood wreek, en Hy het dié dinge oor die burgers van Sigem gebring omdat hulle vir Abimelek gehelp het om sy broers te vermoor. [25]Die burgers van Sigem het teen Abimelek hinderlae opgestel op die bergtoppe, en hulle het almal wat verbykom, beroof. Dit is aan Abimelek vertel. [26]Gaäl seun van Ebed en sy broers het daar verbygekom en in Sigem aangekom. Die burgers van Sigem het hom vertrou. [27]Hy en sy mense het op 'n keer lande toe gegaan om druiwe te pluk en te pars. Toe het hulle begin feesvier in die tempel van hulle god en nadat hulle geëet en gedrink het, het hulle vir Abimelek begin verkleineer. [28]Gaäl seun van Ebed het gevra: En wie is Abimelek nogal, en wie is Sigem dat ons aan hom moet onderdanig wees? Moet Jerubbaäl se seun en sy goewerneur Sebul nie eerder aan die mense van Gamor, Sigem se voorvader, onderdanig wees nie? Waarom moet ons aan Abimelek onderdanig wees? [29]As ek in bevel was van hierdie mense, sou ek vir Abimelek verjaag het. Gaäl het vir Abimelek gedaag: Bring maar jou groot leër! [30]Toe Sebul die stadsgoewerneur verneem wat Gaäl seun van Ebed gesê het, het hy baie kwaad geword. [31]Hy het 'n boodskap aan Abimelek in Torma gestuur: Gaäl seun van Ebed en sy mense het na Sigem toe gekom en hulle sweep die stad teen jou op. [32]Jy en jou manne moet vannag kom en in die veld 'n hinderlaag opstel. [33]En môreoggend teen sonop moet jy die stad storm. Dan sal hy en die mense by hom teen jou optrek en kan jy vir Gaäl straf. [34]Abimelek en al sy manne het toe in die nag klaargemaak en op vier punte 'n hinderlaag teen Sigem opgestel. [35]Toe Gaäl seun van Ebed op pad buitentoe by die stadspoort gaan staan, het Abimelek en sy manne juis in die hinderlaag opgestaan. [36]Gaäl het die manne gesien en vir Sebul gesê: Kyk, daar kom mense van die bergtoppe af. Maar Sebul sê vir hom: Dis die skaduwee van die berg wat jy vir mense aansien. [37]Gaäl het weer met hom gepraat en vir hom gesê: Kyk, daar kom mense van die middelpunt van die land af. Daar kom ook 'n afdeling van die groot waarsêersboom af. [38]Toe sê Sebul vir hom: Hoe lyk dit nou met jou groot mond waarmee jy gesê het: Wie is Abimelek nogal dat ons aan hom moet onderdanig wees?' Is dit nie dalk die mense van wie jy so met minagting gepraat het nie? Trek nou op en gaan veg teen hulle. 39Gaäl is toe voor die burgers van Sigem uit en hy het teen Abimelek gaan veg. 40Hy het vir Gaäl op die vlug gejaag en Gaäl het vir Abimelek gevlug. Daar het baie mense gesneuwel by die stadspoort. 41Abimelek het in Aruma gewoon, en Sebul het vir Gaäl en sy mense verdryf en hulle kon nie in Sigem bly woon nie. 42Die volgende môre het die burgers van die omgewing dit vir Abimelek gaan vertel. 43Hy het sy manne gevat en in drie groepe verdeel en 'n hinderlaag in die veld opgestel. Toe hy die mense uit die stad sien uitkom, het hy hulle gestorm en verslaan. 44Abimelek en die leiers by hom het gestorm en by die poort van die stad gaan staan, en die twee ander groepe het gestorm en al die mense in die oop veld verslaan. 45Abimelek het daardie hele dag teen die stad geveg. Hy het dit ingeneem en al die mense daarin doodgemaak. Hy het die stad afgebreek en sout daaroor gestrooi. 46Toe al die burgers van Migdol-Sigem dit hoor, het hulle na die grafkelder in die tempel van El-Berit toe gegaan. 47Aan Abimelek is vertel dat al die burgers van Migdol-Sigem daar bymekaargekom het. 48Toe het hy met sy manne Salmonberg uitgeklim. Hy het 'n byl gevat, 'n boomtak afgekap en dit op sy skouer getel. Toe sê hy vir sy manne: Julle het gesien wat ek doen. Doen dit ook gou! 49Elkeen het toe vir hom 'n tak gekap en hulle het vir Abimelek gevolg. Hulle het dit teen die grafkelder opgestapel met die mense daarbinne, en dit aan die brand gesteek. So het hulle al die burgers van Migdol-Sigem doodgemaak, omtrent duisend mans en vrouens. 50Daarna is Abimelek na Tebes toe. Hy het dit beleër en ingeneem. 51In die middel van die stad was daar 'n sterk toring en al die mans en vrouens van Tebes het daarheen gevlug, al die burgers van die stad is daar in. Hulle het hulleself daarin toegesluit en op die dak van die toring gaan staan. 52Abimelek het by die toring gekom en wou dit bestorm, maar toe hy by die deur van die toring kom om dit aan die brand te steek, 53het 'n vrou 'n maalklip op sy kop gegooi en sy kopbeen verbrysel. 54Toe roep hy gou sy wapendraer en sê vir hom: Trek jou swaard! Maak my dood. Hulle moenie van my kan sê 'n vrou het my doodgemaak nie! Sy wapendraer het hom toe met die swaard deurboor, en so is Abimelek dood. 55Toe die Israeliete sien Abimelek is dood, is hulle almal huis toe. 56So het God die onreg gestraf wat Abimelek sy pa aangedoen het toe Abimelek sy sewentig broers vermoor het. 57God het ook al die verkeerde dade van die mense van Sigem op hulle koppe laat afkom: die vloek wat Jotam seun van Jerubbaäl oor hulle uitgespreek het, het hulle getref.

Judges 10

Tola and Jair

Jdg 10:1 After Abimelech's death Tola, the son of Puah and grandson of Dodo, came to free Israel. He was from the tribe of Issachar and lived at Shamir in the hill country of Ephraim.

Jdg 10:2 He was Israel's leader for twenty-three years. Then he died and was buried at Shamir.

Jdg 10:3 After Tola came Jair from Gilead. He led Israel for twenty-two years.

Jdg 10:4 He had thirty sons who rode thirty donkeys. They had thirty cities in the land of Gilead, which are still called the villages of Jair.

Jdg 10:5 Jair died and was buried at Kamon.

Further Disobedience and Oppression

Jdg 10:6 Once again the Israelites sinned against the LORD by worshiping the Baals and the Astartes, as well as the gods of Syria, of Sidon, of Moab, of Ammon, and of Philistia. They abandoned the LORD and stopped worshiping him.

Jdg 10:7 So the LORD became angry with the Israelites, and let the Philistines and the Ammonites conquer them.

Jdg 10:8 For eighteen years they oppressed and persecuted all the Israelites who lived in Amorite country east of the Jordan River in Gilead.

Jdg 10:9 The Ammonites even crossed the Jordan to fight the tribes of Judah, Benjamin, and Ephraim. Israel was in great distress.

Jdg 10:10 Then the Israelites cried out to the LORD and said, "We have sinned against you, for we left you, our God, and worshiped the Baals."

Jdg 10:11 The LORD gave them this answer: "The Egyptians, the Amorites, the Ammonites, the Philistines, Jdg 10:12 the Sidonians, the Amalekites, and the Maonites oppressed you in the past, and you cried out to me. Did I not save you from them?

Jdg 10:13 But you still left me and worshiped other gods, so I am not going to rescue you again.

Jdg 10:14 Go and cry out to the gods you have chosen. Let them rescue you when you get in trouble."

Jdg 10:15 But the people of Israel said to the LORD, "We have sinned. Do whatever you like, but please, save us today."

Jdg 10:16 So they got rid of their foreign gods and worshiped the LORD; and he became troubled over Israel's distress.

Jdg 10:17 Then the Ammonite army prepared for battle and camped in Gilead. The people of Israel came together and camped at Mizpah in Gilead.

Jdg 10:18 There the people and the leaders of the Israelite tribes asked one another, "Who will lead the fight against the Ammonites? Whoever does will be the leader of everyone in Gilead."

RIGTERS 10

1Na Abimelek het Tola na vore gekom om die Israeliete te red. Hy was 'n seun van Puwwa, seun van Dodo uit Issaskar, en hy het in Samir op die Efraimsberge gewoon. 2Hy was drie en twintig jaar lank die leier van Israel. Hy het gesterf, en hy is in Samir begrawe. 3Na hom het Jaïr uit Gilead na vore gekom en hy was twee en twintig jaar lank die leier van Israel. 4Jaïr het dertig seuns gehad en elkeen het op 'n jong donkie gery. Hulle het dertig dorpe besit en dit word nou nog die tentdorpe van Jaïr genoem. Die dorpe is in Gilead geleë. 5Jaïr het gesterf, en hy is begrawe in Kamon. 6Die Israeliete het weer gedoen wat verkeerd is in die oë van die Here. Hulle het die Baäls en die Astartes en die gode van Sidon vereer, en ook dié van die Arameërs, die Moabiete, die Ammoniete en die Filistyne. Hulle was ontrou aan die Here, hulle het Hom nie gedien nie. 7Toe het die Here kwaad geword vir die Israeliete en Hy het hulle oorgegee in die mag van die Filistyne en die Ammoniete. 8Van toe af het die Amoriete die Israeliete in Gilead agtien jaar lank verdruk en mishandel. Gilead was oos van die Jordaan, in die gebied van die Amoriete. 9Die Amoriete het selfs die Jordaan oorgesteek en teen Juda, Benjamin en Efraim gaan oorlog maak en Israel swaar laat ly. 10Toe het die Israeliete tot die Here geroep: Ons het teen U gesondig. Ons was ontrou aan ons God en ons het die Baäls gedien. 11Die Here het vir die Israeliete gesê: Toe die Egiptenaars, die Amoriete, die Ammoniete, die Filistyne, 12die mense van Sidon, Amalek en Maon julle verdruk het en julle tot My geroep het, het Ek julle uit hulle mag gered. 13Maar julle was nou ontrou aan My, julle het ander gode gedien en daarom het Ek julle nie nou gered nie. 14Gaan roep tot die gode wat deur julle gekies is. Laat hulle julle red noudat julle swaarkry. 15Maar die Israeliete het die Here geantwoord: Ons het gesondig! Doen U met ons wat goed is in u oë, maar red ons tog net vandag! 16Hulle het toe die ander gode tussen hulle uit verwyder en hulle het die Here gedien, en Hy het 'n end gemaak aan hulle swaarkry. 17Die Ammoniete is opgeroep en hulle het kamp opgeslaan in Gilead. Die Israeliete het ook bymekaargekom en in Mispa kamp opgeslaan. 18Die leiers van Gilead het vir mekaar gevra: Wie sal die oorlog teen die Ammoniete begin? Dié man moet die leier van al Gilead se mense word.

Judges 11

Jephthah Delivers Israel

Jdg 11:1 Jephthah, a brave soldier from Gilead, was the son of a prostitute. His father Gilead

Jdg 11:2 had other sons by his wife, and when they grew up, they forced Jephthah to leave home. They told him, "You will not inherit anything from our father; you are the son of another woman."

Jdg 11:3 Jephthah fled from his brothers and lived in the land of Tob. There he attracted a group of worthless men, and they went around with him.

Jdg 11:4 It was some time later that the Ammonites went to war against Israel.

Jdg 11:5 When this happened, the leaders of Gilead went to bring Jephthah back from the land of Tob.

Jdg 11:6 They told him, "Come and lead us, so that we can fight the Ammonites."

Jdg 11:7 But Jephthah answered, "You hated me so much that you forced me to leave my father's house. Why come to me now that you're in trouble?"

Jdg 11:8 They said to Jephthah, "We are turning to you now because we want you to go with us and fight the Ammonites and lead all the people of Gilead."

Jdg 11:9 Jephthah said to them, "If you take me back home to fight the Ammonites and the LORD gives me victory, I will be your ruler."

Jdg 11:10 They replied, "We agree. The LORD is our witness."

Jdg 11:11 So Jephthah went with the leaders of Gilead, and the people made him their ruler and leader. Jephthah stated his terms at Mizpah in the presence of the LORD.

Jdg 11:12 Then Jephthah sent messengers to the king of Ammon to say, "What is your quarrel with us? Why have you invaded our country?"

Jdg 11:13 The king of Ammon answered Jephthah's messengers, "When the Israelites came out of Egypt, they took away my land from the Arnon River to the Jabbok River and the Jordan River. Now you must give it back peacefully."

Jdg 11:14 Jephthah sent messengers back to the king of Ammon

Jdg 11:15 with this answer: "It is not true that Israel took away the land of Moab or the land of Ammon.

Jdg 11:16 This is what happened: when the Israelites left Egypt, they went through the desert to the Gulf of Aqaba and came to Kadesh.

Jdg 11:17 Then they sent messengers to the king of Edom to ask permission to go through his land. But the king of Edom would not let them. They also asked the king of Moab, but neither would he let them go through his land. So the Israelites stayed at Kadesh.

Jdg 11:18 Then they went on through the desert, going around the land of Edom and the land of Moab until they came to the east side of Moab, on the other side of the Arnon River. They camped there, but they did not cross the Arnon because it was the boundary of Moab.

Jdg 11:19 Then the Israelites sent messengers to Sihon, the Amorite king of Heshbon, and asked him for permission to go through his country to their own land.

Jdg 11:20 But Sihon would not let Israel do it. He brought his whole army together, camped at Jahaz, and attacked Israel.

Jdg 11:21 But the LORD, the God of Israel, gave the Israelites victory over Sihon and his army. So the Israelites took possession of all the territory of the Amorites who lived in that country.

Jdg 11:22 They occupied all the Amorite territory from the Arnon in the south to the Jabbok in the north and from the desert on the east to the Jordan on the west.

Jdg 11:23 So it was the LORD, the God of Israel, who drove out the Amorites for his people, the Israelites.

Jdg 11:24 Are you going to try to take it back? You can keep whatever your god Chemosh has given you. But we are going to keep everything that the LORD, our God, has taken for us.

Jdg 11:25 Do you think you are any better than Balak son of Zippor, king of Moab? He never challenged Israel, did he? Did he ever go to war against us?

Jdg 11:26 For three hundred years Israel has occupied Heshbon and Aroer, and the towns around them, and all the cities on the banks of the Arnon River. Why haven't you taken them back in all this time?

Jdg 11:27 No, I have not done you any wrong. You are doing wrong by making war on me. The LORD is the judge. He will decide today between the Israelites and the Ammonites."

Jdg 11:28 But the king of Ammon paid no attention to this message from Jephthah.

Jephthah's Tragic Vow

Jdg 11:29 Then the spirit of the LORD came upon Jephthah. He went through Gilead and Manasseh and returned to Mizpah in Gilead and went on to Ammon.

Jdg 11:30 Jephthah promised the LORD: "If you will give me victory over the Ammonites, Jdg 11:31 I will burn as an offering the first person that comes out of my house to meet me, when I come back from the victory. I will offer that person to you as a sacrifice."

Jdg 11:32 So Jephthah crossed the river to fight the Ammonites, and the LORD gave him victory.

Jdg 11:33 He struck at them from Aroer to the area around Minnith, twenty cities in all, and as far as Abel Keramim. There was a great slaughter, and the Ammonites were defeated by Israel.

Jdg 11:34 When Jephthah went back home to Mizpah, there was his daughter coming out to meet him, dancing and playing the tambourine. She was his only child.

Jdg 11:35 When he saw her, he tore his clothes in sorrow and said, "Oh, my daughter! You are breaking my heart! Why must it be you that causes me pain? I have made a solemn promise to the LORD, and I cannot take it back!"

Jdg 11:36 She told him, "If you have made a promise to the LORD, do what you said you would do to me, since the LORD has given you revenge on your enemies, the Ammonites."

Jdg 11:37 But she asked her father, "Do this one thing for me. Leave me alone for two months, so that I can go with my friends to wander in the mountains and grieve that I must die a virgin."

Jdg 11:38 He told her to go and sent her away for two months. She and her friends went up into the mountains and grieved because she was going to die unmarried and childless.

Jdg 11:39 After two months she came back to her father. He did what he had promised the LORD, and she died still a virgin. This was the origin of the custom in Israel

Jdg 11:40 that the Israelite women would go out for four days every year to grieve for the daughter of Jephthah of Gilead.

RIGTERS 11

1Jefta was 'n seun van Gilead. Hy was 'n dapper soldaat. Sy ma was 'n prostituut, maar sy pa was Gilead. 2Gilead se vrou het ook vir hom seuns in die wêreld gebring, en toe hulle grootword, het hulle vir Jefta weggejaag en vir hom gesê: Jy mag nie van ons pa erf nie, want jy is die kind van 'n ander vrou. 3Toe vlug Jefta van sy broers af weg en gaan woon in Tob. 'n Klomp leeglêers het hulle by Jefta geskaar en saam met hom gegaan. 4'n Ruk daarna het die Ammoniete teen die Israeliete kom veg. 5Dit is toe dat die leiers van Gilead vir Jefta uit Tob gaan haal het. 6Hulle het vir hom gesê: Kom word ons aanvoerder sodat ons teen die Ammoniete kan veg. 7Jefta het vir die leiers van Gilead gesê: Julle het my gehaat. Julle het my weggejaag uit my pa se huis uit. Waarom kom julle noudat julle in die moeilikheid is na my toe? 8Maar die leiers van Gilead het vir Jefta gesê: Dit is juis waarom ons terug is by jou. Jy moet saam met ons kom sodat ons kan gaan oorlog maak teen die Ammoniete. Jy moet ons leier word en ook al die mense van Gilead s'n. 9Toe sê Jefta vir die leiers van Gilead: Moet ek julle leier word as julle my terugneem om teen die Ammoniete te veg en die Here hulle in my mag oorgee? 10Die leiers van Gilead het vir Jefta gesê: Die Here hoor wat ons vir mekaar sê en Hy sal ons straf as ons nie doen wat jy sê nie. 11Jefta is toe saam met die leiers van Gilead, en die leër het hom aangestel as hulle leier en aanvoerder. Hy het alles wat hy vir die leiers van Gilead gesê het, in Mispa herhaal in die teenwoordigheid van die Here. 12Toe stuur Jefta boodskappers na die koning van die Ammoniete toe om hom te vra: Wat het tussen ons gebeur dat jy hiernatoe gekom het om teen my land oorlog te maak? 13Die koning van die Ammoniete het die boodskappers van Jefta geantwoord: Toe die Israeliete uit Egipte weggetrek het, het hulle my land gevat, van die Arnon af tot by die Jabbok en die Jordaan. Gee dit nou in vrede terug. 14Jefta het toe weer boodskappers na die koning van die Ammoniete toe gestuur 15om vir hom te sê: So sê Jefta: Israel het nie die grond van die Moabiete en die grond van die Ammoniete gevat nie. 16Toe Israel uit Egipte weggetrek het, het hy deur die woestyn getrek tot by die Rietsee, en toe het hy by Kades aangekom. 17Daar het hy boodskappers na die koning van Edom toe gestuur en gevra: Laat my asseblief deur jou land trek,' maar hy het nie ingestem nie. Israel het dieselfde van die koning van Moab gevra, maar hy wou hulle nie toelaat nie. Israel het toe in Kades gebly. 18Daarna het hy deur die woestyn getrek, by die gebied van Edom en dié van Moab verby en oos van Moab, noord van die Arnon, kamp opgeslaan. Hy het nie in die gebied van Moab gekom nie, want die Arnon is Moab se grens. 19Toe het Israel boodskappers gestuur na koning Sihon van die

Amoriete toe in Gesbon en vir hom gevra: Laat my tog na my plek toe trek deur jou gebied.' 20Maar Sihon het nie vir Israel vertrou om hom deur sy gebied te laat trek nie. Sihon het sy hele volk bymekaargemaak, en hulle het by Jahas kamp opgeslaan en teen Israel begin veg. 21Die Here die God van Israel het vir Sihon en sy hele volk in die mag van Israel oorgegee, en hy het hulle verslaan en die hele gebied waar die Amoriete toe gewoon het, in besit geneem. 22Die Israeliete het die hele gebied van die Amoriete in besit geneem, van die Arnon af tot by die Jabbok en van die woestyn af tot by die Jordaan. 23Die Here die God van Israel het die Amoriete weggedryf voor sy volk Israel uit, en wil jy hom nou kom verdryf? 24Jy besit wat jou god Kemos jou in besit laat neem het. Wat die Here ons God ons in besit laat neem het, is ons s'n. 25Is jy dalk beter as koning Balak van Moab, seun van Sippor? Het hy dalk 'n saak gemaak teen Israel of met hom oorlog gemaak? 26Drie honderd jaar gelede het Israel in Gesbon en sy buitedorpe gaan woon, en ook in Aroër en sy buitedorpe, en in al die stede op die Arnonoewer. Waarom het jy hulle nie in daardie tyd teruggevat nie? 27Ek het niks verkeerds teenoor jou gedoen nie; maar jy handel verkeerd teenoor my deur met my te kom oorlog maak. Die Here wat regter is, sal vandag uitspraak lewer in die saak tussen die Israeliete en die Ammoniete. 28Maar die koning van die Ammoniete het nie geluister na die boodskap wat Jefta gestuur het nie. 29Toe het die Gees van die Here op Jefta gekom, en hy het deur Gilead en Manasse getrek en verbygetrek tot by Mispa in Gilead, en van daar af het hy teen die Ammoniete opgetrek. 30Jefta het 'n gelofte teenoor die Here afgelê en gesê: As U die Ammoniete vandag heeltemal oorgee in my mag, 31sal dié een wat my uit my huis uit tegemoet kom wanneer ek behoue terugkom van die Ammoniete af, aan die Here behoort: ek sal hom as brandoffer offer. 32Jefta het na die Ammoniete toe getrek om teen hulle te veg, en die Here het hulle in sy mag oorgegee. 33Jefta het hulle van Aroër af verslaan tot waar 'n mens kom by Minnit, twintig stede. By Abel-Keramim was daar 'n groot veldslag. Die Ammoniete is voor die Israeliete verneder. 34Jefta het in Mispa by sy huis gekom, en toe kom sy dogter hom tegemoet met tamboeryne en koordanse. Sy was sy enigste kind. Hy het nie nog 'n seun of 'n dogter gehad nie. 35Toe hy haar sien, het hy sy klere geskeur en gesê: Ag, my dogter, jy het my gebreek en in die ellende gedompel: ek het my woord aan die Here gegee en ek kan dit nie terugtrek nie. 36Jefta se dogter het hom geantwoord: Pa, Pa het Pa se woord aan die Here gegee. Doen met my wat Pa gesê het nou dat die Here vir Pa gehelp het om Pa se vyande, die Ammoniete, te straf. 37Sy het verder vir hom gesê: Bewys my net hierdie guns: gee my twee maande uitstel om berge toe te gaan en daar saam met my vriendinne te gaan treur oor my lewe as jongmeisie. 38Hy het vir haar gesê: Gaan gerus maar! Hy het haar twee maande vrygelaat, en sy en haar vriendinne het berge toe gegaan en gaan treur oor haar lewe as jongmeisie. 39Na die twee maande het sy teruggekom na haar pa toe en hy het met haar gehandel volgens sy gelofte wat hy afgelê het. Sy het nooit gemeenskap met 'n man gehad nie. 40Dit het 'n gewoonte in Israel geword: dat die Israelitiese meisies elke jaar vier dae lank gaan treur oor die dogter van Jefta die Gileadiet.

Judges 12

Jephthah's Conflict with Ephraim

Jdg 12:1 The men of Ephraim prepared for battle; they crossed the Jordan River to Zaphon and said to Jephthah, "Why did you cross the border to fight the Ammonites without calling us to go with you? We'll burn the house down over your head!"

Jdg 12:2 But Jephthah told them, "My people and I had a serious quarrel with the Ammonites. I did call you, but you would not rescue me from them.

Jdg 12:3 When I saw that you were not going to, I risked my life and crossed the border to fight them, and the LORD gave me victory over them. So why are you coming up to fight me now?"

Jdg 12:4 Then Jephthah brought all the men of Gilead together, fought the men of Ephraim and defeated them. (The Ephraimites had said, "You Gileadites in Ephraim and Manasseh, you are deserters from Ephraim!")

Jdg 12:5 In order to keep the Ephraimites from escaping, the Gileadites captured the places where the Jordan could be crossed. When any Ephraimite who was trying to escape would ask permission to cross, the men of Gilead would ask, "Are you an Ephraimite?" If he said, "No,"

Jdg 12:6 they would tell him to say "Shibboleth." But he would say "Sibboleth," because he could not pronounce it correctly. Then they would grab him and kill him there at one of the Jordan River crossings. At that time forty-two thousand of the Ephraimites were killed.

Jdg 12:7 Jephthah led Israel for six years. Then he died and was buried in his hometown in Gilead.

Ibzan, Elon, and Abdon

Jdg 12:8 After Jephthah, Ibzan from Bethlehem led Israel.

Jdg 12:9 He had thirty sons and thirty daughters. He gave his daughters in marriage outside the clan and brought thirty young women from outside the clan for his sons to marry. Ibzan led Israel for seven years,

Jdg 12:10 then he died and was buried at Bethlehem.

Jdg 12:11 After Ibzan, Elon from Zebulun led Israel for ten years.

Jdg 12:12 Then he died and was buried at Aijalon in the territory of Zebulun.

Jdg 12:13 After Elon, Abdon son of Hillel from Pirathon led Israel.

Jdg 12:14 He had forty sons and thirty grandsons, who rode on seventy donkeys. Abdon led Israel for eight years, Jdg 12:15 then he died and was buried at Pirathon in the territory of Ephraim in the hill country of the Amalekites.

RIGTERS 12

[1]Die manne van Efraim is vir oorlog opgeroep en het deur die Jordaan getrek na Safon toe. Hulle het vir Jefta gaan sê: Waarom het jy alleen opgetrek om teen die Ammoniete te gaan veg? Waarom het jy ons nie opgeroep om saam met jou te gaan nie? Ons gaan jou huis bokant jou kop afbrand. [2]Jefta het hulle geantwoord: Ek en my manskappe was in 'n ernstige stryd gewikkel met die Ammoniete, en ek het julle hulp ingeroep. Maar julle het my nie uit hulle mag kom red nie. [3]Toe ek merk daar is niemand wat my kom red nie, het ek my lewe gewaag en teen hulle opgetrek. Die Here het hulle in my mag oorgegee. Waarom kom julle nou teen my oorlog maak? [4]Jefta het toe al die manne van Gilead opgeroep en teen Efraim oorlog gemaak, en die manne van Gilead het vir Efraim verslaan. Die mense van Efraim het altyd vir hulle gesê: Julle mense van Gilead is weglopers uit Efraim en Manasse. [5]Die manne van Gilead het die Jordaandriwwe na Efraim toe beset, en wanneer 'n Efraimitiese vlugteling sê: Ek wil deurgaan, sê hulle vir hom: Jy is 'n Efraimiet. As hy sê: Nee, ek is nie, [6]sê hulle vir hom: Sê 'n bietjie: Sjibbolet, maar dan sê hy: Sibbolet, want hy kan dit nie reg uitspreek nie. Dan gryp hulle hom en maak hom daar by die Jordaandrif dood. In daardie tyd het daar twee en veertig duisend man van Efraim gesneuwel. [7]Jefta was ses jaar lank 'n leier van Israel. Judges 13

The Birth of Samson

Jdg 13:1 The Israelites sinned against the LORD again, and he let the Philistines rule them for forty years.

Jdg 13:2 At that time there was a man named Manoah from the town of Zorah. He was a member of the tribe of Dan. His wife had never been able to have children.

Jdg 13:3 The LORD's angel appeared to her and said, "You have never been able to have children, but you will soon be pregnant and have a son.

Jdg 13:4 Be sure not to drink any wine or beer, or eat any forbidden food;

Jdg 13:5 and after your son is born, you must never cut his hair, because from the day of his birth he will be dedicated to God as a nazirite. He will begin the work of rescuing Israel from the Philistines."

Jdg 13:6 Then the woman went and told her husband, "A man of God has come to me, and he looked as frightening as the angel of God. I didn't ask him where he came from, and he didn't tell me his name.

Jdg 13:7 But he did tell me that I would become pregnant and have a son. He told me not to drink any wine or beer, or eat any forbidden food, because the boy is to be dedicated to God as a nazirite as long as he lives."

Jdg 13:8 Then Manoah prayed to the LORD, "Please, LORD, let the man of God that you sent come back to us and tell us what we must do with the boy when he is born."

Jdg 13:9 God did what Manoah asked, and his angel came back to the woman while she was sitting in the field. Her husband Manoah was not with her,

Jdg 13:10 so she ran at once and told him, "Look! The man who came to me the other day has appeared to me again."

Jdg 13:11 Manoah got up and followed his wife. He went to the man and asked, "Are you the man who talked to my wife?" "Yes," he answered.

Jdg 13:12 Then Manoah said, "Now then, when your words come true, what must the boy do? What kind of a life must he lead?"

Jdg 13:13 The LORD's angel answered, "Your wife must be sure to do everything that I have told her.

Jdg 13:14 She must not eat anything that comes from the grapevine; she must not drink any wine or beer, or eat any forbidden food. She must do everything that I have told her."

Jdg 13:15 (15-16) Not knowing that it was the LORD's angel, Manoah said to him, "Please do not go yet. Let us cook a young goat for you." But the angel said, "If I do stay, I will not eat your food. But if you want to prepare it, burn it as an offering to the LORD."

Jdg 13:17 Manoah replied, "Tell us your name, so that we can honor you when your words come true."

Jdg 13:18 The angel asked, "Why do you want to know my name? It is a name of wonder."

Jdg 13:19 So Manoah took a young goat and some grain, and offered them on the rock altar to the LORD who works wonders.

Jdg 13:20 (20-21) While the flames were going up from the altar, Manoah and his wife saw the LORD's angel go up toward heaven in the flames. Manoah realized then that the man had been the LORD's angel, and he and his wife threw themselves face downward on the ground. They never saw the angel again.

Jdg 13:22 Manoah said to his wife, "We are sure to die, because we have seen God!"

Jdg 13:23 But his wife answered, "If the LORD had wanted to kill us, he would not have accepted our offerings; he would not have shown us all this or told us such things at this time."

Jdg 13:24 The woman gave birth to a son and named him Samson. The child grew and the LORD blessed him.

Jdg 13:25 And the LORD's power began to strengthen him while he was between Zorah and Eshtaol in the Camp of Dan.

[1]Die Israeliete het weer gedoen wat verkeerd is in die oë van die Here, en Hy het hulle veertig jaar lank oorgegee in die mag van die Filistyne. [2]Daar was 'n man uit Sora uit die stam van Dan. Sy naam was Manoag. Sy vrou was kinderloos. [3]Die Engel van die Here het aan haar verskyn en vir haar gesê: Jy is nou kinderloos, maar jy sal swanger word en 'n seun in die wêreld bring. [4]Jy moet jouself goed oppas en nie wyn of bier drink nie en ook nie iets onreins eet nie. [5]Trouens, jy is reeds swanger en jy sal 'n seun in die wêreld bring. Sy hare mag nie geskeer word nie, want die kind sal van sy geboorte af aan God gewy wees. Hy sal die Israeliete begin red uit die mag van die Filistyne. [6]Die vrou het toe vir haar man gaan sê: Daar het 'n man van God by my gekom. Hy het gelyk soos 'n engel van God, 'n man met gesag. Ek het hom nie gevra waarvandaan hy kom nie, en hy het my nie gesê wat sy naam is nie. [7]Hy het vir my gesê: Kyk, jy is swanger en sal 'n seun in die wêreld bring. Jy mag voortaan nie wyn of bier drink nie en ook nie enigiets onreins eet nie, want die kind sal van sy geboorte af tot met sy dood aan God gewy wees. [8]Toe het Manoag tot die Here gebid: Here, laat die man van God vir wie U gestuur het, asseblief weer na ons toe kom dat hy ons kan leer wat ons moet doen met die kind wat gebore sal word. [9]God het Manoag se gebed verhoor, en die Engel van God het weer na die vrou toe gekom. Sy het in die veld gesit, en haar man Manoag was nie by haar nie. [10]Toe hardloop sy gou en sê vir haar man: Die man wat nou die dag na my toe gekom het, het weer aan my verskyn. [11]Manoag is toe dadelik agter sy vrou aan. Hy het by die man gekom en vir hom gevra: Is u die man wat met my vrou gepraat het? Die man het geantwoord: Ja, Ek is. [12]Manoag het vir hom gevra: Wanneer u belofte waar word, hoe moet die kind hom dan gedra en wat moet hy doen? [13]Die Engel van die Here het vir Manoag geantwoord: Jou vrou moet alles doen wat Ek vir haar gesê het. [14]Sy mag nie die opbrengs van 'n wingerdstok eet nie, en sy mag nie wyn of bier drink nie. Sy mag ook nie iets onreins eet nie. Sy moet alles doen wat Ek vir haar gesê het. [15]Toe sê Manoag vir die Engel van die Here: Wag tog 'n rukkie, dan maak ons vir u 'n bokkie gaar. [16]Die Engel van die Here sê toe vir Manoag: Al laat jy My 'n rukkie wag, sal Ek nie jou kos eet nie. Maar as jy 'n brandoffer wil bring, moet jy dit vir die Here bring. Manoag het nie besef dat dit die Engel van die Here is nie, [17]en toe sê Manoag vir die Engel: Wat is u naam? Wanneer u belofte waar word, wil ons aan u eer betoon. [18]Hy het vir Manoag geantwoord: Waarom vra jy my Naam? Dit is te wonderlik om uit te spreek. [19]Toe vat Manoag die bokkie, en hy sit dit saam met 'n graanoffer op 'n klip as offer vir die Here. Terwyl Manoag en sy vrou staan en kyk, het die Here 'n wonder laat gebeur. [20]Die vlam het van die altaar af opgegaan hemel toe en die Engel van die Here het in die altaarvlam opgestyg. Manoag en sy vrou het dit gesien en hulle het platgeval op die grond. [21]Die Engel van die Here het nie weer aan Manoag en sy vrou verskyn nie, maar Manoag het besef dat dit die Engel van die Here was. [22]Toe sê Manoag vir sy vrou: Ons gaan beslis sterf, want ons het God gesien, [23]maar sy sê vir haar man: As die Here ons wou doodmaak, sou Hy nie die brandoffer en graanoffer van ons aangeneem het nie. Hy sou ons ook nie hierdie wonderlike ding laat sien het en ons vandag hierdie nuus meegedeel het nie. [24]Die vrou het 'n seun in die wêreld gebring en sy het hom Simson genoem. Die kind het groot geword en die Here het hom geseën: [25]die Gees van die Here het hom in Magane-Dan, tussen Sora en Estaol, begin lei.

Judges 14

Samson's Marriage

Jdg 14:1 One day Samson went down to Timnah, where he noticed a certain young Philistine woman.

Jdg 14:2 He went back home and told his father and mother, "There is a Philistine woman down at Timnah who caught my attention. Get her for me; I want to marry her."

Jdg 14:3 But his father and mother asked him, "Why do you have to go to those heathen Philistines to get a wife? Can't you find someone in our own clan, among all our people?" But Samson told his father, "She is the one I want you to get for me. I like her."

Jdg 14:4 His parents did not know that it was the LORD who was leading Samson to do this, for the LORD was looking for a chance to fight the Philistines. At this time the Philistines were ruling Israel.

Jdg 14:5 So Samson went down to Timnah with his father and mother. As they were going through the vineyards there, he heard a young lion roaring.

Jdg 14:6 Suddenly the power of the LORD made Samson strong, and he tore the lion apart with his bare hands, as if it were a young goat. But he did not tell his parents what he had done.

Jdg 14:7 Then he went and talked to the young woman, and he liked her.

Jdg 14:8 A few days later Samson went back to marry her. On the way he left the road to look at the lion he had killed, and he was surprised to find a swarm of bees and some honey inside the dead body.

Jdg 14:9 He scraped the honey out into his hands and ate it as he walked along. Then he went to his father and mother and gave them some. They ate it, but Samson did not tell them that he had taken the honey from the dead body of a lion.

Jdg 14:10 His father went to the woman's house, and Samson gave a banquet there. This was a custom among the young men.

Jdg 14:11 When the Philistines saw him, they sent thirty young men to stay with him.

Jdg 14:12 (12-13) Samson said to them, "Let me tell you a riddle. I'll bet each one of you a piece of fine linen and a change of fine clothes that you can't tell me its meaning before the seven days of the wedding feast are over." "Tell us your riddle," they said. "Let's hear it."

Jdg 14:14 He said, "Out of the eater came something to eat; Out of the strong came something sweet." Three days later they had still not figured out what the riddle meant.

Jdg 14:15 On the fourth day they said to Samson's wife, "Trick your husband into telling us what the riddle means. If you don't, we'll set fire to your father's house and burn you with it. You two invited us so that you could rob us, didn't you?"

Jdg 14:16 So Samson's wife went to him in tears and said, "You don't love me! You just hate me! You told my friends a riddle and didn't tell me what it means!" He said, "Look, I haven't even told my father and mother. Why should I tell you?"

Jdg 14:17 She cried about it for the whole seven days of the feast. But on the seventh day he told her what the riddle meant, for she nagged him so about it. Then she told the Philistines.

Jdg 14:18 So on the seventh day, before Samson went into the bedroom, the men of the city said to him, "What could be sweeter than honey? What could be stronger than a lion?" Samson replied, "If you hadn't been plowing with my cow, You wouldn't know the answer now."

Jdg 14:19 Suddenly the power of the LORD made him strong, and he went down to Ashkelon, where he killed thirty men, stripped them, and gave their fine clothes to the men who had solved the riddle. After that, he went back home, furious about what had happened, Jdg 14:20 and his wife was given to the man that had been his best man at the wedding.

RIGTERS 14

1Op 'n keer is Simson na Timna toe en daar het hy 'n vrou gesien. Sy was 'n Filistynse meisie. 2Hy het teruggegaan en vir sy ouers vertel: Ek het 'n vrou in Timna gesien, 'n Filistynse meisie. Gaan kry haar vir my as vrou. 3Maar sy ouers vra vir hom: Is daar nie onder jou familie of onder al jou volksgenote 'n vrou nie dat jy na die heidene, die Filistyne, toe moet gaan om te trou? Simson het vir sy pa gesê: Kry haar vir my, want ek hou van haar. 4Sy ouers het nie besef dat dit alles van die Here kom nie, want Hy wou 'n geleentheid skep om die Filistyne te straf: in dié tyd het die Filistyne oor Israel geheers. 5Simson en sy ouers is toe na Timna toe. By die wingerde van Timna het 'n jong leeu brullend op Simson afgestorm. 6Die Gees van die Here het vir Simson sterk gemaak en hy het die leeu kaalhand uitmekaar geskeur asof dit 'n bokkie was. Simson het nie vir sy ouers vertel wat hy gedoen het nie. 7Hy het toe met die Filistynse vrou gaan praat, en hy het van haar gehou. 8Toe hy 'n ruk later terug is Timna toe om met haar te gaan trou, het hy afgedraai om na die geraamte van die leeu te gaan kyk. Daar was 'n swerm bye met heuning in die karkas. 9Hy het heuning in sy hand gevat en daarvan geloop en eet. Toe hy by sy ouers kom, het hy vir hulle ook gegee, en hulle het geëet, maar hy het hulle nie vertel dat hy die heuning uit die karkas van 'n leeu gekry het nie. 10Toe sy pa-hulle by die vrou aankom, het Simson daar 'n feesmaal gehou: dit was 'n gewoonte onder die jongmanne. 11Toe die Filistyne hom sien, het hulle dertig vriende by hom laat bly. 12Hy het vir hulle gesê: Laat ek julle 'n raaisel vra. As julle my die raaisel se antwoord binne die sewe feesdae kan gee, sal ek vir julle dertig linnehemde en dertig stelle klere gee, 13maar as julle dit nie kan doen nie, moet julle vir my dertig linnehemde en dertig stelle klere gee. Hulle het hom geantwoord: Gee jou raaisel! Ons wil dit hoor! 14Simson sê toe: Uit 'n eter kom daar iets te ete, uit 'n sterke kom daar iets soets. Die derde dag kon hulle nog nie die antwoord gee nie. 15Die sewende dag sê hulle toe vir Simson se vrou: Haal jou man oor om die antwoord op die raaisel aan ons bekend te maak, anders verbrand ons jou en jou familie. Het jy ons hierheen genooi om ons kaal uit te trek? 16Simson se vrou het by hom gehuil en gesê: Jy haat my. Jy het my nie lief nie. Jy het my mense 'n raaisel gevra sonder om vir my te sê wat dit beteken. Hy het vir haar gesê: Hoe sou ek dit vir jou vertel? Ek het dit selfs nie vir my ouers vertel nie. 17Sy het die hele sewe dae van die fees by hom geneul en op die sewende dag het hy dit vir haar vertel, want sy het hom bly lastig val. Sy het toe die antwoord op die raaisel vir haar mense gegee. 18Op die sewende dag, net voor sononder, sê die mense van die stad toe vir Simson: Wat is soeter as heuning? Wat is sterker as 'n leeu? Hy sê toe vir hulle: Julle het met my kalf geploeg anders sou julle nie die antwoord op my raaisel gevind het nie! [19]Die Gees van die Here het vir Simson sterk gemaak, en hy is af Askelon toe. Daar het hy dertig man doodgeslaan en hulle klere gevat en vir die mans gegee wat die raaisel uitgelê het. Hy was baie kwaad en is na sy pa se huis toe. [20]Simson se vrou is toe aan die vriend gegee wat sy strooijonker was.

Judges 15

Samson Defeats the Philistines

Jdg 15:1 Some time later Samson went to visit his wife during the wheat harvest and took her a young goat. He told her father, "I want to go to my wife's room." But he wouldn't let him go in.

Jdg 15:2 He told Samson, "I really thought that you hated her, so I gave her to your friend. But her younger sister is prettier, anyway. You can have her, instead."

Jdg 15:3 Samson said, "This time I'm not going to be responsible for what I do to the Philistines!"

Jdg 15:4 So he went and caught three hundred foxes. Two at a time, he tied their tails together and put torches in the knots.

Jdg 15:5 Then he set fire to the torches and turned the foxes loose in the Philistine wheat fields. In this way he burned up not only the wheat that had been harvested but also the wheat that was still in the fields. The olive orchards were also burned.

Jdg 15:6 When the Philistines asked who had done this, they learned that Samson had done it because his father-in-law, a man from Timnah, had given Samson's wife to a friend of Samson's. So the Philistines went and burned the woman to death and burned down her father's house.

Jdg 15:7 Samson told them, "So this is how you act! I swear that I won't stop until I pay you back!"

Jdg 15:8 He attacked them fiercely and killed many of them. Then he went and stayed in the cave in the cliff at Etam.

Jdg 15:9 The Philistines came and camped in Judah, and attacked the town of Lehi.

Jdg 15:10 The men of Judah asked them, "Why are you attacking us?" They answered, "We came to take Samson prisoner and to treat him as he treated us."

Jdg 15:11 So these three thousand men of Judah went to the cave in the cliff at Etam and said to Samson, "Don't you know that the Philistines are our rulers? What have you done to us?" He answered, "I did to them just what they did to me."

Jdg 15:12 They told him, "We have come here to tie you up, so we can hand you over to them." Samson said, "Give me your word that you won't kill me yourselves."

Jdg 15:13 "All right," they said, "we are only going to tie you up and hand you over to them. We won't kill you." So they tied him up with two new ropes and brought him back from the cliff.

Jdg 15:14 When he got to Lehi, the Philistines came running toward him, shouting at him. Suddenly the power of the LORD made him strong, and he broke the ropes around his arms and hands as if they were burnt thread.

Jdg 15:15 Then he found a jawbone of a donkey that had recently died. He reached down and picked it up, and killed a thousand men with it.

Jdg 15:16 So Samson sang, "With the jawbone of a donkey I killed a thousand men; With the jawbone of a donkey I piled them up in piles."

Jdg 15:17 After that, he threw the jawbone away. The place where this happened was named Ramath Lehi.

Jdg 15:18 Then Samson became very thirsty, so he called to the LORD and said, "You gave me this great victory; am I now going to die of thirst and be captured by these heathen Philistines?"

Jdg 15:19 Then God opened a hollow place in the ground there at Lehi, and water came out of it. Samson drank it and began to feel much better. So the spring was named Hakkore; it is still there at Lehi.

Jdg 15:20 Samson led Israel for twenty years while the Philistines ruled the land.

1'n Ruk later, in die koringoestyd, het Simson vir sy vrou gaan kuier en 'n bokkie saamgevat. Hy het gesê: Ek wil by my vrou gaan slaap. Maar haar pa wou hom nie toelaat nie. 2Haar pa het gesê: Ek was doodseker dat jy haar nou haat, en daarom het ek haar vir jou strooijonker gegee. Haar jonger suster is mooier as sy. Jy kan haar kry in jou vrou se plek. 3Maar Simson sê vir hulle: Hierdie keer het ek die Filistyne niks verkeerds aangedoen nie. Ek gaan 'n ramp oor hulle bring. 4Hy het toe drie honderd jakkalse gaan vang en hulle sterte twee-twee aan mekaar vasgemaak. Hy het fakkels gevat en tussen elke twee sterte 'n fakkel vasgemaak. 5Hy het toe die fakkels aan die brand gesteek en die jakkalse tussen die graan van die Filistyne losgelaat. Hy het die miedens en die graan op die land aan die brand gesteek, ook die wingerde en die olyfboorde. 6Toe die Filistyne vra: Wie het dit gedoen? is daar gesê: Simson, die skoonseun van die man uit Timna, want hy het Simson se vrou met sy strooijonker laat trou. Die Filistyne het toe gekom en haar en haar pa verbrand. 7Simson het vir hulle gesê: As dít is wat julle doen, sal ek nie ophou voordat ek my op julle gewreek het nie. 8Hy het hulle verwoed aangeval en 'n groot slagting aangerig. Toe het hy vertrek en in die rotskloof by Etam gaan woon. 9Die Filistyne het in Juda gaan kamp opslaan en 'n strooptog teen Legi uitgevoer. 10Toe vra die mense van Juda: Waarom het julle teen ons opgetrek? en die Filistyne antwoord: Om vir Simson te vang en met hom te doen wat hy met ons gedoen het. 11Toe gaan drie duisend man van Juda na die rotskloof toe by Etam en hulle vra vir Simson: Het jy nie besef dat die Filistyne oor ons heers nie? Wat het jy ons nou aangedoen? Hy het hulle geantwoord: Ek het die Filistyne net aangedoen wat hulle mý aangedoen het. 12Die manne van Juda sê toe vir hom: Ons het jou kom boei om jou aan die Filistyne uit te lewer. Simson het vir hulle gesê: Lê eers vir my 'n eed af dat julle my nie om die lewe sal bring nie. 13Hulle het hom beloof: Goed! Ons sal jou nie doodmaak nie. Ons sal jou net boei en aan die Filistyne uitlewer. Die manne het hom toe met twee nuwe toue vasgebind en hom van die rots af weggevat. 14Toe hy in Legi kom, het die Filistyne hard geskreeu en op hom afgestorm. Maar die Gees van die Here het vir Simson sterk gemaak, en die toue om sy arms was soos garingdraadjies wat brand, en sy boeie het van sy hande afgeval. 15Toe kry Simson die vars kakebeen van 'n donkie in die hande en hy vat dit vas en slaan 'n duisend Filistyne daarmee dood. 16Toe sê hy: Met die kakebeen van 'n donkie het ek 'n hopie van hulle gemaak, met die kakebeen van 'n donkie het ek duisend man doodgeslaan. 17Toe hy dit gesê het, het hy die kakebeen weggegooi en die plek Kakebeenshoogte genoem. [18]Simson was baie dors en toe roep hy tot die Here: U het hierdie groot oorwinning deur my moontlik gemaak. Moet ek nou van dors sterf en in die hande van die heidene val? [19]Toe het God die holte by Legi oopgebreek en daar het water uitgekom en Simson het gedrink en weer nuwe krag gekry. Daarom word die fontein in Legi nou nog Roepersfontein genoem. [20]Simson was in die tyd van die Filistyne twintig jaar lank leier van die Israeliete.

Judges 16

Samson and Delilah

Jdg 16:1 One day Samson went to the Philistine city of Gaza, where he met a prostitute and went to bed with her.

Jdg 16:2 The people of Gaza found out that Samson was there, so they surrounded the place and waited for him all night long at the city gate. They were quiet all night, thinking to themselves, "We'll wait until daybreak, and then we'll kill him."

Jdg 16:3 But Samson stayed in bed only until midnight. Then he got up and took hold of the city gate and pulled it up—doors, posts, lock, and all. He put them on his shoulders and carried them far off to the top of the hill overlooking Hebron.

Jdg 16:4 After this, Samson fell in love with a woman named Delilah, who lived in Sorek Valley.

Jdg 16:5 The five Philistine kings went to her and said, "Trick Samson into telling you why he is so strong and how we can overpower him, tie him up, and make him helpless. Each one of us will give you eleven hundred pieces of silver."

Jdg 16:6 So Delilah said to Samson, "Please tell me what makes you so strong. If someone wanted to tie you up and make you helpless, how could he do it?"

Jdg 16:7 Samson answered, "If they tie me up with seven new bowstrings that are not dried out, I'll be as weak as anybody else."

Jdg 16:8 So the Philistine kings brought Delilah seven new bowstrings that were not dried out, and she tied Samson up.

Jdg 16:9 She had some men waiting in another room, so she shouted, "Samson! The Philistines are coming!" But he snapped the bowstrings just as thread breaks when fire touches it. So they still did not know the secret of his strength.

Jdg 16:10 Delilah told Samson, "Look, you've been making a fool of me and not telling me the truth. Please tell me how someone could tie you up."

Jdg 16:11 He told her, "If they tie me with new ropes that have never been used, I'll be as weak as anybody else."

Jdg 16:12 So Delilah got some new ropes and tied him up. Then she shouted, "Samson! The Philistines are coming!" The men were waiting in another room. But he snapped the ropes off his arms like thread.

Jdg 16:13 Delilah said to Samson, "You're still making a fool of me and not telling me the truth. Tell me how someone could tie you up." He told her, "If you weave my seven locks of hair into a loom, and make it tight with a peg, I'll be as weak as anybody else."

Jdg 16:14 Delilah then lulled him to sleep, took his seven locks of hair, and wove them into the loom. She made it tight with a peg and shouted, "Samson! The Philistines are coming!" But he woke up and pulled his hair loose from the loom.

Jdg 16:15 So she said to him, "How can you say you love me, when you don't mean it? You've made a fool of me three times, and you still haven't told me what makes you so strong."

Jdg 16:16 She kept on asking him, day after day. He got so sick and tired of her bothering him about it

Jdg 16:17 that he finally told her the truth. "My hair has never been cut," he said. "I have been dedicated to God as a nazirite from the time I was born. If my hair were cut, I would lose my strength and be as weak as anybody else."

Jdg 16:18 When Delilah realized that he had told her the truth, she sent a message to the Philistine kings and said, "Come back one more time. He has told me the truth." Then they came and brought the money with them.

Jdg 16:19 Delilah lulled Samson to sleep in her lap and then called a man, who cut off Samson's seven locks of hair. Then she began to torment him, for he had lost his strength.

Jdg 16:20 Then she shouted, "Samson! The Philistines are coming!" He woke up and thought, "I'll get loose and go free, as always." He did not know that the LORD had left him.

Jdg 16:21 The Philistines captured him and put his eyes out. They took him to Gaza, chained him with bronze chains, and put him to work grinding at the mill in the prison.

Jdg 16:22 But his hair started growing back.

The Death of Samson

Jdg 16:23 The Philistine kings met together to celebrate and offer a great sacrifice to their god Dagon. They sang, "Our god has given us victory over our enemy Samson!"

Jdg 16:24 (24-25) They were enjoying themselves, and so they said, "Call Samson, and let's make him entertain us!" When they brought Samson out of the prison, they made him entertain them and made him stand between the columns. When the people saw him, they sang praise to their god: "Our god has given us victory over our enemy, who devastated our land and killed so many of us!"

Jdg 16:26 Samson said to the boy who was leading him by the hand, "Let me touch the columns that hold up the building. I want to lean on them."

Jdg 16:27 The building was crowded with men and women. All five Philistine kings were there, and there were about three thousand men and women on the roof, watching Samson entertain them.

Jdg 16:28 Then Samson prayed, "Sovereign LORD, please remember me; please, God, give me my strength just this one time more, so that with this one blow I can get even with the Philistines for putting out my two eyes."

Jdg 16:29 So Samson took hold of the two middle columns holding up the building. Putting one hand on each column, he pushed against them

Jdg 16:30 and shouted, "Let me die with the Philistines!" He pushed with all his might, and the building fell down on the five kings and everyone else. Samson killed more people at his death than he had killed during his life.

Jdg 16:31 His brothers and the rest of his family came down to get his body. They took him back and buried him between Zorah and Eshtaol in the tomb of his father Manoah. He had been Israel's leader for twenty years.

1Simson is op 'n keer na Gasa toe. Daar het hy 'n prostituut gesien en by haar huis ingegaan. 2Daar is toe vir die mense van Gasa vertel: Simson het hierheen gekom. Hulle het die huis omsingel en hom die hele nag deur voorgelê by die stadspoort. Hulle het die hele nag in stilte gewag en gedink: môre ligdag maak ons hom dood. 3Maar Simson het net bly lê tot middernag. Toe staan hy op, vat die stadspoort se deure met hulle kosyne en al en ruk hulle so toegesluit uit. Hy het alles op sy skouer teen die berg regoor Hebron opgedra. 4'n Ruk later het Simson verlief geraak op 'n vrou in die Sorekvallei. Haar naam was Delila. 5Die leiers van die Filistyne is toe na haar toe, en hulle het vir haar gesê: Verlei hom en vind uit waarin lê sy groot krag en hoe ons hom kan oorrompel om hom vas te bind en in ons mag te kry. Elkeen van ons sal jou dan dertien kilogram silwer gee. 6Delila het toe vir Simson gevra: Sê my tog waarin lê jou groot krag, en waarmee kan 'n mens jou vasbind om jou in sy mag te kry? 7Simson het haar geantwoord: As hulle my vasbind met sewe boogsnare wat nog klam is, sal ek magteloos wees. Ek sal soos 'n gewone mens wees. 8Die leiers van die Filistyne het vir haar sewe boogsnare wat nog klam is, gebring en sy het hom daarmee vasgebind. 9Daar het ook manne in haar kamer weggekruip. Toe sê sy vir Simson: Die Filistyne is hier, Simson! Hy het die boogsnare gebreek soos 'n vlam garingdraad breek, en die geheim van sy krag het onbekend gebly. 10Daarna het Delila vir Simson gesê: Jy het 'n gek van my gemaak en vir my leuens vertel. Sê my tog nou waarmee kan 'n mens jou vasbind. 11Hy het gesê: As ek behoorlik vasgebind word met nuwe toue wat nog nooit gebruik is nie, sal ek magteloos wees. Ek sal soos 'n gewone mens wees. 12Delila het nuwe toue gevat en hom daarmee vasgebind, en toe sê sy vir hom: Die Filistyne is hier, Simson! Daar het weer manne in haar kamer weggekruip, maar Simson het die toue aan sy arms gebreek asof dit garingdraad was. 13Delila het vir Simson gesê: Hoe lank gaan jy nog 'n gek van my maak en vir my leuens vertel? Sê my tog waarmee kan jy vasgebind word. Hy sê toe vir haar: Jy moet net my sewe haarlokke in jou materiaal op die weefstoel vasweef. 14Toe sy alles klaar met 'n pen vasgesteek het, sê sy vir hom: Die Filistyne is hier, Simson! Hy het wakker geskrik en die materiaal met pen en al uit die weefstoel losgeruk. 15Toe sê sy vir hom: Hoe kan jy sê jy het my lief as jy my nie vertrou nie? Jy het my nou al drie keer bedrieg en my nie vertel waarin jou groot krag lê nie. 16So het sy dae lank by hom bly neul en hom lastig geval. Hy het so ongeduldig geraak dat hy kon sterf. 17Toe vertel hy haar sy lewensgeheim. Hy het vir haar gesê: My hare is nooit geskeer nie, want ek is van my geboorte af aan God gewy. As my hare afgeskeer word, sal my krag verdwyn en ek sal magteloos wees. Ek sal soos 'n gewone mens wees. 18Delila het besef dat hy haar hierdie keer sy lewensgeheim vertel het. Sy het toe die leiers van die Filistyne laat roep: Kom hierdie keer! Hy het my sy lewensgeheim vertel. Hulle het toe na haar toe gekom en die geld saamgebring. 19Sy het vir Simson op haar skoot aan die slaap gemaak en 'n man geroep, en hy het Simson se sewe haarlokke afgeskeer. So het sy hom laat swak word, sy krag het verdwyn. 20Toe sy sê: Die Filistyne is hier, Simson! het hy wakker geskrik en gedink: ek sal weer uitstap soos die vorige kere en my losruk. Maar hy het nie besef dat die Here hom verlaat het nie. 21Die Filistyne het hom gegryp en sy oë uitgesteek. Hulle het hom na Gasa toe gevat en hom met 'n dubbele bronsketting geboei. In die tronk moes hy die meul draai. 22Daar het sy hare wat afgeskeer was, weer begin groei. 23Die leiers van die Filistyne het bymekaargekom om 'n groot offer te bring vir hulle god Dagon en om fees te vier. Hulle het gesê: Ons god het ons vyand Simson in ons mag oorgegee. 24Toe die Filistyne hom sien, het hulle hulle god geprys en gesê: Ons god het ons vyand in ons mag oorgegee, ons vyand wat ons land verwoes het, hy wat so baie van ons doodgemaak het! 25Toe die Filistyne lekker vrolik was, het hulle gesê: Roep vir Simson dat hy ons kom vermaak. Hulle het toe vir Simson uit die tronk laat kom, en hy het hulle vermaak. Hulle het hom tussen die tempelpilare laat staan, 26en hy het vir die helper wat hom aan die hand vasgehou het, gesê: Laat my so staan dat ek die pilare kan voel waarop die tempel rus en dat ek daarteen kan leun. 27Die tempel was vol mans en vrouens. Al die leiers van die Filistyne was daar, en op die dak was omtrent drie duisend mans en vrouens wat gekyk het hoe Simson hulle vermaak. 28Toe roep Simson tot die Here: Here my God, dink tog aan my! Maak my tog net hierdie een keer sterk, o God, dat ek my met een daad op die Filistyne kan wreek oor my twee oë! 29Simson het die twee middelpilare waarop die tempel rus, vasgevat en teen hulle geleun met sy regterarm om die een en sy linkerarm om die ander. 30Toe sê hy: Laat my sterf saam met die Filistyne. Hy het met al sy krag getrek, en die tempel het ingeval op die leiers van die Filistyne en op die mense daarin. So het Simson met sy dood meer mense doodgemaak as in sy lewe. 31Daarna het sy broers en sy hele familie gekom en sy lyk kom haal. Hulle het hom gevat en gaan begrawe tussen Sora en Estaol, in sy pa Manoag se graf. Simson was twintig jaar lank leier van die Israeliete.

Judges 17

Micah and the Levite

Jdg 17:1 There was once a man named Micah, who lived in the hill country of Ephraim.

Jdg 17:2 He told his mother, "When someone stole those eleven hundred pieces of silver from you, you put a curse on the robber. I heard you do it. Look, I have the money. I am the one who took it." His mother said, "May the LORD bless you, my son!"

Jdg 17:3 He gave the money back to his mother, and she said, "To keep the curse from falling on my son, I myself am solemnly dedicating the silver to the LORD. It will be used to make a wooden idol covered with silver. So now I will give the pieces of silver back to you."

Jdg 17:4 Then he gave them back to his mother. She took two hundred of the pieces of silver and gave them to a metalworker, who made an idol, carving it from wood and covering it with the silver. It was placed in Micah's house.

Jdg 17:5 This man Micah had his own place of worship. He made some idols and an ephod, and appointed one of his sons as his priest.

Jdg 17:6 There was no king in Israel at that time; everyone did whatever they wanted.

Jdg 17:7 At that same time there was a young Levite who had been living in the town of Bethlehem in Judah.

Jdg 17:8 He left Bethlehem to find another place to live. While he was traveling, he came to Micah's house in the hill country of Ephraim.

Jdg 17:9 Micah asked him, "Where do you come from?" He answered, "I am a Levite from Bethlehem in Judah. I am looking for a place to live."

Jdg 17:10 Micah said, "Stay with me. Be my adviser and priest, and I will give you ten pieces of silver a year, some clothes, and your food."

Jdg 17:11 The young Levite agreed to stay with Micah and became like a son to him.

Jdg 17:12 Micah appointed him as his priest, and he lived in Micah's home.

Jdg 17:13 Micah said, "Now that I have a Levite as my priest, I know that the LORD will make things go well for me."

1Daar was 'n man uit die Efraimsberge. Sy naam was Miga. 2Hy het vir sy ma gesê: Daar is dertien kilogram silwer van Ma gesteel. Ek het gehoor hoe Ma dit vervloek, maar dit is by my. Ek het dit gevat. Toe sê sy ma vir hom: Mag die Here jou seën, my seun. 3Die man het die dertien kilogram silwer vir sy ma teruggebring, en toe sê sy: Ek wy die silwer in belang van my seun aan die Here. Jy moet daarvan 'n afgodsbeeld maak. Ek gee dit vir jou terug, my seun. 4Nadat hy die silwer aan sy ma terugbesorg het, het sy sowat twee en 'n half kilogram daarvan gevat en vir 'n silwersmid gegee om 'n afgodsbeeld te maak. Dit is toe in Miga se huis gesit. 5Miga het naamlik sy eie tempel gehad en hy het 'n efodbeeld en afgodsbeeldjies gemaak. Toe het hy een van sy seuns as priester gewy, en die seun het Miga se priester geword. 6In daardie tyd was daar nog nie 'n koning in Israel nie. Elkeen het gedoen wat reg is in sy eie oë. 7Daar was 'n jongman uit Betlehem in Juda wat aan die Judastam behoort het. Hy was 'n Leviet en het as vreemdeling in Betlehem gewoon. 8Hy het van daar af weggegaan om 'n ander woonplek te gaan soek. Hy het op die Efraimsberge uitgekom by die huis van Miga om daar 'n heenkome te vind. 9Miga het vir hom gevra: Waarvandaan kom jy? en hy het geantwoord: Ek is 'n Leviet uit Betlehem in Juda en ek is onderweg op soek na 'n woonplek. 10Toe sê Miga vir hom: Bly by my en wees vir my 'n leermeester en 'n priester, dan gee ek jou honderd en veertien gram silwer in 'n jaar, en kos en klere. 11Die Leviet het ingestem om by die man te bly, en die jongman was vir Miga soos een van sy eie seuns. 12Miga het die Leviet as priester gewy, en die jongman het Miga se priester geword en in Miga se huis gebly. 13Toe sê Miga: Nou weet ek die Here sal vir my goed wees, want die Leviet het my priester geword!

Judges 18

Danites Take the Levite and the Idol

Jdg 18:1 There was no king in Israel at that time. In those days the tribe of Dan was looking for territory to claim and settle in because they had not yet received any land of their own among the tribes of Israel.

Jdg 18:2 So the people of Dan chose five qualified men out of all the families in the tribe and sent them from the towns of Zorah and Eshtaol with instructions to explore the land and spy on it. When they arrived in the hill country of Ephraim, they stayed at Micah's house.

Jdg 18:3 While they were there, they recognized the accent of the young Levite, so they went up to him and asked, "What are you doing here? Who brought you here?"

Jdg 18:4 He answered, "I have an arrangement with Micah, who pays me to serve as his priest."

Jdg 18:5 They said to him, "Please ask God if we are going to be successful on our trip."

Jdg 18:6 The priest answered, "You have nothing to worry about. The LORD is taking care of you on this trip."

Jdg 18:7 So the five men left and went to the town of Laish. They saw how the people there lived in security like the Sidonians. They were a peaceful, quiet people, with no argument with anyone; they had all they needed. They lived far away from the Sidonians and had no dealings with any other people.

Jdg 18:8 When the five men returned to Zorah and Eshtaol, the people asked them what they had found out.

Jdg 18:9 "Come on," they replied. "Let's attack Laish. We saw the land, and it's very good. Don't stay here doing nothing; hurry! Go on in and take it over!

Jdg 18:10 When you get there, you will find that the people don't suspect a thing. It is a big country; it has everything a person could want, and God has given it to you."

Jdg 18:11 So six hundred men from the tribe of Dan left Zorah and Eshtaol, ready for battle.

Jdg 18:12 They went up and camped west of Kiriath Jearim in Judah. That is why the place is still called Camp of Dan.

Jdg 18:13 They went on from there and came to Micah's house in the hill country of Ephraim.

Jdg 18:14 Then the five men who had gone to spy on the country around Laish said to their companions, "Did you know that here in one of these houses there is a wooden idol covered with silver? There are also other idols and an ephod. What do you think we should do?"

Jdg 18:15 So they went into Micah's house, where the young Levite lived, and asked the Levite how he was getting along.

Jdg 18:16 Meanwhile the six hundred Danite soldiers, ready for battle, were standing at the gate.

Jdg 18:17 The five spies went straight on into the house and took the wooden idol covered with silver, the other idols, and the ephod, while the priest stayed at the gate with the six hundred armed men.

Jdg 18:18 When the men went into Micah's house and took the sacred objects, the priest asked them, "What are you doing?"

Jdg 18:19 They told him, "Keep quiet. Don't say a word. Come with us and be our priest and adviser. Wouldn't you rather be a priest for a whole Israelite tribe than for the family of one man?"

Jdg 18:20 This made the priest very happy, so he took the sacred objects and went along with them.

Jdg 18:21 They turned around and started off, with their children, their livestock, and their belongings going ahead.

Jdg 18:22 They had traveled a good distance from the house when Micah called his neighbors out for battle. They caught up with the Danites

Jdg 18:23 and shouted at them. The Danites turned around and asked Micah, "What's the matter? Why all this mob?"

Jdg 18:24 Micah answered, "What do you mean, 'What's the matter?' You take my priest and the gods that I made, and walk off ! What have I got left?"

Jdg 18:25 The Danites told him, "You had better not say anything else unless you want these men to get angry and attack you. You and your whole family would die."

Jdg 18:26 Then the Danites went on. Micah saw that they were too strong for him, so he turned and went back home.

Jdg 18:27 (27-28) After the Danites had taken the priest and the things that Micah had made, they went and attacked Laish, that town of peaceful, quiet people which was in the same valley as Bethrehob. They killed the inhabitants and burned the town. There was no one to save them, because Laish was a long way from Sidon, and they had no dealings with any other people. The Danites rebuilt the town and settled down there.

Jdg 18:29 They changed its name from Laish to Dan, after their ancestor Dan, the son of Jacob.

Jdg 18:30 The Danites set up the idol to be worshiped, and Jonathan, the son of Gershom and grandson of Moses, served as a priest for the Danites, and his descendants served as their priests until the people were taken away into exile.

Jdg 18:31 Micah's idol remained there as long as the Tent where God was worshiped remained at Shiloh.

1In die tyd toe daar nog nie 'n koning in Israel was nie, het die stam Dan grond gesoek om op te woon, want tot op daardie tyd het hy nog nie 'n eie besitting onder die stamme van Israel gekry nie. 2Die mense van Dan het vyf dapper man uit Sora en uit Estaol gestuur as verteenwoordigers van hulle hele stam om die land te verken en deur te kyk. Daar is vir hulle gesê: Gaan kyk die land deur. Hulle het by die huis van Miga in die Efraimsberge gekom en daar oornag. 3Toe hulle by die huis van Miga kom, het hulle die stem van die jongman, die Leviet, herken en daar ingedraai. Hulle het vir hom gevra: Wie het jou hierheen gebring? Wat doen jy hier? Hoekom is jy hier? 4Toe sê hy vir hulle: Miga het met my 'n reëling getref: hy het my gehuur en ek is sy priester. 5Hulle het vir hom gesê: Vra tog vir God of ons onderneming wat ons aangepak het, goed sal verloop of nie! 6Die priester het vir hulle gesê: Gaan gerus! Die Here is by julle op julle reis. 7Die vyf mans is toe daar weg, en hulle het in Lajis gekom. Hulle het opgemerk dat die inwoners rustig woon, hulle was sonder agterdog en houtgerus soos die mense van Sidon maar was. Hulle het nooit iets in hulle land kortgekom nie, hulle besittings was veilig. Hulle was ver van die ander mense van Sidon af en was nie in aanraking met ander mense nie. 8Die vyf mans het teruggekom by hulle familie in Sora en in Estaol, en dié het vir hulle gevra: Wat het julle gesien? 9Toe antwoord hulle: Kom ons trek daarnatoe. Ons het die land gesien. Dit is baie mooi. Wat sit julle nog stil? Moenie talm om die land in besit te gaan neem nie. 10Wanneer julle trek, sal julle by 'n volk kom wat houtgerus is en by 'n land wat oop lê na weerskante toe. Die Here gee vir julle 'n plek waar daar nie gebrek is aan enigiets op aarde nie. 11Ses honderd goed gewapende man uit die stam Dan het toe uit Sora en uit Estaol opgetrek. 12Hulle het kamp opgeslaan by Kirjat-Jearim in Juda. Daarom word die plek, wat net agter Kirjat-Jearim lê, nou nog Magane-Dan genoem. 13Van daar af het hulle na die Efraimsberge toe getrek en by Miga se huis gekom. 14Die vyf man wat die land by Lajis gaan verken het, het vir hulle stamgenote gesê: Julle weet, in hierdie huis is daar 'n efodbeeld, afgodsbeeldjies en 'n godsbeeld. Julle weet nou wat julle behoort te doen. 15Hulle het daar ingedraai en na die huis van die jongman, die Leviet, toe gegaan by Miga se huis en die jongman gegroet. 16Die ses honderd goed gewapende man uit die stam Dan het by die deur gaan staan, 17en die vyf wat die land gaan verken het, het by die huis ingegaan en die godsbeeld en die afgodsbeeldjies en die efodbeeld gevat. Die priester het by die deur gestaan by die ses honderd goed gewapende man, 18en toe die vyf man die huis van Miga ingaan en die godsbeeld en die efodbeeld en die afgodsbeeldjies vat, sê die priester vir hulle: Wat doen julle? 19Maar hulle sê vir hom: Bly stil! Moenie praat nie! Kom saam met ons en wees ons leermeester en priester. Is dit vir jou beter om priester te wees vir een man se huis of vir al die mense van 'n stam in Israel? 20Die priester was toe tevrede, en hy het die efodbeeld, die afgodsbeeldjies en die godsbeeld gevat en saam met die mense van Dan gegaan. 21Hulle het toe weggedraai en vertrek met hulle kinders en vee en besittings op die voorpunt. 22Toe hulle 'n ent weg is van Miga se huis af, het hy die hulp ingeroep van die mense wat in sy omgewing bly. Hulle het die mense van Dan ingehaal 23en vir hulle geskreeu, maar die mense van Dan het omgekyk en vir Miga gesê: Wat is dit met jou dat jy so te kere gaan? 24Toe sê hy: Maar julle het my god wat ek gemaak het, gevat en ook my priester, en nou gaan julle weg. Wat het ek nou oor? Hoe sê julle vir my: Wat is dit met jou? 25Die mense van Dan het hom geantwoord: Moenie hier by ons kom staan en lawaai nie! Netnou val 'n klompie roekelose manne jou aan en dan maak hulle jou en jou mense dood. 26Toe trek die mense van Dan verder, en Miga het besef hulle is sterker as hy en hy het omgedraai huis toe. 27Die mense van Dan het die beelde gevat wat Miga gemaak het, en ook sy priester, en na Lajis toe gegaan, na die volk wat sonder agterdog en houtgerus woon, en hulle doodgemaak en hulle stad verbrand. 28Niemand kon hulle red nie, want hulle was ver van Sidon af en nie binne bereik van ander mense nie. Die stad was geleë in die laagte by Bet-Regob. Die mense van Dan het die stad herbou en daarin gaan woon. 29Hulle het die stad Dan genoem, na hulle stamvader Dan wat vir Israel gebore is. Die stad is vroeër Lajis genoem. 30Die mense van Dan het die afgodsbeeld daar opgestel, en Jonatan, seun van Gersom seun van Moses, en sy seuns was priesters vir die stam Dan totdat die bevolking in ballingskap weggevoer is. 31Hulle het die afgodsbeeld van Miga wat hy gemaak het, op sy plek neergesit, en dit het daar gebly so lank as die huis van God in Silo was.

Judges 19

A Levite and His Concubine

Jdg 19:1 In those days before Israel had a king, there was a Levite living far back in the hill country of Ephraim. He took a young woman from Bethlehem in Judah to be his concubine.

Jdg 19:2 But she became angry with him, went back to her father's house in Bethlehem, and stayed there four months.

Jdg 19:3 Then the man decided to go after her and try to persuade her to return to him. He took his servant and two donkeys with him. The woman showed the Levite into the house, and when her father saw him, he gave him a hearty greeting.

Jdg 19:4 The father insisted that he stay, and so he stayed for three days. The couple had their meals and spent the nights there.

Jdg 19:5 On the morning of the fourth day they woke up early and got ready to go. But the woman's father said to the Levite, "Have something to eat first. You'll feel better. You can go later."

Jdg 19:6 So the two men sat down and ate and drank together. Then the woman's father told him, "Please spend the night and enjoy yourself."

Jdg 19:7 The Levite got up to go, but the father urged him to stay, so he spent another night there.

Jdg 19:8 Early in the morning of the fifth day he started to leave, but the woman's father said, "Eat something, please. Wait until later in the day." So the two men ate together.

Jdg 19:9 When the man, his concubine, and the servant once more started to leave, the father said, "Look, it's almost evening now; you might as well stay all night. It will be dark soon; stay here and have a good time. Tomorrow you can get up early for the trip and go home."

Jdg 19:10 (10-11) But the man did not want to spend another night there, so he and his concubine started on their way, with their servant and two donkeys with pack saddles. It was late in the day when they came near Jebus (that is, Jerusalem), so the servant said to his master, "Why don't we stop and spend the night here in this Jebusite city?"

Jdg 19:12 (12-13) But his master said, "We're not going to stop in a city where the people are not Israelites. We'll pass on by and go a little farther and spend the night at Gibeah or Ramah."

Jdg 19:14 So they passed by Jebus and continued on their way. It was sunset when they came to Gibeah in the territory of the tribe of Benjamin.

Jdg 19:15 They turned off the road to go and spend the night there. They went into town and sat down in the city square, but no one offered to take them home for the night.

Jdg 19:16 While they were there, an old man came by at the end of a day's work on the farm. He was originally from the hill country of Ephraim, but he was now living in Gibeah. (The other people there were from the tribe of Benjamin.)

Jdg 19:17 The old man noticed the traveler in the city square and asked him, "Where do you come from? Where are you going?"

Jdg 19:18 The Levite answered, "We have been in Bethlehem in Judah, and now we are on our way home deep in the hill country of Ephraim. No one will put us up for the night, Jdg 19:19 even though we have fodder and straw for our donkeys, as well as bread and wine for my concubine and me and for my servant. We have everything we need."

Jdg 19:20 The old man said, "You are welcome in my home! I'll take care of you; you don't have to spend the night in the square."

Jdg 19:21 So he took them home with him and fed their donkeys. His guests washed their feet and had a meal.

Gibeah's Crime

Jdg 19:22 They were enjoying themselves when all of a sudden some sexual perverts from the town surrounded the house and started beating on the door. They said to the old man, "Bring out that man that came home with you! We want to have sex with him!"

Jdg 19:23 But the old man went outside and said to them, "No, my friends! Please! Don't do such an evil, immoral thing! This man is my guest.

Jdg 19:24 Look! Here is his concubine and my own virgin daughter. I'll bring them out now, and you can have them. Do whatever you want to with them. But don't do such an awful thing to this man!"

Jdg 19:25 But the men would not listen to him. So the Levite took his concubine and put her outside with them. They raped her and abused her all night long and didn't stop until morning.

Jdg 19:26 At dawn the woman came and fell down at the door of the old man's house, where her husband was. She was still there when daylight came.

Jdg 19:27 Her husband got up that morning, and when he opened the door to go on his way, he found his concubine lying in front of the house with her hands reaching for the door.

Jdg 19:28 He said, "Get up. Let's go." But there was no answer. So he put her body across the donkey and started on his way home.

Jdg 19:29 When he arrived, he went in the house and got a knife. He took his concubine's body, cut it into twelve pieces, and sent one piece to each of the twelve tribes of Israel.

Jdg 19:30 Everyone who saw it said, "We have never heard of such a thing! Nothing like this has ever happened since the Israelites left Egypt! We have to do something about this! What will it be?"

RIGTERS 19

1Toe die volgende gebeurtenis plaasgevind het, was daar nog nie 'n koning in Israel nie. Daar was 'n Leviet wat as vreemdeling gewoon het in die uithoeke van die Efraimsberge. Hy het vir hom 'n byvrou gevat uit Betlehem in Juda. 2Die byvrou het ontrou geword en van hom af weggegaan na haar pa se huis toe in Betlehem in Juda. Sy was 'n jaar en vier maande lank daar, 3en toe gaan haar man agter haar aan. Hy wou met haar gaan mooipraat om haar te laat terugkom na hom toe. Hy het 'n slaaf en 'n span donkies by hom gehad. Hy het na haar pa se huis toe gegaan, en toe die meisie se pa hom sien, was die pa bly en hy het die Leviet tegemoet geloop. 4Sy skoonpa, die meisie se pa, het by hom daarop aangedring, en hy het drie dae daar oorgebly. Hulle het geëet en gedrink, en hy het daar oornag. 5Die vierde dag het hy vroeg klaargemaak om te vertrek, maar die meisie se pa het vir sy skoonseun gesê: Eet eers 'n stukkie vir die pad en dan kan jy vertrek. 6Hulle twee het toe gaan sit en saam geëet en gedrink. Die meisie se pa sê toe vir die man: Moenie teëpraat nie. Bly nog dié nag oor en geniet dit hier. 7Die man was op die punt om te vertrek, maar toe sy skoonpa daarop aandring, het hy omgedraai en daar oornag. 8Die vyfde dag het hy vroegmôre klaargemaak om te vertrek, maar toe sê die meisie se pa: Eet eers 'n stukkie vir die pad en wag tot agtermiddag. Hulle het toe geëet. 9Toe die man en sy byvrou en sy slaaf op die punt staan om te vertrek, sê sy skoonpa, die meisie se pa, vir hom: Kyk, man, die son is aan die sak, dis amper aand. Oornag hier. Die dag is verby. Slaap hier en geniet dit. Julle kan môre vroeg alles regkry vir die reis en dan kan jy huis toe gaan. 10Maar die man wou nie die nag oorbly nie. Hy het klaargemaak en vertrek. Hy het regoor Jebus, dit is Jerusalem, gekom met sy span donkies en sy byvrou by hom. 11Toe hulle by Jebus kom, was die dag verby, en sy slaaf sê vir hom: Kom ons draai hier in by hierdie stad van die Jebusiete en dan vernag ons in die stad. 12Maar hy sê vir sy slaaf: Ons kan nie by 'n vreemde stad indraai waarin daar nie Israeliete is nie. Kom ons druk deur tot by Gibea. 13Hy het verder vir sy slaaf gesê: Kom ons probeer kom by een van óns plekke, dan oornag ons in Gibea of in Rama. 14Hulle het toe deurgedruk en toe hulle regoor Gibea in Benjamin kom, gaan die son vir hulle onder. 15Hulle het daar ingedraai om in Gibea te gaan oornag. Hulle het by die stadsplein gekom en daar gaan sit. Niemand het hulle genooi om in sy huis te oornag nie. 16Daardie aand het daar 'n ou man van sy werk in die veld af in die stad ingekom. Hy was afkomstig uit die Efraimsberge en het as vreemdeling in Gibea gewoon. Die mense van Gibea was Benjaminiete. 17Die ou man het die reisiger op die stadsplein raakgesien en vir hom gesê: Waarheen is jy op pad? Waarvandaan kom jy? 18Toe sê hy vir die ou man: Ons is op pad van Betlehem in Juda af na die uithoeke van die Efraimsberge toe. Ek is van daar af, maar ek het na Betlehem in Juda gegaan, na die huis van die Here toe. Ek is op pad, maar niemand het my na sy huis toe genooi nie. 19Ek het genoeg voer vir die donkies, en kos en wyn vir my en die vrou en die slaaf. Ons kom niks kort nie. 20Toe sê die ou man vir hom: Dis alles reg, maar wat jy sal gebruik, sal ek voorsien. Jy mag egter nie op die plein oornag nie. 21Die ou man het hom toe in sy huis gevat en vir die donkies voer gegee. Die mense het hulle voete gewas, en toe het hulle geëet en gedrink. 22Net toe hulle begin vrolik raak, omsingel 'n klomp straatboewe van die stad die huis en hulle slaan op die deur. Hulle sê toe vir die ou man aan wie die huis behoort: Bring uit die man wat in jou huis gekom het. Ons wil geslagsgemeenskap met hom hê. 23Die man aan wie die huis behoort, is na hulle toe uit en hy sê vir hulle: Nee, vriende, moenie hierdie man kwaad aandoen nadat hy in my huis ingekom het nie. Julle moet hom nie so 'n lae ding aandoen nie. 24Hier is my dogter, sy is nog 'n maagd, en die man se byvrou. Ek sal hulle uitbring, verkrag hulle. Doen met hulle wat julle wil, maar moenie hierdie lae ding aan die man doen nie. 25Maar die mans wou nie na hom luister nie. Toe gryp die Leviet sy byvrou en stoot haar buitentoe na hulle toe. Hulle het met haar geslagsgemeenskap gehad en haar die hele nag deur tot die môre toe verrinneweer. Toe die rooidag breek, het hulle haar gelos. 26Teen die môre se kant het sy by die huis gekom en voor die deur van die huis waarin haar man was, neergeval en bly lê tot sonop. 27Toe haar man die môre opstaan en die huis se deur oopmaak om verder te reis, lê die vrou, sy byvrou, in die deur met haar hande op die drumpel. 28Hy sê toe vir haar: Staan op dat ons kan vertrek, maar sy het nie geroer nie. Hy tel haar toe op 'n donkie en maak klaar en vertrek na sy plek toe. 29Toe hy by die huis kom, vat hy 'n mes en die lyk van sy byvrou en sny haar op in twaalf stukke, lid vir lid, en stuur dit deur die hele gebied van Israel. 30Elkeen wat dit gesien het, het gesê: So iets het nog nooit gebeur vandat die Israeliete uit Egipte weggetrek het nie. Van toe af tot nou toe is so iets nog nie gesien nie. Ons moet dit ter harte neem. Ons moet 'n plan maak. Ons moet praat!

Judges 20

Israel's War with the Tribe of Benjamin

Jdg 20:1 All the people of Israel from Dan in the north to Beersheba in the south, as well as from the land of Gilead in the east, answered the call. They gathered in one body in the LORD's presence at Mizpah.

Jdg 20:2 The leaders of all the tribes of Israel were present at this gathering of God's people, and there were 400,000 foot soldiers.

Jdg 20:3 Meanwhile the people of Benjamin heard that all the other Israelites had gathered at Mizpah. The Israelites asked, "Tell us, how was this crime committed?"

Jdg 20:4 The Levite whose concubine had been murdered answered, "My concubine and I went to Gibeah in the territory of Benjamin to spend the night.

Jdg 20:5 The men of Gibeah came to get me and surrounded the house at night. They intended to kill me; instead they raped my concubine, and she died.

Jdg 20:6 I took her body, cut it in pieces, and sent one piece to each of the twelve tribes of Israel. These people have committed an evil and immoral act among us.

Jdg 20:7 All of you here are Israelites. What are we going to do about this?"

Jdg 20:8 All the people stood up together and said, "None of us, whether he lives in a tent or in a house, will go home.

Jdg 20:9 This is what we will do: we will draw lots and choose some men to attack Gibeah.

Jdg 20:10 One tenth of the men in Israel will provide food for the army, and the others will go and punish Gibeah for this immoral act that they have committed in Israel."

Jdg 20:11 So all the men in Israel assembled with one purpose—to attack the town.

Jdg 20:12 The Israelite tribes sent messengers all through the territory of the tribe of Benjamin to say, "What is this crime that you have committed?

Jdg 20:13 Now hand over those perverts in Gibeah, so that we can kill them and remove this evil from Israel." But the people of Benjamin paid no attention to the other Israelites.

Jdg 20:14 From all the cities of Benjamin they came to Gibeah to fight the other people of Israel.

Jdg 20:15 (15-16) They called out twenty-six thousand soldiers from their cities that day. Besides these, the citizens of Gibeah gathered seven hundred specially chosen men who were left-handed. Every one of them could sling a stone at a strand of hair and never miss.

Jdg 20:17 Not counting the tribe of Benjamin, the Israelites gathered 400,000 trained soldiers.

Jdg 20:18 The Israelites went to the place of worship at Bethel, and there they asked God, "Which tribe should attack the Benjaminites first?" The LORD answered, "The tribe of Judah."

Jdg 20:19 So the Israelites started out the next morning and camped near the city of Gibeah.

Jdg 20:20 They went to attack the army of Benjamin, and placed the soldiers in position facing the city.

Jdg 20:21 The army of Benjamin came out of the city, and before the day was over they had killed twenty-two thousand Israelite soldiers.

Jdg 20:22 (22-23) Then the Israelites went to the place of worship and mourned in the presence of the LORD until evening. They asked him, "Should we go again into battle against our brothers the Benjaminites?" The LORD answered, "Yes." So the Israelite army was encouraged, and they placed their soldiers in position again, where they had been the day before.

Jdg 20:24 They marched against the army of Benjamin a second time.

Jdg 20:25 And for the second time the Benjaminites came out of Gibeah, and this time they killed eighteen thousand trained Israelite soldiers.

Jdg 20:26 Then all the people of Israel went up to Bethel and mourned. They sat there in the LORD's presence and did not eat until evening. They offered fellowship sacrifices and burned some sacrifices whole—all in the presence of the LORD.

Jdg 20:27 (27-28) God's Covenant Box was there at Bethel in those days, and Phinehas, the son of Eleazar and grandson of Aaron, was in charge of it. The people asked the LORD, "Should we go out to fight our brothers the Benjaminites again, or should we give up?" The LORD answered, "Fight. Tomorrow I will give you victory over them."

Jdg 20:29 So the Israelites put some soldiers in hiding around Gibeah.

Jdg 20:30 Then for the third straight day they marched against the army of Benjamin and placed their soldiers in battle position facing Gibeah, as they had done before.

Jdg 20:31 The Benjaminites came out to fight and were led away from the city. As they had before, they began killing some Israelites in the open country, on the road to Bethel and on the road to Gibeah. They killed about thirty Israelites.

Jdg 20:32 The Benjaminites said, "We've beaten them just as before." But the Israelites had planned to retreat and lead them away from the city onto the roads.

Jdg 20:33 So when the main army of the Israelites pulled back and regrouped at Baaltamar, the men surrounding Gibeah suddenly rushed out of their hiding places in the rocky country around the city.

Jdg 20:34 Ten thousand men, specially chosen out of all Israel, attacked Gibeah, and the fighting was hard. The Benjaminites had not realized that they were about to be destroyed.

Jdg 20:35 The LORD gave Israel victory over the army of Benjamin. The Israelites killed 25,100 of the enemy that day, Jdg 20:36 and the Benjaminites realized they were defeated. The main body of the Israelite army had retreated from the Benjaminites because they were relying on the men that they had put in hiding around Gibeah.

Jdg 20:37 These men ran quickly toward Gibeah; they spread out in the city and killed everyone there.

Jdg 20:38 The main Israelite army and the men in hiding had arranged a signal. When they saw a big cloud of smoke going up from the town,

Jdg 20:39 the Israelites out on the battlefield were to turn around. By this time the Benjaminites had already killed the thirty Israelites. They told themselves, "Yes, we've beaten them just as before."

Jdg 20:40 Then the signal appeared; a cloud of smoke began to go up from the town. The Benjaminites looked behind them and were amazed to see the whole city going up in flames.

Jdg 20:41 Then the Israelites turned around, and the Benjaminites were thrown into panic because they realized that they were about to be destroyed.

Jdg 20:42 They retreated from the Israelites and ran toward the open country, but they could not escape. They were caught between the main army and the men who were now coming out of the city, and they were destroyed.

Jdg 20:43 The Israelites had the enemy trapped, and without stopping they pursued them as far as a point east of Gibeah, killing them as they went.

Jdg 20:44 Eighteen thousand of the best Benjaminite soldiers were killed.

Jdg 20:45 The others turned and ran toward the open country to Rimmon Rock. Five thousand of them were killed on the roads. The Israelites continued to pursue the rest to Gidom, killing two thousand.

Jdg 20:46 In all, twenty-five thousand Benjaminites were killed that day—all of them brave soldiers.

Jdg 20:47 But six hundred men were able to escape to the open country to Rimmon Rock, and they stayed there four months.

Jdg 20:48 The Israelites turned back against the rest of the Benjaminites and killed them all—men, women, and children, and animals as well. They burned every town in the area.

RIGTERS 20

1Toe het al die Israeliete, dié van Dan tot dié van Berseba en dié uit die Gileadstreek, soos een man as gemeente in Mispa bymekaargekom in die teenwoordigheid van die Here. 2Die leiers van die hele volk, van al die stamme van Israel, was daar in die vergadering van die volk van God. Daar was vier honderd duisend voetsoldate wat met die swaard kon veg. 3Die Benjaminiete het verneem dat die ander Israeliete na Mispa toe opgetrek het. Die Israeliete het vir hulle gevra: Sê ons tog! Hoe het hierdie lae ding plaasgevind? 4Toe antwoord die Leviet, die man van die vermoorde vrou: Ek en my vrou het in Gibea gekom wat aan Benjamin behoort, om daar te oornag. 5Toe wou die mans van Gibea my kom aanrand, en hulle het my die heel nag omsingel in die huis waar ek was. Hulle wou my doodmaak, en hulle het my byvrou verrinneweer, sodat sy gesterf het. 6Toe het ek haar opgesny en rondgestuur deur die hele gebied wat aan Israel behoort, want die mense van Gibea het 'n afskuwelike en lae ding in Israel gedoen. 7En nou is julle almal hier, Israeliete! Ons moet praat en net hier 'n plan maak! 8Die hele volk het eenparig verklaar: Niemand mag na sy woonplek toe gaan nie, niemand mag teruggaan huis toe nie. 9Dit is wat ons met Gibea sal doen: ons sal lootjies trek oor Gibea, 10en uit elke honderd man uit die stamme van Israel sal ons tien man vat, uit elke duisend man honderd en uit elke tien duisend duisend om kos by die volk te gaan haal. Wanneer ons in Gibea by Benjamin kom, sal ons hom straf ooreenkomstig die lae ding wat hy in Israel gedoen het. 11Al die Israeliete het saamgestem en hulle het by Gibea bymekaargekom. 12Toe stuur die stamme van Israel die manne na al die families in Benjamin toe met die boodskap: Wat vir 'n lae ding het hier by julle plaasgevind? 13Lewer nou die straatboewe van Gibea uit sodat ons hulle kan doodmaak en dié soort verkeerde ding uit Israel kan uitroei. Maar die mense van Benjamin wou nie na hulle volksgenote, die Israeliete, luister nie. 14Toe kom die mense van Benjamin uit al hulle stede bymekaar in Gibea om oorlog te maak teen die Israeliete. 15Die Benjaminiete wat uit die stede gekom het, is daardie dag getel, en daar was ses en twintig duisend man wat kon veg, en dit behalwe dié van Gibea. Hulle is ook getel, sewe honderd knap soldate. 16In daardie hele leër was daar sewe honderd knap soldate, almal links. Hulle kon keer op keer 'n haar raakgooi met 'n klip uit 'n slingervel. 17Die Israeliete is ook getel, en sonder Benjamin was daar vier honderd duisend man wat kon veg, elkeen reg vir die oorlog. 18Hulle het na Bet-El toe gegaan en God daar geraadpleeg. Die Israeliete het gevra: Wie van ons moet eerste optrek om teen Benjamin te gaan veg? Die Here het geantwoord: Juda moet eerste gaan. 19Die volgende môre het al die Israeliete klaargemaak en regoor Gibea kamp opgeslaan. 20Die Israeliete het hulle manne teenoor Gibea ontplooi om teen die Benjaminiete te veg, 21maar die Benjaminiete het uit Gibea gestorm en op daardie dag twee en twintig duisend Israeliete om die lewe gebring. 22Nadat die Israeliete tot die aand toe in die teenwoordigheid van die Here gekla het, het hulle vir Hom gevra: Moet ons weer teen ons broers die Benjaminiete gaan oorlog maak? Die Here het geantwoord: Trek teen hulle op! Toe het die Israeliete moed geskep en weer hulle manne ontplooi om te veg waar hulle dit die vorige dag gedoen het. 23Die tweede dag het die Israeliete weer die Benjaminiete aangeval, 24maar hulle het weer uit Gibea uit gestorm en agtien duisend man van Israel om die lewe gebring, almal goeie soldate. 25Al die Israeliete en die hele leër is toe na Bet-El toe en daar het hulle in die teenwoordigheid van die Here gaan sit en huil, en daardie dag het hulle tot die aand toe niks geëet nie. Hulle het brandoffers en maaltydoffers aan die Here geoffer. 26Hulle het die Here geraadpleeg; die verbondsark van die Here was destyds by hulle. 27Pinehas, seun van Eleasar seun van Aäron, wat destyds as priester gedien het voor die Here, het gevra: Moet ons weer gaan oorlog maak teen ons broers die Benjaminiete of moet ons ophou? Toe antwoord die Here: Trek op! Môre gee Ek hulle in julle mag. 28Van die Israeliete het toe rondom Gibea in hinderlae gaan lê. 29Op die derde dag het die ander Israeliete teen Benjamin opgeruk en die manskappe regoor Gibea ontplooi soos die vorige kere. 30Die Benjaminiete het die soldate tegemoet gestorm, maar die Benjaminiete is van hulle stad af weggelok. Soos die vorige kere het hulle die Israeliete verslaan en begin doodmaak op die grootpaaie na Bet-El en Gibea toe. Hulle het sowat dertig Israeliete om die lewe gebring. 31Die Benjaminiete het gedink: soos voorheen is hulle weer deur ons verslaan. Maar die Israeliete het afgespreek: Ons sal vlug en hulle uit die stad uit na die grootpaaie toe lok. 32Wanneer die grootste deel van Israel uit sy plek padgee en by Baäl-Tamar ontplooi, moet die Israeliete wat in die hinderlae lê, uit hulle plekke wes van Gibea opspring. 33Tien duisend dapper soldate uit die leër van die Israeliete het tot regoor Gibea gegaan, en daar is roekeloos geveg. Die Benjaminiete het nog nie besef dat 'n ramp op hulle afkom nie. 34Maar die Here het hulle verslaan vir die Israeliete, en die Israeliete het op dié dag vyf en twintig duisend een honderd man van Benjamin, almal dapper soldate, om die lewe gebring. 35Toe het die Benjaminiete besef dat hulle verslaan is en dat die Israeliete net vir hulle teruggeval het omdat die Israeliete staatgemaak het op die hinderlae wat hulle teen Gibea opgestel het. 36Die manne van die hinderlae het toe gou in Gibea versprei en die stad oorweldig en die inwoners om die lewe gebring. 37Daar was 'n afspraak tussen die Israeliete en hulle hinderlaag om 'n groot rookwolk in die stad op te stuur. [38]Toe die Israeliete omdraai om te veg, het die Benjaminiete begin om hulle dood te maak. Sowat dertig man is om die lewe gebring, en die Benjaminiete het gedink: ja-nee, hulle is weer deur ons in die geveg verslaan soos die vorige keer. [39]Toe die rookwolk uit die stad begin opstyg, het die Benjaminiete omgedraai, maar die stad het klaar in vlamme gestaan. [40]Toe die Israeliete omgedraai het om te veg, het die Benjaminiete baie bang geword, want hulle het besef dat 'n groot ramp hulle getref het. [41]Hulle het met die woestynpad voor die Israeliete weggevlug, maar hulle kon die geveg nie vryspring nie, want dié wat die stad in puin gelê het, het hulle verslaan. [42]Die Benjaminiete is omsingel en sonder genade agtervolg. Hulle is regoor Gibea, aan die oostekant, platgeloop. [43]Van Benjamin het daar in die geveg agtien duisend man geval, almal dapper soldate. [44]Die ander het weggekom na die woestyn toe, na die Rimmonrots toe. Op die grootpaaie het die Israeliete nog vyf duisend man doodgemaak. Hulle het die Benjaminiete nog agtervolg tot by Gidom en twee duisend man om die lewe gebring. [45]Uit Benjamin het dié dag vyf en twintig duisend man geval, manne wat kon veg, almal dapper soldate. [46]Ses honderd man het tot by die Rimmonrots gevlug. Hulle het vier maande lank daar gebly. [47]Die manskappe van Israel is terug na die gebied van Benjamin toe. Daar het hulle van stad tot stad gegaan en alles, mens en dier, om die lewe gebring. In al die stede het hulle alles wat hulle aangetref het, verbrand.

Judges 21

Wives Provided for the Tribe of Benjamin

Jdg 21:1 When the Israelites had gathered at Mizpah, they had made a solemn promise to the LORD: "None of us will allow a Benjaminite to marry a daughter of ours."

Jdg 21:2 So now the people of Israel went to Bethel and sat there in the presence of God until evening. Loudly and bitterly they mourned:

Jdg 21:3 " LORD God of Israel, why has this happened? Why is the tribe of Benjamin about to disappear from Israel?"

Jdg 21:4 Early the next morning the people got up and built an altar there. They offered fellowship sacrifices and burned some sacrifices whole.

Jdg 21:5 They asked, "Is there any group out of all the tribes of Israel that did not go to the gathering in the LORD's presence at Mizpah?" (They had taken a solemn oath that anyone who had not gone to Mizpah would be put to death.)

Jdg 21:6 The people of Israel felt sorry for their brothers the Benjaminites and said, "Today Israel has lost one of its tribes.

Jdg 21:7 What shall we do to provide wives for the men of Benjamin who are left? We have made a solemn promise to the LORD that we will not give them any of our daughters."

Jdg 21:8 When they asked if there was some group out of the tribes of Israel that had not gone to the gathering at Mizpah, they found out that no one from Jabesh in Gilead had been there;

Jdg 21:9 at the roll call of the army no one from Jabesh had responded.

Jdg 21:10 So the assembly sent twelve thousand of their bravest men with the orders, "Go and kill everyone in Jabesh, including women and children.

Jdg 21:11 Kill all the males, and also every woman who is not a virgin."

Jdg 21:12 They found four hundred young virgins among the people in Jabesh, so they brought them to the camp at Shiloh, which is in the land of Canaan.

Jdg 21:13 Then the whole assembly sent word to the Benjaminites who were at Rimmon Rock and offered to end the war.

Jdg 21:14 The Benjaminites came back, and the other Israelites gave them the young women from Jabesh whom they had not killed. But there were not enough of them.

Jdg 21:15 The people felt sorry for the Benjaminites because the LORD had broken the unity of the tribes of Israel.

Jdg 21:16 So the leaders of the gathering said, "There are no more women in the tribe of Benjamin. What shall we do to provide wives for the men who are left?

Jdg 21:17 Israel must not lose one of its twelve tribes. We must find a way for the tribe of Benjamin to survive,

Jdg 21:18 but we cannot allow them to marry our daughters, because we have put a curse on anyone who allows a Benjaminite to marry one of our daughters."

Jdg 21:19 Then they thought, "The yearly festival of the LORD at Shiloh is coming soon." (Shiloh is north of Bethel, south of Lebonah, and east of the road between Bethel and Shechem.)

Jdg 21:20 They told the Benjaminites, "Go and hide in the vineyards

Jdg 21:21 and watch. When the young women of Shiloh come out to dance during the festival, you come out of the vineyards. Each of you take a wife by force from among them and take her back to the territory of Benjamin with you.

Jdg 21:22 If their fathers or brothers come to you and protest, you can tell them, 'Please let us keep them, because we did not take them from you in battle to be our wives. And since you did not give them to us, you are not guilty of breaking your promise.' "

Jdg 21:23 The Benjaminites did this; each of them chose a wife from the young women who were dancing at Shiloh and carried her away. Then they went back to their own territory, rebuilt their towns, and lived there.

Jdg 21:24 At the same time the rest of the Israelites left, and every man went back to his own tribe and family and to his own property.

Jdg 21:25 There was no king in Israel at that time. Everyone did whatever they pleased.

RIGTERS 21

1By Mispa het die Israeliete 'n eed afgelê: Nie een van ons sal sy dogter met 'n Benjaminiet laat trou nie. 2Die volk het by Bet-El gekom. Daar het hulle tot die aand toe in die teenwoordigheid van God gesit. Hulle het lank daar gesit en hard gehuil. 3Toe vra hulle: Waarom het dit in Israel gebeur, Here God van Israel, dat een van die stamme van Israel vandag makeer? 4Die volgende môre het die volk vroeg opgestaan en net daar 'n altaar gebou en brandoffers en maaltydoffers geoffer. 5Toe sê die Israeliete: Wie van al die stamme van Israel het nie hier na die gemeente, na die Here toe, opgekom nie? Daar is vroeër 'n eed afgelê dat elkeen wat nie na die Here toe kom in Mispa nie, doodgemaak sal word. 6Die Israeliete was jammer oor hulle broers uit Benjamin en het gesê: Vandag is een stam van Israel afgekap. 7Wat kan ons doen om vrouens te kry vir dié uit Benjamin wat oorgebly het? Ons het 'n eed voor die Here afgelê dat ons nie ons dogters met hulle sal laat trou nie. 8Toe vra hulle: Is daar nog 'n deel van die stamme van Israel wat nie na die Here toe gekom het in Mispa nie? Dit het toe geblyk dat niemand uit Jabes in Gilead na die vergadering toe gekom het nie. 9Die volk is getel en daar was nie een mens uit Jabes in Gilead nie. 10Toe stuur die gemeente twaalf duisend dapper soldate met die opdrag: Gaan bring die inwoners van Jabes in Gilead om die lewe, ook die vrouens en die kinders. 11Dit is wat julle moet doen: julle moet elke man en ook elke vrou wat al geslagsgemeenskap gehad het, doodmaak. 12Onder die inwoners van Jabes in Gilead is daar vier honderd meisies gevind wat nog maagde was en nie geslagsgemeenskap gehad en by 'n man geslaap het nie. Die soldate het hulle na die kamp toe in Silo in Kanaän gebring. 13Toe stuur die hele gemeente 'n boodskap na die Benjaminiete toe by die Rimmonrots om met hulle vrede te maak. 14Die Benjaminiete het dadelik teruggekom, en die vrouens uit Jabes in Gilead wat bly lewe het, is vir hulle gegee, maar daar was nie genoeg nie. 15Die volk het vir Benjamin jammer gekry, want die Here het 'n stuk uit die stamme van Israel uitgeskeur. 16Toe vra die leiers van die gemeente: Wat kan ons doen om vrouens te kry vir die ander Benjaminiete? Die vrouens uit Benjamin is almal om die lewe gebring. 17Hulle het verder gesê: Daar moet erfgename kom vir dié uit Benjamin wat oorgebly het. Daar mag nie 'n stam uit Israel verdwyn nie. 18Self mag ons hulle nie met ons dogters laat trou nie, want Israel het 'n eed afgelê en gesê: Vervloek is elkeen wat 'n vrou vir 'n Benjaminiet gee. 19Maar toe sê hulle: Kyk, daar is elke jaar 'n fees in Silo tot eer van die Here. Silo lê noord van Bet-El en oos van die grootpad van Bet-El af Sigem toe en suid van Lebona. 20Die leiers het vir die Benjaminiete gesê: Gaan kruip weg in die wingerde [21]en kyk mooi: wanneer die meisies van Silo uitkom om te dans, moet julle uit die wingerde opspring en elkeen moet vir hom 'n vrou gryp onder die meisies van Silo. Dan moet julle na die gebied van Benjamin toe gaan. [22]Wanneer die meisies se pa's of broers 'n klag by ons kom indien, sal ons vir hulle sê: Kyk, ons het nie genoeg vrouens vir hulle in die oorlog gevat nie, en julle is onskuldig, want julle het nie die dogters vir hulle gegee nie. [23]Die Benjaminiete het dit toe gedoen. Terwyl die meisies gedans het, het hulle vir hulle die regte getal vrouens kom steel. Die Benjaminiete is toe daar weg, terug na hulle grondgebied toe. Hulle het hulle stede herbou en daarin gewoon. [24]Die Israeliete is toe ook daar weg, elkeen na sy stam en sy familie, elkeen na sy grondgebied toe. [25]In daardie tyd was daar nog nie 'n koning in Israel nie, en elkeen het gedoen wat reg is in sy eie oë.

Ruth 1

Naomi Widowed

Rth 1:1 (1-2) Long ago, in the days before Israel had a king, there was a famine in the land. So a man named Elimelech, who belonged to the clan of Ephrath and who lived in Bethlehem in Judah, went with his wife Naomi and their two sons Mahlon and Chilion to live for a while in the country of Moab. While they were living there,

Rth 1:3 Elimelech died, and Naomi was left alone with her two sons,

Rth 1:4 who married Moabite women, Orpah and Ruth. About ten years later

Rth 1:5 Mahlon and Chilion also died, and Naomi was left all alone, without husband or sons.

Ruth's Loyalty to Naomi

Rth 1:6 Some time later Naomi heard that the LORD had blessed his people by giving them good crops; so she got ready to leave Moab with her daughters-in-law.

Rth 1:7 They started out together to go back to Judah, but on the way

Rth 1:8 she said to them, "Go back home and stay with your mothers. May the LORD be as good to you as you have been to me and to those who have died.

Rth 1:9 And may the LORD make it possible for each of you to marry again and have a home." So Naomi kissed them good-bye. But they started crying

Rth 1:10 and said to her, "No! We will go with you to your people."

Rth 1:11 "You must go back, my daughters," Naomi answered. "Why do you want to come with me? Do you think I could have sons again for you to marry?

Rth 1:12 Go back home, for I am too old to get married again. Even if I thought there was still hope, and so got married tonight and had sons, Rth 1:13 would you wait until they had grown up? Would this keep you from marrying someone else? No, my daughters, you know that's impossible. The LORD has turned against me, and I feel very sorry for you."

Rth 1:14 Again they started crying. Then Orpah kissed her mother-in-law good-bye and went back home, but Ruth held on to her.

Rth 1:15 So Naomi said to her, "Ruth, your sister-in-law has gone back to her people and to her god. Go back home with her."

Rth 1:16 But Ruth answered, "Don't ask me to leave you! Let me go with you. Wherever you go, I will go; wherever you live, I will live. Your people will be my people, and your God will be my God.

Rth 1:17 Wherever you die, I will die, and that is where I will be buried. May the LORD's worst punishment come upon me if I let anything but death separate me from you!"

Rth 1:18 When Naomi saw that Ruth was determined to go with her, she said nothing more.

Naomi and Ruth Return

Rth 1:19 They went on until they came to Bethlehem. When they arrived, the whole town became excited, and the women there exclaimed, "Is this really Naomi?"

Rth 1:20 "Don't call me Naomi," she answered; "call me Marah, because Almighty God has made my life bitter.

Rth 1:21 When I left here, I had plenty, but the LORD has brought me back without a thing. Why call me Naomi when the LORD Almighty has condemned me and sent me trouble?"

Rth 1:22 This, then, was how Naomi came back from Moab with Ruth, her Moabite daughter-in-law. When they arrived in Bethlehem, the barley harvest was just beginning.

RUT 1

1In die tyd van die leiers was daar op 'n keer hongersnood in die land, en 'n man met sy vrou en sy twee seuns het uit Betlehem in Juda weggetrek om 'n heenkome te soek in die gebied van Moab. 2Die man was Elimelek, sy vrou Naomi, en sy twee seuns Maglon en Kiljon. Hulle was afkomstig uit Efrata in Betlehem in Juda. Hulle het in Moab aangekom en hulle daar gevestig. 3Toe Naomi se man, Elimelek, sterf, het sy en haar twee seuns alleen agtergebly. 4Die twee seuns het later getrou met die Moabitiese meisies Orpa en Rut. Naomi en haar seuns het omtrent tien jaar in Moab gebly. 5Toe haar twee seuns Maglon en Kiljon ook sterf, het sy alleen agtergebly sonder haar seuns en sonder haar man. 6Toe sy verneem dat die Here vir sy volk uitkoms gebring het deur vir hulle 'n goeie oes te gee, het sy en haar skoondogters klaargemaak om van Moab af terug te gaan. 7Sy en haar skoondogters het saam vertrek uit die plek waar hulle gebly het, op pad na Juda toe. 8Toe sê Naomi vir haar twee skoondogters: Julle moet liewer teruggaan na julle ouerhuise toe. Mag die Here sy liefde aan julle bewys, soos julle aan die oorledenes en aan my liefde bewys het. 9Mag die Here vir julle elkeen weer 'n goeie man en 'n heenkome gee. Toe sy van hulle wou afskeid neem, het hulle begin huil 10en vir haar gesê: Nee, ons wil met Ma saamgaan na Ma se volk toe. 11Maar Naomi het weer vir hulle gesê: Gaan terug, my dogters. Waarom sou julle saam met my wou kom? Het ek nog enige hoop om seuns in die wêreld te bring, sodat julle met hulle sou kon trou? 12Gaan asseblief maar terug, my dogters, ek is te oud om weer te trou; selfs al sou ek sê daar is nog hoop vir my, al sou ek vannag by 'n man slaap, al sou ek nog seuns in die wêreld bring, 13sou julle kon wag tot hulle groot is? Sou julle julle ondertussen daarvan kon weerhou om te trou? Dit is onmoontlik, my dogters. Nee, my lot is swaarder as julle s'n: die Here het teen my gedraai. 14Toe het Naomi se skoondogters weer begin huil, en Orpa het van haar afskeid geneem, maar Rut het by haar gebly. 15Toe sê Naomi: Kyk, jou skoonsuster het teruggegaan na haar volk en na haar gode toe. Gaan jy nou ook saam met haar terug. 16Maar Rut het geantwoord: Moet my tog nie dwing om van u af weg te gaan en om om te draai nie, want waar u gaan, sal ek gaan; waar u bly, sal ek bly; u volk is my volk; u God is my God; 17waar u sterf, sal ek sterf en daar sal ek begrawe word. Ek lê 'n eed af voor die Here: net die dood sal ons skei. 18Naomi het besef dat Rut vasbeslote was om saam met haar te gaan en sy het opgehou om haar te probeer ompraat. 19Hulle twee is toe saam na Betlehem toe. Met hulle aankoms in Betlehem was daar groot opgewondenheid in die stad, en die vrouens het gesê: Maar dis mos Naomi! 20Hierop het Naomi vir hulle gesê: Moet my asseblief nie meer Naomi noem nie, noem my Mara , want die Almagtige het die lewe vir my baie bitter gemaak. 21My lewe was vol toe ek hier weg is, maar die Here het my leeg laat terugkom. Waarom noem julle my nog Naomi? Die Here het dan teen my gedraai, die Almagtige het 'n ramp oor my gebring. 22So het Naomi uit Moab teruggekom en Rut, haar Moabitiese skoondogter, was by haar. Hulle het in Betlehem aangekom aan die begin van die garsoes.

Ruth 2

Ruth Meets Boaz

Rth 2:1 Naomi had a relative named Boaz, a rich and influential man who belonged to the family of her husband Elimelech.

Rth 2:2 One day Ruth said to Naomi, "Let me go to the fields to gather the grain that the harvest workers leave. I am sure to find someone who will let me work with him." Naomi answered, "Go ahead, daughter."

Rth 2:3 So Ruth went out to the fields and walked behind the workers, picking up the heads of grain which they left. It so happened that she was in a field that belonged to Boaz.

Rth 2:4 Some time later Boaz himself arrived from Bethlehem and greeted the workers. "The LORD be with you!" he said. "The LORD bless you!" they answered.

Rth 2:5 Boaz asked the man in charge, "Who is that young woman?"

Rth 2:6 The man answered, "She is the foreigner who came back from Moab with Naomi.

Rth 2:7 She asked me to let her follow the workers and gather grain. She has been working since early morning and has just now stopped to rest for a while under the shelter."

Rth 2:8 Then Boaz said to Ruth, "Let me give you some advice. Don't gather grain anywhere except in this field. Work with the women here;

Rth 2:9 watch them to see where they are reaping and stay with them. I have ordered my men not to molest you. And whenever you are thirsty, go and drink from the water jars that they have filled."

Rth 2:10 Ruth bowed down with her face touching the ground, and said to Boaz, "Why should you be so concerned about me? Why should you be so kind to a foreigner?"

Rth 2:11 Boaz answered, "I have heard about everything that you have done for your mother-in-law since your husband died. I know how you left your father and mother and your own country and how you came to live among a people you had never known before.

Rth 2:12 May the LORD reward you for what you have done. May you have a full reward from the LORD God of Israel, to whom you have come for protection!"

Rth 2:13 Ruth answered, "You are very kind to me, sir. You have made me feel better by speaking gently to me, even though I am not the equal of one of your servants."

Rth 2:14 At mealtime Boaz said to Ruth, "Come and have a piece of bread, and dip it in the sauce." So she sat with the workers, and Boaz passed some roasted grain to her. She ate until she was satisfied, and she still had some food left over.

Rth 2:15 (15-16) After she had left to go and gather grain, Boaz ordered the workers, "Let her gather grain even where the bundles are lying, and don't say anything to stop her. Besides that, pull out some heads of grain from the bundles and leave them for her to pick up."

Rth 2:17 So Ruth gathered grain in the field until evening, and when she had beaten it out, she found she had nearly twenty-five pounds.

Rth 2:18 She took the grain back into town and showed her mother-in-law how much she had gathered. She also gave her the food left over from the meal.

Rth 2:19 Naomi asked her, "Where did you gather all this grain today? Whose field have you been working in? May God bless the man who took an interest in you!" So Ruth told Naomi that she had been working in a field belonging to a man named Boaz.

Rth 2:20 "May the LORD bless Boaz!" Naomi exclaimed. "The LORD always keeps his promises to the living and the dead." And she went on, "That man is a close relative of ours, one of those responsible for taking care of us."

Rth 2:21 Then Ruth said, "Best of all, he told me to keep gathering grain with his workers until they finish the harvest."

Rth 2:22 Naomi said to Ruth, "Yes, daughter, it will be better for you to work with the women in Boaz' field. You might be molested if you went to someone else's field."

Rth 2:23 So Ruth worked with them and gathered grain until all the barley and wheat had been harvested. And she continued to live with her mother-in-law.

RUT 2

[1]Naomi het 'n vermoënde familielid gehad van haar man Elimelek se kant af. Sy naam was Boas. [2]Rut, die Moabitiese vrou, vra toe vir Naomi: Mag ek lande toe gaan om are op te tel by iemand wat my toelaat om dit te doen? Naomi antwoord haar: Gaan gerus maar, my dogter. [3]Sy het toe geloop om in die land te gaan are optel agter die graansnyers aan. Sy het uitgekom by dié deel van die land wat behoort het aan Boas, die familielid van Elimelek. [4]Boas het toe juis self uit Betlehem daar aangekom en hy het vir die snyers gesê: Mag die Here by julle wees, en hulle het hom geantwoord: Mag die Here u seën. [5]Boas vra toe vir sy voorman: Wie is daardie meisie? [6]en hy antwoord: Sy is 'n Moabitiese meisie wat saam met Naomi van Moab af gekom het. [7]Sy het gevra of sy are agter die snyers mag optel. Sy het toe gekom en is nog al die tyd besig van vanmôre af tot nou toe. Sy rus nou net 'n bietjie. [8]Boas sê toe vir Rut: Luister, my dogter, moenie op 'n ander land gaan are optel nie; moet ook nie hier weggaan nie. Bly hier by die meisies. [9]Bly op die land waar hulle oes, en volg hulle. Ek het die mans aangesê om jou nie lastig te val nie. En wanneer jy dors is, gaan na die waterkruike toe en drink van die water wat die werksmense vir hulle geskep het. [10]Rut het diep gebuig voor Boas en gevra: Waarom is u so goed vir my en stel u belang in my, in 'n buitelander? [11]Boas antwoord haar toe: Ek weet van alles wat jy vir jou skoonma gedoen het na die dood van haar man en dat jy jou ouers en jou geboorteland verlaat het en na 'n volk toe gekom het waarvan jy vantevore niks geweet het nie. [12]Mag die Here jou beloon vir wat jy gedoen het. Mag jy 'n welverdiende beloning ontvang van die Here die God van Israel onder wie se vleuels jy kom skuil het. [13]Sy het geantwoord: Meneer, u bewys my 'n guns, u laat my goed voel, u is vriendelik met my, al is ek nie eers een van u slavinne nie. [14]Toe dit etenstyd was, sê Boas vir haar: Kom hierheen en eet 'n stukkie brood en doop dit in die wynsous. Sy het toe by die snyers gaan sit, en Boas het vir haar gebraaide koring gegee. Nadat sy genoeg geëet het en selfs oorgehou het, [15]het sy opgestaan om weer te gaan are optel. Boas het sy werkers toe beveel: Sy mag selfs tussen die gerwe are optel en julle mag haar nie pla nie; [16]julle moet ook van die are uit die gerwe haal en dit op die grond laat val. Sy mag dit optel sonder dat julle haar daaroor aanspreek. [17]Rut het tot die aand toe are opgetel in die land. En toe sy uitslaan wat sy opgetel het, was dit ongeveer dertien kilogram. [18]Sy het dit gevat en saamgeneem stad toe. Haar skoonma het gesien hoeveel sy bymekaargemaak het. Rut het ook van die kos wat sy oorgehou het, vir haar skoonma gegee. [19]Haar skoonma vra haar toe: Waar het jy vandag are opgetel en wat het jy alles gedoen? Mag dié een wat in jou belang gestel het, deur die Here geseën word. Sy het toe vir haar skoonma vertel wat sy gedoen het en dat die man by wie sy die dag gewerk het, se naam Boas is. [20]Naomi sê toe vir haar skoondogter: Mag hy geseën word deur die Here wat nie nalaat om sy trou aan lewendes en dooies te bewys nie. En, het Naomi bygevoeg, hierdie man is familie van ons. Hy is een van ons lossers. [21]Rut, die Moabitiese vrou, sê toe: Hy het ook nog vir my gesê ek moet by sy werksters bly totdat hulle klaar geoes het. [22]Hierop sê Naomi vir haar: Dit is goed vir jou, my dogter, dat jy saam met sy werksters uitgaan. Op 'n ander land sal jy dalk gemolesteer word. [23]Rut het toe saam met die werksters van Boas are opgetel totdat die gars- en koringoes ingesamel was. Sy het nog by haar skoonma gewoon.

Ruth 3

Ruth and Boaz at the Threshing Floor

Rth 3:1 Some time later Naomi said to Ruth, "I must find a husband for you, so that you will have a home of your own.

Rth 3:2 Remember that this man Boaz, whose women you have been working with, is our relative. Now listen. This evening he will be threshing the barley.

Rth 3:3 So wash yourself, put on some perfume, and get dressed in your best clothes. Then go where he is threshing, but don't let him know you are there until he has finished eating and drinking.

Rth 3:4 Be sure to notice where he lies down, and after he falls asleep, go and lift the covers and lie down at his feet. He will tell you what to do."

Rth 3:5 Ruth answered, "I will do everything you say."

Rth 3:6 So Ruth went to the threshing place and did just what her mother-in-law had told her.

Rth 3:7 When Boaz had finished eating and drinking, he was in a good mood. He went to the pile of barley and lay down to sleep. Ruth slipped over quietly, lifted the covers and lay down at his feet.

Rth 3:8 During the night he woke up suddenly, turned over, and was surprised to find a woman lying at his feet.

Rth 3:9 "Who are you?" he asked. "It's Ruth, sir," she answered. "Because you are a close relative, you are responsible for taking care of me. So please marry me."

Rth 3:10 "The LORD bless you," he said. "You are showing even greater family loyalty in what you are doing now than in what you did for your mother-in-law. You might have gone looking for a young man, either rich or poor, but you haven't.

Rth 3:11 Now don't worry, Ruth. I will do everything you ask; as everyone in town knows, you are a fine woman.

Rth 3:12 It is true that I am a close relative and am responsible for you, but there is a man who is a closer relative than I am.

Rth 3:13 Stay here the rest of the night, and in the morning we will find out whether or not he will take responsibility for you. If so, well and good; if not, then I swear by the living LORD that I will take the responsibility. Now lie down and stay here till morning."

Rth 3:14 So she lay there at his feet, but she got up before it was light enough for her to be seen, because Boaz did not want anyone to know that she had been there.

Rth 3:15 Boaz said to her, "Take off your cloak and spread it out here." She did, and he poured out almost fifty pounds of barley and helped her lift it to her shoulder. Then she returned to town with it.

Rth 3:16 When she arrived home, her mother-in-law asked her, "How did you get along, daughter?" Ruth told her everything that Boaz had done for her.

Rth 3:17 She added, "He told me I must not come back to you empty-handed, so he gave me all this barley."

Rth 3:18 Naomi said to her, "Now be patient, Ruth, until you see how this all turns out. Boaz will not rest today until he settles the matter."

RUT 3

1Rut se skoonma Naomi het vir haar gesê: My dogter, dit is my verantwoordelikheid om vir jou 'n heenkome te soek sodat dit met jou goed kan gaan. 2Kyk, Boas saam met wie se werksters jy gewerk het, is mos familie van ons. Hy dors vannag gars op die dorsvloer. 3Was jou, maak jou mooi en trek jou netjies aan en gaan na die dorsvloer toe. Moenie dat hy jou gewaar voordat hy klaar geëet en gedrink het nie. 4Wanneer hy gaan slaap, sorg dat jy weet waar hy gaan lê. Dan gaan jy soontoe en kruip by sy voete in. Hy sal jou dan sê wat jy moet doen. 5Toe antwoord Rut: Ek sal doen wat u gesê het. 6Sy het na die dorsvloer toe gegaan en alles gedoen wat haar skoonma vir haar gesê het. 7Nadat Boas geëet en gedrink het, was hy baie vrolik en het hy langs die mied gaan lê. Rut het toe stilletjies gekom, sy voete oopgemaak en by sy voete ingekruip. 8Toe hy in die middel van die nag wakker skrik en omdraai, was hy baie verbaas toe hy 'n vrou by sy voete gewaar. 9Hy vra toe vir haar: Wie is jy? en sy antwoord: Ek is Rut, ek is van u afhanklik, en u is my losser; neem my nou onder u beskerming. 10Hy sê toe: Mag die Here jou seën, my dogter! Wat jy nou doen, naamlik dat jy agter geen jongman, arm of ryk, aanloop nie, is baie beter as die liefde wat jy aan die begin aan jou skoonma bewys het. 11Moet nou nie verder bekommerd wees nie, my dogter. Alles wat jy my vra, sal ek doen, want al die mense weet dat jy 'n goeie vrou is. 12Dit is waar dat ek jou losser is, maar nou is dit ook so dat daar 'n ander losser is wat nader familie is as ek. 13Slaap vannag hier. As hy dan môreoggend bereid is om as jou losser op te tree, goed, maar as hy nie wil nie, sal ek so seker as die Here leef, as losser optree. Bly hier tot môreoggend. 14Sy het toe by sy voete bly lê tot die oggend, maar voordat dit lig genoeg was om iemand te herken, het sy opgestaan, want, het Boas gesê, dit moenie bekend word dat 'n vrou na die dorsvloer toe gekom het nie. 15Hy het ook gesê: Bring die tjalie wat jy om het en hou dit oop. Sy het dit oopgehou, en hy het ses en twintig kilogram gars vir haar daarin afgemeet en dit op haar rug getel. Hy is toe stad toe, 16en sy het na haar skoonma toe gegaan. Sy vra toe vir Rut: Hoe het dit toe gegaan, my dogter? Sy het haar vertel wat Boas alles vir haar gedoen het en 17gesê: Hy het vir my hierdie ses en twintig kilogram gars gegee, want hy het gesê ek mag nie met leë hande by my skoonma aankom nie. 18Naomi sê toe: Wag maar en kyk wat nou gaan gebeur, my dogter. Die man sal beslis nie vandag rus voordat die saak afgehandel is nie.

Ruth 4

Boaz Redeems Ruth

Rth 4:1 Boaz went to the meeting place at the town gate and sat down there. Then Elimelech's nearest relative, the man whom Boaz had mentioned, came by, and Boaz called to him, "Come over here, my friend, and sit down." So he went over and sat down.

Rth 4:2 Then Boaz got ten of the leaders of the town and asked them to sit down there too. When they were seated,

Rth 4:3 he said to his relative, "Now that Naomi has come back from Moab, she wants to sell the field that belonged to our relative Elimelech, Rth 4:4 and I think you ought to know about it. Now then, if you want it, buy it in the presence of these men sitting here. But if you don't want it, say so, because the right to buy it belongs first to you and then to me." The man said, "I will buy it."

Rth 4:5 Boaz said, "Very well, if you buy the field from Naomi, then you are also buying Ruth, the Moabite widow, so that the field will stay in the dead man's family."

Rth 4:6 The man answered, "In that case I will give up my right to buy the field, because it would mean that my own children would not inherit it. You buy it; I would rather not."

Rth 4:7 Now in those days, to settle a sale or an exchange of property, it was the custom for the seller to take off his sandal and give it to the buyer. In this way the Israelites showed that the matter was settled.

Rth 4:8 So when the man said to Boaz, "You buy it," he took off his sandal and gave it to Boaz.

Rth 4:9 Then Boaz said to the leaders and all the others there, "You are all witnesses today that I have bought from Naomi everything that belonged to Elimelech and to his sons Chilion and Mahlon.

Rth 4:10 In addition, Ruth the Moabite, Mahlon's widow, becomes my wife. This will keep the property in the dead man's family, and his family line will continue among his people and in his hometown. You are witnesses to this today."

Rth 4:11 The leaders and the others said, "Yes, we are witnesses. May the LORD make your wife become like Rachel and Leah, who bore many children to Jacob. May you become rich in the clan of Ephrath and famous in Bethlehem.

Rth 4:12 May the children that the LORD will give you by this young woman make your family like the family of Perez, the son of Judah and Tamar."

Ruth and Boaz Marry

Rth 4:13 So Boaz took Ruth home as his wife. The LORD blessed her, and she became pregnant and had a son.

Rth 4:14 The women said to Naomi, "Praise the LORD! He has given you a grandson today to take care of you. May the boy become famous in Israel!

Rth 4:15 Your daughter-in-law loves you, and has done more for you than seven sons. And now she has given you a grandson, who will bring new life to you and give you security in your old age."

Rth 4:16 Naomi took the child, held him close, and took care of him.

Rth 4:17 The women of the neighborhood named the boy Obed. They told everyone, "A son has been born to Naomi!" Obed became the father of Jesse, who was the father of David.

The Genealogy of David

Rth 4:18 (18-22) This is the family line from Perez to David: Perez, Hezron, Ram, Amminadab, Nahshon, Salmon, Boaz, Obed, Jesse, David.

RUT 4

1Ondertussen het Boas na die stadspoort toe gegaan en daar gaan sit. Juis toe kom die losser van wie Boas gepraat het, daar verby Boas roep toe: Kom sit hier, my vriend. Nadat hy kom sit het, het Boas 2ook tien leiers van die stad gevra om daar te kom sit, en hulle het dit gedoen. 3Boas sê toe vir die losser: Naomi, die vrou wat uit Moab teruggekom het, bied die stuk grond wat aan ons familielid Elimelek behoort het, te koop aan. 4Ek het gedink ek behoort dit vir jou te sê. Koop dit nou in die teenwoordigheid van almal wat hier sit en voor die leiers van die volk; indien jy bereid is om as losser op te tree, doen dit dan, maar indien nie, sê dit vir my dat ek dit weet, want ek is ná jou die volgende een wat die lossersreg moet uitoefen. Hy antwoord toe: Ek is bereid om as losser op te tree. 5Daarop sê Boas: Wanneer jy die stuk grond van Naomi koop, kry jy terselfdertyd vir Rut die Moabitiese weduwee sodat die grond in die oorledene se familie bly.6Die losser sê toe: In daardie geval sal ek my reg om as losser op te tree, laat vaar, want anders sou dit beteken dat my eie eiendom in gevaar kom. Tree jy nou maar as losser op, want ek sien nie meer daarvoor kans nie. 7In Israel was dit gebruiklik by die lossingsprosedure of by die ruil van enige eiendom dat die een party 'n skoen uittrek en aan die ander party gee. Dit was die manier waarop die bekragtiging van 'n transaksie in Israel plaasgevind het. 8Die losser sê toe vir Boas: Jy kan dit maar koop, en die losser het sy skoen uitgetrek. 9Hierop sê Boas vir die leiers en almal teenwoordig: Julle is vandag getuies dat ek alles wat aan Elimelek en Kiljon en Maglon behoort het, van Naomi gekoop het en dat 10ek ook die Moabitiese vrou Rut, die weduwee van Maglon, vir my as vrou gekry het. So sal die grond in die oorledene se familie bly en sy nagedagtenis nie vergeet word in die volkslewe nie. Ja, julle is vandag getuies. 11Die leiers en almal wat in die stadspoort bymekaar was, het toe bevestig: Ons is getuies. Mag die Here die vrou wat nou in jou huis inkom, soos Ragel en Lea maak wat saam gebou het aan die volk Israel. Verwerf aansien in Efrata en maak naam vir jouself in Betlehem. 12Mag die nageslag wat die Here jou uit hierdie jong vrou sal gee, wees soos dié van Peres wat deur Tamar vir Juda in die wêreld gebring is. 13Boas het toe met Rut getrou en hy het gemeenskap met haar gehad. Die Here het haar swanger laat word, en Rut het 'n seuntjie in die wêreld gebring. 14Die vrouens sê toe vir Naomi: Aan die Here kom die lof toe omdat Hy vandag vir jou 'n losser gegee het. Mag die losser se naam bekend wees in Israel, 15en mag hy vir jou vreugde bring en jou op jou oudag versorg. Jou skoondogter wat jou liefhet en wat vir jou meer werd is as sewe seuns, het hom in die wêreld gebring. 16Naomi het toe die seuntjie op haar skoot gevat en as haar eie aangeneem. [17]Haar buurvroue het die seuntjie toe 'n naam gegee. Hulle het hom Obed genoem en gesê: 'n Seun is vir Naomi gebore. Obed was die voorvader van Dawid. [18]Hier is nou die geslagsregister van Peres: Peres was die vader van Gesron, [19]Gesron van Ram, Ram van Amminadab, [20]Amminadab van Nagson, Nagson van Salmon, [21]Salmon van Boas, Boas van Obed, [22]Obed van Isai, en Isai was die vader van Dawid.

1Samuel 1

The Birth of Samuel

1Sa 1:1 There was a man named Elkanah, from the tribe of Ephraim, who lived in the town of Ramah in the hill country of Ephraim. He was the son of Jeroham and grandson of Elihu, and belonged to the family of Tohu, a part of the clan of Zuph.

1Sa 1:2 Elkanah had two wives, Hannah and Peninnah. Peninnah had children, but Hannah did not.

1Sa 1:3 Every year Elkanah went from Ramah to worship and offer sacrifices to the LORD Almighty at Shiloh, where Hophni and Phinehas, the two sons of Eli, were priests of the LORD.

1Sa 1:4 Each time Elkanah offered his sacrifice, he would give one share of the meat to Peninnah and one share to each of her children.

1Sa 1:5 And even though he loved Hannah very much he would give her only one share, because the LORD had kept her from having children.

1Sa 1:6 Peninnah, her rival, would torment and humiliate her, because the LORD had kept her childless.

1Sa 1:7 This went on year after year; whenever they went to the house of the LORD, Peninnah would upset Hannah so much that she would cry and refuse to eat anything.

1Sa 1:8 Her husband Elkanah would ask her, "Hannah, why are you crying? Why won't you eat? Why are you always so sad? Don't I mean more to you than ten sons?"

1Sa 1:9 (9-10) One time, after they had finished their meal in the house of the LORD at Shiloh, Hannah got up. She was deeply distressed, and she cried bitterly as she prayed to the LORD. Meanwhile, Eli the priest was sitting in his place by the door.

1Sa 1:11 Hannah made a solemn promise: " LORD Almighty, look at me, your servant! See my trouble and remember me! Don't forget me! If you give me a son, I promise that I will dedicate him to you for his whole life and that he will never have his hair cut."

1Sa 1:12 Hannah continued to pray to the LORD for a long time, and Eli watched her lips.

1Sa 1:13 She was praying silently; her lips were moving, but she made no sound. So Eli thought that she was drunk,

1Sa 1:14 and he said to her, "Stop making a drunken show of yourself

! Stop your drinking and sober up!"

1Sa 1:15 "No, I'm not drunk, sir," she answered. "I haven't been drinking! I am desperate, and I have been praying, pouring out my troubles to the LORD.

1Sa 1:16 Don't think I am a worthless woman. I have been praying like this because I'm so miserable."

1Sa 1:17 "Go in peace," Eli said, "and may the God of Israel give you what you have asked him for."

1Sa 1:18 "May you always think kindly of me," she replied. Then she went away, ate some food, and was no longer sad.

1Sa 1:19 The next morning Elkanah and his family got up early, and after worshiping the LORD, they went back home to Ramah. Elkanah had intercourse with his wife Hannah, and the LORD answered her prayer.

1Sa 1:20 So it was that she became pregnant and gave birth to a son. She named him Samuel, and explained, "I asked the LORD for him."

Samuel Given to the Lord

1Sa 1:21 The time came again for Elkanah and his family to go to Shiloh and offer to the LORD the yearly sacrifice and the special sacrifice he had promised.

1Sa 1:22 But this time Hannah did not go. She told her husband, "As soon as the child is weaned, I will take him to the house of the LORD, where he will stay all his life."

1Sa 1:23 Elkanah answered, "All right, do whatever you think best; stay at home until you have weaned him. And may the LORD make your promise come true." So Hannah stayed at home and nursed her child.

1Sa 1:24 After she had weaned him, she took him to Shiloh, taking along a three-year-old bull, a bushel of flour, and a leather bag full of wine. She took Samuel, young as he was, to the house of the LORD at Shiloh.

1Sa 1:25 After they had killed the bull, they took the child to Eli.

1Sa 1:26 Hannah said to him, "Excuse me, sir. Do you remember me? I am the woman you saw standing here, praying to the LORD.

1Sa 1:27 I asked him for this child, and he gave me what I asked for.

1Sa 1:28 So I am dedicating him to the LORD. As long as he lives, he will belong to the LORD." Then they worshiped the LORD there.

I SAMUEL 1

1Daar was 'n man uit Ramatajim, 'n Suffiet uit die Efraimsberge. Hy was Elkana seun van Jerogam, seun van Elihu, seun van Togu, seun van Suf uit Efrata. 2Hy het twee vrouens gehad. Die een se naam was Hanna en die ander s'n Peninna. Peninna het kinders gehad, maar Hanna nie. 3Elkana het elke jaar uit sy stad uit na Silo toe gegaan om te aanbid en aan die Here die Almagtige offers te bring. Eli se twee seuns, Hofni en Pinehas, was in Silo priesters van die Here. 4Elkana het gewoonlik op die dag wanneer hy geoffer het, dele van die offermaaltyd aan sy vrou Peninna en al haar seuns en dogters gegee. 5Alhoewel hy vir Hanna liefgehad het, kon hy vir haar elke keer net een deel gee, want die Here het haar kinderloos laat bly. 6Dan het die ander vrou haar baie gespot en verneder omdat die Here haar kinderloos laat bly het. 7So het dit jaar vir jaar gegaan: elke keer as Hanna in die huis van die Here gaan offer het, het Peninna haar gespot, sodat sy gehuil het en nie wou eet nie. 8Dan sê haar man Elkana vir haar: Hanna, waarom huil jy? Waarom eet jy nie en waarom is jy hartseer? Is ek nie vir jou meer werd as tien seuns nie? 9Op 'n keer ná die offermaaltyd in Silo het Hanna opgestaan terwyl die priester Eli op sy stoel langs die deurkosyn van die tempel van die Here gesit het. 10Sy was bitter hartseer en terwyl sy tot die Here gebid het, het sy onbedaarlik gehuil. 11Sy het 'n gelofte afgelê en gesê: Here, Almagtige, as U tog op my ellende wou let en aan my, u dienares, wou dink en my nie vergeet nie en aan my 'n seun gee, sal ek hom sy lewe lank aan U gee, en as teken daarvan sal sy hare nie afgesny word nie.12Sy het lank tot die Here gebid, en Eli het stip na haar mond bly kyk. 13Hanna het in haar gedagte gepraat, net haar lippe het geroer. Eli kon nie haar stem hoor nie, en daarom het hy gedink sy is dronk. 14Hy sê toe vir haar: Hoe lank wil jy dronk bly? Loop word eers nugter! 15Maar Hanna het geantwoord: Nee, Meneer, ek is maar net 'n vrou wat diep terneergedruk is. Ek het nie wyn of bier gedrink nie. Ek het my hart uitgestort voor die Here. 16Moet tog nie dink ek is 'n slegte vrou nie. Dis oor my groot smart en leed dat ek so lank bly praat het. 17Toe sê Eli: Wees gerus en gaan nou maar. Die God van Israel sal aan jou gee wat jy van Hom afgesmeek het. 18En sy het gesê: Mag dit vir my wees soos u sê. Sy het toe geloop en gaan eet, en sy was nie meer bedruk nie. 19Die volgende môre het Elkana-hulle vroeg opgestaan, die Here aanbid en teruggegaan huis toe. Nadat hulle tuis gekom het in Rama, het Elkana gemeenskap gehad met sy vrou Hanna, en die Here het aan haar gedink. 20By die wisseling van die jaar was Hanna swanger. Sy het 'n seun in die wêreld gebring en uitgeroep: Sy naam is Samuel: van die Here het ek hom afgesmeek!

[21]Toe Elkana en sy hele gesin gaan om die jaarlikse offer aan die Here te bring en sy gelofte te betaal, [22]het Hanna nie saamgegaan nie, want sy het vir haar man gesê: Wanneer die seun gespeen is, sal ek hom wegbring dat hy voor die Here verskyn en altyd daar bly. [23]Haar man Elkana het vir haar gesê: Maak soos jy dit goedvind. Bly totdat jy hom gespeen het. Mag die Here sy woord bevestig! Hanna het toe gebly en haar kind gevoed totdat sy hom gespeen het. [24]Toe sy hom gespeen het, het sy hom saamgeneem, en ook 'n driejaaroud bul , sestien kilogram meel en 'n kruik wyn. Sy het hom as klein seuntjie weggebring na die huis van die Here toe in Silo. [25]Elkana-hulle het die bul geslag en die seun na Eli toe gebring, [26]en Hanna het gesê: Ekskuus, Meneer, u sal my nie glo nie, maar, Meneer, ék is die vrou wat hier by u gestaan het om tot die Here te bid. [27]Om hierdie seun het ek gebid, en die Here het aan my gegee wat ek van Hom afgesmeek het. [28]Ja, van die Here het ek hierdie kind afgesmeek, en nou sal hy sy lewe lank iemand wees wat van die Here afgesmeek is. Toe het hulle die Here daar aanbid.

1Samuel 2

Hannah's Prayer

1Sa 2:1 Hannah prayed: "The LORD has filled my heart with joy; how happy I am because of what he has done! I laugh at my enemies; how joyful I am because God has helped me!

1Sa 2:2 "No one is holy like the LORD; there is none like him, no protector like our God.

1Sa 2:3 Stop your loud boasting; silence your proud words. For the LORD is a God who knows, and he judges all that people do.

1Sa 2:4 The bows of strong soldiers are broken, but the weak grow strong.

1Sa 2:5 The people who once were well fed now hire themselves out to get food, but the hungry are hungry no more. The childless wife has borne seven children, but the mother of many is left with none.

1Sa 2:6 The LORD kills and restores to life; he sends people to the world of the dead and brings them back again.

1Sa 2:7 He makes some people poor and others rich; he humbles some and makes others great.

1Sa 2:8 He lifts the poor from the dust and raises the needy from their misery. He makes them companions of princes and puts them in places of honor. The foundations of the earth belong to the LORD; on them he has built the world.

1Sa 2:9 "He protects the lives of his faithful people, but the wicked disappear in darkness; a man does not triumph by his own strength.

1Sa 2:10 The LORD's enemies will be destroyed; he will thunder against them from heaven. The LORD will judge the whole world; he will give power to his king, he will make his chosen king victorious."

1Sa 2:11 Then Elkanah went back home to Ramah, but the boy Samuel stayed in Shiloh and served the LORD under the priest Eli.

Eli's Worthless Sons

1Sa 2:12 The sons of Eli were scoundrels. They paid no attention to the LORD

1Sa 2:13 or to the regulations concerning what the priests could demand from the people. Instead, when someone was offering a sacrifice, the priest's servant would come with a three-pronged fork. While the meat was still cooking,

1Sa 2:14 he would stick the fork into the cooking pot, and whatever the fork brought out belonged to the priest. All the Israelites who came to Shiloh to offer sacrifices were treated like this.

1Sa 2:15 In addition, even before the fat was taken off and burned, the priest's servant would come and say to the one offering the sacrifice, "Give me some meat for the priest to roast; he won't accept boiled meat from you, only raw meat."

1Sa 2:16 If the person answered, "Let us do what is right and burn the fat first; then take what you want," the priest's servant would say, "No! Give it to me now! If you don't, I will have to take it by force!"

1Sa 2:17 This sin of the sons of Eli was extremely serious in the LORD's sight, because they treated the offerings to the LORD with such disrespect.

1Sa 2:18 In the meantime the boy Samuel continued to serve the LORD, wearing a sacred linen apron.

1Sa 2:19 Each year his mother would make a little robe and take it to him when she accompanied her husband to offer the yearly sacrifice.

1Sa 2:20 Then Eli would bless Elkanah and his wife, and say to Elkanah, "May the LORD give you other children by this woman to take the place of the one you dedicated to him." After that they would go back home.

1Sa 2:21 The LORD did bless Hannah, and she had three more sons and two daughters. The boy Samuel grew up in the service of the LORD.

Eli Rebukes His Sons

1Sa 2:22 Eli was now very old. He kept hearing about everything his sons were doing to the Israelites and that they were even sleeping with the women who worked at the entrance to the Tent of the LORD's presence.

1Sa 2:23 So he said to them, "Why are you doing these things? Everybody tells me about the evil you are doing.

1Sa 2:24 Stop it, my sons! This is an awful thing the people of the LORD are talking about!

1Sa 2:25 If anyone sins against someone else, God can defend the one who is wrong; but who can defend someone who sins against the LORD?" But they would not listen to their father, for the LORD had decided to kill them.

1Sa 2:26 The boy Samuel continued to grow and to gain favor both with the LORD and with people.

The Lord Rejects Eli's Household

1Sa 2:27 A prophet came to Eli with this message from the LORD: "When your ancestor Aaron and his family were slaves of the king of Egypt, I revealed myself to Aaron.

1Sa 2:28 From all the tribes of Israel I chose his family to be my priests, to serve at the altar, to burn the incense, and to wear the ephod to consult me. And I gave them the right to keep a share of the sacrifices burned on the altar.

1Sa 2:29 Why, then, do you look with greed at the sacrifices and offerings which I require from my people? Why, Eli, do you honor your sons more than me by letting them fatten themselves on the best parts of all the sacrifices my people offer to me?

1Sa 2:30 I, the LORD God of Israel, promised in the past that your family and your clan would serve me as priests for all time. But now I say that I won't have it any longer! Instead, I will honor those who honor me, and I will treat with contempt those who despise me.

1Sa 2:31 Listen, the time is coming when I will kill all the young men in your family and your clan, so that no man in your family will live to be old.

1Sa 2:32 You will be troubled and look with envy on all the blessings I will give to the other people of Israel, but no one in your family will ever again live to old age.

1Sa 2:33 Yet I will keep one of your descendants alive, and he will serve me as priest. But he will become blind and lose all hope, and all your other descendants will die a violent death.

1Sa 2:34 When your two sons Hophni and Phinehas both die on the same day, this will show you that everything I have said will come true.

1Sa 2:35 I will choose a priest who will be faithful to me and do everything I want him to. I will give him descendants, who will always serve in the presence of my chosen king.

1Sa 2:36 Any of your descendants who survive will have to go to that priest and ask him for money and food, and beg to be allowed to help the priests, in order to have something to eat."

I SAMUEL 2

1En Hanna het gebid: Ek jubel in die Here, ek is sterk in die Here. Ek lag my vyande uit, ek is bly oor die uitkoms wat U gegee het. 2Daar is geen heilige soos die Here nie, buiten U is daar nie een nie, daar is geen rots soos ons God nie. 3Julle moenie in hoogmoed bly praat nie, moenie aanmatigende dinge sê nie, want die Here is 'n God van diepe kennis, dade word deur Hom getoets. 4Die boog van die magtiges is verbreek, dié wat gestruikel het, het nuwe krag gekry. 5Wie versadig was, moet hulle nou vir brood verhuur, wie honger was, het oorgenoeg om te eet. Die onvrugbare bring sewe in die wêreld, die een met baie kinders kwyn weg. 6Die Here maak dood en Hy maak lewend, Hy laat afdaal na die doderyk toe en Hy laat daaruit opkom. 7Die Here maak arm en Hy maak ryk, Hy verneder, ook gee Hy aansien. 8Hy laat die geringes uit die stof opstaan, Hy hef die armes op van die ashoop af om hulle by vername mense te laat sit; Hy skenk hulle 'n ereplek. Aan die Here behoort die pilare van die aarde; Hy het die aarde daarop gegrondves. 9Hy beskerm sy troue dienaars op hulle pad, maar die goddeloses word stil gemaak in die duisternis van die graf. 'n Mens oorwin nie deur eie krag nie! 10Dié wat teen die Here in opstand kom, word vernietig, van bo uit die hemel verbrysel Hy hulle. Die Here spreek reg tot by die eindes van die aarde, Hy verleen krag aan sy koning, Hy gee sterkte aan sy gesalfde. 11Daarna het Elkana na sy huis toe gegaan in Rama, terwyl die seun Samuel die Here bly dien het onder toesig van die priester Eli. 12Maar Eli se seuns was slegte mense; hulle het nie met die Here rekening gehou nie. 13Die reg van die priesters teenoor die volk was so: elke keer wanneer iemand 'n offer bring, kom die priester se slaaf met 'n drietandvurk in sy hand, en wanneer die vleis kook, 14steek hy die vurk in die kastrol of die bak of die pot of die pan. Alles wat die vurk optrek, vat die priester vir hom. Dit het hulle gedoen met al die Israeliete wat in Silo kom offer het. 15Maar nog voordat die vet aan die brand gesteek is, het 'n slaaf van die priester al gekom en aan die man wat offer, gesê: Gee vleis om vir die priester te braai. Hy neem nie gekookte vleis van jou aan nie, net rou vleis. 16As die man dan vir hom sê: Laat hulle tog net eers die vet aan die brand steek, dan kan jy vir jou vat wat jy wil, sê die slaaf vir hom: Nee, jy moet dit nou gee, anders vat ek dit met geweld. 17Hierdie sonde van Eli se seuns was baie groot in die oë van die Here, want daardeur het die mense hulle agting vir die offer van die Here verloor. 18Maar Samuel het die Here gedien. As 'n seun het Samuel al 'n linneskouerkleed gedra. 19Sy ma het elke jaar vir hom 'n manteltjie gemaak en dit vir hom gebring wanneer sy saam met haar man gegaan het om die jaarlikse offer te bring. 20Dan het Eli vir Elkana en sy vrou geseën en gesê: Mag die Here jou uit hierdie vrou 'n nageslag gee in die plek van die seun wat van die Here afgesmeek is. Daarna is hulle weer huis toe. 21Die Here het Hom oor Hanna ontferm, en sy het swanger geword en nog drie seuns en twee dogters gehad. Ondertussen het die seun Samuel voor die Here grootgeword. 22Eli was al baie oud. En wanneer hy alles hoor wat sy seuns aan al die Israeliete doen en dat hulle by die vrouens slaap wat diens doen by die ingang van die tent van ontmoeting, 23sê hy vir hulle: Waarom doen julle sulke dinge dat ek aanhoudend by die hele volk moet hoor van julle slegte dade? 24Ag nee, my seuns, die gerugte wat ek verneem, is nie goed nie. Julle verlei die volk van die Here. 25Wanneer een mens teen 'n ander mens verkeerd optree, sal die regters die saak uitmaak, maar as 'n mens teen die Here sondig, wie sal dan die saak uitmaak? Hulle het egter nie na hulle pa se vermaning geluister nie, want die Here het besluit om hulle dood te maak. 26Maar die seun Samuel het grootgeword en die Here en die mense was hom goedgesind. 27'n Man van God het by Eli gekom en vir hom gesê: So sê die Here: Ek het My duidelik geopenbaar aan die huis van jou stamvader toe die volk in Egipte aan die farao's onderdanig was. 28Ek het jou stamvader vir My uit al die Israelitiese stamme as priester uitgekies om my altaar te bedien, om wierook aan die brand te steek en om 'n skouerkleed voor My te dra. Ek het jou familie al die vuuroffers van die Israeliete gegee. 29Waarom verag julle my diereoffer en my graanoffer waarvoor Ek voorskrifte in my woonplek gegee het? En waarom ag jy jou seuns belangriker as vir My, deurdat julle julle vet maak met die beste uit al die offers van my volk Israel? 30Daarom lewer die Here die God van Israel uitspraak: Ek het nadruklik gesê: Jou huis en jou nageslag sal My altyd in die tempel dien. Maar nou sê Ek, die Here: Dit sal nie gebeur nie, want die een wat My eer, sal Ek eer, en die een wat My minag, sal Ek minag. 31Daar kom 'n tyd dat Ek die priesterskap van jou en jou familie af sal wegvat, en in jou familie sal niemand oud word nie. 32Jy sal in nood na my woonplek staan en kyk tussen al die weldade wat Ek aan Israel sal bewys. In jou familie sal niemand ooit oud word nie. 33Net een sal Ek nie van my altaar afsny nie. Maar wanneer Ek jou oë laat dof word en jou gees stil maak, sal die meerderheid van jou huis in die fleur van hulle lewe sterf. 34En wat met jou twee seuns Hofni en Pinehas sal gebeur, sal vir jou die teken wees: op dieselfde dag sal hulle albei sterf. 35Dan sal Ek vir my 'n betroubare priester aanstel. Volgens my wil en wens sal hy handel, en Ek sal vir hom 'n bestendige nageslag gee. Hy sal altyd diens doen as my gesalfde priester. 36Maar elkeen wat uit jou familie oorbly, sal voor my priester kom buig vir 'n geldstukkie of 'n snytjie brood en sê: Neem my tog op in een van die priesterordes dat ek 'n stukkie brood kan hê om te eet!

1Samuel 3

The Lord Calls Samuel

1Sa 3:1 In those days, when the boy Samuel was serving the LORD under the direction of Eli, there were very few messages from the LORD, and visions from him were quite rare.

1Sa 3:2 One night Eli, who was now almost blind, was sleeping in his own room;

1Sa 3:3 Samuel was sleeping in the sanctuary, where the sacred Covenant Box was. Before dawn, while the lamp was still burning,

1Sa 3:4 the LORD called Samuel. He answered, "Yes, sir!"

1Sa 3:5 and ran to Eli and said, "You called me, and here I am." But Eli answered, "I didn't call you; go back to bed." So Samuel went back to bed.

1Sa 3:6 (6-7) The LORD called Samuel again. The boy did not know that it was the LORD, because the LORD had never spoken to him before. So he got up, went to Eli, and said, "You called me, and here I am." But Eli answered, "My son, I didn't call you; go back to bed."

1Sa 3:8 The LORD called Samuel a third time; he got up, went to Eli, and said, "You called me, and here I am." Then Eli realized that it was the LORD who was calling the boy, 1Sa 3:9 so he said to him, "Go back to bed; and if he calls you again, say, 'Speak, LORD, your servant is listening.' " So Samuel went back to bed.

1Sa 3:10 The LORD came and stood there, and called as he had before, "Samuel! Samuel!" Samuel answered, "Speak; your servant is listening."

1Sa 3:11 The LORD said to him, "Some day I am going to do something to the people of Israel that is so terrible that everyone who hears about it will be stunned.

1Sa 3:12 On that day I will carry out all my threats against Eli's family, from beginning to end.

1Sa 3:13 I have already told him that I am going to punish his family forever because his sons have spoken evil things against me. Eli knew they were doing this, but he did not stop them.

1Sa 3:14 So I solemnly declare to the family of Eli that no sacrifice or offering will ever be able to remove the consequences of this terrible sin."

1Sa 3:15 Samuel stayed in bed until morning; then he got up and opened the doors of the house of the LORD. He was afraid to tell Eli about the vision.

1Sa 3:16 Eli called him, "Samuel, my boy!" "Yes, sir," answered Samuel.

1Sa 3:17 "What did the LORD tell you?" Eli asked. "Don't keep anything from me. God will punish you severely if you don't tell me everything he said."

1Sa 3:18 So Samuel told him everything; he did not keep anything back. Eli said, "He is the LORD; he will do whatever seems best to him."

1Sa 3:19 As Samuel grew up, the LORD was with him and made come true everything that Samuel said.

1Sa 3:20 So all the people of Israel, from one end of the country to the other, knew that Samuel was indeed a prophet of the LORD.

1Sa 3:21 The LORD continued to reveal himself at Shiloh, where he had appeared to Samuel and had spoken to him. And when Samuel spoke, all Israel listened.

I SAMUEL 3

1Die seun Samuel het die Here gedien onder toesig van Eli. Die woord van die Here is in daardie tyd min gehoor, daar was nie dikwels openbarings nie. 2Eli se oë het al swak begin word, hy kon nie meer goed sien nie. Vroeg een môre het Eli nog op sy slaapplek gelê, 3en die lamp van God het nog helder gebrand. Samuel het ook nog gelê in die tempel van die Here waar die ark van God was, 4en toe roep die Here na Samuel. Samuel het geantwoord: Ek kom! 5Hy het na Eli toe gehardloop en gesê: Hier is ek, want u het my geroep. Maar Eli sê: Ek het nie geroep nie! Gaan lê maar weer. En Samuel het gaan lê. 6Die Here het weer na Samuel geroep, en hy het opgestaan, na Eli toe gegaan en gesê: Hier is ek, want u het my geroep. Toe sê Eli: My seun, ek het nie geroep nie! Gaan lê maar weer. 7Maar Samuel het nog nie die Here geken nie, want die woord van die Here was nog nie voorheen aan hom geopenbaar nie. 8Die Here het Samuel toe 'n derde keer geroep, en hy het opgestaan en na Eli toe gegaan en gesê: Hier is ek, want u het my geroep. Toe besef Eli dat die Here die seun geroep het, 9en Eli sê vir Samuel: Gaan lê en as iemand jou weer roep, sê jy: Praat, Here, u dienaar luister! Samuel het toe gegaan en op sy slaapplek gaan lê. 10Die Here het gekom en gaan staan en soos die vorige kere geroep: Samuel, Samuel! En Samuel sê: Praat, Here, u dienaar luister! 11Die Here sê toe vir Samuel: Ek gaan 'n ding in Israel doen wat elkeen wat daarvan hoor, se twee ore sal laat tuit. 12Op daardie dag sal Ek vir Eli alles voltrek wat Ek oor sy familie aangekondig het, van begin tot end. 13Ek het aan hom bekend gemaak dat Ek sy familie vir altyd gaan straf oor die ongeregtigheid waarvan hy geweet het. Ja, toe sy seuns die vloek oor hulle gebring het, het hy hulle nie bestraf nie. 14Daarom bevestig Ek met 'n eed aangaande die familie van Eli: die ongeregtigheid van Eli se familie sal sekerlik nooit deur diereoffer of graanoffer versoen word nie. 15Daarna het Samuel gaan lê tot die oggend, en toe die deure van die huis van die Here oopgemaak. Hy was bang om die openbaring aan Eli te gaan vertel. 16Maar Eli het vir Samuel geroep en gesê: Samuel, my seun! Hy het gesê: Ek kom! 17Eli sê toe: Wat het die Here met jou gepraat? Moenie iets vir my wegsteek nie. God sal jou met die dood straf as jy iets van wat Hy aan jou bekend gemaak het, vir my wegsteek. 18Toe vertel Samuel hom alles; hy het niks weggesteek nie. En Eli het gesê: Hy is die Here, laat Hom doen soos Hy wil. 19Samuel het grootgeword. Die Here was by hom en het nie een van Samuel se woorde onvervul gelaat nie. 20Die hele Israel van noord tot suid het gemerk dat Samuel betroubaar was as profeet van die Here. 21Die Here het toe weer in Silo verskyn, want Hy het Hom in Silo aan

Samuel geopenbaar deur die woord van die Here.

1Samuel 4

The Philistines Capture the Ark

1Sa 4:1 At that time the Philistines gathered to go to war against Israel, so the Israelites set out to fight them. The Israelites set up their camp at Ebenezer and the Philistines at Aphek.

1Sa 4:2 The Philistines attacked, and after fierce fighting they defeated the Israelites and killed about four thousand men on the battlefield.

1Sa 4:3 When the survivors came back to camp, the leaders of Israel said, "Why did the LORD let the Philistines defeat us today? Let's go and bring the LORD's Covenant Box from Shiloh, so that he will go with us and save us from our enemies."

1Sa 4:4 So they sent messengers to Shiloh and got the Covenant Box of the LORD Almighty, who is enthroned above the winged creatures. And Eli's two sons, Hophni and Phinehas, came along with the Covenant Box.

1Sa 4:5 When the Covenant Box arrived, the Israelites gave such a loud shout of joy that the earth shook.

1Sa 4:6 The Philistines heard the shouting and said, "Listen to all that shouting in the Hebrew camp! What does it mean?" When they found out that the LORD's Covenant Box had arrived in the Hebrew camp, 1Sa 4:7 they were afraid, and said, "A god has come into their camp! We're lost! Nothing like this has ever happened to us before!

1Sa 4:8 Who can save us from those powerful gods? They are the gods who slaughtered the Egyptians in the desert!

1Sa 4:9 Be brave, Philistines! Fight like men, or we will become slaves to the Hebrews, just as they were our slaves. So fight like men!"

1Sa 4:10 The Philistines fought hard and defeated the Israelites, who went running to their homes. There was a great slaughter: thirty thousand Israelite soldiers were killed.

1Sa 4:11 God's Covenant Box was captured, and Eli's sons, Hophni and Phinehas, were both killed.

The Death of Eli

1Sa 4:12 A man from the tribe of Benjamin ran all the way from the battlefield to Shiloh and arrived there the same day. To show his grief, he had torn his clothes and put dirt on his head.

1Sa 4:13 Eli, who was very worried about the Covenant Box, was sitting in his seat beside the road, staring. The man spread the news throughout the town, and everyone cried out in fear.

1Sa 4:14 Eli heard the noise and asked, "What is all this noise about?" The man hurried to Eli to tell him the news.

1Sa 4:15 (Eli was now ninety-eight years old and almost completely blind.)

1Sa 4:16 The man said, "I have escaped from the battle and have run all the way here today." Eli asked him, "What happened, my son?"

1Sa 4:17 The messenger answered, "Israel ran away from the Philistines; it was a terrible defeat for us! Besides that, your sons Hophni and Phinehas were killed, and God's Covenant Box was captured!"

1Sa 4:18 When the man mentioned the Covenant Box, Eli fell backward from his seat beside the gate. He was so old and fat that the fall broke his neck, and he died. He had been a leader in Israel for forty years.

1Sa 4:19 Eli's daughter-in-law, the wife of Phinehas, was pregnant, and it was almost time for her baby to be born. When she heard that God's Covenant Box had been captured and that her father-in-law and her husband were dead, she suddenly went into labor and gave birth.

1Sa 4:20 As she was dying, the women helping her said to her, "Be brave! You have a son!" But she paid no attention and did not answer.

1Sa 4:21 She named the boy Ichabod, explaining, "God's glory has left Israel"—referring to the capture of the Covenant Box and the death of her father-in-law and her husband.

1Sa 4:22 "God's glory has left Israel," she said, "because God's Covenant Box has been captured."

I SAMUEL 4

1Samuel se woorde was aan die hele Israel gerig. Op 'n keer het Israel teen die Filistyne gaan oorlog maak. Die Israeliete het by Eben-Haeser kamp opgeslaan, en die Filistyne by Afek. 2Hulle het hulle leër teenoor Israel laat stelling inneem, en toe die geveg ontplooi, is Israel deur die Filistyne verslaan. Hulle het omtrent vier duisend man op die slagveld afgemaai. 3Toe die manskappe van Israel in die laer kom, het die leiers gesê: Waarom het die Here ons vandag voor die Filistyne laat vlug? Kom ons gaan haal die verbondsark van die Here uit Silo na ons toe dat dit by ons kan wees om ons te red uit die greep van ons vyande. 4Die manskappe het na Silo toe gestuur, en die verbondsark van die Here die Almagtige wat oor die gerubs troon, van Silo af laat bring. Eli se seuns Hofni en Pinehas was ook by die verbondsark van God. 5Toe die verbondsark van die Here in die laer kom, het die hele Israel so hard geskreeu dat die aarde weergalm het. 6Die Filistyne het die geskreeu gehoor en gevra: Wat vir 'n geskreeu is dit daar in die laer van die Hebreërs? Die Filistyne het toe uitgevind dat die ark van die Here in die kamp aangekom het. 7Hulle het bang geword, want hulle het gesê: God het in die kamp gekom. Verder het hulle gesê: Dis klaar met ons, want so iets het nog nooit gebeur nie. 8Dis klaar met ons! Wie sal ons red uit die mag van hierdie geweldige God? Dit is dié God deur wie die Egiptenaars in die woestyn getref is met allerhande plae. 9Nou sal julle moet dapper wees! Gedra julle soos manne, Filistyne, sodat julle nie miskien slawe word van die Hebreërs soos hulle júlle slawe was nie. Gedra julle soos manne en veg! 10Hierna het die Filistyne gaan veg, en die Israeliete is weer verslaan. Hulle het gevlug, elkeen na sy woonplek toe. Daar was 'n baie groot slagting, dertig duisend voetsoldate van Israel het geval. 11Die ark van God is ook gevat, en Eli se twee seuns Hofni en Pinehas het omgekom. 12'n Benjaminiet het van die slagveld af gehardloop en dieselfde dag nog in Silo aangekom. Sy klere was geskeur, en daar was grond op sy kop. 13Terwyl hy aankom, het Eli juis langs die pad op sy stoel gesit en wag, want hy was bekommerd oor die ark van God. Die man het gekom en die tyding aan die dorp bekend gemaak. Die hele dorp het begin kerm en kla. 14Eli het die gekerm gehoor en gesê: Wat skreeu die mense so? Die man het gou vir Eli kom vertel. 15Eli was toe ag en negentig jaar. Sy oë was star, en hy kon nie meer goed sien nie. 16Die man het vir Eli gesê: Ek kom van die slagveld af. Ja, ek het vandag van die slagveld af gevlug. En Eli vra: My seun, wat het gebeur? 17Die boodskapper antwoord toe: Israel het gevlug voor die Filistyne, die volk het swaar verliese gely, selfs u twee seuns Hofni en Pinehas is dood; en die ark van God is ook gevat. 18Toe hy praat van die ark van God, het Eli daar by die poort van sy stoel af agteroor geval. Hy het sy nek gebreek en gesterf, want hy was oud en swaar. Hy was veertig jaar 'n leier in Israel. 19Sy skoondogter, die vrou van Pinehas, was swanger en sy was op haar laaste. Toe sy die tyding kry dat die ark gevat is en dat haar skoonpa en haar man dood is, het sy vooroor inmekaargetrek en 'n kind in die wêreld gebring, want die geboortepyne het haar oorval. 20Toe sy wou sterf, het die vroue wat by haar gestaan het, gesê: Moet jou nie bekommer nie, want jy het 'n seuntjie. Sy het egter nie geantwoord of op hulle ag geslaan nie, 21maar die seuntjie Ikabod genoem en gesê: Die eer is weggevat uit Israel. Dit het geslaan op die wegvat van die ark van God en op haar skoonpa en haar man. 22Ja, het sy gesê, die eer is weggevat uit Israel, want die ark van God is gevat.

1Samuel 5

The Philistines and the Ark

1Sa 5:1 After the Philistines captured the Covenant Box, they carried it from Ebenezer to their city of Ashdod, 1Sa 5:2 took it into the temple of their god Dagon, and set it up beside his statue.

1Sa 5:3 Early the next morning the people of Ashdod saw that the statue of Dagon had fallen face downward on the ground in front of the LORD's Covenant Box. So they lifted it up and put it back in its place.

1Sa 5:4 Early the following morning they saw that the statue had again fallen down in front of the Covenant Box. This time its head and both its arms were broken off and were lying in the doorway; only the body was left.

1Sa 5:5 (That is why even today the priests of Dagon and all his worshipers in Ashdod step over that place and do not walk on it.)

1Sa 5:6 The LORD punished the people of Ashdod severely and terrified them. He punished them and the people in the surrounding territory by causing them to have tumors.

1Sa 5:7 When they saw what was happening, they said, "The God of Israel is punishing us and our god Dagon. We can't let the Covenant Box stay here any longer."

1Sa 5:8 So they sent messengers and called together all five of the Philistine kings and asked them, "What shall we do with the Covenant Box of the God of Israel?" "Take it over to Gath," they answered; so they took it to Gath, another Philistine city.

1Sa 5:9 But after it arrived there, the LORD punished that city too and caused a great panic. He punished them with tumors which developed in all the people of the city, young and old alike.

1Sa 5:10 So they sent the Covenant Box to Ekron, another Philistine city; but when it arrived there, the people cried out, "They have brought the Covenant Box of the God of Israel here, in order to kill us all!"

1Sa 5:11 So again they sent for all the Philistine kings and said, "Send the Covenant Box of Israel back to its own place, so that it won't kill us and our families." There was panic throughout the city because God was punishing them so severely.

1Sa 5:12 Even those who did not die developed tumors and the people cried out to their gods for help.

I SAMUEL 5

1Die Filistyne het die ark van God gevat en dit van Eben-Haeser af na Asdod toe gebring. 2Ja, die Filistyne het die ark van God gevat. Hulle het dit na die tempel van Dagon toe gebring en langs Dagon neergesit. 3Toe die Asdodiete die volgende môre opstaan, het Dagon vooroorgeval op die grond gelê, voor die ark van die Here. Hulle het vir Dagon opgetel en op sy plek teruggesit. 4Die volgende dag het hulle vroeg opgestaan, en Dagon het weer vooroorgeval op die grond gelê, voor die ark van die Here. Die kop van Dagon en sy twee hande het afgebreek op die drumpel gelê, net sy lyf het oorgebly. 5Daarom trap die priesters van Dagon, en almal wat in Dagon se tempel ingaan, tot vandag toe nie op die drumpel van die Dagonstempel in Asdod nie. 6Die Here het die Asdodiete swaar gekasty: Hy het Asdod en sy gebied in beroering gebring en hulle met pesswere getref. 7Toe die mense van Asdod sien dat dit so gaan, sê hulle: Die ark van die God van Israel mag nie by ons bly nie, want sy hand lê swaar op ons en ons god Dagon. 8Hulle het boodskappers gestuur en al die regeerders van die Filistyne in Asdod laat bymekaarkom en gevra: Wat moet ons maak met die ark van die God van Israel? Die regeerders het gesê: Die ark van die God van Israel moet na Gat toe gevat word. Hulle het toe die ark van die God van Israel daarheen gebring, 9en nadat hulle dit gedoen het, het die Here 'n baie groot beroering in die stad veroorsaak. Hy het die mense van die stad, klein en groot, met 'n plaag getref. Ook by húlle het daar pesswere uitgebreek. 10Daarna het hulle die ark van God weggestuur na Ekron toe. Toe die ark van God in Ekron kom, het die Ekronners geskreeu: Hulle het die ark van die God van Israel na ons toe gebring om ons en ons mense dood te maak. 11Hulle het boodskappers gestuur en al die regeerders van die Filistyne laat bymekaarkom en gesê: Stuur weg die ark van die God van Israel. Laat dit na sy eie plek toe teruggaan sodat dit ons en ons mense nie doodmaak nie. Daar was 'n dodelike siekte in die hele stad. Die hand van God het swaar gelê op hulle: 12die mense wat nie gesterf het nie, is met pesswere getref. Die geskreeu in die stad kon baie ver gehoor word.

1Samuel 6

The Ark Returned to Israel

1Sa 6:1 After the LORD's Covenant Box had been in Philistia for seven months,

1Sa 6:2 the people called the priests and the magicians and asked, "What shall we do with the Covenant Box of the LORD? If we send it back where it belongs, what shall we send with it?"

1Sa 6:3 They answered, "If you return the Covenant Box of the God of Israel, you must, of course, send with it a gift to him to pay for your sin. The Covenant Box must not go back without a gift. In this way you will be healed, and you will find out why he has kept on punishing you."

1Sa 6:4 "What gift shall we send him?" the people asked. They answered, "Five gold models of tumors and five gold mice, one of each for each Philistine king. The same plague was sent on all of you and on the five kings.

1Sa 6:5 You must make these models of the tumors and of the mice that are ravaging your country, and you must give honor to the God of Israel. Perhaps he will stop punishing you, your gods, and your land.

1Sa 6:6 Why should you be stubborn, as the king of Egypt and the Egyptians were? Don't forget how God made fools of them until they let the Israelites leave Egypt.

1Sa 6:7 So prepare a new wagon and two cows that have never been yoked; hitch them to the wagon and drive their calves back to the barn.

1Sa 6:8 Take the LORD's Covenant Box, put it on the wagon, and place in a box beside it the gold models that you are sending to him as a gift to pay for your sins. Start the wagon on its way and let it go by itself.

1Sa 6:9 Then watch it go; if it goes toward the town of Beth Shemesh, this means that it is the God of the Israelites who has sent this terrible disaster on us. But if it doesn't, then we will know that he did not send the plague; it was only a matter of chance."

1Sa 6:10 They did what they were told: they took two cows and hitched them to the wagon, and shut the calves in the barn.

1Sa 6:11 They put the Covenant Box in the wagon, together with the box containing the gold models of the mice and of the tumors.

1Sa 6:12 The cows started off on the road to Beth Shemesh and headed straight toward it, without turning off the road. They were mooing as they went. The five Philistine kings followed them as far as the border of Beth Shemesh.

1Sa 6:13 The people of Beth Shemesh were reaping wheat in the valley, when suddenly they looked up and saw the Covenant Box. They were overjoyed at the sight.

1Sa 6:14 The wagon came to a field belonging to a man named Joshua, who lived in Beth Shemesh, and it stopped there near a large rock. The people chopped up the wooden wagon and killed the cows and burned them as a burnt sacrifice to the LORD.

1Sa 6:15 The Levites lifted off the Covenant Box of the LORD and the box with the gold models in it, and placed them on the large rock. Then the people of Beth Shemesh offered burnt sacrifices and other sacrifices to the LORD.

1Sa 6:16 The five Philistine kings watched them do this and then went back to Ekron that same day.

1Sa 6:17 The Philistines sent the five gold tumors to the LORD as a gift to pay for their sins, one each for the cities of Ashdod, Gaza, Ashkelon, Gath, and Ekron.

1Sa 6:18 They also sent gold mice, one for each of the cities ruled by the five Philistine kings, both the fortified towns and the villages without walls. The large rock in the field of Joshua of Beth Shemesh, on which they placed the LORD's Covenant Box, is still there as a witness to what happened.

1Sa 6:19 The LORD killed seventy of the men of Beth Shemesh because they looked inside the Covenant Box. And the people mourned because the LORD had caused such a great slaughter among them.

1Sa 6:20 So the men of Beth Shemesh said, "Who can stand before the LORD, this holy God? Where can we send him to get him away from us?"

1Sa 6:21 They sent messengers to the people of Kiriath Jearim to say, "The Philistines have returned the LORD's Covenant Box. Come down and get it."

I SAMUEL 6

1Toe die ark van die Here sewe maande in Filistynse gebied was, 2het die Filistyne hulle priesters en waarsêers ontbied en gevra: Wat moet ons met die ark van die Here doen? Sê vir ons hoe ons dit na sy eie plek toe kan terugstuur. 3En hulle het geantwoord: As julle die ark van die God van Israel terugstuur, moet julle dit nie sommerso terugstuur nie. Julle moet dit teruggee met 'n behoorlike geskenk daarby. Dan sal julle gesond word en weet waarom sy hand so swaar op julle gebly het. 4Die Filistyne vra hulle toe: Watter geskenk moet ons daarmee saamstuur? en hulle antwoord: Goue afbeeldings van vyf pesswere en van vyf muise, volgens die getal Filistynse regeerders, want die plaag was een en dieselfde vir almal, ook vir die regeerders. 5Maak afbeeldings van julle swere en van die muise wat die land verniel het, en gee eer aan die God van Israel; miskien sal sy hand dan nie langer swaar op julle lê nie, ook nie op julle gode en op julle land nie. 6Waarom sou julle hardkoppig bly soos die Egiptenaars en die farao hardkoppig was? Toe God hulle laat swaarkry het, het hulle uiteindelik die Israeliete laat gaan dat hulle kon wegtrek. 7Maak dan nou 'n nuwe wa en vat twee koeie wat in die melk is en nog nie ingespan was nie. Span hulle in voor die wa en keer hulle kalwers af kraal toe. 8Vat dan die ark van die Here en sit dit op die wa. Die goue voorwerpe wat julle as geskenk aan die Here gee, moet julle langs die ark in 'n kissie neersit. Los dan die wa dat hy loop. 9En let op: as dit met die pad langs na sy gebied toe in Bet-Semes gaan, dan het die Here ons hierdie groot kwaad aangedoen. So nie, dan weet ons dat dit nie Hy was nie; dan was dit maar iets wat toevallig gebeur het. 10Die Filistyne het dit toe gedoen. Hulle het die twee koeie gevat en voor die wa ingespan en hulle kalwers in die kraal gehou, 11en die ark van die Here op die wa gesit, ook die kissie met die goue muise en die afbeeldings van die swere. 12Die koeie het reguit met die pad langs na Bet-Semes toe geloop, bulk-bulk al met die grootpad langs. Hulle het nie links of regs weggedraai nie, terwyl die Filistynse regeerders agter hulle aan geloop het tot by die gebied van Bet-Semes. 13Die mense van Bet-Semes was besig om koring te oes in die laagte, en toe hulle opkyk, sien hulle die ark. Hulle was bly om dit te sien. 14Die wa het tot by die grond van Josua van Bet-Semes gekom en daar gaan staan. Dáár was 'n groot klip. Hulle het die hout van die wa stukkend gekap en die koeie as brandoffer aan die Here geoffer. 15Die Leviete het die ark van die Here en die kissie daar langsaan waarin die goue voorwerpe was, afgelaai en op die groot klip neergesit. Op daardie dag het die mense van Bet-Semes aan die Here brandoffers en ander diereoffers geoffer. 16Toe die vyf Filistynse regeerders dit sien, het hulle dieselfde dag nog teruggegaan na Ekron toe. [17]Die geskenk wat die Filistyne aan die Here gegee het, die goue afbeeldings van die swere, was een vir Asdod, een vir Gasa, een vir Askelon, een vir Gat en een vir Ekron. [18]Die goue afbeeldings van die muise was vir die versterkte en onversterkte stede van die vyf Filistynse regeerders. Die groot klip waarop hulle die ark van die Here neergesit het, staan tot vandag toe as getuienis op die grond van Josua van Bet-Semes. [19]Maar die Here het die inwoners van Bet-Semes getref omdat hulle die ark bekyk het. Hy het sewentig man onder hulle laat sterf. Toe het hulle gerou omdat die Here hulle so swaar getref het. [20]Daarna het die mense van Bet-Semes gevra: Wie kan bestaan in die teenwoordigheid van die Here, hierdie heilige God? Na wie toe kan Hy gaan van ons af? [21]Hulle het boodskappers gestuur na die inwoners van Kirjat-Jearim toe om te sê: Die Filistyne het die ark van die Here teruggebring. Kom vat dit na julle toe.

1Samuel 7

1Sa 7:1 So the people of Kiriath Jearim got the LORD's Covenant Box and took it to the house of a man named Abinadab, who lived on a hill. They consecrated his son Eleazar to be in charge of it.

1Sa 7:2 The Covenant Box of the LORD stayed in Kiriath Jearim a long time, some twenty years. During this time all the Israelites cried to the LORD for help.

Samuel Judges Israel

1Sa 7:3 Samuel said to the people of Israel, "If you are going to turn to the LORD with all your hearts, you must get rid of all the foreign gods and the images of the goddess Astarte. Dedicate yourselves completely to the LORD and worship only him, and he will rescue you from the power of the Philistines."

1Sa 7:4 So the Israelites got rid of their idols of Baal and Astarte, and worshiped only the LORD.

1Sa 7:5 Then Samuel called for all the Israelites to meet at Mizpah, telling them, "I will pray to the LORD for you there."

1Sa 7:6 So they all gathered at Mizpah. They drew some water and poured it out as an offering to the LORD and fasted that whole day. They said, "We have sinned against the LORD." (It was at Mizpah where Samuel settled disputes among the Israelites.)

1Sa 7:7 When the Philistines heard that the Israelites had gathered at Mizpah, the five Philistine kings started out with their men to attack them. The Israelites heard about it and were afraid,

1Sa 7:8 and said to Samuel, "Keep praying to the LORD our God to save us from the Philistines."

1Sa 7:9 Samuel killed a young lamb and burned it whole as a sacrifice to the LORD. Then he prayed to the LORD to help Israel, and the LORD answered his prayer.

1Sa 7:10 While Samuel was offering the sacrifice, the Philistines moved forward to attack; but just then the LORD thundered from heaven against them. They became completely confused and fled in panic.

1Sa 7:11 The Israelites marched out from Mizpah and pursued the Philistines almost as far as Bethcar, killing them along the way.

1Sa 7:12 Then Samuel took a stone, set it up between Mizpah and Shen, and said, "The LORD has helped us all the way"—and he named it "Stone of Help."

1Sa 7:13 So the Philistines were defeated, and the LORD prevented them from invading Israel's territory as long as Samuel lived.

1Sa 7:14 All the cities which the Philistines had captured between Ekron and Gath were returned to Israel, and so Israel got back all its territory. And there was peace also between the Israelites and the Canaanites.

1Sa 7:15 Samuel ruled Israel as long as he lived.

1Sa 7:16 Every year he would go around to Bethel, Gilgal, and Mizpah, and in these places he would settle disputes.

1Sa 7:17 Then he would go back to his home in Ramah, where also he would serve as judge. In Ramah he built an altar to the LORD.

I SAMUEL 7

1Die mense van Kirjat-Jearim het toe gekom. Hulle het die ark van die Here gaan haal en dit na die huis van Abinadab op die heuwel gebring. Hulle het sy seun Eleasar gewy om die ark van die Here op te pas. 2Vandat die ark in Kirjat-Jearim 'n staanplek gekry het, het daar 'n lang tyd verloop, twintig jaar. Toe het al die Israeliete by die Here gekla oor hulle verdrukking, 3en Samuel het vir hulle gesê: As julle met julle hele hart na die Here terugkom, moet julle alle vreemde gode tussen julle uit verwyder, ook die Astartes. Rig julle harte op die Here en dien Hom alleen. Dan sal Hy julle red uit die mag van die Filistyne. 4Die Israeliete het toe die Baäls en die Astartes verwyder en net die Here gedien. 5Toe sê Samuel: Die hele Israel moet by Mispa bymekaarkom, dan sal ek vir julle tot die Here bid. 6Hulle het by Mispa bymekaargekom, water geskep en dit voor die Here uitgegiet. Op daardie dag het hulle gevas en daar het hulle bely: Ons het teen die Here gesondig. Samuel het die Israeliete in Mispa onderrig oor wat reg en verkeerd is. 7Die Filistyne het verneem dat die Israeliete by Mispa bymekaargekom het, en die Filistynse regeerders het teen hulle opgetrek. Toe die Israeliete dit hoor, was hulle bang vir die Filistyne. 8Die Israeliete sê toe vir Samuel: Moenie ophou om die Here ons God vir ons om hulp te smeek nie, sodat Hy ons uit die mag van die Filistyne kan red. 9Samuel het 'n suiplam gevat en dit in sy geheel aan die Here as brandoffer geoffer. Hy het ook die Here om hulp gesmeek vir Israel, en die Here het sy gebed verhoor. 10Samuel was nog besig om te offer, toe kom die Filistyne nader om teen Israel te veg. Op daardie dag het die Here 'n groot donderweer oor die Filistyne laat losbars. Die Here het hulle verwar, en hulle is deur die Israeliete verslaan. 11Die Israeliete het van Mispa af die Filistyne agtervolg en hulle verdryf tot onderkant Bet-Kar. 12Samuel het toe 'n klip gevat en dit regop gesit tussen Mispa en Sen. Hy het die plek Eben-Haeser genoem, want, het hy gesê, tot nou toe het die Here ons gehelp. 13Die Filistyne is verslaan en het nie weer in die gebied van Israel gekom nie. Die Here was teen die Filistyne so lank as Samuel geleef het. 14Die stede wat die Filistyne van Israel afgevat het, is deur Israel herower, van Ekron af tot by Gat. Israel het sy gebied uit die mag van die Filistyne bevry. Verder was daar vrede tussen Israel en die Amoriete. 15Samuel was sy lewe lank 'n leier in Israel. 16Hy het van tyd tot tyd rondgegaan, by Bet-El, Gilgal en Mispa. By al hierdie plekke het hy Israel se hofsake verhoor. 17Daarna het hy weer na Rama toe teruggegaan waar sy huis was, en ook dáár het hy Israel se hofsake verhoor. Daar het hy ook 'n altaar vir die Here gebou.

1Samuel 8

Israel Demands a King

1Sa 8:1 When Samuel grew old, he made his sons judges in Israel.

1Sa 8:2 The older son was named Joel and the younger one Abijah; they were judges in Beersheba.

1Sa 8:3 But they did not follow their father's example; they were interested only in making money, so they accepted bribes and did not decide cases honestly.

1Sa 8:4 Then all the leaders of Israel met together, went to Samuel in Ramah,

1Sa 8:5 and said to him, "Look, you are getting old and your sons don't follow your example. So then, appoint a king to rule over us, so that we will have a king, as other countries have."

1Sa 8:6 Samuel was displeased with their request for a king; so he prayed to the LORD,

1Sa 8:7 and the LORD said, "Listen to everything the people say to you. You are not the one they have rejected; I am the one they have rejected as their king.

1Sa 8:8 Ever since I brought them out of Egypt, they have turned away from me and worshiped other gods; and now they are doing to you what they have always done to me.

1Sa 8:9 So then, listen to them, but give them strict warnings and explain how their kings will treat them."

Samuel's Warning Against Kings

1Sa 8:10 Samuel told the people who were asking him for a king everything that the LORD had said to him.

1Sa 8:11 "This is how your king will treat you," Samuel explained. "He will make soldiers of your sons; some of them will serve in his war chariots, others in his cavalry, and others will run before his chariots.

1Sa 8:12 He will make some of them officers in charge of a thousand men, and others in charge of fifty men. Your sons will have to plow his fields, harvest his crops, and make his weapons and the equipment for his chariots.

1Sa 8:13 Your daughters will have to make perfumes for him and work as his cooks and his bakers.

1Sa 8:14 He will take your best fields, vineyards, and olive groves, and give them to his officials.

1Sa 8:15 He will take a tenth of your grain and of your grapes for his court officers and other officials.

1Sa 8:16 He will take your servants and your best cattle and donkeys, and make them work for him.

1Sa 8:17 He will take a tenth of your flocks. And you yourselves will become his slaves.

1Sa 8:18 When that time comes, you will complain bitterly because of your king, whom you yourselves chose, but the LORD will not listen to your complaints."

The Lord Grants Israel's Request

1Sa 8:19 The people paid no attention to Samuel, but said, "No! We want a king, 1Sa 8:20 so that we will be like other nations, with our own king to rule us and to lead us out to war and to fight our battles."

1Sa 8:21 Samuel listened to everything they said and then went and told it to the LORD.

1Sa 8:22 The LORD answered, "Do what they want and give them a king." Then Samuel told all the men of Israel to go back home.

I SAMUEL 8

1Toe Samuel oud geword het, het hy sy seuns as leiers oor Israel aangestel. 2Die oudste se naam was Joël en dié van die tweede Abia. Hulle was leiers in Berseba. 3Maar Samuel se seuns was nie soos hy nie: hulle het hulle verryk ten koste van ander, het omkoopgeskenke aangeneem en die regspraak verdraai. 4Al die leiers van Israel het bymekaargekom en na Samuel toe in Rama gegaan. 5Hulle het vir hom gesê: Kyk, u het oud geword. U kinders is nie soos u nie. Stel nou liewer 'n koning oor ons aan om oor ons te regeer, soos dit by al die nasies is. 6Maar vir Samuel was dit verkeerd dat hulle gesê het: Gee ons tog 'n koning om oor ons te regeer. Samuel het tot die Here gebid, 7en die Here het vir hom gesê: Gee toe aan die versoek van die volk in alles wat hulle van jou vra. Hulle het jóú nie verwerp nie; hulle het Mý verwerp as koning oor hulle. 8Hulle het nou ook met jou gemaak wat hulle met My gedoen het sedert Ek hulle uit Egipte laat trek het tot nou toe: hulle het My verlaat en ander gode gedien. 9Gee nou maar toe aan hulle versoek. Stel die saak net baie duidelik aan hulle: sê vir hulle wat die reg van die koning is wat oor hulle sal regeer. 10Samuel het al die woorde van die Here oorgedra aan die volk wat van hom 'n koning gevra het. 11Hy het gesê: Dit sal die reg wees van die koning wat oor julle sal regeer: julle seuns sal hy vat en party by sy wa en perderuiters aanstel, party om voor sy wa uit te hardloop, 12party sal hy aanstel as bevelvoerders oor afdelings en onderafdelings van die leër, party om sy lande te ploeg en sy oes in te samel, en party om sy krygstuig en uitrusting vir sy strydwaens te maak; 13julle dogters sal hy vat om vir hom salf te meng, om vir hom te kook en te bak; 14julle beste lande, wingerde en olyfboorde sal hy vat en aan sy amptenare gee; 15van julle saaigrond en wingerde se opbrengs sal hy 'n tiende vat en aan sy paleispersoneel en sy amptenare gee; 16julle beste slawe, slavinne en jong manne, en julle donkies sal hy vat en vir sy werk gebruik; 17van julle kleinvee sal hy 'n tiende vat, en julle self sal sy slawe wees. 18Daardie dag sal julle om hulp roep vanweë julle koning vir wie julle verkies het, maar dan sal die Here julle nie antwoord nie. 19Maar die volk het geweier om na Samuel te luister. Hulle het vir hom gesê: Nee, daar moet tog maar 'n koning oor ons wees. 20Ons wil ook soos al die nasies wees. Ons koning moet oor ons regeer; hy moet ons lei en ons oorloë voer. 21Samuel het na die woorde van die volk geluister en dit vir die Here vertel. 22Toe sê die Here vir Samuel: Gee toe aan hulle versoek. Stel 'n koning oor hulle aan. Samuel het vir die manne van Israel gesê: Gaan julle nou almal huis toe.

1Samuel 9

Saul Chosen to Be King

1Sa 9:1 There was a wealthy and influential man named Kish, from the tribe of Benjamin; he was the son of Abiel and grandson of Zeror, and belonged to the family of Becorath, a part of the clan of Aphiah.

1Sa 9:2 He had a son named Saul, a handsome man in the prime of life. Saul was a foot taller than anyone else in Israel and more handsome as well.

1Sa 9:3 Some donkeys belonging to Kish had wandered off, so he said to Saul, "Take one of the servants with you and go and look for the donkeys."

1Sa 9:4 They went through the hill country of Ephraim and the region of Shalishah, but did not find them; so they went on through the region of Shaalim, but the donkeys were not there. Then they went through the territory of Benjamin, but still did not find them.

1Sa 9:5 When they came into the region of Zuph, Saul said to his servant, "Let's go back home, or my father might stop thinking about the donkeys and start worrying about us."

1Sa 9:6 The servant answered, "Wait! In this town there is a holy man who is highly respected because everything he says comes true. Let's go to him, and maybe he can tell us where we can find the donkeys."

1Sa 9:7 "If we go to him, what can we give him?" Saul asked. "There is no food left in our packs, and we don't have a thing to give him, do we?"

1Sa 9:8 The servant answered, "I have a small silver coin. I can give him that, and then he will tell us where we can find them."

1Sa 9:9 (9-11) Saul replied, "A good idea! Let's go." So they went to the town where the holy man lived. As they were going up the hill to the town, they met some young women who were coming out to draw water. They asked these women, "Is the seer in town?" (At that time a prophet was called a seer, and so whenever someone wanted to ask God a question, he would say, "Let's go to the seer.")

1Sa 9:12 (12-13) "Yes, he is," the young women answered. "In fact, he is just ahead of you. If you hurry, you will catch up with him. As soon as you go into town, you will find him. He arrived in town today because the people are going to offer a sacrifice on the altar on the hill. The people who are invited won't start eating until he gets there, because he has to bless the sacrifice first. If you go now, you will find him before he goes up the hill to eat."

1Sa 9:14 So Saul and his servant went on to the town, and as they were going in, they saw Samuel coming out toward them on his way to the place of worship.

1Sa 9:15 Now on the previous day the LORD had told Samuel,

1Sa 9:16 "Tomorrow about this time I will send you a man from the tribe of Benjamin; anoint him as ruler of my people Israel, and he will rescue them from the Philistines. I have seen the suffering of my people and have heard their cries for help."

1Sa 9:17 When Samuel caught sight of Saul, the LORD said to him, "This is the man I told you about. He will rule my people."

1Sa 9:18 Then Saul went over to Samuel, who was near the gate, and asked, "Tell me, where does the seer live?"

1Sa 9:19 Samuel answered, "I am the seer. Go on ahead of me to the place of worship. Both of you are to eat with me today. Tomorrow morning I will answer all your questions and send you on your way.

1Sa 9:20 As for the donkeys that were lost three days ago, don't worry about them; they have already been found. But who is it that the people of Israel want so much? It is you—you and your father's family."

1Sa 9:21 Saul answered, "I belong to the tribe of Benjamin, the smallest tribe in Israel, and my family is the least important one in the tribe. Why, then, do you talk like this to me?"

1Sa 9:22 Then Samuel led Saul and his servant into the large room and gave them a place at the head of the table where the guests, about thirty in all, were seated.

1Sa 9:23 Samuel said to the cook, "Bring the piece of meat I gave you, which I told you to set aside."

1Sa 9:24 So the cook brought the choice piece of the leg and placed it before Saul. Samuel said, "Look, here is the piece that was kept for you. Eat it. I saved it for you to eat at this time with the people I invited." So Saul ate with Samuel that day.

1Sa 9:25 When they went down from the place of worship to the town, they fixed up a bed for Saul on the roof, 1Sa 9:26 and he slept there. At dawn Samuel called to Saul on the roof, "Get up, and I will send you on your way." Saul got up, and he and Samuel went out to the street together.

1Sa 9:27 When they arrived at the edge of town, Samuel said to Saul, "Tell the servant to go on ahead of us." The servant left, and Samuel continued, "Stay here a minute, and I will tell you what God has said."

I SAMUEL 9

1Daar was 'n man uit Benjamin. Sy naam was Kis, en hy was 'n seun van Abiël seun van Seror, seun van Bekorat, seun van Afiag. Hy was 'n Benjaminiet en 'n ryk man. 2Hy het 'n seun gehad met die naam Saul en dié was sterk en mooi; onder die Israeliete was daar niemand mooier as hy nie. Hy was 'n kop langer as enige van sy volksgenote. 3Toe daar op 'n keer donkies van Kis, Saul se pa, weggeraak het, het hy vir sy seun Saul gesê: Vat een van die slawe saam, maak klaar en gaan soek die donkies. 4Hulle het die Efraimsberge deurkruis; hulle het die Salisastreek ook deurkruis, maar niks gekry nie. Hulle het die Saälimgebied deurkruis, maar daar was niks. Hulle het toe die Jeministreek deurkruis en ook niks gekry nie. 5Toe hulle in die Sufgebied kom, het Saul vir die slaaf by hom gesê: Kom ons gaan terug, anders vergeet my pa van die donkies en raak bekommerd oor ons. 6Die slaaf sê toe vir Saul: Nee, wag! In hierdie stad is 'n man van God. Dié man geniet hoë aansien. Alles wat hy sê, gebeur net so. Kom ons gaan soontoe. Dalk kan hy vir ons sê waar om te soek. 7Saul sê toe vir sy slaaf: Nou goed, kom ons gaan, maar wat sal ons vir die man saamvat? Die brood in ons sakke is al op. Ons het ook nie 'n geskenk om vir die man van God te gee nie. Wat het ons? 8Die slaaf het vir Saul geantwoord: Wag! Ek het 'n drie gram silwer by my. Ek sal dit aan die man van God gee sodat hy vir ons kan sê waar om te soek. 9Vroeër, wanneer iemand gegaan het om God te raadpleeg, is daar in Israel gesê: Kom ons gaan na die siener toe. Die profeet van vandag is vroeër siener genoem. 10Saul het vir sy slaaf gesê: Dis 'n goeie plan. Kom ons gaan. Hulle het na die stad toe gegaan waar die man van God was. 11Terwyl hulle die opdraand na die stad toe opgaan, het hulle meisies teëgekom wat gaan water skep het, en vir hulle gevra: Is die siener hier? 12Hulle het geantwoord: Hy is daar in die stad voor u. Maak gou! Hy het vandag na hierdie stad toe gekom, want die volk bring vandag 'n offer op die hoogte. 13Wanneer julle die stad binnegaan, sal julle hom kry net voor hy na die hoogte toe opgaan om te eet. Die mense eet nie voor hy gekom het nie, want hy moet die offer seën. Daarna eet die genooides. Gaan dadelik, want julle sal hom nou daar kry. 14Hulle is na die stad toe en toe hulle die stad ingaan, kom Samuel juis in hulle rigting om na die hoogte toe op te gaan. 15'n Dag voor die koms van Saul het die Here vertroulik aan Samuel geopenbaar: 16Môre teen hierdie tyd sal Ek 'n man uit die gebied van Benjamin na jou toe stuur. Jy moet hom tot regeerder oor my volk Israel salf. Hy sal my volk red uit die mag van die Filistyne, want Ek het op my volk ag geslaan. Ja, hulle hulpgeroep het My bereik. 17Net toe Samuel vir Saul sien, het die Here vir hom gesê: Dit is die man van wie Ek jou gesê het hy sal oor my volk regeer. [18]Saul het vir Samuel in die poort teëgekom en vir hom gesê: Sê my asseblief waar is die huis van die siener. [19]Samuel sê toe vir Saul: Ek is die siener. Gaan saam met my na die hoogte toe. Julle moet vandag saam met my gaan eet. Môreoggend sal ek jou laat gaan. Oor alles wat jou kwel, sal ek jou inlig. [20]Jou donkies is vandag al drie dae weg. Jy moet jou egter nie oor hulle bekommer nie, want hulle is gekry. Maar aan wie behoort die kosbaarste goed in die hele Israel? Is dit nie aan jou en jou hele familie nie? [21]En Saul antwoord: Ek is maar net 'n Benjaminiet, uit die swakste stam van Israel. Boonop is my familie die kleinste in die stam Benjamin! Waarom praat u so met my? [22]Samuel het Saul en sy slaaf saamgevat en hulle na die eetplek toe gebring. Hy het hulle 'n ereplek onder die genooides gegee. Daar was omtrent dertig man. [23]Samuel het vir die kok gesê: Bring die deel wat ek aan jou gegee het en waarvan ek gesê het: Sit dit eenkant. [24]Die kok het die boud vleis gevat en voor Saul neergesit, en Samuel het vir hom gesê: Dit is wat uitgehou is. Eet wat voor jou neergesit is, want vir hierdie geleentheid is dit vir jou gebêre toe ek die mense genooi het. So het Saul dan daardie dag saam met Samuel geëet. [25]Daarna het hulle van die hoogte af na die stad toe gegaan. En Samuel het met Saul op die huis se dak gepraat. [26]Die volgende môre het hulle vroeg opgestaan. Toe die rooidag uitkom, het Samuel al na Saul op die dak geroep: Staan op! Ek wil 'n ent met jou saam stap. Saul het toe opgestaan, en hy en Samuel het buitetoe gegaan. [27]Hulle het gegaan tot by die stadsgrens en Samuel het vir Saul gesê: Beveel die slaaf om vooruit te loop; maar wag jy eers sodat ek vir jou kan vertel wat God gesê het.

1Samuel 10

Saul Anointed King

1Sa 10:1 Then Samuel took a jar of olive oil and poured it on Saul's head, kissed him, and said, "The LORD anoints you as ruler of his people Israel. You will rule his people and protect them from all their enemies. And this is the proof to you that the LORD has chosen you to be the ruler of his people:

1Sa 10:2 When you leave me today, you will meet two men near Rachel's tomb at Zelzah in the territory of Benjamin. They will tell you that the donkeys you were looking for have been found, so that your father isn't worried any more about them but about you, and he keeps asking, 'What shall I do about my son?'

1Sa 10:3 You will go on from there until you come to the sacred tree at Tabor, where you will meet three men on their way to offer a sacrifice to God at Bethel. One of them will be leading three young goats, another one will be carrying three loaves of bread, and the third one will have a leather bag full of wine.

1Sa 10:4 They will greet you and offer you two of the loaves, which you are to accept.

1Sa 10:5 Then you will go to the Hill of God in Gibeah, where there is a Philistine camp. At the entrance to the town you will meet a group of prophets coming down from the altar on the hill, playing harps, drums, flutes, and lyres. They will be dancing and shouting.

1Sa 10:6 Suddenly the spirit of the LORD will take control of you, and you will join in their religious dancing and shouting and will become a different person.

1Sa 10:7 When these things happen, do whatever God leads you to do.

1Sa 10:8 You will go ahead of me to Gilgal, where I will meet you and offer burnt sacrifices and fellowship sacrifices. Wait there seven days until I come and tell you what to do."

1Sa 10:9 When Saul turned to leave Samuel, God gave Saul a new nature. And everything Samuel had told him happened that day.

1Sa 10:10 When Saul and his servant arrived at Gibeah, a group of prophets met him. Suddenly the spirit of God took control of him, and he joined in their ecstatic dancing and shouting.

1Sa 10:11 People who had known him before saw him doing this and asked one another, "What has happened to the son of Kish? Has Saul become a prophet?"

1Sa 10:12 A man who lived there asked, "How about these other prophets—who do you think their fathers are?" This is how the saying originated, "Has even Saul become a prophet?"

1Sa 10:13 When Saul finished his ecstatic dancing and shouting, he went to the altar on the hill.

1Sa 10:14 Saul's uncle saw him and the servant, and he asked them, "Where have you been?" "Looking for the donkeys," Saul answered. "When we couldn't find them, we went to see Samuel."

1Sa 10:15 "And what did he tell you?" Saul's uncle asked.

1Sa 10:16 "He told us that the animals had been found," Saul answered—but he did not tell his uncle what Samuel had said about his becoming king.

Saul Proclaimed King

1Sa 10:17 Samuel called the people together for a religious gathering at Mizpah

1Sa 10:18 and said to them, "The LORD, the God of Israel, says, 'I brought you out of Egypt and rescued you from the Egyptians and all the other peoples who were oppressing you.

1Sa 10:19 I am your God, the one who rescues you from all your troubles and difficulties, but today you have rejected me and have asked me to give you a king. Very well, then, gather yourselves before the LORD by tribes and by clans.' "

1Sa 10:20 Then Samuel had each tribe come forward, and the LORD picked the tribe of Benjamin.

1Sa 10:21 Then Samuel had the families of the tribe of Benjamin come forward, and the family of Matri was picked out. Then the men of the family of Matri came forward, and Saul son of Kish was picked out. They looked for him, but when they could not find him,

1Sa 10:22 they asked the LORD, "Is there still someone else?" The LORD answered, "Saul is over there, hiding behind the supplies."

1Sa 10:23 So they ran and brought Saul out to the people, and they could see that he was a foot taller than anyone else.

1Sa 10:24 Samuel said to the people, "Here is the man the LORD has chosen! There is no one else among us like him." All the people shouted, "Long live the king!"

1Sa 10:25 Samuel explained to the people the rights and duties of a king, and then wrote them in a book, which he deposited in a holy place. Then he sent everyone home.

1Sa 10:26 Saul also went back home to Gibeah. Some powerful men, whose hearts God had touched, went with him.

1Sa 10:27 But some worthless people said, "How can this fellow do us any good?" They despised Saul and did not bring him any gifts.

I SAMUEL 10

1Nadat die slaaf vooruitgeloop het, het Samuel 'n kruik olie gevat en dit oor Saul se kop uitgegiet, hom gesoen en gesê: Die Here het jou tot regeerder oor sy besitting gesalf. 2Wanneer jy vandag van my af weggaan, sal jy by Selsag, by die graf van Ragel op die grens van Benjamin, twee mans teëkom en hulle sal vir jou sê: Die donkies wat jy gaan soek het, is gekry. Maar kyk, jou pa het die saak van die donkies al laat vaar. Hy is bekommerd oor julle en vra: Wat kan ek omtrent my seun doen?' 3En wanneer jy daarvandaan verder gaan, sal jy by Elon-Tabor kom. Daar sal jy drie mans teëkom wat na God in Bet-El opgaan. Die een sal drie bokkies dra, die ander een drie ringbrode en die derde 'n kruik wyn. 4Hulle sal vra hoe dit met jou gaan. Dan sal hulle jou twee brode gee, en jy moet dit van hulle aanneem. 5Daarna sal jy uitkom by Gibea-van-God waar wagposte van die Filistyne is. Wanneer jy die stad binnekom, sal jy op 'n groep profete afkom. Hulle sal van die hoogte af gaan onder begeleiding van harpe, tamboeryne, fluite en liere, en hulle sal as profete optree. 6Dan sal die Gees van die Here kragtig in jou werk. Jy sal saam met hulle as profeet optree en 'n ander mens word. 7Wanneer hierdie tekens oor jou kom, moet jy doen wat jou hand vind om te doen, want God is by jou. 8Daarna moet jy voor my na Gilgal toe gaan en ek sal later kom om brandoffers te offer en maaltydoffers te bring. Jy moet sewe dae wag tot ek by jou kom. Dan sal ek jou sê wat jy moet doen. 9Net toe hy omdraai om van Samuel af weg te gaan, het God Saul se gesindheid verander. Al hierdie tekens het op dié dag uitgekom. 10Hulle het daar in Gibea gekom, en toe hy weer sien, kom 'n groep profete hom tegemoet. Die Gees van God het kragtig in hom gewerk, en hy het saam met hulle as profeet opgetree. 11Almal wat hom voorheen geken het en nou gesien het hoe hy saam met die profete as profeet optree, het vir mekaar gevra: Wat het met Kis se seun gebeur? Is Saul ook onder die profete? 12En iemand uit die omgewing het bygevoeg: En waarvandaan kom hulle nogal? Daarom het dit 'n spreekwoord geword: Is Saul ook onder die profete? 13Toe hy klaar as profeet opgetree het, het hy na die hoogte toe gegaan. 14Saul se oom het vir hom en sy slaaf gevra: Waarheen was julle? Saul het geantwoord: Ons het die donkies gaan soek, maar ons het niks gesien nie en het toe na Samuel toe gegaan. 15Saul se oom sê toe: Vertel my tog wat Samuel vir julle gesê het. 16Hy het ons verseker dat die donkies gekry is, het Saul vir sy oom gesê. Maar oor die saak van die koningskap wat Samuel genoem het, het Saul niks gesê nie. 17Daarna het Samuel die volk by Mispa na die Here toe geroep. 18Hy het vir die Israeliete gesê: So het die Here die God van Israel gesê: Ek het Israel uit Egipte laat optrek en julle gered uit die mag van Egipte en al die koninkryke wat vir julle verdruk het. [19]Maar deurdat julle sê: Nee, U móét 'n koning oor ons aanstel,' verwerp julle vandag julle God wat vir julle uit alle gevare en verdrukking verlos het. Kom staan dan nou voor die Here volgens julle stamme en julle onderafdelings. [20]Samuel het al die stamme van Israel laat nader kom, en die stam Benjamin is aangewys. [21]Samuel het die stam Benjamin volgens sy families laat nader kom, en die familie van Matar is aangewys. Vervolgens is Saul seun van Kis aangewys, maar toe hulle hom soek, was hy weg. [22]Hulle het die Here gevra: Moet hy nog kom? Die Here het geantwoord: Nee, hy is al hier. Hy kruip weg tussen die bondels goed. [23]Hulle het gehardloop en hom daarvandaan gebring en hom tussen die volk laat staan. Hy was 'n kop langer as enige van sy volksgenote. [24]Samuel sê toe vir die hele volk: Sien julle die een vir wie die Here uitgekies het? Daar is niemand soos hy onder die hele volk nie! Toe juig almal en sê: Lank lewe die koning! [25]Samuel het hierna die reg van die koning aan die volk bekend gemaak, dit in 'n boek opgeteken en voor die Here neergesit. Daarna het Samuel die hele volk weggestuur, elkeen na sy woonplek toe. [26]Ook Saul het na sy huis toe gegaan in Gibea. Die dapperes wie se hart deur God geroer is, het saam met hom gegaan. [27]Maar die kwaadwilliges het gevra: Hoe sal hý ons red? Hulle het hom met minagting behandel en geen geskenk vir hom gebring nie, maar daaraan het Saul hom nie gesteur nie.

1Samuel 11

Saul Defeats the Ammonites

1Sa 11:1 About a month later King Nahash of Ammon led his army against the town of Jabesh in the territory of Gilead and besieged it. The men of Jabesh said to Nahash, "Make a treaty with us, and we will accept you as our ruler."

1Sa 11:2 Nahash answered, "I will make a treaty with you on one condition: I will put out everyone's right eye and so bring disgrace on all Israel."

1Sa 11:3 The leaders of Jabesh said, "Give us seven days to send messengers throughout the land of Israel. If no one will help us, then we will surrender to you."

1Sa 11:4 The messengers arrived at Gibeah, where Saul lived, and when they told the news, the people started crying in despair.

1Sa 11:5 Saul was just then coming in from the field with his oxen, and he asked, "What's wrong? Why is everyone crying?" They told him what the messengers from Jabesh had reported.

1Sa 11:6 When Saul heard this, the spirit of God took control of him, and he became furious.

1Sa 11:7 He took two oxen, cut them in pieces, and had messengers carry the pieces throughout the land of Israel with this warning: "Whoever does not follow Saul and Samuel into battle will have this done to his oxen!" The people of Israel were afraid of what the LORD might do, and all of them, without exception, came out together.

1Sa 11:8 Saul gathered them at Bezek: there were 300,000 from Israel and 30,000 from Judah.

1Sa 11:9 They said to the messengers from Jabesh, "Tell your people that before noon tomorrow they will be rescued." When the people of Jabesh received the message, they were overjoyed

1Sa 11:10 and said to Nahash, "Tomorrow we will surrender to you, and you can do with us whatever you wish."

1Sa 11:11 That night Saul divided his men into three groups, and at dawn the next day they rushed into the enemy camp and attacked the Ammonites. By noon they had slaughtered them. The survivors scattered, each man running off by himself.

The Kingdom Is Renewed

1Sa 11:12 Then the people of Israel said to Samuel, "Where are the people who said that Saul should not be our king? Hand them over to us, and we will kill them!"

1Sa 11:13 But Saul said, "No one will be put to death today, for this is the day the LORD rescued Israel."

1Sa 11:14 And Samuel said to them, "Let us all go to Gilgal and once more proclaim Saul as our king."

1Sa 11:15 So they all went to Gilgal, and there at the holy place they proclaimed Saul king. They offered fellowship sacrifices, and Saul and all the people of Israel celebrated the event.

I SAMUEL 11

1Nagas die Ammoniet het opgetrek en Jabes in Gilead beleër. Al die inwoners van Jabes het vir Nagas gesê: Sluit 'n verdrag met ons, dan sal ons u onderdane wees. 2En Nagas die Ammoniet het vir hulle gesê: Op hierdie voorwaarde sal ek dit doen: ek steek elkeen van julle se regteroog uit tot skande van die hele Israel. 3Toe sê die leiers van Jabes vir hom: Gee ons sewe dae kans sodat ons boodskappers deur die hele gebied van Israel kan stuur. Indien niemand tot ons redding kom nie, sal ons ons aan u oorgee. 4Die boodskappers het by Saul se stad Gibea gekom en ten aanhore van die volk die hele saak uiteengesit. En die hele volk het hard gehuil. 5Toe kom Saul net agter die osse van die land af en hy vra: Wat makeer die volk dat hulle so huil? Hulle het hom vertel wat die manne van Jabes gesê het. 6Die Gees van God het kragtig in Saul gewerk toe hy dit hoor, en hy het woedend geword. 7Toe vat hy twee osse en kap hulle in stukke en stuur dit deur die hele gebied van Israel met boodskappers wat sê: Hy wat nie agter Saul en Samuel optrek nie so sal met sy beeste gemaak word. 'n Geweldige skrik het die volk oorval en hulle het soos een man opgetrek. 8Saul het hulle in Besek getel. Daar was drie honderd afdelings Israeliete, en die manne van Juda was dertig afdelings. 9Hulle het toe vir die boodskappers wat gekom het, gesê: So moet julle vir die manne van Jabes in Gilead sê: Môre as die son warm word, sal daar vir julle uitkoms wees. Die boodskappers het gegaan en dit aan die manne van Jabes vertel, en hulle was bly. 10Die manne van Jabes het egter vir Nagas gesê: Môreoggend gee ons ons aan julle oor. Dan kan julle met ons maak net wat julle wil. 11Na sononder het Saul die manskappe in drie afdelings opgestel. Lank voor dagbreek het hulle die kamp van die Ammoniete binnegeval en tot op die warmte van die dag het hulle die Ammoniete om die lewe gebring. Dié wat oorgebly het, is so uitmekaargejaag dat daar nie twee van hulle bymekaar gebly het nie. 12Die manskappe het toe vir Samuel gevra: Wie het gesê: Moet Saul dan oor ons koning wees?' Lewer daardie mense uit en ons sal hulle doodmaak! 13Maar Saul het gesê: Op 'n dag soos dié mag niemand doodgemaak word nie, want vandag het die Here uitkoms gegee in Israel. 14Toe sê Samuel vir die manskappe: Kom ons gaan na Gilgal toe en bevestig daar opnuut die koningskap. 15Al die manskappe is toe na Gilgal toe, en daar in Gilgal het hulle voor die Here aangekondig dat Saul koning is. Hulle het daar maaltydoffers voor die Here gebring, en Saul en al die manskappe van Israel was baie bly.

1Samuel 12

Samuel's Farewell Address

1Sa 12:1 Then Samuel said to the people of Israel, "I have done what you asked me to do. I have given you a king to rule you, 1Sa 12:2 and now you have him to lead you. As for me, I am old and gray, and my sons are with you. I have been your leader from my youth until now.

1Sa 12:3 Here I am. If I have done anything wrong, accuse me now in the presence of the LORD and the king he has chosen. Have I taken anybody's cow or anybody's donkey? Have I cheated or oppressed anyone? Have I accepted a bribe from anyone? If I have done any of these things, I will pay back what I have taken."

1Sa 12:4 The people answered, "No, you have not cheated us or oppressed us; you have not taken anything from anyone."

1Sa 12:5 Samuel replied, "The LORD and the king he has chosen are witnesses today that you have found me to be completely innocent." "Yes, the LORD is our witness," they answered.

1Sa 12:6 Samuel continued, "The LORD is the one who chose Moses and Aaron and who brought your ancestors out of Egypt.

1Sa 12:7 Now stand where you are, and I will accuse you before the LORD by reminding you of all the mighty actions the LORD did to save you and your ancestors.

1Sa 12:8 When Jacob and his family went to Egypt and the Egyptians oppressed them, your ancestors cried to the LORD for help, and he sent Moses and Aaron, who brought them out of Egypt and settled them in this land.

1Sa 12:9 But the people forgot the LORD their God, and so he let the Philistines and the king of Moab and Sisera, commander of the army of the city of Hazor, fight against your ancestors and conquer them.

1Sa 12:10 Then they cried to the LORD for help and said, 'We have sinned, because we turned away from you, LORD, and worshiped the idols of Baal and Astarte. Rescue us from our enemies, and we will worship you!'

1Sa 12:11 And the LORD sent Gideon, Barak, Jephthah, and finally me. Each of us rescued you from your enemies, and you lived in safety.

1Sa 12:12 But when you saw that King Nahash of Ammon was about to attack you, you rejected the LORD as your king and said to me, 'We want a king to rule us.'

1Sa 12:13 "Now here is the king you chose; you asked for him, and now the LORD has given him to you.

1Sa 12:14 All will go well with you if you honor the LORD your God, serve him, listen to him, and obey his commands, and if you and your king follow him.

1Sa 12:15 But if you do not listen to the LORD but disobey his commands, he will be against you and your king.

1Sa 12:16 So then, stand where you are, and you will see the great thing which the LORD is going to do.

1Sa 12:17 It's the dry season, isn't it? But I will pray, and the LORD will send thunder and rain. When this happens, you will realize that you committed a great sin against the LORD when you asked him for a king."

1Sa 12:18 So Samuel prayed, and on that same day the LORD sent thunder and rain. Then all the people became afraid of the LORD and of Samuel,

1Sa 12:19 and they said to Samuel, "Please, sir, pray to the LORD your God for us, so that we won't die. We now realize that, besides all our other sins, we have sinned by asking for a king."

1Sa 12:20 "Don't be afraid," Samuel answered. "Even though you have done such an evil thing, do not turn away from the LORD, but serve him with all your heart.

1Sa 12:21 Don't go after false gods; they cannot help you or save you, for they are not real.

1Sa 12:22 The LORD has made a solemn promise, and he will not abandon you, for he has decided to make you his own people.

1Sa 12:23 As for me, the LORD forbid that I should sin against him by no longer praying for you. Instead, I will teach you what is good and right for you to do.

1Sa 12:24 Obey the LORD and serve him faithfully with all your heart. Remember the great things he has done for you.

1Sa 12:25 But if you continue to sin, you and your king will be destroyed."
